

DEAR ABBY...

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR MISS ABBY: My son and I wish you would settle it for us. One of his close friends who comes to our house often was here Sunday and I asked him two questions. One: Was he happy with his wife? Two: Did his father who just died leave him anything? Do you think there was anything wrong with these questions?

MOTHER

Dear Mother: I am sure you only meant to make friendly conversation, but these questions were of a very personal nature, and you possibly could have embarrassed your visitor.

DEAR ABBY: My husband is divorcing me because after thirty-one years together I am "too old" for him. He is 51 and very young-looking when he stays in his own age group, but he looks ridiculous when he tries to fit in with the younger crowd. My doctor says he is going through what amounts to a change of life for a man and says I should refuse to give him a divorce (he has no grounds). I have too much pride to hang on to a husband who doesn't want me. What should I do?

PROUD

Dear Proud: You took this man in "sickness and in health." This is sickness. Stick with him.

DEAR ABBY: My husband is a doll but I can never get him to do anything around the house. The place needs painting and repairs everywhere you look. How can I get him to do something?

GIVE-UP

Dear Give: If something needs painting — get the paint and brushes and start to do it yourself (but not too well). No man can watch a woman paint without "taking over" to show her how it's done. The same goes for other odd jobs.

DEAR ABBY: I keep reading in your column where high school girls want to quit school and get married. I quit school in my senior year to marry a man who had good looks and a better line, but that's all he had. Three months later I knew I made a mistake and I was too ashamed to go home and I was also pregnant. I've thought of leaving him but how can I get a job without a high school diploma? He is 27 and I am 20. I'm saddled with three kids but he runs around — with high school girls. If you think it will save another girl from making a foolish mistake, please print this.

A SORRY GIRL

DEAR ABBY: I am a woman who has lost her husband (I refuse to use the term "widow" as I detest it!) All my friends have been perfectly lovely to me. They always invite me to be with them, but I can't help but feel they pity me and that I am only a third leg or a fifth wheel. How can I get over this terrible complex?

FIFTH WHEEL

Dear Fifth: Complex is right! If your friends invite you — don't look a gift invitation in the motive. Go and show your appreciation by being good company.

CONFIDENTIAL TO THE FLYING TIGER: Give the girl a chance to prove herself. Many men have been known to find million-dollar babies in five and ten cent stores.

If you have problem, write to Abigail Van Buren in care of this paper. She will be glad to answer your letter. For a personal reply, please enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

MOTOR MAIDS What Would You Do In These Situations?

By Jeanne Smith, Dodge Safety Consultant

EVEN THE MOST SELF-SUFFICIENT woman driver is somewhat at a loss (although she'd hate to admit it) when her car stalls or a strange noise develops under the hood.

Most women have just one solution — they turn to the nearest man. However, when you're stranded on a lonely road, or it's dark and you don't feel like waiting for a chivalrous male to arrive, it's wise to know some mechanical pointers. To test your ability to take care of yourself, here are a few driving situations. What would you do?

1. You back into soft shoulders, sand or snow. You put the car into low gear to ease out, but your wheels spin you in even deeper.
- ANSWER: Try to create traction by digging the dirt or snow away from the wheels, and by placing boards or branches under the tires. Now try rocking the car as far forward as it will go, then quickly shift into reverse, then to forward. It probably will get you out. As a last resort, call a tow truck.
2. You forgot to switch off the headlights. Now the car won't start.
- ANSWER: Turn on the ignition, put the transmission into neutral, press the accelerator all the way to the floor—and then use the starter. Once the engine starts, gun the accelerator for a short time until the engine roars.
3. It's a rainy or snowy day. You apply your brakes at an intersection and the car skids.
- ANSWER: Don't panic and don't jam on the brakes. Turn the steering wheel in the direction in which the car is skidding, slowly removing your foot from the accelerator.
4. The streets are flooded and your brakes get wet.
- ANSWER: Apply brakes carefully. They may grab, causing you to skid. Drive slower than usual. If the brakes fail because the lining is wet, pump the brake pedal.

Women's Activities The Pampa Daily News

MATURE PARENT

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE Your six-year-old is going to enjoy the first grade.

At least this is the big probability, according to psychologists Celia B. Stendler and Norman Young. With 212 mothers of six-year-olds, they have completed a study of youngsters' response to the first grade which gives us a portrait of the school-entering child that bears no resemblance to our popular impression of him as resisting and difficult.

Most of the children studied not only enjoyed school once they'd entered it — but had looked forward to entering it with the liveliest anticipation. Typical reports from their mothers are: "He was raring to go... He could hardly wait... Loves his teacher... Crazy about school — wants to go on Saturdays and Sundays..."

Even more encouraging, the children's home behavior was improved by first grade experience. Within two months of entrance, their mothers reported marked improvement in their ability to dress themselves, to entertain friends, go on errands and help around the house.

Mrs. Allen To Attend Convention Of FTWC

(Special to The News) PERRYTON — Mrs. Jack R. Allen of Perryton will be a candidate for the office of third vice president of the Seventh District Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, at the 27th Annual Convention to be held March 12, 13, and 14 in Childress.

"What is Your Challenge?" the answer, "Community Service" will be the theme for the convention and those planning to attend the convention from Perryton will be Mmes. Byron Tevis, Haskell Holland, W. B. LaMaster, Jack R. Allen, Bill Allen, Clifford Beck, Leon Shrader and Fred Tarbox.

place. Why does she send me to a bad place? Maybe she doesn't love me any more and I can't trust her..."

It's these thoughts — not the calendar age of six years — that makes the school-entering child resistant and difficult.

CELEBRATE 48—In over 3,000 communities throughout the country the Camp Fire Girls will celebrate their Birthday Week, March 23-30. Founded in 1910, the Camp Fire Girls' program of leisure-time activities is open to all girls from the second grade through high school. They are divided into three groups: Blue Birds (junior) at left, Camp Fire Girls (intermediate) right, and Horizon Club (senior) center. Judging from the smiles on the faces of these three New York youngsters they seem to think birthday celebrations, with cake, of course, are just the thing.

Experiences Told In New York Disaster

By ALBERT McCOLLOUGH
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK (UP)—Explosion, smoke, darkness and terror—those were the experiences burned into the memories of workers who survived Wednesday's disastrous Monarch Underwear Co. factory fire.

The screams of the living and shrieks of the dying sounded the first alarm. They still rang today in the minds of survivors and witnesses.

"Everybody was screaming," Mrs. Anna Bailey, 20, Monarch employe hospitalized for severe smoke inhalation and cuts and bruises, recalled.

"We were working when all of a sudden we heard a bang," she said. "We all ran. And everybody was screaming—'Smoke and fire,' they were screaming. We didn't know which way to run, there was so much smoke. There was no air in the place. We saw the wood on the floor crack and we kept trying to break windows and screaming 'Help! Help! Fire! Fire!'"

Four Women Jumped
Shrieks of the trapped, some of whom later jumped through broken fourth-floor windows, were the first alarm heard by firemen of Engine Company 13 less than a block from the burning five-story loft building.

"We were all sitting around when suddenly there came these terrified shrieks," fireman John P. Nerney said. "Everyone in the station house heard them."

Nerney said he ran to the scene and begged several women not to jump from a fourth-floor ledge where they huddled in terror. Other firemen arrived with nets and Nerney then cried "Jump—one at a time." Four women leaped and one bounced against Nerney, injuring his arm.

"One young survivor told hysterically of trying to find her way out through billows of smoke. She did not know that many of her fellow workers had died, and doctors warned interviewers not to tell her.

She was Mrs. Dolores Coleman, 17, hospitalized at Bellevue for smoke poisoning, hysteria and minor injuries.

"I tried to break open a window with a chair," Mrs. Coleman said. "I picked it up and threw it through the window, but the smoke still kept us from seeing anything. Smoke came up and then the fire and we couldn't get to the door."

"The girls were screaming and carrying on. And the boss came and got us and marched us in the back, and then he got somebody to get us wet rags to put in front of our faces. He told us not to panic, but there was plenty of screaming. I tried to get down the stairs, but I couldn't get through, it was too dark and I was scared because of the screaming and hollering. The last thing I remember was everyone trying to push back."

Everybody Was Yelling
The explosion, which occurred on the floor below the fourth-floor Monarch factory, shook the building so hard "I was lifted up—I kind of bounced," Mrs. Carmen Torres, 37, said. She was taken to Bellevue for treatment of smoke sickness and cuts and bruises.

"I thought the elevator had fallen down," Mrs. Torres said. "Then somebody yelled 'Fire!' My boss broke a window and I climbed through. Everybody was yelling, 'Carmen, don't jump, don't jump!'"

"I gasped for air. Then the fire ladder came up. I grabbed it and hung on like a monkey."

"Everybody kept gathering on the ledge. One of the girls jumped out. It was terrible, terrible. I was covered by smoke and I was cold and wet. I didn't think I would live through it. The firemen came and helped me down. I was lucky."

Mrs. Edna Murray, 33, said there was so much smoke "we just jumped into each other" trying to get out of the factory. The bright beam of a fireman's flashlight cut through the murk and the rescue led her to safety, she said.

Commissioner Says Jail In Bad Shape

AUSTIN (UP)—The state health commissioner believes most of Texas' county jails have 19th Century plumbing and an abundant supply of vermin and rats.

Commissioner Dr. Henry A. Holle said Wednesday that the health department faces a maddening task.

"The health department said in a statement that "...in an East Texas jail, male prisoners are segregated from females by a flimsy screen of canvas. A South Texas jail's sanitation facilities consist of a wash tub and a garden hose."

The health department said a major county operates a jail built in 1875. "Cell areas in many jails have never seen daylight. A heated jail is a rarity in Texas."

"Those that are heated usually use unvented space heaters, with the real risk of carbon monoxide," the statement said.

TI Dividends Up
DALLAS (UP)—Texas Instruments Inc. has reported its 1957 per share earnings at $1.11 for common stock, compared with 72 cents for 1956. Total sales for 1957 were $67,338,574, compared with 1956 sales of $45,899,358.

THE INSIDE FACTS
GREENSBORO, N.C. (UP) — John Gunther, author of "Inside U.S.A.," "Inside Asia" and other "Inside" books, has a young admirer. He is high school student Jerry Sawers, who built a display of the human respiratory system for a science fair and titled it "Inside John Gunther."

CHIVALRY STILL WITH US
MILWAUKEE (UP) — Gary Kneupel, 9, Wednesday rescued a six-year-old girl who was stuck knee-deep in mud in a field. Then firemen had to pull out Gary.

CONVINCING TESTIMONY
RALEIGH, N.C. (UP) — Judge Albert Doub acquitted a woman charged with drunken driving after a witness testified the defendant was "as sober as a judge."

HUNT FOR DETECTOR
SEOUL, Korea (UP) — Officers of the U.S. 8th Army's Criminal Investigation Detachment today put every available man to work trying to catch the thief who stole the detachment's lie detector.

Man Will Sell Homemade Jet

DALLAS (UP) — Robert V. Kamensky of Los Angeles planned today to fly his homemade jet airplane back to Phoenix, Ariz., where he will try to sell it for $235,000.
Kamensky and his pilot, Bob Canaga, flew into Dallas Wednesday in the 580 m.p.h. jet, which Kamensky claims is the only privately-owned jet in the United States. Kamensky can't fly the plane, which he says is "almost identical" to the Air Force T-33 jet trainer.
Kamensky spent three and a half years collecting parts from "75 to 100" sections of the country so he could build the plane. He bought most of the parts from surplus dealers.
He built the plane because "I wanted to be the first to have one (a jet)."
Kamensky said the plane burns 200 gallons of fuel per hour at a cost of 15 cents per gallon.

Oddities Sell In Chicago

CHICAGO (UP) — Oddities from the ends of the earth found their way into Chicago homes Wednesday.
For stay-at-home world travelers there were oriental bamboo shades, blueprints of the Toronto (Ont.) sewer system and Dresden china — souvenirs of an auction held at the U.S. Customs House.

Collector of Customs Frank Peska explained that the items were unclaimed during the past year, hence up for public sale.
Eager buyers quickly snatched up five leather-covered camel saddles.

One of the bidders explained he was going to give a saddle to his brother-in-law.
"He doesn't have a camel at the moment," Nick James said, "but he's the sort of fellow who's likely to turn up with one."
William Friedlander did some quick calculations and out-bid all others for the snapshots of Bermuda.

"Cheaper than going there," he said, shelling out 80 cents.

Pension For Presidents Requested

WASHINGTON (UP) — The House's "Big Three" lined up today to make an extraordinary bipartisan appeal for pensions for ex-presidents — including Herbert Hoover, Harry S. Truman and Dwight D. Eisenhower when he becomes one.
Speaker Sam Rayburn, Democratic Leader John W. McCormack and GOP Leader Joseph W. Martin Jr. planned to make the plea at a closed-door session of the House Civil Service Committee.
Their appearance followed reports that a bill to give $25,000-a-year pensions to all ex-presidents — present and future — faced a tough fight in the committee.
The bill was passed by the Senate Feb. 4, 1957, and has been hanging fire in the House committee ever since.

'Miracles Of God' A Stumbling Block?

(Religious News)
BY LOUIS CASSELS
United Press Staff Correspondent

The miracles recorded in the bible may have served in past generations to strengthen faith.

But many clergymen feel that the situation is reversed today. Modern man has been conditioned by a scientific age to look for natural, cause-and-effect explanations of all phenomena. He tends to look with skepticism on any religion that takes miracles seriously. Thus for millions, in and outside of the churches, the "mighty works of God" related in the Old and New Testament have become stumbling blocks to faith.

This problem, which cuts across all denominational lines, has recently engaged the attention of a number of Protestant and Catholic scholars. Of several books touching on the subject, two of the best are "The Book of Miracles," by Zolt Aradi (Farrar, Straus and Cudahy) and "Barriers To Belief" by Norman F. Langford (Westminster Press). Aradi is a Catholic, Langford a Presbyterian.

Clear Distinction

Both writers draw a clear distinction between believing in principle that miracles can happen and believing that any particular miracle did take place.

The rationalist argument that miracles are "impossible" is based on the belief that the physical laws of the universe are inherently unchangeable. But Aradi points out that this belief cannot be "proved" scientifically. It is just as much an act of faith as the belief that the author of the universe can intervene in nature to produce effects which seem to be outside of its normal processes.

To deny the possibility of such intervention, Aradi says, is to deny God's omnipotence or "by implication, his very existence."

Atheist's Position

That, of course, is precisely the position that atheists take. But neither Aradi nor Langford are speaking primarily to the comparatively small percentage of people who are atheists. Their books are addressed rather to the large number of people who do believe in God but who say they "cannot believe in miracles."

This number, Langford notes, includes many professing Christians who accept Jesus Christ as a unique revelation of God's redemptive love but who would like to separate this faith from the "miracle stories" of the new testament.

Central Baptist To Build

The Central Baptist Church voted to build a two story educational building, 129 ft. by 56 ft. recently. The building will house seven Nursery Departments, four Beginner Departments, six Primary Departments, and four Junior Departments.

Construction will begin some time during the latter part of April. The architect is Adam A. Bliss of Dallas. Bids are being let for the construction of the building. For those who are interested in making bids, contact Adam A. Bliss, 806 Burt Bldg., Dallas.

Bonds will be sold by the church to finance the cost of the building. The bonds will be issued by the Providence Bond Co. in $1000, $500, $250 and $100 lots. The bonds will pay 6 per cent interest and will be offered for sale the 1st of April.

Members Remodel Church

The Church of God in Pampa has undergone a complete remodeling. Members estimated that although the material and labor was donated, the retail value has been increased by $2,500. The remodeling has been going on since last fall.

Rev. W. E. Rogers has been with the church since July, coming from Henrietta Church of God.

Members have painted the church inside and out and remodeled the auditorium, putting in hard wood floors. They have repainted the parsonage and purchased new furniture for the living room.

Opening a new library, they are on the look out for "good Christian books." They will be glad to come and pick them up.

Perryton Banquet Enjoyed

(Special to The News)
PERRYTON — A large crowd of men and boys attended the annual Father - Son Banquet held recently in the school cafeteria.

The banquet was sponsored by the Ministerial Alliance of Perryton, and Bill Glass, the former All - American guard for Baylor University, was a big hit as the guest speaker.

Glass, who was introduced by Rev. Joe Frederick, pastor of the First Christian Church, outlined three points for Christian living, applied to athletes as well as others. First is courage to face today's problems, next is self-control and the final point is a goal which should be set high enough to always remain a challenge.

Rev. Carroll B. Ray, pastor of the First Baptist Church and president of the Ministerial Alliance, welcomed the guest and Gerald Johnson, educational director of the First Baptist Church, led the group in several songs, accompanied by Joe Erickson. The invocation was given by Arthur W. Golder, minister of the Church of Christ and the ticket sales were handled by Rev. S. Duane Bruce and Paul Holdeman of the First Methodist Church.

'Quiet Time' Is Slated By Church

A Quiet Time has been planned at St. Matthew's Episcopal Church for April 2, the Wednesday of Holy Week.

"A quiet time or retreat whether long or short is a time of stillness, a time when we may reconsider the age old theme of God's love for us as revealed in Our Lord Jesus Christ. It is a time of drawing nearer to God and of listening to him," says Rev. William E. West, rector.

Holy Communion will be held at 9:30 a.m., April 2. From 10 a.m. until noon will be the period of Meditations and Silence.

Rev. Hubbard Sets Sunday Sermon Topic

At the Morning Worship Service beginning at 11 a.m. Sunday morning at the First Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Ronald E. Hubbard will have as his sermon subject, "Would You Follow Jesus?"

The choir will sing the anthem "Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach, with Miss Shirley Hankhouse as clarinetist.

Sunday evening services will resume their meeting this Sunday evening at 8:30 p.m. At these informal services the pastor will begin a series of sermons on "The Books of the New Testament." Sunday evening's subject will be "The Gospel of St. Matthew." An informal hymn service will begin each of these Sunday evening services.

Theology Class will continue to meet on Monday night 7:30 and Tuesday Morning at 9:30 in the auditorium of the Educational Building, Presbytery Annex will meet this Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. W. J. Chambliss, 1428 Hamilton.

Thinking It Over... For Lent

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D.
(Written for NEA Service)

Much human ailment touches the cells of the body. It causes physical suffering. It may even cripple or leave the body with permanent damage.

In spite of this physical change, the heart and the soul may remain untouched. God can take the soul within a suffering body and give it peace. Many folk who have constant physical infirmity walk so close to God that their pain is almost entirely forgotten. The spiritual lights in their eyes shine more brightly with the love of God than do some eyes which have never seen pain.

Constant agony is not necessary to bring one to God but in some cases it helps. Let us seek God's presence and His love without the necessity of suffering. Let us pray that He may dwell with those who are whole in every way.

The Weekly Message Of Inspiration

REV. DWAYNE STARLING, Pastor
Foursquare Gospel Church
Pampa, Texas

"TO KNOW CHRIST"

The greatest and most thrilling experience in all the world is to know Jesus and to know Him in His power and glory. It is not enough just to know about Him, you must have a personal experience in Christ.
TO KNOW CHRIST IS TO LOVE HIM.

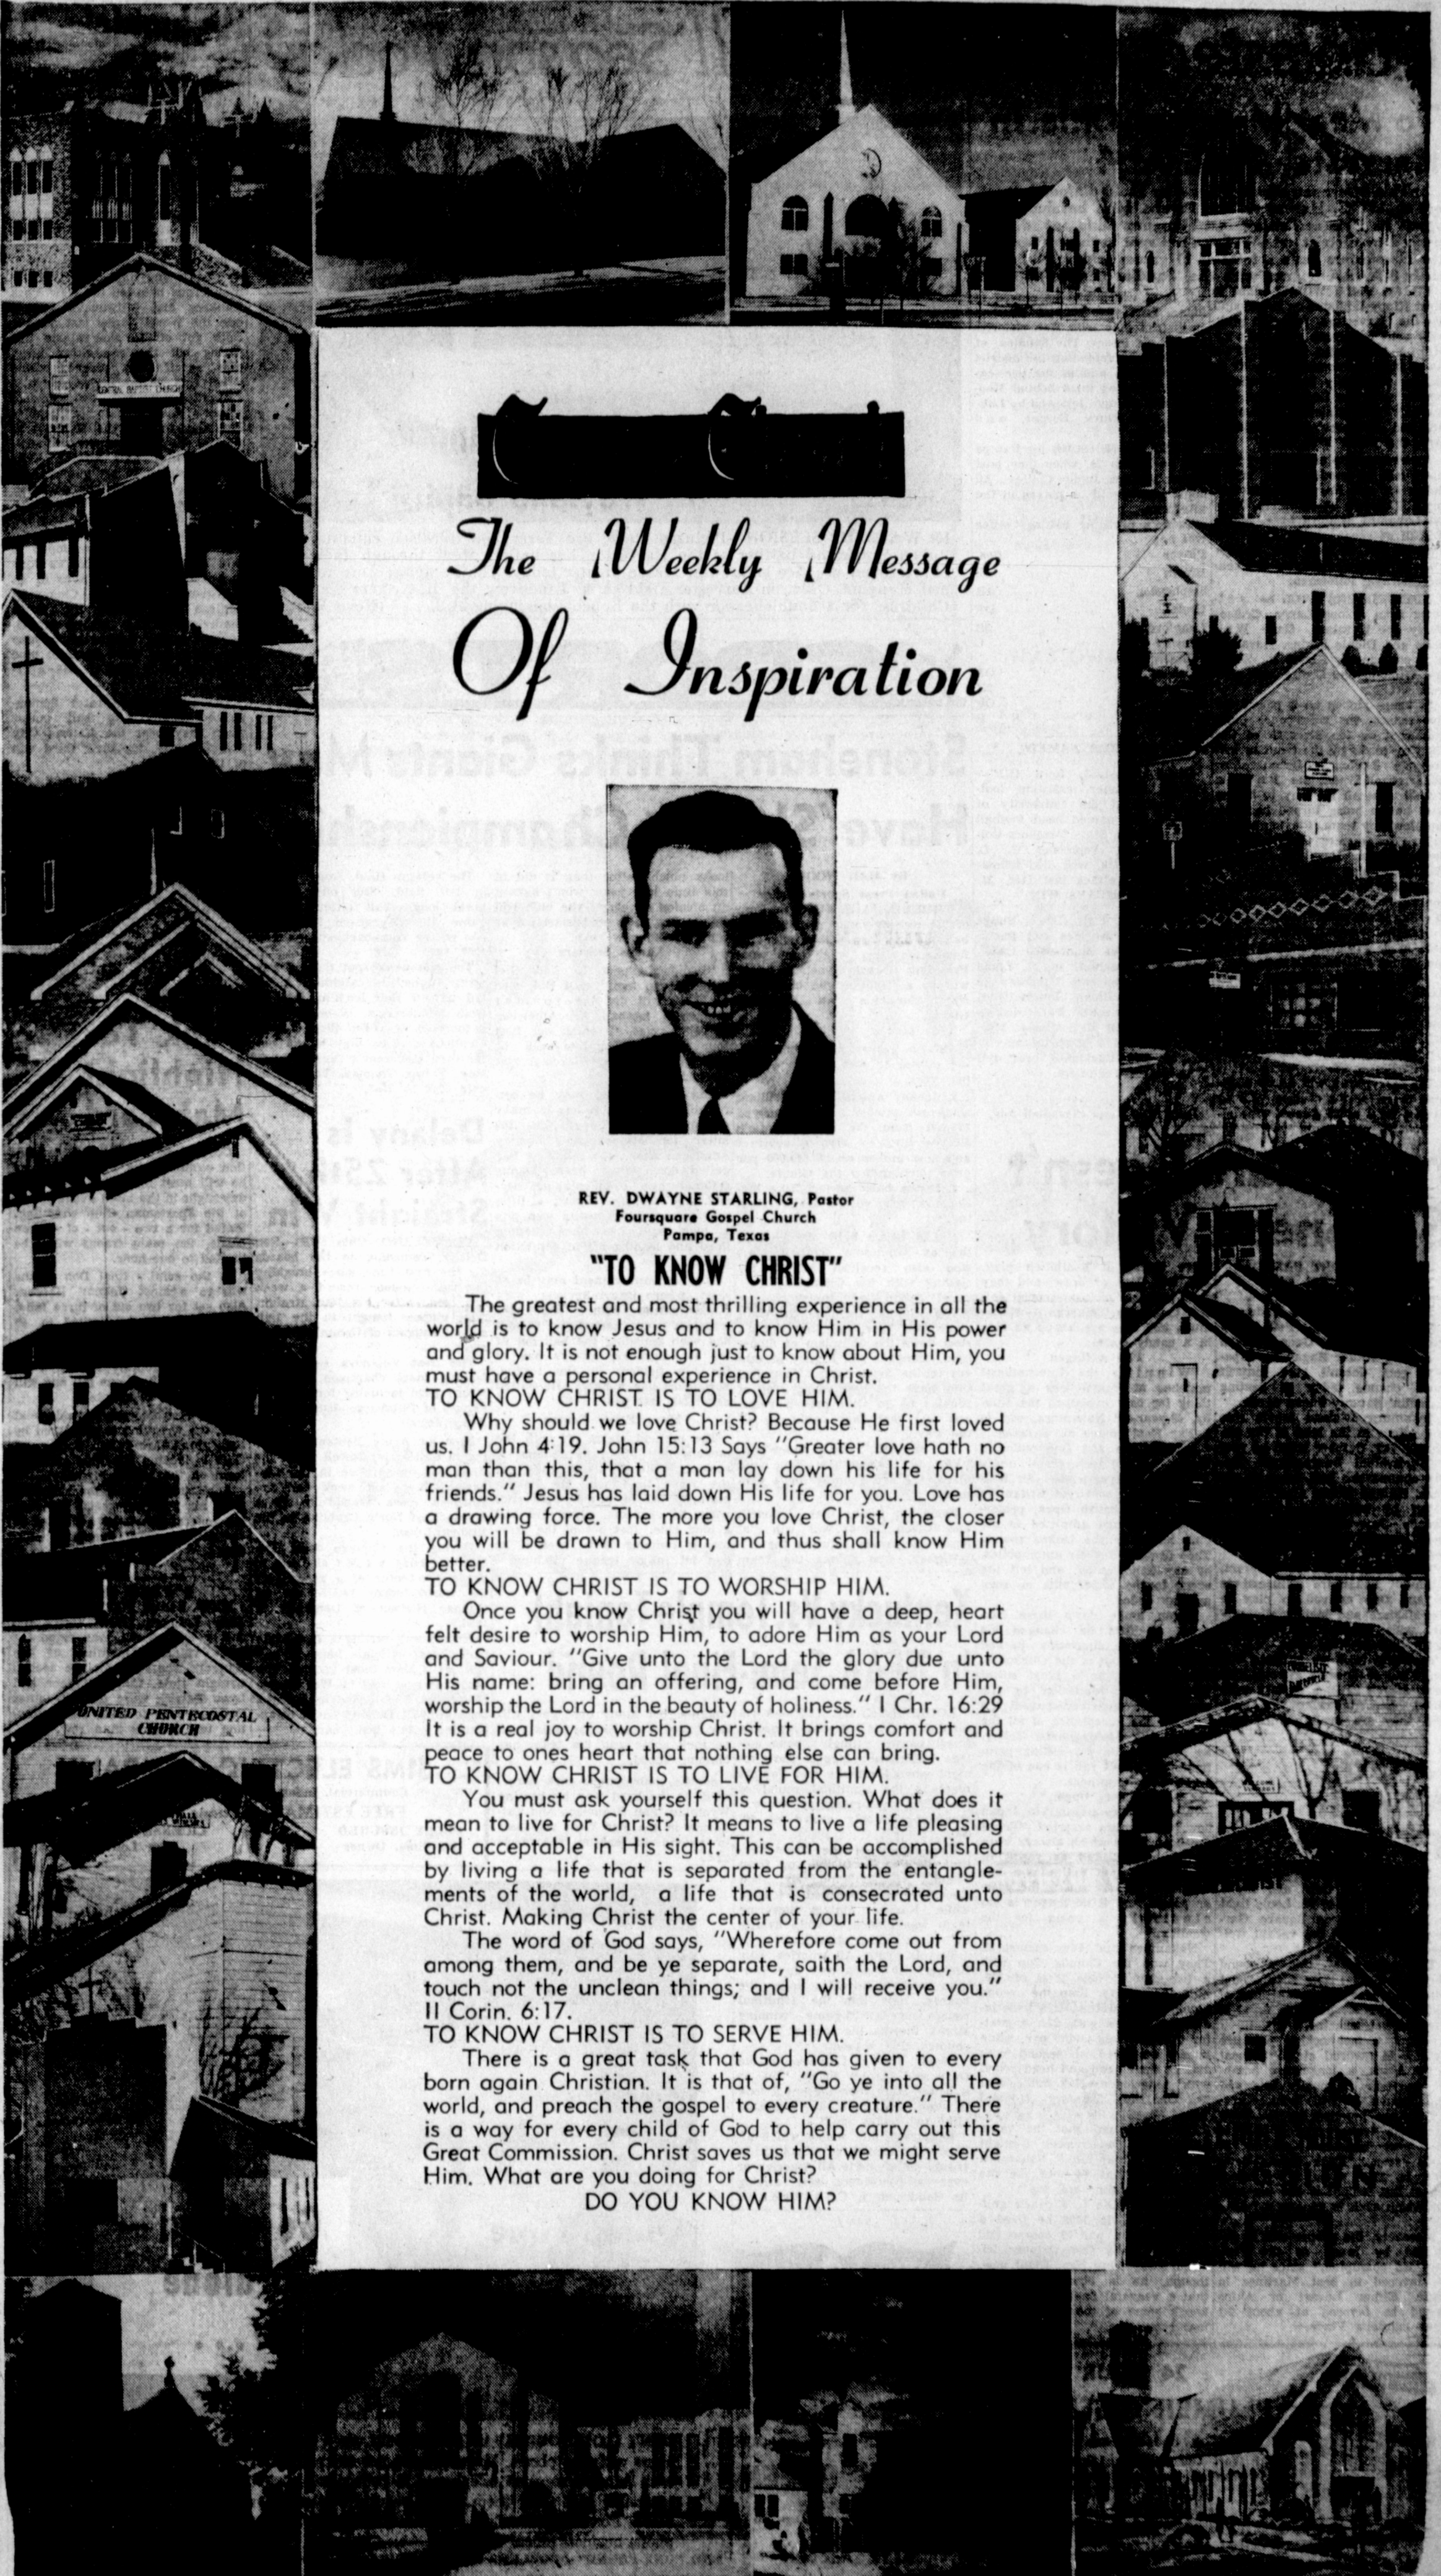

Why should we love Christ? Because He first loved us. I John 4:19. John 15:13 Says "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends." Jesus has laid down His life for you. Love has a drawing force. The more you love Christ, the closer you will be drawn to Him, and thus shall know Him better.
TO KNOW CHRIST IS TO WORSHIP HIM.

Once you know Christ you will have a deep, heart felt desire to worship Him, to adore Him as your Lord and Saviour. "Give unto the Lord the glory due unto His name: bring an offering, and come before Him, worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness." I Chr. 16:29 It is a real joy to worship Christ. It brings comfort and peace to ones heart that nothing else can bring.
TO KNOW CHRIST IS TO LIVE FOR HIM.

You must ask yourself this question. What does it mean to live for Christ? It means to live a life pleasing and acceptable in His sight. This can be accomplished by living a life that is separated from the entanglements of the world, a life that is consecrated unto Christ. Making Christ the center of your life.

The word of God says, "Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean things; and I will receive you." II Corin. 6:17.
TO KNOW CHRIST IS TO SERVE HIM.

There is a great task that God has given to every born again Christian. It is that of, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature." There is a way for every child of God to help carry out this Great Commission. Christ saves us that we might serve Him. What are you doing for Christ?
DO YOU KNOW HIM?

Harvesters Open Baseball Season Today

To Meet Mangum, Okla. In Harvester Field At 4

This afternoon on the Harvester Field diamond, located at 111 E. Harvester, the Pampa high baseball team opens its 1958 season against Mangum, Okla., at 4. Prepped by district coaches for a top spot in the conference, the Harvesters have a total of 11 games scheduled before their 3-AAAA opener with the Sandies here on April 8.

COACH DECK WOLDT plans to start Kippy Williams on the mound for the Harvester, who will probably split the game with Gary Hill. A left-handed hurler, Williams is a sophomore this year, having previously had experience mainly with the Legion team last summer. Hill is also a sophomore, and had his previous experience with the junior high team.

A strong group of returning regulars will be handling the infield duties for the Harvesters, including Bill Brown at shortstop, Robert Langford at third base, Merle Terrell at second base, Ray Stephenson at first base and Mike Conway catching. All five are senior returning lettermen.

OUTFIELDERS WILL BE selected from among Larry Cruise, Terry Joe Haralson, Gary Wilhelm and Dickie Elkins. Haralson is a sophomore, Elkins a junior and Wilhelm and Cruise both seniors.

In being picked as a power for this season, the votes were probably cast on the strength of the showing made by the team in last season's Legion program. Also under coach Woldt, the Pampa Rebels went all the way to the district before being turned back by the Monterey team. Playing on the Legion team were Cruise, Wilhelm, Brown, Haralson, Terrell, Williams, Ship and Conway.

FOLLOWING THIS afternoon's contest the Harvesters will travel to Childress to meet the Robcats in a double-header tomorrow afternoon at 2. Probable hurlers for the games will be DeWayne Glover, Tim Huffaker, Conway and Keith Yager. All are right-handed pitchers. Others slated to see action tomorrow will be John Campbell at 1B, Butch Dunham catching, Ruben Strickland at 2B and Gary Willis at 3B.

Nakamura Doesn't See Snead Victory

TODAY'S SPORT PARADE (Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.) BY OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (UP)—Pete Nakamura, the Oriental Gene Sarazen who did a Walter Hagen for Japanese golf, doesn't give himself much chance today of beating Slammy Sam Snead again. Nakamura attained movie star proportions in the land of the rising sun last October when he won the individual International Trophy against the best from 30 nations. He and Koichi Ono polished it off by winning the two-man Canada Cup and beating Snead and Jimmy Demaret in the process.

Logart, Akins In TV Fight

NEW YORK (UP)—Speedy Isaac Logart of Cuba and explosive Virgil Akins of St. Louis fight tonight at Madison Square Garden for a shot at the vacant welterweight crown. The winner of this 12-round elimination final gets a title bout with contender Vince Martinez of Patterson, N.J., on June 6, at a site not yet selected. Logart, a fast-hitting pressure fighter, is favored at 7-5 to beat taller Akins, a long-range bomber, in their nationally televised and broadcast (NBC) bout. They are meeting for the third time in a "rubber match" that is the most important contest of their careers. Each won a decision in 1955 when they fought twice. But tonight is the big one, for which each is guaranteed $20,000. Moreover, the winner will be regarded by many as the "uncrowned champion," since he will be favored to beat Martinez in June. Either Logart or Akins would be favored at about 2-1 over cautious Vince.

IN WARM-UP SESSION—Pictured above are Terry Joe Haralson catching and Ruben Strickland batting as the Harvester baseballers went through their final afternoon practice before their season opener today. The Pampans were to have met Mangum, Okla., in Harvester Field at 4. Tomorrow the Harvesters travel to Childress for a doubleheader with the Bobcats beginning at 2. (News Photo)

Stoneham Thinks Giants May Have 'Shot At Championship'

By HAL WOOD
United Press Sports Writer
PHOENIX, Ariz. (UP)—Four of the richest young men in baseball playing today will provide the foundation this year for what President Horace Stoneham thinks will be a "shot at the championship" for his San Francisco Giants.

They are:
1. Willie Mays, the incomparable outfielder who makes $70,000 per year.
2. Johnny Antonelli, the brilliant southpaw pitcher, who received $75,000 from the old Boston Braves just to sign a contract and now makes about $40,000 per year pitching for the Giants.
3. Bonus baby hurler Mike McCormick, who got $85,000 for signing.

4. And bonus baby Paul Giel, the ex-Minnesota football star, who also received $65,000 for signing with the Giants.
Sixth-Place Finish
The Giants finished in sixth place last year, but that doesn't slow down the optimism of Stoneham, manager Bill Rigney or others in the local camp. They feel they have the best young crop of rookies to go with proven veterans and that they could go all the way.

"In baseball," says Stoneham, "you don't shoot for a second place. We are gunning for a pennant."
Stoneham thinks that Antonelli and Ruben Gomez will win "at least" 40 games between them. Rigney, who thinks the team

Kentucky Vs. Temple Tonight In NCAA Semi-Final Round

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UP)—A rematch of one of the season's finest games fittingly opens college basketball's biggest show tonight when Kentucky and Temple meet in the semifinal round of the NCAA championships before a standing-room-only crowd of 20,000.

The replay of the three-over-time thriller Kentucky won from Temple at Lexington, Ky., last December was regarded a topsy-turvy game as Kansas State's towering team was picked to whip Seattle in tonight's other semifinal.

Temple, with All-America Guy Rodgers at guard and Jay Norman working miracles under the boards, rode into the semifinal round on a 25-game winning streak that is the longest in the country this season.

Cochair Harry Litwak of the Owls said frankly today, "this is a better team than the one I took to the semifinals at Evanston (Ill.) two years ago."
Kentucky, only school which already has won three NCAA titles, boasts not a single All-America or even all-conference star among its Southeastern Conference

'Valuable' Players Ready For Season

By UNITED PRESS
The most valuable players of 1957 are ready to defend their laurels in '58.

That's the message from Mickey Mantle and Hank Aaron, whose thunderous bats led the New York Yankees and Milwaukee Braves into the World Series last season. Both got off to slow starts this spring but they're belting away now as if they already could smell this year's Series dough.

Mantle smashed two 400-foot homers and a pair of doubles Thursday to lead the Yankees to an 11-3 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies and stretch their winning streak to six games. The Oklahoma Kid now has collected 11 hits, including three homers, a triple and five doubles, knocked in 13 runs and is hitting .344.

Aaron, meanwhile, walloped a pair of homers to drive in four runs and spark the Braves to an 11-1 triumph over the Cincinnati Redlegs and square the Cincinnati Reds and square the Philadelphia Phillies spring record at 5-5. Aaron's spring figures show nine hits, including three homers, nine runs batted in and a .346 average.

The Pittsburgh Pirates demonstrated some long ball power when they beat the Kansas City Athletics, 7-4, for their third win of the spring.

Herb Score, still limping because of a sprained ankle, tossed three scoreless innings for the Cleveland Indians but the world champion Giants rallied late to score a 10-inning, 7-5 triumph.

The Baltimore Orioles and Chicago Cubs split a doubleheader, the Orioles winning the first, 4-1, and the Cubs taking a 10-inning second game, 1-0 and Don Drysdale pitched four perfect innings but the Los Angeles Dodgers had to come from behind to beat the Detroit Tigers, 6-4.

Funk To Highlight Mat Card

Dory Funk is scheduled for action again in the Pampa ring as he will meet the Great Bolo Monday night in the main event match of the Sportsman Club wrestling. Slated for a two-out-of-three battle, the main fracas will be limited to one hour.

In the semi-final Don Evans will go against Johnny Barend. Also set for two out of three falls, the match will be limited to 45 minutes.

For the opener Gene LaBelle will tangle with Tommy Phelps. The first event will go one fall and will be limited to 30 minutes.

Held each Monday evening at 8:30, the wrestling is sponsored by the Pampa Shrine Club. Sportsman Club is located one mile south of town on the Lefors highway.

Admission is $1.50 for ringside; $1.25 for reserved seats; 90 cents for general admission adult and 50 cents for general admission children.

REPEATS HONOR

NEW YORK (UP)—Right wing Andy Bathgate, New York's top scorer this season, was voted the most valuable member of the Rangers Thursday for the second straight time. Chuck Rayner and Lynn Patrick were the only other Rangers ever to earn the distinction two seasons in a row.

Track, Golf Team In Odessa Meet

Pampa's Harvester golf and track teams begin participation in a well-known meet today as they entered into competition in the West Texas Relays in Odessa, scheduled to run hot today and tomorrow.

For the thin clads of Coach Dewaine Lyon the meet will mark their second appearance for the season, although the fourth scheduled for the year. Bad weather prevented completion of either the Comanche Relays in Fort Stockton or the Possum Kingdom Relays in Graham. Last week, however, the team placed fourth in the Canyon Reef Relays in Snyder, which consisted of 16 3-A and 4-A schools. The Harvesters finished five points behind the winning Snyder team.

Taking most first places in last week's events was Alton Thyngerson, who won both the 100 and 200 yard dashes, setting meet records in both. Bill Breeshears placed third in the 100-yard dash, Kenneth Keith ran third in the 180-yard hurdles and Clyde Smith placed fourth in 120-yard high hurdles.

Also winning firsts were the 440 and 880 yard relay teams, and the medley team placed fourth. For Odessa competition both Thyngerson and Breeshears will be in the short dashes and Tommy Locke, Andy Epps and Robert Ren will run the 440.

Frank Snow is scheduled for the half-mile run and Kenneth Keith, and Clyde Smith will run the hurdles. In the field events will be Rex Williams, and Buddy Rawls. Thyngerson, Locke, Keith and Breeshears compose the 440-yard relay team and Warren, Locke, Epps and Breeshears make up the 880. On the medley group are Warren, Keith, Epps and Snow.

Defending Link Champions For Coach Weldon Trice's linkmen the meet will also mark the second for the season. A four-man team, composed of Melvin Chisum, Larry Tarvin, Donald Fox and Eugene Yearly placed fourth last week end at the Fort Worth Recreation Track and Field Meet. Chisum tied with five other golfers for medalist in the tournament which included 60 high school teams. Chisum's score was a one-over-par.

Water Works Association Has Meet

(Special To The News)
LEFORS — The Canadian River Water Works Association met for a fried chicken dinner, served and prepared by the Lefors Art and Civic Club, Thurs. night, March 20, in the civic center, with Clark Regan, president, of Canadian as Master of ceremonies.

The address of the evening was brought by Wayland Merriman, consulting engineer of Pampa, stating that "The key rate of a town is based on the amount of burnable goods, the living next to fire hazards and far from fire plugs, and the ability of a town to fight fire, the fire dept. being volunteer or hired. Also it is based on adequate water supply for fire fighting, paved streets and a number of other factors."

"A duplicate pumping unit is a must to be relied upon in case a unit goes out. All customers also must be metered to avoid bleeding of water lines causing shortage in case of fire."

Other things touched on by Mr. Merriman were duplicate electrical supply, ground storage, elevated storage, fire hydrants and brick constructed pumping stations.

An exhibit showing the old way of getting our water, through jugs, pitchers, buckets, small pumps, pumping water from wells down to modern ways of getting water at a through laying of lines to dwellings from the main source of supply was presented by Charles Blankenburg of Lefors.

Debra Paget Not Versatile Enough For Wednesday Part

By WILLIAM EWALD
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK (UP)—NBC-TV's "Wagon Train" made the mistake of casting Debra Paget in a role Wednesday night. She failed to pivot.
Miss Paget, to put it as gently as possible, is an actress of limited skills. She bulls through her scenes, untouched by the verbal poundings of her fellow actors, unresponsive to situation except in the most obvious fashion. She is a perfect example of a performer who act from the skin out, one of those made-in-Hollywood creations who have gotten by for years with a couple of pouts and a wiggle.
Wednesday night Miss Paget played a post-bellum belle who flirted with one gentleman in order to force a marriage proposal out of another. The first man shot her.
After the shooting, one cast character remarked: "She's alive and nothing else."
That just about summed up her performance, too.
NBC-TV's "Kraft Theatre" showed some swift foot early Wednesday night, but its "Look What's Going On" stumbled around the three-quarter mark with some predictable melodrama and a too-pat resolution.
The play, which was about kick-backs in the construction game and a man's efforts to define honesty, did boast some assets — a strong performance by Neville Brand and sturdy support from Lee Grant, Ed Begley and Harry Townes. I should also mention director Fielder Cook who set a brisk pace and meshed his players with a fine hand.

One further note: At one point during the hour, Brand was supposed to say the word, "Geez," but I'm almost sure that he delivered instead the expletive, "Jesus!" In terms of the heat Brand was generating at the time in his situation, it seemed to me quite an excusable bobble.
The Channel Swim: ABC-TV's "Make Me Laugh," which bows in tonight, came up with an emcee for the show Wednesday—Robert Q. Lewis, Richard Burton, Cathleen Nesbitt and Barry Jones have been signed on for the May 9 CBS-TV spec, "Wuthering Heights."
CBS-TV's "Studio One," almost certain to get the ax at the end of this season, may be replaced in part next season by a series of musical shows sponsored by AT&T. "Fantomine Quiz" returns for its 11th campaign on April 8 over ABC-TV.
NBC-TV's "Wagon Train," which seems to have been on the road longer than the Harlem Globetrotters, will positively reach San Francisco on the last show of this season. That terminal show will star such past Wagon entrainers as Ernest Borgnine, Ricardo Montalban, Michael Renny, Shelley Winters, Mark Ste-

Wynne Miller Is The New Daisy Mae

BY GAY PAULEY
United Press Women's Editor
NEW YORK (UP)—A new Miller has moved into the entertainment spotlight.
Wynne Miller, a curvaceous 25-year-old blonde from Greeley, Colo., has taken over the role of Daisy Mae in the Broadway Musical comedy, "Li'l Abner." She joins a healthy list of Millers prominent in show business through the years. The late Glenn Miller, the orchestra leader, was her uncle.
"Then," she said, "to name some others, there was Henry Miller, the matinee idol of many years ago. They named a Broadway theatre after him. And Marilyn Miller, the singing and dancing star of the 1920's. There's still Arthur Miller, the playwright. I suppose we could even count Marilyn Monroe Miller (married to Arthur)."
I suggested we also include Joe Miller, who wrote a joke book. "Well all I hope," she said, "is that I can keep up the Miller tradition."
Far as Wynne relates, Glenn is the only Miller related to her.
The actress-singer was born Velma Lou Miller, daughter of a Greeley dentist.
For the role of Al Capp's barefoot heroine, her dimensions also must be counted in her favor. She is 35-24-34, and 5-4.
Miss Miller started out to become an opera singer and got so far as her own radio and television show in San Francisco and appearances with the Bay City Symphony.
She became understudy in "Li'l Abner" when Edith Adams left the show and Joyce Gladmond took over. Last week, Miss Gladmond left for Hollywood and a try at the movies.

High School Principal Harold Beam said he learned of young Thormalen's request to the Denton school, but he believed it was a joke.
The boy himself was not around for comment.
The request was made after a district judge in Bryan ruled that two women have a right to enter all-male Texas A&M College, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.
