McLEAN DELEGATION -- Above is a portion of the huge delegation which was present at today's meeting of the County Commissioners Court in behalf of their plea for a branch of the county hospital in that city. (News Photo)

Petitions combining the proposed patent bonding attorneys, a McLean hospital issue and the $500,000 branch hospital in McLean with the proposed $300,000 addition to Highland General Hospital will be circulated in Gray County before an election should be called today if the petitions are approved by a Dallas bonding attorney firm.

The new petitions are the result of the Gray County Commissioners meeting this morning at which approximately 125 McLean citizens led by Mayor Ed Landers and Councilman Boyd Meador emphasized their request for a hospital in their community.

Both the Commissioners Court and the McLean citizens were called upon to present their views on the proposed branch hospital by County Judge Bruce Parker. Each commissioner gave his opinion on the issue and not one went on record as being against the hospital.

Paul Crossman is the head of a committee already delegated to circulate petitions calling for an election on the Highland General Hospital issue alone. He told the court and McLean delegates this morning that in his opinion the petitions were nearly completed but that he would not present them to the Commissioners Court until July 11 and that if the new petitions could be drawn up and returned with the required amount of signatures by that date, he would withdraw the petition concerning Highland General Hospital alone.

Neal Executed By Riflemen For '51 Murder

POINT OF THE MOUNTAIN, Utah — UP — Don Jesse Neal, protesting his innocence to the last, was executed by a firing squad Friday for the 1951 murder of a Salt Lake City policeman.

"I am innocent," the former housepainter told Sheriff George Beckstead, who served as executioner.

"But I have no malice toward anyone," he added only 30 minutes before his marksmen hidden behind a canvas tarp opened up their guns on him. Four slugs from the five .30-caliber rifles ripped through the black-shaded hood which served as a target for the marksmen, who were only 20 feet from Neal. The prisoner was strapped to a wooden chair.

The signal for the execution was given at 5:02 a. m. He was pronounced dead a couple of minutes later. Witnesses to the execution were not admitted until 30 seconds before the rifles barked their death signal at sunrise.

The peaked, black hood already had been placed over Neal's head and face. He was nervously clenching and unclenching his fists as he spoke his last words to Sheriff Beckstead and the prison chaplain the Rev. Robert Pollock of the Salt Lake Catholic Church.

Newsmen did not see the signal which set the executioners' rifles ablaze.

JUST A CHIP OFF OLD BLOCK

PITTSBURGH — UP — The present strike situation in the steel industry is nothing new to David J. McDonald, president of the CIO United Steelworkers Union.

McDonald was born Nov. 22, 1902, while his father, a Pittsburgh steel worker and union official, was on strike.

2 Reporters Sought By Red Probers

WASHINGTON — UP — Senate investigators Friday sought two former Brooklyn reporters for questioning about sworn testimony that they were Communists in the early 1940s.

J. G. Souwine, counsel of the Senate Internal Security subcommittee, told newspaper that subpoenas were issued for Herman Chusmak and David Grotman, identified as a member of a Communist cell in the now-defunct Brooklyn Daily Eagle.

Souwine said the subcommittee also seeks others named Wednesday as Communists by CBS news correspondent Winston Burdett. Burdett testified he was a Communist himself from 1937 until 1942.

Souwine said the witnesses sought would be questioned in closed session then in public hearings at a date to be set later.

Souwine said the subcommittee is not investigating newspaper television or radio.

"We'll hear from any former Communist who'll tell an honest story," said Souwine. "In this case, the Communists are news papermen."

Settlement Reached After 12-Hour Shutdown

PITTSBURGH — UP — The CIO United Steelworkers and U. S. Steel Corp. reached a strike-ending agreement Friday on a wage offer averaging more than 15 cents an hour.

The agreement came less than 12 hours after 600,000 USW members shut down the nation's steel mills. An announcement said the new contract would be signed at noon (CST).

The offer included an 11-cent hourly wage increase plus one-half cent increase on increments for 32 job classifications.

The new wage scales were more effective as of Friday.

The increase boosted the average wages of steel workers to more than $2.38 an hour.

Other companies in the industry were virtually certain to settle Sunday agreements with the union and the industry was sure to announce price increases on its products in a few days.

U. S. Steel President Charles Hoad ordered the mills of his company, the largest steel producer in the country, to begin production at once to get back into full production.

Hoad said both sides made concessions to reach the agreement. Steelworkers' success in the national closed-down strike Thursday night.

But the less than 100,000 employees who had been striking at various speeds, millions of tons of steel in last production.

Hoover Ends Job Of Reorganizing

By NEIL MACNEIL. WASHINGTON — UP — Former President Hoover Friday closed Hoover Commission out another career — government. But Mr. Hoover had no intention reorganizing—and stood ready, at of counting himself out for further 80, for new calls to duty from his service to the government.

"I can't retire," he told a farewell news conference Thursday.

No Right to Refuse Service. "Any man who is physically able has no right to refuse service to his government in times of crisis as this country is now in."

Mr. Hoover pronounced the words solemnly. In the course of four decades he had been called to serve many times. He never refused.

In 1914, he was chairman of the American Relief Committee which helped Americans stranded in war-torn Europe get home. In 1915, he took over the Belgian relief program and fed that starving people. In 1917, he became U. S. food administrator.

Southwest Wheat Crop To Run Low

AGARILLO, UP — The wheat harvest in the Southwest will run considerably below expectations, while cotton, corn and sorghum crops weren't expected to show much improvement, the monthly Santa Fe crop report indicated Friday.

The weather was blamed for the poor showing and according to the report, severe storms have delayed the wheat harvest for so long that it is losing value by the day as it stands in the fields. Ironically, what got a late start because of the drought.

Each day harvest operations are delayed will mean an additional loss, the report said, of grain and wheat quality. Wet weather also has encouraged the formation of rust and the growth of weeds and sucker heads, it said.

Harvest Moves North. In Kansas, the line of harvest has moved well into the north central part of the state. But behind that line are many fields too wet to harvest. Second growth "sucker heads" rust and weeds in this area are causing considerable trouble.

The wheat harvest has been dragging in north central Oklahoma for the last three weeks because of too much rain, the report said. Damage by hail has been extensive. The same is true in Texas.

Pilot's Body Found In Wreckage

TOKYO — UP — Japanese police Friday found the body of a missing U. S. Marine pilot in the wreckage of his plane on a volcanic island where he died in the search for two other Leatherneck fliers lost at sea.

The U. S. Navy said a search party of Navy men had "positively identified" the wreckage as that of the F-12 Fuyei jet fighter-bomber flown by First Lt. Alan Murdoch McAneny, 27, of Yonkers, N. Y.

McAneny vanished in the mists over smoking Mount Mihara while flying over Oshima Island in the search for the two other missing fliers. Residents of the island 60 miles south of Tokyo led the Navy party to the scene.

A Japanese tourist visiting the island spotted the plane wreckage Friday morning and police in Oshima sent a search party toiling up the steep slopes. They found the wreckage was new and the body of the pilot still there.

The widespread search over 16,000 square miles of the Pacific went on for the other two missing fliers, Capt. Hodgen F. Montague, 26, of Jackson, Miss., and Second Lt. David Bell, 24, of Wayzata, Minn.

New Suspect Cleared In Triple Death

DICKINSON, Tex. — UP — An other suspect in the week-old triple murder of a well-known Dickinson family was cleared Friday as the manhunt for a serviceman hitmaker continued.

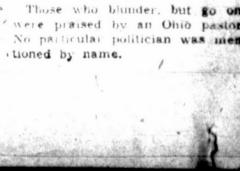

Texas Ranger Capt. Hardy Purvis, ramrodding the Ranger investigation of the murders of Mrs. Ruby McPherson, her son George, 12, and her mother, Mrs. Zola Norman, 65, said a tall, khaki-clad Louisiana oil field roughneck sought Thursday as a suspect has been cleared.

"He has been eliminated as a suspect," Purvis said. He declined to elaborate other than to say that a picture of the roughneck, Charles E. Cooper, 28, a former Houston pianist, was shown to Mrs. Purvis. "She failed to identify the picture," Purvis said.

Women In The Church

Dr. Evelyn A. Adams, physician and surgeon, in charge of Nkol Mylan Hospital in the interior, despite sickness area of French Cameroon, makes monthly clinic trips to villages where hundreds of patients gather to wait for her.

During one recent month, Dr. Adams and her assistants saw 1,200 patients in five days. Many of these sick people had made the rounds of native medicine men to no avail.

After one clinic trip, 30 patients followed the doctor back to the hospital. Some came for operations such as hernias, goiters, abdominal tumors, or cataracts; others for diagnostic procedures. Dr. Adams often has to use methods not common in America. Her operating room is situated so that relatives, friends, and the curious can see with their own eyes that the doctor is really removing a tumor, and that it wasn't an evil spirit after all that was causing the swelling in the body. The tumors are taken from the operating room, are exclaimed over by the bystanders, and then buried in the forest by a relative — after the crowd has praised the doctor.

"It is difficult for anyone to be objective in such an atmosphere of fear: everybody is divided through fear," says Miss Janet Lucy, of London, Eng., upon her return there from a visit to Kenya, Africa on behalf of the relief program of the British Council of Churches. "Some Africans see Mau Mau as the only way to achieve national independence; others are strictly loyal but are devoted to their own people.

The Kikuyu is a deeply religious person and a large number had moved from paganism to Christianity. Those who abandoned a religious faith for Mau Mau and have now abandoned Mau Mau, feel a terrible vacuum and undoubtedly something must be done to fill that void. Thousands are returning to the Christian religion or seeking for another faith.

There were 10 per cent who were martyred whether by death or tortures because they refused to take the oath. These were mainly Christians or thoughtful pagans. If we put ourselves in any one of these categories, we realize at once the emotional strain involved.

The Christian Council of Kenya is seeking to provide teams of Africans to help train village elders and to work in community centers in Nairobi.

MAKING A GO OF LIFE

We must establish good relations with "something." Pilot Sees No Life At Crash Site

ANCHORAGE, Alaska — UP — A Navy pilot who flew over the wreckage of an Air Force C-47 transport which crashed on Sitkinak Island said Thursday there was no sign of life at the crash scene.

Good relationships — the old-fashioned evangelists talked about being "at peace with God" — becomes the first objective of life. In the physical world it means health. Modern medicine does more than to work out situations wherein nature can do its work and the stricken can cooperate.

In the mental world it means peace, sanity and freedom from tension. The psychiatrist, like the physician, seeks but one objective — to straighten out our thinking and restore normal conditions.

In the spiritual world it is spoken of as "the peace of God, which passeth all understanding," and there are millions who will testify that they have attained to this status through the help of an intelligent religious faith which has ended in complete consecration to the will and word of God.

The Christian church has long declared that it is able to help individuals to attain this peace. It has prescribed repentance, a complete confession of sin, a fixeness of purpose to do the will of God as rapidly as that will becomes plain, and an acceptance of assurance that God will be satisfied when man has done his best.

If others have found this, O God, then thou art not beyond my reach. If thy help has been made available to others, then it is my right to believe it is also available to me. Only rebellion in my heart can shut thee out, and at this moment I surrender to thee, Amen.

Be perfectly honest with yourself — what is the thing that is preventing you from coming into the positive sense of the gracious nearness of God? Is there anything in your life you are afraid he will discover? If it shames you, how does he feel about it?

380 Marked For Death Over Holidays

The nation starts its three-day Fourth of July holiday Friday sobered by a warning that a record 380 persons may be killed on the highways before the long weekend ends.

About 40 million cars -- an all-time high for the holiday -- were expected to clog the nation's roads between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight Monday.

The National Safety Council based its record estimate of traffic deaths on the high turnout of cars. But it issued an additional plea that heavy traffic doesn't have to mean highway slaughter.

The holiday found the nation's eastern half sweltering in a muggy heat wave.

Cool air was pushing across the northern and Central Plains, sending temperatures falling 10 to 20 degrees in parts of the western Midwest and touching off thunderstorms and squalls.

But it was hot and sticky in the East, with no relief promised within at least 24 hours. Temperatures late Thursday included 96 at Minneapolis, Minn., and Grantsburg, Wis., and 94.1 -- the hottest day of the year -- at Chicago.

The hot weather threatened to increase the number of drownings during the big summer holiday and perhaps step up the flow of traffic even higher.

ment with U.S.-Steel "will provide a basis for concluding mutually satisfactory agreements between the USW and the basic steel companies."

The union opened negotiations June 7 with 96 basic steel and iron ore firms whose contract wage provisions ran out Thursday midnight.

The walkout idled 600,000 men, two-thirds of whom are employed by the six top producers having contracts with the USW. In addition to U.S. Steel, they include Bethlehem, Republic, Jones and Laughlin, Youngstown Sheet and Tube, and Inland Steel.

The negotiations covered wage rates only. All other provisions in the current contracts, signed a year ago, run until June 30, 1956, when the USW will make the guaranteed annual wage a main contract issue.

McDonald made preparations immediately to contract other members of the "big six" groups -- plus Great Lakes Steel Corp., Wheeling Steel and Crucible Steele. Their negotiators were standing by for orders for their contract signings.

Even as the strike ended, agreement was being announced, smaller producers jumped on the bandwagon. Pittsburgh Steel Co. called the union to ask that it be allowed to sign its contract Friday.

Hood said his company probably would announce price increases early next week. The increase was expected to be at least $4.50 to $6.50 a ton. The industry's "composite" price of steel now averages about $95.

McDonald and Stephens came up with the agreement after bargaining in almost continuous session since about 8 a.m. Thursday morning. The negotiating teams were locked in conference when the walkout began and McDonald and Stephens did not part until 3:30 a.m. -- when they reached "an agreement to get a little sleep."

But as it turned out, the U.S. Steel offer was in its virtual final form, and the two men met for 50 minutes at 9:30 a.m. to put the finishing touches.

man's call, Mr. Hoover undertook the mammoth task of overhauling the executive branch of the government. The recommendations of the first Hoover Commission on reorganization were estimated to save $4 billion a year.

In 1953, another reorganization commission was created and President Eisenhower called on Mr. Hoover to head it.

At his news conference, Mr. Hoover said the recommendations of the second commission -- if carried out -- would wipe out this year's $3.5 billion deficit and save enough more to allow perhaps a $2 billion cut in taxes.

Building To Be Leased For Schools

The school board voted the clearance with Cabot Inc. to lease the old Cabot office building on Brown St. for temporary housing of elementary classrooms at a called meeting yesterday afternoon in Supt. Knox Kinard's office. The building will house seven classrooms for the coming school year.

A new 11-acre site was proposed to be used as either a Junior high or elementary school site, situated north of 23rd St. and west of the Perryton Highway. No definite action was taken on this proposal.

A supplementary 16-acre site north east of the Top of Texas Drive in Theatre has already been purchased. Tentative plans call for a school situated on each plot.

Student accident and hospitalization insurance was discussed, but the matter was left open to further investigation.

Whether Aubrey Steele or Herman Whitley will represent the board at the July 4-8 meeting of the State Board of Education meeting in Austin, when the question of de-segregation will be discussed.

made considerable recovery from an early drought in the Panhandle, the report said, but this has been offset by hail damage, sucker heads, and insect ruin. Harvest is nearing completion in all but the High Plains.

In New Mexico, the wheat harvest is later than usual with only a few fields being cut. Yields generally will be low, and it is doubtful if more than 500,000 bushels will be harvested.

Acres Abandoned A goodly portion of the winter wheat acreage in southeastern Colorado was abandoned during the winter and spring months. In northeastern Colorado, prospects looked good until recently when the effects of the prolonged drought, late freezes, and high winds began to show up.

The report estimated that Kansas may harvest 140 million bushels, Oklahoma 32 million, Texas 12.5 million, New Mexico 50,000 and Colorado 11.5 million.

Early cotton plantings in Oklahoma and Texas were showing good growth but some replantings were required because of hail damage. Corn, soybeans and mung bean crops found moisture conditions ideal in Oklahoma.

Cotton in Texas ranges from near maturity in the Lower Rio Grande Valley of Texas to just coming up to a stand in the High Plains. Heavy rains have caused much replanting in West Texas.

Following the parade, a fiddlers contest was held, with contestants competing for prizes and applause. Simultaneously, a matinee rodeo performance was staged in the arena with Darrell Harris and his horse in a specialty number.

Going to Amarillo to confer with Gen. Agee will be John Pitts, Bob Andis, and Red Wedgworth of the Top of Texas Rodeo Association.

Ike, Mamie To Observe Anniversary

WASHINGTON -- President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Mrs. Eisenhower will observe their 39th wedding anniversary Friday by playing host to members of the White House staff at an evening picnic at their Gettysburg, Pa., farm.

The President planned to fly or drive, depending on the weather, to the farm in the early afternoon after a busy morning at his White House office.

His office schedule included a Cabinet meeting, receiving the final report of Harold E. Stassen as retiring foreign aid chief, the swearing in of John B. Hollister as Stassen's successor in the post, and a farewell visit with retiring Assistant Commerce Secretary Samuel W. Anderson.

Mrs. Eisenhower has been at the farm since June 10. About 150 guests have been invited to the picnic. It will be a private affair with no press coverage.

The picnic gave White House staff members a chance to see the use Mr. and Mrs. Eisenhower are making of some of the gifts they received from the staff for their Gettysburg home.

The gifts include a century-old white marble fireplace mantel, formerly a part of the White House, which graces one end of the living room of the Gettysburg house. It was a staff present on the 38th wedding anniversary last year. The staff added the accessories -- screen, andirons, etc. -- last Christmas.

In addition to the White House staff, the first couple had some personal friends who will remain as guests over the July Fourth weekend.

Red Radio Says 3 Gls To Be Freed

TOKYO -- UP -- Communist China Friday reported that three turned American soldiers would be released as soon as the Indian Red Cross completed its arrangements for their departure in "the near future."

Peiping radio said that a Chinese Red Cross official reviewed the "situation" of the three Americans and two Belgians who deserted to the Communists and then changed their minds asking to be returned to the free world.

Vice chairman of the Communist Chinese Red Cross, Lin Shih, said the Indian Red Cross said June 24 that "contacts had been made with the countries concerned. . . and it would keep the Red Cross Society in China informed of developments."

Garbled Broadcast In a badly garbled broadcast, the Chinese Red Cross official knocked the Americans who turned their back once on their homeland.

He said the former UN soldiers were brought to Peiping June 7. "Some of them," he chided, "were found staying out into the night and indulging in drinking."

"For their security," he said, "the Red Cross Society of China had advised them to return to their lodgings before midnight."

"They hatefully refused to accept this sincere advice."

The official said that because of the men's conduct "the Red Cross Society of China would be unable to continue being responsible for their safety."

"Insult Women" He charged that the turncoats had "deliberately made trouble, provoking . . . people, reviling police officers, insulting women."

He said that Otho G. Bell "admitted that he pretended to be committing suicide by slashing his skin with a small knife. . ."

"He took pictures of his cuts and said that after his departure from China, he would use them as evidence of maltreatment."

Texas Labor Vows To Fight Shivers

DALLAS -- UP -- The executive secretary of the Texas State Federation of Labor was on record Friday with a pledge to turn out the labor vote in 1956 to defeat Gov. Allan Shivers and restore liberal Texas Democrats to power.

The labor official, Jerry R. Holleman, promised an all-out fight against the conservative wing of the Democratic party, which Shivers heads. He spoke Thursday at the closing session of the federation's annual convention.

Holleman said the American Federation of Labor had a potential vote in Texas of 850,000. He said that the federation's staff and himself will devote their time to organizing this vote to insure defeat for Shivers in the field of politics.

"There will be no unity with Shiverscrats in Texas," Holleman told the 1,000 convention delegates. "We give fair warning, here and now that organized labor will see to it that (Shivers) is not given another opportunity to drive a knife into the heart of the Democratic party."

U.S. Denies Patrol Flights Halted

WASHINGTON -- UP -- The Defense Department Thursday denied a published report that Navy patrol flights have been halted in the Bering Straits because of last week's clash with Russian fighter.

Two MIGs jumped a Navy Neptune bomber, knocked out its starboard engine, and forced it to make an emergency landing on St. Lawrence Island on June 22.

A report published Thursday in the New York Times said that flights had been temporarily halted while Russian intentions in the area were studied, and a coordinator was given to escorting future patrol flights.

A Defense Department spokesman, conceding commanders in Alaska are reviewing flight procedures, but he asserted it is "untrue" that the air patrols have been halted.

Fort Expansion Given Approval

WASHINGTON -- UP -- The Senate Armed Services committee Thursday approved an expansion of Fort Sill, Okla., to include a portion of the Wichita mountains wild life refuge.

The committee noted in a report that the expansion has run into "considerable local opposition." But it said "it appears the only alternative to the acquisition is to forego the full utilization of training facilities and weapons at Fort Sill."

The Army has requested the expansion primarily to have the necessary range for firing of its new 280 mm cannon.

397 Texans Drown in 1954

AUSTIN -- UP -- A total of 397 persons, more than half of them under 25 years of age, drowned in Texas during 1954, the Texas Health Department reports. Drownings occurred in each age bracket up to 90 years, but dropped sharply after 45.

Shower Presented For Recent Bride

Mrs. William Hartman of Amarillo, the former Margaret Kretzmeier of Pampa, was complimented with a miscellaneous bridal shower Wednesday in the home of Mrs. J. W. Gayden, 1346 N. Russell.

Co-hostesses with Mrs. Gayden were Meses. Wyndell Cox, George Dillman, Emil Urbanczyk, Jasper McBride and R. L. McBride.

The honoree was presented a corsage fashioned from kitchen gadgets. Guests were registered by Miss Roberta Kretzmeier, sister of the honoree.

The serving table was covered with a white cutwork cloth and centered with an arrangement of white shasta daisies and baby's breath. The centerpiece was flanked with white tapers in crystal holders.

Refreshments of almond coffee, rolls, melon balls and assorted fruit were served. Miss Jackie Edwards presided at the coffee service.

Approximately 75 persons attended or sent gifts.

Meals In Packages Are Good For Fourth Of July Cookout

By GAYNOR MADDX NEA Food and Markets Editor

A cookout party in Rockville Center, L. I., at the home of Eleanor Lynch, gave us ideas for a gala 4th of July backyard party.

Easy, delicious, free of fuss, the youngsters will relish eating their entire hot meal out of one aluminum foil package.

All the foods are placed on the outdoor table. The fun begins when everyone gathers around the table and selects his own combination "meal in a package."

Heavy duty aluminum foil are ready and each person places his selection in the center, spoon on barbecue sauce, butter and lemon juice, and seasonings to taste.

Each is sealed tight in the foil and placed on the grill.

Chopped Steak in Foil Dinners Prepare good size patties from well-seasoned chopped chuck or round. Have ready large squares of aluminum foil. Place each in center of square and add 2 slices of sweet onion, half a fresh tomato, quartered, a spoonful of green pepper strips and a generous serving of frozen lima or any frozen vegetable you like. Season and add a pat of butter. No additional liquid needed. Seal into a package and place on grill over medium hot fire and cook about 30 minutes.

Jane Talk By JANE KADINGO Pampa News Women's Editor

WITH GLAMOUR a woman can get almost anything she wants out of life says Lilly Dache. Without it, she still may achieve a certain success, but it is much more difficult.

KEEP A REPORT CARD For your first step to glamour Miss Dache recommends you keep a report card on yourself.

To start your record, begin by standing in front of a full-length mirror without your clothes.

Wear your clothes well! Do you stand up straight or do you slump? Grade yourself on each of these.

Then, with your clothes back on, take another good look at yourself. Are you somebody you would like to know? Do you look happy?

On your path to glamour you must start by knowing yourself—your best points and your faults.

PERFUME IMPORTANT "It is not enough for a woman to look beautiful and perfectly groomed," says Miss Dache.

Homemakers who have more than one person in the family wearing similar clothes, such as T-shirts and white socks, can use fingernail polish to identify them in the laundry.

Combine confectioner's sugar and peanut butter—about 2 to 3 tablespoons—to make a nutlike frosting for spice or applesauce cake.

GRACE FRIEND

Dear Grace Some time ago I started writing to a man in the Armed Services who is stationed in another part of the country.

After we had exchanged several letters he wrote me and asked me to marry him. I have learned to like him a lot but I am not sure it is love since I have never seen him.

However he writes as if we are engaged but he never keeps any promises he makes me. Several times we arranged that he would telephone me on a certain date and I stayed right by the phone all day waiting for the call.

PLANNED VISIT Then he wrote that he was coming out here for his leave and asked if he could stay at our home. I was so excited about it and then he wrote and said maybe he couldn't make it after all, that he might have to go visit his family.

I can't understand how he can write that he loves me and then never keep his promises. I am sure he could come if he wanted to.

I think I would marry him if I could believe him but how can I know whether he is serious when he acts this way, so off hand about ever calling me or seeing me.

Dear Grace I wouldn't put too much confidence in your soldier if I were you.

So many of them write to girls out of loneliness and really have no serious intentions concerning them regardless of what they say.

Don't get tied up with the boy until you have a chance to meet him and really know what he is like. I am sure that if he were serious he would want to come to see you.

Dear Molly I wouldn't put too much confidence in your soldier if I were you.

Merten Home Demonstration Club Has Program On The Constitution Of Texas

Merten Home Demonstration Club met recently in the home of Mrs. John Cornett.

Mrs. John Brandon presented the program on the constitution of Texas. There are three branches of the government, she told the women. They are the legislative branch, or law making; the executive, or law enforcing; and the judicial, or law interpreting.

In Texas, the legislative branch consists of the Senate and the House of Representatives, she explained. The executive branch consists of the governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, comptroller of public accounts, treasurer, superintendent of public instruction, commissioner of the general land office, commissioner of agriculture, three railroad commissioners, and various minor offices appointed by the governor.

The judicial branch consists of the Supreme Court and various inferior courts, she advised.

To be eligible for the office of representative, one must be 21 years of age, a male citizen of the United States, a qualified voter of Texas, and a resident of Texas for the two years preceding his election and a resident of his district for one year preceding election, Mrs. Brandon pointed out.

To be eligible for the office of governor, one must be a natural citizen of the United States, at least 30 years of age and must have resided in Texas at least five years immediately preceding election, she told the women.

To vote in Texas it is necessary to have a poll tax receipt tallied for that year, she explained.

Texas consists of 254 counties, Mrs. Brandon continued. Top salary of $8,500 is placed on County officers because the population is between 20,000 to 49,999 people. Members of the state legislature receive $25 per day for a maximum of 120 days.

Following the program, Mr. Jack Prather led the business session. The recreation period was under the direction of Mrs. Clyde Edmondson. Next meeting will be Tuesday in the home of Mrs. L. Watt.

Attending the meeting were Meses. Bob Brandon, V. Smith, Jack Prather, John Brandon, L. Watt, Clyde Edmondson, Arph Menses, John Cornett, Gussie were Meses. L. H. Simpson, F. C. Smith and H. F. McDonald.

Little Tricks Help In Mature Beauty

At an important hair style show the pretty, well-boned young models trotted out in rapid and glittering succession. But the model in the show who really caught gasp was one of New York's most popular mature models.

She went out in a very classic evening gown in rich blues and white, complete with a heavy, straight-lined bustle bow. Her carriage was so upright and graceful, her hair and the blue of the gown were so mutually complementary, her smile was so gracious that everyone was again astonished at the beauty of her maturity.

Her figure doesn't pretend to be the bony, small-chested variety of the young models.

This professional knows every trick to make the years past the thirties as beautiful as possible. But they are tricks anyone can use.

Her gown was blue, not black. Black is sophisticated looking on youthful coloring, but it drains the color from an older complexion.

Her hair, of course, was beautifully coiffed, but not in tight curls. Experts had arranged it in a soft, up off the face hair style that was flattering and youthful.

Oilers Win Hub Series; Ponies Here Tonight

Woods To Oppose Plainview Club

By BUCK FRANCIS
Pampa News Sports Editor

The league-leading Oilers came up with their second 10-game winner in as many nights last night when Red Dial hurled the Oilers to a 15-6 victory over the Lubbock Hubbers in the "rubber game" of a three-game series before 1,066 fans at Oiler Park.

The win hiked the Oiler lead to four full games over Plainview and Albuquerque who are currently tied for second place in the heated WT-NM League race.

And one of the two runners, Plainview, comes to town tonight to open a two-game series with the Oiler nine.

Buddy Woods, who sports a 5-4 record, has been nominated by Manager Grover Seitz to start for the Oilers in tonight's series opener.

Woods will be looking for his first win over Plainview. He has lost his only start against the Ponies.

For the second straight series, the Oilers will be facing a team with a brand new manager when the Ponies invade Oiler Park tonight.

Jackie Sullivan, who has been the Pony boss since Plainview became a member of the league three years ago, was given his walking papers yesterday.

Don Stokes, veteran rightfielder, has taken over the Pony reins on a temporary basis. Stokes will be furloughed until a manager can be found.

Lubbock, who has just dropped a series to the Oilers here, two games to one, were also playing under a new manager, Bobby Scott, who relieved Mike Curran as the Hub boss.

Tonight's game will start the third go-around in the West Texas-New Mexico League. All teams have now played each other in four series.

In the previous four Oiler-Pony series, the Oilers have won six games out of 10.

Last night's victory over the Hubbers gave the Oilers their biggest lead of the season, four games. The locals moved into the league lead May 29 and have held it since but never by four games.

The Oilers backed Dial with an 18-hit performance off two Hub pitchers, Fred Uniman and Bob McGhee, to easily win last night's game.

Nine of the 18 Oiler hits were of the extra base variety, three homers, two triples and four doubles.

Joe Fortin, Jim Martin and Dick Hairston clubbed the round-trippers. Rach Slider and Curtis Hardaway pounded the triples while Paul Halter, celebrating his 29th birthday, led the doubles parade with two. Others to hit doubles were Hairston and Sonny Tims.

Slider and Halter had perfect nights at the plate. Slider added a home run.

PLAINVIEW, Tex.—UP—Plainview's Jackie Sullivan became the second manager in two days to get his release from the helm of a West Texas-New Mexico League baseball club.

Sullivan, veteran minor league player and pilot, was notified by telephone Thursday night at Albuquerque by Plainview President Sam Langford that the 12-man board of directors had voted unanimously to give him his release.

Lubbock's manager, Mike Curran, was released Tuesday, with second baseman Bobby Scott replacing him temporarily.

The Plainview Ponies, currently in a second-place tie with Albuquerque, will be guided by Don Stokes until a new manager can be hired.

Sullivan was in his third season at the Plainview helm. The Ponies finished third in 1953 and sixth last year under his tutelage.

An eight-year veteran of the Class B circuit, Sullivan had managed the Ardmore, Okla., team of the Sooner State League and the Lubbock Hubbers for four years before going to Plainview.

Trabert 7-5 Choice Over Kurt Nielson

By ROBERT C. DOWSON
WIMBLEDON, England.—UP—Tony Trabert hoped to fulfill a pledge he made more than a year ago when he met Kurt Nielson of Denmark Friday in the men's singles final of the Wimbledon tennis championships.

Last year the crew-cut youth from Cincinnati, Ohio, quit calling in order to shoot for the Wimbledon crown and recognition as "the world's best amateur player."

However, he developed hand blisters during the 1954 championship and eventually bowed out in the semifinals.

In this year's net tournament, Trabert has waded through six opponents without the loss of a set. He has been playing some of the best tennis of his career and was a 7 to 5 choice to defeat the unseeded Nielson.

Friday's match could have a direct bearing on Trabert's tennis future. He has indicated he may turn professional after helping the United States defend the Davis Cup this year, but he knows he wouldn't be much of a drawing card in the play-for-pay ranks unless he owns the Wimbledon title.

Nielson gained the title round with a surprising victory over Australia's Ken Rosewall and would like nothing better than another participation in the kid baseball ranks.

There are others, I'm sure, but these are the ones of whom we know.

We admire these parents for the interest they show in their boys' participation in the kid baseball ranks.

Clay vs. Grass

Trabert has played and beaten Nielsen three times during their international wanderings, but those meetings were on clay courts while the Wimbledon championships are conducted on grass.

If the 24-year-old Ohio youth does get by Nielsen, he will become the seventh U. S. player to walk off with the Wimbledon men's crown in the last 10 years.

In the women's singles, Beverly Baker Fleitz of Long Beach, Calif., and three-time champion Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., marched into the finals Thursday.

Mrs. Fleitz upset top-seeded Doris Hart of Miami, Fla., 6-3, 6-0, and Miss Brough downed Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., 6-3, 8-6.

Doubles Matchings

In the men's doubles semifinals, Rosewall and Neale Fraser also sprung a surprise by turning back Trabert and Seixas, 6-2, 1-6, 6-1, 4-6, 6-3, while the Aussies' No. 1 team of Lew Had and Rex Hartman defeated teammates Mervyn Rose and George Worthington, 7-9, 6-4, 6-4, 2-6, 6-1.

Mrs. Fleitz was back in action Friday, teaming with Miss Hart in a semifinal doubles match against Britain's Shirley Bloomer and Pat Ward. The other match pitted Britainer Angela Mortimer and Ann Shilcock against Fay Muller and Jennifer Staley Hood of Australia.

Mrs. Hood also was active in the mixed doubles semifinals, teaming with her husband, Lew, against Seixas and Miss Hart, Mrs. Brough and Enrique Morea of Argentina were matched against Fraser and Beryl Penrose.

Giants Sign Tackle

NEW YORK (UP)—The New York Giants announced Friday they have signed Roosevelt Field, 260-pound former Penn State tackle, to his 1955 contract. Grier was the Giants' No. 3 draft choice last January.

Thursday's Star — Third string catcher Dixie Howell, whose sacrifice fly and sacrifice bunt figured vitally in Brooklyn's 11-1 inning 6 to 5 victory over the Giants.

Slugging Bums Use Bunting Tactics To Clip Giants, 6-5

By CARL LUNDQUIST
United Press Sports Writer

Home runs and extra base hits rattle off Brooklyn bats almost on an assembly line basis, but the humble little bunt, sneered at by sluggers, is as big a factor in the Dodger pennant runaway as any other.

In fact it would hardly be amiss to say that the Dodgers are bunting their way to the hunting.

In their shining 6 to 5 victory over the Giants in 11 innings Thursday, four bunts, each deftly delivered on the first pitch, meant more than a two-run homer by Willie Mays which looked as if it would win the game for the Giants in the 10th.

On each occasion the Dodgers were desperate — facing sudden death defeat. In the last of the ninth, trailing 3-2, after Sandy Amoros and Gil Hodges singled, Carl Furillo, who is not noted for his bunting ability, laid down a sacrifice on the first pitch.

Dixie Howell, rushed into the lineup for the first time this year because both Roy Campanella and Rube Walker were hurt, followed with a sacrifice fly that tied it up at 3-3.

After Al Dark singled and Mays hit his 20th homer and his third hit of the series to put New York in front, 5-3, in the 10th, the Dodgers again finessed themselves into a tie. Jim Gilliam led off with a bunt single which hogtied the Giant infield. Duke Snider tripled; him home of Jackie Robinson slapped down a perfect squeeze to the first base side to tie it at 5-5.

How the Bums Won

The winning rally was achieved in the 11th when Ramon Monzon, the first time this year because of Yoke's infield hit and scored on a single by Alex Gonzalez.

The Albuquerque Dukes slammed two Plainview hurlers for 20 hits and sent the Dukes into a second-place tie with the Ponies, Ted Shandor was the winner, giving up 10 hits in going the route.

Ken Harrington was the Plainview loser. Manager Eddie Bockman hit a solo homer for the Dukes, his 13th of the year, in the second inning.

Ablene and Clovis each got 11 hits, but the Pioneers made the most of theirs to gain the victory. John Warren hit a three-run double in the fifth for Clovis. Jim Lewis slammed a bases-loaded triple in the seventh to hand the loss to Ken Wade. Reuben Phillips gained credit for the Clovis triumph.

THE OILERS WILL BE AWAY over the July 4th weekend Sunday and Monday, but there'll be some baseball action on tap at Oiler Park those two days, nevertheless.

Sunday, the Cap Rock League All-Star game will be played in the local ball yard. Then on Monday, July 4th, the Pampa Black Oilers will meet Shamrock at Oiler Park.

Sunday's all-star game will bring the top semi-pro players of the Panhandle to Pampa.

Members of the Cap Rock League are Groom, Clarendon, Wheeler, Hedley, Rahl's of Amarillo and the Pampa Junior Oilers. They play some pretty good ball in this league and with the best of the crop appearing here Sunday, it will be worth your while to be on hand for the All-Star game.

The Black Oilers, who play here on the 4th, have come up with a good ball club. The local Negro team has won seven of its eight starts to date.

The Black Oilers chalked up a 4-3 win at Shamrock in their most recent start.

Ted Random, the Oiler groundskeeper, pitched the Black Oilers to the win over Shamrock. And he is slated for starting duty in the game here Monday.

THERE ARE SEVERAL brother combinations in the local kid baseball program. Little League, Pony League and Teen Age League, but Thursday probably was the biggest single day for any one family this season.

We're referring to the Duke family. George Duke, a 15-year old, is a member of the Spokesman team.

It isn't quite so bad for the mammas and papas of the Western LL-Pony League combinations since the parks of these two leagues are on the same lot, the two parks adjoining each other.

We've seen several parents jockeying back and forth from the Western LL Park to the Pony League when their sons were playing on the same day.

But for the parents of the Eastern LL-Pony combinations—the problem is a bit more severe as the Eastern and Pony parks are several blocks apart.

The ones we're noticed trying to watch two games at once when their sons were playing in the same time of different diamonds are the S. B. Haralson, parents of Randy of Utility Oil in the Western LL and Terry Joe of First National in the Pony; the F. A. Willies, parents of Dickie of the Yur Laundry in the Western LL and Gary of First National in the Pony; and the Ott Shewmakers, parents of Jim of Utility Oil in the Western LL and John of Elmer's Super Market in the Pony League.

There are others, I'm sure, but these are the ones of whom we know.

We admire these parents for the interest they show in their boys' participation in the kid baseball ranks.

Clay vs. Grass

Trabert has played and beaten Nielsen three times during their international wanderings, but those meetings were on clay courts while the Wimbledon championships are conducted on grass.

If the 24-year-old Ohio youth does get by Nielsen, he will become the seventh U. S. player to walk off with the Wimbledon men's crown in the last 10 years.

In the women's singles, Beverly Baker Fleitz of Long Beach, Calif., and three-time champion Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., marched into the finals Thursday.

Mrs. Fleitz upset top-seeded Doris Hart of Miami, Fla., 6-3, 6-0, and Miss Brough downed Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., 6-3, 8-6.

Bill For Military Funds For Next Year Approved

WASHINGTON —UP— Congress approved and sent to the White House Thursday a bill providing $31,882,815,726 to run the military establishment for a year starting Friday.

May Traffic Deaths Up

CHICAGO —UP— Traffic deaths in May were up for the third consecutive month this year, at least partly because of a "travel boom," The National Safety Council said Thursday.

In its regular monthly evaluation of traffic deaths, the council noted that the rise in deaths for May and the preceding two months reversed a downward trend which had held throughout 1954 and the first two months of 1955.

Only 18 states had fewer traffic deaths at the end of five months, 28 reported more deaths, and two no change. Those with reductions and the percentages they were down, included:

- Arizona, 30; New Mexico, 27; Minnesota, 16; Arkansas, 12; North Dakota, 10; Wyoming, 10; Oklahoma, 9; Oregon, 8; Colorado, 5; and Iowa, 2.

In five months the council said, 174 cities had reductions. Those with populations of more than 200,000 and the percentage decrease, included:

- Seattle, 70; Oklahoma City, 67; Long Beach, Calif., 45; St. Paul, Minn., 39; Memphis, Tenn., 35; Kansas City, 29; Milwaukee, 24; Dallas, 18; Oakland, Calif., 18; Minneapolis, 15; San Francisco, 3; Seattle, Cincinnati, and Oklahoma City, were the three largest of the 302 cities which reported perfect records for May. Only 113 cities still had perfect records in the first five months of the year, the largest being Berkeley, Calif., Lincoln, Neb., and Winston Salem, N.C.

Racial Ban Operating In Prisons

HOUSTON —UP— Five Latin American convicts jailed in Fort Bend county charged Thursday they were "suffering humiliation" because of racial segregation policy in Texas prisons.

The charges were made in a suit filed in the prisoners' behalf in federal court here by attorneys for Alianza Hispano-Americana of Tucson, Ariz.

The suit asks a federal court injunction against segregation. The convicts, now in Harlem Prison Farm No. 1, also ask $50,000 damages from O. B. Ellis, manager, and members of the prison system board.

The suit claims prison officials "have adopted and followed a common plan, design and practice of maintaining arbitrary, unreasonable and discriminatory segregation, exclusion and separation of prisoners" causing "grievous and special mental suffering and humiliation" to Latin American prisoners.

Ellis said all five of the convicts were serving 10-year terms, four of them for criminal assault. He said he would refer the whole matter to the state attorney general.

Paper Caps Banned
NEW ORLEANS —UP— State Fire Marshal Sidney S. Bowman warned retailers Tuesday not to sell any more paper "Davy Crockett" caps manufactured by a Pennsylvania firm. He said the caps were "highly flammable and dangerous."

Poison Death Probed In Oklahoma City

OKLAHOMA CITY —UP— J. C. Cobb, secretary member of the State Board of Pharmacy, said Thursday he is investigating the potassium cyanide death of an Oklahoma City woman and that the pharmacy board may discuss soon a regulation requiring that certain drugs be separated on pharmacy shelves.

Cobb said he is not ready to make a recommendation on the subject. However, he said the board has authority to require that poisonous drugs which are never combined with prescriptions to be taken internally be separated.

Cobb's investigation came as a result of the death of Mrs. Betty Jane McCann, 29, Oklahoma City, and the subsequent filing of first degree manslaughter charges against Mickey Pat Merrill, 27, for Connie Prescription Shops.

"Watching the Case"
"We are watching this case, more or less unofficially," Cobb said, "and I plan to investigate it today."

He said the board is granted authority by law to regulate the drug business in Oklahoma, and he believes the authority extends to requiring the separation of certain drugs.

Meanwhile, Merrill has been placed on vacation status by his employer, Connie Masterson. Masterson declined to state when the vacation started or when it would end.

The accused man is not filling prescriptions at this time. No Suspension Authority
Cobb said the pharmacy board has no authority to suspend or revoke Merrill's license to practice pharmacy until and unless a conviction is obtained.

The board, under state law, can take such action only after a druggist is convicted of violating a state drug law or is convicted of any felony.

He said Merrill's records show he made good grades on his state pharmacy examinations and that he has no black marks on the board's files.

Parting Of Red Sea Waters DeMille's Greatest Scene

By ALINE MOSBY
HOLLYWOOD — UP Director Cecil B. DeMille is parting the waters for the Red Sea for "the most spectacular scene in movie history" — but the spectacle turns out to be mostly camera magic. As film fans couldn't have escaped knowing by now, the 73-year-old DeMille is making what is billed as his greatest epic, "The Ten Commandments."

The "grand old man of movie spectacles" still can out-spectacular any director in town. So in his $5 million film he has included "the most powerful scene ever filmed," according to his publicity office.

This will show the Hebrews escaping through the Red Sea. According to the script taken from the Bible, God parts the waters and the Hebrews — thousands of extras in dark pancake makeup — cross on dry land. The villains, the Pharaoh's soldiers in horse-drawn chariots, gallop in hot pursuit. But the waters close and crash upon them.

Nearly the entire Paramount studio is being used for the gigantic film, and I finally found the stage where the Red Sea scenes were being shot. But the only sight was a bearded Charlton Heston (who plays Moses) and 150 extras standing on a plaster hill. DeMille barked orders and played sound effect of thunder just to get them in a frightened mood.

Most of the sequence, DeMille's assistant explains, will be made via trick photography and special effects that will take a year's work in the laboratory. DeMille calls the scene "as complicated as making an atom bomb" and he's also trying to keep it as secretive.

DeMille first photographed thousands of extras tramping over the sands of Egypt last October. Then he filmed close-ups to tie into those scenes. The swirling veil of water, the clouds and pillar of fire will be photographed separately and superimposed on the original film.

The water scenes are so complicated Paramount had to move next door to RKO for more room. The walls between the two studios are some RKO storage sheds which were torn down so Paramount could build a tank holding 300,000 gallons of water that will pour out in a fast two minutes.

This staggering scene involves three years of work and preparation and costs $1 million. Yet it will only last 10 minutes on the screen.

"When DeMille first made 'The Ten Commandments' in 1923, the water from the Red Sea scenes flooded Sunset Boulevard and the police arrived," one of his assistants said.

"This time we figured a way to divert the water back into the tank."

Three-Car Crash Kills 1, Hurts 3
SAN ANGELO, Tex. — UP Mrs. Maudie Franklin, 60, of Water Valley, Tex., was killed early Thursday and three other persons were injured in a three-car accident on the Big Spring highway.

The injured were Christian H. Snodgrass, 52, of Carlsbad, N.M., and two airmen from the Goodfellow Air Force Base, Sgt. Marion W. Loftus, 32, Vancouver, Wash., and T.Sgt. John M. Lesso, 24, of Mahanoy City, Pa.

Loftus was in-esteeal condition with a brain concussion and internal injuries; Lesso and Snodgrass were in fair condition. They suffered head injuries.

Investigators said the third car that figured in the accident just inside the city limits did not stop. They are seeking the driver.

Stabbed in Street Brawl
HOUSTON, June 25 — UP Leslie G. Chandler, 20, was stabbed to death early Saturday and two other men were wounded in what was described as a street brawl over a 14-year-old girl. Bobby C. Smith, 21, and Robert W. Crump, 21, were hospitalized with stab wounds.

BONN, Germany — UP — West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer Thursday turned down Russia's invitation to visit Moscow at this time to discuss Soviet-German relations.

But he agreed, in a note handed to the Soviet embassy in Paris, to discuss restoring normal relations between West Germany and Russia.

The chancellor's rejection of the invitation to visit Moscow came as a surprise. All previous indications had been that he would travel to the Soviet capital for a conference with heads of the Russian government.

Charge Filed In Waco Murder Case

WACO, Tex. — UP — Murder charges were filed Thursday against Bill Henderson, Negro witness in the Marion A. Washington murder trial, after he shot and killed another Negro in his motel room Wednesday night.

Henderson said he had received "about 100" threatening telephone calls after he testified against Washington, who received the death sentence for killing Airman Henry Poole as he defended his fiancée's honor on a lonely country road.

The shooting victim was identified as Troy Leroy Hancock. His body was found at the Cen-Tex motel in Henderson's room.

Others Threatened
In addition to Henderson, three other witnesses in the trial which closed Wednesday and District Attorney Tom Moore told police they had received threatening telephone calls.

Billy Jack Shrum and J. W. Stone, two men who gave unexpected testimony that tore down Washington's alibi that he was not in Waco on the day of the murder, reported to police they had been threatened. Mrs. Minnie Mae Hicks, Negro employed at the Cen-Texas motel, said she also had been threatened.

Moore said he was threatened on Tuesday morning before the opening day of the trial. He said a Negro man called him and asked him if Washington had been given the electric chair as yet.

Moore then said the Negro said: "The day he do you die."

Asks for NAACP Help
Moore has asked the local officials of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and all the Negro pastors in Waco to meet with him Thursday in an effort to stop the threatening telephone calls.

Meanwhile, Henderson was free on $1,500 bond.

First commercial telephone exchange in the United States was opened in New Haven, Conn., on Jan. 28, 1878.

The Good And Bad Of Week's News

By CHARLES M. McCANN
United Press Foreign Analyst
The week's good and bad news on the international balance sheet:

The Good
1. President Eisenhower made a statement in two speeches which showed his increasing optimism regarding the world political outlook. At Skowhegan, Maine, the President said that the aspirations of the American people toward freedom, the rights of the individual man and peace "are marching on toward achievement," even though slowly and tortuously. At his press conference in Washington Wednesday, the president said that he felt the chances for reducing world tensions at the Big Four "summit" meeting to be held in Geneva, Switzerland, had increased because of a changed attitude by Soviet Russia.

2. This apparently changed attitude by the Soviet government was shown after Russian fighter planes shot down a United States Navy patrol plane in international waters off Alaska, Russian Foreign Minister Vyacheslav M. Molotov, who was attending a United Nations anniversary meeting in San Francisco, at once expressed regret at the incident. He offered in behalf of the Soviet government to pay half the damage done to the American plane.

3. The troops of Premier Ngo Dinh Diem of southern Viet Nam in Indo-China drove forces of the rebel Hoa Hao sect across the border into Cambodia in one of the biggest victories of the small-scale civil war. The victory greatly strengthened the position of Diem, whom the United States supports. Diem's troops are reported now to be in control of all of southern Viet Nam.

The Bad
1. The West German Parliament gave a severe setback to Chancellor Konrad Adenauer when he presented the first of a series of bills to start re-armament. Members of all parties complained that Adenauer was "gagging" too much personal power over re-armament. They made it plain that they intended to revise the bill radically. Dispatches from Bonn, the West German capital, said that it was feared the attitude of the Bundestag — the lower house of parliament — might forestall a delay of at least two months in getting the re-armament program started.

2. Costly dock strikes tied up many ships at British and Belgian ports. They were symptomatic of labor unrest which threatens to plague key Western European countries for weeks if not months. Dock workers at northern British ports planned a "march on London" to emphasize their defiance of union back-to-work orders.

3. There was a flareup of fighting in the Formosa Strait, recently quiet. Chinese Communist jet fighter planes shot down a Chinese Nationalist jet training plane and riddled with bullets a Nationalist flying boat which had been chartered by American Army for a flight to the Matsu Islands off the Red-held mainland. There was speculation whether the Communists might be planning to try to cut the supply lines between Formosa, the Nationalist island stronghold, and the Nationalist-held coastal island groups of Matsu and Quemoy.
