QUIZZER RAINED OUT

Pampa News Photographer Tommie Ellis was primed with a question of the week for three days, but the continued rains in the city kept pedestrians off the streets or out of the mood to stop and chat. That's what happened to The News' regular Friday feature this week . . . like baseball, it was rained out.

WHAT ROAD ARE YOU TRAVELING

"Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it." Matthew 7:13-14. In considering these two verses of scripture we find three thoughts that stand out in bold type for our consideration; the roads, the travelers and the destination.

THE TWO ROADS CONTRASTED. The broad road is wide, readily ascessible, open to all, camouflaged and attractive. It glitters, it is glamorous, it is very popular and it is traveled by the masses. The other road is very narrow and "strait." It excludes selfishness and narrowness on the part of the travelers. Jesus said, "Few there be that find it." Even though it is a narrow road or way "it is wide enough for all" who will come and take the water of life freely

THE SECOND THOUGHT IS THE TRAVELERS of these two roads. The broad road is traveled by narrow people. They are selfish unrestrained, the "hoopy-go-lucky" crowd. Their attitude is "I'll have my way: I'll get mine while the getting is good; You and the devil can have the hindmost." These people do not build churches and schools, will not each boys and girls in Sunday School classes, will not do relief work and do not lend a helping hand. They live for the present world only. Their aim and oursose is pleasure and ease. They travel the road of least resistance. They make excuses for every

Let's look next at the people who travel the narrow road. Broad people travel the narrow road. They climb mountains, clear forests and pay the price for advancement. They bring about reformation, blaze new trails, build churches, carry on mission work despite criticism: they mother orphon children, they work with disagreeable people but never become disagreeable.

THE THIRD THOUGHT IS THE DESTINATION of the two roads. The broad road is headed in but one direction, that is down; has no regard for people of either sex; cares not for character nor life. It is the big-slicked tobaggan road of death, destruction and eternal punishment. It's inevitable end is agony, pain, suffering and sorrow. This road excludes everything that is God-like. It is the speed-wav of the soul to death.

Look at the narrow road. The people who travel this road have the companionship of Jesus and the best people on earth. It costs a lot to travel the narrow road; self-control, complete surrender to God restrained desires. and subdued passions. It is the highway that leads to ETERNA! HOME and happiness. The individual will determine his own destiny by the choice he makes in this life. Jesus recommends the narrow road, not because it is easy, not because it is lucrative, but because it leads home. He said in John 100 mm the ray, the truth and the life. No man cometh unto the Father but by me". "There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death." Proverbs 14:12.

WHAT ROAD ARE YOU TRAVELING? I hope that every person who reads this message will find your way to the church of your choice Sunday and take a definite stand for Christ.

Modern Unionism

The Palace that the Teamsters' union has built for Dave Beck and his administrative aides in Washington is, according to word from the capital, proving to be as interesting an attraction to tourrists as the monuments to George Washington, Abraham Lincoln and Thomas Jefferson, And Congressmen can look out of their office windows and admire its shining beauty all $5,000,000 worth of white Georgia marble, heat-resistant blue glass, statuary bronze frames and other

The tourist who peeks into the lobby can observe that it is paneled in light aurisina fiorito marble. Farther in he might wander into a 650-seat theater which at Mr. Beck's instance is to be equipped for cinemascope movies. If persistent he might get up into the penthouse given over mainly to recreation for the union staff or his attention might be called to the grounded carpets to ward off electric shocks, pneumatic tubes coursing about the building to cut down leg-work and to the canned music to make work more restful. Probably off limits to the curious, but still there, are Mr. Beck's private working arena of some 900 square feet, an additional office for his secretary, an office for the seccretary's secretary and even a wall safe for valuables.

Tucked away in this brilliant marble structure are also showers in which you can bothe sitting down, a verdant roof garden, a private bar and private elevators to provide escape from the motley mob.

But the Teamsters will not be alone in this nobby union headquarters in Washington. Recently the AFL got the President of the United States to lay the cornerstone of its new $3,000,000 office building. The CIO Electrical Workers and the AFL Machinists are erecting new temples of organized labor. The Steelworkers and the Bakery and Confectionery Workers have some valuable Washington real estate on which they plan to

The glories of Ancient Rome never equalled all this.

Gentlemen Of Jury

Among the unpredictable elements of life on this planet, along with the weather and who stands where in the Soviet government is the action of juries.

The tried men and true of most juries try to dispense justice dispassionately, on the facts presented — yet all men are opinionated to a degree and subject to emotional appeal.

Say a man is charged with boiling his mother-inlaw in oil. His lawyer will lean to selection of veniremen who have mothers-in-law and an appearance of being distressed by the existence of same. The prosecution will strive for a jury weighted with mothers-inin-law themselves.

Which leads to an interesting bit of current legal news. A California District Court of Appeals ruling has upheld the verdict of a Superior Court in favor of a couple of casualty insurance companies. The companies, disturbed by a trend among juries toward awarding damages in eye-popping amounts ran some national ads on the matter. Their argument: Excessively high damages result in higher insurance premiums which everybody, including jurors, must pay, which adds to the cost of living. Their plea: That jurors be influenced solely by facts — not by emotional bias.

The court absolved the companies of jury-influence implications, holding that they were acting within the rights of free speech, since their ads were couched in general terms and did not try to influence the outcome in any specific case. Seems fair enough - just asking jurors to hew to the facts.

Human nature being as it is, it's tough enough to keep any courtroom wrangle simon-pure of emotional aspects — even if it's an open and shut case of Towser's jaws on the seat of the meter reader's pants!

breach of security. Reason previously given for advance release solely to The Times was that the department wanted the complete text published and The Times was the only paper to publish it in full. That could be true, but it is not a valid reason for such discrimination. Actually, in a remarkable emeroperation, THE CHICAGO RIBUNE published the complete book of 141 pages of large type and small pages. It is written by Dr. V. Orval Watts and called "The United Nations, Road to War." It was published by the Foundation for Social Research, 17, California. The price is $1.50 and any book store can get a copy for any individual. It is one of the most important books I have ever read. It is a timely book. It is timely because it discusses very intelligently what produces peace and what produces war. How can anything be more interesting to any man who has children and grandchildren, who he wants to see have an opportunity to develop and use the talents that God

If a man wants to be useful, in promoting peace, the very best way he can do it is to first inform himself, and I know of no better way for anyone to inform himself than to get a copy of this book and read it. It is easy reading and it is interesting. It is a kind of history of freedom-a history of the development of mankind. It is a history of morals. It is not a history of dates or of men-it is a history of why things happen

Dr. Watts' first chapter is "Man Must Find Peace." He starts out by quoting the first words of the United Nations Charter.

"We, the peoples of the United Nations determined to save succeeding generations from the scourge of war ... "

The he goes on to explain why the UN so strongly appealed to Then he goes on to explain why we have had a federation of states that have been to a very large degree successful in preventing wars in our own country. Then he observes: "The idea of world federation has an especial appeal for Amer-The reason is obvious. Americans live in a federal union which has kept peace among its member states for nearly a hundred years, and there seems no reason to think that any of these United States will ever again go to war with the others.

"In the hope and faith that it (the United Nations) can, Americans have supported the United Nations more generously than have the people of any other country. When other governments have been slow to cooperate, our own government has offered added inducements in the form of loans and grants for local improvements or other domestic uses." The he mentions, several things that the United States has done for the UN. Then he says: "Besides all this many Americans are willing to surrender even the national independence which their forefathers once risked their all to win in a war against the world's greatest military power. With this support and surrender, as we shall see, the United Nations and its allied agencies are winning dominion over the life and earnings, the welfare and prosperity, of every American.

"Will it in return stop war and bring peace? "It promises much. Can it keep those promises?

What Is The UN?

"Or is it a trap - like the trap of communism, which promises all things to all men, but which imprisons, maims and destroys even its devoted apostles?"

Then he relates how we look at the UN skyscraper and see how the people assemble there in arge numbers. The he writes:

"In them busy men and women, officials and their helpers, of all nationalities and speaking all languages, study and report, adopt and execute, plans for remaking the world. "What kind of persons are they? Who selects them? What can they do or not do? What influence and authority do they have in these United States and in the world.

"Not until you can answer these questions and many others can you really judge for yourself whether or not the United Nations is a harmless world forum, a bureaucratic boondoggle, a communist conspiracy, a force for peace. or a way to increasing conflict

"I believe that mankind learns and progresses only as more and more individuals study and think, and then act with more wisdom

"I have said that Ambassador Lodge contends that the UN is merely a world forum. U. S. Secretary of State, Mr. John Foster Dulles, calls it a 'moral mechanism.' Let me now explain why I Cooley shaking hands on the fronbelieve it to be clearly an attempt tispiece.

to establish World Government.' In his next chapter "Toward World Government" Dr. Watts relates how several cities throughout the United States were taken over by Military Government Reserve Units during 1951 and 1952. He states that the first sally took place on July 31, 1951 when they took over nine California cities. The invading forces did not, however, fly the American flag of the United Nations, and their officers that they represented the United Nations. FAMOUS DISASTERS!

SAN FRANCISCO FIRE AND EARTHQUAKE

Property loss from the famous San Francisco earthquake and fire in 1906 amounted to more than $350 million. An area of several square miles including most of the downtown area was destroyed.

CHICAGO FIRE

Mrs. O'Leary's cow started a fire that destroyed the entire heart of Chicago in 1871 with the loss estimated at $196 million.

"BLACK TOM" EXPLOSION

The tremendous "Black Tom" munitions dump explosion in Jersey City property with damage estimated at $40 million.

1954 FOREST FIRES

Last year alone, there were 155,000 forest fires in the U. S .- over 400 a day! They burned 10 million acres of valuable timber, an area larger than Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island combined. Cost of these fires was one billion dollars, three times that of the famous San Francisco destruction.

And the most tragic part of this shameful waste is that 9 out of 10 of these fires were preventable! Fire reports show that 90% of all our woods fires are caused by everyday, well-meaning people who were careless for a fatal moment with cigarettes, matches, campfires, brush and trash fires.

Make sure your fires are out-dead out! Break your matches before throwing them away and use your ashtray for cigarettes
