MOORE about... EASTLAND by Virgil E. Moore

Emmett Powell, the big shot in the ASC office, is a firm believer in signs. He has one on his desk, which says, "I'm not very bright, but I've got lots of smart help."

And on the wall of his office this sign is posted, "If you can keep your head in the midst of all this confusion you don't un' stand the situation."

F. DeBusk of Cisco was kind enough to forward us a clipping from the Nacomb Chronicle, which is printed in Frankfurt, Germany. The news item was sent home by the DeBusk's daughter, Nancy Dolores, who is employed with the Civil Service in Frankfurt.

The item told about an American GI, Tom Wood, from our hometown, Corsicana, who received two horns toads from his parents. He gave the pair of toads to the famous Frankfurt Zoo, and they were highly welcomed.

"I was a little afraid they wouldn't survive the trip," Wood was quoted as saying, "but I read in a wildlife book about one being sealed in the cornerstone of the old Eastland, Tex. county courthouse for 30 years without food or water and coming out alive. I didn't worry much after that."

Sorry we missed the Sabanna Valley Game Preserve Association's annual barbecue. We've been having a little trouble with the old stomach and haven't got enough will power to stand around and watch others eat barbecue and not take a bite or two ourselves.

Understand, however, that the affair was, as always, really something special. The association is to be commended for another outstanding job.

See where Texas Jaycees are sponsoring a campaign to prevent a fatal highway crash during the Labor Day weekend of U.S. Highway 80's 832-mile stretch from Shreveport, La. to El Paso. There wasn't a single traffic death on the highway during the last Labor Day weekend, and a repeat of that performance would certainly be something.

Emmett Powell isn't the only guy with a fancy sign. Barbara Williamson recently gave us this one: "Diplomacy Dept. We do and say the nastiest things in the nicest way!"

Eastland citizens will have an opportunity to see some top notch junior college football this year. Understand that Cisco and Ranger colleges both are looking forward to good years on the gridiron. Ranger College has a 12-game schedule.

At the end of the football season you will hear a lot of talk about willingness to pay the price.

That's a key expression of banquet speakers, and it's a good one. We think that right now is the time to think about paying the price, however. For that's what that 30-odd group of Mavericks are busy doing. There are no cheers from the sideline as they work hard to get in shape and get their plays down pat. No one is on hand to report any great plays they might make. Just the same, those Mavs are busy now paying the price for future victories. They realize it, and that's what makes it nice.

The will to win is something that is hard to beat down. But you don't get the will to win at 8 p.m. on a given Friday night. The coach doesn't say magic words that send you out on the field to fight for dear old E.H.S. You get that will to win on the practice field. And it takes boys willing to pay a pretty high price.

Meet you here Tuesday.

Twenty-One Farm Ponds Built In County In July

(Editor's Note: The following article was prepared by members of the Eastland Soil Conservation staff.)

Livestock farmers and ranchers of this area continue to construct good farm ponds for two fold purpose. First, ponds are generally the most practical source of livestock water, and second, well located ponds are essential in order to

New Soil Bank Program Rules Listed by Powell

Eastland County has some 112 farms under the Soil Bank program, according to Emmett Powell, ASC office chief in Eastland.

Powell said that new rules may cut down on the number of new farms coming under the program though.

Applications for farm rates must be filed during the period from Monday through Sept. 10. Applications for contract can be filed from Sept. 14 through Sept. 24.

Powell said that the basic annual rate per acre will be higher if the application covers all eligible land on a farm. Practice payments for establishment of grass cover will be limited to 50 percent of the cost of carrying out the practice.

Here are some other new rules: If the farm had a tenant in 1958 or 1959 there will have to be a tenant on the farm in 1960 and he must share in the conservation reserve payments.

Land purchased in 1957, 1958, or 1959 is not eligible for a contract.

Fair rental rates value of the land will help determine the soil bank per acre rental rate to be established for the farm.

The value of the crops produced on the land in 1955, 1956, 1957, 1958 and 1959 will in a large part determine the price to be paid under the 1960 program. It will be necessary to know the acreage, yield and value of the crops produced during the above years in order to establish a rate per acre for the farm.

Farms idle in 1958 and 1959 are not eligible for the program.

H. L. Bradford Services Saturday

Funeral services were to be held at 2 p.m. today (Saturday) for Harvey L. Bradford, brother of Mrs. C. F. Chesnut.

A revised list of pallbearers is, J. C. Grissom, Joe Lenzi, Fred Tibbels, Harmon Shokey, Wilson Guest, Leonard Arterburn, Jack Blackwell and O. D. Quarles.

Mr. Bradford's sister, of Weatherford, whose name appeared in the Thursday issue of the Times is Mrs. Fred Fowler, instead of Flowers.

These boys have got what it takes," Coach Carrol Shelton said, smashing his fist into his open hand.

Shelton sat in his office still wearing his workout uniform looking over a list containing 30 names, the names of his remaining players on the 1959 Maverick football team.

The Mav roster, smallest in recent years, is now composed of nine seniors, nine juniors, seven sophomores and five freshmen. Shelton had the highest praise for his remaining five freshmen.

The Mavs, due to the smallness of the squad—in numbers, not weight—will apparently not field a B team this year. That will mean cancelling out a 10 game schedule. It will be the first time in years Eastland hasn't put a B-team on the field. The small number of freshmen who stuck it out is the reason for the lack of a junior varsity.

While the team number has get control of livestock and grazing. Twenty-one ponds have been completed since July 1 and five ponds are now nearing completion. Landowners of the Cisco area who have built ponds are R. M. Benton, T. C. Cozart, Albert Hansen, J. R. Mitchum, J. H. Penz, J. G. High, Roy Adams and A. V. Cagle.

Ponds in the Eastland area include J. D. Yancy, Tip Arther, Waverly Massengale, J. C. Harlan, Paul Tripplet and H. H. Durham. Carbon landowners completing ponds are G. O. Warren, L. N. Koen, Rufus Bean and M. A. Olson. E. F. Perch of Ranger has also constructed a farm pond.

Farm ponds are one of the most popular and useful conservation practices; yet they are like guns, they must be treated with due precautions. For example, the second largest accidental death loss on farms and ranches in our nation is caused by drowning. Too often the loss of life are those of children. More than 300,000 ponds have been constructed on the farms and ranches of the nation. Approximately 64,000 new ponds were completed last year.

The local SCS work unit at Eastland checked out 104 completed ponds last year and have averaged nearly 100 completed ponds each year since 1951. Each landowner is encouraged to make his farm pond safe and prevent drownings. Some safety precautions might well include the following rules:

- (1) Non swimmers should wear life jackets in boats.
- (2) Encourage children to learn to swim through various organizations.
- (3) Mark safe swimming areas.
- (4) Place warning signs at danger spots.
- (5) Never swim alone.
- (6) Use boats that will float if swamped or capsized.
- (7) Place life saving devices such as buoys, ropes or long poles at swimming areas.

Farm ponds should not be built near farmsteads if suitable sites can be found elsewhere. This greatly lessens the danger of small children going to such areas alone.

The Soil Conservation service has an excellent bulletin on farm pond safety available to interested pond owners.

Remember, the new Soil Conservation stamp goes on sale at local post offices Aug. 27. It is a very attractive stamp in three colors, yellow, green and blue. It portrays a modern farm showing that conservation farming brings beauty as well as bounty to rural living.

The stamp shows contour strip cropping, terracing, pasture improvement, tree planting and a farm pond. In addition the silhouette of a city in the background symbolizes that urban as well as rural people are highly dependent upon the care and wise use of land as a principal source of food, water, shelter and clothing.

Registration begins at 9 a.m. Tuesday and all of the county 4-H Girls are urged to attend. There will be recreation, other than swimming, workshops, and lots of good eats.

Registration fee is $2.50 and each girl is asked to send it in to the assistant agent. Also, if a girl is planning to swim, she must have a written permit signed by her parents.

Camp will have a general assembly at 2 p.m. Wednesday, and will adjourn at 2:30. Parents are asked to pick up their girls at this time, or make other arrangements for them to be picked up at this time.

"We would like to urge parents to attend the General Assembly Wednesday afternoon at 2 p.m.," Miss Wilhene Sockwell, assistant agent said. "This will include a summary of camp, and show what they have learned at camp. We believe it will be a profitable camp, as well as an enjoyable one. So 4-H Girls—plan to attend."

Registration day is set for Gorman school. Registration day for students of the Gorman Public Schools has been set for Friday, August 28th beginning at 1 p.m. All children entering the first grade must bring a birth certificate and proof of vaccinations.

Young Artist's Work Draws Highest Praise

By MRS. SIDNEY SEALE
I saw a strange sight the other morning. In a backyard on Sadosa Street blazng colors had blossomed overnight where no flowerbeds lay. Those brilliant colors were on canvas—portraits, almost life-size, stacked against a garage wall, made me wonder if there is not a touch of Paris or Greenwich village here in town.

Nancy Owen returned from summer school the day before and had unloaded her car. Not having had time to store the canvases they were unceremoniously jumbled, and as I looked through them, I realized there is an artist in our midst. An artist who is capable of handling color with a sure-footed freedom that results in finished studies worthy of any Paris salon, or the likes of which one might expect to find in a Greenwich Village studio—not on attic walls, but against a garage. Not on a sidewalk display, but under oak trees, these paintings and sketches are a delightful sight right here in our town.

An interesting assortment of pen and ink, charcoal, tempera, and oils in a fantastic collection one finds only in studios and galleries in the larger cities.

This brilliant young artist has promise of a future as bright and colorful as the works she "brushes off" so casually and capably—a more interesting use of color is seldom found anywhere.

One portrait appealed especially to me. A pathetic faced girl in a somber robe looks stupidly alert. Nancy explained that in order to meet a deadline with a painting she had to turn in one morning she had awakened her friend and done her portrait in the hours before dawn. She captured the early morning "Do I have to get up and face the world today?" expression as I've never seen it—or does the girl have something else in mind? You would have to see for yourself. I intend to go back and look

Getting Married Will Be Harder Job After Oct. 15

Getting married in Eastland County won't be quite as easy for juveniles after Oct. 15.

County Clerk Johnson Smith says he plans to carry out "to the letter of the law" House Bill 48 passed by the 56th Legislature. The new law goes into effect on that date.

Under the new law both parties must appear at the clerk's office to obtain their marriage license. Both must present documentary evidence proving their name and age (such as their birth certificate, driving license, etc.) as well as proof of blood tests.

The clerk then has to make a written statement showing the age and name of the parties who he issues the license to, and stating that he has seen their true name and age on some documentary piece of evidence.

If the boy is under 21, or the girl is under 18 they must be accompanied by their parents or guardian. In case of illness, a doctor's certificate can be given the clerk, showing that the parent or guardian is sick. The license must then be on file for three days before a juvenile can legally marry.

Paula Coats Named Farm Bureau Queen

Paula Coats, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Coats, Route 1, Cisco, was crowned queen of the Eastland County Farm Bureau Friday night, highlighting the annual barbecue held in Eastland City Park.

Miss Coats won the award over four other contestants. Placing second was Kay Miller, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Miller, Route 1, Gorman. The three other contestants were Jannie Morton, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Morton, Eastland; Venita Coats, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Coats, Route 1, Cisco; and Lynda Phippen, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Phippen of Cisco.

A. Z. Myrick served as master of ceremonies for the queen contest. The contest was held in the American Legion hall in Eastland before an overflow audience following the barbecue in the park picnic area.

The new queen will represent Eastland County in the District 7 contest. A state queen is chosen and then a national queen is named.

Miss Coats is a junior in Cisco High School. She replaces Kathy Williamson of Eastland, last year's Farm Bureau queen, as the ruling royalty of Eastland County's Farm Bureau.

Mrs. Joe Bob Browning of Gorman was in charge of the committee making arrangements for the queen contest. Other committee members were Mrs. Pat Kincaid, Mrs. Larue Broussard, Mrs. Myrick.

A SHOT OF THIS "RED EYE" CAN KILL YOU—BUT FAST!—Under development for the modern U. S. Army, this shoulder weapon is designed to track down and destroy low-flying aircraft. Known as "Red Eye," the development of General Dynamics' Convair Division will, if adopted, provide highly-mobile ground troops with a plane-buster similar to the tank-killing "bazooka." The launch tube also serves as a shipping container for the weapon when sealed at both ends, and the missile itself is a composite structure containing propellant, warhead, and electronic guidance system.

Mrs. McCain Hosts Luncheon for HD Club Thursday

The members of the Flatwood Home Demonstration Club met for a luncheon at the Lake Leon cabin of Mrs. Clint McCain Thursday.

Those attending the Luncheon were Misses A. H. Brown, Viola Guthrie, Annie Palmer, Carrie Wood, Oma Pogue, Juanita Masengale, Bess Bennett, Zelma Lusk, one visitor, Dere Shirrell, and the hostess Mrs. McCain.

After lunch the group enjoyed playing "42" and later they enjoyed swimming.

Christian Science

How the understanding of God as divine Mind brings health and harmony will be brought out Sunday at Christian Science services.

John's account of the healing by Christ Jesus of the impotent man at the pool of Bethesda (Ch.5) is presented in the Bible readings. The Lesson-Sermon is entitled "Mind."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read the following (339:25-28): "The basis of all health, sinlessness, and immortality is the great fact that God is the only Mind; and his Mind must be not merely believed, but understood."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (147:5): "Great is our Lord, and of great power; his understanding is infinite."

First Presbyterian Church

Corner Walnut & Valley Streets Eastland
Morning worship begins at 11 o'clock. The subject of the Sermon is "Windows Toward Jerusalem" This phase is from the Book of Daniel. The Sermon is a study of this Bible Book.

Clear Plastic Cover To Grass Establishment

COLLEGE STATION — Better grass establishment on yards, earth dunes, and terrace channels and ridges is possible on the Plains with the use of plastic covers according to the results of experiments conducted at the Southwestern Great Plains Field Station at Bushland, Texas in 1955.
E. B. Hudspeth, Jr., agricultural engineer of the USDA's Agricultural Research Service, said the plastic covers aided the retention of soil moisture and insured better stands of grass. He added that the tests were conducted on Pullman silty clay loam soil which covers an area of approximately 12 million acres of medium to fine-textured soil, commonly referred to as the "hardlands" of the Texas Panhandle and adjacent states. In this type of soil, the top 1/2 inch usually dries rapidly.
Clear and black polyethylene plastic sheets, 6 and 4 mils thick, respectively, were compared on non-replicated 2-by-2 foot wooden frames. Each frame had a 2-inch metal strip fastened around each side to prevent evaporation loss and precipitation infiltration around the edge of the plastic.
Blackwell switchgrass was used for the tests. Seed were placed approximately 1/2 inch below the soil surface. Two rows of seed with 40 seed in each row were planted in each treatment. The seed were covered with dry soil. Adequate moisture supplies at depths below the seed zone were obtained by well in advance of each seeding trial. Moisture content in the 3 to 12-inch depth averaged 21 percent in all trials, said Hudspeth.

The plastic frames were kept over the plants 5 to 7 days, a period long enough to insure germination of most of the viable seed, stated Hudspeth.
Under the clear plastic and on uncovered plots normal grass seedlings emerged and continued to grow as healthy plants. The seedlings under the black plastic were abnormal and had little survival ability. They lacked proper chlorophyll content and were spindly.

These studies showed, Hudspeth added, that except during the hottest months, June, July and August in the Texas Panhandle, clear or translucent plastics will create an environment favorable for grass seed germination and emergence.

Calvary Baptist Church

Rev. Earl Williams, pastor

You are cordially invited to attend any and all of our worship services this week at the Calvary Baptist Church, 205 North Oak St. Our Sunday morning services begin with Sunday School at 10 a.m., song service at 10:45 a.m., and the preaching hour at 11 a.m. On Sunday night, Group Prayer Meeting begins at 7:15 p.m., followed by Song Service at 7:30 p.m., and the Preaching Hour at 7:45.

Our Wednesday night service begins at 7:30 p.m., and close with a Prayer Service. Our pastor commended the Second Great Commandment last Wednesday night, and enlightened many of us concerning the phrase of "taking the Lord's name in vain."

Our Thursday night Fellowship following visitation was held last Thursday night at the home of Brother and Sister W. T. Wilson, who held it in the absence of Brother and Sister J. C. Berry, who were called out of town. Brother and Sister Berry will host the Fellowship next Thursday night, though, as scheduled.

Our pastor has been called to hold revival services at the Grace Baptist Church in Stephenville beginning Sunday, Aug. 23. We pray that all of you who can will attend that meeting, since we know you will be blessed by it.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

(Editor's Note: The Telegram does not publish unsigned letters. Names will be withheld by request, but all letters to the editor must be signed.)

Dr. Mr. Moore,

Could you please tell me what kind of person would deliberately hurt children? That is what happened at our house this morning (Aug. 13), for some one poisoned our three little boys' dogs. I would like to know if that party has ever tried to explain to little boys why their pet had to die such a horrible death, and I wonder too if they would understand what it is like to hear children cry of a broken heart because their little pal and playmate is dead.

Well, I can tell them it is something you wouldn't want to hear. I feel though that anyone so hard hearted wouldn't be moved at all for their mind is surely twisted and they have no heart or they couldn't be so cruel.

Sincerely,
Mrs. J. G. Biggs

Dear Mr. Moore,
Enclosed is a good yardstick for our churches to measure by.

Sunday morning crowd (Lord's Day) shows how popular the Lord is.

Sunday night crowd shows how popular the church is.
Wednesday night prayer meeting shows how popular the preacher is.

A puffed up preacher could twist it around by putting God last, by saying Sunday morning crowd proves how popular the preacher is, but Sunday is the Lord's Day, not preachers day.

Traveling on the Highways

... one has a chance to observe what's going on, here and there. It may be just a roadside collision or a modern farm home with every convenience. If within a city it may be the sight of a huge explosion that has wrecked a great building or a park with children playing everywhere. If one travels he cannot help but observe and back of these observations stands something that is strong and enduring which protects and preserves our way of life, for better living. That's Insurance.
