MOORE about... EASTLAND by Virgil E. Moore

Somehow talk got around to folks getting "burned out" at the city commission meeting the other night.

One of the commissioners said that you had to be careful sometimes how you treat folks or you might find yourself burned out after indicated some doubt about that. Then the Mayor spoke up.

"People don't have to have much of a reason for burning you out," Cyrus Frost Jr. declared.

Then he told the group how his grandparents' house was burned simply because they bought a piano and their neighbors didn't like music.

There was a prolonged silence over the room, then Virgil Seaberry Jr. asked, "When was all this?"

"In about 1895," the Mayor said, with a quick grin.

Lowell Snyder was the hero of the day over at Worth Food one day last week. A bat somehow got in the store, and needless to say, there were a lot of upset ladies.

Lowell grabbed up a small brass, and chased the bat into the store-room. After a few moments he walked back into the front of the store with a smile of success on his lips.

"Got him," Lowell told his admirers.

Our scouts didn't report on what Carey Hightower, grocery manager, and Homer Meek, meat manager, were doing during this little episode.

If you can remember when fountain Cokes had more Coke in the glass than ice you are getting old, friend!

We won't say that the new hospital wing which is now under construction is badly needed, but we understand you have to get a reservation to get sick now. The hospital has had beds in every available space recently.

Charles Layton was giving his three year old son, Kirk, a bath last week and after drying him off and powdering him down indicated a job well done.

"Powder my back, Daddy," the youth demanded.

His father replied that he had already powdered his back, that he just couldn't see it.

"That's right Daddy," Kirk said, "My head is on backwards."

Fred Davenport claims he overheard this conversation between two young men the other day:

First Young Man—"I say that you are planning ahead."

Second Young Man—"Why he's getting married this weekend and he hasn't even found her a job yet!"

Roger Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Fox of Dallas and a great grandson of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Woods of Eastland, went back to Dallas the other day after a stay at his grandparents here.

The second day he was home the lad insisted that his mother take him back to Grannie's.

"Why?" his mother asked.

"So I can get some more good cornbread," the youngster shot back.

Conversation overheard at the Livestock Show grounds: "Look at that crazy cow trying to rub a creek out of it's side on that fence. They should take it to a chiropractor."

City Welcome Service Begins

Eastland, known for its friendly people, is beginning a new greeting service to let all newcomers to the city know how welcome they are and to extend congratulations to the new parents upon birth of a son or daughter.

Mrs. Frank Sayre is city receptionist and the program has been set up under the direction of Mrs. Edie Locks, who has operated a welcome service in Brownwood for 18 years.

The family service has been endorsed by the Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Sayre will take to newcomers a letter of welcome from the Chamber and a "key to the city" from the mayor.

Participating in the Round-Up Stamp program are Coats Furniture, Moderne Studios, Harle's Conoco Station, Don Pierson Olds-Cadillac, Demm's Beauty Box, J. M. Smith Plumbing and Tin and Sunshine Laundry.

Seven Stores Now Giving Round-Up Stamps

Seven Eastland businesses are giving Round-Up Bonus Stamps and a redemption store is open at Coats Furniture Co.

Participating in the Round-Up Stamp program are Coats Furniture, Moderne Studios, Harle's Conoco Station, Don Pierson Olds-Cadillac, Demm's Beauty Box, J. M. Smith Plumbing and Tin and Sunshine Laundry.

Workmen during the past week, have worked late into the night in an effort to get the groundwork done so that the slab could be poured in one day.

Since October, Eastland Memorial has averaged 25 patients daily.

The receptionist will make monthly statistical reports to the merchants on her visits and will write a column on newcomers which will appear in the Telegram.

Each newcomer will be given general information about Eastland and will be provided with a church directory listing all the churches and their locations. Mrs. Sayre will also notify each church of newcomers so that they may contact the new residents.

"It is hoped that Eastland will be an even friendlier city than before because of the Welcome Service," Mrs. Sayre said.

In getting the new service off on the right foot, Mrs. Sayre called on Mr. and Mrs. Dick Spalding, 504 South Madera, this week.

The Spaldings had an unusual experience happen to them while moving to Eastland. They were involved in an automobile accident at Sapulpa, Okla. Their car skidded on icy pavement and overturned. Spalding was hospitalized for nine weeks in Sapulpa and was brought here March 1. He will be in a cast for approximately four more weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Spalding are the parents of two children, Kathy, two, and Ricky, one month. Ricky was born at Eastland Memorial Hospital. They are members of the Baptist Church, and are new owners of Radio Station KERC.

As the first family welcomed, the Spaldings were recipients of various gifts from local merchants.

Mother Nature... Stages Show

It was opening day of the Eastland County Livestock Show Friday, so naturally Mother Nature had to put on a variety show of her own.

In a 30-minute period Eastland had typical spring weather, followed quickly by high winds, a dust storm, rain hail, and then rain again. Somewhere in between all this a norther ripped into the city.

A total of .06 inches fell.

PAID IN FULL—Pictured above are the present Eastland County courthouse and the old courthouse. Final payment of the new courthouse (top) was made this week. The County therefore has a paid-for courthouse for the first time since the old courthouse was built in 1897.

Final Payment Made On County Courthouse

There will be no more house payments for Eastland County. A final lump payment was made this week on the Eastland County courthouse, clearing the county of a courthouse debt for the first time in more than 60 years.

The final payment was made nine years ahead of the original payoff date, set up in 1927 when bonds were sold to build the building.

County Commissioners and County Judge John Hart made arrangements this week to make the final payment of $15,241.89.

It was on May 16, 1927 that the order to hold an election on a $300,000 bond issue was made by the County Commissioners Court. July 9, 1927, Eastland County citizens voted 1,220 for and 1,160 against the issue. Most opposition came from Cisco, where a concerted effort was made to kill the issue since that city sought to gain the courthouse for itself.

The courthouse was completed in 1928. And it was on Feb. 28, 1928, when the old courthouse cornerstone was opened as the old courthouse was demolished to make way for the new structure, that Old Rip, the horned toad which lived 31 years in the cornerstones of the old courthouse, was discovered.

The original maturity dates on the $300,000 bond issue began March 15, 1928 and were to end March 15, 1967. Actual cost of the courthouse was $313,298.

The bonds were refunded March 15, 1954, and a new maturity date was set up for 1961, lowering the interest rate to 2.2 percent at a savings to the county of $9000.

The county saved an additional $600 in interest by paying off the final note ahead of the 1961 payoff date.

Custom Clothes Showing Slated Paul Dygard, consultant for Storrs-Schaefer Tailors, will be at Modern Dry Cleaners April 3 and 4 to show new spring and summer fabrics for custom clothes by the yard.

Of the total amount, $150,000 has been paid on the courthouse since 1951. Today, it is estimated that the cost of replacing the courthouse would be a million and a half dollars.

When the new courthouse was built, there were $16,000 in outstanding bonds on the old courthouse.

Thus the county has been paying "rent" since 1897 when the old courthouse was built.

In summing up the payoff ahead of schedule, Judge Hart declared, "This has been accomplished by the splendid cooperation of the officials and the taxpayers of Eastland County."

Work On Hospital Wing Is Pushed by Volunteers

Already facing overcrowded conditions in the comparatively new Eastland Memorial Hospital, Eastland citizens have started earnest work to add a new wing to the hospital.

Workmen this week from Hoffmann's, R. M. Sneeds, the City of Eastland and other volunteers completed the slab foundation for the new wing, which will add eight two-bed patients rooms, two private rooms, an administrator's office, nurses' lounge and therapy room to Eastland Memorial. The work was completed Monday, after days of preparation in preparing to pour the foundation.

Bill Hoffmann, president of the Hospital Board, said that work on putting up the walls would begin in the immediate future.

The wing is being built northeast of the present building, connecting with room 12 and the kitchen.

Workmen, during the past week, have worked late into the night in an effort to get the groundwork done so that the slab could be poured in one day.

according to Maxine Meiseneimer, hospital administrator. The hospital has had as many as 30 patients at one time.

Present facilities were set up to handle a maximum of 25 patients, with 21 adult beds and four bassinets. Since conditions have been crowded, two private rooms have been converted to semi-private rooms.

The new wing will add a total of 18 beds, making the listed capacity of the hospital 43 beds.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,
I urge all to join the Farm Bureau and help our Representative and Senator maintain our rights. Would you like to have to ask for enough water to wash your hands or to water your garden even if you had an ample supply in your well? If we don't help our representatives by uniting together we may have to do just that.

Do you want the government to take our farm to market roads and use it for the overpasses and by-passes in the larger cities. If you don't then wake up and help the Farm Bureau fight for justice! Mr. Merchants, druggist, banker, you need the farmer and they need you. Join the Farm Bureau for a united cause and hand in hand we will stand; divided we will all fall. Think it over and give us your support. Monday night is the final date for the Farm Bureau drive.

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH—The Calvary Baptist Church was organized five years ago this week, March 24, 1954, and work was immediately begun on the building pictured above. The church property is valued at $10,000 and there are 84 resident members of the church. (Telegram Staff Photo).

Calvary Baptist Church Is Now Five Years Old

(Editor's Note: This is another in a series of articles about Eastland churches. The Church of the Nazarene will be featured next week.)

By MARIE BONEY

March 24, 1954, 44 people organized the Calvary Baptist Church and called Rev. Harl L. Williams as pastor. Shortly thereafter, lots were purchased on North Oak Street and work was begun on a building. The building was completed in the summer of 1954 and has been improved yearly, until now the church holds property valued at $10,000.

Rev. Williams is still leading the church, which now has 84 resident members. He has been preaching for eight years, having held pastorates at Merriman Baptist Church, Ranger and in Rising Star before coming to Calvary. He and his wife, Bernice, have four married children. One son, Elton, is a senior at Eastland High School. They live on North Oak near the church.

In addition to growing in material value and numbers, the church has grown spiritually. There have been 45 conversions and 40 baptisms in the life of the church. The church has ordained three ministers, Nelson Shipman, Buck Hillin and E. D. Overstreet. Rev. Overstreet serves as assistant pastor for the church at this time. He resides in DeLeon.

The church is supporting two missionaries, Jeff Meek in Chile and Mrs. Georgia Webb, Old Mexico. Calvary Baptist Church is a part of the Bible Baptist Fellowship and the Central West Texas Fellowship, but does not work through these Fellowships either in government or mission work. Ten percent of all offering taken by the church goes directly to the mission field.

The church does not presently have any ordained deacons. The trustees are J. T. Berry, Roger Noble and Clifford Fox. Mrs. J. T. Berry is church secretary, and J. T. Berry is treasurer.

The church averages 65 in Sunday School weekly. Roger L. Noble is superintendent and teachers are: Adults, Rev. Williams; Young People, Mrs. H. L. Williams; Intermediate, Mrs. Johnnie Stewart; Junior, Mrs. E. D. Overstreet; Primary, Mrs. J. T. Berry; and Beginners, Mrs. Bob Fox. The Sunday School uses no literature except the Bible. The text is chosen at the discretion of the pastor.

The two church ordinances are baptism and the Lord's Supper. Baptism is held to be necessary for membership in the church, but unnecessary as a part of the salvation experience. It is done by immersion in the name of the Trinity. The Lord's Supper is administered at no set times. It is a symbol of the resurrection of the Lord and is taken because it is a command of the Lord. Thus, both ordinances are acts of obedience and have no special powers within themselves.

Rev. Williams says, "As a Fundamental Baptist Church, we believe in the supernatural Bible, which tells of a supernatural Christ, Who had a supernatural birth, Who spoke supernatural words, Who performed supernatural miracles, Who lived a supernatural life, Who died a supernatural death, Who rose in supernatural powers, Who ascended in supernatural splendor, Who intercedes as a supernatural priest and Who will one day return in supernatural glory to establish a supernatural kingdom on the earth."

"We also believe that the fourfold platform of the church is:

1. To recognize Christ as its only Head
2. To obey the Holy Spirit as its only Administrator.
3. To proclaim the Word as its only message.
4. To win lost souls as its only mission."

Church of Christ

Otta Johnson, minister

A week of lectures, at the Church of Christ in Eastland, is scheduled to begin Monday night, according to Otta Johnson, local minister. The lectures are to be directed by Mr. Johnson.

David Fry and Norman Guess are to direct the song service. About fifteen minutes of singing will precede each lecture. The singing is to be by the entire audience. Theme song of the lectures will be: How Firm a Foundation.

The theme of the lectures is: The Firm Foundation of the Lord's Church.

This series of lectures is designed to show the firmness and dependability of the church that Jesus promised to build. The purpose, according to the local minister, is to instruct and encourage all people to build their lives for time and for eternity on the security of this foundation. The basis of the theme is found in the words of the Apostle Paul, in 2 Timothy 2:19, "How be it the Firm Foundation of God standeth, having this seal: the Lord knoweth them that are his; and let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity."

The program is as follows:

Monday—Foundation of the Church—Holbert Rideout, Abilene, speaker;

Tuesday—Creed Book of the Church—J. D. Thomas, Abilene;

Wednesday—Establishment of the Church—Joe Schubert, Muskogee, Okla.

Thursday—Bible names used by the Church—Rex Kyker, Abilene;

Friday—Terms of Admission into the Church—Bob Cannon, Merkel;

Saturday—Worship of the Church—Jay Channell, Stephenville.

Services will be held each night, beginning at 7 o'clock. The church extends a cordial welcome to everyone to attend.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt gratitude to our friends for their many deeds of kindness and for every thoughtful expression of sympathy extended during our recent bereavement.

Christian Science

The effectiveness of prayer in healing the sick will be stressed at Christian Science service in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Matter."

From the Gospel according to St. Mark will be read the healing by Christ Jesus of the young lad who had "a dumb spirit." The account ends with Jesus' comment to his disciples, "... This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting." (Mark 9:29).

Also emphasizing the power of prayer are passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, including the following (15:9): "To enter into the heart of prayer, the door of the erring senses must be closed. Lips must be mute and materialism silent, that man may have audience with Spirit, the divine Principle, Love, which destroys all error." (15:10)

REMEMBER WHEN?

By Milton Fullen

It was King Gustav of Sweden who said it, when presenting one of his many gold medals to the great American athlete, "Sir," he said, "you are the greatest athlete in the world."

Others have said the same about Jim Thorpe, the immortal Carlisle Indian . . . All-American football player, big league baseball player, and one of the greatest track and field athletes ever to perform.

He had his finest hour that year in Stockholm at the Olympic Games. He won four of the five firsts in the Pentathlon, four of the ten firsts in the Decathlon. That day was also his bitterest memory . . . for, because he had played a summer of "semi-pro" baseball, Thorpe's Olympic gold medals were taken away from him. But they couldn't take away King Gustav's words.

Remember the year? That was a year when driving an automobile wasn't taken for granted . . . and a buyer had to be sure of his car, his dealer and his "deal" before he acted. The year was 1912.

It makes good sense to be sure of all three "value points" today. Take the car . . . you can't drive better than the brilliant new Chevrolet. As for the dealer . . . well, our reputation for reliability is well established. Point three: we'll give you the best deal! For a better deal three ways, see FULLER MOTOR CO., East Main St., Phone 44.

Composers Day Program Is Held By Music Club

A program honoring Texas Composers' Day and featuring Patricia Ann Liles and Gretchen Hailey was the theme of the Music Study Club meeting at the Women's Club House Wednesday.

Mrs. Frank Sayre, president, opened the meeting by reading the Club Collect. A short business meeting was held.

The program was given by Mrs. A. F. Taylor and Mrs. F. L. Drago who gave separate reports on great Texas song composers. Mrs. Taylor presented a group singing the State song by William J. Marsh while she gave the history of this composer. Mrs. Taylor then gave the history of Reuben Davies, another Texan, who wrote songs of western romance. One of his best was "Remembrance" and his folk song "Bowdler Sinker," and his "Flock of Sheep" were rendered by Patricia Ann Liles.

Mrs. Ragland then presented Mrs. Drago who gave the history of Hazel Cobb and Paul Van Katurk. Mrs. Drago said that Katurk songs were most interesting and he has written songs of love and fun. His wife, Viola Van Katurk, wrote the "Scissors Grinder."

Hazel Cobb, next writer to be discussed, was also a Texas composer and has given much to music in her songs of "Pomp" and "Fazentary," Mrs. Drago stated. She then said "old musicians never fade away." Gretchen Hailey demonstrated her talents by playing the songs that Mrs. Drago has mentioned earlier.

Mrs. Sayre closed the meeting by giving the caption for the program by Mendelssohn: "I know of no aim more noble than that of giving music to one's native language and to one's native land."

Members present were: Frank Sayre, Joseph Perkins, Grady Lipkin, W. B. Patterson, C. E. Ragdale, D. L. Kinnaird, R. L. Carpenter, A. F. Taylor, F. L. Drago, Attie Liles, M. Hailey and Gretchen Hailey.
