United Fund Goal Is Set

Two new agencies have been added to Eastland's United Fund and a goal of $7150 has been set for this year's drive.

The goal was set at a Board of Directors meeting Monday afternoon. At the same meeting, Charles Layton was named as drive chairman.

The new agencies are the Girl Scouts and the Texas Rehabilitation Center (Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation.) The Girl Scouts will receive $400 and the Rehabilitation Center will get $200. Only one of the original five agencies received an increased appropriation and one agency's budget was cut. The Boy Scouts were upped from $1800 to $2000 and the United Defense Fund was lowered from $350 to $150. Other participating agencies will include the YMCA, which will receive (Continued On Page Five) about...

EASTLAND

by Virgil E. Moore

Ray Pool, one of those Texas Tech exes, phoned early Monday to ask us to report to all Aggies that he has a large bottle of aspirin on hand for all A&M rooters. Like all other Tech exes, Ray was mighty pleased to see his team beat the College Station crew for the second year in a row.

Someone in Gorman dropped us a clipping from The Kingsville Record carrying the story of the death of Bob McGlamery, a native of Gorman. Bob was managing editor of The Record. He was killed in a highway collision.

Dr. Fehrman Lund, president of the Quarterback Club, says that he hopes to start having weekly Quarterback Club meetings to show films of the Mav games. A meeting was to have been held tonight, but three quarters of the film were ruined, so it will be next week before the meeting will start. We think Fehrman has a fine idea.

We noticed that the big city press boys renewed the old argument about what folks who live in Eastland are. The Abilene Reporter-News called us Eastlandites and The Dallas Morning News refers to us as Eastlanders. We don't care, though. Both newspapers had some mighty fine things to say about our city.

Personally speaking, we think citizens of Olden got them a renewal of a fine deal at last night's city commission meeting.

We think Eastland is being a mighty good neighbor. The renewal of the original water deal came, we think, because three Eastland city commissioners were convinced that Olden citizens were firm in their belief that they had an assurance from the old city commission that their rates would always remain the same as the Eastland rate, plus a 50c a month service rate.

There's no doubt in our mind that Eastland can make a little more money on the deal. We do not think the City of Eastland should ever enter into another such contract, however, for it is not fair to citizens of Eastland. Eastland citizens not only pay a Water District Tax, they pay city taxes too. And those city taxes, we point out, are still being used to pay off bonds which were floated to pay for putting down water lines in the City of Eastland.

Eastland citizens still owe roughly $130,000 in waterworks revenue bonds. That's about $130 for every home in Eastland, and local citizens have been paying on these bonds for many, many years. So you see, we paid (and are still paying) for our lines, too.

We're very close to Olden as most of you realize, and some of our best friends live out that way. We just want 'em to realize they got themselves a mighty good deal.

We're beginning to wonder about Eastland golfers. The other (Continued on Page Two)

Local Boy Can Win Washington Trip With Essay

An Eastland boy of Junior-Senior high school age will be the guest of the Eastland Telegram and the Majestic Theatre on an all-expense paid trip to Washington, D. C., and a tour of FBI headquarters. Twenty-two other youngsters from as many Texas cities will make the trip.

The boys will be selected through a contest held in conjunction with a new Warner Brothers motion picture, "THE FBI STORY," scheduled to open locally on Oct. 22-24, at the Majestic Theatre.

The contest is now in progress, and every Eastland County boy is eligible to enter by simply writing an essay of 100 words or less on "Why I Would Like To Be An FBI Agent."

Essays must be brought or mailed to the Junior G-Man Contest Editor, Eastland Telegram, before midnight Saturday, Oct. 3. The contestant must send his full name, age, address, telephone number and the school he is attending with his entry.

The local winner will tour the nation's capital and visit the various departments of the FBI, including crime detection laboratories in the headquarters building. Also on the agenda is a visit to the FBI's training base at Quantico, Va.

The 23 Texas lads will gather in Dallas, where chaperones will join them for the trip to Washington. The local winner will be announced on Tuesday, Oct. 6, and the tour will start from Dallas on Thursday, Oct. 8 via airplane. The visit to the nation's capital will last two days, the group returning to Dallas on Sunday, Oct. 11.

Inspiration for the contest, "The FBI Story," has James Stewart as a typical young FBI agent. Vera Miles co-starred as his wife. Authored by the two-time Pulitzer Prize-winning newspaperman, Don Whitehead, the film parallels the private life of the FBI agent with the development and growth of the outstanding law enforcement organization.

Rotarians See Grid Film at Monday Meeting

Eastland Rotarians saw highlights of the 1958 Southwest Conference football season Monday at their regular noon luncheon. Dr. J. H. Canon was program chairman and the films were provided by Humble Oil Co.

Rotarians ate in the Village Hotel Roof Garden as guests of the management.

Soviet Premier Khrushchev should visit Eastland instead of some of the larger cities in America. That's the belief of Lynn Landrum, editorial page writer for The Dallas Morning News.

Landrum gave out with this advice in his column Saturday morning: Eastland, Texas, is what Komrade Khrushchev ought to be looking at instead of Washington and New York. Eastland is more typically American. In Eastland nobody is stinking rich and nobody is stinking poor. Unemployment is known as loafing in Eastland, and is never locally rewarded. Oh, an occasional spoonful from the gravy bowl is in Washington sometimes spills over into Eastland. But you want to know what is really the Eastlander's idea of getting things on the way to accomplishment, go out to Eastland International Airport. Eastland International Airport was in need of a runway recently.

NEWEST STEWARDESS—Newest of the jet-age stewardesses of Pan American World Airways is blue-eyed Eastland brunette Helen Anita Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Taylor, 200 West Plummer. Helen recently graduated from the airline's university of the air in Miami. She is assigned to Clipper routes from Miami to the Bahamas, Central and South America and the islands of the Caribbean. Miss Taylor is a graduate of Eastland High School and Baylor University. Her routes will give her days off in such widely separated points as Buenos Aires, Caracas, Trinidad, Havana, Guatemala City, Panama, New Orleans, San Francisco and New York. (Pan American Photo)

Man Admits Story of Hijacking Was Hoax

A 33-year-old Abilene man has signed a statement admitting that he made up the story that he was hijacked and robbed of several hundred dollars on Highway 6 between Okra and Carbon three weeks ago.

James C. Winn, a route salesman for an Abilene frozen food distributing company, signed the statement in Abilene Saturday before a notary public and handed a copy of the statement to Eastland County Chief Deputy Sheriff Johnny Boyd in Eastland.

Winn had notified the Eastland Sheriff's Department Aug. 28 that two Latin Americans had forced his truck off the highway and robbed him at gunpoint. In his notarized statement Saturday, Winn told how he faked the hijacking to cover up a shortage of company funds. In the statement the Abilene man admitted he had used a double record keeping system for about two months to cover up shortages.

"Eventually, I just got in so deep that I didn't know what to do," he said. "A little after noon on Aug. 28, 1959, I stopped at a roadside park between Gorman and Carbon and counted my money and I had $253 in currency and I had some checks and some change. I got back into my truck and I backed out and went to Okra and had Mr. Sharp call the police and report that I had been hijacked. I had hidden the money in a box in the back of my truck when I was stopped at the roadside park between Carbon and Gorman. I told the officers my story on how the robbery occurred but actually there was no hijacking and the men and car and events that I described to them of the robbery was something I made up."

Dallas Writer Urges Mr. K. to Visit In Eastland

Star-Telegram, quotes Mayor Cyrus Frost, speaking of the problem at the airport, as saying: "We're kind of hard-nosed bent out here. We figured to hell with government aid. We'd put in the runway poor-boy style."

Eighteen businessmen of Eastland chipped in a total of $3,300 in cash. The city crew plowed up the runway six inches deep and 3,400 feet long. Then they powdered the earth and mixed in thoroughly 800 barrels of heavy crude oil. Then for five straight days they rolled the runway with heavy power rollers.

Eastland International Airport is waiting to serve the traffic that Eastland has to handle. And not a dime of federal money was asked for or received. The City of Eastland spent $300 for field lighting and practically any twin engine plane can land here safely and take off again without trouble.

Eastland may have had in its tongue in cheek when it called the airport "international," the Fort Worth Star-Telegram didn't go into that. And, besides, Eastland has a number of home-based airplanes which make frequent trips into Mexico and back again. That is international enough to take care of the title, after all. The Little Man from Moscow wouldn't want to understand Eastland. For, you see, Eastland is the direct contradiction of everything that the Little Man says and wants to believe about America.

Eastland is made up of neighbors. The big shot and the little shots go about in shirt sleeves if it happens to be shirt-leave weather. But when they want to do it, Eastlanders can dress up and there won't be anybody in rags. And there are seven private airplanes based in Eastland. That's more than there are in the whole city of Moscow. Private ownership isn't encouraged in Moscow, you know. But in Eastland you can find owners of A. T. & T., General Motors, Standard Oil. And yet nobody has his thumb in the workingman's eyes. Eastland, Mr. K., is America.

COMMISSION HAS SPLIT VOTE

Olden Citizens Retain Special Water Rates

Olden citizens who buy water from the City of Eastland will continue to get water at the same rate Eastland citizens pay with an additional 50c a month service charge. That's the same deal Olden citizens had before the recent rate changes. City commissioners met with some 21 Olden citizens last night and heard petitions to put their water rates back from $6.50 to $3.50 plus the 50 charge. Commissioners finally voted three to one to reduce the rates. Voting for the reduction were Commissioners Bob Perkins, Tom Wilson, and Jack Germany. Commissioner Virgil Seaberry Jr. voted against the proposal and Mayor Cyrus Frost stated that he was against such a deal.

Travis Hilliard, spokesman for the Olden delegation, said Olden citizens were assured by the Commission they worked with three years ago that Olden rates would remain the same as Eastland rates. Such a proposition was not in the minutes. Mayor Frost suggested that the Olden rate remain $3.50 for two more years and then be increased to $6.50. The Olden group is the only out-of-city users who do not now pay the $6.50 rate. Commissioner Seaberry also favored some concession to the Olden group.

Other Business
Commissioners passed on first reading a resolution to lease mineral rights to 250 acres of City-owned land to the Great Western Drilling Co. The City will receive a $1,250 bonus for signing plus $1 per acre annual rental for three years.
Frank Sayre appeared before the Commission on behalf of Texas Electric Service Co. requesting a new 50 year franchise to operate here. TESCO's present franchise still has 7 1/2 years before it expires.
Sayre pointed out that his company has to have assurance of long term operations because of the great amount of expenditures required. Commissioner Germany said he did not see why TESCO would need the renewal now.
Mayor Frost praised Texas Electric as one of Eastland's best citizens. He urged that the City renew the franchise. It was pointed out that the franchise has nothing to do with rates and that it is not exclusive. All commissioners except Germany and Seaberry voted in favor of the renewal. Germany voted no and Seaberry, whose firm represents TESCO, abstained. (Continued on Page Two)

Gray Matter

This week we Americans have had an opportunity to observe something that we've never seen before. The big boy of Russian Soviet government is currently paying a visit to our shores. He is the first chief of their government to visit our country since the Communist Revolution of 40-odd years ago overthrew the Czar's government.
For a long time none of the self-respecting countries of the world would officially recognize the communists as the legal government of that country. This country, if I remember right, recognized the Communist government in 1933 in the early days of Franklin D. Roosevelt's administration.
There were those who at that time opposed the recognition of that government. Some today claim such recognition was a mistake. Whether it was a mistake at the time to recognize the Communist government of Russia is academic nowadays as we have been recognizing them for these past 26 years. A lot of us would like to withdraw our recognition, but it's too late.
One thing that interests me about Mr. Khrushchev's current tour of our land is the fact that the American press representatives are right on his trail and he can't make a move without one of them asking him some embarrassing questions.
It's interesting to see how he tries to dodge some of them that can't be dodged. The question asked at one of his public appearances in Washington about his whereabouts while Stalin was committing his high crimes is a case in point.
Another that brought smiles to the faces of his audience was an attempt to answer a question about his handling of a little anti-Russian feeling in Hungary. To hear our visitor from the USSR explain it his people and the Hungarians were the best friends in the world and he had been called to Budapest to receive their expression of thanks for killing off about 30,000 of them.
That sort of foolishness might be something that the Russian people will accept, but it's not fooling anyone in these United States except anyone stupid enough to be a card-carrying Communist.
The Russians are still jamming almost all the broadcasts of Radio America beamed to that country. They are afraid of the truth and don't allow free expression in press, speech or public assembly.
We cherish these things so much that we put their guarantee in the first 10 amendments to our United States Constitution so that they would never be violated by any tyrant.
I wonder what a fellow like Khrushchev thinks about when he reads a document like our Constitution. Why is it that all tyrants destroy freedom of the press, free-

Annual Acreage Survey Being Made In Sept.

The United States Department of Agriculture, in cooperation with the Post Office Department, is conducting an annual acreage survey this month.

Rural mail carriers will deliver some 30,000 cards to Texas farmers and ranchers. The cards list questions on crop acreages and livestock. Carriers pick up the completed cards and forward them to Cary Palmer, agricultural statistician for Texas, in Austin.

Eastland County farmers were urged to cooperate.
"This survey serves as a basis for estimating the state's farm production," Palmer said.

dom of speech and freedom of assembly immediately after their gain to office?

The people who ought to know tell me that many of the things embodied in our Constitution are also mentioned in the constitution of the Soviet government, but there must be a difference in their application.

We guarantee freedom of religion; they claim the Russians do too. But it's application is that if one isn't an atheist in Russia he won't amount to much in their official government. Religion is discouraged in Russia if not actually persecuted. Imagine what would happen if the United States Government were to try to persecute someone because of his religion.

Talk about the Supreme Court moving in, it'd move in as fast as a lawyer could file a case on this type of conduct. Some of us don't always agree with the Supreme Court in some of its decisions, but let's fact it. The judicial system of the American system of checks and balances is the one part of our system that keeps this land from becoming a police state.

Nazism and Communism are supposed to be the direct opposite of one another. J. Edgar Hoover has at times referred to the Russian form of government as Red Fascism which looks like a paradoxical term in itself. Actually, it isn't. Both systems, the one Hitler used in Germany and the present one in Russia, are nothing more than police states regardless of the economic system they enforce. In a police state human freedom is unknown. We Americans can get along without either.

As long as we protect our rights under the Bill of Rights we won't have to worry about a tyrant taking over. And this goes for the Fifth Amendment too.

Have Gas Heating Equipment Check Is Needed Now!

Now is the time to have your gas heating equipment inspected and adjusted for winter use. A. G. Goldston, Lone Star Gas Company manager, suggested today.

"By calling today to have your heating equipment serviced," he said, "you will avoid any delay. Heating service companies and Lone Star always receive hundreds of calls for service the day that cold weather hits. And this usually results in considerable delay in filling individual orders."

All users of gas central heating systems, floor furnaces, wall heaters, unit heaters and other heating equipment should call their heating equipment company of Lone Star Gas Company for this service, he said.

When Staying In A Friend's House

Dear Mrs. Post: Is it rude to lock one's door when staying in someone's house? Recently I was a weekend guest in a friend's house and when I went into my room at night I locked my door. The next day my hostess commented on this and said that it wasn't necessary to lock doors in her house as everyone respected the privacy of others. Will you please tell me if I was wrong?

Answer: Locking your door when staying in a friend's house is not actually wrong, but it does indicate that you have not complete confidence in all the others in the house, and therefore is not a very friendly thing to do.

Delivering A Wedding Present Personally

Dear Mrs. Post: Does a wedding present have to be sent by the store, or by the individual through the mail in order to be proper? May it never be delivered personally or taken to the wedding?

Answer: Usually it is sent by the store that you bought it from with your card enclosed. But if you want to take it and leave it at the house yourself, it is quite proper to do so if you take it before the day of the wedding. Do not, however, take it with you to the wedding because the bride will have no chance to see it.

Inviting Boy From Out of Town

Dear Mrs. Post: I would like to invite a boy who lives about fifty miles from here to a dance. The only drawback is this: Am I supposed to ask him to my house or take a room for him at a hotel and pay for it? He will be unable to return home that same night.

Answer: Taking it for granted that you are living at home with your parents, asking him to the house would be the proper thing to do. If this is not feasible, then a room should be taken for him at the hotel by your father—or mother—but not you.

Listening In On The Telephone

Dear Mrs. Post: Everytime I talk to a friend on the telephone my mother picks up the extension and listens in. She tells me it is her right and that I shouldn't have any secrets from my family. It is not that I have secrets, but I hate the feeling of having somebody listening in. Will you please give me your opinion?

Answer: To listen in on anyone's telephone conversation, even though it be that of your youngest member of the family, is an unthinkable breach of courtesy—and no more excusable than the behavior of a neighbor who makes a practice of eavesdropping on a party line. As a matter of fact, every well-bred person who accidentally picks up the telephone and hears people talking instinctively hangs up.

Kissing Fiancee In Public

Dear Mrs. Post: As my fiancee and I live near each other, I stop by for her at the office at night and we drive home together. When she comes out of the building I greet her with a kiss. I have been severely criticized for this by some of her co-workers who say it is bad taste to show any display of affection in public. Will you please give me your opinion about this?

Answer: While there is really nothing wrong in doing as you do, it would show more reserve and therefore be in better taste to wait until you are in the privacy of your car—and even then kiss her very briefly.

A New Mink Stole

Dear Mrs. Post: A friend of mine recently bought a mink stole. She wore it the other evening to a party at which we were both guests. I did not make any comment about it as I always thought it was in bad taste to comment on another's clothes. I understand she was very hurt about this and thinks I am jealous. Was I wrong not to have commented on it?

Answer: Certainly not. You should only comment on anything worn by a friend when you honestly think it is strikingly becoming to her.

DIAL TELEPHONES

are being installed in Eastland

PLEASE DO NOT USE THE DIAL NOW

DIALS are being installed on telephones here in preparation for the change to the new dial system. Many weeks—even months—will be required to complete this phase of the job.

In the meantime, of course, other work will be going on to finish the new telephone building and install the dial equipment.

When the dial is installed on your telephone, please remember these two things:

1. Continue to give your calls to the operator—just as you have in the past.

2. Do not turn the dial while telephoning—this may disconnect you from the person you are talking to.

Installation of dials on telephones here is another step toward the day when your dial system will be placed in service.

We'll let you know when the new system is completed and the dial on your telephone is ready for use.

W. H. McAnally, Manager

Insurance is a Life-Time Affair—

... and is so considered by those who figure safety as a business and protection as an investment. The fact that a person has carried insurance for many years and never had a claim does not mean that he has lost his money premiums. Rather has he gained them because he invested in safety, got protection and lost none of his property. If we buy insurance for what it really is at least a part of our financial problems will solve themselves.

TELEPHONE TALK
 by W. H. McAnally, Manager

GREATER CONVENIENCE

Additional telephones — more and more families are using and enjoying the convenience of several telephones. How many of you are living in two-story homes with one telephone, and when the telephone rings you have to either run up or down the stairs to answer it. How often have you wished for a telephone beside your bed or in the kitchen when you are busy preparing a meal and the telephone rings? When you are interested in a good TV program and the telephone rings, wouldn't it be a pleasure to just reach over to an extension telephone? These are only a very, very few of the reasons you should have that extra telephone. I wish you would think about this for just a few minutes, and I am sure you will find several places you could use another telephone.

The additional extension telephones are available at a monthly charge of $1.00 plus tax and installation charge. In other words, the increase of your monthly telephone cost is only $1.10 for each additional telephone installed.

PICK THE ROOM — THEN THE COLOR

The other day, I was reading over a study made by the telephone company which showed that the kitchen and bedroom were the most popular locations for extension telephones.

It doesn't surprise me because a good number of our customers here in Eastland have ordered telephones for those particular rooms in their homes.

But perhaps you'd like additional phones in other rooms—the workshop, maybe, or the family room. All you have to do is pick the room where you want an extension, and then call the business office.

We'll be happy to help you select the color that fits the room — and within a few days you'll have a color extension to brighten your home and help you get more out of life.

THE OLD "COLLEGE TRY"

In the coming months, Saturday afternoons on college campuses will mean lively football games with teams giving it the old "college try."

But Sunday afternoon — minus the excitement of the winning touchdown — can be lonely for sons and daughters away at college.

There's an easy remedy for this, however. Just ask them to make the old "college try" at remembering to call you collect every other Sunday.

Who knows? They may even surprise you some Sunday by paying for the call themselves with the dollar or two they've saved from allowance or an extra job they've picked up at college.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

September—and the opening of school—means a "fresh start" for most family members in one way or another. It's also the time when eating habits are re-established for the school and work days ahead. It's a fine time to establish good breakfast habits for every member of the family.

Eating a good breakfast pays off in efficiency, alertness, and proof for that statement. Research has shown that breakfast-skippers rob themselves of potential alertness and efficiency during late morning hours, and that dieters are wrong if they think missing breakfast is a practical way to lose weight.

Aim for an adequate breakfast. That means one that will provide one-fourth to one-third of the day's total food requirements in calories and nutrients. It should include these basic foods: fruit or fruit juices, cereal or eggs and meat, or both, whole or enriched bread, butter or margarine, milk or coffee.

Be a better breakfast booster—start with yourself and other family members to help improve breakfast eating habits of all age groups.

Would you buy food while blindfolded? Labels were meant to insure your safety and to help you get what you want. Look for labels that give helpful information.

State and city laws apply to food within local jurisdiction. These laws are designed to safeguard you from food which is not fit to eat, from adulteration of food, from misleading information, and to help you know the quality of food.

Labels on food which leave their home state for sale must have the following information:

 Name of the product and variety or style when applicable.
 Name and address of the manufacturer, packer or shipper. An accurate statement of the quantity.
 A list of the common or unusual name of each ingredient, when two or more foods go into an unstandardized product. The order of listing indicates the relative amount of each food. The food present in largest quantity comes first. Enough facts to fully inform the purchaser concerning foods for special dietary purposes.
 A statement of the use of artificial flavoring, artificial coloring, imitations, or chemical preservatives.
 An indication and explanation of substandard quality or substandard fill of container. Such food must be wholesome although it may not measure up to prescribed minimums in a stated way.
 This information can help you decide on the food which will be most satisfactory for your family. Read the label carefully. Choose the food best suited to your purpose and your budget.
