

Probable Death Toll Put at 620 as Indian Steamer Sinks

'About 100' Survivors Picked up

BOMBAY, India—AP—About 620 persons were missing today from the coastal steamer Ramdas, which capsized under two enormous waves and sank swiftly in the Arabian Sea 12 miles south of Bombay yesterday.

R. D. Thathi, traffic manager of the Bombay Steam Navigation Co., said there were at noon, "about 100" survivors of the 721 persons aboard the 400-ton vessel, which was but a dozen years old.

He said search parties had picked up 20 bodies and that survivors were brought to Bombay and taken to the villages of Bhusav, Dharamatar, Karanja and Pirwadi.

The ship went down in five minutes. Most aboard appeared to be Indians, although three Europeans were reported among the passengers.

Most passengers were en route to Ratnagiri Village in the district from which Bombay draws a large number of laborers.

Commander H. J. Mills, principal sea transport officer of the government of India, came here today and began an official inquiry into the disaster. He questioned some survivors this morning and expected to hear from the captain and other ship's officers this afternoon.

The Bombay Port Trust, the Royal Indian Navy and many fishermen cooperated in the search for survivors in a sea still running high from the week-old monsoon.

The 11-year-old Ramdas capsized under the impact of two enormous waves and sank within five minutes near Gul Island.

The vessel at the time was near the end of her regular passenger run from this city to the fishing village of Revas, across Bombay Harbor, with 673 passengers and a large crew aboard. At least three of the passengers were reported to be Europeans—including a woman and a child.

Some survivors, including the captain and a part of the crew, reached shore without help. Others were picked up by fishing vessels, but the harbor shores were reported littered with the bodies of victims.

Survivors reaching here told harrowing stories of how they had saved themselves and how they had seen friends and relatives swept overboard from the sinking ship.

One man said he escaped by crawling through a porthole. Another survivor, so distressed he could not give his own name, said he had been engulfed by the sea.

He swam in heavy seas until he could grab a lifebuoy to which seven others already were clinging.

A six-year-old boy was brought ashore after several hours in the water.

Company officials said that "while normal monsoon weather" prevailed, no storm warnings had been given at 8 a. m. when the Ramdas left the ferry wharf on the 45-minute run, generally regarded as safe for the vessel even in the monsoon.

President Signs Succession Bill

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman today signed the presidential succession bill placing Speaker Joseph Martin (R-Mass) in line to replace him in the event Mr. Truman is unable to complete his term.

The legislation, which Mr. Truman requested immediately after he entered the White House and vacated the vice-presidency, was signed as part of the presidential routine.

There was none of the ceremony that sometimes accompanies the signing of important measures.

Press Secretary Charles G. Ross, who told reporters of the signing, said he knows of no plans to assign a secret service agent to protect Mr. Truman.

Secret service agents also said they know of no such intention.

Until Mr. Truman signed the legislation, Secretary of State Marshall had been next in line to the presidency.

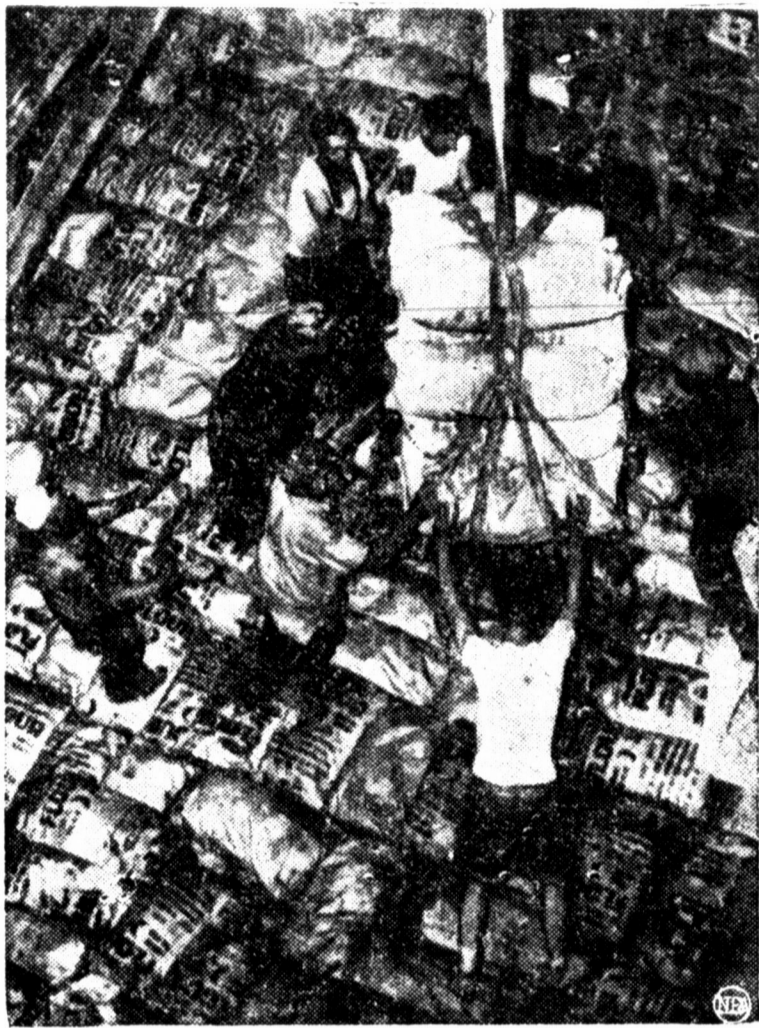

The new bill outlining order of presidential succession places the Speaker immediately behind the vice-president.

The president pro tempore of the Senate—now Senator Vandenberg—is next in line of succession after the Speaker of the House.

Cabinet officers starting with the Secretary of State, follow in order provided by previous law.

IN VETERANS HOSPITAL Theodore Mallonee, who was run over by a train July 8, was taken by Dukenel-Carmichael to the Veterans Hospital in Amarillo this morning. He has had one leg amputated and suffers from a shoulder being broken in several places.

FOOD IS HEADED FOR GREECE—Food obtained for Greece under the United States relief program is loaded aboard the American Export Lines SS American Victory at Staten Island, New York. The cargo soon will be on the way to Greece, which again is feeling strife of war as the Greek Army fights guerrilla invasion from Albania.

House Overrides Veto of Tax Bill

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The House voted today to override President Truman's second veto of the Republican-backed $4,000,000,000 tax cut, but indications are that the Senate may sustain the President and thus kill the bill.

The House vote to override was 299 to 108, 28 more than the necessary two-thirds majority.

A total of 62 Democrats joined 236 Republicans in the vote to override the President.

Voting to uphold the veto were 195 Democrats, two Republicans—Hull of Wisconsin and H. Carl Andersen of Minnesota, and the one American Labor Party member, Marcantonio of New York.

In announcing the results of the vote, Speaker Martin (R-Mass) said the bill is passed "notwithstanding the objections of the President."

Chairman Taft (R-Ohio) told reporters the Senate Republican Policy Committee will press for a vote later today on the veto.

The House roll call showed a substantial shift of Democrats in support of the measure, which provides for tax reduction effective Jan. 1, 1948. The Chamber previously had voted 268 to 137—two short of the required two-thirds—to sustain Mr. Truman's veto of the first bill which would have made the cuts effective last July 1.

Just as he did in vetoing the first bill, Mr. Truman again vetoed the tax legislation providing the "wrong kind of tax reduction at the wrong time."

If the Senate should upset predictions and vote to override, the bill would provide cuts ranging from 30 percent in the lowest tax bracket to 10.5 percent on incomes over $302,000.

Republicans virtually conceded the Senate will pitch the new measure in the scrap heap. The Chamber voted 60 to 32 to pass the bill—two votes short of two-thirds majority.

GOP leaders say failure of the Senate to override will erase all prospects of relief for 49,000,000 income taxpayers next year. They promised to throw the tax issue into the August presidential campaign.

Republican National Chairman Carroll Reece said "it will be quite satisfactory from the Republican standpoint to have Mr. Truman campaign next year for a fifth term of the New Deal with the slogan, 'The legislation, which Mr. Truman requested immediately after he entered the White House and vacated the vice-presidency, was signed as part of the presidential routine.'"

There was none of the ceremony that sometimes accompanies the signing of important measures.

Press Secretary Charles G. Ross, who told reporters of the signing, said he knows of no plans to assign a secret service agent to protect Mr. Truman.

Final inspection for almost all of 31 boys who will run in Sunday's All-American Soap Box Derby was held yesterday afternoon at the Junior High School Gym, and the Pampa Lions Club committees have announced plans are virtually complete for the event.

The boys will make test runs down the Old Miami Highway course tomorrow afternoon, beginning at 2:30, and then their cars will be street until Sunday afternoon.

The cars will be transported to the track tomorrow through the courtesy of the C. M. Jeffries Trucking Co.

The city buses will begin running the track at 12:30 Sunday afternoon, it was announced.

Meantime, it was announced by the Prize Committee that Friendly Men's Store will furnish watch chains and tie clasps as consolation prizes for boys who do not win a prize in competition.

These gifts, along with others, will be presented to the boys during the Lions Club luncheon on Thursday, July 24. All boys who run in the race will be guests of the club, as has been the custom.

Programs will go on sale by Lions Club beginning tomorrow morning. They will be sold both in town and at the race track.

The show is free, and there will be plenty of parking space on both sides of the track.

Korn's-a-Krackin' To Be Presented Here August 1, 2

"Korn's-a-Krackin'" streamline hill billy unit and Mutual Broadcasting System stars will present three shows of star-studded performers at the Senior High School Auditorium, August 1 and 2, in connection with the Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsored Top of Texas and Western Week.

The three performances will be climaxed Saturday night when through the facilities of over 160 Mutual stations the "Korn's-a-Krackin'" unit will present their weekly broadcast from the stage of the Auditorium. The program will originate through the local Mutual station, Radio Station KPDM.

Pampa will be nationally publicized during the network program through references to local personalities and points of interest.

The quality and variety of entertainment offered by "Korn's-a-Krackin'" attracted the attention of MBS officials late in 1945, and on Jan. 19, 1946, the program was first presented nation-wide over the Mutual network. It has been heard regularly coast-to-coast, every Saturday night since that time.

Only recently, Variety Magazine, a leading publication in the entertainment world, called "Korn's-a-Krackin'" the "liveliest rural rhythm show on the air."

The program, which includes 20 nationally-known radio headliners, is emceed by Bill "King Korn" Ring. Performances will start nightly at 8:15 with a matinee Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The group will leave Pampa Sunday morning for Elk City, Okla., the first stop of the second day of the good will tour.

Texans Say Program of U. S. and Mexico Against Foot-and-Mouth Disease Too Lax

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Two Texas cattlemen say the joint program of the U. S. and Mexican governments against foot-and-mouth disease in Mexico is not tough enough.

They advocated slaughter of all animals in infected areas, and criticized the system of quarantined "buffer" zones being maintained by Mexican Army troops.

Their opinions were made public in hearings published today as the House Appropriations Committee presented a supplemental money bill for the current fiscal year.

Discussion of the foot-and-mouth eradication program came up when the Agriculture Department asked for $65,000,000 to carry on the work. Congress appropriated $9,000,000 in additional appropriations.

The committee is unwilling to make additional appropriations of considerable sums on the basis of the varying estimates of cost which are presented.

Former Congressman Robert J. Kleberg, Jr., president and general manager of the famous King Ranch, and Thomas R. Armstrong, part owner of the Armstrong Ranch in South Texas, were the two critics.

Kleberg told the committee that

Economic Policy Is Welcomed by German Leaders

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The United Nations Security Council ended its general Balkan debate today and plunged immediately into the final phase of the case—a detailed discussion of the conflicting American and Russian plans of action.

As the general discussions came to a close, French Delegate Alexandre Parodi called on the representative of Greece, Albania, Bulgaria and Yugoslavia to give assurances of their cooperation and good will.

Each of the four in turn expressed a desire to see the problem settled peacefully, and Parodi voiced his satisfaction that the debate had ended on a peaceful note rather than a note of mutual accusation.

Meanwhile, the United States was reported ready to introduce a revised version of its original resolution, bringing it into line with suggestions offered by France and other delegates during the general debate. It was emphasized, however, that no changes in the substance of the resolution were contemplated.

The new draft was considered at length in a pre-session conference of the British, French and American delegations in the delegates' lounge this morning, but the actual changes were not made public immediately.

Most delegates were reluctant to anticipate what Russia would do when the council came to a vote on the American proposal for a commission to stand guard over the Balkans and settle disputes.

The general feeling, however, after the speech yesterday by Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko was that Russia might abstain from voting and permit the establishment of the commission.

Some delegates felt that Russia still was hoping for delays which might produce some type of compromise and open the way for Gromyko to abstain.

American sources said, however, that the U. S. delegation would not budge in its position and would not accept any compromise that would weaken its proposal.

Gromyko told the Security Council that the American plan for settling the Balkan border disorders was "unacceptable," he said the U. S. proposal was a "sharp breach" of the United Nations Charter.

The Soviet delegate appealed for "direct settlement" by the states involved.

Sentence Given Youth Suspended

Max G. Brown, 17, was given a five year suspended sentence in the state penitentiary this morning by Judge Lewis M. Goodrich in 31st District Court.

Brown pleaded guilty to the burglary of the Motor Inn Supply Company in May. He also admitted under questioning by the court, to other acts of burglary in the city of Pampa for which he was indicted by the Grand Jury. These indictments were dismissed by District Attorney Tom Braly. Brown further admitted, under court interrogation, to burglaries in Wheeler County and to several others in Oklahoma.

The district attorney gave no indication as to what the Grand Jury of Wheeler County would do with the charges against the youth there. Brown was represented in court by Attorney Harry C. Hicks of Hollis, Okla. The judge gave the 17 year old his liberty to return to Oklahoma with his parents.

Earlier in the morning the Court granted an increase of monthly support to Mrs. Frances Walker from her ex-husband, Clyde Walker. The order granted an increase from $40 a month to $60 a month for the support of three minor children under the age of 16. The case was heard in a non-jury trial. Counsel for the plaintiff was Walter Rogers. Attorney John Stuver represented the defense.

One divorce was granted this morning by Judge Goodrich to Mary Olive Cobble from her husband, Clyde M. Cobble. The plaintiff's petition alleged the couple were married in April, 1946, and separated in February of 1947. Charges of cruelty were given as causes for the separation.

Navy Appropriation Bill Gets Signature

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman today signed the bill giving the Navy $3,432,046,100 for operations in the fiscal year that started July 1.

The bill provides for a projected program supporting an average Navy strength of 395,000 enlisted men and 42,000 officers.

It is approximately $244,000,000 below the President's budget estimates.

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Some 4,500 angry Jewish immigrants aboard a refugee ship used tear gas, smoke bombs, steam jets and other weapons today in a vain battle against a 50-man British boarding party off the Palestine coast, British authorities announced.

Five British destroyers escorted the vessel toward Haifa, where the refugees will be transhipped to troopships for transfer to detention camps in Cyprus.

The announcement said no fatalities were suffered by either side, but that three members of the boarding party were injured.

A broadcast, purportedly emanating from the ship, had reported earlier that one Jew was killed and 25 were wounded seriously. The broadcast, which ended at about the time the boarding party took over, said five of the wounded were dying.

The refugee ship was identified as a former American vessel, the President Warfield, renamed by the immigrants Exodus, 1947.

(The President Warfield, a 1,814-ton steamer, was identified in Baltimore as a former excursion boat which saw service in the Normandy invasion in 1944 and later as a troopship.)

Haifa, Jewish underground defense organization, was reported to have appealed to the United Nations Special Commission on Palestine to intervene in behalf of the immigrants. A reliable Jewish source said the appeal was delivered to the Commission by the Hagana high command. The Commission, which is investigating the Palestine problem, is scheduled to leave for Lebanon Sunday.

The broadcast charged that the British, in boarding the ship outside territorial waters, had committed an "act of piracy." It said the first 25 men and officers who stepped on deck were taken prisoner.

A Jewish informant said the full text of the broadcast was transmitted by Hagana to Emil Sandstrom, chairman of the U. N. Commission.

The British gave no details on possible casualties, but an earlier broadcast, purportedly emanating from the refugee ship, declared that one Jew had been killed, 25 seriously.

CHECK TROUBLE—Lady Iris Mountbatten, cousin of King George VI of England, appears at police headquarters in New York City where she was booked on a charge of driving without a license. She had written several checks in Washington, D. C., which were returned marked insufficient funds, were later paid off by her lawyer.

Planes Inflict Severe Losses On Guerrillas

ATHENS—(AP)—A Greek communique said today Nationalist planes were inflicting severe losses on guerrillas who were fleeing northeast of Ioannina before pursuing ground forces and ravaging villages on the way.

Another and larger guerrilla offensive was expected along the north-west frontier. The Greek government said the first guerrilla band "invaded" Greece from Albania with the aim of setting up a separate Communist government.

"Bandits passing through villages have committed crimes of unimaginable brutality," the communique said from the Greek Eighth Division.

Frangadhis, Elatohori and Dholanin in the foothills of Mt. Timil. Loyalists asserted the irregulars had been cut into small units which were scattered in an arc over a wide, rugged area 16 miles northeast of Ioannina near the villages of Frangadhis, Elatohori and Dholanin in the foothills of Mt. Timil.

An unconfirmed report said 245 bodies were found in the ravine and that army units captured 300 more of the estimated 800 rebels under fire.

The Balkan sub-commission of the United Nations was to leave Salonika during the day for Ioannina for another investigation. Both the Russian and Polish delegates opposed holding the inquiry at Ioannina, although G. P. Gasparov of Russia had accompanied the board on a preliminary inquiry Tuesday.

(The full U. N. Commission reported to the United Nations that Greek civil strife was largely due to intervention by Yugoslavia and to a lesser degree, by Albania and Bulgaria.)

Six High Nazis Change Prisons

BERLIN—(AP)—Rudolf Hess and the other six high Nazis who escaped the noose in the Nuremberg war crimes trial were transferred secretly today to Spandau prison, where they will serve terms of from 10 years to life.

For Hess, Walther Funk and Grand Adm. Erich Raeder, it was apparently their final appearance outside confinement. All were doomed to life terms.

The seven survivors of Adolf Hitler's ruling clique stepped from their plane and into a bus under heavy guard. Guards patrolled the airfield while the bus rolled on to Spandau, accompanied by four armored cars and four truckloads of soldiers.

It was the first time since 1945 that the Nazis had been in the Capital from which they had bullied the world.

Spandau prison, in a suburb of Berlin, is a joint place of confinement operated by the four occupying powers, the United States, Russia, Great Britain and France.

WE, THE WOMEN

Reader Advised to Cultivate Neighbor Kids

By RUTH MILLET NEA Staff Writer A woman reader wants me to write a column she can put in an envelope and mail to the parents of the young kids in her neighborhood. Though she has complained of the noise they make and told their parents to keep them out of her yard, the kids still bother her. She is particularly upset because two children helped themselves to some of her flowers.

Well, I'll write the piece, but if it gets mailed to anybody in that reader's home town, it will probably be to her.

There is someone like her in almost every neighborhood. Their lawns are too beautiful to be trampled by the feet of children. Though they may be able to tolerate a loud rattle and the din of traffic, the shrill voices of children at play set them wild.

CULTIVATE KIDS So all that I can say to the woman who doesn't want to be annoyed by neighborhood youngsters is this: You are lucky to have children living around you. Give them half a chance, and they'll help make a human being of you.

Instead of complaining to their parents the next time they come in your yard, offer them cookies and get acquainted.

The genuine liking of the kids in your neighborhood would do far more to bring some beauty into your life than an unmoistened flower garden. Cultivate the kids for awhile and forget the flowers.

Rev. Garber Conducts Harvest Celebration

Rev. Merlin E. Garber

Reverend Merlin E. Garber of Champaign, Ill., has just arrived in Pampa to serve as guest minister in a series of Harvest Celebration services at the Church of the Brethren. The first service will be held tonight at 8:00 o'clock.

Rev. Garber is a graduate of Bridgewater College of Virginia and of Bethany Biblical Seminary of Chicago. He has also spent considerable time as a post graduate student in the University of Illinois. A tribute to his ability as pastor and preacher is seen in the fact that his church at Champaign has held him there continuously in his first pastorate, a period of some 16 years. He will preach tonight, then again on Saturday night, Sunday morning, and Sunday afternoon.

All former ministers and members of the local church now living have been invited to attend this celebration. The church will be 53 years old next Monday, having been organized on July 21, 1894, in an old dug-out one mile south of Laketon. For twenty-eight years services were conducted in various school houses around Laketon and Miami. In 1922 the activities of the congregation were moved into Pampa. For 15 years the congregation worshipped in a building they purchased in the eastern edge of Talley Addition. In 1937 the present church building at 600 North Frost Street was completed and dedicated.

The climax of the present celebration will come on Sunday afternoon following the closing sermon when the congregation will officially open a campaign for a building fund with which to enlarge the present structure.

This will be Rev. Garber's first visit to Texas. His mission in this program is to preach the Gospel. We believe that the people of Pampa will appreciate his type of message. We therefore extend an invitation to all.

Christian Science Services Sunday

"Life" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 20.

The Golden Text is: "The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance; and of my cup: Thou maintainest my lot... Thou wilt shew me the path of life" (Psalms 16:5-11).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Yet the Lord will command his loving-kindness in the daytime, and in the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life" (Psalms 42:8).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "We all must learn that Life is God (page 496).

Potato wart, a disease of potatoes, was brought into Pennsylvania by immigrant coal miners who sought to introduce plant varieties from the "old country."

WALL STREET STOCKS

NEW YORK, July 17.—(AP)—Late selling, while not particularly urgent, put most stock market leaders on the downside today despite quiet strength exhibited by a handful of special issues.

Activity of low-priced stocks put the day's volume at around $1,200,000 shares, the twelfth straight session in which the million-mark has been bettered.

Peaks for 1947 were recorded for Chrysler and United Fruit, which eventually slipped. Standard Oil of Ohio and Shell Union Oil. Favorable dividends lifted American Car & Foundry and Bell & Howell. Ahead most of the time were Worthington Pump, on an earnings jump; Fibert, Armour, Cuyler, J. C. Peñney and Douglas Aircraft.

Stumble were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors, Goodyear, Woolworth, Oliver Corp., International Harvester, American Telephone, Kennecott, American Smelting, General Electric, Union Carbide, S. P. Sunk and Southern Pacific.

Bonds were uneven. The majority of commodities skidded.

Prefabrication Mill Warehouse Is Burned

AUSTIN.—(AP)—The mill and warehouse of the Capital Prefabricators Inc. plant, one of the largest of its kind in the nation, lay in ruins today following a fire last night that caused damages estimated at $1,000,000.

Fire Chief John Woody said it was not immediately determined how the fire started.

A nightwatchman discovered the blaze in a long, low warehouse. It quickly spread to the mill with the aid of a wind from the east. The blaze was one of the largest in the history of the city.

The plant was constructed in 1940 and was capable of producing 300 housing units a month. General Manager J. K. Eichelberger said the plant would be rebuilt soon.

The buildings situated on the highway to Dallas, snarled traffic for several hours. No one was injured in the blaze. Firemen brought the three-alarm fire under control within three hours.

Soft textured pines from the far western states are distinct from the heavier, harder, more pithy yellow pines from the south, a mere fraction of their capacity.

POSSIBLE RESIDENTS
 DALLAS.—(AP)—Lt. Gov. and Mrs. Allan Shivers may become residents of Dallas, the Dallas Morning News said today. The Shivers, now residents of Mission, have made inquiries here in search of a house, the newspaper reported.

Oilers Down Lubbock 10-5 With Game Called in Fifth

Skidding Buffs Hold Narrow Lead Over Fort Worth

(By The Associated Press) Houston's skidding Buffs held a lead of only 13 percentage points in the battle for the Texas League today but they had one consolation: They had their troubles from only one direction.

Third and fourth place Shreveport and Dallas were not ready to seriously challenge the Buffs.

Fort Worth's Cats exploded for four runs in the tenth to lick Shreveport 8-4 last night and advance within a half-game of Houston which dropped its third straight in slipping before the Oklahoma City Indians 3-1.

Dallas downed Beaumont 7-1 and San Antonio whipped Tulsa 3-1 in other games.

Woody and Vic Johnson allowed Houston only five hits and it required three walks and an infield out for the Buffs to score.

Home run leader Nick Gregory put on the bases loaded to give Shreveport a 4-4 tie with Fort Worth at the end of nine innings. The Cats then proceeded to club their way to victory in the extra frame.

Floyd Giebell pitched five-hit ball for Dallas while the Rebels got eight blows off Lefty Kent Sterling of Beaumont. Only 21 batters faced Giebell in the first seven innings.

Pitching also featured the battle at San Antonio with Marlin Stuart of the Missions limiting Tulsa to two hits. Meanwhile the league cellar-dwellers spiked the pan for two runs in the first inning and kept pecking away at Tom Warren and Felix Penso.

The clubs play the same tonight with Dallas at Beaumont for a doubleheader. Tulsa at San Antonio, Oklahoma City at Houston and Fort Worth at Shreveport.

Two International Altitude Soaring Records Await Official Confirmation

WICHITA FALLS—(AP)—Two American-made international altitude soaring records today awaited official confirmation at the 14th Annual National Soaring Meet here.

Kempes Trager of Detroit, Mich., reported he soared yesterday to an altitude of 25,000 feet, where he said he blacked out.

If confirmed, the altitude flight will better both the American and international single place altitude record.

Trager said he encountered hail, ice and lightning as he rode to the altitude on a storm front.

The present national record is 19,484 feet and the international record is 22,434 feet. The U. S. record is held by Shelly Charles of Atlanta, Ga. and was established in 1934. The international record, made in 1936, is held by a German.

Officials will check the barograph carried on Trager's glider before the flight becomes official.

Virginia Bennis of Sanford, Fla., soared to an altitude of 10,000 feet, 7,500 feet above the release point of 2,500 feet.

Her flight challenges the present woman's international altitude soaring record of 6,795 feet above the release point, held by a Russian woman glider pilot.

Mrs. Bennis yesterday probably became the first woman in the Western hemisphere to qualify for a "silver C" soaring certificate.

She recently established two records, one a distance record of 94 miles and the other a goal of 52 miles.

The three leading contenders for the national championship today were unofficially Richard C. Comey of Cambridge, Mass.; Paul E. MacCreedy, Jr., New Haven, Conn., and Raymond Parker, of twenty-nine Palms, Calif.

Dr. Wolfgang Klemperer, considered the father of the soaring world, arrived here yesterday.

He holds the distinction of holding the first European gliding certificate.

Jr. Oilers Play Lubbock Tonight

The Junior Oilers left at noon today to compete in the American Legion playoff at Lubbock to be held tonight. The withdrawal of the Amarillo American Legion team allowed the Juniors to go since Pampa and Amarillo were deadlocked in a playoff to decide the champion of this region.

The Oilers scored three runs in the first inning on singles by Bauer, Gregory, Range, and Chambers, and a circuit clout by Jack Selby that scored Range and Chambers ahead of him. Johnston grounded out second to first, and Oney batting for the second time in the inning singled and went to second on an error by Hubber third baseman Smith, when the game was called due to the rain.

The Oilers scored three runs in the first inning on singles by Bauer, Bauer, Range, and Chambers, and a double by Gregory, new Oilier rightfielder.

Lubbock scored one in the first on a double by Lubbock manager and second baseman Sullivan and a single by Serena.

They scored two in the third on four consecutive singles off Johnston and a fly by Richardson that scored Cerby. With two men on Dooley was intentionally walked, filling the bases and the Hubber threat was halted in this inning.

Lubbock hit into a double play, Johnston to Chambers to Bailey, to retire the side.

Clem Cola's double in the fifth scoring Richardson and Dooley ended the Lubbock scoring.

Big State League Has Close Race

(By The Associated Press) If ever there was a close race in baseball the Big State League has it.

Today Texarkana and Greenville for all purposes are tied for the lead with 658. You have to carry it out into the four figures to show Texarkana has a lead of four-fourths of a point.

And right behind them is Wichita Falls—just 12 points away.

Greenville beat Texarkana 15-3 last night to edge into a virtual deadlock for first place while Wichita Falls was clubbing Waco 5-3. In other games of the night Paris downed Sherman-Denison 17-4 and Gainsville edged Austin 2-1.

Jake Christie gave up eight hits in holding Texarkana at bay while his mate teed off against Conk Merriweather for 20 safe blows.

Austin outdid Gainsville but couldn't make them count in the clinch. Gainsville made both hits in the fifth on hits by Hoyle Beger and Bill Scopetone.

Red McCarty drove in three runs with a homer and double, then scored the winning tally himself.

Paris swung from the floor in collecting 26 hits to swamp Sherman-Denison.

Tonight Austin moves to Sherman-Denison, Waco to Greenville, Gainsville to Paris and Wichita Falls to Texarkana.

Lone Star All-Stars to Meet Longview Nine

(By The Associated Press) Longview won't have to be embarrassed when it plays the Lone Star League All-Star team at Longview tomorrow night.

Longview gained its position as host for the game by having led the League on June 30. Last night it clinched at least a tie for the top as of tomorrow when second-place Lufkin lost to last-place Bryan 3-2.

Longview also took a 1-4 to Marshall—or it would have clinched undisputed lead.

In other games Jacksonville beat Tyler and Kilgore edged Henderson 6-1.

The most unusual situation of the night was Bryan's pitcher, Bill Raines, scoring the winning run by being incapacitated. He was hit by pitched ball to force in the winning run but it was on his pitching arm and he had to retire from the game.

Pitching Sensation Of Texas League Credits Flat Feet

SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—The pitching sensation of the Texas League at the nonce is young Ned Franklin Garver, who gives the credit to flat feet.

Garver, who has gone through 23 consecutive innings without allowing a run, has been doing a little "Till Show You" stuff. The sports writers snubbed him when it came to name the All-Star team. So what did he do but step out and handpick the league-leading Buffs 8-0 on four hits then lick the second-place Fort Worth Cats 4-0 on two base knocks.

About this flat feet business: Garver says they got him into class AA baseball when most players his age (21) still are lost in the bushes. "I was discharged from the Navy in the fall of 1943 because of flat feet only three months in the V-12 program." He explains, "as a result I had a short lay-off from pitching and my arm didn't suffer."

This season he has won 10 while losing nine for a club that has been resting securely on the bottom of the league. Included are five shut-outs and three one-run games.

The young right-hander started his scoreless string July 4 by blanking Shreveport the last five innings of a 5-1 victory. Then came Houston and Fort Worth. Ned is proud of his record but he thinks he had a more impressive streak in 1944 at Newark when he went 64 consecutive innings without allowing an earned run.

Yankees Meet League Straight Win Record

By The Associated Press

The New York Yankees' merciless victory march in the American League had even the rival National League clubs jittery today.

With 19 straight victories under their belts to tie the American League consecutive win record, the Bronx Bombers are casting covetous glances at the only two winning streaks exceeding theirs—the 21 straight by the 1935 Chicago Cubs and the major league record of 26 polled by the New York Giants in 1916.

The Yankees made it 19 in a row yesterday when they defeated the Cleveland Indians in both ends of a double header 3-1 and 7-2 at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium. The double victory enabled them to equal the 41 year old standard set by the Chicago White Sox in 1906.

The double win enabled the Yankees to maintain their 1½ game lead over the second place Tigers. The equal the 41 year old standard set by the Chicago White Sox in 1906.

The double win enabled the Yankees to maintain their 1½ game lead over the second place Tigers. The Bengals came from behind twice to capture both ends of a double header from Washington 7-5 and 4-3.

The Red Sox remained a game behind the Tigers by winning two from the White Sox in Chicago 4-1 and 6-3, the second game going 11 innings.

The Philadelphia Athletics, leading 7-2 going into the ninth inning, whacked across nine more runs to truncate the Browns in a night game in St. Louis 16-2.

A queen trumped a king on the diamond when Mel Green, newest pitching member of the Pittsburgh Pirates won over Clyde King and the Brooklyn Dodgers 7-1 at Ebbets Field.

The fourth place St. Louis Cardinals moved within four and a half games of the National League leading Dodgers when they defeated the Braves in a night game in Boston 5-2.

Rain and wet grounds caused the postponement of the scheduled doubleheader between the Cubs and the Giants at the Polo Grounds, Cincinnati and the Philadelphia Phils were not scheduled.

St. Louis Browns Dropping League Racial Barriers

ST. LOUIS—(AP)—The St. Louis Browns have become the third modern Major League ball club to open the door to Negro players, joining the Brooklyn Dodgers and Cleveland Indians by signing two men and purchasing an option on a third.

Fielder Henry Thompson and outfielder Willard Brown joined Herold (Muddy) Ruef's club last night with Thompson seeing action at second base against the Philadelphia Athletics—but he went hitless in four batting trips and chalked up an error on a grounder.

Both players came to St. Louis from the Kansas City Monarchs in the Negro American Baseball League where Thompson was hitting .347 and Brown .333. Owner Richard Muckerman of the Browns said the two players were signed "to help lift the Browns out of the American League cellar."

Bill Dewitt, the Browns' general manager, said the club had purchased a 30-day option on Negro infielder Lorenzo Davis of the Birmingham, Ala. Black Barons, but he will remain with the Birmingham team during the period while the Browns continue to scout him.

Previously, two other Negro stars had been signed by Major League clubs—Jackie Robinson and Larry Doby by Cleveland. This is Robinson's second year in organized baseball. He played with the Dodgers' Montreal Farm in 1946 and led the International League in hitting.

Brown and Thompson were introduced to the rest of the team shortly before last night's contest and both men were given the same reception as all newcomers. Vern Stephens, shortstop, spent some time with Thompson because, he said, "we don't want to get our signals crossed over there."

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON
ATTITUDE OF MIND IS ESSENCE OF FAITH
Scripture: Job 1:8; 2:7-10; 19:7-10; 42:1-6; James 5:11
BY WILLIAM E. GILROY, D.D.
At the outset of Job's suffering a character appears other than the three principal speakers, Eliphaz, Bildad, and Zophar. It is Job's wife, and her words are in verses 9 and 10 of the second chapter.

Many wives have been a support to husbands in distress, at least giving helpful sympathy, and many husbands in a similar situation have been of great help to their wives.

But Job's wife was no help—in fact she seems to have added to his troubles by her un sympathetic and nagging attitude.

Apparently without any vital faith herself she virtually taunted Job with his own faith, saying to him, in effect, "Now, where's your God? What's the use of your faith, when you're covered with boils from head to foot? You'd better curse God and die."

What a woman! A man covered with boils could be pardoned for being irritable, but Job was doubly justified in losing some of his patience, and telling her that she was speaking like a fool. "Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh."

But in the rest of his reply wisdom conquered impatience. In memorable words he said: "What? Shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil?" The record truly says that "in all this did not Job sin with his lips."

There were times when Job's faith and patient endurance were not so strong, when his suffering seemed greater than he could bear, and when he felt as Jesus was to feel on the Cross, as if God had forsaken him. One might call such a mood a not ing. The outcry of Jesus was more an agonizing prayer than an expression of lack of faith. Did He not say to the penitent thief, "Today shalt thou be with me in Paradise." It is not the mood of the moment, but the attitude of mind and heart—and will—that is the essence of faith, and of trust in God.

The Bible teaches consistently that the good and upright are secure in God's keeping, no matter what may befall them, but it does not teach that they are immune from trouble. The prophets held their faith, and were true to their mission, through deep persecution and suffering.

But when Paul had listed all the troubles that could befall man, and all the forces that could war against him (Romans 8) his conclusion was that nothing could separate him from the love of God. That is the New Testament version of the Book of Job.

All vegetables have sugar of some kind as one of their constituents.

Some baobab trees in Africa have a greater trunk girth than the famous big trees of California.

Gracie Reports
By GRACIE ALLEN

Well, I've decided that what this country needs most is a real good paper shortage. I read the other day that congressmen might have to make shorter speeches between now and the day they adjourn because there wouldn't be enough paper to print long speeches in the congressional record, and that's certainly a step in the right direction.

The more serious the paper shortage gets, the better things will be for all of us. Policemen won't have anything on which to write those silly invitations to traffic courts and many homes will be saved because that shops won't be able to send out bills.

Best of all, there won't be any more decks of cards and I'll have to stop playing gin rummy. A person who never wins at gin is known as a pigeon and if my luck gets any worse George will find me some morning sitting up on the roof, cooing.

COTTON BLOC ... By Peter Edson

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Sen. James O. Eastland of Mississippi may be claiming more fame than he deserves in taking credit for forcing the resignation of Assistant Secretary of War Howard C. Petersen.

Petersen, who has been in charge of War Department civil affairs, is leaving the War Department at the end of July, all right. But he has long planned resigning to accept a vice presidency in a big eastern banking house.

Eastland is over with the War Department's row with the cotton program for occupied Germany and Japan. Cotton is grown in 14 states, and the 28 senators from these southern states form one of the tightest blocs in Congress. Ranging all the way from liberal Pepper to reactionary Bilbo, on the subject of cotton the blocs are all alike.

Half a dozen times in the past year this group has called Petersen to Capitol Hill for closed sessions. Their aim is to see that the War Department keeps on buying only U. S. spun cotton for German and Jap textile mills—paying, of course, the going price of 36 cents a pound or more.

So far, over a million bales of U. S. cotton have gone to occupied Germany and Japan, worth to Germany and Japan $135 million to Japan. It represents about a sixth of the surplus cotton bought by the government in depression years.

But the cotton was used to get German and Jap textile production going. It provided employment. The cotton was sold to German mills. The proceeds were used for the expense of military government. The theory was that 40 percent of the textiles would be used locally and the rest sold at a profit as exports to give the Germans and Japs foreign exchange to buy other things they need.

But the cotton bloc wants to keep up this business. The more cotton sold abroad, the less the supply will be at home and the higher the price. What this amounts to is that the War Department and U. S. C. C. must come to Congress and ask for bigger appropriations to buy more cotton at higher prices, so as to subsidize the dumping of U. S. cotton on the German and Jap markets.

But the cotton bloc is opposing. It wants only American cotton used in Japanese and German mills, even though the American cotton costs more than Indian or Egyptian cotton. In September, the War Department and U. S. Commercial Company will have to take another look at their hands to find what's cheapest in India.

BEYOND THE MARSHALL SPEECH

The short speech by Secretary of State Marshall before the women's National Press Club was a masterful exposition of traditional American policy toward the world. Mr. Marshall was not speaking primarily of current attitudes. He was not primarily defending his policies or those of the present administration or any particular administration.

Rather he was defending principles which have guided the thinking of a majority of Americans in world affairs. He gave Americans reason to be proud of their national decency at a time when they have a tendency to be cynical or overly self-critical about their world position, or petulant because their aid to Europe is not sufficiently appreciated.

The Secretary of State's address was an honest and stirring answer to the Soviet propaganda machine and indirectly, to the American Communists and to Henry Wallace. As such, it deserves the widest possible world circulation. We hope it gets it.

But after that, what? Mr. Marshall has put the American people on record as they essentially are. We do not think that his statement can be seriously challenged. Neither, however, do we think that his answer will quiet anti-American propaganda. We do not think it will stop Soviet expansion. We are doubtful that it will silence Mr. Wallace's charges of "imperialism" against a government that will not condone that expansion.

Mr. Marshall cited the demobilization of "the greatest concentration of military power that the world has ever seen" as a proof of America's peaceful intentions. He cited the withdrawal of our troops from overseas as proof that charges of American imperialism are "fantastic misrepresentation" and "malicious distortion of the truth."

We are sure that the former Chief of Staff does not approve of this country's disarming to the point of impotence. Perhaps he did not bring up the subject of an adequate national defense because he probably felt that it is outside his province to urge it now. Or perhaps he felt that another such appeal would have so little chance of success that it was a waste of time to make it.

We are, as Mr. Marshall said, a sympathetic, generous, peace-loving nation. But we are also a freedom-loving nation. The moral indignation of most Americans is aroused by the spread of freedom-killing dictatorship in Europe. But our moral force will be lost if we weaken our physical strength to a point where only the voice of protest remains. That is not militarism or imperialism. That, we believe, is common sense.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

REASONS—Secretary Marshall has advanced new and novel reasons for Congressional approval of vast loans and gifts to the sixteen nations which recently assembled at Paris to form what will eventually become an anti-Communism bloc and blockade in Western Europe and along the Mediterranean.

It is apparent that no hope Russia will abandon her policy of boycott of his plan for European reconstruction with American aid. In off-the-record talks with members of House and Senate committees, the Secretary of State declared these grants, which may total more than $20,000,000 within the next five years, will help to stave off the economic depression in the United States on which Stalin depends for a complete collapse of western civilization.

The proposed exports of farm products and manufactured articles, he said, would keep the American economic machine operating at a high level for at least half a decade. By that time it is believed that Russia may find it advantageous to abandon her aloof and aggressive role and become a peace-loving member of the family of nations. Anyway, our bounty will give Europe a "breathing spell."

POPULATION—Mr. Marshall emphasized that the expansion of the Communist philosophy and organization to every corner of the universe. At this particular moment the principal centers of concern are China and Asia, with a combined population of about 1,000,000,000. Including the U. S., the nations behind the Marshall plan do not have more than 400,000,000 while Russia and her eight satellite nations have approximately 300,000,000.

THOUGHTS

He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him any more.—Job 7:10. Your lost friends are not dead, but gone before. Advanced a stage or two upon the road. Whither you must travel in the steps they trod.—Aristophanes.

Common Ground

Direct and Indirect Effect Probably the principal difference in kinds of government is whether or not the people understand the difference between direct effect and indirect effect. Every act has an indirect effect on every person. If any individual commits an error, it affects every other individual in the world more or less remotely. If any individual does a good thing, it is to the advantage of every other person in the world.

A government that operates under the rule of law recognizes this difference. It does not attempt to retard people from indirectly injuring others. It only attempts to retard them from directly injuring others. Before the Supreme Court was under the control of Roosevelt appointees it overruled the National Labor Relations decision against Schechter and the point was made that his selling poultry on a competitive basis only injured others, not directly. Chief Justice Hughes said that the sale of poultry that had come to rest in New York, after shipment, was an interstate transaction, and the question that was presented was how far the Federal Government may go in controlling interstate transactions upon the ground that they "affect" interstate commerce. Then they take away from men their right to use their initiative for fear it will indirectly affect someone else. They do not seem to realize that that step leads on to complete socialism, to complete loss of individual liberty. They seem to want to let the owners of land get the benefit of the improvement of other people's land but they went on to say that there is a well-established distinction between direct and indirect effects. Where the effect of interstate transactions is merely indirect such transactions remain within the domain of state power.

And we fail to recognize the difference between direct and indirect effects even in local communities where the local communities attempt to plan the use of land. The local planning boards attempt to prevent indirect effects of the use of neighboring land. They take away from men their right to use their initiative for fear it will indirectly affect someone else. They do not seem to realize that that step leads on to complete socialism, to complete loss of individual liberty. They seem to want to let the owners of land get the benefit of the improvement of other people's land but they went on to say that there is a well-established distinction between direct and indirect effects. Where the effect of interstate transactions is merely indirect such transactions remain within the domain of state power.

New Labor Law Seen 'Beneficial'

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Robert N. Denham, newly-appointed key man behind the Taft-Hartley labor law, predicted today that "under proper administration the new act will do a great deal to benefit both labor and industry."

As President Truman's choice for the powerful post of General Counsel to the expanded National Labor Relations Board, the 62-year-old Republican told a reporter:

"I believe the labor situation will clear itself up much more rapidly than some people believed."

He said he has no intention to use his powers under the new act to "dictate" labor relations.

"I don't think labor needs a czar," he declared. "Neither does industry."

Along with Denham, now an NLRB trial examiner, the President announced yesterday his two choices for the additional board members created by the act—Abe Murdock, former Democratic House member and Senator from Utah, and Republican J. Copeland Gray, labor relations expert of Buffalo, N. Y.

All these jobs pay $12,000 annually and the appointees are subject to Senate confirmation.

Singing Convention Opens Here Tomorrow

ROY McMILLAN

The 26th annual Plateau Singing Convention will officially open tomorrow afternoon in the Senior High School Auditorium, with sessions to follow Saturday evening and all day Sunday. Registration will be at the Senior High School.

Roy McMillan, Pampa Independent School District business manager, will act as host to the visiting singers.

The Plateau Singing Convention had its origin back in 1922 when the organization was started in Clovis, New Mexico. Jno. F. Taylor was elected president in its first year, and he has served in that capacity since that time.

The convention will bring together singers from the five states of Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Kansas, and Colorado. Many of the outstanding quartets of the Southwest are expected to be present for the two day affair, including the Stamps-Baxter Quartet of Dallas.

In Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD—"Bloop Bleep."

All I hear is that song and I just can't think.

"Bloop Bleep—Bloop Bleep."

It's driving me crazy. It's probably driving you nuts, too—that ode to a leaky water faucet written by Frank Loesser. "Bloop Bleep—the faucet keeps a-drippin' and I can't sleep."

And just when we got rid of Richard and his blanket-blank door, too. "Bloop Bleep" is like "Richard." Everyone is hearing it and humming it and cursing it in Hollywood. It will probably hit your town next.

It's on five different records, including one by Danny Kaye, but the record out-selling all others has Loesser singing it himself.

"I guess," says Frank, "I've got a voice that sounds like a leaky faucet."

VERSATILE TUNESMITH
And Frank is such a good songwriter, too. "Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition" was a Loesser hit. Romantic people have sent him fan mail for writing such tunes as "Two Sleepy People," "I Don't Want to Walk Without You," "In My Arms," and "They're Either Too Young or Too Old."

But now Frank is getting fan mail from plumbers because of "Bloop Bleep."

I guess it's because he just can't resist the pike in himself now and then. A few years back Frank sneaked "I Got Spurs That Jingle." Jangle "Jingle" on unsuspecting America.

Everybody, of course, thinks Frank got the "Bloop Bleep" idea one night from a leaky faucet. He said it himself on a radio show the other night.

"But," he honest, "he whispered, 'I've never kept awake by a leaky faucet. I just thought of it.'"

"Bloop Bleep—Bloop Bleep."

I wish he hadn't thought of it.

HOLLYWOOD POT POURRI
Dane Clark is unhappy with his contract at Warner Bros. and he wants out. . . Edward G. Robinson just bought a summer home five minutes from his winter home. T. slumber-house is half-way between his Beverly mansion and the beach.

Maybe we can credit Greta Garbo for Joan Crawford's inspiring acting lately. She runs an old Garbo picture at least once a month, studying her technique.

Joey Adams, at the El Rancho Vegas, has been introducing Tony Canzoneri every night, as "the world's greatest fighter." Then Jack Dempsey checked into the hotel. Canzoneri met Dempsey in the lobby and said: "Tonight Joey can't introduce me as the world's greatest fighter. You're here."

A bit player dropped Orson Welles' sword during a scene in "Macbeth." "I had a GOOD sword carrier once," mused Orson, "when I was playing Mercutio with Cornell on Broadway in 1935. Young fellow by the name of Tyrone Power."

Dr. Bennett T. Simms, chief of the Agriculture Department's Animal Husbandry Bureau.

He said the Mexican government is contributing approximately $1,000,000 a month to the program, and in addition is supplying manpower and army troops for patrol and slaughtering work.

The disease has not spread to any new territory in recent months, he added, and the closest point to this country still is about 300 miles from the Rio Grande River. He estimated there are about 1,000,000 cattle in the infected area, but he said nobody knows how many of them are, or will be, infected.

The United States is paying Mexicans for all cattle slaughtered while the Mexican government is paying for hogs and other animals. The Mexicans are being paid about 10 cents a pound for their cattle, and payments thus far have averaged about $82 per animal.

This country is operating a special border patrol of 250 guards, Simms said, but plans to increase it to 550 if the disease begins to spread in this direction.

ly wounded and 100 slightly hurt. News of the interception of the ship caused great excitement in Jewish quarters in Palestine.

In the Jewish city of Tel Aviv all shops closed their doors and the populace thronged into the streets in response to a broadcast appeal from the refugee ship to demonstrate against what her Captain termed "an unlawful attack on my ship endangering the lives of the passengers and vessels with the Young Jews patrolled Tel Aviv streets halting traffic.

Broadcasts from the ship ceased about mid-morning, indicating that the boarding party had taken over at about that time. Previously the vessel's radio had reported that five of those wounded in the ship with the British were dying. It said that the ship had been leaking badly but that the crew had succeeded in stopping the leaks.

The British said that damages to the President Warfield—which the Jews had re-named "Exodus 1947"—and to naval vessels had occurred "owing to evasive action" taken by the refugee ship.

The broadcaster, who read his announcement in both English and Hebrew, indicated that the boarding party had been frustrated in its first attempts to board the refugee ship and ended by declaring: "Our ship is leaking and we urgently need help in order to reach Haifa."

tax structure," he added.

Just before the House began its roll call on whether to override the President's veto, Chairman Knutson (R-Minn.) of the House Ways and Means Committee, author of the bill told his colleagues:

"It is highly improbable, if this bill is killed, that another effort will be made to pass it. The issue will be submitted to that great tribunal—the American people—in 1948, and we will let them decide whether they want tax reduction."

Mr. Truman said "there has been no lessening of the need to make substantial payments on the public debt."

But Mr. Truman termed this measure "a premature and faulty tax reduction bill" which would inject into the tax system "inequities which would greatly increase the difficulty of making desirable revisions."

Economics

of the general economic situation in Europe.

There has been no indication that the Allies have the slightest intention of withdrawing their troops from Germany before the task of Heutonic reform is finished. The day the Allies look to it will be necessary to maintain forces in the Reich for at least a generation. That means an allied military control will see to it that the economic recovery doesn't involve the creation of a new German war potential.
