Big Three Meet In US Next Week

By DONALD J. GONZALES
WASHINGTON, Sept. 24 —UP— American, British and French foreign ministers meet in New York early next week in a major effort to crack Russia's stiffening policies on world disarmament and German reunification.

The meeting assumed new importance in the wake of Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin's letter to President Eisenhower on the East-West disarmament deadlock. Administration officials believed Bulganin tried to pin the disarmament deadlock on the United States.

They also believe the Russians are shifting their diplomatic guns to the disarmament issue to cover up their opposition to German reunification at next month's Big Four meeting at Geneva.

Disarmament and German reunification head the agenda at the Oct. 27 foreign ministers' meeting with Russia. But diplomats are pessimistic that any progress could be made on the two issues. Best hope for progress centers on reducing East-West cultural and trade barriers.

Sleep Sickness Outbreak Hits Indiana Town

FORT BRANCH, Ind., Sept. 24 —UP— Townspeople and engineers battled swarms of mosquitoes Saturday as the death count here from "sleeping sickness" rose to seven.

"Cases" of the disease, a brain fever known technically as encephalitis, were reported from three southwestern Indiana counties and from one section across the Ohio River in Kentucky.

A check of health records revealed that two more persons have died of the disease. One victim listed previously, however, was found to have died of other causes.

At least 12 others were hospitalized, including three children. One person was reported in critical condition.

Believed Others Affected

Dr. Arnold Brockmole, acting director of the nearby Evansville-Vanderburgh county health department who issued the casualty figures, said he thought many mild cases of the disease were unreported.

A sore throat, he said, could be a mild form.

While professional exterminators sprayed marshes and ponds, health officials advised residents to brush house screens with insecticides in the battle against mosquitoes, believed to be carrier of the disease.

Officials also asked that rain barrels and other outdoor water receptacles be dumped out.

Outbreak Concentrated

The outbreak, reported belatedly Friday by the Indiana State Health Department, was concentrated in this small town of less than 2,000 population. Five of the dead were from Fort Branch as were three of the hospitalized.

Dr. Raymond C. Geick, who treated seven of the victims, said his patients first noticed severe headaches and ordinary "flu" symptoms, then experienced a rise in temperature and became irritable and lost consciousness. He said he knew of no cure for encephalitis.

The cases appear to be identical, he said, with those of a sleeping sickness epidemic that swept St. Louis in the 1930s.

D. D. EISENHOWER... has heart attack

Nixon Has No Plans To Go To Denver

By DEAN DITTMER
WASHINGTON, Sept. 24 —UP— Vice President Richard M. Nixon in case of President Eisenhower's death, has no immediate plans to go to Denver, his office said Saturday night.

His secretary said Nixon was informed of Mr. Eisenhower's mild coronary attack even before it was announced in Denver. He is being kept constantly informed of the President's condition.

There was no immediate comment from the vice president on the President's attack. Nixon attended a wedding reception for a member of his office staff Saturday afternoon but arranged to keep in touch with Denver.

Would Automatically Step Up

Nixon, 42-year-old former California senator and the GOP's top trouble-shooter during three years of Republican administration, would automatically become president with the death of the President.

Nixon and all of the members of the Cabinet are being informed of the President's condition by telephone from the summer White House in Denver.

Dorothy Cox, Nixon's secretary, said Nixon would not talk to reporters Saturday night. She said he had no plans to leave the city.

Rayburn Next in Line

Under the law, the next in line of succession after the vice president is the speaker of the House—in this case, Rep. Sam Rayburn, Texas Democrat.

Seven presidents have died in office. The last was Franklin D. Roosevelt who succumbed suddenly to cerebral hemorrhage at Warm Springs, Ga., on April 12, 1945.

President's Condition Reported Not Dangerous

By WARREN DUFFEE
DENVER —UP— President Eisenhower suffered a heart attack early Saturday and was taken to Fitzsimons Army hospital here for treatment but the temporary White House said prospects for his recovery were good.

Assistant White House Press Secretary Murray Snyder said the President was taken to the hospital about 12 hours after he suffered the first stages of a coronary thrombosis attack early Saturday. Mr. Eisenhower had suffered an attack of "mild indigestion" Friday evening.

Maj. Gen. Howard Mc C. Snyder, the President's White House physician, reported less than an hour after Mr. Eisenhower reached the hospital that the President had been comfortable since the first attack of pain and that the "prognosis is good."

Specialist En Route

Meanwhile, Col. Thomas W. Mattingly, a heart specialist at Walter Reed Army hospital in Washington, was flying here Saturday to attend the President. He was accompanied by White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerly.

The first announcement of Mr. Eisenhower's illness was made early Saturday when he failed to show up at his Lowry Air Force Base headquarters.

The assistant press secretary said then that the President was suffering from a "digestive upset," and later said that it was "indigestion."

The President was driven in his own automobile from the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. John S. Doud, to the hospital at about 2:35 p.m. sat Saturday.

At that time the temporary White House announced that the President had suffered a "mild coronary thrombosis."

The President walked from the Doud house to his car and when he arrived at the hospital, he walked into the building and was taken by elevator to the eighth floor. There he was assigned a private room. His first callers were Maj. Gen. Martin Griffin, commanding general of the big Army installation, and the Rev. Robert S. Lutz, pastor of the Corona Presbyterian Church in Denver where the President and Mrs. Eisenhower regularly attend services when they are here.

Stricken During Night

But at 4:45 p.m. sat, the press spokesman disclosed that the President had suffered a "mild coronary thrombosis." (See IKE, Page 3)

French Troops Kill 50 In Algiers Clash

ALGIERS, Algeria, Sept. 24 —UP— French troops and national police forces killed almost 50 black-clad members of the Algerian "National liberation army" and other rebels in clashes in the insurgent-infested Constantine department, army headquarters announced Saturday.

Across the border in Morocco tribal chiefs marched out of the hills to pledge their support to Sultan Mohammed Ben Moulay Arafa and to urge him to resist French efforts to ease him from his throne.

The fighting in Algeria highlighted developments in the past 24 hours in France's jittery North African holdings. The army headquarters said that security forces killed 10 known rebels and 11 "suspects" in two actions during the cleanup operations in Constantine.

A French army column in a fight with units of "National liberation army" near the village of Me-Hatt, outside El Milia, killed 10 rebel soldiers, the report said. One French trooper was wounded and some rebel rifles captured.

In the second action reported forces near Gounod fired on a group of rebel suspects who "tried to escape" at a check point. Eleven Algerians were killed.

In a running fight late Friday a group of rebels was almost annihilated in the craggy Nomenthas Mountains. The army listed 21 insurgents dead and one captured in the battle.

Reports from Rabat, capital of the protectorate of Morocco, told of tribal chiefs coming down from the mountains in an attempt to persuade Sultan Ben Arafa to continue his "divine" mission.

The French sent Resident-General Pierre Boyer de la Tour to Rabat to try to persuade the sultan to step down in favor of a throne council. This is the cornerstone of the French peace plan for Morocco. However, the French have pledged themselves not to use force to accomplish their goal.

Pampa Gets 2nd Day Of Rain

Rain fell in the Pampa area for the second straight day Saturday.

Slow, drizzling showers soaked parched fields and pastures as summer ended on a brighter note for farmers and ranchers.

Official measurements were not available late Saturday but the Pampa News unofficial measurement of rainfall for Saturday was an estimated 2.3 inches.

The rainfall halted work on Pampa's paving projects and caused motorists and shoppers some trouble with complaints coming from cars stuck in the mud on unpaved streets and soaked clothes.

City Commission Agenda Is Light

The city commissioners will have a light agenda before them for their meeting Tuesday morning in the commission room of city hall, City Manager Fred Brook reported yesterday.

The commissioners will hear the second reading of ordinance No. 104, which has to do with paving proposed for Decatur, Florida, Kingsmill and Craven streets.

Other than the reading of the ordinance, the commissioners will have only routine business before them.

Peron Fanatics Battle Argentina's Rebels

By WILLIAM H. McCALL
BUENOS AIRES, Sept. 24 —UP— Troops with orders to shoot rioters on sight blocked off Rosario, Argentina's second largest city, Saturday and battled Peronist fanatics in its suburbs.

The new national government, pledged to a "regime of law" rushed in an infantry regiment to reinforce troops already in the city.

Officials reported 15 persons dead and 35 wounded in the central districts of Rosario during the last three days. At least seven civilians were reported dead in similar disorders in Cordoba and others were reported in Avellaneda, a suburb of Buenos Aires.

One flareup occurred in Buenos Aires, itself. Shocktroopers of the fanatically pro-Peron Alianza Nacionalista Libertadora occupied the Alsea publishing building, tallest in Buenos Aires, facing the north basin of the harbor. A strong force of police, packing automatic weapons, surrounded the building and ordered the Peronists to surrender, and they fled out without a fight. Otherwise, the city was quiet and in festive mood after the inauguration of Maj. Gen. Eduardo Lonardi Friday as provisional president of a government based on a return to just laws after nine years of dictatorship under ousted President Juan D. Peron.

The official Chilean newspaper, La Nacion in Santiago, meanwhile, quoted Lonardi in an interview as saying Peron, now aboard a gunboat in Buenos Aires harbor, had been granted a safe conduct pass to go into exile.

"The provisional government is not interested in Peron's person," the newspaper quoted Lonardi. "History will give the final verdict."

Solons Check Mishandling Of Surplus

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24 —UP— Senate investigators are checking reports the military has been selling good equipment as surplus and then spending heavily to buy replacements.

The Senate preparedness subcommittee wants to know whether the taxpayers' money is being wasted and whether "the left hand of the armed services knows what the right is doing."

Informed sources revealed Saturday that the subcommittee staff already has been looking into the problem for some time as part of a broad study of the defense program.

They said the group, headed by Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, opened the inquiry after hearing of several alleged instances in which the military ordered new supplies while it was selling the same items as surplus.

To evaluate these reports, subcommittee sources said, investigators have been checking military procurement records against surplus sales. Checks also are being made against military equipment.

New Argentine Government Will Be Anti-Red

EDITORS: What attitude will the new government of Argentina take toward religion? Toward freedom of press and speech? Toward the United States? Those and other questions are answered in the following dispatch. The writer for 12 years was United Press vice president for South America with headquarters in Buenos Aires. He recently reported to U.E. world headquarters in New York as vice president and assistant general manager.

By THOMAS R. CURRAN
United Press Staff Correspondent

Signs are that the new government of Argentina will be devoutly Catholic, Democratic and anti-Communist. But it also will be anti-American.

The provisional president, Gen. Eduardo Lonardi, hasn't yet picked his cabinet. He has already announced, however, that it would be largely composed of civilians. Those civilians will be picked from the parties opposing Peron and all of them have felt for some time past that Uncle Sam was playing footsy with the Argentine dictator.

I talked to the civilian revolutionary leaders in Uruguay only last month. At that time they were unanimous in their feeling that the U.S. State Department was propping the tottering house of Peronism. Those are the men who will form the civilian backbone of the new government.

Lost Support of Labor

One thing the successful revolt revealed was that Peron had lost the support of:

1. The majority of the workers,
2. The women of Argentina. They are devoutly Catholic and they broke away from Peron last November when he started his campaign against the Catholic church. They were horrified when Peron's strong-arm squads sacked and burned churches in downtown Buenos Aires on the night of June 16.
3. For years Peron ranted from his balcony and in the controlled press about "Yankee imperialism." Repeatedly he accused Wall Street of engineering an "economic blockade" against Argentina. Just four years ago things were so bad that one high official from Washington said privately in Buenos Aires: "You could make a good case that all American business ought to get out of Argentina as fast as possible." Peron's feud with the United States—which a conciliatory $125 million U.S. loan in 1951 didn't stop—reached its peak in May of 1953. At that time he opened congress with an angry tirade against the United States and the American news agencies. He blamed the U.S. press associations for his troubles.
4. Change After Eisenhower

All this was changed after the visit of Dr. Milton Eisenhower. Although Dr. Eisenhower because of the apparent ill-will of the Argentine dictator planned to spend only a brief week-end in Buenos Aires, Peron swarmed all over him. He took him to the prize fights the first night and to the big soccer football match the next afternoon. In all Peron spent 12 hours and 15 minutes with Dr. Eisenhower—more than all other South American presidents combined.

Peron brooded and then went out to the airport to see Dr. Eisenhower off—something no other South American president had done since such courtesies are due the president of a country, not the President's relatives. Then ensued a "honeymoon period" between Peron and the State Department which led one observer to inquire: "Who's the bride and who's the groom?"

The anti-Yankee campaign in the official press was turned off as if (See ARGENTINE, Page 3)

Attorney To Appeal Case

WACO, Tex. —UP— Attorney for Raymond F. McGowan indicated Saturday he would appeal the horse trainer's five-year prison sentence only as a formality, so McGowan will have 90 days to straighten out his affairs before going to the penitentiary.

A jury of 11 men and one woman Friday night found the 49-year-old Dallas man guilty of shooting his wife in a Waco motel room.

District Judge D. W. Bartlett said he would sentence McGowan "some time next week." The sentence will be five years for murder with malice aforethought, Bartlett said.

Judge Bartlett said he would overrule any motion for a new trial. He added that defense attorney Charles W. Tessmer of Dallas indicated he would file notice of appeal and make whatever appeal bond Bartlett sets so his client will have 90 days of freedom. When that time expires, McGowan will begin serving his term if there are no changes in plans.

At the same time, District Attorney Tom Moore Jr. said Saturday he does not plan to try McGowan on a second indictment charging him with murdering Bobby Royce Darby, 21, of Arlington, who was killed in the motel room with Mr. McGowan.

McGowan shot his beautiful, blonde 27-year-old estranged wife, Polly, a well-known rodeo performer and trick rider, and Darby, one of her riding students, in the motel room July 10.

Rail Hearing Scheduled

AUSTIN —UP— Hearing on application by the Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railway to discontinue four passenger trains two a day between Dallas and San Antonio and two between Fort Worth and Denison, will be held Oct. 4 at Waco. It was announced Saturday.

C. F. Petet, railroad commission examiner, said he expected the Waco courthouse hearing to be a large one.

"We've sent notices to mayors of all the towns affected and the members of commerce. Where they didn't have a mayor or a chamber of commerce, we sent a notice to the post office," he said. The railroad, Petet said, calls its request a "consolidation" with operations of its crack Texas Special.

However, he said granting of the application will result in discontinuance of four trains.

Petet said the Katy now operates two daylight trains a day each way between Fort Worth and Denison. He said the railroad wants to discontinue operation of one train, leaving one that would connect with the Texas Special.

The Dallas-San Antonio train — which makes one trip each way each day — was identified as "the slow day train" that follows the Texas Special. The Katy proposes to eliminate that service, leaving the Texas Special, Petet said.

Export Of American Breeding Cattle Reaches High Figure

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24 —UP— American breeding cattle are moving to foreign pastures in numbers fast approaching the post World War II record of 1956, an Agriculture Department expert said Saturday.

C. S. Stephanides, foreign agricultural service economist, described the move as the third "great intercontinental movement" in the past 10 years. And he said it is "gaining speed."

Foreign countries are demanding breeding cattle to improve and increase their stock. More than 30 foreign countries — from Canada to Yugoslavia — are now importing U.S. cattle under the improvement programs.

In the current issue of the department's "foreign agriculture" magazine, Stephanides notes that American breeders exported 17,400 cattle last year. That is 6,700 more than 1953 and the highest since 29,347 in 1946, Stephanides sees no let-up.

Started in 1946 Stephanides cited the 1946 high as the first phase of the current movement. Private, national and international agencies helped rebuild the livestock population of war-devastated Europe. Then came shipments under technical cooperation programs.

Livestock has been on the move within continents for centuries. Cattle traditionally formed part of the spoils of war — with Alexander the Great carrying off some from India.

Stephanides says it may well be that today's Brown Swiss cattle are remote descendants of those Alexander captured. If so, one of the shiploads of U.S. Brown Swiss which in recent months ferried the Bosphorus toward Asia, were in a way completing an ancient circle.

While many cattle of all types are going to eastern countries, last year's biggest purchaser was Venezuela.

Revolving Fund Started — Some 4,749 American cattle went to the South American country. The Venezuelan government has set up a revolving fund to finance the annual purchase of 5,000 head of registered Brahman cattle from the United States, with the cattle resold to Venezuelan farmers at cost.

Colombia also was a big exporter last year. It allows a special tax exemption on such imports. Stephanides pointed out some difficulties in shipping cattle — animals are not too fat; young animals are easier to handle than old; ideal shipping times are early fall and spring. Therefore he suggests American breeding associations might furnish government representatives abroad the location of breeders in the United States; the availability of various breeds for export and cost of transportation and handling.

Benson Defends Agriculture — Other farm front developments: Benson — In a squeeze between falling farm prices and nervous politicians, Secretary Ezra T. Benson this week lashed out at wage raises and profit increases which he said have been "siphoned" from the economy at the expense of Agriculture. He said constantly widening margins have prevented consumers from enjoying food savings and denied markets to farmers.

Feed — Despite drought losses, 1955-56 feed supplies will be the largest on record, USDA economists predict a record large carry-over of more than 40 million tons.

Barter — The Agriculture Department bartered $282 million worth of American farm products for strategic and other stockpile materials during fiscal 1955.

Drought — The Agriculture Department extended for "an indefinite period" the designation of 145 drought-hit counties in Colorado, Kansas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Texas and Wyoming as emergency loan areas.

Weekly Grain Roundup

FORT WORTH —UP— USDA — $1.56 for No. 2 yellow.

Weekly grain: Slow trading and steady to slightly stronger prices ruled southwest cash grain markets this week.

The Agricultural Marketing Service said in its Friday through Friday grain review that based on wholesale carlots, Texas common freight rate points, oats advanced 2 to 4¢ a bushel, corn 1¢ and wheat 3-4¢ a bushel.

Barley was steady to 2¢ a bushel higher and milo was steady to 3¢ per 100 pounds higher than Friday a week ago.

Offerings of corn were light this week since harvesting of the Texas crop is almost finished. Demand continued fairly good with prices closing Friday at $1.56 to $1.61 for No. 2 white and $1.51 to hard wheat held steady. Prices stood at $1.93 a bushel at Guyton and Hooker, at $2.02, Blackwell, Lawton and Medford, $2.03 at El Reno, Enid and Oklahoma City, and $2.04 at Bison and Hennessey. Milo ranged from $1.53 at Guyton to $1.80 at Oklahoma City.

HONOLULU, T. H. —UP— Walter A. Rickett, American student released last week by the Communist Chinese, arrived on American soil for the first time in seven years and said emphatically, "I am not pro-Communist."

CRAWFORD ROLE — Broderick Crawford, as a wise pathologist, addresses a class of med students on the importance of their future. Scene is from Stanley Kramer's "Not As A Stranger," which opened today at the LaNora Theatre through United Artists release.

Not As Stranger Opens At LaNora

"Not As A Stranger," opening Sunday at the LaNora Theatre through United Artists release, is a screen adaptation of one of the best-selling novels of all time. Morton Thompson's 948 page book dealing with the loves, the aspirations, the heartaches and the triumphs of a doctor, has been read by an estimated four million people, and it's still selling at a tremendous rate.

Stanley Kramer, who produced "Not As A Stranger," also makes his debut as director. The stars of the picture are Olivia de Havilland, Robert Mitchum, Frank Sinatra, Gloria Grahame, Broderick Crawford and Charles Bickford. The large featured cast is headed by Myron McCormick, Lon Chaney, Jesse White, Harry Morgan, Lee Marvin, Whit Bissell and Mac Clarke.

The enormous task of reducing the sprawling, incident-teeming pages of Thompson's novel to a viable form and length for the screen was performed by the script-writing team of Edna and Edward Anhalt. The musical score was composed and conducted by George Antheil. The director of photography was Franz Planer, A.S.C.

Lucas Marsh, the dedicated, bearded doctor hero of "Not As A Stranger" is played by Bob Mitchum, Mitchum, currently a freelance actor, is under contract to a single studio for ten years, is taking advantage of his new freedom to pick and choose only those parts he wishes to play. "But," he says grinning, "I didn't choose the Lucas Marsh part. Like every other leading man in Hollywood, I went chasing after it!"

Almost as much of a moot matter in the public mind as the choice of actor to play Lucas, was that of the actress for the role of Kristina Hedvigson, the efficient but poignant operating room nurse who is first Lucas' girl-friend, then his self-sacrificing wife. Olivia de Havilland, twice an Oscar winner, was selected to almost unanimous approval by the public. For the role, the brunette Olivia dyed her hair blonde and spent weeks mastering the Minnesota-Swedish accent with which Kristina is endowed in the book.

Frank Sinatra, who has stopped occasioning surprise over the fact that he is a first-rate dramatic actor since his brilliant Oscar-winning performance in "From Here To Eternity" was followed by an equally brilliant portrayal of a maniacal killer in "Suddenly," plays the role of Dr. Alfred Boone, Lucas' best friend.

Brook Crawford another Oscar winner, makes one of his rare excursions into a sympathetic role as the gruff, understanding pathologist, Dr. Aaron, in "Not As A Stranger." Charles Bickford, one of the most-sought-after veterans on the Hollywood scene, plays the role of Dr. Runkleman, the small-town general practitioner.

Of the stars, Gloria Grahame is the only one who does not play a medical role. The sexy Gloria plays the part of Harriet Lang, the rich, lonely, man-hungry girl in whose arms Lucas briefly forgets the cares that beset a fledgling doctor.

AMBITIOUS — Not content with winning the "Azur Coast" beauty contest, Maryse Fabre is after the "Miss France" title. The 19-year-old secretary from Marseille is five feet eight and has a 22-inch waistline. Other statistics are not available, but it looks like Maryse measures up to all the requirements.

All-Woman Jury
The colonial trial of Judith "Catchpole," who was charged with infanticide, is remembered in American history because the jury was composed entirely of women. It was the first all-woman jury in the New World.

Largest Tusks
Tusks of a large African bull elephant often will weigh 80 pounds each. One tusk is known to weigh 200 pounds and is eight inches thick, 11 feet long.

Suit For Space Flight Must Be Made Of Asphalt

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
WASHINGTON — UP — I just returned from a refining plant, where I placed an order for a suit that could be worn in the first flight into space. For delivery, if the measurements don't change, when and if.

It won't be tweedy. It will be covered with asphalt, including the padded belly and shoulders. My selection was simple. Jet black — the only color available.

This isn't as silly as it sounds. I dropped in at the Asphalt Institute, which is operating a workshop on the University of Maryland campus. There was Dr. S.F. Singer of the school, one of the pioneers of earth satellite research. The pattern I looked at the good doctor warned, could not be worn in polite society. Things like the White House press correspondents' shindig. The suit isn't pretty and it certainly isn't very formal. No black tie. No tie at all.

According to Bud Harvey, the institute's own space chaser, Kerose and paraffin simply are derivatives of the same petroleum refining process that produces asphalt. That goes way back.

But Harvey is a realist. And he said:

"What's more logical than impregnating clothing with asphalt? The Egyptians used to wrap their mummies in asphalt — impregnated cloth to preserve their dead. Naturally, the word 'asphalt' hadn't been invented then, but it is the same thing. Maybe we'll be preserving the living the same way one day."

This poses an interesting look into the future. Can't you just see a long line of living mummies lined up at the window of X-airlines at the airport? Waiting to climb aboard the 5:15 Venusian?

According to the asphalt people, asphalt, by whatever name, was the world's first cement. It was used as mortar in the making of the Tower of Babel, and the walls of Jericho, even. So it is said.

But whatever, it resists the elements. That much has been proved. Today, the Asphalt Institute says, the stuff covers nearly 750,000 of the 920,000 miles of smooth paved roads in the country. That includes 118 miles of the world's busiest highway, the New Jersey turnpike.

If it's good enough for the big pike it ought to make a fine suit for soaring into the unknown. Although it might weigh a man down and force him to be crane-lifted into a bucket seat.

The Jersey pike doesn't even groan under the load of 65,000 vehicles a day, and that includes a lot of loaded buses and heavy trailer trucks.

The idea of the asphalt was the brain-child of John Loudon McAdams, a Scotsman who gave birth to an idea in the early 1800's. He thought it was silly to dig a ditch and cover it with cobblestones. He figured the good earth was fine enough — if you kept the ground solid. Put a little asphalt mix on top to fend off the weather.

Well, when I get ready to run off into space, I'll let you know. And I'll be dressed for the occasion. What's good enough for the Jersey pike is good enough for me.

Gold was discovered in California on Jan. 24, 1848.

Galveston's Open Bars Closed Saturday Morning

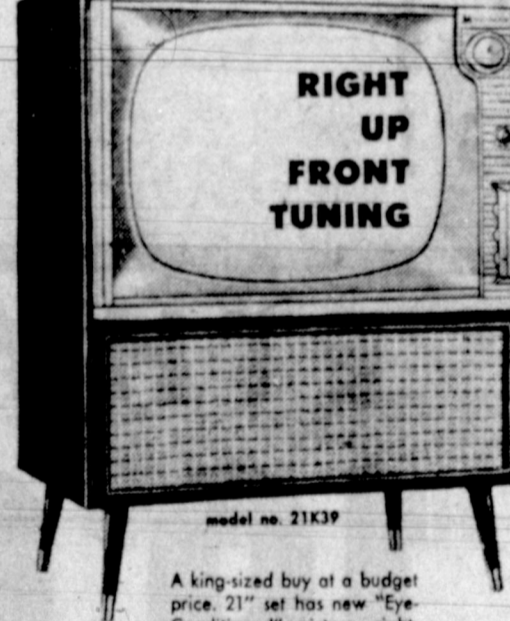

GALVESTON-UP—Open bars, long a trademark of this Texas island resort city which has gained national fame as a mecca of vice, were closed en masse at 4 a. m. Saturday. And a warning went out from Police and Fire Commissioner Walter Johnston that gamblers and prostitutes "had better follow suit." The order apparently marked the end of an era, because the crackdown was ordered by businessmen, who in the past contended, along with newly-elected Mayor George Roy Clough, that the life of the city depended on Galveston being "open." Texas law forbids gambling and liquor by the drink. The crackdown in Galveston, which long has defied state law, followed a meeting Friday of chamber of commerce directors, 32 top island business leaders and Mayor Clough over "unfavorable" national publicity. Businessmen Fed Up Clough, a radio station owner elected mayor last May, campaigned for an "open but clean" town. Businessmen lately have complained that Galveston's vice was scaring away tourists instead of drawing them to the island. They also said it attracted "unsavory" characters. The business leaders left no doubt they wanted a complete about-face and issued an ultimatum demanding an end to the alleged "lawlessness" dating back almost to the freebooting days of pirate Jean Lafitte. "Over the years," the resolution said, "a situation has developed whereby a general feeling seems to have been born that Galveston is separated from the mainland and therefore is a law unto itself. "We will no longer tolerate... There has been a growing trend established by our officials of closing their eyes to violations of state and federal laws. Such a policy can culminate only in the complete breakdown of law and order in a community with the inevitable results that the lawlessness and deterioration of morals which follow affect the community as a whole. "We will no longer tolerate such a course. "We feel most strongly that every step must be taken to carry out and enforce the law... to put an end to the open flaunting of laws... and to further the ideal of making Galveston a law-abiding, reputable and safe community." The shutdown followed, with Commissioner Johnston setting the 6 a. m. deadline Saturday for shutting down all vice in the city. "Just Watch Results" "The resolution contains profound thinking," said Johnston. "I most emphatically intend to enforce the law as required in the resolution. Don't ask me to show my hand. Just watch the results." "I have never seen the businessmen of Galveston so strongly united on any one issue," Clough said.

do" with the shutdown. He said law enforcement was not his job. Friday night, an assistant district attorney and a special law investigator rounded up and arrested 13 prostitutes and five juveniles in three Texas City bawdyhouses on the Galveston county mainland but Johnston denied that this was connected with the shutdown on the island. Clough said he had "nothing to

Pampa News Sports Editor

WITH THIS EDITION we're winding up three years and four months of writing sports in this friendly city of Pampa.

It is with regret that we leave the Top of Texas. My wife, Joyce, I and the kiddoes (Deena, Bruce and Glenn) had all fallen in love with Pampa and we had intentions of making the Top of Texas our home for several more years.

We had even hoped that our two sons would some day be wearing the Green and Gold of Pampa High School although their ages are only four and two.

Looking back over the few years we've been here, we can say there's never been a dull moment since taking up residence in the Top of Texas.

What more could a sports scribe ask for than three district and bi-district champions in basketball plus two state champions in the cage sport and two pennants in the West Texas-New Mexico League in less than four years time?

Then the football teams at PHS have also brought a lot of thrills our way even though district champions have escaped their throats.

We can't recall many instances that gave us more of a thrill than this Harvester football team.

Porkers Use Breaks To Down Aggies

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 24.—UP—Arkansas capitalized on the breaks and the crushing fullback plunges of Henry Moore to defeat Oklahoma A&M 21-0 here Saturday night.

The Razorbacks, looking like a new edition of the determined Oklahoma Sooners, who won the Southwest Conference crown last year, scored twice for touchdowns in each of the first three periods to the cheers of a partisan crowd of 30,000.

But the Porkers had a difficult time stopping the inspired play of Aggie back Harvey Romans who juggled the ball 180 yards in 17 carries.

Recovery of a fumble and an intercepted pass set up two of the Arkansas scores.

Recovers Fumble
Tackle Bill Fuller recovered a Cowboy fumble on the Aggie 32-yard line when the game was three minutes old. Moore broke through center for eight yards, hauled over right guard to the Aggie 10, and then plunged to the five. Joe Thomson passed to Ted Soutter for the touchdown. George Walker converted.

Epiphore quarterback Don Christian intercepted a pass on the Arkansas 30 in the second period and returned it 22 yards to the Aggie 48-yard line. Christian shook loose for another 14 yards, and then passed to Gerald Nesbitt for the score.

Again Walker converted.
Score by periods:
Arkansas 7 7 7 0—21
Oklahoma A&M 0 0 0 0—0

Texas Takes To Airlines To Whip Wave

By LLOYD LARRABEE
AUSTIN, Sept. 24.—UP—Substitute quarterback Joe Clements staged a dazzling aerial exhibition Saturday night, pitching three touchdown passes and scoring one marker himself, to lead Texas to a 35-21 victory over Tulane before 30,000 fans.

Clements, a 175-pound sophomore, completed 17 passes out of 22 attempts to roll up a total of 215 yards in the air, as Texas scored in every period, including two successful fourth-quarter drives.

The 6-foot, 3-inch quarterback, moved up to the second string only this week, completed a series of eight straight passes in one string in one of the hottest aerial demonstrations ever seen in Memorial Stadium.

Match Touchdowns
Tulane matched Texas touchdown until halftime, when the score was tied 14-14, but Clements proved too much for the Green Wave in the last half.

Quarterback Walter Fondren raced 16 yards to score Texas' first marker late in the opening period, but Tulane bounced back with a 66-yard march that saw fullback Tommy Quillian plunge over from the 1.

Clements, a 19-year-old lad from Huntsville, Tex., sparked the second Texas drive in the second period, clinching it with a three-yard pass to halfback Ed Hawkins.

Tulane Evans Score
Tulane evaded the score as quarterback Gene Newton passed 24 yards to halfback Otis Gilmore.

But the Green Wave yielded the ball five times to Texas on fumbles in the second half, and that was all Clements needed. In his eight-straight completion drive, he accounted for 99 yards.

Clements bounced over from the 1 at the end of a 51-yard drive, and Texas was never headed. Clements provided the impetus for two fourth-quarter scoring drives, passing 32 yards to end Menan Schriener for one, and a one-yard scoring pass to Fondren.

Score in Closing Seconds
Tulane wound up the scoring with only 25 seconds left in the game when substitute fullback Wayne Dugas raced five yards.

Halfback Joe Youngblood kicked five successive point-after tries, and Tulane tackle Emmie Zelenka converted three times.

Texas rolled up a total of 223 yards in the air and 119 on the ground, while Tulane picked up 119 yards passing and 149 rushing.

Score by periods:
Texas 7 7 7 13—34
Tulane 7 7 0 7—21
Texas scoring: Touchdowns, Fondren 2 (14, run); 1, pass from Clements; Clements (1, plunge), Hawkins (3, pass from Clements), Schriener (32, pass-run from Clements) Conversions, Youngblood.

HARVESTER TALLY

Dickie Mauldin, Harvester halfback, evades the final enemy tackler enroute to a 24-yard touchdown gallop Friday night against the Vernon Lions at Harvester Stadium. The TD, which climaxed a 59-yard drive, gave the Harvesters a 13-0 lead early in the third quarter. Vernon, however, battled back to pull the game out of the fire, 14-13.

Oilers Drop 3rd Straight In Little Dixie Series, 5 to 2

CORPUS CHRISTI, Sept. 24 (Special)—The Corpus Christi Clippers got but four hits but turned them into five runs to beat the Pampa Oilers, 5-2, in the third game of the Little Dixie Series here last night, giving the Clippers a 2-0 series lead.

Four unearned runs in the second inning of Tom Pollet made the difference as Pampa outbit the Clippers, 7-4. Neither power packed lineup managed an extra base hit in the ball game.

Corpus Christi picked up a run in the first on a single and three straight walks. They got the deciding runs in the second inning after two were out. With men on first and third, shortstop Rach Slider bobbled an easy grounder.

Dean Stafford and Keith Little followed with singles that scored three runs.

The Clippers couldn't get another hit off Pollet the rest of the way.

In the seventh, Clipper pitcher Bill Toshie tired and was replaced by Rene Vega. The Oilers came up with two runs but careless baselining nipped the rally.

Clipper double plays in the eighth and ninth innings killed two more Pampa threats.

Red Dial will go against Larry Burgess in the fourth game here Sunday night.

Rice Overpowers Alabama, 20-0

By JOHN COLTON
HOUSTON, Sept. 24.—UP—Rice Institute was held scoreless for three periods Saturday night but a second-string quarterback sprung the lock and the Owls exploded for three touchdowns to down Alabama 20-0 in the season opener.

King Hill, a 19-year-old sophomore from Freeport, Tex., scored twice in the final period, and Owl veteran halfback Page Rogers raced 11, 32 and 45 yards to charge over for the third Rice score.

Hill, quarterbacking the Rice second unit, carried for gains of 14 and eight yards and passed to back David Kelley for 14 before diving over from the Alabama one for his first tally. He went over from the Alabama one again in the last minute of play after fullback Jack Throckmorton raced 25 yards.

Throckmorton was brought down on the Alabama one by guard Don Connor but Hill went over on the next play.

Rice's all veteran squad found surprising strength in the sophomore-loaded team inaugurating Coach J. B. (Ears) Whitworth. Whitworth's line, averaging 203 pounds, consistently outcharged the heavier Rice line, with outstanding performances by end Dan Coyle, guard Jim Cunningham, center Knute Rockne Christian, and tackle Doug Potts.

Rice actually scored two more touchdowns but both were disallowed. Offside play called back the first tally, a 10-yard aerial Habet to end Marshall Crawford in the second period. Hill teamed up with Kelley for the second disallowed score. The ball was ruled dead after Hill lateral to Kelley for a run around the Alabama left end.

Spartans Eke By Hoosiers, 20-13

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Sept. 24.—UP—Michigan State's young Spartans, masterminded by veteran quarterback Earl Morrall and fullback Jerry Pflum, overwhelmed Indiana Saturday 20 to 13 to assume the lead in the Big 10 title chase before 22,000 fans and a regional television audience.

Coach Duffy Daugherty's boys struck twice as quick as lightning in the second period and once more in the third stanza, then sat back to ride out the game.

Alabama Drives Stall
Alabama playing hard was unable to enter Rice territory with ground drives in the first half of the game but Bart Starr got going in the third with passes to speedy halfback Osbie Linville Starr's effort was short lived, however. He had to leave the game with a hurt ankle.

Rice gained 304 net yards rushing to Alabama's 96 and added 49 yards on 12 passes to Alabama's 22 on Starr's two aerial attempts.

Score by periods:

Raider Offense Machine Stopped

LUBBOCK, Tex., Sept. 24.—UP—Speedy Jimmy Swink scored on a 69-yard run and sprinted over for two more touchdowns Saturday to lead Texas Christian University to a 32-0 victory over Texas Tech. A crowd of 28,000 fans braved intermittent rain to see the game.

Swink capped a 64-yard march with a three-yard touchdown plunge the second time the Horned Frogs held the ball and the Red Raiders were on their way to defeat. Swink scored twice in the second quarter and kicked an extra point.

Other TCU touchdowns were by halfback Ray Taylor, who snared a Tech pass and raced 24 yards halfway through the second quarter, and by fullback Harold Pollard, who capped a 51-yard drive with a two-yard run. Pollard added TCU's other conversion.

One-Sided Affair
So one-sided was the game that the Raiders didn't get a first down until 10:13 of the third quarter and managed only three during the entire game. The Raiders were in TCU territory only once, early in fourth to the 37.

TCU completely dominated the game from the start. The Frogs' magnificent line smothered every Raider offensive and opened up gaping holes for a bevy of fleet backs.

Tech stopped the first Frog thrust, a drive that ended on the Raider three, but the Frogs marched 64 yards on 10 plays for their initial tally. A quarterback Chuck Curtis to Taylor screen pass ate up 31 yards and a roughing penalty moved the ball to the Tech 1. TCU was offside but two plays later Swink crashed into the end zone.

A fumble by Tech quarterback Buddy Hill late in the quarter was recovered by TCU on the Tech 32. TCU drove to the 10 as the quarter ended and on the third play of the new period, Swink went over tackle for four yards and the touchdown. Pollard converted.

After the kickoff, TCU held and took over on its own 39 following halfback Don Schmidt's punt. On the second play, Swink broke around right end and behind brilliant blocking tight-roped the side-

Tech Tries Passes
Quarterback Jack Kirkpatrick tried to pass Tech into contention, but Taylor leaped up to spear his aerial on the Raider 24 and romped over easily. Swink converted.

That was all the scoring until the fourth quarter when the Frogs, showing no mercy, marched 61 yards on seven plays, with Swink sparking the drive on a 22-yard sprint around right end. Given a first down on the Tech 2, it took only two plays for Pollard to plunge into the end zone.

The Frogs dominated the statistics as much as they did the scoring; they had 21 first downs to three and rolled up 374 yards rushing to a net of five for Tech. The Raiders didn't complete a single pass, while the Frogs had three of 10 for 56 yards.

Alert Bears Grind Out 19-2 Win Over Villanova

By JOHN GAUDIOSI
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 24.—UP—Baylor made alertness pay off three times Saturday night to defeat Villanova, 19-2, and bring home the bacon in a "grocery bowl" game before 63,409 fans at Municipal Stadium.

The huge throng obtained free tickets for the game by buying groceries from a supermarket chain. But some 20,000 others who had ducts failed to show up under the threat of a fine.

The triumph was the second in a row for the Texans and spoiled the opening of Villanova's 62nd season.

Pounce on Fumbles
Two of Baylor's touchdowns stemmed directly from recovered fumbles. The third was set up by a nifty maneuver by a guard in a 25-yard runback of a punt. Villanova, improving in the second half with the scrubs handling the chores, was able only to salvage a safety in the third period for its only score after a drive sputtered out on the Baylor 10. In the ebbing minutes, the Wildcats unleashed a 71-yard march but a fumble stalled it on the enemy 10.

The first period was scoreless but it ended with Villanova's Johnny Lammer's bobbing the ball and Baylor's Henry Rutherford falling on top of it on the home team's one.

The fumble came shortly after Villanova had stopped the Brun cold on the same strip.

After Rutherford's recovery, the teams changed sides and Weldon Holley immediately bucked the line for a score.

Maneuver by Guard
A smart maneuver by guard Dan Miller set the stage for the second touchdown in the same period. Tony Egro, punting for Villanova, got off a weak, five-yard boot. The ball bounced lazily on the ground and Villanova, thinking Baylor would let it lie, relaxed for a matter of seconds. Miller scooped up the ball and raced 29 yards to Villanova's 46. The Texans marched to the six, where Bobby Jones skirted end for the touchdown.

Baylor got its final tally in the third with Villanova, with its back to the wall on the two, Johnny Ferrulo was back in the end zone and fumbled the ball after the pass from center. Henry Gremminger pounced on the loose ball for the score.

Later in the period, Villanova drove to the Baylor 10 but died there under two incomplete forward passes. Baylor took over and on its third play, Tom Rogers broke through to tackle Del Shofner in the end zone for two points.

Score by periods:

Villanova scoring: Safety; Rogers (tackled Shofner in end zone).

Texas Aggies Roll Past LSU In Cotton Bowl, 28-0

the final period to complete the humiliation of a team that upset Kentucky a week ago.

Game Are Slow - Footed
The game was billed a footed-up, but the slow-footed Tigers from the bayou country never seriously threatened until the final minutes and then a stout Aggie forward wall held them for three downs inside the five-yard line.

Crow and Pardee between them accounted for the 211 of the awesome 386 yards Coach Paul Bryants Aggie ground out against the team coached by his old pupil, Paul Dietzel, making his freshman start as a head coach at LSU. The 192-pound Crow got 130 of them.

The Aggie line was a unit without a standout star as it checked

LSU without a first down for nearly 30 minutes and rushed the Tigers' would-be passers off their feet. The Tigers netted 75 yards on the ground, but got 115 on passes.

May Prove Threat
The sophomore-tinged Aggie outfit that may prove a surprise in a tight Southwest Conference race seldom seemed to lose its poise and bounced back from last week's 21-0 loss to UCLA with a swift vengeance that tore LSU's defense apart.

Harvesters Drop Heartbreaker In 14-13 Loss To Vernon

Clarendon Broncs Upset Favored Lefors By 31-20

By JOEL COMBS
Pampa News Staff Writer

Lefors, Sept. 24 — A gallant band of buccaneers fell host to several bad breaks and a mighty good football team Friday night as the Lefors Pirates were upset by Clarendon's Bronchos, 31-20.

up, hard-charging line to defeat the Pirates before a disappointed crowd of 700 fans. Coach H. W. Callan's charges couldn't hold on to a 20 to 18 lead they held in the third quarter as Ray Moore's boys weren't to be denied.

The Bronchos struck for three touchdowns before Lefors' crew could muster a score. Fumbles wrecked the Pirates time and again and holding penalties hurt in crucial moments.

Maroons Ruin Wyatt's Debut At Tennessee

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 24 — UP—Mississippi State's Maroons mounted drives of 75 and 54 yards in the rain Saturday and put up a stout second half defense for a 13 to 7 victory over Tennessee that marred Bowen Wyatt's coaching debut here.

A backfield of three seniors and a junior overpowered Tennessee's jittery defenses in the first half but the Vols scored just before the half and outplayed the visitors the rest of the way.

Halfback Art Davis topped the first 75-yard drive, which included four first downs, with a one-yard plunge after seven minutes of the first period.

A steady drizzle kept attendance down to 16,500.

Early in the second period, Mississippi State marched 54 yards with Jim Harness, left halfback, ripping off the last 10 in three fierce cracks at the line. Junior fullback Frank Sabbatini and quarterback Bill Stanton also figured in the drive.

Stanton fumbled twice in three plays as the Maroons sought to generate another drive and the second-time Tennessee right half Stockton Adkins recovered on the state 49.

Then Johnny Majors, the lone star of the dismal 1954 Tennessee team and main hope for Wyatt's immediate future, went into action.

OU Power Beats Tar Heels, 13-6

By WILLIAM A. SHIRES
CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Sept. 24 — UP—Oklahoma's slashing split-T power finally cracked a stubborn alert North Carolina defense for two second half touchdowns and a 13-6 victory before 35,000 fans Saturday.

Mixing up plunges and quick-openers with pitchouts and passes, the Sooners substituted teams and entire backfields to outlast the green but vine-tough Tar Heels in hot, muggy weather. Oklahoma was a three-touchdown favorite.

Trailing 0-6 at halftime, the Sooners smashed 74 yards in an early third quarter drive to take a 7-6 margin on a touchdown by halfback Bob Burris of the All-America famous Oklahoma family, who scored from eight yards out, and a conversion by quarterback Jim Harris.

Oklahoma threats, one of them just inches from the goal.

Getting the first-half breaks, North Carolina scored in the first five minutes of play. End Will Frye punted to the Oklahoma 20 and Harris returned to the 45 but a clipping penalty put the Sooners in a hole on their own two. On the first play, Tar Heel tackle John Blinch pounced on a backfield fumble in the end zone.

Halfback Ken Keller's placement was wide, but the touchdown started the proud Sooners, unbeaten now in their last 20 games.

Amassing 373 yards rushing, the Sooners mounted drives that carried to North Carolina's three, to the 14, to the 18 and to the 30 besides the diving tackle of McDonald six inches from the goal by three Tar Heel defenders.

Arizona's fine halfback Art Luppino, the inter-collegiate scoring record holder, found it near-impossible to move against the strong, fast Buffalo line. Colorado end Fred Clarke, Jerry Leahy and Gary Nady kept Luppino and the other Wildcat backs from running the outside and guards Dick Stapp, Dave Jones, and Tom Giek slammed them from the middle. Meanwhile, veteran Colorado tailback Homer Jenkins directed an attack that featured line smashes by fullbacks John Bayuk and Jack Becker and the passing of sophomore Dick Hyson.

The Huskies sharp backs and hard-hitting linemen, two-touchdown underdogs, took a 10-0 lead over the shocked Gophers in the first half and then ran away with the game.

Rangy quarterback Steve Roake fired a four-yard pass to big end Jim Houston for one touchdown. Houston grabbed a Gopher fumble for another, halfback Jim Jones punched two yards for the third, and fullback J. C. Harryman rammed three yards for the fourth.

Halfback Dean Derby also booted a 17-yard field goal. Minnesota's sophomore-sprinkled Gophers threatened twice, once reaching the two-yard line, but they lacked the spark and polish to score. Their play was ragged and marked with fumbles in the clutches.

Mauldin Tallies Both TDs For PHS

By BUCK FRANCIS
Pampa News Sports Editor

Pampa's "luckless" Harvesters dropped a tough decision Friday night when the Vernon Lions rallied for a 14-13 victory before 4,000 fans at Harvester Stadium.

The Harvesters led 13-0 until deep in the third quarter when misfortune struck the Green and Gold.

A blocked punt, a costly penalty late in the game and a questionable pass completion by Vernon contributed heavily to the Harvester defeat.

The visiting Lions turned opportunists as they took advantage of every one of the above breaks.

The Harvesters were coasting along with a 13-0 lead in the third quarter as results of two touchdowns galloped by Dickie Mauldin early in the first and third quarters when the roof caved in.

Mauldin, with some fine downfield blocking, returned a Vernon punt 70 yards for the first touchdown 3:30 minutes deep in the game and came back in the third to put the finishing touches on a 28-yard drive with a 24-yard gallop through the entire Vernon team.

But Vernon fought back in the late stages to pull the game out of the fire.

A blocked punt and the questionable pass completion put the Lions in business late in the third period. Vernon took possession on the Harvesters 28 following the blocked punt.

The first play lost two yards back to the 30 but on the ensuing play, Delth Morris passed to Bill Goodrum for 16 yards for a first down on the Harvester 14.

Morris fumbled the ball when hit by a trio of Harvesters but Referee Bill Ferem disallowed the fumble and the Lions drove from this point to score.

James Bolton carried the ball over from the eight for the first Vernon tally. Quarterback Keith Morris' whose two conversions meant the difference of the final outcome, kicked the point to make it 13-7 with 2:55 minutes left in the third.

The Lions then scored their winning marker early in the fourth on a 54-yard scamper by Richard Christopher.

Morris' conversion split the up-rights and the Lions went ahead, 14-13, which is the way it ended.

But the Harvesters were able to muster a serious scoring threat midway through the final period only to have it halted by a 15-yard penalty.

Taking over on the Vernon 39 after a Lion punt, the Harvesters drove to the Vernon nine before the 15-yard penalty pushed them back to the 24 and the Green and Gold couldn't make up this lost yardage before turning it over to the Lions.

The Harvesters led in first downs, 9-6, and in yards rushing, 165-184.

Mauldin was the top Harvester ground gainer, netting 70 yards on 17 carries. Gene Emerson gained 45 on eight totes. Jesse Ring on 10 carries and Richie Gardner 19 on two attempts.

Colorado Stops Arizona, 14-0

By GENE MEAKINS
BOULDER, Colo., Sept. 24 — UP—Colorado's big line, touted as its best ever, pinned Arizona's bigger line to the wall for a 14-0 victory in an inter-conference clash Saturday before a crowd of 28,000 that had rained-dwindled to a few hundred by game's end.

Colorado scored twice in the first half before the rain spoiled an otherwise misty and darkened afternoon. A wet field and a slippery football kept both teams grounded in the second half and fumbles kept them from scoring. Colorado did score a safety for two points later in the final period.

Arizona's fine halfback Art Luppino, the inter-collegiate scoring record holder, found it near-impossible to move against the strong, fast Buffalo line. Colorado end Fred Clarke, Jerry Leahy and Gary Nady kept Luppino and the other Wildcat backs from running the outside and guards Dick Stapp, Dave Jones, and Tom Giek slammed them from the middle. Meanwhile, veteran Colorado tailback Homer Jenkins directed an attack that featured line smashes by fullbacks John Bayuk and Jack Becker and the passing of sophomore Dick Hyson.

The Team Two intramural flag-tag team blasted Team One 25-0 Tuesday night with its two big guns, Gene Parr and Don Wooley who combined to account for all the points scored in the game. Wooley, apparently trapped for a loss, escaped from the trap and twisted his way 42 yards to open the scoring in the first period. The conversion attempt was blocked by Team One led by Capt. T. L. Garner and Charlie Jordan.

Capt. Wooley repeated his scoring performance in the 2nd half with an end run good for 35 yards and his second touchdown, then ran the ball over for the extra point to give his team a 13-0 lead at halftime.

The fast-charging Team One line caused Parr to change his passing plans into a 12 yard run that carried him into the end zone as the third quarter slipped away. The try for point failed but it was Parr again, a few minutes later in the final period, this time on the receiving end of a Wooley propelled pass, who completed the scoring. Team One's offense consisted of two serious threats made in the 1st half. Buddy Lamberson scampered 28 yards to put the ball in scoring position and, on another occasion, Robert Narron caught a Garner pass that covered 47 yds, but both efforts were cancelled by penalties. James Evans was the key defensive player who kept the Team One attack stalled for the remainder of the game.

Two games are scheduled for this week. Team One meets Team Three on Tuesday night and Team Two on Thursday night.

Phases I and II of the physical fitness testing program, tests of endurance and agility, have been completed in P. E. I class.

Notre Dame, Led By 19-Year Old, Stuns SMU, 17-0

Fumbles Costly To Mustang 11

By ED SAINSBURY
SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 24 — UP — Versatile Paul Hornung ran and kicked Notre Dame to a well-earned 17-0 triumph Saturday over an inept Southern Methodist squad which lost the ball four times on fumbles and twice on intercepted passes.

Hornung, 19-year-old Louisville, Ky., junior who succeeded all America's Ralph Guglielmi as the Irish quarterback, proved himself a take-charge ball player from the opening whistle and while he was in the game the Irish never faltered.

The 225-pound signal caller sparked a 75-yard touchdown drive from the opening kickoff, contributing a 23-yard run from midfield himself and then crashing inside left end for 11 yards for the score.

In the next period, when the Irish attack stalled on the Mustang 28, he booted the ball from the 35 yard line for a field goal.

In all he carried for 70 yards on 13 attempts and as evidence that he was a key man, five of his rushes through the line provided first downs. Notre Dame, with smashing runs from Hornung and senior Don Schaefer, who picked up 63 yards on 19 rushes, kept its attack on the ground and Hornung threw only six passes, completing two for 23 yards. The Irish tried only two other throws.

Southern Methodist's defense rarely solved Notre Dame's rushing game while the Irish defenders, though outwitted, more than made up in alertness and speed whatever edge gave away in pounds.

The Mustang attack collapsed in the first period when John Marshall fumbled after returning the kickoff and Wayne Edmonds picked up the ball for the Irish in the second period, with the Mustangs on the Notre Dame 41, Marshall fumbled again to break up the drive.

Maryland Upsets UCLA, 7 To 0

COLLEGE PARK, Md., Sept. 24 — UP — Maryland's gang-tackling Terrapins parlayed a magnificent defense and one electrifying 71-yard touchdown drive into a 7-0 victory that ended UCLA's reign as the nation's first football team.

Before a crowd of 46,000 — largest in the history of Byrd Stadium — the underdog Terps of Jim Tatum fired one touchdown blast in the third period and made it stand up in 60 minutes of a bitter defensive battle.

UCLA shot the works in the first half and missed scoring only when second-string fullback Doug Peters fumbled as he went over the goal line. The one reprieve was all the red-shirted Terps needed, for they struck with savage fury with the second half kickoff.

Split-T Comes Alive
That kickoff was returned to Maryland's 29 and Tatum's sputtering split-T—held to only three first downs during the first half—roared into life. A 16-yard smash off tackle by co-captain Ed Vereb and two passes from quarterback Frank Tamburello to Vereb and Jack Healy gouged deep into UCLA land.

On fourth down with inches to go on UCLA's 37, Vereb caught the massive UCLA defense flat-footed and swept around end for the game's only score: Tom Laughery, a third-stringer who wanted to quit football only three weeks ago, converted and UCLA's record of 10 straight victories (14 straight in regular season games) was doomed.

It was Knox who directed that one real UCLA threat, completing five passes in a drive that started on the Terps' 47 and rolled down to Maryland's one. But here the Terrapins' savage tackling saved the day, as Peters fumbled just as he hit the last stripe.

It was UCLA's first white-washing in 45 games.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Sept. 24 — UP — Army provided the thunder for a rainstorm which lashed the Storm King Mountains as it crashed to an 81-0 opening football victory over Furman before 17,500 drenched spectators Saturday.

Bob, Munger of Mineral Wells, Tex., Pete Lash of Washington and Dick Murtland of Greensburg, Pa. each banged to scores as the crashing Cadets rolled to 12 touchdowns and added seven extra points and a safety.

Rigney Rumored As Next Giant Pilot

By MILTON RICHMAN
NEW YORK — UP — Leo Durocher will leave the New York Giants within the next few weeks and Bill Rigney of the Minneapolis Millers will succeed him as manager, it has been learned by the United Press.

Durocher's departure will take place by "mutual consent." The decision was reached at a recent meeting of the Giants' board of directors but club President Horace Stoneham felt it would be wiser to make the announcement at the end of the season.

Confronted with the report, Charles (Chub) Feeney, vice-president of the Giants, said: "I have no comment on the story."

He added that Stoneham "has said before that no announcement will be made on the situation until the season is over."

Plans a Talk
The 49-year-old Durocher, who won two National League pennants with the Giants and led finished first with the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1941.

Durocher received an estimated $50,000 with the Giants this year and also enjoyed an unlimited expense account. His current club fell far behind Brooklyn in the early stages of the pennant race and clinched third place last Wednesday.

Rigney, 35, is a former infielder like Durocher but he has only two years of managerial experience in the minors.

Now in Playoffs
He currently is directing his Minneapolis club in the Little World Series against Rochester of the International League. Rigney came to the Giants from Oakland of the Pacific Coast League in 1946 and played shortstop and third base on a fairly regular basis through the next four years.

Some observers attached significance to the fact that Giant shortstop Alvin Dark, who was injured last month, arrived at the Polo Grounds from his Louisiana home Saturday.

Dark, who also has been mentioned as a possible Giants manager of the future, was believed to have returned here, however, to witness the World Series.

BULLETIN
NEW YORK — UP — Leo Durocher announced Saturday that he would not return to manage the New York Giants next year.

them to a world championship last year, merely said: "I'm going to have a talk with Mr. Stoneham soon and it will be settled then."

Although Durocher often has said, "when I take off this (Giants) uniform, I'm through with baseball," there is a strong chance he may wind up as the 1956 manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, for whom he played shortstop from 1933 through 1937, or of the Milwaukee Braves.

He also is considering several ventures outside of baseball near his home in Santa Monica, Calif.

Regarded as one of the shrewdest managers in the game, Durocher has finished in the first division 12 of the 17 years he served as a big league pilot. In addition to winning the pennants with the Giants in 1951 and 1954, he also

Coaches Induce Integration To Boost Football Strength

YOAKUM, Tex. — UP — A new aspect was thrown on the Texas high school segregation situation Friday when school superintendent George Barron charged that some football coaches induced integration to add "swivel-tipped" Negro athletes to their teams in hopes of winning a district championship.

"There have been two kinds of forced integration brought on by the whites—the economic type of integration and the athletic type," Barron said.

Yoakum forfeited its season-opener football game with Robstown after school officials learned Robstown was fielding a team that included Negro players. The school board has since adopted a temporary policy of completing its football schedule this season, but announced future plans of playing only all-white teams—so long as a Yoakum high school operates on a segregated basis.

"Most Pernicious of All"
Barron, in a three-page statement, said that the football type of integration is the most pernicious of all because a victory-hungry football coach suddenly becomes very considerate of the educational needs of the Negro athletes and induces the superintendent and the school board to integrate the high school, regardless of what the Negroes think about it.

"This type of integration is quite successful for the Negro boys suddenly become captains of the team or president of the senior class in the integrated school," he said.

Barron stated that the economic type of integration occurred when a school was either unable or unwilling to provide a satisfactory school for the Negroes.

In some other games involving AAA teams, Port Neches downed Orange 26 to 6; Garland beat Dallas Hillcrest, 27 to 7, and Levelland defeated Littlefield, 39 to 7.

The defending Class AA and A state champions of 1954 breezed through as expected in non-conference games.

Phillips, the AA champ, blanked Wellington 28 to 0, and Deer Park, Class A titlist, beat Crosby, 38 to 6.

Richards, Orioles Draw Big Fines

By CARL LUNDQUIST
NEW YORK — UP — Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick admitted Saturday he could have suspended Baltimore General Manager Paul Richards for an entire year for his "intentional" violation of the bonus rule.

Instead, Richards was fined $2,500 for signing pitcher Tom Borland of Oklahoma A&M for $40,000 without the knowledge of higher Orioles officials. Frick also reprimanded the Orioles' boss-man for pitching Borland in an exhibition game under an alias and failing to file the youth's bonus contract in the American League office.

Richards, meanwhile, declined even to discuss the weather when he received news of his fine at Washington.

"If the commissioner says so, it must be so," he said.

"How's the weather?" a reporter asked. "No comment," Richards replied.

Frick said he decided against suspending Richards because he felt "such a ruling under present circumstances would result in undue hardship to baseball in Baltimore."

The commissioner, who also fined the Baltimore club $2,000, said Richards acted without the knowledge of President Clarence W. Miles or other Oriole officials when he signed the left-handed Borland after the NCAA baseball tournament at Omaha, Neb., last June.

Frick ordered Borland made a free agent, effective Oct. 10, and eligible to sign with any club in organized baseball except Baltimore or its affiliated minor league teams.

"By direction of Richards, Borland pitched in an exhibition game for Baltimore against the York (Pa.) farm club under the fictitious name of Jack Moveland," Frick said in a lengthy statement announcing his decision in the case.

Peg O' Pampa

ELECTION YEAR DRAWS closer month by month . . . the politicians have begun "pollticking" around the county . . . all of which reminds Peg of the pithy comment of Henry Fox: "I don't know what's coming in the next year, but whatever it is I'll be ready for it, on account of I ain't expecting too much. The world has probably had bigger crises than the ones it's got now and probably had worse people elected to handle them; but I notice it's the world that survives the crises, and office holders that pass away."

"If you can't bring yourself to love your enemies, maybe you could at least treat your friends a little better." (Washington Post)

IN SPITE OF OUR DELICIOUSLY COOL NIGHTS . . . in spite of the recent welcome showers . . . in spite of the Pampa Oilers being champs of the West Texas - New Mexico League . . . yes, in spite of all these good things that should cause expressions of great joy to appear in all Pampa faces . . . we still see some folk with faces w-o-o-o long their chins bump their knees . . . we'll tell you the reason now for some of those woeful looks . . . the children have left for college! . . . now you take Mrs. Mary Lindsey, for instance . . . the day her son, Bob, left for college she cried the whole night through . . . however, Mary is feeling somewhat more chipper lately . . . not because she misses Bob any less, but because he is thinking of transferring from A & M to TCU . . . and as everyone knows, TCU's closer to Pampa . . . The first night after Tommy Lockhart left for college, his mother, Margaret, also had the jitters and couldn't sleep . . . the only reason she didn't talk to Tommy long distance that same night was because she couldn't contact him . . . then, there is Mrs. Pauline Kerr . . . although Pauline's son, John, was already a college student, her youngest son, Gaylon, enrolled in Texas Tech this fall . . . now Pauline is finding that lonesomeness isn't conducive to eating and sleeping . . . While Mrs. Sue Van Sickle is impatiently awaiting the first of August . . . on that date she plans to journey to Austin to visit her son, Heriman, and his wife . . . a wee small voice tells me that gasoline sales and long distance phone calls will reach an all-time high in Pampa until everyone becomes adjusted to the absence of their off spring . . . Peg can be nonchalant about it now, not havin' gany youngsters of college age, as yet . . . but, ah me! . . . there'll come a day!

The Price of Leisure: "Since I am mistress of my fate, if I am tired the work can wait. And that's what's so exasperating . . . It's waiting!" (May Richardson)

IF YOUR BIRTHDAY is in September do you want to know what Ogden Nash (our favorite rhymester) has to say about you . . . here 'tis "September people stop being grown-up — when they get their egos blown-up — Ways in which a babe gets candy — Often seems to come in handy." . . . Does the shoe fit??

POTPOURRI . . . (or gossip is where you find it) . . . Pauline Kerr thinks the family is jinxed or under an evil spell as far as their cars are concerned . . . Pauline's car was run into and wrecked recently while it was parked in front of a friend's house . . . then she received word from her son, Gaylon, that his car had been damaged while parked on the college campus . . . so now John Kerr is thinking of garaging his car until the jinx has expired . . . that special happy radiance one notices about June Stein these days is caused by the something new that has been added to her left hand . . . a perfectly gorgeous diamond ring, no less . . . the wedding will take place in January, and the lucky man is Dean Grigsby of Borger . . . Attractive Mrs. Gene Fatheree is elated because all the yearbooks for the Junior High PTA are completed . . . Wayland and Dorothy Merriman have one of the most productive gardens in Pampa with okra, peas and such as, galore . . . in fact, they're swamped with garden stuff and have been giving it away right and left . . . But perhaps the Merriman family has a green thumb for the brother that lives in Silver City, N.M., has an excellent truck garden with tomatoes practically as big as plates . . . and fruit trees that are loaded down with delectable fruit . . . and what tastes any more delicious than vegetables and fruit right from the garden? . . . it's epicurean eating fit for the gods . . . Mrs. J. M. Turner is dreaming of a family reunion around Thanksgiving time . . . but so far that's all it is . . . a dream . . . Lillian Snow is very proud of her new car . . . Mrs. B. F. Smith is longing for the time when Lamar Christian Church will be completed and an organ installed . . . "For," says Sally, "a worship service needs organ music." . . . Sally and B. F. Smith have been married 20 years and in all that time B. F. has been the perfect husband . . . "them" are Sally's own words . . . now there are some women that are attractive, some that are pretty and a few that are truly beautiful . . . one of Pampa's beautiful women is Mrs. Jim Webb . . . and besides being beautiful, she sings like a dream . . . has a very nice husband and two adorable children . . . How lucky can you get? . . . Mrs. Elsie Gee is just bubbling over with happiness because she has a brand-new granddaughter . . . and the baby, Kathleen, has red hair just like her grandmother . . . speaking of red heads, Donald Speaker, minister of the Church of the Brethren, always has a "just fresh from the band box" appearance . . . quite a likeable person he is, too . . . Observed Chief Of Police Jim Connors and Fire Chief Winborne conferring over steaming cups of coffee recently . . . Dick Crews and Morris Enloe deep in conversation . . . discussing church business, no doubt . . . Mrs. Dick Crews has been under the weather with a sprained ligament in her back . . . which prevents her from doing her housework . . . the G. E. Cree Jr. flew to Tishamingo last week end to paint their boat and get it in ship-shape condition for fishing . . . they flew back to Pampa Sunday afternoon.

Description of the teenage set by Doc Miller: "Oceans-of-notions."

ARE YOU SICK unto death of hearing of Davy Crockett, the king of the wild frontier? . . . does the sight of a coonskin cap give you the jitters? . . . have you caught yourself wishing that Davy had "been ety a bar" when he was only three? . . . Well, take courage, long-suffering people for Davy's days are numbered . . . and the handwriting on the wall is proclaiming another hero who hails from south of the border . . . down Mexico way . . . this gent is Pancho Lopez, "born in Chihuahua under a tree; he could eat twelve tacos when he was only three" . . . and his exploits are sung to the same type of insidious melody as D. Crockett . . . Pancho successfully avoids work; has a fondness for "following the sun" and siestas . . . and fled the Mexican revolution to begin his trek to Los Angeles, where he settled on Olvera street . . . Oh, it's a most inspiring saga full of sly humor and gusty bravura . . . and you'll no doubt hate Pancho as thoroughly as you now hate D. Crockett before you hear the last of him.

"The best way to keep a small boy out of hot water is to put a bar of soap in it." (F. O. Walsh)

HERE AND THERE . . . spied Mrs. Donna Cornutt and Mrs. Mary McClosky enjoying a brief chat . . . both ladies becomingly clad in autumn frocks . . . Donna's frock of a rust-colored design and Mary's in olive green . . . Freda LeMond is looking forward with eager anticipation to her vacation starting October 1 . . . on that date, Freda and Guy along with Lottie Ochtfree and Barbara Ziegler are leaving for Las Vegas, Nevada, and a round of entertainment . . . during their stay, the songstress Peggy Lee, Guy Lombardo and his Orchestra and the play "Guys and Dolls" with the original New York cast will be featured . . . happy holiday . . . you lucky people! . . . Peg is glad to report that Kay Waggoner, Linda Skewes and Virginia Golden . . . who were bruised and battered during the freakish storm at the Amarillo Fair . . . suffered no ill effects and were able to attend school this week.

GO TO CHURCH TODAY, for as Paul Rinsy so wisely stated: "Worship renews the spirit as sleep renews the body." Peg

Joan Cantrell And Richard C. Seawright Are United In Marriage In Chapel Rite

Miss Joan Cantrell and Richard C. Seawright were united in marriage at 8 p.m. Saturday in the chapel of the First Methodist Church, Rev. Richard Crews, pastor of the First Christian Church, officiated for the double-service. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Royall Cantrell, 1100 Garland, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Seawright, south of city. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white tulle and matching bodice that came to a point at the waistline and short sleeves. The tulle skirt was ballerina length, and she wore elbow-length mitts of tulle. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion fell from a Juliet cap of tulle, trimmed with seed pearls. She wore white beaded silk slippers and carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, and she carried French lace handkerchiefs, a gift from her attendants. Miss Vivian Wilkinson was maid of honor. She was attired in an apricot tulle dress styled with a long torso, shirred bodice and v-neckline. She wore a matching headpiece of tulle and matching bridesmaid. Her copper-toned gown of tulle was identical to that of the maid of honor. Both carried bouquets of bronze mums. The serving table was covered with a white satin and net cloth and was centered with an arrangement of bronze mums in a crystal bowl. Flanking the centerpiece were white tapers. Appointments were crystal. The tiered wedding cake was decorated with a cascade of roses. Background music was provided by Mrs. Roy Johnson, and guests were registered by Miss Cynthia Cantrell, cousin of the bride. Assisting with the serving were Miss Joy Green of Houston, Miss Alice Seawright, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Don Boddy of Pampa; and Mrs. C. Charles Bradshaw of Amarillo. For the wedding trip to Denver, Colo., the bride wore a gray checked dress with matching three-quarter-length coat lined with red. Her accessories were black, and her corsage was of white roses. The bride was graduated from Pampa High School and attended Oklahoma A&M College where she was a member of Phi Kappa Tau fraternity. The bridegroom was graduated from Pampa High School and attended Oklahoma A&M College where he was a member of Phi Kappa Tau fraternity.

Correct Luggage Vital For Student

One "wardrobe" purchase which should not be put off until last is luggage for the boy or girl going away to school. Since few other items will be used as long, or add more prestige, suitcases should be selected with these general questions in mind:

- 1 - Is the luggage fashion right? It's important that suitcases be as modern and smart as the clothes packed in them. Bright and gay colors in the new materials and finishes are scuff-proof, eye-catching and distinctive.
- 2 - Is the luggage sturdy? Four years of back-and-forth travel plus many weekend trips will subject the suitcases to hard use. Check for reinforced corners, securely anchored handles, good quality hardware and tough coverings.
- 3 - Does the selection suit the travel habits of the student? If all traveling will be by car, a different type of suitcase might be chosen; a zipper bag is ideal for sports equipment; a train box or fitted cosmetic case will be handy on trips of any length.

The basic pieces for a girl should consist of three: a case for cosmetics; an overnight or weekend bag, and a pullman or wardrobe case. A boy needs at least a two-suitcase plus a companion or club bag. Flat packing trunks have proved ideal for sending items ahead to await student's arrival, such as room accessories, books, heavy clothing, etc. If clothing will be sent home for laundering, one very important necessity is the laundry mailing case in either fiber or aluminum — it telescopes to accommodate various amounts of garments, and meets post office specifications for parcel post mailing.

MATURE PARENT

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

The June before last, Rafe brought home barely passing grades from the college term that had cost about $2500.

Nobody attacked them. So, a few days later, Rafe attacked them himself. Driving home with his father, he said abruptly, "Dad, I know what a rotten showing I made this term. I want to quit school. I'm not like you. I'm not cut out to grind away at engineering math the way you ground away at law. What I'd like is a job in a small garage somewhere. I don't want what you've got. All I want is a roof, one suit of clothes and three squares a day. Honestly, dad."

His father swung the car over to the grass along the road. Then he said quietly, "Rafe, would you be telling me that I'm a great guy, by any chance?"

After a moment, Rafe, his voice sounding curiously young, said urgently, "Well, you are a great guy, pop. Look what you can do. You can buy a car like this. You had a State Court judge to dinner last week. As to mother . . ."

"Yes—well, women," his father said. "The thing is, you're seeing my big years, son. Has it ever occurred to you that you didn't see my sweating out the little ones?"

Leaning to turn off the ignition, he asked, "You've heard my stories about the summer I worked as oiler on a lake freighter, haven't you?"

"Sure," said his son enthusiastically. "I quit college to take that oiler's job," his father said.

"Quit college?" echoed Rafe, stupefied. "Walked out, you mean?"

"Yes," his father said. "You see, where a great guy wouldn't have needed rules of a run-down boiler room to discover he preferred college ones, I did. I was still a little guy."

"Gosh," muttered Rafe. "Does mother know what you did?" "She just remembers I went back to school," his father told him. "For I had a great guy for an old man, too. So when I wrote and asked him for another chance, he said, 'O.K.' And he said something also, too."

"What?" Rafe asked. "What, dad?"

"He said to me," his father told him. "Boy, start taking better care of yourself. It's very easy for the son of a great guy to decide he wants to be a little one. The thing is, you're seeing my big years, son. Don't let them scare you into believing you can't have yours."

With care, Rafe avoided looking at his father. "Cripes," he said, shakily. "Well, what do you know? Thanks, dad. Cripes, I . . . thank."

"It's all right," his father said. "All men have to get straight on this 'What a great guy my dad is' business."

Rafe graduated from college this June.

RUTH MILLETT

Do American women scorn the word "housewife"? A foreign visitor to our country claims we do.

There's at least some truth in what he says, otherwise you wouldn't so frequently hear the term housewife belittled by being turned into "just a housewife."

Why should any American woman ever put that "just" in front of a "housewife" when she gives her occupation?

When she says she is a housewife she has every right to say it with pride.

It means she has accomplished what most normal girls dream of accomplishing. She has a husband and a home of her own.

It means that in a home, she is one of the two senior members, with all the demands, privileges, and opportunities that implies.

It means she has a chance to make the place where she works reflect her own tastes and personality. Every day she has a chance to be creative.

It means that she can be a womanly woman, because she is making a home for a man and working with him, instead of competing against him.

It means, if she is any kind of a manager at all, that for most of the years of her adult life she will have time for friends, time to be neighborly, time to make life pleasant for others, time to follow her own interests and enthusiasms.

As jobs go, the housewife has one of the greatest dignity and value to society.

So why should she ever feel anything but pride and happiness when she says, "I'm a HOUSEWIFE?"

Mrs. R. L. Salmon Speaks On Travels In Europe At Delta Kappa Gamma Meet

Mrs. R. L. Salmon was guest speaker at the first fall meeting of the Delta Kappa Gamma society in the Lovett Library.

Mrs. Salmon spoke on her recent travels in Europe and showed colored slides of places she visited. She recently returned from spending the winter teaching children of American Air Force personnel in France and Germany.

Mrs. Salmon's first assignment was in Nancy, France. She had two other assignments in France and one in Germany. During each assignment she made sight-seeing excursions through the surrounding areas, visiting nearly all the European countries.

Some of the highlights of her trip included visiting Paris during France's celebration of the 10th anniversary of its "Liberation Day"; a Norwegian fiord cruise, a Swedish "folk fest", the Wine Harvest in Switzerland; viewing Rome by night; and seeing England's Queen Elizabeth. During the Christmas holidays, she took an air tour of the Mediterranean area, spending Christmas Eve in Bethlehem, Christmas dinner in Cairo and attending New Year's festivities in Madrid.

Impressions as a result of her trip that she outlined included "the beauty, grandeur and strength of the Old World and its culture;" the first experience of the real meaning of war on seeing war ruins amid the modern areas of such cities as Berlin; and gaining a deeper appreciation of life in the United States when contrasted with that of foreign countries.

Honored guests at the meeting were new teachers in schools of Gray, Roberts, Carson, Hemphill and Wheeler counties.

Mrs. Roy Sullivan of Pampa, president, greeted the guests and introduced Mrs. McHenry Lane, program chairman. Mrs. Lane conducted a get-acquainted session before introducing Mrs. Salmon.

RUBINOFF AND HIS VIOLIN . . . to appear here

Altrusa To Sponsor Rubinoﬀ In Concert

The Pampa Altrusa Club will sponsor Rubinoﬀ and his violin, internationally famed concert artist, Dec. 8, in the Junior High School auditorium. Mrs. Frank Lard, Altrusa president, has announced.

"We feel indeed fortunate in being able to bring such a great artist to Pampa," Mrs. Lard stated.

Pointing out that special committees and ticket selling locations would be announced soon, Mrs. Lard urged all organization members and "others interested in civic betterment" to join in making the concert a success. Proceeds will go into the Altrusa scholarship fund.

Rubinoﬀ is well known to millions from his current concert appearances, nationwide radio broadcasts with Eddie Cantor, television guest appearances, and motion picture engagements. These compositions will have their premiere performance as violin solos arranged and played by Rubinoﬀ.

Cook's Nook

By GAYNOR MADDOX NEA Food and Markets Editor

Every year at this time we go on a reunion party at the Stork Club in New York City. Chas. A. Eckburg, president of the Borden Cheese Company, gives it for those food editors who three years ago were guests on a cheese tour to Van Wert, O., and Monroe, Wis. Everyone talks about cheese, especially about Mrs. Ray Kubly's Switzerland fondue. Mrs. Kubly entertained us regally in her beautiful Monroe home. First, here's an Americanized version of fondue, very easy for anyone.

SWISS-GRUYERE FONDUE (Makes 2 cups)

Two-thirds cup homogenized milk, 1 (8-ounce) package natural Swiss cheese slices, very finely diced, 1 (8-ounce) package Gruyere cheese, cubed, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard, 3 drops Tabasco sauce. Scald milk in top of double boiler over hot water. Add remaining ingredients. Stir until cheese is melted and mixture is well blended. Serve on pieces of toast or serve cubes of French bread for dipping into fondue.

Mrs. Kubly's Switzerland Fondue

One pound (4 cups) sliced natural Swiss cheese, cut into strips, 3 tablespoons flour, 2 cups Neuchatel wine (or any light dry wine), salt and pepper, 7 tablespoons Kirschwasser or 4 tablespoons of any brandy that is not sweet.

Into an earthenware casserole or chafing dish which has been rubbed with a clove of garlic, pour the wine and cook over a very slow fire. When the wine is heated almost to the boiling point, stir constantly while you gradually add the sliced Swiss cheese which has been dredged with flour. Keep stirring until mixture starts bubbling lightly. Add a little salt and pepper, then stir in the Kirschwasser or brandy. The bubbling fondue should then be kept hot at the table. Have ready a big bowl of brown bread cut into small cubes. The traditional Swiss method of eating the fondue is to put a piece of bread on a fork, dip it into the bubbling fondue, twist it around, and then eat.

John Gregory Talks On Adult Education During Meeting Of Parent Education Club

Parent Education Club held a luncheon in the home of Mrs. Julian Key, president, for its first fall session.

Guest speaker was John Gregory of Lubbock, field director of the West Texas region of the Adult Education program. He explained that Texas Technological College is part of the national program in Adult Education. Three years ago, the school received a grant to develop an Adult Education program in West Texas, which, he added, is the only test region in the country, although there are other test cities.

Purpose of adult education is to "develop more mature citizens," Gregory explained. The discussion technique used by the program is "a slow process" and takes a long time to conceive the full significance of it, the women were told. The program tries to choose areas of problems that it thinks will lead to more mature citizens in West Texas, Gregory pointed out, adding that programs are designed and developed to coincide with the needs in this area.

In speaking on the club's study for the year, "Parenthood In A Free Nation," he stated that he hoped it would help the women become more mature parents.

"We are anxious to see you people use this material and develop it to fit your needs," he explained. "The whole thing is based on the idea that you want to become the best parents you can."

He closed by stating that the purpose of the study is to help the women develop their ideas, to grow, to express their ideas and to think on their feet.

Gregory was introduced by Dr. R. M. Hampton of Pampa, past president and board member of the Pampa Adult Education group. He stated that "Adult Education" is not night school, but is for the development of the adult after leaving school. He explained that the program is designed to help the adult to become as nearly complete a human being as possible.

He pointed out that an adult's capabilities of understanding is deeper and richer than a child's. He defined "Liberal education" as the "education of the free man, the man with leisure."

"This (adult education program) is to help the free man best use his leisure time," he explained.

Dr. Hampton listed three things an adult education program must have. It has to be voluntary; of high quality, with no teacher, but with all participating; and it is interminable.

"You never outgrow adult education," he stated.

The Pampa program includes

Great Books, American Heritage, World Affairs, Spanish, Parenthood In A Free Nation and Jeffersonian Heritage, he told the women.

"All of these are and can be what you make them," he concluded.

Mrs. Julian Key gave the welcome and led the business session. Mrs. Tom Rose introduced the guests. Yearbooks and study books were distributed and the presentation of the study was discussed following Gregory's speech.

For the luncheon, the serving table was covered with a brown damask cloth. The centerpiece was composed of a miniature child's playset and dolls dressed in pink and white. The serving trays were covered with "bee hives" of pink net decorated with brightly-colored miniature bees and butterflies. Backing the table was a wrought-iron wall epergne filled with pink daisies and carnations. Hostesses were Meses. Key, Homer Johnson and Z. B. Deer.

Members present were Meses. S. A. Blundell, Z. B. Deer, Jr., Clinton Evans, Gene Fatheree, Jack Foster, R. C. Goodwyn, H. L. Gunter, R. M. Hampton, George Hofess, Bud Johnson, H. D. Johnson, Julian Key, Myron Marx Jr., Rex Rose, Tom Rose, A. L. Smalley Jr., George Snell, Bob Vail, J. B. Veale and C. C. Whitney Jr.

DISCUSS PROGRAM — Shown looking over the yearbooks and discussing the year's program at the Parent Education Club luncheon are, left to right, Mrs. Tom Rose, program chairman; John Gregory of Lubbock, field director of the West Texas region of the Adult Education program; Mrs. J. B. Veale, club parliamentarian; and Dr. Raymond Hampton, past president of the Pampa Adult Education group. (News Photo)

Joints snap? Full of creaks and groans when you bend over? Nothing is more likely. And as for exercises—if the doctor doesn't say "ugh"—you probably feel "ugh" at the thought.

First Presbyterian Women Give Coffee For New Members

A coffee honoring new and prospective members was held recently by the Presbyterian Women's Association in the church's educational building.

Guests were received by Mrs. Traylor Price, association president, and the circle chairmen, who are Mrs. L. W. Jolly, Mrs. A. G. Cobbe, Mrs. Dick Walker and Mrs. George Friauf.

Refreshments of coffee, sweet rolls and pineapple chunks were served. Mrs. A. D. Hills presided at the coffee service.

The business session was led by Mrs. Price. Mrs. Dick Walker told of the diminishing coffees to be given as a part of the Council of Church Women's project to raise funds to finish paying for the wading pool for Negro children. Mrs. L. W. Jolly presented the report of the nominating committee, and Mrs. Glenn Ritchhart gave the devotional. Circle III won the attendance count.

The program on witnessing for Christ each day, in the form of a play, was under the direction of Mrs. Jolly. Taking part were Meses. Bruce Pratt, W. M. Lemmons, H. C. Federer, N. G. Kadingo, Don Radike and Ronald Hubbard.

Arrangements for the coffee were made by the membership committee, which includes Mrs. Clyde Fathere, chairman, and Meses. J. M. Nutting, George Andrus, Frank Smith and W. E. Colwell.

Teens Remain Flat On Heels For Fall

College girls will be flat on their heels this fall, as always. But the quality and variety of flat-heeled shoes have reached a new high.

New leathers have ushered in style changes such as textured surfaces, and a wider range of colors. Most of the new flatties are light as a feather and soft as down. Soft leather slip-ons, which practically make you float, are anchored with elasticized throats or sides. High throat lines and high counters give many a truly original look.

Stacked leather heels will be clattering down the corridors of high schools and colleges, since you'll find them on most of the new flats.

Saddle stitching and leather lacing adds interesting surface treatment to the simple lines of most flats. In one series, the new fiddle shank, which makes the leather sole look like an hourglass, provides an illusion of slimmness and grace, even on wedges.

For dressy occasions, teen shoes in both suede and smooth leathers are available in deep, intense colors such as henna—a rosy rust; a new dark avocado; scarlet, cherry and the very new garnet among the reds; deep blues, and charcoal greys. Most of these have medium heels.

THE BERMUDA WAY—Modern replacements for the surreys with the fringe on top have taken over transportation in Hamilton. Today's visitors to the island enjoy Bermuda buggy rides in small taxis which have gaily colored canopies over them.

ONE OF THE LAST—As he gently plucks the strings of his harp, Hans Sauerer is providing luncheon music for guests at a Bavarian mountain hotel in Rosenheim, Germany. Admirers of his music can buy him drinks or drop some coins in a saucer on his table. Sauerer is one of the few survivors in his business which has been taken over mostly by zither players and radio programs.

HANDING 'EM OVER—Moroccan guards in Casablanca have stopped a young cyclist for an inspection of his identification papers. If they were in order, he was then permitted to enter the New Medina section. As the situation in North Africa continued tense, inspections such as this one became more thorough each day.

BRINGING UP THE PAST

DIGGING THE MOST—Pretty Wendy Olson, 21, and bride of archaeologist Alan P. Olson, uses a pickax, upper left, and a shovel, right, and seems to enjoy it even if she is on her honeymoon in New Mexico. The Olsons are with an expedition in search of relics and data on the ancient Indians that inhabited the North American Southwest in the year 1200. Below, Mrs. Olson is demonstrating how those same Indians made rings by sawing through bone with crude but efficient tools made of chalcidony.

BASKET FISHING—A new angle on angling was tried out by two young ladies in a lake at Monticello, N. Y. A wire basket with pieces of bread inside was dipped into the water by Barbara Coppola, eight, who's being braced by Julie O'Brien, five. Fish came to feed on the bread and as many as three at a time got caught when the basket was pulled up.

HIGH AND DRY—Long celebrated in song and story, Scotland's famed River Dee has been reduced by the present drought to a tiny stream. The water is a mere trickle as it threads its way through a bed of rocks by Abergeldie Castle, near Deeside. Any new songs about the River Dee would have to sound more like a lament until it rises once again.

LADY IN DISTRESS—Although that's only a small, harmless land crab crawling on the sand at Miami Beach, it might as well be a hungry octopus judging from the frightened expression on Joyce George's face. It's impossible to say which was more frightened, but while Joyce sat frozen in her tracks, the crab made tracks in the opposite direction—as fast as it could go.

REACTOR VISITORS—Delegates from various nations are leaving a heavy water reactor—the first ever built in Great Britain—in Harwell, England. The visitors had flown over to inspect Britain's Atomic Research Establishment from Geneva, Switzerland, where they were attending a conference on the peaceful uses of atomic energy.

FROSTY "PUMPKIN"—Radome at chilly Thule, Greenland, presented an icy painting problem for the Bendix Aviation Corporation's radar servicing crew. They solved it by using a helicopter from the 55th Air Rescue Squadron to get a rope ladder to the crown of the dome-like, fabric-covered building that houses radar equipment.

Diminishing Coffee Is Benefit Project Of Church Women

Mrs. W. M. Lemons, 1819 Williston, held a "diminishing coffee" Thursday as part of the project of the Council of Church Women to raise funds to finish paying for the Negro wading pool, built this year. The serving table was covered with a white cloth and centered with an ivy flanked by a china hen and rooster. Refreshments of coffee, grapes and doughnuts were served. Attending were Meses, R. C. Goodwyn, S. A. Blundell, Joseph Hawes and Nicholas Kadango. Each guest contributed 25 cents.

The system of diminishing coffees starts with one woman asking six others to a coffee, with each donating a quarter. Each of the six guests then gives a coffee, inviting five other women. Each of these women, invites four others to a coffee; each of the four invites three others; each of the three, invites two others, and each of the two invites one other woman. Each time, each guest donates a quarter. Each woman giving the coffee turns in the donations to her hostess, or the woman who invited her to the coffee and up the line until it reaches the woman who gave the first coffee.

The diminishing coffee project was suggested at the recent meeting of the Council in St. Matthew's Episcopal Church. Since the meeting, quite a few such coffees have been given. The wading pool has been a long-term project of the Council for the past several years.

REASON FOR A CHANGE—Here's why the U.S. Passport Office is moving into new quarters in Washington, D.C. In photo at left, Director Frances Knight knocks a piece of plaster off the almost crumbling walls of the Civil War-era building now housing the Passport Office. Boxes on floor contain dead files which have to be stored in the basement because there is no room for them in the office. At right is a staff member pasting photos onto passports, using an archaic glue pot and hot irons which press the picture onto the passport. This old, time-consuming method will be streamlined in the new building.

"Four hungry children could be a late afternoon problem for a busy mother, but I just go to the freezer and the problem is solved."
"I prepare snacks in advance, whenever I have time, and the children love the treats they get."

"With the quantity storage a home freezer gives you, many food problems are eliminated. For example, we use one shelf for bread alone, storing and using as many as 10 loaves per week"

"With handy compartments, it's easy to keep track of the foods you freeze or buy. Shopping trips are cut to a minimum, never more than once a week. And, there is real economy in quantity buying"

Mrs. Lewis is delighted as she examines package of frozen chicken. She says, "Many foods can be kept indefinitely including some meats and vegetables. Our electric home freezer gives us a greater mealtime variety"

Oil Reclaimers Do Not Have To Pay Excise Tax

By HARRY WILSON SHARPE
WASHINGTON, Sept. 24—UP—Quietly but firmly, the Internal Revenue Service has ruled that oil reclaimers do not have to pay the six-cent-a-gallon manufacturers' excise tax on their products.

Reclaimers, or re-refiners, process used lubricants usually obtained from filling stations and sell them as the equivalent of new oil. By escaping the excise tax, they can undersell standard brands.

The IRS issued its ruling at the height of a continuing dispute with the National Petroleum Association, big refiners organization. The NPA has filed suit to compel the service to classify the reclaimers as manufacturers and hence subject to the tax.

Given 30 Days To Act

The service gave the NPA and other opponents 30 days to propose amendments to its decision but NPA Associate Counsel Donald C. O'Hara said bluntly: "The move is obviously an effort to avoid a showdown on its failure to enforce the law. There is presently pending an action to compel the service to enforce the law. It is seeking to have this action dismissed on technical grounds, rather than on the merits of the case."

There are about 125 re-refiners across the nation. Manufacturers of standard brands regard them as unfair competitors because of their tax advantage. They argue that if the re-refined oil is really the equivalent of new, the reclaimers have had to use "manufacturing processes" and therefore must be classified as manufacturers.

After weighing the issue for many months, the Internal Revenue Service held that "the term manufacturer" does not include (1) a person who merely blends or mixes two or more taxable lubricating oils, (2) a person who merely cleans, renovates or refines used or waste lubricating oil, or (3) a person who merely blends or mixes one or more taxable lubricating oils with used or waste lubricating oil which has been cleaned, renovated or refined.

Before making the regulation final 30 days from now, the IRS invited suggestions for amendments. Said O'Hara: "It is not likely the IRS will give any consideration to suggestions because the move is obviously an effort to avoid a showdown on its failure to enforce the law."

A Treasury Department spokesman hinted the regulation would stand until Congress passes a law clearly defining the reclaimer's status as a "manufacturer."

The NPA suit was filed on behalf of Barko Petroleum Co., Los Angeles, and the Three Rivers refinery, Three Rivers, Tex. An original suit was withdrawn when Internal Revenue Commissioner T. Coleman Andrews promised the reclaimers would be taxed.

New Well Tested At Perryton

PERRYTON — (Special) — A drillstem test at the Woodson Oil Co. 1 Perry Unit, located just a mile southeast of Perryton, brought shouts of glee to oil men and landowners alike at 11 a.m. Wednesday when the well came in with abundant quantities of gas and oil.

The well was tested from 1,470-503 feet and gas rose to the surface in four minutes. Oil came to the surface in 25 minutes and flowed 56 barrels of high gravity crude in one hour through a 5-8 inch bottom choke.

The well is located in Section 1012 Bk. 43, H&TC Survey. The half section of land upon which the well is located is owned by Mrs. Mary Garrett Swingle of Mt. Vernon, Ill.

Baker and Taylor drilled the well and Jack Simmons was the tool pusher for the discovery.

Woodson Oil Co. has leased a block of about 5,000 acres in the immediate area around this well. Company officials said Wednesday that they plan to drill out the block, and will start immediately.

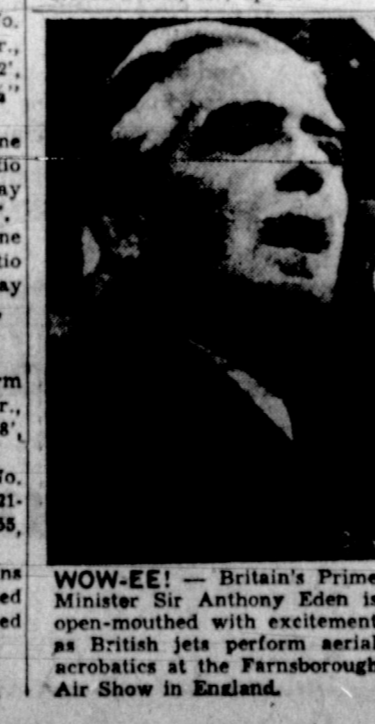

This is a history-making discovery—it is the first encouragement in the area, southeast of Perryton, it tends to confirm a theory that the oil bearing formations run through Ochiltree county from the Anadarko basin to the Hugoton field.

Company geologist Dukes said that the production was from the upper Morrow-but in a formation yet unnamed. It is about 175 feet higher than the Atoka sand, where other production has been made, but the Woodson discovery is in altogether new formations.

Thoughts

For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding—Colossians 1:9

For earthly blessings, moderate by thy prayer, and qualified; for light, for strength, for grace, unbounded thy petition.—Hannah Moore.

And he charged them, saying, Thus shall ye do in the fear of the Lord, faithfully, and with a perfect heart—II Chronicles 19:2.

There are treasures laid up in the heart—treasures of charity, piety, temperance, and sobriety. These treasures a man takes with him beyond death, when he leaves this world.—Buddhist Scriptures.

And it came to pass, that he went through the corn fields on the sabbath day; and his disciples began, as they went to pluck the ears of corn.—Mark 2:23.

Thou art my single day, God leads to heaven, What were all earth else, with a feel of heaven.—Browning.

Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father.—Galatians 1:4.

There is truth in Jesus which is terrible, as well as truth that is soothing; terrible, for He shall be Judge as well as Saviour; and ye cannot face Him, ye cannot stand before Him, unless ye now give ear to His invitation.—Henry Melville.

The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.—Psalms 19:8.

God's commandments are the iron door into Himself. To keep them is to have it opened and His great heart of love revealed.—Samuel Duffield.

Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul.—I Peter 2:11.

So long as lust (whether of the world or flesh) smells sweet in our nostrils, so long we are loathsome to God.—Colton.

For I have kept the ways of the Lord, and have not wickedly departed from my God.—II Samuel 22:22.

When thou art preparing to commit a sin, think not that thou wilt conceal it; there is a God that forbids crimes to be hidden.—Tibullus.

MAKING A GO OF LIFE

By ROY L. SMITH
Read Luke 15:11-24
All men experience great longings. All men are subject to certain great spiritual aspirations. These are not merely ardent desires to be better off; we are dealing here with something profoundly more significant than that. They are deep, wistful, persistent desires that we may be better persons. An intense moral sense is involved, in which the self-respect of the individual is at stake. "Can't you help me get a job that will give me the feeling that I am worth while?" a little office girl pleaded with her pastor. "They could make a machine that would do all I am doing, and I am a human being."
Deep down within the consciousness of every individual there is a feeling that we have an eternal destiny to fulfill that is above the level of the body or even of the mind. There seems to be an inner judge who is never satisfied, but is always surging up in us, impelling us to a greater effort, greater achievement, more exalted craftsmen, or better performers. We want to be better persons.

Deferment Of Fathers Is Planned

WASHINGTON—UP—Selective Service proposes to grant deferments to most draft-eligible young fathers and to all men over 26.
The proposed change in draft regulations is designed to get younger men into armed service. The Army has been concerned that they have been getting older men—those in the 23-25 age bracket.
The change in draft regulations is being circulated among government agencies for submission to President Eisenhower, a Selective Service spokesman said Thursday.
Big Manpower Pool
Selective Service now is faced with a big manpower pool in the draft—eligible 18½ through 25 age. In two years, this pool has jumped from around 940,000 to 1,765,000.
Because of this, the average age at which men are being inducted has jumped from 20 in 1952-53 to 23. At the height of the Korean war, it had dipped to about 19½. That's the age at which the Army wants men—before they are settled into civilian life.
Men over 26 who have been deferred once are eligible for the draft until the age 35 if the reason for their deferments no longer exists.
Still Could Be Called
Such men would continue to be liable to call if world conditions made induction necessary, but for all practical purposes now they would get a virtual blanket deferment.
In the case of fathers, local boards would be instructed to be more liberal in granting fatherhood deferments. The proposed change probably would result in deferments for most fathers.
Men with dependent fathers and mothers also would get more consideration for deferments. And hardship discharges from the armed forces would be liberalized.

Ike Suffers Digestive Disorder

DENVER—UP—President Eisenhower suffered a "digestive upset" during the night and remained in bed Saturday morning on his doctor's orders, the White House announced.
The assistant White House press secretary, Murray Snyder, said Maj. Gen. Howard Snyder, the House physician, was called to the President's bedside at the home of the chief executive's mother-in-law, Mrs. Elvira Doud, sometime during the night.
Snyder returned Saturday morning to the Doud residence, where the President and Mrs. Eisenhower have been staying during their vacation here, to check the President's condition.
The press secretary said, the President was still in bed Saturday morning and that his doctor was "there now."
First Illness in Months
"If he (the President) comes to his offices at all, it will be considerably later today," the press secretary said.
The President's sudden upset was the first illness the chief executive has suffered in many months. He returned only Friday from a four-day fishing trip to the Byers Peak ranch of his Denver friend, Askel Nielsen, at Fraser, Colo.
Because the brief White House announcement on the President's condition did not qualify it as a minor nature, there was some speculation that Mr. Eisenhower's illness was considered serious.
Saturday was the first morning the President had failed to arrive promptly at his offices at Lowry Air Force Base, where Summer White House headquarters are located, since he began his vacation here in mid-August.

Similar to Earlier Upset
The President is expected to remain here through mid-October before returning to Washington.
Mr. Eisenhower suffered a similar digestive upset in the spring of 1953 shortly after delivering a foreign policy address to a meeting of the American Society of Newspaper Editors in Washington.
Shortly after making the address the President left Washington for North Carolina where news of his illness first was disclosed.
The President recently has been a picture of robust health.

Cheese Mold
Roquefort cheese owes its marbled appearance to a mold called penicillium roqueforti, which is added to the cheese curd before curing.

Women In The Church
The first class to complete four years of work at Chung Chi College was graduated by the Hong Kong institution recently. Almost evenly divided between men and women, the seniors numbered 45. Of this group, six have already been accepted for graduate work in foreign universities— one at the University of Washington, Seattle; one at Mount Holyoke College, Massachusetts; one at Golden Gate Seminary, San Francisco, California; one at Oklahoma A&M College, Stillwater; one at Texas Christian University, Fort Worth; and one at Ottawa University, Canada. Fourteen graduates are preparing to enter Northgate Training College.

The United Council of Church Women— arm of the National Council of Churches and representing some 10,000,000 Protestant women throughout the United States—will hold its national assembly in Cleveland, Ohio, from Nov. 7 to 10. Mrs. James D. Wyker, national president, will preside over the sessions of this body that is "fast becoming one of the major church agencies in effecting social change in local communities." According to the UCCW, American women in thousands of American communities are tackling problems as organized councils of church women. They point out that in Atlanta church women have carried out successful housing and nursery projects; and are now grappling with mental health. In Des Moines they have been busy in fighting race discrimination and "many doors to employment, previously opened only to whites, are being gently battered down." Sioux City has found jobs and homes for 26 displaced families; and in Greensboro, Conn., has resettled 60 refugees. In Gainesville, Ga., and Lenoir, N. C., church women have established day-care centers for children of working Negro mothers. The women of Bloomsburg, Pa., have purchased play equipment for the children of migrants; and in Washington State, Long Island, Ohio and Arkansas, they have directed Halloween "tricks" into collections for UNICEF. In Ponca City, Okla., and in Modesto, Calif., women are promoting better race relations; elsewhere they are fighting the sale of comic books, aiding students from overseas, and providing food, shelter and relief for needy families.

Plane Feared Down At Sea

HONOLULU, T. H.—UP—A Flying Tiger Airlines DC-4 cargo plane with five men aboard is feared down at sea some 410 miles northwest of Johnston Island, the Navy said Saturday.
The four-engine plane, on a flight from Hickam Field to Wake Island, was last heard from at 8:40 p.m. Sat (12:40 a.m. est) when the pilot radioed he was at 500 feet altitude with three engines gone. Earlier he radioed that the plane had dropped from 8,000 feet to 4,000 feet altitude in a matter of minutes because of a "gas lock."

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou hast prepared a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou hast increased my strength, and my path hath been made straight. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.—23rd Psalm.

Personnel Conference To Be Held

The Panhandle Personnel Association and West Texas State College have scheduled for industry and business a one day meeting on the theme, "Keys To Supervisor Worker Relationship," through counselling, human relations, communications and good management. These points are keys that will unlock the door to better understanding of supervisory views. This conference is the third annual affair sponsored by the Panhandle Personnel Association in the field of industrial relations.

First in a series of speakers scheduled to appear at the Panhandle Personnel Association's Industrial Relations Conference, October 19th at West Texas State College in Canyon will be a member of the faculty of Louisiana State University.

Dr. Wesley Wiksell is a member of the faculty and a consultant on communications in industry. Dr. Wiksell originated the first communications course in the United States and has lectured to Management groups on human relations and communications for 10 years.

Dr. Wiksell received his B.A. and M.A. degree from the University of Ohio, his Ph.D. from Louisiana State and has taken post doctorate work at the University of Wisconsin, Chicago, Columbia and London. He is the author of, "Your Conversation," and has written numerous articles on various aspects of communications. He served as head of the Communications Division of Stephens College for 12 years, and has taught at Ethyl Corporation, Pan American Southern Corporation, Esso Standard Oil Company, University of Missouri, and Stephens College. He is a special consultant to professional men of communication problems, on speeches, conference leadership, parliamentary law and engineering.

Anyone who plans to attend the conference is asked to contact Dr. G. E. Kiser, Chairman, School of Business, West Texas State College, Canyon, Texas.

Other speakers to appear are William W. Keeler, vice president, Phillips Petroleum Company; Dr. J. L. Otis, director of psychological research services, Western Reserve University, Cleveland, O.; C. B. Elwell, manager, administrative division, The Western Company, Midland.

In addition to the conference, tours of the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum on West Texas State College campus during the noon recess and again after the conferences will be conducted for those interested. This museum contains many items depicting pioneer day of the High Plains.

Conducted tours of other buildings and departments on the campus can also be arranged on short notice.

Auto Execulives Argue Safety In Power Race

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
WASHINGTON — UP — The "wheels" in the American Automobile Association got to arguing over whether the horsepower race in modern machines means more death traps.

At the auto folks annual national convention, nothing actually came of the argument.

Lou E. Holland, president of the AAA Safety Council, allowed that the power business amounts to a pot of misery for men and machines.

E. Roy Cory, chairman of the organization's traffic and safety committee and the AAA executive vice president, Russell Singer, countered that the more the power the more the "agility" on the road.

"Nobody asked my opinion, but I would like to put in a good word for Lizzie, the Model T of long ago."

In my day, horsepower meant nothing more than what old Dobbin could pull, in single or double hitch.

I doubt if the late Henry Ford, who invented the Model T ever bothered to drop his mechanizing to try to balance the strength of the horse against the power generated by four little sparkplugs.

The Lizzie would do what you asked her to, and if she groaned

Legion Elects Perryton Man

PERRYTON — (Special) — Robert Barlow of Perryton was elected zone commander of the Fifth Legion Zone at the regular meeting held Monday night in Perryton at the Veterans Memorial Building. Harold E. Keller was named zone adjutant and Tommy Manning zone chaplain.

Posts from Perryton, Booker, Darrouzett, Follett, Higgins and Canadian were represented.

Post commander John Stubblefield announced the following local committee appointments:

House, Coke Harlow; Membership, Omar Truax; Public Relations, Jake Dunkle; Visiting, Tommy Manning; Americanism, Joe Champion; Legal, Jack M. Allen; Finance, Gale Rogers; Athletics, Hank Richardson.

Explosion Hits San Antonio

SAN ANTONIO — UP — A gasoline explosion at San Antonio police headquarters Saturday shattered several windows, tossed a man-hole cover high into the air and scorched six patrol cars.

Walter Ross had just put 4,500 gallons of gasoline into the police headquarters' underground tank when the explosion occurred. Police said some of the gasoline from the tank truck had run off into a nearby sewer and somebody tossed a match into the sewer, setting off the blast and fire.

Several officers standing nearby escape injury and two women clerks in corporation court were showered with flying glass but were unhurt.

The tank truck caught fire but the blaze was quickly extinguished.

a little she never complained too much.

She would pull you up a hill. And going 20 or so miles an hour was all that was needed, there wasn't a race on, anyhow.

And what if you went asleep at the controls! With the fenders Old Henry produced a culvert did not present too much of a challenge. A sledge hammer always was at hand. If a spark plug balked, a Boy Scout knife could scrape off the carbon in a nonce.

Liz had a few faults. She had a habit of coming down with flat tires. Those tire irons, with which you dismantled tire from wheel, were tricky little things.

But before the tire irons came the jack, which wouldn't stand still on a hill. Liz, though, was light enough for a few young men to hoist, if there were enough young men about. Generally there were.

A lot of the repair jobs could be done with baling, or hay wire. If a door came loose, a fellow had a couple of choices. You could un-hinge the door and sell the remains for junk. Or you could wire it up and crawl over the side. Either was nice in the cool of the evening.

Point is, though, that Lizzie never went around the country roads hurting very many people.

Non-Retractable Claws

The fossa, rarely seen in the United States, comes from Madagascar and is akin to the cat family. It has sleek brown fur, a face like a civet, thick legs, but unlike true cats, its claws are not retractable.
