SEVEN DIE IN HOTEL FIRE IN TEXAS Savage Typhoon Rakes Philippines

Motorship Kina Is Lost at Sea With 51 Aboard

MANILA—(AP)—A savage typhoon swept the Philippines today, leaving at least 56 persons dead or accounted for and 45 passengers on the Danish motorship Kina, which sank off Samar.

Five other ships were damaged. 70 percent of the historic city of Tacloban was reported wiped out by storm-whipped fire. Portions of Manila were hard hit.

The latest official death toll in Manila and nearby Quezon City was five, and the Red Cross reported five persons missing in Laguna Province.

President Roxas declared an emergency holiday to permit energies to be devoted to recovery as the storm—the worst December typhoon to hit the Philippines in 29 years—swept over the China Sea toward Hainan.

The Danish motorship Kina bound from Tokyo to Europe with a crew of 36 and 15 passengers, was reported a "total loss" in the Samar Sea.

The 9,223 ton vessel of the Danish East Asiatic Lines was driven aground. Its loss was reported by the Norwegian motor vessel Samal Bakke, which was grounded itself but managed to pull free.

The Bakke radioed that it had picked up five survivors, all from the Kina's crew. It added there were "more survivors," but did not say whether they were passengers.

The Kina crashed about five miles off the coast of Samar Island.

"Send planes to look for survivors around Camandag Island, Santo Nino Island and Tagapula Island," the Bakke radioed. All three are in the Samar Sea.

The survivors rescued were identified as white-bodied Seaman K. Skaffe, T. Nielsen, Mortensen (no initials) and Chief Officer Adalberg, and one whose name was not given.

The steamship line reported the passenger list included three American Wacs, three married couples and three children.

(In Chicago, the family of Ada Epenhadse, 33-year-old civilian employe of the War Department, said their daughter and two companions, Louise Rosser and Anne Malek, both War Department employes, were aboard the Kina. The Epenhadses said the three might be those listed as Wacs.)

(Other passengers, the Epenhadses said, were a Mr. and Mrs. Olufsen, Mr. and Mrs. Mattis and their three sons, aged 19, 17 and four years. They did not have the addresses of any of the passengers.)

The continuing fierceness of the winds, which reached peaks of 80 miles an hour, had prevented sending rescue craft or planes to aid the frantically appealing vessel.

At 10 p.m., the Kina sent this final message:

"We are preparing to abandon ship now. Please transmit no further." (See TYPHOON, Page 8)

ABANDONING CANAL DEFENSES—This map shows military bases, started, which the U. S. ordered 2900 air and ground troops to abandon immediately and withdraw to the 10-mile-wide Canal Zone, after the Republic of Panama unanimously rejected a bases agreement with this country. With the exception of the B-29 bomber base at Rio Hato (1), most of the jungle bases are fighter and radar strips guarding Atlantic and Pacific entrances to the canal.

Record-Breaking U. S. Production Seen Next Year

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The next 12 months should bring record-breaking U. S. production and perhaps an ebb in the tide of rising prices, the government's top economist reported today.

"Given a fair crop year, there's a distinct possibility that 1948 will see an abatement of inflation," said Dr. Edwin G. Nourse, chairman of the President's council of economic advisors.

The three major influences on the economic pulse during the next year, Dr. Nourse told a reporter, probably can be listed in this order:

1. The weather. If wheat, corn and other crops escape the drought which hurt last fall's harvest, food costs could lead the way to more stable prices.
2. Labor relations. A "third round" of sizable wage increases, or a new wave of strikes curtailing production, could heighten inflationary pressures.
3. Foreign aid. Depending on how much is voted for European recovery, exports could make some existing shortages more critical. The council already has advocated agricultural controls to keep scarcity of certain products, including steel and grain, from setting off a further inflationary spin.

Congress thus far has authorized only voluntary agreements by business, agriculture and industry to divide scarce goods. This is a provision of the Republican anti-inflation bill which Mr. Truman is expected to sign shortly.

As for the No. 1 factor, weather, the Agriculture Department had predicted a good crop. Its winter wheat forecast indicated another "bumper" wheat crop—more than a billion bushels—may be harvested. It would not exceed last year's, but if Europe has a low yield, the export demand will be lower.

And as for goods and services, the nation's production rose in 1947. Dr. Nourse pointed out, and can be expected to rise further. He gave no figures, since these will be included in Mr. Truman's economic message to Congress next month.

However, in the council's own report to Mr. Truman earlier this week, there was an indication that the 5 percent increase which the President set as a "desirable goal" for 1947 had not quite been reached.

In terms of dollars, the "gross national product"—the Commerce Department's measure of all goods and services produced—probably has hit a record high rate of $235,000,000,000 a year, or about 15 percent over the rate last year. But much of the increase is the result of rising prices.

Defenses of Panama Canal Jeopardized

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst
It is a most unfortunate circumstance—even potentially dangerous—which has impelled the Republic of Panama to refuse the further lease of military bases to Uncle Sam for defense of the vast canal which represents one of the most important strategic zones of the entire western hemisphere.

Panama ranks as one of the little nations in size (estimated population some 450,000 and area only 33,867 square miles), but in importance it's a mighty atom.

For the giant canal linking the Pacific and Atlantic Oceans stretches along the isthmus which runs North and South America, and while the USA owns the ten-mile-wide Canal Zone, it is heavily dependent on the government of Panama for bases from which to protect the waterway.

So it was a shock when the Panama National Assembly unanimously refused to ratify an already signed agreement between Washington and Panama, renewing the leases on fourteen military bases.

Why did Panama take such drastic action? Well, there are quite a number of angles to it, but one administration official in Washington attributed the move to a "wave of hysteria," saying that it was popular in some Latin American countries to oppose the United States as "the colossus of the north." He added that some Communist influence also had been brought to bear but that it wasn't a Communist maneuver as such.

Contrary to general expectations the United States took Panama at its word and promptly began withdrawing some 2,000 troops from the fourteen bases, thus transferring the defense to the narrow and inadequate Canal Zone. Moreover, Washington legislators started talking about building a new canal. Suggested sites include Nicaragua, Colombia and Isthmus of Tehuantepec in Mexico.

It is interesting to note that Panama got independence from Colombia by seceding on Nov. 3, 1903, and was recognized as a free republic by the United States on November 13. Critics of the Washington administration accused it of having advance knowledge of the Panama coup and charged it with hurriedness in recognizing Panama's sovereignty.

Many close observers believe that Panama may see fit to consider its rejection of the bases, and that the matter may be satisfactorily adjusted. Unless that does happen, it certainly will be a drab day for Pan-American solidarity and defense.

Six Other Guests Jump to Safety From 2nd Story

ORANGE—(AP)—Seven persons perished in the flame-swept halls and rooms of a small hotel here last night while six other guests jumped from windows to safety.

Only five of the seven dead had been identified early this morning. Nineteen persons were registered but only 13 were in the hotel when the blaze broke out.

The identified dead were listed as Junious O. Carter, from Pennsylvania, city not available; W. L. Jordan, 41, Tampa, Fla.; Bill Douglas, 35, address unknown, and Ralph Slade, 72, and Early Giesler, 43, both of Orange.

The body of a man and a woman had not been identified early this morning.

Three of the bodies were found in halls and four in rooms. All were in sleeping garments.

Assistant Fire Chief E. L. Barker, president of the Orange Volunteer Fire Company, said one of the seven was found alive by firemen but died on the way to a hospital. He estimated damage to the building and furnishings at $50,000.

The flames were first seen shortly before midnight by a taxi-driver, Leon Harris, and the hotel was "all ablaze" when firemen arrived, Barker said.

Nineteen persons were said to have been living in the hotel by Mrs. Liska Sikes, the owner, but Barker said a complete search after the fire satisfied him there were no other bodies in the burned building.

Smoke and screams awakened some guests and one, L. A. Elisetti, leaped from a window to the roof of an adjoining building.

Blessitt said he was awakened by smoke and heard a man scream. He saw a man throw his clothing out the window and jumped to the street level.

Witnesses, Cecil A. Raines, said he was awakened by a woman pounding on his door. He did not know if the unidentified woman made her way to safety.

The hotel occupied the top floor of a two-story building with several small business concerns on the street level.

Barker said none of the dead were badly burned and indicated death was by suffocation.

Mrs. Sikes, in Lake Charles, La., at the time the fire started, said 19 residents included herself.

Harris said he was fixing to get into his taxi at a stand about a half-block away when he noticed the flames.

When firemen entered the smoke-filled hallway they found several bodies, all clad in night clothes. Barker said it was apparent they were trying to reach the exit when overcame.

Adams has been a resident of Vernon for several years and a land owner in Willbarger County for 30 years.

Other survivors include three sons, Oland of Portland, Ore., Cecil of Los Angeles, and Ralph of Vernon; two daughters, Mrs. Appleby and Mrs. Homer Houser of Wichita Falls.

Guerrilla Forces Open Heavy Battle

ATHENS—(AP)—Guerrilla forces opened heavy attack near the Albanian border today in what military experts said was an attempt to expand territory holdings for the newly proclaimed Communist state within northern Greece.

More than 500 persons have been arrested by Greek authorities in the Athens area since the proclamation of the state by Gen. Markos Vafiades, leader of the anti-government Communist forces in the northern fighting zones.

The guerrillas attacked 1,500 strong south of Ioannina sliced the Greek Army supply lines to Epirus.

Two guerrilla brigades and two additional battalions launched a heavy attack yesterday at Konitsa, covering the assault with a heavy barrage of mortar and artillery fire. An Army communique said they were held back with "very heavy losses."

Forty miles to the west, at Filiates, a fierce battle was reported under way today between a "strong force" of guerrillas and Army troops. Reports on the action were sketchy. Press reports said a plane with Yugoslav Air Force markings reconnoitering over the area, was driven off by Greek fighters.

Greek Army reinforcements were being rushed to defense points in the fighting zones.

Minister George Stratos flew to the town, only a few miles south of the Albanian border, to take personal charge of the operations.

An official announcement said the bulk of the attacking force came from Albania, while the remainder was made up of small guerrilla bands from the surrounding hills.

By 5 p. m. yesterday afternoon the attacks had dropped 250 shells into Konitsa. The Army said that although the garrison was taken by surprise, not one attacker set foot in the town.

Another guerrilla force simultaneously attacked the Bourassani Bridge, northwest of Konitsa, and took it. The bridge has considerable strategic importance.

Meanwhile, Army forces continued their search for the headquarters of Gen. Markos Vafiades, the leader of anti-government forces in Northern Greece, who Wednesday announced the creation of an independent Communist state in the fighting zone.

Greek forces, who have searched diligently for the past 72 hours, confess they are still in the dark as to the location of Markos' headquarters.

Army leaders say they wish the six-year-old Communist "general" would define his free territory within Greek borders so they could get at him. Military officials assert that Markos could not hold any given area for 48 hours.

The omission of Communist Leader Nicholas Zachariades from the insurgent "government" has caused some speculation, but most political observers here believe the Moscow-trained Zachariades is the actual boss.

John Ianninos, who is deputy prime minister of the Vafiades' state and in charge of police and security, is regarded as second only to Zachariades in the party.

Greek Premier Themistokles Sofoulis predicted that the insurgent state probably would be recognized by Albania, Yugoslavia, and Bulgaria.

(The Paris press forecast that the Soviet satellite states would recognize the Communist state—a move interpreted as opening the way for more aid to the guerrillas from those countries.)

(The French papers said the United States assumed "heavy responsibility" in further aid to the regime in Athens.)

(Moscow newspapers carried brief Tass dispatches from Athens announcing formation of the Markos government, but made no comment.)

Funeral services are being held at Bixby, Okla., today.

Truman May Delay Picking Running Mate

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman may wait until after the Republicans choose their Presidential candidate next summer before he picks his running mate on the 1948 Democratic ticket.

Democratic politicians in a position to know what is being discussed at the White House told this reporter that Mr. Truman is looking over a large field but will not make his views on the No. 2 man known until he sizes up the GOP nominee.

The President will have time for a last-minute decision because the Fourth of July holiday intervenes between June 21 in Philadelphia and the Democratic meeting in the same setting starting July 12.

More than six months in advance of any decision the President may make—which is likely to be the deciding factor—Democrats are discussing a round dozen possible candidates.

These include a scattering of senators, at least one representative, a couple of cabinet members, a Supreme Court justice and just about everybody who has raised his head above the common level of the Democratic Party.

The House member, Rep. John McCormack of Massachusetts, stands out in early speculation largely because most Democrats think that the Republicans will go East, possibly to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York or House Speaker Joe Martin of Massachusetts, for a Presidential nominee.

The theory among those who have a voice in Democratic Party affairs is that Mr. Truman will try to outguess the common level of the nominee the Republicans' choice of.

Officers Must Justify Disability Allowances

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Questionnaires are on the way to 2,953 Army and Navy officers asking details about the disabilities for which they were retired with tax-free incomes.

A House Armed Service Subcommittee investigating disability retirements started its first bailing to a list of former officers retired with the rank of colonel—or its naval equivalent of captain—and above.

Chairman Elston (R-Ohio) has told reporters the present retirement system is "manifestly unfair" and that his committee's study "will find out all we can about the inequities of the regulations."

Officers retired for disabilities receive three-quarters of the pay for the rank at which they retired. The money is income tax exempt.

A committee clerk said the Army and Navy have furnished the committee a duplicate of the list of retired officers sent to President Truman. It was requested by the White House after a Senate Investigating Committee dug up the story of Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers, who was retired for disability.

Meyers, a wartime air forces purchasing officer, is under federal indictment on three counts of perjury and three of inducing a civilian associate to commit perjury in connection with the operation of the baseball park.

The clerk said the committee has requested more information from the Army and Navy, including how long the officer held his retirement grade before he was retired.

"We think that is one of the most significant factors we can have on any disability retirement case," he said.

Subsequent mailings may go as low as the rank of major, and its equivalent, "or perhaps all the way to the bottom," the clerk added.

Elston has told reporters the committee is not interested in officers retired because of battle wounds.

Four Persons Die In Dancehall Fire Christmas Night

FREDERICKSBURG—(AP)—Four persons perished last night when flames swept a huge, single story dancehall only minutes before a Christmas night party ball was to begin.

Sheriff Robert Loth identified the dead as:

Mrs. Otto Seipp, 52, wife of the owner of the dance hall.

Albert Petri, 55, and his wife, 46, of San Antonio.

Mrs. Benno Eckhardt, 55, an employe of the concession stand.

The blaze started around 8:30 p.m., Loth said, and swept the building in a few minutes, spreading to the adjoining grandstand of the baseball park.

Only about 30 persons had arrived for the dance and the orchestra had just started to assemble its instruments on the stand and ran for "life."

Loth said the bulk of the crowd would have arrived at the dance hall in just a few more minutes and said it possibly would have numbered 1,000 persons.

Identification of the four people was made by dental work.

The wood and sheet metal building burned for three hours after the blaze started.

Volunteer firemen were handicapped in their efforts to bring it under control by a lack of water.

The building is situated on the outskirts of Fredericksburg and water had to be pumped from a nearby creek.

Burglars Break in Local Bus Terminal

Burglars made what seemed to be a well-planned entrance into the bus terminal office here last night, ransacking the office and scattering papers, and although all that has been found missing is one handbag, it is thought they were looking for the office safe.

The missing luggage was described as an Army-type bag, containing whiskey, money and other items.

The break-in was discovered by the manager of the station as he went to reopen for a bus which was to arrive shortly after 11 p.m. The station closes a little after 8 o'clock and the burglarly took place sometime between those hours.

Patrolmen J. B. Fritchett and J. R. Manning, who made the investigation, said men had entered the porch window, entered the office and came down through the men's rest room to enter the bus station office.

Ole Miss Rates as Seven-Point Favorite in Delta Bowl Contest

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—The Rebels of Ole Miss and the Horned Frogs of Texas Christian University are expected to meet in the Delta Bowl on New Year's Day. Ole Miss is the seven-point favorite in the contest, according to bookmakers.

Fresh from a two-day Christmas vacation, the Rebels are expected to be in top form. They were victorious in the first Delta Bowl last year.

The Delta country boys from Oxford are seven-point favorites, possibly because TCU won only four, while losing four and tying one.

Mississippi coach Johnny Vaught scolds at the odds and points to TCU's 19-19 deadlock with the Southern Methodist Mustangs.

Mississippi is bent on capping its Southeastern Conference title-winning year with a post-season triumph. It has yet to taste bowl glory. In the 1928 Orange classic, it lost 20-19 to Catholic U.

On the other hand, TCU fared better in bowl conflicts and sports a three out of four record in major New Year's Day battles since 1928 when the Texans slipped past ESU 3-2, in the Sugar Bowl.

Cleveland Indians Made Fewest Errors in One Season--1947

CHICAGO (AP)—The American League—highlighted by the Cleveland Indians making the fewest errors in one season in the history of the major leagues—established a new unit fielding record of .977 in 1947.

The old mark of .974 was set in 1946 by the National League.

The junior circuit set or tied 16 individual and unit fielding marks during the last season, official league statistics released yesterday disclosed.

Cleveland committed only 104 errors in 157 games to eclipse the major league record of 112 miscues set three years ago by the St. Louis Cardinals of the National League. Lou Boudreau, manager-shortstop of the Indians, paced his teammates by besting his old American League record at shortstop of 978 set in 1944. Lou missed only 14 times in 79 chances in 1947 to set a new mark of .982. He also figured in 120 double plays to lead that department.

The world champion New York Yankees also broke the big league team fielding record of .975 error with a total of 109, but the Cleveland performance will keep the Yanks' mark out of the record books.

After catching 147 games without an error in a major league record—Philadelphia's Warren (Buddy) Rosar finally miscued on one last May 20. His string of errorless games started in September, 1946 and Rosar ran his major league record of chances without error to 775. Rosar's record for the entire 1947 season was two errors in 478 chances to give him second place with 996. Catcher Aaron Robinson of New York was the nominal leader with 997 in 74 games. Jim Hegan of Cleveland was far ahead with putouts, 566, and total chances, 627. (Cleveland's Bob Feller led the league in strikeouts). Rosar had the most assists, 70.

SMU May Dust Off Aerial Circus For Cotton Bowl

DALLAS (AP)—Southern Methodist University, its deadly passing attack an ace-in-the-hole during the regular season play, may dust off an "aerial circus" for the Cotton Bowl here New Year's Day.

Penn State Coach Bob Higgins expects it. And, statistically, it's the only chance for the Mustangs.

The Nittany Lions boast a terrific paper edge over Southern Methodist, both in defense and offense. Only in the air have the unbeaten, once tied Mustangs an edge.

Higgins sent his undaunted, untied Eastern champions through a short scrimmage yesterday to "sharpen" the offense that rolled up more than 3,000 yards. Then he indicated the next five days would be devoted almost exclusively to pass defense.

The Mustangs haven't a spectacular aerial record. On 134 attempted passes, 74 were completed for 921 yards. But most of them paid off.

Passing won the UCLA, Texas and Texas A&M games for the Mustangs, salvaged the win with Texas Christian and made the Baylor score respectable.

In the only game of the season in which Matty Bell's sharpshooters really cut loose, the result was amazing. Against Texas A&M Don Walker completed two of two and Gilbert Johnson connected on 14 of 16 efforts.

The Mustangs' rushing record is pretty good, but pales beside that of Penn State.

The Lions rolled up 273 yards on the ground, while holding opponents to a net of 17—a new record. In total offense, Penn State had 3,275 yards against 767 for nine foes.

Southern Methodist gained 1,647 rushing, gave up 1,117. Its overall offensive total was 2,567 yards to 2,048 by ten opponents.

Both teams went through scrimmages yesterday. The northerners sought to avoid injuries by keeping down rough contact work.

Kramer to Make Pro Tennis Debut Tonite in Garden

NEW YORK (AP)—Jack Kramer begins cashing in on the glory he won while collecting all the major tennis titles of the world when he makes his professional debut at Madison Square Garden tonight against Bobby Riggs, king of the pro for the past two years.

The match, destined to answer the long-standing question of whether the world's best amateur can whip the best of the professionals, launches a nationwide tour.

Two other players of international reputation—Australian champion Dinky Pails and Francisco (Pancho) Segura, an Ecuadorian who has done most of his playing in the United States—also will be introduced to the professional game tonight.

Pails and Segura will match strokes in the opening singles bout at 8:15 (EST). A doubles contest winding up the evening will send Kramer and Pails against Segura and Riggs.

But it's the Kramer-Riggs struggle that promises to get the tour off to a heavy start by attracting a sellout crowd of some 18,000 at prices from $4 to $7. Kramer has been guaranteed a minimum of $50,000 for the tour.

He could have turned pro at an attractive figure a year ago. Tonight's test pits Kramer's "big game" against the expert retrieving of Riggs, the game's outstanding defensive genius.

WE, THE WOMEN

By RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

Something is seriously wrong with the upbringing and education of a girl when she goes into marriage expecting all the privileges and rewards of marriage, and yet is resentful of having to hold down the job of a housewife.

Take Margie as a fairly typical example of a girl with that attitude toward marriage.

To hear her complain, you'd naturally suppose that she leads a tough life. There's so much work, she never seems to get done. She's tied down all day long with two small children, when she would like to be running around with the girls. Her husband doesn't realize what a strain Margie is under. And so on.

Actually, Margie is a plenty lucky girl. She has an ambitious, good-natured husband who does most of the labor-saving devices that are on the market. She has a share in the family car. She has a "pretty yard. She has two well-clothed, well-fed children.

WARDROBE STOCKED Margie, herself, has clothes that are good enough, though not as many or as expensive as she would like.

All of that, marriage has given to Margie. Yet, apparently, no one has ever told her that no woman should expect to have so much handed to her on a silver platter, that in return for all of those benefits and blessings she should shoulder the duties and responsibilities of a housewife.

Texas Farmers Come First as Of Farm Workers Routed by TEC

AUSTIN, Texas — "Texas farmers will come first in getting farm workers in 1948," R. M. Kinley, Texas Employment Commissioner, said here today. "They went into high gear on the 1948 Farm Placement Service program which will be re-outfitted by the Department of Agriculture on December 31, 1947.

"Farmers need one or a thousand hands will get exactly the same service from each of our offices," he said, "and when and if our Texas demands are met we will route the surplus to other states proving the greatest need. We intend to use local labor in all counties first," he continued, "and to route only as much extra labor into a community as is actually needed. We intend to route that labor out of communities when the job is done."

Kinley said procedures were now completed and that training to all local office managers in the 102 local offices in Texas would be completed by January 1. He pointed to a placement record in 1947 of 650,000 and said that, "although the farm labor force has shrunk considerably in the last four years, I believe we

Two New Classes Added to Quarter Horse Showings

FORT WORTH — Two new classes entered in the Southwestern Exposition and Fair Stock Show here, Jan. 30 through Feb. 8, will compete in two classes never before included in any American or open Quarter horse show.

The champion of champions classes, one for stallions and one for mares, will be open only to horses that have been adjudged grand champion of any American or open Quarter horse show.

High Bennett of Falcon, Colo., an eminent Quarter horse judge and breeder, has been selected to judge the show. Well-known in Quarter horse circles, Bennett has won a reputation as a judge for his outstanding knowledge of the breed and his fairness to all exhibitors.

Attractive premiums will be offered in all classes of the Quarter horse show, which will be sponsored by the American Quarter Horse Association. Under the direct supervision of the stock show management.

Permanent stabling for the horses entered in the show will be provided in a newly-remodeled horse barn immediately adjacent to Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum. The new stables are equipped to accommodate approximately 600 horses.

Other classes in the show will be performance classes and halter classes including get of sire and produce of dam competition here.

Entry deadline for Quarter horses has been set for Jan. 5, Douglas B. Mitchell, horse show superintendent, has announced.

Other entry deadlines are Dec. 15 for cattle, sheep and swine; Jan. 10 for gaited and other horses, and Jan. 15 for Palominos.

All About Your Share Of the Egg Crop, If You Can Afford It

MINNEAPOLIS — By January 1 there will be on U. S. farms three laying hens apiece for every man, woman and child in the nation. Each of your three hens will present you with a dozen eggs in January. In other words, "your personal share of U. S. egg production will be three dozen in the first month of 1948," says the family economics bureau of Northwestern National Life Insurance.

Inspired by the coming of spring, hens will average 18 eggs apiece in May, top month for production. During the entire year they will produce 185 eggs apiece. But a hen will eat half to three-quarters of a pound of commercial feed for every two-ounce egg she lays, the report says. This is in addition to whatever miscellaneous garden seeds she might pick up for dessert.

Thus for producing a dozen eggs a hen charges up the price of six to nine pounds of commercial feed, which now costs the poultry farmer more than half as much as he gets for the eggs. Out of the remainder he has to furnish Mrs. Hen with lodging, medical care and janitor service, and get a profit on his investment. For the wholesale price of a dozen eggs the farmer was able to buy about 17 pounds of feed at the average ratio of the period of the 1935-39, but so far in 1947 he has only been able to buy 10 or 12 pounds with what he receives per dozen eggs. Back in the thirties, however, average production was only around 130 eggs per year per hen, and chick mortality was considerably higher.

The city man's first-remembered picture of kindly biddy living on table scraps to a ripe old age, and yielding fresh eggs year after year, is badly out of date, the report points out. On the modern egg farm practically the entire flock is replaced each fall with spring-hatched pullets, which start laying furiously at the age of about six months, continue at top speed for about twelve months under scientific feeding procedure, until the following fall, when they are sold for meat and replaced by a new flock of pullets.

It is estimated that 440 million laying hens and pullets will be on U. S. farms on January 1, 1948. This represents a slight increase from the 437 million estimated as the laying population at the beginning of 1947.

Pasture, Grassland Can Save Grain

Millions of tons of grain can be saved on American farms this winter without sacrificing livestock and poultry. In the opinion of a group of farm leaders whose views are reported in a survey made public by the Chilean National Educational Bureau.

The unanimous view is that proper use of fertilizer and lime in the key to large savings of grain for human food. P. D. Sanders, editor of The Southern Planter, of Richmond, Va., pointed out seven possible savings of 83,000,000 tons of grain, as follows:

- Red and insect control, efficient feeding and prevention of other pests, 34,000,000 tons.
- Reduced pig losses, 5,000,000 tons.
- Decrease of 20 pounds in average market weight of hogs, with per cent profit for the farmer, 5,000,000 tons.
- Culling poultry stocks and efficient feeding, 6,000,000 tons.
- Parasite control and feeding beef cattle grain for short finish only, 5,000,000 tons.
- Increased use of roughage and pasturage, and culling by dairy farmers, 5,000,000 tons.
- No grain for idle work stock, 5,000,000 tons.
- "One rat can eat or waste 100 pounds of grain a year," said Mr. Sanders. "Weeds destroy almost as much corn in the field as livestock consume. Eradication campaigns against these pests on farms would save another four million tons."

"A typical opinion is expressed by Dr. N. J. Voth, associate director of the Indiana Agricultural Experiment Station.

"Let us not slaughter our cattle unnecessarily," he said. "Beef animals, dairy cows, and sheep can be entered on a minimum of roughage, then turned out on lush early grazing next spring and fitted for market with a minimum of grain or, in emergency, no grain at all. The meat may not top the market but will look good."

"Such a program will make more total meat between now and next fall than would be available if livestock is slaughtered as grain gives out. Furthermore, such a program will release more corn for egg production and for finishing hogs that cannot be held over.

"To make this plan fully effective farmers who are roughing cattle through the winter should make a good application of fertilizer to their pastures early next spring before the grass starts to grow."

One good means of saving grain frequently overlooked, according to Dr. D. R. Dodd, associate agronomist of the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station, is to give farm animals good pasture.

"Lime, fertilizer, management and provision for an abundant supply of pasture throughout the season are essentials," he said. "The situation calls for execution of sound production and utilization practices on crop and especially on pasture lands. The latter have been so long and so generously neglected that surprising returns may be obtained from their improvement."

Results of the survey are published in the "Victory Farm Forum," by the Chilean Nitrate Educational Bureau.

Propose 'No Cattle' Zone Below Border, Protective Belt

WASHINGTON — A 40-mile-wide "no cattle" zone well below the U. S. Mexican border was proposed today by Rep. A. L. Miller (R-Neb.) as the only effective quarantine against hoof and mouth disease now rampant in Mexico.

In an interview, Miller declared that merely establishing a quarantine "line" is not enough if the slaughter campaign against 1,000,000 infected Mexican animals is to be abandoned. Collapse of that program was conceded by both governments two weeks ago.

"What is needed is a protective belt 35 to 40 miles wide, across the whole width of Mexico some 250 miles south of the border," he said.

"Every cloven-hoofed animal that ventures into that zone should be killed whether it is infected or not. It might even be necessary to machine-gun them from the air to make sure none come to infect healthy animals," Miller said. Mexican peasants should be compensated for animals moved out of the quarantine zone, but thereafter no indemnity should be paid for those slaughtered to keep the area clear.

A program such short of this severe measure is unlikely to win congressional support, the Nebraska said.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON
GOD'S ETERNAL RULE
Scripture: Revelation 21:1-7, 22:2-7
By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.
The Book of Revelation was written at a time and under circumstances in which it is not surprising that the author should have had the power to inflict real suffering and death upon those worshippers of the true God, who refused to give good and law-abiding, refused to commit the sacrifice of bowing to a blasphemous potentate.

Was that potentate, then, supreme because he had the power to persecute and kill? He certainly believed that he would not have had the faith or the courage to defy him. It was to confirm them in that faith that the Book of Revelation was written.

It is a Book full of mystery, with imagery and symbols, to which those for whom it was written were difficult, its message as a whole is clear and plain. In no other book of the Bible is there a more powerful passage, such as those that constitute this lesson, in which the truth concerning God's eternal rule and the triumph of the faithful in a world of light and life are given.

But we must catch the note of eternity, as well as of rule, if we would understand this message. There is a verse of a hymn that says: "God's purposes will ripen fast, unfolding every hour. The bud may have a bitter taste, but sweet will be the flower."

That is in a hymn concerning faith and doubt in relation to God's providence. It is well meant, but I do not think that it is wholly true, or wholly not all. There are purposes that ripen slowly, and about which there is a ceaseless, a constant, a patient, Scripture is on the need of patience.

Jesus spent many years of preparation before His real ministry began. Paul had many silent years, some in his own country, before he was sent on his missionary journeys. No man lived nearer to the purposes of God, and at first at least, they ripened slowly for him.

God's rule is eternal. It is not of passing pomp and power, like the rule of men. It is not always easily perceived in the short or the long, but in the long processes of life and history, the providences and judgments of God that mark his eternal rule are unmistakable.

The world is strewn with the wrecks of the earthly empires of rulers who defied the living God, while the blood of the martyrs is still the seed of the Church. The Christ is still conquering, and His purposes of time to fulfill His purposes.

FAIR ENOUGH
By WESTBROOK PEGLER
WASHINGTON—American traitors and alien spies of the Communist conspiracy have been shielded from exposure by the very difficulty of presenting the facts to the public. There are hundreds of pages of testimony, always difficult reading and difficult to condense. There are interlacing relationships of persons and organizations. There are thousands of names of individuals, including assumed names, and of committees, councils, congresses, leagues and the like.

The reptilian trails of Gerhart and Hanna Eisler, Austrian refugees from Hitler's gas-chamber, twist and squirm through the minutes of the House Committee on Un-American Activities which exposed Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt's "razed interference with the State Department by the aid of Hanna Eisler which otherwise he would have been excluded from our country as a Communist. Both brothers had come to Russia to escape the Nazi crematorium, but that was not their plan. They came here, and Eleanor got busy to help Hanna crash our gate.

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI, disposes of Gerhart's statement in a report to the Thomas committee which says:

In 1941, Gerhart Eisler became active in the American Communist movement. In recent years he has been a figure of importance, in connection with the policies and operations of the Communist Party, U.S.A. From approximately 1933 to approximately 1938, (he) was the representative of the Communist International to the Communist Party, U.S.A. He was responsible for the control and direction of American Communist operations.

Eisler was the liaison between the authorities in Moscow and the Communist Party, U.S.A.

Remember, this was the brother of Eleanor's protegee, Hanna Eisler. Gerhart Eisler drew a living allowance in New York from the joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee. Howard Fast, a Communist writer, was sentenced to jail and fined for refusing to give the Thomas committee information about this front. Mrs. Roosevelt gratuitously gave publicity to a book by Fast and sent invited to dinner at the White House a naturalized Yugoslav named Louie Adamic who exploited that sociopolitical episode into a book of the same name ridiculing Winston Churchill, a fellow guest, particularly in regard to Britain's Balkan policy. Adamic's social status with Eleanor is shown by his inclusion in this party organized in the presidential mansion of the United States ostensibly to honor the British prime minister but actually to heckle and ridicule him. Adamic, a physical giant, was a non-belligerent partisan of Marshal Tito, organized his debt to the American liberators gave publicity to a sauntering five unnamed, unwarlike American fliers. Tito's return to Yugoslavia was financed by the joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee. When American boys were bombing the Moscow war native land, Mrs. Roosevelt's friend, Adamic, was with them in spirit, but his feet were under the table as 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D. C.

When Gerhart was being examined by the immigration men at Ellis Island in June, 1941, and swearing that he was actually a Communist, brother Hanna, admitted to our country through the interference of Eleanor, had the effrontery to testify for him. Why not? The dumb Americans would believe anything.

Among other statements, Hanna said he was employed as a "professor" of music at the new school of social research. The good faith of this "school" in this harboring of an international parasite and frequent plier to Moscow was touched upon by Donald T. Appell, an investigator for the Thomas committee, last September. Mr. Appell is an expert in the mystics of accounts who served as captain in the finance corps of the Army and in the Bureau of the Budget.

Robert Stripling, the chief investigator, said the purpose of Appell's testimony was to show that Hanna Eisler's position as "professor" was a subterfuge for the purpose of permitting him to stay here without true legal justification.

A letter was introduced from Summer Welles, undersecretary of state, to Eleanor. It said the department now had definite information that Eisler is a Communist. Therefore, he could not enter the United States in non-quota status. Hanna, on his part, not only claimed to be a professor and one of the great composers of the ages, but an artist "may I add, of international reputation."

But when his merits were boiled down he was found to be just a panhandling music teacher. And, against his name, notwithstanding Eleanor's intervention, a summary and commentary compiled by the State Department read: "The evidence establishes preponderantly that Eisler is a Communist."

Mr. Appell slammed through the new school's accounts and exposed a "Hanna Eisler scholarship fund" as a pretext to create a false estimate of Eisler's stature.

Lower Johnson, the president of the "new school," with the apparent purpose of qualifying Eisler as a non-quota visa applicant, changed his status from lecturer in music to professor of music.

Mr. Appell said: "Lower Johnson stated that the new school and its students were so enthusiastic over his work that they wanted him to remain permanently," the witness continued.

"Therefore," the appointment committee authorized the president to extend a year appointment with the title of professor at $3,000 a year. With respect to this appointment which was promoted by the overwhelming enthusiasm of the school and its students, I should like to refer to the pay cards and attendance records. In two courses conducted by Eisler from Oct. 5, 1935, to Jan. 18, 1936, no more than eight students attended the course on "Musical Composition."

Only three attended the course on "The Crisis of Modern Music." He received only $100 for lecturing four months and this was paid from the Eisler scholarship fund. The school lost $34.77 on these two courses. On March 29, 1938, when Doctor Johnson wrote the letter prompted by the overwhelming enthusiasm Eisler had seven students in "Musical Composition," one student in "Counterpoint" with

CHILIAN SCIENCE
"Christian Science" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, Dec. 28.
The Golden Text is: "The Glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it" (Isaiah 40:5).
Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures" (Psalms 36:8).
The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Love is impartial and universal in its adaptation and bestowals" (page 13).

In case you're planning to have an operation and dreading the ether or novocain, you can relax. Medical science has a brand new anesthetic—Music.
In a Baltimore hospital they have actually used music in 15 operations. So we may soon be reading items like "Mrs. Jones underwent surgery yesterday. The operation was by the Mayo brothers — anesthesia by the Dorsey brothers.

Of course, this idea of putting people to sleep with music is not exactly new. Ever noticed the people around you at the opera? Or that matter, my husband George has put many a potential patient under with his singing. The Baltimore surgeon who came up with the bright idea says that "live" music won't do. I disagree. I've heard some five numbers that left me numb enough for any operation. Personally, tho, I'm not taking any chances on music replacing ether. I'd hate to be half way through an operation and have Mr. Petrillo stop the music.

German Sabotage Activities Told

NUERNBERG, Germany - (AP) - The Germans carried out sabotage activities in the United States even before Pearl Harbor, Dr. R. W. Kemper of the war crimes prosecution staff has reported.

The Nazi-directed sabotage, Kemper said, occurred in New York State, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Texas, according to witnesses questioned for the damage harbor facilities, pipe line and electric facilities.

Kemper withheld the names of the witnesses and said further details could not be given at present.

The agents were instructed to damage harbor facilities, pipe lines and strategic factories and to start forest fires, Kemper said.

The sabotage plan, he said, was a joint operation of the German Military Intelligence and sabotage agency known as "Abwehr" and of the Foreign Office.

Reminders Sent Out On Christmas Seals

The Gray County Tuberculosis Association is sending reminder cards to all those who were sent Christmas seals by fund drive officials.

"It isn't too late to help," the cards state. "The tuberculosis program in this community—combating health education and other services needs your support and continued interest."

The cards are sent to all who were sent seals, and serve both as a "thank you" card to contributors and a "reminder" to those who have not contributed.
