NAACP Asks Immediate End Of Segregation

ATLANTA, May 24 — UP — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People Monday asked Negro leaders throughout the South to seek an immediate end of public school segregation through local petitions.

Plans for this concerted action were drafted over the weekend at a conference of 50 NAACP officials from the 17 states affected by the week-old Supreme Court decision outlawing segregation in schools.

In deciding to try to persuade local officials throughout the South to permit mixed classes "without delay," the NAACP made it clear that it did not intend to wait until the court issues specific decrees.

Thurgood Marshall, NAACP attorney who argued the school segregation cases before the Supreme Court, predicted that some towns and cities of the segregated South will open fall school terms with mixed classes.

Marshall conceded that legal and administrative obstacles might prevent such quick success in other localities but said the NAACP would be ready to bring legal action to prevent undue delay or sidestepping.

In a formal statement issued after its meeting the NAACP said there would be "no compromise in principle."

Marshall said this means that the NAACP intends to force court action if necessary to force compliance with the court ruling even in communities in which both Negro and white leaders say they prefer segregation.

Patience Of British Grows Thin

LONDON, May 24 — UP — British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, emerging from an emergency cabinet meeting Monday, said the British government is growing impatient with the Geneva negotiations which have stalled for so long.

Informed sources said the cabinet meeting instructed Eden to follow United States policy on China unless the Geneva negotiations show definite signs of results within reasonable time.

Eden, boarding his plane to return to Geneva, said he believes "our discussions in the next week or two will be decisive."

Diplomatic sources said Eden, in effect, set a time limit for the conference to show tangible results.

The alternative apparently would be a move by Britain to join the United States and France in shaping a southeast Asian defensive alliance.

Up to now, the British government has refused to take any action on the American proposal pending the outcome of the Geneva sessions.

5 Missing On Flight

SAN ANTONIO, May 24 — UP — An Air Force C-46 flying from Biggs Field, El Paso, to Kelly AFB here with five men aboard was the object of a widespread aerial search in the hill country north of San Antonio Monday after it failed to show up at Kelly AFB on schedule.

The Civil Air Patrol sent a 20-plane search mission into the air around Kerrville at dawn in search of the large, twin-engine craft which last contacted the Kelly AFB control tower at 10:22 p.m., nearly 90 minutes after it was due to arrive there.

'Billion-Dollar Empire' New York Central Battle To Be Decided Wednesday

Editor's note: One of the great dramas of industrial America is about to be played. At stake is the New York Central railroad control. Robert R. Young is trying to take it from William White and his associates. Today's item, the first of a series of three, tells what the fight is all about. The Central's proxy election is on Wednesday, May 26.

By ROBERT ZIMMERMAN NEW YORK, May 24 — UP — In lush executive suites high in two Manhattan skyscrapers little more than a block apart, rival camps are making a showdown in a fight for the billion-dollar empire that is the New York Central railroad.

The "battle of the century" has been amazingly like a political election campaign with full-page newspaper advertisements, door-to-door canvassing, literature in the mail and press conferences by the score.

PARTNERS — Jimmy Thompson (left), Pampa law partner of Rep. Walter Rogers (right), who is back in the Panhandle this week, this morning were looking over reports in The Pampa Daily News of the U. S. Supreme Court decision which outlawed segregation in American public schools. Rogers had some comments on that matter this morning. Both of the partners are candidates this year: Thompson for Gray County Democratic chairman and Rogers for re-election to the U. S. House of Representatives. This picture was taken in the Rogers-Thompson office on the fourth floor of the Combs-Worley building. Rogers will leave Pampa this afternoon and may return Friday before returning to Washington, D. 'Creates Other Issues' Rogers Concerned Over Court Ruling

Rep. Walter Rogers, back in the Panhandle for a one-week stay, late this morning expressed concern over the U. S. Supreme Court's historic decision a week ago on segregation in U. S. public schools and said it would create other problems.

"The court's decision was more unconditional than the practices they claim are indulged in by the 'southern states,'" the congressman stated.

"I don't think the court had the right to make that type of decision," the Pampa man continued, as he relaxed in the office of his law partner, Jimmy Thompson. "It's a matter the states should decide themselves — they pay the bills and regulate the schools."

Danger of the court ruling, Rogers said, is that "it will create other problems, this mixture of the races; it will do great damage to both races."

One of the main features of the court's decision to outlaw public school segregation, he went on, "is the bringing into being of the way thing we (the southern Democrats) have fought against — the Fair Employment Practices Commission."

"There's a softening-up process going on in Washington right now," the congressman said, "to vote for FEPC which could permit the courts, unless he could prove the FEPC's decision was arbitrary and capricious."

Rogers had words for the week-end. (See ROGERS, Page 3)

Vultee Gets Contract

FORT WORTH, May 24 — UP — An aviation magazine's story that Convair would sign a production contract for the XP-58 super sonic bomber was "news" Monday to Convair officials.

Plant officials said they had not received any notice of a production contract from the Air Force about 18 months ago.

Aviation Magazine said in a story originating from Washington that the Air Force soon would sign a production contract with Convair.

The new medium bomber, known as the "Hunter," will be of a Delta design aimed at operating in the supersonic speed range of 1,000 miles an hour, the magazine story said.

August C. Ebenwein, vice president and general manager for Convair, said production of the plane would have "no impact" on the plant's employment.

Each heads a slate of 15 prospective directors.

As in political campaigns, the opposing "parties" have their greatest strength in different sections of the country.

Young's support is concentrated in the West. He has behind him two multi-millionaire Texas oil men, Clint W. Murchison and Sid W. Richardson, who between them own 800,000 votes. Also supporting him is Allan Kirby, heir to a Woolworth fortune.

White's principal backers are in the East — among them Harold S. Vanderbilt, a descendant of the late Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt who put hundreds of small roads together to form the vast Central system. Also in White's corner is James A. Farley.

From their headquarters — Young's the entire 45th floor of the Chrysler building and White's the 22nd floor of the big tower over Grand Central terminal — they have fought an astounding battle.

British Warning Warms US Hearts

WASHINGTON, May 24 — UP — The administration was elated Monday at Britain's blunt warning to Red China that it will stand with the United States in any East-West showdown on Indo-China.

Officials said the statement, made privately at the Geneva conference, may prompt Russia to pressure Red China to agree to an Indo-China ceasefire to avoid goading the allies into a war from which Moscow itself could not be expected to escape.

The warning also indicated, these officials said, that the British are willing to back a united action plan in southeast Asia, if the Geneva talks fail to produce a satisfactory truce.

Britain's refusal to support the U. S. proposed southeast Asia alliance while the conference still is in progress produced one of the most serious Anglo-American policy splits in years.

The Communists at Geneva naturally seized upon it to press for the most favorable possible terms for a ceasefire.

When this strategy became clear, British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden is understood to have told China's foreign minister, Chou En-Lai, that he was overplaying his hand at the risk of U. S. military intervention and that in any showdown Britain would stand with the United States.

The warning and the administration's reaction were disclosed as: 1. Rep. Melvin Price (D-Ill.) charged in a prepared speech Monday that the administration has failed to practice the "bi-partisan ship in foreign policy" which John Foster Dulles preached before he became secretary of state.

2. Chairman Alexander Wiley (R-Wis.) of the Senate Foreign Relations committee warned against any attempt by the United States to "go it alone" in Indo-China. In a Los Angeles speech Sunday, Wiley said this country must have the "willing co-operation" of other free nations.

3. Sen. George Smathers (D-Fla.) at an American Legion meeting in St. Petersburg, Fla., it would "shock and astound you if you knew how near we were to active participation in the war in Indo-China just a few weeks ago."

Somebody Bad

BALTIMORE, Md., May 24 — UP — Residents of the parish of a South Baltimore church woke up early Sunday and angrily asked police: "Who's got the ding-dong?"

Police arrested George Sitkorne and Martin Roberts. They had climbed to the tower of Our Lady of Good Counsel Church, apparently overwhelmed by a desire to hear a little bell music. They were given 30-day sentences.

Final Action On Statehood Bill Expected

WASHINGTON, May 24 — UP — Senate Republican leader William F. Knowland said Monday he expects final action on Hawaiian-Island statehood at this session of Congress.

Both the House and Senate have approved statehood for Hawaii but Senate action including Alaska sent the measure to the House.

Knowland said he still believes the House will go along with the Senate and pass the combined bill.

Among other measures which he expects Congress to approve, Knowland listed those dealing with social security, health programs, foreign aid, reciprocal trade agreements and atomic energy.

But he would not make any prediction on farm legislation. He pointed out that neither the House nor Senate agriculture committees have set so far on public support legislation.

The Senate GOP leader said he thinks President Eisenhower is satisfied with the progress made by Congress so far on the administration's over all program.

Although Presidents Roosevelt and Truman had larger congressional majorities, Knowland pointed out that Mr. Eisenhower was the first to win approval of the St. Lawrence seaway project.

He said Senate rejection of President Eisenhower's request for the 18-year-old vote amendment and his recommendations for amending the Taft-Hartley labor law "show the problem of carrying out the President's program when we have a fairly solid opposition."

'Army Secretary Back On Stand

WASHINGTON, May 24 — UP — Sen. Charles E. Potter said Monday an official "high in the administration" prompted him to write the Army in March asking for a report containing charges against Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy and his staff.

This incident was brought out by McCarthy in the Army-McCarthy hearings. Identity of the high official was not disclosed.

Army Secretary Robert T. Stevens in the witness chair at the hearings resumed after a week's recess, had sworn that the Army alone was responsible for its charges against McCarthy, Roy M. Cohn and Francis P. Carr.

McCarthy asked him: "Would your answer be the same if you were to learn that someone high in the administration — I don't mean the Pentagon — telephoned Sen. Potter and asked him to write for these charges?"

McCarthy said, without naming the official, that he holds him "in fairly high respect."

Too Involved Stevens said McCarthy's question was "too involved and too hypothetical" to answer.

Potter broke in then to say that McCarthy said was true.

Potter said he did receive a telephone call from a high official who suggested that he ask Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson for a copy of the Army's documents alleging McCarthy and his staff used improper means in efforts to obtain favored treatment for Pvt. G. David Schine. A McCarthy staff member before he was drafted last Nov. 3.

"I agree that occurred," Potter said. "But I don't agree with Senator McCarthy on the purpose of the call. I was not to be used as a vehicle for releasing the charges. But this official knew that a report was to be released."

"But there was no request from the majority (Republican) side for it, and yet we had to bear the responsibility."

McCarthy Questions Stevens McCarthy questioned Stevens sharply about who ordered Army Counselor John G. Adams to prepare the report and to send it to members of McCarthy's Permanent Investigating Subcommittee.

Stevens said he alone was responsible for the report and the charges.

He said he did not know the exact date when he gave orders to Adams to send it to subcommittee members, but it was sometime after he returned from the Far East on Feb. 3.

McCarthy read Stevens' previous testimony in which the secretary said he did not know who gave orders that the report should be "put out." He demanded that Stevens say which testimony is correct.

School Transfer Deadline Is May 31

With just a week to go, some 75 per cent of the affected students in Gray county public schools had effected their transfers for the coming school year.

County Schools Supt. B. R. Nuckols late this morning reported the percentage — some 90-95 students are expected to transfer — and reminded the deadline for transferring is May 31, a week from today.

Transfers are necessary, Nuckols said, for students in a school district which does not teach the grade to which they are to be promoted. That applies to Grandview, Hopkins and Alameda, the last for the first time. In the past, Alameda has been a 12-year school. A of next year it will be an eight-year one.

French Put New Strategy In Operation

HANOI, Indo-China, May 24 — UP — French Union troops pulled out of an isolated outpost in Indo-China Monday in apparently the opening move of a new strategy against the Communists.

Loyal Indo-Chinese units abandoned the Cambodian town of Siem Pang to tighten the little kingdom's defenses against the Red Viet Minh invaders.

Military officials said the withdrawal from Siem Pang, located near the border of the Laotian kingdom to the north, did not signify there was any rebel activity in the area.

The garrison at Siem Pang successfully beat off several Red attacks after the rebels crossed the border in April and attempted to seize the town of 3,000.

Although the withdrawal officially was attributed to "tightening of defenses," it was believed that the same strategy would be applied throughout Indo-China.

The fall of Dien Bien Phu pointed out the folly of seizing isolated outposts and attempting to defend them against numerically superior forces, military informants said.

Nine-Inch Rains Fall On Texas

WASHINGTON, May 24 — UP — This looks like showdown week in the Army-McCarthy controversy. The Republicans are back directly behind President Eisenhower and the senator.

Mr. Eisenhower is firmly and publicly committed to withholding from the Senate Investigating subcommittee certain information. It embraces details of a conference among executive department officials last January about how to handle the threat of Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy to subpoena Army jockeys board members.

McCarthy is firmly and publicly committed in colorful language that Mr. Eisenhower's decision is bad, almost unbearable. It would seem that someone would have to give soon. The subcommittee investigation resumed Monday after a recess ordered originally by Republican members to seek a modification of the President's secrecy order. The Republicans are back directly behind President Eisenhower and the senator.

LL, Pony Openers Postponed

Season openers in the Pampa Little League and Pony League have been postponed another week, according to information handed down this morning by league officials.

The openers were scheduled to be played this afternoon but heavy rain that began falling Sunday and which was still falling this morning made it necessary to delay the season openers.

League Presidents Grover Worley of the Pony League and Buck Francis of the Little League both elected to postpone opening day to next Monday, May 31.

The league schedule will remain unchanged except that each game will be moved up exactly one week.

It is the second time that the season opener has been postponed due to rain. The leagues were originally scheduled to open the season May 17.

Reason for delaying the season opener another whole week was made when it was announced the fields wouldn't be dry enough until the latter part of this week. Rather than start the season late in the week, it was decided to postpone the openers until next Monday.

Rain Totals 1.26 Inches

The wheat situation continues to improve with additional moisture, amounting in as much as five inches in some areas, being reported this week end.

Since Saturday afternoon, Miami has had a total of about 4.06 inches of rainfall, and other areas reported from two to five inches. In Pampa, the rainfall amounted to 1.26 inches at mid-morning today and it was still raining at noon.

Agricultural authorities were jubilant over prospects for a wheat crop, stating that they believe that about 30 per cent of the planted acreage in Gray county will be harvested.

They are guessing that the yield will run from eight to 12 bushels to the acre.

Ralph Cole, unit conservationist with the Soil Conservation Service in Roberts county, reported that rainfall in that area, was heavy, two inches of this falling in one hour Saturday afternoon.

At Shamrock, 1.55 inches fell over the week end, the major part of it falling Sunday night. There was a flurry of hail, "no damage was reported in the town."

However, Milt Williams, whose farm is located about 10 miles south of Shamrock, reported heavy rain.

Mental Escapees Still Free

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 24 — Two of four "dangerous" mental patients who escaped from the Arkansas state hospital are still at large Monday. One was the ringleader of the break and the other a murderer.

The four broke out of the hospital Saturday night by shapening some small clippers and holding the sharp points against the throats of three guards.

Dr. E. H. Crawford, superintendent at the hospital, said none of the three guards was injured.

Calvin Gilmer, 25, an auto thief, was recaptured Sunday at Murfreesboro, Ark., some 125 miles southwest of Little Rock, while Joe Bumgardner, 25, a bank robber, was taken into custody at the home of relatives near Memphis, Tenn.

The other two are Billy Phillips, 25-year-old dope addict who apparently was the leader in the break, and John Sparks, 32.

Beware the roach! Black, ugly, crawling with dirt and contamination, this perennial pest may be living in YOUR house NOW! Because he can enter through the smallest crack in the wall, this disgusting insect has been evading death for years! But at long last, modern science has discovered and developed a miracle liquid that can free any and every home from roaches, ants, spiders, silverfish, or any other crawling insects—in hours. This miracle is Johnston's NO-ROACH. Available at Furr Foods, Cretney's, Clyde's, Perkins' and your local drug store.

No-Roach Outlines Plans For Ridding The Home Of Insects

No home is free of roaches. . . black, ugly crawling insects that sneak into the finest, best-kept homes through the smallest cracks and openings. And once they're in—they stay in, spreading dirt and contamination wherever they go. These slithering creatures have been the scourge of homemakers for years. BUT NOW — modern science has produced a remarkable new liquid to end the roach plague forever. It is called — Johnston's NO-ROACH.

Just brush the colorless, odorless, stainless liquid near cabinets, sink and baseboards. Applied to such spots, the coating attracts roaches within the room. They walk across the coating, contacting the chlordane, and within two or three hours become paralyzed and die. The coating remains effective for many months to kill any strays and thus prevent reinfestation.

To kill waterbugs that crawl into your home from sewer pipes, brush NO-ROACH around the drain openings in your basement. To keep ants out, brush NO-ROACH across window sills and door sills. Ants will not cross this invisible barrier. Pour a few drops into ant hills to eliminate their nests.

It is important to remember that roaches and ants are found near food and cooking utensils, and that contaminating sprays should never be used in such areas. But NO-ROACH may be brushed just where you want it. You don't have to move your pots and pans away from the area.

Most of us cannot afford the services of a top flight insect control expert to advise us on how to eliminate pests from fields and homes. But we were fortunate enough to obtain the assistance of the nation's leading insecticide expert, Gaston Johnston, president of the Johnston's No-Roach Company, in compiling a list of insect control methods. Johnston's NO-ROACH is the nation's most popular insecticide, not only because it is the most economical and most effective agent available, but also because it cannot taint food or utensils like old-fashioned powders, pastes and sprays.

We suggest you clip and save this story so that you may have an insect free home this summer. HOUSEHOLD PESTS (ROACHES AND ANTS):

Brush NO-ROACH at these five insect Control Spots for full protection: 1) around door and window sills (kitchen) where insects enter; 2) around bathroom window and door sills; 3) around food cabinets where they feed; 4) around kitchen and bathroom sinks where they drink; 5) kitchen and bathroom baseboards where they find shelter.

LICE IN CHICKEN HOUSES: Brush NO-ROACH around door and window sills of chicken houses on chicken roosts, and around feeding and water pans. This eliminates chicken lice.

RED ANTS: Since Red Ants are great destroyers of seedlings, brush NO-ROACH on fences, house foundations and garbage pails.

Pearl Brewery Completes New Packaging & Truck Painting Program

Once again the PEARL Brewing Company of San Antonio, Texas has demonstrated its active leadership in the brewing industry through its improved packaging program completed early this year.

The PEARL Brewing Company, at about the time it started its expansion program in 1952 decided that its packaging, advertising and truck painting should be redesigned, modernized and made uniform to more thoroughly develop the greatest possible consumer eye-appeal and sales impact.

After a great deal of study and consideration of many designs by the Company's Advertising & Merchandising Committee, a new bottle label and can design was adopted utilizing a redesigned emblem. These new bottle and can packages were introduced on the market in the spring of 1953.

In the meantime, new uniform designs for the 6-bottle and can pack containers, as well as all other cartons, were being developed, combining an attractive color combination of Tacoma-Cream and Fall Mall Red. These packages utilize red triangles to focus attention on the standard PEARL emblem and are designed to create eye appeal for impulsive buyers.

Witnesses said Brewer apparently stepped into deep water and went under. His body was found with grappling hooks 40 minutes later by Louis Clymer, a game warden, and Max Ratcliff, a power house worker.

Murder Charge

SAN ANTONIO, May 24 — Rudy Coy, 18, faced charges of murder Monday as the result of a teenage gang fight May 10.

Tony Mata, 17-year-old student at Tech high school, died Sunday from a bullet wound in the head.

Coy surrendered to police following the fight near Tech high school. He gave police a .38 caliber revolver and said he drew the gun and fired because he thought Mata was going to draw a knife.

Minister To Preach On Son's Sin

SAN ANTONIO, May 24 — UP — A Baptist preacher Monday was sadly preparing a sermon about his son, who was charged along with four other beer-drinking teenagers with clubbing a cafe owner to death with a pool cue.

Charged with murder were Luther L. Osborne, son of the Rev. L. B. Osborne, pastor of the Linares Avenue Baptist Church; Jerry Willis, 18, Douglas Breland, 18, and Myer Bello, 18, a 16-year-old youth implicated in the affair was turned over to juvenile authorities.

Police said the five youths went into the airport cafe Friday night and clubbed owner Julian Vega over the head with a broken pool cue. They then ransacked Vega's pockets and the cash register.

Vega died Saturday night from a fractured skull. Just before the victim's death, young Bello surrendered to police and identified the Baptist preacher's son as the youth who wielded the pool cue.

Young Osborne said "it was just a drinking spree and I ended up killing a man for $9." That money came from Vega's pocket. Another $15 was taken from the cash register.

The Rev. Osborne was unable to fill his pulpit Sunday and Don Hollman, founder of Boyeville in San Antonio, filled in with a sermon on the existing conditions which permit youths to buy beer and other alcoholic beverages.

THE MARQUEE BY DICK KLEINER

TV STAGE RADIO RECORDS PEOPLE

Any amateur songwriters in the crowd? As you know, it's tough to get a start in songwriting, but we have here a publisher who says he's willing to listen to any new song, by anybody.

Jack Spina, who published Perry Como's "Act of Contrition" and Arthur Godfrey's "Moon, June, Spoon," among other things, is your man. He says he's on the look-out for new writers, and will look a kindly ear at your effort. Just follow these rules:

1. Send a demonstration record and lead sheet, not just a sheet of music. If you haven't got a record of your song, you can get one made at your local radio station. Just a simple recording of yourself and a piano will suffice.

2. Pack it carefully, and include return postage if you want it back.

3. Send to Jack Spina, Spinalin Music Corp., 1650 Broadway, New York 19, N. Y.

4. Cross your fingers.

Once upon a gusher, one cat, name of Moonsoon, was being chauffeured from New York to Texas. He got the wonderlust and hopped out in Arkansas, and then things began to pop fast.

Miss Larson and her husband flew up from Texas to join the search. They posted a $100 reward. The school closed so the children could look for the cat. The paper ran a picture of the cat, and a lot of kids and most of the kids decided Siamese cats have two heads and ran home and locked their doors. So the paper had to run a front-page story saying that Siamese cats only have one head, after all, and please get your scardy-cat self outdoors and look for that cat.

A boy with a bloodhound found Moonsoon, collected the $100, and everybody went back to normal. Except Juliana Larson, who went and dreamed up a pink ladder.

Pity the poor puppeteers on TV. Bill and Cora Baird build about 20 new puppets a week for "The Morning Show" (CBS-TV). They calculated this would be 1000 a year. Since they already have a storehouse-full of puppets, things are a mite crowded up at the Bairds'. Anybody got a spare puppet-shrinker?

Can you stand two more psychiatric jokes? No? Well, here they are.

"I don't know, man," said the boy boy, "but sometimes I feel as if I'm going sane."

"Tell me," said the mind manipulator, "what's bothering you?"

"Ah, yes," says the first, tri-umphantly, "but in this case each one pays."

MATURE PARENT

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE
As her parents were abroad, a young friend of ours spent her sophomore high school term in a coeducational boarding school. One morning I took a train to see her. On my arrival, I found her and her friends in a state of indignation. The previous week, their principal had expelled a boy and a girl whose uncontrolled necking had become too troublesome for the campus "out of bounds" to all couples after dark.

Practical Stork Gifts Please Mothers

By KAY SHEERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer
Comes spring, and all of a sudden the household shopping list is crowded with names of tiny new-comers who rate a welcoming gift. The beribboned fluff, the embroidered frivolity are adorable, but if you want to lead the parade of well-wishers, choose a gift that caters to mama's time and temperament.

GRACE FRIEND

Dear Grace Friend
My first wife and I have been divorced about a year and I am planning to marry again. On several occasions friends of ours have invited us to the same parties. We met at several of these affairs, and it worked out pretty well as they were big and we didn't have to do more than speak to each other.

My problem is this: Should I give up my old friends since I know that if I continue going to their homes I will be running into my first wife? If I drop them I suppose I will be hurting their feelings. If I continue seeing them I know that it will be embarrassing for both girls.

Could I possibly check before accepting invitations in order to make sure whether she will be there too?

I sometimes feel it would be better to make a new circle of friends although it's hard to drop folks I've known so long.

Dear R. G.
When divorces divide couples the problem of friends always arises. My own experience has been that the divorced man usually finds a new circle of friends and that the wife continues her social contacts with their former friends.

I believe that in most cases married couples' circles are developed through wives' friendships rather than husbands' so that it is natural that such circles usually would continue friendships with the wife in a divorce.

Once you are married you will see this process at work as your wife accepts invitations from her friends for you and her. In the meantime it might be polite on your part to avoid going too much to the homes of friends of you and your former wife unless you have ways of knowing when she will be present. Of course, it would be more tactful on their part to invite you at different times but if they will not, you would be wise to refuse such invitations at present.

If you feel that just refusing will hurt the friends' feelings, you might explain the situation to them. I am sure you will find them understanding.

Care Of Fabrics Demonstrated To Busy Bee HD Club
WHITE DEER — (Special) — Mrs. Carol Pearson was hostess to the Busy Bee Home Demonstration club recently. The program was a demonstration on the care of miracle fabrics, with Mrs. Tommie Townsend as leader.

Reports were given by Mrs. Joe Wheeler on the council meeting, and by Mrs. Jay Phillips who gave the playground committee report and the finance committee report.

During the business meeting, led by Mrs. Gene McCormick, the club agreed to send an affirmative vote to be counted with other county clubs on sending delegates to the state convention. The vote carried to allow one of the two suggested members to be delegates to a county meeting concerning the election of state delegates.

The club will invite Miss Mildred Bennett, farm exchange student of Stratford, to be guest speaker at a fall program. The club will have a picnic June 4, in Central Park, Pampa. Members will furnish food, with the club furnishing beverages.

Mrs. Townsend had a wide variety of sample miracle fabrics that were exhibited during the demonstration. One of the most important matters, according to Mrs. Townsend, is the labeling of these fabrics. The material should be bleached a little at each laundering, instead of doing all of the bleaching at one time. The harsh household bleaches are hard on fabric, and shorten the life of the garment. There are special bleaches for the fabrics which should be used.

A number of secret pal gifts were exchanged. Mrs. Jay Phillips was recipient of tea towels at this meeting. Informative notes on multiple sclerosis were given by members for roll call.

Members present were Mrs. Bert Haidak, Joe Wheeler, Leon Nicholson, Jay Phillips, Gene McCormick, Tommie Townsend, Hoyt Taylor, L. A. Fockett, Orla Bertrand, and the hostess, Mrs. Pearson.

When selecting a blouse for your spring suit, consider the cuts of the sleeves of both garments. For example, a blouse that has dolman sleeves, should not be worn with a jacket whose sleeves are set-in.

Fine Arts Club Has Final Meet Of Year

SHAMROCK — (Special) — The Thursday Fine Arts club closed its activities of the year with a dinner in the home of the president, Mrs. Cabot Brannon. Japanese fans were used as favors and made attractive decorations on the tables. Place cards were match-olders inscribed with hand lettering and decorated with fresh flowers.

Following the dinner, a review of the year's activities and suggestions for the annual music week program for 1955 were discussed.

As I still remember what the principal told them in assembly that afternoon when a spokesman for the students had voiced their protest, "Young people," he said, "our new rule has been made for one reason only — the protection of good will upon this campus. It has not been planned to restrict your sexual interest in each other, but to support it. With the past weeks, we have all witnessed what can happen to a boy and a girl who refused to control that interest. We saw a relationship that began with good will between two people and with the refusal to so much as look at one another. We saw defiance of law and in hatred of the partner in defiance. Now let us use the lesson that came into our experience. . . .

As I listened, I could feel the tension around me relax. I knew that this wise teacher's young people had accepted his new ruling. Later when I commented on the forbearance with which he had treated their fear of being pushed around, he said, "Yes, I believe that our new rule is now properly evaluated." He looked thoughtfully out his window at the campus before he swung his chair around toward me again.

"The past weeks have been both interesting and rather sad," he said. "For this school of ours functions like any other community. Its members don't like people who take special privileges. The youngsters who today were protesting our new rule were only yesterday protesting the behavior of the couple who took special necking privileges that they couldn't take. . . .

Then he added, "So we had a good deal of gossip, you see. Then came contempt. The bond between those two young creatures could not survive it. They could not forgive each other for cooperating on

Cereal Flakes And Milk Enrich Bread

A PERFECT SPRINGTIME meal combines a casserole of oat food with cereal, salad and quick cereal loaf bread.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor
We have a casserole dish at our house which provides the essential calcium, minerals and vitamins of milk and cereal, plus lots of eating pleasure. My wife (who I think she's a terrific cook) makes it this way:
To serve 4, empty 2 cans cream of mushroom soup into a saucepan. Stir in 1-3/4 can milk and the juice of one lemon. Drain and add 1 small jar of whole stuffed olives. Then rinse contents of 2 7-ounce cans solid pack tuna and add.
Heat thoroughly and turn into one large or individual casseroles. Press bite-size shredded wheat or rice cereal around edges of top and place under broiler just long enough to brown. Garnish with fragrant parsley.
Another cereal and milk recipe for family enjoyment is quick-loaf bread. It comes from Mrs. Elaine Heston of Battle Creek, Mich. Heston Recipe for Quick-Loaf

Bread (using ready-to-eat cereal flakes)
(Yield: 1 loaf)
Two and one-half cups sifted all-purpose flour, 3/4 teaspoon baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon, 3/4 cup sugar, 2 eggs, well beaten; 1 1/2 cups milk, 1/3 cup butter or margarine, melted; 1 cup whole wheat flakes or bran flakes, slightly crushed.

Stir together flour, baking powder, salt, cinnamon and sugar. Combine egg, milk and slightly cooled butter or margarine. Add to dry ingredients, stirring only enough to dampen the flour (30 to 35 strokes). Scrape down bowl and spoon at the end of the eighth stroke and add the cereal flakes.

Pour into a well-greased loaf bread pan, 8 1/2 by 4 1/2 by 2 1/2 inches, and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 60 minutes. Turn out to cool on a rack. Better a day old when used for sandwiches.

Oilers-Pioneers Slated In Twinbill Here Tonight

Weather permitting, the Oilers and Clovis Pioneers will battle it out in a doubleheader at Oiler Park tonight.

Sunday's series opener was postponed because of a heavy down-pour that began to fall about game time.

Jimmy Hamilton, Oiler business manager, inspected the field this morning and said the field would be playable if the sun comes out this afternoon.

Hamilton added, however, it's very doubtful the games would be played since there was no sight of sunshine at noon today.

If the games are played, Don Tierney and Jake Henson have been named to hurl for the Oilers with Tierney going in the first game.

The curtain raiser will start at 7 p.m.

The Oilers will conclude their current home stand Tuesday and Wednesday nights against the Amarillo Gold Sox.

Junior Oilers Win 9-3 Over Hedley

The Pampa Junior Oilers continued their unbeaten ways in the Cap Rock League yesterday when they scored a 9-3 win over Hedley at Hedley.

It was the third win in as many starts in Cap Rock play for the Junior Oilers.

Dale Hensell and Cloyce Lyons divided mound duties in Sunday's win. Hensell started the game but gave way to Lyons with one out in the third. Lyons thus was credited with the victory.

Manager Nevt Secret caught the entire game for the winners.

The Junior Oilers took a 2-0 lead in the second inning and were never headed. The Pampans made it 6-0 in the top of the third before Hedley broke loose for all its runs in the bottom of the third to make it 4-3.

Pampa then pulled away with one in the fourth and two in the seventh.

Ray Cooper, Gerald Mobley and Cooper each got two hits to lead the Junior Oilers at the plate.

Right fielder Glen Adams made the best defensive play of the game when he pulled in a sharp hit ball and then threw to second to force a runner there for a double play.

The game was held up on a couple of occasions because of rain and it was finally called after eight innings when rain continued.

The Junior Oilers will meet Ft. Pierce of Amarillo at Amarillo next Sunday in their next scheduled league game. It's possible the Little Oilers will play Groom Friday night at Oiler Park in a make-up game.

Corbin captured the title in the eighth hole and a pair five on the second. The two played evenly until the rough, when Corbin accidentally kicked his ball, losing the hole on a two-stroke penalty. McCommas evened the match with a birdie on the eighth hole.

Corbin came back with a birdie on the 13th and kept his lead for the remaining five holes.

In the all-Dallas semi-finals, Corbin topped Dick Martin 5 and 4 while McCommas defeated Sonny Ewing 2 and 1.

The Amarillo Gold Sox exchanged wallops with Plainview in the West Texas-New Mexico League standing Sunday as they nipped the Ponies 2 to 0 in 11 innings. All other scheduled games were postponed due to rain.

The Sox took over third place, pushing the Ponies into fourth alongside Pampa.

Plainview took a 2 to 0 lead in the fifth, then Amarillo sent the game into extra innings with single runs in the seventh and eighth.

Score by innings: (11 innings) Amarillo 000 000 110 01-3 8 4 Plainview 000 020 000 00-2 11 0 Faust, Smith, Locke and Goff; Arthur and Melton.

Stranahan In British Lead

GUALLANE, Scotland, May 24 (UP)—Two-time winner Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, leads a strong group of Americans Monday into first and second round matches as the British Amateur golf tournament opens for a week of gruelling match play.

Eight of the Americans were slated to compete in first-round matches while 14, including Stranahan and Bill Campbell of Huntington, W. Va., were scheduled for second-round matches after drawing first-round byes.

Eight other Americans, including 1937 champion Robert Sweeney of Palm Beach, Fla., will make their first appearance Tuesday in second-round matches.

Stranahan, the muscular millionaire who captured the title in this tournament in 1948 and 1950, is rated by odds-makers as the United States' chief hope for the crown; both he and defending champion Joe Carr of Ireland are rated at 6 to 1.

Stranahan was matched in the second round against Andrew Forrest of Britain, while Campbell faced Denton Guest of Britain.

Both are in the upper half of the drawer.

33 To Run In 500-Mile Race

INDIANAPOLIS, May 24 (UP)—A dizzy pace for the May 31 500-mile auto race is in prospect Monday with 33 record-shattering roadsters in the lineup for the richest and possibly toughest grind ever.

The average speed for the field of 138 632 miles per hour is more than two miles faster than last year's. The pace set in four time trial days was so terrific the qualifying race and the 184 372 mph by Walt Faulkner three years ago would not have made it.

Slender Jack McGrath, Ingiewood, Calif., the pole sitter and first record smasher of Chet Miller's 1952 qualification marks, topped all hopefuls by averaging 141.033 mph. Frank Arm, Hanford, Calif., the last qualifier Sunday, was the slowest, 137.673.

Miller's 1952 record of 138.034 mph for four laps was topped 10 times, and his one lap mark of 138,600 was eclipsed 18 times.

The cars were bumped by faster ones Saturday and Sunday, including Fulmer's racer and the powerful, eight-cylinder Novi driven by Duke Nalon, Chicago.

Defending champion Bill Vukovich, Fresno, Calif., who had engine trouble last week, chose to play it safe and qualified at an average of 138.473 mph rather than shoot for McGrath's records.

Forty-four of the 65 cars nominated for the 38th annual "500" qualified. The 43rd car, operated by Duke Dinamore, Dayton, Ohio, hit better than 137 mph, but it wasn't fast enough to get into the field.

Women Set Records

LONDON, May 24 (UP)—Two Russian women recently set new world records in track and field events, Moscow radio said Sunday.

Madezhada Konyayeva of Kiev threw the javelin 190 feet eight inches, and Alexandra Chudina cleared five feet, 7 5/8 inches in the high jump, according to the monitored broadcast.

FLY HIGH—Wally Moon, Stanley Musial and Ray Jablonski, left to right, to a large extent account for the Cardinals' early foot. They are among the National League batting leaders. Moon leads off and Musial and Jablonski are top hands at driving in runs. (NEA)

Braves Run Winning Streak To 7; Gain Tie For NL Lead

By CARL LUNDQUIST United Press Sports Writer

Almost while nobody was looking, the Milwaukee Braves put on their seven league boots and jumped from seventh to a tie for first with a seven-game winning streak in that crazy mixed-up National League flag race.

It was "streak week" for the Braves, Dodgers, and Indians. Milwaukee, which was in seventh place two weeks ago and in sixth last Monday, moved into a tie for the top spot with Brooklyn by sweeping a doubleheader over the Cubs, 4-2 in 10 innings, and 9-3.

The Dodgers, with a modest four-game streak, their longest of the year, moved up with Milwaukee to the top by beating the Pirates, 5-4 and 6-2. Some of the lustre of their streak was taken off because all of the victories have been over the Pirates.

But the Indians, who threaten to keep on winning until Labor Day, made it 11 straight with 14-3 and 2-1 victories over Baltimore.

The second in 12 innings of hard luck Bob Turley. That put Cleveland 2-1-2 games ahead of second place Chicago, which edged Detroit 4-3. Boston made it two out of three over the Yankees with a 10-9 win. Washington defeated the Athletics 9-4.

Push Across Five

Cincinnati pushed across five tallies in the ninth for 13-6 victory over St. Louis. The Giants edged the Phils 6-4.

Coach Bucky Walters of the Braves, who used to be a great pitcher himself, never stops talking about young prospect Ray Crone. After a pile-up of doubleheaders, Crone got a chance to prove it when he beat the Cubs with a five-hitter, striking out seven in his first big league start. Doubled by Andy Pafo and Danny O'Connell and a pair of Chicago errors brought home the two marginal runs in the 10th after Ernie Banks had hit a two-run homer in the ninth for Chicago to tie the score. Pafo went on to drive in two home runs and a triple to give young Chet Nichols his fourth straight triumph after three consecutive losses.

Brooklyn won its opener behind the steady pitching of Preacher Roe, who smashed a single and double while Gil Hodges hit a two-run homer. Duke Snider hit a pair of homers in the second game while Sid Gordon got one in each game for Pittsburgh.

Wally Post drove in five runs with a double and two-run homer in Cincinnati's 12-hit triumph that knocked the Cardinals out of the lead. The Reds scored five times in the ninth. Ray Jablonski drove in five St. Louis runs, blasting a two-run homer, a double, and a single.

Giants Get Toe-Hold

The Giants took a 4-0 toe-hold on lefty Curt Simmons in the first three innings then squeezed to victory although the Phils threatened often. Willie Mays drove in three runs with a triple and single.

Bob Feller was backed by 18 hit support in winning his first game and the 25th of his career after which Cleveland had to battle all-out to beat Turley, the Baltimore homer in the second as Milwaukee scattered nine hits and 9-3.

White Sox Acquire Kell, Cavarretta

CHICAGO, May 24 (UP)—The White Sox' dramatic acquisition of former batting champions George Kell and Phil Cavarretta, regarded as their all-time big find this year's pennant, was hailed Monday by manager Paul Richards as "a big boost."

Richards said that Kell, the 1949 American League bat king, will take over at third base in the starting lineup while Cavarretta, the 1945 National League champ, will be used as a pinch-hitter.

Kell, 31, was the prize in Sunday's big swap that stunned baseball circles — the Boston Red Sox giving up the veteran third baseman in exchange for third base manager Grady Hatton and a huge fund of cash believed to be about $100,000.

Cavarretta, 36-year-old former manager of the Chicago Cubs, hasn't actually signed his contract, according to White Sox general manager Frank Lane. But that appeared to be a mere formality, since Cavarretta, a free agent, announced that he and Lane have "agreed on terms." The two were scheduled to confer here Monday.

Richards indicated that the two player moves, which were designed to add batting punch for the pennant drive, may result in a big re-juggling of the Sox' starting lineup.

Kell, who will report to the Sox in time for their Friday night game against the Orioles at Baltimore, definitely will be the third baseman, said Richards, in spite of the fact that Cass Michaels, currently playing that position, is swatting the ball at a .350 clip.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24 (UP)—The baseball world, led by Connie Mack, paid tribute Monday to the memory of Charles Albert (Chief) Bender — one of the greatest "clutch" pitchers of them all.

The Chief, one of the brightest batters in Connie's diadem, died after the turn of the century, was struck down by cancer Saturday at the age of 71. Only last September, the Chief was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame.

Mack obviously saddened by the death of the famed Athletics pitcher and his old friend, harkened back to the days when Bender was "unbeatable in every important game over a two-year period" with the Philadelphia Athletics.

"The Chief was undoubtedly the greatest pitcher the major leagues have ever seen," Mack said of the half-Chippewa Indian who accompanied Mack on every team that can be expected of a major league hurler.

Bender, a product of the famed Carlisle Indian school that produced Jim Thorpe, pitched a no-hitter against Cleveland in 1910 when he also compiled a 23-5 record — his best year in the majors.

Bender began his major league career with Philadelphia in 1903, and he faced his last major league batter in a one-inning appearance with the Chicago Cubs in 1925. During that period, the Chief won 193 and lost 103. His world series record, which spanned the golden days of the Athletics, was 6-4.

Roswell Retains Longhorn Lead

By UNITED PRESS

Roswell kept a tight grip on the Longhorn League Sunday night by whipping Odessa 11 to 3. The victory kept the Indians four games in front of second-place Artesia.

Artesia defeated Midland 5 to 1 to keep pace with Roswell. Carlsbad outlasted San Angelo 11 to 8 in a record of Big Spring nipped Sweetwater 4 to 3 in the opening game of a doubleheader, then dropped the nightcap 10 to 2.

Softball Tilt Is Postponed

The scheduled softball game between Southwestern Bell Telephone and Pampa News in the industrial league tonight has been postponed because of rain and wet grounds.

The other scheduled tilt in the league, Skelly vs. Phillips, hadn't been called off at noon today.

Weather permitting, the schedule will be resumed next week for the remainder of the week.

Wins Mexican Bout

MEXICO CITY, May 24 (UP)—Mexican bantamweight champion Raton Macias 19-14, gained a unanimous decision over Fili Nava, 118-34, Sunday in a non-title bout.

Trabert, Mulloy To Semi-Finals In French Tournament

PARIS, May 24 (UP)—Five U. S. players, headed by tournament favorite Tony Trabert of Cincinnati and giant killer Gardner Mulloy of Coral Gables, Fla., Monday occupied berths in the quarter finals of the French Clay Courts tennis championships.

Art Larsen of San Leandro, Calif., Budge Patty of Los Angeles and Vic Seixas of Philadelphia were the other Yank stalwarts who survived a rain-dampened weekend of activity at the Roland Garros Stadium, but it was young Trabert and the 40-year-old Mulloy who stole the show.

Trabert, the current U. S. champion, continued his easy advance Sunday by polishing off former Wimbledon champion Bob Falkenberg of Brazil, 6-3, 6-2, 6-2, in the fourth round, while Mulloy pulled off the tournament's biggest upset by eliminating top-seeded Lewis Hoad of Australia, 6-2, 7-6, 7-5, 6-4.

Seixas also gained his quarter-final berth at the expense of an Australian Davis Cupper, downing Rex Hartwig, 8-6, 3-6, 5-7, 10-8.

Larsen eliminated Jaroslav Drobny of Egypt, 4-6, 7-5, 4-6, 6-3, 6-1; and Patty whipped Jacques Brichant of Belgium 6-3, 6-1, 6-4.
