MOORE about... EASTLAND

by Virgil E. Moore

If the Telegram carried a headline concerning the Fourth of July today it would probably read something like this: "Eastland Does Nothing on Fourth."

Of course that isn't really true, for the town is closing for the day, and folks will celebrate in their own ways. It wasn't many years ago, however, when Eastland did more celebrating on the Fourth than any town this size in the state.

When I was here in those days, as I report from memory what happened. We've talked to folks who were here, though, and we've gone through the old Telegram files, and those must have been marvelous times.

The Telegram, the day after the Fourth, always carried big stories telling of how hundreds of persons crowded on City Park hill to watch the fireworks display. Those were the days when C. W. Hoffmann saw to it that the town had a fireworks show which was really a fireworks show. Each year several hundred dollars worth of fireworks were fired in the valley below the park hill. Folks from miles and miles around drove over to watch the display.

They had parades back in those days, and boat races at Eastland Lake. Then there was usually a bathing revue, and naturally there was a big picnic. Today the Fourth will seem calm in the county seat. There may be a fire cracker popped here and there (which will be against the law), but the Fourth of old will not be with us this Saturday.

This year most of us will jump into our automobiles and head for somewhere fast. We would estimate that the biggest single target of local citizens will be Lake Leon. Last year you couldn't stir a stick through the water skiers, and this year will probably be the same.

We went out to the lake early last year to stake out a big oak tree. Unfortunately, we left the tree for a few minutes and when we got back three different groups were picnicking under it. Finally our group spread a picnic lunch under a three foot tall mesquite and happily blistered away.

The highways will be in bumper to bumper form, of course. Which makes us wonder about holidays sometimes.

Every holiday we have means doubling up the week before the big event to do the work we would ordinarily do on that day. For that reason we don't look forward to the big days so much. It seems to us that all of us would be better off if we just took five days of our own choosing and call them "vacation" days.

If we had our pick-your-own holiday plan, a fellow could tell his employer he was going to work on one of his holidays, if he got in a financial tight and draw time and a half for that day on his next pay check. And families could work it out so they would have their holidays together.

Of course our plan is somewhat like communism. It sounds a little sensible on paper, but it sure wouldn't work out. So go celebrate the glorious Fourth in your own fashion, but just be careful. We sure would hate to write your obituary Tuesday!

NEW OLD GLORY—Today, July 4th, was the first day the new 49-star United States flag could be officially flown, and one of the first to go up in Eastland was the one shown above, which is located at Eastland Memorial Hospital. Members of the Junior Tri-Hi-Y club presented the flag to the hospital, and Boy Scouts were on hand to

Those jellyfish are back in the news again. For the second year in a row what is believed to be fresh water jellyfish have been discovered in Lake Leon.

Gene Rhodes made the discovery this year. He brought in about a dozen specimens to prove it. Rhodes said he noticed a big school of the small jellyfish near his boat dock, and scooped up several. He picked them up with his hands and they did not sting him, so he doubts that they are dangerous.

The "fish" Rhodes brought in are about the size of a dime and are round. They are almost transparent and swim by retracting and expanding. They have hairs all around the circle and look much like artist drawings of flying saucers.

They do meet the definition Webster gives for jellyfish: "Any of various marine free-swimming coelenterates having a body of jellylike consistency; a medusa. Many have long tentacles with stringing hairs."

Women to Hold Golf Tourney

An Eastland County women's golf tournament has been scheduled for July 18 and 19 at Lakeside Country Club in Eastland.

The tournament will be sponsored by the Ladies Golf Auxiliary, Mrs. Aubrey Kincaid, president, said.

Qualifying for the championship flight will take place Friday, July 17 and other qualifying scores must be turned in by that date. A covered dish supper will follow qualifying Friday night.

Women who have never played golf, but are interested in playing, were urged to enter the tournament in the beginners flight.

"Several have already signed up for this flight and we are hoping to have several more," Mrs. Kincaid said.

Prizes will be awarded to winners of each flight and consolation winners.

Mrs. Kincaid is tourney chairman and Mrs. Everett Plowman is prize chairman. Other chairmen are to be named later.

Highway Travel Is Dangerous During Holidays

AUSTIN — "Don't gamble on your holiday weekend — the cars may be stacked against you."

This play on words were made today by J. O. Musick, general manager of the Texas Safety Association, in an effort to focus the motoring public's attention on increased dangers of highway travel during the Fourth of July weekend.

Musick pointed out that since the Fourth falls on a Saturday, this year, many Texans will receive a holiday on Friday or Monday. This will give families a chance to take short vacation trips.

"Weekend travel is normally dangerous enough," he said, "but when you couple it with a holiday it literally becomes murderous."

For those who do plan to make a trip, Musick had these words of safety advice: "There is a common saying which states that 'An accident is just another word until one happens to you.' Any motorist will do well to remember this slogan before he gets behind the steering wheel. He should remember, too, that the most tragic accident is not necessarily the one in which he might be killed. If there is any doubt about this, ask the person who has been in an accident in which others were killed or one in which he lost his eyesight or was, perhaps, permanently crippled."

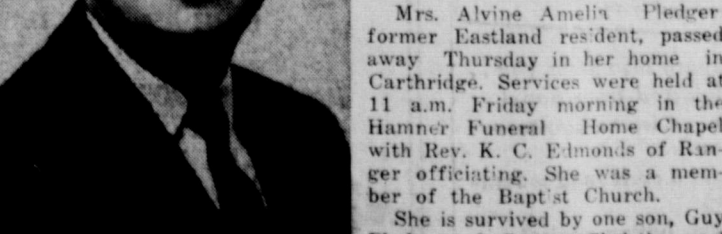

"There are many people who relive an accident every day of their life, through mental anguish and physical suffering."

The safety expert emphasized that travelers should not undertake journeys of a greater distance than can be driven at a leisurely pace, with allowance for heavy traffic and other delays. "Courtesy and commonsense are still the best traffic accident preventatives," he said.

Driver of the car was James Russell, a student at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene. It is believed that he was accompanied by one or more passengers in the vehicle.

A report was unavailable this morning from Highway Patrolman Les Strawn, who investigated.

Russell told by-standers that he lost control of the car when he hit a hump on the road at an angle. The car then flipped over and landed upside down on the edge of the pavement.

NEW BAND DIRECTOR—Phillip William Hewett is new High School band director. Hewett has been an instructor in the past at Texas Christian University, Del Mar College and Boyd High School. He will move to Eastland with his wife in August.

July Fourth Holiday Greeted by Eastland

Eastland awoke early this morning to the sound of firecrackers and prepared for a Fourth of July holiday.

Most folks were busy packing their cars for a trip here or there, but a few were content to stay home for the day. A pro-am tournament at the golf course, the call of fishing, boating and water skiing at Lake Leon, and the water carnival and bathing revue scheduled at Cisco Lake park were the biggest events scheduled.

Some local citizens, the police, highway patrolmen, sheriff's officers, doctors, hospital employees, ambulance drivers, firemen, telephone operators and others on emergency duty, settled down for what they hope is a peaceful day.

Around the nation the story was much the same.

Who put the fireworks in the Fourth of July? Much of the credit goes to John Adams. The Founding Father declared that Independence Day "ought to be solemnized with pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires, and illuminations, from one end of this continent to the other, from this time forward forevermore."

So, from that time forward, the birthday of the U. S. has been marked by brilliant explosions of color and noise... and the deaths and accidents that invariably accompany them.

Americans, however, got the idea for fireworks from Europeans who got the idea from the Arabs, who merely copied the Chinese.

In 1232 A. D., when a Chinese city was besieged by Mongols, the defenders cooked up a batch of saltpeter, sulfur and charcoal and frightened their attackers with "arrow of flying fire."

Arabs were quick to copy these weapons, which probably were rockets. The Crusaders brought them back to Europe, where the Italians discovered that they made fancy exhibitions as well as formidable weapons.

By the time fireworks spread to England and France, figures and

Thirty Eastland County Students Attend NTSC

Eastland County was represented by 30 students at North Texas State College in the school year just ended, the registrar's office has announced.

During the nine-month session, a total of 7,837 different students were enrolled. They came from 211 of the state's 254 counties, from 32 other states, and from nine foreign countries.

Dallas County again sent the largest number to NTSC, 2,149 students. Other counties represented by large groups were Tarrant 889, Denton 881, Collin 163, Grayson 156, Cooke 134, Harris 131, Ellis 122, McLennan 113, Wichita 10, Gregg 101, Montague 90.

Wise 84, Galveston 76, Navarro 61, Smith 53, Parker and Taylor 58 each, Kaufman 57, Bowie 51 and Harrison 50.

These record figures reflect the steady increase in enrollment at the college in recent years.

To accommodate the growing student body, there are now just completed, under construction, or in the final stages of planning, buildings which will add $6 million to a physical plant already valued at more than $20 million.

These include buildings for industrial arts, physics-mathematics, business administration, library annex, education-home economics, and music. The new business administration building, for example, will have almost as many classrooms as the entire college had in 1945—and more offices.

Four Criminal Cases Are Filed in County Court

Four criminal cases were filed in Eastland County Court during the last two weeks in June.

Nathaniel L. Laramoro was charged with driving while his license was suspended June 30 and Charles Clifton Williams was charged with the same offense June 23.

Jimmie Mildred Lorenz was charged with possession of whiskey, gin and vodka on June 17 and Elijah McKellar with possession of whiskey on June 17.

structures of wood and plaster had been added.

In 1520, when Henry VIII met Francis I on the Field of the Cloth of Gold in northern France, the historic moment was celebrated by the appearance of a huge dragon that thundered across the sky breathing fire.

By the 1600's, fireworks had developed into such an art that two schools of thought had arisen to argue over methods of display.

The Southern school, centered in Italy, concentrated on building elaborate structures such as castles and temples, from which the fireworks were exploded. The technique of setting off the fireworks was shrouded in mystery. The Northern school, influenced by the Protestant movement in Germany, though the Italian procedure snacked of popery. The Northerners exhibited their fireworks before the show, for all to admire, and then made them the important part of the display.

While the two schools fumed over their fireworks, fireworks crossed the Atlantic and became an American institution.

Here's a Rice Pudding That's Really Different

In Sweden, it's called "grot." In any language, it's great, this delicious variation of rice pudding. The secret: addition of aromatic bitters to the basic mix.

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

Most everybody likes a creamy rice pudding. For a change, try this adaptation of a Swedish dish called "grot." It is served on special occasions. For its special lift, aromatic bitters, a blend of tropical herbs, is used. It does wonders with many foods.

Aromatic Rice Pudding (6-8 servings)

Four tablespoons uncooked rice, 1 quart milk, 4 tablespoons sugar or more, to taste; 1 teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons aromatic bitters, 1/2 pint whipped heavy cream.

Mix rice with milk, sugar and salt in a saucepan or flameproof bowl. Bring to boil, then lower heat.

Place pan on asbestos pad and simmer very slowly, uncovered, for 1 to 1 1/2 hours, or until thick.

Stir occasionally during cooking to blend top skin into rest of pudding.

Turn off heat. Carefully stir in bitters and let pudding cool in pan. Chill in refrigerator.

Just before serving, fold in whipped cream. Garnish with maraschino cherries.

Ginger in another old favorite gives a new taste.

Ginger Meringue Bread Pudding (6-8 servings)

Combine 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 3/4 teaspoon ground ginger, 2 whole eggs. Beat only until mixed.

Stir in 1 cup cold milk and 2 cups day-old bread crumbs.

Add 3 cups scalded milk. Pour into a 1 1/2-quart greased casserole.

Bake in preheated slow oven, 325 degrees Fahrenheit, for 1 1/2 hours or until knife inserted into center comes out clean.

Cool slightly and spread meringue over top.

Meringue

Beat 2 egg whites until they stand in soft peaks. Add 1/10 teaspoon salt and 3 tablespoons sugar, 1 teaspoon at a time. Add 1/4 cup ground ginger. Spread over pudding.

Bake in very slow oven, 300 degrees Fahrenheit, for 15 minutes or until meringue is slightly browned.

You Don't Need Much Advice-

... but it is valuable now and then. For example, when you go to buy a policy of insurance, don't select any kind of a policy or any kind of an agent. There is a big difference. You will likely never use your insurance any way but if you do your agent will be the key man in any settlement you make with the insurance company. It is sound advice to buy only from local agents who have long records of successful performance in adjusting insurance claims.

Battle of the Alamo Will Be Re-Enacted

The historic cry of "Remember the Alamo", during the historic 1836 battle of the Alamo, will live again via "living theatre" when the "Drama of the Alamo" is staged in San Antonio July 4-25th at San Jose Mission.

Visitors to the city of the Shrine of Texas Liberty will have an opportunity to see and participate in the enactment of this dramatic fight for freedom to be held in one of the nation's unique theatres.

The San Jose Outdoor Theatre, is one of the State's most beautiful settings, lends its old-world atmosphere to the colorful and action-packed drama of Travis, Bowie, Bonham, Crockett and other great adventurers of the Alamo for a "never-to-be-forgotten" memory to the audience.

The "Drama of the Alamo" brings to San Antonio a new concept in stage production: the audience literally surrounded on three sides by a 235 foot panoramic stage, with spectators sitting under the starry Texas sky in the "middle of the battle".

James Barton, Professor of drama at Southwest Texas State College, is directing the production with a costumed cast of over 50. Famed Texas playwright, Ramsey Yelvington, adapted the "Drama of the Alamo" from his nationally acclaimed "Cradle of Witnesses."

The atmosphere and spirit of San Antonio in the days before the actual battle of the Alamo is re-created nightly before each evening's performance in a "Old Texas Day Fiesta".

The picturesque atmosphere is provided during the Fiesta by strolling musicians, women costumed in native dress, Mexican candy sellers and adobe making tacos and tortillas, all of which enables the audience to take part in the play during the pre-Alamo era captured in the Fiesta.

The "Drama of the Alamo" and the "Old Texas Days Fiesta" is sponsored this year by the San Antonio Conservation Society.

Reservations and ticket information for the "Drama of the Alamo" may be obtained by writing to: San Antonio Conservation Society, 511 Villita Street, San Antonio, Texas. Tickets are priced at $2 for box seats; $1.50 for reserved sections; and, $1 for general admission. Reserved sections and general admission are half-priced for children under 12.

Stamp To Salute Soil Progress In United States

COLLEGE STATION — A 4-cent postage stamp saluting progress in soil conservation in the United States will be issued Aug. 26 by the Post Office Department, said Lynn Pittard, asst. extension soil and water conservation specialist.

The Nation's first soil conservation stamp will be formally released at the annual meeting of the Soil Conservation Society of America at Rapid City, South Dakota, August 26. It will go on sale the following day at post offices throughout the country.

The stamp, which was developed in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture, portrays a modern farmland setting signifying that conservation farming brings beauty as well as bounty to rural living. Soil conservation practices portrayed include contour stripcropping, terracing, pasture improvement, tree planting, and a farm pond. In addition, the silhouette of a city in the background symbolizes that urban as well as rural people are highly dependent upon the care and wise use of land as a principal source of food, water, shelter and clothing. The stamp will be printed in three colors, yellow, green and blue.

Issuance of the stamp, Pittard said, is a tribute to farmers and ranchers, their local soil conservation districts and to the professional agricultural workers who have helped make the United States a world leader in soil conservation.

First day "covers" containing the stamp are available through the Postmaster at Rapid City, S. D. Upon request and receipt of addressed envelopes and a remittance to cover the cost of the stamps, the post office at Rapid City will place the new stamp on the envelopes, cancel them with a special cancellation mark used only on that day and at that place, and mail the envelopes on the first day of issue.
