

Winners Are Hart, Lane, J. Smith, Brashear, Yarborough and Daniel

Yarborough and Daniel Carry County and State

Eastland County voters apparently stuck to the incumbents in Saturday's Democratic primary election, unofficial and almost complete results show.

County Judge John Hart won re-election in a close race with Clyde Garrett, District Clerk Roy L. Lane defeated Richard C. Cox by a big majority, and County Clerk Johnson Smith swamped his opponent, Arlton E. Smith.

The county also picked the winners in the state-wide election. Carrying the county were Gov. Price Daniel, Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey and Senator Ralph Yarborough.

In the county judge's race, which drew the most attention, Judge Hart won by a margin of 2767 votes to 2522 for Garrett. That includes all but one complete precinct, Eastland Court-house, and includes 561 of the 657 votes cast in that precinct.

Lane polled 3737 votes to 1483 for Cox in the district clerk's contest to win easily, and Johnson Smith got 3651 votes to 1573 for Arlton E. Smith.

In the governor's race, Daniel got 2691 votes in Eastland County and at midnight Saturday he had 461,815 votes statewide. The votes apparently cinched him a second term. W. Lee O'Daniel ran second in the county with 1621 votes and also placed in that position in the state with 142,970 votes. Henry Gonzalez had 308 votes in the county and 124,543 statewide. Joe A. Irwin got 120 votes in Eastland County and ran a poor fourth in the state race.

Yarborough was an easy winner in both the county and the state. He polled 2701 votes to 2014 for William A. Blakley in the county and had 421,149 votes to 309,137 statewide, when Blakley conceded at 11:30 p.m.

Ben Ramsey got 3273 votes in the county in the lieutenant governor's contest to 1392 for Nokes. Statewide Ramsey was far ahead at midnight, leading 444,455 to 240,450.

C. E. Owen, who was unopposed for the precinct one Justice of the Peace post, polled more than a 1000 votes.

Commissioners Races

Tabulations, if they stand up, show there will be two run-off elections for county commissioners. In Precinct 4 (Cisco), where six men sought the post, Clifford R. Pippen and Carl Lamb apparently gained the run off. Pippen had 332 votes, Lamb had 346, Don Ruge got 283, Gari D. Gorr had 289, J. J. Honea polled 152 and Clarence B. Dill had 290.

In Precinct 2 (Governor) B. M. Bennett failed to get a majority by just two votes. He received 543 votes and his two combined opponents had 545. That will mean he will face A. M. Thurman, who ran second with 328 votes, in a run off. Buck Foster was third in the race with 217 votes.

Bill Allcorn got a big vote in his bid for Commissioner of the General Land Office. He polled 3888 votes to only 547 for L. J. Dimmitt, in Eastland County. Statewide he led 398,381 to 167,198 at midnight.

John C. White was pulling gradually far ahead of his two opponents over the state in the commissioner of agriculture race. He had 334,929 votes to 110,202 for Glenn Kothmann and 162,915 for Tom Griffin, statewide. In Eastland Co. he received 3188 votes to 727 for Griffin and 569 for Kothmann.

Robert W. Hamilton got a big majority in Eastland County in his bid for associate justice of the Supreme Court, Place 1. He received 2942 votes to 542 for Wilmer Hunt and 866 for J. Edwin Smith. Statewide he had 291,591 votes, Hunt had 166,523 and Smith polled 151,723.

In a nip and tuck battle, Joe Greenhill failed to carry Eastland County in the race for associate justice of the Supreme Court, Place 4, but led over the state at 12 p.m. He got just 2163 votes to 2306 for Sarah T. Hughes in the county, but over the state his lead was 324,950 to 304,009.

A number of unopposed candidates drew big votes in the county as shown below:

Will Wilson, attorney general, 4747.

Frank P. Culver, associate justice, Supreme Court, Place 2, 4754.

Ruel C. Walker, associate justice, Supreme Court, Place 3, 4754.

Conservatives Control City

By Virgil E. Moore

It didn't take Eastland's conservative Democrats but five minutes to wrap up control of the city's two precincts for another 2 years when they met here Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m.

Both Precinct 1, meeting at the Courthouse, and Precinct 2, which met at City Hall, went off just as rehearsed for the conservatives.

Both meetings were called to order, a motion and approved was made that everyone present be delegates, motions that delegates vote under a unit rule carried, and the meetings were declared over.

It was the same story as in past years. There wasn't a sign of a liberal in the place. Despite the fact that Eastland has on several occasions voted for liberal candidates in state races, the outcome was as predicted. Conservatives were present and well organized, and liberals were at home content to watch, and later fume.

In Precinct 1 Dr. James Whittington was elected chairman and Mrs. James Whittington was elected secretary.

In Precinct 2 Cyrus Frost was named chairman and Frank Sparks was elected secretary.

Precinct 1 delegates elected to attend the August 2 County Convention are: Dr. Whittington, Mrs. Whittington, H. P. Pentecost, V. T. Seaberry, Mrs. V. T. Seaberry, Jr.

Jack Germany, Mrs. Jack Germany, Tom Wilson, Mrs. Tom Wilson, Dr. F. H. Lund, Mrs. F. H. Lund, Jim Horton, Mrs. Jim Horton, Jack Carothers, Mrs. J. a c k Carothers, Jay Blevins, Charlie Marshall, and Mrs. Don Parker.

A complete list of delegates elected at the Precinct 2 convention was unavailable at presstime. County-wide the conservatives also won a sweeping victory. They gained control of both Cisco precinct in Ramsey. That will give them more than 100 votes for certain at the county convention.

Liberals controlled the Ranger City Hall Precinct convention and the two conventions at Rising Star. Eastland Precinct 1 will have 24 votes at the county convention and Precinct 2 has 17.

County Bond Sales Total $54,040 in June

Eastland county's total E & H Bond sales for the first half of 1958 have reached a total of $408,632, representing 80.6 percent of the year's goal.

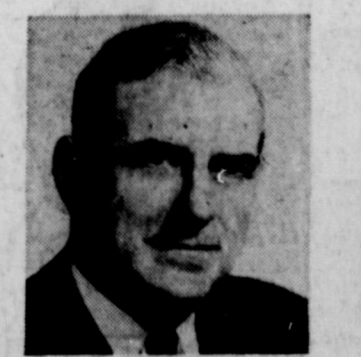

This is a higher percentage than three other Texas districts, with 28 counties.

June sales in the county totaled $54,040 in savings bonds, second only to Taylor County, with $93,630 sales. Eastland county's goal for the year is $567,000.

Sales in Texas for the first six months of 1958 were $88,580,546 which was 3.4 percent greater than the same period in 1957. Rating third in District 16 sales was Nolan County, with sales totaling $50,718.

The Fort Worth area sales in June rank second to the Houston area, but rank highest in the state, percentage wise. Area sales total $2,318,741 — representing 53.8 percent of the year's goal. Houston area sales total $2,620,835, or 49.6 percent of the goal.

June sales in Texas totaled $12,764,026. The state has now achieved 50.6 percent of its 1958 goal of $175,000,000.

MOORE about... EASTLAND

by Virgil E. Moore

Good morning. The Telegram comes to you Sunday morning this week instead of Saturday afternoon, and the reason should be self explanatory. Just take a look over there at the right.

Surely you heard the one about the United Fund volunteer who celled on a tough local prospect.

"Our financial reports show you had an income of over $30,000 last year and made no contribution to the United Fund," the volunteer said.

The prospect stared coldly at him and said:

"Does your financial report show that my Mother has an incurable disease and will cost thousands of dollars in hospital care and operations if she is to recover?"

"No," the volunteer replied.

"Does it show that my brother was so badly disfigured in the war he refused to return to this country until certain plastic surgery is performed and paid for?"

"No," the volunteer said, deeply moved.

"Does it show that my daughter's husband faces ruin unless he can raise money to pay for flood damage to his little shop?"

"No, it doesn't," the volunteer said, "but I want you to know that we understand now."

"I knew you would the prospect answered. "After all, if I'm not giving any money to them, how can I justify contributing to the United Fund?"

And somewhere we spotted this one: "When you argue with a fool be sure he isn't similarly engaged."

Someone commented the other day that we must be the only editor in the state of Texas who hasn't commented on the admittance of Alaska as a state. Frankly, we hadn't mentioned it because, like television, we don't think Alaska is here to stay.

You know, the Eurylene Howell, Miss America that is, doesn't realize how lucky she is. Just think, she could have had to compete with some of our local beauties, and what chance would she have had then?"

One of our Democratic friends pointed out to us that the Republicans came up with the answer to the recession, Lebonen, that is.

We do hope you voted yesterday, and if you didn't we do hope you keep your mouth shut about the outcome for the next two years.

Here's something that we thought was rather strange.

You probably noticed the other day that widows of Confederate veterans are now eligible for Federal pensions. According to James Wright, county veterans service officer, there are some 1000 eligible for the pensions, although there are but two living Confederate veterans.

The strangest part, however, is that two of the 1000 widows live in Eastland County.

Sure nice that the Greyhound bus station is now staying open late. The station is open until 11:30 now, and it makes it nice for passengers coming in and leaving.

Buying Power Of County Is Ranked High

How does Eastland County stack up with other West Texas counties as far as buying power is concerned?

This month's issue of "West Texas Today," official publication of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, shows the county is an important area in this respect.

Using figures from "Sales Management Magazine," the article shows that in 1957 Eastland County sales totaled $23,253,000. That compares to sales of $23,204,000 in 1956.

That means that Eastland County ranks 27th in total sales in the 132 counties surveyed. And the competition was rough. Some of the counties ranking above Eastland were Tarrant, El Paso, Lubbock, Potter, McLennan, Wichita, Ector, Taylor, Tom Green and Midland.

Here is a breakdown showing a comparison of Eastland and other nearby counties:

County	Sales
Palo Pinto	(Mineral Wells) $25,481,000
Nolan (Sweetwater)	23,688,000
Eastland	23,253,000
Parker	(Weatherford) 21,654,000
Erath	(Stephenville) 18,583,000
Stephens	(Breckenridge) 13,288,000
Comanche	10,501,000
Haskell	9,938,000
Hamilton	7,694,000

P. T. Smith's Place Named Mystery Farm

One of the oldest farms in the county, the P. T. (Paul Truman) Smith farm is the probable scene of several legends out of the past.

Winner of the Telegram's Mystery Farm contest last week was Mrs. J. F. Alcorn of Gorman, Route 1. She will receive two free passes to the Majestic Theatre.

Located southwest of Ranger the farm once stood as a landmark in the county, known as the Old Hinman Place. People from all around would come to the spring and carry away barrels of water. Pioneers and early settlers would pass by and some would stop awhile to visit.

Now, it contains about 115 acres of stock and grain land where the Smiths farm contentedly. They enjoy living there so much that they would never consider moving. Ten years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Smith purchased the land from Mrs. Ora Denning. Since that time, they have added on to the house, built a garage and a breeze-way and made many other improvements.

The six-room house is now an impressive structure surrounded by a white fence. A large storage barn sets in back.

Stock raised on the farm includes about 100 registered Hampshire and Duroc Hogs (at the present time), between 15 and 30 head of cattle, and about 100 head of sheep. Continually buying and selling cattle, the Smiths use their harvested oats for feed. They harvested about 30 acres of oats this year. All grain is planted by contour plowing.

The Old Hinman Place was also noted as a vegetable and fruit farm where some experimental farming took place.

Harbins Hold Family Reunion in Wylie Harbin's Home Recently

The family tree, beginning in the year of 1771, was read at the family reunion of the Harbins, who were among the first to settle Eastland County.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Harbin was the scene of the first Harbin reunion held Saturday and Sunday. The family plans to make it an annual affair.

From the family tree which had been compiled by a grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ake Harbin, Henry E. Byron of Dallas, it was learned that the Harbins came from England in 1771 to South Carolina and Georgia and then to Eastland County.

Among the other events of the reunion Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Harbin celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary.

Descendants of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jasper W. Harbin attending the reunion were D. H. Harbin of Eastland, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Harbin of Eastland, Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Harbin of Eastland, Mr. and Mrs. Hilton Harbin and Tom, Tommy, of Hobbs and Mrs. Ouida Connell, Martha Kay and Toni Jo of Eastland.

Mrs. Donald Kinnaird, organist, played the traditional wedding selections and accompanied Wendell Siebert, vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of imported chantilly lace, designed with a Peter Pan collar embroidered in seed pearls. The bouffant skirt featured tiers of lace.

Her veil of illusion fell from a cap of matching lace and pearls. The bride carried a bouquet of a white orchid and stephanotis atop a white Bible sprinkled with pearls.

Ushering were Neil Van Geem, Charles Collins, Pearson Grimes and Richard Jones.

Mrs. Hightower chose a pink lace dress with white accessories for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue lace dress with white accessories. Both mothers wore pink rose buds corsages.

The reception was held in the Woman's Club. Members of the house party included Mmes. Ed Willman, Wells Dalton, Hubert Jones, Curtis Koen, Bemus Brewer, Russell Hill and Frank Crowell.

Centering the table was an arrangement of white carnations and white mums in a crystal and silver epergne.

Mrs. Crowell and Mrs. Kinnaird presided over the register table which was laid with a white linen cloth and contained a white bride's book and the bride's bouquet.

Mrs. Collins and Mrs. Dalton served the cake squares while Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Brewer ladled pink punch from the crystal bowl.

Christian Science

Fulfillment of Jesus' promise "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free" (John 8:32) is a present-day possibility. This is a theme to be brought out in Christian Science services Sunday.

Scriptural texts and correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy comprise the Lesson - Sermon entitled "Truth."

Among the selections from Science and Health will be read the following (312:17-19, 24-26): "Mortals try to believe without understanding Truth; yet God is Truth. . . . A personal sense of God and of man's capabilities necessarily limits faith and hinders spiritual understanding."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (25:5): "Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day."
