Bake Sale Set By 4-H Girls
 Some of the 190 Gray county 4-H club girls will be on hand at 9 a.m. Saturday in the corridor of the court house to sell cookies, cakes, pies and candy.
 The bake sale will be one of several held throughout the year, according to Miss Faye Burns, assistant county home demonstration agent.
 Proceeds from the sale will go into the 4-H club treasury, used for — among other things — sending two girls and a leader to the annual Texas A&M round-up June 8-10 and sending representatives to the 4-H district camp in Amarillo May 30 to June 2.

County Judge Will Address Citizen Class
 County Judge J. B. Maguire Jr. tonight will address the Lions club's Americanization class on how the U. S. Constitution is amended and he will explain the Bill of Rights.
 Session is to begin at 8 p.m. in the San Houston school, according to Homer Craig, course instructor.
 Maguire will cover "Early Changes in Constitution and Government," material handed in Chapter Four of the class textbook, Craig said.
 His talk will be followed by a question-and-answer period, a discussion and a written lesson. An exam on material covered last week by L. C. Davis on "Putting the New Government to Work" will conclude the class.
 Class members, Craig pointed out, are urged to get photostatic copies of their marriage certificates, their husbands' birth certificates and photographs added to their personal files in order to have everything ready when the time comes for them to send in their applications for citizenship.

 church of their choice on this glad day."
 Most Pampa church services will include special sermons and sacred music at both morning and evening sessions Sunday.
 "Beyond the Sunset" is the sermon of Rev. Herbert Land, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, for the 11 a.m. Easter service. Songs in keeping with the holiday will also be featured. During the week, the Sunday school has held an intensive visitation campaign and has set an attendance goal of 215.
 Members of the Bible Baptist church will emphasize missions Sunday with the offering going for that work, advised Rev. M. H. Hutchinson. Sermon topic will be "The Seven Sayings of the Cross," for the 7:45 p.m. service, after which a baptismal ceremony will be held.
 An Easter message and special music by a girls' trio will highlight the Church of God service.
 Holy Souls Catholic church will celebrate high mass at 10:30 a.m. Sunday, with other masses at 9 a.m., 8 a.m. and 9 a.m., announced Father Miles Moynihan.
 An Easter cantata, "When Christ Arose," will be presented at 7 p.m. Sunday by the choir of the First Christian church. Two identical morning services will be held, one at 8:30 and one at 10:50. Sunday school will meet at the regular 9:45 hour.
 One of the two known sunrise services in the area will be held at the Miami Methodist church. The young people from Pampa's First Methodist church and from the Canadian church will attend the 5:30 a.m. service.
 The First Methodist church here will hold two morning Easter services with one at 8:30 and one at 10:55. At the morning sessions, the adult choir, under the direction of Roy Johnson, will present the anthem, "Oh Death, Where is Thy Sting," by Thornton, with Miss Barbara Stockton presenting a solo, "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth," also by Thornton. Dr. Tom Johnston's sermons will be "The First Easter Sermon" at the early service; "Easter Hope," at the 10:55 a.m. ceremony; and "The Meaning of Easter," at the 7:30 p.m. service.
 Kenneth Mangrum will preach the morning sermon at Hobart Street Baptist church Sunday, in the absence of Rev. W. F. Vandenberg. The choir will present four special anthems, and "The Old Rugged Cross" will be sung by a men's quartet, composed of

 The body will be taken over land in a Clay Funeral home ambulance to Duncan, Okla., for burial. Grave side rites will be held there at 3 p.m. Saturday.
 A resident of Shamrock 15 years, Mrs. Stafford had been seriously ill for the past two weeks, but had been in ill health three years. She moved to Shamrock from Los Angeles, Calif., where she had lived 20 years.
 She was born Sept. 10, 1861, in Gober, Tex., and was married to C. H. Stafford in 1876. Her husband died 32 years ago.
 Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Alice Hale, Shamrock, with whom she made her home until recently; a son, Orrin Stafford, Los Angeles; nine grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren, two sisters, Mrs. Sam O'Conner, Lubbock and Mrs. Belle Blair, Fort Worth.
 Pallbearers will be James Douglas, Darce Foshee, Otto Barton, C. L. Foshee, Valta Tarbet and R. L. Skipper.
 Boyd Stephens, Carl Ammons, Deryl Ammons, and John Wilde.
 The First Presbyterian church will have an Easter anthem at the morning service, with the sermon presented by Dr. Douglas Nelson, pastor. A candlelight communion service is scheduled for 8 p.m. today.
 Handel's "Since By Man Came Death" will be the Easter anthem presented by the choir at the First Baptist church Sunday. A solo "Holy City," will be sung by Ramona Meadows. Dr. E. Douglas Carver's sermon during the morning service will be "Resurrection Morning." In the evening, he will speak on "The Exile's Return," and Mrs. Leroy Thornburg will present the solo, "Man of Sorrow."
 A sunrise communion service will be held in St. Paul Methodist church at 4:30 a.m., according to Rev. Edwin Hall, pastor. Other services will be held at 9 a.m., 11 a.m., and 7:30 p.m., with the choir presenting "The Sanctus," by Gounod at the morning sessions.
 The American Cancer Society Crusade goal this year is $20,000,000.

No Reason To Fear H-Bomb Test Radiation Will Hit Us

WASHINGTON (NEA)—The great new power of the H-bomb, plus the fact that some 280 human beings were distantly exposed to it has whetted the interest of many people in knowing more about what constitutes a dangerous dose of radiation.

Bomb explosions or not, there is naturally, at all times, a certain amount of "background radiation" in the atmosphere. There have been a number of reports that the Department of Atomic Energy Commission in the U. S. has gone up since the H-bomb tests in March. There have been a number of inquiries about whether there is any new or greater danger to the American people from this source than there was from the A-bomb tests.

AEO has a stock answer for all such queries. It doesn't tell much in detail. It admits that there has been a small increase in natural background radiation in past

'Door For Gore' Club Is Formed

SAUK, Wis., April 15.—UP—Leroy Gore, weekly newspaper editor who kicked up a nationwide fuss with his plan to oust Sen. Joseph McCarthy from the U. S. Senate, found out Thursday that some folks around here aren't exactly wild about him, either.

They formed a "door for Gore" club and asked him to get out of town.

Gore, who just returned from New York and Washington on a fund raising tour for his "Joe must go" club, said he had anticipated such a movement.

"I anticipated it. I know what kind of following this guy McCarthy attracts," Gore said.

The "door for Gore" move was inaugurated Wednesday by Sauk City and neighboring Prairie du Sac residents. A lawyer hired by the residents said they had more than 200 signatures on petitions urging Gore to leave Sauk City.

Gore has nearly 200,000 names on lists demanding a recall of McCarthy.

Good And Bad Developments In World's Hot, Cold Wars

By CHARLES M. MCCANN
United Press Foreign Analyst

The week's balance between the good and bad news in the hot and cold wars:

- The Good
1. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles returned home "well satisfied" with the results of his talks in London and Paris. He got promises from the British and French governments to consider the possibility of a 10-nation defense pact against the threat of new Communist aggression in Southeast Asia. Thailand has accepted the proposed pact outright; Australia, New Zealand and the Philippines are reacting favorably.
  2. Britain promised to put an armored division in the proposed six-nation European Army and to assign Royal Air Force units to it. Disarmament commission met in New York. Soviet Chief Delegate Andrej Y. Vishinsky at once started obstructive tactics. For one thing he demanded that Red China, which is not a member of the UN, be put on a proposed sub-committee to study means of ending the arms race.
  3. In Korea, United States Maj. Gen. J. K. Lacey warned that the machinery for supervising the armistice is threatened with a breakdown if the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission is ineffective because the Communists veto every attempt to check against cheating by the North Korean and Chinese Reds. "It is now the obligation of the NNSC to decide whether or not it will henceforth be able to fulfill its critical functions with regard to violations of the armistice agreement," Lacey said.

By HENRY McEMORE
I am now living in a house with Spring is here, and that means the birds are back.

Back by the thousands. Hopping from limb to limb, swarming to worm and singing until you'd think their little Frank L. Stanton throats 24 hours.

If I wrote right here in this sentence that I didn't like the way birds sound when they sing, even really ill people would stagger from their beds, make their halting way to their desks, and pen letters to the editor beginning: "Dear Sir: Why do you allow..."

Indignation at such a remark would become as popular as hiding behind the Fifth Amendment. Tarring and feathering would be suggested for me not to mention ducking until I confessed my wrong.

So I won't say that I don't like to hear birds sing. I will content myself with saying that I wish they wouldn't sing so much and that there were some thing as a bird muffer to attach to their voice boxes. Or, at least, a city ordinance that kept them as reasonably quiet as your neighbor's radio or television.

Most birds don't have good voices, any more than most humans. People have been taught to believe that even the worst squeak out of a feathered friend is a note of sheer delight. They have come to believe it—but it isn't so.

Quite a few years ago I asked an old and dear and knowing friend John Kieran, to name me the four birds he would choose to form the all-time bird quartet. John, with all his love and knowledge of the nest-makers, took quite a time before naming his Big Four. I think he mentioned the nightingale, the lark, the thrush, and, well, I don't remember the fourth. Could have been the owl for bass.

The point is, John didn't find it up in a tree, preen my feathers, easy to name four good bird voices, and wait for me to feed me.

Red Problems

It has long been a Communist hope that the capitalist nations, most particularly the United States, would be ravaged from within by economic upheavals and the resulting social unrest.

Now the evidence is appearing that the shoe may be on the other foot — and the Soviet Union and her satellites are facing very serious internal problems of an economic and social nature.

In a speech made in mid-March, Director Harold E. Stassen of the Foreign Operations Administration said: "There are increasing reports indicating real economic trouble inside the Iron Curtain. . . They have taken millions of their people and placed them at sub-standard conditions under veritable slave labor. . . They have pulled down these groups while they make a tremendous effort to make some improvements in living conditions of a minority. . . That very process is starting to show very real strains and cracks and stresses." Now U. S. News & World Report has featured an article, based on reports from Bonn, London and Washington, which sums up the available evidence.

The article bears the unequivocal title, "Depression Hits Communist Empire." It observes, "People throughout the Communist empire are ill-nourished, ill-clad, ill-housed. In the satellites, they are obviously restless. Prosperity is not to be found anywhere within the Communist realm."

This, in the magazine's view, is largely the consequence of a breakdown in planning. Communism has gone all-out to develop heavy industry, and has neglected consumer industry. And the upshot, says U. S. News, is "ruined fields, short crops, shortages of food, clothing and housing; famine and general misery. Workers, underfed and without promise of reward, have little incentive to produce."

Some figures tell a revealing story in themselves. Since 1916, before the revolution, Russia's human population has increased 40 per cent — but her livestock population, which is an excellent barometer of the food situation, has actually declined by three per cent. Since 1937, Russian industrial production has more than doubled, a considerable achievement. But the consumer's share has gone down and down — where it amounted to 42 per cent of the total in 1937, it was but 28 per cent last year.

If the U. S. News-survey is correct, the economic plight is intense everywhere — in Poland, Hungary, Rumania, and in Czechoslovakia which, prior to communization, was self-sufficient in food and also was a highly-advanced and prosperous industrial power. Czech coal production, a vital element, has gone to pot, primarily because of the poor food and housing allowed miners. Strong efforts have been made to bring production up, but it seems to be a case where even Communist methods can't get blood out of a turnip. In China, there are famine conditions. Famine is nothing new to that vast land, but the Reds had promised to prevent it.

It is significant that top Russian officials, from Malenkov down, in speeches made for internal consumption, are promising all kinds of improvements in the living standards of the masses. Soon, they say, there will be more food, more and better goods of all kinds, more medical services, and so on. They are appealing to the people's loyalty and patriotism. This, in itself, certainly shows that there are grave troubles back of the Curtain.

Different Situation

The Pacific Northwest is undergoing a psychological readjustment that is hard for some people to swallow. For more than a generation the region has been dependent upon federal appropriations and political expediency for development of a large part of its electric power needs. The investor-owned taxpaying electric companies of the Pacific Northwest conducted their businesses in the shadow of nationalization while the public was conditioned to a federal power monopoly by an unending barrage of dramatic announcements from politicians. Now the situation is different. The federal government is attempting to withdraw from its dominating position in the electric power field. The Pacific Northwest has been given an opportunity to reassert its independence and its initiative. This is not easy after more than two decades of dependence. Some feel that Uncle Sam ought to at least remain in the Northwest as a "senior" partner in the power business, even if he has forsaken the roll of boss. However, there is plenty of evidence that the Northwest will readjust quickly and reassert the resourcefulness which led it to great electric achievements long before a federal power program was ever heard of.

According to J. E. Corette, president of the Montana Power Co. and currently heading a five-company power development program, "Enough kilowatts of new electrical energy to meet the estimated needs of customers for twenty years can be generated at no cost to the federal government." The five companies have proposed a plan to meet this goal. It has been approved by the Department of the Interior. "The companies," declared Mr. Corette, "see a combined need for 150,000 to 200,000 kilowatts a year for the next twenty years — they are willing to spend about $50 million a year to provide that power."

This is the kind of initiative that built the West.

Can State Teachers Be Trusted To Inculcate Belief In Individual Responsibility?

The American government was based on the theory that individuals were responsible for their own development and support. That it was not the province or function of government to provide for the development of its citizens.

A responsible person is a reliable and trustworthy person. He is both financially and morally accountable. From an ethical standpoint, it means that he has the character of a free moral agent, capable of determining one's own acts in other words, a person who believes in individual responsibility does not believe that he has an ethical right to use coercion or fraud to make someone else help support him. He is the kind of citizen we must have if we are to have a society and a government that will permit man to develop both materially and spiritually.

Thus, it is of the utmost importance that the youth of the land come in contact with teachers and others who can instill into them the belief in individual responsibility.

Now, it seems difficult to comprehend how state teachers can really teach their pupils to believe in individual responsibility when these teachers do not believe that it is their responsibility to teach well enough that people will voluntarily buy their services. When the youth of the land are encouraged to believe that public or tax-supported teachers are really individuals of high character and individuals who believe in and practice responsibility, then it is very difficult for them to believe that they should follow a different course of action or a different belief from the public school teacher.

The parents and the public in general are sending the youth to public schools because they want their children to be educated. Because they want their children to know the difference between right and wrong. Because they want their children to know that there are certain moral, eternal principles that they must use as guides for their conduct if they are to develop and promote justice and go through life courageously without fear of ever being embarrassed.

But these children are going to teachers who believe in the tenure law — who believe that because they once get a permit from the state to teach it is not their responsibility to teach well enough that people will voluntarily pay their salaries. They have become exalted. They seem to put their trust in the power of the state instead of their own ability to be able to compete with all who would teach.

Pupils Imitate Teachers
And since most people learn what they learn by imitating others, it is only natural for the pupils not to believe in individual responsibility when they grow up. It is only natural for them to believe that the state should also protect them from competition, as it does their teachers. When they are taught by their teachers to believe the state owes them an opportunity to get an education, it is then natural for them, when they grow up, to believe in "social security," minimum wages and old-age pensions and all those things that go with individual responsibility.

Reaping What We Are Sowing
And since the only way to judge anything is by its results, then certainly tax-supported schools are not teaching individual responsibility. They are teaching fear and that the individual must not be self-reliant. They are teaching that he must depend upon the state to educate him, to feed him and to initiate force to make other people help him.

The results are just as could be expected — ever-increasing government power, ever-increasing government debts, ever-increasing government taxes, ever-increasing discrimination laws intended to get more votes, redeemable paper money that is constantly becoming worth less and less, federal laws that take away from an individual his individual responsibility to support himself, long periods of unemployment, government monopoly in controlling credit and attempting to control the value of money and one war after another. These are the natural fruits of an "educational" system that does not believe in individual responsibility.

We need to be more afraid and more watchful about what our children are being taught than we need to be afraid of Russian communism. Our danger is from within — not from Russia or from any other foreign ideologies. Our public school teachers are completely denying the ideologies set forth in the Declaration of Independence that governments derive their just power from the consent of the individual and that all men have certain inalienable rights. This is exactly what must be taught in compulsory schools that are based on the theory that might makes right, that individuals are not equally free, that men must pay for a schooling that they do not want to use and which they believe is harmful — all because we have been taught by state school teachers to believe that the state has a moral right to do things that no individual has a moral right to do and that there are two standards of right and that men are no longer responsible for their own well being, but they have a moral right to take up the sword, to be an aggressor, to initiate force to make others do for them what they ought to do for themselves. It certainly looks as if tax-supported school teachers cannot be trusted to instill in the minds of their pupils a belief in individual responsibility. And any system that does not do that is unethical and unjust and tyrannical in its worst form is the inevitable result.

National Whirligig... Ike Endorses Dewey Plan For Federal Niagara Development

By RAY TUCKER
WASHINGTON — The Eisenhower administration's professed sympathy for private enterprise versus public (federal or state) financing and operation of utilities and certain industries has become suspect to the $400,000,000 project for harnessing wasted water at Niagara Falls.

This new chapter assumes national significance for numerous reasons. In favoring New York state rather than private development of Niagara's boiling waters Eisenhower seeks to assure a victory for Gov. Thomas E. Dewey against Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. or any other Democratic opponent next fall.

But if the White House favors public promotion here for partisan reasons, it will open the door to similar handling of many other not developed or undeveloped natural resources — Hell's Canyon TVA, Bonneville, the Upper Colorado Basin, Passamaquoddy, and importantly, atomic power.

Thus, the Niagara project, which is the only state kind east of the Great Divide, presents a clear-cut showdown. It is a water power affair exclusively, with no such side issues as irrigation, navigation, flood control and conservation. Five great utility firms, headed by Niagara-Mohawk, have pooled their financial and engineering strength, and are ready to build now.

I view of these factors, the House passed the Dondoro Bill for private development by an overwhelming majority last year. It rejected a Dewey measure for state promotion and Roosevelt-Lehman proposal for another federally sponsored TVA.

AN IRONIC ALIGNMENT — The

The Security Council of the United Nations sent American troops into the Korean War under an "executive agreement" that was never submitted to Congress. For three years they fought "Under United Nations Command." But when the armistice between the United Nations and the Communists broke down and no political conference was arranged (as stipulated in that armistice) the United Nations abandoned the cause of the 31,500 Americans who died in that war. The United Nations has no part in the proposed Geneva Conference that is supposed to settle things. This will be a conference of belligerents — including Soviet Russia (who admits that she sent arms and ammunition to the Communists while a Soviet citizen was functioning as United Nations War Minister). The record seems to indicate that the United Nations can't get us out of it. Are we going to repeat all this in Indo-China? If we can't be prevented from making mistakes, can't we be prevented from taking encores?

THE ROOSEVELT STORY — ANTE YALTA (Monroe, La., World)

Thanks to Rear-Admiral Robert Theobald, the story of Franklin Roosevelt's part in the Pearl Harbor tragedy is now becoming known. It is not new news to many who had carefully studied the record. Writers such as Charles Callan Tansill, John T. Flynn, Ellis M. Zacharias and others have been attempting to give the history of the affair for many years.

The sordidness of the affair can not be surmised by the actions of any past president. His associates, General Marshall, Admiral Stark, Secretary Knox had deliberately conspired with the President to offer the American Pacific Fleet as bait to the Japanese at the Hawaiian base. They had deliberately sought war with both Germany and Japan as Roosevelt decided after the French defeat that war was necessary if the nation was to be saved from Fascism.

It is unfortunate that Roosevelt did not feel the same way about the soviet Union, just as criminal in those days as was Hitler and even a former ally of the Nazi Germans. The American people owe the publisher of "U.S. News and World Report," David Lawrence, a vote of thanks for publishing the book by Admiral Theobald word for word, line for line in his magazine. They owe the publishers of Devin-Adair, a small, but absolutely fearless publishing house, a debt-of-gratitude for publishing the book.

They owe a vote of scorn to the great "conservative" houses which refuse to publish a line of pro-Americanism while pouring page after page of infatigable trash onto the unsuspecting public.

Juice would be distributed directly or indirectly through New England, Pennsylvania and Ohio, will be deprived of power indefinitely in order to re-elect Tom Dewey who was such a key figure in the nomination of President Eisenhower over a wide area, for Niagara's,er.

Fair Enough... U.S. Officer in Moscow Told He Was Unfit To Wear Uniform

By WESTBROOK PEGLER
(Copyright, 1954, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)
NEW YORK — In July, 1943, Gen. G. G. G. V. Strong, chief of Army Intelligence and assistant chief of staff to Gen. George S. Patton, in which an American admiral was quoted as having said to an American Army officer of high rank in Moscow: "You are not worthy of wearing the uniform you have on."
In direct quotes, the FBI report related to General Strong that the Army officer replied: "You mean that I am a traitor?"
The admiral said: "That's just about what I mean."
The admiral was William H. Standley, who was sent to Russia as Roosevelt's personal ambassador and subjected to gross humiliation by Wendell Willkie, Joseph E. Davies and others. Standley finally quit in disgust and came home. However, for the sake of appearances, he said in his letter of resignation to Roosevelt that he was getting out because he thought he was too old and not otherwise qualified to protect the interests of the United States in peace negotiations with the Russians.

Admiral Standley hated the Russians but went no further in his manifestations of suspicion than to issue a statement to American reporters in Moscow charging the Soviet with cheating the American people of due credit for their vast gifts of war material and industrial equipment for the post-war Russian empire.
All this was thrust on Russia by Roosevelt's team of agents in Moscow. They agents included Averell Harriman, who later had the gall to offer himself as a candidate for governor of New York; Edward Stettinius, who was secretary of state at the San Francisco United Nations Conference; Harry Hopkins and an Army officer named Philip R. Faymonville, who finally reached the rank of major-general with which he retired. Faymonville was a favorite of the White House family and the Communist press in this country, which has found numerous occasions to praise him. Public expressions attributed to Faymonville some years ago indicate a good opinion of the Soviet government, Alger Hiss, who was secretary of state at the time of the organizing conference of the United Nations at San Francisco. And the principal speech by Stettinius as foreign minister of the nation which was host to the great international meeting was written by a Communist, who later was sentenced to prison as such in the notorious Hollywood batch. He is Dalton Trumbo.

The FBI report to General Strong was slugged "personal and confidential," by special messenger.
It said: "There are transmitted herewith memoranda prepared by a representative of this bureau reporting the results of his investigation of conditions involving Soviet-American military relations, in Moscow, Russia. This project was undertaken pursuant to the written request of Gen. George C. Marshall, chief of staff. This letter with its two enclosures is being delivered by hand in view of its highly confidential nature."

The next document is a copy of a letter bearing the name of John T. McCloy, assistant secretary of war at the time. Later McCloy was high commissioner for the government of conquered Germany in collaboration with Shepard Stone, an employee of the New York Times, on leave. After the election of General Eisenhower, McCloy took the place of Winthrop Aldrich in the Chase National Bank. Aldrich went to London as ambassador where he apologized for our tardiness in going to Britain's rescue in two wars and promised that we would not be tardy.

McCloy's memorandum addressed to General Marshall, dated July 28, 1943, said: "Subject: Conduct of military personnel in Moscow. The situation described in the attached papers is evidently known to American press representatives and cannot be brought discreetly to the United States. I recommend that the War Department immediately relieve Brig. Gen. Joseph A. Michela, and his assistant, Colonel Howell, and that as soon as this is done, the papers be transmitted to Mr. Hopkins." McCloy also suggested that Hopkins be asked to help bring about the withdrawal of the officer said to have been insulted by Admiral Standley.

General Michela was a precocious West Pointer from Minnesota. Neither he nor Colonel Howell was the man named in the FBI report as the butt of Admiral Standley's accusation. General Michela later was sent to Prague as military attache. He died suddenly soon after the war under circumstances which members of his family regard with suspicion. The FBI's report said Marshall's request for the investigation had been made in writing after information reached Marshall that one American officer was refusing to cooperate with other U. S. missions in Soviet Russia. It said further that Marshall was told that this officer's personal and official conduct raised a question in the minds of some persons as to whether he was being blackmailed by the Soviet government.

The report continued that the following expressions were made by Americans in Moscow concerning the officer under investigation: Col. Edward Gray: "... is a traitor to the interests of the United States." (In his interpretation of lend-lease policies.)

Alexander Kirk (minister to Egypt): "You can't talk to... about Soviet Russia any more than you can talk to a man about his mother."
Maj. Clinton Olson: "... has ceased to be a soldier of the United States."
Cmdr. Frederick Lang (personal physician to Admiral Standley): "... is trying to run the old man (Admiral Standley) out and have himself made ambassador."
Brig. Gen. Michela, military attache: "... is emotionally involved in the interests of the USSR and this operates against U. S. interests. I am not speaking to him any more. The failure of the Soviets to give us information of the enemy is not only inexcusable; it is a deliberately unfriendly act."

Before The Dishes Are Done

By BETTY KNOWLES HUNT
SOUND AND FURY!
The whole world quivers in its boots over the fury of the hydrogen bomb. Secretary Dulles calls for "united action" to prevent a Communist victory in Indo-China and our "allies" decline the invitation. The French commander of NATO — key to our European defense — is fired for saying out loud what most Frenchmen admit privately — that France wants no part of it. South Africa is in turmoil, the Middle East is a powder-keg, and the United Nations remains as futile and powerless as "peace-making" ever.
Yet — with human survival itself at stake — some Americans have made a major issue out of a tiny side-show — the Cohn-Shine-Adams-Stevens-McCarthy battle of words! Considering the amount of newswriting and emotion it has generated, — one might suppose that it was a world-shaking matter. Yet the truth is, that even is somebody is eventually proven "guilty," after lengthy and costly investigation, — still nobody will have committed any crime under any of our laws!
Those who have purposely built this issue up to mountain size may get some to regret it. A hint to this effect appears in the April 5 issue of NEWSWEEK, a magazine which bears no love for the Wisconsin Senator. It writes: "Fenelon insiders say Defense Secretary Wilson fervently wishes he had never permitted release of the report in which Army Secretary Stevens and Army Counsel Adams accused Senator McCarthy and Roy Cohn of seeking favors for P. V. David Shine. The report was prepared hurriedly. . . . An Army inspector general meanwhile was preparing a separate report on the case. This report turned out to be milder than the Stevens-Adams blast, and Wilson feels that next week's hearing, involving possible perjury charges, might have been avoided if he had waited for it."
But — it's too late for common sense now, and the whole business gets more ridiculous as each day passes. Look at the latest controversy over the selection of Samuel F. Sears as counsel for the Senate Committee. From the anguished cries of "the left," one would almost think that McCarthy himself had chosen Mr. Sears! The facts, however, are a m.o.s.s. Army. McCarthy has no vote, but the rest of the committee voted unanimously for Mr. Sears, after Democrats on the committee recommended him. And who suggested Mr. Sears to the Committee's Democrats? Why — none other than McCarthy's arch enemy, Democratic Senator Mike Monroney! Now the Democrats are demanding the right to "cross-examine" their own choice!
The defense department has further complicated things by appointing another Boston attorney, Mr. Joseph N. Welch, as army counsel for the investigation. No doubt, all his past opinions will now be fine-tooth-combed also. Who knows — maybe somebody will discover that he is slightly "prejudiced" towards the Army!
Talk about "fiddling while Rome burns"! This issue has mushroomed to its present exaggerated size for one reason only, — because the Senator's enemies have raised heaven and earth to make him the biggest issue of our day. And they will be satisfied with nothing less than his total liquidation, by any means or method they can devise.
Though the Army's major accusations are leveled at Cohn rather than McCarthy, this is irrelevant to them. Maybe, something can be proved against Cohn, they can demand the Senator's scalp via "guilt by association." The fact that the armed services have a voluminous file of "pressure cases," involving innumerable relatives of innumerable Congressmen, — is also of no interest. This is no mere matter of "principle." This is a matter of one man's ruin!
Forgotten too, is the fact that most of the charges against the Army's counsel, Mr. Adams, were not compiled by the Senator, but by Francis C. Gray, who served with the FBI for 11 responsible years. It seems unlikely that a man of Mr. Gray's training and experience would permit publication of a story he could not substantiate under oath.

Pampa Women To Attend Convention Of 7th District Of Federated Women's Clubs

Three Pampa women, Mrs. George Vineyard, Knox Kinard and Raymond Harrah, will attend the 32nd annual convention of the Seventh District of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs April 21-23 in Dalhart. The seventh district, which includes Pampa, is the largest in Texas and includes 49 counties.

The theme of this year's convention is "Forward with Knowledge and Understanding."

Mrs. Vineyard, president of Twentieth Century Club, is attending as a delegate. Mrs. Harrah, a past district president, is now district chairman of Club Ethics and will present the traditional memorial service held the second day of the convention. Mrs. Knox Kinard is district chairman of the Americanism Department.

The convention opens Wednesday with a board dinner at 7 p.m. Another dinner, held the same time, will be followed by a president's parley and public speaking workshop.

A "buzz" breakfast will be held at 7 a.m. Thursday morning. Rev. Harry Vanderpool of Littlefield will give an address at 9 a.m. Mrs. L. E. Dudley, state president, speaks, followed by the memorial service conducted by Mrs. Harrah. There will be an Indian luncheon at noon. Dr. Per J. Stensland, Lubbock, will give an address at 2:30 followed by Judge Phillip Gilliam of Denver. Club delegates will give their reports at a coffee at four.

A social highlight of the convention will be the 5:30 fine arts tea at the Dalhart Country Club. At 8 o'clock that night there will be a forum of the "Story of Free Enterprise in Texas."

The convention will close with a banquet at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Albert Palmer, state president of the Colorado Federation of Women's Clubs, will speak.

Fill Tea-Time Scrolls With Good 'Mushy' Ice Cream For Party Treat

By GAYNOR MADDOX

NEA Food and Markets Editor—Crunchy, delicately brittle, with a faint fragrance of molasses, tea scrolls fit ideally into the spring entertaining picture. A friend sent us a basket of them yesterday. We filled them with softened ice cream and had a big time for ourselves.

Tea-Time Scrolls
(Makes about 48 scrolls)

One cup sifted all-purpose flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder, 1 1/2 teaspoons ginger, 1 egg, well beaten; 1/2 cup light or dark New Orleans type molasses, 1/2 cup sugar, 2-3 cup melted margarine or butter, 1 cup quick oats.

Sift together flour, salt, baking powder and ginger. Mix eggs with molasses, sugar and margarine. Add dry ingredients and oats. Blend well. Drop by teaspoonful 2 or 3 inches apart on baking sheet greased with margarine. Spread as thinly as possible with the back of a spoon. Bake at 300 degrees F. (slow oven) 12 minutes. Remove immediately with a spatula and roll around handle of a wooden spoon or into a cone shape. Serve cones plain or fill with whipped cream and dot with currant jelly, or fill with softened ice cream.

Oatmeal Cookies
(Makes 6 dozen)

Molasses used to be called a spring tonic, plus, of course, a little sulphur. But these molasses oatmeal cookies seemed to us to be a bit more agreeable for the springtime appetite.

One-third cup butter, 1-3 cup shortening, 1/2 cup sugar, 3/4 cup New Orleans-type molasses, 1 egg, 1/2 cup milk, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 2 cups sifted flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 2 cups oatmeal, 1 cup raisins, 1 cup chopped nuts.

Melt fats; stir in sugar, molasses, egg, milk and vanilla. Sift together flour, salt, soda and cinnamon and blend in well. Fold in oatmeal, raisins and nuts. Drop on a spoon. Bake at 375 degrees F. (moderate oven) 12 to 15 minutes.

Easter Bunny Brings Dessert

Delight each small child at the party with a bunny nest.

Take a cue for quick desserts from the Easter rabbit. He finds the principal ingredients that he needs in the bread box and the freezer. A few quick hops to the pantry shelf produce coconut and almonds to glamorize his Easter Almond-Coconut Nests—a simple dessert to delight all those who believe in the springtime visitor. The nests cost but pennies and are suitable for guest lists large or small.

The nests are made similarly to the way you make caramel popcorn. A hot sirup is poured over cubes of toasted enriched bread, coconut and chopped almonds; the mixture formed into nests. Fill them with ice cream and top with coconut and almonds.

Easter Almond-Coconut Nests

1/2 cup corn sirup, 1 quart toasted 1/2" bread cubes, 1/2 cup brown sugar, 1/2 cup chopped roasted almonds, 1 tablespoon molasses, 1/4 cup shredded coconut, 1/4 cup water, 1 pint vanilla ice cream

Topping

3 tablespoons shredded coconut, 3 tablespoons chopped, roasted almonds

Combine corn sirup, brown sugar, molasses and water in a deep saucepan. Boil slowly for eight minutes, or until a little of the sirup forms a soft ball in cold water. Add toasted bread cubes, almonds and coconut. To form each nest, press 1/2 cup of bread mixture into a buttered custard cup, leaving the center hollow. Chill. To serve, fill each nest with 1/2 cup ice cream. Sprinkle coconut and almonds over top.

YIELD: 6 servings.

Piano Duo Concert To Be Held Tuesday

SHAMROCK — (Special) — A gifted piano-duo, Alfred and Herbert Tiltchik, will appear in Shamrock in a concert at Clark Auditorium at 8:15 Tuesday night, April 15. All holders of Community Concert tickets are invited to attend. The unusual number of re-engagements they will play this season on their sixth sold-out tour of the county is perhaps the best gauge of their success.

The Tiltchiks are a young, brilliant, American-trained, self-contained team, embodying in their playing and interpretations the warm and exacting quality, vision and unlimited wealth of expression that is native to Texans, tempered with the great musical tradition of an old Austria — the Austria of Mozart and Strauss. "The Tiltchiks from Texas" have, "in the words of one admirer," reached a perfection in duo-work which it seems will be hard to surpass. Their playing is usually well-balanced. Whether in recital or as duo soloists with orchestra, the brothers are consistently hailed as a piano team of high polish and brilliance.

TEL Class Makes Three Quilts For Orphans' Homes

WHITE DEER — (Special) — The TEL Class of the Baptist church met in the basement of the church recently for a work-day followed by the regular monthly meeting. Mrs. C. P. Husey was in charge of the meeting. Reports were given from the treasurer, and group captains. An offering was taken for the Mexican Missions in San Antonio. The group made plans for the next meeting, which will be the Mother's Day program, and will be held May 6. Each class member will bring a guest. Present were: Mrs. W. E. Moore, Sarah McKee, Rilla Enoch, G. A. Bell, C. F. Husey, Charles Milligan, Eva Inman, M. E. Wells, Jack Brewton, E. L. Colgrove, A. M. Harvey, J. W. Everly, and W. B. Carey.

The four quilts made during the day will be sent to one of our Orphans' Homes.

Shamrock Girl Named Sorority President

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Sheila Stephens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stephens of Shamrock and a sophomore student at West Texas State College, Canyon, has been elected president of the Gamma Phi Sorority for the remainder of the spring term and for next fall. She succeeds Mrs. Joan Conner, graduating senior.

Thirty-First PTA Convention Opens In Pampa Monday For Two-Day Session

Pampa will be host to the Thirty-first Annual Conference of Eighth District, Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers on Monday and Tuesday, April 19 and 20. Mrs. Jack Foster of Pampa is general chairman for the conference arrangements.

Activities will begin with registration for Pampa delegates and for district board members on Monday from 4 to 6 p.m. Board members and local guests will be held at a dinner at the Pampa High School, headquarters for conference activities, on Monday evening at 7:30. The pre-conference board meeting will follow the dinner.

The one-day conference is expected to attract approximately 500 delegates and visitors. General registration will be at the high school from 8:30 to 9:30 on Tuesday morning. Ten minutes of music is scheduled to precede the first general session, which will get underway at 9:30. Supt. Knox Kinard of Pampa will extend the official welcome, and Mrs. J. R. Shackelford, aide to the district president, will give the response. Mrs. Jack Edmondson will give a report on the day's program; Mrs. Frank White Jr. will give the report on rules; and Mrs. F. H. Jernigan will serve as credentials chairman. Mrs. James P. Cornette, district president, will present the conference theme, and Mrs. T. W. Whaley of Kosse, state vice-president, will outline the state and national Parent-Teacher program. Mrs. Whaley, who will serve as official state representative to the conference, will be introduced by Mrs. W. D. DeGrassi of Amarillo, state parliamentarian.

Featured on the morning's program will be a youth panel composed of Pampa High School students. The district vice-presidents will present summaries of local unit reports from their respective counties. The vice-presidents are: Mrs. J. R. Shackelford, Amarillo; Mrs. Edgar Brittain, Stinnett; Mrs. Robert Wiseman, Dumas; Mrs. Henry Foster, Memphis; Mrs. Claude Osborne, Friona; Mrs. Darwin Nix, Wellington; and Miss Josephine Thomas, Pampa.

The afternoon's program will feature recognition of graduates of the Procedure, Parliamentary and Education for Family Living Courses, by Mrs. Raymond Powell, Ferryton, and ten workshops covering the entire scope of Parent-Teacher work. District chairmen, leading educators, and civic leaders will conduct the workshops under the direction of Dr. Emmett Smith of West Texas State College, Canyon.

Remove Make-Up In Bed When Tired

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

When a girl gets home late from a party she's usually tempted to crawl into bed without bothering to wash her face — "just this once."

Common sense tells us it's not wise to take such chances. Leaving make-up on overnight will clog the pores and will coarsen and dry the skin. Furthermore, it will stain the bedclothes.

Instead of neglecting your beauty routine entirely, why not compromise? When you are just too exhausted to delay getting into bed for even a minute, do this:

Get right into bed and quickly cover your face with cleansing cream. Then wipe it off, and your make-up along with it, with facial tissues. It takes less than a minute to safeguard your complexion in this way.

One cosmetic house claims that its special cleanser is particularly good for such short-cut routines. It bases its contention on the fact that the cleanser contains a special ingredient that's said to throw off impurities most efficiently.

The cleanser is also supposed to smooth the skin and to have a slight stimulating action when pat- ted on.

Though recommended for emergency use by all women, the manufacturer says the preparation was developed especially for regular use by the woman whose delicate, fine-textured skin is inclined to flakiness, fine lines and wrinkles.

Pampa Oiler Contest In Clovis Canceled By Bad Weather

Teams Meet Tonight On Oilers' Diamond

The Pampa Oilers of the West Texas-New Mexico League were back in town today and were ready to meet the Clovis Pioneers at 8:15 tonight in Oiler Park.

The Oilers journeyed to Clovis Thursday for a single game with the Pioneers, but the game was cancelled because of wind, dust and rain. This was the third scheduled exhibition contest for the Oilers which had been cancelled.

These two teams meet again here Saturday night at the same hour.

Manager Doug Lewis said today that young Bybert Clark, who comes to this club highly recommended, will be on the hill against the Pioneers for the first five innings, after which he will be replaced by veteran Jake Henson.

Lewis has been anxious to see Clark in action and had announced that he would be the starting pitcher in all three of the postponed contests.

The starting infield for the Oilers probably will be Lewis at first base, Karl Heron at second, Curtis Hayward at third and Gene Hauriedou at short.

Outfielders will be Don Tierney, Eddie Daniels and Tom Smith, while catching duties will be handled by either Joe Mangone or Mouse Calzada.

The Pampa club will wind up its exhibition schedule Sunday when the Oilers meet the Pampa Express in a benefit game, beginning at 7:30 p. m. Proceeds from the game will go toward providing

Bill Bruton Leads Braves To Triumph

By CARL LUNDQUIST
United Press Sports Writer
There is just something about those poyeyed opening day crowds in Milwaukee that inspires Bill Bruton.

All of the Milwaukee madcaps get worked up when those big throngs there cheer them on but Bruton's specialty is to win opening day games in extra innings.

Thursday, as the Braves started the second season of their new major league regime at home before a new record crowd of 39,963, Bruton was on first base in the 11th inning when Danny O'Connell singled to center.

Just a year ago on opening day in Milwaukee the same Bruton beat the same Cardinals in 10 innings, 3 to 2 when he broke up the game with a homer. No wonder they're all "rootin' for Bruton" out there.

Earlier in the game, the Braves shook up ex-Yankee Vic Raschi and sent him to a quick shower as Joe Adcock hit a three-run homer in the first and the Braves added another tally in the second.

Warren Spahn, who was far from being at his best, struggled through to an 11-hit victory, although touched for three runs in the ninth including a two-run homer by Sal Yvars as the Cardinals locked the score.

The Dodgers still were homer-happy, getting three in a 7 to 4 triumph over the Pirates; the Phils blanked the Giants, 2 to 0, in a rain shorted 6 1/2 inning game; and Cincinnati outsluged Chicago, 11 to 5. In the American League, Baltimore had a winning inaugural, topping the White Sox 3 to 1 as Bob Turley scattered seven hits in the first major league game there in 1954.

The Dodgers still were homer-happy, getting three in a 7 to 4 triumph over the Pirates; the Phils blanked the Giants, 2 to 0, in a rain shorted 6 1/2 inning game; and Cincinnati outsluged Chicago, 11 to 5. In the American League, Baltimore had a winning inaugural, topping the White Sox 3 to 1 as Bob Turley scattered seven hits in the first major league game there in 1954.

Junior Gilliam, Jackie Robinson and Roy Campanella delivered homers early for the Dodgers to provide a 6 to 0 cushion. Campanella hit his third in six many days with two on for the big blow. Russ Meyer gained the victory although the cold bothered him and the Pirates scored three in the eighth when Jim Hughes came in to rescue him from a none-out bases loaded jam.

Murry Dickson scattered seven hits in the Phils' triumph. Loser Johnny, Antonelli yielded only three but the Giant lefty's two-base throwing error on a punt by Ted Kazanski set up the winning run. Kazanski took third on a passed ball and scored on Stan Lopata's sacrifice fly.

Home openers for Austin, Temple, Waco and Tyler highlight Friday night's schedule. Galveston is set to Austin, Corpus Christi journeys to Temple, Harlingen plays at Waco and Bryan meets Tyler, all under the lights.

Tom Morgan, the soldier who leaves Saturday for 10 days at Fort Sill, Okla., to be mustered out of the Army, blanked the Athletics on eight hits at Yankee Stadium. Alex Kellins pitched out in seven innings with him until Hank Bauer and Bill Skowron homered on successive pitches in the eighth.

Bill Henry held Washington to three hits and his battery-mate, Sammy White, delivered a homer in the eighth, and two singles, driving in three runs for the Red Sox. A homer by Roy Sievers spoiled Henry's shutout at Boston.

Two walks, a scratch single by rookie Bill Tuttle, and an infield error by Matt Batts gave Detroit its winning run in the ninth at Cleveland after the game was held up 1 1/2 hours by rain.

Thursday's star—Bill Bruton of the Braves, who scored on a homer in the 11th inning to beat the Cardinals 7 to 6 in Milwaukee's home opener.

Castellani, playing it safe with a defensive battle, most of the way, easily defeated Pedro Gonzales of Pittsburgh in a dull fight Thursday night and thus cleared the way for a meeting with Ralph (Tiger) Jones of Yonkers, N.Y., the No. 4 middleweight, at New York's Madison Square Garden, May 14.

But, on the same program, Brooks lost a unanimous 10-round decision to Mickey Mars, a Cleveland featherweight.

In still another 10-rounder on the same program, Brooks' older brother Paul, a lightweight, made his first ring appearance since being discharged from the Army and lambasted Jackie Biggs of Los Angeles for a unanimous decision.

PHS Track Team In Relays

NOT SINGING — By looking at this photo up-side-down (feet down), you might think that Joe Buck, Altus, Okla., high school pole-vaulter, was singing while riding cross-bar. But turn picture over and you find he is only disappointed in failing to clear bar in recent track meet. (NEA Telephoto)

The Pampa High School Harvesters track and field squad, along with the local golf team, were in Amarillo today to participate in the Sandie Relays.

The Harvesters, according to some observers, have been established as favorites in the relays, the preliminaries of which were to get under way at 1 p. m. today.

Finals will be run off Saturday, Pampa was beaten by Amarillo in Saturday's district meet at Canyon.

Thirty-two schools have been entered in the fifth annual meet at Amarillo stadium.

Observers in Amarillo point out that the Harvesters should win points in the dashes, 440-yard relay, shotput, broad jump and hurdles.

Today's schedule was to have opened with the shotput and pole vault at 1 p. m., followed at 1:25 p. m. by opening ceremonies. Other events to follow were 120-yard high hurdles, discus, broad jump, 100-yard dash, 440-yard dash, 180-yard low hurdles, 440-yard relay, 880-yard run, 200-yard dash, mile run and mile relay.

Other preliminary events are slated for Saturday morning, with the finals being set for that afternoon.

Harvester Coach Duwain Lyon took the following boys to Amarillo: Allen Holtman, Rabbit Ramirez, Bobby Marler, Bob Babcock, Robert Fleming, Jerry McNaughton, Harold Lewis, Carl Blonkvist, Jerry Neef, Jim Green, Harlan Boyle, John Darby, Ed Dudley, Todd Overton, Bob Holmes, Bill Culppepper, Buddy Sharp, Don Heaton, John Cantrell, Walker Bird and Bill Strickland.

The golf team, which teed off late this morning on the first 18 holes of a 36-hole medal play match, is made up of Buster Carter, Joe Chisum, Sammy Houchin and Don Prigmore.

Harvesters Take On Sandies Here In 1-AA Contest Today

Big John Perkins, the only Pampa Harvester hurler credited with a victory this season, was to oppose the Amarillo Sandies at 2 p. m. today at Oiler park in a District 1-AA game.

Facing the Harvesters on the mound for the Sandies was to be Kenny Atkins, who has won three and lost two games this year.

Atkins holds victories over Lawton, Okla.; Plainview and Fortnate Dale Tucker and Buddy Moore as his starting pitchers in 11-10 loss to Odesa; and was the losing pitcher in an 11-9 loss to Borger last Saturday.

The Amarillo starting lineup was: right field, Red Warner, third base, Jack Daniel, Jr.; Johnny Moon; first base, Spooky Canova, shortstop, Jargo Johnson, catcher; Joe Harrison, centerfield, and Atkins pitcher.

The probable starters for Pampa are Ray Cooper, second base; Raymond Velasquez, center field; J. N. Wright, right field; Glenn Adams, right field; Red Warner, third base; Travis Taylor, first base; Larry Larsen, shortstop; Hubert Duncan, catcher, and Perkins pitcher.

Two other games are on the Harvesters schedule this week. On Saturday they meet the Borger Bulldogs in a twin bill at Oiler park, the first game beginning at 1:30 p. m.

Coach Deck Woldt has nominated Dale Tucker and Buddy Moore as his starting pitchers for these two games.

Libbook's Westerners scored a 6-2 win over the Plainview Bulldogs Thursday to continue to lead the district race.

The Westerners scored one in the second, three in the third and two in the fourth to put the game on ice, while Plainview was scoring one in the fourth and one in the sixth.

Libbook now leads the pack with two victories and no defeats. Amarillo is in second place with a 2-1 record, while the Harvesters follow in third place with one victory and one loss.

Quality Stressed For Speedway Race
INDIANAPOLIS, April 16 (UP)—A shift in emphasis from quantity to quality was cited Friday by 500-mile Indianapolis Motor Speedway officials for the relatively slim field of 83 cars entered for this year's race.

The total was the lowest in post-war history, and 20 under last year's record 85-car field. However, officials said several more entries probably will be received in the next few days, postmarked before the April 15 deadline.

Coach Deck Woldt has nominated Dale Tucker and Buddy Moore as his starting pitchers for these two games.

Libbook's Westerners scored a 6-2 win over the Plainview Bulldogs Thursday to continue to lead the district race.

The Westerners scored one in the second, three in the third and two in the fourth to put the game on ice, while Plainview was scoring one in the fourth and one in the sixth.

Sports Remain On Top-Of TL

By UNITED PRESS
The Shreveport Sports poured coal to a red-hot win streak in the Texas League Thursday night with a 10 to 4 victory over the Dallas Eagles to boost their season total to eight wins and no losses.

The Fort Worth Cats disappointed a record 12,128 fans, the biggest crowd since 1930, by dropping a 9 to 3 decision to Beaumont, San Antonio smacked Oklahoma City 9 to 2 and Tulsa nipped Houston 4 to 3.

The Sports scored eight runs in the final three innings to overcome a 4-2 Dallas lead in capturing their eighth straight.

The Sports jumped on Dallas starter Pat Scantlebury and chased him to the showers early in the seventh frame, Bob Smith, who relieved for the Sports in the sixth, was credited with the win.

Howie Bole, homered for San Antonio in the fifth inning and Frank Kellert collected a four-bagger in the fourth for the Indians, both coming with the bases empty.

Jeff Williams drove in two runs in the bottom of the ninth inning, when Jim Bolger singled Williams across with the winning tally for Tulsa. Houston held a 3 to 1 lead going into the bottom half of the ninth, Dick Boleman, who relieved in the eighth, got the victory, while Hubs Foster, who went the distance, was touched for the loss.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 16 (UP)—Rocky Castellani, the No. 1 middleweight contender, put another victory in the bag Friday and got set for his next assignment—but Cleveland's other fistic pride, North American bantamweight champion Nate Brooks, was nursing a defeat.

Shoulders Guilty Of Perjury

KANSAS CITY, April 16—Louis Shoulders, former St. Louis police lieutenant who arrested kidnaper Carl Austin Hall, was found guilty Thursday of lying about what happened to the $500,000 Greenlease ransom.

But the conviction brought authorities no closer to knowing the location of more than half of the ransom, largest ever paid in the United States. It has been known to be missing since two suitcases containing the remainder were turned over to the FBI Oct. 7, the day after Hall was arrested in St. Louis.

A federal court jury took two ballots as it deliberated for two hours and 19 minutes after the four-day trial.

It was the second perjury conviction in connection with the handling of the ransom. Elmer Dolan, a suspended patrolman, was convicted last month.

Judge Albert A. Ridge gave the defense until May 3 to file a motion for a new trial, and delayed sentencing until after that date.

Shoulders, who broke down while being questioned by his own attorney Wednesday, showed no emotion as the verdict was read.

Government witnesses said in both Shoulders and Dolan's trials they saw no sign of two suitcases containing the ransom money when Hall was being booked at the Newstead Ave. police station in St. Louis.

Shoulders testified the bags were left in the squad car during the booking, and then brought into his office.

Defense attorney Henry Morris devoted most of his summation to Shoulders' "valiant" police work. He said Hall told Shoulders that Bobby Greenlease was still alive and he was principally interested in trying to save the little victim's life.

Killed in Accident ABILENE, Tex., April 16—C. D. Clark, about 45, was killed Wednesday night and his wife, Estella, and Willis Kirkland, all of Rising Star, Tex., were injured seriously when their automobile collided with a truck just outside the southwest limit of Abilene on U.S. 277. Truck driver T. L. Wolford of Abilene was not injured.

BENTLEY'S CLOTHING STORE — is one of the local merchants participating in The Pampa Daily News fourth-annual all-electric cooking school, by donating a $25 gift certificate. A housewife attending the school will be awarded the certificate and may take it to any of the above Bentley's sales ladies for her prize. They are, from left to right, seated, Ruby Sillyman, Jimmie Jordan, and Margaret Nichols. Josephine Young is standing behind. The school will be held Tuesday and Wednesday in the junior high school auditorium. (News Photo)

Study City Income Tax FORT WORTH, April 16—UP—A seven-man committee will be named by the city council to study the possibility of a city income tax, to be based on payroll deductions. Proponents said the tax would distribute the cost of city government so that it doesn't fall solely on property owners.

THE MARQUEE BY DICK KLEINER TV STAGE RADIO RECORDS PEOPLE

There've been so many bad guesses about Edgar Bergen's plans for TV next season that the record should be set straight. I talked to Bergen over a dish of stewed rhubarb and discovered the following absolute facts: 1. He likes stewed rhubarb. 2. Edgar, with his associates Messrs. McCarthy and Snerd, will make four TV appearances on the Kraft TV Theater. (He'll do one this season, in May, when Kraft does "Alice in Wonderland.") He's also permitted four outside TV shows. Charlie is even now being measured for TV's blue shirts. 3. His weekly radio show will run an hour on CBS. He hopes to jazz it up with interviews with Washington figures (sample: Mortimer Snerd might talk to Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson about farm problems) and may originate in Washington, New York and elsewhere, rather than in Hollywood. "I believe in humor based on fact," Edgar said. "But I'm not going to go to heavy on education there's never a waiting line outside the library."

Ike's Social Security Plan Urged Shelved

WASHINGTON, April 16—UP—The National Association of Manufacturers and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Thursday urged Congress to turn down key provisions of President Eisenhower's expanded social security program. William G. Caples, vice president of Inland Steel Co. and NAM spokesman, said the broadening of the social security system proposed by Mr. Eisenhower should not be done without "compelling reasons." "We see no compelling reason at this time," he told the House Ways and Means committee which is conducting hearings on the President's proposals. A. D. Marshall, an official of General Electric Co. and spokesman for the chamber of commerce, testified against the proposed general increases in old age insurance benefits. But he supported Mr. Eisenhower's recommendation of broader coverage. Other developments: Never Overhead The sun never shines directly overhead on any spot in the United States, since the southernmost point of land is about 25 degrees north of the equator, and the sun comes no farther north than 23 1/2 degrees.

LUCKY LEATHERNECK—Terrance Brouse, one of 13 Marine Corps recruits bound for boot camp at San Diego, Calif., recites in an un-Marinelike manner to a send-off kiss from airline stewardess Pat Carney. T/Sgt. John McCandless, of the Minneapolis, Minn., recruiting office, looks on in amazement, obviously thinking that Brouse needs a lot of boot training before he has the situation well in hand.

Come to Church

The Weekly Message Of Inspiration

EASTER

There was a time when there was no Easter. What men thought, believed and hoped and how they lived and what they did with their lives is quite well known to us. In the history and writings of those centuries and those peoples we find that kind of world they lived in. It was not a world of darkness or unrelieved pain or filled with ugliness. There was some high poetry, some lifting music, some periods of great happiness, some deeds of moral valor and many things of beauty. Homer sang the epics of the great; Phidias lifted up the pediment figures of the Parthenon for all the world to see; Abraham went out not knowing whither he went, and Isaiah saw the Lord high and lifted up. Yet there was the continued question "Will we live again?" The Resurrection of Jesus Christ gave the answer. Thank God there is a glorious Easter day.

General Says UN Commission Is Ineffective

MUNSAN, Korea, April 16 — U.S. Maj. Gen. J. K. Lacey, senior United Nations member of the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission, charged Thursday the commission is "ineffective" because it is dominated by the Communists.

Lacey said the commission refuses to investigate alleged armistice violations by the Communists and that North Korean Lt. Gen. Lee Sang Cho, senior Communist member of the military armistice commission, was masterminding Communist sabotage.

Lacey was particularly angry because the Communists have blocked investigation of UN charges that Allied prisoners are still being held against their will and investigations of reports the Reds are building their war potential in violation of the armistice agreement.

INDO CHINA — The World's Oldest War (6)

By Walter Parkes and Ralph Lane

Communist's all-out battle for Indo-China was on. But Ho's natives were no match for the French regulars. Viet Minh troops fought with old rifles, bows and arrows, even spears against French machine-guns, artillery, tanks and planes.

The rebels fled to the jungles. The French, aided by loyal Viet Namese troops, began a tedious campaign to flush them out. The French dominated the country by day — but Ho's guerrillas spread terror at night.

Harrassed Ho didn't dare leave his headquarters in the same place for two days running. But he was able to fight this bit-and-tune war for three years. And the French were losing it.

Graft, Discord, Confusion Hurts ROK Reconstruction

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of two dispatches on the sorry state of the $400 million Korean rehabilitation program. The report is based on extensive on-the-spot survey by an NEA correspondent in the Far East.

By EDWARD B. KENNEDY
NEA Special Correspondent

SEOUL, Korea — (NEA) — Reconstruction in shattered Korea is seriously hampered by fund shortages, graft, corruption, old hatreds, inefficiency, international disagreements and general confusion. If not countered, these things might produce internally the victory the Communists failed to win in the field.

Reconstruction planners seek to lift the country back to its 1948 standard of living. But the goal is a long way off.

Relief programs have dumped tons of grain, boatloads of cement and stacks of lumber on Korean docks. But reconstruction is still largely a paper project, held in check by a maze of difficulties.

In a two-week survey of the $400 million program, NEA Service interviewed a host of officials all down the line, looked in at hospitals, orphanages and "model" villages, and studied flourishing black markets. Among those interviewed were President Syngman Rhee, Gen. John B. Coulter, representative for UN Korean Reconstruction Administration and C. Tyler Wood, coordinator for the Foreign Operations Administration (U. S. foreign aid program).

Ivory tower — the picture is rosy. At the top UN level there is recognition of dwindling funds but undiminished needs. Down the line, there is confusion and dismay.

The fund shortage is fundamental. UN members pledged $207 million for Korean rebuilding, but so far only $95 million, including $66 million from the U. S., has been forthcoming.

Inflation and the need of the Korean government to support a sizable army at a cost double its economic capacity help to magnify the money problem.

What funds do exist serve to spark constant quarrels, both between Korean and UN officials and between military and civilian agencies. The result of this continual conflict is overlapping effort, extravagance, waste, and corruption.

Today there are eight major agencies charged with dispensing relief and reconstruction funds. UNKRA, Coulter's outfit, is the biggest. But like the others, it suffers fiscal anemia. Said Coulter: "Our position is precarious. At this time, I have gone beyond appeals to the UN negotiating committee. I have a representative appealing directly to most of the Western European governments with regard to future contributions."

FOA last year allocated $200 million to Korea but only $80 million has been committed because the agency and the Korean government can't agree on programs.

On the other hand, supplies have poured into the relief organizations, often with ironic results. One agency has $28 million worth of used clothing from all over the world. Said a spokesman for a Korean aid unit: "We've got enough clothing in warehouses to put four layers on every man, woman, child and dog in Korea. But among this stuff are high-heeled shoes, evening gowns with sequins, and such that will never be worn in this country."

blueprint calls for building 6000 homes in all South Korea, whereas at least 20,000 were destroyed in Seoul alone.

Farm and industrial production and general economic stability are puzzling matters. Sharp disagreements develop constantly between Rhee and the UN agencies. Some of these have their root in Korea's ancient enmity toward Japan.

To illustrate, Rhee said the agencies have spent more than $20 million buying fertilizer in Japan. He prefers to build plants so Korea can make its own fertilizer. "We don't have to give the Japanese money for the reconstruction of our country," he added.

But reconstruction experts note that to manufacture fertilizer Korea needs not merely a series of factories but either coal or hydroelectric power. Today it has neither in any quantity. Its best coal veins are not even mapped. But even if the power and facilities existed, experts say, the Japanese could still undersell them in the fertilizer field.

The Rhee government's annual budget is now $800 million, but only $300 million is collected in taxes. Rates do not exceed 20 percent, despite the burdens of defense and rehabilitation. Those in power, profiting from the influx of foreign funds, are not eager to boost taxes.

In all talks with ROK authorities, one is impressed with the one-sidedness of the Korean viewpoint. Koreans simply refuse to face the fact that America — which saved it from the Communists after lifting the Japanese yoke — has other problems besides Korea.

Tomorrow: Graft and corruption.

Polio Virus May Give Hint To Cancer Cure

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., April 16 — Strains of cancerous human cells cultivated in the laboratory since 1952 have been destroyed by polio viruses it was disclosed here.

Dr. Jerome T. Syvertson of the University of Minnesota, told the annual meeting of the American Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology Tuesday, that the polio viruses multiplied rapidly in a particular strain of cancerous cells and destroyed them within 19 to 26 hours.

Certain other viruses destroyed the cells, too, he added. But in the case of polio viruses, he discovered that the destruction could be stopped — in his test tube experiments — by adding the antibody specific for the particular polio virus type. The antibody of another polio virus type had no effect.

Presumably a blood sample from any person could be added to the cancerous cells and if there was no reaction it would mean that no polio viruses were in that person's blood. Syvertson indicated that this would be tested with the blood of persons given the new anti-polio vaccine in small scale laboratory experiments.

Ramsey Plans To Announce For Re-Election

AUSTIN, April 16 — U. S. Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey says he thinks he'll announce he's running for office in a few days.

Ramsey is considered almost sure to seek a third term, should Gov. Allan Shivers break precedent and run for a third two-year stretch as chief executive.

Ramsey was interviewed Wednesday night on KTVC-TV and admitted he'd been thinking about May 3, the deadline for filing in the Democratic primary.

Couple Held For Neglect Of 4 Children

LAMPASAS, Tex., April 16 — U. P. — The State Welfare Department and Fort Hood hospital have assumed temporary custody of four small children, pending grand jury action against their parents on charges of neglect.

One of the children, two-year-old Peggy Willis, was found alone at the family home a week ago last Sunday suffering from malnutrition.

Doctors at Fort Hood hospital said Peggy weighed only 13 pounds. She still is being treated at the hospital.

The parents are Cpl. and Mrs. William J. Willis. The corporal is stationed at Fort Hood.

The couple's four children were removed from custody of the parents after a hearing Tuesday, conducted by District Judge James K. Evetts of Belton.

The father was jailed at Lampasas in lieu of bond, charged with neglect of temporary custody. Mrs. Willis was taken into custody at Burnet. Both await grand jury action.

O'Daniel Gets Army Mission In Indo-China

HANOI, April 16 — U. P. — Lt. Gen. John W. (Iron Mike) O'Daniel flew into Saigon Thursday to take command of the U. S. military mission in Indo-China.

U. S. Ambassador Donald Heath and a party of high-ranking French and Indo-Chinese officials were waiting to greet O'Daniel when his plane arrived from Honolulu.

The general, a veteran of Korea, was U. S. Army commander in the Pacific before he received the Indo-China assignment.

The United States maintains a sizeable military mission in Indo-China as it does in most countries receiving American military aid.

Members of the mission advise friendly military men on the use of U. S. equipment and supplies, but do not themselves take part in actual military operations.

American officials hope O'Daniel will be able to help the French intensify and improve the training of loyal Indo-Chinese troops like those battling the Communist "mole men" who Thursday tunneled within 15 yards of a key outpost at encircled Dien Bien Phu.

The Communists, armed with mines and home-made torpedoes, wriggled through barbed wire entanglements northwest of the fortress and French and loyal Indo-Chinese quickly counter-attacked.

It was the second straight raid in two nights on the outpost protecting the air strip, long closed by rebel anti-aircraft fire.

Communists Kept Files On U. S. Atom Scientists

WASHINGTON, April 16 — U. P. — Former Soviet code clerk Igor Gouzenko recently told senators that Red spy headquarters kept files showing whether leading U. S. atomic scientists were Communists or friendly to Russia.

Gouzenko's statement was made in a secret hearing in Canada last Jan. 4. He was questioned at that time by chairman William E. Jenner (R-Ind.) and Sen. Pat McCarran (D-Nev.) of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee.

The Canadian embassy here released Gouzenko's testimony late Tuesday after Canada's minister of justice introduced it in the House of Commons in Ottawa. He said Gouzenko's testimony revealed nothing new.

Gouzenko said the Russians kept detailed reports on U. S. scientists, including those in atomic work. The files would indicate whether they were Communists or friendly to the Soviet Union. He said, however, that he could not remember any names.
