SO WHAT?

It doesn't seem to bother Miss Faye Burns, 601 Lowry, a bit that today is Friday, the 13th—the only one of its kind during 1954. Here she unconcernedly sits under a ladder in the Courthouse where she is assistant county home demonstration agent. It shouldn't make any difference, either. After all, she was born on a Friday, the 13th. (News Photo)

President Holds Fate Of Bill To Outlaw Reds

McCarthy Counsel Will Be Provided

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 — UP — Sen. Arthur V. Watkins (R-Utah) said Friday Senate Leaders have agreed to furnish Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy a lawyer to help him answer charges before a special Senate committee. Watkins, chairman of the six-man "jury," said extra money was included in the $30,000 appropriation, approved by the Senate Wednesday night, to pay for an attorney for the Wisconsin Republican. McCarthy, who had requested the legal aid, is expected to name Edward B. Williams, prominent Washington lawyer who has represented him in other cases. To Start New Hearings Meanwhile, informed sources said McCarthy may start new hearings on alleged Communist infiltration of the Army sometime this fall and after a report is filed on his big dispute with the Army that touched off eight weeks of televised hearings. McCarthy, himself, would not comment on this possibility, but he dropped a hint Thursday that the staff of his Senate investigating subcommittee is quietly gathering material for new hearings. A source close to McCarthy said, however, he plans no public hearings until the Army-McCarthy report is in. Report Shapes Up Sen. Karl E. Mundt (R-S.D.) told reporters the group is near agreement on the major issues. Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash.), in helping to write the report, predicted it would be ready for release next Wednesday or Thursday. Other developments concerning McCarthy: 1. McCarthy told newsmen he was suspending further hearings on Communists in defense plants until after the Senate recesses, probably sometime next week. He also said he would drive to Wisconsin for a vacation after the recess and return to Washington when the Watkins committee begins its public hearings Aug. 30. 2. A former Voice of America official complained that he was fired nearly a year ago as "punishment" for "co-operating" with McCarthy's investigation of his agency in March, 1953.

Bank Robbed Of $160,000

ANDREWS AFB, Md., Aug. 13 — UP — Three armed Negroes held up a branch bank across the street from base headquarters here Friday and escaped with about $160,000. The three bandits are believed to have entered the patrolled Air Force base through an unguarded back entrance left open for truck deliveries. They entered a branch of the First National Bank of Southern Maryland shortly after it opened at 9 a. m. Four employees and four customers were herded into the bank vault after the gunmen stripped it of cash. The vault opens from the inside and the employees were able to swing the heavy door open within two or three minutes. FBI Agent D. K. Brown said in Baltimore, Md., that the bureau was called in on the case immediately.

Surprise Measure Passed By Senate

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 — UP — President Eisenhower apparently held the key Thursday to the fate of a bill to outlaw the Communist party which was whipped through the Senate in a surprise, Democrat-led maneuver. If the White House passes the word that it wants the bill included in its package of anti-subversive measures, House leaders are expected to press for its passage before Congress adjourns. But if the administration sticks to its past opposition to outlawing the party — as voiced by Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr. — the measure likely will die in a House pigeonhole. GOP Caught Off Guard In a surprise action that caught Republican leaders off guard, the Senate voted 85 to 0 late Thursday for the measure which would make the Communist party illegal and impose heavy fines and jail terms on active party members. The bill was sponsored by Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.), 18 other Democrats and independent Sen. Wayne Morse (Ore.) as a substitute for an administration-backed bill to crack down on Red-tainted unions and business firms. After a series of complicated parliamentary maneuvers, the two proposals were wrangled into a single bill on a motion by Sen. Price Daniel (D-Tex.). This was accomplished by an 85 to 1 vote with Sen. Herbert H. Lehman (D-N.Y.) the lone dissenter. GOP floor leader Charles A. Halleck (Ind.) said he would have to canvass the whole situation before deciding whether the administration will continue to oppose the bill or let it come to the floor where it would probably pass. Panel May Not Act A House Judiciary subcommittee has approved a similar bill to outlaw the party, but the full committee rejected it. A source close to Committee Chairman Chaucey W. Reed (R-Ill.) doubted that he would call a meeting to act on the Senate bill since the administration is on record against such legislation. Brownell testified April 12 he opposed outlawing the party because it would drive the Reds underground and make them more difficult to control. He also raised questions about constitutionality of such legislation. FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover also has opposed the move in the past. And Rep. Harrison A. Williams Jr., (D-N.J.) announced he would introduce the Senate bill in the House Monday. He said it would "strike a death blow to the few traitors in our midst" and prevent "self-seeking politicians" from accusing "anybody who disagrees with them of being Communists."

Rodeo Billings Are Requested

The deadline for all bills outstanding on the Top of Texas Rodeo Association is Saturday, Mrs. Iris Ragsdale, association official, said late this morning, adding, "We want to get the books cleared as soon as possible."

More Work, Production

Studebaker Makes Pledge To Workers

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Aug. 13 — UP — The grateful Studebaker Corporation promised its employees more work and doubled production in return for their acceptance of a 10 to 15 per cent pay cut. Paul G. Hoffman, corporation chairman, said the employees' landslide decision Thursday opens the way "for Studebaker to roll into high gear." James D. Hill, international representative of the CIO United Auto Workers here, said the vote "gives the company a fighting chance before they didn't even have that." The company, fighting to hold its own in the tough auto market, had warned the workers it would close the plant and throw 11,000 persons out of work if they didn't take the pay cut. But there was no bitterness as the union members reversed their decision of a week ago and voted 5,311 to 626 to accept the slash. The overwhelming majority felt it made sense to keep the company and their jobs going rather than insist on the status quo. Robert Harringer, a foundry foreman, said "I voted 'no' last Thursday, but, after thinking it over, I'd just as soon work steady for less money."

Mercury Rise Is Forecast

A light sprinkle what the weather bureau calls a trace, hit the Pampa area about 3:45 p. m. Thursday, but in the words of Ralph Thomas, county agent, "We need a good general rain to cover the county." "Generally dry conditions from June until a couple of weeks ago damaged grain sorghums, farm crops and grass. Most people did not get much of last Saturday's rain which ran all the way from considerably under an inch to 2 1/2 inches," Thomas said. Today's thermometer will have a mercurial reading equaling if not surpassing Thursday's high of 90.

Crowds Cheer Rhee Arrival

SEOUL, Aug. 13 — UP — President Syngman Rhee got a rousing reception Friday on his return to the Republic of Korea from a futile war mission to Washington. Rhee waved his hat jauntily to almost 500 U. S. and Korean officials, foreign diplomats, soldiers and well-wishers assembled at the airport to greet him. The reception got out of hand. U. S. military police locked arms in riot tactics to keep American and Korean photographers away from Rhee. One diplomatic minister who had gone to the airport to welcome the president was ordered to get out of the way by an American MP. Rhee ignored the confusion and shook hands with top officials, including Eighth Army commander Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, Fifth Air Force commander Lt. Gen. Roger Ramey and Korean Premier Pyun Yung Tae.

Water Storage Loss Reported

Pampa got some warm weather and used more water than it produced in the 24-hour period ending at 7:30 a. m. today. Produced were 4,695,500 gallons. Consumed were 4,855,500 gallons. Lost in storage were 160,000 gallons. Total production to date is 54,007,625 gallons.

Atomic Workers Back To Jobs

OAK RIDGE, Tenn., Aug. 13 — UP — Some 1,650 AECI electricians returned to work Friday on a top secret atomic construction project following a one-day walkout over a jurisdictional dispute. Still striking, however, were 77 AECI painters who went on strike Thursday over the firing of a union steward. The painters and electricians began their strike at the same time 4,500 CIO atomic production workers at plants here and Paducah, Ky., had scheduled walkouts over wage demands.

Crop Insurance Deadline Near

Gray County farmers have only today and Saturday in which to obtain their federal all-risk crop insurance on 1955 wheat crops. No applications can be accepted after Saturday, according to Marvin C. Webster, county Federal Crop Insurance Corporation agent. FCIC has advised O. B. Briggs, state director, of the early deadline caused by the unfavorable prospects that face the Gray County area for 1955, Webster explained late this morning. An estimated 200 county farmers are already carrying FCIC insurance, he pointed out, adding that Gray County is one of several in the Panhandle in which the new deadline applies. For the others, it is Aug. 21.

Foes Claim Enough Strength To Stall Atom Bill Passage

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 — UP — Senate foes of the controversial atomic energy bill claimed enough votes to send the measure back to a House-Senate conference committee Friday with orders to change the atomic patent section. They were cheered by the open support of Senate Democratic leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex.) who said he favored the recommitment move because the measure "should and could be closer to the original Senate bill." Both sides predicted a close vote when the House passed compromise comes up for action. Opponents, mostly Democrats, seek to rewrite the patent section so that it provides for the sharing of patented atomic discoveries. This was a provision of the original Senate bill but the compromise version provides merely that the Atomic Energy Commission must give preference to firms wanting to build atomic power plants which agree to license their patents to others. The original Senate measure specified that holders of patents on atomic devices and processes must share them at a fee to all comers for five years. There was no danger of a renewal of the recent 13-day talk-show waged by Senate foes when the measure first came up. Both sides agreed to a three-hour limit on debate. Other developments: SUBVERSIVE President Eisenhower apparently will decide the fate of a bill to outlaw the Communist party, the Senate, in a surprise, Democrat-led maneuver, unanimously passed the measure Thursday night but it probably will end up in a House (See FOES, Page 2)

Day Of Activities Set By Kiwanians

The District Governor and Lt. Governor of Kiwanis clubs headed a list of distinguished visitors to Pampa today for an annual get-together of Kiwanians. Gov. Ed Keefe of Chickasha, Okla., and Lt. Governor Harry Wofford of Wheeler arrived here this morning with their wives to attend the noon luncheon meeting of the Kiwanis Club in the First Methodist Church and to take part in a full day of activities including a golf tournament at the Pampa Country Club and a barbecue tonight at Hobart Street Park. Gov. Keefe spoke to the Pampa club members at the luncheon. The get-together, in which Kiwanians from throughout Division Six were guests of the Pampa Kiwanis Club, is being directed by Les Hart, immediate past Lt. Gov.

Mass Firings Threatened By Airlines

NEW YORK, Aug. 13 — UP — American Airlines has announced that all 16,000 of its employees will be dropped from the payroll at midnight Sunday unless 1,200 striking pilots return to work. American, the nation's largest domestic air carrier, has been forced to cancel all flights since July 30 when the pilots walked out in protest against non-stop coast-to-coast trips requiring more than eight hours flying time. In a statement "to all employees" Smith said the strike has produced "an unwarranted and intolerable situation." "There is no need to repeat in this message the lack of justification for the strike and the continuing lack of consideration by the pilots for the welfare of other employees," Smith said. Most of the employees, except probationary employees, 959 stewardesses and 367 flight engineers, will receive two weeks' notice plus whatever vacation pay may have accrued to them. The airline's monthly pay roll, including pilots, is $7.5 million. The company has estimated that grounding of its fleet is costing $750,000 a day in gross revenue. Earlier in the day Smith announced that the striking pilots would lose their seniority rights if they remained on strike after Sunday.

COPS GOT ROBBED

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, Aug. 13 — UP — Police said Friday that when they apprehended a man breaking a hole in the sidewalk in front of a jewelry store in the middle of the night, he claimed he was just a street workman who had come to work early. Turned out he was telling the truth.

ASC Ballots Mailed Today

Ballots will be sent to some 1,300 farmers and their wives in four Gray County communities today for the election of community committees to serve on Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committees. Community election boards have made up a list of 10 eligible candidates in each of the four communities. Three farmers in each community are elected as committeemen, two serving as alternates. The nominees receiving the most votes is automatically chairman, Miss Evelyn Mason, ASC office manager said Monday. Ballots Due Aug. 23 Blank lines are provided on the ballot for those farmers wishing to vote for any other person in the community eligible to serve as a committeeman, Miss Mason said. Ballots must be received in the ASC office by Aug. 23 to be counted. Chairman of the community committees will meet in Pampa Aug. 30 to select a chairman, and two committeemen to serve on the county committee, which administers the ASC. In addition two alternates will be named, according to Miss Mason. Both the three-man community and county committees are election committees. Russ Raise Food Prices

LONDON, Aug. 13 — UP — The Soviet council of ministers Friday raised the retail price of potatoes, fruits and vegetables in Russia. The government explained, in a broadcast heard here, that the jacked-up prices were intended as "an incentive to production." Russia in the past has repeatedly boasted of price cuts in basic foodstuffs and consumer goods. The regime of Premier Georgi Malenkov also promised the Russian people increased production of foodstuffs and consumer goods.

Resident Of Africa Eyes Texas

A man who has been managing a plantation in Africa which raises wheat and various other crops wants to know what the possibilities are of following his line of work in the Texas Panhandle. Bill Ragsdale, manager of the Pampa Texas Employment Commission office, today reported the receipt of a letter from Mrs. George E. Quigley, Newton, Mass., explaining that Donald Murphy had been managing the African plantation for 11 years, had visited his parents recently in the United States and had heard about Texas. The letter went to Mrs. Quigley to the state department of agriculture to the Chief of TEC farm placement to Ragsdale. It is presumed, Ragsdale said, that Mrs. Quigley is a friend of Murphy's parents. Brown & Hinkle Inc. Plumbing, sheet metal, heating, air conditioning, 311 N. Ballard, Ph. 4-121. Adv.

Otto John Given Red-Carpet Treatment In U.S. Recently

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 — UP — Shortly before he disappeared behind the Iron Curtain on the night of July 20, West German Security Chief Dr. Otto John: 1. Visited in the United States for about five weeks under the sponsorship of "U. S. government agencies." 2. Was guest of honor at a private dinner given by Central Intelligence Chief Allen W. Dulles. 3. Shook hands with FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover and was taken on a short tour of the FBI. 4. Talked at the State and Defense Departments with diplomats, Army, Navy and Air Force representatives. Extensive Investigation These facts have been established by the United Press in an extensive investigation of the circumstances surrounding John's visit to the United States. Details of the John story have been hard to fill in. Some officials are reluctant to discuss his visit here now that John has gone over to the Communists—whether voluntarily or against his will. No government agency wants to take responsibility for sponsoring John's visit. No agency will say outright that government funds were used for John's trip, although this is said by some officials to be the case. Clear embarrassment has been shown in some cases. But many officials contacted agree that as far as they can recall, John neither did or said anything which pointed to an impending decision to quit the West and join the Reds. They are baffled by the whole affair. Doubtful He Got Secrets They agree, too, that it is most unlikely John picked up any classified security or intelligence information of value to the Reds. This is at least true, they believe, so far as any official contacts with John. It is not entirely clear where John spent all of his time in the United States. He told one official that he "had been to California." And it is known that he was in New York City on June 15. John planned to visit for at least three months before he arrived in New York on May 19. His trip presumably was arranged to acquaint him with life in the United States and to obtain first-hand information on security matters in Germany. He was known to have excellent information on organizations and individuals "fronting for the Communists" in Western Germany plus data on activities in the Russian zone.

Beauty Contests Not New

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 —UP—What's new in Washington: Beauty contests aren't new. The Library of Congress is showing a bunch of woodcuts from the olden days. Among them is a Japanese painting by an artist named Chokosai Eisul. It pictures a beauty in the 18th Century. It says under the painting that the lovely lady was "among a beauty contest of women" at Yoshiwara. In the olden days, apparently, the Japanese artists prettied up their ladies with a brush. Now, the camera does it, with tricks.

The rush of business in the prolonged session of Congress has brought a lot of new help into the staffs that put out the congressional record. It is giving the editors the willies. Things will slip through. Sen. J. W. Fulbright of Arkansas was not identified as the "junior" senator. That called for a correction. Some of the new workers also don't know the difference between a motion and a resolution.

If you are taking a vacation in the desert country, the Army Quartermaster Corps has some advice. In the sand you can puff harder walking down a hill than up it. The Army has made quite a study and says that the boys at Yuma, Ariz., playing guinea pigs, report that walking down a sand hill calls for more huffing and puffing than climbing.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon is a little miffed with the Congress that won't quit. He co-piloted by train his family, Pat and the kids, up to a little retreat in Maine recently. He kissed them good-bye and said, "I'll see you in a couple of days." He hasn't seen them since. In the daily letters the Veep writes, he keeps saying "one of these days." Pat and the kids, he reports, are having a jolly old time while the Veep sweats and frets.

Bets are being made around the capitol about when the Congress will adjourn. There are office pools and the like. There is some question about the settling of the bets and pools. That's because of the complicated situation whereby the Senate undoubtedly will come back into session before end of the year to consider one issue—a report by the special committee considering censure charges against Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.)

Bridge Experts Play Game Safe

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service
Perhaps South should play today's hand at three no-trump instead of four spades, since there are nine cold tricks against any opening lead. Most experts would, however, play the hand at four spades because there is usually greater safety at a good major suit.

An expert would make four spades, but the actual declarer was no expert. He won the opening heart lead with the ace, drew trumps, and then speculated about the right way to play the clubs. This speculation was probably good healthful exercise, but it didn't do South much good. No matter how he played the clubs he was bound to lose three tricks in the suit.

South actually led the first club from the dummy, and East naturally played low. South put up the queen, losing to West's ace. East then led the king-nine over dummy's jack, and these cards were good for two further tricks in the suit.

The result would have been the same if South had led clubs first from his own hand. West would have played low, and East would have beaten dummy's jack with the king. West would then have ace-ten over South's queen. The only right way to play the clubs is not to play them at all.

In other words, South must force the opponents to begin the suit. After winning the first trick with the ace of hearts and drawing trumps, South should cash his three diamond tricks. He can then give up a heart trick to either opponent, after which that opponent must either begin the clubs or give South a ruff and discard. If the defenders lead the clubs, they can take only two tricks in the suit. South is therefore sure of making his contract by this line of play.

Arraignment Of Suspected Reds Delayed

DENVER, Aug. 13 —UP—Mrs. Patricia Blau, 42, one of seven Communists arrested two weeks ago and charged with conspiring to destroy the United States Government, arrived here from Los Angeles Thursday in federal custody.

Mrs. Blau is being held in $20,000 bond — only half as much as the bond set for four others accused of conspiring with her in violation of the Smith Act. All seven will be arraigned next week.

Federal Judge Jean Breitenstein postponed the arraignment of the six Reds arrested in Colorado Wednesday because they have not yet obtained legal counsel. Arthur Bary, 42, described by the FBI as the most important underground Communist caught in the roundup Aug. 1 and 2, blamed "newspaper hysteria" for their difficulties in hiring a lawyer.

Mrs. Blau, a native of Canada but a naturalized American citizen, was working in a Los Angeles bakery under her maiden name when she was arrested.

She said on arrival at the U. S. marshal's office here that "I haven't done anything but mind my own business."

THE MARQUEE BY DICK KLEINER

Galen Drake, who once upon a time was a singer, and his present vocalist, Stuart Foster, were reminiscing before Drake's CBS-Radio show. And it came out that both are the sons of furniture store owners. So they have decided that for old times' sake, they'll sing duets on "You Turned the Tables On Me" and "Old Rockin' Chair's Got Me."

There may be a few unemployed teams of horses one of these days. Clifton Fadiman, who is chief conversationalist on NBC-Radio's "Conversation," brought up the horses when he discussed the program's purpose.

"There's a hole in radio and TV programming," he said, "big enough to drive several teams of horses through. That's the lack of any programs for the millions of people who went to college. That was the hole we plugged with 'Information Please' 15 years ago—its success wasn't due so much to the fact that it was a good program as that there was nothing else for that audience."

So "Conversation" was conceived by Louis Cowan, who once invented the "Quiz Kids," as a program for thinking people. He began it on television, locally in New York, then switched it to radio where it is now creating a mild, pleasant stir.

Cowan put Fadiman, originally a guest on the program, into the ticklish job of maitre d'conversation. The format is simple — "gimmickless," Fadiman calls it. He and two or three others sit around a table and talk. Period.

"Some days beforehand," he says, "I'll give them a topic — it may be 'children' or 'puns' or 'basic fears.' I call the topics 'springboards.' They just give us a starting point. And then we talk. Good conversation, we think, is entertaining, as well as stimulating."

It seems to be. The mail response to the show has been amazing. People write in — some even telephone — to say thank you for putting on the show. They all seem

Child's Attacker Still At Large

STANFIELD, Ariz., Aug. 13 —UP—Pinal county authorities had only one slender clue to go on Thursday in their search for a man who kidnaped and raped a three-year-old girl Tuesday night.

Bobbie Holliday, blonde, pigtailed daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Holliday, was stolen from her bed about 11:30 p. m., assaulted, then left wandering in a cotton camp two miles from her home here. She was found asleep on a bench in front of a cabin at 5 a. m. Wednesday.

Deputy Bert Kinard, of the Pinal county sheriff's office, said the only clue to the sex maniac's identity was that "he wore a white shirt." The child's older sister saw the man fleeing from the yard after he had cut a screen and lifted Bobbie out through the open window. The older girl said all she could see in the darkness was a white shirt which the man wore.

M.; one brother, Merl Finley, Oklahoma City and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at the Assembly of God Church with J. M. Lemmon of Amarillo and J. E. Neely, pastor of the Pampa Assembly of God Church, officiating.

Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery under direction of Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral Home.

Palbearers will be Bob Watson, Ray Wilson, Robert E. Warren, Sherman Cowan, Otto Rice and Floyd Watson.

Lefors School Bids Delayed

It may be winter before a contract is let on the new Lefors school building. Contractors are pretty busy right now and, besides, building costs have gone up in the last month or so, one school official said late this morning, adding the school board has not yet advertised for bids.

The new building is to include a cafeteria, band and music room, woodshop, mechanical drawing room and gymnasium. J.W. Marsh Construction Company, Amarillo, however, is doing the remodeling on the Lefors elementary and high school buildings. Marsh, the same outfit that is putting up the Texas National Guard armory in Recreation Park, was awarded July 29 the $24,707.95 contract by the Lefors school board.

Completion date for the remodeling of both buildings is Sept. 30.

Bargain Nights Set At Pool

Bargain prices for night admission to the Municipal Swimming pool a hot first night attendance Thursday to the 75 mark according to J. R. Murray, manager. Murray said he was letting everyone in at night for half price because previous nightly attendance had dropped "to about 20 or so, and we were hardly paying the help."

"The pool will be open nightly at least until the end of the month, but this schedule may be altered. It all depends on the weather," Murray said. Tentative plans call for the pool to be open from 4 to 10 or 11 p.m. with the opening of school, weather permitting in this instance also.

"As yet we haven't set any date for closing this season," Murray concluded. Average attendance on a good day this summer has been around 200 with 300 on the week ends.

Mrs. McClellan Taken By Death

Mrs. Ethel Mae McClellan, 52-year-old former Pampa resident died early Friday at Worley Hospital Services are pending at the Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral Home.

Born in Chaffin, Ky., Mrs. McClellan made her home in Pampa for seven years, before moving to Wheeler three years ago.

Survivors are her husband, W. T. McClellan, of the home in Wheeler; three sons, Walter W. Simms, Pampa, Marlon R. Simms, Fort Worth, and Sgt. Clifton D. Simms, Fort Benning, Ga.

Officiating at the services will be Rev. Keith McCormick, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and Rev. W. F. Vanderburg. Burial will be in Ochiltree cemetery.

Burton was a resident of Perryton since 1935, and was in partnership with his brother-in-law, in the Watson Plumbing Company, Perryton. A deacon of the First Baptist Church, and a member of Rotary, he served with the army during World War II.

Survivors include his wife, Juanita, of the home; his mother, Mrs. Jim Burton, Grand View, Okla.; seven sisters and three brothers.

Rogers Promoting Federal Assistance For Dam Project

Rep. Walter Rogers, of Pampa, asked the Senate Interior Committee to draw up legislation facilitating the financing and construction of the Canadian River dam-and-reservoir project about the same time five investment firms were named co-advisors - to serve without pay - in determining the financial status of the 11 cities in the Canadian River Municipal Water Authority.

U.S. Aid Sought The congressional committee has been considering a House-passed small watershed bill which would provide a fund from which the Secretary of the Interior could make loans or grants up to $5 million to be used in construction of small projects. Rogers asked that bill be amended to authorize the interior secretary to make grants up to $10 million on privately-financed reclamation projects.

"I think," Rogers is reported as having told the committee, "this proposal is in line with President Eisenhower's philosophy that the federal government and state and local agencies should act as partners in these projects." The Pampa also said approval of his proposal - which would mean a federal grant of some $7 million toward construction of the dam - would make financing easier since it would remove some of the risk for bond purchasers.

Firms To Make Study The five investment firms were named the first of the week in Plainview by the authority's board of directors. They will conduct a survey of bonded indebtedness, property valuations and tax structure and potential industrial water use in each of the 11 member cities. "Purpose of the survey is to determine exactly what standing bonds issued by the cities would have," R. Q. Silverthorne, Plainview, a director, explained. Firms named were First Southwest Trust Corp. of Dallas; Blyth and Company, First Boston Corp., Eastman, Dillon and Company and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Beane, all of New York.

The proposed project will be located near Sanford, north and west of Borger.

Eight Rubber Plants Struck

CLEVELAND, Aug. 13 - UP - CIO United Rubber Workers walked off their jobs at eight plants of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. early Friday in a strike for higher wages and bargaining rights.

Some 25,000 employees joined the strike which started at midnight when company and union representatives failed to break an eight week deadlock over contract provisions.

The struck plants were at Akron, Ohio, Los Angeles, Des Moines, Newcastle and Noble, Ind., Pottstown, Pa., Falls River, Mass., and Memphis, Tenn.

Governor Aspirants In TV Appearances

By UNITED PRESS Gov. Allan Shivers and challenger Ralph Yarborough, with another two weeks to sway voters in their runoff campaign, went their separate ways Friday after converging on Dallas for statewide television appeals.

Shivers headed for Austin, and women's rally, while Yarborough went back to West Texas for another multi-appearance tour. He was scheduled to speak at Weatherford, Stephenville, Cisco, Sudan and Lubbock.

Shivers' television appearance Thursday night took the form of a panel discussion on education, with his five guests doing more talking than the governor. Yarborough appeared 90 minutes earlier with a moderator and five state senators, all of whom are backing him, and answered questions about his program.

The Shivers panel agreed there had been tremendous progress in education under his administration, and the U. S. Supreme Court's decision against public school segregation would hurt both white and Negro children.

The participants were State Sen. A. M. Aikin Jr., Paris; Dr. Edwin L. Rippey, president of the Dallas School Board; Ruel Walker, Cleburne, chairman of the Commission on Higher Education; W. T. Hanes, Cameron school superintendent, and Mrs. Leon Price, Dallas, president of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Shivers said Texas long had controlled its own schools, through local boards, and said he thought "local people are better equipped to deal with local school problems than is any group of men, 2,000 miles from the scene."

"And, as long as I am governor of Texas," he said, "I am going to see that our local schools are run by local people."

The panel praised Shivers for his leadership in getting the Legislature to pass and finance a $402 million program for school teachers at a special session last spring. The governor said he was particularly pleased because "we raised the necessary revenue without taking it out of the pocket of the working man, without taking it out of the budgets of the housewives."

Fire Destroys Shrimp Boat

FORT ISABEL, Tex., Aug. 13 - UP - Fire at sea destroyed the shrimp boat Three Friends Wednesday, but its master and two crewmen escaped injury.

The Coast Guard said some 26 vessels were fishing in the area about one and one-half miles north of Fort Isabel when there was an explosion in the Three Friends' fuel tank. They did not try to fight the fire from fear of a second blast.

Each of 12 councils in the region sent three men to the course. Those taking the course lived like Explorers, living in crew-rooking their own meals and the like.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. tomorrow for Mrs. George A. Latus who died yesterday.

Born in Handley, Tex., in 1903, she was married in Anadarko, Okla., in August 1919 and moved to Pampa from Binger, Okla., in December that year.

Scouters Back From Instruction

Three Boy Scout Santa Fe District officials have returned from Philmont Scout Ranch, near Cimarron, N.M., where the first wood-bagge course in the history of Region 9 Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma -- has been held for the last nine days.

Phil Pegues, district Scout executive, and John Ayres and Dick Hendricks, district Scout leaders, arrived back in Pampa Thursday from the course originated by Lord Baden-Powell when he realized he could not train personally each Scout leader.

Ayres and Hendricks were two of 26 Scout leaders picked from Region 9 by Arthur A. Schuck, chief Scout executive of the Boy Scouts of America, to take the course. Each of 12 councils in the region sent three men to the course.

Those taking the course lived like Explorers, living in crew-rooking their own meals and the like. It was the 13th such course ever to be held in the United States.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. tomorrow for Mrs. George A. Latus who died yesterday.

Born in Handley, Tex., in 1903, she was married in Anadarko, Okla., in August 1919 and moved to Pampa from Binger, Okla., in December that year.

Candidate Expense Lists Filed

Today was the first of two deadlines for candidates in the Aug. 28 Democratic runoff primary to file their campaign expense reports with County Clerk Charlie Thut and by late this morning all four of those to which it applies had done so.

Advertising was the main item of expenditure reported by candidates. Matches, printing and travel were the others. This is how the candidates have spent campaign money:

County Judge J. B. Maguire, Jr., $114.80, advertising; Bruce Parker, county judge aspirant, $21.48, advertising; County Commissioner (Pct. 2) W. E. (Bill) Jarvis, $34.30, matches; G. L. (Nat) Lunford, county commissioner aspirant, $15.10, advertising, $32.60, printing, $10, travel, and $12.40, miscellaneous.

Candidates must file their next expense report between Aug. 23 and Aug. 25.

Horseshoe Tournament Underway

The seventh annual Cities Service employe horseshoe pitching contest got underway today at the company plant, west of Pampa.

The tournament will pick a winner to represent this city in the Cities Service tournament at Bartlesville, Okla.

Last year's winner here, M. L. Cox, will not be eligible to compete until 1957. Rules of the tournament provide three years must elapse before a champion can return.

About 20 employes are competing in the tourney here according to Marvin Silyman, chairman of the men's fraternity organization at Cities Service.

Mark Burton Rites Saturday

PERRYTON (Special) - Services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday in the First Baptist Church here for Mark Burton, 44-year-old World War II veteran and owner of a plumbing supply company. He died Wednesday afternoon in Shamrock General Hospital, following a heart attack while on his way home from a business trip to Fort Worth.

Tax Hearing Crowd Drops

The county courtroom in the Courthouse was a little less crowded today than it was Thursday.

A total of 120 persons registered at the door Thursday for the first of four scheduled days of public hearings on local properties, those with inventories and those not on the oil and gas rolls being conducted by the Gray County Commissioners' Court, acting as the county board of equalization.

Relatively few new county residents had shown up by late this morning, it was reported. Hearings are slated to run through Tuesday, but it is possible they may be concluded Monday.

Jane Talk

By JANE KADINGO

Pampa News Women's Editor

Editor's note: While Women's Page Editor Jane Kadingo is on vacation, this column will be written by guest authors...

YOU KNOW, women are guilty many times of saying "Just a minute 'til I throw on some lipstick and I'll be ready..."

While talking to Mrs. Exey Beezley, Pampa cosmetician, I found out that she recommends taking time and care to use a lip brush.

Mrs. Beezley said they (cosmeticians) were required to use one in the cosmetics schools which they attend.

"Of course it's a little awkward for the beginner," she says, "but with a little practice, anyone can use a lip brush — and should."

It's especially good for women who have thin lips. They may relieve of fuller appearance if they brush the lips with the lip brush, then filling in with the lipstick.

Frequently, a woman will choose one lipstick shade and expect it to do everything for her. Sometimes it's a dark shade of red that gives the illusion of a hard lip line and a tired facial expression.

A clear, true red is an essential lipstick shade. This shade goes with every complexion, be it fair, medium or olive. This true red will look well with your basic wardrobe colors — beige, gray, black and navy.

Bright, vivid lipstick shades are offered by one firm that claims their lipstick provides rich, fade-proof color, at the same time keeping the lips soft and moist.

For greater color, allow the lipstick to set on your lips a few minutes. Then, blot your lips with tissues several times.

Here is a good way to make that lipstick go smoothly and last long. Another tip from Mrs. Beezley that I almost forgot: Apply a lipstick undercoat, wait five minutes and blot. Then apply the lipstick, wait five minutes and blot. Done this way, your lipstick will last practically all day!

In these summer months another problem connected with lipstick — not staying on comes when swimming.

If your lipstick has a tendency to smear or disappear while you're taking a swim, try this stay-on method of applying it.

Remove all old color first. Dry lips thoroughly. Apply lipstick and wait a full two minutes before blotting to give lipstick time to set.

Then blot and blot until no more color comes off. Dust on some face powder. Reapply lipstick... wait... blot... powder again.

Moisten lips slightly with your tongue — and you're ready for your swim.

Seven weeks additional effective service is being obtained from Army recruits. It used to take 39 weeks to examine, process, train, ship and return for discharge, each new soldier. Now, the time has been cut to 32 weeks.

Fashion-wise, when the shade of your lipstick complements those in your wardrobe, you can create a complete color harmony in your costume.

COMPLIMENTED WITH SHOWER

A shower, given last night at Grandview School, honored Miss Margaret Baggerman and Curtis Whatley who are to be married August 15 in a home wedding.

Left to right are Mrs. George Whatley, mother of the prospective bridegroom, Curtis Whatley, Miss Margaret Baggerman, and Mrs. John Baggerman, mother of the bride-to-be.

Shower hostesses were Meses Jim McCracken, Jim Babcock, Frank Babcock, Melvin Asberry, Willard McAdams, O. R. Major, and Wesley Woods.

Actress Sets Stage For Eye Beauty Routine That Enhances Shape, Color

EDITOR'S NOTE: In this exclusive story, written especially for NEA Service, Pier Angeli, the youthful Italian actress, tells women how she makes the most of her beautiful hazel eyes. Her beauty secrets can be used to make ordinary eyes appear lovelier.

The actress can currently be seen in "The Flame and the Flesh." Refreshing after tedious hours of studying scripts.

Since I feel I'm not the "ultra-glamorous" type, I use very little eye make-up. My eyes are hazel brown, so I use dark-brown mascara which I apply to the tips of my lashes only.

I also keep a small hand mirror on my dressing table and I use this mirror to practice different expressions that will make my eyes look more attractive and interesting.

A little time and effort in caring for them, and light eye make-up, keep my eyes in excellent condition for expressing my personality both on and off the screen.

I also keep a small hand mirror on my dressing table and I use this mirror to practice different expressions that will make my eyes look more attractive and interesting.

So, I realize that my eyes are important assets and I remain faithful to my eye-beauty routine every day. Even on my busiest days I find time to pamper them. I devote 15 minutes each day to exercising and resting my eyes.

The exercise I use is quite simple. I just open my eyes as wide as I possibly can, then I shut them for a few seconds. I do this from 10 to 20 times each day.

Next, I cover my eyes with cotton pads that have been soaked in witch hazel. Then, I relax in my favorite chair for about 10 minutes. I find this ritual especially refreshing after tedious hours of studying scripts.

Pearls Suit Every Type

By ALICIA HART NEA Beauty Editor

Just as the older woman looks for a smart, simple line in choosing her wardrobe, so should her jewelry reflect good taste, too.

Many times the right touch of jewelry creates the complete ensemble effect. And a smart bracelet and pair of earrings can add a personal note to a tailored black dress.

Some women do tend to go overboard in the jewelry department. That's why you see a woman wearing rhinestone earrings, a pearl necklace, and a gold bracelet together.

The older woman should avoid any kind of extreme jewelry. Italian hoop earrings, for instance, are not for her.

Heavy necklaces of gold, silver, copper or fake jewelry should be worn only by tall or large women. Delicate necklaces look well on the dainty, ultra-feminine type of woman.

Pins and clips are good when they have functional use, but they are correctly worn only when they look as though they belong to your costume.

Pearls are flattering to all skin types and all face shapes. Whether it's a pearl choker, earrings or bracelet you're wearing you can be sure pearls reflect good taste.

Fish Dinners Are Bay Town Heritage

By GAYNOR MADDOX NEA Food and Markets Editor

Fresh — caught Massachusetts swordfish with a garnish of spinach greens is No. 1 food choice of Richard Preston, State Commissioner of Commerce.

These are uniformly shaped pieces of fish dipped in batter, breaded and frozen. They look a little like French fried potatoes.

After broiled live lobster and old-fashioned strawberry short-cake, we drove back to town. The festa was in full swing and fireworks broke into rainbows over those who go down to the sea in ships.

I was born in Summerville near Tauton and wrote to the Registrar of Births by the way my date is earlier than Mrs. A. M.'s (1888) I gave them my mother's maiden name, my father's name, and my full name. I received my certified copy very soon and it cost me only $2.54 American money.

Skin Tones Cue Colors

By ALICIA HART NEA Beauty Editor

Many older women who readily admit that they have sallow skin wear shocking pink blouses or royal blue hats because they think wearing them will bring more color to their cheeks.

Actually, wearing bright colors close to the face tends to make a sallow complexion look more sallow by contrast.

If your complexion has a yellow hue, colors that will absorb the dullness from the skin are more flattering. Your best colors are off-bright navy blue.

When the sallow-skinned woman goes shopping for a dress, she usually chooses black as her color. Especially if she is heavy, she feels she can "hide" in black.

Black is an excellent foil for the older woman with soft white hair and very light skin tones. But, unless you have natural coloring, black is not for you.

Above all, don't hamper your color choice in clothes by wearing the wrong make-up. Avoid yellow in make-up as you do in clothes and accessories.

Choose your foundation and powder with a faint pink tint. Lipstick and rouge in a rose red are most flattering.

'Hole Seller' Aids Cancer Researchers

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 — UP — I know a man who sells holes to the government.

These are important holes. They are vital in cancer research, radar equipment, Air Force communications, and other projects so secret the government is hush about the holes it is buying.

Actually, George Jordan is more than just a seller of holes. He is a scientist who develops new uses for holes, and his job is so complicated that it took me quite a while to get his thinking through my head.

Holes in Filters
George, a quiet little man, works for the Selas Corp. of America, a firm of Philadelphia heat development engineers who can arrange holes in ceramic filters with incredible precision.

It seems that tiny holes in ceramic filters may help lick cancer. But I'd best let George carry on from here.

"The most fundamental cancer research now involves the creation and multiplication of 'pure' cancer cells of the various cancer strains. A great deal of this cancer work is being done at the National Cancer Institute, a bureau of Oveta Culp Hobby's Health Department at Bethesda, Md. From Bethesda, the institute ships these cancer cells to laboratories all over the world, where other scientists do research to find out what makes the cells grow, or why they don't."

The National Cancer Institute, Jordan told me, has learned that the best food to keep these cells alive is the broth from part of a nine-day-old chicken egg. This broth must reach the pure cancer cells absolutely uncontaminated by the types of bacteria inherent in the egg or in the air.

That's where the holes come in. Jordan's company has developed for the institute a ceramic filter with eight million holes per square inch. The holes are so tiny that the pure broth can seep through, but bacteria are filtered out.

Filters for Air Force
The Air Force heard about the cancer filters and decided it could also use some of Jordan's tiny holes. It is now getting ceramic filters which are used to insulate pilot's headphones against moisture and atmospheric pressure—things that make the headphones uncomfortable and also uncommunicative.

"These holes are so important to the government that some agencies are buying them and won't even tell me what they are doing with them," he said.

Condemned Man Eats Big Meals

OSBURNING, N. Y., Aug. 13 — UP — Gerhard A. Puff, scheduled to be executed in Sing Sing prison Thursday night for the slaying of an FBI agent, spent his final hours in lonely solitude Thursday but ordered two of the largest "last meals" in prison history.

Puff, whose last appeal was refused by President Eisenhower last Friday, was to be electrocuted in the prison's death house at 9 p.m. est.

When told he could have anything he wanted for his last two meals, Puff ordered:

Noon — shrimp cocktail, soup, steak, peas, carrots, cauliflower, lettuce salad, honey dew melon, rolls, strawberry ice cream, soda, candy and cigars. Evening — fried chicken, sweet potatoes, brussels sprouts, combination salad, strawberry shortcake, coffee and ice cream.

In the one year, two months, 23 days Puff has been in the death house, he has never had a relative call on him. His wife, Annie Lattie Moore Puff, is confined in a state correction department prison farm. His father, mother and brother, of White Fish Bay, Wis., have refused to visit him.

'Time Not Opportune To Hike Farmers' Tax,' Says Harnly

John Harnly, a Gray County farmer representing other farmers and ranchers in the county, had these additional remarks to make Thursday morning before the Gray County Commissioners' Court, meeting as the county board of equalization.

Speaking of the farm and ranch land evaluations which "we farmers have fought . . . for years," he pointed out that, "with new government controls going into effect the total number of acres that can be devoted to cash crops will be lowered on the farms."

Crops Have Been Poor
"With the new parity formulae and sliding scale supports, farm income will be reduced seriously next year and in coming years," he continued. "We have had five short-crop years in a row and in some parts of the county, seven. Cattle prices are down 50 per cent, pastures are burnt up and fewer cattle being run."

"Does this sound like the opportune time to increase farm and ranch taxes?" Harnly asked.

Harnly said farms should be considered as business operations. "Since tax valuation is supposed to be based on market values and the improvements do not add to the market value, then they should not be assessed."

The farmer charged that several projects, like the county airport and the county barn in Recreation Park, have cost the taxpayers of the county "the tax take on an estimated $8 million worth of taxable property per year and that proposed future expenditures along these lines will keep this valuation on the tax rolls."

Points To Airport
In 1952 and 1953, Harnly went on, a total of $153,467 was spent on the airport — "a project rejected two different times by us taxpayers — which represents the income from 7,500,000 worth of taxable valuation these two years."

The U. S. Government gave the county the airport in 1947 with a stipulation the county keep it up, he recalled. "Until the city lost its airport at the east side of town no money was spent on upkeep of runways at the county airport," he said. "Does it not seem sort of ridiculous then that the county had to start spending vast sums on maintenance of an airport that they had owned for years but had ignored?"

Taking up the county barn, Harnly said the taxpayers of the county "said 'no' to the construction of a show barn. Yet you (county commissioners' court) and you alone authorized expenditures there that amounted to the total tax take this year of $2,500,000 worth of taxable property."

From "these facts and figures," Harnly said, it is evident the county valuations can easily be cut by $8-10 million per year. He said he thought, if the county would cut valuations on oil and gas properties and cattle and would lower real and business property, the county could "still operate in an efficient manner at an assessed valuation of $35 million instead of $42 million."

Fort Worth, Dallas 'Merge'

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 13 — UP — Age-old rivalry between the Texas cities of Fort Worth and Dallas is being merged when two Fort Worth businessmen were almost led into the Hotel Statler's Dallas Room.

"We ain't about to go in here, suh," Fort Worth multi-millionaire Ralph H. Cummins said to James H. McCabe, Statler vice-president in charge of western operations.

"Put us in the Fort Worth Room," Texan A. T. Jergins demanded.

When McCabe disclosed there was no Fort Worth Room, Cummins pulled out a large Texas horse pistol he happened to have along and playfully began twirling it in his fingers.

McCabe knew Cummins was joking. "But wasn't going to take any chances. Soon thereafter a new sign hung over the dining room door, reading, "Fort Worth Room."

Stuck Ship Freed From Sand Bar

PORT ISABEL, Tex., Aug. 13 — UP — A 900-foot Mexican steamship that was stuck on a sandbar 35 miles south of the mouth of the Rio Grande for more than 60 hours was pulled free Thursday by two tugboats.

The ship, the S.S. Veracruz, proceeded into Port Isabel under its own power shortly after dawn. Coast Guard spokesmen said the ship apparently was not damaged.

If the ship passes the inspection, some 800 webbacks will be loaded for deportation. The Veracruz would be the first ocean-going ship ever used to deport illegal aliens from Texas to Mexico.

A tugboat pulled unsuccessfully at the Veracruz throughout Tuesday and Wednesday. Thursday night a second tug joined in the effort and dislodged the vessel.

Widow Spots Errant Swain

WAVERLY, Iowa, Aug. 13 — UP — A 58-year-old widow identified Ralph Allen, Aurora, Ill., as the man who fleeced her out of $4,000 after they met through a Denver correspondence club.

Hoppers Invade Central America

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 13 — UP — Herds of grasshoppers attacked vegetation in Mexico's Veracruz state and five Central American countries.

Representatives of Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras and Nicaragua said grasshoppers were moving toward Mexico after denuding fields in Central America.

An international committee coordinating the campaign against the insects said more than $500,000 (U.S.) was needed to fight the grasshoppers.

Sheriff H. E. Ehlert said Mrs. Grace M. Ennis identified Allen Thursday from photographs sent by Aurora police.

Mrs. Ennis said she took $5,400 to Kennett, Mo., expecting to marry a man identified as "Robert Schrock" and establish a home there. The man took $4,000 from the glove compartment of her car and disappeared.

A charge of grand larceny has been placed against Allen at Kennett, although no trace has been found of him since he was last seen by Mrs. Ennis.

A Drier Rescue
BRIDGEPORT, Conn., — UP — A sand barge sank in Bridgeport harbor and it was feared the skipper, Frank Meade, had gone down with his ship. As the harbor bottom was about to be searched, Meade arrived and explained he had spent the night on shore.

Race Driver Dies In Traffic

PASADENA, Tex., Aug. 13 — UP — Wiley Corder, 43, Kemah, who never had an accident in three years of professional auto racing, was killed Thursday when he ran a stop sign.

Deputy Sheriff Pete Cashola said Corder "ran a stop sign without making any attempt to stop" and smashed into a car driven by Jesse M. Van Winkle, 26, a Shell refinery worker.

Van Winkle was thrown out of his car but was unhurt. The car was spun around, hurtled into a roadside ditch, and turned over. Corder suffered a punctured lung and a deep leg cut. He died while being X-rayed at New Pasadena hospital.

Officers said Corder had been a professional auto racer but had retired due to poor health.

He is a past president of the Texas Convention of Christian Churches and has done graduate work in Yale University, New Haven, Conn. He is the son of Mrs. Henry M. Hassell, 930 S. Hobart.

Hitchhikers Steal Man's Car, $73

MOORE, Okla., Aug. 13—UP—A Fort Worth man told the Oklahoma Highway Patrol Friday two men had robbed him of $73 and his pickup truck at knife-point after he gave them a lift.

The Texan, Joe C. Brancheers of Carwell Air Force Base, said he picked up the pair as hitchhikers at Gainesville, Tex. He said they pulled knives on him and forced him to drive to a point three miles south of Moore on U.S. 77.

About 3:30 a. m., he said, they ordered him out of the truck and drove away with his money, driving north.

Moore is nine miles south of Oklahoma City.

Underpass Survey Due In Few Days

Survey of the ground site for the proposed $430,000 Hobart Street underpass will probably begin within the next week or 10 days, W. D. McKendree, senior party chief of the Texas Highway Department said Thursday.

"Several jobs over the Canadian River may possibly slow down the process of making the survey," McKendree said.

As regards actual construction, no definite date has been set. It is proposed for construction to begin during the year 1954-1955, but McKendree said many problems such as gaining the right of way, and agreement with the Santa Fe Railroad must be cleared up before any thought can be given to breaking ground for the project.

Crewmen Die In Train Wreck

INTEPEC, Mex., Aug. 13—UP—Two passenger trains collided head-on near Inteppec Wednesday, and three train crew members were killed.

At least 10 passengers were injured seriously, and brought to a hospital in this small southeastern Mexico town. Rail traffic was interrupted for several hours, until the wreckage could be cleared.

World Community Day, with objectives in prayer and in gifts for the world's needy, will be observed on Friday, November 5, by more than 100,000,000 church women in interdenominational gatherings across the U.S.A. and in many overseas nations.

Miss Carol Brice, Indianapolis, a well-known Negro contralto, will be soloist with the Northwestern University Alumni Chorus and the Chicago Symphony Orchestra at one of the special features of the Assembly of the World Council of Churches, August 19.

That evening, in Ravinia Park, Chicago, this group will give a commission of sacred music. Miss Brice is the daughter of a Congregational minister, and was formerly a soloist in St. George's Episcopal Church, New York City. In 1943 Miss Brice was the first Negro recipient of the Naumburg Foundation award, and last year she was named the outstanding Negro woman musician by the National Council of Negro Women whose membership numbers 800,000.

Women In The Church

Leaders of the World Council of Churches report that more than 125 women leaders of their churches in half a hundred countries, will be in attendance at the Council's assembly, August 17 to 25, in Evanston, Ill. This is believed to be a larger proportion of women than have attended any previous general Christian world gathering.

Other thousands of women will attend the assembly as accredited visitors from their churches and church agencies; most of these will be from the United States. The Evanston Committee has arranged that all women present will meet the women delegates at a series of functions on Sunday, Aug. 22. Among the women leaders are: Dr. Kathleen Bliss, of London, Eng., a governor of William Temple College, an executive of the British Council of Churches; Mile. Madeleine Barot, of Switzerland, secretary of the Council's commission on the life and work of women in the church; Dr. Georgia Harkness, America's most noted woman theologian, and author of the official hymn written for the Assembly; Mrs. Rena Karefa-Smart, American-born leader of youth in the churches of the African Gold Coast.

Safety Film Shown Lions

"A Closed Door," a film on the formation of a safety commission, was shown Thursday noon to the Pampa Lions Club.

Aubrey Jones, vice-chairman of the Pampa Citizens Safety Commission, told Lions it was a program that "everyone must participate in."

Chuck Tooker, of Cabot's safety department, then ran the 25-minute film which is being shown to various civic and service organizations in Pampa.

The club has three members on the Pampa commission, Ed Cleveland, program chairman for the month, pointed out. They are C. C. Henry, Ernest Winborne and B. R. Nuckolls.

One of the three guests on hand for the luncheon was Miss Ann Perkins, a club sweetheart in November, 1951, and the South Plains Maid of Cotton who competed this year in Memphis, Tenn., in a beauty contest. Henry Gruben, a new member, also was present.

World Community Day, with objectives in prayer and in gifts for the world's needy, will be observed on Friday, November 5, by more than 100,000,000 church women in interdenominational gatherings across the U.S.A. and in many overseas nations.

Miss Carol Brice, Indianapolis, a well-known Negro contralto, will be soloist with the Northwestern University Alumni Chorus and the Chicago Symphony Orchestra at one of the special features of the Assembly of the World Council of Churches, August 19.

Women In The Church

Leaders of the World Council of Churches report that more than 125 women leaders of their churches in half a hundred countries, will be in attendance at the Council's assembly, August 17 to 25, in Evanston, Ill. This is believed to be a larger proportion of women than have attended any previous general Christian world gathering.

Ordinary Watch Isn't Recognizable Any More

By H. D. QUIGG
United Press Staff Correspondent

Time keeps going by in the same old way, but each year the jeweler thinks up new ways of watching it go.

This year there are watches with no hands and no faces, watches built for frogmen, watches with built-in roulette wheels, and watches that come wrapped in water jugs to prove they're proof.

On display at the 49th annual convention of the American National Retail Jewelers Association in New York, there's a model of a wristwatch so different that it isn't even a watch. It's a wrist radio.

This tiny thing is powered by one transistor. That is, it would be if a working model ever actually were built. The probability is that this "talking" watch won't be built because to make it workable you'd need a network of FM radio stations, doing nothing but broadcasting voice time signals.

The idea is that you'd raise it to your ear whenever you wanted the time. They say it would work. Instead of ticking it would yapper.

The same company has projected models of faceless, handless wristwatches in which the hour and minute numbers appear in narrow slots. In one model they flip up like the numbers on a speedometer mileage indicator. In another they're on rotating disks and you get the hours and minutes as they turn into two tiny windows.

The watchmakers of Switzerland have in production, among the new things in their exhibit, the world's smallest watch. It's a lady's wristwatch. Its face and movement are the size of a match head. Surprisingly enough, you can tell time by it with the naked eye, if you're not blinded by the price tag ($1,395).

The Swiss also are making a blackface watch with white numerals designed for the Navy's frogmen and others who work in water. They say it's available only to the military. It's waterproof and built to withstand the shock of a depth charge.

But the real stroke of genius in the watch world this year is one company's method of merchandising its waterproof wristwatches. Each is packaged in a transparent sealed plastic bag filled with water, and remains there, immersed but visible, until sold.

A clerk was asked if there's anything you have to do to it when you take it out of its package. "Dry it off," he said.

POPPED WHEAT—Perched at a slight angle on its own stem, this grain elevator at Syracuse, Kan., remains standing after an explosion shattered the bottom of all its bins and dumped out a big pile of wheat. No one was hurt, although workmen were nearby. The eight-cylinder, 1200-horsepower structure, owned by the Jackson Grain Co., of Syracuse, was almost flat. It belched a dust explosion blow-out the basement.

'Angel' Ends Tour Of U. S.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13—UP—Mile. Genevieve de Galard-Therza, the angel of Dien Bien Phu, completed her cross-country tour of the United States Thursday and departed by Defense Department plane for New York.

She finished her tour with a three-day stop at San Francisco, where she visited military and civilian hospitals. Her plane will stop briefly at Dallas, Tex., en route to New York. From New York she will return to France.

McCain Denies Owing Back Taxes

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13—UP—The Washington Star said in a copyrighted story Thursday that Internal Revenue agents have decided Sen. Joseph R. McCain (R-Wis.) owes about $25,000 in back taxes and interest.

McCain told reporters the story was "a complete and vicious libel" containing "no truth whatsoever."

He said he had a dispute with Internal Revenue "under the Democrat administration" concerning whether interests should be reported on the year it was paid or the year it was due and that was "the only error" in his tax returns.

The Star story said the claim is based on the tax years, 1946-52, and concerns at least in part some of the contributions which friends

EGGING THEM ON

ALHAMBRA, Calif., Aug. 13—UP—When police stopped four youngsters from throwing rocks at the windows of an abandoned building, the boys said two men inside told them it was all right.

Police went inside and found Frank J. Marshall, 27, and Ward D. Bettis, 25, removing electrical wiring. The two men were booked on suspicion of robbery.

Happy Birthday

This week, the Shamrock Oil and Gas Corporation is celebrating its twenty-fifth anniversary. Since Shamrock is a native of the Panhandle, it is particularly important that they be given recognition so truly deserved, for their is a story typical of successful free enterprise — right in our own back yard. From a humble beginning, Shamrock has grown into one of the most successful and aggressive oil companies in the business and from the looks of the reports of the stock brokerage houses, a tremendous future is in store for this organization in the days ahead.

Now serving eight states with retail outlets, Shamrock has made a particularly significant mark in the field of natural gas production. Pampa's closeness with Shamrock has been emphasized the last few years with the advent of extensive drilling and development in the Quinduna Field. This activity, of course, has been an integral part of the economy of our city.

So it is with congratulations on the past record and confidence in the future that the folks at the Top-O' Texas wish Harold Dunn, Shamrock's president, and his thousands of associates a happy silver anniversary.

Never So Good

Aladdin never had it so good. He could have had anything he wanted at a rub of the lamp. But Aladdin couldn't imagine some of the miracles which may be realities by 1976.

Here, for example, is an estimate of tomorrow's magic by the National Association of Manufacturers. The NAM says that if there is error, it is probably on the side of under-estimation.

By 1976... Junior will have a Dick Tracy two-way wrist radio! Television will be in true-color and three-dimension! Push-button materials-handling virtually will eliminate hard toil! More and more manufacturing processes will be automatic from raw materials to finished, packaged products!

You will be able to dial any telephone in the United States — maybe any telephone in the Western Hemisphere! Lathes and stamping equipment will operate from instructions recorded on magnetic tapes!

Mrs. America, 1976, will have an electronic kitchen with radar and soundwaves heating pre-packaged meals! Moving sidewalks and station platforms will take the "umph" out of walking just as escalators now take the strain out of stair climbing! Hot city streets will be air-conditioned!

Don't discount trips to the Moon! Penetration of the so-called "thermal barrier" will release unimaginable development for aviation. Inter-urban railways may yield to the overhead monorail carrying jet propelled streamlined cars. Trans-oceanic freight-jetting rockets will zoom back and forth on regular schedules across the oceans.

Arthritis, cancer, heart disease and a host of other present-day killers will be greatly reduced — if not entirely routed.

Large structures — such as bridges, ships and buildings — will receive lasting protection against sea water, weather, smoke and chemicals from a flame-spray which will shoot porcelain materials on to surface.

The list is virtually endless — and it is not whimsical, says the NAM; it is well within the realm of reality... by 1976.

Men Used To Get Music While Waiting For Barber

In connection with the recent news that barbers plan to up the price of a haircut to $2, let me quote from the Encyclopaedia Britannica:

"In 1945 barbers and surgeons were separated into distinct corporations by George II. The barber's shop was a favorite resort of idle persons; and in addition to its attraction as a focus of news, a life, viol, or some such musical instrument was always kept for the entertainment of waiting customers."

Music, mind you, when a haircut couldn't have cost more than sixpence. Does your barber have a lute or viol handy to keep you amused while you wait your turn? Mine doesn't, but even a musical saw or a harmonica. When the price goes up to two bucks I am going to demand not only music, but a floor show. For that sort of money, barber shops should give you the Las-Vegas-treatment. A haircut and Durants. A haircut and shampoo and Marlene Dietrich. A manicure and Red Skelton. I believe barbers will do this, and I visualize the day when "Variety" will cover Ed's Barber-shop just as it does the Mocambo and the Copacabana, and you'll hear talented scoundrels raving about the new comic and the adagio team that has just opened in the Union Station shop.

College boys will take their dates along with them when they get a trim, and husbands will treat their wives on birthdays to an afternoon in the Hotel Stalter shop. And you'll read things like this:

"Darryl Zanuck was getting a haircut the other day when he spotted Daws Sunline in the chorus at Nick's Five-Chair Barber-shop on Sunset Boulevard and signed her to a five-year contract."

Two dollars is still a lot of money for a haircut, even with a floor show. A lot of us aren't going to be able to get one except on Christmas and for really important occasions.

This is certainly true in my own case, so when I read about the planned increase, I started looking about for a new style hair-do — one that would require little or no attention.

Again the Britannica was helpful.

In Volume 8 (EDWA to Ect) there are two pages of pictures of distinguished British men of letters and poets. Being as I am in the writing game, I decided to adopt a coiffure similar to that worn by one of these gentlemen.

It was pretty hard to choose among the various hair-dos. Sir Walter Scott certainly did all right by himself; one look at his picture and you know that he spent a minimum on haircuts. His head is as shaggy as a prize-winning sheep dog. It's hard to figure out how Sir Walter could have seen the paper when he was writing "Ivanhoe." He must have had to wear a postied sign to keep hunters from trampling through his locks looking for big game.

John Dryden must have starved barbers to death. He has enough hair on his head to stuff a mattress, and gives the appearance of having combed it with an electric fan, or the 19th century equivalent of an electric fan.

After a careful study of all the pictures I decided upon the hair-do of Algernon Charles Swinburne. He never so much as looked upon a comb or brush or a pair of scissors. His head looks like a weeping willow tree in full growth, and in addition he let his mustaches and chin whiskers run wild and free.

Knowing Your Natural Rights Helps Everyone

I wrote a couple of articles trying to prove that there are such things as natural rights. This led me to the conclusion that there are few things more important than each person knowing what his natural rights are.

The reason that this is important, it seems to me, self-evident. It is this: If one does not know what his own natural rights are and does not believe there are any such things as natural rights, then it would be impossible for him to know the natural rights of other people. If he did not know the natural rights of other people, he could not respect them. One cannot respect what he does not understand.

So the most important thing in getting people to respect the inalienable natural rights of other people is to first get them to know what are their own natural rights. And most every Christian and Jew would conclude that everyone should have equal natural rights — only a dictator or a tyrant would believe that he had natural rights that other people did not have.

Some Of These Natural Rights The Declaration of Independence set forth that all men are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights — among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. These are undoubtedly natural or inalienable rights.

I used to be troubled about the inalienable right of life. I did not then see that if a man didn't live he didn't have life. As long as a man lives he cannot be separated from his life.

Owner Of Self These rights might be amplified or clarified by saying that each individual is owner of himself and all that he produces. That means that each man has the right of independence — that he is a unit in himself — that he is a creator of human energy — that he has a conscience or a will that he must use if he would develop. He must have the right to develop or not to develop as he sees fit. And, of course, if he has independence then other people must also have independence. And it is beyond comprehension to pretend that if all people have independence that any man has the right to interfere with another's independence. That does not mean, of course, that he does not have a right to use force to stop or check another's attempt to interfere with any individual's independence or liberty or freedom. And liberty or freedom simply mean the absence of aggression.

Few People Really Believe in Natural Rights

Now the question is why so few people believe in natural rights or the independence of an individual. Undoubtedly there is not as large a percentage of people now in the United States who believe in independence or the natural rights of the individual as did when the Declaration of Independence was written. It was the general philosophy at that time that each and every individual should have independence. It was much more from a desire to be independent from the Mother Country, England.

Now, it seems to me, that the reason so very few people really believe in natural rights is that they have for years come in contact with people who do not believe in natural rights. It is beyond my comprehension how any tax-supported school teacher can believe in natural rights. He certainly does not believe that each man is owner of himself and all he produces, because he is willing to have force used to get the money to pay his salary. Many people would much prefer to use the money they are compelled to pay for the tax-supported teachers' salaries in other ways. Many people believe that tax-supported schools are a complete denial of natural rights and independence.

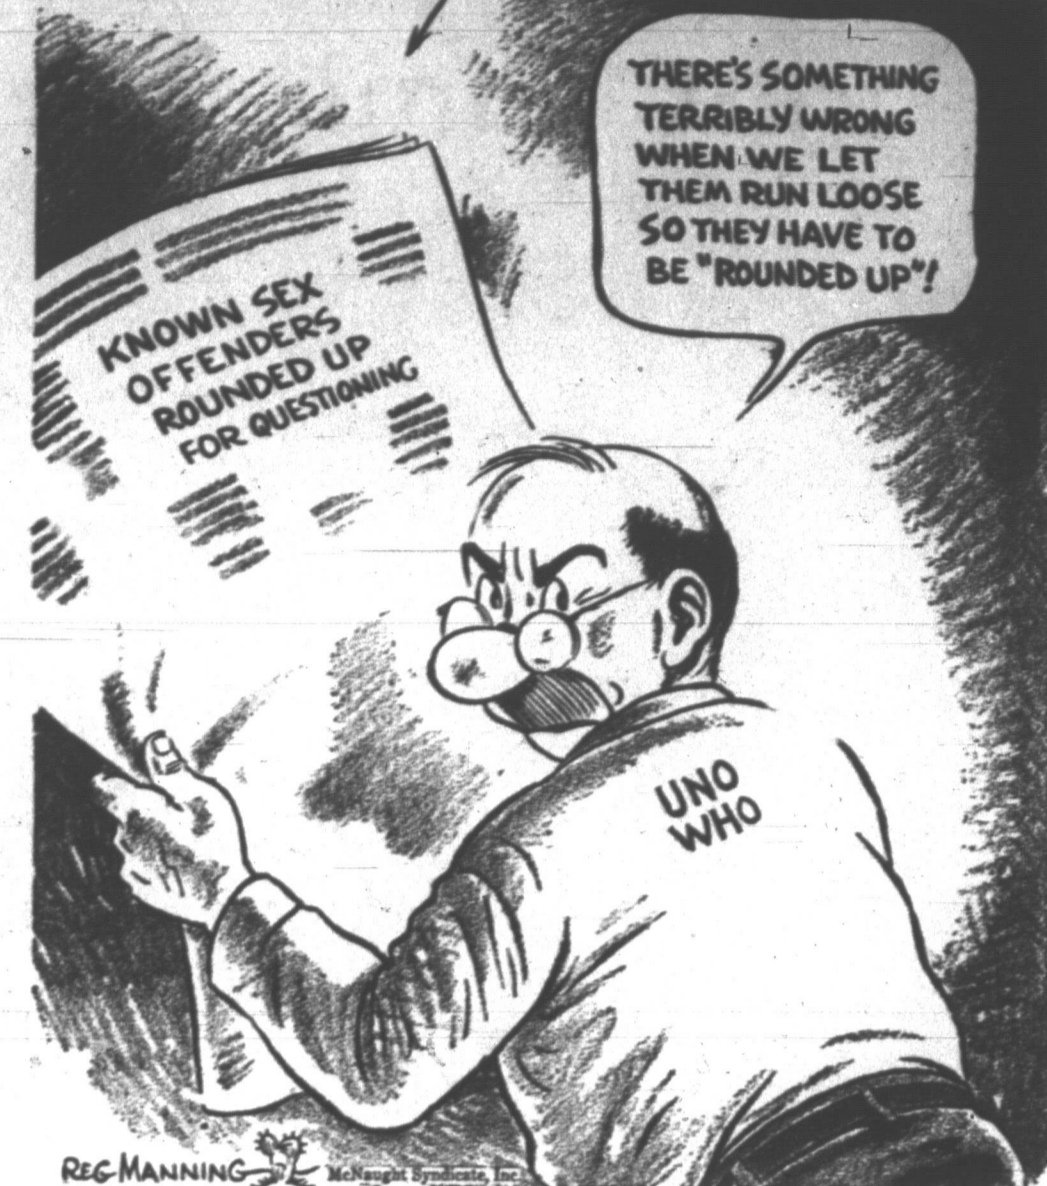

The belief in independence was revolutionary as far as government is concerned. Of course, the Sermon on the Mount and the Golden Rule were revolutionary. They were an attempt to increase the independence of every human being. But tax-supported schools are a complete denial of this revolutionary idea. They are based on the belief that the state is supreme — that the individual gets his sovereignty and independence and natural rights from the state rather than from Nature or from God.

And entirely too many of the preachers in Protestant churches who advocate tax-supported schools are helping create the belief that there are no natural rights received from God. Even those Protestant and Catholic churches that have their own private schools, but contend that because they are willing to pay for public schools that everyone else should be forced to pay, are helping to create the belief that there are no natural God-given rights. But, of course, these people are just the product of their not knowing whom to believe. They are creatures, more or less, of environment rather than of using their own God-given right to reason. But we are paying a terrible price for trusting the education of our children to teachers and preachers and educators and publishers and radio commentators and politicians who do not believe in natural rights if we are to judge them by their acts rather than by their words.

Yes, there is nothing more important than that each individual comes to know his own natural rights and regard them as sacred for himself and to know that each and every other person in this world has equal natural rights. When an individual knows that he has natural rights of his own then he can respect the natural rights of others. But if he doesn't believe that he himself has natural rights, he of course cannot believe that others have natural rights and thus will not respect the natural rights of others.

THE NATION'S PRESS

THE FARM AID FARE IS WEARING THIN

(Chicago Daily Tribune)

The nation's wheat growers voted Friday to accept crop controls in exchange for government price support of their grain. This was expected. What was not expected was that more than a quarter of the farmers who took part in the referendum took a shot at Santa Claus.

Under the law, two thirds of the farmers had to approve the marketing quotas proclaimed by the secretary of agriculture for them to take effect. Until late Friday night, when North Dakota's overwhelming vote in favor of controls came in, the balloting throught the nation hung just around the two thirds mark. The final figure was 73.3 per cent in favor of them.

Last year 87.2 per cent of the votes were favorable, and Illinois was the only state that failed to produce a two third majority. This year, in the 30 states in which 500 or more wheat growers voted, Illinois and five other states voted against controls and five more states, including Nebraska, the third largest producer, failed to give a two thirds majority for them.

The number of farmers participating in the referendum declined sharply. With returns nearly complete, 267,104 ballots were tallied, as against 414,644 last year. Some 900,000 farmers raise enough wheat to qualify them to vote.

Wheat farmers are still willing to have the government support them out of the treasury. It becomes more apparent, however, that what the New Deal established, ostensibly as a means of assuring fair farm prices, is only a method of buying farm votes. Largely because of administration of the farm aid law by Truman's Secy. Brannan, the wheat surplus has become completely unmanageable. We had a full year's supply of wheat from previous years' harvest when this year's reaping began. If wheat acreage for 1955 were restricted to the point where the surplus might be wiped out, only 19 million acres could be planted. Planting cannot be cut below 55 million acres, however; so the surplus is going to be with us for some years to come.

Agriculture Secy. Benson is doing his best to limit production under the law he has to administer. He has established the quotas and now that they are approved, farm-

THE DOCTOR SAYS

By EDWIN J. JORDAN, M. D.

"Can I do anything about having my nose straightened? It was knocked out of shape in a basketball game."

"I have an ugly scar on my cheek from an automobile accident. Can this be fixed by an operation?"

"Our baby boy was born with a small and strange looking left ear. Is it possible to correct this by surgery?"

THERE ARE AN ENORMOUS number of things which can happen to the human body, usually at the surface, which interfere with some function or with the appearance. There are burns and deforming accidents in peace as well as in war.

And there are some who are born with deformations which make for self-consciousness, if nothing more. Many of these things, both inborn and acquired, can be corrected wholly or partially by plastic surgery.

This is a field which has advanced particularly during each of the world wars. The reason is obvious, but our surgeons have risen to the challenge, and as a result remarkable reconstructive operations can be done today. Many people have been given practically new ears or noses, for example.

THIS IS NO simple job, however, because it usually involves taking cartilage from a rib and transplanting it (after reshaping it to the desired form) to the proper place.

Then it has to grow a blood supply to keep it alive, and after a time one or more additional operations have to be undertaken to cover the area with skin.

It is an amazing thing, this plastic surgery. When the problem is complicated, as is often the case, enormous patience is called for on the part of patient and surgeon alike.

SOMETIMES A whole series of operations — some of them small ones — over many months or even years have to be carried out before the job is completed as far as is possible.

Material Wealth Of U. S. Estimated At $2.5 Trillion

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON — The people of the United States and all their material holdings, ranging from the greatest corporation — Standard Oil of New Jersey — to their kitchen iceboxes, are worth approximately $2.5 trillion at present levels of value.

That is the estimate of Raymond W. Goldsmith, eminent economist, who is the only man ever brave enough to try to figure out our national balance sheet. He submitted it to a conference of the International Association of Research in Income and Wealth at Castelgoffredo, Italy, last September. He obtained his data from governmental and private sources — banks, insurance companies, corporations, etc.

Mr. Goldsmith estimates tangible assets at $579.2 billion as of 1949, and intangible assets at $1,136,200,000, for a total of $2,016,000,000,000. Government economist believe the increase in value since the pre-Korean War year of 1949 has raised that total to the $2.5 trillion mark.

Tangible assets consist of the following, and all these figures represent millions: Residential structures, $209.7; nonresidential structures, $198.7; residential land, $38.7; nonresidential land, $121.3; producer durables, $104.2; consumer durables, $9.3; inventories, $67.9; livestock, $13.2; monetary metals, $26.9. He does not include subsoil assets in his total.

Intangible assets, including currency, bank deposits, life insurance reserves, mortgages, Federal and corporate securities, total $1,136,200,000,000.

Obviously, this $2.5 trillion country is not free and clear of debt. Mr. Goldsmith estimates liabilities at $874 billion as of 1949, and it is probably more than a trillion now. But, as the Rooseveltians used to say of the terrific public debt, "We all owe it to each other."

The nation's material progress showed its most remarkable gains in the area of the industrial revolution after the Civil War and since the outbreak of World War II. In 1880, national assets totalled only $60 billion, but they had mounted to $159 billion by 1900. They had climbed to $982 billion in 1929, but the "crash" lowered them to $733 billion in 1933.

In 1939, when World War II began, they were $877 billion. In 1945, they had risen to $1,558 billion. They passed the $2 trillion mark in 1949 — $2,016,000,000,000 and are now about $500 billion above that figure.

The fifty-odd million of households are the most important components of the national balance sheet," says Goldsmith. "They own nearly one-half of the national assets, and their share in national net worth exceeds three-fourths, reflecting their relatively low indebtedness ratio."

"Business accounts for almost as large a share of national assets — approximately two-fifths — but far less than one-third of national net worth."

"Government is a poor third. It owns approximately one-tenth of total national assets, if military

Success Secrets

By ELMER WHEELER

You don't have to be original. Just imitate the people who have been successful.

That was the precept that Samuel Oberman, wholesaler and observer of Springfield, Illinois, observed when he went into business for himself 25 years ago.

"I figured that if a product was good enough for large firms to sell in the big cities, it would be good enough for the small towns of southern Illinois. So I went in to the biggest 'five-and-ten' store in Chicago. I bought an item from every bin that was almost empty. Then I took the company address from the card, and sent for the merchandise. It always sold."

You don't always have to get off the "beaten path" to make a success. Just follow the footsteps of those who pioneered the way, and did it well!

DALLAS - The life these All-Star football and basketball players led here during the coaching school isn't altogether rosy but the kids do enjoy themselves immensely.

With two workouts per day and with the necessary rest that is needed to keep up with the pace, it doesn't leave much leisure time for the boys.

And it's pretty difficult for these boys to get in a decent rest due to the extreme heat. The All-Stars are staying in the dormitories on the SMU campus and, of course, the dorms are not air-conditioned.

But, through it all, these All-Stars enjoy the association with one another. Many of 'em played against each other during their high school days and will be playing against each other some more in college.

We dropped in on Ed Dudley Thursday in his dormitory room and found him in a little horse play with Odessa's Carl Schlemmer and Brownwood's Ray Master, both of whom are headed for SMU. Ed was ribbing the two future Ponies on the lack of facilities at SMU, but it was all in fun.

Ed told us that he was going to be ready to go for Saturday's game. He worked out in both drills Thursday.

Bobby Dodd, of Georgia Tech, North all-star coach, told a room full of sports scribes today that from all reports that Dudley, Sugar Land's Kenneth Hall and Masters were the top schoolboy gridsters of the 1953 season.

"Since we haven't engaged in any scrimmage sessions, I can't tell you how good the boys are," Dodd said. "I just have to go by what the hundreds of coaches here say about last year's players and most of 'em rate the three boys mentioned above as the most outstanding of the 1953 season," Dodd said.

DODD WILL RUN the North squad through a "knocking-head" session Friday for the first time. The practice sessions Friday will be the last before the big game Saturday night in the Cotton Bowl.

It's sort of a late day to be engaging in their first scrimmage session but the heat is the main reason the all-star coaches have passed up any scrimmaging.

Dodd said he expects a defensive game Saturday night with one team winning by two touchdowns to one. He declined to name which team will get the two.

"As is always the case in an all-star game, the defense is always ahead of the offense," Dodd said. "There just isn't enough time to get the offense ready for a game since learning plays is a slow process," Dodd added.

DUDLEY MOORE of Duquesne, coach of the North all-star basketball team, was asked in a press room interview Wednesday what he would take back to Duquesne with him if he had his choice, to which Moore quipped: "Jimmy Bond."

Moore said he would rather have a boy Bond's height (6-5) who could do everything than to have a boy much taller than that who wasn't the all-around variety.

You can imagine how proud we feel of Pampa's two fine athletes down here, Dudley and Bond.

Virtually every story going out from the various sports scribes have a lot to say about Bond and Dudley along with the other many fine athletes.

And I guess Texas A&M is even prouder than us over the two Pampa stars because both boys are Aggie Land boys.

We still haven't found a coach here who thinks his team will win a game this season. Never saw so much "crying" since taking up this sports writing game.

EVEN ODESSA and Amarillo coaches are moaning about prospects for the coming year. Met Bill DeFee of Amarillo on the elevator here at the Baker Hotel today and he looked like he had

Six Games Set Tonight In Softball

By PAUL (Rabbit) RAMIREZ Two games in the Junior Boys division and one each in Senior Boys and Junior Girls were played last night in the Kiwanis Softball league.

In the senior division, First Baptist was outbatted but they defeated Central Baptist 10 to 7 on the strength of a seven run rally in the third inning.

In the Junior Boys play, Progressive Baptist beat Central Baptist 6 to 4. In the same division, First Methodist outlasted Calvary Baptist 14 to 11.

First Christian's Junior Girls scored in every inning last night to take a 17 to 11 triumph over First Methodist.

Tonight, six games are on tap. At 8, Central Baptist and First Methodist meet in a senior boys match. Central Baptist and Holy Souls play at 7 p.m. in a Junior Boys game followed by Calvary Baptist and Trinity Baptist and St. Paul Methodist vs. First Christian at 8:30 in the same division.

In Junior Girls play, Central Baptist and First Christian play at 7 and Calvary Baptist and First Baptist meet at 8:30.

Gold Sox Nip Oilers In Tight Game, 3-2

Thanks to the Abilene Blue Sox, the Pampa Oilers were still in first place in the West Texas-New Mexico League today, but their winning streak was snapped at nine games.

Eddie Locke and his Amarillo mates teamed up to nip the Oilers last night in Amarillo 3 to 2 in a tightly pitched contest that saw Locke climax an eighth inning Gold Sox rally with a Texas League single to left scorer Julio De la Torre with the winning tally.

Both Locke and Pampa's Jonas Gaines were masters on the mound last night. Gaines had the Gold Sox firmly in his grip until the sixth inning when he was called on a balk and apparently got rattled. Nim Free had singled, and went to second on the balk. He scored on de la Torre's double to tie the game at 1-1.

In all, Gaines was nipped for nine hits. Locke gave up five. Each was nicked for a home run. Frosty Kennedy hit his in the eighth to tie the game at 2-2 after Pampa had gone ahead in the top of the eighth on Dick Hairston's four-bagger. For Locke, it was the 21st victory of the season, and Kennedy hit his 31st home run.

Other league action last night was summed up thusly by United Press: Second-place Clovis also got beat looking to the Abilene Blue Sox 13 to 5. Albuquerque handed Plainview its 11th straight setback 8 to 6 as Dukes' pitcher Bud Bauhofer collected his 15th win of the year. Clovis Manager Grover Setz protested the Abilene victory, charging that Abilene's Jim Matthews was returned to the active list before his 10-day inactive status had terminated. If Setz' protest is upheld, the game will be replayed.

Manager Tom Jordan's 400-foot, two-run homer, his 16th, featured a five-run Albuquerque uprising in the fifth inning.

Oscar Reguera, although he needed help from Andy Alonso, registered his third victory over the Pioneers, his former teammates, since he joined the Abilene club.

Bob Pascal and Glen Burns homered in a 13-hit Abilene batting spree.

Friday night's schedule - Plainview at Albuquerque, Abilene at Clovis, and Pampa at Amarillo.

Detroit Favored Over Stars Tonight

CHICAGO, Aug. 13 - UP - The Detroit Lions were a two touch-down favorite Friday to whip the College All Stars in the 21st annual clash between the pro champions and the top collegians, but the one platoon system was expected to hamper the Lions' drive toward a victory.

"It's going to be mighty tough to play that way," Detroit Coach Buddy Parker said, "and we aren't at all happy we have to do it." Under the contract between the Chicago Tribune, sponsors of the game, and the National Football League, collegiate rules are used in the game. Hence while the pro's played the platoon system last year, the collegians played one-platoon football and Friday night's game, slated for coast-to-coast television, will follow that pattern.

"We don't know whether it will help us or hurt us," Coach Bob Voigts of the All Stars said. "It all depends on what it does to the other guy. If it hurts him, then it will help us, because it certainly can't hurt us."

Both teams reported no major injuries for the battle, in which the pro's have won 12 times while losing six and tying twice.

It was expected the collegians would pass frequently during the spectacle as Head Coach Jim Tatum planned to use his split-T formation with Georgia's Zeke Bratkowski, rated a fancy thrower, as his starting quarterback.

"We've got 27 or 28 real good athletes," Tatum said, "and if they decide they've got something to play for, then it might be a hell of a game."

Bratkowski drew top praise from the All Star coaching staff as a standout passer, and also among the probable starters were four good receivers, end Dick Dietrick of Pittsburgh and Carlton Massey, Texas, and halfbacks Johnny Lattner, Notre Dame, and Chet Hanulak, Maryland.

It was likely also that Stanford's Bobby Garrett and Cotton Davidson of Baylor would get into action as Bratkowski's replacements and both, too, rated among the best collegiate passers.

Dallas Golfer Ahead In World Tourney

CHICAGO, Aug. 13 - UP - Earl Stewart Jr., Dallas, and Walter Burkemo, Franklin, Mich., held a slip lead over the field Friday entering the second round of the $150,000 "World" championship at Tam O'Shanter.

Almost half of the field of 96 turned in sub-par cards in the first round, and any one of the top twenty could move into first by continuing the torrid pace.

First money of $50,000 and an option on 100 exhibitions at $1,000 each could cause a few nervous putters and drop the early leaders in the tourney. Stewart carded a seven under par 65 and Burkemo turned in a 66 for the first round. Stewart covered the first nine only one stroke shy of Lloyd Mangrum's course record with a 30 Burkemo blew his chance to tie Stewart when he missed a 15-foot putt on the 18th green.

Stewart has won only two major tournaments in the past five years. Johnny Palmer, Charlotte, N.C., Bob Toak, Livingston, N.J., and Dutch Harrison, St. Louis, turned in third place cards of 67.

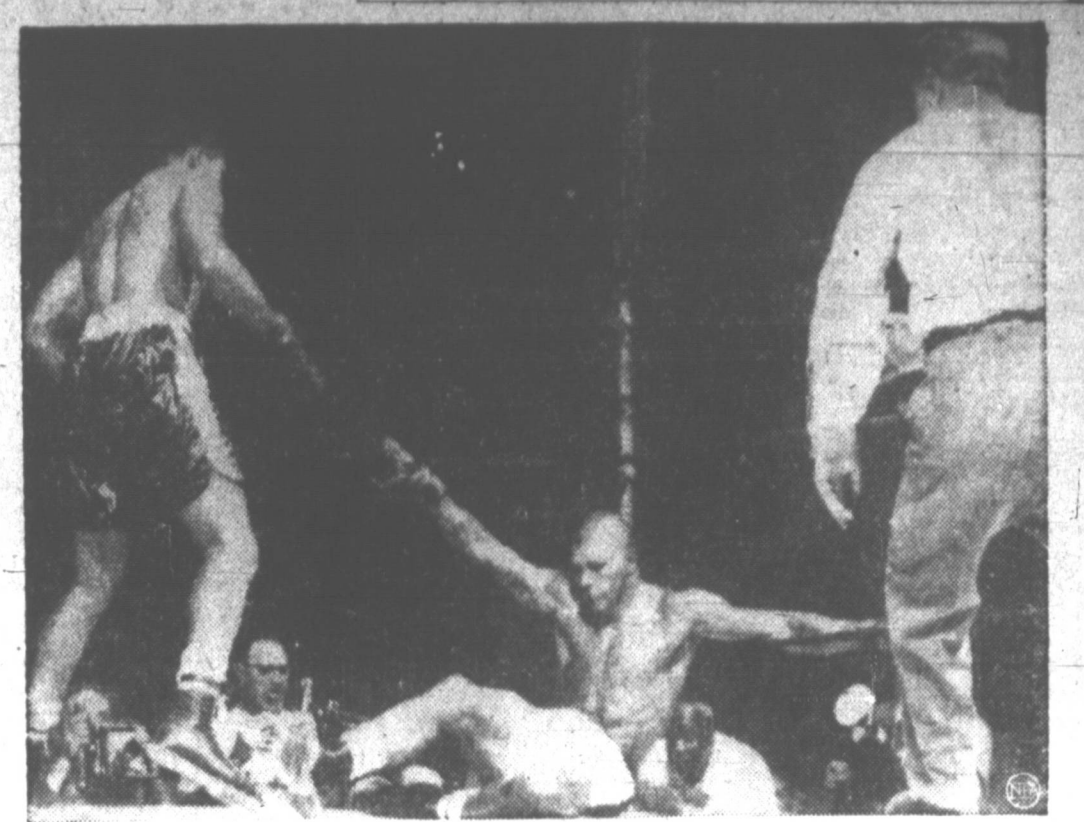

Seven players tied at 68, Sam Snead, White Sulphur Springs, W.Va., Jim Turnesa, Briarcliff, N.Y., and Claude Harmon, Mamaroneck, N.Y.

Five tied at 69 and 12 turned in 70's. Defending champion Patty Berg equaled Babe Zaharias' course record of 69 set in last week's "All-American" to lead the women's pro division by three strokes.

She had a 34 on the first nine and a 35 on the back nine. She scored four eagles, and three bogeys in the round. Miss Berg held a three-stroke lead over Louise Suggs, Atlanta, Ga., Beverly Hanson, Fargo, N.D., and Betty Hicks, Durham, N.C., who tied with four under par 72's. Two of last week's "All-American" winners held the first round lead in the men and women's amateur fields.

Arnold Palmer, Cleveland, held a one stroke lead over defending champion Frank Stranahan, Toledo, Ohio, and Jim McKeithen, Gary, Ind., with a four under par 68.

Mickey Wright, La Jolla, Calif., and Jackie Yates, Honolulu, were tied for the women amateur lead with 77's.

HELPLESS Harold Johnson, Philadelphia, lies helpless on canvas after being battered to floor by light-heavyweight champ Archie Moore during title fight in New York Wednesday night. Referee Ruby Goldstein moves in to stop fight in 14th round. Moore retained title with TKO. (NEA Telephoto)

Yankees' Double Win Trims Cleveland's Lead To 2 1/2

By FRED DOWN United Press Sports Writer Bob Lemon, a frustrated utility infielder while Bob Feller was rewriting the American League record book with his fireball-Friday had one of his famous Cleveland Indian teammates a most cherished records within his grasp.

And it'll be the old story of the pupil matching the tutor when Lemon ties the mark because it was Feller who took the young Navy veteran under his wing in 1946 and helped mould him into one of baseball's best pitchers.

Lemon, now a mature mound pro of 33, needs only four more victories to achieve his sixth 20-game campaign for the Indians and tie Feller's club mark. The medium-sized right-hander notched No. 16 Thursday when the Indians routed the Detroit Tigers 10 to 1 with a 13-hit attack that included home runs by Vic Wertz and Al Rosen.

Lemon's record was an inauspicious 4-5 in 1946 his first as a pitcher, but he posted an 11-3 mark in 1947 and then blossomed out with successive 20-14, 23-10 and 23-11 records. He slumped off to 17-14 in 1951 but had a 22-11 record in 1952 and 21-5 last season. Feller won 20 games in his 1949, 1940, 1941, 1946, 1947 and 1951 campaigns.

The Indians were gratified by Rosen's 20th homer of the year, hoping it marked the end of the slugging third baseman's longest batting slump of the year. The hit was only Rosen's third in 42 trips to the plate and the three runs it drove in were his first RBI's since Aug. 1.

The Indians, however, saw their first-place lead whittled to 2 1/2 games when the New York Yankees scored 5 to 4 and 7 to 1 triumphs over the Philadelphia A's.

NORTH-SOUTH CAGERS PLAY Bond's Star Team Favored Tonight DALLAS, Aug. 13 - UP - The ninth annual North-South all-star basketball game comes off Friday night in the heat of Dal-Hi gymnasium's 2,200-capacity fieldhouse with the North a heavy favorite to chalk up its seventh victory against three defeats in the series.

Coach Dudley Moore's North stars have looked much sharper in the last-minute workouts for the game and in addition have the advantage of tall Temple Tucker. Bowie's six foot 10 inch three-times allstate center.

The South, tutored by volatile Little Eddie Hickey of St. Louis, can't match Tucker's height nor the all-around ability of Pampa's Jimmy Bond. Too, the South hasn't responded nearly so well in practice to Hickey's three-lane fast break style of play as the North has to Moore's Duquesne double post attack.

In actual scoring ability, the South has a slight edge with Russell Boone, a two-time all-star from Sweeney, in the starring role, but observers generally felt that with Tucker and Bond in the double post the South wouldn't be able to match the rebounding ability of the North.

Too, there were some rumors of mild dissension on the South squad but all officials denied the reports.

Moore planned to start Jim Bronstad of Fort Worth Paschal, Kenneth Cleveland of Coleman and George Turner of Mount Vernon as his outside men, but under the all-star rules every player on both squads will get into the games.

Hickey will use Boone as his single post man and also use Tinker Wilson of Galena Park, Ned Dunan of Cayuga, King Hill of Freepport and Milton Williams of Big Sandy in his starting crew.

Junior players from Shamrock entering the tourney will be Bruce Ryan, Robert Adams and Johnny Sanders.

Attractive wrist watches will be awarded winners and runner-up in all flights. Winners of consolation flights and the medalist will also receive awards.

The tournament committee is composed of Flake George, chairman; Elmer J. Moore, Cabot Bran-non and E. C. Hoffman. Ray Hardy is the Shamrock Golf Club pro.

SHAMROCK TOURNEY Play Opens Today

SHAMROCK - (Special) - The Second Annual Shamrock Invitational Golf Tournament opened today and will continue through Sunday. A Pro-Am tourney originally set to precede the Amateur tourney was cancelled earlier.

Qualifying for the championship flight will be held today, the deadline for starting play was set at 2:30 p.m.

Players in other than the championship may send in their scores, attested by their club pro. The scores must be in not later than 6 p.m. Friday.

A Dutch Lunch has been arranged for Friday evening beginning at 7:30 p.m.

A large field of contestants is expected. Rex Baxter, Jr., Amarillo's hotshot linkster who won the championship title in Shamrock last year is expected to compete in a contest in Littlefield and may not be on hand to defend his title.

Amarillo Golfers expected are: Bobby Sanders, James Smith, Jr. and James Christopher.

The Berrys

TODAY IS FRIDAY THE THIRTEENTH DADDY!

AREN'T YOU SUPERSTITIOUS?

NOPE!

DOESN'T IT MEAN BAD LUCK IF A BLACK CAT CROSSES YOUR PATH?

THAT DEPENDS ON WHETHER YOU'RE A MAN OR A MOUSE!

The Jackson Twins

I FEEL LIKE DEBORAH KERR MUST HAVE WHEN SHE WAS HUNTING THE KING SOLOMON'S M-MINIES IN THAT MOVIE, JAN!

YUM EXCEPT WE DON'T HAVE STEAKS. CAN YOU GRABBER TO HOLD OUR LILY-WHITE HANDS AND SHOW US THE WAY AND SHOOT THINGS?

EEEEEE

Blondie

THIS IS AWFUL... IT'S PAYDAY AND I'M TOO SICK TO GO IN TO THE OFFICE!

DON'T WORRY ABOUT THAT DEAR... I'M GOING SHOPPING TODAY AND I'LL PICK UP YOUR PAY WHILE I'M DOWN THERE!

I'M SICK, BUT I'M NOT THAT SICK!

Alley Oop

AWRIGHT, NOW, Y'SURE YOU WANTA GO THROUGH WITH THIS? I AINT NO CRIPPLED SQUAW Y'KNOW!

ROMAN BARBARIAN, SAVAGE... I'VE YET TO MEET ONE WHO CAN BEST BRUNNEHILDE IN COMBAT!

CLANG

WELL, HOW 'BOUT IT, GAL... DYA FIGGER YOU'VE HAD ENOUGH FOR TODAY?

Bo

MEE-YOW-RR-RR-OW!

THOSE CATS ARE AT IT AGAIN--DO SOMETHING TO STOP 'EM!

BE CAREFUL, DEAR, DON'T HIT THEM--JUST ABEY--OUR KITTY MAY BE ONE OF THEM.

NOW BEAT IT BEFORE I BEAN YOU--!!!!

Buzz Sawyer

MERCY SAKES, AL! WHAT ARE YOU DOING?

ROAD-BLOCK AHEAD, TRUCKS, STATE POLICE!

GOTTA TAKE TO THE OPEN DESERT.

THEY AIN'T A CHANCE, SWHYER... TRY BEST GET IN A CAR BUT NOT A HELICOPTER.

Martha Wayne

JOHN HARKINS, A WIDOWER LIVES HERE. I'M SURE HE WONT MIND YOUR TAKING PICTURES IF YOU FIND HIS HOUSE SO INTERESTING!

WELL, YOU KNOW HOW I AM ABOUT ARCHITECTURE!

IT'S KIND OF SPOOKY AND FORBIDDING. I HOPE WE'RE DOING THE RIGHT THING!

NOTHING TO WORRY ABOUT, MARTHA, YOU DONT BELIEVE IN SPOOKS, DO YOU?

Murr & Jeff

CHARMED, MAM'ZELLE!

COUNT PIERRE SAID I WAS LOVELY AND CULTURED!

HE TELLS THAT MUSH TO ALL THE GIRLS!

YOU'RE JUST JEALOUS! OTHER MEN NOTICE ME!

YOU JUST TAKE ME FOR GRANTED! YOU FORGET THERE ARE OTHER FISH IN THE SEA!

YEH, BUT YOUR BAIT AINT WHAT IT USED TO BE!

Bugs Bunny

NOT TODAY, SIRE. MY WALLET CANNOT BEAR THE EXPENSE!

HEY, SYLVESTER! HOW ABOUT RENTIN' AN UMBRELLA? SHADE YA FROM TH' HOT SUN!

BUGSY'S BEACH RENTALS

SLAM

Z-Z-Z

Priscilla's Pop

PRISCILLA! WHAT DID I TELL YOU?

YOU TOLD ME NOT TO GO SWIMMING ON TOP OF A FULL STOMACH!!

AND WHAT ARE YOU DOING RIGHT NOW?

I'M SWIMMING UNDER IT!

OUR BOARDING HOUSE with MAJOR HOOPLE

By J. R. Williams

THE OLD HIP TROUBLE AGAIN, EH?

NOTICE TH' GUY BEIN' NOT OVERLY HELPFUL FER FEAR IT'LL LOOK LIKE HE'S WORKIN' FOR A PULL, BUT TH' OTHER GUY--BOY, HE'S REALLY GON' AFTER IT!

IN EITHER CASE, IT BLAMES A GUY'S JUDGMENT! TH' ONE WHO'S GON' ALL OUT FOR A PULL IS CARRYIN' THE WHOLE SHEBANG WROTH WITH!

THE DRAS

JR WILLIAMS 8-13

HE FINDS TH' OWLS LOSE

SOME OF US GOV'N GON' GO ALONG! MAMBE LEFTY--ONE TIME HE FOUND A MISSING BLACK CAT ON A COAL BARGE!

PSHAW, NO! I'VE ROAMED THE BLACKJUNGLE IN THE SENEGAMBIAN NIGHT AND FELT AS MUCH AT HOME AS IF I WERE ON NEON-LIT BROADWAY--HEH-HEH!

Steve Canyon

WHY! THE OLD WIND FORCE CAN REALLY MOVE! YOU AROUND WHEN THE ORDERS READ THAT WAY!

IF I'M TO TURN UP NEAR THIS BOOGEY-DOWN RAINA UNIT CONSTRUCTION SITE, I MUST LOOK LIKE A BUSH PILOT, NOT A PRIVATE FLYING DUDE!

IF CANADA AND THE UNITED STATES ARE TO HAVE EARLY WARNING OF AN AIR ATTACK OVER THE ICE CAP THESE DETECTION STATIONS AND ADVANCED AIR DEFENSE FIELDS JUST HAVE TO BE BUILT...

MMMM--LOOKS AS IF WORLD WAR III HAD ALREADY STARTED...

Vic Flint

SHABDING BELLE WILDE WITH HAVIN' BEEN AN ACCOMPLICE TO MURDER, THE PROSECUTOR DRIVES HIS CASE WITH THE TESTIMONY OF VIC FLINT...

FIRST, TELL US YOUR OCCUPATION, MR. FLINT...

HOW SOON BEFORE HE WAS MURDERED DID YOU SEE NICK STAFFES?

LESS THAN AN HOUR, I SHOULD SAY.

YEH, SHE IS IN THIS COURTROOM... THAT'S BELLE WILDE OVER THERE.

THANK YOU, MR. FLINT... THAT WILL BE ALL FOR TOMMY.

THERE'LL BE NO DOUBT IN THE JURY'S MIND THAT BELLE'S MIDDLE NAME IS GALT IF THIS GUY FLINT KEEPS UP 'TIL BETER ACT FAST!

Little Doc

NOBODY LOVES TH' PORKY PINE. HIS BACKS ALL COVERED WITH SHARP QUILLS!

GOLLY, IMAGINE PORKY PINE SPANKING HIS KID!

I KNOW EXACTLY WHAT THE PAPA PORKY PINE WOULD SAY!

WHAT?

THIS HURTS ME MORE THAN IT DOES YOU!

OUCH!

Wash Tubbs

NOW LOOK, HICKY, MY GRANDFATHER REFUSES TO PAY ANY MORE OF MY GAMBLING DEBTS!

THAT'S YOUR PROBLEM, NOW YOU RAISE TH' DOUGH, POTTERS, BUT GET IT!

BUT HE HAS A BAD HEART! HE CANT LAST MUCH LONGER, AND YOU KNOW ILL RECEIVE THE BULK OF HIS ESTATE!

ALL I KNOW IS I'M FED UP WITH YOUR PROBLEMS, PINK! YOU'RE PWIN' UP OR ELSE!

SURE, I'LL PAY YOU THE MUTE! I GET MY HANDS ON HIS MILLIONS--

I'M GUN' YOU EXACTLY ONE HEBEL! IF IT AINT PAID BY THEN YOU HONT BE IN NO CONDTION TO INERT NOTHIN'! C'MON, BOYS!

Boots

I HATE TO SAY I TOLD YOU SO, BUT HA!

WHERE'S THAT BOSS OF THE PREMING ROOM?

FOR CONTRIBUTING TO THIS ONE-MILLIONTH BOX MIX-UP, YOU DO FIFTY EXTRA LAPS AROUND THE GYM TODAY!

Mickey Finn

THIS IS A FINE KETTLE OF FISH! MY HORSE IS GOING TO RUN ITS FIRST RACE--AND I DONT EVEN KNOW ITS NAME!

WELL, THAT WOMAN AT FALDA'S RESTAURANT WILL TELL FER YOU CALLED AGAIN AND--

OH, I'M SO GLAD SHE TOLD YOU, HILDA! DID SHE TELL YOU WHY I CALLED?

YEH, AND I WAS AMAZED, PINK! I THOUGHT SHE'D TELL YOU KNEW!

HOW DID IT GET A NAME LIKE THAT?

HIS FATHER WAS "THE RIGHT" AND HIS MOTHER WAS "MORNING AFTER!"

WHAT DID SHE SAY ITS NAME IS, UNCLE PHIL?

THE "HEADACHE!"

Freckles

I LOVE THAT DORLING COLLAR YOU'RE WEARIN', HILDA!

NOT HALF AS COOL AS YOUR NEW PLASTIC ONES AND FLUFFY SCARF, JUNIE!

YOUR I.D. BRACELET IS REAL MAD!

JUNK, JUST JUNK!

AND DIS THOSE SCRIMPIOUS NEW LOAFERS!

NORRIN, REALLY, COMPARED TO THOSE DREAM BALLER-PADS YOU'RE WEARIN'!

SHALL WE TAKE IT ONCE MORE--FROM THE BEGINNING?

LET'S DO! I'M FEELING BETTER, ALREADY!!

Susie Q. Smith

SOMETIMES I THINK YOU CARE MORE ABOUT YOUR OL' MODEL PLANE THAN YOU CARE ABOUT ME!

OH GOSH, SUSIE!

SEE! I DO MEAN SOMETHING!

UNHARMED

Sharon Yacko, three, kidnaped from orphanage in North Bergen, N. J., last Saturday, sits on her mother's lap after being left unharmed on church doorstep early Wednesday. An unknown person rang doorbell of St. Joseph's Church, then fled. Sharon was broken with measles when returned.

Cop Fired For Abusing 'Wetbacks'

HARLINGEN, Tex., Aug. 13 — UP—A congressman reported Thursday that one border patrolman was being discharged and another disciplined because of brutality toward Mexican aliens during the Border Patrol's "Operation Wetback" in the lower Rio Grande Valley.

Rep. Lloyd M. Bentsen Jr. (D-Tex.) wrote to the Mexican Chamber of Commerce of Harlingen, after a conference with Immigration Commissioner Joseph Swilling.

"He advised me that he will promptly discipline or discharge any border patrolman found to be abusive in his actions," Bentsen wrote the chamber, which had protested alleged brutality during the roundup last month.

"I told General Swing I had received these assurances before, but had never seen any proof of them," Bentsen said. "He thereupon cited two cases which I had presented to him in the last month, in which he said one of the border patrolmen would be removed from the service and the other would receive disciplinary action."

The patrolmen were not identified, and Border Patrol officials in the Valley refused to comment on Bentsen's letter.

Horror Comic Publishers Taken To Task

HOUSTON, Aug. 13 — UP—A Houston radio executive said Thursday publishers of "degenerate comic books" couldn't invoke freedom of the press.

Fred Nahas, executive vice president of radio station KXYZ, told the Downtown Rotary Club freedom of speech didn't mean a man could cry "fire" in a crowded theater, and freedom of the press didn't mean a publisher could "print detrimental literature for our children."

"Which is more important," Nahas asked, "the right, uncensored or uncontrolled, to print and distribute degenerate comic books for a children's market, or the greater right of mothers and fathers to protect the lives and safeguard the well-being of those we love the most, our children?"

"If you want a few unscrupulous publishers to have the right to print and distribute freely some of the most vicious so-called literature ever conceived, literature that can corrupt and demoralize your children, then be quiet and do nothing," he said.

Parliament Gets Invite From Russia

LONDON, Aug. 13 — UP—Authoritative sources said Thursday that leaders of Britain's houses of parliament have accepted an invitation to send a delegation to observe the Supreme Soviet of the Soviet Union, Russia's congress.

The invitation was sent to Lord Simonds, the lord chancellor, and to W. S. Morrison, speaker of the House of Commons.

Selection of members of the two houses to make the trip to Moscow must await the return of legislators from vacation. Informal sources said. They will travel to Russia in late September or early October.

It was not known immediately whether the invitation was declined upon by the Kremlin before Clement Attlee, former prime minister of Britain, and his party of laborites stopped off in Moscow this week on their way to visit Red China.

But it was the first invitation of this nature to be issued by the British Union since 1945, when a British delegation visited the Supreme Soviet.
