U.S. Demands Russia Account For Airmen

B-29 Was Downed Near Japan In '52

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 —UP— The United States Saturday formally accused Russia of lying about the fate of eight American airmen aboard a B-29 Superfortress shot down by Soviet fighters off the coast of northern Japan nearly two years ago.

Business Firms Host Teachers On B-I-E Day

There will be a holiday for school children Monday while the teachers go on field trips for some "learning" of a different nature.

It will be the second annual Business-Industry-Education Day in Pampa Monday with 28 Pampa firms playing host to 28 groups of teachers who will spend the day in the various businesses, gaining first-hand knowledge of the operations.

The activity gets underway at 9 a.m. Monday with a gathering at the Junior High School Auditorium.

Fred Neslage, engineer for the West Pampa Repressing Association, will serve as master of ceremonies at the opening ceremony.

The keynote address will be made by Congressman Walter Rogers.

The teachers will visit various businesses in the morning, soon after the close of the program at the Junior-High School. They will be the guests of the firms for lunch and will then return for further study of the business operations during the afternoon.

Youth Center Asks Charter From State

Articles of incorporation for the proposed Pampa Youth and Community Center were mailed to the secretary of state at Austin Saturday, according to Aaron Sturgeon, chairman pro tem of the new group.

Sturgeon said the project is to be known as the "Pampa Youth and Community Center, Inc."

The articles were signed by the 11 incorporators chosen Sept. 2.

Approval of the charter is expected next week, at which time, Sturgeon stated, a meeting will be called to set up by-laws, regulations and nominate and elect officers.

In addition to Sturgeon, the 11 incorporators are: Bill Waters, Floyd Watson, Mrs. Dorothy Stinson, Mrs. Inez Carter, Rev. Dick Crews, Dr. Joe Donaldson, Fred Neslage, Frank Fata, John Campbell, and Sheriff Rufe Jordan.

Challenge Reds

In a 24-page diplomatic note charging the Soviet Union with "unlawful," "reprehensible," and "belligerent" conduct, this country renewed its previously-spurned demand for $1,620,295.01 in damages and for information on survivors.

It challenged Russia, which has denied any knowledge of the American airmen's fate, to submit the whole dispute to the International Court of Justice at The Hague.

At the same time, the State Department took steps to call attention of the United Nations Security Council to the note, as a prelude to a possible UN appeal later.

The department said Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. had been instructed to ask the president of the Security Council to circulate the text of the US note among Security Council members.

The note said the attack obviously was "deliberately" ordered by Russian authorities.

Coffee Price Hearings Set

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 —UP— A Senate banking subcommittee disclosed Saturday it will start hearings Oct. 12 on legislation to avert further "spiraling" in coffee prices.

Chairman J. Glenn Beall (R-Md.) said his special subcommittee on coffee prices will consider, among other things, possible federal regulation of the New York coffee and sugar exchange. Two bills to accomplish this died in the last Congress.

He said studies so far show that supply and demand were not responsible for coffee price increases in the past year.

"There is not now, nor has there been during the past year, any shortage of coffee in the United States," he said in a statement.

Six Feared Dead In Plane Collision

BALTIMORE, Sept. 25 —UP— A Navy training plane carrying six men and an Air National Guard P-51 fighter collided over Soliers Point near here and crashed into the Palapaco River. All were feared killed.

The Navy said four officers and two enlisted men were in the Navy twin-engine Beechcraft and that next of kin were being notified. A P-51 fighter normally carries only the pilot.

The Coast Guard said both planes went down in about 12 feet of water and that no bodies were recovered immediately.

A Coast Guard spokesman said rescuers did pick up plane seats and parachute belts near the place where the planes went down.

Maryland Air National Guard headquarters said the Navy plane was from Anacostia Naval Air Station at Washington, D. C., while the P-51 was en route from South Dakota to Harbord Field at Baltimore.

Eyewitnesses said a wing of one of the planes was knocked off in the collision and that one of the planes appeared to explode as it hit the water.

The Navy said four officers and two enlisted men were in the Navy plane.

Dressen, O'Malley Meet

BROOKLYN, Sept. 25 —UP— Charley Dressen, former manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers, and Walter O'Malley, the man who wouldn't give him a long-term contract, met Friday for the first time since Cholly left Brooklyn. Neither commented on their conversation.

Chief Justice 'Weathers' Boycotting

WILLIAMSBURG, Va., Sept. 25 —UP— Chief Justice Earl Warren said Saturday the nation's goal is "equal and impartial justice" for all, but, officially, the state of Virginia scarcely heard him.

Most of the state's dignitaries from Gov. Thomas B. Stanley and Sen. Harry F. Byrd down boycotted the appearance here of the chief justice who read the Supreme Court ruling against school segregation.

A "token" state representation was made up of Lt. Gov. A. E. S. Stephens — designated by Stanley to attend after Stephens had declined an invitation — Sen. Willis A. Robertson, and Rep. J. Vaughan Gary, the only one of the state's 10 congressmen on hand.

In his speech at historic William and Mary College honoring the 200th birth anniversary of Chief Justice John Marshall, Warren urged "rededication to the cause of justice, between individuals, between citizens and their sovereign, and between the nations of the world."

He said the goal of equal justice for all holds despite numerous mistakes and the use of the democratic system for "selfish and even oppressive ends."

Canadian Gets 'All Lit Up'

CANADIAN — The new $14,000 street lighting system went on over the City of Canadian Saturday night and looked — in the words of Mayor Malouf Abraham — like "dozen of Christmas trees."

An estimated 2,000-3,000 persons from Canadian and the surrounding area were on hand for the festivities. Mayor Abraham said, but Rep. Walter Rogers, of Pampa, was not among them — he was detained in Amarillo.

A Pampian, Bill Clay, won one of the 21 prizes given away. It was a clothes hamper.

Labeling the occasion a "howling success," Mayor Abraham said there was many a featured act: the high school band and mixed chorus, a barbershop quartet, a hill billy act and others. A square dance was still going on late Saturday night.

The lights are color-corrected mercury vapor lamps that kick on when it gets so dark outside and kick off when the sun comes up in the morning.

Loop City Cons Riot

CHICAGO, Sept. 25 —UP— Food riot erupted among 1,400 prisoners at the crowded city jail Saturday, and police using tear gas and night sticks joined with prison officials to quell a wave of violence.

The rioting began in a dining hall between two cellblock wings about 3 p.m. est. By 5 p.m. violence had been brought under control and cleanup of smashed furniture and crockery begun, but 600 prisoners refused to reenter their cells.

Report On Joe Said Critical

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 —UP— The special six-man Senate committee studying censure charges against Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy will strongly criticize the Wisconsin Republican in its report but leave a specific finding on actual censure up to the Senate, informed sources predicted Saturday.

It was learned that the report, which will be made public Monday, is especially critical of McCarthy on two or three of the main charges against him.

The criticisms are contained in the committee's "conclusions." One informed source, however, does not interpret the report as containing any specific recommendation for "censure" although he indicated it would leave grounds for such a vote if the Senate chose to do it.

None of the six members of the committee, headed by Sen. Arthur V. Watkins (R-Utah) would discuss contents of the tightly-guarded report which went to the government printing office Friday. It will comprise a printed volume estimated to run 60,000 words or more.

ColC Chooses Advisory Panel

Pampa Chamber of Commerce officials Saturday morning determined the 10 Pampans who received the highest vote of the entire chamber membership for the organization's advisory board.

They were Frank Smith, Dr. Joe Donaldson, Paul Brown, Aubrey Steele, Frank M. Carter, Roy Bourland, Robert Mack, B. M. Behrman and Leslie Hart. The 10th name was not available.

Chamber officials are expected to mail out new ballots early this week. Chamber members will pick their five selections and mail them back by the end of the week.

School Kids Storm Scottish Cemetery

GLASGOW, Scotland, Sept. 25 —UP— Outraged education authorities blamed horror comics Saturday for the action of hundreds of school children who swarmed through a cemetery looking for a "blood-thirsty vampire with iron teeth."

The shouting mobs of children rampaged through the cemetery in suburban Hutchesontown Friday afternoon in what police called a "vampire riot." The youngsters returned Friday night in an unsuccessful attempt to storm the graveyard.

H. S. Mackintosh, city education officer, charged that "horror comics" were responsible and said they "have now gone beyond the bounds of license. I hope the government will take active steps in this very real problem facing us."

Riots Described

Police Constable Alex Deeprose gave this account of the "Riots." When school finished at 4 p.m. hundreds of children massed in Hutchesontown and prepared to march on the cemetery after a rumor flashed through the city's schools that a "vampire with iron teeth" had strangled and eaten two small boys there.

Shouting and waving pocket-knives, and carrying sticks and stones, the children swarmed over the cemetery wall and began a hunt through the gravestones. Witnesses said they appeared to be "deadly serious."

Mobs Dispersed

Police called by local residents managed to disperse the shouting throng but bands of children continued to roam the streets until dusk. They told policemen who advised them to go home they were still "hunting for the vampire."

After dark another group of more than 100 children tried to storm the graveyard but police dispersed them. Senior officers ordered an all night watch over the cemetery.

Deeprose said the mother of one of the children had shown him a comic book her son had been reading. It featured a half bat, half skeleton creature carving its way through a graveyard.

AFL 'Squeeze Play' Aimed At Mine Boss

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 25 —UP— Four powerful unions of the American Federation of Labor Saturday announced a pact to force John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers out of the building trades and to launch an organizing drive for 1 million more members.

The four unions are Dave Beck's teamsters, Maurice Hutcheson's carpenters, William Maloney's operating engineers, and Joseph Moroch's laborers totaling some 3.5 million members.

Hutcheson said the pact "will be used as a block against Lewis' District 50," the "catch-all" division of the UMW with some 700,000 members.

District 50 reportedly has thousands of workers engaged in heavy construction — in such jobs as strip mining. It could not be determined if the new pact is aimed at putting these workers out of District 50 and into the AFL ranks.

Hutcheson's remarks followed a press conference held by Dave Beck in which Beck announced the pact with the building trade unions and another pact with AFL Meat Cutters and Butchers.

The press conference came on the next to final day of the week-long American Federation of Labor convention here. The convention is expected to wind up Monday night.

Beck dodged an outright admission that the pact with the building trade unions was built as a hedge against District 50.

Dulles Tells France U.S. 'Getting Tired'

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 —UP— Secretary of State John Foster Dulles warned France Saturday night that the United States no longer can afford to gamble on its safety and survival while the French block West Germany's admission to the partnership against communism.

In a statement issued shortly before his departure (8:30 p.m. est) for the London nine-power conference on West Germany's political and military future, Dulles said that French scuttling of the European Defense Community had necessitated "re-examination" of the whole European collective security program.

School Building Begins Monday

Wes-Tex Construction Co., of Pampa and Berger, will bring work Monday on the new Letors public school building which will house a cafeteria, band and choral rooms, woodshop and mechanical drawing rooms and a gymnasium.

Paul Camp, Wes-Tex representative, Saturday night said material is on the job. Contract is for $189,250 and completion date is March 16.

Press Object Of Investigation

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 —UP— The Justice Department is making a study to be sure that freedom of the press is not interfering with the fairness of criminal trials.

Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr., revealed the study Friday, as he urged newsmen and attorneys to draft rules for reporting trials to make sure trial by jury is not replaced by "trial by newspaper."

The secretary made it plain that when the nine-power talks open in London Tuesday, he will be ready to do some straight talking. But he added emphatically that he was taking "no specific proposals of our own" to the conference.

"But we do go to be helpful if we can," he said.

Just before his departure he had what was described as a crucial, important talk with deputy undersecretary of State Robert Murphy. Murphy flew in from Paris Saturday morning to report on secret conversations with French Premier Pierre Mendès-France, who sounded the EDC's death knell.

New Court Term Begins Monday

Dist. Judge Lewis M. Goodrich is expected in Pampa Monday morning for the opening of a new term of 31st District Court.

The judge is slated to empanel 12 men from a list of 16 potential grand jurors opened the first of the week by Dist. Clerk Helen Sprinkle. The old grand jury was dismissed Sept. 17 when no new indictments were returned.

Smoke rises in background as US Army ambulances arrive in Bitburg, Germany, to remove dead and injured from explosion of storage tank which contained almost 1,300,000 gallons of jet plane fuel. Demos More Sure Of Win Than GOP

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25—UP—Democrats were more optimistic Saturday than the Republicans about their prospects of making substantial gains in the House in the Nov. 2 elections. Democrats privately figure that they will pick up at least 20 seats—more than enough to give them control of the House in the next Congress. They told a reporter their pick-up could go above 30 if there is a definite trend their way. Republicans believe they have a good chance of retaining control, but probably by a margin of fewer than 10 in the 435-member House. The Republicans also believe that if the Democrats gain House control their majority likewise will be under 10.

Republicans controlled the House in the 83rd Congress although they finished the last session with a bare majority of 218 members. The Democrats had 213 members at the close of the session. There was one Independent—Rep. Frazier Reams of Ohio—and there were three vacancies, two of which were previously held by Democrats and one by a Republican. Both Democratic and Republican spokesmen emphasized that it is still too early to draw positive conclusions. Election day still is more than five weeks away, and many factors can change the situation before then. The Republicans think they have excellent chances of picking up seats in Ohio, Kansas, California, Idaho, New York, New Jersey, possibly Pennsylvania, and—surprisingly—in North Carolina and Florida. The GOP now holds one seat in North Carolina and is making a strong pitch for a second. The Republicans also have a couple of candidates in Florida, who they say, are causing real concern among Democrats. The Democrats say their chances of picking up seats range over the map outside the south—even into the normally Republican state of New Hampshire. They believe the prospects to be excellent in many states, among them New York, Ohio, California and Connecticut.

Employment In Texas Declines

AUSTIN, Sept. 25—UP—Unemployment in Texas dropped 9,900 from July to August, but still topped the figure for the same month last year by 10,000, the Texas Employment Commission reported Saturday. The unemployment total, at the end of August, stood at 122,400. Non-farm employment increased to 2,708,400, up 13,800 from July and 24,200 over a year ago. The commission, basing its forecast on reports from employers, predicted a "substantial" increase in jobs by mid-October. "If the outlook materializes, non-farm employment could reach a new high two months ahead of last year's achievement and one month ahead of the readjustment year of 1949," the TEC said.

Reopening of schools was tagged as one of the biggest factors in the expected employment advance. Re-employment of cafeteria and maintenance workers bolsters the seasonal rise, in addition to the fact many new schools were opened since last May. Retail trade employment "lagged somewhat in late summer" but the TEC predicted it would "go forward" again under stimulus of crop harvesting, transporting activities as well as the new school year. Construction "continues strong" and the outlook in that field was for "more jobs in October."

Suspected Slayer Caught Making Call

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Sept. 25—UP—Two policemen and an FBI agent cornered James Merkuris, suspected murderer of his ex-wife and her husband, in a telephone booth Saturday and captured him without a shot being fired. He is wanted in Los Angeles, where police have charged him with suspicion of murdering Robert Forbes, 49, and his wife, Despine, 35, in their ceramics shop last September 20. Merkuris, 40, is a native of Grand Rapids Mich., and an ex-convict. An FBI agent who declined to identify himself, Hot Springs Police Lt. Joe Campbell and Patrolman James Holt caught Merkuris in a telephone booth in the Arlington Hotel, trying to telephone his father in Oklahoma City. "I opened the door to the telephone booth, told him who I was and asked him to give me the .45 caliber automatic he was supposed to have on him," the FBI agent said. "He laughed and said, 'I haven't got any gun,' and then started denying any connection with the murders before I could even question him." The agent had been tipped by Oklahoma City police that Merkuris had been trying to telephone his father. Merkuris told newsmen that he knew nothing of the murders except what he had read and denied being in California when they were committed. California police put a guard over the dead couple's six-year-old daughter and the child's grandparents because, they said, Merkuris was known to have threatened to wipe out the whole family. Merkuris said his ex-wife's mother engineered the break between him and his former wife and was the first to accuse him of the murders. The FBI arrested Merkuris on a charge of "unlawful flight to avoid prosecution for murder." Hot Springs Municipal Judge Lloyd Darnell set his bond at $15,000 and raised it to $25,000 when he learned that a bond of $100,000 had been set in California.

David Schine Made PFC

AUGUSTA, Ga., Sept. 25—UP—G. David Schine, controversial former aide to Sen. Joseph McCarthy, has received a promotion and orders transferring him to Alaska, it was disclosed Saturday. Schine was promoted from private to private first class, giving the wealthy hotel owner's son about a $15 monthly raise. He will leave Camp Gordon, where he trained for duty as a military policeman, about mid-October for Ft. Lewis, Wash. He will be processed there for transfer to Alaskan duty, it was announced at Camp Gordon. Presumably he will be doing MP duty at his new assignment. Alleged special treatment for Schine was one of the big issues in the famous clash between McCarthy and the U. S. Army.

Nixon Schedules Houston Speech

HOUSTON, Sept. 25—UP—Texas Republicans will honor Vice President Richard M. Nixon, and raise a little money, too, with a state-wide $100-a-plate dinner Oct. 14. The vice president will fly here Oct. 14 to address the National Association of Retail Druggists, then will attend the dinner in his key role as the GOP standard-bearer to talk up a Republican-controlled 84th Congress. H. J. (Jack) Porter, Texas' Republican national committeeman, said a full representation of Republican party leaders and workers from all over the state is already assured.

Sales Decline

DALLAS, Sept. 25—UP—Department store sales in seven southwestern cities, six of them in Texas, were off an average of one per cent in August compared with August 1953, the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas reported Saturday. The district average from Jan. 1 through Aug. 31 was down four per cent. Only Corpus Christi with 11 per cent and Dallas with one per cent showed gains in August over the corresponding period a year ago.

Waitress Identifies Attackers

DALLAS, Sept. 25—UP—A weeping waitress, complaining to police Saturday that two men took her into a field and raped her, said she fought for her honor from the time they grabbed her until they let her go. Capt. Will Fritz of the homicide department said Saturday that from the looks of the two men she identified as her ravishers—Wayne Legoy Rutledge, 19, and Joe Hernandez Chagoya, 24—she had put up a good fight. He said Rutledge and Chagoya were thoroughly scratched and bitten, especially about their faces. The waitress, a pretty brunette, said the men grabbed her about 1 a.m. after she had finished work at a drive-in and was waiting for her husband. "First they asked me to get in the car," she said. "When I said no, one jumped out, kicked me and threw me into the car." She said they hit her two or three times and drove her to a lonely field near Irving. After they were through, she said, they drove her back to the restaurant and put her out. She walked home to tell her husband.

JayCeas Name First Courteous Sales Person

Mrs. Gladys Jaynes, 404 N. Gray, was chosen Saturday by the Junior Chamber of Commerce as Pampa's most courteous clerk of the month. Mrs. Jaynes is an employee of Gilbert's Ladies Shop. Selection of Mrs. Jaynes was made by "Mystery Shopper-of-the-month" Mrs. Ed R. Eaton, 1301 N. Starkweather, a member of the JayCee-ettes. An award of $5 was presented Mrs. Jaynes, who in turn, donated it to the United Fund. Saturday's selection was the first of a series to be made by the JayCeas. The monthly event is a joint effort of the Junior Chamber and its recently activated auxiliary. Selection of the mystery shopper will be made by the JayCee-ettes, but she will not necessarily be a member of that organization. Members of the courteous clerk-of-the-month committee are Jack Dunham, Ed Eaton and Joe Giddens. According to Dunham, the object of the monthly series of recognition awards is to "promote courtesy consciousness among Pampa salespeople." Junior Chamber President J. C. Hopkins termed the first week's selection "an excellent choice." Mrs. Jaynes will be a guest of the JayCeas at their weekly meeting Tuesday noon.

E. McMillen and Mrs. Ruth Seltz, all of Perryton, visited their sister, Mrs. Joe B. Williams, 407 Hill, this week. Pampa firemen were called out at 10:20 a.m. Saturday to 1130 S. Hobart where there was a grass fire. There was no damage. Oxygen equipped ambulances Ph. 4-3211, Duenkel-Carmichael. Former Pampans will gather today in Recreation Park, Long Beach Calif., for the fourth annual get-together in Southern California. An estimated 100 persons are expected to be on hand. The 1954 United Fund advance drive will be held Tuesday, preceding by a week the general drive. Any residents who contributed in 1953 but have not done so this year will be contacted during the day. Frank M. Carter, 1016 Mary Ellen, was in New Mexico Saturday and was expected back in Pampa sometime today. (*) Indicates Paid Advertising

Pampan Wins Wheat Prize

Ernest Vanderburg, of Pampa, took a first place with his chryse wheat in a special wheat show at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo. County Agent Ralph Thomas Saturday night announced the winners from the area. Actually his results are on the 25-per-cent grain part of the show. Fifteen per cent is for milling qualities and 60 per cent for baking characteristics. These are the other winners: Morley Doss, Groom, third place, triumph wheat; Carl Smith, White Deer, third, pannee; Robert Wills, Groom, fourth in triumph and fifth in west; Lawrence Kurtz, Pampa, fourth, Kansas Queen; Jack Stephens, Groom, fourth, red chief; and Gene Weinheimer, Groom, fifth, Wichita. Irvin Cole took the grand championship in this event in the show last year, Thomas pointed out.

United Fund Agency Thousands Aided By Salvation Army

(Editor's Note: This is the fifth in a series of articles on the agencies included in the Pampa community United Fund which will hold its annual drive Oct. 5. The Salvation Army, subject of this article, has been allotted $9,500 of the $45,150 drive goal.) The Pampa Salvation Army unit in the last 60 days has given out 2,688 garments, 35 grocery orders, 722 pairs of shoes, 9 rent orders, 4 medicine orders and 46 meals. And almost 10,000 garments have already been given out this year, according to T. H. Jewell, Jr., Army official. That, the family service relief, is only one of many different Salvation Army programs. The local Army corps, one of 33 in Texas, also has an active religious and young people's program, too. There is a full Girl Guard program and a local boys club has been organized recently, Jewell points out. The Salvation Army is a well-known, humanitarian organization with the primary goal of relieving human suffering and promoting Christianity. By that, the "Army believes it can make better people," Jewell says. Originated in England in 1865 by Gen. William Booth, a Methodist minister, the Salvation Army is an international organization, having spread to 93 different countries. In the United States, there is a unit in almost every city. Everything the Army gives, Jewell emphasizes, is "given free of cost to the individual in need." But only the support and cooperation of the people can make its program a success, he adds.

Ike Atom Proposal Put On UN Agenda

By CHARLES M. MCCANN UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Sept. 25—President Eisenhower's historic "atoms for peace" plan was put formally on the agenda of the United Nations General Assembly Saturday for discussion at the current annual session. Agreement to include the President's plan for "international cooperation in developing the peaceful uses of atomic energy" in the assembly program was unanimous. There was neither debate nor a formal vote. Thus the plan which the President first announced at a dramatic meeting of the assembly last Dec. 8 will come up for action within the next few weeks. But first it will be referred to the assembly's political committee for its consideration and a report.

'Vest Pocket' War Stalled

TAIPEI, Formosa, Sept. 25—UP—A typhoon Saturday forced Nationalist planes and warships to break off attacks on Communist positions around Amoy for the first time since the "vest pocket" war erupted 23 days ago. The temporary lull in the fighting came as Nationalist Chinese officials predicted the Communists would attempt to seize Nationalist-held coastal islands as a preliminary to an assault on Formosa itself. A spokesman for the ministry of national defense said Nationalist warplanes sank seven Communist gunboats in the vicinity of Amoy Friday. But, he said, planes were grounded Saturday by heavy winds and rain.

Commission Meet To Be Continued

Last Tuesday's held-over City Commission meeting will be continued Monday at 11 a.m. when two contracts are expected to be let between the city and county. City Manager Fred Brook said Saturday this circumstance will permit teachers, on a B-E Day tour, "to actually see the commission in action" instead of being given a word picture account of its workings. The contracts under consideration will be for city tax information service and city fire protection for county residents. Concerning fogging and spraying of insects, Brook said the city had discontinued this service due to the approach of cool weather. "If it warms up, then the city will begin spraying again," he said. The regular City Commission meeting will be held at 9 a.m. Tuesday. Brook said that the question of wet garbage disposal will not be brought up at this session as the city had "a nibble" in the matter of a new contract. W. S. Boykin, who has been disposing of the city's wet garbage, will let his contract terminate Oct. 1. "The city will continue to pick up and dispose of the garbage for the present," Brook commented.

Walker Rites To Be Monday

Funeral services will be held Monday at 9:30 a.m. Monday for former Pampan Olen C. Walker who died Tuesday in Seattle, Wash. The funeral services will be conducted at Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral Home Chapel with Lyle Albright, pastor of the Church of the Brethren officiating. Burial services will be in Chillicothe at 3 p.m. Monday. Walker, 33, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Walker, 613 N. Dwight. He moved to Pampa with his parents in 1929, and graduated from Pampa High School. Survivors, besides his parents, are two sons, Billy and Gary Lee of Amarillo; two brothers, Clifton, of T'Gias, and Don, with the U. S. Army in Germany, and four sisters, Mrs. Zelma Atkinson, Portland, Ore., Mrs. Laurene Cobb, Denison, Mrs. Margaret Nichols, Menlo Park, Calif., and Mrs. Jean Jones, Pampa.

Scelba Wins Strength Vote

ROME, Sept. 25—UP—Premier Mario Scelba won a vote of confidence Saturday for his handling of the affaire Montesi, Italy's "scandal of the century" growing out of the death of a half-clad party girl. The vote was 114 to 97 in a tumultuous senate session as Scelba fought off Communist and Fascist attacks, boos and catcalls in a session so uproarious senate president Cesare Merzagora threatened to suspend the sitting. The premier's margin of 17 votes were provided by the support of the middle-of-the-road democratic parties; Scelba's own Christian Democrats, Liberals, Republicans, Social Democrats and some Independents. Voting against him were the Communists, left-wing Socialists, Neo-Fascists and Monarchists, the last only for political reasons and not because they were joining the smear campaign. The vote came on a government motion expressing faith that the Italian court system was capable of taking care of the sensational scandal which has boiled around the death in April, 1953 of Rome party girl Wilma Montesi. Communists and Fascists turned the scandal into an attack on the Scelba government. Scelba was minister of interior, in charge of all Italian police, when Miss Montesi died after a drug-and-sex party and police allegedly hushed up the real causes of death.

Mrs. Jimmy Crouch Succumbs Saturday

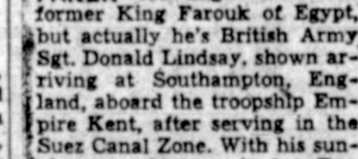

Mrs. Dixie Eanell Crouch, 22, died Saturday night at 9:15 in Highland General Hospital following the birth Friday of a daughter. Mrs. Crouch had been a resident of Pampa for 20 years. She was graduated from Pampa High School in 1930 and was a member of the First Baptist Church. In addition to her infant daughter, Marsha Laine, she is survived by her husband, Jimmy, of 526 N. Wynne, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Webster Johnson, 2109 Duncan, and a brother, Blaine Johnson, a student at North Texas State College, Denton. Funeral arrangements are pending at Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral Home.

Donkey Softball Ground Rules

Believe it or not, there are actually rules for the donkey softball tournament that will be held at 7:30 p.m. Monday and Tuesday in Oiler Park under the sponsorship of the Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce. All players except pitchers and catchers ride donkeys. When the batter gets a hit, he mounts his donkey and rides around the bases in proper order — if he can. There are no strike-outs or walks. Fielders must ride to within a step of the ball before dismounting and must remount before throwing the ball. There are nine players on each team and the game lasts five to seven innings.

Bond Set For Negro In Slaying

SHAMROCK — John Johnson, about 40, a Negro farmhand held in connection with the slaying a week ago of his wife's nephew, Marvel Menefield, 17, Saturday night was still in Wheeler County jail. His bond for appearing before Justice of the Peace J. H. Templeton has been set at $2,500, the judge reported, adding Johnson had not yet made the bond. Judge Templeton said he thought the preliminary hearing in his court would be held in "a few days." At that time, Johnson's bond — if he is held over for the district court's grand jury — will be set.

FAKER—He might look like former King Farouk of Egypt, but actually he's British Army Sgt. Donald Lindsay, shown arriving at Southampton, England, aboard the troopship Empire Kent, after serving in the Suez Canal Zone. Shaver Case Veniremen Exhausted

BRADY, Tex., Sept. 25—UP—An eighth juror to try Airman Jimmy N. Shaver on a charge of murdering and raping three-year-old Chere Jo Horton was seated Saturday, exhausting the jury venire. District Judge J. P. Williamson ordered 40 more veniremen to report at 10 a.m. Monday. Originally, part of the 120-man venire was exhausted getting a jury to rule on Shaver's sanity before the murder-rape trial started.

Economists See U. S. Income Doubling In Next 25 Years

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25—UP—The Committee for Economic Development predicted Saturday that the national income—$305 billion last year—“could easily double” in the next 25 years.

The nonpolitical, nonprofit, privately-financed organization of 150 leading businessmen and professors said this would result in the huge federal debt—now about $274 billion—becoming less burdensome although prospects are dim that it be cut down much, if any, in the foreseeable future.

“Even without further inflation, our national income could easily double over the next 25 years, as a result of growing population and increasing productivity,” the CED’s research and policy committee said in a report on federal debt management.

“If this happened and the size of the debt remained constant, the ratio of debt to national income would fall from the present 74 per cent to 37 per cent. The burden of the debt would be much less.”

Treasury officials disclosed earlier this week that they probably will be forced to ask for another hike in the debt limit by next July.

Congress last month authorized a temporary increase of $6 billion. But this expires next June 30 and the ceiling then goes back down to the old figure of $275 billion.

The debt meantime is expected to go up to about $280 billion and back down to between $274 billion and $275 billion.

“The debt situation makes it unlikely that President Eisenhower will recommend any general reduction in income taxes next year.”

Young GOP Appoints Dixon

Oscar Winner Wed Saturday In Europe

BURGENSTOCK, Switzerland, Sept. 25—UP—Actress Audrey Hepburn and actor Mel Ferrer were married Saturday in a surprise ceremony.

The wedding took place in a tiny mountain-side chapel at this Alpine village overlooking Lake Lucerne.

Miss Hepburn, who won a Hollywood Oscar as the best actress this year, appeared with Ferrer on the Broadway stage in “Ondine.” The play is a romantic fantasy about a water sprite and a human knight who fall in love.

It was reported at the time that there was a romance between them.

The 25-year-old actress won the Academy Award for her performance in “Roman Holiday,” her first Hollywood movie. She also received the American Theater Wing’s Antoinette Perry (Tony) award last March for the season’s best starring performance by an actress on Broadway for her role in “Ondine.”

Ferrer, 37, broke off location shooting of the Italian film “La Madra” in Sardinia to fly to Burgenstock for the ceremony.

The wedding was performed in the presence of the bride’s mother, the Dutch Baroness Ella van Heemstra.

SUSPECT

By Hugh Lawrence Nelson

THE STORY: Private Detective Jim Dunn has now met most of the Carlsons, a wealthy family summering in the Colorado mountains. Jim and his wife Nancy have been retained by Mrs. Kit Carlson who wants them to investigate a death on the West Coast which might be murder. Jim and Nancy are posing as caretakers. Mrs. Milton Carlson, Mrs. Kit’s mother-in-law, is feared by Mrs. Kit. Mrs. Oswald Carlson, the mother of Mrs. Milton’s husband, is rather eccentric and has a hobby of taxidermy.

XI

THROUGH the cook, Mrs. Gelstrap, Jim Dunn was informed that his client, Mrs. Kit, had taken to her bed with the beginning of a cold.

“Brought on by chill, don’t you doubt it,” Mrs. Gelstrap said. “I just do hope you’ll be able to keep us warm tonight!”

He returned to the cabin in disgust, went to bed too early to a night of restless nightmares in which an animated furnace pursued him through stacks of untouched wood.

He woke up cold, just as the first sunlight touched the far side of the lake, moved across the water and seemed to pull a wispy tenuous mist with it.

Nancy had made a warm nest of all the covers and murmured sleepily as he got up. He had a momentary and almost irresistible impulse to pull the bedding away and accuse her of cover snatching.

Jim Dunn stretched and yawned. He dressed.

He started down the path toward the main house, in the belief he might still find some embers in his nemesis, the furnace.

He passed the turn in the path before he saw the car.

It was a small but highly polished coupe, parked near the lake shore.

He walked more quickly then, cursing silently at the sound of rushing water which could hide so completely the sound of a motor. He stopped suddenly, retraced the steps he had made in the car’s direction.

The door to the basement was open. It stood wide, and he remembered distinctly closing and locking it the night before.

THE basement was a gloomy cavern. Warm, pitch-scented air gushed past him to escape into the early morning chill.

He reached for the nearest dropcord light, turned it on. A nagging familiarity about the small coupe churned in the back of his mind, was pushed aside in the stress of the moment.

The wood he had piled so laboriously, heavy pitch chunks and odds and ends of logs, threw a dark shadow at the far end. He reached the next light.

The elevator!

The last thing he had done the night before was to fill it with a liberal supply of wood and crank it up into the recess in the floor above. But the supporting ropes showed now, and the recess was no longer closed by the under side of the platform.

Jim moved more quickly, but with an added caution, and turned on the last light. The elevator platform held little wooden now, carried a far different burden.

The skirts were dirt stained, twisted around the lax figure. An outstretched arm hung limply, stained palm exposed. Plump legs sprawled out grotesquely, and the heels of the polished, sensible shoes rested in a dark stain on the hard-packed dirt.

Unwanted recollection came to Jim Dunn in that instant. A memory of Miss Wister proudly parking her small coupe in the lot near the office, walking the rug path to take dictation in similar shoes.

Jim started the woodpile moved to a point where he could see the face. He let out a long sigh both of disbelief and relief. Whoever owned the coupe outside, the dead woman was not Miss Wister.

He bent over, found no pulse in the limp wrist, touched gently the battered face of Angelica Carlson Jones.

No reason to doubt the cause of death. The matted mousy hair, the impossible indentation beginning at the bloodstained forehead, told of a crushed skull. Angelica’s head and shoulders were partially propped against the wall while her body rested unnaturally on the pieces of pitch still on the elevator floor.

THE silence of the house pulled him away from further examination, sent him running up the steep stairway. The door at its head was locked. He pounded at it with the sides of his clenched fists. He waited, listened. He pounded again and shouted. He put his ear to the wooden panel.

The silence was a desolate thing.

He kicked at the door with a booted foot, drew back as far as possible and lunged against the door with his shoulder. It held firm, and Jim was almost catapulted down the steep stairs. There was no purchase for his feet, no room for movement necessary for the sustained effort to break down the door.

He clattered down the stairs, hurried through the basement, closed and locked the outer door behind him. Bright sunlight touched the ground of the triangle. The breeze sent ripple patterns across the lake’s surface, bringing color change. Small wavelets added their shorsplashing to the background of rushing creek water.

The sun gleamed from polished chrome on the small coupe. Jim moved quickly, wrenched open an unlocked door. The registration and insurance papers on the steering column told him his memory had not played him false. It was Miss Wister’s car. (To Be Continued)

Perryton To Extend Road

PERRYTON — (Special) — The Ochiltree county commissioners agreed last week to place the county farm to market road allocation for next two years into extending FM 377, the “Uncle Sam” highway, nine miles east to the Lipscomb county line.

Cost will be about $130,000, which includes the county allocation of state and federal road funds for the 1955-56 program. This would indicate that this takes care of the new FM paving through 1956.

There had been considerable interest in securing paving to the northwest, extending the farm-to-market road west and northwest toward the new Texas county oil field. Emergency action on such a loan had been asked several months ago. The county followed the highway department recommendation in placing the new allocation.

It has also been recently decided to pave four miles of farm-to-market pavement to extend FM 759 from the Hanstford county line to connect with Highway 70 south of town.

ADULT EDUCATORS — Mrs. Dorothy Statton, (left) secretary for the Adult Education program discusses the work with Mrs. Lillian Snow, Pampa Librarian.

Individual Thinking Is Aim Of Adult Education Program

By BILL KERR
Pampa News Staff Writer
Pampa's four adult education programs get underway during the month of September. The subject matter in the four groups, Great Books, American Heritage, World Affairs and Spanish, make for a diversified program under well-qualified discussion leaders.

Basically, the behind-the-scenes operator instrumental in getting the program started in the community is Mrs. Lillian Snow, Pampa's public librarian. Early in 1953 she got Dr. Per Stenland, of Texas Technological College, Lubbock, head of the Adult Education program in this area, to address her women's club, Altrusa International.

Python Pete's Kin Receives Operation

FORT WORTH, Sept. 25 —UP— Python experts at Fort Worth's Forest zoo, none too expert at catching the big snakes, can doctor them.

The zoo's snake men, still searching for 18-foot-long Pete, a python AWOL from the zoo for a week, operated Friday on five-foot long Susie, an infant python.

Susie, an ambitious mouzler, caught a small rodent earlier Friday at her home in Terrell, Tex., some 75 miles east of Fort Worth. She swallowed both the mouse and the trap in which the rodent had been caught first.

Susie's owners, Glen and Dale King, took their six-month-old pet to Dr. R. G. Lewis, a Terrell veterinarian. He had had no previous experience with pythons, so Lewis rushed the snake and trap to Forest Park Zoo, where an emergency operation was performed.

The Kings, who said they got Susie while soldiering in the Pacific, took no chances on her getting away. They had Lewis take her back to Terrell as soon as the 30-minute operation was successfully completed.

ARRESTED

Enrico Piccioni, right, jazz musician son of former Italian Foreign Minister Attilio Piccioni, was arrested in Rome in connection with drug and sex death of Wilma Montesi. Shortly after Piccioni's arrest, "Maurizio" Ugo Montagna, left, another central figure in the scandal, was arrested and taken to police.

Moon Trip By Man Not Many Years Off

WHITE SANDS PROVINGposes a space station is impossible. The president of the American Rocket Society believes man will reach the moon within 25 years. He said it was "preposterous" to consider launching a six-thousand-ton space station big enough to support men and equipment to take off for the moon. He praised the efforts of Professor Clyde Tombaugh, the astronomer who discovered Pluto, in the solution to moon travel probably would lie in man-made satellites about 600 miles out from earth, where inter-planetary travelers could stop for refueling.

HERE'S A CHANCE FOR SOME COOL DISK JOCKEY TO SHINE

LONDON —UP— Radio Moscow reported Thursday that Russian scientists have installed a microphone at the North Pole. The broadcast did not say who would be broadcasting over it.

(The prime difficulty facing rocket scientists is the development of a power plant with enough drive to overcome the strong pull of gravity at the earth's surface. On a space port, several hundred miles out from earth, gravity would be much less and, after refueling, a space ship could blast off for the moon or other planets in the solar system with considerably better chance of reaching a destination and returning.)

THE FIGHTING HARVESTERS CERTAINLY

don't have anything to be ashamed of in losing Friday night's game at Vernon.

Breaks were against the Green and Golders all night, so many, in fact that it kept the Pampans from winning. But due credit must go to the Vernon Lions who possibly have their best team in the school's history. Wouldn't be surprised if the Lions don't come through as champions of the rugged District 1-AAA that includes Breckenridge, Sweetwater et al.

Of course it's good to win every time you go out on the field but Friday's game won't hurt so far as the 1-4A standings are concerned.

That's what these non-district games are for, anyway, to prepare for district play.

The Harvesters didn't let up at any time and as long as they continue that all-out fight they have exhibited these first two games they'll win some more ball games.

FROM PASADENA, WAYS

COMES A FINE sports columnist written by Shavenau Glick, sports editor of the Pasadena Times, regarding Pampa's fine basketball, Jimmy Bond.

We'll turn the rest of this space over to Mr. Glick:

By SHAVENAU GLICK
"Sincere desire to prepare for the Nazarene ministry outweighed a stack of scholarship offers that would have made even Harvey Knox sit up and take notice prompted the nation's most sought after prep basketball player to enroll at Pasadena College (Nazarene) this week instead of one of a dozen or more schools which dangled tempting offers for his athletic services."

"Jimmy Bond, 6 foot 5 1/2 inch star of Pampa, Tex., state champion and his older brother, Marvin, also a former Pampa stand-out, crossed up the entire state of Texas when they decided two weeks ago to come west for their education. For the past two years, all the country's top basketball powers have been waging a spirited battle for Bond's services, with Texas A&M having the inside track until Pasadena College entered the picture."

"Some folks might not understand it, but it was the fine Christian attitude of the school here which decided us," Jim Bond explained in his slow Texas drawl when asked how he passed up lucrative offers to enroll at the tiny Pasadena school. "Marvin and I wanted to be together and we both want to become ministers so we felt going to school here would better prepare us for attending the Nazarene Theological Seminary after we graduate."

"The story of how these two boys finally landed in Pasadena began last February in Kansas City, where Coach Ken Koepfle and his Nazarene Crusaders were on hand for the NAIA Cage tournament. Another school in the NAIA tourney was Wayland College of Plainview, Tex., where Marvin Bond had played freshman ball two years ago before transferring to Bethany-Peniel, a Nazarene school in Bethany, Okla.

"The Wayland coach and players tipped off Koepfle and his assistant Champ Cartwright about the tournament Cartwright told the two Bond boys, telling them

Iowa Rallies To Edge Past Spartans

IOWA CITY, Ia., Sept. 25—UP— Iowa's Hawkeyes came from behind in the fourth period to defeat favored Michigan State, 14-10, before more than 50,000 fans and a nationwide television audience Saturday.

The mild upset not only ruined the coaching debut of Hugh Daugherty but also cast the Hawks, who finished strong in 1953, as a distinct Big Ten threat.

Eldon Matheson, second-string halfback, set up the final Iowa touchdown with a 52-yard punt return to the Spartan three-yard line. For three downs the Rose Bowl champions held but on the fourth, quarterback Jerry Reichow followed guard Cal Jones, Iowa's top nominee for all-American honors, over for the score.

The clock ran out on the Spartans, co-champions with Illinois last year, as they tried desperation passes from inside their own 20-yard line.

Coach Forest Evaschski's team, supposedly weak in reserves, pushed the Spartans all over the field in the first half, racking up one touchdown on nine first downs for 152 total yards.

The Iowa line, averaging 210 pounds, bottled up the speedy Michigan State backs all afternoon. The game was marred by 10 fumbles with Iowa losing possession three times and the Spartans four.

Purdue Raps Missouri 31-0

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Sept. 25—UP—Purdue unveiled a passing sensation Saturday in sophomore Leonard Dawson who fired four touchdowns passes and led the Riveters to a one-sided 31-0 triumph over Missouri before 28,000 sweltering fans in the local stadium.

It was the first opening game victory for Purdue since 1948 when they bested Miami of Ohio, 13-7, and it was the seventh straight year that the Tigers from the Big Seven dropped their curtain raiser.

Dawson, a six-footer from Alliance, Ohio, entered the game late in the second period and it was his show from then on. In all, he reeled off 17 aerials, completing 11 for 184 yards and four touchdowns.

Dawson fired three bulls' eyes in the second period and his other in the fourth after fullback Bill Murakowski had bulled over for the fourth marker.

Sub end Bob Koenke pulled in two of the markers and halfback Rex Brock and end Bob Springer the others. Koenke paved the way for Purdue's first score when he recovered quarterback Dick Eaton's fumble on the Missouri 11.

Missouri's best third in the third period was master-minded by sub quarterback Tony Cardino who connected for four passes to Harold Burnine, Ray Dering and Jim Hunter. The drive stopped cold when Giant and Lamar Lundy grabbed Scardino and threw him back on fourth down.

Purdue amassed 361 yards total offense, double Missouri's yardage.

Oiler Business Manager Praises Pampa Oiler Fans

The Pampa Oilers, 1954 West Texas-New Mexico League champions, began scotching out Saturday to return to their respective winter homes.

Jimmy Hamilton, who has just concluded his second year as the Oiler business manager, is leaving today for Miami, Fla. Before leaving, though, Hamilton wants to express his appreciation for the fine treatment he has received from everyone here.

Steers Fumble Victory Chances

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 25—UP—Ralph Guglielmi put on a one-man show Saturday to spark Notre Dame to a 21 to 0 triumph over Texas in the first game for the Irish under Coach Terry Brennan.

Playing before 57,594 fans, Guglielmi, a senior signal caller who had to go to summer school to be eligible after he was expelled last December for violating the curfew rule, scored two touchdowns, passed for another and intercepted three Texas aerials.

It was the first time Texas has been shut out in a game since 1946 when Texas Christian held the Longhorns scoreless. Since then Texas has scored in 76 straight games. Saturday's wins gave the Irish a string of 13 games without defeat.

The contest was hardly as one-sided as the score and until Notre Dame opened the second half with a 79-yard parade in 10 plays to make the count 14 to 0, Texas was a close challenger.

In the first half Notre Dame got across midfield only once, when Guglielmi returned an intercepted pass 41 yards to the Texas 39. Then Don Schaefer ran for 16 yards before Guglielmi passed to Don Shannon for 19 and a score.

But Texas wasn't finished. Guglielmi, who had broken up one Texas attack with an interception on the Irish eight, made another on the one as the half ended to kill another Longhorn march.

The Irish put on their clincher when Guglielmi hit Jim Morse for 21 yards and Joe Heap for 37 on the drive towards their second score, when the quarterback went from the one for the marker.

Irish Pull Ahead
Thereafter, a fumbled punt by Don Maroney on the Irish 44 set up another score. Guglielmi passed to Morse for 27 and after Schaefer ran for 23, Guglielmi went over from the three. Schaefer converted after each touchdown.

Guglielmi was passing expertly, making only 62 yards on six completions on 10 tries. Texas, which had four passes intercepted, could

Dodgers Cinch Second In NL

BROOKLYN, Sept. 25—UP—Brooklyn Dodgers clinched second place Saturday with a barrage of four home runs that sank the Pittsburgh Pirates, 10-5.

It was the Pirates' 100th defeat marking the third straight year the Pittsburgh club has lost 100 or more games.

Carl Furillo paced the Brooklyn attack with his 18th and 19th home run to drive in three runs. Duane Snider hit his 40th and Sandy Amoros connected for his ninth round tripper of the season.

The Dodgers now have two men with 40 or more homers, the second straight year they have accomplished the feat and the only two times it has been achieved by a club in National League history. Gil Hodges has 41 homers. Last year Snider had 42 and Roy Campanella 41.

Sooner Aags Trip Texas Aags, 14-6

DALLAS, Sept. 25—UP—Oklahoma A&M's Cowpokes, who hadn't beaten Texas A&M since 1913, converted two roughing penalties and some sunburns of quick-opening line power to turn the trick 14 to 6 before 14,000 fans in the Cotton Bowl Saturday night. The Oklahoma moved 46 yards in the opening minutes of the second quarter with Lehman Brightman, a 180-pound junior fullback, pounding the final three yards, then went 64 yards late in the third quarter with junior halfback Bill Whitt driving the final yard.

Each time, a 15-yard piling-on penalty against the outmanned Texas Aggies provided the key to the scoring march with sophomore guard Louie Flores converting each time.

Sooner Aags brought some life to an otherwise dull contest early in the final quarter with a 67-yard drive featuring the running of quarterback Elwood Kettler and fullback Don Kachik to score its only touchdown. Kettler squeaked the final foot, but had his conversion try blocked by Whitt and end Bob Larue.

Coach Paul Bryant's Texas A&M team looked a bit sharper than a week earlier when it was crushed by Texas Tech, but twice had interceptions by alert Oklahoma A&M backs Whitt and Fred Duval kill off scoring threats in the first half.

Duval, a sophomore, was one of the standouts on the Oklahoma Aggie ground attack, alternating between feeding the ball off to Whitt, Joel Favara and Earl Lunsford for big chunks of yardage and occasionally keeping it himself on off-tackle slaps.

Top Oklahoma Hands
Tackle Leland Kendall and guard Dale Mainert were the top hands in an Oklahoma A&M line that kept Kettler, Kachik and company fairly well bottled up except for the one sustained scoring surge.

Oklahoma A&M ground out 289 yards rushing, but failed to pick up a single yard passing, while Texas A&M got 106 yards on the ground and 67 through the air.

Frogs Score Sooners Before Losing 21-16

NORMAN, Okla., Sept. 25—UP—Oklahoma summoned up a desperate attack in the last period Saturday to turn what looked like sure defeat at the hands of Texas Christian University into a 21 to 16 victory.

The highly-rated Oklahoma came from behind with five minutes left to play when halfback Buddy Leake returned a punt 50 yards and set up the winning 50-yard scoring run by halfback Bob Herndon. A crowd of 50,000 saw the game.

The touchdown ended a free, but brutal, series of scoring thrust in which the lead changed hands three times. Texas Christian's big sophomore-packed squad capitalized on 10 Oklahoma fumbles and uncorked a wide-open passing attack to give coach-of-the-week Bud Wilkinson his worst scare in years.

Sooner star quarterback Gene Calame suffered a broken shoulder, but his substitute, sophomore Jim Harris, scored twice to fill the gap very well.

TCU scored again in the fourth period as halfback Ken Wineburg passed 31 yards to end James Cooper, Oklahoma, behind 7 to 16. Curtis, Cooper, Conversions—Leake (Knecht, Pollard, Safety—Leake (Knocked by Hamilton in end zone).

Boxers Urged To Return Release Cards By Monday

All boys who have signed up for the Optimist Club boxing program are urged to return their parents' release cards not later than Monday, Oren James, chairman of the boxing committee, revealed Saturday.

A total of 90 boys had signed up for the boxing program through Saturday but only 45 parents' release cards had been returned.

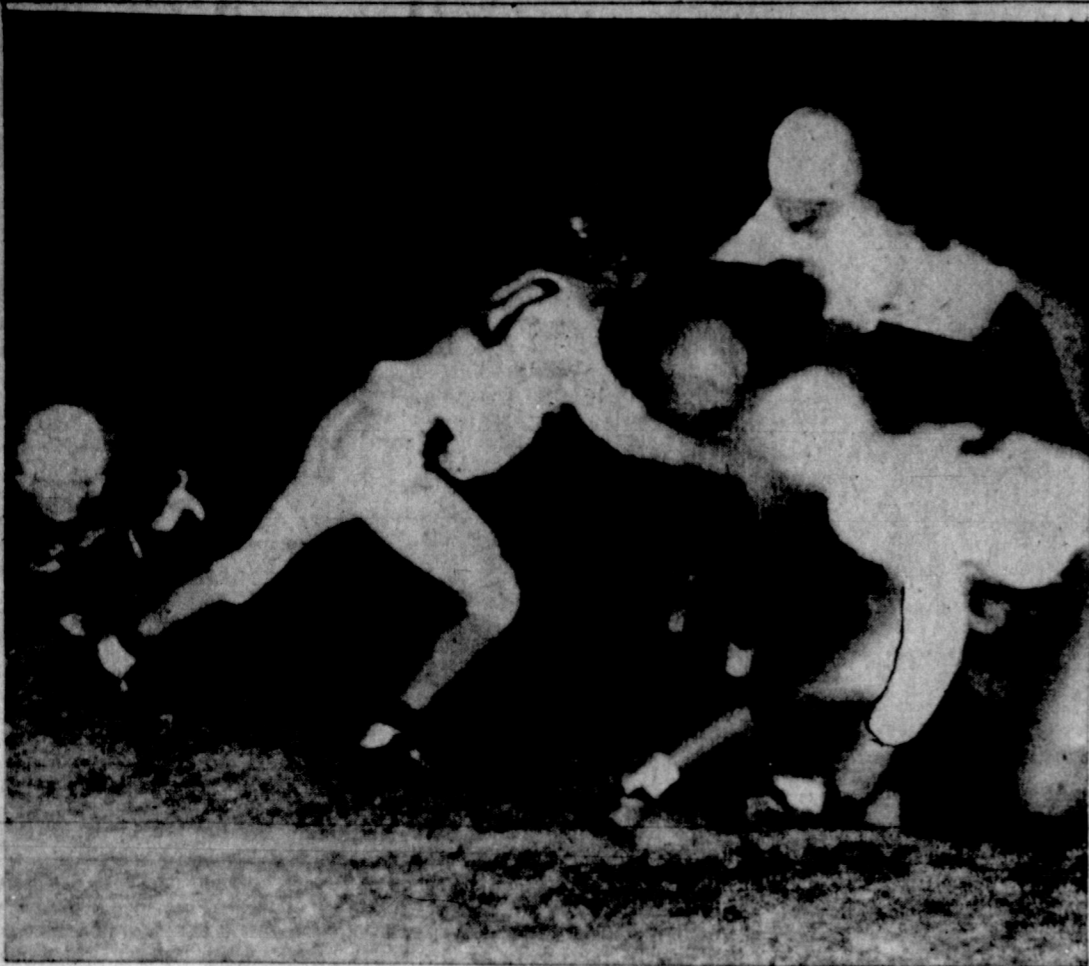

"We will start placing the boys on teams Monday night," James said, "and we must have the said release cards returned before putting a boy on a team."

The boys will be divided into six teams and will have six different coaches. Sponsors for the six teams have already been named. They are Citizens' Bank, First National Bank, Panhandle Insurance, Spokesman, Elmer's Super Market and Pampa News.

The squad lists for each team will be announced Thursday. Coaches of the six teams will draw for their teams at the Optimist Club meeting Wednesday.

Harvesters Upset By Vernon In Non-District Clash, 20-13

Lions Cash In On Break For Victory

By BUCK FRANCIS
Pampa News Sports Editor

VERNON, Sept. 25 — A light but fighting band of Pampa Harvester footballers met and were upset by an inspired Vernon Lion team here Friday night, 20-13, in a non-district meeting.

The Harvesters couldn't cope with the much heavier Lion eleven who held, at numerous times during the game, a 15-pound per man weight advantage over the Green and Golders.

The Harvesters sorely missed their two injured tackles, Ben Sturgeon (203) and Jerry McNaughton (170). Both boys were on the sidelines Friday night but in civilian clothes.

But even at that the Harvesters battled the Lions on equal terms through most of the game and it took a bad break against the Pampans midway through the final quarter to turn the tide for the Lions.

A bad snap back from center on fourth down proved to be the undoing of the ever-trying Harvesters. Bill Fulenwider of the Harvesters was back on the Harvester 15 to punt but the snap back sailed over his finger tips and although Fulenwider recovered the ball on the PHS nine yard marker, the ball went over on downs.

Vernon scored in three plays to snap a 13-13 tie and then staved off a couple Harvester threats late in the game to protect the lead. There was 5:55 minutes time remaining in the game when Vernon pushed over the winning touchdown.

First Win Since 1947

The win was the fourth for the Lions over the Harvesters in the last 10 games between the two clubs. And it was the first Lion win over the Green and Gold since 1947. The Harvesters held a five-game winning streak over Vernon before Friday's game.

The two teams didn't meet last year but the Harvesters had downed Vernon, 44-21, in 1952; 26-0 in 1951; 33-14 in 1950; 8-7 in 1949; and 19-6 in 1948.

The last Vernon win was in 1947 when the Lions won by a 32-14 margin.

The Harvesters held a 13-6 lead at halftime but the Lions battled back to tie it up at 13-13 with five minutes left in the third period. The two clubs then rocked back and forth with neither making a serious scoring threat until the disastrous break against the Harvesters over half-way through the final quarter.

Even after Vernon tallied the tie-breaking TD, the Harvesters threw a tremendous scare into the near partisan crowd of some 3,000 fans in the dying minutes of play.

The first scare came when the Harvesters took the ensuing kickoff off on their own 34 and drove to Vernon's 38 before "Lady Luck" frowned on the Harvesters again that finally resulted in the Pampans turning the ball over to the Lions on the Vernon 37.

Operating from the Vernon 38 with fourth down and six yards for a first, Harvester quarterback Buddy Sharp, was trapped around the mid-field stripe attempting to pass but Sharp finally got the pass off to end Jon Cantrell who took the ball on the Vernon 40.

Cantrell had clear running room for at least 10 or 15 yards but the over anxious big end tripped and fell on the Lion 37, just four yards shy of a first down. The ball then went over to the Lions.

Harvester offensive chance as less than three minutes remained in the game and the Lions began a slow drive down field, taking plenty of time between plays in an effort to run out the clock.

But the Harvesters continued to scrap and it paid off as quarterback Bill Pearson of the Lions fumbled on the Harvester 48 and end Bill Culpepper of the Harvesters pounced on the ball with a minute left in the game.

The Harvesters had time for four plays but they couldn't get moving and Vernon took over with 10 seconds left in the game on the Harvester 46. On the Harvesters fourth play, Sharp's pass to Fulenwider, who had worked his way behind the Lion secondary on the Vernon 10, was just a few inches out of the reach of the Harvester halfback and with that play went the Harvester chances of catching up. UCLA Crushes Kansas, 32 To 7

LAWRENCE, Kan., Sept. 25 — UP — The University of California at Los Angeles struck for three quick touchdowns in the first period Saturday and went on to defeat Kansas University 32 to 7 in an inter-sectional football game before 22,000 fans.

The defending Pacific Coast champions, in their first appearance in the Midlands, gave a smashing exhibition of single-wing power at the start as they built up an 18 to 7 lead in the first half.

Kansas caught fire on an 83-yard punt return for a touchdown by halfback Ralph Moody late in the second period and from that point until late in the final period the losers held their own against the heavily favored California team.

Strong UCLA Finish
UCLA was brilliant at the beginning and the end. The Rose Bowl representatives of last Jan. 31 were held scoreless through the second and third periods, but closed with a two-touchdown attack in the final game.

Don Schinnick, a reserve back, broke into the clear from the UCLA 19 and ran 73 yards to the Kansas 9 to set up the last UCLA score. Gerry McDougall carried it over on the next play.

Early in the fourth period, a blocked Kansas punt gave UCLA its fourth marker. Steven Palmer blocked the boot by Kansas' George Remsburg and UCLA's 223-pound star tackle, Jack Ellena, picked up the ball on the Kansas 23 and went to the end zone.

Bob Davenport, Jim Decker and Doug Bradley scored the opening period touchdowns for UCLA.

Early Kansas Fumble
A Kansas fumble on the second play of the game gave UCLA possession and the winners needed only seven plays to take it across. Davenport went over from the one-yard line, UCLA moved 65 yards on five plays, Decker scoring on a reverse from the Kansas 18.

A pass intercepted by Rommie Loudd, veteran end, led to the third UCLA score. Loudd snared the toss by Kansas' Ben Buller on the Kansas 26. UCLA scored on six plays, one a nine-yard aerial. Bradley tallied from the Kansas three.

'Lowly' Hogs Rack Up 41-0 Win Off Tulsa

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Sept. 25 —The University of Arkansas, usually a strong contender for last place in the Southwest Conference, opened the season Saturday by beating Tulsa University 41 to 0.

Arkansas looked like anything but last-place material as Coach Bowden-Wyatt used three different teams in his single wing attack against Tulsa. Thirteen thousand spectators saw the game.

Tulsa was weakened last week by the loss of four starters. It drove to the one-yard line and to the 15 in the early part of the second period; but Arkansas dug in and held.

Fullback Bubby Benson of Arkansas passed to Buddy Proctor in the second for a touchdown from the 12-yard-line after the two Tulsa drives had been stopped. That took the steam out of Tulsa completely.

Arkansas rolled off three touchdowns in the third period. Fullback Henry Moore scored one on a 20-yard run over left guard. Then Jerry Ford, a sophomore center, intercepted a Tulsa pass and ran 74 yards down the sidelines for another.

Back George Walker intercepted a pass on the 43-yard line. It took two passes to get it down to the one-yard line from where he smashed it over for the touchdown.

Benson capped the game in its last four minutes by throwing a looping 48-yard pass to end Ronnie Underwood in the 10. Benson took the ball across from the one-yard line.

Moore scored Arkansas' first touchdown in the first period. Benson alternated with Walker in the tallback spot vacated last year by All-America Lamar McHan. Both Walker and Benson are sophomores.

On the defense, Arkansas Bud Brooks, a senior guard, was the standout. He wouldn't give an inch while Tulsa quarterback Charles Wynes made three desperate attempts to drive it over in the early part of the second.

Score by periods: Arkansas 7 7 21 6—41 Tulsa 0 0 0 0—0

Arkansas scoring: Touchdowns—Moore (2), Proctor, Ford, Walker, Benson. Conversions—Walker 3, Carpenter 2.

Giants Have Big Edge In Infield

(EDITORS: This is the second in a series of three by United Press Sports Editor Leo H. Petersen comparing the 1934 World Series rivals.)

By LEO H. PETERSEN
NEW YORK, Sept. 24—The Giants have the defensive edge and the Indians the offensive advantage when it comes to the infield and catching.

There are many baseball men who feel that tighter inner defense of New York will offset to a large degree the superiority which Cleveland figures to have in pitching.

On a man to man comparison, the National League pennant winners rate the defensive edge at first, second and third with the first string catchers, Jim Hegan of the Indians and Wes Westrum of the Giants rated on equal terms.

At short, the Indians with George Strickland have a man who can cover more ground than Al Dark of the Giants.

But at first it is Whitey Lockman of the Giants over Vic Wertz of the Indians in fielding; Davey Williams at second over Bobby Avila and Henry Thompson over Al Rosen at third.

In offensive power, the Indians rate a big edge with Avila over Williams and Rosen over Thompson. Wertz and Lockman are about equal but Dark far overshadows Strickland at the plate.

Neither Hegan nor Westrum is a heavy hitter, but both hit the long ball occasionally. Through Wednesday's games, Hegan was hitting .258 with seven homers and 34 runs batted in against 183, eighthomers and 27RBI's for Westrum.

Wertz is hitting a point over Lockman, .256 to .255. He has hit 15 homers and batted in 61 runs while Lockman has driven 16 out of the park and sent 60 runners across the plate.

Cleveland's Bat Heaviest
Avila is almost a cinch to win the American League batting title and is out-hitting Williams, .337 to .225. He has hit 14 homers and driven in 66 runs against nine homers and 46 RBI's for Williams.

Dark, the sparkplug of the Giants infield who teams brilliantly with Williams as a superb double play combination to Strickland and Avila, is hitting .296 with 20 homers and 69 runs batted in. Strickland is batting only .213 with five homers and 34 RBI's.

Pros Start Playing For Keeps Today

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 25—UP—The National Football League, where they separate the men from the pseudo All-Americans as painlessly as possible, opens its 35th season Sunday and Commissioner Bert Bell predicted practically without reservation it would be the professional circuit's finest season.

"We'll have the best league races of all time in each division, and right now, the bounce of a ball or the luck of injuries could win or lose the title for any number of teams," Bell said. "I look for an 84 record to be a division winner unless somebody unforeseen gets real red hot and can't be stopped."

Six games are on Sunday's schedule, and the nation will be blanketed with telecasts carrying three of the contests in 113 cities from New England to the Pacific Coast.

The Los Angeles game at Baltimore will be telecast in 50 cities in the southeast, south-central, southwest and Pacific Coast states.

The New York Giants game with the Chicago Cardinals at Chicago will be seen in 21 cities in regional New York and New England and the "Pittsburgh Steelers" network in Western Pennsylvania.

The Philadelphia Eagles-Cleveland Browns game at Philadelphia will be telecast to 42 cities in the mid-west as far as the Rocky Mountains.

In other openers, the Detroit Lions begin their bid for a third straight championship against the Chicago Bears at Detroit; the Steelers are at Green Bay and the Washington Redskins are at San Francisco.

Hoskins Off Series Roster
NEW YORK, Sept. 25—UP—Catcher Mickey Grasso replaced pitcher Dave Hoskins as a World Series eligible for the Cleveland Indians under a ruling by Commissioner Ford Frick. The Indians asked that Grasso be made eligible, although he was sidelined with an injury most of the season.

Double-Main Event On Wrestle Slate

Bob Geigel and George Curtis, rugged and tough after the gong who had quite a lot of differences, sounds, from Glasgow, Scotland, in a tag team match here last week, clash in a no-time-limit main event Monday night which should bring out the best and worst of each wrestler.

The Top O' Texas Sportsman's Club is the scene of revived professional wrestling in Pampa. Wrestling here is sponsored by the Pampa Shrine Club with benefits going to Shrine's popular charities.

Curtis, popular athlete from Vicksburg, Miss., and Geigel, former star footballer for University of Iowa, are no strangers to wrestling fans of Texas and the Southwest States territory. Curtis is a clean, legitimate wrestler, whereas Geigel, a tall, hairy, staking grappler, goes for the rough side.

That match tops off a double main event Monday night, and may or may not be more colorful than the first section of the twin feature. In the opener, Dick Steinborn, from Miami, Florida, takes on Scotty MacFarland, a tough guy from you know which country. MacFarland, a red-headed demon in the ring, is actually a very personable character when he is not in wrestling uniform. He is

It will be most interesting to see how the New York-born youngster, Steinborn comes out with the veteran blood-thirsty Scotman.

Abilene Continues To Show Power

By UNITED PRESS
A parade of schoolboy football favorites, led by touchdown-happy Port Neches, the Class AAA defending champion, strengthened their bids for prominence through all four divisions Friday night.

But, it was the powerful Port Neches Indians, loaded with experience, who made the loudest noise with a stunning 91-to-13 victory over Class AAAA Orange.

Jackie Hathorn, the spectacular quarterback, led the parade with 22 points on three touchdowns and four conversions, but eight other Indians also shared in the touchdown parade.

Shaping up as a possible Class AAA finalist with Port Neches was Breckenridge, which wallopped Brownwood 42 to 7 in a northern bracket feature.

Other, top Class AAAA performances included Levelland's 60-to-20 verdict over Littlefield, Big Spring's 34-to-6 win over Stephenville, Lufkin's 14-to-7 decision over Freeport and McAllen's 13-to-7 over Victoria.

In that division, Harlandale beat Kerrville 40 to 13 and San Antonio Edison downed Seguin 32 to 0 in opening conference games of the season.

In Class AAAA, Abilene, Lufkin, Corpus Christi Ray and Baytown continued to look impressive. Abilene beat a good Sweetwater club 13 to 0, Lubbock crushed Dallas Wilson 46 to 7, Baytown whipped San Antonio Jefferson 26 to 6 and Ray defeated Oklahoma City Capitol Hill 29 to 14.

In Class AA, only Cameron and San Marcos disappointed among the leaders as Nederland, Phillips Perryton, Colorado City, Stamford, Comanche, Mineral Wells, Carrollton, Mount Vernon, Atlanta, Linden, Carthage, Emnis, Caldwell, Gonzales, Lockhart, Columbus, Lamarque, and Freer won their games — most by lopsided margins, and Waxahachie held power-laden Class AAA Corsicana to a 14-to-14 tie.

In Class A, most of the favorites took licks, but Hale Center continued to be impressive as it beat undefeated-undefeated Dimmitt 44 to 6.

Rio Hondo, the class of the lowly, Rio Grande Valley, was beaten 25 to 12 by a fine Class AA team from Raymondville.

Burdette Blanks Cardinals, 3-0
MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 25—UP—Lewis Burdette fashioned a sparkling four-hitter Saturday to give the Milwaukee Braves a 3-0 victory over St. Louis, before 34,445 fans in competition to a Marquette-Wisconsin football game at nearby Madison.

The attendance raised the Braves to 2,091,963 paid home fans this year.

Burdette gave up a double to Ray Jablonski in the second inning, but other than that limited the Cardinals to scattered singles in going over the 500 mark for the season with a 13-14 record.

Rookie Hurlers Win For Chic Cubs
CHICAGO, Sept. 25—UP—Rookie pitcher Al Lary and Jim Davis stopped Cincinnati with three hits here Saturday and the Chicago Cubs knocked the Redlegs out of a tie for fourth place with a 4-2 victory before a Ladies Day crowd of 7,385.

Called on for his first major league start when Howie Pollet was unable to take his turn because of a 104-degree fever, Lary yielded just three hits in the six innings he worked. Davis blanked Cincinnati the rest of the way, gaining credit for the victory, his 11th against seven defeats.

Gators Upset Wreck, 13-12

ATLANTA, Sept. 25—UP—Inspired by the darting and daring of quarterback Bobby Lance, Florida's long-submerged Gators handed Georgia Tech its first home defeat in four years Saturday with a stunning 13 to 12 upset victory before 30,000 fans.

Tech, a two-touchdown favorite, almost avoided the humiliation in the closing minutes when Bill Teas went 26 yards on a touchdown journey to bring Tech within one point. But Burton Grant's extra point try was wide and Florida grabbed its first win over Georgia Tech since 1941.

Lance was the man who made the Gators go when the pressure was on. The 178-pound junior from Nashville, Tenn., completed four of five passes for 44 yards, set up both of the scores, and tallied the Gators' second touchdown on a five yard plunge.

Lance's sub, quarterback Dick Allen, provided the actual victory margin with his extra point kick after the first Florida touchdown in the third period. He missed one later but Tech was to miss both of its attempts. The Atlanta Engineers didn't even get a kick after their first score when Jimmy Morris, snapping the ball high.

Florida rolled for a total of 295 yards on the ground, biting off most of the yardage over Tech's sagging tackles and around end. Florida's two fullbacks, Mal Hammack and Joe Brodsky, accounted up 120 in 14 tries.

Score by periods: Georgia Tech 0 0 6 6—12 Florida 0 0 7 6—13

Georgia Tech scoring: Touchdowns — Brigman, Teas. Florida scoring: Touchdowns — Simpson, Lance. Conversion — Allen.

Peg O' Pampa

THINGS CERTAINLY HAVE BEEN HAPPENING this week with the Oilers taking the championship in a thriller-diller of a game, the Harvesters winning their first game, of the season, and Tri-State Fair in Amarillo and Sonja Henie. Whew! Peg sure has been busy getting around to everything this week.

THE AAUW GOT OFF TO A FINE START with a wonderful meeting Tuesday. Peg sort of edged her way in as a guest. There certainly were a lot of pretty young faces there. Couldn't help wonder if some of them were new teachers. Janie Bowers with her flashing personality gave a wonderful review. Evelyn Nace was circulating around before the meeting being her usual charming self. It was good to see so many familiar faces. Evelyn Milam at the punch bowl, gracious Mrs. L. M. Harrah, Helene Huff, Oleta Marlin, Mrs. L. L. Milliren, Mary Bowen, Elizabeth Hurley and many others. Sibyl Turner did a wonderful job presiding at her first meeting.

PEG HEARD that Jessye Stroup is taking what she calls a "Sentimental Journey" back to her home town in Illinois and to places she lived in that area and in Indiana. She's traveling alone and doing just what she wants and goes where she wants. What a wonderful idea—especially when you've been away from your home-town area for years.

GOT TAKEN THROUGH Flauidie and Minnie Gallman's garden last week. It certainly is a beautiful sight. Peg was amazed that such an array of beautiful flowers could survive here. They certainly must work at it constantly. It's an accomplishment to really be proud of. Another Pampan with a beautiful garden is Mrs. William Castleberry. In fact, Peg believes she has the most beautiful roses in the whole Panhandle. and she works at it all year round. Peg wishes she had a green thumb and all that ambition.

IT ISN'T OFTEN Pampan's get the chance to go to an ice show. One night last week a lot of them were taking advantage of it. It was the Sonja Henie Ice Revue over at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo. saw, among others, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Shelhamer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Culbertson, Mr. and Mrs. George Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Imel, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Foster, Mrs. G. A. Black, Ivy Duncan and Miss Eulaine Ellis. It was a wonderful show, especially those gay and colorful costumes. and how graceful Miss Henie was. Her Hawaiian hula number was tops. It was a sell-out crowd. Peg understands a couple of Pampan's bachelors had a tough time getting into the show. There were no tickets on sale at the box office, so they hung around near the door and finally cornered someone who had some extras. It made Peg feel good, too, when one of the young performers—and most of them were quite young—fell, then got up and did the difficult stunt successfully, to hear so many of those in the audience applaud. He practically got as much applause as Miss Henie herself. In all, it was a marvelous show and Peg hopes that some day Pampa will play host to an ice show like it. bet an ice skating rink would go over here.

THOSE LIONS CLUBBERS certainly do have a time for themselves. especially when the wives make one of their periodic visits to the basement of the First Methodist Church. all the wives who had birthdays in September showed up Thursday noon. the high sheriff, Rufe Jordan by name, was presiding and had each one of the husbands of the honored gals stand up, give his wife's name, then tell everyone what he calls her at home. Dr. Malcolm Brown got up, said his wife's name was Clementine, then added, "But at home, I call her Battle-ax!" either the men are bashful or very conservative, but Peg understands there wasn't a man in the house who admitted to using that time-honored name—"Darling". Come now, you Lions, what's the story?

PAMPA WINS! Peg is still so excited she can hardly get the housework done. Went out to the ball park Thursday night and braved the cool winds to see our Oilers wrap up the playoffs. 'twas a thriller-diller, especially since the Pampan's beat the Clovis team. Peg's heart sure did flip in the ninth inning when with two outs, the Pampa pitcher, Jonas Gaines, bobbled for a moment a grounder. thought he would simply never get that ball over to Doug Lewis at first base and end the game and the playoff series. Whatta yell the Pampa fans let out as Reliable Doug squeezed the ball in his glove. every body jumping up and down in the stands. Peg felt just, well, simply wonderful. and so did everyone around here, too. saw an awful lot of people, seemed the whole town turned out for our Oilers. there were Sheriff and Mrs. Rufe Jordan, Dr. and Mrs. Malcolm Brown, Jack Scott, Elmer Francis, Charley Robison, DeLea Vicens, John Jones, Bill Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Mills, Ted Eads, J. C. Hopkins, John Studer and lots, lots more whom Peg can't remember right off. The Doug Millises—the proud owners of the Oilers—right after the end of the game went down by the Oiler dugout and congratulated through the screen the players as they came off the field. It's the first time the Oilers have ever won both the straight-away pennant and the playoffs in the same year. The Millises sure did look happy, like everyone else out at the ball park. only one trouble now, no more baseball till next spring. understand there are a lot of people like Peg who can hardly wait for it to start all over again.

THIS IS THE TIME of the year when football and baseball go along together for a week or so. Peg did manage to get out to the Pampa Harvesters' opening game against Austin High of El Paso. pretty big crowd for an opening game, Peg thought. It always gives Peg a warmy feeling inside when football comes along. the fall season, it's so colorful and comfortable. Colorful with bright sweaters the coats wear, the changing leaves and all. Comfortable coz it's such a change from the warm summer weather. seems that the girls get prettier and prettier each year in high school. course, Peg has seen a few years go by since she went to school. sure did enjoy the talk on sportsmanship by Ben Sturgeon, who heads the Pampa High School Student Council, and the remarks of Rev. Woodrow W. Adcock, pastor of the First Methodist Church. they spoke over the press box loudspeaker before the game. it's a wonderful idea, kinda gets things off to a good start. people in the stands around Peg liked it, too. saw two of our city commissioners, W. B. (A) Neel and Frank Dial, also some members of the school board. matter of fact, Herman Whalley, who is head of the school board, spoke over the loudspeaker system before the game, too. and despite the pessimistic talk of Head Coach Aubra Noncaster, Pampa won, 32-13. looks like a good season, if you ask me. and if you don't ask me, it still looks like one.

THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK. The strongest man is the one who stands most alone. (Ibsen). I never found the companion that was so companionable as solitude (Thoreau). Who hath not learned that when alone he has his own thoughts to guard, and when struggling with mankind his temper and in society his tongue? (Mary Baker Eddy). Get away from the crowd when you can. Keep yourself to yourself if only for a few hours daily. (Arthur Brisbane). Until I truly loved I was alone (Mrs. Norton). Solitude is as needful to the imagination as society is wholesome for the character. (Lowell) Peg just loves these "thoughts". makes you stop and get those wheels grinding in your thinking machine. makes you wonder if you incorporated them in your way of life would you be a better person?

Philosophically yours,
Peg

BSP Table Setting Competition Open To Women's Clubs

Beta Sigma Phi, Upsilon chapter, is making plans for its second annual table setting contest, to be held Nov. 12, in the Senior High Field House.
Letters of invitation with entry blanks have been sent to all women's clubs and organizations of the city, advised Mrs. Thelma Bray, project chairman. Local clubs decorate tables for formal or informal occasions and prizes are awarded for the three winning displays, selected by popular vote. Large and small clubs have an equal chance for the prize money, Mrs. Bray explained.

In addition to the tables, there will be a special display, the nature of which will be announced at a later date.
Proceeds from the contest will be used in a worthwhile service, Mrs. Bray pointed out. Following last year's showing, Beta Sigma Phi presented a $200 check to the March of Dimes and sent its annual contribution to Girlstown, U. S. A., the sorority's national project.

Information on the contest can be obtained from Mrs. Bray. The deadline for entering the competition is Oct. 15.

MATURE PARENT

Most of the children on Don's street have rubber splash pools in their back yards. Don has been teasing his mother for one of his own, and up to now she has said, "Maybe — we'll see." For she and Don's father are still strained by the heavy expenses involved in buying, furnishing and moving to their new ranch house.
Yesterday she settled the splash pool question. She found that Don had tracked tar into the house on his shoes. As she scrubbed angrily at her new stair carpet, she cried: "Don't ask me for that splash pool again! I had intended to buy one for you this week. Now I won't. After what you've done to my new carpet, don't dare to ask me for it again..."
Don's mother was not telling the truth. She had not intended to buy him a splash pool. She can't afford one. But ashamed of her financial limitations in a community of splash pools, she has been unable to say so.

Rather than confess to Don that his parents are not as currently prosperous as his friends' parents, she has made him responsible for losing the splash pool. Defensive herself, she has wanted to find Don in a defensive position to say "no" to his demand.

She has treated him unjustly. As he was never made responsible for earning splash pool, he is not responsible for losing it. He was never informed that tar on the carpet would result in its denial. So he had no way of protecting himself against loss of the splash pool by checking his shoes for tar before entering the house.

Shame of financial limitation often develops teasing, demanding children. If Don feels apology in us when he pleads for his splash pool, he naturally concludes we think we owe it to him.

If Alice feels defensiveness in our "No" to a new nylon crinoline, she naturally concludes she can change our mind.

Soon these youngsters' respect for our judgments is so subverted that they undertake to make all the judgments for us. They press their own upon us until we turn on them in anger and injustice like Don's mother.

It is very pleasant to be able to provide splash pools, expensive clothes and other advantages of children.
But it is even better to give them the advantage of clear-cut decisions.

Lounging Wear Launderers Easily

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

Neveast among lingerie and lounge fashions is the full-length fitted coat, made of nothing heavier than nylon tricot. Sometimes it has a huge, sailor collar, for the bride's trousseau, the collar is made entirely of lace.
Metallic touches are seen through all styles of lounge wear. Some robes feature just a touch of metallic braid, others have metallic threads woven right into the material.

One might think by looking at these frail and fragile robes and peignoirs that there's considerable difficulty in washing them, and retaining their clean, dainty appearance.

But, usually, these lounging items launder well and hold their shape. Nylon tricot is famous for its graceful appearance and washability.

Some trouser outfits combine two or more different types of fabrics and must be washed separately. For instance, a corduroy top can be washed in hotter soap suds than its matching rayon satin trousers, with absolutely no damage to the material.

Colored robes and trousseaus wash best at just warm temperature for both the sudsings and the rinses. They should be washed separately.

Mrs. Floyd Baxter, 323 S. Barnes, was matron of honor at the marriage of her sister, Martha Sloan, to Dale Gibson, Sept. 21, in the home of the bride's parents, Rev. and Mrs. R. G. Sloan, Guymon, Oklahoma. Rev. Sloan performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a street-length dress of ice-blue homespun taffeta, and carried a white Bible topped with a bouquet of white carnations with white satin streamers tied in love knots.

Mrs. Baxter wore a dress of purple wonder chambray and a pink carnation corsage.
Harold Backus, cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Sloan wore a navy blue nylon dress and a corsage of white carnations.

For the reception following the ceremony, the table was covered with a lace cloth. The centerpiece was the three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Miss Mary Sloan, sister of the bride, registered the guests.

The bride is a senior student in Guymon High School. The bridegroom is a graduate of Bowlegs High School and is associated with the Oklahoma Highway Department.

The couple is at home at 1214 N. Lelia, Guymon, Okla.

The Scott McCrackens' Favorite Dish Is Tasty, Filling And A Snap For Cook

By MARY MANION
DES MOINES — UP— The favorite dish of the Scott McCrackens is simple—as might be expected—but it's tasty, filling and a snap for the cook.

Betsy McCracken says she, her husband and their 2-year-old son, Bruce, all like casserole mixtures and spanish rice tops them all.

Her spanish rice includes plenty of meat and tomatoes and seasonings. It's all put together and cooked in a skillet on top of the stove, making it quick to prepare and leaving the oven free to bake the rest of the meal.

She Varies Menus
Some other favorite mixtures—prepared in the same way—are spaghetti with meat bologna and cheese, sweet-sour pork, and tuna and noodles.

But casseroles are not offered as a steady diet by the 27-year-old Mrs. McCracken, a former magazine food specialist and now a free lance writer.

She plans a rounded menu of main courses for a week in advance and tries out different recipes.

"I'm lucky, I guess," she says, "because my husband is adventurous and isn't strictly a meat and potatoes man."

Mrs. McCracken goes to the grocery each Saturday.

"It's probably not the best day to go," she says, "but my husband—a design engineer—can baby sit that day and we don't shop at night."

Watches for Bargains
Her grocery list is flexible because she picks up a "good buy" when she sees it.

"I always come home with lots more than I write down," she says. The weekly grocery bill for the family of three runs about $18, including milk.

Mrs. McCracken is one young homemaker who makes full use of her refrigerator freezer compartment. She can make a double amount of any dish and have the other half ready whenever a quick dinner is called for. Casserole mixtures lend themselves well to this treatment.

In Plainfield, New Jersey, students at Maxson School have television as well as teachers in their classrooms. It's all part of an experiment in New Jersey to determine the potentialities of television for educational use.

TV Predicted To Invade Classrooms

By GAIL DUGAS
NEA Woman's Editor
NEW YORK — (NEA) — In the not-too-distant future, your little Johnny and Mary may be watching television in their classrooms.

But they won't be laughing at the antics of some comedian and the TV set won't be a replacement for teacher.

Television, as a teaching aid in the schoolroom, is still a thing of the future generally. But it's actually in New Jersey, where it's being tried out in schools on an experimental basis.

This pioneer experiment with educational TV is being conducted at both elementary and high school levels by Station WFLY (TV) under the State Department of Education.

In an Army prefab building, at Rutgers University, a group of men and women trained in the field of education have been producing supplemental classroom instruction for the past year.

They've explored the fascinations of puppetry and of storytelling given action for extra-curricular periods. They've developed a whole series for reading, science, civics and language studies. And there are other plans for a series in art, history and home economics as requests come in from teachers.

Planning begins with the needs of the teacher, and participation of teacher and class is stressed.

Fall Hose Shades Keyed For Dress

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

Checking your fall wardrobe, you'll probably find you've overlooked one item that's gone all out for color harmony this fall — hose. The new stocking shades are keyed to new fall colors in order to achieve that much-desired, all-one-color costume look.

For evening wear, you'll find cobwebby-sheer sandalfoot hose in delicate tinges of pink, gold, blue or gray to wear with your pastel-colored dressy clothes. To wear with all-black costumes, there are smoky off-black tones or dramatically black stockings to flatter the legs with shadowy color.

Decoration figures in new fall stockings, too. Some are trimmed with a fine thread of sterling silver sewn into the seam, adding shimmering highlights to the sheer, dark nylon. There are very pale pink stockings trimmed at the top with a four-inch band of black lace sewn around the welt. And many of the evening sheers have tiny black velvet bows sewn at the back for feminine glamor. The bows are detachable, too; they can be snapped off before laundering.

For sportswear, there are textured stockings to provide the costume link. There are shadow-check textured nylons to give the effect of tweedy mixtures and blend in with tweed or textured woolen sportswear.

One of the best-liked series was one for a primary grade, dramatizing bird migration with emphasis on birds of the area.

For a high school civics class, local government was explained in on-the-spot fashion. First, Plainfield's mayor was televised at his duties; then the camera went to a councilman's meeting that dealt with a local civic problem.

While emphasis is on live material telecast from the studio or on location, there are also kinescoped programs to provide a backlog of programs for use later on as needed.

These kinescopes also are an aid to the staff as a means of improving future programs. And further, they can be shown by motion picture projector to parent-teacher organizations.

Later, an educational television proves practical throughout the country, these kinescopes will be available for exchange on a loan basis with other states for study and use.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Ken Meaders presented the year's budget and explained how each dollar is used at the recent meeting of Girl Scout leaders and board members in the Girl Scout Little House.

Meaders pointed out that the enrollment in 1948 was 478 with $12.60 being spent on each Scout. The 1949 enrollment is 504 with the cost of each girl set at $3.87. He pointed out that although the number of Scouts has nearly doubled since 1948, the amount being spent has been reduced nearly one third.

It was announced during the meeting that the professional help requested will be supplied by Miss Gaye Sheppard of Dallas in November in time for a fall training period. Additional professional help will be supplied when it can be afforded. The professional workers will present new material, ideas and crafts to the local leaders.

It was also decided to make a caper chart for keeping the Little House in order, with each troop taking its turn. It was brought out that Oct. 24 and 25 will be Girl Scout calendar day. It was also emphasized that each troop will be responsible for the calendars it takes to sell.

The regular association meeting, open to anyone interested, Girl Scouts, leaders and board members, will be held at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 7, in the Palm Room of the City Hall.

Wyde Games are slated for Oct. 23 at Camp Mel Davis, near LeFors. The event is staged by the Senior Girl Scouts for fourth grade Brownies and Scouts. The Wyde Games are in the form of a scavenger, with the correct performance of Girl Scout skills necessary before the next clue is given.

It was agreed that a reporter should be elected from each group to report activities to the publicity chairman for release to the newspapers.

It was also decided that the Girl Scouts will observe "tricks or treats" Oct. 20. The girls will ask for supplies for Girlstown instead of the usual candy and fruit. Such items as soap, towels, washcloths, new bobbin pins, yard goods, ribbon, and shoe laces can be used. Each girl will wear her Scout pin or other Scout identification.

Approximately 40 persons attended the meeting.

Gray Hair Can Be Chic If Well Kept By Older Women In Business World

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

Thousands of mature women, making career comebacks to rejoin the swelling ranks of women in the business and professional worlds.

For these women, success depends on knowing their job thoroughly and doing it well. It also means presenting a smart, well-groomed appearance that says definitely they're in no way out-of-date.

They know that good grooming means constant attention to a carefully planned and faithfully executed beauty program.

The gray-haired woman concentrates on her skin and hair more than ever now, since the color of her hair calls attention to them. Her skin is a little drier after 40, so she applies a little baby oil to it as protection before she applies her foundation base.

By watching current hair styles, the older career woman will never look dated. Short hair, softly waved and high-brushed, is the best style for graying hair. Tight curls and fussy designs detract from a chic appearance.

When she chooses a home permanent, the mature woman should select one formulated with a minimum of alkalis so as not to discolor her hair. One such permanent contains a new ingredient which, its makers say, brings out the natural beauty and sheen of gray or white hair.

Home permanents are an essential grooming aid to the mature woman who goes to business. They can provide her, on a budget, with a natural-looking wave that sets off an important business requirement—a chick-looking appearance from 9 to 5.

Marriages don't grow dull. But husbands and wives may. Any time either or both partners in a marriage get to thinking that their life together is pretty dull it is high time for a few searching questions.

One. In the past six months have we entertained in our home anyone outside our own little "crowd"?

Two. In the past month has either of us read a book worth recommending to the other for something more than a means of killing an evening?

Three. Are we working toward any definite goal at the present time that both of us think is important?

Four. In the past year have we done anything to our home to make it more livable or more attractive?

Five. Do we have more friends than we had five years ago?

Six. When there is a last-minute chance to do something interesting, do we whiz around and get going instead of deciding that it's too much trouble or there isn't time to get ready or some other such wishy-washy excuse?

Seven. Do we follow up the gestures of friendliness and hospitality that are directed our way or simply accept invitations without returning them and then wonder why no one invites us out any more?

Eight. Do we ever surprise each other by anything we do or say?

Nine. Do we willingly let each other for our interests and amusements, instead of thinking we are completely dependent on each other for our interests and amusement?

Ten. Do we usually have plenty

The gray-haired career woman should own a smart appearance as well as ability to do her job well. A perfect example is this business woman with short hair style.

With school about to reopen, nutritionists are urging parents to see to it that their children eat a better breakfast for the sake of general stamina during the day and better scholastic work.

The so-called basic breakfast (fruit, cereal, bread, butter or margarine, milk) has acceptance by leading nutritionists. It is easy to prepare, inexpensive and provides essential protein, carbohydrates, vitamins and minerals needed to supply 1-3 to 1-4 of the body's nutritional needs for one day.

Quick breads, using cereals, add interest to breakfast and increase the nutritional value.

FRUITED OATMEAL BREAD
(Yield: 1 large or 2 small loaves)

One-quarter cup fat, 1-2 cup brown sugar, 1 egg, well beaten, 1-2 cup chopped Brazil nuts, pecans, or walnuts, 1-2 cup diced cooked prunes, 1-2 cup diced cooked apricots, 1 tbs. grated orange rind, 1 cup rolled oats, uncooked, 2 cups sifted all-purpose flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 3-4 teaspoons soda, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, 1 1/4 cups buttermilk or sour milk.

Cream fat, add sugar gradually. Add egg to creamed mixture. Stir in nuts, prunes, apricots, orange rind and rolled oats. Sift together flour, baking powder, soda and salt. Add dry ingredients alternately with buttermilk to creamed mixture. (To make sweet milk sour, add 1 tablespoon vinegar to 1 1/4 cups sweet milk.)

Turn into greased loaf pan 9 by 5 by 3 inches, and bake in moderate oven (350-375 degrees F.) about 1 1/2 hours; or turn into two greased loaf pans, 7 1/2 by 3 1/2 by 2 1/2 inches and bake in moderate oven (350-375 degrees F.) about 1 hour. If desired, decorate the top of the loaves before baking with whole pitted prunes, apricots and nuts.

Simmer fish instead of boiling it rapidly to preserve food value and flavor.

MRS. PORTER BROOKS
...tells of Germany

Episcopal Minister's Wife Recalls Wartime Germany

By ED NASH
Pampa News Staff Writer

Mrs. Porter Brooks, a Pampa for the last month, saw Germany the hard way — during war and postwar times.

Born in Buffalo, N. Y., the attractive brunette was taken to Germany by her parents when she was 3 and remained there until this summer.

She is the wife of the vicar of St. Matthews Episcopal Church, which held its first services in the new building a week ago today. The Brookses live at 2109 Hamilton where Mrs. Brooks has a stack of literature and pictures of present-day Germany.

Has Vivid Memories

Perhaps the most vivid memory of the vicar's wife has of wartime Germany is what happened the day and night of Feb. 26, 1944. "It is not a pleasant memory," she smiled. She and her parents were living in Augsburg.

"I was coming home from business school," she relates, when the bombers came over. "I dashed into the cellar of a friend's house where I saw something gruesome. I saw a man see his wife get killed, he couldn't get her out."

"All down the street there was nothing but holes," she recalls. "I saw some people standing in front of my house. I was afraid, I could hear the sound of the bombs and thought I'd faint. There was only half of the house left, in the shape of a triangle." Neither of her parents, however, was hurt.

The snow was actually burning from the phosphorus," Mrs. Brooks went on. "And it was icy cold. The planes came over again that night for four hours." She didn't see the sky for eight days. Everything was burned, no water, no electricity, no food. "It really killed Augsburg."

There were many other bombings, of course, in those months near the end of World War II. And her father, a diesel engineer, was drafted in January, 1945. But only for one month — he was wounded during his basic training.

Her father, a naturalized American like her mother, had only gone over there in the first place because he had been offered a good job. When he appeared in Augsburg the first day of 1939, he was told he could not have it because he was an American.

"They must have thought he was an American spy, because the Gestapo investigated us," she said. It was a Messerschmitt factory, a test factory, and Mrs. Brooks can remember Hitler's staff appearing now and then. Von Ribbentrop was one. Finally, her father got a lesser job. It was three years before he got the job he had been promised.

Always Air Alerts

"There'd be air alerts at least once a night," Mrs. Brooks said matter-of-factly. "You figured there was something wrong if there weren't. You always had a suitcase packed. After awhile, you got tired of spending most of the night in the cellar, waiting for the planes. So you just stayed in bed. And that's why a lot of people were killed." There were creeks under most homes which is why

Dancer's Body Found In Studio

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Sept. 25 — UP — The partially-clad body of a beautiful blonde dancing instructor was found Saturday in the blood-spattered bedroom of her combination home and studio. Her 2 1/2-year-old son was romping not far away.

Police said the woman, Grace Alyna Smith, a former performer with band leader Sammy Kaye, was clad in panties and covered with a blood-stained sheet.

There was no evidence of wounds on the 26-year-old woman's body, police said, but they refused to discuss the blood stains splashed about the room. Mrs. Smith had been dead about 24 hours.

Dr. John H. Sims, Alexandria medical examiner, conducted an autopsy but declined to release his findings immediately.

Specialist Treats Pope

CASTEL GANDOLFO, Italy, Sept. 25 — UP — A Swiss specialist administered strength-building medicines to Pope Pius XII who has been plagued recently by sporadic hiccupping and prescribed a full day of rest for the pontiff Saturday.

Dr. Paul Niehans, who treated the 78-year-old Pope during his illness last winter, was called back when the pontiff suffered a mild recurrence of hiccupping last week. The Pope's gastritis, which caused concern earlier this year, was suggested by attacks of hiccupping.

Niehans returned here Friday after a short visit to his home in Switzerland. He administered the two-hour-long treatment in the papal bedroom of the summer residence here.

The Pope is scheduled to grant another mass audience to Marian year pilgrims Sunday. Vatican sources said that the pontiff had expressed his intention to address the pilgrims but Niehans reportedly advised against it.

Studebaker Price Cut Could Force Others In Field Down

DETROIT, Sept. 25 — UP — Studebaker's announcement this week that it will cut prices on 1955 models could turn out to be the forerunner of other price cuts in the automobile field.

Studebaker announced it is cutting prices from $37 to $287 on 1955 models. Recent wage cuts agreed to by workers and benefits expected from the merger with Packard helped make the cuts possible.

The purpose of the cuts was to try to stimulate sales and win back some of the market lost to Ford and Chevrolet as those two cars battled for dominance in the low-priced field in the past year.

Other small producers, also hit by the fight, might follow suit quickly with lower prices.

American Motors, which produces Nash and Hudson cars, might be the next to cut prices. Like Studebaker, it has been pinched hard in the tightening automobile market.

Tight Lips

American Motors announced plans this week to use the same basic body shell on both makes in 1955. Since it costs $15 million to $20 million to tool up for each body shell, American Motors will save that much by having only one shell. That will mean lower unit costs for each car it makes.

In making the announcement, American Motors' officials were

69 MILLION MILES ON THIS TANKFUL

If your car gets average mileage, you could go 69 million miles on the gasoline this tank holds — 4.6 million gallons. The largest of its kind in the world the tank was recently completed at Shell Oil Company's Argo, Illinois, terminal, near Chicago. Twenty-five years ago you would have needed 6.9 million gallons to get the same performance you could get today on the 4.6 million gallons in this tank. Gasoline has been improved that much, with only a slight increase in price, excluding taxes.

API To Meet Here Oct. 5

W. G. Bearden, Tulsa, Okla., a Stanolind research engineer, will discuss the application of using a Diesel oil cement slurry to shut off bottom hole pressure at the first fall meeting of the Panhandle chapter of the American Petroleum Institute.

Get-together is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Oct. 5 in the Palm Room of City Hall, according to J. W. Graham, chapter chairman.

The oil cement slurry is a new technique designed to control water production in oil and gas wells. A slurry, consisting of portland cement, a surface tension reducing agent and a non-aqueous carrying medium, is used to seal off points of water entry.

Panhandle oilmen have been invited to attend, Graham said.

U.S., Canada Rigs Up 80

DALLAS — A total of 2519 rigs was active in oilfields of the United States and Canada for the week of September 20, 1954, according to a report to American Association of Oilwell Drilling Contractors by Hughes Tool Company.

This compares with 2439 reported a week ago, 2354 a month ago, and with 2799 in the comparable week of 1953.

A comparison by principal areas for the past two weeks shows: Pacific Coast, 126, down 1; Oklahoma, 282, up 1; Kansas, 164, up 10; Rocky Mountains, 245, up 14; Canada, 121, up 5; Ark-La-Tex, same; West Texas and New Mexico, 440, down 2; Gulf Coast, 513, up 35; Illinois, 148, up 1; North Texas, 293, up 17.

Awardees Announced

DALLAS, Sept. 25 — A Texas wildcatter who knows the ups and downs of the oil business and the energetic president of one of the nation's major producing companies will receive the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association's Distinguished Service Awards for 1954.

The Awards will be made on the second day of the association's 35th Annual Meeting in San Antonio, Oct. 5-8.

The Texas Mid-Continent's Distinguished Service Award is presented annually to an independent producer and a major company executive for outstanding service to the petroleum industry.

Both Landreth and Bullard are staunch advocates of oil and gas conservation. Their careers are marked by decisions based on faith in Texas oil development.

FRUSTRATED

A VA mental patient who attempted to jump from sixth floor of hospital in Ann Arbor, Mich., was frustrated by fast-moving firemen and doctors. Firemen swung ladder to window, pinning the patient to building until doctors could drag the man to safety.

Without a TV set on your yacht, huck up. A special all-directional antenna, developed by chemical engineer Marvin Middlemark and Crosley technicians permits TV viewing on the water more than 100 miles from a transmitter. Middlemark's invention, designed to work with a Crosley Super V receiver, will let you yachtsmen go fishing and watch the ball game at the same time. Anchors and antennas aweigh!

Wonder why they call New York the melting pot? The big Manhattan telephone directory lists these names: George Alaska, Rosario Austria, Maria Arabia, James Brazil, David Canada, Mario China, Mami Denmark, Amanda England, Cobina France, Leo Greenland, William Iceland, Al Greece, Paul India, Abdul Cuba, Arthur Israel, Frank Monaco, Jack Poland, J. M. Santo Domingo. Among others.

Still on the subject of phone books, more or less, John Cameron Swayne once remarked that he guessed San Francisco's Chinatown directory must be full of Wong numbers. (As a matter of fact, John, it has no numbers, the subscribers are called by name.)

You will not find many television stars bothing their pretty little heads about why their shows are successful. It is enough to most that the checks are large and frequent. But Peggy Wood, who is "Mama" on the maternal parent of the same name over CBA-TV, is a star of a different twinkle. She's given much thought to why "Mama" has been a success for so long. And her theory is worth your attention.

JOHNSON IN HOLLYWOOD

By ERKANE JOHNSON NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD — NEA — Hollywood and Grapevine: You can stop worrying about the return of 3-D movies. There's not a single "depth" shouting or being planned in Movietown and the final 3-D blues note comes from the Paroroid Corp. makers of 3-D viewing glasses. Net earnings are down to 54 cents per share compared to a peak of $1.56 per share when the movie ads read, "A lion in your lap and a lover in your arms."

Christine Marel, unhappy with her movie breaks after winning the Miss Universe contest last year, will try to make the grade as a vocalist. . . . Moviebound Porfirio Rubirosa added a "working" suit to his wardrobe. Price tag: $600. . . . French import Gaby Bruyer mixed a French-girl role because the part wasn't big enough. So-it went to a Russian doll who had once been in Paris! . . . If Marie MacDonald makes good her threat to divorce wealthy Harry Karl, the big question will be custody of their two adopted children.

NOW IT'S royalty in TV. Price Vittorio Massimo of Italy makes his celluloid debut in a telefilm starring his wife, Dawn Addams, in Paris. The royal one's single line of dialog: "No speake English." Clever ad line for Judy Holliday's new flicker, "Puff": "Don't pronounce it—go see it."

Shelly Winters heads back to Europe for "I Am a Camera" and is almost down to the weight he Hunter. The flash from the poundage scales at Las Encinas sanitarium at Pasadena is that Mario Lanza is almost down to the weight he held when he was starring in MGM's "Because You're Mine." Lanza will continue to shed blubber until Sept. 20, when he begins rehearsals for his big TV bow with Betty Grable.

NAC's said to be looking for a big variety show format for Margaret Truman. . . . Prediction: Jilla Webb, a dazzer, will be the next doll to knock cafe society for a loop as a sultry warbler. Gig Young's beaming about his first film at Warners since 1951 when he won an Oscar nomination for "Come Fill the Cup." He's in "Young at Heart" and says: "They didn't give me better billing, but at least they named the picture after me."

MAUREN O'HARA, who counts Lana Turner as a close friend, was stunned when word spread that she had rejected Lee Remick as her costar in U-C's "Lark Godiva of Coventry." She rushed to the Barkers to deny the story.

Zachary Scott's trip to New York was to see his grown-up daughter, Waverly, who arrived from Europe with her mother, Elaine, and novelist John Steinbeck, Elaine's new hubby. The star recently adopted the 13-year-old daughter of his new wife, Ruth Ford.

McCleery says, "He's not arguing; he just wants to know the reason things are done. And all you have to do is tell him once — his mind is like a steel trap. Give him time and he'll be running the whole business."

Walt Frazer, producer of quiz shows like "The Big Payoff" and "Strike It Rich," has his staff assembling the best questions the shows have used into a quiz book.
