

Garrett Charges Misuse of Surplus Food Program

CLYDE GARRETT
... goes before commission

The Eastland County Commissioners Court Monday refused a request by Clyde Garrett to go on record as opposing alleged political misuse of the County's surplus food program by supporters of County Judge John Hart.

Garrett, seeking the post now held by Judge Hart, charged Hart with making a "political football" out of the surplus food program.

"Your Honor's secretary has been phoning from her office saying the surplus food program is likely to be discontinued if the present judge is not re-elected," Garrett declared.

He also charged that employees handling the surplus food program have been handing out cards urging Hart's re-election while they were distributing the food.

Judge Hart denied both charges. He called in his secretary, Mrs.

Leon Bourland, to answer the first charge. Mrs. Bourland, her eyes glued on Garrett, said, "It is quite untrue." She said she had not made a single phone call asking Hart's re-election.

Pointing out that she knew that it was against Federal regulations to use the surplus food program as a political talking point, she said she would certainly like to know if anyone has used her name.

Garrett, who formerly served as county judge, replied that "satisfies me as far as you are concerned," but added, "Someone could have used your name."

Judge Hart said that employees handling the surplus food program had been warned not to politic while working. He added, however, that he or the Commissioner's Court didn't have the right to tell them what to do when they were not on the county's payroll.

Commissioner J. B. (Tip) Arther of Eastland made a motion that the Court go on record as being opposed to any use of the program in a political manner. His motion died for want of a second, however.

Commissioner E. M. Bennett of Gorman said, "I ask this Court not to go on record on this thing because I think it is politically bound." And Commissioner R. L. (Bob) Carter added, "It's just all politics to me."

Commissioner Arther said, "I think it's a little more than politics."

Then Garrett asked, "If this is politics, where is it?" His reply came from Carter, who said, "If it's not politics what is it? If you all weren't in the race it never would have been brought up."

Sheriff J. B. Williams, who was seated in the courtroom, entered into the heated discussion when he told Judge Hart, "A man made a complaint to me that if he didn't support you he would be cut off (from the food program)." Sheriff Williams added that it was his third complaint.

Garrett pointed out to the Court that actually he has come out openly and said he favored the continuation of surplus food program.

Hart then said that he hadn't even listed the program in his platform because he knew it should be kept out of politics.

Garrett replied, "No, you didn't need to. You have plenty of other people telling them." Hart, addressing the Court said,

"I hope you will not pay any attention to all of these rumors."

Garrett snapped, "It is not rumors."

The two opponents in the county judge's race then debated an issue. Judge Hart asked if he was correct in his understanding that Garrett said employees handling the surplus food program had been making calls in his (Hart's) behalf from the Masonic Building, where the food is distributed.

Garrett said that was true.

"There is not even a phone in that office," Hart pointed out to him.

"I mean the people from that office are calling," Garrett answered. Garrett then said Hart was at the building the last time surplus food was distributed. Hart replied he was there alright.

He said, "A poor woman from Pioneroo who was starving to death was with me. I was trying to get her on the list."

Commissioner Arther, after the Court refused to second his motion, said, "I think the Court, sitting here not doing anything, is more or less voting to condone such tactics."

At one point in the debate Mrs. Hattie Baker, who had come before the Court on another issue, took the spotlight.

Mrs. Baker, who said she was 73, stood up and told commissioners that old Highway 80 is a "shame and a disgrace to the county."

Then she said, "I want it cleaned up." And concluded her speech by saying "Who ever is in favor of cleaning that up is going to get my vote for county judge."

Two Hired By Lakeside CC Here

A new clubhouse manager and a new greenskeeper have been employed by the Lakeside Country Club, Aubrey Kincaid, president, announced today.

Kincaid said the board of directors have named L. M. Elliott as manager of the clubhouse and Z. W. Cook as grounds keeper.

Hab Simmons, who has served as club manager for the past few months, has resigned.

Kincaid said, "We feel that with two men we can operate much more efficiently. The clubhouse will now be open from noon until sundown during the weekdays, and from 9:30 a.m. until sundown on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays."

The club recently purchased a new fairways mower and a new greens mower. Greens were seeded earlier this year.

Continued Work For Economy Is Brashear Pledge

State Representative Paul Brashear promised to continue his efforts to obtain for the 76th Legislative District and the State of Texas the maximum in good government for a minimum outlay of tax dollars in a formal statement this week in connection with his bid for re-election.

Brashear announced last January that he would run again, promising to issue a formal statement later. He is now completing his second term as a member of the Legislature.

During the 54th Legislature, his first term, Brashear served on a number of important committees, including the Military and Veterans Affairs, Agriculture, and Penitentiaries committees. In the 55th Legislature, Brashear served as chairman of the Military and Veterans Affairs committee. He was also a member of the State Hospitals and Special Schools, Liquor Regulations, Oil, Gas and Mining committees.

Brashear is a native of the 76th District, having been born at Atwell in Callahan County in 1917. He is married to the former Helen Ray of the Scranton community. They have two daughters—Ann Etta, who is married and lives in Abilene, and Sarah, who attends the Cisco schools. They have one grand daughter.

A veteran of U. S. Army duty in World War II, Brashear is an active member of the American Legion. He was recently appointed Kincaid said that Cook would spend all of his time keeping up the course and would not have to be concerned with running the clubhouse.

"That, we feel, will give him a better opportunity to keep the course in tip-top shape," Kincaid added.

Eastland Named Headquarters for Scout District

By JAMES REID

Member UF Publicity Committee Eastland is fortunate to have again been chosen headquarters for the North district of the Comanche Trail Council of the Boy Scouts of America, one of your United Fund Organizations. The Comanche Trail consists of eight counties, Eastland, Stephens, Erath, Comanche, Brown, Mills, San Saba, and Lampasas and the southern parts of two others, Throckmorton and Young.

The Scouts have only three paid professional scouters serving this whole area and one of these, Mr. Robert Slaughter, is a new Eastland citizen. We'll wish him well in his work with the North end of the Comanche Trail.

The Boy Scouts have undoubtedly done more to prevent juvenile delinquency in our town, state and nation than any other organization. They deserve your respect and your support this fall when your United Fund starts its drive. Remember that your money is doing its maximum when it is given the United Fund way.

Two Eastland Lawyers Named To Key Posts

Appointment of two Eastland members of the Texas State Bar to key committees for the 1958-59 year was announced Monday by President Leo Brewster of Fort Worth.

Chief Justice Clyde Grissom of the 11th Court of Civil Appeals was named to the State Bar Committee on Water Rights, and Virgil T. Seabury Jr., was appointed to two state level committees. These are Unauthorized Practice of Law and the Conference Committee with Accountants.

Virgil T. Seabury Sr., immediate past president of the state legal organization was elected president of the newly-established Texas Bar Foundation. One of the objectives of the non-profit charitable corporation, with headquarters in Austin, is to raise funds for expansion of the Bar's legal aid program for persons unable to pay for legal counsel.

County Purchases Mainframe For Precinct No. 1

Eastland County commissioners Monday authorized the purchase of a $19,000 Caterpillar mainframe for Precinct No. 1.

The machine will be purchased for $13,000 plus trade-in of an old machine. Six bids were entered. Successful bidder was Treanor Equipment Co. of Abilene. The bid was not low, but Commissioner J. B. (Tip) Arther said he preferred the Caterpillar for the "small difference."

MYSTERY FARM—Mystery farm number 12 should be a fairly easy one for Eastland County citizens to identify. The names of all persons correctly identifying the farm will be placed in a hat and one name will be drawn out. That person will receive two free tickets to the Majestic Theatre. The owner of the farm will receive a free enlargement of the aerial photo if he will call at the newspaper office.

Eastland Little Leaguers Play Cisco Tonight After 3-4 Win

Eastland's Little League All-Stars played outstanding defensive ball in the final inning last night to take a thrilling, 4-3 victory over the Clyde All-Stars in first round play of the Area Little League tournament.

The locals went into the final frame with a 4-2 edge over Clyde, but their lead was trimmed to 4-3 with one away. Then Clyde loaded the bases to put the pressure on.

Gray Matter

By JOE GRAY

Here it is well over a week past Fourth of July and as well as I can remember, we haven't had a 100-degree day yet this summer. This must mean that the weather is getting cooler. It's getting wetter, as we all know who took the trouble to go to church Sunday before last. That was a day that it rained and rained.

However it's doubtful that the fairly cool days of less than 100 will last much longer. Always has time if you get some days so scorching hot the temperature in the old thermometer rises faster than the price of orange juice on a cold day after a frost in either California or Florida.

Part of the traditional American scene in the summer time is hot weather, barefoot boys with "shine poles" over their shoulders, holding for the nearest fishing stream, small dogs following them, and melons and ice tea.

Some people seem to think the good old summertime was a better time when we didn't have so much conditioning and mechanical aids to comfort.

People were much friendlier and seemed to enjoy life more in the days when they had all of their doors and windows open to let in the cool air than when they keep them all closed against the hot blasts of the summer's heat.

Hardin-Simmons Financial Drive Planned In Eastland Meeting Friday

ABILENE — The Hardin-Simmons University financial campaign is now in full swing throughout this West Texas area.

Fund drives among ex-students and friends of the university are currently underway in Abilene, Fort Worth, Wichita Falls, San Angelo, Sweetwater, Hamlin and Eastland. Campaigns will open next week in Knox City and Balingier.

Kickoff dinners are planned Monday night at Knox City and Friday night at Balingier.

Campaign workers in a four county area were named Friday night at a dinner held in Eastland. Chairmen include Harvey Kimbler, Eastland, general chairman; Charles Layton, Eastland; Harold Barrett, Ranger; H. N. McBeath, Breckenridge; Ed Crow, Cisco; Joe Pat McHaney, Baird; and Gene Frazier, Albany and Moran.

H-SU is conducting a campaign for $1.5 million for the erection of a new $500,000 chapel auditorium and a $1 million student center. The university does not now have a chapel. Behrens Chapel was destroyed by fire last November. All student assemblies and worship services now must be held in Rose Field House where students sit on bleachers.

Dr. Evan Allard Reiff, president, said at one campaign meeting this summer that "a Baptist university just cannot get along without a chapel." He also emphasized the pressing need for a "living room" of the campus.

Baptists, he said, often tell young people what they cannot do, but we need to provide something they can do.

Three major gifts have substantially aided the campaign. The Baptist General Convention of Texas contributed $100,000, William Fleming, Fort Worth rancher and oilman, gave $50,000, and George S. Anderson of Abilene, H-SU trustee and benefactor, gave three downtown Abilene buildings to the university endowment fund.

EASTLAND
by Virgil E. Moore

Shorty Harper asked us to pass along some good advice to members of the American Legion Post. Says he: "Be at Thursday night's meeting or get elected to office."

After what the Quarterbackers did to us we would recommend that attention be paid to this announcement.

Landon Jordan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Jordan, 1306 South Bassett, underwent surgery at Veterans Hospital in Big Spring, we understand. Landon was seriously injured in an auto crash near Gorman May 1.

Understand that a good following of Eastland fans was on hand last night for the Little League tournament in Cisco.

The wife just phoned to read us a ditty out of the new Readers Digest. She thought it was funny, but it didn't appeal to us.

Best we remember it went something like this: A small town is a place where everyone knows all the news before the newspaper gets out.

We were lucky enough to get an invitation to attend the Dublin rodeo press barbecue last night. Those Dublin people certainly are out.

front porch in the cool of the evening or the heat of the day.

Novadays everyone is in the house with all doors closed and the air-conditioner running like a steam engine in a blast furnace, and all the family gathering around the television set looking at an old movie that came out just after talking pictures came in.

It's good, I think, for all of us to study history, but watching history only a generation and a half old on a television set is about the poorest way to study history I can think of.

Boys always do the things that impress them as being smart or funny when they don't have anything important to do in the summertime. I noticed the other day in a column in The Dallas Morning News about some boys putting a bobcat in a suitcase and placing the suitcase on the side of the highway to see what would happen.

Soon a carload of people ground to a quick halt, one of the riders got out of the car after a furtive look up and down the highway to see that no one was looking, grabbing the suitcase, back to the car and away into the horizon. Shortly though, all of the occupant of the car came tumbling out, people running age way and the car going the back of one of them and screeching like a stuck hog every step of the way.

That's a good story. But I read of the same yarn two or three months ago in one of the Fort Worth papers. Only instead of happening in Dallas, or near Dallas, the Fort Worth paper had the event happening in Azle.

Boyd Tanner and my brother Rex used to pull about the same thing out in front of our house. You see Boyd and Rex didn't have much to do in the summertime but sit around on our front porch or play tennis out in the tennis court back of our house. They would get tired of tennis after a bit and would retire to our front porch. Actually, I'm inclined to believe that the real reason they pulled so much on our front porch, so much was that they were trying to get the eye of Jane Ferguson, who lived right across the street.

Several times, though, time drug on their hands. The boys had to do something to kill the monotony. Boyd and Rex almost lost every brick we had on the place. To stir up a little excitement they would take an ordinary brick and wrap it up in pretty wrappings until it looked like a fine gift package ready for the Christmas tree or the birthday dinner party. Then they would take the gaily wrapped package out to the middle of Seaman Street return to the porch and await results.

I'm here to tell you that if you have a traffic problem of speeding drivers in front of your house, all you've got to do to remedy it is to do what Boyd and Rex used to do.

Political Announcements

The Eastland Telegram has been authorized to announce candidates for public office in the Democratic First Primary election in July as follows:

Associate Justice Supreme Court, Place 4
JOE GREENHILL

PAUL BRASHFAR
OMAR BURKETT

MRS. ELLEN JUSTICE

County School Superintendent
H. R. (Pop) GARRETT (Re-Election)

District Clerk
ROY L. LANE (Re-Election)
RICHARD COX

It's amazing how fast some of the speeders come to a sliding halt, back up, look up and down the street with a guilty look on their faces, grab the packaged brick, and speed away like California goldrusher of the '49 days rushing to the land office to file his claim.

Boyd and Rex would sit and laugh and laugh when these fellows sped way.

There's one thing about this type of entertainment, though. You have to have a little imagination to enjoy it. The culprit is gone and the prankster never gets to see his face. But you can always imagine what that fellow's face looked like when he wrapped an ordinary brick.

Who says boys didn't have fun then?

credit for seven assists. It was a double by Jimmy Moylan in the fifth inning that gave Eastland their victory, however. Gary Graham had singled home one run in front of Moylan, then two more scored on his fine two bagger to left field.

Cliff Thomas and Jody Cooper got the only two other hits off Clyde.

Tonight Eastland will play Cisco for the Zone championship. Cisco downed Ranger, 9-4, to earn the second round berth. The playoff series is being played in Cisco. Clyde meets Ranger at 6 p.m. and the Eastland - Cisco game comes off at 8 p.m.

Cisco got just two hits in winning last night while Ranger got six. But walks and loose play beat Ranger.

ed to serve a six year term of the American Legion's Legislative Committee, a statewide body. He is currently chairman of this committee.

Brashear's education includes graduation from high school at Cross Plains, Cisco Junior College and a business college in Austin.

In private life, Brashear is an insurance man and a farmer. He began farming as a boy and has owned and operated farms in Eastland and Callahan counties all his life. He currently owns a farm in Callahan county. His extensive knowledge of farm and soil conservation resulted from several years as an employee of the U. S. Department of Agriculture soil conservation service units in Eastland and adjoining counties.

Prior to his election as a state representative, Brashear served as secretary in the House of Representatives and as assistant sergeant-at-arms of the Texas Senate, gaining valuable experience in Legislative procedure. He spent three years as manager of the Chamber of Commerce in Cisco, a post he resigned in order to devote more time to his legislative duties and to enter the insurance business.

"During my two terms of office, I have been able to learn the things necessary for a Representative to do the best job in serving his District," Brashear said. "I have endeavored at all times to work for an honest, efficient state government. It has been my purpose to support legislation in the best interest of our district first and the state of Texas as a whole.

"Each of my votes were cast after due consideration of good business principles. I have supported measures for better state employee salaries, decent benefits for the aged, improved water programs, along with legislation for better education and teacher pay and equitable treatment for veterans and farm groups.

"I propose to do everything possible to assure our state's continued progress and prosperity without additional tax burdens. You can be sure that I will continue devoting as much time as necessary to the duties of my office.

"I have done the best I could like I said I would. Any mistakes that I have made have been in the mind rather than in the heart. My record of service is recorded in the journals of the Legislature. Any constituent has a most cordial invitation to discuss any part of my Legislative record with me at any time. I will be very grateful to each of you for your consideration in the July 26 election, and I sincerely appreciate the confidence placed in me by your votes in the past two elections."

A DITCH YOU CAN CARRY!

How many farmers have watched their crops die under a blazing sun and wished they could produce rain by waving a magic wand? Nobody has invented a "rain wand," of course, but scientists have produced the next best thing—a moveable irrigation "ditch." Produced from Enjay Butyl rubber, irrigation tubing is manufactured in 50 and 100 foot lengths and 8 or 10 inch diameters. A 50-foot length weighs about a pound a foot. That's less than a bushel of corn! Easy to assemble, butyl irrigation tubing delivers as much as 3,500 gallons of clear water per minute exactly where a farmer wants it—and when he wants it. No magic wand will ever do that.

The receipts of cotton since 1st of September as far as ascertained in all United States ports, up to the end of last week, exceed the amount of the corresponding period of last year to the extent of ninety thousand bales. Of this increase two thirds, or sixty thousand bales, are from Texas.

Anecdote of Henry Clay—The great statesman and orator was

Mr. Clay, I believe sir? said he, traveling somewhere "out West," and put up for the night at a country tavern. Mine host in looking over the register discovered the name of Henry Clay. There was but one Clay. Could it be possible that he had this distinguished man under his roof? He was astounded, delighted, and the admirable Boniface bustled forward, and made his rude bow.

That is my name, said the gentleman in his affable tone.

Mr. Clay the Congressman? Yes, sir.

Hotels—We call attention to the card of the Kirkwood House, Washington City. This is the house where a large number of the Texas traveling community stop, where our Congressional delegation board, and where the best of fare and Texas Newspapers can be found. We speak from experience when we commend the Kirkwood House to our readers.

Taking a bird's eye view of the crops in most of the Southern States, we are now prepared to say that in no state are there so promising crops as in Texas. We have never seen anything to surpass the crops upon the lower Brazos and Colorado, and we understand that that these rich harvests are little more than an average in the whole State.

A "Bride's Breakfast" honoring five of Eastlands' young brides and brides-to-be was a courtesy extended them on Saturday the 12 at 9 a. m. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Art Johnson, Sunset Terrace, Hillcrest.

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Since recorded history, riots have occurred among people all over the world. In many countries today it is a national expression. Particular in countries where people are of high emotional nature, it is an expression of political discontent. Especially is this true of student groups.

It is difficult for us to understand the influence of university students in this respect in Latin America. Student riots many times become the forerunner of revolution in one form or another.

Riots which have occurred in this country have been of a different nature. Largely, and almost without exception, they have been riots spontaneously erupting.

However, we now see what is called political demonstrations, which could easily develop into political riots. In fact, a large group of Hungarian refugees demonstrating in front of the Soviet Embassy in New York, in an attempt to destroy or damage the Embassy property, resulted in the injury of a number of policemen.

In the past few years it has not been uncommon to see marchers parading up and down the streets outside the White House grounds. One look at the usual demonstrators immediately identifies the individuals as not being the usual American type, but rather some imported type. They are the ones who would injure American peace officers and destroy American property or that for which the United States is responsible.

It makes no difference as to who they are or for what purpose they are demonstrating, it is not the American way of doing things and would not occur, were we not opening the doors to a lot of people who should not be permitted in this Country.

BABY BALLERINAS—Starting a course of rigorous training which may make some of them ballet stars in the future, these youngsters put plenty of energy into the job of acting out a nursery rhyme at a dancing school in London, England. Children of 10 to 14 years are trained at the school.

Certainly, citizens have the right to protest their government's action in any way they see fit, but not by force and violence. The American remedy against what they believe to be wrongful actions on the part of government officials or government police is by voice and pen; by public or private conversation, and by petition.

Mob action and the spirit of force and violence resulting in riot, is about as un-American as can be. It violates the total concept of our system of government and gives reason for false propaganda to our enemies.

A Senate Committee is now investigating the Mafia, an Italian criminal society originating on the Island of Sicily. The inquiry particularly is directed as to this criminal organizing is infiltration of respectable organizations in the United States. By reports, it seems some Senators are astounded that these alien gangsters have not been deported. As mentioned in this column some weeks ago, it is seemingly impossible to deport an alien as long as he has money enough to stay in the courts. Furthermore, it seems he can get political help to remain here and engage in crime, which is costing the American taxpayer almost $12 billion annually.

At the same time, there are those who continue to promote government programs to admit people we call "refugees" and "escapees" who congregate in ghettos in the great cities to contribute to this unhealthy condition which is manifesting itself more and more.

Vets Should Contact VA When Selling Home

A veteran selling his home and GI mortgage should first contact the Veterans Administration if he wishes to be released from the liability to the Government on his GI loan.

Such a release protect the veteran in the event the new purchaser defaults in payments, Edward P. Onstot, manager of the VA regional office in Dallas said today.

Onstot explained that a 1956 law allows veterans to be released from liability to the Government provided the new purchaser meets credit requirements and assumes the veteran's obligations to the Government on the GI loan.

The new purchaser need not be a veteran, Onstot pointed out, and the Government's guaranty of the loan is not affected by releasing the veteran from his liability.

In most states the only cost of obtaining the release is a small fee, usually not more than $5.00 for a credit report on the proposed buyer, he said.

Release of the veteran from liability to the Government does not automatically release him from liability to the lender. However, Onstot emphasized, VA will furnish the prospective buyer's credit report to the lender, and otherwise assist any veteran who wishes to seek his lender's release.

VA makes no charge for this service, Onstot said, although the lender may require the payment of a nominal fee for the processing of his release.

Spot Treat Johnson Grass

COLLEGE STATION — The newest, easiest cheapest and most effective way to control Johnson grass in row crops is to spot treat with oils or dalapon, according to Fred Elliott, extension cotton work specialist.

Many naphtha oils and oil mixtures are satisfactory for the crown treatment of established Johnson grass, while dalapon may be applied to the foliage and terminal swirl, says Elliott. Naphtha may be used for cool weather treatment but a 50-50 mixture of naphtha with kerosene or diesel is recommended in hot weather.

Oil-soluble dinitro and other proven fortifiers can be added to diesel fuel oil or kerosene according to the manufacturers' directions to increase the effectiveness of these oils. Diesel, fuel oil or kerosene fortified with one percent pentachlorophenol by volume is usually as effective in killing Johnson grass as the naphtha-type oils used alone.

Several kinds of sprayers may be used to apply these oils, points out Elliott. The Texas gravity sprayer is best suited for crown-treatment of six-inch Johnson grass sprouts in crops when a free flowing oil is used. The Texas slidegun is for coarse work such as the non-selective spraying of thick stands of Johnsongrass in spots sparse enough for the crop in the spot to be sacrificed.

The Texas jetgun permits efficient, economical and selective treatment of sprouts in row crops with either oil or water sprays. It is a squirt gun and works like a water pistol. It can be used to hit a target varying in size from a dime to a dinner plate.

County agents have full information on spot oiling Johnson grass, the materials and equipment to use and where they can be obtained.

UNSOLVED PROBLEMS
For centuries men wanted perfect laws. For them, change was sacrilege.

For example, the Romans enjoyed the fiction that their law merely interpreted their first, changeless, Ten Tables.

Today we know that no lawgivers can foresee how their laws may fail, and so we provide for basic changes in our Constitution, and by two methods:

1. By a two-thirds vote of each House, Congress may send a proposed amendment to the state legislature for ratification.

2. As yet unused, the second method would allow Congress "on the application of the legislatures of two-thirds of the several states" to call a convention for proposing amendments.

Trying to follow the second method, the lawmakers of 32 states—or two-thirds of them—have approved resolutions for a constitutional amendment to limit income taxes. You might think that Congress would have to call the convention to amend the Constitution.

But meantime, eleven states have turned around and rescinded their approval; and governors of two other states have vetoed the legislative acts.

Query: Have two-thirds of the legislatures applied to "all a convention? Are all the state resolutions now in force? And if so, how does one make Congress call the convention? No Founding Father, it seems, had foreseen such a problem.

Even the U. S. Supreme Court in 1939 found such questions "political" and not "subject to judicial guidance."

Maybe each age should have such problems to think through. They might teach that even our best laws can stand study and improvement.

(This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

...to help you get the most efficient cooling from your REFRIGERATED ROOM AIR CONDITIONER

- Cool only an area within the size your unit is designed to cool. When cooling a larger area, the unit is overworked and its efficiency is lowered.
- Keep air filters clean. Clogged filters lower efficiency of the unit and cause it to use more electricity.
- Insulate ceiling area above room being cooled. Insulation keeps hot air out, cool air in.
- Locate unit in shade if possible. The north side of house is best, followed by east, south and west. Proper shading of unit increases its efficiency.
- Properly regulate intake of outside air. This is important to operating efficiency of - your unit. Follow manufacturer's instructions carefully.

- Keep out direct sun rays. They bring in heat which your unit must work extra-hard to remove. Awnings over your windows will help.
- An automatic thermostat is recommended to hold room temperature to 78 to 80 degree level recommended for comfort. Each degree below 78 degrees increases power consumption unnecessarily.
- Remember, too, that operating cost is governed by hours of use. Turn off your unit when you expect to be away for several hours. You can quickly lower the temperature when you return.

An Electric Refrigerated Room Air Conditioner is a wonderful comfort during hot summer weather. Follow Reddy's tips and make the most efficient use of your unit. It will help you LIVE BETTER ELECTRICALLY!
