Quemoy Shelled Steadily

Reds Say Island Will Be Invaded

TAIPEI, Formosa, Oct. 2 —UP— The Chinese Communists began a heavy bombardment of the Nationalist island of Quemoy Saturday while loudspeakers on the mainland bragged that the island would be captured within two weeks.

Military spokesman Gen. Chang Yi-Ting said the Reds unleashed a combined artillery-propaganda assault in an attempt to undermine the morale of the island's defense forces.

Between heavy shelling of the island, the Reds switched on loudspeakers and boomed threats of impending invasion interspersed with pleas to the Nationalist troops to desert. In some instances, the mothers of soldiers stationed on Quemoy were used to appeal to their sons.

Chang said Nationalist gunners were shelling the mainland, just opposite Quemoy. He also said that "ominous" Communist activity had been reported along the Chekiang province coast near Tachen island, Nationalist China's northernmost outpost some 200 miles north of Formosa.

The spokesman, however, minimized the Red threats to seize Quemoy before Oct. 15, pointing out that the same loudspeakers had earlier predicted the island would fall before Sept. 11.

On Formosa itself, premier O. K. Yui Saturday called for "increased vigilance" in the wake of new Red threats to "liberate" the Nationalist island stronghold.

GIRL ASKS ANNULMENT, CLAIMS HUBBY COURTED TOO ARDENTLY

FORT WORTH, Oct. 2 —UP— Mrs. B. B. Richardson, a University of Texas coed, claims her sweetheart courted her so ardently that she married him without knowing what she was doing and she now wants an annulment.

Her husband is D. S. Richardson, now a soldier in Germany.

"He began an ardent courtship which was calculated to and did greatly impress her," the suit said.

"... She was so influenced and overwhelmed that she was prevented from exercising her normal mental faculties and consented to his proposal of marriage."

Despite her husband's eloquence, Mrs. Richardson said, there was no honeymoon and he never supported her.

Sovereignty, Arms Will Be Restored

LONDON, Oct. 2 —UP— The nine-power European defense conference achieved a historic "full agreement" Saturday to restore German sovereignty and rearm a 500,000 man German army on the side of the West.

American Secretary of State John Foster Dulles stepped into a dangerous deadlock in the conference Saturday morning with an even-tempered compromise plan that helped sweep aside final French objections to the crucial accord.

French Premier Pierre Mendes-France got all he could, yielded on a few points and then hurried home to bed sniffling with the gripe while the other foreign ministers sewed up the ravaged ends at a meeting Saturday night.

"The 'full agreement' was announced triumphantly by West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and by Dutch Foreign Minister Johann Beyen after a series of super-secret conferences Saturday.

The conference, called to solve the grave European defense crisis caused by French rejection of EDC, decided to rearm Germany under NATO and an expanded Brussels Treaty and lift the strict occupation clamp on Germany five years ago.

The agreement came after Secretary of State John Foster Dulles proposed, and West Germany immediately accepted, a two-year moratorium on German manufacture of atom bombs and bacteriological and chemical weapons.

The compromise agreement was another triumph for French Premier Pierre Mendes-France who won new concessions by throwing the conference into a critical deadlock Friday night. He went to bed with the gripe, however, and (See 9 NATIONS, Page 3)

United Fund Seeks $45,150 In Drive

An estimated 400 volunteer workers are expected to be on hand at 7 a. m. Tuesday in the Pampa High School Cafeteria for the kick-off breakfast of the 1954 Pampa community United Fund drive.

Tuesday is Drive Day for the United Fund which is composed of seven agencies — the Red Cross, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Milk Fund, Salvation Army, United Service Organization and Heart Fund.

Advance Gifts Lag

Johnny Campbell, overall drive chairman, Saturday reported that $15,000 — $11,000 in cash and $4,000 in pledges — had been received in the advance drive which has been going on since last Tuesday. That figure is below expectations, however, he commented.

Goal of the 1954 drive is $45,150, the same as last year. The allotments to each agency are the same, too.

All volunteer workers are expected to be present for the kick-off breakfast, Campbell emphasized.

The program for the breakfast will be short. An invocation will precede breakfast. Campbell will be master of ceremonies. Then Ed Myatt, overall drive vice-chairman will show how the fund cards are to be handled.

Cards Due In Thursday

Reports will be made in the City Commission Room between 4 and 6 p. m. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Campbell said. "We want all the cards brought back by 6 p. m. Thursday, whether they've been worked or not." There

Pampa Plans Fire Safety Observance

When you hear the fire alarm go off at noon each day this week, it won't be a fire.

This is Fire Prevention Week in Pampa and Fire Chief Ernest Winborne and his men, in conjunction with the fire prevention committee of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce, have agreed to do all possible to remind residents to help prevent fire.

Fire Alarm To Sound

The fire alarm will be sounded each day at noon to remind citizens it is Fire Prevention Week.

Mayor Tom Rose Saturday signed a proclamation, making it officially a "special week." The mayor called upon all persons and organizations "to take an active part in this constructive program for community improvement."

A fire alarm will also be sounded at 9:30 a. m. Wednesday, to herald a special open house at the Pampa Fire Station. It will last for an hour and Chief Winborne has invited everyone to attend. Members of the chamber's committee will assist.

Many Participants

The fire station itself has been given a "new look." There is a large sign on the front of the building on Foster, between Russell and Frost, signifying Pampa's participation.

There are also to be poster and essay contests in the schools, the showing of films in the LaNora Theater, fire drills in the schools and the procuring of civic club speakers. Joe Cree is the chairman of the chamber committee.

GI's Return To Freedom

WAIHHAUS, Germany, Oct. 2 —UP— Two American soldiers kidnapped by Communist Czechoslovakia border guards two weeks ago crossed a small stone bridge to freedom Saturday, pale and nervous but apparently in good condition.

They were 1st Lt. Richard H. Dries, New York, and Pfc. George M. Plak, 4507 Placid Place, Austin, Tex.

Release of the two men came after several weeks of negotiations. The Czech government claimed they entered Czechoslovakia on an espionage mission, and the U.S. embassy in Prague insisted they were on "routine" business when captured inside Germany.

Prisoners Convoys

The two arrived at the stone bridge across the Rehlingback stream which forms the border here shortly after 11 a. m. in a two-car Czech convoy. The Czechs placed the two in a border control house and German border officials Karl Wenzel entered after them.

Wenzel emerged a few minutes later with the two men and they crossed to freedom — and intensive interrogation by American Army officials.

Fifty yards inside the German border they were greeted by two U.S. captains, one of them an intelligence officer.

Byrd New Adviser To Antarctic Team

BOSTON, Oct. 2 —UP— Rear Admiral Richard Evelyn Byrd disclosed Saturday that he had been named "technical adviser" to the new United States Antarctic expedition, which sails from this port "about Dec. 1."

"I've been carrying on a lonely campaign for American interest in that great continent and now, finally, our government has real interest in the Antarctic," Byrd said.

He said the ship that would make the trip would be the icebreaker Atka, a Navy vessel now stationed in Boston, just back from the Arctic.

Comdr. Glenn Jacobson, skipper of the Atka, said he had been given "no official word" about the trip to the far south.

The Atka has been north every year for the past several years. Jacobson is a resident of Seattle, aiding Navy research.

Byrd hinted that the new trip was just the first of several new American expeditions, first since a 1947 exploration party.

"This will be a reconnaissance, as I see it. The only change I wish we'd make in plans is to have some planes along," Byrd said.

"Here we have a vast continent — as big as the United States and Europe combined. We haven't made any territorial claims and we haven't recognized anyone else's. And this continent, mind you has unlimited coal resources — and maybe uranium."

Byrd said that at present there was an Australian expedition exploring the continent that surrounds the South Pole.

School Tax Notices Out

Only one of three taxing bodies in Gray County has sent out its tax notices and received some of the money due.

That is the Pampa Independent School District which sent out its notices two weeks ago. School Business Mgr. Roy McMillen Saturday said it was impossible to tell at the moment how much had been received.

Neither the City of Pampa nor Gray County has yet sent out its notices, it was reported Saturday.

Driver Pinned Beneath Truck

Pike Huff, Pampa, driver of a semi-trailer truck with a load of cattle was in a Pampa hospital Saturday night after escaping death when his vehicle overturned on a country road one and one-half miles southeast of Hoover.

Five head of cattle were killed in the accident.

Huff was pinned inside the cab of his truck for 45 minutes, and two which trucks were used to free him.

Huff's truck was loaded with 25 head of cattle. They were dumped when the truck overturned. Ten of the animals were trapped under the trailer, but five were unhurt.

Chief Sheriff's Deputy Shirley Nickols investigated the accident. He said Huff was taken to Wesley Hospital in Pampa, suffering from bruises and was not considered in critical condition.

Huff was calm throughout the rescue. He sat pinned in his cab smoking a cigaret while workers freed him.

Kenneth Ray Beezley, about 26, has been released on $3,000 bond after being charged in the burglary of two Pampa business places.

Beezley was arrested by Chief Sheriff's Deputy Shirley Nickols at 4:30 p. m. Thursday and charged with the burglary of Roy's Place and the Pioneer Drive-In early Thursday morning.

Several cases of beer were stolen from Roy's Place in a burglary about 1 a. m. Thursday. Then about 1:30 a. m. Thursday, cigars and candy were stolen in the Pioneer Drive-In burglary.

Beezley was charged in Justice of the Peace B. R. Henry's court and bond was set at $3,000.

Chest X-Ray Goal Of 3,500 Sought

Pampa's goal for free chest X-rays is 3,500 during the 3½ days the mobile X-ray unit will be in town.

Johnny Campbell, X-ray drive chairman for the Gray County chapter of the National Tuberculosis Association, Saturday morning presided over a meeting of association officials to make final plans for the drive.

The unit will be in the American Legion-Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Oct. 7 and Oct. 12-13 and from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. Oct. 14. Campbell said it will be in Lefors from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Oct. 15 and in McLean from 1 to 5 p. m. Oct. 16. J. R. Sparzman is handling the campaign in Lefors and Larry Fuller, in McLean.

All persons over 15 are urged to take the few minutes necessary to be X-rayed. Physicians have said everyone should get a chest X-ray at least once a year, if not more often. Any lung disease and certain types of heart diseases can be detected in such an X-ray.

Members of 10 Pampa women's clubs will act as hostesses and will do the paper work for the drive, Campbell said. And members of men's civic clubs are being asked to participate 100 per cent.

Present at Saturday's meeting, in addition to Campbell, were Mrs. Carlton Nance, Mrs. Davis A. Brown and Mrs. Frank M. Carter.

United Fund Needs Your $

The United Fund Drive for the Pampa Community gets underway Tuesday, and it deserves the support of all who can afford to lend a helping hand to the various agencies in the group.

Remember that the 400 or so workers who will be soliciting funds in the home of United Fund are giving their time without charge and, no doubt, are giving their money too!

There are seven agencies which depend upon this one drive for the financial support to carry on their work for the coming year. The goal is, as last year, $45,150. Give generously.

Soviet Offer To Be Tested

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Oct. 2 —UP— The Western Allies will try to find out next week whether Russia's huge disarmament plan is a propaganda balloon or marks a major change in Soviet policy, it was understood Saturday.

British Chief Delegate Selwyn Lloyd will make the opening move for the Allies in a speech Monday in general debate in the UN assembly.

Well informed sources reported that Lloyd will try to smoke out Soviet Chief Delegate Andrei Y. Vishinsky on two vital disarmament issues:

1. Whether Russia still insists that nuclear weapons be destroyed at the outset of any disarmament plan.
2. Whether Russia really has any intention of agreeing to any inspection system that would prevent its cheating.

The betting on the basis of past performances, is that Russia will not agree to let any control agency inspect its arms and nuclear energy facilities.

CC Advisory Board Named

The new advisory board of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce was named Saturday morning after votes from the entire membership were counted.

Elected were Frank M. Carter, George Cree, Jr., Dr. Joe Donaldson, Frank D. Smith and Aubrey Steele.

The advisory board, which serves for one year, and the 15-man Board of City Development, which is named by the Pampa City Commission, comprise a 20-man board which serves as the policy-making and governing body of the chamber and Board of City Development.

One-third of the Board of City Development is selected each year by the city commission.

The chamber will elect new officers this week, Chamber president Clinton Evans announced Saturday.

Hull Celebrates 83rd Birthday

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 —UP—Former Secretary of State Cordell Hull observed his 83rd birthday Saturday without fanfare.

Last of the nation's diplomats from the log cabin tradition, the Tennesseean is too ill to have visitors. He has a suite in the nearby Bethesda, Md., Naval Hospital.

It was just 10 years ago Saturday that Hull went to the State Department for the last time as secretary of State. His resignation, however, was not effective until Nov. 30, 1944.

State Farmers' Income Rises

AUSTIN, Oct. 2—UP—Cash income to Texas farmers during the first eight months of 1954 totaled $963.1 million, up five per cent from the same period last year, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reported Saturday.

"In view of the damage wrought by the drought in the form of dry streams, low crop harvests and parched pastures and fields, this increase in farm income — if not surprising — is at least encouraging," the bureau said.

Major increases in the cash price of individual farm commodities were credited peanuts, up 59 per cent over the same period last year; cotton, 47, per cent; cottonseed, 42 per cent, and corn, 14 per cent.

However, revenue in rice was down 39 per cent over the first months as compared with the comparable period in 1953. Milk and milk products income was up 19 per cent; fruits and vegetables showed an 18 per cent decrease, and calves were down nine per cent.

"The rise in the prices received by farmers for cotton no doubt stems from the meager harvests predicted for many areas or the small crops already harvested in still other areas," the Bureau said.

However, it was pointed out that, "the four county Lower Rio Grande Valley area, in sharp contrast to the state as a whole, reported a bumper crop in cotton, second only to the record year of 1949. It has been estimated that over $80 million will go to the farmers of this region."

County Judge J. B. Maguire, Jr., was given permission to leave the county from Saturday to Wednesday in order to attend the Texas-Oklahoma Kiwanis convention in Dallas. Judge Maguire is president of the Pampa Kiwanis Club.

The contract with Knott was filed till the regular session of the court, but no reason was given in the minutes. All the monthly bills were paid.

Delbert Hobert was sentenced to two years in prison for forgery and passing a forged instrument. He was charged with writing a check for $35 June 23 on Mack's Shoe Shop.

Buster Day was given a five-year probationary sentence for theft over $50. He was charged with stealing $56 from Roy H. Cox.

Rearmament Of Germany May Be Fought

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2—UP—U. S. diplomats predicted Saturday that Russia may make a dramatic new move aimed at killing any Allied agreement to re-arm Western Germany.

Such a move probably depends on how solid the Western position appears to be when results of the nine-power London conference are known. The stronger the Allied position the faster the Soviets are expected to move.

In London, it was announced Saturday that a solution had been found to the deadlocked arms control issue.

EDC Remembered Those American diplomats who fear the next Russian move remember the Soviets made it their top goal to kill the European Defense Community project. Despite all American efforts to get approval of the plan, France killed it.

These experts believe Russia might produce some glittering, high-sounding offer that would appeal so strongly to neutralist elements in Europe that any new plan agreed upon to re-arm West Germany might be stalled.

Conciliatory Gesture Made These officials point out that while the London conference was underway Russia made a conciliatory gesture by proposing a new atomic control and disarmament plan in the United Nations.

The proposal was so handled that the West was forced to say it may hold promise and to give it serious study.

In the same pattern, the Russian Communist party newspaper Pravda said it is convinced there is a possibility of settling international problems.

Attacker Of Girl, 3, Gets Death Penalty

BRADY, Tex., Oct. 2—UP—A jury that had toyed with the idea of imposing a life sentence in the penitentiary found Airman Jimmy Shaver guilty Saturday of murdering and raping three-year-old Chere Jo Walker and ordered him electrocuted.

The jury had deliberated since 6 p. m. Friday. If Shaver, 30, heard the verdict, he didn't show it. He sat with eyes downcast, a pose he has been in since the trial started.

Sheriff J. P. Williamson took him back to jail. "He didn't say a word to me and I didn't say a word to him," Williamson said.

Shaver's stepfather, E. E. McGehee of San Antonio, took the news to Shaver's wife and mother, who were waiting in the district clerk's office. They broke into tears.

Shaver kidnaped Chere Jo from in front of a San Antonio bar on July 4, took her to a gravel pit, murdered and raped her. The trial was moved to Brady because of publicity the case got in San Antonio.

Under a hypnotic drug before his trial, Shaver told a psychiatrist that he thought Chere Jo was an eight-year-old girl who tried to seduce him when he was a boy and "God" had commanded him to kill her. Another jury decided he was sane before he was tried for murder and rape.

The jury which convicted him returned Friday night and asked District Judge Joe L. Mays whether if he imposed a life sentence he could ever be paroled, and "if he can get out is there any sentence we can give him where he could never get out."

Judge Mays told the jury to follow the charges. He said he will pronounce sentence after the State Court of Criminal Appeals acts on the case. Shaver's lawyers said they will appeal.

NATIONS

Almost every delegate who emerged from Saturday's sessions spoke of things going well. But Beyen said only some "odds and ends" remained to be cleaned up before the final communique is published.

A German spokesman said the United States, Britain and France had put their stamp of approval on a declaration of intent to restore sovereignty to West Germany—an action that means the stiff occupation controls can be relaxed at once.

The agreements came in two super-secret sessions of the nine foreign ministers who shooed everyone out of the conference room except for one aide apiece. Shortly afterwards they announced formally they had reached "an area of agreement" on control of German rearment.

Mendes-France Sniffles Mendes - France, sniffing and coughing with gripe despite the winter underwear he donned two days ago, left the talks at Lancaster house and went to bed at the French embassy, leaving his secretary of state, Roland De Moustier, in charge of the French delegation.

Conference sources said that indicated all major points had been solved. The conference already was in agreement on most major points, but Mendes-France threw it into a turmoil Friday night when he revived his demand for complex and detailed controls on German rearment.

Arms Pool Asked He asked for a rearment pool which would control such things as the disposal of American aid, and he proposed that a detailed areas be mapped out designating where arms could and could not be produced. The conference which had been proceeding like clockwork went into crisis.

Dulles submitted his compromise proposal Friday night and Mendes - France took it under study. Belgian Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak expounded on it Saturday to prohibit the manufacture of atomic weapons in all of Europe.

PARIS, Oct. 2—UP—A double-dealing Communist journalist believed to be the key figure in France's growing spy scandal was arrested Saturday night as he fled toward the Swiss frontier on a bright red bicycle.

At the same time Jean Mons, permanent secretary general of the National Defense Committee, was indicted on charges of "imprudence" and "negligence" growing out of the stolen-secrets scandal. He was suspended Friday night by Premier Pierre Mendes-France.

The journalist, Andre Baranes, 37, Tunisian-born member of the Communist party, was believed to be a double or even triple agent working for the Communist party, as a spy for a Paris police commissioner and possibly for some other foreign governments.

Informal sources expressed belief disclosure of Baranes' activities might be the start of uncovering a huge Red information network inside the French government.

Two high French officials were arrested Friday in the explosive case: Rene Turpin and Roger Labrusse, both members of the secretariat of the permanent defense council, the equivalent of the U. S. National Security Board.

Turpin admitted Saturday he passed government secrets to Baranes because he was a "passionate believer in peace." Labrusse, who described himself as a "far left progressive," admitted he received money from Baranes but said his main reasons were because of his ideals.

French officials said the most shocking aspect of the whole scandal was that Turpin and Labrusse, both in the civil service for years and occupying positions of great trust, were able to betray, for reasons of political conviction, the highest secrets of France.

Citizens Taking Anti-Polio Shots TEMPLE, Tex., Oct. 2—UP—Residents of the Academy community near Temple Saturday began receiving inoculations against polio.

The community was declared a polio epidemic area after five cases were reported in the last six weeks. The mass inoculations began with 254 children and 12 expectant mothers receiving shots.

Dr. Harry Frye, county health director, said approximately 400 persons would receive injections of gamma globulin by the end of next week.

The State Health Department allotted $20,000 worth of gamma globulin to family doctors and to the health office of Temple to be administered.

Child's Body Found In River SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 2—UP—The body of an 18-month-old boy was found in the rain-swollen San Antonio river Saturday by divers, who had been searching for the child for two days.

Walter Paul Curd, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Curd, who live outside the city limits, and about 600 feet from the river, had been missing since 5 p. m. Thursday, shortly after a deluge of rain had fallen at San Antonio.

A searching party found the little boy's footprints at the river's edge and searched the brush until midnight Thursday before being driven back by a heavy rain.

Friday, about 10 divers, all members of the Lone Star Dolphin club, volunteered to search the river bottoms for the boy.

Saturday, the child's body was found in a heavy drift downstream. Police said he had apparently waded into the water and was swept downstream.

Dries, still wearing the civilian clothes in which he was captured, approached the two officers, shook their hands and said "hello, sir" to the first.

Many of the 2,500 inhabitants of this border town were strung out along the road that leads to the barbed wire frontier where many other Iron Curtain captives, including Associated Press Correspondent William N. Oatis, were released.

Flags were flying on the Czech side of the border, but not in honor of the occasion. They were for a festival of St. Wenceslaus, the patron saint of Czechoslovakia.

Both Dries and Pisk appeared somewhat drawn, but otherwise looked in good shape. Their pants were neatly pressed and both had recently had haircuts.

No Poll Tax Exemptions Asked County Tax Collector Jack Back drew a flat zero in the matter of certificates for the former non-residents and minors who have become eligible to vote by reason of length of residence or age.

Saturday was the deadline for making application for such an exemption. They must be made 30 days before the election, which will be held Nov. 2.

Absentee voting will get underway Oct. 13 and end Oct. 29 in the office of County Clerk Charlie Thut. Deadlines for candidates to file sworn statements on expenses with Thut are Oct. 12 and Oct. 27.

The only contested race — outside of possible write-in campaigns — concerning Gray County residents is the one between incumbent Walter Rogers, of Pampa, and Aspirant LeRoy (Pete) LaMaster, of Perryton, for the U.S. representative from the 18th Congressional District. Rogers is a Democrat and LaMaster, a Republican.

Confession May Free Prisoner

EL PASO, Oct. 2—UP—The Board of Pardons and Paroles will meet in Austin Monday to consider the case of Kenneth Massey of El Paso, who is in prison for a crime that another man has confessed.
 Massey, 27, was sentenced in 1952 to 15 years in prison for robbing an El Paso drugstore. He was picked out of a police lineup by employees of the store who testified he was the bandit.
 In July, William Karston, 28, a former El Paso resident, under sentence of death in Iowa, confessed that he robbed the drugstore. He and Massey look alike.
 The Board of Pardons and Paroles has pictures of both men and an affidavit from Karston admit-ting the El Paso holdup. After looking at Karston's picture, employees of the drugstore admit they may have been mistaken about Massey.

SUSPECT
By Hugh Lawrence Nelson

THE STORY: A woman sheriff, Mrs. Toby Argyle, is investigating the death of Mrs. Angeline Jones, one of the wealthy Carlson clan which is summing up at their Rocky Mountain estate in Colorado. Jim Dunn, a private detective, and Nancy, his wife, posing as caretakers, have been retained by Mrs. Kit Carlson who wanted "to get something" on her mother-in-law, Mrs. Milton Carlson. Mrs. Kit was a suspect in an unexplained death on the West Coast and Angeline's death may place her under deeper suspicion of murder.

XVII
 JIM DUNN began a careful examination of the foundation wall under the elevator. He found nothing but the partially disintegrating cement which held together the stones of the wall, and, in a harker form, held together the rocks of the chimney.
 He stood erect again, began his search for a hiding place inside the woodbox itself. The 2x12 floor joists rested on a heavy log the length of the woodbox opening, and this log was supported at either end by substantial pillars reaching down to cement blocks set in the basement floor. On either end of the opening, the floor joists went on across to the main support which ran the full length of the house.
 A hand reached out and pulled at his pants. He nearly dropped the flashlight, before he looked down into the deputy's upturned face.
 "Find anything?" the man asked.
 "Not yet." Jim decided his voice was a little too loud, a little brusque, so he added, "I'm not sure there's anything here to find. Seems reasonable though. The dead woman was on that platform for some reason."
 "Maybe..." her there."

form of the elevator. He collided with the deputy, knocked the man sprawling, fell to his own knees in the damp combination of water and blood.
 "Boiling water," Jim muttered. "I got it right in the face."
 "Steaming water," the deputy corrected. "The part I got wasn't too hot. Thank the almighty."
 From above came a scream that went on and on like a siren. Metal clattered on the floor above.
 It was Mrs. Gelstrap who screamed. And it was Miss Wister who had a firm hold in the older woman's hair, was doing her efficient best to pull it out by the roots.
 Mrs. Gelstrap rolled over, used her great weight to crush Miss Wister to the floor. Miss Wister's breath came from her in a grunt. She released her hair hold with one hand, clawed at Mrs. Gelstrap's face. Her nails left red marks down one cheek, starting very close to one of the woman's tiny, glaring eyes.

Ag Yearbook For '54 Out

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2-UP—Wheat in a Kansas grain elevator isn't much help to the Atlanta housewife who wants to make rolls for dinner.
 Texas cattle aren't steaks in a New York night club. And cotton in an Alabama gin isn't much help to an Iowa housewife on a shopping spree.
 Beginning with these premises, the 1954 yearbook of agriculture, out Saturday, begins exploring what makes up the nation's $50 billion annual food and farm product marketing bill.
 For 488 pages, the new yearbook of agriculture, titled simply "marketing," delves into the intricate modern route that farm products follow from the farmer's gate to America's front door.
 The yearbook, 55th issued since 1895, is about half the size of its recent predecessors. It was being prepared when Congress was considering eliminating year books from the department's future budgets.
 In his preface, Editor Alfred Steffert pays "grateful acknowledgment" to the interest of persons in Congress and elsewhere "which insured the continued publication of the yearbooks."
 If you want to know about "The Market's Nervous System," or "Long Fight for Pure Foods," or "How to Launch a New Product" or where "The Customer Is King" or the "Place of Competition," you will find it in the year book's 88 chapters written by 117 contributors.

Pampa's Steady Growth Is Mirrored In Its Construction

By JIM T. LACY
Pampa News City Editor

The scope of construction in Pampa during the last six or eight months attests to the fact that the city is progressing at that steady sort of pace in which such growth remains permanent.

Excluding residences, a host of business establishments, churches, state and municipal structures have taken shape since last winter.

Foremost among municipal buildings is the new Lovett Memorial Library which is scheduled for completion sometime in November. Estimated cost of the building and fixtures is $237,000. In addition to books now catalogued, a gift of $60,000 from Godfrey Cabot was recently given to library trustees for the purchase of new volumes.

Pampa's National Guard unit will be housed in a new $87,871 armory by the end of the year. The armory is being built on a site provided by the city in Recreation Park.

Church Construction

Notable among churches built here this year is St. Matthew's Episcopal, 707 W. Browning, completed last month at an estimated cost of $124,000. Another new church building, completed in March, is the Harrah Methodist at 639 S. Barnes. Estimated cost of construction was $30,000.

Hobart Street Baptist Church will begin construction of a new auditorium about Christmas-time. Presently under construction at the proposed site is an educational building which will cost somewhere in the neighborhood of $50,000. It is to be finished by late December.

On the business side, and presently under construction, are two gasoline service stations, Pampa's 47th and 48th. Utility Oil and Supply Company is building a 23 foot structure at the corner of Hobart and Francis. The estimated cost of the all-steel building is $25,000. The superstructure is partly erected.

South on Hobart at the corner of Hobart and Wilks, Continental Oil Co. has begun construction of a $20,584 service station. Ground was broken about 10 days ago and concrete and form work are underway.

More Supermarkets

Supermarkets continue to spring up in areas of the city not now serviced. A. J. Mitchell's new store will be ready for occupancy soon. The new store is directly across from the old one at 915 Wilks. Estimated cost of the air-conditioned market is $17,000. Dimensions are 40 by 70 feet. The east end of the store is six feet wider (46). A large, paved parking lot is laid out on the west side of the store.

Two other grocery stores, rather supermarkets, are now on the drawing boards for Ideal Food Stores. Ideal has purchased the land and awaits only title clearance before advertising for bids. Construction will be begun this year, according to the local chain manager.

These three will boost Pampa's grocery store total to 57.

Seemingly, business is going west of the city as evidenced by a new building start.

E. D. Herliacher finished last month an $8,000 structure at 1421 N. Hobart and has secured a building permit for another, to be placed on the street-side of the lot. Estimated cost of this building, according to city records, is $18,000. Piers and stake-out have been partially completed.

Two out-of-city businesses have been finished in the past few weeks and are operating — the new Coca-Cola Bottling Plant on N. Hobart and Highland Kindergarten farther north on Hobart.

At 1708 Hobart a new photography portrait studio is being erected. It is owned by W. C. Koen, who estimates his cost at near $15,000. The 32 by 50 foot structure will be opened by Nov. 1.

Pampa has had its share of remodeling, additions and small building, too, which adds to the impressive construction score being built up in this Top O' Texas city. To mention one or two: radio station KPAT's new broadcasting station; an addition to Panhandle Packing Co.; a county precinct barn; a medical clinic building and an addition or two to existing clinic edifices.

According to figures in the city engineer's office, 1954 isn't likely to set any records construction-wise.

A total of 349 building permits have been issued in the city up to and including Sept. 28. Estimated cost is $2,161,691.30.

For the same period last year, 398 permits had been issued at an estimated construction cost of $1,994,917.50. So far, this year is ahead, considering total cost, but lags behind in number of permits issued.

Total permits issued from Sept. 1 to Sept. 28 were 42, as compared with 48 issued in September, 1953.

The biggest year for construction in Pampa was 1952 when permits totalling $5,301,121 were issued.

In addition to business, commercial, municipal and state building, construction of residences in Pampa is keeping pace. Every section of the city is spotted with new starts and issuance of permits shows no decline or slack period since the first of the year.

Also, Pampa is continuing its street building and maintenance program. Several city streets were topped this year and progress is expected to continue throughout the

Also, Pampa is continuing its street building and maintenance program. Several city streets were topped this year and progress is expected to continue throughout the

We're out to break a record in October!

The luxurious ROADMASTER Riviera, custom built by Buick, sells for the lowest price-per-pound in the fine-car field.

THERE'S a mighty good chance that October 1954 will be the biggest October in Buick history.

In fact, we know it will—if we can keep Buick sales rolling as they've been rolling thus far this year.

This is the car that has romped ahead of competition—climbed up into the circle of America's three top sales leaders.

It's the car that has been winning customers because it has the power, the ride, the room, and the styling that make it the buy of the year.

So we're in the mood to talk turkey, if you are in the market. Come in today for a car — and a deal — too good to miss.

THIS IS THE 3-WAY BONUS WE OFFER IN BUICK TODAY

1. Tomorrow's Styling

True year-ahead beauty with long, low glamor lines, keynoted by that spectacular new panoramic windshield that most other cars won't have till 1955 or later.

2. Higher Resale Value in the years to come

From the far-in-advance styling that will keep your Buick new and modern-looking well into the future, as other cars catch up.

3. Bigger Allowance from our volume business

For the huge sales success that has moved Buick into the circle of the "Big 3" means we can offer you a higher trade-in on your present car. Come in and see for yourself that we can make you a better deal.

Now's the time to make your buy because —

Buick Sales are Soaring And Buick "buys" are better than ever!

AND AWAY I GO—That's what inventor George Sablier could be saying as he shows his one-man helicopter in St. Etienne, France. Propelled by a six-horsepower engine, the 'copter weighs 60 pounds, and can supposedly fly 31 mph for 10 hours. A special device keeps the pilot from gyrating with the propeller.

Students Set Homecoming At Mobeetie
MOBEETIE — (Special)—Homecoming Day for Mobeetie ex-students has been set for Saturday, Oct. 23, 1954. The occasion this year is in honor of the early students of Mobeetie. Those to be honored in a special way will be all the early classes through the year of 1918.

The Mobeetie High School Seniors are sponsoring the ex-student dinner which will be served cafeteria style in the high school building beginning at 4:30 p.m. The program and business meeting will begin at 6:30, at 7:30 the Mobeetie Hornets and the Booker Klawns will play a conference game on the Mobeetie gridiron.
All ex-students, all the past and present teachers of Mobeetie Schools, the past and present trustees of the school district, and the trustees on the County Board of Trustees who live in or were living in Mobeetie District while serving on the Board are invited to attend. Reservations for the dinner should be mailed to Mrs. Jim Hathaway at Mobeetie by October 18th. The plates are $1.50 each.
The Mobeetie Seniors want this to be a memorable occasion for the "exes," and they are asking them to come early and have a good time visiting old friends and acquaintances.

Mexico Ponders Showing Movie Said 'Tinted'
MEXICO CITY, Oct. 2 —UP—Mexico's official censors were expected Saturday to decide soon whether a controversial American movie, "Salt of the Earth," may be shown in this country.
The movie was filmed in New Mexico and the Mexican state of Chihuahua by the Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers Union (Ind.). It purports to represent the hard life of Spanish-American workers in a mining town.
Shooting of the picture began near Silver City, N. M., but Rosaura Revueltas, the feminine lead, was deported to Mexico, and it was finished in Chihuahua.
The Mexican premiere was cancelled because the interior ministry's censorship office hadn't passed on it.

END OF THE LINE—A young admirer gave his last respects to the body of a woman, at the home of her mother, which is being prepared for the funeral. While "mourning" the company, however, she was the "queen" of the business company and entertained the distinguished company "The Old Noble" on a helmet.

NEW CLINIC — This is a view of the new Medical and Surgical Clinic, at 1701 N. Hobart, which is the site of an open house today. There are four physicians and one dentist in the newly decorated edifice which used to house Radio Station KPAT. Now KPAT is off to the south and west of its former site. Open house will be held from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. today.

New Clinic Holds Open House Today

The new Medical and Surgical Clinic on North Hobart holds open house from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. today. It is the former Radio Station KPAT Building, at 1701 N. Hobart, which four Pampa physicians and one dentist have taken over for their new clinic.

The physicians are Drs. Philip A. Gates, Joe W. Gates, Charles Ashby and R. M. Hampton. The dentist is Dr. Smith B. Sybert.

Actually, the doctors and the dentist have been in operation for the last couple of weeks in their new premises. But, during that time, too, they have been getting ready for this open house.

The site of the new clinic is where Station KPAT, owned by J. C. Daniels, broadcast for several years. Since Daniels sold the building to the five, he has built a new, smaller building to the west, nearer the transmitter.

The new clinic is located on what many a Pampian considers "one of the prettiest spots in town." In the front of the edifice is a grassy lawn, with a spanking new sign hanging from posts in the middle.

The interior of the building has been completely redecorated and all former partitions have been knocked out and relocated for the medical and surgical offices. All new rooms have been refinished in matching shades of color. New equipment has been moved in.

It is this that visitors will see this afternoon when they arrive at the clinic.

Texas Negro To Be Honored At State Fair

DALLAS, Oct. 2-UP—The State Fair of Texas will present its 1954 Distinguished Negro Citizen award to Dr. Willette Rutherford Banks, member of the board of seven colleges and universities.

He was president of Prairie View A&M College for 20 years before his retirement in 1948. Dr. Banks is now 73.

"It is especially fitting that Dr. Banks should receive the State Fair award," James H. Steward, vice president and general manager of the fair, said. "For through the years, he has probably done more than any one man to encourage Negro participation in fairs throughout the country."

Dr. Banks originated a community fair in Kowaliga, Ala., when he was principal of the Kowaliga Industrial School there at the outset of his career. When he went to Texas College at Tyler in 1915 as president, he encouraged Negro participation in the East Texas fair.

Work Begins On Hospital

HARLINGEN, Tex., Oct. 2-UP—Ground-breaking and consecration ceremonies for the new $2 million Valley Baptist Hospital are scheduled to be one of the principal speakers, was called to Washington Saturday on urgent business and his place will be taken by Joe Kilgore of McAllen, scheduled to replace him in Congress next January.

The new hospital will be located on U. S. Highway 77 between Harlingen and San Benito.

Stanley Holmgren, chairman of the hospital board of trustees, said the original ground-breaking ceremony had been changed to "ground-consecrating."

"We're in a hurry for that new building, and we told the contractors to go ahead and get started on the foundation," he said. "Ground has been broken in a big way, but we'll have the traditional turning of dirt for both the general hospital and the children's site. And we'll consecrate, or dedicate, the site to this humanitarian use."

Oil Week Talks Set

The Pampa Chamber of Commerce oil and gas committee will meet at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the chamber office in City Hall to make final plans for Oil Progress Week, Oct. 10-16.

Featured speaker for the week will be Rep. Martin Dies, of Lufkin, who will talk Oct. 12 at the annual Oil Progress Week banquet, scheduled to begin at 7 p.m. in the Pampa Country Club.

George Cree, Jr., is the chairman of the chamber committee and has called the special meeting.

Cotton Crop Estimates Take Upward Trend

NEW YORK, Oct. 2-UP—The forward movement in cotton prices under way since late July, became road-blocked this week when the crop picture was viewed in a more favorable light.

Imminence of the peak harvesting season, plus a pause in the recent urgent mill and exporter buying, also acted to modify recent bullish sentiment.

At Friday's close the list ruled 19 to 48 points—95 cents to $2.90 a bale—lower than the preceding week.

Report Scheduled
The government crop report, scheduled for next Friday, giving the third estimate of the season, monopolized market attention. Opinion consensus as the week closed was that the crop reporting board may show a substantial increase over the 11,822,000 bales estimated a month ago.

That idea was encouraged by the exceptionally heavy rate of ginnings, backed by private reports that the crop lately has been "holding its own" and that the yields are turning out better than originally expected in some sections.

Buyers Handicapped
The slow rate of impounding under the government loan compared with last year, along with the higher open market prices, and the heavier spot market sales, also handicapped new buying interest.

Some quarters understood that the mills still held much unhedged cotton which might come on the market in the event of a further setback.

Observers discounting the latest flush of optimism on the crop picture, thought the present reports could be exaggerated and preferred to wait for the private crop surveys which usually precede the government report. First of the surveys is expected on Monday.

Demand May Top Supply
Skeptics also said that barring a miracle, most traders are convinced that the size of the crop will be insufficient to meet the prospective demand and that loan cotton will have to supplement the additional needs at the higher cost to acquire it.

Evening up in the October delivery proceeded quietly during the week. Tenders had little effect price-wise, since most of the notices were promptly absorbed. One assumption was that the receivers might wish to use some of the tendered cotton against export sales to the Far East.

Producer entries under the 1954 loan program for the week ended Sept. 24 totaled 52,264 bales.

Four Soldiers Die In Crash

HOLLAND, Mich., Oct. 2-UP—Four Michigan soldiers enroute to their homes on furlough were killed early Saturday when their chartered plane crashed into a cornfield while flying through a heavy overcast in search of Park Township Airport.

The victims, all stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., were identified from papers found on their bodies as Harold Brooks, 21, and Robert L. Brooks, 19, both of Manistee, Mich.; Sam Soutanian, 22, and Norbert G. Bunkert, 22, both of Detroit.

Free World Oil Production Dips

TULSA, Okla. — A decline of 149,300 barrels daily, or 1.2 per cent, in crude-oil production of the Free, non-Communist World is reported in the October 4 issue of The Oil and Gas Journal.

Production during the month averaged 12,156,200 barrels daily. Output from fields in non-Communist foreign countries rose 108,700 barrels daily, but—production in the United States fell by 258,000 barrels daily, or 4 per cent, to its lowest level since last January.

Foreign oil production has been rising at a much faster rate than the United States, and if the present trend continues, it will exceed domestic output in another year, the Journal points out. The expansion in oil production abroad has been due especially to the prolific fields of the Middle East which now make up nearly 23 per cent of the Free World total.

During the first seven months of 1954, Free World production averaged 12,199,000 barrels daily, 3.3 per cent above the same period of 1953. At the same time, non-Communist foreign production rose 495,000 barrels daily, or 9.4 per cent. Middle East production of the first seven months of the year showed an increase of 11.1 per cent.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 2 — UP — Johnny Antonelli's lowwater relief pitching and their thundering bats carried the incredible New York Giants to a 7-4 victory Saturday for a four-game sweep of the World Series which handed the humiliated Cleveland Indians the worst American League defeat in 40 years.

Wreck Uses 'Screen Pass' To Upset Mustangs, 10-7

Winning Score Comes In Last Five Minutes

DALLAS, Oct. 2 — UP — George Volkert, a sophomore dervish, came to the rescue with a twisting 47-yard last quarter touchdown run Saturday night to give Georgia Tech a 10-7 verdict over a Southern Methodist team that had roundly outplayed the Wreck for 45 minutes.

It was a second straight heart-breaking loss for SMU, which only a year ago had won a sterling "statistical victory" over Tech at Atlanta only to lose the game 6 to 4.

Miami Impressive In Downing Schoolboy Football Rugged Baylor Bears, 19-13

MIAMI, Oct. 2.—UP—The University of Miami, which has staggered through a couple of lean football years, may have vaulted into the big time again with a sound 19 to 13 victory over high-ranking Baylor.

Not since the Orange Bowl and Gator Bowl teams of 1950 and 1951 has Coach Andy Gustafson's Hurricane squad shown such a display of strength. Even Gustafson admits that he may have it this year.

"We beat a good football team," Gustafson said after the Hurricanes trounced the Bears before a rain-soaked Orange Bowl crowd of 35,063 Friday night. "If we keep our feet on the ground, we'll do all right the rest of the season."

The Miami coach did not flinch when it was pointed out that the Hurricanes still face such powers as Maryland, Alabama, Mississippi State and Florida.

Baylor Coach George Sauer had no excuses for his team's drubbing at the hands of the fired-up Miami. "It rained just as hard on Miami as it did on Baylor," he said.

Desperate Rally Falls

Miami halfback Whitey Rouviere intercepted a 122-yard desperation pass from Baylor quarterback Bobby Jones in the closing seconds to stamp out the Bear's final threat and give Miami its victory. The Hurricanes shook the Texans with two touchdowns in the first five minutes, once when Baylor halfback Delbert Shofner fumbled the opening kickoff on his own 30 and again when Rouviere intercepted a Jones pass on the Baylor 27.

Rouviere scored through the line for the first touchdown after Miami moved to the goal in five plays and Don Bosseler missed the extra point try. After the interception, Captain Gordon Malloy ripped off 25 yards through the Baylor secondary and then went over from the three two play later. Ed Oliver kicked the extra point.

Baylor Outrushed, Outpassed

Baylor recovered, however, with touchdowns by Shofner late in the first quarter and on a pitchout from quarterback Billy Hooper in the second. Hooper was trapped on the 12, but pitched out to fullback Weldon Holley who scored and Shofner tied it up at 13-13 with his extra point.

Quarterback Carl Garrigus

scored the winning touchdown for the Hurricanes in the final quarter. Garrigus sparked a 32-yard drive then flitted 18 yards through the Baylor defenses to paydirt.

Miami outrushed Baylor 228 yards to 140 and collected 57 yards in the air while Baylor only accounted for 13 yards passing. The Hurricanes were penalized 99 yards, Baylor five.

Braves Infielder Marries

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 28.—UP—Milwaukee Braves' third baseman Eddie Mathews and miss Virjean Lauby of Marshfield, Wis., were married Monday afternoon in a brief and simple ceremony performed at the county clerk's office.

Big Daily Double

MAYS LANDING, N. J., Sept. 28.—UP—Jockey Anthony Regaluto booted home three winners Monday at the Atlantic City race course including the front end of a $1,220.80 daily double. Regaluto scored on War Fable (93.40) in the first, Prezy Mac ($28.80) in the third and Immortality ($19.60) in the fourth. Pancake ($13.60) won the second to complete the huge double.

5-Man 'Royal' Is Wrestle Feature

A five-man "wrestle royal" will start Pampa's wrestling card Monday night and the results will determine the match-making in two subsequent battles.

Bob Geigel, finalist in the Southwest States junior heavyweight championship tournament, is one of five strong men who will enter a "royal" to determine semi-final and final positions on the three-match card.

Dory Detton, former world's light-heavyweight champ from Salt Lake City, Utah, now wrestling promoter at Amarillo and booking agent for the Southwest States territory, comes out of semi-retirement to demonstrate his never-lost skill in the wrestle royal and possibly in one of the following matches.

George Curtis, also a former champ, from Vicksburg, Miss., is in on the deal, and so is Nash Karahan, a tall, handsome, young Turk who boxed professionally before engaging in the wrestling game. Ang so is a person from Mexico, originally named Juan Hernandez. That is the true name of the internationally popular grappler known heretofore in these parts as Polo Cordova.

Hernandez, or Cordova, is popular with fans and friends not only because of his fine wrestling technique but for his fine personality. He adopted the name, Polo Cordova, because he thought it might sound better than Juan Hernandez. But he is going by the latter name now, although using the same wrestling strategy and ability that made him famous as Polo Cordova.

First man to lose-out in the "wrestle royal" Monday night will be through for the evening. The next two to be pinned or beaten will return for the semi-final. The surviving pair will come back for the main event, two out of three falls or one hour.

Boxer Is 'Unavailable'
 BOSTON, Oct. 1.—UP—The Massachusetts Boxing Commission has placed Danish Boxer Chris Christensen on the "unavailable" list for 30 days. Christensen, victim of a sixth round TKO by Tony DeMarco last Saturday, was one of nine boxers banned in this state for 30 days or more. The suspensions are routine for knockout and TKO victims.

RELIGION AND THE PRESS

They represent two of our basic freedoms that serve and protect each other. Religion is the surest ally of freedom of the press and of freedom as a whole. Freedom of religion means not only the right to think about the religion of your choice but the right to practice it. A free press, telling its readers every fact and happening that affects freedom of religion, helps to sustain it. So religion and the press help to sustain each other.

Now that the Puerto Rican population of New York has grown to such sizable proportions — there are currently, 800,000 Spanish-speaking people in New York — the World Series will be broadcast in that language over a local New York radio station.

As far as Brooklyn is concerned, they could broadcast it in Swahili.

New York critics are pretty well split on the lavish Old Vic production of "Midsummer Night's Dream," starring Moira Shearer. The comments range from William Hawkins' "a real excursion into enchantment" to Walter F. Kerr's "no expense has been spared to make 'Midsummer Night's Dream' tedious."

Most show-business marriages you read about are those that make headlines because of divorce.

Mildred Miller Collingwood

ces, scandals or some unpleasantness. But for every one of those, there are a dozen normal marriages, and perhaps you'd like to hear about one.

Capt. and Mrs. Wesley Posvar are a good-looking, happily married couple. They have two children — Wesley, Jr., called "Wesley," is 3½, and Margot Marina was born last July — and they have a nice home in Alexandria, Va. The fact that their home is in Virginia is a tribute to the happiness of this union.

Posvar, an Air Force officer, works at the Pentagon. Mrs. Posvar, who is known professionally as Mildred Miller, is a mezzo-soprano at the Met and appears regularly on the "Voice of Firestone" and the "Telephone Hour" on radio and TV. Her work, obviously, is mostly in New York.

But her theory is that the husband's career comes first, so they live near his work. When he was stationed at West Point, they lived in Peekskill, N. Y., which was still nearer West Point than Broadway. Nowadays she commutes from Virginia to New York, staying in an apartment hotel in Manhattan for a few days and then going home again.

It seems to work out nicely, and she seems pretty happy with her two careers. Motherhood, she says, is good for the voice, and she insists that she had sung better after each child arrived.

Combining maternity and the Met poses no problem for mezzo-sopranos, especially a mezzo like Miss Miller who specializes in so-called "pants roles," meaning parts she impersonates a man. Nobody has yet devised a pair of maternity trousers, so she was a little worried about singing one of her specialties when she was 5½ months pregnant. But she did, without incident.

"They keep giving me boys' roles," she said. "I wish they'd realize I'm a woman." This is to inform you that Mildred Miller is quite a woman.

Reports are that the producers of "Arabian Nights," the extravaganza featuring Lauritz Melchior which played at the open-air Jones Beach, N. Y., amphitheater this summer, profited to the tune of $750,000. Which is a nice tune.

One of the producers was Guy Lombardo, and that merry tinkle of the cash register must have been to him the sweetest music this side of the income tax.

Charles Collingwood recalls, with a laugh, one of his most embarrassing moments. He was first hired by Ed Murrow in London when he was only 23. Murrow told him to tell people he was 28, because it sounded more mature. So Collingwood obliged, and subsequently a story appeared in a Washington newspaper that "Charles Collingwood, 28, has been hired by CBS."

In the same paper, on the society page, was an item reporting the 25th wedding anniversary of Collingwood's parents.

There'll be a complete switch in the "Foreign Intrigue" series, when the new set debuts on NBC-TV. Here, no longer an American reporter, but an Austrian hotel proprietor, Gerald Mohr plays the part.

MRS. BILL C. LARGENT

Miss Elsie Pierce And Bill C. Largent Repeat Wedding Vows In Wichita Falls

Miss Elsie Pierce of Kamay and Bill C. Largent of Pampa were united in marriage Sept. 25, in the First Baptist Church Chapel, Wichita Falls. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pierce of Kamay and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Largent, 408 E. Louisiana.

Dr. James H. Landes, pastor of the church, officiated at the ceremony, assisted by Rev. J. D. McDaniels, pastor of the Kamay Baptist Church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of chantilly lace and net over satin. The fitted lace bodice was styled with a Peter Pan collar and long sleeves that came to petal points over her hands. The bouffant, waist-length skirt of net had twin front panels of chantilly lace. Her waist-length veil of illusion, with scalloped edges of chantilly lace, fell from a halo cap covered with seed pearls and sequins. She carried a teardrop bouquet of stephanotis surrounding an orchid.

Maid of honor was Miss Joene Hall of Mergel. She wore an ice-blue waist-length gown of net over satin. Her matching headband of net was decorated with yellow and blue chrysanthemums. She carried a bouquet of the same flowers.

Junior bridesmaid was Miss Linda Pierce, sister of the bride. Her gown of yellow net was identical to that of the honor attendant. Her yellow net headband was decorated with tiny chrysanthemums and her bouquet was of the same flowers.

ments of white chrysanthemum and gladioli and candelabra with white tapers.

Organist was Pat Butler of Electric, and Miss Katy Merle Sumrall of Iowa Park was vocalist.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. The serving table was centered with an epergne of white pompon chrysanthemums.

For the wedding trip through New Mexico and West Texas, the bride wore a beige dress with brown accessories. Following the honeymoon, the couple will be at home in El Paso, where the bridegroom is serving with the army at Fort Bliss.

The bridegroom was graduated from Pampa High School and attended Midwestern University in Wichita Falls for four years, majoring in petroleum geology. In college, he was president of Boot and Spur Club and Future Teachers' Association. He was also active in student council work. While in school, he was employed by the Lane Wells Company, Wichita Falls.

The bride is a graduate of Gruver High School and attended Midwestern University where she studied music and business. She was president of the Spurette Club, vice president of the Baptist Student Union, and belonged to the music club and student council.

Many busy mothers don't have time to sterilize Baby's bottle as soon as he's finished with it. Yet they know that allowing it to stand for a time results in the formation of sticky solids that are hard to remove. To avoid that work-making alternative, put a teaspoon of baking soda in the bottle and fill it with warm water. Then when you're ready to sterilize it, there will be no problem with sticky solids.

When Baby gets to be five years old, he'll be hopping, skipping and turning somersaults. He'll like to cut, draw and paste pictures; to play in groups and to help mother and father. He'll be more serious, more dependable and more independent than a four-year-old. His questions, therefore, will deserve thoughtful, honest answers in language he'll understand easily.

Children are more likely to eat well when served small amounts of foods. Even a youngster whose appetite is hardy can lose interest when confronted with a plate piled high with food. New foods especially will get a better reception when offered in small quantities. When offered a tablespoon of squash, Baby may create a scene. But he probably would quietly accept a teaspoon of the same vegetable.

Pampa Rebekahs Conduct Meeting

Robert Hollis, team captain, asked the initiation team to be ready to initiate five new members Thursday. Lodge will open that night at 7:30.

Mrs. Hattie Holt, Mrs. W. A. York, and Mrs. Lockhart were appointed to a committee to handle entertainment for the Panhandle Circle meeting, slated for Oct. 28, in Pampa. The door prize was awarded to Mrs. V. J. Castka. More than 33 members were present.

RUTH MILLET

A young wife, new to house-keeping, asks if I can send her a work schedule so that she can become an efficient housekeeper.

All I can tell her is that you can't cut your own housekeeping routine to anybody else's schedule.

That is why it usually takes a while for a bride to become an efficient homemaker.

Every family is different, every home is different, and what spells efficiency to one homemaker spells slavery to another.

So each new homemaker, taking into consideration the way she can and likes to do each job, what she considers important and what her husband considers important, has to work out her own system for getting her job done.

And just about the time she thinks she can manage a home for two, the family starts increasing, or the husband's job requirements are different, and so on. So the homemaker's routine not only has to be worked out by the homemaker herself — but it has to change from month to month and year to year to meet changed circumstances.

The best advice I can offer is not to try to keep house like Mrs. Smith next door or like your mother or mother-in-law, but to keep house the way that suits you and your husband's needs.

That extends even to the labor-saving devices you buy. Many a young wife gets the labor-saving device all her friends are getting at the moment, rather than actually figuring out what she herself needs most.

The best homemakers are the ones who cut their own patterns instead of trying to copy anybody else's.

The ultra-feminine girl will be interested in new pantaloons pajamas. They featured a tucked front, and the collar and cuffs are trimmed with lace embroidery.

Curtains Net New Beauty For Windows

By KAY SHERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer.

The high vogue for sheer curtains finds a ready-made, low-priced ally in new lace-and-net curtains.

I find nothing limp or lackluster about the new café, or tier styles, or the panels. These have been smartened up with new colors, designs and fibers. They offer a lot of style for a small price. Some of the new ones sell for less than $3 a pair.

Crispness is assured in many cases by finishes that require no starching or stretching. Patterns range from cheerfully informal cotton fishnet to elegant formal lace, as delicate as a bridal veil.

Matching valances and yard goods in many cases promise to solve almost any problem in window-dressing.

Let's look at the windows. I was particularly taken with the new cotton fishnet curtains which have etched designs of fish, sea horses and other motifs.

These show up well at windows which must be kept unobstructed to admit light but offer no enchanting view.

Handsome neutral shades of bamboo, cocoa, dove gray and charcoal join the more familiar white, and bright colors, and promise to blend well with contemporary wicker, wrought iron or pale-wood finishes in furniture. Other new fishnets in nylon or orlon, as well as the cotton café styles, have woven-in loops to make curtain-hanging a matter of seconds.

Such pattern names as "Tri-non," "Rose D'Or," and "Vieux Carre" give you a clue to the elegant ancestry of machine-made lace curtains that resemble the expensive hand-embroidered imports. Lace-bordered café curtains look cool and charming, as do the lace-edged panels, either alone or in combination with drapery fabrics in traditional settings.

Even that old stand-by, the cottage set, has taken a new lease on our affections with the addition of shadowy plaids, flocked designs and new fibers such as chrome-spun which give sheen and greater resistance to fading.

Although sheer ready-made curtains are usually the property of the windows they veil, I must add that recently I've seen tiers, and café styles, or their valances, used as skirting for dressing tables, or as ruffling around a bed or chair.

Borrower's Lot Is Now A Happy One

By RICHARD E. MOONEY
WASHINGTON, Oct. 2—UP—Attractive young ladies are taking some of the legalistic grimness out of the mortgage-closing ceremony for a Chicago mortgage lending firm.

A Philadelphia lender has drummed up business with a song parody of "I Can't Give You Anything But Love, Baby."

Others are making the borrower's lot a happier one by sending flowers to the new home, taking the family out to lunch or offering free decorating advice.

These and more ideas poured forth at the Financial Public Relations Association's four-day 39th annual convention here this week. The association's approach to the problem was: "Your mortgageor, the forgotten man."

The mortgageor—that's you, the borrower—could stand more attention, the PR men agreed.

A Chicago savings and loan executive said the government's mortgage loan insurance programs have meant less personal attention for the borrower because the programs are "boxed in" by regulations and forms which restrict an institution's efforts to be different.

Because of these restrictions, his firm puts the accent on conventional loans, not backed by a federal guarantee, particularly when a borrower wants money for home repair or improvement.

He said a quick answer to a borrower's application makes a company more pleasant to deal with, and the government often takes too many months to answer.

This man, Ralph J. Lueders of the First Federal Savings & Loan Association, Chicago, said his company is also perking up its mortgage dealings with more colorful mortgage forms, which still have all the fine print. It is his firm which has replaced the lawyer at

Firms Seek Specification For Hangars

The Perry LeFors Field Board will meet the afternoon of Oct. 7, but it will be four days later that Court will open bids on the proposed hangar for the county-owned and operated airport.

Ed Simmons, board secretary, Saturday said specifications had been requested by five firms thus far. The hangar, according to the specs, will be 110 feet by 120 feet and will have 22-foot walls. It will have a concrete foundation and floor and will be an all-steel affair.

Only discussion of the hangar, approved in the county's new budget, is on the agenda at present, Simmons said.

The postal savings system, with deposits of $2,341,000,000, is one of the world's largest savings banks. The post office department also is the nation's largest real estate operator and tenant. It leases 22,800 buildings.

HOLLYWOOD TODAY!
MOVIES - TV - RADIO
by Erskine Johnson

Hollywood news, gossip and humor are the daily ingredients of Erskine Johnson's column. But from time to time he writes on other subjects. During his vacation, some of these columns are being reprinted as "The Best of Johnson."

HOLLYWOOD — (NEA) — I went to a movie the other night and I got so mad I could hardly finish my bag of popcorn.

There it was on the screen again.

A husband and wife were at the parting of the ways. An obnoxious little offspring followed her daddy to the door, tugging at his coat tails. Then the little kid started to whimper and finally she said it:

"Daddy, dear, why are you mad at mommy?"

Daddy replied, "Some day, dear, when you grow up, you'll understand."

Just once I wanted to hear the husband say:

"Because your mother is a stupid jerk."

But he didn't say it. He never does. And it makes me mad. And I don't enjoy my popcorn.

I was still mad the next day when I met Director Byron Haskins and we got to talking about movie corn and cliches, bromides and banalities.

I WAS DECLARING war on them, I told Haskins, and in the future he agreed that none of these situations would be found in the movies he directs:

1. The situation in which the only hope of saving the poor little girl suddenly stricken with a dread disease is to sober up the drunken old doctor.
2. The gnarled, crusty, heart-of-gold stage manager grabbing the leading lady on opening night and sending her on stage with the immortal words: "Little girl, dance tonight as you've never danced before."
3. The district attorney facing a couple of pot-bellied politicians across his desk and solemnly saying: "Wait'll the governor hears about this."
4. THE DETECTIVE saying: "This is the break I've been waiting for. This will crack the case wide open."
5. The nasty heroine saying: "Okay, say it—I'm no good."
6. The wagon train, caught in Box Canyon, with thousands of screaming Indians playing ring around the rosy and the Texas Rangers suddenly appearing from out of nowhere to save the pioneers.

The next time such a scene appears in a film script, Haskins agreed, he will cut from the menaced wagon train to the Texas Rangers playing gin rummy and then cut back to the Indians scalping the pioneers.

7. The romantic fadeout, with the boy and girl, holding hands, tenderly facing the sunset. Can't the boy burp, or something?

8. THE HERO SAYING: "Now listen, baby, I'm right for you, see. And no jerk of a

Rabbit Is Hashed Over

VANDALIA, Ill., Oct. 2—UP—Sen. Paul H. Douglas has challenged the Republican party's policy on cooking rabbit.

The Illinois Democrat, campaigning for re-election, brought the rabbit issue into the fall election drive in a speech Friday.

"I do not want it thought that the Republican party has totally ignored the people out here," he told his farm audience. "They've prepared this booklet — 'How to Cook Rabbit'."

"It gives recipes for rabbit a la king, rabbit hash, creamed rabbit, rabbit chop suey and even rabbit sandwich spread," Douglas said.

"The problem is," he asked the Republicans, "how can you find the rabbit?"

AF Secures Crash Site

SIOUX CITY, Iowa, Oct. 2—UP—A tight security guard was placed Saturday around the wreckage of an Air Force T-33 jet trainer which crashed and killed two men Friday night.

The plane apparently "exploded in mid-air," witnesses said, before smashing into a cornfield and breaking into flames. The jet was coming in for a landing at the Sioux City Air Force Base when it crashed.

The dead were Maj. Harry E. Roach, the pilot, of (Morningside Drive) New Braunfels, Tex., and Capt. John K. Martin of (1120 W. San Antonio St.) San Marcos, Tex. The plane was based at Gary Air Force Base at San Marcos.

Town Marshal E. H. Herd of Sergeant Bluff, Iowa, said the "wreckage was scattered for one-half to three-quarters of a mile."

Shortly after Herd arrived, he said, "dozens of soldiers" arrived from the Sioux City base and clamped a guard around the scene. The two Air Force men were dead when rescuers arrived, Herd said.

A farm woman, Mrs. Dale Iverson, said she ran out of her home to see "burning parts falling" from the sky after the mid-air explosion.

said Saturday he had discussed the matter with Chairman William Langer (R-N.D.) and that they had agreed to press jointly for more money.

Kettering Still Seeks To Do Impossible

DETROIT, Oct. 2—UP—Charles T. Kettering, the man who put electric starters in automobiles in 1912, still is looking for ways to do things "that can't be done" at the age of 78.

"Boss Kett," who made his fortune years ago, shuttles back and forth between Dayton, Ohio, and Detroit, keeping his fingers in a long list of research projects even though he is "retired."

"The good old days don't mean anything. The good new days are all that count," he said.

Kettering is helping search for a cure for cancer, is working on experiments to find out "what makes the grass green" and still is keeping a close eye on General Motors research. Recently he and Frank J. Roelandt took out a patent for automatic starters for dehumidifiers.

Despair of Normalcy

He throws up his hands when asked about his "busy retirement."

"There's no reason to stop doing things just because it is the normal thing to do," he said. "The only thing that makes it normal is that experts have decided that is the way things should be."

It isn't surprising Kettering refuses to act like retired people are supposed to act. He never has believed in conformity. Most of his many inventions violated all the theories on how things are supposed to work.

"The best advice I ever got was 'I wouldn't try that, Kett, it can't be done,'" he said.

That was the advice he got in 1904 when he set out to invent an electric cash register.

The experts said it couldn't be done. They said it would require an electric motor as big as the cash register itself, but Kettering decided he could overload a small motor if it ran for only an instant and had rather long periods to cool down. He tried it and it worked.

Big Push

The work with electrical relays in 1912 of the electric automobile starter. Development of the starter, which eliminated the need for hand cranking, gave the then young auto industry one of its biggest pushes.

The series of inventions in which he has had a part since then would fill a volume. He played an important role, for example, in developing high high-octane ethyl gasoline which has saved motorists as much as one billion dollars a year. He played a leading role in development of the "two cycle" diesel engine and other developments also.

"You know, our two cycle diesel violates every rule there is. But it works," he said.

"Sometimes you've got to stop, turn around and look back. Maybe there is another road that'll lead you right where you want to go," he said.

May Be a Blessing

Kettering is bothered by poor eye sight. It forced him to interrupt his education at Ohio State University at the turn of the century several times. He can't read for more than 20 minutes at a time now.

"But that's all right. It keeps me from reading about all the theories that tell why things can't be done," he said.

Kettering thinks a cure for cancer is coming. He said his experiments to find out "what makes the grass green" also are yielding results, results that could be important in feeding the rapidly-expanding population in years to come.

He expects rapid advancements in automobile also.

"The automobiles we are turning out today are going to be museum pieces 15 or 20 years from now," he said.

Welch Opposes Spy Network

IOWA CITY, Iowa, Oct. 2—UP—Joseph N. Welch, Army counsel at the Army-McCarthy hearings, is opposed to any senatorial "spying" within the government. "I doubt whether it's good to have any group of senators, or all of the senators, or any single senator, to establish a spy network within the government, no matter how noble the intention," Welch said.

Committee Seeks Funds

MAKES SPECIAL RECIPES EASY FOR THE ROBERTS FAMILY
 3428 Julian Blvd., Amarillo, Texas

Says Mr. J. C. Roberts, "It's no luck at all to prepare my special Jambalaya in the well cooker of our electric range. I never worry about the results; they're always good. The family really goes for my Jambalaya, too."

MR. ROBERTS' RECIPE FOR JAMBALAYA

- 2 strips bacon, chopped
- 2 small onions, finely chopped
- 3 chicken bouillon cubes
- 2 cups water
- 3 tablespoons chopped green pepper
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup uncooked rice, washed
- 1 No. 2 can tomatoes
- 2 tablespoons chopped parsley
- 1 cup cooked shrimp

Sauté bacon, onion and pepper in deep-well cooker until onion is clear and bacon nearly crisp. Add bouillon cubes dissolved in the 2 cups of water. Add salt, rice and shrimp. Cover. Heat on HIGH until steam escapes. Turn switch to SIMMER and cook for 1 hour.

MRS. ROBERTS' RECIPE FOR SEVEN MINUTE ICING

- 1 1/4 cups sugar
- 3 egg whites
- 1/2 cup water
- 1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1/2 teaspoon salt

Combine all ingredients in two-quart sauce pan. Mix well. Place pan on small surface unit of electric range. Turn on medium heat. Beat ingredients with electric mixer for seven minutes or until ridges are made in the icing.

Says Mrs. J. C. Roberts, "I like electric cooking because it's so cool. All the heat goes into the food to be cooked. I think electric cooking is faster and there's no doubt about its cleanliness. That makes it easier to cook for a normal, healthful family."

Take a tip from the Roberts family and enjoy your kitchen. You can, you know, if you cook the modern way, the electric way. Electric cooking is the only way to cook and stay happy as thousands of folks in this great Southwest, in which we live, have found out. Join this happy kitchen group. Banish unsightly wall smear. Be sure of perfect results every time you cook, bake or broil. Do these things with a modern range—the up-to-date electric range. There's a style, size and model to fit right in with your kitchen scheme of things.

Now is the time to see your Reddy Kilowatt Electric Appliance Dealer—you'll know his store because he displays this sign.

LETTE ROBERTS' RECIPE FOR HERMITS

- Mix together thoroughly
- 1/2 cup soft shortening
- 1 cup brown sugar
- 1 egg
- Stir in
- 1/4 cup cold coffee
- Sift together and stir in
- Mix in
- 1/4 cups sifted flour
- 1/2 teaspoon soda
- 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/4 cups raisins
- 1/4 cup broken nuts

Drop rounded teaspoonsful about 2 inches apart on lightly greased baking sheet. Bake at 400° F. for 8 to 10 minutes.

SUE ROBERTS' RECIPE FOR PIGS IN A BLANKET

- 6 wieners
- 12 strips of cheese
- 5 slices of bacon

Slice wieners in half lengthwise. Cut slit down center of each. Cut cheese in long strips 1/4 inch thick. Place a strip of cheese in the slit of each wiener. Wrap each wiener with 1/2 slice of bacon and secure with a toothpick. Place wieners on rack of broiler pan. Broil about 5 inches below the broiler unit until bacon is crisp. Turn and broil on other side until bacon is crisp. Serve immediately.

Says Sue Roberts, "The electric broiler works so well that it's easy to make teen-age snacks in just a few minutes." And, Lette continues, "When I bake my cookies in the electric oven, they are always so good, never burned up, but real nice."

EASY PICKIN'S—"I got tired draggin' that sack, so I just built me this little buggy," says cotton picker Hezekiah Stinson, at Caddo Mills, southwest of Greenville, Tex. And for 10 years he's been wheeling it up and down cotton rows all over Hunt County, carrying no-telling how many pounds of cotton to the scales. Stinson said he has been improving it a little now and then and the last time he had it weighed it tipped the scales at 160 pounds. "Pulls easy, though," he says.
