MEMORIAL FOR PEACE—West Berlin's most famous post-war landmark, the burned-out tower of the Emperor Wilhelm Memorial Church, dominates the skeleton of a new church rising in the foreground. The structure will be octagonal, with colored glass plates. The ruin will be left standing as a warning memorial to World War II.

Moore About—

pounds and our scouts tell us he actually tips the scale at about 270. A man that big could cause a lot of trouble just by being there.

Lions in this district have started a visitation program. This week five Lions from Ranger visited the Eastland club and sometime this month a number of Eastland Lions plan to go to Cisco. Visiting the local club Tuesday were Lloyd Bruce, Joe Dennis, Jim Puryear, Gene Townsend and D. C. Arterburn. The program is a good one.

—vcm—
That's it. See you at the game Friday night.

VISITS ON

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Tucker were weekend guests in the home of their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Tucker, and Barbara Ann, Betty Sue and J. E. of Amarillo. Freddie Tucker of Denton visited in the home of his aunt, Miss Fields of Abilene.

Rangers—

had this to say about his performance. "The scrappy 185-pound center played a heroic line-backing role as the Rangers gave mighty Tyler a big scare before losing, 29 to 25, in the last four minutes. The Carrollton sophomore made nine tackles unassisted and contributed to 14 others to slow down the high-geared Apache ground game. Smith made seven straight tackles during a frantic fourth quarter." Frank Rice, sophomore halfback from Breckenridge was also mentioned for the 12 points and 137 yards rushing. He carried the ball 15 times which included a 98 yard scoring run.

This week the Rangers will be up against a good ball team, but want have to face the reserve strength that they have been against the last two weeks. McMurry will only have about twenty players suited out for the game. Included in the McMurry lineup is such well known gridsters as quarterback Bobby Goswick from Breckenridge, Stan Cosby, halfback from Abilene and center Ronnie Martin from Breckenridge.

The Rangers lineup will be approximately the same as went against Tyler last week except for fullback Printiss Gidney who will see only limited action due to a bruised shoulder. The fullback duties will fall to Butch Scott, and Mie Leonard who has been running halfback.

The Rangers have been working this week on pass defence. This was the main weakness against Tyler last week Coach Puryear said he was pleased with the showing that the team made against Tyler last week, but that they still needed to sharpen up their pass defence.

KEEPS ROLLIN' ALONG—The last of the old stern-wheelers plying the inland waters of the U.S., the Delta Queen recaptures a page out of the past as she cruises majestically down the Ohio River, near Cave in Rock, Ill. The ship saw service as a troop transport on the Pacific during World War II.

Which Democratic Platform?

Which do you prefer: the socialistic, anti-Texas platform of Kennedy — or the Nixon Platform that more nearly conforms with Texas principles and ideals as expressed in the State Democratic platform?

The Kennedy platform is against nearly everything Texans are for—it is for nearly everything Texans are against.

What will be your choice? It is between a party label and the best interest of Texas and the Nation.

Allan Shivers says:

"I'LL TAKE TEXAS. I accept the Texas Democratic platform and will work for it. I repudiate the other—the Kennedy platform. I will join with my fellow Democrats to work and vote for men of maturity, experience, responsibility, and a fearless dedication to this country's best interests.

"I will vote for Richard M. Nixon and Henry Cabot Lodge."

Paula Jeanne Mackey Becomes Bride of Dr. Walton Shaffer

In a ceremony read at 10 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 1, in Our Lady of Wisdom Chapel in Lafayette, Louisiana, Paula Jeanne Mackey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mackey of Lafayette, became the bride of Dr. Walton L. Shaffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Shaffer of Ranger.

Father Speyrer officiated at the double ring ceremony. The vows were read before an arrangement of white gladioli and greenery. Family pews were marked with white satin ribbon.

Wedding music was presented by Kenneth Bowen, vocalist. Pre-nuptial selections were "Ave Maria", "Panis Angelicus" and "Ade Verum Corpus".

Mrs. Norman Marcel was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Sandra Doty of Lawrenceville, Illinois, Miss Gerry Mige of Corpus Christi and Miss Linda Shaffer of Ranger, sister of the bridegroom.

The attendants wore princess styled waltz length dresses of ice blue peau-de-soie and chiffon. Their headpieces were of a halo effect, trimmed with seed pearls and covered with a chapel-length veil. They wore matching peau-de-soie shoes and carried nosegays of red roses.

William P. Hamilton was best man. Ushers were Ronald Adkins of Shalgaloo, La., Paul Martin and Bubba Voorhies of Lafayette.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white imported slipper satin. The bodice, covered with imported Rosepoint lace, was fashioned with a V-neckline, empire waist, and three-quarter length sleeves. A train extended from the back of the princess style gown.

A crown of seed pearls held the bride's elbow length veil of illusion and she wore white kid gloves. Her cascade bouquet was of white roses, centered with a white cattlegia orchid with sprays of lily of the valley. The bouquet was trimmed with white lace and touches of seed pearls.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Mackey was attired in a fitted dress of turquoise imported brocade silk satin with matching shoes and bag. To complete the ensemble she wore an off the face hat of multi-colored buds and leaves and a shoulder corsage of a purple cattlegia orchid.

The groom's mother wore a rose wool crepe sheath. Her accessories were black with a matching black feather hat. She wore short white gloves and a purple cattlegia orchid corsage.

The Oakboun Country Club was the scene of the reception. In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mackey, Mrs. Cecil Shaffer, the bridal couple and her attendants.

The table was covered with an organdy ruffled cloth and was centered with a tapering arrangement of red roses, arranged in a silver footed bowl. The centerpiece was flanked on either side with tall five branched candelabras. A silver punch bowl and a silver coffee service completed the table decor. Potted palms served as the table background.

On the opposite end of the reception room was the table holding the wedding cake. The cake was three-tiered, and the last tier was suspended on columns a tier topped with a miniature replica of the bride and groom.

The registry table was covered with a white organdy cloth and centered with the white guest book. The focal point was composed of a white rice tree surrounded by white flowers.

Members of the house party were: Mmes. M. D. Adkins, W. W. Smith, Henry Voorhies, Frank Scruggs, Rosemarie Resinger, Claude Teel, Jun Shows, C. R. Pope, Joe Mass, Fritz Schoeffler, and Rosemarie and Margaret Martin.

For a wedding trip to the Smoky Mountains the bride wore a soft green wool fitted suit with brown alligator shoes and bag, bone colored 8-button length gloves, and a cocoa colored hat. She wore gold jewelry to compliment the ensemble.

Guests attended from Ranger, Houston, Dallas, Corpus Christi, Galveston, San Antonio and Waco, Texas; Jackson, Mississippi; Baton Rouge, Shreveport Shongaloo, and New Orleans, Louisiana.
