WASHINGTON, August 19. (AP)—The Federal Communications Commission today announced sharp curbs on radio programs.

British Plane Crash Kills 27 Of 32 Aboard

MANCHESTER, Eng., Aug. 19. (AP)—A British European Airways plane en route here from Belfast crashed into a hill in thick weather today and killed 27 of its 32 occupants.

Four persons were killed in another crash at Baildon, near Shipley, Yorkshire, the Civil Aviation Ministry announced.

All occupants of the planes were believed to have been British.

The Bea twin-engine transport, an hour out of Belfast, approached Manchester in a thick mist. It ploughed into a mountainside, exploded and burned.

Police officers at the scene said they counted 22 passengers and four crew members dead. Another passenger, a woman, died en route to the hospital in nearby Oldham.

About half the passengers were women.

Two children, badly injured, were reported to be among the survivors.

Centurettes Will Be Formed Here For Centennial

The Centurettes, an organization of teen-aged girls, is to be formed at a mass meeting of girls' clubs next Wednesday, H. J. Morrison, Centennial association executive secretary, announced today.

Members and non-members of all girls' groups in Big Spring will be eligible for membership in the new organization, Morrison said.

The Centurettes will be divided into a number of units to assist in putting on the October Centennial.

Among the organizations whose members have been invited to join are Rainbow Girls, Student Council, Tri-Hi-Y, Sub Deb, Allied Youth, High Heel Slipper Club, and Frazier Ensemble.

Girls who are not members of any club are also invited to take part in the activities of the Centurettes.

Tentative plans for the organization call for appearances of members before local civic and service clubs, as well as visits to surrounding towns.

Members will assist in the operation of the Centennial office in the Settles, act as hostesses during the October Celebration, promote and advertise the Centennial, and play in the historical pageant, Centurama.

The organizational meeting of the group will be at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Settles ballroom.

British World Flyer Returns To Britain

PRESTWICK, Scotland, Aug. 19. (AP)—Mrs. Richard Morrow-Tait, British round-the-world flyer, returned today to Britain, which she left just a year and a day ago.

Mrs. Morrow-Tait's single-engine plane landed at Prestwick airport from Iceland at 3:05 p.m. (8:05 a.m. CST).

The model-turned-aviatrix was held up by weather in Iceland and so prevented from finishing the trip on the anniversary.

After refueling her light plane here, Mrs. Morrow-Tait is expected to fly on to London's Croydon Airport to end the first single-engine round-the-world flight by a woman at the point where she started it.

Willis Heads Local Seismograph Party

H. A. Willis has been named chief for the Stanlind Oil & Gas company seismograph party here.

He has been party chief at Stamford. In other personnel changes announced by John R. Evans, Stanlind's North Texas-New Mexico manager, W. A. McLaughlin went from Fort Worth to Carlsbad, N. M. as party chief.

R. A. Balle, formerly of Guthrie, Okla., was made party chief at Ballinger.

Shirley To Try Again

CALAIS, France, Aug. 19. (AP)—Shirley May France left here today by channel steamer for her Dover headquarters. The 17-year-old Somerset, Mass., girl said she hoped to return in about 10 days to prepare for her attempt channel swim. The attempt was put off yesterday because of unfavorable weather.

WAITING RESCUE — Pinned beneath a tractor, Walter Bennett, 48, holds to strands of barbed wire fence as he awaits help. Bennett, a dairy farm employe, was mowing weeds along a road near Independence, Mo., when the tractor, equipped with a sickle, turned over. He was trapped 15 minutes in this position before a tow truck crane lifted the tractor from him. At a hospital, physicians said he had no broken bones. X-ray pictures were to be made later after Bennett had a chance to rest a bit.

NEW RENT CURB CUTBACK SEEN

WASHINGTON, August 19. (AP)—Housing Expediter Tighe E. Woods today predicted a further new cutback in rent control.

He said his agency may be forced to curtail activities in many areas — this in addition to lifting ceilings completely in one-third of the areas now controlled.

Just what form additional reductions in rent controls would take, Woods could not immediately say.

"The slash in our budget makes it necessary to lop off the housing staff from 5,000 to 3,000 persons," Woods told a reporter. "And that means we just won't have manpower to do the job — so we'll have to cut the work load."

Already announced plans to abolish ceilings across one-third of the country, meantime, were creating a stir of reaction and confusion.

Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.) said he hoped today to bring to the Senate floor a resolution to reconsider a House-Senate conference bill which okayed the cut in the housing agency's funds to $17,500,000.

Housing authorities said they have been "flooded with a constant stream" of long distance phone calls and telegrams asking clarification and protesting the proposal to drop restrictions in many parts of the country where controls still are on.

BROTHERS OF BRUSH WELCOME NEW MEMBERS

Brothers of the Brush, Centennial beard growing organization was assured a healthy increase in membership Thursday night when 160 members of the American Legion voted unanimously to affiliate themselves with the league.

Participation in other Centennial events also was approved by the Legionnaires.

They voted to purchase 100 shares of Centennial stock from Legion funds, and members in turn pledged themselves to individual purchases of certificates.

Arrangements will be made to hold open house at the Legion club house for all visiting dignitaries and visitors who come here for the Centennial's Military Day.

Legionnaires here will participate in the Centennial Military parade as a unit, and invitations are being extended to other posts to take part in activities.

Ushers Prevent Panic Injuries As Youths Cry Fire in Theater

FORT WORTH, Aug. 19. (AP)—A couple of ushers were credited today with preventing injuries in a panic among theater patrons who fled from the building when three teen-age boys yelled "fire."

The incident was at the Hollywood Theater here yesterday. The boys shrieked "fire" seven times and the theater occupants poured out the street in terror.

Cool work of the ushers, James Thompson and James Wilson, made possible the near-capacity crowd reaching the street without anyone being hurt.

The teen-age youths are being sought.

Southern Demos Fearful Of New Get-Tough Policy At Boyle's Hands

By JACK BELL AP STAFF WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Southern Democrats wondered today if they face a new get-tough policy at the hands of William Boyle, Jr., scheduled for election as the party's national chairman.

Their interest was boosted by President Truman's broad hint at his news conference yesterday. This was to the effect that the President backs fully the decision to deny Dixie members a chance to vote on Boyle if they followed the States Rights banner last November.

Boyle has been picked by the President to succeed Sen. J. Howard McGrath of Rhode Island, ousted by the Senate yesterday to succeed Tom C. Clark as attorney general.

McGrath has called the Democratic National Committee to meet here Wednesday to pick his successor as chairman, naming Boyle as the likely man.

In the same announcement, McGrath said he was not inviting some Dixie committee members who didn't support the President last year because of his demand for civil rights legislation.

NUDE BEAUTY STOPS TRAFFIC

BOSTON, Aug. 19. (AP)—A pretty blonde—nude except for white panties—stopped traffic at Beacon Street and Massachusetts Avenue.

Horns sounded and motorists whistled. Then Traffic Officer Joseph Ahearn took her to the Back Bay police station.

There she explained—after much prompting—that her name was Bridget McLaugh of Cambridge, daughter of a Massachusetts Institute of Technology student.

She was hustled home—some distance from the scene of her traffic conquest.

Oh, yes, her age—five years old. Her mother said she'd done it many times before.

WCTU Leader Hits Nation's Big Booze Bill

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 19. (AP)—A temperance leader asserted today that Americans are spending $1,004,586 an hour for alcoholic drinks.

Violet T. Black, of Evanston, Ill., told the Woman's Christian Temperance Union at its 75th diamond anniversary convention she arrived at this estimate "by dividing the number of hours per year (8,760) into the $8,800,000,000 reported by the U. S. Department of Commerce to have been spent by consumers in this country last year for alcoholic beverages."

Miss Black is treasurer of the WCTU.

She said "this money, wasted for a product which is mankind's scourge could be used to build 100 acutely needed homes, costing $10,000 each, every hour of the day or night."

She concluded: "The total drink bill, however, cannot be estimated without adding a sum equal to that spent for the beverages to cover the cost of drink-caused crime, insanity, disease, broken homes, poverty, and other human and economic waste."

REDS TAKE KEY CITY

CANTON, Aug. 19. (AP)—The battle for Canton ended today with the Communist capture of a key city 170 miles to the northeast.

The city is Tayu. It is in the broad Kan River valley, which leads to Canton. Tayu's fall was announced by the defense ministry.

With Tayu gone, the road is more or less clear to Kukung, 70 miles to the west. When the Reds reach Kukung the battle for Canton itself is begun, military observers believe.

The loss of Kukung would isolate Canton from the 200,000-man army of Gen. Pai Chung-Hsi, commander on the front to the north.

The defense ministry asserted that Pai's forces had wiped out a Communist division and an artillery battalion in a battle 50 miles northwest of Hongyang.

Hongyang is Pai's base 285 miles almost due north of Canton. The ministry said most of the Red forces were killed and except for a handful the rest were captured. (This might mean 10,000 men.)

Underlining the gravity of Canton's situation, the U. S. Embassy announced it was moving to Hong Kong, the British crown colony to the south.

Embassy officials will commute daily with Canton as long as conditions permit. The consulate staff was flying out by U. S. Navy plane. An embassy statement said the decision to move was taken in view of "the present Communist threat in this region."

Howard County Boy Is Struck By Oil Truck, Killed Today

Six-year-old Elias Loera was killed instantly at 10:15 a.m. Friday beneath the wheels of a west-bound oil transport three miles west of U. S. 80.

The lad, who had been sent for the mail along with two brothers, a sister and a friend, was hit as he darted unexpectedly across the thoroughfare, said officers.

Driver of the machine, H. E. Atkinson, swerved sharply in a vain attempt to miss Elias. The vehicle had all but left the roadway when the mishap occurred.

The boy apparently was in the act of retrieving his bicycle, which lay on the opposite side of the road and was not aware of the approaching truck.

Elias is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Juan Loera, who live on the Frazer ranch just west of the airport. Elias are pending, the McDaniel-Houlliman funeral home announced. Likely they will be held Saturday at the Sacred Heart Catholic church.

Besides the parents, survivors include five brothers, Joe, Salvador, John, Yggnacio, and Arthur Loera; and four sisters, Mary, Carolyn, Rachael and Rosie Loera.

Rites For Harvell Baby Set Saturday

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at Nalley chapel for Roslyn Diane, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noel R. Harvell, Jr.

The baby was born Wednesday at 10:17 p.m. and died at 4 a.m. Friday. Rites will be in charge of Price Bankhead, Forsan.

Besides the parents, survivors include the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Harvell, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Biggs, the maternal great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gold Dickerson, all of Big Spring, and the paternal great-grandfather, Tom Harvell, Merkel. Roy Shaw, Cooper Weaver, H. S. Madris, and H. W. Bomar will be pallbearers.

Slashed Arms Program Is At Senate's Mercy

WASHINGTON, August 19. (AP)—Battered by the House, the administration's foreign arms aid program looked to the Senate today for gentler treatment.

The program was slashed and hedged in with restrictions before the House passed it last night, 238 to 112.

It marked a bad ending for President Truman's congressional forces.

Despite their entreaties, a 50 per cent cut was imposed on the $1,100,000,000 plan.

On top of that, the House decreed that at least half of the supplies sent abroad must be carried in American ships. The lawmakers also tightened up a prohibition against using United States troops for other than non-combatant duty in connection with the program.

But the House granted the full $221,370,000 the President wanted for aid to Greece and Turkey, and the $27,940,000 he asked for Iran, Korea and the Philippines and it kept back amendments to:

(1) Add $100 million for China and other southeastern Asia areas, (2) charge the western European allotment against the current U. S. military appropriation, (3) withhold funds from Britain as long as Ireland remains partitioned, (4) ban the use of U. S. troops for any purpose under the program, and (5) require the President to channel production into areas suffering from acute unemployment problems.

Mundt Seeks To Link Trip With Freezer Gifts

WASHINGTON, August 19. (AP)—Senator Mundt (R-SD) sought today to link a flying trip to Paris in 1945 by three agents of a Chicago perfume firm with the firm's gifts of home freezers to Major General Harry H. Vaughan "and his friends."

Mundt told reporters testimony given the Senate Investigations Committee secretly Monday, and made public yesterday, "begins to disclose a suspicion of a motive of what is behind the gifts of deep freezers."

He referred to freezers said for by the Albert H. Verley Perfumes Co. which were sent to Mrs. Harry H. Truman, Gen. Vaughan and four other administration officials during the summer of 1945 and the winter of 1945-46.

Three representatives of the Verley Co. made the Paris trip on an Army transport plane in July, 1945, at a time, Mundt said, "when businessmen just couldn't get there."

Mundt is a member of the committee which is looking into the activities of "five percenters"—individuals who search out government contacts for others at a fee, usually five per cent.

Two of the central figures in the inquiry are Vaughan, President Truman's military aide, and John Marston, Washington man-about-town who had to have free access to the White House.

The testimony released by the committee yesterday, after President Truman had accused it of withholding testimony "favorable" to Vaughan while producing the unfavorable parts at public hearings, threw a new spotlight on the two men.

Testimony by Harry Hoffman, Milwaukee advertising man who handles the Verley account, named Marston as the man who arranged for the Army transport to carry Hoffman, Marston, and Emmett King, New York attorney, to Paris on Verley business.

The record shows that Mundt commented that "someone had to exert a colossal amount of influence in high circles" to wangle such a trip. He noted that it was timed for "entry into Paris almost on the heels" of liberating troops.

Hoffman said the three travelers paid their fares in cash.

Better Pay Apparently Attracts More Students To Teaching Field

Teaching school as a means of livelihood is looking up. For instance: In the Boling school in Wharton County a teacher with an M. A. degree will receive $4,768 for the 1949-50 session. At Deer Park and Katy, in Harris County, a B.A. will be worth $4,500. At Odessa, the lowest B.S. teacher's salary will be $3,600.

These salaries, announced by the public relations director for the Texas State Teachers Association are well above the schedules set by the Gilmer-Aikin laws of the 51st Legislature. About forty percent of the districts will pay above the G-A minimums.

Under the law, a beginning teacher with a bachelor's degree must be paid $2,400 a year, rising to $3,000 after 12 years of experience. A teacher with a master's degree starts off at $2,825 a year, and rises to $4,000 after 20 years.

While these salaries sound big in comparison with other times, they shrink in comparison with today's living standards here in this country with consequent deand living costs. Should there be a big decline in living costs, such salaries would be sufficient. In the face of economic conditions such as existed in the 1930s, the question is, how long would it take the legislature to throw the Gilmer-Aikin minimums on the scrap-heap? How long could school districts maintain such salaries in the midst of a devastating depression?

At any rate, it's mighty fine as long as it lasts. Teachers have been paid miserable salaries in time past, a fact that drove many from the profession into more profitable employments. Worst part of it was that fewer and fewer young people were attracted to the profession, and trained replacements were hard to come by.

Thanks to better days for school teachers, our colleges are receiving more and more students who look favorably on a teaching career. Better pay is expected to attract better young teachers, and to make older and more experienced teachers satisfied with their lot.

Voice Of America Programs May Be Getting Under Russia's Skin

New U. S. Ambassador Alan Kirk's courtesy call on Joseph Stalin last Monday night, lasting forty-five minutes, did result in at least two questions being asked of Stalin, the State Department has revealed.

Secretary Acheson reports that Ambassador Kirk had expressed hope to Stalin that something can be done about the Russian jamming of American broadcasts, and a final settlement of long-standing problems. These matters, Acheson said, were referred by Stalin to the Russian foreign office.

The matter of air-wave jamming was noted this week by the House Appropriations Committee, after hearing testimony from Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, the Army's director of psychological warfare. The committee increased the appropriation by $4,000,000, for a total of $11.5 million, after General Wedemeyer reported the "Voice of America" program was getting under the Russians' skins. These broadcasts, he said, were "hurting them and hurting their badly."

Russia started jamming "Voice of America" and BBC programs about the time the Berlin airlift negotiations reached a crisis, to keep her people in ignorance of the fact that the Kremlin had lost the argument. The Reds brought into play every station they could for the purpose of blanketing the Anglo-American wave-lengths. In doing so, Russia necessarily had to abandon part of its regular propaganda programs to its own people, and in retaliation the British and Americans set some of their own frequencies so near that of principal Russian stations as to blank out the latter.

Instead of abandoning the jamming with subsidence of the Berlin crisis, as expected, General Wedemeyer reported the Russians redoubled their efforts, a fact that reflects the effectiveness of such "Voice of America" and BBC programs as are filtering through to the Russian people.

The U.S. and Britain, believing the plain truth is the best propaganda, stick to truthful and uncolored reports of happenings throughout the world.

Poor Scribe Is Glitter-Happy After $35 Million Jewel Show

NEW YORK, N. Y. — IF YOU REALLY can't decide what to get me for Christmas, there's a little doodle on display over at the Waldorf-Astoria that would suit me like chestnut dressing suits roast turkey.

Not that I'm hinting, mind you. As a matter of fact I'm not sure what I am doing. I've just come back from that $35 million jewel show at the Waldorf and frankly, friend, I'm glitter-happy.

The American National Retail Jewelers, whose baby it is, says it's the biggest display of precious stones and baubles ever held. Acre of diamonds. Bushels of rubies. Pearls by the peck.

In one word: Golly!

A WELL-PROPORTIONED, BROWN- eyed blonde named Roma Paige, all decked out in a white nylon bathing suit with pearls dripping from every thread came along.

"Don't I look expensive?" she asked brightly. "You're supposed to guess how many pearls I'm wearing. If you guess right you win a magnum of champagne."

I guessed 2,315 but that couldn't have been right because a woman's handbag I examined a few minutes later turned out to be covered by 14,000 pearls, and Miss Paige's swim suit was much larger than the handbag.

Well, a little larger, anyway. "Actually," whispered Miss Theresa Jacobson, who was guarding the handbag, "there are only 13,999 pearls. Somebody dropped it and one pearl fell off."

"BUT THERE ARE 30 CARATS OF diamonds and 30 carats of rubies and the setting is pure palladium."

"Gosh," I said. "And the—ah—price?" Miss J. looked elaborately casual. "Twenty thousand dollars," she said. "It's the most expensive handbag in the world. We've sold three just like it—one each in Memphis, Miami, and Los Angeles."

That did it. If a woman can pay 30 perfectly good G's for a pearly old handbag that she'll probably leave behind in the movies someday, who says a $5,000 lighter set is too good for uncle?

So as we were saying about that Christmas remembrance—

But don't let me know you're ordering H, will you? I want it to be a surprise.

Council Of Europe Would Gain By Making Germany A Member

THE MOVE TO MAKE GERMANY AN early member of the Council of Europe is gaining remarkable momentum.

Winston Churchill Wednesday again advocated the addition of the defeated country to this 13-nation council which its sponsors hope will develop into a parliament comprising all the European democracies.

Simultaneously in Washington American Secretary of State Dean Acheson expressed himself as favoring the acceptance of the new West German Republic in the Council for Europe. He said the United States believes this would be a constructive step in the integration of a peaceful, freedom-loving Germany into the community of western Europe.

WHY SHOULD THE WESTERN DEMOCRACIES be anxious to include in their new European parliament a Germany which has stoned so greatly and so often against its neighbors?

There are two prime reasons. The first of course is that it not only is calculated to foster peace but economic prosperity. A healthy Germany is essential to the general well being of western Europe.

The second, and perhaps the more important reason, is that Germany lies in the heart of Europe, on the line dividing the communistic East from the democratic West. She could be, in days to come, a mighty deterrent to an armed clash between eastern and western Europe. Should unhappily such a conflict arise, then most assuredly the western powers would want Germany in their camp. If she were isolated and forced to play the lone wolf, fate might drive her into the Bolshevik camp.

THERE IS NO DISPOSITION ON the part of the democracies to rush blindly into the unification of Europe. British Deputy Prime Minister Herbert Morrison told the Strasbourg assembly he favored immediate steps for unification but advocated caution. With this Churchill didn't differ, commenting characteristically:

"We may just as well see what a girl looks like before we marry her." This idea of bringing a staid Germany forthwith into the association of democracies which have been stoned against represents a striking departure from past tactics. After the first world war Germany was labeled the bad boy of Europe and who stood in a corner to repent. Decidedly that didn't work.

WHEW!

Shah Of Iran Gets Point When American Sends Cigarettes To Jailed Editors

By ROBERT S. ALLEN For DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — A high U. S. official just returned from a tour of the Middle East reports one outstanding impression.

It is this: That, amid the welter of assassination, intrigue and autocratic rule in this ancient cockpit, the prestige and power of the United States stands out like a gleaming beacon.

The official related this episode to prove his point:

Following the attempted slaying some months ago of the Shah, he imposed iron-handed martial rule. The Iranian press particularly felt the weight of the Shah's fury. Seventeen liberal, non-Communist newspapers were suppressed and their editors thrown into jail. He also ordered them tried on charges of subversive activities.

To support these charges, articles dating back as far as 20 years were brought into court against the editors.

Despite these extreme measures, only six were convicted.

U. S. ambassador in Iran is John Wiley. An able, tough-minded career man, he has been an outstanding success in his delicate and arduous post. A firm believer in democracy and freedom of the press, Wiley, privately, was shocked by the autocratic persecution of the editors. But because it was a strictly internal affair, he meticulously kept hands off until after the six editors were sentenced.

Several days later, Wiley sent each of them a small package. It consisted of one pack of American cigarettes — with Wiley's personal card.

Nothing was written on the card. Also, there was nothing secret about Wiley's action. His chauffeur delivered the packages to the prison and turned them over to the warden to give to the editors. That was all there was to it.

The Shah, of course, was immediately informed. Also, he got the point.

The following day, the editors were pardoned.

NOTE — Because of Wiley's penetrating and forthright reports to the State Department, the Iranian ambassador in Washington is very hostile toward him. The Iranian has repeatedly tried to undermine Wiley.

NO MERGER The widely publicized merger between AMVETS and AVC has gotten nowhere. Reason is strong rank-and-file opposition in both veteran organizations. At the bottom of this are two factors: AMVETS membership is much more conservative than AVC, and a confidential memorandum sent out by AVC Commander Harold A. M. Keats. In this document, he stresses the financial benefits that will accrue to AMVETS by absorbing the 35,000 AVC dues-paying members.

AVC officials are aware that AMVETS's headquarters is hard up and that its national officers draw $35,000 a year in salaries and expenses.

1959 Beach Costume Of Lipstick, Rouge Seen

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 19 — Mack Sennett says the feminine beach costume in 10 years may be lipstick, rouge and perhaps a hair ribbon. That's all, brother.

"It isn't necessary to look far to see that women, if not men, too, are headed in the direction of nudism," remarked the long-time comedy wizard of the screen.

Sennett can bear some of the responsibility for the trend. His bathing beauties of the flickers showed more of the feminine form than was generally seen in those days. Even though his beauties look now as though they were clothed by Omar the Tent Maker.

"They created a furor," he recalled. "Some people wanted to have me put in jail."

"I'm not the only one who can remember when police would raid beaches armed with rulers to measure the number of inches of leg exposed by these 'daring' suits. If more than a few inches were in view, a lady would be arrested for indecent exposure."

Police now would need yardsticks, he observed.

Sennett said he heard women in New York and even Boston were wearing cut suits on downtown streets. He cited the plunging neckline and bare midriff as more evidence of the movement toward nudism.

The movie maker is no advocate of nudism, but says it may have its points.

"The woman of the hour-glass figure—with the sand in the wrong end—will start checking the bathroom scales and pass up a second helping of mashed potatoes and gravy."

That goes for men, too, he

Medical Science Still Is More Or Less Baffled By Hay Fever

Some cheerless individual has come up with a reminder that ragweeds in the United States are now in the process of releasing a billion tons of pollen grains to the atmosphere.

This is ticklish news (if it can be classified as news) for the untold thousands of people who begin the "sneeze season" about this time every year.

Without a doubt that allergy commonly referred to as "hay fever" is one of mankind's most formidable enemies, and ruthlessness apparently is the chief characteristic of this seasonal malady.

It probably has no peer, except maybe the common cold, as an agent of discomfort, and it is, without a doubt one of the most unpredictable of man's sufferings.

Scientists have been handicapped in seeking a means of relief for the sufferers, because drugs that serve the desired purpose in one case may fall miserably in another.

Although they are greater in number than any others, ragweeds are not the only agents of hay fever promotion. Certain individuals may be allergic to pollen from several types of plants.

That means, of course, that a victim need not try to flee the hay fever met, unless he has the time and the finances to visit a sub-freezing region for the duration of the pollen season.

The only sure-fire method for checking a siege of hay fever is a freezer of killing frost. That frost time arrives, however, the pollen wafts through the air, apparently seeking the sensitive nostrils of those who cannot bear it without ill effects.

Investigations have disclosed that pollen may travel great distances through the air. For that reason, hay fever sufferers in a weed-free area may come face to face with their annual nemesis without ever detecting the source.

Thus it appears that hay fever is another case where man still must battle the elements for health, despite his modern conveniences.—WACIL McNAIR.

Nations Of Western World In Preparation For Armageddon

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19 — BY THIS time you may be getting dizzy trying to follow all the international plans, pacts, and programs.

The Marshall Plan, the Atlantic Pact, Arms for Europe, the Council of Europe, Western Federation. What do they mean? They mean—except for Western Federation, which is something in the future—just this:

The nations of the western world are teaming up in one way or another. Take it in plans one by one:

The Marshall Plan—This is economic help which the United States is giving to 16 nations to help them recover from the war and stand off communism.

They are Britain, France, Western Germany, Netherlands, Italy, Austria, Belgium, Luxembourg, Greece, Norway, Sweden, Trieste, Turkey, Denmark, Iceland, Ireland.

THE ATLANTIC PACT—UNDER THIS, a military alliance, the following 12 nations agree to go to one another's help if they're attacked:

United States, Canada, Belgium, Britain, Luxembourg, France, Netherlands, Norway, Denmark, Italy, Iceland, Portugal.

The arms program—Under this the U. S.—if Congress approves—will help arm its partners in the Atlantic Pact, or some of them, so they could withstand a Russian attack for a while. Congress has begun debate. It's expected to approve.

The Council of Europe—Thirteen European nations are taking part. The council can't really do anything. Its job is limited to debate and recommendations on political, cultural and some economic matters.

It cannot discuss defense problems. That's a job for the Atlantic Pact countries. The 13 nations taking part are: Britain, France, Italy, Belgium, Netherlands, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Ireland, Iceland, Luxembourg, Greece, Turkey.

IN THE ASSEMBLY—WHICH IS FREE to approve or disapprove matters put before it by the ministers—there are more than 10 members, or delegates, from the member-nations. The number of delegates from each country depends upon its size. The council started meeting Aug. 5.

This may be the first step toward a real union of the countries of western Europe. Federation—A number of resolutions have been introduced in Congress this year, urging various kinds of union among nations.

They range from suggestions that a limited number of western nations unite, somewhat the United States are united, to a union of all the members of the United Nations.

No action can be expected in Congress before next year. Hearings on the resolutions may start in the Senate in January.

Matter Of Fact—Joseph Alsop

Big Man Is Needed As Director Of Central Intelligence Agency

WASHINGTON — The "Help Wanted" of the most vitally important posts in the government—that of director of the Central Intelligence Agency. Under any circumstances this is a key job, since the CIA chief directs all American clandestine activities and secret intelligence efforts abroad, and the job is certain to become even more crucial simply because, in all the plans for a new Asiatic policy which are now being drawn up, secret operations necessarily play a decisive part.

The present CIA chief is Rear Admiral Roscoe Hillekoetter, who is generally conceded to have done a satisfactory job in the difficult first two years of the agency's existence.

Yet Hillekoetter is a regular service officer, outranked by all the top officers in the Pentagon, to which he must some day return. This is one reason why he has not always been able to resist the Pentagon's tendency to slough off incompetent boobies, for whom no useful employment can be found, on the CIA. Moreover, Hillekoetter's is a temporary appointment. It is generally agreed that when he goes he should be replaced by a civilian, under no obligation to anyone, willing to take the CIA job on a permanent basis, and of sufficient stature and reputation to deal on equal terms with the most important men in the government.

The search for this paragon is now taking the form of long lists, which are being drawn up in the State Department and the Pentagon, and submitted to President Truman. The search is complicated by two factors. For one thing, if, as seems likely, the CIA Chief's salary is raised to $22,500, the job will become one of the richest political plums in Washington. The political factor is the reason why the name of Allen Dulles, who wrote the report urging the reorganization of the CIA, has been struck off all lists. Dulles' name was originally on most lists, but he is a prominent Republican and supporter of Thomas E. Dewey, President Truman will have some of him.

Another complicating factor is the new atmosphere of rivalry and tension between the State Department and the Pentagon. The State Department particularly is determined that whoever takes over the CIA should not be a Pentagon man, or more specifically, a Louis Johnson man. State inspects every Pentagon suggestion with beady-eyed suspicion.

Despite his Pentagon background, the name of the able, independent-minded Secretary of the Army, Gordon Gray, figures prominently. Aside from being well qualified in other ways, Gray is a good North Carolina Democrat. Gray may still step directly from the Department of the Army into the top CIA job.

It is also possible that either General Bedell Smith or General Al Gruenther will be asked to resign from the Army to become permanent CIA chief. Both are very able men, and despite their army careers, there is little likelihood that either would truckle to the Pentagon. Another possibility, believed acceptable to both the State and Defense departments, is William Jackson, a New York lawyer who did an outstanding job with the wartime Office of Strategic Services.

Yet the man whose name had led most lists, and certainly all lists submitted by the State Department, is former Undersecretary of State Robert A. Lovett. By general agreement, Lovett is the one man in the country most brilliantly qualified to take on the crucial intelligence job.

THE SEARCH FOR THIS PARAGON IS NOW taking the form of long lists, which are being drawn up in the State Department and the Pentagon, and submitted to President Truman. The search is complicated by two factors. For one thing, if, as seems likely, the CIA Chief's salary is raised to $22,500, the job will become one of the richest political plums in Washington. # Defense Says Rose Never Was Traitor

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19. (AP)—Two defense witnesses have testified so far in the Tokyo Rose treason trial — both have said she never broadcast treasonable statements charged to her.

Maj. Wallace Ince, 37, a be-ribboned American Army officer now stationed here, testified yesterday. Ince was captured on Corregidor. He worked on wartime Radio Tokyo with Los Angeles-born Mrs. Iva Toguri d'Aquino. The government accuses her of treasonable Tokyo Rose broadcasts to U. S. troops.

Ince and another Radio Tokyo worker, former Australian Army Major Charles Cousens testified they never knew Mrs. D'Aquino to make broadcasts that would damage U. S. troop morale.

Ince said he, Cousens and Lt. Norman Reyes, another prisoner, planned to sabotage the Japanese zero hour program.

He said, however, he had never told Tokyo Rose of the conspiracy. "I never reposed confidence in her or any other Japanese," he said. But Ince added that Tokyo Rose conducted herself "more freely in the presence of prisoners of war than in the presence of other Japanese."

He also said the defendant supplied vitamin pills, vitamin oil and news of American and allied successes.

She whispered to him of the fall of Saipan, Ince said, and asked him, "Who do these people think they are fooling?"

Ince added "she constantly referred to them as Japs — a gross insult."

Asked by Defense Atty. Wayne Collins if his life ever had been threatened by the Japanese while working on Radio Tokyo, he answered:

"Yes, frequently."

Chile Moves To Halt Rioting

SANTIAGO, Chile, Aug. 19. (AP)—The Chilean government, armed with new emergency powers, moved three army regiments into Santiago last night to help halt rioting it said was Communist-inspired.

Eight persons were killed and 300 injured in street fighting during the past two days. The violence followed a half-cent increase in Santiago bus fares.

Congress, alarmed by the disorders, gave the government of President Gabriel Gonzalez Videla power to suppress public assembly, censor the press and radio, and arrest and search persons and property without warrants.

Videla told union leaders last night strong government measures were aimed at Communists — banned in Chile — not union workers. He said legislation benefitting the workers would be introduced at the next session of Congress.

Any further attacks on city buses, the president declared, would be regarded as sabotage and the instigators punished as saboteurs.

Meanwhile, bank employes in Santiago struck for 24 hours to protest the death of a fellow worker in the rioting, and railway workers in Central Chile called a strike yesterday. An army general was named to run the government-owned lines.

ANCIENT EGGS PREFERRED—Jerry Cooley, vice-president of the Citizen's National Bank in Denton, has developed a peculiar taste. While serving in the Orient with the Navy, he cultivated a taste for "200-year old eggs." Recently he received a dozen of these antiques in response to an order. Cooley considers them a delicacy, confesses they have a rather "sharp taste."

Texas Banker Has Weakness For Fragrant, 200-Year-Old Eggs

DENISON, Aug. 20.—Banker G. A. (Jerry) Cooley's delicacy smells like limburger cheese and a college biological laboratory.

The delicacy happens to be a dozen "200-year old eggs." Cooley swears they constitute a rare and wonderful dish. He obtained the eggs by order through a Chinese agency in the U.S.

"In China," explained Cooley, who was stationed with the Navy at Tsing Tao, "such eggs are too expensive for the average family and are usually found being served at banquets by the business class of people."

Although menus list the eggs from 100 to 200 years in age, Cooley says they aren't anything like that old. His theory is that after a certain stage of ripeness, the taste of antiquity is the same.

There are two processes by which the eggs are preserved, according to Cooley. In either case the hen or duck eggs are first hardboiled and then treated either with white lime or with a salt preservative.

In due time, still intact in the shell, they are wrapped in mud and the company's paper wrapping neatly twisted around.

When do-mudded and removed from the shell, the ancient eggs are dark and look anything but appetizing.

"However, they are not meant to be eaten in great quantity," Cooley confided, "that they had a rather sharp flavor and are rather tough and chewy." In U. S. money, they are worth about $3 a dozen.

At Chinese banquets, which are served leisurely over a period of several hours, the eggs, sliced to appropriate thickness, are frequently a piece de resistance. The Chinese technique is the reverse of the American "soup to nuts." Usually the Chinese start with the nuts, wade through 30 to 50 dishes, polishing off with the soup.

35 Escape Death As Plane Falls Into Bay

STEPHENVILLE, N.D., Aug. 19. (AP)—Thirty-five American servicemen escaped drowning last night when their transport plane plunged into St. George's Bay, near the U. S. base at Harmon Field on the west coast of Newfoundland.

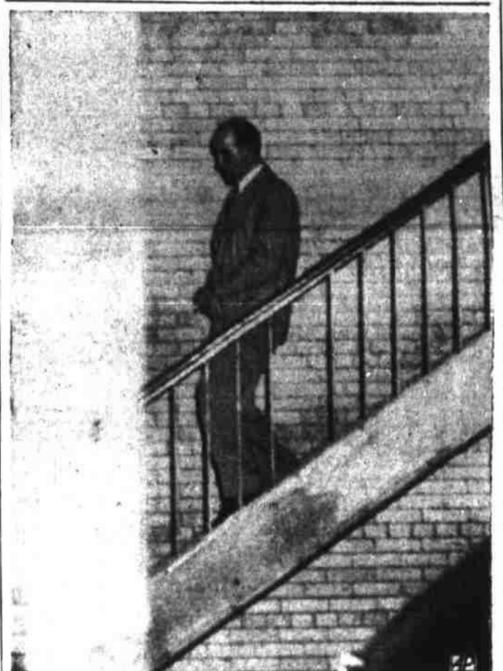

The plane was en route from the Azores to Westover Field, Mass. It was to refuel at Harmon Field. The plane ditched in the bay and the men scrambled into dinghies and onto rafts and reached shore. No one was reported missing.

U. S. Population Of 150 Million Seen

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19. (AP)—The United States population is growing at the rate of 200,000 a month and may reach 150 million by Nov. 1.

This report from the Census Bureau said that the estimated population was 149,215,000 on July 1.

The bureau also estimated that in April this year there were 38,537,000 families in the U. S., as compared with 32,166,000 in 1940.

Fernandez and his plump sweetheart, Mrs. Martha Beck, were found guilty by a jury which deliberated for more than 12 hours. (AP Wirephoto).

Lawyer For 'Lonely' Hearts Pair Seeking To Save Them From Chair

NEW YORK, Aug. 19. (AP)—A defense lawyer worked today on appeals to save Martha Beck and Raymond Fernandez from going to the electric chair for a "lonely hearts" murder.

The convicted lovers face sentence on Monday by State Supreme Court Justice Ferdinand Pecora.

Their counsel, Herbert E. Rosenberg, first will make motions. They presumably will include arguments why Justice Pecora should set aside the first degree murder convictions voted by a jury early yesterday.

Even if Rosenberg should fall in all his efforts before Pecora, the convicted pair cannot be executed before an appeals court rules on their case.

Rosenberg said last night the 29-year-old, 200-pound Mrs. Beck had told him to "further her appeal."

The lawyer said she "is determined to prove she is not guilty of murder in the first degree."

Mrs. Beck and Fernandez, 34, were convicted of the murder of Mrs. Janet Fay, 66-year-old Albany, N. Y., widow, in Valley Stream, N. Y., last Jan. 4.

Mrs. Fay was struck on the head with a hammer and strangled with a scarf.

The prosecution charged the murder — and two murders laid to the couple in Michigan — grew out of a racket to fleece lonely women through mail romances.

Burrows To Tour Recruiting Area

Sgt. Ora E. Burrows, WAC-WAF representative of the Big Spring Recruiting Main station, is to leave Monday for a 10-day tour of the Big Spring recruiting area.

Sgt. Burrows itinerary includes one and two-day stops at sub-stations in Lamesa, Monahans, Midland, Odessa, Sweetwater, San Angelo, Del Rio, and Eagle Pass. Capt. Harold Sandford, commander of the Main station, said. He will interview prospective WAC and WAF recruits at the various sub-stations, and will return to Big Spring Sept. 1.

Trinity River Flood Control Survey Slated

DALLAS, Aug. 19. (AP)—A survey of 11 million acres of land in the Trinity River Watershed and construction of a score of small detention lakes in the Dallas area will be started by the U. S. Department of Agriculture Sept. 1.

This announcement was made yesterday as 26 members of the Forward Trinity Valley Assn. inspected Trinity dams under construction at Grapevine, Garza-Little Elm and Lavon.

They learned the USDA would undertake a study of flood control and soil conservation needs in their counties—3 million acres south of Palestine, Anderson County. Hereafter, all soil work has been confined to the 6 million acres in the Upper Trinity area north and south of Dallas.

H. N. Smith, USDA chief of operations in the Southwest, said the upper river survey would be a re-examination of flood control needs in the light of serious floods and land erosion.

First of the 20 smaller lakes, which will be tied into the Trinity River control system of lakes, will be on Holvek's branch on Mountain Creek, he said. One of these small dams already has been completed in Jack County on the west fork of the Trinity.

Smith said the USDA had $1,000,000 available for work during the fiscal year that began July 1. Most of this will go to the 17 soil conservation districts already operating in the Dallas-Fort Worth part of the watershed. These districts already have spent $1,500,000 on soil work, Smith said.

Boost In Texas Oil Production Next Month Seen

MINERAL WELLS, Aug. 19. (AP)—Texas oil production will start climbing up w p w r d a significant amount next month for the first time in more than a year.

The Railroad Commission, after a three-hour statewide oil production hearing yesterday, gave producers permission to operate one more day in September than in July and August.

Coupled with the fact that September is only a 30-day month, this will result in a net oil allowable of 2,077,905 barrels per day, 132,268 barrels more than the current daily permissive flow.

An 18-day production schedule will prevail state wide except in the East Texas field, which was raised from 15 to 16 days.

Natural gasoline and distillate production, estimated by the commission at 233,321 barrels daily, will give Texas an overall daily petroleum output of 2,311,426 barrels.

Oil company representatives split on the question of whether the extra producing day would be a good thing. Some said above-ground stocks were too great to warrant the increase. Others anticipated a strong, increasing demand for heating fuel oils if the nation experiences a "normal" winter.

Special Services To Honor Twentieth Anniversary Of Lutheran Church Here

Members of the St. Paul's Lutheran church will observe their twentieth anniversary with special services Sunday.

Prior to the morning sermon, confirmation and acceptance services will be held for the class of junior members of the church. The morning service will be brought by the pastor, the Rev. Ad. H. Hoyer, who will speak on "The Blessedness of Church Membership."

Anniversary services will begin at 3:30 o'clock. The Rev. Victor Budinghausen of San Angelo will conduct the special services. The Rev. Budinghausen is pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church in that city. He will represent the Texas District and Mission Board on this occasion. His subject text is: "The Lord's Missionaries."

Members of the Lutheran faith first began conducting worship services in Big Spring in 1880. From that year until 1907, services were held in the homes of members under the direction of various resident pastors. The church was organized with a House of Worship on September 27, 1908, with its first full-time pastor, the Rev. W. G. Buchsacher. The Concordia Ladies Aid was organized in 1931. Since the time of its organization, the St. Paul's Lutheran church has been steadily increasing in membership (now totaling 110 members and communicants) and in faith.

Dinner will be served to all church members on the church lawn at 5 p.m. Members of the Concordia Ladies Aid will serve as hostesses for the affair.

The Rev. Homer C. Akers, pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Portales, N.M., will supply the pulpit during the morning service at the First Presbyterian church. He will speak on "Skyward Ladders." Mrs. Akers will serve as soloist. She will sing, "We Would Be Building," a Finlandia tune.

Announcement is made that "visitors are not required but are welcome." Not evening service will be held during the absence of the Rev. R. Gage Lloyd, who is vacationing with his family in Denver, Colo.

At the First Baptist church, Dr. P. D. O'Brien will speak on the subject, "Another Bible Fugitive, Jacob," from Gen. 28:10. A motion picture Bible study will be held at 4 p.m. During the evening worship hour, Dr. O'Brien will discuss the subject, "Attention, Please!" from Matt. 17:5.

"Soul Winning" will be presented by the Rev. Lloyd Thompson during the morning service at the First Christian church. During the evening hour, the pastor will speak on "God's People In Wrong Places."

Dr. Glenn Walker of Midland, a returned missionary from China, will conduct both services Sunday at the Airport Baptist church. The Rev. Warren Stowe will serve as host pastor. Sunday school is at 10 a.m. and Training Union at 7 p.m.

Pastor Marvin H. Clark will be heard in a continuation of services from Revelation over KRST Sunday at 8 a.m.

At the Trinity Baptist church, Corner Fourth and Benton, Pastor Clark will speak on the subject of "Imitating God," from Eph. 5: 1-7. During the evening worship, Pastor Clark will discuss, "The Meaning of Baptism." Baptismal services will be held following the service.

Sunday school meets at 10 a.m. Members will study the 14th chapter of Genesis. Donald Hayworth will conduct the Young People's service at 7 p.m.

"Mind" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, and in the local reading room Sunday morning.

The Golden Text is "Who hath known the mind of the Lord, or who hath been his counsellor?" (Romans 11:34)

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Great is our Lord, and of great power: His understanding is infinite." (Psalms 147:5)

The lesson-sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "All is infinite mind and its infinite manifestation for God is All-in-all." (Page 408).

"The Garden of Your Soul," will serve as the sermon-topic to be presented by the Rev. Algie H. Carleton at the First Methodist church Sunday morning. Joyce Howard will be featured in a special solo.

During the evening worship hour, special music will be presented by the Pitts sisters, a local Negro group. The Rev. Carleton will be heard on the subject, "A Bewildering Mixture."

The public is invited to attend the annual revival at the Mount Zion Missionary Baptist church, located on North Tenth street, one block off the Gall road. Elder C. Q. Herndon of Stephenville will bring special messages "concerning God's great love and free gift to mankind." Morning services are at 10:30 o'clock and evening worship will be held at 8 p.m.

At the Wesley Methodist church, the Rev. C. C. Hardaway will discuss, "Living Consistently in Inconsistent Times," Sunday morning. The evening sermon topic is "The Unsearchable Riches."

Sunday services at the Main Street Church of God will be conducted by the pastor, the Rev. John E. Kolar. He will speak on the sermon-theme, "The Church An Organization," from Acts 20:28. His evening sermon topic will be "Saved For Service," from Matt. 25: 21-46. Sunday school is at 9:45 and Youth Fellowship at 7 p.m.

The Rev. Warren Stowe of Big Spring is conducting a revival at the Baptist church in Sand Springs. Host pastor is the Rev. A. M. Bryant. Good attendance has been reported throughout the week, with satisfactory response. An effort is being made to have 100 per cent of the church membership present for the Sunday morning service.

Eager Beavers Meet In Findley Home

Eager Beavers met in the home of Mrs. R. L. Findley, Route 2, Thursday.

Mrs. Richard Grimes was accepted as a new member and Mrs. Dick Hooper, a charter member, was reinstated to membership.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Leroy Findley, Rt. 2.

Mrs. Tommy Weaver Honored At Shower

Mrs. Tommy Weaver was named honoree at a bridal shower in the home of Mrs. Fred Wilkerson, 311 W. 3rd, Thursday evening. Mrs. R. G. Weaver was co-hostess.

Mrs. Weaver is the former Erlene Stewart.

Those attending the affair were Mrs. Estelle Randolph, Mrs. E. R. Thompson, Jr., Mrs. Bob Weaver, Mrs. Ace Altom, Mrs. Hack Hudgins, Mrs. Ed Wilkerson, Mrs. C. M. Wilkerson, Gerlene Grantham, Mrs. Algie Shortes, Mrs. H. L. Wilkerson, Dorothy Wilkerson, Mrs. Leonard Wilkerson, Mrs. Leon Cain and Mrs. Joyce Henry.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Dodd and three daughters, Martha, Jeanette and Cecilia, and son, Frank, of Jasper, Alabama have been here visiting relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McDonald.

Strength in Faith

Great crises in the lives of men call for strength of mind and soul which no earthly power can give. When his own efforts and resources fail, man's help must come from God.

This troubled woman has learned the secret of faith and is putting her case in the hands of God. There she will find strength and comfort sufficient to her needs and will see clearly through the shadows that surround her.

Faith is a key that will unlock most of our human problems and resolve most of our difficulties—if we will only develop it. It is a light in human darkness, comfort in man's distress, strength in his weakness, and hope in his despair.

People should know more about the power of faith and the wonders it can work in human life. The story is written in the Bible, embodied in the teachings of the Church, and graven upon the hearts of believers.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Doctors Find Body Odor On 13 Parts of Body

Soap with purifying ingredient gets skin cleaner, gives all-over protection.

It's true—though few people realize this unpleasant fact! Body odor is not confined to the underarms. To guard popularity you must give 13 parts of your body top protection.

Popularity is precious. Don't over lose it!

The cleaner you get every part of your skin, doctors know, the safer you are from "B. O." (body odor). And by comparing daily baths with different soaps they found one soap—Lifebouy Health Soap—gets skin cleaner, stops "B. O." as no other leading soap can. It prevents popularity loss! Lifebouy's purifying ingredient makes it more effective against the "invisible dirt" that brings on "B. O." Lifebouy guards all 13 trouble spots where body odor occurs.

Get that clean, clean Lifebouy feeling! Buy big NEW bath size Lifebouy at your store today.

So mild—so GOOD for your skin! Lifebouy is milder... wonderful for delicate complexions! Enjoy the rich white lather from Lifebouy's coconut oil. Make friends with Lifebouy today! Another fine product of Lower Brothers Company.

RIBBON RAMBLINGS

By Mildred Young

While other people spend hard-earned cash on their vacations, we have a cousin that is seeing North-eastern part of the nation this summer via the hitchhiking method. A high school student, the wanderer is depending on other people's gasoline to take him on tour and spends the nights in the YMCAs. He seems to be having quite a bit of fun and some interesting experiences. So far, he's made New York City, Atlantic City, N. J., Washington, D. C., St. Louis, Mo., and Oklahoma City.

We were tempted to do a little hitchhiking a few weeks ago. We got stranded this side of Mineral Wells while making a bus trip from Fort Worth to Big Spring. After some three hours, a had passed and the bus was finally on the road again, some half-dozen of the passengers had thumbed rides and well on their way to their destinations. (Or maybe stranded again.)

Used to know some girls who attended college in Denton and they used to do a little hitchhiking between Dallas and Denton. We wouldn't mention any names because we have a feeling that such actions are strictly against the rules at women's colleges. But we doubt that anything could be done now since the people we know have left the campus with signed degrees.

The only hitchhiking we've ever done took place a few years ago when attending a camp near Glen Rose. About a dozen college girls caught a ride into Glen Rose. Wasn't very interesting, but we can say that we have hitchhiked.

We'll have to admit that as exciting as some people consider hitchhiking that it does have a certain element of danger for the hiker and the driver. Both parties are completely unaware of the type of person with whom they are traveling. There was a day when people left their homes open so that others might use them. But those days are gone. It's probably time that hitchhiking disappeared. Or maybe we're not very truthful?

South Carolina Politics Aboil As Maybanks Succeeds Thurmond

COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 19. (AP)—Carolina's political cauldron bubbled today. Sen. Burnet R. Maybank was elected Democratic national committeeman. Maybank succeeds Gov. J. Strom Thurmond, last year's nominee for President under the States' Rights banner. Thurmond offered to resign his Democratic committee post last year. It was not accepted then. He offered again Wednesday and it was taken up by the state's executive committee. South Carolina is a one-party state — Democrat. But the party is split wide over the States' Rights question. They divide as follows: Pro-Truman Democrats and States' Righters. The election of Maybank was regarded as an effort to heal the breach. During last fall's campaign, the pro-Truman Democrats operated behind Ashton H. Williams of Lake City and Mrs. J. Richard Adison of Columbia as their national committee members. J. Howard McGrath, national Democratic chairman and at this moment President Truman's nominee to succeed Atty. Gen. Tom Clark, officially recognized both of these South Carolinians. State political figures, representing both sides, rushed into public print yesterday with their opinions on the move putting Maybank on the national committee. Williams said he would not present his credentials at a national committee meeting called for next Wednesday to select a successor to National Chairman McGrath, if Maybank were elected to replace Thurmond.

Pasadena Man Is Charged In Mason Beating

HOUSTON, Aug. 19. (AP)—Charges of aggravated assault in the Burt Mason beating case were filed against Chester H. Brinkman, 23, of Pasadena, early today in Justice W. C. Ragan's court. Burt Mason, son of the crusading Alice radioman who was killed recently, told police he was attacked by three men about 12:30 Sunday morning as he drove his car down Main Street in Houston. Brinkman was arrested at 12:15 o'clock this morning in Pasadena and brought to the Houston jail, but refused to make a written statement. He was arrested after a written statement was made by one of two men arrested by police Tuesday. The informant wrote that he and two other men were out driving early Sunday morning after a dance when another car narrowly missed their car. Both cars stopped, and one man and Mason, both got out, and after an argument, started fighting, according to the statement. After fighting for about 10 minutes, the two got back in their cars and drove away. Later the two cars met again, and the two men fought again, according to the informant. Shortly afterwards Mason was admitted to a hospital where he was held for 24 hours. Mason said at that time that he thought his beating had no connection with the death of his crusading father.

Washable Wool Sweaters Seen

NEW YORK, Aug. 18. (AP)—Some of the girls can wash their wool sweaters and their menfolk's socks and next day expect to find both as shapely as ever. Woolen garments, shrinkage-controlled and washable, shortly will appear in department and specialty stores throughout the nation. At least, that's what Cluett, Peabody & Co. promises us today. The company says at last it has found the way to do for wool that it already has done for cotton and rayon. It calls the new non-shrinkage process for wool sanforin. Garments to be offered for sale this fall include sweaters, socks, wool robes, men's wool sport shirts, slacks, women's skirts, infants' wear and yard goods. This comes at a time when the woolen knitwear business was beginning to feel the competition from nylon. Only the light market for nylon yarn has kept these sweaters from making greater inroads into the wool sweater market, according to the Knitted Outerwear Foundation. Among nylon's talking points is that garments don't shrink. This year, the foundation says, women shoppers are eyeing waist-length sweaters with plunging necklines. And now they are to be offered wool sweaters that don't have to be stretched or tucked to boards while drying.

Colored Vocalist Given Scholarship

Jimmie Lee Pitts, colored vocalist, has been awarded a State of Texas scholarship by Westminister College, Princeton, N. J. This announcement was made at a regular dinner meeting of the American Business Club held in the Settles Hotel Friday. The vocalist was co-sponsored by Mrs. George O'Brien and the ABC Club. She will appear on the club program next Friday. Details of the Beard Growing Contest furnished the main business topic of the day. It was announced that court will be held each Saturday with Judge Charlie Swagg in charge. The first court session will be held September 10. Deputies were named. Earl Evans, president of the Star Route Mail Carriers of Texas, spoke concerning the desire of people to be important. He said that the importance of every individual depends on how important others are to him. He emphasized the statement, "we need each other."

Douglas Warns U. S. Must Save Mid-East

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 19. (AP)—The United States cannot afford to let the Middle East go the way China went. That is the warning from Justice William O. Douglas of the U. S. Supreme Court, here from a six-week tour of Asia Minor. The whole area can be saved, though, if this country will "throw its weight behind the honest and liberal forces" there, Douglas said in a speech here last night—his first since his return.

MARGARET MITCHELL CARRIED TO FINAL RESTING PLACE—With the skyline of Atlanta in the background, the body of Margaret Mitchell, renowned author of "Gone With the Wind," is carried into historic Oakland Cemetery in Atlanta by funeral home attendants. The pall bearers walk immediately in front. Miss Mitchell died Aug. 16, five days after she was mortally injured when she was struck down by an automobile driven by an off-duty cab driver. She and her husband John Marsh were attempting to cross Peachtree street at the time. (AP Wirephoto).

Hawaii Dock Strike Talks Discouraging

HONOLULU, Aug. 19 (UP)—Negotiations to end 111 days of a strike on Hawaii's waterfront wobbled ahead today in a cloud of gloom. "Another extremely discouraging session," said an employer spokesman of yesterday's meeting. The CIO Longshoremen's Union didn't have anything to say. Unless some agreement is reached by tomorrow, the dispute is to be thrown in the lap of Cyrus Ching, head of the U. S. Conciliation Service. And Ching doesn't even know whether he can come to Honolulu.

The employer spokesman said that in yesterday's session the talks reached the wage issue. Harry Bridges, head of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union, said the 2,000 longshoremen who walked out May 1 would settle for substantially less than the 32-cent hourly increase originally demanded. He refused to say how much less. The longshoremen now draw $1.40 an hour. Meanwhile, government stevedores worked four ships. Furthermore, Hawaii's Stevedores, Ltd., announced its non-union stevedores would go to work for the government today. A stockholders' meeting was called to discuss dissolution of the firm. It was organized at the start of the dock strike and hired non-union workers.

DELAYS ASCENT TO BENCH Clark Confirmed As Court Justice

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19 (UP)—Confirmed by 73 to 8 vote after a hot-tempered Senate session, Atty. Gen. Tom C. Clark delayed today his ascent to the court bench. Similarly, Sen. J. Howard McGrath of Rhode Island, unanimously approved by the Senate to succeed Clark in the cabinet, held up his retirement from the Senate, probably until next week.

From Rhode Island came reports that Edward L. Leahy, former director and now adviser to that state's finance department, may be named by Democratic Gov. John O. Pastore to fill the Senate seat vacated by McGrath.

McGrath will turn in his chairmanship of the Democratic National Committee at a meeting of the group next Wednesday. He has said that in assuming a cabinet post that will pay him only $15,000 a year he will cut some of his business connections. Thus far he hasn't said which ones.

The new attorney general now serves as a trustee of the Rhode Island Charities Trust, president of the First Federal Savings and Loan Assn. of Providence, R. I., and as director of the Mortgage Guarantee and Title Co. there.

Clark told reporters he wants to see McGrath as Chief Justice Fred Vinson before he decides when to take the high court oath. He said he would like to have it administered by Vinson.

As the eighth Democrat on the nine-member supreme court, Clark will go into office with an overwhelming Senate vote behind him. The decision was not reached without bitter criticism of the nominee, met by vigorous defense.

Sen. Ferguson (R-Mic.) tore into Clark's record, asserting that he should have been questioned about his conduct in the Gerber-Eisler case, his 1947 exposure of wife tapping, the part he took in handling gangsters' paroles and the role he played in the 1946 Kansas City vote fraud cases.

Sen. Connally (D-Tex.) replied tartly that "slop" was being "thrown over my friend, Tom Clark."

Wallace Blasts Proposed Arms Aid Program

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19 (UP)—Henry A. Wallace said today that passage of an arms-aid program would "undermine the economy and military security of both the U. S. and Europe."

What's more, he said, the statement in support of the program by President Truman, Secretary of State Acheson and the nation's military leaders "are the statements of men who are either intent on provoking war or are so afraid their case is weak they must incite passion to support it."

The Progressive Party's 1948 candidate for President was a witness before the combined foreign relations and armed services committees of the Senate.

He reiterated, in his statement, his belief that Russia does not want war, and declared that the administration program to arm this country's allies is part of a policy which has failed wherever it has been tried—in Greece, in Turkey and in China.

"The policy of the arms program was given a full run in China," the one-time vice president said. "At long last the administration has admitted the complete failure of that policy in China. It was forced to by events."

"The waste, the futility, the utter insanity of that policy of trying to contain an idea with guns, of supporting reaction to suppress social reform, stands clear for all the world to see," Wallace added.

"The arms program proposes to repeat in Europe our tragic mistake in China. It is aimed at the same kind of 'internal' and 'external' aggression. It places the same emphasis on arms to the exclusion of the needs of the people for economic recovery and social reform."

Co-Op Farm Program Is Adopted By C-C Board Of Directors

A cooperative agricultural program linking the Chamber of Commerce and the County Extension Service has been adopted by the Chambers Board of Directors, Manager H. Greene announced.

Following recommendations of E. W. Lomax, chairman of the Agricultural and Livestock committee, the directors voted to purchase specimens to be used in insect identification contests over the county. They also adopted cotton improvement and soil conservation proposals of the agricultural.

Under the cooperative program the chamber is to put up prizes to be awarded winners in the contests, starting in 1950. Goal of the project is vocational education for farm youth and stimulation of interest in improving cotton and conserving soil.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

God's Works Given Praise In Psalms

Scripture — Psalms 8; 19:1-6; 65:9-13; 104.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

The child who is not trained to see the beauties of this world in which we live is poor indeed. The wonders of the sun and moon, the stars, the marvels of springtime and harvest, and the glory of succeeding seasons as the years roll around, should be taught to every youngster in the world.

Have you ever seen a person who was indifferent to a glorious sunset or a mountain view, to the sight and song of a rare bird, or flowers in bloom? Music many not always move a savage breast, but one who is not at least occasionally thrilled at Nature's beauty and thrills is to be pitied. Such a one surely must have had a neglected childhood.

In this series of lessons on the Psalms, we are not only learning some of the most beautiful phrases that ever were written in any language, but we also are being taught—and must teach our children—that no matter what our situation in life, we can be thankful to our Maker for His care of us and the wonders of His universe.

We can only quote briefly from the Psalms allotted to this lesson. Psalm 104, written by King David, begins "O Lord, our Lord, how excellent is Thy name in all the earth! When I consider the heavens, the work of Thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which Thou hast ordained; What is man, that Thou art mindful of him? and what man that Thou visitest him?"

Man is but an infinitesimal part of the universe—a mere speck—which is here today and gone tomorrow, but God created him in His own image, and gave him, as the psalmist says, "dominion over the works of Thy hands. Thou hast put all things under his feet all sheep and oxen, yea, the beasts of the field; the fowl of the air, and the fish of the seas."

Man has not been a very wise steward of all earth's treasures that have been entrusted to his care. He has, like the prodigal son, "wasted his substance in riotous living," and is just beginning to realize it and conserve.

"The heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament sheweth His handiwork. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge. There is no speech nor language where their voice is not heard."

Thankfulness to God for His everlasting benefits is expressed by David in these verses from Psalm 65.

"Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it. Thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water; Thou preparest them corn, when Thou hast so provided for it."

"Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly, Thou stillest the furrows thereof. Thou makest it soft with showers. Thou blessest the springing thereof. Thou crownest the year with Thy goodness, and Thy paths drop fatness." The expression, "drop fatness," is explained as honey-dew.

"The pastures are clothed with flocks, the valleys also are covered with corn, they shout for joy they also sing."

Psalm 104 reviews the creation of the universe from Genesis, and the teacher should refer to that account and try to make the children picture in their minds the wonderful events.

Also the teacher should tell how small and close the world seemed to David, and how vast it has grown with modern knowledge. With this knowledge our gratitude to our Maker, God, should increase as well as our awe at His power and its magnitude.

"Bless the Lord, O my soul O Lord, my God, Thou art very great. Thou art clothed with honor and majesty."

"Who said the foundations of the earth; that it should not be removed forever."

"He sendeth the springs into the valleys, which run among the hills. They give drink to every beast of the field: the wild asses quench their thirst."

"By their shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation, which sing among the branches."

"He watereth the hills from His chambers: the earth is satisfied with the fruit of Thy works."

"He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man, that he may bring forth food out of the earth."

"Bless the Lord, O my soul. Praise ye the Lord."

MEMORY VERSE

"O give thanks unto Jehovah, call upon His name; Make known among the peoples His doings." — Psalm 105:1.

BARRICADED NEGRO HOLDS POLICE AT BAY 3 HOURS BEFORE KILLED

CHICAGO, Aug. 19 (UP)—A barricaded Negro stood off 125 policemen in a three-hour gun battle last night before they set fire to his home, then riddled him with bullets as he attempted to escape.

He was wanted for shooting a child.

All during the battle, the besieged Negro, Ernest Craig, 28, continued firing from windows with two revolvers and a rifle. Police poured hundreds of bullets and tossed about 200 tear gas bombs into the two-story frame house before they applied the torch.

As the flames spread, Craig went out a second-story window and slid to the ground in an 18-inch passageway between his home and a neighboring house.

Police spotted him after he had reached the ground and opened fire from four machine guns. At least 50 bullets hit Craig as he lay on the ground. Detective Charles McCabe stood over him and fired four or five more bullets into the body from his service pistol.

A first attempt to force Craig out of the building by fire failed. The officers tossed flares into the front of the building and as the blaze began to spread a detail of policemen moved into the building. They were forced back by bullets. Firemen doused the blaze and more gas bombs were thrown in, but Craig stubbornly continued the fight.

The second fire was started about a half hour later and it was allowed to destroy the house. Two policemen were wounded.

The gun battle started after Craig accidentally wounded two-year-old Drake Atkins in a wild frenzy of two-gun shooting in an argument with a man.
