Dulles Nixes Blockade Of Red China Coast

Fears Provoking War With Chinese

CHICAGO, Nov. 30 - UP - Secretary of State John Foster Dulles has turned down demands that the nation impose an air or naval blockade on Red China to win freedom for 13 imprisoned Americans.

Dulles conferred with President Eisenhower by telephone before making Monday night's foreign policy speech. He then announced the nation will exhaust all "peaceful means of sustaining our international rights and those of our citizens."

This country must not let itself be "provoked" into "war action" which could upset the delicate balance of world peace and "impair the alliance of free nations," he said.

Rejects Knowland's Policies

Dulles' speech before the national 4-H Club Congress and to a nationwide radio and television audience was a flat rejection of forceful policies urged by Senate majority leader William Knowland.

Knowland has called for a blockade of Communist China as an answer to the recent sentencing of 11 American servicemen and two civilians captured during the Korean war.

Dulles warned Communist China's latest "aggressive" action may mean "international communism is trying by a new way to divide the free nations."

"They seek to be soothing in Europe," he said. "They are provocative in Asia."

"React Vigorously" "Our nation will react and react vigorously, but without allowing ourselves to be provoked into action which would be a violation of our international obligations and which would impair the alliance of the free nations," he said.

"What has happened is a challenge to us, and indeed to all who want peace, to find ways, consistent with peace, to sustain international rights," he said.

The secretary did not refer directly to the prisoner issue, but accused Communists of "force, intimidation and fraud." The U.S. government has already labeled the Communist spy charges against the 13 Americans fraudulent.

Britain Pays Great Tribute To Churchill

LONDON, Nov. 30 - UP - Prime Minister Winston Churchill celebrated his 80th birthday Tuesday in the greatest show of pageantry since the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II.

Drums of the Grenadier Guards that beat the "V" sound for victory into a crashing anthem in tribute to the entry of the "old man" into the ninth decade of his life.

From the queen down to the humblest of her subjects, Britain paid its man of destiny gratitude that overshadowed even the magnificent pageantry of Tuesday's state opening of parliament.

It was a happy coincidence that placed Churchill's 80th birthday and the state opening of parliament on the same day, for it added a touch of royal grandeur to an hour that already had everything else in full measure.

For Churchill it was a day of looking back with all the sentiment of Auld Lang Syne, but it was also a day for looking ahead and, characteristically, he chose to lead the government actively in the first parliamentary skirmishes after the state opening.

Other McCarthy backers were more optimistic. By his statement, they said privately, McCarthy knocked down charges he was angling for a filibuster and deflated the demand that he be censured for attacking senators who have differed with him.

Sen. Francis Case (S. D.), a Republican member of the censure committee, said Wednesday he wants to study McCarthy's statement further to decide whether he should entirely withdraw his support for the group's two-count resolution.

Case recently announced he would refuse to support the count charging McCarthy with abusing Brig. Gen. Ralph W. Zwicker. He indicated that if McCarthy apologized he would withdraw his support for the charge that McCarthy abused a 1951-52 elections subcommittee.

Dirksen said, "goodness I wouldn't know," what effect McCarthy's action might have. But he added pointedly that "it would occur to me that there has been a sentiment in the chamber."

Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) said McCarthy's statement "is not an apology" and indicated it won't change many votes. Sen. Karl E. Mundt (R-S. D.) also said it won't make any difference.

But a Republican leader friendly to McCarthy revealed privately Tuesday that the Wisconsin Republican was persuaded to launch his double-pronged move for the express purpose of whipping up support for a last-minute compromise which Sen. Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill.) will introduce Wednesday.

Attendants Watch Pontiff Closely

VATICAN CITY, Nov. 30 - UP - Doctors and nurses Tuesday began an around-the-clock watch on ailing Pope Pius XII, Vatican sources said.

These informants said the physicians and nurses had been given orders to stand by the pope.

The pope was said to have suffered a mild recurrence last week of the gastric disorder which plagued him all last winter.

Vatican sources said Prof. Riccardo Galeazzi-Lisi, the pope's physician, had spent the last two nights in the Vatican as a precaution.

McCarthy Predicts Censure By Senate

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 - UP - Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy's supporters claimed Tuesday that the Senate's decision to start its climactic censure vote Wednesday was a boost for their drive to obtain a compromise for the Wisconsin Republican.

But other senators predicted outright censure and McCarthy himself said he expected such action.

After months of wrangling and maneuvering, the Senate unanimously agreed Monday night to put a harness on his historic debate, beginning Tuesday and to start voting at 3 p. m. Wednesday. The final verdict may come Wednesday night or Thursday.

McCarthy himself led the quickshowdown effort and he linked it with a statement assuring those he is accused of abusing that he didn't mean to hurt their feelings although his basic views remain unchanged.

Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) said McCarthy's statement "is not an apology" and indicated it won't change many votes. Sen. Karl E. Mundt (R-S. D.) also said it won't make any difference.

Eisenhower 'No' Prevented Atomic Attack At Quemoy And Dien Bien Phu

Editor's Note: At a time when Red Chinese aggression against American airmen and Nationalist Chinese islands seems to be coming to a boil, your NEA Global Reporter Fred Sparks comes through with this smashing exclusive.

By FRED SPARKS
NEA Staff Correspondent

TOKYO - (NEA) - Twice in recent months the United States has considered but rejected the use of baby A-bombs to stop further Red Chinese expansion in Asia. The "hot spots" were Quemoy and Dienbienphu.

The use against Red China of these junior-sized atomic weapons—which can destroy a particular part of a large city—may be considered again if Peiping grabs for somebody else's homeland.

(The above facts, revealed here for the first time, come when public indignation is at a high pitch in the United States because of the sentencing of 13 American airmen as spies by the Peiping government. At least one member of Congress has demanded a show of force.)

Despite any denials that might be issued, this correspondent has got the story nailed down—from those who planned the raids and those who would have made them.

The possibility of such an assault was known to the Moscow Peiping duo. Accordingly, nothing here will assist the foe.

On both occasions it was President Eisenhower himself who ordered the proposed assaults cancelled.

(Washington pointed out that Mr. Eisenhower would not have to cancel any such proposal formally but that failure on his part to accept such an idea would be tantamount to cancellation. The atomic energy act gives the President sole power to order the atomic arsenal unloaded.)

The first was during the diege of Dienbienphu. Our generals and admirals in the Orient were asked to suggest how the isolated fortress might be saved.

While some State-side politicians talked about sending American troops to Indo-China, the men on the spot here realized that by the time GIs were unloaded the issue would have been decided.

They carefully developed a bombing pattern to ring Dienbienphu with baby A-bombs, make the surrounding hills so radioactive a curtain would protect General deCastries.

This plan was presented to Admiral Arthur Radford, chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, in Paris and he vetoed it after discussing it with American and British officials. This account is

Widow Faces Sanity Hearing

TULSA, Nov. 30 - UP - Mrs. Nannie Doss, a widow four times by her own hand, was to go before a judge Tuesday who will rule whether she will be sent to a state mental institution for a 90-day observation.

Mrs. Doss, who admitted giving arsenic to the men she married in 1929, 1947, 1953 and 1954, may be required to make a formal plea of guilty or not guilty to the charge she murdered the fifth, Sam Doss of Tulsa.

She is suspected of a total of 11 fatal poisonings, but has been charged only with murdering Doss, since he is the only one who died in Oklahoma. Authorities in Kansas and North Carolina, where two of the men died, have begun examinations of the remains.

Mrs. Doss, 49, was given Monday as she went before Common Pleas Judge Lloyd McGuire to be charged formally with murdering her fifth husband. Her mood was in contrast to the chatty good humor she showed in court.

ATOMIC

(Continued from Page One) the President was that he feared a popular reaction against the use of any kind of an A-bomb — particularly in Japan, which was the recipient of the first two A-bombs dropped in history.

Since the President made the above point, Americans out here concerned with freedom's future in Asia have been urging the Pentagon to think up and advertise a new name for the baby A-bomb.

"They aren't A-bombs in the Hiroshima sense," an Air Force officer told me, "no more than a 1000-pound blockbuster is a fire-cracker, although all explosives grew up from the Chinese fire-cracker."

The second time a baby atomic attack was suggested was when the Reds began to pound Quemoy, Formosa's off-shore island, with artillery around the clock.

The advocates of radioactive muscle put their case this way: "Here is further proof Red China will settle for nothing but all Asia."

"There aren't enough American boys to make a ground attack on Red China; our allies aren't ready. Furthermore, traditional bombing would be costly and long ranged."

"Ours is a plan — via baby A-bombs — to knock out Red China's war potential in a matter of days without causing great numbers of civilian casualties."

Again Eisenhower said: "No!" — although the President was thus opposing a very large number of his military advisers.

But the A-bombs are still conveniently stored, the planes are available, and the heartland of Red China is mapped down to the last traffic sign.

REACTION

(Continued from Page One) President Eisenhower was cheered when he told Congress in his State of the Union message that he had withdrawn orders assigning the Seventh Fleet to neutralize the Formosa straits. However, on Aug. 27 he told his news conference that any attack by the Reds upon Formosa would first have to run over the Seventh Fleet.

Orders governing use of naval and air forces in the event of attacks upon Nationalist-held islands, such as Quemoy, other than Formosa, are not known. One thing is certain: the administration seems determined not to start anything requiring the use of one of our boys on the continent of Asia.

Meanwhile, a Tulsa couple who hired Mrs. Doss as a housekeeper although they knew she was suspected of her husband's death, said they found she was "gentle and kind."

They were Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Kinder, who both work and hired Mrs. Doss to live in their home, do the family cooking and care for the Kinder's three children.

Kinder said they were not worried about Mrs. Doss' cooking. "She ate what we did," he said. "When she poured coffee, she would pour herself a cup and we didn't fear drinking our own."

"All we could say about Nannie was that she was a good woman, she impressed us that way," Mrs. Kinder said.

She said the three of them once discussed Doss' death, which Mrs. Doss knew police were investigating because she signed an exhumation order.

"My conscience is clear and I don't have a thing to worry about," Mrs. Kinder quoted Mrs. Doss as telling them.

But Mrs. Doss told police she gave her last husband a "big dose" of arsenic on a dish of prunes. That only made him sick, and when he got out of the hospital, she killed him with a second dose in a cup of coffee.

She said she killed her second husband, Frank Harrelson, of Armon, Ala., by putting poison in his "rotgut" whisky; her third, Harley Lanning, of Lexington, N. C., by sprinkling it on his food, and her fourth, Richard L. Morton, Emporia, Kan., by putting it in his coffee.

The Little People went racing down the village street. They went into the very last house on the block to hide and wait for Santa Claus.

After what seemed a very long time, Jink said, "We might as well go — he's not bringing anything here."

The discouraged Little People left their hiding place and made their way outside. "See there!" yelled Cork. "There he is."

And sure enough, there was Santa, his sleigh, his toy bag (almost empty) and his famous reindeer team. But Santa Claus was fast asleep.

"Ps-st!" a voice said. "I'm Prancer! Maybe you can help us. Santa is so very tired. We can't wake him. Please try, will you?"

"We've never had this trouble before," Blitzen added. "But this is the last house and the toys won't get delivered unless he wakes up."

Chub and Cork climbed up on the sleigh and began poking and calling to Santa. But the jolly old boy was really in the Land of Nod.

"I've got an idea," said Loop. "We'll just let him sleep. Chub and Jink and Cork and I will deliver the rest of Santa's presents."

JayCees Seek Nominations

GRAND PRAIRIE, Tex., Nov. 30 —UP—The Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce Monday asked for nominations for the "five outstanding young Texans of 1954."

Jaycee President Rocky Ford of Midland said the five young men selected for the honors would be guests at a banquet Jan. 15 in Midland. State Attorney General John Ben Sheppers is scheduled to make the main banquet address.

Million-Buck Lien Slapped On Boss Parr

ALICE, Tex., Nov. 30 —UP—The Federal Internal Revenue Service charged Sunday that South political boss George Parr and his former wife owe more than $1 million in back income taxes.

The service filed liens totaling $1,171,567 against the pair for the years 1945 and 1947. Parr lives in San Diego, Tex., while his divorced wife, Mrs. Thelma Parr, lives in Corpus Christi.

T. P. Walton, head of the Internal Revenue Service office in Corpus Christi, said the new charges are entirely separate from those charging Parr with evading more than $66,000 in income taxes for the years 1949, 1950 and 1951.

Mexico, US Governors Plan Meeting

LAREDO, Tex., Nov. 30 —UP—Representatives of governors from states making up the Good Neighbor Council formed last month in Monterrey, Mexico, will meet early in December in Fort Worth, it was announced Monday.

The Fort Worth meeting will be held in the offices of Neville G. Penrose, chairman of the Texas Good Neighbor Commission. A definite date hasn't been set, but it will be sometime early next month.

The governors' representatives make up the council's board of directors. The object of the Fort Worth meeting will be to formulate a program for the council's next general meeting — Feb. 18-20 during the Washington's birthday celebration in Laredo.

Gains Of Red Clergy

Last summer Secretary Dulles approved visas admitting clerics from Europe who have collaborated 100 per cent with the Kremlin to attend a meeting of the World Council of Churches at Evanston. These ministers had been hand-picked by the Kremlin (otherwise they would not have been allowed to come from behind the Iron Curtain) and many of them had employed their spiritual office to defend Russian policies in the world — some had even charged that our troops in Korea had engaged in germ warfare.

The ministerial delegation from behind the Iron Curtain was here for only one purpose — to contaminate the Christian churches of the free world. Now we have expert corroboration on this point from Dr. Carl McIntire, president of the International Council of Christian Churches. He lists what the Communist clergy "did and gained in the World Council of Churches" at Evanston in August:

(1) The Communist clergy increased their strength on the powerful Central Committee which directs the affairs of the Council between assemblies. Prior to the Evanston meeting, the Committee included two Communist-dominated ministers. At Evanston two more were added. According to the testimony of refugees, one of the latter had been a member and official of the Communist party. When the other was chosen, the Polish Embassy in Washington released a statement by this minister praising the Communist government and reporting the official resolution of his church defending the Communists in their charges against the West.

(2) Re-election of Professor Joseph L. Hromadka, recognized as one of the principal Protestant defenders of Communism, to the Central Committee was a smashing victory for Communism.

(3) The Communist clergy secured recognition of Communist-controlled churches on an equal level with non-Communist churches. Their presence in Evanston "established... that churches dominated by Communists may, if they come in the name of Christ, receive the right hand of fellowship."

(4) The Communist-controlled ministers at Evanston have "betrayed the true Christian Church and been responsible for the persecution and suffering of true Christians in their lands," says McIntire. But when charges were made against them in the press and representatives of the Czech government-in-exile gathered in protest outside of the hall, "public apology was made to these Iron Curtain men before all the Assembly of the Council by the Archbishop of Canterbury."

(5) The Assembly actually held by resolution that these Iron Curtain ministers "in supporting the Communist order, were loyal to Christ."

(6) The Communist clergy were successful in preventing passage of resolutions warning of the infiltration of Communists into churches in the free world and of the program of the Communist party to use the Church outside of Iron Curtain countries for its advantage. Evanston was silent on this theme.

The Doctor Says

By EDGAR P. JORDAN, M. D.

As most people now know leukemia is a disease of the blood and blood-forming organs. It has sometimes been likened to cancer since it involves the overproduction of abnormal cells and like cancer its cause is unknown; but most physicians do not really like to call it cancer of the blood. It may turn out to be closely related to cancer but at present, at least, it is better to call it leukemia which means literally white blood.

There are several kinds of leukemia. What matters for the patient is whether the disease is acute and rapidly progressive or chronic and slowly progressive. In both cases, the white cells in the blood are abnormal and usually increased in numbers. The numbers of red cells are generally decreased producing anemia. Frequently, too, the spleen which lies in the upper left position of the abdomen is enlarged and changes are found in the bone marrow.

In the rapidly progressive types such that can be done to slow down the course of the disease. In many cases, however, the disease passes into the chronic stage without any treatment at all, or perhaps aided by the treatment attempted.

Success Secrets

By ELMER WHEELER
"You" is the most powerful word in the English language. Myrtle Green, radio commentator, learned that early in her career. When she chats with women over the air, she gives her listeners the feeling of being in the same room with an old and trusted friend — just by using the word "you" again and again!

BETTER JOBS

By R. C. HOILES

Clarence Manion Explains The Declaration

In the last issue I was quoting from Dean Clarence Manion's radio address sponsored by a group of patriotic American citizens trying to get people to better understand that American government is capable of doing.

"There is first a sentence of explanation, but for practical purposes the document (Declaration of Independence) begins with these words: 'We hold these truths' — Here the architects acknowledged that Truth must precede freedom. And what Truths were they? Self-evident truths, they called them. No question about them in the minds of the Founding Fathers. In the Declaration, as a prelude to American Freedom, they assembled just four of these Truths. One to hold up each corner of the United States. Cornerstones of certainty — bedrock foundations of Fact.

"Do you know these four facts of American life? Do you realize that together and in perspective they answer every foreign and domestic problem that confronts our country today? Here are the big questions! Who should rule the world? What are the possibilities for human equality? What about human rights and responsibilities? What can our government — or any government — do about all this?"

"Here are the answers — Listen to the Truths that made us free. Here is number one: 'We hold' this truth 'to be self-evident.' 'All men are created' — There is a God, in other words, not as a mere matter of faith, but as a matter of fact. The indisputable fact of Almighty God is here made into the number one cornerstone of the Republic. The solidarity of the United States and all that it means to us and to the world is balanced on the fact of an Almighty Creator of all men. Now, as you look at the farm problem, the tax problem, or what have you — begin where the Founding Fathers began — begin with an humble and prayerful acknowledgment of God. You can go on in safety from this point.

"What about Human Equality? This is Truth number 2. 'All men are created equal.' Equal that is, in the sight of God and for that reason, equal before the law of the land — beyond that all men are unequal in every conceivable way. Beyond the sight of God and the law, every person in this world is different from every other person. Neither all the King's Horses nor all the Kremlin's Commissars can make us the same; because Almighty God made us different. Take from every person who now lives or who has ever lived on this earth. In spite of all the collectivistic claptrap, you are an individual, a personality, and you will stay that way, now and throughout eternity, because God wants you that way. The secret of civilization is in this unbroken pattern of human differences — in ambition, aptitude, and ability — and therefore ultimate difference in achievement; because individual achievement is merely the sum total of these qualities. Some of us must be miners, molders, farmers, fabricators, plasterers, professors and the rest. The competitive free play of those fingerprinted personalities is what feeds and clothes all of us — and the freer the play the better and cheaper the food, the clothes, the gadgets, and higher the standard of living for everybody. Freedom is the key to this rising spiral of human progress. What is the truth about freedom? Here is fact number 3.

"This is a self-evident truth, they said — 'All men are endowed' — with certain 'inalienable rights' — among these are life and liberty. Note that life and liberty are the two rights that are spelled out and are inseparable — liberty is just as important as life itself. You may not destroy your life; neither may you compromise or exchange your liberty — not for the mirage of security or anything else. You have a moral obligation to preserve your life and your liberty. How can that be done? Here is the final fact from the Blueprint: 'To secure these rights' — to protect these gifts of God — Governments are instituted' — among men, by men, empowered by the consent of the governed' — What is the purpose of American Government? Its purpose is to preserve your God-given rights. To keep you free so that you may conscientiously fulfill your personal responsibilities to God and your fellow man.

"Here is the simple truth. Government is a mechanism for the protection of human rights. Government is not the source of wealth, or prosperity or happiness. Government is like your dishwasher; it is a mechanism. Don't overload it. Government will do what it was designed to do and no more. All other things you must do for yourself — the wide area of American self-government: the area of the moral law. A hundred years before our great Declaration of Truth was written, William Penn said that 'those who will not be governed by God will be ruled by tyrants.' Let me repeat in substance: Those who will not govern and restrain themselves according to the laws of God will be restrained and controlled by despotism. The Founding Fathers knew that — we should know it. When we ask the government to take the obligations of the Ten Commandments

Labor Leaders Pleased With Victories In Governor Spots

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON — Although labor leaders' post-election survey of the new House-Senate membership reveals few gains on Capitol Hill, and not enough for their principal objective — repeal or softening of the Taft Hartley Act — they feel that they have reasons to rejoice over the outcome of many gubernatorial and State Legislature contests.

They increased the number of Democratic Governors, who are generally pro-labor in their social and political philosophies. Labor's agents are especially satisfied with the selection of State Executives in such important industrial areas as New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Colorado, etc.

In many states, too, the Democrats boosted their membership in the Legislatures. With "liberal" Republicans, they may compose a majority. Even where they cannot outvote the Conservatives, which is true in Congress, they will have a sufficiently large bloc for filibustering tactics.

Labor's transfer of interest from Washington to the State capitals derives from the enactment of so-called "right to work" laws throughout the nation. In reaction to Roosevelt-Truman favoritism to labor, 17 states have adopted statutes which permit an "open shop" in industry. They have sought to recapture control of the employment problem.

It is expected that this movement will spread to many other States during the winter legislative sessions. Bills of this kind which failed of passage in the past will be reintroduced.

Labor relies on such men as Governor-elect Averil Harriman of New York, Abraham A. Ribicoff of Connecticut, Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey (already Governor) and George Leader of Pennsylvania to veto them, if they scout through their respective legislative bodies.

The Eisenhower-reorganized National Labor Relations Board, with hardly any fanfare, has adopted policies which organized labor regards as detrimental to its interests. In fact, NLRB's restrictive philosophy is the principal reason why the three great unions — the American Federation of Labor, the Congress of Industrial Organizations and the United Mine Workers — boycotted most Republican candidates on November 2.

The leaders of the Democratic Party are frankly and openly socialistic. The election of a Democratic Congress is, therefore, a grave blow to the business men of this country. It means that our economy will move closer and closer toward a policy of government ownership of industry and further and further away from a policy of free enterprise. For this major disaster, the business men can blame no one but themselves. For in return for the Republicans agreeing to fight Socialism, the business men agreed that the Republicans need not fight communism. So, in the minds of a lot of common people, the Republicans waged a campaign against Socialism and for Communism. They were against irritation while they were complacent about slavery. They fought smoke and were willing to get in bed with fire. That didn't make sense to the bewildered voter, who still wants to save the country.

MOPSY

I envy these crystal-gazers. If Youngdahl himself, "will discuss no phase of the case." I would be leary of imputing such strong beliefs to "Youngdahl's friends." I think back to the days of Woodrow Wilson and the old tricks of propaganda whereby ideas and enemies of his were attributed to "friends of the president" and "White House circles." I would be afraid that people might suspect that Youngdahl himself, was covertly charging the Department of Justice with dirty pool in trying to deal him out of one of the key Communist cases.

I am the kind of skeptic who would insist on knowing the names and addresses of those mysterious persons who make such serious, scandalous charge in the role of "friends" of a federal judge.

Now further on the point of this character's fitness to sit on the federal bench, among a whole bunch of judges little better or even worse, let me quote briefly from a congressional document entitled, "Hearings before a subcommittee of the committee on expenditures in the executive departments, May 20 and 21, 1948. Congressman Clare Hoffman, of Michigan, held a hearing on riotous, insurrectionary picketing around meat-packing plants in Minnesota while Youngdahl sat in the governor's chair. Exhibit 18-B, a bulletin from the packing house workers of the CIO, dated March 26, 1948, gave notice of "an extremely important mass meeting" to vote whether "to accept Governor Youngdahl's proposition that we allow the office force to go through our lines unchallenged."

Judge Youngdahl's Position Threat To Integrity Of Court

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

Marquis Childs, writes agreeably for the Washington Post which opposes Joe McCarthy and approves many of his quarry in the usual circumstances. Childs recently wrote with high spirit in favor of Judge Luther Youngdahl, of the U.S. Court for the District of Columbia. The issue here is the indictment against Owen Lattimore. Thereupon the government, beyond observation that the Post and Childs regard that indictment as a dirty outrage, Youngdahl threw out some counts in a previous go-around and discussed another in a way which suggested to the Department of Justice that he had prejudged it in Lattimore's favor. The department got the indictment amended and the case fell to Youngdahl again. Thereupon the government asked him to stand aside. Youngdahl refused.

Childs thinks this is a hell of a nerve on the part of Leo Rover, the U.S. Attorney, whose name recalls an old cabaret ditty which began "I got a dog named Rover" and closed with an ululating "Where's that doggone, doggone dog of mine?"

Childs says "leading newspapers" have condemned Rover's charge of prejudice "as a threat to the independence of the judiciary." What I say is that the confirmation of Youngdahl for this job on the federal bench was a more serious threat to the integrity of the national jurisprudence than the threat, if any, which Childs perceives in Rover's routine, normal legal motion to get his case before a judge with a fresh mind and no known or suspected bias.

Youngdahl was a politician. He was a New Deal Republican in Minnesota which has been a political wilderness for many years. Childs does not overstate the truth when he writes that Youngdahl "was by all odds, the Republicans' best vote-getter and most popular figures."

And when Harry Truman nominated Youngdahl for the United States Court he took out of political action the only Republican, nominal though he may have been, who stood a chance on earth of dumping Senator Hubert Humphrey, the chief of Americans for Democratic Action which is the American front of the Fabian Socialist movement. So Truman got a New Deal Republican judge and used the appointment as an insurance policy to protect a New Deal, Fabian senator from opposition.

Youngdahl was a willing, eager party to this deal regarding which Childs now writes that "Youngdahl's friends believe the charge of prejudice is a reprisal for refusing to run for the Senate." He also says that "while Youngdahl will discuss no phase of the case, this information comes from unimpeachable sources and there can be no doubt of its authenticity."

I envy these crystal-gazers. If Youngdahl himself, "will discuss no phase of the case." I would be leary of imputing such strong beliefs to "Youngdahl's friends." I think back to the days of Woodrow Wilson and the old tricks of propaganda whereby ideas and enemies of his were attributed to "friends of the president" and "White House circles." I would be afraid that people might suspect that Youngdahl himself, was covertly charging the Department of Justice with dirty pool in trying to deal him out of one of the key Communist cases.

Gnashings

By ED NASH
Pampa News Staff Writer

TODAY IS the birthday of two famous writers. One of them said in 1923: "Looking back with after-knowledge and increasing years I seem to have been too ready to undertake tasks which were hazardous or even forlorn." . . . The other maintained, at an earlier date: "Have a place for everything and keep the thing somewhere else. This is not advice, it is merely custom." . . . Everybody has heard of them. Who are they?

WANT A LOAF of bread? Go to the grocery store, you say? . . . Well, maybe. . . Mrs. W. B. (A) Neel might tell you otherwise, though. She and her husband, the city commissioner, run a grocery store. They live right next to it and are accustomed to whip over to the store to pick up what they need for a meal at home. The other day, Mrs. Neel went over to get some bread. But there was none. So she had to buy it across the street. . . . Three days later, she needed another loaf. . . . She ended up buying it across the street again.

THAT WORD "always" can really get you in trouble. The rule is, never make a general statement and use the word "always." . . . Tell somebody that married men get to eat home-cooked dinners while their wives are away and bachelors always have to go out to eat and somebody will point out the cases in a split minute where it isn't true. . . . Leave out that key word and you can get by, maybe. . . . Ah, well, they say it's the exceptions that prove the rule. . . . And that "exception" Thanksgiving Day with all the fun's really brought it home to Ol' Gnashings. . . . Matter of fact, let's forget the rule and concentrate on the exceptions. . . . That'll ALWAYS work, believe me.

THE NON-SMOKING WORLD: Fans at the last few Harvester football games were plagued with drafts of air coming up through the cracks in the stands, carrying ashes from cigarettes, cigars and pipes. Look down your row of seats and you could see the ashes sprinkled on everyone's back. . . . Two elderly ladies were attending the Thanksgiving Day Game. One of them looked over on the back of the other and exclaimed: "My, you're just covered with feathery stuff!"

THE SPORT-SHIRT craze has certainly taken over Pampa's men. At least, that's true of the bachelors, that special breed which doesn't have to answer at home for how the weekly paycheck is spent. . . . Take Weldon Witcher. He dropped into a clothing store to pay a bill and, before he left,

Driver Shot In Altercation With Police

CLEBURNE, Tex., Nov. 30—UP—A motorist who told the Cleburne police chief that "you'll have to kill me" to get him out of his car, was in the hospital with a bullet wound Monday after threatening the officer with a knife.

Police Chief Jimmie Street said he stopped the motorist for running two red lights. The motorist, identified as L. J. Gaskill, then threatened Street with a dagger-like hunting knife, Street said. Gaskill, a 31-year-old Lone Star Gas Co. employe, was shot in the right side by the police chief after resisting arrest and lunging at Street. Gaskill was expected to be charged later in the day with assault to murder, in connection with the knife threatening incident. Street said he approached Gaskill's car Sunday after he had run two red lights. He said the man pointed a long dagger-like hunting knife at him and said "you'll have to kill me if you get me out of here."

Street went to his patrol car and radioed for help. Two squad officers answered the call. Meanwhile Gaskill backed his car up against a church building and got out of it still brandishing his knife. The three officers had to dodge his thrusts. They tried to talk him into surrendering, but he refused and made a lunge at Street. It was then that Street fired one shot from a .38 automatic and hit Gaskill in the right side. When he fell, the knife was still in his hand. Gaskill is in Johnson County Memorial hospital under police guard.

A CHRISTMAS CAROL

BY CHARLES DICKENS

Scrooge asked Marley's ghost if there was any way he could avoid the same fate as Marley. The ghost replied that Scrooge had one chance — a slim one.

"You will be haunted," said Jacob Marley's ghost, "by Three Spirits." "I think I'd rather not," quavered Scrooge.

And with that, Marley was gone, leaving a badly shaken Scrooge behind him.

207 Jobs Filled During TEC Month

There were 207 persons employed through the Texas Employment Commission in Pampa during the month ending Thursday, contrasted to the 158 the month before. The breakdown for the Oct. 26-Nov. 25 placements was 180 non-agricultural positions and 27 farm jobs. For the previous month it was 117 and 41, according to Bill Ragadale, local TEC manager. Of the 180, there were 25 women and 43 veterans. There were 42 persons in the "live" file as of Thursday, as against 483 Oct. 25 Ragadale reported. Seventy persons filed new claims in the last month — the month before it was 69. The number of placements increased in four out of five categories: from 11 to 21 in clerical and sales jobs, from 10 to 21 in service jobs, from 12 to 13 in semi-skilled jobs and from 83 to 124 in unskilled jobs. It was identical in the skilled category — a lonely 1 each month. Ragadale said an estimated 45 jobs were processed last week in his office, which he considered pretty normal for this time of year. Among those for whom there were jobs this week were a carpenter and an office clerk with bookkeeping training.

Father, Accused Of Slaying Son, Gets Trial Postponement

FORT WORTH, Nov. 30 — UP—An Army draftee accused of crushing to death his seven-year-old son with his bare hands was granted a postponement of his murder trial Monday when it was brought out that psychiatrists disagree on his sanity. But Assistant District Attorney Randall Riley said the prosecution has a psychiatrist who will testify that Malloy was sane at the time of the slaying and still is sane. Malloy's lawyers asked for the postponement so their psychiatrists could have more time to study Malloy's behavior. They said Malloy's parents did not come to Fort Worth from their home in Alliquippa, Pa., since doctors have not completed their studies.

Smog Study Urged In LA

NEW YORK, Nov. 30—UP—The head of the Los Angeles County Medical Association Monday urged immediate study of the smog problem to prevent a "whole host of dead." Dr. J. Phillip Sampson, the association head, said such a study would take two or three years and in the meantime steps must be taken to keep air pollution from rising to critical levels. He said the death causing levels of smog are unknown at present. "We need to know when the critical level is coming up," Dr. Sampson said. Dr. Sampson said residents of Los Angeles county could "wake up someday to find a whole host of dead in their midst" from smog.

Adenauer Party Suffers Defeat

FRANKFURT, Germany, Nov. 30 — UP—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's Christian Democrats suffered a punishing defeat by the powerful Socialists in Hesse province in a Sunday election that showed the rearmament issue still a big question mark. At the same time, Adenauer's party scored an impressive victory in crucial state elections in neighboring Bavaria.

BATTLESHIP TEXAS
Months of hard work by the Battleship Texas Commission culminated April 21, 1948, when the U. S. Navy decommissioned the Battleship Texas and ceded her to the Texas Navy. Laid down in 1911, 34 years ago, as a coal burning 29,500 ton battleship the Texas came to sea in 1914 with a crew of 850 men and officers. The Texas served in World War I, and World War II, and after 34 years of brilliant service, the old battleship has dropped anchor at San Jacinto.

Joseph and Mary

NOW the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost. Then Joseph, her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away privily.

Career Keeps Kelley Away From Altar

(EDITOR'S NOTE — The second in a series on what has made Grace Kelley a movie star.)

By ALINE NOBBY
HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 30 — UP—Grace Kelly hadn't been a star long in Hollywood before the gossip columnists began to link her with her leading men, but she is too career-minded to think of marriage now.

According to the keyhole scribes, the Ray Milland separated over her; Bing Crosby and Clark Gable have been her dates.

Twenty-five-year-old Grace has passed up the Hollywood swains to choose dapper, witty New York dress designer Oleg Cassini as her steady escort. The usually evasive Grace does not say of Cassini, "I like him better than any man I know, but there is nothing serious now." They toured part of Europe together and last summer he met her family at their summer home at Ocean City, N. J.

Most of Grace's dates have been older men, attracted by her amazing composure and maturity.

Those qualities in Grace impressed Hollywood where movie-makers are used to desperately unhappy actresses who came up the hard way and grab for a living. Grace is a type foreign to show business — born to wealth, schooled for social position and disciplined to be self-reliant.

Grace's father, John Kelly, was Irish bricklayer who rose to become president of the largest

Re-Trial Ordered For Melton

HOUSTON, Nov. 30 — UP—Federal Judge Allan B. Hannay Monday ordered a re-trial for former police vice squad Capt. Foy Melton, a key figure in the police narcotics scandal.

Melton will be tried at Corpus Christi Feb. 7 on a charge of possession of heroin. Melton was freed on a charge of concealing heroin when trial at Brownsville earlier this month resulted in a hung jury.

Corpus Christi was the site of the trial of Dr. Julius McBride, another figure in the narcotics scandal. He was found guilty on 26 counts of narcotics law violation and was sentenced last week to 30 months in prison.

Foreman T. C. Brennan Jr., refused to comment as to whether any further narcotics indictments would be returned. He said the jury was occupied with cases of other natures.

Three Charged With Illegal Possession Of 'AEC Gold'

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 30 — UP—Three Oklahoma City men, one a former Atomic Energy Commission employe, Monday were charged with illegal possession of gold allegedly taken from the AEC laboratory at Las Alamos, N. M.

Secret Service Agent R. H. Osborne identified the three as William E. Osborn, 29, a former University of California employe at the laboratory, Charles A. Kautzman, 26, and Jerome V. Walton, 26, who is serving 20 years in prison for armed robbery. The Secret Service said Osborn smuggled 110 ounces of near-pure gold while in control of precious metals at Los Alamos.

He said the FBI now is investigating the theft there. Only charges of illegal possession of gold have been filed so far.

Osborn was employed by the University of California in 1946, and sent to work at the university's project at Los Alamos. Later, he was placed in charge of gold and other precious metals there.

In October, 1952, he resigned and came to Oklahoma City. The Secret Service agent said he brought the gold with him. The gold would be valued at more than $5,000 on the black market. The official rate is $35 an ounce.

Osborn pleaded guilty upon arraignment at 10:30 a. m. before U. S. Commissioner Philip Douglas. Kautzman pleaded innocent. Both waived preliminary hearing and posted $1,000 bonds.

One of the brothers was believed wounded in the exchange of shots with officers and still was at large Monday. The other brother, Archie Lee Ellisor of Houston, was captured Sunday at Liberty, Tex., and police said he admitted his part in the shooting.

Authorities identified the brother still at large as Merle Ellisor. He was believed to have been wounded in the right shoulder during the shooting Saturday night on the edge of Houston.

Highway Patrolman R. J. Crosby was fatally wounded and Deputy Sheriff Jimmy Scarborough was hit in the right shoulder in two different incidents involving the pair charged.

Scarborough said he saw a car weaving on Highway 73 near the Houston city limits. He said he assumed the occupants were drunk and pulled alongside the car and ordered the two men to stop.

Instead of stopping, Scarborough said, a volley of shot was his only answer from the car. He was hit in the right shoulder and knocked from his motorcycle. The pair sped away in the car, but Scarborough managed to draw his gun and fire a few shots at the fleeing pair.

Meanwhile, Crosby, 27, and his partner, Doyce Dollin, met the same car a short time later, weaving along the highway. The patrolmen blocked the car in a ditch, and as Crosby started to get out of the patrol car he too was met with a volley of shots.

Crosby was hit in the face and chest. His partner was creased on the cheek by a shotgun pellet. Dollin started firing on the two men as they jumped out of the car and started running across a vacant lot. They disappeared into some woods.

Dollin radioed for help for Crosby, who was taken to a hospital. He died 23 minutes later.

A posse of about 300 officers combed the area throughout the night. Archie Lee Ellisor later was captured in a motel in Liberty. He was taken back to the scene of the shooting and told officers he remembered his brother grabbing his shoulder and saying, "I'm hit."

Police said Archie Lee signed a statement admitting his part in the shooting, but wouldn't discuss it with officers.

Judge Hits Divorce Laws

FORT WORTH, Nov. 30 — UP—U. S. Judge T. Whitfield Davidson spoke bitterly against divorce laws Monday after a mother of two pleaded guilty to mail theft. She was convicted of manslaughter when she was 16 years old after her parents were divorced.

Mrs. Wanda Gallahan, 24-year-old south side waitress, told the judge she took a $157 check from her landlady's mailbox, forged her name to it and cashed it.

But Judge Davidson said he probably would give her a probation sentence despite the conviction when she killed her younger brother, 12, while scuffling over a rifle.

"Half of the crimes that come before this court result from broken homes," he said. "I wish every state would make almost impossible for parents with children under 18 to get a divorce."

Fermi learned he was suffering from cancer last summer after he made a trip to Italy.

On Oct. 9 he underwent an operation in which doctors found that his stomach malignancy was spreading throughout his body and was incurable.

From then on, he knew he was doomed. He returned to his home where he succumbed Monday morning.

Fermi was the first man to "split" the atom. While experimenting with neutron bombardment of elements in the periodic table, he split a uranium atom. But at the time, he thought he had produced new elements.

For these studies, he was awarded the Nobel prize in 1938. Later, he fled from Italy to escape the Fascist terror and became a professor of physics at Columbia University.

He made his greatest contribution to scientific knowledge in December — 12 years ago this week — 1942 when he directed the building and activation of the world's first atomic "pile" on a squash court under the stands of the University of Chicago's Stagg Field.

There, he started the first atomic chain reaction, controlled it, and stopped it at will.

B-25 Crash Kills Five

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 30 — UP—A B-25 Air Force bomber crashed near here Sunday night, killing five of six persons aboard. The lone survivor was rescued Monday by helicopter.

The survivor was not identified immediately. He was in a dazed condition as a result of the crash. The plane did not burn but cut down trees over a wide area when it crashed. Cause of the crash was not immediately known.

The bodies of the other five were found at the scene or close by in a heavily wooded area about two miles west of Friendship international airport here.

June Talk

By JANE KADINGO

Pampa News Women's Editor

THESE COLD EVENINGS, many of us women are glad to fold away our lighter nightwear and jump into a warm pair of pajamas. While thinking of this, it reminded me that they make a good Christmas gift, too. If you're a pajama fan, here are some pointers on latest styles and washing methods.

WOMEN WHO LOVE pajamas for their warmth and unbunchy comfort will have fun this winter. Rather than having only a choice of colors in the same old cuts, PJ robes may have as varied wardrobe as their sister nightgown fans.

Ruffled knickers with a matching shirt give a matador touch to the pajama-wearing woman. Or she may choose an Italian-inspired shirt and pants or a zippered coverall with knitted socks that'll keep her as warm as a baby. A T-shirt top and cardigan can pop out of bed and answer the phone with no loss of modesty.

Some of the brightest inventions of this year's fashions have been converted into nightclothes that are a far cry from any old thing.

One old-fashioned quality clings to these styles for log-sawing their washability. The fabrics the manufacturers are using for nightwear practically crawl into the soapuds by themselves, they're so practical: flannelette, balbriggan, rayon challis, cotton challis, brushed rayon and nylon.

They can all be washed by hand and all but brushed rayon can be washed in short cycles in the machine. The spin dry should be omitted on the flannelette.

For drying, good results come easily with a few directions: balbriggans should be hung to dry; flannelette should be shaken and dried on a hanger, as should rayon and cotton challis; brushed rayon should be squeezed gently and hung wrong side out; brushed nylon should be hung to drip dry on a shaped hanger with a skirt hanger used for the pants.

THINKING OF WHAT to wear during the Christmas round of parties? Here are some ideas from a teen-age magazine. But just because it was written primarily for the younger set, don't overlook the fact that they reflect, perhaps slightly modified, the styles we adults are wearing. They sounded fine to me, and I'm far from being a teen-ager.

Christmas datewear or party wear displays billowy skirts coupled with scooped halter and square throated necklines, reports the December Seventeen in a fashion forecast of big-date dresses for holiday doings.

GRACE FRIEND

Dear Grace Friend
I have been thinking I would write you for some time, since this letter came out in your column that we are old women at 50. I am 59 and I don't feel old. I enjoy going to my church and Sunday School.

Does this little Janet realize that she'll be an old woman of 50 one of these days? I sure don't enjoy hearing young kids call people old. They should realize their time is coming to be an old woman as she calls her dear grandma who cared for her and gave her a home and did so much for her.

I'm sure glad my grandchildren don't call me an old woman. If they did I'm afraid they'd get a good spanking and put to bed and there'd be no outings until they learned to respect the ones who have done so much for them.

I know there're lots of folks called old fogies. But, little Janet, please respect your grandma. She knows best. You'll realize it when you get older and go to raising your own family.

I am a grandma with four nice grandchildren.

A. D. P.

Dear A. D. P.
I am sure that Janet meant no disrespect when she called her grandmother "an old woman of 50."

When you're 14 or 15, 50 does look awfully old and youth cannot even conceive that they will someday (quicker than they think) be 50 themselves.

FLOWERS FOR WEDDING
Dear Miss Friend,
Just what flowers does the bridegroom supply for the wedding.

My son is to be married soon and I am not sure whether he buys the bridesmaids' bouquets or just the bride's.

What about corsages for the mothers?
Mrs. J. M.

Dear Mrs. J.
The bridegroom buys the bride's bouquet and going-away corsage, corsages for the mothers of the bride couple, and boutonnières for himself, ushers and best man.

The bride's family buys bouquets for the bridesmaids and pays for flowers used to decorate the church.

Managing those lovely stoles can be done gracefully or you can look like the circus lady wrestling her snake. Try it in front of a full-length mirror. A judicious clip or pin at the shoulder or sleeve may help you.

The Harvesters haven't tasted defeat since late in the 1951-52 season.

The Harvesters will be going against a veteran team tonight at Tulia. Bolstering the Tulia team is the return of Paul Madena, 6-5, center.

All five Tulia starters tonight will be returning lettermen. The other starters include Jeff Carille, 6-3, and Bobo Hamilton, 6-1, forwards, and Eddie Morris, 5-11, and Jan Tucker, 5-9, guards.

McNeely will have three returning lettermen in the Harvester starting lineup tonight. They are center Gary Griffin, 6-5; forward E. Jay McIlvain, 6-2; and guard Ken Hinkle, 5-11.

The other two Harvester starters will be Benny Cartwright, returning squadman, at forward, and Jimmy Enloe, up from the B team at guard.

The Harvesters defeated Tulia, 85-42, last year. Hamilton, who will be in the starting Tulia lineup tonight, paced the Hornets in last year's game with 14 points.

QB Club Sets Final Meeting

The final Pampa Quarterback Club meeting will be held tonight at Sam Houston Auditorium, starting at 7:15.

Election of 1955 officers is on the agenda. Officers nominated by the nomination committee are Ralph McKinney, president; Henry Sharp, vice-president; and Haskell Maguire, secretary.

But others may be nominated for the above offices by the club members. After all nominations are in tonight, voting will be held.

Outgoing officers are Buck Francis, president; Bubba Hill, vice-president; and Ray Dudley, secretary-treasurer.

The club will pay tribute to the coaching staffs of all four of the schoolboy teams here, the Harvesters, Shockers, Reapers and Pee Wees, at tonight's meeting.

Navy's Beagle To Be Honored

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 30—UP—Ron Beagle, Navy's brilliant end from Covington, Ky., will be honored at a dinner Jan. 11 as the "outstanding college football player of the year" by the Philadelphia Maxwell Club.

Beagle is a 20-year-old second classman (junior) at the academy. Navy Coach Eddie Erdelatz called Beagle "a sure All-America" in the uproarious dressing room following Saturday's 27 to 20 victory over Army.

THE PAMPA QUARTERBACK CLUB urges all football fans of the city to be on hand for the final club meeting of the year tonight at Sam Houston Auditorium.

It would be fitting to make this the biggest turnout of the season for a couple reasons.

Most important of all, of course, is to express our appreciation to the coaches who have worked tirelessly this season to give the city the best football team possible.

Bolling it down I believe our coaches turned out the best job of any other staff in District 1-AAAA this season. Because I hardly believe that any other staff could have equalled the fine job that our staff did this season with the Fighting Harvesters.

We've already mentioned in this corner the many odds that were stacked against the Harvesters all season. And there's two other factors that could be mentioned that would express further the fine job our coaches turned in this year.

Midland was ranked fourth in the final Williamson System poll but the Bulldogs just barely squeaked by the Harvesters, 20-14, with the Harvesters resting on the Midland four when the game ended.

Then Odessa was ranked ninth in the final poll and the Harvesters defeated the Broncs, 28-14.

Well, anyway, we owe it to the coaching staff to turn out en masse at tonight's final QB meeting of the year.

The other important reason for attending the QB confab tonight is that the 1955 officers will be elected.

As is the case in any field, when there is some voting to be done, it's important for everyone concerned to take part in the voting.

By Williamson System

Harvesters Ranked 27th In Final Poll

The Fighting Harvesters are ranked 27th among Class 4A teams in the state according to the final release of the year by the Williamson System.

Galveston heads the 4A list with Pasadena second and Abilene, of District 1-AAAA, third. Other 1-AAAA teams are ranked as follows: Midland 4th; Odessa 9th; San Angelo 13th; Amarillo 21st; Lubbock 26th; and Borger 29th.

Fifty-three teams participated in Class 4A during the 1954 season. Lufkin tops the 3A list with Breckenridge second and Garland third. In Class AA, Nederland leads the pack, followed by Phillips and LaMarque.

Three West Texas teams head the Class A ratings. Paducah leads the field followed by Sundown in second and McLean third.

Included in the top 26 teams in Class A is the Lefors Pirates who ranks 20th.

Following are the final ratings of the four divisions:

'Good Boys' Win Mat Bout

Chet Wallick and George Curtis proved last night at the Top of Texas Sportsman's Club arena that "it pays to be good."

This pair won over a duo of "villains" Frankie Hill Murdock and Vera Taft, in a tag team match which featured the weekly wrestling show last night.

The "nice boys" won in two straight falls. George Overhula won the semi-final event from Cono Bruno, in the semi-final event, by a disqualification.

The 15-minute preliminary between Taft and Curtis wound up in a draw.

RECOMMENDED for the new HIGH-COMPRESSION ENGINES in the 1955 cars

When you buy that brand-new car, keep this in mind: No matter which of today's V-8's you get... high-priced or low-priced... you can be sure it has a high-compression engine.

That's why it needs the kind of gasoline that gives you the full advantage of all this new built-in power—New Gulf NO-NOX, the super-refined gasoline that's specially made for today's high-compression engines.

Gulf refines out the "dirty-burning tail-end" of gasoline—the No. 1 troublemaker in high-compression engines—to give you more power-with-protection than you've ever known!

HERE'S PROOF: Instead of trying to fight harmful deposits with so-called "miracle additives"—inside your engine—Gulf believes in preventing them from forming in the first place. Gulf removes the cause—the "dirty-burning tail-end" of gasoline—at the refinery. The plates in the photo above show what a difference Gulf super-refining makes!

New Gulf NO-NOX is the super-refined gasoline that gives your car all these immediate and lasting benefits:

- More complete engine protection than with so-called "miracle-additive" gasolines.
- Extra gas mileage in the short-trip, stop-and-go driving motorists do most.
- No knock, no pre-ignition.
- Stall-proof smoothness... instant starts... fast, fuel-saving warm-up.

Remember this: Whether yours is one of the newest cars with a high-compression engine or one of the older cars, you'll find new Super-Refined Gulf NO-NOX is the ideal gasoline to use. Try a tankful and see.

Completely New! Super-Refined NEW GULF NO-NOX

Coaches Say UCLA Is Nation's Best

NEW YORK, Nov. 30 — UP — UCLA won the national collegiate football championship Tuesday in the final 1954 United Press ratings, based on the votes of the men who know the game the best, the coaches themselves.

In a close race with Ohio State, the Pacific Coast Conference champions won out by seven points in the final ballots of the 35 outstanding coaches who make up the United Press rating board. It marked the first time in the five-year history of the ratings that a Far West team has won the No. 1 spot.

UCLA, with its first perfect record football season, was chosen as the top team by 21 of the 35 coaches. Of the 14 who did not rank the Bruins first, nine picked them for second place, four for third and one for fifth, giving UCLA a total of 328 points out of a possible 350.

Seven Points Behind

Ohio State, also with a perfect season received 11 first place votes, 20 seconds, three thirds and one fourth for a total of 321 points. Oklahoma, which with UCLA and Ohio State, make up the only three major teams with perfect season records, finished in third place with 219 points, followed by Notre Dame with 222 and Navy with 187. Each of those teams received one first place vote. Like UCLA and Ohio State, both Oklahoma and Notre Dame were named on each of the 35 ballots.

Rounding out the top 10 in the final ratings for 1954 — and the United Press final ratings generally are accepted as the official ones — are Mississippi, Army, Arkansas, Miami (Fla.) and Wisconsin in that order.

Thus the same 10 teams which finished in the select group last week stayed in it in the final ratings, but there were six changes. Navy, with its impressive victory over Army, jumped from sixth to fifth place with 187 points, while Army dropped from fifth to seventh with 107 points. Mississippi, seventh last week, advanced to sixth place with 109 points while Arkansas with 81 points and Miami with 48 each advanced a notch — to eighth and ninth, respectively, from ninth and 10th, respectively.

UCLA Penalized For Being Good, Says Frank Leahy

CHICAGO, Nov. 30 — UP — Frank Leahy, former Notre Dame football coach, rapped exclusion of unbeaten UCLA from the Rose Bowl game Tuesday as a "penalty for being good."

He said that the Uclans, rated No. 1 in the nation, should be put into the contest against second-ranked Ohio State, also unbeaten in nine games, so the two could play for the national championship.

"I can't figure the thing out," Leahy said. "It's unusual to have a team in the Rose Bowl that's been beaten three times, and once by a score of 34 to 0 by a team in its own conference. I can't go along with the ruling."

Southern California, named by the Pacific Coast Conference as its bowl representative by virtue of its finish as runner-up to UCLA in the title chase, has lost to Texas Christian, Notre Dame and UCLA. With the latter taking a 34 to 0 decision, "The Trojans won eight games."

"It's probably a hard earned honor for Southern California," Leahy said, "and certainly it's a good football team. But for the big one like the Rose Bowl, you ought to get the best you can locate."

"It doesn't seem like American football," Leahy said, "penalizing a team for being good."

UCLA was excluded from the bowl by a clause in the Big Ten-Pacific Coast agreement under which each circuit provides a "representative" team annually. The clause prohibits a team from playing in the post-season spectacles more than once in two years, and UCLA lost to Michigan State last Jan. 1.

Leahy said none of the present bowl games appeared attractive to him, and he probably would "stay home and spend a quiet weekend with my family."

But should UCLA replace Southern California in the Rose Bowl, "that would be the game," he said.

Raiders, San Jose Talked For Sun Tilt

EL PASO, Nov. 30 — UP — Texas Tech and San Jose (Calif.) State were talked up Tuesday as possible opponents in the Jan. 1 Sun Bowl game, but more than a half-dozen other schools still were in the running.

The selection committee met Monday without making a decision. But it was reported other schools considered included Texas Western of El Paso, Miami of Ohio, Chattanooga, Bucknell, Wyoming, Southeastern Louisiana College and Trinity University of San Antonio.

Denver, Wichita and Virginia Tech also were considered, but it is
