

Dixie Stand Unbudging Says Senator

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Democratic peace feelers were reported today to have bumped into an unbudging Dixie stand that only President Truman's exit can halt the civil rights revolt.

Democratic Chairman J. Howard McGrath, who also is a Rhode Island senator, has been sounding out some of his Southern colleagues on the chances for a compromise.

The party split over Mr. Truman's race equality proposals also is said to have been talked over informally with some senators by Secretary of Labor Schwelbenbach, a former senator for himself.

Some of those approached said both were told that only Mr. Truman's withdrawal as a potential candidate could bring peace.

McGrath seemingly had little to offer except a return to the 1944 party platform plank on civil rights.

That declaration promised only in a general way to bring about greater equality among the races. It contained no specific reference to the anti-poll tax, anti-lynching, anti-job discrimination and anti-Jim Crow measures proposed by the President.

The Southern Democrats were reported to have said, in effect, that this would be fine, but not enough. What they want, they made it plain, is for Mr. Truman to take himself out of the November election picture. As one Southern put it in a reporter, Mr. Truman has become a personal issue.

McGrath obviously could promise no move by Mr. Truman to get out. In fact, the Democratic chairman has told friends he is as certain as one can be about politics that Mr. Truman is determined to run.

The President is described by friend and foe alike as a stubborn man who won't give up in the face of a fight.

Meanwhile, Senator Hill (D-Ala.), who is a pro-Truman candidate for convention delegate, joined Senator Ellender (D-La.) yesterday in criticizing one of the President's civil rights proposals.

The two, in a minority report on a bill to set up a fair employment (anti-job discrimination) commission that it would aid communism.

They argued that the measure offers an "invitation to sabotage," because it would keep the federal government from discriminating against a job seeker "because of his national origin or ancestry."

In Boston, a Texan who is national president of the Young Democratic Clubs said party members must weigh the matters upon which they disagree "against our common objectives."

And if the objective outweighs the disagreement, "as inevitably will, there will be unity and there will be victory," Roy Baker of Sherman, Tex., told a group of Young Democrats.

In the Senate, Mississippi's Senator Stennis told Republicans backing the civil rights program that its enactment might result in a wide assortment of "splinter" parties instead of the present two-party system.

Stennis said that France, with See DIXIE STAND, Page 8

SNOW HELPS WHEAT

Oscar Norby, Finney County, Kans., farm agent, uncovers young wheat covered in recent heavy Western Kansas blizzard which was preceded by heavy rain. Norby says subsoil moisture isn't very deep anywhere in the wheat belt except on fallow land, but that recent rain and snow, which provided protective cover against severe weather, plus modern tillage methods, should eliminate possibility of soil's blowing this spring.

NEAR 20 DEAD OR MISSING AS TOWBOAT SINKS IN MISSISSIPPI

Eleven Survivors Taken From Water

GREENVILLE, Miss.—(AP)—Fourteen to twenty crewmen were dead or missing today from the 180-foot towboat Natchez, which rolled over and sank last night after a treacherous Mississippi River current swept it against a bridge piling below here.

Capt. William A. Howell of the towboat Sohio-Latonia, which brought eleven survivors here, said "there could hardly have been any others" saved.

A twelfth crewman escaped, however, as he was with the barges and not aboard the Natchez at the time.

The Natchez carried a normal crew of 28, but survivors' figures on the actual number this trip varied from 26 to 32.

Battle Over Condon May Get Hotter

Howell witnessed the end of the Natchez from his pilot house.

"The current caught her and rolled her over," he said. "She went down in about a minute. The men below—firemen, engineers and so on—had no chance. The men picked up were mostly deck crew."

The Sohio-Latonia picked up nine survivors, of whom two died on board. Four other men, rescued by other boats, were transferred to the Sohio-Latonia to be brought here.

Howell said he had taken aboard all those picked up by the other boats, the Casablanca and Irene Shton.

Howell, who lives at Cairo, Ill., said the disaster was "by far the worst" in the 12 years he has been on the river. He is 28 years old.

The young captain said he had no names of victims or survivors, except that he had picked up the Natchez pilot, Walker Haas of St. Louis.

Howell said he thought the master of the Natchez, Capt. John Browinski of St. Louis, was missing. "Most of the fellows didn't know what had happened," he related.

"The pilot wasn't on duty—I understand the captain was at the wheel. The pilot was asleep. He didn't know the boat had hit the bridge. They thought it bumped against one of its barges."

The Natchez was owned by the Federal Barge Lines, but was on charter to the Standard Oil Company, Ohio, which owns the Sohio-Latonia.

The two boats were taking tow of crude oil from Mayeraville, Miss., to St. Louis.

Because the current was very swift, aggravated by high water, they were "double-tripping" the bridge between Greenville and Lake Village, Ark.—taking part of their barges through at a time, then going back for the others.

"We were about three quarters of a mile under the Natchez," Howell related. "Were about a hundred yards from shore, waiting for him to make the bridge. He had three of his barges, and we had four."

When he went through, the current caught him and shoved him crosswise. He went down on the pier. It rolled him under.

The current just rolled him under.

"I saw he was in trouble before he got through. I said to my mate, 'he's not going to make it. We've got to do something.'"

"We were starting to work before he was pulled under the bridge. But we thought we'd help him pick up the barges. We didn't know we'd be pinging up men."

The barges hit the concrete pier and broke away. Then the towboat hit.

The survivors were taken to Kings Daughters Hospital here in (See NACHEZ, Page 8)

2 Accidents Reported on Slick Roads

A 1938 Chevrolet coach driven by Lavern Francis Keough, 50, 613 W. Bowling, was heavily damaged in a collision three miles west of town on the Borger highway yesterday morning.

Vance Smith, 933 S. Nelson, in the car with Keough, was given first aid treatment at Worley Hospital for minor injuries.

Investigating highway patrolman said an E. M. Keller 1948 International truck driven by Ernest Edgard Brown, 40, 123 W. Brown St., was in collision with right rear of the Chevrolet. Both were going west.

Another truck was stuck at an intersection of the highway on a county road.

Brown, the truck driver, said the Chevrolet was making a right turn to the county road. He said brakes as applied brakes, trying to go between the stalled truck and the Chevrolet, the icy highway caused him to skid against the car.

Other than a bent gas tank, very slight damage to the truck was reported.

Tuesday morning a 1947 Chrysler driven by E. M. Keller was in collision with a Hopkins school bus 12 1/2 miles south of town on Highway 70. The bus was driven by Samuel Clyde Jones.

Highway patrolman said the school bus made a left turn to a side road, the Chrysler was in collision with the left rear corner of the bus.

Damage to the Chrysler was estimated at $325, with very slight damage to the bus. No injuries resulted.

11 Conservation Plans Approved

Grady County Soil Conservation District supervisors at a recent meeting here approved 11 soil and moisture conservation plans.

These plans were developed by farmers with assistance of the local office of the Soil Conservation Service. Plans were approved by the board for the following farmers: Arlie Carpenter, Charlie Carpenter, Boyd Meador, Leroy Williams, Perry Everett, Foreman Stubbs, H. M. Roth, H. H. Keashey, Clyde Carruth, Ernest Godfrey and Bruce G. Hill. These farms total 7,484 acres.

Five applications for assistance were also approved by the supervisors.

There was considerable discussion at the meeting of work which will get underway this spring in the district. One of the most important matters is the securing of a special drill for planting pasture grasses, and it was hoped such a drill could be secured for work this spring.

Boy Scout Drive Total Hits $5,000

R. M. Samples, general chairman of the annual Boy Scout Finance Drive, announced today that $5,000 has been collected so far.

"The inclement weather has slowed the progress of the drive somewhat," Samples said, "and some of the committees have not yet reported."

"Nevertheless," he continued, "$5,000 has been collected so far, and when the other committees report, I am confident the drive will be a success."

Jewish Agency Determined On Partition

LAKE SUCCESS

The Jewish Agency told the United Nations in effect today that it was determined in any event to go ahead with creation of a Jewish nation in Palestine.

This would be done even if the U. N. is unable to carry out its own partition project, the agency said in a major policy statement to the U. N. Security Council.

Dr. Abba Hillel Silver, chairman of the American section of the agency's executive, told the council:

"We feel under obligation to make our position unmistakably clear. As far as the Jewish people is concerned, it has accepted the (partition) decision of the United Nations. We regard it as binding and we are resolved to move forward in the spirit of that decision."

"Under the plan there are dates to be met. We must assume that these dates will be met."

"We fully respect the authority of the United Nations but if it is unable to carry out its own decision and, as a consequence, the Jewish community of Palestine is confronted with the threat of annihilation, it will be compelled by the considerations of sheer survival, not to speak of the preservation of its rights, to take all the necessary measures which the situation will call for."

The council met at 10:30 a. m. (EST) with prospects of reaching its first test vote during the day on the Palestine partition issue.

The first ballot was expected on an American-drafted proposal that the council accept the General Assembly's Nov. 29 decision to split the Holy Land into independent Jewish and Arab nations effective next Oct. 1.

U. S. Delegate Warren R. Austin told the council two days ago: "A vote for this paragraph would be a vote for partition as a Palestine solution." After his definition of the issue, only Russia openly supported the United States.

Canada, Belgium and China have said they would oppose such a step at this stage. Syria, the Arab country on the council, is against any partitioning move. Britain is committed to abstention on the partition ballot on the ground she cannot support any Palestine solution not acceptable to both Jews and Arabs. (See PALESTINE, Page 8)

Auto License Buying Is Slow

In a little more than three weeks the local tax assessor's office will have to issue close to 8,000 car and truck licenses, as comparatively few have been issued to date. Licenses will be issued through March 31.

Through this morning, 1,115 car licenses had been issued. 175 licenses had been issued to truck owners, 79 to farm trucks, and 62 to trailers.

It was estimated that around 9,000 licenses are to be issued.

Capacity Crowd Gives Approval to Minstrel

A capacity crowd packed the Junior High Auditorium for the first performance of the Lions Minstrel, and the cast offered two hours of fast-moving entertainment.

The polished routines of the Capettes of TSCW met with high favor as they offered customary interpretations of the "Can Can," "Eugie Woogie," "Jitter Bug Jitters" and other numbers.

Pampa's Oil City Four received heavy applause in an intermission performance, as the quartet gave a true Harlem touch to a group of spirituals.

Interlocutor Art Teed and the end men kept up a rapid interchange during the entire show. Ken's Jazz Jockeys gave an authentic Dixie Land touch.

"Mamie Blues," as sung by Sweet Dinah Lee, backed up by the 60-voice chorus and the Dixie Land band, is a straight from W. C. Handy, and the audience gave a quick and unanimous vote.

Quite a study in nuclear physics is "Get Away Atomic Mama," as sung by Mary Flower. "The Bulova watch company is interested."

Other notable solo numbers were Miss Nelda LaGrona (of the Capettes) doing a tap specialty to "Blue Skies," Miss Dixie Loveland with "Sugar Blues," Wee Willie Wimple's "Li Liza Jane," E. O. Plenty Offensive and his "Corn Fed Indiana Gal."

But there are many other numbers as candidates for the top performance. Go to the performance tonight at 8 o'clock and cast your vote.

Finnish Decision on Treaty With Russia Reported Near

By The Associated Press

The Finnish government appeared near a decision today on whether to accept an invitation for closer ties with Russia.

The Finns are the latest to be invited to tinker with the Communists.

The world struggle between the Communists and their opponents produced new developments also in Italy, Czechoslovakia, Austria, Germany and Canada.

Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg had delegates in Brussels talking a proposed Union of Western Europe to buck Communist expansion.

Finland's President Juho Paasikivi was getting advice from political parties before replying to Prime Minister Stalin's proposal for a treaty of friendship and mutual assistance.

Two of the three top political groups already have given their advice. The third—the Agrarian Party, with 48 of Parliament's 200 seats—is expected to do so today.

Both the other groups—the Communist-Radical Socialist Popular Front, with 81 seats, and the Social Democrats, with 48—came out for negotiating with Russia. But the Social Democrats insisted yesterday that Finland stay out of military alliances.

In Italy, the lines were drawn for a test between Communists and anti-Communists at the polls. The test will come in the election of the republic's first Parliament April 18.

Yesterday was the last day to register candidates for 574 deputies and around 400 senators. Twenty-one parties and a two-party bloc have filed tickets.

The main campaigners are Premier Alcide De Gasperi's Christian Democrats and the bloc—the Communist-Socialist Popular Front.

Each is forecasting victory for itself. Well informed observers predict each instead will get around 40 percent of an expected 25,000,000 votes, leaving the balance of power with smaller parties.

The big question, they say, is what the Communists will do if this prediction comes true and De Gasperi then forms another government excluding Communist ministers. The Communists claim to have arms hidden and an underground "shadow government" in readiness.

Italian electioneers, for and against communism, have been mentioning Czechoslovakia, where Communists recently got control of the government.

In that country, security police last night announced the arrest of a former official of the Catholic People's Party, Felix Uhl, on a charge of spying for an unnamed foreign power.

The Czechoslovak Social Democrats said they had kicked 10 rightist deputies out of the party and asked the deputies to resign from Parliament. The party's Prague newspaper forecast a similar purge by two other parties.

NEW YORK —(AP)—Times have changed in the cotton textile industry, too. The mills and contractors are looking for customers. Prices haven't dropped noticeably yet, but trade sources say they are softening. Buyers are staying home.

The industry is now operating at a rate of 11 billion yards a year, the highest peacetime total on record. In the war year of 1942 the mills turned out 12 billion yards.

The Department of Commerce recognizes the change in the cotton situation from the days when sheets and white shirts were collector's items.

The department formally proclaimed today that the supply of many types of cotton fabrics is "clearly in balance with demand." That means the industry will not be asked to work out voluntary allocation agreements.

Textile men say nothing could have come of such a plan except confusion, and perhaps price supports.

Cotton goods that are piling up at the moment are in the cheaper price range. In a few instances mills have cut prices about a cent a yard on these goods.

The government's interest in the cotton textile supply situation started more than a year ago when there were acute shortages and prices were climbing.

Those were the days when the "gray market" operators were asking, and getting, prices far (See BUSINESS, Page 8)

Sun Breaks Thru Clouds Over Europe

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

It isn't often that the sun breaks through the clouds over Europe these days, and there's always blood on the moon of a night, but a splash of sunshine is playing about the Brussels conference which is considering a Union of Western Europe to halt the advance of aggressive communism.

It's far too early to make any predictions, of course, for it was only yesterday that the five nations got together—Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg, the last three known as the Benelux countries. Still the very fact that they are meeting is in itself a historic development which might lead to great things—even to the birth of a new Europe.

This conference has been hanging fire for some time—an idea which hadn't quite jelled. It took the bolshevik assault on helpless Czechoslovakia and the threat to little Finland to bring the five nations together on the Red. The Czechoslovakian coup was a brutal warning that the Red menace might strike next in Western Europe.

The conference is debating the mutual benefit and protection of a treaty and alliance for Western Europe in due course, a proposal—political, economic, cultural and military. Of these the military is the most important because the other three can't be implemented until that is taken care of.

In short, the conference is attacking the problem on the basis that they need American military (See EUROPE, Page 8)

Deputy Sheriff Buck Buckleaw and highway patrolmen, who ran up a road block for a few minutes while a wrecker righted the truck, said very slight damage was done. Windows on the truck were not even broken.

Cleveland Hopes for Another Hurler Near Equal to Feller

PHOENIX, Ariz. —(AP)— Among other things, the Cleveland Indians still have the best and the highest paid pitcher in baseball in Bobby Feller, the old Iowa farm boy who will strike 30 years on his next birthday.

As they toil and sweat here under the desert sun, the Indians to a man are hoping only one thing—that they may come up with another pitcher even as approaching the grandeur of rapid Robert.

If Manager Lou Boudreau should by happy chance uncover another 20-game winner, the Indians are convinced they could rattle the Yankees and the Red Sox right down to the wire.

Without another "stopper" of the Feller stripe, they realize they can aspire to no better than third place in the final American League standings.

Most of the men closest to the Indians seem to feel that any real substantial pitching help will have to come from "outside prospects."

First and foremost probably is Bob Muncie, the big right-hander who came along with Wait Judd and John Berardino from the St. Louis Browns.

After a couple of poor seasons during which he underwent an arm operation Muncie feels he is ready to come back big.

The next best bet appears to be a gangling rookie southpaw named Bill Kennedy, who set a 16-2 record last year with Scranton and was Cleveland's first choice in the hot prospects list.

Last of the hot prospects is Mike Garcia, a righthanded fast-baller of Mexican-American ancestry out of California. Pitching for Wilkes-Barre last year, he led the Eastern League in victories, complete games and was among the top five in strikeouts.

Training Camp Roundup

Sore Arm Epidemic
NEW YORK —(AP)— The expected epidemic of sore arms among major league pitchers has failed to materialize so far but the trainers of the 16 teams nevertheless are ready.

Due to the March 1 embargo on the opening of spring training and the fact that most teams are scheduled to start exhibition games in less than a week, managers and pitchers both were envious of plenty of sore arms.

However, no pitcher has reported a bad flipper as yet and injuries among players have been few.

The most serious injury so far was suffered yesterday by Eddie Dyer, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Dyer suffered a "slight concussion" when struck in the head by a batted ball during the Cardinals' morning workout at their St. Petersburg, Fla., base.

The blow knocked Dyer out. After he was revived and carried to the clubhouse, he was rushed to a hospital where x-ray pictures showed no fracture of the skull.

Small Field Expected for Saturday Race

ARCADIA, Calif. —(AP)— One of the smallest fields in the history of the event may go postward Saturday when Santa Anita holds its 11th meeting with the running of its $100,000 derby.

With virtually all of the definite starters gunning for the rich purse and possible triumphs in the triple-crown classics of the year back east for three-year-olds later this season, the local derby figured to attract the following candidates:

William G. Helia favored Salmagundi, Miss Strand's Call Bell, Mrs. Nat Goldstone's Solidarity, Norman W. Church's May Rewards, Mrs. Ann Pepper's Startling Time, and possibly Hal Price, Headley's Penon and the A. E. Simpson colt, Flaming Beau.

The King Ranch's Flying Missile and Drumbeat, owned by R. S. Howard, were the other two possibilities as entries were awaited today.

Nominations for the Kentucky Derby, the Preakness and the Belmont stakes have not been reported, but most of the crop racing here are expected to shoot for the subsequent laurels.

Givers good weather, the track boys trotted to the post around 5 p. m.

Experts viewed the mile and one-eighth event as a battle between Salmagundi and two California colts, Call Bell and May Reward.

Freeman Wins Over Corlin On Main Event

Former Southwestern states junior heavyweight wrestling champion Al Getz didn't have a chance last night.

Getz was eliminated last night on the Sportatorium's wrestling royal when his four opponents "gooped-up" on him and took away any thought of Getz's appearing in the semifinal or final bouts later in the evening.

Olan Boynton and Salvador Flores were the next eliminated. These two met in the semifinal event, which ended in a draw.

In a 45-minute bout Boynton stopped Flores in 40 minutes with a one-leg crab, but the crafty Mexican came back in three minutes to take the second fall with a back breaker.

With only two minutes left in the bout neither wrestler was able to gain the deciding fall.

The main event brought together Ace Freeman and Johnny Corlin. Corlin was disqualified at the end of 12 minutes for rubbing adhesive tape over Freeman's eyes. And then Freeman came back to win the second fall and the match in eight minutes with a full cradle.

Horner Anderson of Pampa made his first appearance in the local ring last night as a referee. Anderson handled the duties alone, when Boynton, who was also scheduled to officiate, had to wrestle the place of Hy Sherman, who broke his jaw in a match earlier in the week.

Semi-Final Action Due Today In Class A and B Cage Play

AUSTIN —(AP)— Semifinal action in Class B and Class A began today with both defending champions still in the running in the Intercollegiate League's 28th annual State Basketball Tournament.

Midland Slugger King of Minor League Batsmen

COLUMBUS, O. —(AP)— James T. Prince of Dallas is king of minor league batsmen.

The 30-year-old ex-Marine, a 25-year-old first baseman standing six feet two, compiled a .429 average in 108 games for the class D Midland, Tex., club of the Longhorn Loop last season to grab the championship, the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues announced today.

Thus, in his third year of professional baseball, Prince will receive the Louisville Slugger trophy, an engraved, full-size sterling silver bat, awarded annually to the minor league with the highest batting average in 75 percent of his team's contests.

Here's how the southpaw thronging, left-handed hitter's record looked for the campaign:
Games, 108; at bat, 415; runs, 111; hits, 178; total bases, 325; two-base hits, 31; three-base hits, 8; home runs, 24; bases on balls, 81; strikeouts, 49; runs batted in, 141; batting average, .429.

All that earned him a promotion, through the draft, to the Lamesa club of the West Texas-New Mexico class C loop for 1948.

He reported for the 1947 spring training.

Golden Gloves Finals Tonight

CHICAGO —(AP)— Eight champions from an original field of 304 sectional winners will be crowned in the 21st annual Golden Gloves Boxing Tournament tonight in Chicago Stadium.

Fifteen semi-final bouts will open the finals proceedings, to be followed by eight championship bouts in all eight weight classes, training season with the Lubbock, Texas, team; but was purchased by Midland last May.

Grid Linemen Shade Backs Under Rules Devised by No One
COLLEGE PARK, Md. —(NEA)— Maryland's football linemen shaded the backs in basketball, 19-18. The game was played under rules devised by no one, and no one could ever realize how the court sport could be played that way. Shortly after the introduction of basketball, it was used by many football coaches to keep their athletes in condition throughout the winter. Under those conditions, play was definitely on the rough side.

On his recent trip to Europe, Zale's diamond buyer was offered a quantity of diamonds in Antwerp at a ridiculously low price. The quality did not meet the usual rigid Zale standard for grade A diamonds, but the costs were exceedingly low and the values tremendous. Rather than pass it up completely our buyer could not resist the temptation and shipped them to us to be sold for a fraction of the cost of the usual grade A Zale diamonds. Here is your opportunity to purchase a larger diamond at an enormous saving. The cut and brilliancy is good and the ring styling brings out that "New Look."

First Baptist Church
YWA Chooses Name

The YWA of the First Baptist Church met Monday evening in the home of Mrs. T. J. Worrell, 1346 Mary Ellen.

The new yearbooks, designed in green and gold were sold to the members present.

The group decided on "Jaxie Short" as the name for the organization.

Old songs were sung with Mrs. Maurie Schultze, a guest, playing the accompaniment.

Refreshments were served during the informal hours.

Those present included: Grace Davis, Betty Frigmore, Martha Foyville, Fatsy Siltzman, Pat Croninger, Mary Lou Hanks, Betty Mosley, Lyndell Smith, Bobby Tucker.

The American Home Is Becoming Safer

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Modernization of the American home has been an important factor in reducing the accident death rate among girls and women by about one half in the past 25 years, the statistics of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company report on the basis of the experience among their industrial policyholders.

Illustrative of the reduction in home hazards are the shift from oil lamps and gas for lighting to the electric light bulb, the replacing of the traditional coal stove by the modern gas or electric range, and the use of central heating instead of stoves and fireplaces. The mortality from burns among the insured white females fell from 10.3 per 100,000 in 1911 to 1.4 in 1946, which is a decrease of 86 percent.

Fatal falls among females are only about one half as frequent as they were 25 years ago. "Since falls in and about the home are the greatest element in the total mortality from falls among women and girls, better construction of homes, better lighting, and safer home appliances obviously have played a part in reducing the death toll from this cause," the statisticians observe.

"Although marked progress has been achieved in reducing the accident death toll among American girls and women, the loss of life from this cause is still far larger than it need be. Even now accidents take about 30,000 female lives a year in the general population of the United States."

Know Your STUFF

About Floor Waxes. . . You'll get better results for your efforts in shining up floors if you know your stuff about floor waxes and the methods of application.

Paste wax, which is harder to apply than liquid waxes, is nevertheless recommended for the initial waxing of wood floors. The paste rubs into the pores and grain of the wood seals the surface and simplifies subsequent upkeep.

Liquid waxes, which are recommended for the periodic polishing of floors, are of two types. One wax type is a solution of a flammable, volatile solvent (usually a petroleum derivative). The other type—a water emulsion wax—is nonflammable and is usually described as "self-polishing." You can determine whether liquid wax is flammable or nonflammable by pouring a drop or two onto a teaspoon and igniting with a lighted match.

Either type of liquid wax may be used on most floor surfaces. The volatile solvent wax is not recommended for use on rubber or asphalt tile.

Use either type of wax sparingly. A thin coat wears longer than a thick coat and will, as a rule, be less slippery.

Have Convention

KANSAS CITY—(P)—Both Texas and California wanted the 1948 convention of the American Association of Junior Colleges and they're both going to get it.

The convention will begin in El Paso, Texas, and wind up in San Francisco.

The association, holding its 1948 convention here, approved the two-state arrangement to resolve differences between California and Texas legislation over which should get next year's meeting.

Half of the convention will be held in railroad cars. A special train will be formed at El Paso to carry delegates to Los Angeles and thence to San Francisco. Meeting dates were not set.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

THE PERSONAL WITNESS OF THE CHRISTIAN

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.

The personal witness of our lesson was Philip, the Evangelist, and the story is of his contact with, and witness to the noble Ethiopian, a man of color and great importance, who was treasurer to Queen Candace.

This Philip, one of the Twelve Apostles, who was also a great witness, it was he who brought his brother, Nathaniel, to Jesus, at the same time that Andrew brought his brother, Peter. It is that witnessing (see John 1) that the occasion and motivating power of the well-known brotherhood of Andrew and Philip, which in its present-day activities seeks to follow the example of these two in bringing others to Jesus.

Philip, the Evangelist, was one of the deacons, or seven brethren in the church, so that the twelve might give themselves entirely to the spiritual ministry. He seems, however, to have been much more than a business executive, for there are evidences of his preaching in the church, so that the twelve might give themselves entirely to the spiritual ministry. He seems, however, to have been much more than a business executive, for there are evidences of his preaching in the church, so that the twelve might give themselves entirely to the spiritual ministry.

The Ethiopian prince, for that is virtually what he was, was evidently one of the many in that ancient world, who, though non-Jewish, were drawn to Judaism by its superior morality and the beauty of its Scriptures. He was coming to Jerusalem to worship, and, as he rode in his chariot, he was reading in the prophet of Isaiah. Like many of us who read the prophecies today, he was moved by a sense of their beauty and moral power, and the magnificent sweep of their eloquence, even if he did not have a clear or adequate understanding of their meaning.

But he found an inspired interpreter in Philip, whom an inward voice had told to seek out the traveler in his chariot. Far from resenting the intrusion of one whom he might well have regarded as an interloper, the Ethiopian welcomed Philip, and invited him up into the chariot.

He was humble, too, in frankly acknowledging that he didn't understand what he was reading.

To acknowledge one's ignorance and to seek, and listen to, those who can enlighten it, is the very gateway to knowledge and understanding.

The rest of the story is well known. The Ethiopian wasn't a queen's treasurer for nothing. He was a man of character and action. To see the truth was immediately to adopt it, and to see the Christian way was at once to enter it. Why could he not be baptized forthwith?

And Philip's reply was, why not? "If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest." And that's the story of a great conversion, and of the beginning of the Ethiopian Church.

CHURCHES

My Church

BEFORE I was born MY CHURCH gave to my parents ideals of life and love that made my home a place of strength and beauty.

In helpless infancy MY CHURCH joined my parents in consecrating me to Christ and in baptizing me in His Name. MY CHURCH enriched my childhood with the Romance of Religion and the lessons of life that have been woven into the texture of my soul. Sometimes I seem to have forgotten, and then, when else I might surrender to foolish and futile ideals of life, the truths MY CHURCH taught became radiant, insistent and inescapable.

In the stress and storm of adolescence MY CHURCH heard the surge of my soul and She guided my footsteps by lifting my eyes toward the stars.

When first my heart knew the strange awakening of love, MY CHURCH taught me to chasten and spiritualize my affections. She sanctified my marriage and blessed my home.

When my heart was seamed with sorrow, and I thought the sun could never shine again, MY CHURCH drew me to the Friend of all the Weary and whispered to me the hope of another morning, eternal and fearless.

When my steps have slipped and I have known the bitterness of sin, MY CHURCH has believed in me and woefully She has called me back to live within the heights of myself.

Now have come the children dearer to me than life itself, and MY CHURCH is helping me to train them for all joyous and clean and Christly living.

MY CHURCH calls me to Her heart. She asks my service and my loyalty. She has a right to ask it! I will help Her to do for others what She has done for me. In this place in which I live, I will help Her keep aflame and aloft the torch of a living faith.

NATCHEZ

At St. Louis Peter Fanchi, assistant traffic manager of Federal Barge Lines, said the Natchez tow has a cargo of 60,000 barrels of oil. He said the boat carried a full crew of 28, most of them from New Orleans.

The Natchez left Mayaville, 40 miles below Greenville, Wednesday and was to have arrived here next Wednesday, Fanchi said. The boat was chartered by the Standard Oil Co. of Ohio for the trip.

According to the assistant traffic manager, the Natchez, named after the famous river boat of the 1870's, had recently been released from the barge lines dry dock in New Orleans where it had undergone extensive repairs. This was its second trip since its rehabilitation.

The boat, Fanchi said, was worth "at least $200,000." It was built in 1927 and was powered by a 2,000-horsepower steam engine. It was about 180 feet long. He described the place where the accident occurred as one of the most treacherous on the river. A recent rise in the water level made it even more hazardous, he said.

Texas Church Women Okay Truman Plan

DALLAS (AP)—The Texas Council of Church Women today was on record as favoring six of President Truman's ten civil rights points.

The six points were approved without a dissenting vote by 155 delegates said Mrs. Eldson, first vice-president and chairman of the council's Legislative Committee.

Mrs. Eldson presented the six points to the council in the form of resolutions.

She told a reporter that they followed a digest of recommendations by the President's Civil Rights Committee. It was this group which outlined the points that Mr. Truman has asked Congress to put into law.

Mrs. Eldson said the women endorsed these points:

- 1. To strengthen the machinery for protecting civil rights of all people and for states to set up permanent commissions on civil rights to complement a federal commission on civil rights.
- 2. The right to safety and security against lynching, police brutality, involuntary servitude and injustice in courts.
- 3. The right to everyone to citizenship and its privileges of voting and bearing arms.
- 4. The right of freedom of conscience and expression.
- 5. The right to equality of opportunity, employment, education, housing and health services.
- 6. The right to public service and accommodations.

Mrs. F. E. Shotwell, Los Angeles, Calif., representative of the United Council of Church Women, said that adopting the recommendations was a nothing less than expressing a Christian attitude. The United Council of Church Women has 10,000 members. It is one of 45 affiliated state groups.

Policeman Given 12-Cylinder Car

RIVERSIDE (AP)—Policeman Woodrow W. Bailey is the new and surprised owner of an expensive 12-cylinder automobile.

Bailey said motorist John Henry Smith signed the ownership registration slip over to him at the police station. It came about this way:

Smith and the car were involved in an accident Thursday. Bailey pulled him from the slightly-damaged car. Smith said "I'm tired of this car. This isn't the first wreck I've had in it. Do you want it?" Bailey said he dusted Smith off, wiped the blood from his face and soothed: "Take it easy. You're shaken a bit, but you'll feel better after awhile." Next day, to his astonishment, Smith made good on the gift offer.

"There's a little more to the story. The car is a 1936 model.

PALESTINE

(Continued from Page 1) The other major point in the American plan would open council-directed Big Five consultations on Palestine, including conferences with Jews and Arabs. This section had a better chance of passage, although finally inside the five big powers, should consult outside the orbit of the council and not bother trying to mediate Jewish-Arab differences at this stage.

In three weeks the boy was beating the pros, who finally appealed to experts of the Atlanta Chess Club.

They agreed to introduce the boy to the harsh realities of the chess world.

(Continued from Page 1) American Military Government, speaking by radio from Berlin, said the people of Finland have grabbed power in Czechoslovakia. Richard M. Scammon of Minneapolis, chief of the AMG's Elections and Political Parties Branch, said that proved "there can be no compromise with totalitarianism."

A reliable Austrian government source in Vienna professed to see signs of a general Communist offensive against the pointed to a recent industrial strike wave. He said Soviet occupation authorities were prompting food riots by holding back produce deliveries to the Austrian nation.

In Canada, an Ottawa government informant said border police have been ordered, by cabinet decision, to keep foreign Communists out of the country.

The five conferees have started out with the assumption that if they themselves can agree and secure a military guarantee from Washington, the other countries of Western Europe will join in.

"Passage of these bills will destroy the Southern wing of the great political party that the South has followed for more than 80 consecutive years," he said.

"I believe that their passage would open the flood gates and lead to conditions that will destroy the Republican Party, or at least that part of it that stands for sound constitutional government."

Market Briefs

WALL STREET
NEW YORK, March 4.—(AP)—The stock market today suffered its first average retreat in a week.

After a week of gains, however, was that scattered special issues made a fair amount of progress and pressure was maintained. Turnover for the proceedings of around 600,000 shares was among the smallest 5-hour totals for the past 10 months.

A few old, propped by earnings and talk of a boom in crude prices, failed to follow through. Quotations advanced here and there at the last. While advances of fractions to a point or so persisted, closing losses of as much as 10 points predominated.

Better performers included United Cereals, extending its gains to 1 1/2 points and preferred, Texas Pacific Coal and Oil, Lion Oil (at a year's high) and Allied Chemical.

Commonwealth & Southern started on a 12-share decline, unchanged at 2 1/2. Backward movement of the day was Santa Fe, Southern Railway, Southern Railway, Southern Railway, Consolidated Natural Gas, Union Pacific, Eastman Kodak, U. S. Gypsum (at a high), and American Woolen.

Brokerage customers did nothing to counteract the downward bias. Slight doubts regarding business, taxes, wages and continuing international situation, plus a technical bidding still came from professionals who felt that the list had a good chance of extending its technical reaction of the lengthy February decline.

Bonds were spotty.
