Oil Progress Week Program Outlined

Oil Progress Week officially begins today in the Top of Texas and a full week of activities is scheduled honoring the oil industry and its contribution to the American way of life.

Highlight of the week is to be a banquet at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the High School cafeteria featuring Attorney General John Ben Shepperd as principal speaker. Another look-forward-to event in connection with the banquet is the naming of an Oil Queen. The Queen is to be a high school and the winner will not be announced until the night of the banquet.

The lucky girl who is chosen Queen, and whoever she chooses to go with her, will fly to Dallas Oct. 21 via Braniff Air Lines and will visit the State Fair, where she will enjoy the various entertainment offered including the stage show, "The Pajama Game".

Escorted by Hildred Cook, president of the Desk and Derrick Club, the Queen will stay at the Baker Hotel and will be presented at the fair and to the city of Dallas by the Dallas Oil Industry Information Committee. She will also make various appearances on radio and TV.

"1976", a television show starring Wally Cox, Sid Caesar, Arlene Francis, and Eve Garroway, will kick off the week's activities this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock over Channel 4, KINC-TV, Amarillo. The show will deal with living conditions in the next twenty years and the contributions of the oil industry will make to advancement and progress.

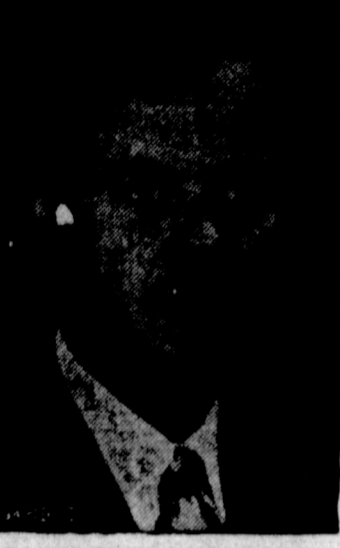

Also of a great deal of interest in the Pampa area will be the naming of "Miss 1976", the first girl baby born in the area today. The baby will be showered with gifts from local merchants and will receive the mythical crown, "Miss 1976".

Gifts for Miss 1976 will be: M. E. Moses Co., Booties; F. W. Navy Launches Mighty Warship

By JAMES W. CARROLL
 NEW YORK, Oct. 8—UP—The world's mightiest warship was christened the U.S.S. Saratoga Saturday.

The giant five-block-long super aircraft carrier, the sixth naval vessel to bear that illustrious name, was hailed as a symbol of the power of the American people, finished with champagne, sea water and a light rain, and saluted by every vessel in the nation's biggest port.

The ship will cost about 186 million. The new 60,000-ton "Sara," said to be 70 to 80 per cent completed, will add something new in the way of comfort for sailing, as well as atom-age technical improvements and push-button jet plane launchings.

Automatic Potato Peelers
 From garbage disposal units in the galley to semi-private bunks equipped with fluorescent reading lights, from automatic potato peelers to softly decorated lounges with plush overstuffed chairs, the ship was designed to boost crew morale along with battle efficiency.

With Navy officers and men and a crowd of onlookers standing at attention in the rain, Mrs. Charles S. Thomas, wife of the Navy secretary, smashed a bottle of champagne against the ship's bow, saying "I christen thee Saratoga."

A band struck up "Anchors Aweigh," and the new Sara's deep whistle was cut loose. The strains of music and the piercing sounds of other ship whistles wafted through the Brooklyn navy yard.

To Join Fleet in 1964
 Sara was not actually launched. Enough water to wet her keel was let into her drydock, where she will be completed. She is scheduled to join the fleet early next year. Her keel was laid in December, 1952.

The new vessel is the sister ship to the U.S.S. Forrestal, which was commissioned last Saturday. The two carriers are almost alike in appearance, but the Sara is more powerful and is crammed with newer gadgets than the Forrestal.

Adm. Arthur Radford, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff who began his Navy flying career aboard the old carrier Saratoga, was the principal speaker at the christening.

Sara Is a Symbol
 "There have been six United States naval vessels named Saratoga," he said. "In addition, two revolutionary war privateers, another in the war of 1812, and many merchant vessels have carried the name. Truly this is a name which rings with the courage and might of our sea power."

As awe-inspiring as are the dimensions of this Leviathan, the ship herself is but a symbol of the (See NAVY, Page 2)

Eden Says British To Trim Military

By KENNETH MILLER
 BOURNEMOUTH, England, Oct. 8—UP—Prime Minister Anthony Eden announced Saturday that Britain will cut its armed forces by 12 to 15 per cent because of the improved outlook for peace.

Eden said 100,000 men and women will be dropped from the armed services by spring of 1958. The British armed forces now number 800,000 men and women.

At the same time, the prime minister announced a "slowdown" in calling up draftees. But he said the two-year draft period would be maintained.

Eden announced the cuts in his first speech as party leader before the annual Conservative party convention here.

He's Still Wary
 A defense ministry spokesman in London said the major share of the cuts would be borne by the army rather than the navy or air force.

Authoritative cabinet sources said NATO had not been consulted in advance about the troop reductions because they will not affect Britain's contribution to the Atlantic Pact forces.

Eden warned, however, that despite the new "spirit of Geneva" he did not necessarily believe that Russia or the other great powers have "changed their purposes."

He said they are held in check by the fear of nuclear destruction.

Review British Policy
 In a sweeping review of British policy before 4,000 cheering Conservatives Eden also warned that Britain faces "formidable" economic problems. He said he will soon announce priority corrective measures to pull Britain out of the near crisis caused by inflation and dollar shortages.

The prime minister also said he was postponing a long-rumored cabinet reorganization "for the present."

Eden's disclosure came a few months after Russia announced it was cutting its armed forces by 640,000 men. All the Soviet satellite nations in eastern Europe followed suit by announcing cuts.

Reds Lead Rioters In French Army

ROUEN, France, Oct. 8—UP—Communist-led rioters Saturday night hurled Molotov cocktails against the walls of the army barracks where 500 mutinous troops had staged a sit-down to protest being sent to North Africa. Soldiers and police quickly put out the fires.

It was the second straight day of rioting in this city where Joan of Arc was burned at the stake in 1431.

Saturday's demonstrations started at 5 p. m. at Chartreux Park, about 400 yards from the Richepanse barracks where the mutinous draftees had held out. The mutineers already had been quietly put aboard trucks and started on their way after calling off their sit-down strike.

Some 600 Communists had gathered by 5:30 p. m. and the meeting started peacefully. But by 7 p. m. the crowd was shouting. Trucks of Republican security guard riot police that arrived at the scene were stoned.

Police tried to break up the demonstrators as they pushed through and marched on the barracks.

Molotov cocktails—bottles full of gasoline—were hurled at a wooden barricade. The barricade had been erected to close a gap in the wall which the mutineers had made Friday night by using a truck to batter down.

SAN FRANCISCO—UP—Municipal Judge Clayton Horn pondered Friday the retaliation he would take against a Navy officer who paid a $6 traffic fine with pennies dipped in a foul-smelling chemical.

Judge Horn said an eye-watering count of the pennies sent in by Lt. Cdr. Vernon E. Sutton showed there were only 599 pennies in the package.

Ike Still Far From Recovery

Doctors Say Chief Past Critical Point
 By WARREN DUFFEE
 DENVER, Oct. 8—UP—The temporary White House warned Saturday that "there is still a long way to go" in President Eisenhower's recovery as the chief executive satisfactorily passed his critical two weeks recovery period.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said the President's condition since he was stricken with a heart attack Sept. 24 "has progressed satisfactorily without complications" but "there is no intention of removing him from the hospital for some time."

Hagerty moved to spike "over-optimistic statements" about the President's recovery and said "the regaining of strength cannot be accurately predicted in advance."

He read his prepared statement to newsmen at the temporary White House after the President's doctors issued another favorable medical bulletin as of late Saturday morning.

Asked if his statement indicated any lack of progress in the President's condition, Hagerty replied, "It does not."

The White House spokesman sounded the note of caution as Vice President Richard M. Nixon flew here with Dr. Paul Dudley White Boston, heart specialist, for a brief visit with Mr. Eisenhower.

Reports from the President's bedside at Fitzsimons Army Hospital continued favorable. He spent a comfortable night and his condition at mid-morning "continues to progress satisfactorily without complications," the doctors said.

But Hagerty, emphasizing that he was speaking on his own after conferring with the doctors, said he was concerned about "certain reports" in press and radio that "give the impression that the President is out of the woods, that he might be flown back East within 10 days, and similar over-optimistic statements."

No 'Miraculous Cure'
 He admitted that White, in a press conference two days after the President was stricken, set forth the time table for the President's recovery. White said in two weeks critical period probably would be followed by another two weeks in the hospital and then another month of convalescence at some other restful spot.

Hagerty said Mr. Eisenhower's satisfactory progress to date "does not mean that the President overnight had become miraculously cured."

He said "the healing processes are continuing but there is still a long way to go."

"The rate of recovery and the regaining of strength cannot be accurately predicted in advance but depend upon progress from day to day," he said.

Discharge Date Uncertain
 Hagerty warned newsmen against predicting when the President might be able to leave the hospital.

Maj. John S. Eisenhower, the President's son, and Sherman Adams, the top presidential assistant, flew to Denver from Washington with Nixon and White.

They had to fly by military transport when the President's plane, Columbine III, developed pressurizing trouble and was left in Washington.

Nixon's visit, at the President's request, was widely interpreted as a sign that the chief executive is well on the way to recovery and preparing to resume gradually the lighter duties of his office.

Nixon may be able to see the President Saturday night and if not then, Sunday. This will be decided by the doctors after the vice president arrives. His visit will be followed Tuesday with one from Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, who will fly here for a brief session with Mr. Eisenhower.

Paraguay To Decide Peron's Fate

ASUNCION, Paraguay, Oct. 8—UP—Paraguay told Argentina Saturday night that the question of whether to expel former Argentine President Juan D. Peron is now Paraguay's affair.

The Paraguayan government in a note to Argentina said it regretted Peron's recent interview and promised strict vigilance in the future to prevent similar incidents.

But on the question of expelling the deposed Argentine leader, Paraguay said: "This is a matter to be decided by the country who received the refugee."

The note replied to one from Argentina asking that political asylum granted Peron in this country be ended. Argentina disclosed Thursday that it had asked Paraguay to expel Peron to "any country outside the continent" and said his continued presence in Paraguay "is incompatible with the maintenance of harmonious relations between the two countries."

The Paraguayan note was handed to Argentine Charge d'Affaires Juan Pena who Friday submitted the Argentine request to Foreign Minister Hipolito Sanchez Quells.

Senator Mundt To Speak Here Monday Night

One of America's most powerful and influential congressmen, Senator Karl Mundt, the man who was witnessed on TV by more Americans than almost anyone else for a period of several weeks while he "referred" the Army-McCarthy hearings, will be the honored guest speaker of the Top of Texas Knife and Fork Club tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in the High school cafeteria.

A dynamic speaker, and a very popular one although the press of his duties in Washington prevents him from making more than two or three addresses a year, Senator Mundt has many other honors besides those gained as a senator.

Last year he was the winner of the top National Freedom Foundation's Award for the best article on Americanism published during the year 1953. The article appeared in "This Week" magazine.

One always knows where Senator Mundt stands. Fence-straddling is not one of his specialties; he never ducks an issue, but meets it head on and with a consummate skill which routes the forces of phoniness and other foreign "isms" and gives strength and support to the American way of life.

As a leading authority on Russia, what Senator Mundt has to say on the land of the "happy workers" is of especial importance at this time. Briefly he does not believe that war is inevitable between the United States and Russia and in his address he will tell you why.

Minister's Speech May Mean He's On His Way Out

By KENNETH BRODNEY
 MOSCOW, Oct. 8—UP—Foreign Minister Vyacheslav M. Molotov confessed Saturday that he committed a major ideological error and the Soviet magazine "Communist" criticized him strongly for the mistake.

An editorial in Communist, official theoretical organ of the Communist party, said Molotov confessed error because he belittled "the great economic, political and ideological achievements of Soviet society and our system."

The 65-year-old foreign minister, one of the last of the "old Bolsheviks" to survive the Stalin era, wrote a letter which the magazine published. In the letter he admitted committing a blunder that was "theoretically mistaken and politically harmful" to the Soviet Union and communism.

Molotov said he made his error in a speech to the Supreme Soviet at the same session which Georgi M. Malenkov resigned as premier last Feb. 8.

Not Mentioned by Name
 The editorial did not mention Molotov by name. But it was clear that it referred specifically to his letter printed on the last page of the magazine.

The criticism comes at a time when all action of Soviet leaders and the people show they are becoming increasingly self-confident and aware of their achievement and the present enormous power of the Soviet state—despite large problems that still remain unsolved.

There is a great sensitivity about anyone, foreigner or Soviet citizen, saying or implying that the Soviet state is still in the beginning stage, even if the person is as important as Molotov.

Quite apart from any possible effects on Molotov himself, his address and the editorial are seen here as preparation for the 20th party congress starting next February.

Faure's Man In Morocco Quits In Huff

By WILBUR G. LANDREY
 RABAT, Morocco, Oct. 8—UP—French Premier Edgar Faure's personal representative to Morocco resigned in disgust Saturday under pressure of French settlers.

Francis de Panafieu whom Faure dispatched to North Africa to help settle the home rule crisis, quit suddenly over the opposition of the colonists to Moroccan reform.

The special envoy's resignation was regarded as a severe blow to Faure's Moroccan peace plan.

Panafieu also obligated to the foot-dragging of the French resident general in Morocco, Gen. Pierre Boyer de Latour, informed sources said.

Demonstration Planned
 Panafieu feels Latour has deferred to the settlers, the sources said.

The envoy's resignation was announced while police were massing around the French residency to prevent possible rioting during a mass demonstration against Panafieu set for Saturday night.

Panafieu received a group of hostile colonists and said: "Why should there be demonstrations? I have resigned. I am going back to Paris tomorrow with General (Pierre) Billotte."

Billotte is Faure's defense minister who toured the fighting front's Saturday.

Settlers Demanded Recall
 "I don't want to see Frenchmen fighting Frenchmen," Panafieu said.

The settlers had expressed their strong opposition to Panafieu and had demanded his immediate recall.

They asserted that Panafieu was trying to engineer the complete abdication of pro-French Sultan Sidi Mohammed Ben Moulay Arafa, who at France's insistence has withdrawn to the neutral Tangier zone.

Ramsey Is Pushed For Governor Race

AUSTIN, Oct. 9—UP—Selection of Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey as national Democratic committee man has shoved the ambling East Texan a notch higher on the list of potentials in next year's race for governor.

Most political observers agreed Saturday that if the soft-talking St. Augustine attorney determines to make the bid, his surprise appointment will probably help more than it will hurt.

Ramsey, among the calmest of the cool and calculating politicians, emerged with the blessing of signal callers representing both the conservative and liberal Democratic factions in Texas.

How deep or abiding that blessing will be is another matter.

From the conservative side, headed by Gov. Allan Shivers, came Ramsey's election as national committee man.

His acceptance by the party-liners—the loyal faction that stood fast during the revolt of 1952—was sounded by House Speaker Sam Rayburn and Senate majority leader Lyndon B. Johnson.

"I think he will be a good man for the place," said Rayburn, a man who often speaks as the political patron of Texas' Democratic liberals.

"I think it is a fine selection," commented Johnson, offering an accolade assuring Ramsey's acceptance in the national councils of the Democratic party.

It was Rayburn who revealed that Ramsey told him he "had always supported the nominees of the Democratic party, including 1952, and that he intended to support the nominee of the Democratic convention in 1956."

For the brass-collar Democrat, this pledge of loyalty would carry weight, possibly tempering—even for the liberals—Ramsey's long record as a conservative lawmaker in the Texas legislature.

Across the fence, the conservative leadership pretended to ignore a possible conflict between Ramsey's down-the-line devotion to the party standard and the governor's new call for political independence.

The stress was on Ramsey's conservative background.

However, not all was sweetness. A militant liberal faction long at odds with the governor spurned the selection of Ramsey as a "hand-picked" offering by the executive committee.

Mrs. R. D. Randolph of Houston, acting chairman of the Democratic advisory council of Texas, quickly pointed out Ramsey—nominated as a Democrat—accepted cross-filing on the Republican ticket as a candidate for lieutenant governor in 1952.

Morrow Ouster Called Illegal

DALLAS, Oct. 8—UP—Alva Sanders, member of a group known as the "Draft Wright Morrow for Governor of Texas Club," Saturday called the ouster of Morrow as Democratic national committee man from Texas illegal.

Sanders referred specifically to the replacement of Morrow at Thursday's meeting in Fort Worth of the Democratic executive committee. Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey was named to the post the committee had recently declared vacant.

Sanders' position was that Morrow, of Houston, was elected national committee man by the state Democratic convention in 1952 to a four-year term. He argued the term does not expire until 1956.

Texas Water Problems Due Study

GALVESTON, Oct. 8—UP—Texas' complex water problems will get a thorough going-over when the Texas Water Conservation Association opens its 11th annual meeting Sunday night.

The resolutions committee, headed by John W. Carpenter, Dallas, president of the Trinity Improvement Association, meets at 8 p.m. to formulate recommendations including—among other things—state and federal roles in developing the nation's water resources, and a long-standing controversy as to whether small federal flood control dams are drying up lower reaches of Texas streams.

The general meetings gets under way at 9:30 a.m. Monday with TWCA President Judge Guy C. Jackson Jr., Anahuac, president.

High level officials of three federal agencies speak at the Monday morning sessions. They are Brig. Gen. L. E. Seeman of Dallas, division engineer of the southwestern division Corps of Engineers; W. A. Dextelmer, Washington, D.C., U.S. commissioner of reclamation, and H. N. Smith of Temple, in charge of the U.S. Soil Conservation Service in Texas.

U.S. Sen. Price Daniel of Texas will address the Monday luncheon meeting in Galveston hotel.

R. M. Dixon of Austin, new chairman of the Texas Board of Water Engineers, and San Antonio Rep. Stanley Banks, a member of the Texas Water Resources committee, will speak Monday afternoon.

C. Petrus Peterson, Lincoln, Neb., former Nebraska state senator and now president in Motion Reclamation Association, opens the Tuesday morning program.

Frank H. Newnam Jr., Houston, a member of the Hoover Commission's task force on water resources, will speak after Peterson.

Newnam will discuss changes in federal policies recommended by the Hoover Commission.

Faure Wins Support For Morocco Idea

PARIS, Oct. 8—UP—Premier Edgar Faure Saturday night won the support of the powerful Socialists in his fight to put over his reform program in strife-torn Morocco.

The Socialist deputies, in the midst of a three-day assembly debate which could determine the fate of the Faure government, voted to draw up their own resolution supporting Faure's Moroccan peace plan.

If this resolution fails, the Socialists were expected to support the Faure government in another motion.

Earlier in the debate, Faure won the important support of two former premiers, Pierre Mendes-France and Antoine Pinay.

Faure climaxed a day-long assembly session with an impassioned appeal to the deputies to stop bickering and decide on the government's course in Morocco.

He told the assembly to "make up its mind" to reforms in Morocco or face further bloodshed in the North African protectorate.

"Your decision must be clear to enlighten world and domestic opinion," Faure told the deputies. "A clear-cut solution is necessary to affirm the authority of the state."

White House May Referee Aid Purchases Dispute

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—UP—The White House has been asked to referee a backstage administration dispute over giving American businessmen favored treatment in foreign aid purchases official sources disclosed Saturday.

Principals in the policy conflict are secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks and the foreign aid chief John B. Hollister.

The issue has been padded up for decision to President Eisenhower's cabinet-level council on foreign economic policy, headed by former budget director Joseph M. Dodge.

At stake are millions of dollars worth of procurement contracts for industrial goods and raw materials, such as coal, used in the government's foreign aid program.

Both the Commerce Department and Hollister's International Cooperation Administration refused Saturday to give reporters a clear, official statement of opposing positions the two agencies have taken.

Officials willing to talk on a "don't quote me" basis said the crux of the dispute is whether ICA should change its present policy under which foreign producers are given a chance to bid on some, but not all, of the approximately $350 million worth of industrial goods and raw materials bought by the U. S. government annually for use in the foreign economic aid program.

Hollister is reported to believe that the overall purpose of the program — strengthening the economies of friendly free nations — can best be served by giving foreign firms a wider opportunity than they have at present to bid competitively on these contracts.

In purchase of this belief, he recently notified coal state congressmen by letter that ICA will buy coal for foreign aid use this year "from the most economical source whether that be the United States or other free world sources of supply."

The Other View Weeks, the cabinet spokesman for American business is understood to feel that the ICA should put more, not less, emphasis on "buy American" policies. One report, which his spokesman would

He inspected the Aknoul-Boured-Tizi Ouzi triangle which has been the scene of the fiercest fighting. The road between Aknoul and Boured was open, and communication was open with the Tizi Ouzi garrison.

But rebel tribesmen still splattered some roads, with rifle fire from their hilly hideouts.

New Algerian Outbreaks French troops moved steadily into this area and into that section further south where tribesmen also were fighting.

In Algeria, adjoining Morocco on the east, there were new outbreaks of terrorism by nationalists in three areas.

Billotte replaced as defense minister Gen. Pierre Koenig, one of four cabinet members Faure dismissed because they refused to support his Morocco policy.

It was reported that Billotte had been instructed to get Gen. Pierre Boyer de La tour, resident general and commander in chief, to set up the proposed throne council.

An official statement said Saturday that French troop casualties in fighting up to Friday were 17 killed and 599 wounded. There was no official estimate of rebel losses.

In his speech last February Molotov said that "the foundation of a socialist society has already been built" in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

"This mistaken formulation leads to the incorrect conclusion that allegedly a socialist society has not yet been created in the Soviet Union," Molotov said, "that only the foundations of a socialist society have been built."

Actually, he said in his letter, it had been stated in 1932 that the foundations had been completed and further successes in building socialism have brought the Soviet Union to a new state of development.

This new state of development, Molotov said, is that of gradual transition to a Communist society.

Molotov's letter was dated Sept. 16, just before he went to New York in order to attend the United Nations annual General Assembly. The magazine was distributed publicly Saturday.

Southern Governors To Meet This Week

By AL KUETTNER
 ATLANTA — UP — Southern governors hold their annual conference next week with Dixie's future in the 1956 elections the unspoken question underlying the usual discussion of regional problems.

In a pre-convention survey, United Press found only one member governor of the Southern Governors' Conference — Republican Theodore R. McKeldin of Maryland — willing to predict that the GOP will do as well next year in the South as in 1952 when that party captured four Dixie states.

Another state executive, Gov. Marvin Griffin of Georgia, warned that should the Democratic party nominate "ultra left - wingers" the action might cost the party some Southern states.

In the 1952 Eisenhower victory, the Republicans took Florida, Texas, Tennessee and Virginia away from the Democrats.

Gov. Leroy Collins of Florida, whose views were expressed prior to Mr. Eisenhower's Sept. 24 heart attack, acknowledged the President probably would take Florida again if the election were held immediately. But he believes the state will swing back to the Democratic column by November of 1956.

New Primary Law
 Florida has a new presidential preferential primary law and an early 1956 test of sentiment will be available from its voters.

"There is a good chance that a number of southern states will go Republican in 1956," McKeldin said. "The chance is better than in 1952."

He named Maryland, Virginia, is calm under pressure.

Conscience that I have thy endorsement gives me confidence that never comes from any other source. It is a strength I am never able to summon by any other means. Accept my thanks, O God. Amen.

At what time during the last few days have you felt yourself on the most exalted spiritual level? Was it following some stout resistance of temptation? Is it not possible to repeat such an action and reach that level again?

Florida, Oklahoma and "possibly" North Carolina "because of the growing independence of the voters, regardless of party." Texas and Louisiana because of Democratic policy favoring federal ownership of tidelands oil rights, and Missouri, Tennessee and Kentucky.

In general, however, Dixie executives, even before the illness of the President, said for the record they thought the Democrats would win back the South.

Not Sure of Candidate
 But they are not nearly as certain about the Democratic standard bearer. Only one of the six governors who responded in detail to the survey — Griffin of Georgia — forecast flatly that the Democrats would nominate their 1952 candidate, Adlai Stevenson.

Is there a chance of a third party forming such as the States Rights group in 1948? With a single exception, the answer from state houses of the South is "not likely."

But Gov. George Bell Timmerman of South Carolina feels that such a move may be in the making on a national scale because of "deep and fundamental dissatisfaction with both the Republican and the Democratic party."

"The conviction is growing that each of these parties is embracing policies that are unconstitutional in principle, unrepresentative in character and un-American in origin," Timmerman said.

The governors' conference convenes Oct. 18 for a three-day session at Point Clear, a resort 20 miles south of Mobile, Ala. Among the top regional issues up for discussion will be highways, education and mental health.

The Berrys

On Tiny Providence Island north of Madagascar the hearts of cocoa-palm trees provide a delicacy known as "the millionaire's salad," says the National Geographic Society. A palm heart is obtained by cutting down a mature tree. To serve ten persons costs about $200. Many astronauts feel sure the large dark areas on Mars represent vegetation. A canal-like network could reflect 50-miles-wide bands of plant life growing in old river valleys. However, the lines do not meander; some shoot out like arrows for 1,500 miles. Unlike true rivers, they sometimes intersect.

MAKING A GO OF LIFE

Read Psalm 31:1-10
 Right action produces a sense of strength. The knight Sir Galahad, as interpreted by Tennyson, says: "My strength is as the strength of ten." Because my heart is pure.

"Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God" (Matt. 5:8 is Jesus' statement of the case.

A petulant ringing of the bell brought a father to his door one evening, there to be met by an angry neighbor. "I have come to see you about your boy," the caller announced. "He has been shaking apples off our tree, and it must stop."

A consultation with the boy, a denial, and a repetition of the charge resulted in a trip across the street to meet an elderly woman who could "identify him." There came a tense moment while the 80-year-old woman looked the eight-year-old boy over. He stood up under the examination without flinching, and when she said, a bit grudgingly, "No, that ain't him," the little fellow's face did not change expression in the least.

He had expected that verdict. Outside, in the middle of the street he reached his hand up into his father's and said: "Dad, it always makes us feel good down deep inside when we know we're right, doesn't it?" He had discovered one of the first principles employed by those who make a go of life.

Right-conduct and a clear conscience leave a deposit in one's spirit that is of incalculable value. A person who has that good feeling "down deep inside" walks with a sureness and with a consciousness of power which no other person has. His nerves never seem to show; his temper seldom rises; he

Veterans Are 'Good Risks'

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8—UP—The Veterans Administration reported Saturday that former servicemen who borrowed money to buy or build homes turned out to be "good credit risks."

It said that since start of its GI home loan guarantee program in 1944, it has paid claims on only 22,934 defaulted loans out of a total of 4,017,543 valued at $30,273,322,000.

Eighteen per cent of the loans—718, 196—amounting to $4 billion have been paid off in full.

The program passed the four million mark in August when 55,000 loans were approved. This represents nearly 22 per cent of the 18.5 million veterans eligible for loans.

The VA reminded in its press release that World War II veterans have until July 25, 1956, to obtain loans while veterans of the Korean war have until Feb. 1, 1955.

New Style Sack Derived From Oil

Families in America are getting more fresh fruits and vegetables, thanks to the increased use of a new packaging material, polyethylene.

Made into attractive, transparent bags, the oil-derived polyethylene is helping change traditional shopping habits of housewives in America, enabling them to buy prepackaged fruit and vegetables at their best.

About 600 million square yards of polyethylene film were used for packaging in 1953, and predictions are that more than half the fresh produce bought by housewives soon will be packaged in polyethylene bags. Oil, in its countless forms, helps America's food supply along from farm to table.

For the first time on record, no Indian deaths from tuberculosis were reported in Minnesota in 1954.

Cement Worker's Gadget Puts Him In Big Business

By DENNY DAVIS

TURLEY, Okla., Oct. 8—UP—If Loren Hale had not grown tired of slapping cement onto a wall with a whiskbroom, he might never have become an inventor, manufacturer and international businessman.

His arm ached, so he conceived an idea that mushroomed into a business spreading from Australia across the United States to Europe.

The company almost has outgrown the garage in Hale's backyard.

Hale, 34, invented what he calls the first successful wet-mix applicator. It looks like a cement mixer with a fire hose attached. He claims it will apply cement or almost anything else that runs wet and dries hard, better and faster and cheaper than anybody else's machine.

The machine is used in construction and repair of oil refineries, steel mill furnaces, acoustical walls and insulated pipes.

Just Looking for Way

"I was just looking for a way to spread cement onto walls," said the former spray-painter whose schooling stopped at the seventh grade.

"I was dashing cement onto a wall of a used-car lot office in Tulsa one day, and my arm got tired. I started thinking of a way to spray it on. Up to then, all cement spraying had been by the dri-mix method—the water was added at the nozzle of the hose."

Hale began experimenting then seven years ago. He still is improving his machine, adding gadgets much as might an auto maker.

"One day an oilman asked, 'why don't you use that thing to spray refractories?' I did not even know what an oil refinery refractory was, but I found out and started improving the machine to do that job," Hale recalled Saturday.

Hale moved from little jobs to big ones. His biggest break came early this year when an Australian oil firm flew Hale and three assistants to spray refractories at a refinery 20 miles east of Sydney.

Foreign Sales

Hale also began manufacturing and selling his "refract-all" machine about three years ago. This year, he has shipped one to Amsterdam, Netherlands, and is dickering for other sales or construction contracts in Europe, Africa and the Middle East.

The stocky, cheerful young executive has part of his patented machine made by another firm, then completes the assembly in his backyard shop in this Tulsa county community. He hopes to build his own plant next year.

Hale drives a Cadillac now but admits he almost went broke when he started his home-grown Oklahoma industry.

"I had to let my painting business die," he said. "And the federal taxes don't make it any easier to get started. But anyone who has an idea and believes in it can still get ahead in Oklahoma."

Harvesters Lose 13-6 In District Opener

The Fighting Harvesters fell before the power of the Amarillo Sandies Friday night at Harvester park as a tense crowd of 9,000 Pampa and Amarillo fans watched. The final score was the same as it was half-time 13-6.

The Sandies received the kickoff and went from their own 18 in 14 plays to the Pampa three, where they had first down and the goal to go. Quarterback, Arnie Duncan kept the pigskin on a sneak and drove through the Green and Golders' forward wall to pick up 6 points for the Sandies. Skippy Pumphin kicked the extra point to give the Sandies an early 7-0 lead.

The Pampa fullback, Gene Emerson, fumbled the kickoff and a throng of Sandies pounced on the ball. The Sandies then took over on the Pampa 41 and marched again to paydirt. After six plays the Sandie fullback, Roy Northrup plunged over from the one and that gave Coach Kerbel's eleven a first quarter 13-0 lead. This happened before the Harvesters ran an offensive play.

It was a different story when the Harvesters got their hands on the pigskin though. They managed to hold the kickoff this time and in the second period marched 60 yards to paydirt. They picked up two first downs and scored on a pitch-out 28 yard run. Fullback, Jesse Ring, took the handoff from quarterback, Jerry Hopkins, and picked up 10 yards before he found himself trapped by a group of Sandies. He managed to lateral to halfback, Dickie Mauldin, who took the ball at top speed and galloped the remaining 18 yards untouched for the only score the Harvesters could muster.

The third and fourth periods were nip and tuck all the way and neither team could muster enough driving power to score again. The Sandies managed to pick up 16 first downs while the Harvesters got only seven.

The Harvesters completed the only pass they tried and it came in the last frame when halfback Bobby Dehis tossed a screen pass to Dickie Mauldin that was good for 14 yards and one of the Pampa seven first downs. The Sandies, on the other hand, tossed five passes and completed two for an aerial gain of 10 yards.

The Sandies ground gain looked better than the score then they stacked up 252 yards on the ground while the Harvesters managed only 120.

Neither team intercepted a pass but the Harvesters recovered two Sandie fumbles while the Sandies recovered three of the Pampa fumbles at critical times.

The Sandies were penalized three times for 15 yards and had two penalties refused. The Harvesters were penalized only one time for five yards but also had two penalties refused. The Harvesters were penalized only one time for five yards but also had two penalties refused.

Amarillo's offense was hurt when Quarterback Billy Hulet was hurt before the half-time. On the other hand, Pampa's starting quarterback, Buddy Sharp, hasn't played a game this season because of a knee injury he sustained in workouts early in the season.

The Harvesters picked up three of their seven first downs in the last half while the Sandies made only one. It was Amarillo's first victory in Pampa since 1947 and their third since '39.

The Harvesters, with one win, two losses and a tie, will journey to San Angelo who was defeated Friday night by Midland 25-7.

Hurricane Jackson Bids For Heavyweight Match

DETROIT — UP—Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, fresh from a bloody six round TKO of pudgy Rex Layne, said Saturday he was ready to take on Rocky Marciano for the heavyweight championship of the world.

"I'm ready to take on the champ or anyone else right now," said the third-ranked challenger for Marciano's crown confidently. "I never even got warmed up against Layne," he continued.

Layne, 10th ranked contender from Lewiston, Utah, who suffered a gashed eye in the fifth round of Friday night's nationally televised fight, had less confidence in his opponent's ability.

"He's nothing but a clown," snorted the rolly poly farm boy.

"He was a better fighter than when we met the first time (Jackson stopped Layne in the sixth round at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway Arena Jan. 25, 1954) and I will say that he can take a punch. But he's not as good as he thinks." Marv Jensen, Layne's manager, and his entourage agreed.

"Rex would have whipped him if he would have let the fight go on," said Jensen. "It would only have taken three stitches to close that cut. Why it took 16 stitches to sew him up after he fought Marciano."

Layne was ahead on two of the three ring officials cards when Referee Lou Handler stopped the fight after 25 seconds of the sixth. Handler favored Layne, 48-45, Judge Joe Lenahan scored it 48-46, Layne and Judge Barney Blatt had it 48-43, Jackson.

The bout marked the 25th marked victory for Jackson, who at 19½ gave away 7½ pounds to his opponent against three losses and a draw.

SMU's Win Over Missouri Not Proof Of Its Power

DALLAS — UP—Southern Methodist had its first victory of the young season Saturday, but the 13-6 verdict scored over off-beaten Missouri Friday night still failed to show the Methodists as the powerhouse it was predicted to be.

Coach Chalmer Woodard's Mustangs huffed and puffed against an outmanned, but not outfought Missouri crew for most of three periods before sheer manpower wore down the game Tigers and enabled SMU to put on the clinching touchdown before 25,000 fans.

Both SMU markers were counted by Charlie Jackson, a 169-pound sophomore halfback from Paris, Tex., who hadn't handled the ball a down in varsity play before Friday night.

The fleet youngster pulled in a soaring 39-yard pass from quarterback John Roach late in the second quarter and raced 40 yards in the fading minutes of the final quarter for the scores.

But, Missouri had scored first midway the second period on a one-yard flip from Dave Doane to Joe Wyn, to climax a 42-yard march and it had begun to look like Tommy Beal's extra point after the first SMU touchdown would provide the slim victory margin.

Statistically, SMU won by a much wider margin with Jackson, John Marshall and Don McIlhenney, doing most of the damage in a ground assault that piled up 162 yards to 47 for Missouri. Jackson was the game's top ground gainer with 55 yards, two more than Marshall.

A dangerous passing combination of Doane to end Harold Burnine gave Missouri the edge in passing, 170 yards to 159, but the Tigersed the entire game at quarterback couldn't quite make the passes for the Methodists.

The Methodist line leaked back down eight heaves for 114 of 170 yards.

Roach, meanwhile, hit eight of Missouri forces in the last quarter for 159 yards as he played.

Notre Dame Win Streak Eleven Now

MIAMI — UP—Notre Dame, its "cripples" as good as anything touted Miami had to offer, stretched its winning streak to 11 games Friday night with a 14-0 triumph over the Hurricanes to remain unscathed in three games this season.

A record Orange Bowl crowd of 75,685 watched quarterback Paul Hornung coolly fling two touchdown passes, run for huge gains and pounce on one of Miami's three costly fumbles.

The six taped-up cripples in Coach Terry Brennan's Irish lineup were the backbone of four bitter stands that halted Miami's penetrations to the Notre Dame 13, 11, 30 and 2½ yard line.

Hornung passed to end Gene Kapish, one of the injured, for 11 pish, one of the first Notre Dame scores in the second period. It was Kapish who later fell on another Miami fumble on the 30-yard line to end a Hurricane threat.

Injured guard and team Captain Ray Lemek covered the third fumble and set up the second Irish touchdown. The ball quattered from the arms of Miami quarterback Gene Reeves on the Miami 33.

Four downs later, with eight yards to go, Hornung hit halfback Aubrey Lewis for 32 yards and the score. Pint-sized Hurricane quarterback Mario Bonifiglio couldn't block the lanky Lewis' catch on the two-yard line.

Fullback Don Schaefer booted both extra points for the Irish.

Miami drove 72 yards and 62 yards but still couldn't get up the steam to score.

Tigers Topple 1-B Longhorns

DARROUZZETT — The Groom Tigers came from behind in the second quarter to blast the Darrouzzett Longhorns 22-6 to knock the Longhorns from the undefeated ranks of the 1-B district. The Tigers picked up their third win in the district play.

The Tiger scoring was well spread and showed that they have power in more than one of their backfield men. The statistics show that the score is not an indication that the Darrouzzett eleven is weak by any means. The Tigers racked up 230 yards on the ground while the Longhorns had 235 yards total. The passing ability of the Longhorns was a threat all the way.

Tom McGee went over for the first score of the game and gave the Longhorns a 6-0 lead in the second period. The Tigers bounced back when Kenneth Friemel galloped 65 yards for paydirt. That sparked the Tigers and they went on to score again in the second when Doug Whitley went 13 yards for the second touchdown.

The other touchdowns were made by Ronald Homer, for 71 yards, Gerald Hermesmeyer, 7 yards, and Jimmy Kotara who went for 60 yards.

97,239 See Michigan Wallop Army, 26 To 2

By LLOYD NORTHARD
ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 8—UP—Terry Barr, a junior halfback who gained only 13 yards in his first two starts this season, broke loose with vengeance Saturday for two touchdowns to lead unbeaten Michigan to a 26-2 victory over Army before a sellout crowd of 97,239 at Michigan Stadium.

The fast-stepping Barr plunged a foot for a first period touchdown which he set up seconds earlier by grabbing a 41-yard pass at the Army one and he streaked 82 yards down in the second period.

Michigan added two more touchdowns in the final period, both coming after Army fumbles. Ed Shannon, a third string fullback, scored one on a plunge of less than 5 yards and Jim Pace, a third string halfback, plunged four yards for the other. The only Army point came in the final minute of the game when reserve quarterback Jim Greenwood faded into his own end zone attempting to pass and was tackled for a safety.

Share Honors With Line
But Barr, Shannon and Pace had to share honors with a bursting Michigan forward wall and an alert secondary for the cherished victory over previously unbeaten Army which had halted the Wolverines in the only five previous meetings between the two teams.

Michigan's line was so effective that the Cadets were unable to cross the midfield strip until the final period when Army managed to penetrate Michigan territory twice. The Wolverine linemen hit so hard that Pat Uebel, Army's crack halfback, fumbled five times.

Barr, a 23-year-old product of Grand Rapids, Mich., wasted no time convincing the capacity crowd that this was his day. After taking the opening kickoff and returning to his own 34, Barr carried the first three plays from scrimmage and moved the ball to the Army 48. He picked up more yardage in those thrusts than he gained in Michigan's first two starts.

Drive Bogs Down
That drive bogged down but Michigan scored minutes later after Uebel's first fumble at his own 45. Quarterback Jim Maddock passed 41 yards to Barr two plays later to move the ball within a yard of the Army end zone. Barr carried over, but Ed Ron Kramer missed his first extra point after seven successful tries this season.

Score by periods:
Michigan 6 6 0 14-26
Army 0 0 0 2-2

Michigan scoring—Barr 2 (one foot plunge, 82 yard punt return), Shannon (one foot plunge), Pace (four yard run). Army scoring—Safety (Greenwood tackled in end zone).

Double Main Event Slated On Mat Card

The Pampa Shrine Club will have a double main event on their wrestling card Monday October 10, at 8 p.m.

By popular demand the George Overhuls and Frankie Murdock bout of last week, best 2 of 3 falls one hour time limit, will be done over with a referee of their own choice.

Murdock won last Monday night taking one fall with a sherry toe hold, the other with his famous python sleeper.

Overhuls says he can't do it again.

The other main event should be a crowd pleaser as much as the first.

The popular Tommy Martindale takes on the Mad Russian (Boris Kameronoff) in 2 out of 3 falls one hour time limit.

Kameronoff has been wrestling in the east and has made quite a name for himself, claiming the eastern states championship along with a portion of the tag team championship.

Fans who saw him wrestle here last fall know he is a rugged individual and will certainly make Martindale go down into his bag for tricks you haven't seen. Or he is liable to be defeated by Kameronoff. Tommy, however, is not set up for anybody. He can hold his own in any class.

The wrestling is to be held at the Top of Texas Sportsman's Club Monday night at 8 p.m. with all proceeds going to Pampa Shrine Club's Crippled Children's Fund.

By ED FITE

DALLAS, Oct. 8—UP—Oklahoma's rowdy Sooners blunted a furious Texas passing attack with timely interceptions and turned loose terrific Rommy McDonald and bruising Bob Burris for touchdowns to ring up their 22nd straight victory by downing Texas 20-0.

Coach Bud Wilkinson's Oklahoma thus cleared what was supposed to be its last major hurdle in the path of another undefeated season and gave a sell-out crowd dazzling pitchouts and quarterback faking.

McDonald, the 160-pound junior speedster from Albuquerque, N.M., romped untouched on both of his payoff scampers—for 28 yards in the first four minutes of the game and for seven strides late in the second quarter.

Third of the Burris Clan
Burris, the third of the Burris clan to stamp a blazing name on Oklahoma's gridiron, plunged one yard for the Oklahomaans' third period score and quarterback Jimmy Harris tackled on the extra points after the latter two scores.

Interceptions set the stage for both of McDonald's touchdowns with center Jerry Tubbs hauling down the first of three Texas heavens to set up the first score.

McDonald paved the way for his second one just when it appeared Texas might get to the halftime trailing only 6-0 and still be very much in the ball game.

But his interception and 20-yard return put Oklahoma in business on the Texas seven on the first play. He slashed through right tackle for the score and the game went almost out of reach.

The rugged Oklahoma defense throttled Texas' running attack to a net 67 yards and the secondary's six interceptions more than offset the 191 yards Texas rang up on completed passes out of 36 attempts.

Split Texas Line
A well-balanced Oklahoma split-T attack, ably engineered by Harris and his understudy, Jay O'Neil, split the Texas line or beanoed around it for 214 yards, while augmenting that with five completed passes for 54 yards.

Texas' touted sophomore quarterback, Joe Clements, tried mightily to keep Texas from its first shutout in the 50-game rivalry since 1938, but his 17 completions out of 31 tosses were effective only when the goal was a distant target. Texas' deepest penetration was to the Oklahoma 28 in the third quarter.

Score by periods:
Oklahoma 6 7 7 20

Oklahoma scoring: Touchdowns, McDonald 2 (28, run); Burris (1, plunge), Conversions, Harris 2.

Dudley Scores As Ags Trip Nebraska

By FRANK RALL

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 8—UP—Texas A&M, stung by enthusiastic Nebraska play in the first period, piled up 21 points in the second period and coasted to a 27-0 victory over the Cornhuskers Saturday day before more than 39,000 fans.

The Aggies, led by guards Murry Trimble and Dennis Goehring and center Loyd Hale, powered to three quick touchdowns in the second period, battering the will out of the Nebraska forward wall.

The Aggies made repeated thrusts into Nebraska territory in the last half, but the Cornhuskers staved off each sally until the final 15 seconds of the game when quarterback Jimmy Wright plunged over from two yards out.

Nebraska Holds Onto Ball
Nebraska held possession of the ball most of the first period. The Aggies didn't get a first down until 13 minutes were gone.

But the constant battering of Trimble, Goehring and Hale began to tell on the Husker line as the second period opened.

Donald Grant rammed over for the first Aggie touchdown early in the period from the one-foot mark. The touchdown capped a drive set up in the closing minutes of the first period when the Aggies recovered a wild pitchout from Husker quarterback Don Erway. Roy Taylor converted.

Fullback George Gillar intercepted a Nebraska pass on the Aggie 43 minutes later and scampered 20 yards. Gillar several plays later crashed through the center of the Husker line to score standing up from the Husker 26. Halfback Ed Dudley kicked the point.

Play Pays Off
With 14 minutes gone in the period, Grant passed to Dudley in the end zone for the third Aggie touchdown on a play that covered seven yards. The score capped an 87-yard march. Taylor kicked his second point.

The Aggies, claiming their third victory in four starts, never let the Huskers get deeper into A&M territory than the 45-yard line.

Fullback George Cifra was the only Husker to gain consistently. Quarterback Don Erway managed only 19 yards with his passing.

The Aggies amassed 236 total yards from scrimmage, netting 17 first downs. Nebraska gained 138 yards, totaling 13 first downs.

Score by periods:
Nebraska 0 0 0 0-0
Texas A&M 0 21 0 6-27

Texas A&M scoring: Touchdowns, Grant (one foot, plunge); Gillar (26, run); Dudley (7, pass fro Grant); Wright (2, plunge); Conversions, Taylor 2, Dudley.

Swink Leads Frogs By Alabama, 21-0

By RAY LACKEY

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Oct. 8—UP—Halfback Jim Swink struck for two touchdowns in five minutes of the third quarter, and for another in the fourth period to lead Texas Christian University to a 21-0 triumph over Alabama Saturday.

Swink ripped off 65 yards for the Horned Frogs first score 90 seconds after the second half opened. He scored three and a half minutes later on a three-yard plunge and in the final quarter capped a long drive with a 10-yard scoring run.

Alabama's Crimson Tide, winless this season, battled TCU to a scoreless first half but couldn't hold the roof up in the final two periods. It was the sixth consecutive defeat for the once-proud Tide. The 1954 team lost its last three games.

TCU, the 11th-ranked football team in the nation, had little trouble containing the Alabama attack. The Crimson Tide put together its long drive in the closing seconds. Alabama moved from its own 15-yard line to the Horned Frogs' 20 in nine plays only to hear the final gun.

Swink, a 185-pound junior from Rusk, Tex., pushed his scoring total to 64 points in four games and moved 139 yards in 18 tries, adding to one of the nation's top yardage totals.

New Alabama Coach J. B. Whitworth, who got a chilly homecoming for the Crimson Tide's first game here, called Swink the "best we've played against this year."

A crowd of 20,000 watched Whitworth, an old Rose Bowl star for Alabama, try in vain to make his home debut successful.

Swink got his first score on the third play of the second half. On a straight T-formation line play, he wriggled through the Alabama line and raised his head to find himself all alone. The Alabama safety man chased the fleet-footed Texan for 65 yards into the end zone.

Tackle Norman Hamilton set up the second touchdown by recovering a Tide fumble on the Alabama 27-yard line. Four plays moved the ball to the three-yard line from where Swink carried it over.

TCU marched 80 yards in 14 plays for the final score. Swink took a pitchout and circled right end for the 10-yard scoring play.

TCU 0 0 14 7-21

TCU scoring: Touchdowns, Swink 3, (65, run); 3 run; 10, run); Conversions, Pollard, 3.

AUSTIN, Oct. 8—UP—A highly placed source revealed Saturday he is "fairly certain" Beaumont franchise in the Texas Baseball League will be moved to Austin.

The source, who insisted he not be identified, confirmed reports Beaumont President Allen Russell conferred with local leaders and was guaranteed by "40 or 50" businessmen "a satisfactory deal" on the first year's operation.

A meeting of the Texas League is slated for Monday at Dallas to discuss the franchise shift. In addition to Austin, Corpus Christi, Amarillo, Baton Rouge, La., and Miami, Fla., were reported under consideration.

However, the Austin source said Russell had apparently ruled out Corpus Christi, leaving Baton Rouge as the main contender with Austin in bidding for the club.

Meantime, Bob Rule, sports editor of the Houston Press, a Scripps-Howard newspaper, reported Russell has been guaranteed a "sizeable" advance sale of tickets—enough to assure a profitable first year operation in the capital city.

Mark Batterson, sports editor of the Austin Statesman, wrote "Austin will apparently be in the Texas League in 1956."

Batterson quoted a "highly reputable source" as saying: "There are still a few details to be ironed out, but the Texas League as a whole is now in general agreement that Austin is the place to go."

Baylor Outlasts Arkansas, 25 To 20

By LLOYD LARRABEE
WACO, Tex., Oct. 8—UP—Baylor outlasted a determined fourth quarter bid by Arkansas' comeback kids Saturday to take a hard fought 25-20 victory before 28,000 fans in Baylor Stadium.

Baylor built up a comfortable 25-6 lead, scoring in every period, but Arkansas bounced back to score two touchdowns in a wild fourth quarter, and as the clock ran out Baylor halfback Weldon Holley, standing on his own goal line, intercepted a pass from Arkansas' George Walker.

Arkansas, bidding to repeat last year's 21-20 victory won over Baylor with a field goal in the last minute of play, surged to two touchdowns in the final period behind the generalship of Walker, and took possession with about two and a half minutes left in the game.

Walker passed the Razorbacks to the Baylor 5, but with the clock showing no time left, Holley stepped in to break up the second threat.

Baylor opened the scoring late in the first period with a spectacular 69-yard runback by fullback Reuben Saage of a pass interception. Saage raced to the Arkansas 1 and bounced over to score on the next play.

Arkansas tied the game at 6-6 on a 66-yard march climaxed by a one-yard scoring plunge by Walker.

Baylor pulled out in front when quarterback Bobby Jones flipped a 41-yard pass early in the second period to fullback Dick Baker, and widened its margin in the third quarter with a one-yard scoring plunge by fullback Charley Dupre capping a 49-yard drive.

The Bears added what proved to be the winning margin when substitute quarterback Kenneth Helms dashed around left end for 23 yards and scored only one play deep in the fourth quarter.

But Arkansas, known for its fourth-period flourish, marched 89 yards in only four plays, and scored when center Jay Donathan recovered the ball in the end zone after it was fumbled on the goal line by Razorback halfback Preston Carpenter.

On Baylor's first play after taking the kickoff, Arkansas end Teddy Souter intercepted a pass from Helms on the Baylor 20 and ran it back to the 10. Three plays later, fullback Henry Moore bounced over from the 3.

Tackle Bobby Jack Oliver converted once for Baylor and Arkansas conversions were made by Carpenter and Walker.

Tackle Bill Glass, center Jimmy Taylor and guard Dan Miller shone for Baylor on defense, while Souter, Donathan and guard Bobby Gilliam were Arkansas standouts in the Southwest Conference game.

Score by periods:
Arkansas 6 0 0 14-20
Baylor scoring: Touchdown, Saage (1, plunge); Baker (41, pass from Jones); Dupre (1, plunge); Helms (23, run). Conversions, Oliver.

Arkansas scoring: Touchdowns, covered fumble in end zone; Moore (3, plunge). Conversions, Carpenter, Walker.

Rice Knocks Off Clemson 21 To 7

HOUSTON, Oct. 8—UP—Rice Institute facing its Southwest Conference opener with Southern Methodist next week, rolled easily over previously unbeaten Clemson, 21-7 before 37,500 fans in Rice Stadium Saturday night.

The Owls, showing a vastly improved defense since a 20-20 stalemate with Louisiana State last week, scored in the first, second and final periods, once by air and twice on power rushes.

Clemson, held to 101 yards to Rice's 214 in total offense in the first half, got rolling late in the third period when quarterback Charles Bussey passed 29 yards to end Joe Bowen to start a relentless 97-yard drive in 14 plays with fullback Bill O'dell going over from the one-yard line to score. Bussey kicked the extra point.

Receivers Fumble

Rice scored its first tally early in the first when end Marshall Crawford recovered an O'Dell fumble and Owl quarterback King Hill passed to end James Peters for 17 yards. Fullback Jerry Hall's kick was good.

Rice scored again in the second period, completing an 83-yard drive in 11 plays when John (Pinky) Nisbet, guiding the second unit, ran 17 yards on a keeper and then halfback Virgil Mutschink crashed through the Clemson tackle and outraced the secondary 23 yards. Hall kicked the extra point.

Nisbet set up the Owls' third score in the final period with a 21-yard dash to the Clemson 13. Fullback Jack Throckmorton powered nine yards for the touchdown and kicked the extra point.

Stayed in Game

Clemson stayed in the ball game in the first half with the running of O'Dell, the Atlantic Coast Conference's leading ground gainer, and halfback Joel Weils. Weils led the Clemson rushing gains with 94 yards. Mutschink was the Owls' best rusher with 81 yards.

Rice gained 281 net yards rushing.

Washington Nips USC 7-0

SEATTLE, Oct. 8—UP—A sensational 80-yard play coming a pass, a lateral and a 50 yard run by end Corky Lewis gave Washington a 7-0 win over Southern California before 35,900 screaming fans Saturday.

By knocking off 10th ranked USC, Washington's Huskies served notice that they intended to go to the Rose Bowl this year.

The touchdown play, an unheard-of extravaganza, was something to behold, but it was Washington's magnificent defense that kept the Trojans from the end zone.

The touchdown came midway in the final period when quarterback Steve Roake passed 20 yards to right end Jim Houston. Houston, held in the clutches of a Trojan tackle, lateraled to Lewis on the Washington 45 and away he went, running like an antelope being pursued by lions. The lions tried, but they had to eat crow Saturday. Washington was a 7-point underdog at game time.

Halfback Jon Arnett tried for all he was worth to keep USC in the contest but nothing could cut down the Huskies. USC passed and ran to Washington's 48 and then halfback Mike Monroe intercepted halfback Ernie Zampese's pass on the Washington 12 and the Huskies controlled the ball until the final seconds.

All-America candidate Arnett showed that he had what it took to make the mythical team, but Arnett was not enough. Several times he led his teammates to within scoring distance but the husky defense, best on the west coast, held the Trojans off.

Ohio State Defeats Illinois 27-12

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 8—UP—Ohio State, with Howard (Hopalong) Cassidy and Galen (Cisco Kid) Cisco staging a stampede, opened defenses of its Big Ten title here Saturday with a routin'-trotin' 27-12 victory over Illinois before 82,407 fans.

Cassidy, the work-horse of the Ohio team and no kin to the western movie hero, scored two touchdowns. Cisco, a third-string sophomore fullback who seemingly rode in from nowhere, contributed important yardage toward Ohio's clinching touchdown. The Cisco Kid lassoed one of Em Lindbeck's long passes to wreck an Illinois scoring threat and save the day.

The Illini, unbeaten in two games before Saturday, struck fear into the hearts of the sixth largest crowd ever to see a football game here. But in the end Cassidy, Cisco, quarterback Frank Ellwood and Ohio's fine defensive play was too much for Coach Ray Eliot's team.

Illinois, which blitzed Ohio 41-20 two years ago, started out as if to repeat. On the first running play of the game, halfback Harry Jefferson danced 60 yards to the Ohio 6. The fine run was nullified by a clipping penalty. But Illinois went right on down the field to score, led by Lindbeck.

Score by periods:
Ohio State 13 0 7 7-27
Illinois 6 0 0 7-12

Ohio State scoring: Touchdowns, Cassidy (17 run, 4 plunge), Ellwood (3 plunge), Kris (15 pass from Ellwood). Conversions, Kris 3.

Illinois scoring: Touchdown Lindbeck (1 plunge), Stout (3, plunge).

Rangers, Eagles Battle To Tie

PERRYTON — (Special) — The Perryton Rangers and the Canyon Eagles fought to a 7-7 deadlock at Perryton Friday night before a thrilled audience of Ranger and Eagle fans.

Canyon went out front early in the second quarter when Britain went over after a drive from their own 18. The Eagles kept the lead until late in the last quarter when Perryton ended a 50 yard drive with Jimmy Todd going over from the six yard line. Todd also carried the extra point over to end the scoring and left the teams in a tie when the gun sounded.

Navy Sinks Pitt 21-0

By NORMAN L. BRAIN
BALTIMORE, Oct. 8—UP—Navy's powerful grid combine led by quarterback George Welsh, hammered out a 21-0 victory over Pittsburgh today to remain unbeaten, untied and unscored on.

The Middies, in avenging a 21-19 loss administered by the Panthers last year, scored touchdowns in each of the last three periods while holding the Panthers inside their own 35-yard line for most of the game. It was Navy's third victory of the year.

With Ned Oldham and Chet Burdett providing most of the running power, Navy ground out its first touchdown in a 94-yard sustained second-period drive the second time the Middies had possession of the ball. The touchdown came on a seven-yard pass from Welsh to end Jim Owen. Welsh completed eight of 15 passes.

The Middies capped a 43-yard march in the third period when Dick Guest bulled over from the Pitt two.

In the final period, Navy recovered a blocked kick on the Pitt four-yard line and scored four plays later.

So thoroughly did Navy outplay Pitt that the Panthers could only garner four first downs while the Middies chalked up 16 despite a wet field.

The Panther attack was so ineffectual in the first half that Pitt could get only two first downs. The Middies collected 12.

Pitt had the ball only 10 plays in the first period, but penetrated to the Navy four before the Middies held.

Navy, which had beaten William & Mary, 7-0, and South Carolina, 26-0 before Saturday, grounded out 117 yards through a Pitt line that outweighed the Middies—almost 11 pounds per man. Pitt tried only 1 pass against the hard-charging Navy line. It was incomplete.

Score by periods:
Navy 0 7 7 7-21
Pitt 0 0 0 0-0

Navy scoring: Touchdowns—Owen (7, pass from Welsh); Guest 2, (4 plunge, 3 plunge).

Conversions—Oldham 3.

Maryland Rolls Over Deacons 28-7

COLLEGE PARK, Md., Oct. 8—UP—Maryland's ground-douring first team was the big difference Saturday as the top-ranked Terrapins dumped doughy Wake Forest 28-7.

The first stringers scored four out of the seven times they had the ball, piling up a three touchdown lead at half time while the big red-shirted line was frustrating Wake Forest attempts to move.

Maryland looked the part of a great football team only in flashes, particularly when satin smooth quarterback Frank Tamburello was calling the shots. He directed Maryland to a 7-0 lead after the opening kickoff, as the Terps steamed 75 yards in 12 plays with Tamburello himself sneaking over one foot out.

The Terps counted again in the second quarter, driving 28 yards in five plays with Ed Vereb scoring from the one foot mark on a wide sweep. Just before the half ended, fullback Fred Hamilton intercepted Nick Consoles' pass—the first back fire for the Wake Forest quarterback in 40 attempts this year—and raced 40 yards to the Deacons' 29. Seven plays later, Maryland had its third score—another one foot plunge by Vereb.

Wake Forest, which used a many-patterned defense all day that alternated four, five and six man lines, halted the Terps in the third period, but early in the final quarter the first stringers put on the pressure again. Tamburello fooled both Wake Forest and the 16,000 customers by hiding the ball on his hip and then passing 41 yards to Vereb on the Deacons' 30. Vereb bucked to within inches of the goal line and Hamilton rammed over.

The never-hit Deacons finally scored in the closing minutes by cashing in on a fumble.

Score by periods:
Maryland 7 14 0 7-28
Wake Forest 0 0 0 7-7

Maryland scoring: Touchdowns, Tamburello (plunge, 1 foot), Vereb 2 (plunge, 1 foot, end run, 1 foot), Hamilton (plunge, 1 foot). Conversions, Laughtery 3, Komlo 1.

Wake Forest scoring: Touchdowns, Daniels (12, pass - run). Conversions—Parham.

Pirates Defeat Bucks

The Lefors Pirates, led by a speed merchant halfback and bolstered by a rock-ribbed defense, whitewashed the White Deer Bucks 32-0 in a district 1-A game played in Lefors Friday night.

Diminutive Tommy Hedrick was all over the field for the Pirates as he scored one touchdown on a 62 yard jaunt, took a pass from quarterback Tommie Rice for a 61 yard touchdown play, kicked two extra points and intercepted a Buck aerial that set up another Pirate touchdown.

Hedrick was not alone in sparking the victory, however, for center Larry Rider and guard-end Benzell Rippey, co-captains for the game, led a rock wall Pirate defense that denied the Bucks even a serious threat.

Pirate reserves played most of the last half as the anxious Buccaneers piled up a 32 point lead at half-time and coasted the rest of the way.

Tommy "The Streak" Hedrick racked up the first Pirate score early in the first quarter on a 62 yard hip-swaying, halting dash through the left side of the Buck forward wall and then added the extra point.

Ronny Rice scored next on a 47 yard punt return. He scored the third Pirate touchdown on a one yard plunge.

The fancy quarterback filled the air with pignskin the second quarter as he passed to Hedrick for a 61 yard score and another to halfback Johnny Rowe in a 20 yard scoring effort. Hedrick added the point after this one too.

Halfback Mills played a fine game for the Bucks in defeat. The Bucks were not beaten as bad as the score would indicate as they rallied and held the Buccaneers scoreless in the second half.

Riot Starts After Loss By Oklahoma Ags

STILLWATER, Okla., Oct. 8—UP—Wichita's 14-7 football victory over Oklahoma A&M College turned into a riot among 250 to 300 fans on the field at game's end Saturday.

An alert Wichita handmaster tried vainly to break up the fighting by playing the Star Spangled Banner. But the revelers were making so much noise they apparently could not hear. A&M hand members were still in formation but made no attempt to play.

The fight broke out just after the final gun when several Wichita boosters made a run on the Aggie goalposts at the west end of the field. A&M supporters ran to the field to defend their uprights.

Dozens of Fights

What had started as a friendly struggle soon broke out into dozens of fist fights.

J. N. Baker, dean of students, ran to the field but had little success in quieting the fuss. Policemen were noticeably absent from the scene. Firemen stood along the sidelines with three stretchers, in case they were needed, but did not try to quell the dispute.

The fight raged for about 15 minutes, and about one-fourth of the crowd of 14,500 stayed after the game to watch.

Occur At Goal Posts

Most of the activity occurred at the west goal posts. While Aggie defenders were busy there, a half dozen Wichita supporters ran to the east end and knocked one side of the wooden east goal post down. Then Aggies on the south end spotted their work and took after them and the brawl broke up.

There were numerous bloody noses and black eyes and two Wichita boosters had to be assisted off the field. However, no one was believed seriously hurt.

Texas Halfback Is In Hospital

DALLAS, Oct. 8—UP—Mickey Smith, sophomore third string halfback for the University of Texas, suffered a slight concussion when tackled by an Oklahoma player early in the second half Saturday and was hospitalized overnight.

Attendants at Baylor hospital, however, said that the injury did not appear to be serious.

Federally Irrigated Land Small Part Of Tillable Area

By GAYLORD P. GOODWIN
WASHINGTON, Oct. 8 — UP—The federally irrigated farm lands of America represent only a small percentage of the nation's tillable acres, but their annual production of food and fiber is king sized—almost in the billion dollar class.

In 1954, an $865 million harvest was produced on 6.12 million acres of Bureau of Reclamation project lands irrigated and cropped. This compares with about $19 billion worth of foodstuffs, seeds, forage, and fiber crops produced on about 350 million non-irrigated acres.

The value of the 1954 harvest from 69 federal reclamation projects was exceeded only by the record year of 1952. In tonnage, the 1954 crop production of 28.4 million tons topped the 1953 record year of 25.7 million tons. The average gross crop value was $141.21 per irrigated acre, representing an increase of $79 million in the total gross crop value over 1953.

Began in 1906
Since the Bureau of Reclamation began operations in 1906, the cumulative gross crop value from reclaimed and irrigated lands now stands at almost $10.6 billion.

Cotton is a prime example of what irrigation can do production-wise. In 1954, the irrigated lands of Arizona produced cotton averaging 1,039 pounds an acre. To reach such an average, many acres had to produce well over that poundage. In the irrigated cotton fields of California, the average yield was 775 pounds, while the irrigated lands of New Mexico produced an average of 627 pounds of cotton to the acre.

The production from irrigated lands was far above that of non-irrigated lands of the old South, the traditional cotton growing area. Tennessee turned in the highest average cotton acreage yield of the South in 1954, with 405 pounds. Louisiana, with its rich delta lands, produced 399 pounds to the acre. Mississippi averaged 384 pounds, Arkansas 380, North Carolina 319, Alabama 298, and South Carolina 288, while dry Oklahoma averaged only 151 pounds.

Restricted to 17 States
Federal reclamation projects are restricted by law to the 17 western states.

Commissioner of Reclamation Wilbur A. Drexler said many foods used throughout the country which receive no price support are produced only in the arid West on irrigated farms. For example, the 17 western states account for the entire production of almonds, apricots, filberts, walnuts, fresh market fall and winter peas, Olives, prunes, dates, figs, raisins, honeyball and honeydew melons, and hops. The West also produces about 90 per cent of the early spring asparagus, lettuce, early cantaloupes, winter spinach, spring onions, pears, sweet cherries, and grapes.

The irrigated lands also produce feed and forage crops for local use and Drexler said that without this locally produced forage and feed, much of the 700 million acres of western range land could not be used economically because of its seasonal nature and the high costs of transporting feed—or livestock to the range.

About 103,000 additional acres of irrigable lands were brought into the service area of reclamation projects during 1954.

Other Farm Fronts
Hogs — The American Farm Bureau Federation has advised the Secretary of Agriculture that it "doubts the wisdom of a government purchase or price support program at this time" for hogs. The bureau said a price support program "would give undue or temporary stimulus to the hog market and thereby mislead producers into an unsound expansion of production."

Parity — At mid-September, the index of prices received by farmers was up one per cent, mainly due to higher prices for eggs, milk, cotton, and commercial vegetables.

Feathers — G. F. Combs, Maryland poultry scientist, said recently feather meal can be used as a baby chick ration protein supplement. This is one way, he said, of using the 50,000 tons of feathers which are a by-product of producing poultry meat.

Water — Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Ervin L. Peterson said the nation currently is using about 180 billion gallons of water daily. He estimated this use will double in the next 25 years.

Approximately 90 per cent of the land in Denmark is productive and about three-quarters is actually farmed.

The 26-inning 1-1 game between Brooklyn and Boston on May 1, 1920, is the longest game in major league history.

Lincoln's birthday, a legal holiday in many states, was first formally observed in Washington in 1868.

Weekly Grain Roundup

FORT WORTH — UP—USDA—Weekly grain:

Trading in Southwest cash grain markets remained dull this week with free supplies light and not much demand for them, the Agricultural Marketing Service reported Saturday.

Prices followed a mixed trend. Oats advanced 3 to 4c, barley 1c and wheat 1/2c a bushel. Milo held steady. Corn lost 2c a bushel. These are net changes from Friday through Friday, based on wholesale carlots, Texas common rate points.

Milo went up 2c early in the week since rains delayed harvesting in West Texas and reduced markets, but this gain was wiped out Friday and milo closed at 71.95 to $2.05 per 100 pounds, same as a week ago, and about 60c less than a year ago.

Oats followed the trend in northern markets. No. 2 white offerings from the north were quoted Friday at 83 to 87c a bushel.

Barley, reflecting conditions in the Midwest, was stronger at $1.26 to $1.31 a bushel.

Although there was little domestic or export buying of wheat, prices looked stronger at $2.33 to $2.43 for No. 1 hard offerings of ordinary protein content.

Corn went down as harvesting of the new crop in the commercial producing belt drew closer. No. 2 Texas white corn closed at $1.56 to $1.61 and No. 2 yellow at $1.48 to $1.53 a bushel.

At Oklahoma elevators, wheat was a penny a bushel from a week ago, ranging from $1.94 at Guyton and Hooker to $2.04 at Hennessey and Bison. El Reno,

PRAYER FOR OCTOBER
Let me thank thee, God, for all
The lovely things that come with fall.
The taste of apples ripe and mellow,
Harvest moon all golden yellow,
Brittle leaves for children's feet
To crunch and rustle down the street.
Autumn winds and frosty pane,
Sunny days and slanting rain;
Nuts to gather, birds to feed,
Summer flowers going to seed;
All good things from thy vast store,
Thanks for these and many more.
— Pearl Bryant

DIDJA' EVER SIT DOWN . . . with a long blank sheet of paper in front of you, knowing you have the task of filling it with chatter of local doings, and your mind is as blank as the paper? . . . well, that's Peg's predicament at this very minute . . . due to a nasty cold, haven't been able to circulate much, and chatter items are woefully lacking . . . Oh, sure! . . . we've heard a few things . . . but are they printable? . . . as our friend Hamlet said: "That is the question." . . . reminds Peg of a little quip of Frank Miles that runs thusly: "You can't see as much in a town as in a city, but what you hear makes up the difference."

Safety Note: Watch out for school children—especially if they're driving cars." (H. Trysley)

IT'S A TREAT AND VERY ENTERTAINING . . . to hear with what unbounded enthusiasm Mrs. Herman (Tommy) Jeter tells of her two month's stay at the Girl Scout Conference back East . . . Tommy and Barbara Goodnight acted as counselors in Scout training and craft work while there . . . there were 42 counselors in all and 125 Scouts . . . a number of the states were represented and foreign countries, as well . . . for instance, the handyman was from Calcutta, India . . . a most likeable and charming person, according to Tommy . . . and two of the counselors had taught several years in Puerto Rico . . . the camp is located about 15 miles from Syracuse, N. Y., in the Finger Lake region . . . the camp proper is located on one of the lakes and the scenery is breath-takingly beautiful . . . Tommy stated it was just too funny how everyone's eyes "bugged" out when she and Barbara walked in because they were actually from Texas . . . one girl even asked if Texas used the same kind of money as the other states . . . and although the girls "hooted" because Barbara and Tommy wore starched jeans, before the camp was over the commissary had a hard time keeping starch in stock and were forced to invest in another ironing board . . . seems the Yankees liked the appearance of Texan-starched jeans . . . During the two months' stay, Tommy and Barbara made several interesting trips with groups of Scouts . . . Among them, a trip to Washington D. C., where they toured the places of interest, including the changing of the guard at Arlington Cemetery . . . to Nantucket and Cape Cod practically obscured in fog . . . to Gettysburg and to New York City . . . no wonder Tommy is in raptures about the camp and thinks it a shame that more counselors and Scouts don't seize the golden opportunity to attend . . . the way she describes it, perhaps we "oughter."

If a woman can't keep a secret, how come so many husbands go on thinking they're the boss of the family? (F. P. Jones)

DO BELIEVE THAT IF IT HAD RAINED one more day, Peg would have been ready for a straight jacket . . . it's gruesome trying to get anything accomplished with three children, two cats and a pup undertoot . . . one damp afternoon was spent in making brownies from a recipe of Mrs. C. L. Mason . . . the cakes are so easily made and so delicious to eat that we'll be neighborly and pass it on to you.

BUTTER SCOTCH BROWNIES

Melt over low heat 1-4 cup butter or shortening. Remove from heat and stir in until blended, 1 packed cup brown sugar. Cool. Stir in 1 well-beaten egg. Sift together 1-2 cup sifted flour, 1 level tsp. baking powder, 1-2 tsp. salt, and add to first mixture. Add 1 tsp. vanilla, 1-2 cup chopped nuts and stir until thoroughly blended. Spread in well-greased and floured square pan, 8x8x2 inches. Bake from 20 to 25 minutes at 350 degrees . . . The Brownies will appear soft when removed from the oven. The interior remains soft, but when cooled the top is crunchy . . . Cut while warm into squares . . . that's all there is to it, but the eating of same is a decided treat . . . While we're on the subject of baking, understand that Mrs. Ann Chapman makes a scrumptious apple pie . . . it tastes exactly like apple pie but has "nary" an apple in it . . . Then, Mrs. Ralph Thomas, makes a coffee cake that literally melts in one's mouth . . . This cool weather is conducive to baking . . . and to eating, we might add.

The perfect wife always reads her husband like a book—skipping the parts she doesn't like. (Adrian Anderson)

POTPOURRI . . . Saw dainty, blond Jo Ann Cobuly clad in a clever little navy blue frock with touches of white in angora collar and cuffs . . . O. E. Handley is taking his duties as bookkeeper of Lamar Christian Church quite seriously . . . Spied Imel and Floyd Watson lunching together and seeming to enjoy each other's company . . . Mrs. Albert Johnson is a firm believer in letting grown children stand on their own two feet . . . among the charming young matrons of Pampa is pretty and vivacious Mrs. Ed Hall and attractive Mrs. J. L. Chase . . . Mack Hiatt is a very likeable and refreshing person, with an excellent selection of ties . . . Bob Mitchell, decorator for a local furniture store, has plenty of "ye olde" artistic ability . . . Peg particularly likes the bedroom display with a screen painted in muted tones of pink, charcoal and gray carrying out the colors of the bedspread that Bob arranged . . . Crazy about the black, two-piece dress Norma Fulps wears . . . quite chic! . . . Saw Johnny Campbell dashing down the street in a mad rush as usual . . . Dr. Douglas Carver is back home after holding a week's revival meeting in Cactus . . . C. M. Tingle is delighted they now have a minister at the Hobart Street Baptist Church . . . however, it will be a few weeks yet before the minister arrives . . . the minister? . . . Oh, he's Claude Harris from Lubbock . . . Mrs. D. V. (Lottie) Burton is preparing a review of Ann Linbergh's book, "Gift of the Sea," to give to El Progresso Club . . . when Lottie gives 'em, they're good.

THIS IS WHAT OGDEN NASH has to say about people born in October:

October people love nice things
Chocolate candy and diamond rings,
They're happiest when they've bought
A lot of things they hadn't ought.

PARTY LINE CHATTER . . . Mrs. B. G. Gordon is in Oklahoma called there by the serious illness of her father . . . Friends are the nicest people . . . Jimmy Bossay is keeping an eye on Morris Enioe's business while Morris is in the hospital in addition to his own duties . . . Morris's coffee-drinking friends sent him two huge floral arrangements . . . L. V. Bruce is proudly wearing a handsome jacket . . . a birthday present from his wife . . . The Lloyd Gooches are due back this week end from an Arkansas vacation . . . Ina Reading and husband are planning on a trip to Mexico.

PEG'LL LEAVE YOU WITH THIS THOUGHT . . . Do not pray for easy lives; pray to be strong. Do not pray for tasks equal to your powers; pray for powers equal to your tasks. (Phillips Brooks)

Louise Coggeshall, warm-hearted, alert and always well-dressed, manages the Public House in Sturbridge, Mass.

This glistering white country inn under the elms was built in 1771.

Near the junction of Routes 15 and 20, famous for its baked stuffed lobster, cape scallops, fresh lobster pie, broiled baby Rock Cornish game hen with wild rice, its New England chowders and hot breads and other fine foods, the Public House reflects the managerial talents of Mrs. Coggeshall who began her career, not as a trained innkeeper, but as private secretary in Providence, R. I.

Later she had her own tea room in Wrentham, next managed a frozen food and wholesale fish plant for her brother-in-law in Providence, and finally arrived at Sturbridge as secretary to the inn's owner.

That was in 1946. Within a year she was made assistant manager, but warned not to hope ever to become manager. That was a "man's job," she told her—125 employees. Mmes.—Lillie Mae Fowler, Helen Knox, Mildred Lafferty, Helen Sprinkle, M. E. Powers; and Miss Jo Ann Neel.

Public House Baked Stuffed Shrimp (4 servings)

Use jumbo shrimp, allowing 3 shrimp per serving. Split shrimp through center. Stuff with following mixture:

Three tablespoons finely chopped scallops, 2 ounces Chablis wine or water with a little lemon juice, 2 cups cracker meal, 1 teaspoon paprika, 2 tablespoons finely crushed potato chips, 2 tablespoons Parmesan cheese, 2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine.

Place in pan with little water; this prevents shrimp from drying. Bake 20 minutes at 325 degrees F. (moderate oven).

Note: This is sufficient to stuff 12 jumbo shrimp.

Those attending were Messrs. and Mmes. Don Cain, James Leve-rich, Sam U. Pruitt, Ben Fallon, W. J. Craig, Clifford Braly, Jerry Thomas, Price Dosier Jr., David Price; and Mmes. Bill Waters and J. E. Thompson.

Next meeting will be held Oct. 18, with Mrs. Don Cain and Mrs. John Friaby as hostesses.

Charles Cook Gives Talk On Furniture At Ladies Golf Association Meet Friday

Charles Cook, local furniture dealer, spoke on home furnishings to the Ladies Golf Association Friday in the Pampa Country Club. He pointed out that the trend today is not toward just one or two types of styles or construction. "Everyone is furnishing his home to reflect his individual taste," he explained.

He stressed things to watch for in buying furniture and the influences in furniture during the past 20 years. He explained that brand names have been made known to the public by magazines, and stated that 42 per cent of the furniture bought today is directly influenced by magazines. "The hardest thing to buy is upholstered furniture," Cook stated. "A pretty cover can cover a multitude of sins."

Things to look for that he named include hardwood frames and good covers, good tying on springs, cushioning or cushion spring units of superior type. If the cushions are foam rubber, it means a more expensive cover should be bought for longer wear, Cook pointed out. He explained that brand name furniture is good as the manufacturer has a reputation to watch, so will guard the quality.

In mixing furniture, Cook stated that different pieces are used for accent more than for just a mixture of different styles and different woods. The trend today is toward good lounging furniture, and he predicted that 90 per cent of the furniture in the near future will be "strictly informal lounging" furni-

Hints On Grooming For Brace-Wearers

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor
Dress up a little suit? Well, that will be fun in a few years. Do something imaginative with a scarf? Can hardly wait. A divine idea with a convertible hat? Right now the problem for many teenagers is braces. What seems like an immense mouthful of glittering metal is attached to many. First of all, they're not as conspicuous to look at as they are to wear. Unless you go around over-compensating by gracing the crowd with immense horselaughs, they become a not very noticeable part of you.

Secondly, be good to your self and your future husband and children by not taking pictures with your mouth open. Of course, your family wants pictures of you to keep the record complete, but ask them the kindness of allowing you to close your mouth in advance.

In ten years, when you go through the anaphot album, you shouldn't be able to tell during which era you were embraced. Thirdly, stay away from glittering jewelry accessories. This includes metallic belts, bangle earrings, and clattering bracelets. At all costs, you want to avoid looking like a metallic robot, so stay with soft lustered jewelry and soft textures.

This doesn't mean throwing out the favorite jewelry. It won't be long before you can wear it again.

Between two slices of bread spread a thin layer of potato salad and top with a slice of baked or "boiled" ham. Spread both sides of sandwich with softened butter or margarine and grill until lightly browned.

Daily Cuticle Care Is Important To the Appearance of Your Nails

By TONI WOODWARD—ANS Features
A LITTLE ATTENTION TO YOUR CUTICLES between manicures will make the manicuring job easier and quicker, and you will be a lot better pleased with the results. In fact, no matter how much time and care you devote to the manicure, you are likely to be disappointed with the appearance of your nails if you have allowed the cuticles to become hardened and over-grown.

Your cuticles will always be soft and manageable if you will remember to rub a little baby oil around the base of the nails two or three times a day, after washing your hands. To keep the cuticles shapely and prevent hangnails, at least once a day push the cuticles back with the rounded end of the nail file or an orange stick. A once-a-week soaking in baby oil will work wonders too.

Your pedicures will benefit from the same daily cuticle care, and here is a tip that may be helpful if your toenails present a ridged appearance. To conceal the ridges, apply an undercoat and two overcoats of polish. Allow each coat to dry at ordinary room temperature before applying the next one. Place cotton balls between the toes to separate them and prevent smearing polish.

No matter how you shape your fingernails, it is best to cut the toenails straight across the tops, curving them down just a little at the corners.

Achievement Day Tea Is Presented By Goodwill Group

The Goodwill Home Demonstration Club held an achievement day tea recently in the home of Mrs. Lewis Epps, 1909 N. Duncan. Special guests were members of other HD clubs.

The serving table was covered with a white lace cloth and was centered with a bowl of autumn leaves, cattails, apples, squash, pine cones, maize and wild berries. Flanking the centerpiece were white tapers in brass holders.

Refreshments of cookies, mints, tea and coffee were served. The copper teapot hung on a wrought iron stand, was a reproduction of a Dutch teapot. Blue napkins with the club name were used. Mrs. James Baird and Mrs. Derrel Hogsett presided at the table.

Canned goods, garments, tailoring and handwork the women had made during the year were on display. Guests registered in a white satin book, with the cover decorated with a drawing of a snail in a sewing basket.

Guests present from the Worthwhile Club were Mmes. W. G. Kinzer, Noah Cude, J. L. Carlton, E. M. Barrett; from the Merten Club were Mmes. R. V. Lewis, Jack Howard and L. F. Watt; from the Bell Club were Mmes. T. E. Maness, Ernest McKnight and H. H. Keahy. Miss Helen Dunlap, county HD agent, was a guest also.

Members attending were Mmes. Lewis Epps, James Baird, John Johnson, Bill Cox, Eugene Turner, A. P. Combes and Derrel Hogsett.

Next meeting will be at 9:30 a.m. Oct. 20, in the home of Mrs. Eugene Turner, 401 N. Sumner.

BABY

Put a sturdy check stop on your screen and storm doors which is guaranteed to allow closing only at a fixed maximum rate. Saves Baby from macquiring bumps on windy days.

Cost is small, return is big as an elephant in mealtime peace. Keep a box of animal crackers stashed away against fretful table-side moments.

Having trouble getting Baby to drink his fruit juice—especially if he's two to two-and-one-half years old? At least one brand of grape juice comes packaged in four miniature pop-type bottles. Use the juice yourself, refill with Baby's citrus juice, and top with small plastic caps or stoppers. Tastes wonderful to a Baby, seasoned with the play value of these bottles.

Texas Federation Of Women's Clubs Members To Attend Indian Pow-Wow

Mrs. L. E. Dudley, Abilene, president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, will head a delegation of club members Oct. 15 to attend the annual fall "Pow-Wow" of the Alabama-Coushatta Indian tribes on a reservation near Livingston, Polk County.

Instigated by Mrs. Dudley, Texas clubwomen have been assisting the tribes for the past two years by providing funds for supplemental recreational facilities including the entrance fee for a Little League baseball team, and clothing for infants, children and the needy. The Federation provides a full scholarship for Wynan Battise, a sophomore student at A&M College and the first from his tribe to enter this institution.

Texas voluntarily ended the federal aid program for the tribes last year, thus assuming full responsibility for the welfare of the tribes which is directed by the Board of Control for State Hospitals and Special Schools. On reservation since 1854 when General Sam Houston sponsored the Bill setting up 1,280 acres (supplimented in 1927 by an additional 3,000 acres through federal aid) the tribes had gradually allowed ceremonial customs to be discarded as younger members left reservation for education and employment. During recent years public interest has caused a revival of the annual ceremonials that will be performed during the Pow-Wow as a preservation of early American customs.

Texas Federation Latin American Scholarship, commenced in 1941 as a Good Neighbor gesture in bringing a student from a Latin American nation to the University of Texas on a fully supported scholarship, has been awarded for 1955-56 to Miss Miryam Mujica of Lima, Peru, to study toward a master of science degree in civil engineering with special emphasis on city planning. She is the first woman from her country to undertake graduate work in this field. Miss Mujica, born in Cuzco, the ancient capital of the historic Incas, speaks English fluently.

October 19 will be Women's Day at the State Fair in Dallas. Mrs. Dudley will be on hand to greet Texas clubwomen and to attend functions honoring the Texas Woman of the Year, whose name will be announced at a later date. Mrs. Dudley served as a member of the nominating committee.

Rubinoff, Sponsored By Altrusa Club, Reported To Have Busy Concert Slate

When you see and hear Rubinoff in concert here Dec. 8, in the Junior High School Auditorium, you will share one day out of the nine months he spends each year touring the nation. These nine months will add up to some 125 cities visited, 250 matinee and evening concerts played with an additional 1250 free performances at service club luncheons, hospitals, radio broadcasts, and with at least 1000 of these free appearances before students in school assemblies.

A day with Rubinoff is a whirlwind of activity — he is up at four and five o'clock in the morning and as a rule travels one or two hundred miles before breakfast. Weekends are usually spent in cross country train and plane flights. If the schedule permits, he will visit four or five churches on Sunday morning. Red Oak, Iowa, holds the record for the most churches visited in one morning. The Ministerial Association there presented him with a beautiful Bible in recognition of his playing for seven churches.

To start his day Rubinoff arrives for a hurried greeting with sponsors, perhaps a picture for the local press, and then he is off to an escorted tour of practically the whole city's school enrollment for free school assemblies with only breaks of five or ten minutes between for transportation. Almost without exception he is invited as guest speaker for a service club luncheon, but winds up "fiddling for his lunch". The Student Matinee follows in the afternoon with an hour or two spent autographing for his young friends after the concert. Next routine is an interview for the local radio station and by then it is time for a change into full dress, dinner, and the big event of the day — the evening concert.

An ironclad rule with Rubinoff is to be at the auditorium an hour before the audience assembles for practicing on his beloved Stradivarius. The Maestro is often questioned as to why he has to practice after having played the violin for 50 years. His serious reply is that with all the many appearances he makes, that still does not allow him time to polish and perfect individual notes and passages. Difficult exercises also keep his fingers flying at the effortless speed maintained for hours at a time. Even in his automobile or on the train, Rubinoff either uses his Strad or his specially built pocket fingerboard to keep up with his rigid practice schedule.

With all this Rubinoff still finds time for his collectors hobby of antique glass, dictating letters, long distance telephone calls, and enjoying life in general. This famous artist spends his days at a terrific pace, but he wouldn't trade it for any other life.

The Panama Altrusa Club is sponsoring the event and tickets may be purchased at any time from members of the club. Proceeds will go into the club's scholarship fund.

MAINNEERS MAKE FRIENDS

If you go to look at a house or apartment which is for sale — don't make complimentary remarks about the place to the person living there. After all, if it has been their home they won't appreciate having you point out that the living room is too small or the kitchen inconvenient.

Of course, you'll notice such things — but you don't need to comment on them.

Jeanette Walter And William M. Karr Are United In Marriage In Muenster

CANADIAN — (Special) — Miss Jeanette Walter of Muenster and William Mabry Karr of Lubbock were united in marriage at 4 p.m. Saturday in the Sacred Heart Catholic Church of Muenster. Rev. Lou Deuster officiated for the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Walter of Muenster, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. William M. Karr Sr. of Canadian.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of imported white French lace and tulle over satin. The lace bodice was accented with a portrait neckline and closed down the back with lace-covered buttons. The long fitted sleeves came to points over her hands. The bouffant skirt of tulle over satin was fashioned with scalloped panels of lace.

A fingertip veil of nylon illusion fell from a sweetheart bonnet accented with lace and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of natural orchids.

She wore a single strand of pearls the bridegroom's mother wore at her wedding and carried a lace handkerchief belonging to the bridegroom's mother, carried in weddings in her family for generations. For something borrowed, she carried a white pearl rosary from Mexico, belonging to her aunt, Mrs. A. J. Endres. She wore a blue garter, and for something new, she wore pearl earrings.

Mrs. B. J. Swinczynski, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Miss Margie Baumhardt was maid of honor. Bridesmaid was Miss Loyse Edwards. All wore identical gowns of beige, rose and raspberry silk tulle. They were designed with portrait necklines, Empire bodices and bouffant waist-length skirts. Their headpieces were of matching velvet, and they carried bouquets of yellow roses.

Sandra Walter, sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She was attired in a rose silk shantung dress styled similar to those of the bridesmaids. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses, which the bride placed on the altar.

Bill Torbert of Amarillo served as best man. Groomsmen were Bob Dudik of Waco and E. R. Cas-

Following the ceremony, a dinner was held at 6 p. m. in the Muenster High School lunchroom. Tables were decorated with seasonal flowers, and the double-ring wedding cake centered the head table.

Shifts would run from 1 to 6 p.m. Oct. 28, and from 8:45 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. and from 1:15 p.m. to 5 p.m. the other days.

It was announced that delegates from the various clubs are invited to attend the banquet for the District B&PW conference, to be held Saturday evening in the high school cafeteria. The group voted to admit the Pampa Art Club to membership in the council. Mrs. Z. B. Deer Jr. reported on the Welfare Index meetings, and Mrs. H. H. Butler gave a report for the furniture committee.

Mrs. Key announced that the United Fund has asked each club in the council to appoint a team, consisting of 1 captain and five other members, to help with its drive. Members of the teams must attend the kick-off breakfast at 7 a.m. Oct. 31, and one evening training session the week beforehand. No one will be required to contact more than five persons, she explained.

RUTH MILLETT

They are about the same age and they lost their husbands about the same time.

When Mrs. M.'s husband died her married children stepped in and decided she mustn't live alone. So she went to live with a married daughter and her family.

All of the children felt relieved at this decision, for they knew that "mother was being taken care of." When Mrs. B.'s husband died her children asked her what she wanted to do. She said she wanted to sell the big old house and get a small home that would be easier for her to take care of. The children didn't try to talk her out of her decision, though they knew they would worry about her living alone.

Mrs. M. and Mrs. B. are acquaintances. Who do you think envies whom, the older woman who lives with her daughter, or the older woman who lives alone?

The answer may surprise more grown children than widowed parents. It is the protected Mrs. M. who envies Mrs. B. who lives alone.

The reason for the envy is obvious. After five years of living with a married daughter and her family, Mrs. M. has few friends of her own age. She didn't have to make friends for she could always share in the life of the household and so she didn't make the effort.

Having run a home all of her life, she feels she has to keep busy. But sometimes she senses that her daughter would really prefer to run her own house in her own way. She has lost a lot of her enthusiasm for living in the years that she has become just Jane's mother to all who meet her.

But Mrs. B. is having a fine time living her own life, entertaining friends in her own home. She's a person instead of just somebody's mother.

Both sets of children wanted to do what was right for their mothers. Only one set of children realized that only their mother knew what was best for her to do with her life.

GRACE FRIEND

Dear Grace Friend I'd like a question answered if you can help me.

We live out of the city limits in a tract where our homes are small and close together. Our bedroom is right off our neighbor's kitchen and they have all night card parties.

Isn't it against the law to have card games played for money in the home?

Older Than Neighbors

My husband and I are older than these neighbors and my husband works six days a week and is on the job an hour before this man even leaves home.

He has asked me several times if his card games bother us and I tell him they sure do. They pound the table so hard with the cards and talk so loud. He did say they would play in their living room so it wouldn't keep us awake all night.

I am not well and the doctors have told me to rest. These neighbors know this. We've tried to be good neighbors and as we are buying our house we can't do any better. We've closed our windows trying to shut out the noise but it doesn't help.

What I want to know now is would it help to call the law. They never play on Saturday nights so we don't have to get up early Sunday.

BURNED UP

I've been so burned up I have wanted to either puncture their tires or push their cars away from in front of our house but my husband wouldn't let me. They don't always park in our front.

We always read your column the first part of the paper.

Jane

Of course you may call the law but were you to take such a course you would make bitter enemies who probably would do their best to be annoying from then on. I am sure that such a course would create a situation which would force you to move away as much as you dislike the idea.

TALK IT OVER

In your place I would talk the matter over with my neighbors since they have given you the opening by asking whether the noise bothers you.

Drop over some afternoon and mention that you had thought the games were to be moved into another room because of the noise keeping you from resting. Ask in friendly fashion if it can be done soon since you must get more sleep. I am sure your neighbors will be glad to cooperate once they realize you are serious about the noise bothering you. I imagine that they have the impression you were not serious when you laughed and said "It sure does."

By any chance do you have another bedroom which might be wise to change your sleeping room.

THROAT EXERCISE

Dear Madame

I read your column often. Could you advise me as to where I could obtain throat exercises?

Due to diet and harmful exercises I have done apparent damage to my throat.

I am 40 and do not look it but in the past few months my throat looks 15 years older than I do. As I meet the public every day I am quite self-conscious about this condition.

Could you advise me what I can do?

Dear L.

There are a number of good hormone creams on the market which do much to make the throat look firmer and younger. One that I like especially is Dorothy Gray's Cellagen Hormone Cream. If you use it as directed, massaging the throat upward, you will soon note improvement.

Golden Anniversary Celebration Slated For Charlie Gatlins

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Gatlin of Hopkins will be honored with an open house from 2 to 4 p.m. today in their home, 12 miles south of Pampa, in observance of their golden wedding anniversary. The event is being given by Mrs. Theima Hopkins of Hopkins and Mrs. Clara Pearl Smith, daughters of the honored couple.

Mr. Gatlin is an old-time cowboy, coming to work on a ranch near McLean in 1905. They have spent most of their married life in the Pampa area. They have two grandchildren, Jim Hopkins, 15, a student in Pampa High School, and Jean Hopkins, 14, a student in Pampa Junior High School.

Out-of-town guests for the celebration include Mrs. Jack Gray of Riverside, Calif.; Mrs. D. Worrell of Ajo, Ariz.; Mrs. Jesse Courtney of Wichita Falls, and Ross Gatlin of Guilford, Miss.

Mrs. Gray, Worrell and Courtney are sisters of Mr. Gatlin, and Ross Gatlin is his brother.

Rev. A. B. Cockrell called later in the evening.

When you're furnishing a house or apartment, best plan is to put the most money into the things you expect to have a long time and the least into accessories.

NOTHING COULD HAVE THE Cape Cod flavor in greater degree than the Old Yarmouth Inn. Its lobster curry is flavorful, too.

Cape Cod Food Glorified By The Old Yarmouth Inn

By GAYNOR MADDOX, NEA Food and Markets Editor

Kathryn Rudelt, born in Bath, Me., is the gracious daughter of a newspaperman who had nine children. Her first job was in a florist shop. Flowers are still part of her life. She and her husband own the Old Yarmouth Inn on Route 6 in Yarmouthport on Cape Cod. The whole inn, built in 1895, is splashed with red roses and surrounded with flowering plants.

After Kathryn Rudelt left Maine, she worked in Washington, D.C., then as an assistant hostess in New York. At Sarana Lake, N.Y., where she served in the dining room, the chef was smiling, courtly Harry W. Rudelt.

Born in Germany, he had worked in famous European restaurants. They met on the Fourth of July, were married in November. Now, beside their inn, shown in Samuel Chamberlain's beautiful book "Cape Cod," they have a teen-age daughter, Joan, who will study at the Boston Conservatory of Music.

Shrimp Bisque

Place 5 pounds of shrimp in 1 gallon cold water. Add 2 stalks celery, 1 carrot and 1 onion, all sliced. Simmer until shrimp are tender. Remove shrimp from shells. Dry the empty shells in oven. Sauté briefly in butter or margarine. Break shells with potato masher. Add a bay leaf, 2 cloves, a few peppercorns and salt to taste. Sprinkle with brandy. Ignite the brandy and allow to burn out. Next stir in 1 cup flour and sauté a little more. Add this to the strained shrimp broth. Simmer for 2 hours. Strain through cheese cloth. Beat 3 eggs yolks slightly, stir in 2 cups light cream and a dash of Worcestershire. Add this to shrimp broth. Bring to just under boil. Remove from heat. In the meantime, break 1 pound cooked shrimp into small pieces. Sauté very lightly in butter. Add dash of paprika and dash of sherry if desired. Place some of these broken shrimp in each bowl. Then pour in some of the bisque. Serve very hot. A celestial dish!

Chipped Beef on Curried Rice

Creamed chipped beef is excellent served over curried rice. For 6 servings, brown 1/2 pound of chipped beef in 3 tablespoons of lard drippings. Add 3 tablespoons of flour and blend well. Slowly stir in 2 cups of milk. Cook until thick, stirring constantly. To make the curried rice, add 1 tablespoon of curry powder to each quart of water used in cooking rice.

Oil Plastics Hide Sprinklers

Luminous ceilings that hide fire-fighting sprinkler systems, but fall out of the way if fire starts, have been made from an oil-derived vinyl plastic.

The thin plastic strips are hung below the real ceiling, diffusing the rays of fluorescent lamps, which shine through in a bright, glareless light. Besides their attractiveness, they help muffle sounds in supermarkets, specialty shops, offices and banks where they have been used.

Although they hide electrical conduits, air conditioning ducts, and other rough construction, they do not interfere with the sprinkler system required for fire protection. If a fire starts, the vinyl softens and falls out of the way. Combining beauty with usefulness is an everyday story for oil-derived plastics as new uses for them are discovered by industries in America.

Giant Furnace Makes More Oil

A furnace which heats crude oil for processing in the largest atmospheric distillation still in the world consumes as much fuel oil as it takes to warm 15,000 average homes.

The work that this giant does, however, makes more out of less. The huge still refines about 125,000 barrels of gasoline, heating oil, residual oil, and gas oil in one day. This means an increase in the proportion of products which may be obtained from each barrel of oil.

Making more out of less is an old but ever-new story to oil men. In 1914, the amount of gasoline from a barrel of crude oil amounted to only about 18 per cent. Today, in this progressive industry, it is more than 44 per cent.

Remote Control In Some Fields

The oil industry, noted for its progressiveness, has been experimenting for years with remote control of the flow of oil and gas from a field of wells. A few fields in the United States already have automatic systems which allow partial control.

New electronic developments may put one man in control of the output of a string of wells without ever being there. The new system is said to allow an operator in the control station to change any well's flow rate any time he wants to without making a trip to the well.

Such experiments and studies occur every day in the progressive oil industry as it keeps ahead of its growing job of supplying Americans with oil and oil products.

When cutting board and unfinished wood counter tops become stained, clean them with scouring powder and a sudsy solution containing a small amount of chlorine bleach.

To vary macaroni and cheese casseroles, add a generous amount of chopped chives to the cheese sauce.

WHITE DEER — (Special) — School nurses of some 9 Panhandle towns have just completed a two-day workshop and clinic hosted by the White Deer-Skellytown schools here.

Highlighting the event were lectures and discussions led by Allan Brobaum, Mrs. Ruby Ripperton, and Miss Ella Patton, consultants from the Texas Department of Public Health, Austin. Members of the workshop were guests of the White Deer-Skellytown school at a luncheon served in the school cafeteria, and they were served an afternoon coffee by students of the White Deer High School Homemaking Department, under the direction of Miss Geraldine Rampsy.

The three consultants co-ordinated their work during the second day of the clinic, directing the classroom observation and the discussion of problems. The clinic was concluded with an evaluation discussion given from the standpoint of an Administrator, by Nuckols, and a group discussion by those who attended.

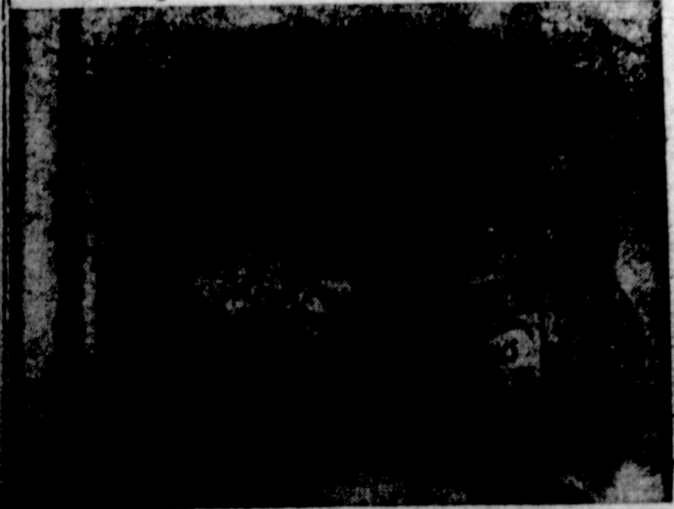

Mrs. J. R. McMurray, White Deer - Skellytown school nurse, served as hostess for the affair. Other administrators who attended were: E. A.
