

Food Saving Problem Revolves Around Question of How to Cut Wheat Use

GREAT BRITAIN GIVES UP PALESTINE

'Gray' Flour Seen as One Possible Means

WASHINGTON — AP — The food saving problem facing Americans in their efforts to avert hunger abroad boils down largely to the question: "How can we reduce our expected use of wheat about 100,000,000 bushels between now and next July?"

The government would like to ship at least 570,000,000 bushels of grain and grain products abroad this crop year, which ends next June 30. The Cabinet Food Committee reports not more than 470,000,000 bushels will be available for export unless American conserve.

If Americans go along consuming as they have been 860,000,000 bushels of wheat will be required to meet their needs this crop year—510,000,000 for flour, bread, breakfast food and other cereal products and 350,000,000 for livestock feed.

This is about 170,000,000 bushels more than were used for the same purposes last year. All of this increase would be in the form of wheat for livestock feed. Because of the very short crop, grain farmers will turn to wheat as a substitute for corn. This wheat would find its way to consumers in the form of meat, milk, eggs and poultry.

Several possibilities are open for trimming 100,000,000 bushels of this prospective use of wheat. Some would require voluntary consumer cooperation. Others would require re-establishment of wartime food controls. The latter cannot be resorted to without Congressional authority.

On the voluntary side, use of wheat for flour could be reduced by returning to these conservation measures which were recommended in the 1942 food crisis abroad:

Serving single rolls or slices of bread, open-faced or sliced-crust pies; eliminating the custom of trimming toast and sandwich crusts; discontinuing the use of toast as a garniture with meat poultry and other entrees; eliminating layer cakes, and substituting fruits and other desserts for pastries and cakes whenever practicable.

On the compulsory side, savings could be made by returning to the so-called "gray" flour, cutting sizes of bread loaves and rolls, and rationing flour to makers and other food manufacturers. These measures were used last year to save grain for export.

Deportation May Prove Result of Eisler Hearing

WASHINGTON — AP — The House Committee on Un-American Activities recommended today that Hanns Eisler be prosecuted for perjury and passport fraud.

WASHINGTON — AP — Chairman J. Parnell Thomas (R-N.J.) said today the House Committee on Un-American Activities probably will recommend deportation action against Hanns Eisler, German-born Hollywood composer.

As the committee neared the end of its investigation into Eisler's entrance into the United States, Thomas told newsmen he and other committee members are convinced that "this is a case for the Justice Department."

Testimony given the committee when it can be shown that Eisler entered this country through fraud," Thomas continued.

He referred to Eisler's denial at the time of his entry that he was affiliated with the Communist party and to his acknowledgement to the committee this week that he applied for membership in the Communist party in 1926. The application was accepted although Eisler said he "dropped out" later.

Thomas called as final witnesses today Clarence H. Porter, chief inspector for the Immigration and Naturalization Service, and P. C. Hutton, now consul at Guatemala City, Guatemala.

Through them he said, he will prove that pressure from Washington was brought to allow Hanns Eisler to stay in this country for permanent residence.

The committee already has questioned Sumner Wells, former Under-Secretary of State, and George S. Messersmith, former Assistant Secretary of State, both of whom were in the department when Eisler's case was handled.

Penalty in Salary Bill Constitutional

AUSTIN — AP — The loss of accreditation, penalty provided by the Minimum Teacher Bill passed by the last Legislature is constitutional, the Attorney General's Department ruled today.

In H. B. 300 the Legislature has provided for uniform higher salaries for all school teachers without discrimination due to race, the opinion said.

"Such impartial provision for Negro and white schools is in accordance with article seven, section seven of the Constitution for white and Negro pupils."

The opinion by Assistant Attorney General Chester E. Ollison was approved by Attorney General Price Daniel. It was written at the request of the Texarkana School Superintendent Henry Stillwell, through L. A. Woods, state superintendent.

Stillwell and Woods were in dispute over an interpretation of the minimum salary bill, and Woods wrote the attorney general.

The Texarkana school has 1,506 Negro scholars with approximately 400 in the Dunbar Negro High School, which is listed as an accredited school. Mr. Stillwell now claims that he is no longer accrediting the Dunbar school because of the board of trustees to pay Negro teachers on the same salary schedule as the white teachers.

Woods wrote that he interpreted the minimum salary bill as meaning that an accredited system such as Texarkana must operate both an accredited Negro school and an accredited white school, "or must be seeking accreditation for their Negro school and pay their teachers the same salary schedule."

The opinion said that authority to classify or accredit schools rests with the state superintendent rather than the board of trustees of independent school districts, and that the Department of Education's rules and regulations on accreditation have the same force as statutes when they are not in conflict with other state laws.

"To permit a school district to comply with the minimum salary provision of H. B. 300 with respect to some of its accredited schools, and not to comply with respect to all, would be to permit a school district to classify and accredit its own schools," the opinion stated.

Noting that one section of the salary bill recognizes that some districts may not be financially able to meet the minimum salary requirement ($2,000 annually), the opinion pointed out that these are required to pay "the highest possible schedule within their financial ability." If they can not meet the minimum, they still are not relieved of the other statutory requirements and obligations, Woods was informed.

State of Emergency May Be Declared in Forests

CONROE — AP — The State Forest Service may ask the Governor to declare a state of emergency in the East Texas area because of the serious outbreak of forest fires Monday, officials said today.

The State Guard may be asked to help fight the flames, J. O. Burnside, chief of the Forest Service's Division of Forest Production at Lufkin, said.

Of the 72 fires that have broken out since Monday, 55 are still burning. They were described as "out of control."

Over 10,000 acres of timber land already have been destroyed, Burnside said. This is the equivalent of 16 square miles of timber.

An investigation is being conducted by the Department of Education's rules and regulations on accreditation have the same force as statutes when they are not in conflict with other state laws.

Two special Rangers, K. V. Ivie, and R. K. Epps, are in the area now checking. Other Rangers may be sent later by the State Department of Public Safety.

Directing the first on the fast-spreading flames are J. V. Foster and Surey Peoples, district foresters. Between 18 and 20 men from the forest service, 25 from a lumber company, and scores of volunteers are in the field.

The U. S. Forest Service is expected to send help, for the San Houston National Forest, one of four National Forests in Texas, is threatened.

Fires burning today were most serious in the Montgomery, San Jacinto and Liberty County areas. This is the general area in which 72 fires had broken out since Monday, and in which 55 are still burning.

Yesterday, 14 fires were reported burning in other sections. Seven near Tyler covered 105 acres. Seventy acres were burning in San Augustine, Newton and Kirbyville areas. Two fires near Groveton, covering 275 acres, and two near the Angeline section, 30 acres, were reported.

More motorized equipment was being rushed into the fight. The forest service has planes aiding in spotting fires, augmenting the lookouts which are having difficulty spotting flames because of smoke.

City Fathers to Hear Reports on Work Projects

The City Commission tomorrow will get its first good report of satisfactory progress reports when the city manager is expected to make the first official reports of actual work being done on streets and sewers after weeks and months of plans, revamped plans, delays and setbacks.

Within the past ten days actual work has been started on the city's largest paving program since the war. By 10 o'clock this morning the first concrete curb and gutters on the 300 block N. Nelson were laid, and an alley intersection completed. The steel forms along the east side of the street have all been placed for additional pouring tomorrow and next week when the crews will be enlarged.

An unestimated number of feet near noon today of sewer extension lines in the Platts were dug with the pipe crews as close to the ditching machine's rear as possible for safety's sake.

In the meantime, it was learned by reliable City Hall sources that long awaited street lights are being placed in the Wilcox addition by the Southwest Public Service Company although the utility is only able to get delivery on about 10 street lights per month.

Traffic-control signs for secondary streets are going up for installation. At tomorrow's meeting the commission is slated to review the city's revised 1947-48 budget before it comes before the public hearing on Tuesday.

Maintenance work on the city's dirt streets may possibly be slowed down due to the paving project as the smaller of the city's two maintainers will go into the shops for repairs. Two pieces of equipment will hold up the speed of the paving progress, city officials decided today as they were discussing how and where to get a larger loader, in a short time and a heavy maintainer. A secondhand maintainer was available today, but the agent asked $4,000 for the machine, now in Midland. Both City Manager Steve Matthews and City Engineer Dick Pepin frowned on the idea of purchasing secondhand equipment at that high a figure which did not include the cost of transporting it here, not to mention the probable expense involved in its repairs from day to day. A loader is now on order, but signs of immediate delivery are hazy.

With the exception of R. R. Jones, city plumbing inspector, the engineer's office this morning was devoid of any personnel. Even then Jones was putting on his hat to leave on a building inspection.

For the past several days new steam heating lines in the City Hall have been being replaced by new pipes in the basement.

Would You Like to Help Equip a Small Playground as Gesture to Children?

Would you like to help equip a small playground for little children and young people?

That is the question voiced today by officials in charge of the local Salvation Army post. Maj. Bernice Lyons and Lt. Betty Williams said three vacant lots near the Army post at 613 East Albert St. will be converted into a playground, if equipment can be obtained.

They announced the Salvation Army wanted to help in any way possible to curb what they said was a rising tide of delinquency among young people and even smaller children—those below school age.

Problem Handed To U.N. Assembly

LAKE SUCCESS — AP — Britain announced today that she would end her 25-year rule over Palestine if the United Nations Assembly failed to find a solution that would bring peace to the Holy Land.

In any case, the British said they were determined to give up the League of Nations mandate.

Britain said she could be induced to stay in Palestine only if the form of rulership should be changed and approved by a majority of the United Nations—with Arab-Jewish agreement.

Colonial Secretary Arthur Creech-Jones told the Assembly's 55-nation Palestine Committee that the problem of enforcing any unpopular settlement would have to be handled by the U. N. itself—and not by Britain.

At the same time, he offered no plan for a solution and avoided any direct statement either for or against the partition of Palestine into separate Jewish and Arab countries, as recommended by a majority report of the 11-nation U. N. Palestine Inquiry Committee.

Early reaction to the British declaration was guarded and cautious. Some informed quarters said, however, that the Jewish Agency executive was bitter over Creech-Jones' failure to state a position on the partition plan.

Jewish agency leaders were understood to feel that Britain had taken an implicit stand in favor of maintaining the status quo.

Britain's Palestine declaration came amid these other developments:

1. The United States formally submitted its detailed plan for creation of a year-round interim peace and security committee of the U. S. Commerce Department.

Everybody's Happy: Blind Man Has Dog, Mayor Has His Car

ORANGE — AP — And now everybody's happy—A Houston blind man has his seeing eye dog back, and the Mayor of Orange has his car, virtually confiscated by the dog.

This is the story as told by Mayor Raymond Sanders today.

N. B. Sikes of Houston, 27, sightless, Texas District Employment Commissioner for the blind, was here with his seeing eye dog, a 75-pound doberman pinscher named Thor.

A car struck Thor while he and his master were taking their morning exercise. Crazed with pain, the dog deserted his master. A search began. Members of the Lions Club helped, scanning every nook and cranny of the city.

A woman telephone Mayor Sanders and said the dog had come to her house. Apparently it had calmed down, and was at her back door.

Mayor Sanders promptly got into his car and went for Thor. But Thor would have no part of the Mayor. He growled every time the Mayor approached.

Deciding to use strategy, Mayor Sanders ordered the back door of his car and nonchalantly sauntered away. Sure enough Thor hopped into the car. The Mayor whirled and slammed the door.

But then the Mayor himself could not enter the car. Thor would not let him. The 240-pound, six-foot four inch Mayor finally gave up and called for help.

The Police Department located Sikes and led him to the car. A joyful reunion followed.

The Mayor got his car back, and Sikes said today that Thor apparently is all right, unhurt by yesterday's accident.

Soviet Russia's Potentialities For War Great

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The appalling question of whether another World War is brewing keeps turning up like a bad penny, even appearing in the councils of the United Nations where we are hearing grim warnings that unless the Eastern and Western Blocs are healed we shall have another conflagration—this time of atomic proportions.

This being a persistent topic of conversation, it's interesting to hear from Ernest G. Ropes, chief of the U. S. Commerce Department, that "we don't need to worry about Russia as a potential enemy." He says she won't have the industrial capacity to war against America for at least 25 years—maybe 50 years or more.

Mr. Ropes had in mind only the industrial capacity of Russia itself, without reference to how much the Soviet war potential might be increased by the industrial strength of its satellites and the Russian zone in Germany.

There are of course numerous imperponderals involved in trying to gauge Russian capabilities of creating military striking power out of her vast resources. It is a problem which should be approached with great caution lest we underestimate. As for your columnist, let's SEE RUSSIA, Page 8

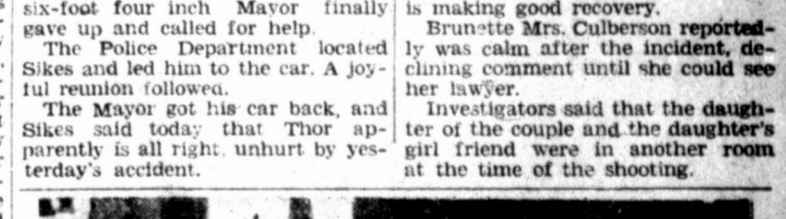

White Deer Woman Charged in Shooting

Mrs. Ava Culbertson of White Deer was charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill following a shooting in White Deer Wednesday night about 7:30 when Jim Culbertson, her husband, was found lying in the kitchen of their home, shot through the chest, according to Deputy Sheriff Mendell Esigie at Panhandle.

Deputy Esigie said Mrs. Culbertson had been released on a $1,500 bond. Charges were brought Thursday, following a wait for a report on Culbertson's condition. Culbertson, who was brought to Worley Hospital in Pampa about 8 p.m. Wednesday, was suffering from shock and loss of blood, but late reports indicate he is making good recovery.

Brunette Mrs. Culbertson reportedly was calm after the incident, declining comment until she could see her lawyer.

Investigators said that the daughter of the couple and the daughter's girl friend were in another room at the time of the shooting.

Two Newcomers to Be Running In Green and Gold Backfield

The 1947 edition of Coaches Tom Tipps' and Aubra Nooncaster's Pampa Harvesters will make their last appearance at Harvesters Park, until they meet Brownfield Oct. 31, tonight when they meet the Amon Carter Riverside Eagles of Fort Worth.

In meeting the Eagle squad coached by Ed Lowe, the Harvesters should be meeting their toughest opponent in the young Texas High School Interscholastic grid season. The Eagles, although downed by North Dallas 6 to 0 at Farrington Field in Fort Worth last week, will come to Pampa with a strong defensive team.

Due to the defensive showing that his charges made during last week's game, Coach Lowe worked his best on their offensive attacks during most of their drills the earlier part of the week.

The Eagles will run from a single wing, double wing, a "Y" attack, made famous at the University of Texas during the days of Dana X. Bible.

Charlie Sides, Don Hunt and Jimmy Shelton spearhead the Eagles' attack with reports stating that Shelton does most of their aerial work.

The Harvesters will field an injury ridden team against their lighted District 7AA foe tonight. Running in the spot vacant due to Derrell Conklin's injury of last week will be Francis Hunt, 158 pound fullback, who has made a credible showing in the first Harvesters game.

Starting at right halfback will be Harbord Cox, who weighs 155 pounds, most likely start in the place of Jack Williams whose playing in tonight's game will be doubtful due to an ankle injury, also incurred during the Sweetwater game.

On the line the Harvesters will outweigh the Eagles 14 pounds per man. However, the Eagle backfield will outweigh the Green and Gold runners approximately two pounds per man, giving the Harvesters an overall weight advantage of nine pounds per man.

LSU and Rice Coaches Unhappy About Meeting

BATON ROUGE—(AP)— The coaches appear so pitifully upset about it, that it seems a crying shame to go through with tomorrow night's game here between Rice and Louisiana State—even if the affair does rate as one of the top contests of the college football season.

Gorillas Lose Opening Game With Plainview

The Pampa High School Gorillas traveled to Plainview yesterday to open their season's schedule and fell in humble defeat before a big Plainview Bullpup team, 19-6.

The Gorillas pushed across play dirt without ever losing the ball. Jerry Gillis, Gorilla fullback, and Pete Cooper, left halfback, set up the score by racing 20 yards each in two successive plays. Cooper then went over from the 7-yard line standing up.

The Bullpups managed to score also in the first quarter when a long pass from Jackie Howton, Bullpup fullback, to Weldon Hayes, left end, rolled a high single of 204 and high series of 570.

Back Donnell, of the McWilliams' team, was high man for the evening, rolling a high single of 204 and high series of 570.

LONDON AND MOSCOW ZOOS COOPERATE
MOSCOW—(AP)— Last spring Moscow Zoo received a gift from the London Zoo of two Australian kangaroos. In return the Moscowites sent to the British capital a gift of valuable reptiles.

Now the London Zoo has sent six South American snakes, two mother-of-pearl lizards, bluntnosed crocodiles, and Mississippi alligators.

The mother-of-pearl lizards are getting plenty of attention. In nature these animals, according to Evening Moscow, feed on sweet berries. In Moscow Zoo they live on apple jam.

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK—(AP)— Wonder if Maxie Hirsch has taken a hint from the football coaching fraternity in building up Assault for Saturday's match with Armed? ... You know the grid routine: On Monday the team is a wreck; Tuesday or Wednesday it's "we'll show up for the game but don't expect anything of us;" by Friday the athletes are expected to play but won't be in top shape. Then Saturday—boom! ... Will get Tars in his hair.

First, Joe Hatten, the Dodgers' Number Two lefthander, limited the slugging New York Giants to three hits in a five-inning stint. Then Hal Gregg, apparently getting back into stride in the twilight of a disastrous season, held the same Giants to one hit in five frames. Last night, at Philadelphia, it was Lombardi's and Branca's turn to shine. Lombardi, the pit-sized work of the Brooks' mound corps in recent weeks, hurled three innings of last night's completed game of Aug. 17. He allowed but one man to reach base—Andy Seminick who belted a home run. The Dodgers won 7-5.

In the second game, which the Dodgers also won 5-2 in 10 innings, the only other game in the National League championship, clinched second place money by sweeping both ends of a double header from the Pittsburgh Pirates 15-3 and 3-1.

The St. Louis Cardinals, beaten in their attempt to retain the National League championship, clinched second place money by sweeping both ends of a double header from the Pittsburgh Pirates 15-3 and 3-1.

With the exception of Chuck Connors, Bear first baseman, both squads were reported in excellent condition.

Todd, who said Connors remained in New Orleans Wednesday night for treatment of a sinus ailment, indicated utility infielder Willis Maupin would take over at first should Connors fail to recover as rapidly as expected.

An overflow crowd that may reach 14,000 probably will aid the normally light hitting clubs, limiting the roving area of the outfielders in huge Buff Stadium.

Only three players on the two squads have regular season batting averages of .300 or better although the remainder, despite low averages, are capable of coming through with timely blows.

Cal Abrams, Mobile rightfielder, finished the regular campaign with a .345 mark, while Houston's Hal Epps, centerfielder, had a .302 and Johnny Hernandez, first baseman, a .301.

Keaney is expected to hold his ace moundman, Clarence Beers, voted the Texas circuit's most valuable hurler, until the third game at Mobile Monday night, and start Jack Creel (15-11) in the second tilt Saturday. Beers has a record of 28 wins against eight losses.

Todd's nomination for Saturday probably will go either to Roy Boles (16-7) or Frank Lega (16-7).

Match Race Involving 'Armed' and 'Assault' To Be Run Tomorrow

NEW YORK—(AP)— Tomorrow's $100,000 match race involving Armed and Assault was officially declared on again today after Robert J. Kleberg, Jr., owner of Assault, made an examination of his thoroughly bred who developed lameness after yesterday's workout.

Kleberg came here from Pennsylvania and made his announcement after inspecting Assault in the presence of a veterinarian and Trainer Max Hirsch, who twice this week has said he did not want to run the race because the colt was not in peak condition.

Hirsch, on Monday and again yesterday, said he did not want Assault to compete because of "poor condition" although the Texas terror worked well yesterday morning.

It was after Assault cooled out from touring a muddy mile that Hirsch noted Assault's lameness in the left fore leg. The horse has been troubled with a splint.

Meanwhile, Armed completed his preparations for the mile and quarter event at Belmont tomorrow

WORTHY OBJECTIVES FOR LIFE
Scriptures: 12, 17; 21; 11, 24; 12:1-8, 13, 24
By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D.D.
"Objective" is a big word. "Plans" or "goals" might be better. But the real theme is, how can one get the most out of life?
It is the question that has agitated the minds of those who have had some choice as to how to live. Some haven't given much thought to it; they have drifted into life, and they have drifted through it, without much thought about plans or goals. Others, alas, and many millions of them have had to take very much what life handed to them, without much chance to determine even their daily life or their destiny. They have been varying choices and goals. To many the chief aim has been to get as much pleasure and personal happiness out of life as possible. One philosophy (of Hedonism) claims that is the motivation of everyone; even of the self-sacrificing and martyr-like person, who would not act as he, or she, does if that were not the most personally satisfying thing to do. That, to say the least, seems to be straining a point; and, if it were true, it might still be remarked that the pleasure of some too often means unhappiness for others.
Other goals of life have been the acquiring of wealth and possessions, often without much regard of their essential value and use; the acquisition of power, with the mastery and sway over great empires, with ruthless tyranny, or with the petty tyranny of their feeble imitators, equally ruthless in their small spheres. Gentlemen and souls have made contemplation their chief quest, retiring into some form of cloistered living, and some have made knowledge their deepest satisfaction, often without much wisdom concerning its essential value and use.
The Hebrew prophets and poets had much to say concerning these various goals, and the greatest value in life. If the writer of the Book of Ecclesiastes seems to be an incurable pessimist, declaring that all is vanity, it should be remembered that he is exploring the futility of what he deems false and unsatisfying quest, but is setting over against them what he states as man's proper and highest goal.
His "conclusion of the whole matter" is "Fear God, and keep His commandments: for this is the whole duty of man."

Christian Science Services Sunday
"Reality" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 28.
The Golden Text is: "As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the Lord tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust him" (Psalms 18:30).
Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made" (John 1:3).
The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "All reality is in God and His creation, harmonious and eternal. That which He creates is good, and He makes all that is made" (page 472).

TROUT EATING PELICANS GET SPORTSMEN'S GOAT
ENNIS, Mont.—(AP)—Sportsmen in this area would like some help in getting rid of white pelicans that have been getting fat on trout at nearby Meadow Lake.
Low-flying planes frightened them away only temporarily. Dynamite booby traps didn't work and guns only thinned them out a little. Meanwhile about 300 birds gobble an estimated four pounds each daily.

Floor-to-Ceiling Charm in Bedroom Decor

A floor of glistening oak reflects the full charm of this unusual bedroom for a college age girl. Early American and Victorian touches are harmoniously blended. The dresser, relic of a bygone era, has been painted white and adorned with potted geraniums. The wallpaper is a bold green and white striped. Dark green dominates the color scheme, picking up red accents from the plaid chair cover, the geranium blossoms and—yes, even the old morning glory phonograph horn in red. The oak floors, waxed to a gleaming brilliance, emphasize the room's careful planning.

Diligent Girl Can Win Pretty Hands With Cream and Brisk Massage Care

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

You can give yourself a beauty bonus which costs only two seconds of your time and yet will give you prettier hands, if you'll massage them every time you leave on cream.

Massage, says Kay ("Honey-moon") Christopher, adds plus values to the cream or lotion you use. Skin warmed up by massage is more receptive to a lubricant and, as Kay says, "softer and sweeter." Hands given brisk manipulation escape their winter plight of poker-stiffness.

Kay's method is to massage her hands as though she were slipping on a pair of squeeze-tight gloves. This forces you, she says, to press R. S. on each finger, pushing up from the tip to force cream "gloves" on.

Another hint from Kay is to put on more cream than your skin will take and to keep massaging until it disappears.

KAY CHRISTOPHER: Hand tips.

Fluffy Ruffles!

Delicate in appearance, a frothy mass of crocheted ruffles to set off your favorite table. Measuring twelve inches across when finished, the dolly requires but one 400 yard ball of cotton. So easy to crochet and takes so little time.

To obtain complete crocheting instructions, stitch illustrations and finishing directions for Fluffy Ruffles Dolly (pattern No. 5478) send 15 cents in COIN plus 1 cent postage. YOUR NAME, ADDRESS and the PATTERN NUMBER to ANNE CABOT, The Pampa News, 1150 Avenue of the Americas, New York 19, N.Y.

Knit-Knacks
You will find it much easier to understand knitting and/or crocheting instructions if you read over the entire pattern from beginning to end before starting to work. Sometimes important information is given at the end of the instructions.

If you come to some point that you do not thoroughly understand, read this over again and think about it, by so doing nine times out of ten, your difficulty will disappear. When working on the article, should you come to a point that does not seem logical to you, work past this for a few rows or nearly always you will find the instructions are correct, but the wording is unfortunate or obscure. All knitting and crocheting patterns, regardless of where they come from, are written with the greatest possible accuracy with reference to mathematics and wording. Inasmuch as human elements are involved, mistakes do occur occasionally and wording of instructions varies slightly, but on the whole you will find that by careful reading of the instructions, your problems will be cut to the minimum.

WE, THE WOMEN

By RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

The long skirt vs. short skirt issue seems to be dying fast. Women continue to mutter protests, but the real struggle is over.

Those who can't afford a complete new wardrobe and that takes in most of American womanhood—are busily letting down the hems of last year's dresses as far as they can go, determined to wear them at least one more season.

But even the cautious, thrifty woman is looking for one new fall dress that has all the newest wrinkles. As long as a woman has one dress that looks like today instead of last year, she won't feel completely out of the style picture.

The hubbub that buzzes around the longer skirt has ended, as it was inevitable from the start that it would end. Women have accepted it.

REBELLION OVER
But women are fast falling into line. The very fact that they have started ripping out hems and using facing to get the last possible quarter-inch of length on last season's skirts is proof that the rebellion is over.

The battle of the hemline made good summer reading, but it was bound to end as soon as the women had to express their feelings in action, instead of words.

It is so much easier to say, "I wouldn't be caught dead in a long skirt," than it is to be caught alive in a short one when every other woman is wearing a long one.

Announcement
The Primitive Baptists will hold church services in the CIO Labor Union Hall Sunday night. The hall is located on West Brown Street, across from the Otter Ball Park.

Elder E. J. Norman of Wellington will bring the message starting at 7:30 p.m. The public is extended an invitation to hear the sermon.

Texas Today

Mamas and papas talk a lot about recreation centers for Junior, but it takes the kid himself to do something about it.

Everyone admits these days that one of the best ways to keep the teen-agers out of trouble is to provide something good and clean for them to do. A place to go with games and soft drinks instead of games and hard-drinks.

But how many towns have such recreation centers?

Temple does, for one. It's called the Teen-Age Barn, and it's on the main highway on the edge of town. It's big and clean, and popular.

Down in New Braunfels, the boys are trying to build what they call the Unicorn Stables. (Unicorn is the nickname of the school football team.) The Chamber of Commerce and parents and business men are helping, but it's the boys themselves who are promoting it, and doing the work.

They want to get surplus barracks—two of them—from a nearby Army camp. These will be placed parallel with an open space between them to be cemented and roofed later.

The Unicorn Stables will have a cove bar, a recreation hall, dance floor, games.

And the boys, who have asked for the barracks, are going from house to house raising funds. They say their mothers may help that way, too.

Virgil W. Johnson of the Chamber of Commerce says the project is not only sound and sensible, but that the training the boys get in doing the job will be invaluable later.

There are, scattered over Texas, numerous such teen-age centers. They're becoming more and more popular.

And in most instances, the sparkplug behind them is the younger generation itself—the teen-agers who know what they want, and go get it.

Punch of Tropical Storm Almost Gone

RALEIGH, N. C.—(AP)—Its punch almost gone, the tropical storm which Tuesday and Wednesday annoyed Florida, coastal Georgia and the Carolinas was centered today over Northeastern North Carolina continuing a Northeastward movement.

In a 4 p.m. advisory, the Weather Bureau said the blow still was losing force moving about 18 miles an hour. "The strongest winds are now over the coastal areas of the middle Atlantic states but they have fallen to around 20 to 25 mph with a few gusts up to 35 mph," the advisory said.

The disturbance, however, is expected to increase slightly in intensity and gain acceleration when it moves into the Atlantic near the Virginia Capes this morning.

As Pegler Sees It

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER
(Copyright, 1947)

NEW YORK—Ed Flynn has written in his sorry political confessions that, in his belief Franklin D. Roosevelt sent us our ambassador to Germany in 1933 a man whom he didn't even know. Eleanor the Great revealed by a dumb accident that she still didn't know who this ambassador was even as late as 1945, five years after he died. She thought he was Harold W. Dodds, the president of Princeton University. Actually, he was William E. Dodd, a pulling old parasite of the academic Ivy of the University of Chicago. Flynn tells us he was chosen by mistake. In Berlin he chuckled his weight about, and defied the Nazis hit him when he knew he had behind him the greatest nation on earth to avenge even a split lip. He closed his life with a contemptible show of cowardice.

What happened here, anyway? The time and place and the task called for a patriotic man of character, dignity and ability. We had a hundred good men, all disqualified by Roosevelt's personal hatred of the clamor of his subsidized unioners and a small element of Baltic and Balkan political vermin loyal to no country but professing "democracy." Hitler then was only a silly he-shrew, but it was the duty of the American President to send to Berlin the best man he could find. Had he done so, our government might have been able to prevent the war or, at least, to keep our country safe.

Dodd's daughter, Martha, insists that her father actually had met Roosevelt in Washington when Wilson was president. That would have been pretty-boy Roosevelt.

Boss Flynn writes now, "I know the President had never met William E. Dodd."

There was another child in this American household, which was less typical than Stalin may hope. This was William E. Dodd, Jr., our Committee on Un-American Activities turned him up, engaged in the broadest of propaganda to foreign fields for the Federal Communications Commission. Young Dodd and two other individuals were named by a law passed by both houses of Congress as persons to whom no part of certain appropriations should be paid. The law was held unconstitutional and the three were awarded back pay, but they never did get their jobs back. But it wasn't the purpose of Congress to save the petty amounts involved. The purpose was to keep these persons out of the government.

Old Dodd's name is cited 10 times in the index of the Committee on Un-American Activities, a development which gives one to wonder who did plant him as the American ambassador in Berlin. Flynn says Roosevelt didn't know much about him. But our Communists certainly did and they were coming to know and esteem his son, his daughter and her husband, Alfred K. Stern.

Young Dodd is named 19 times in connection with groups and activities which the committee held to be fronts for the Communist conspiracy against the United States, directed from Moscow. Martha's name occurs 15 times and Stern's name 21 times. On a small sign on the premises of the Sterns in the leafy suburbs of Westchester County, N. Y., there are formerly was seen of George Seldes, who has 44 citations in the index.

Last winter Stern took part in a "march on Albany" organized by the Communists of New York to occupy the legislative chambers by force. Like Mussolini in his march on Rome, the father, rode the cushions in comfort.

In William E. Dodd, the Soviet had a second ambassador in Berlin. He strove constantly to keep the British and French hostile to Hitler, which was the obvious mission of a Soviet ambassador, so that when- ever Germany and Russia, the natural enemies, should have their inevitable war, Stalin would have Britain and France as allies. Much worse, however, the man who held credentials from the people of the United States missed no opportunity to create a feeling in which it would be impossible for them to keep out of this war. He acted in obedience to his personal feelings and politics, which were not at all hostile to despotism. He was actually affectionate toward the Muscovite hor- ror. He served Moscow in a manner to deserve the gaudiest honors.

PRISCILLA'S POP

When Lincoln was a boy he did his homework on a shovel with a piece of chalk.

Oh, boy! Can I do my homework on the shovel with chalk?

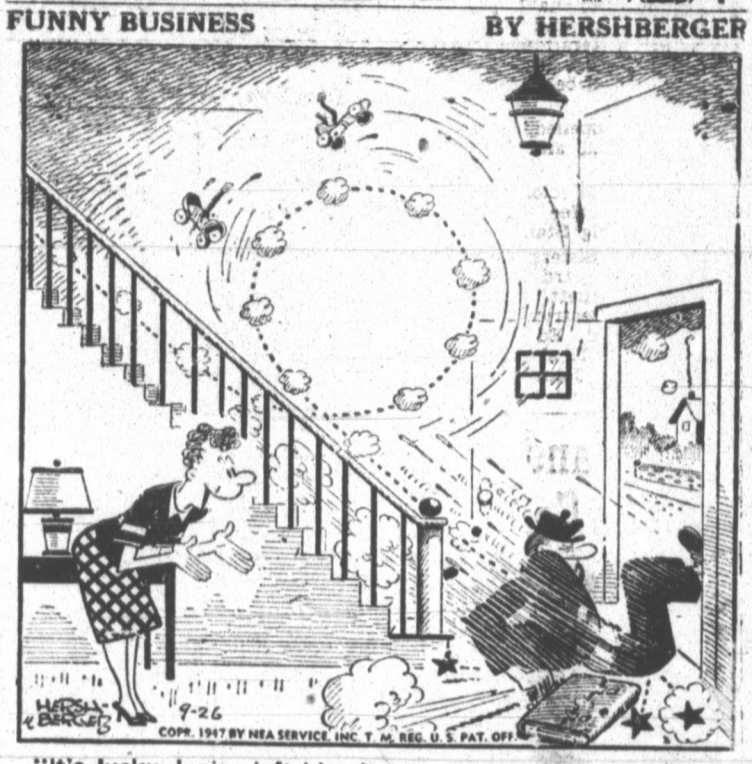

That isn't necessary these days, son. We've got plenty of pencils and paper.

Gosh! Sure do have the advantage they used to!

FUNNY BUSINESS

for it was Dodd's work almost as much as Roosevelt's which guaranteed Stalin as his ally in the impending war by the mightiest and the stupidest national in all the sad history of mankind.

The regular State Department staff of the Berlin embassy couldn't handle Dodd. He had no manners, no training, no feeling of responsibility for the horrors which he was amassing for his countrymen, millions of whom then were children.

Dodd was withdrawn in 1937. On Dec. 8, 1938, at Hanover Courthouse, Va., he ran down a four-year-old Negro girl in his car and ran away. He said he thought the child was not hurt, but he did know there had been a mishap and he did drive on. The question was not one of responsibility and blame but of the instinctive reaction of this great humanitarian. He finally pleaded guilty and was fined $250. He died in February, 1940.

REAR OF A BURGLAR RUNS INTO FBI
GREAT FALLS, Mont.—(P)—Mrs. Gene Fopp was alone with her baby in her cabin at Glacier National Park when she heard a noise at the door and found a black bear pawing his way in. She barricaded herself and the child upstairs while the bear rummaged about the kitchen eating sugar, biting open cans and breaking a window netting ambling away. Fopp and FBI agent, readily deduced that the animal might return to such a good fare so he notified park rangers and three days later the 300 pound animal returned and was killed.

Red Lantern Hanging On the Freedom Train

Thanks to Frederick Woltman, Pulitzer Prize-winning reporter of the New York World-Telegram, the 300 cities which are to be visited by the Freedom Train in the next 12 months can be prepared for a Communist sideshow to the visit, and treat it accordingly.

Mr. Woltman, who seems to know what the comrades are up to almost as soon as they do themselves, came into possession of a secret directive from the party's "educational department" to "all district educational directors." The idea was to use the priceless historic documents about the train as a background for a new expounding of the party line.

The Freedom Train is the brain-child of the United States attorney general. CIO's Philip Murray and APL's William Green are vice chairmen of the American Heritage Foundation's board of trustees. But that didn't discourage the American Reds. Because Winthrop W. Aldrich, president of the Chase National Bank, is chairman of the board of the Foundation, which is sponsoring the Freedom Train's tour, the Communists have hung a "Wall Street" tag on the engine.

Here are some tasty excerpts from the Communist directive: "Obviously the key backers of this campaign have a demagogic purpose... Their campaign around the Freedom Train is a huge propaganda cover-up for the American Reds... violation of the Bill of Rights and the Constitution in our history. It is 'democratic' camouflage behind which they will also intensify Wall Street's anti-Communist and anti-democratic Imperialist drive throughout the world."

"It will be necessary to expose the reactionary purposes of the Big Business sponsors of the Freedom Train. We must show that they are using our precious democratic heritage to create the illusion of 'national unity' around the anniversary of the Constitution."

The tactics of exposure would include pamphlets for distribution at every stop, tours through the train led by "prominent progressives" who would explain the American documents to Americans in terms of the class struggle, and a series of articles in the Daily Worker. "Numerous other methods... will undoubtedly be found by you," the directive told the district leaders. Obviously, the comrades don't really believe that Wall Street has entered the Freedom Train. But they seem worried that what they call the "illusion of 'national unity'" is not an illusion at all. And they're right.

"Our precious democratic heritage," which this directive profaned by invoking, is truly precious to those who are loyal to it. Though we all may need to be reawakened to its value—which is the purpose of the Freedom Train's tour—we are never entirely unaware of it. The Communists have reasons to worry when they see evidence that Wall Street and organized labor have united in asking the country to rededicate itself to the appreciation and protection and preservation of the American heritage.

There is clearly nothing hidden or tricky about the Freedom Train. It isn't Big Business' baby, and it isn't a pre-campaign stunt for President Truman. (We hope that the congressmen who made the latter silly charge are now convinced otherwise). Thanks to the main to Mr. Woltman, the Communists are not going to get very far.

AN INFORMED PUBLIC

The political fight which the Thomas Committee ran into last spring when it began ripping aside the curtain and exposing Hollywood's Red insides, promises a spectacle this fall.

The hearings, adjourned shortly after the motion picture producers hired the biggest political lawyer they could find, former secretary of state Jimmy Byrnes, were slated to reopen Sept. 24.

No doubt the House Committee on Un-American Activities—the Russia Firsters love to call "the American Committee"—was surprised at the attitude of the producers. It was clear that the committee hearings provided moral support to any producers who wished to oust their Red employees.

Instead of welcoming such aid, however, the hired spokesman for the producers, Eric Johnston, ridiculed the charge of Communist propaganda in American films, and it may be supposed that the sudden adjournment of the hearings after the producers got Jimmy Byrnes to "defend" them came in part as a result of the unexpected and self-accusing opposition. Byrnes has thrown up the job but will be succeeded by another lawyer of considerable political influence, Paul V. McNutt.

Many big name actors, directors and producers are expected to show up when the Washington hearings swing into its stride.

Whether or not Jack Warner will

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON—John L. Lewis completely dominated the recent meeting of the executive committee of the American Federation of Labor at Chicago where the big moguls of the organization decided to fight the Hartley-Taft Law in the courts. In the next session of Congress and at the polls in the presidential and Congressional elections of 1948, the loudest members of the ruling body, including Teamster Daniel J. Tobin, Democrat, and William H. Hutcheson, Republican, carpenter boss, arrived at the Windy City in a moderate mood. President William Green, of course, was usual, only a figurehead. But all three were willing to sign the required affidavits that they were not Communists.

Under the ruling of Robert N. Denham, general counsel of the National Labor Relations Board, union officials must take this anti-Communist oath, or forfeit all rights and privileges which they enjoy under the Wagner and Hartley-Taft Acts. The timid trio dreaded this prospect, fearing that the rival C. I. O. might comply and, with NLRB aid, raid the AFL unions.

SHAKESPEAREAN—John L. how-ever, was in his finest. Shakespearean form when he dragged his 200 pounds out of an overstuffed chair in the committee's ornate suite stanc-ing on the floor of the ritzy Drake Hotel. "Gentlemen," he said, "Don't wait until the storm strikes you and there is no safe cellar in sight. It is raining now. Get out your umbrellas. You cannot comply with one provision of this infamous statute without giving hostages to all. We must fight the law from the first to the last paragraph.

Two sections, in particular, we must defy. We are not Communists, so why concede that there is a red stain among us by swearing to the contrary? We must also vitiate the provision which says that we cannot spend money in primaries and elections to support photographs of Governor Dewey milking a cow, Harold Stassen riding a cow pony and President Truman being changed from a pollywog to a shellback aboard the battleship Missouri.

Personally, if I were a candidate, I'd get them to take a campaign picture of me sawing the price of butter in half or chasing a food profiteer down the steps of the Capitol with a baseball bat. And of course it would be a nice touch of the candidate's courage if, instead of talking about safe subjects like the Russian and British questions, they would come right out and say how they feel about the length of ladies' skirts. It would also be a nice way of getting rid of all the candidates at once.

Some board members disagree with both Denham interpretations. They think that they can over-ride him. They also believe that it is not necessary for all officials to sign a union pledge. Under this interpretation, the A. F. of L. could comply, despite the United Mine Workers' refusal.

What Mr. Lewis has done is to force the board to rally or cover its general counsel. By this strategy, his already created dissension within the NLRB.

His underlying scheme is to force President Truman to make the final decision in the belief that "the choice will embarrass the White House on the eve of the presidential campaign."

CHALLENGE—The A. F. of L. will challenge the Hartley-Taft Law's restrictions on organized labor's political activities when they hold their annual convention in San Francisco. It will open on October 6 and last for two weeks. The C. I. O. will stage their yearly get-together almost simultaneously at Boston. The executive committee secretly decided to pursue the same strategy which Sidney Hillman laid down in the 1940 and 1944 presidential campaigns. They will form an auxiliary political organization like the old P. A. C. and supply it with funds again appear is not clear. Warner was one of the producers who offered his cooperation last spring. That was, in fact, one of the biggest surprises of the session in view of Warner's record. He had produced "Mission to Moscow" and many other propaganda films, and Warner Brothers radio in Hollywood is one of the notoriously Left-Wing stations. To me and to many others whom I heard express themselves Warner appeared to be running for cover.

However, as more and more official action is taken to stop the spread of subversion we are going to witness a growing queue of persons who want to repent, and they must be welcomed to our side of the political battlefield in good faith, and given a chance to prove their sincerity.

Emmet Lavery is another big name among the Hollywood tools of communism who now is making a desperate effort either to free himself of their influence or to fool the public. Lavery has served two terms as head of the Communist-dominated Hollywood Writers' Guild, and championed much of the Communist Party line and never to my knowledge raised a finger to shame a Red or defend Americanism against Communism, till this month. Recently he wired the Guild directors that if any of them were Communists he hoped they would not run for re-election.

This slap on the wrist did not identify the Communists, however. It may be part of a pre-election build up before a public who are going to be rough on Communists and fellow travelers at the next election. Lavery was a candidate last year for Congress. Backing him was the "Citizens Committee Supporting Emmet Lavery," replete with such well-known "fronters" as Norman Corwin, Averill Berman, Charles Katz, Gregory Peck, Irving Pichel. Lavery never spurned their support.

Lavery can be of inestimable value to the House Committee if he is willing to go to Washington and really turn the communistic Hollywood Writers' Guild inside out. This is his chance.

Reports of the California Investigating Committee, the Tenney Committee, doubtless already are in use by the House Committee. Some of these not yet published trace the Marxist conspiracy to capture American films right from Moscow to Hollywood.

I have been asked what good the House Committee accomplishes, since it is not a court in which justice is meted out. The answer is, this committee has done a magnificent job of exposing conspiracy against this government and against American traditions and institutions. Only an informed public can stop the world revolution, which has entrenched itself in every city in America.

LOOKING AHEAD by GEORGE S. BENSON President, Harding College, Searcy, Arkansas

PLANNER'S DREAM "With more miners at work and more machinery, Britain is producing 15,000,000 tons less coal per year than in 1941." This statement by Mr. Churchill is described by the results of nationalization. It is striking that whereas England used to export large quantities of coal, she is now importing as much as 600,000 tons from the United States in the present quarter. This is the picture 18 months after nationalization of Britain's coal industry was begun.

Last summer in England I had a conference with Mr. Michael Young, head of the research department of the Labor Party, and their chief economist. Thirty or so years of age, tall and slender, Mr. Young expressed great confidence in England's program of nationalization of industry. He hoped the program would proceed rapidly to include iron, steel, and other key industries. He was confident it would bring full employment, high productivity, and greater prosperity. Mr. Young's hopes remain in the dream stage.

What are the results? High British officials came to Washington last month. They wanted to discuss new terms on the American loan. A London report of their interview with Secretary of the Treasury John Snyder tells of Mr. Snyder asking the British officials "Why nationalization had not produced more coal and if it has hampered output." Mr. Snyder was also firm in inquiring whether Britain, under the scheme of nationalization, was "still going to be a solvent concern."

With England sitting on vast coal reserves, yet importing coal, one can understand that Secretary Snyder is a bit dubious about the results of nationalization. While England has nationalized about half the industries marked by the Labor government, her program now seems at a standstill. Nationalization of the steel industry has been indefinitely postponed, and land nationalization has not gone ahead as anticipated.

FAILURE EVIDENT This slow-down in the program doubtless came because those industries already nationalized showed no long-term improvement in productivity. In coal mining there was at first an upward surge of output. But soon the gain wore off, and turned into a dramatic loss. This experience of coal is typical of other industries simply did not come through. Other industries are learning in the same manner.

The Labor government, which has urged more construction of houses, now finds it necessary to reduce its quota of new houses by 80,000. The use of petrol is to be cut down by one-third; foreign travel is to be reduced by one-half. An individual can now buy only 20 gallons of petrol a week. The fact that the food situation is extremely critical plus the failure of nationalized industries to get production led to the passing of Britain's Crisis Bill.

DICTIONARY LAY This unprecedented law provides powers over people, money, and property more sweeping than anything England has experienced. The British Press described the bill as giving the government power to:

- 1. Direct labor within an industry or from one industry to another.
2. Replace inefficient management in any industry by government nominees, which will mean, in effect, taking over the business.
3. Divert investments into certain channels, and prevent them going into others.
4. Control hours and conditions of work, and even rates of pay.
5. Send supplies and raw materials to certain industries, and keep them going into others.
6. Order goods to be exported to given markets, and prevent them going to others less profitable to the nation.

These dictatorial powers are the true offspring of a government managed economy. They have no place in the lives of liberty loving peoples, and it is unfortunate they have been made necessary in England by the type of economy chosen there.

GOVERNOR'S NAMESAKE IS A PRIZE PIG McGREW, Neb.—(P)—Governor Val Patterson of Nebraska may have been glad to learn that his namesake is a winner.

Samona Mae Paterson, 13-year old McGrew girl and no relative of the governor, named her spotted Poland-China pig "Val" after the governor.

"Val" won the blue ribbon at the Scotts Bluff county fair.

FINDS BI-GE OIL-KILLING FISH
NEWPORT NEWS, Va. (AP) — One of the biggest industries along Virginia's coastline — commercial fishing — has all but come to a halt at two nearby beaches because of oil-covered waters.
"Fish are wallowing in black death," one veteran fisherman said after he measured the depth of the oil along the shore and found it six inches deep.
Fishermen estimate that several million dollars has been lost in the past two years because of big oil pumped into harbor waters by ships at anchor. They have asked Representative Bland (D-Va.) to introduce a bill at the next session of Congress to stiffen penalties for pumping oil in fishing waters.

You've Heard Things Can Get Worse— Hollywood Knows

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—Just when you think things can't get worse, they do. Hollywood has been suffering the doldrums in recent months due to an economic revolution in the industry and it doesn't appear that conditions will improve.

The British film tax sent U. S. studios reeling and the wave of personnel upheavals, cost-cutting and re-gearing of product isn't expected to end until well in 1948. One important reason for the delay is the fact that studios do not like to shoot pictures over the holidays. Production is held to a minimum for tax reasons and because the bosses don't feel the holiday spirit is conducive to efficient picture-making.

Merle Oberon is still sporting a wire on her jaw. She reports the injury occurred when she slipped in the shower while abroad on the "Berlin Express" location. Her husband, Lucien Ballard, and actor Charles Korvin have patched up their feud, says Merle. Their differences flared into the open with incidents which their train was leaving Berlin. The Ballards plan to return to France after the picture, but strictly for a vacation.

Van Johnson is back for re-takes on "Virtuous" and told me about how he took Evie and her children to the San Diego Zoo during his short vacation. He didn't want to go but his wife convinced him he could get by with a disguise. So he slapped zinc ointment on his face and donned a yachting cap and dark glasses. He was in the zoo five minutes when someone said "there's Van Johnson."

Walt Disney has tested 500 youngsters for his "Alice in Wonderland" and has narrowed the field down to four. One radio actress appears to be the favorite. But Walt still hasn't decided whether the feature will have a live Alice or be all-cartoon.

Youths Brought Here On Burglary Charge

Two Amarillo youths, Billy Denny, 20, and James W. Richardson, 22, wanted here on a charge of burglary of a grocery store and drug store in Alameda several months ago, were brought here from Levelland last night by Chief Deputy Jeff Guthrie and placed in custody.

First captured in Hereford, the two youths have been tried for similar charges in Vega, Claude, Stinnett and Levelland, Guthrie said.

"The youths have already been given four concurrent sentences, three sentences of four years, and one of two years, according to information from the sheriff's office."

Pampan Is Speaker At White Deer Meet

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Harvey of Pampa were special guests at the White Deer Lions Club at the regular meeting on Tuesday evening. Mr. Harvey, prominent among football officials in Texas, was the Lions' guest speaker for the evening.

In his discussion before the club, Harvey, who has been a football official for the past 27 years, emphasized sportsmanship on the part of the football fan as well as of the player. He gave the problems which confront the official during a game and urged the fan to study the game in order that he might enjoy it more. The two main faults committed by today's fans, according to Harvey are petty gambling and drinking.

He emphasized the responsibility which rests in the hands of the average citizen in stamping out these two evils. Harvey's talk included hints on how to watch a football game and in this connection paid tribute to the hundreds of "unsung" heroes in football squads—players who happen to play positions in the line and never carry the ball.

Preceding Mr. Harvey's talk, Mrs. Herman Demus, music teacher in the White Deer Schools, played special selections on the piano.

Soil Experiments At Nagasaki Bring Surprising Results

By The Associated Press
A report from Tokyo of huge crop yields in radioactive soil at Nagasaki brought expressions of surprise and some skepticism today from American atomic scientists.

Increase of from 50 to 300 percent over the normal yield were reported to Kyodo News Agency by Takeo Furuno, Japanese agricultural expert who is conducting experiments in the center of the blast zone just outside atom-bombed Nagasaki city.

In Chicago Dr. Austin M. Brues called the report "interesting" and said "anything is possible." He added that he was acquainted with Furuno and considered him a competent agriculturist. Dr. Brues, a University of Chicago atomic scientist, visited Nagasaki last winter.

(Furuno reported the wheat crop was about twice normal and the cotton crop three times average. He said pumpkins, sugar beets, tomatoes and similar produce showed a 50 percent increase over normal production and that some freak development in the plants was noted.)

City-State Feud!

BRIDGEPORT, Conn.—(AP)—State policemen couldn't find any parking places when they returned from a series of gambling raids, so they left their automobiles in the street outside the county courthouse here.

When they came out after booking their prisoners, the cars had been tagged by the cop on the beat for parking illegally.

'Wetback' Labor Problems Present

DALLAS—(AP)—"Wetback" labor for Texas may be permanently ended by the threat of enemy aliens using the open Mexican border to filter into the United States. Ugo Carusi, assistant to U. S. Attorney General Tom Clark, warned here yesterday.

He told the state meeting of the Texas Citrus and Vegetable Growers and Shippers Association that "there is terrific pressure on the immigration boys already short-handed, to tighten down completely on the border."

"Wetbacks" are Mexican nationals who cross illegally into the United States.

"The theory is that there may be subversives coming across who will stop everyone, and if, by the way, he finds an otherwise harmless wetback, he has obligations to perform. He can't just say: 'Oh, you're a wetback, and we aren't picking them up today.'"

Clark's assistant on immigration urged association members to use and improve the new federal procedure by which growers can legally bring in Mexicans for temporary harvest work.

He continued, "the Texas fruit and vegetable industry has too much at stake to return to a makeshift system."

New Proposal on Sanatorium Made

McALLEN—(AP)—Mayors of three Rio Grande Valley cities have announced a new proposal is being sent the State Board of Control in connection with a proposed state tuberculosis sanatorium.

The mayors yesterday said the board did not want to accept transfer of Moore Field property for a sanatorium unless all of the field except the Tri-Cities Municipal Airport is transferred.

Mayor Tom Waite of McAllen, Felix McDonald of Edinburg and Logan Duncan of Mission conferred with the Board of Control on the matter last week.

"We want to give the board everything they need for the hospital and to cooperate with them in every way, short of destroying the airport," said Waite.

The airport has been in operation several months and the last operation report showed it making a profit.

The mayors' counter offer proposed to give the proposed hospital acreage on which approximately 200 buildings are located, the buildings, a 240-acre tract on which the cities would retain easement for future runway extensions, a water reservoir, sewer system and 25-year leases on most of the remainder of the land.

Wholesale Prices Hit A New Postwar Peak

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Wholesale prices climbed to a new postwar peak during the week ending Sept. 20, and foods and farm prices soared to all-time highs.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics reported today that its wholesale price index at the week's end stood at 158.1 percent of the 1926 average, up 0.4 percent from a week earlier.

This was 27.7 percent above the corresponding week a year ago and only 5 percent below the all-time peak of May, 1920. It was 80.9 percent above the corresponding week of 1937 and 64.5 percent above the September, 1929, index.

Members of the Pampa Harvester squad were the guests of the Pampa Lions Club at their regular Thursday luncheon in the basement of the First Methodist Church. Coaches Tom Tippy, Aubrey Nooncaster, and Junior High School Harvesters Coach Duane Lyons and Pernal Scotchlin also attended.

Coach Tom Tippy presented each boy of the squad to the club recalling their positions and weights.

The high school sextette, which is supervised by Miss Hart Anderson sang several numbers for the club's entertainment and Ed Ruth Taylor, chief high school cheer leader, led the entire group in some Harvester cheers.

Dr. Roy Webb made a report on the progress of the Higgins group that will soon ask for a Lions Club charter and Dr. L. J. Zachry told of the successful visit of George Campbell on a speaking tour before the Pampa and LeFors schools, as well as several other organizations. The local Lions Club sponsored Campbell's visit to this territory.

Russia

thoughts immediately turn back to 1925 when Stalin achieved control in the new Communist regime.

The project of world revolution for the spread of Communism—which is now in full swing—was one of the cardinal projects of the Reds. Leon Trotsky, competing with Stalin for leadership, wanted to push the revolution to the limit immediately, but the more far-sighted Stalin said in effect: "Everything in its proper time. To wage world revolution now is putting the cart before the horse. Russia first must be made powerful industrially and militarily."

Such of the industrial strength which Stalin had created was smashed by the invading Germans. But even as the Hitlerites were driving into Russia, Moscow was busy creating a new, great industrial area in the fastnesses of the Uralis, far from the ravages of war.

The product of the new revolution being used long before the war ended. So, while it will take Russia long to repair the damage and equip herself with great striking power, yet she shall do well not to overlook potentialities. After all, what are 25 or even 50 years in the lives of nations.

Millions of the lads of today will still be young enough to go to war "generation hence. Don't forget that!"

Palestine

the cabinet of the British government has proposed this idea.

2. The assembly's 55-nation Political Committee was called into session at 2 p. m. (EDT) to resume debate on the Palestine problem.

3. Secretary of State Marshall talked privately with representatives of the Jewish executive and separately with Polish Ambassador Josef Winiewicz at their request this morning. No details were divulged.

4. Russia, at a meeting of the Working Committee of the U. N. Commission for conventional armaments, again delayed arms reduction progress by refusing to submit a working paper on safeguards.

A British spokesman made it clear that the question of terminating the mandate and the question of withdrawing entirely from Palestine were separate matters. He explained that Britain would be willing to continue in Palestine a different status after the mandate was ended if the Arab-Jewish agreement could be reached by the end of the year.

Although a number of countries in the Panhandle have old settlers organizations, there is no such group in Gray County, and Judge Ewing thinks the establishment of such a group might be a good idea, so the men and women who were responsible for the early growth of the community may have an opportunity to renew friendships and create a new history and memories.

Early watches were too large to carry in the pocket and were usually hung from the girdle.

Russian Attacks Britain and U. S.

LAKE SUCCESS—(AP)—Russia's Andrei Vishinsky asserted at a news conference today that John Foster Dulles and other prominent Americans he attacked as "warmongers" should be "enchained."

Vishinsky broadened his slashing attack to cover U. S. Delegate Warren Austin and Britain's Chief Delegate Hector McNeill.

Vishinsky released at the news conference—his first in the United States—a 10-page statement fully rearing and strengthening his charges of a virtual war plot in the United States against the Soviet Union and naming Dulles, a ranking member of the American delegation all over again as he led in his original "warmonger" speech of Sept. 19 to the United Nations Assembly.

The news conference was held in the Security Council chamber before committee meetings of the assembly now in session.

Vishinsky declared that his charges of warmongering had not been met by either Austin or McNeill except by "abuse, defamation and lies" and that all the "specimens" he personally attacked as "warmongers" had failed to meet his accusations squarely.

The news conference was called on the initiative of the Russian delegation.

Judge Ewing Calls Himself 'Draftee' to Association Post

Judge W. R. Ewing, who was named president of the Panhandle Settlers Association at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo Wednesday, said the appointment took him by complete surprise, but he was overheard to say, "I find myself in the position of the draftee."

Thomas F. Turner, an Amarillo judge, founded the organization in 1914, to give the "pioneers and trail blazers of the short grass country" a chance to meet and renew friendships.

Although a number of countries in the Panhandle have old settlers organizations, there is no such group in Gray County, and Judge Ewing thinks the establishment of such a group might be a good idea, so the men and women who were responsible for the early growth of the community may have an opportunity to renew friendships and create a new history and memories.
