Lebanon Says Arabs Are Aiding Rebels

By BRUCE W. MUNN
United Press International
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI)—Violence-torn Lebanon insisted over Western and Arab league objections on pressing charges today that the United Arab Republic is stirring up and aiding Lebanese rebels.

Only Arab League action could prevent the showdown in the Security Council this afternoon.

Lebanese Foreign Minister Charles Malik, who flew here this week from Beirut, was armed with tape-recorded and photographic evidence that the UAR was intervening in the Lebanese revolt.

A foreign ministry source in Beirut said Malik would press the complaint unless the Arab League, also considering the charges, had announced a decision in Benghazi, Libya, before the Security Council convened.

Arab diplomats sought to forestall a public airing of intra-Arab problems. Western nations also were reluctant to be forced to take sides.

But continued violence in Lebanon determined Malik's course of action. There was heavy fighting in the principal cities of Beirut and Tripoli Wednesday.

The 11-nation Security Council got off one hot spot Wednesday night, at least temporarily, by agreeing to France's proposal for a two-week postponement of debate on counter-complaints filed by France and Tunisia.

French Ambassador Guillaume Georges-Picot referred to the exchange of friendly messages between French Premier Charles de Gaulle and Tunisian President Habib Bourguiba this week.

He said France wanted a chance to settle its troubles with Tunisia by "direct negotiations."

Texas Farm Prices Show Slight Rise

AUSTIN (UPI)—The index of prices received by Texas farmers and ranchers for all farm products showed a slight rise for the month ending May 15, the U.S. Department of Agriculture said today.

The index rose to 277 per cent of the 1910-1914 base. This compared with 276 per cent for the previous month and 268 for the same period last year.

The all-crop index was unchanged from a month earlier, but off about 10 per cent from last year. The commercial vegetable index was one-third below the April figure and nearly a fourth down from the mid-May, 1957, mark, the USDA said.

A slight increase from mid-April brought the all-livestock and livestock products index to 334 per cent of the 1910-1914 base, about 18 per cent ahead of last year.

Roping Club Contests Saturday

The Pampa Roping Club will hold its roping, reining and halting contests beginning at 1 p.m. Saturday in Recreation Park. Public admission will be $1 at the park.

The first event, the Halter Quarter Horse Contest, will offer trophies to the first placers in five categories, mare, stallion, gelding, producer dams and get of sires.

Reining Class competition will yield a trophy to the grand champion. The $10 entrance fee for this event will go into the purse. There are three of 50, 30 and 20 per cent.

The Club asks participants to have their horses at the Recreation Park by 11 a.m. Judging will begin promptly at 1 p.m. Saturday.

Events will resume Sunday at 2 p.m. with a matched roping contest between Eldon Dudley of Perryton and Lee Cockrell, Pampa. Each will rope 10 calves in anticipation of the $25 jackpot.

An open cutting contest will follow with the entry fee going into the purse. A buckle will be the open cutting trophy.

If it comes from a hardware store, we have it, Lewis Hardware.

De Gaulle Gets Loud Greeting

CONSTANTINE, Algeria (UPI)—Gen. Charles de Gaulle carried his French-Moslem peace campaign into the heart of rebel-infested Eastern Algeria today and was greeted by a happy, shouting crowd of 50,000 persons.

The crowd more than half of them Moslem Arabs to whom he had offered full voting equality Wednesday night, gave the general a welcome almost as clamorous as the one he received in Algiers when he flew in from Paris to assert his authority over French dissidents.

They cheered his DC3 plane when it landed at the military Oued Hammine Airfield and they kept cheering all along the 10-mile route into this ancient mountain-top city, scene of recent rebel bombings.

Wednesday there were ceremonial troops. Today there were red-beretted paratroopers and foreign legionnaires who faced outwards from the roadway always alert to the rebel dangers in the region.

Traveled With Escort
Instead of the limousines and convertibles which escorted De Gaulle and his party at Algiers Wednesday the general traveled with an escort of heavy armored cars.

De Gaulle's swing through Eastern Algeria to the cities of Constantine and Bone followed a day of triumph in Algiers when he announced that Moslems would have equal rights with all other Frenchmen in voting on constitutional reforms.

De Gaulle did not win over the hard-bitten right-wing Colonialists who hate the Moslems and want to win the war on their own terms.

But his gesture delighted the

Four Dead As Truck Jackknifes

ATLANTA (UPI)—A jackknifed tractor-trailer truck swept across a congested four-lane bridge like a giant scythe near here Wednesday, piling up wreckage that resulted in death of four persons.

The big rig crushed a station wagon occupied by a Chattanooga, Tenn., couple and their two daughters. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Talley, were killed and the girls critically injured.

The truck caught fire as it came to rest in the middle of the bridge and both occupants were burned beyond recognition. They later were identified as Charlie Burnett, 37, Signal Mountain, Tenn., and L. W. Hughes, Chattanooga.

Authorities said Mrs. Talley was killed instantly. Her husband died five hours later in a hospital at Marietta, Ga., 18 miles away. The daughters, Dorothy Virginia, 19, and Mary, 9, were reported on the critical list at the same hospital.

Two other cars were damaged in the grinding wreck. Six other persons were injured but all were released after receiving first aid at the Marietta hospital.

The crash occurred nearer to Atlanta than to Marietta but wreckage blocked the bridge and ambulances had to take the dead and injured to Marietta.

Grasshoppers Swarm Threatens Crops

By United Press International
Several billion grasshoppers swarming through four southwestern states today threatened to cause millions of dollars of crop damage.

Kansas Gov. George Docking asked Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson Wednesday to declare portions of Western Kansas an emergency disaster area.

Agriculture officials said one of the greatest grasshopper infestations in Texas panhandle history looms as 500 to 800 'hoppers roam

Senate, House In Joint Session

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Senate and House met in joint session today to hear an address by 74-year-old President Theodor Heuss of West Germany, first German head of state ever to visit this country.

The German leader arrived Wednesday for three days of talks before departing on a nation-wide tour. He was greeted at the airport by President Eisenhower who gave a state dinner in his honor Wednesday night.

Heuss' address to Congress was expected to skip over many areas of world controversy since his role under the West German constitution is removed from politics.

The House was scheduled to vote today on a bill to continue present corporation income and excise taxes for another year.

The bill came up for approval under a gag-rule ruling out all

Pittsburgh Plant Of GM Is Hit By Strike

DETROIT (UPI)—Workers at the Fisher Body Division stamping plant of General Motors in Pittsburgh struck Wednesday night in the first labor trouble since contracts between the "Big Three" auto makers and the United Auto Workers expired last weekend.

A company spokesman said the strike, affecting 2,400 workers, was called by local officials in Pittsburgh and no reason was given for the action.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther had instructed members of his union to work without a contract when the three-year pact ran out at General Motors last Thursday and similar contracts expired at Ford and Chrysler Sunday.

The strike at Pittsburgh came after a half-million auto workers at "Big Three" plants had worked their third day without a union contract.

Shortly before the strike, the UAW reported its members were supporting the union's determination to work without a contract until the companies agree to better unemployment benefits, pensions and job security protection.

every square yard of fields and pastures.

They said four or five grasshoppers per square yard can devour as much grass as cattle can eat during normal grazing.

Hordes of 'hoppers were also reported spreading through Colorado and Oklahoma.

So far, the grasshoppers are small enough so they can be controlled by spraying around fields. But, Kansas farmers are hoping their crops, especially wheat, ripen rapidly so harvest, three weeks away, will be over before

Air Force Readies Its Thor IRBM

CAMP CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI)—Firing of an intermediate range Thor from a launcher of the type to be used by field units brought the Air Force closer today to having the missile ready at overseas bases by the end of the year.

Elmer P. Wheaton, chief missile engineer for the Douglas firm which builds the Thor, called Wednesday's firing "another major step in the rapid development of weapons systems."

The 65-foot Thor blasted off at 5:17 p.m. E.D.T. It made a steep climb into the blue sky, its 150,000-pound thrust rocket engine trailing a compact teardrop of flame and shaking the launching site with its thunder.

The missile sped out of view high in the sky after some three minutes of apparently trouble-free flight. The Air Force did not say how far the missile traveled before falling into the ocean, but it was believed that distance was not a major objective of the test flight.

Highways Are Being Sprayed

AUSTIN (UPI)—Agriculture Commissioner John White said today some 3,500 miles of highway right-of-way in the Panhandle are being sprayed in a grasshopper control program.

White said eight jeeps manned by State Department of Agriculture crews are working two shifts daily in a seven-county Panhandle area to prevent a major grasshopper outbreak.

The control program, financed by local, state and federal governments, was estimated to cost $12,600.

White said poisoning along highway right-of-way builds up a barrier similar to a "fire break" against grasshoppers crossing the road.

"The small hoppers seem reluctant to cross highways," White pointed out. "They prefer to stay in the grassy areas near the hatching grounds. The larger migratory hoppers travel farther but the highways and field end rows are favorite areas for depositing eggs. Insecticides used in the program have a lasting effect that often carries over into the next year."

officials are urging use of large-scale aerial spraying under a program in which the government pays one-third of the cost.

Worst Texas infestations are in Dallas and Hartley counties, on the northern rim of the Panhandle.

D. H. Russell, entomologist with the plant pest control branch of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, Amarillo, Tex., said Texas wheat won't be harmed by the grasshoppers because the crop is nearly mature and too tough for the tiny insects.

Destruction Path Is 40 Miles Wide

By JAMES TRAINOR
United Press International
MEMONONIE, Wis. (UPI)—Tornadoes cut a 40-mile wide swath through the peaceful dairy country of northwestern Wisconsin Wednesday night, killing at least 25 persons and injuring more than 100.

Hospitals in four cities were filled to overflowing with casualties and emergency first-aid stations were set up in armories and school gymnasiums. Sixteen persons hovered between life and death.

"It was like a battlefield," said Dr. G. J. Neumann, a dentist at Colfax, hardest-hit community in the area.

"I was in World War II and I've seen a lot of people die, but when you see your own townspeople killed it's something different."

Neumann said he was waiting for a patient in his office when the killer tornado struck.

Plank Through Man
"Trees, big ones, mind you, not saplings, snapped like matchsticks. Several large homes shot through the air like dolls' houses and landed two, three blocks from their foundation."

He said he ran into the street and "saw a man lying with a two-by-two wooden plank driven through his chest. He was dead. I ran toward two other persons. They were dead, too."

One third of the homes were leveled in Colfax and at least 13 persons were killed. Automobiles were twisted into grotesque shapes. Hundreds of trees and fallen telephone poles meshed and formed macabre arches through the stricken area. Roads were littered with debris, pieces of metal, boards, and five bodies were found together, "horribly mangled."

A United Press International count showed that at least 25 persons were killed. Reports of several more deaths could not be immediately verified.

Starting in late afternoon, the tornadoes struck hard in a two-state area. A twister damaged homes near St. Cloud, Minn., then clubbed an estimated 25 farms in the Albany, Minn., area. Several injuries were reported.

Smashes On East
Crossing into Wisconsin, the violent storm pattern hit with deadly force. One man was killed in Wisconsin and there were reports of heavy injuries. Pursuing a zig-zag pattern, the tornado generally followed U.S. 12 into Menomonie, then skipped northeast into Colfax where it unleashed its full fury. On some farms, not a stick was left standing.

It was discovered early today that the twister had continued into neighboring Clark County and killed a 30-year-old woman at Thorp. Cutting a two-mile path of destruction, it tore down all communications and made it impossible to reach the area. (See TORNADOES, Page 2)

Worst Tornado Killed 689

By United Press International
The worst tornado to hit the United States swept through Missouri, Illinois and Indiana on March 18, 1925 and killed 689 persons.

Other major U.S. tornadoes included: 420 killed—in Alabama, Georgia, North Carolina and South Carolina on Feb. 19 1884.

306 killed—St. Louis, May 27, 1896.

268 killed—in Alabama on March 21, 1932.

216 killed—Tupelo, Miss., on April 5, 1936.

Tornado disasters in recent years have included a series in late May, 1955 which killed 121 persons in Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and Missouri; 39 killed in Kansas City, Mo., on May 20 1955 and 14 killed in Fremont, Mo., on May 21, 1957.

Cuban Troops Lose 100 In All-Out Drive

By FRANCIS L. MCCARTHY
United Press International
HAVANA (UPI)—Loyal troops driving into the Maestra mountains are probing for soft spots in rebel lines in the biggest military operation Latin America has seen in 60 years, it was reported today.

Reports from the combat zone said about 100 soldiers have been killed or wounded in the first five days of an attack designed to drive the rebels into the sea. The insurgents, fighting from strong defensive positions, are believed to have suffered fewer casualties.

Reliable dispatches said "saturation bombing" by loyal air units has had little effect on the rebels, who are protected by well-dug trenches or in some cases by caves.

A government force estimated between 8,000 and 11,000 men is attacking the rebels—said to number anywhere from 2,000 to 5,000—on a 125-mile front curving around from Manzanillo to the outskirts of Santiago.

While ground troops, backed up by tanks and artillery, seek to force the rebels back toward the sea, reinforced naval patrols have taken position off the south coast to block their escape by sea.

"There are no ifs, buts or maybes about this drive," an informant said "this is the real thing."

Responsible quarters said the number of troops in the government "task force" make the attack the biggest military operation mounted anywhere in Latin America since the Spanish-American war of 1898.

The army has made no official announcement on the attack, and Cuba's tightly-censored newspapers have not mentioned it.

In Havana Wednesday, police announced the arrest of 15 persons on charges of "subversive activities." The raiders who arrested the men also seized a home-made cannon, five rifles, a machine gun, eight hand grenades five bombs and a supply of dynamite, the announcement said.

DeMolay Chapter Sets Installation

The Top O' Texas DeMolay chapter will install its officers for the year Saturday night in the 998 Masonic Lodge Hall.

Jimmie Crouch will be installed as master counselor, Gary Dalton as senior counselor, Terry Neumeyer as junior counselor, and David Parker as scribe.

The Borger DeMolay chapter will be in charge of installation.

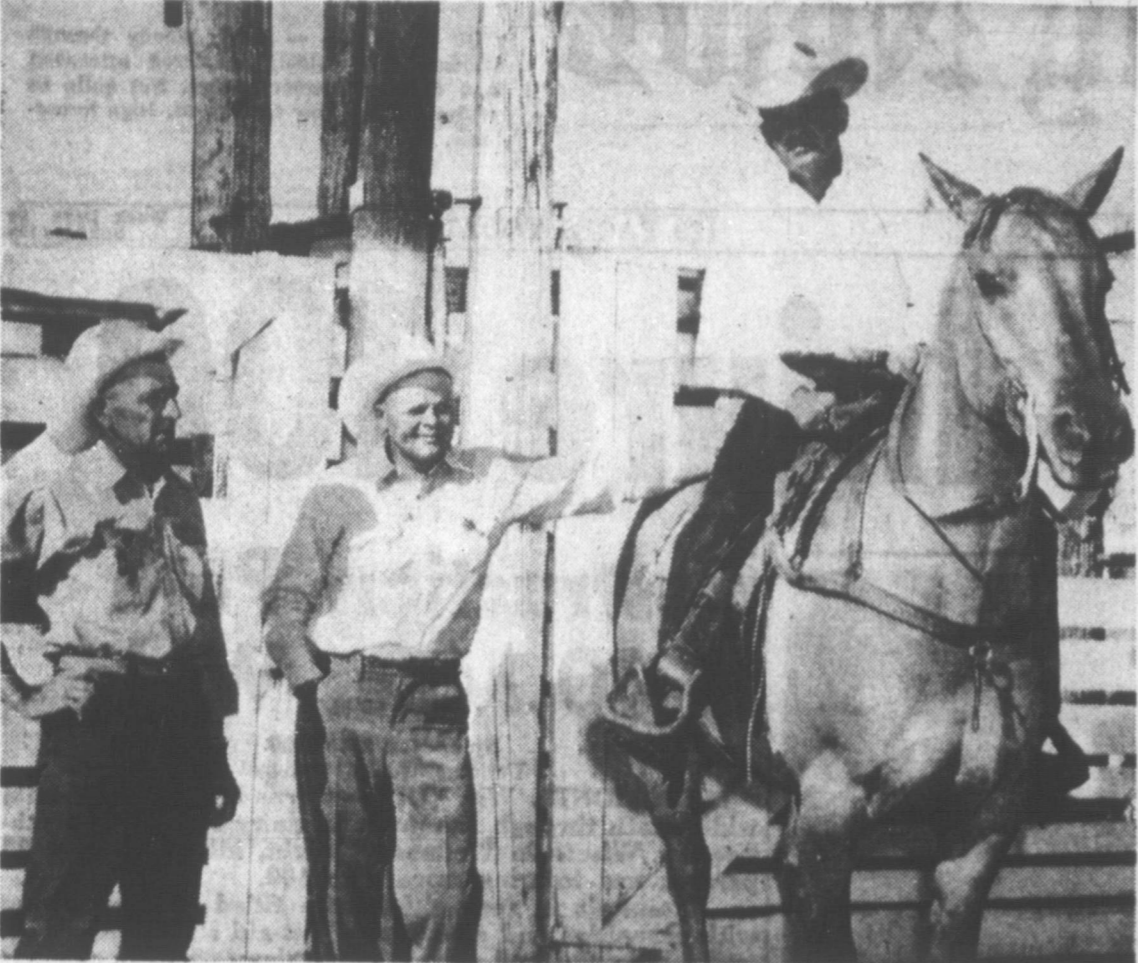

All DeMolays and their parents and friends are invited to be present. The DeMolay Mothers Circle will serve refreshments. All Rain-bow Girls are especially invited to attend, according to chapter representatives.

Car Overturns; Trailer OK

Paul Edward Gallia, 911 E. Browning, was probably wondering "what happen" last night.

Gallia, driving a 1955 Ford, was pulling a trailer about one-half mile east of Shellytown of Highway 152. He thought something was wrong with his trailer and pulled off the highway onto a soft shoulder of the road. He then got out of the car to look at the trailer and when he did his car promptly rolled off the shoulder into a culvert, turned over and smashed the top of it in. The trailer, meanwhile, had become unhitched and stayed up on the shoulder. Damage to the car totaled about $700.

Gallia? Oh yes, some how during all the confusion he cut his finger.

Burial will be in the Shamrock Cemetery.

Amarillo Man Elected To Head State Bar

AUSTIN (UPI)—Former State Supreme Court Justice A. J. Foley of Amarillo has been elected president-elect of the State Bar of Texas in mail balloting, it was announced today.

State bar headquarters said Foley will take office in July, 1959, but will become a State Bar director next month to spend a year familiarizing himself with the duties of president.

Dallas attorney Paul Carrington, a member of the State Bar Board of Directors, was elected vice-president, and will assume office at the close of the bar's annual meeting July 2-5 in San Antonio, along with new Bar President Leo Brewster of Fort Worth.

Bar Executive Director Bill Pool announced Foley, who retired from the State Supreme Court in 1949, defeated Midland attorney Frank D. Stubbeman, former chairman of the State Bar Board, and Carrington won over Charles W. Duke of San Antonio, a former board member.

Seven new directors also were elected by the 12,250-member organization.

Critic To Point He Believes Anything On Television

By WILLIAM EWALD
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—"The Investigator," a one-hour series that bowed in Tuesday night on NBC-TV, was kind of unbelievable.

No, I take that back. I believe it. Starting right now, I believe anything you see on TV. I tell you, if they built a color spectacular around corn plaster commercials, I'd believe it.

The thing is, "The Investigator" wasn't a terribly bad show. It was a bad show, yes, but not a terribly bad one. Given some talented writing, capable acting and slick production, it could become a mediocre show.

But the point is, who needs another mediocre show? Why bother to pour brains and money—no, I take part of that back—why bother to pour money into a show that doesn't add to the luster of TV?

In a way, the initial episode of "The Investigator," a detective type show, reminded me very much of the old "Kraft Theatre" before its new production team took over a couple of months ago. Its actors were grouped stiffly, its explosion was clumsy and its script contained boy-to-girl lines like: "I promise to be back and you and I will ring bells together" and "There's been a murder! Your name may crop up any minute."

And as used to happen on Kraft, some capable performers—Lonny Chapman, Howard St. John, Gene Lyons—got mixed up in the mess and looked bad through no fault of their own. After all, who has time to act when he's sinking in quicksand?

I will spare you the specifics of the plot, not through any charity on my part, but because I find I've forgotten them. It was one of those stories that was almost as complicated as a wall can opener and involved goodies like blackmail, a false will, two fights, a complex business deal, and a murder in living color.

It also packed one of those memorable scenes in which the killer shoots through a window at the hero as he sits dozing out the case with his father.

Come on, fellas, you can do better than that. I personally like the bit better in which a witness says: "The name of the killer was—Aaahh!"—and he pitches forward, shivving through the back. Oh well, maybe you can use that one next week.

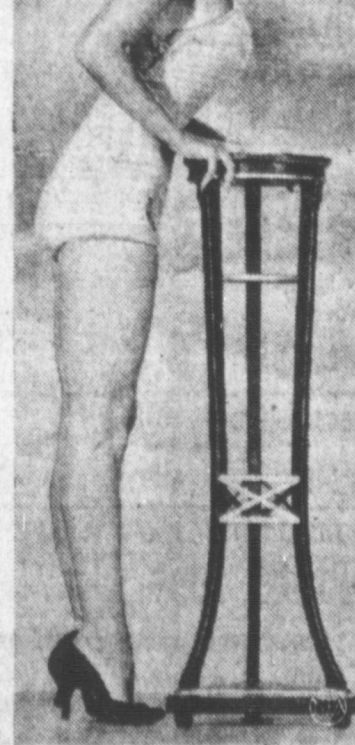

Thursday's TV Highlights: "Kraft Theatre" (NBC-TV) — "Last of the Belles" with Jody McCrea and Ann Williams. From an F. Scott Fitzgerald story about a young World War I officer who falls in love with a Southern belle.

"Sing Along" (CBS-TV)—Making its debut tonight with Jim "Green Door" Love as emcee. Tina Robin and Somethin' Smith and the Redheads also will be on hand. Viewers get a chance to sing along as lyrics are flashed on the screen. Also contains a win-at-home gimmick.

"U.S. Steel Hour" (CBS-TV) — "A Family Alliance" from a story by Dorothy Canfield Fisher. Florence Henderson and Bill Hayes star. City boy meets farm girl and what happens as a result.

Thursday afternoon: "Malinee Theater" (NBC-TV)—"The Road to Recovery" from a story by Budd Schulberg. Drama at a dude ranch.

The Channel Swim: Arthur Godfrey's "Talent Scouts" is in trouble. For a while, CBS-TV was considering a shift of the Monday night show to Wednesday night, but Tuesday, conferees in the upper regions of CBS-TV were talking about knocking it off entirely.

Bing Crosby, who signed Tuesday for two specs on ABC-TV, will have to wait until late fall to do the first one — Der Bingle has a contract with CBS Radio until September for the "Ford Road Show."

Gloria Vanderbilt and Robert Culp, star of CBS-TV's "Trackdown," are ticketed in for a CBS-TV "U.S. Steel Hour" drama on June 16. Doug Edwards is beaming over his CBS radio show "Answer Please"—it's currently pulling 5,000 letters a week.

Court Backs Man In Bus Dispute

MADISON, Wis. (UPI) — Norman Gandt's drive-it-yourself school bus has won the support of the State Supreme Court.

The court has ruled that the Oconto Falls, Wis., farmer was within his rights in charging the local school board $165 in fares for taking his three children to school himself.

Gandt got his dander up three years ago when the school board said he didn't live far enough away from the school to rate bus service.

Gandt's homestead was exactly 11 feet short of the necessary two-mile limit.

First round went to the school board.

Gandt took the rest by: —Driving his children to school himself.

Rerouting his driveway "into a horseshoe like I'd always wanted," which also put his front door beyond the two-mile limit, and —Taking the case to court.

"Wonderful," said Gandt when the court ruled in his favor.

Automobile Accident Rules Should Be Memorized

Vacation time is near. Soon millions of people will be driving about the country, and automobile accidents will occur with increasing frequency. What should a person do when involved in an accident?

At such times it is hard to keep your wits about you and know just what to do. It is therefore a good idea to plan in advance just what you would do in event of a smash-up. Here are a few simple rules that every driver should commit to memory:

1. STOP! Failure to stop can result in serious criminal consequences.
2. RENDER AID. If anyone is injured: (1) Render first aid. (2) Stop bleeding. (3) Call a doctor or an ambulance or both. (4) Do not move an injured person in any way that could possibly add to his injury.
3. PROTECT SCENE from further damage. You may be liable for damages to approaching drivers, unless they are properly warned. If the highway is obstructed at night, have someone turn his headlights beams on the wrecked vehicles.
4. CALL AN OFFICER. Police, Highway Patrolmen, Sheriffs and their deputies are trained accident investigators whose testimony may be invaluable in establishing your civil claim for damages.
5. GATHER INFORMATION. Write it Down. Don't trust your memory. Don't guess — be specific. Measure skid marks. Step off distances. Be sure to obtain names and addresses of witnesses. You are required by law to exhibit your driver's license to the other driver — and he must do the same.
6. BE CAREFUL What You Say. Even if you feel you probably are to blame, it is best to make no admission. You may learn later that the other driver was equally at fault, or more so. Emotional comments can be misconstrued by others, or may be misquoted.

THIS IS ALASKA—More than twice the size of Texas, Alaska became the property of the United States in 1867, when it was purchased from Russia for $7,200,000. Discovery of gold on Bonanza Creek on the Klondike River in northwest Canada, at the turn of the century, sent over 100,000 Americans streaming into the area. Many of these spread over Alaska and established widely separated settlements. Most of Alaska's vast forests are national forest preserves comprising 21 million acres. Mt. McKinley, highest peak in North America, rises to a majestic 20,300 feet. Mining, fishing and forest products are its principal industries. Gold is still mined in quantity. North America's only tin mines are in Alaska. There is considerable mining of coal, copper, silver, platinum and other minerals. Canning and freezing of fish products (salmon, herring, halibut and shellfish) is a big industry. Of its estimated 160,000 population (exclusive of military personnel), some 7,000 live in Juneau, the capital. Anchorage, with 30,000 inhabitants, is its largest city.

Whatever you say, make it factual.

7. SEE YOUR DOCTOR if there is the slightest chance you may be injured. Serious injuries do not always result in immediate pain or bloodshed.
8. CONSULT YOUR Lawyer immediately. The sooner your lawyer is brought into the matter, the better he can advise you and protect your rights. He can obtain statements from the witnesses while their memories are fresh, and do many other things to insure that the true facts are preserved. Get your lawyer's advice before giving any interviews or statements to investigators or adjustors for the other side.

9. INFORM YOUR INSURANCE Company promptly. Failure to do so may void your policy.
10. REPORT THE ACCIDENT to the Department of Public Safety. This is required by law if there is any injury, death, or total damages exceed $25.00.

An official accident report form may be procured from the Police, Sheriff's Dept., Highway Patrol, or State Dept. of Public Safety. (This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law with-

Wasp Stings Are Fatal To Houston Woman

HOUSTON (UPI)—Mrs. Syble Freeman, 53, was stung to death by wasps shortly before 10 a. m. today at her home on Houston's east side.

Ambulance driver Paul Darden said he received an emergency call to go to Mrs. Freeman's home, and that when he arrived she was lying in the yard, her face badly swollen from the stings.

"She was still breathing when I reached the house," Darden said, "but she was dead before we could reach the hospital."

Don't 'Dig' Teen Talk!

LONDON (UPI)—Man, if you think you can't dig American teen-agers' "cool" talk, don't get shook—things are worse here.

Elders have gotten so out of touch with juvenile jargon in Britain that the Rev. P. M. Berry, chaplain at the Isle of Wight's reform school, has just published a glossary for the guidance of judges handling youthful offenders.

If you heard of a bacon bounce pulling a chiv out of his strides you'd need the Rev. Mr. Berry's little book too.

Translated it means that a yokel (bacon bounce) pulled a knife (chiv) out of his pants (strides).

In reform school circles, a baron is a man who lends anything from candy to money at exorbitant interest rates. A runner is a baron's debt collector.

Cops are bluebottles, candy is known as bullets and matches become twigs.

Other terms:

Bevy: Liquor.

Gate fever: The restless moodiness afflicting those nearing the end of their term in jail.

Joe: A weak, put-upon person.

Plate of beef: Warden.

Maggies: Prison matrons.

Screw: Prison warden (the head officer is known as the screw-driver).

Teagardens: Cells.

COVER UP—Egyptian authorities have ordered "operation cover up" for the country's famed belly dancers. Soraya Salem, one of Cairo's favorites, models the costume she used to wear, right, in her free-wheeling performance. But following the decree from the official Fine Arts Department ordering the curtain dropped, Soraya will shake only in the gown at left.

The minister defended the juvenile jargon jungle.

"These expressions represent, I think, a remarkable economy of words which carry with them a wealth of meaning," he said.

DE GAULLE SUPPORTERS—Three hill tribesmen from eastern Algeria rest their mounts before riding into the small village of Lamartine for a demonstration in favor of the Gaullist "committee of public safety," now ruling the troubled French possession. Eastern Algeria, formerly under "rebel" control, has been the scene of a number of Arab demonstrations approving the action of French army leaders in assuming control.

Balance Of Power Not Sure Peace

DALLAS (UPI)—There is no hope "to keep peace in the world by a balance of power between governments," a John Hopkins University chemistry professor told the 49th annual Rotary International convention Wednesday.

Dr. Donald H. Andrews said "Our one hope is to control physical power by a higher kind of force—a more powerful force of the human spirit."

Andrews told more than 13,000 delegates to the convention, which concludes today, a "golden future" lies in atomic and automation controlled by the "human spirit."

He said the atom and automation can provide "untold wealth for everyone on earth" if kept in check through proper human control.

Andrews said it is "clear that we have passed the point where we can hope to keep" peace by balance of power.

Bureau Head In Address

LONDON (UPI)—J. H. West, president of the Texas Farm Bureau, told delegates to the International Cotton Advisory Committee today that international promotion of cotton can open up vast new markets and uses for the fiber.

Thirty-two nations representing at least 84 per cent of all the cotton produced and some 87 per cent of all cotton consumed are attending the meeting. West addressed a luncheon meeting of the committee today.

West told the delegates that the cotton promotional work being done in many nations is shaping the pattern which will develop a tremendous potential for cotton.

The Texan pointed out that populations everywhere are increasing and that standards of living and consumer spending are generally moving upward.

Wider textile markets are a part of this picture, he said.

The London meeting was called at the request of cotton-importing nations to discuss cotton problems.

Record Just Isn't Enviably

ROANOKE, Va. (UPI)—Richard M. Cornell probably set some kind of record Wednesday. But he isn't likely to go around bragging about it.

Cornell was flying from his home at Charleston, W. Va., to Roanoke when he lost his bearings. He rammed the local field, and in a 45-minute talking operation tower operator Paul Eubank directed him to an airport nearby Clifton Forge, Va.

Cornell landed to refuel, but didn't notify Eubank, who grew concerned.

Finally the pilot came on the air again. He had taken off from Clifton Forge — and was lost again.

Eubank did some more talking and finally got the wandering pilot to Roanoke field here.

"He was all shook up," the tower operator said. "And so am I."

Elisha Gray invented the telegraph. He also is remembered because he just missed getting a patent on the telephone by filing in the Patent Office a few hours too late.

Jack Webb Balked At Having Elephant In Animal Show

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Vernon Scott is on vacation. Television's Jack Webb takes type-writer in hand to reveal his problems in producing an animal program.)

By JACK WEBB
Written For
United Press International

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—I felt like the Demille of the animal kingdom while making the color TV series "Noah's Ark." My thinking always was that an animal show ought to have animals.

As a result, we had more than 50 in Noah's Ark. This doesn't include birds, of which there were more than a dozen. Our cast included everything from a snarling dog to a race horse with a vitamin deficiency. Among the species represented were ostrich, seal, rabbit, sheep, kangaroo, squirrel, deer, cow, lion, cat, dog and even buzzy, a monkey.

But one thing I drew the line at was having an elephant on the set. I'd open a circus.

Actually, all the animal actors in the series had important parts in the series in which they appeared. For instance, the story of Flipper and Flapper, a pair of seals, revolves around the emotional problems of Flipper and how the two veterinarians starred in the series resolve the psychopathic seal's dilemma.

There are always three chief problems when you take on animals as actors: casting, direction and handling the animal on the set. The latter worry was the least of the three for us. We always had an authorized veterinarian on the set, who served both as technical adviser and guardian of the safety and welfare of the animal.

Casting was a special concern. A lot of dogs look alike, for example, so finding the right one for the story specifications is an exacting chore.

As for direction, this no one can sweat out for the director but himself. All the animals have their trainer, it's true, but each script presented certain tricks which in most cases were new to the animal and had to be taught fresh. Mr. Troubles, a clever dog trained by Tex Chambers, knows 100 different tricks, but he had to learn how to dial a telephone for one of our stories. This Mr. Troubles had to learn, not to the satisfaction of his trainer, but to that of the director of the program.

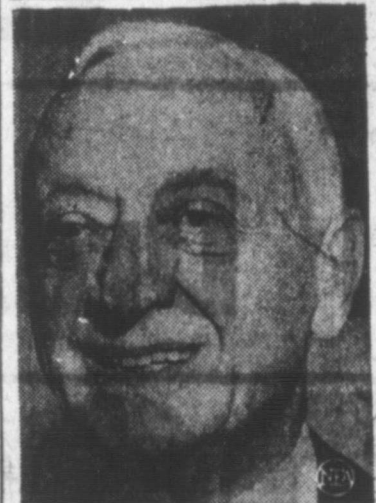

It's one thing to ask an actor to dial the phone, and quite another to ask a dog to do it.

May Rain Below Normal

AUSTIN (UPI)—Rainfall was below normal over most of Texas during May despite the fact violent weather was reported on 15 days of the month, the U.S. Weather Bureau said.

Three weather stations — Midland, Waco and Wichita Falls—had above-normal rainfall during May.

But for the third consecutive month, below-normal rainfall was reported from weather stations at Brownsville, Corpus Christi, Laredo, San Antonio, Victoria, Houston, Galveston and Port Arthur-Beaumont.

CALLED—Cyrus Eaton, above, Cleveland industrialist, has been ordered to appear before the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Richard Arena, the committee's staff director, revealed in New York, that a subpoena had been issued for the 74-year-old multi-millionaire to appear "at an appropriate time." Eaton presumably will be questioned about his charges that the FBI and other government agencies are using Gestapo tactics in trying to check communism. Eaton said he'd be "delighted" to appear.

Over-All Judgement Left To Pilot

AUSTIN (UPI)—A top-ranking missile engineer told delegates to a University of Texas engineering conference Wednesday that while automatic devices in aircraft react better than pilots in some cases "matters of over-all judgment" still lie with the pilot.

Louis B. Wadel, supervisor of Chance Vought's missile system evaluation group, told the 400 engineers "automatic devices in high-performance aircraft can relieve the pilot of tedious mental duties."

But, he added, "properly reserved for the pilot are matters of over-all judgment."

Back Stairs At The White House

By DAYTON MOORE
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Back stairs at the White House: President Eisenhower's decision to make more use of helicopters for short trips has raised new problems for White House newsmen. Their goal is to stay as close as possible to the President. But, with the exception of practice alert evacuations, White House reporters have gone ahead or behind by auto when the President has flown in a helicopter.

Wednesday, however, a new system was tried. White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty arranged for a small number of newsmen, representing all news media on a pool basis, to go along with Secret Service agents in an escort helicopter for the President's trip to Annapolis, Md. This could develop into a regular procedure.

Tentative plans call for including two or three British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan when they go to Baltimore next week. Macmillan, who will be a White House guest in the early part of the week, will make the commencement address at Johns Hopkins University Tuesday. Eisenhower will introduce him at the ceremony.

"See! I told you the sidewalk was hot enough to fry eggs on!"

If the President's and the First Lady's cook shopped at the Gettysburg, Pa., farmers' market last weekend, she found some items rare in Washington groceries. Poke, a green similar to spinach, was 10 cents a quart box; mush, 25 cents a pan; homemade soap, 5 cents a bar.

Unless they are having house guests at their farm home, the Eisenhowers take only two domestic servants to Gettysburg for weekends. They are John Mooney, the Negro valet and all-round personal handyman who has been with Eisenhower for years, and his wife Dolores. When there are house guests, Navy stewards assigned to the White House also are taken along.

Porterhouse Steak Escorted By Kabobs Makes Majestic Menu On Father's Day

STEAK WITH A PURPOSE—This particular meal has been planned with a definite purpose. Being Father's Day, his majesty ordered a menu fit for a king . . . porterhouse steak and bacon-tomato-mushrooms garnishes head the list of menu musts for this special day.

FATHER'S DAY MENU

- Porterhouse Steak
- Bacon-Tomato-Mushroom Kabobs
- Au Gratin Potatoes
- Baby Lima Beans
- Garden Salad
- Hard Rolls
- Butter or Margarine
- Rhubarb Shortcake
- Coffee

For all intent and purpose, the king of most households, Dad, will leisurely while away the hours on June 15th, Father's Day . . .

...pursuing his favorite hobby, or doing just nothing. What's the rest of the family's plans? It's to prepare a meal fit for royalty, and on June 15th, Dad is king. No need to do much deep thinking concerning the menu . . . the choice is easy . . . a tender, juicy porterhouse steak smartly escorted to the table by miniature "bacon-tomato-mushroom kabobs. Need more be said? Of course, it's always wise to accompany the main meat course with a few colorful and appetizing side dishes . . . au gratin potatoes, lima beans, fresh crisp garden salad, and for a magnificent dessert, the menu reads rhubarb shortcake.

Back to the steak however. Since you want this meat cut to be prepared nothing short of perfect, broiling know-how must be employed.

In preparing this princely porterhouse steak, first purchase one that is cut about 1 to 2 inches thick. When you're ready to start the meal, plan the time so that Dad may have to wait a few minutes for the steak . . . never leave the steak waiting for the family.

BROILING A STEAK

Set the regulator of the range for broiling. Place steak on broiler rack. Insert broiler pan and rack so the top surface of a 1-inch steak is 2 to 3 inches from the heat, and a 2-inch steak is 3 to 5 inches from the heat. When one side is browned, season, turn and finish cooking on the second side. Season.

Steaks cut 1 inch thick require 15 to 20 minutes for rare steak and 20 to 25 minutes for medium-done steak. Steaks cut 2 inches thick require 30 to 35 minutes for rare steak and 35 to 45 minutes for medium-done steak.

The bacon-tomato-mushroom kabobs can be broiled right with the steak during the last few minutes of broiling them. It seems as if a meal is always a success when those extra few touches are added and these miniature kabobs are so easily made that they're almost a must when serving this broiled porterhouse steak.

MINIATURE KABOBS

Tomatoes and French-fried onions always seem to go well with a steak dinner. In using tomatoes this time, the color, flavor and appearance all seem to complement the meat cut nicely.

'Key' To Picnic Pleasure

A can opener by any other name would be "key". And a key it is—a miracle of picnic pleasure—the canned soft drink.

Undoubtedly the most versatile companion for picnic fun, the canned soft drink can go anywhere without coming back—it's in a one way container your "key" can unlock on a sunny beach, a mountain top, or a shipboard cruise.

This convenient flat-top can of beverage stores like a charm in ice chests or campers, cools in a wink, and makes a neat, easily disposable throw-away when the day is done.

So pack up the hot dogs, burgers, pickles, potato chips and any of dozens of other traditional favorites—with a good selection of canned soft drinks (approximately 100 brands or flavors are now available in cans)—and have a happy picnic. P. S.—Don't forget your "key!"

Spread Perks Up Plain Sandwiches

Here's an exciting way to perk up slow-moving summer appetites!

For an easy-do picnic meal featuring simple meat and cheese sandwiches, a colorful picnic carrot slaw and zesty cheese olive spread can add unexpected spark and life. The slaw, a light and tasty combination owes its singular flavor to a glamorous dairy product . . . sour cream.

The sandwich spread, perfect for perking up plain meat sandwiches, can be pressed in a mold and removed at the picnic ground. PICNIC CARROT SLAW

- 1 1/2 c. grated carrots
 - 2-3 c. seedless raisins
 - 1/2 c. chopped celery
 - 1/2 c. sour cream
 - 1 t. salt
 - 1 t. sugar
 - 1 t. lemon juice
- Dash of ground cloves. Combine carrots, raisins and celery. Mix sour cream with remaining ingredients and blend into salad. Chill.

CHEESE OLIVE SANDWICH SPREAD

- 1/2 lb. shredded Cheddar cheese
 - 1/2 c. chopped olives
 - 2 t. prepared mustard
 - 2 t. minced dried onion
- Combine cheese with other ingredients. Chill to blend flavors. Serve at room temperature with Swiss cheese and corn beef for hearty picnic sandwiches.

SHISH KEBOB TRICK

Shish kebabs a bit skittish? No problem keeping meat cubes on a skewer, but vegetables may split and slide off. Try threading the vegetables this way: If a small hollow is cut at each end of the vegetable to act as a guide for the skewer, they are less likely to fall off the skewers during cooking. Slip cooked vegetables and meat from skewer into a hot frankfurter bun which has been heated on grill.

Recipe of the Month

DAISIES WON'T TELL!

NANCY HAVEN

A Springtime surprise party and you were asked to bring the cake? Here's one that is easy to carry, cuts to advantage, and looks like a breath of Spring! Its two-toned icing, various shaped pieces, and top surprises will impress.

- 1/4 cup shortening
 - 1 1/4 cups Beet Sugar
 - 4 egg whites
 - 2 1/4 cups sifted cake flour
 - 2 1/4 teaspoons baking powder
 - 1/4 teaspoon salt
 - 1 cup milk
 - 1/4 teaspoon lemon extract
 - 1/4 teaspoon almond extract
- Cream shortening and Beet Sugar together until fluffy; blend in egg whites one at a time. Stir in sifted dry ingredients alternately with milk; add flavorings.

- Pour into well-greased and floured loaf pan (14x9x2). Bake in 375° F. oven 20 to 25 minutes or until top springs back when lightly touched. Cool on cake rack.
- Make up your favorite Baked or 7-Minute Icing using 2 egg whites and 1 1/2 cups Beet Sugar. To one-half the icing stir in 8 drops yellow food coloring and 1/4 teaspoon lemon extract. Swirl on sides and top of half the cake crosswise. To the other half of icing mix in 8 drops green food coloring and 1/4 teaspoon mint extract. Swirl on the rest of the cake.
- Mark "green" cake first into 8 diagonal strips; then divide crosswise into three strips. Place a nut dipped in yellow frosting in the center of each piece. Mark "yellow" cake into 12 squares; just before serving place a small daisy atop each square.

Do you like simple desserts served nicely? Then send for SIMPLE DESSERTS—MADE FANCY . . . all on gelatins, custards and pudding and the way to serve them. FREE. Just send a postcard to:

PACK-A-PICNIC

No fuss . . . no muss . . . that's the order of day when we go off on picnics. And for a quick and easy solution to the food situation, put your picnic foods up in your own box lunches made from disposable paper plates. Arrange the individual servings on paper plates and cover the entire lunch with another plate. Slip rubber bands over two plates to hold in place. When you arrive at your luncheon spot, simply hand out the covered plates and each picnic-er will receive his complete lunch intact.

For unusually attractive sandwiches in this lunch, try Double Cheese-Beef Sandwich or Club Sandwich a la Garlic.

Double Cheese-Beef Sandwiches (Makes about 1 cup spread)

- 1 3-ounce package cream cheese, softened
 - 1/4 cup grated Cheddar cheese
 - 1/2 cup chopped dried beef
 - 1 teaspoon prepared horseradish
 - 2 tablespoons sour cream
- Buttered bread slices. Combine cheeses, beef, horseradish and cream; mix well. Spread on bread to make sandwiches.

Club Sandwich a la Garlic (Makes 4 sandwiches)

- 1/4 cup butter or margarine, softened
 - 1/4 cup mayonnaise
 - 12 slices toast
 - 4 leaves crisp lettuce
 - 4 slices cooked chicken
 - Salt and pepper
 - Garlic salt
 - 2 medium-sized tomatoes, sliced
 - 8 strips bacon, cooked
- Combine butter or margarine and mayonnaise; blend. Spread on toast. Arrange lettuce and chicken on 4 slices toast. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and garlic salt. Top with remaining 4 slices toast.

No-Bake Prune Pie Tastes Like Mom's

This no-bake prune pie has the wonderful flavor of the prune whip your "mother made." The filling cooks quickly on top of the stove. The crust is of crunchy rice cereal crumbs. Whipped cream or vanilla ice cream are recommended for toppings.

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 1/2 cups water
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup uncooked white rice
- 1 1/2 cups milk
- 6 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 3 cups rice cereal, crushed fine
- 1-3 cups chopped cooked prunes
- 1 cup beet or cane sugar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Whipped cream or vanilla ice cream

METHOD: Put the water, salt and rice in a 2-quart saucepan. Bring to a vigorous boil. Turn the heat down. Cover with a lid. Simmer over this low heat 14 minutes. Stir in the milk. Continue to cook over a low heat until the milk is absorbed, about 35 minutes. Do not boil. Cook very slowly. While the rice cooks, melt the butter or margarine in a deep pie plate holding 8 cups. Stir in the 2 tablespoons sugar and the cereal crumbs. Mix well. Press over the bottom and sides of the pie plate. Chill.

After the rice cooks, cool slightly. While still warm, stir in the prunes, sugar and vanilla. Cool. Spoon over the crust. Cover and store in the refrigerator. The dessert may be stored overnight. Serve topped with whipped cream or vanilla ice cream.

This recipe makes 8 servings.

'When The Livin' Is Easy' Try These Outdoor Treats To Perk Up Appetites

For an outdoor treat . . . when the charcoal mood is upon you . . . try adding a new flavor dimension to your special sutter seasoning. Complement with butter-grilled corn or beans, a patio summer salad featuring appleauce and cottage cheese, milk and tasty cantaloupe a la mode.

CHARCOAL BUTTER GRILLED CHICKEN

- 2 small fryer chickens, cut in half
- Salt
- 1 c. (2 sticks) butter, softened and mixed with desired seasonings.

Salt chicken very thoroughly, using about 1 1/2 teaspoon for each half fryer. Spread butter all over chicken. Wrap each half fryer (with 2 sliced of lemon) in heavy-duty aluminum foil, sealing a 11 edges airtight. Place on grill about 5 inches above hot coals and cook 20 minutes. Remove chicken from foil and brown over coals, basting with remaining melted butter. Use any extra butter to brush the French bread and toast.

SUGGESTED SEASONINGS FOR ONE CUP BUTTER

- (1) 2 t. dried marjoram, 2 t. dried thyme, 6 T. minced dried onion, 8 slices lemons; (2) 4 T. onion, 1/2 c. grated Parmesan cheese; (3) 2 t. curry powder, 6 T. minced dried onion, 8 slices lemon.

BUTTER BAKED CORN AND BEANS

- 1 pkg. frozen corn, partially thawed or 1 pkg. frozen beans,

patially thawed

- 2 T. butter
- 1 t. salt

Add butter and salt to corn or beans and wrap in aluminum foil, sealing edges airtight. Place on grill 5 inches above hot coals. Cook corn 15-20 minutes; beans, 25-30 minutes.

A rock cod, you see, is a groundfish. He and others of his type hang around the bottom of the ocean till a smart fisherman gets him. Here is another hand from the intercollegiate. This one is primarily a problem in defense and East-West are supposed to beat the four-spade contract.

The correct defense is for East to win the opening heart lead with the king and lead back a diamond. South will play the king or queen and it will be up to West to duck.

Eventually East gets in with the king of clubs and leads a second diamond. West now makes two diamond tricks and beats the contract. There is one point of great interest in the defense and it concerns which diamond East should lead. Normally with four cards of a suit you should lead your fourth best but this is one situation in which the normal play is wrong.

East should lead the eight of diamonds. It is much more important that he tell his partner that he does not hold a diamond honor than that he tell him how many diamonds he holds. Once the eight is led West should have no trouble about playing low. With a three spot lead West might go wrong.

Siren Will Sound in Lefors Test

(Special to The News) LEFORS — A test of the sounding of the disaster alert siren will be made Thursday June 12, at 9 p.m. to educate citizens of the community as to the sound of the siren and how far it will carry. This decision was reached by members of the disaster organization at their meeting in the City Hall Thursday.

Ferry Davis talked on an imaginary problem, previously presented by Paul Blankenburg, chairman, stating that a fire truck is available to take care of water problems in case of disaster, using available man power to bring in fresh pure water in case of tornado, etc.

Two thousand bandages on hand and a committee working on splints was reported by R. E. McDonald. Two-way radios are lined up by C. H. Gustin, communication chairman.

Temporary light plants were also discussed. Two such plants are available.

Members present for the meeting were Paul Blankenburg, Perry Davis, R. E. McDonald, C. H. Gustin, Mmes. R. H. Barron and Charles Roberts.

DEAR ABBY...

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Would you permit your 18-year-old daughter to visit her 18-year-old boyfriend at the Marine Base in San Diego alone? He's been there two months and has another four to go, which seems like a lifetime to them. He was her first beau and they went steady their last two years of high school. They write each other every day and think they can't live without each other. He's a fine boy and I trust my daughter, but what arguments can I use against her going?

WITH A LIVING DOLL: Even a "living doll" has a heart — but knocking the sawdust out of her is no way to win it. You goofed, Bonnyboy!

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

RUTH MILLETT

Dear Square (You sound pretty hip to me): The burden of temptation is too heavy to place on two 18-year-old kids who "can't live without each other." Parental authority is indisputable. You need no other argument.

Most marriages would be happier if a woman would only remember — That instead of trying to be her idea of a "good wife" she should simply try to do the things that are important to her own husband.

DEAR ABBY: I have a brother-in-law and whenever I am playing gin he stands behind me and kibitzes every hand. He makes me very nervous. Sometimes I just give him my hand to play, but he doesn't catch on. How can I get rid of this kibitzer?

That unless she trusts her husband she isn't likely to have a husband she can trust. That it is her job to get along with in-laws. And if they are difficult to get along with that means she has a harder job — not that she can mark them off as hopeless.

Dear Blizzed: Next time, don't give him the hand — give him the "deuce."

That no man will thank her for doing without things she needs and could have. She should accept her share of things and be happy instead of foolishly doing without in the hope that her self-denial will make her husband think he is a lucky man to have a wife who demands so little.

DEAR ABBY: I am 60 years old, raised four children and buried two husbands. I have 17 grandchildren whom I love very much, but my children take advantage of me. They go ahead and make summer vacation plans among themselves, deciding when they will go and leave their families with me. They tell me of their plans and I am expected to look after their children. When I was first widowed they said it was good to take my mind off my sorrow, but my mind is way off it now and I would like to make some vacation plans of my own. How can I tell them?

That being a good housekeeper and good mother doesn't necessarily mean that a woman is a good wife.

"TAKEN ADVANTAGE OF" Dear Taken (and you have been "taken"): Tell them — just like you told me. In about 106 well chosen words.

That while her husband can talk about "my office" she should never talk about "my home." It should always be "our home" and her aim should be to make it as pleasing a place to live for her husband as for her.

DEAR ABBY: I am in love with a policeman. He says I am the only one for him. He told me he didn't want to get married but he asked me how I'd like to be a policeman's wife. Was this a proposal or not?

That the only way a wife can improve her husband is by doing her part to create a happy marriage and a happy home. She can't improve him by trying to make him over to suit herself.

JUDITH Dear Judith: This sounds more like a proposition than a proposal. Don't make any wedding plans until he tells you "which" policeman he had in mind.

That she can't hope to make her husband and family happy unless she is happy herself.

"DEAR ABBY: Read in your column about a lady who said she had two illegitimate children but never even kissed a man. May I suggest that she must have had a very powerful handshake?"

That if she doesn't want to be married to a heel she should never make her husband feel like one.

PSYCHOLOGY MAJOR Dear Major: Either that — or a very poor memory.

That if she doesn't want to be married to a heel she should never make her husband feel like one.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "IN LOVE"

MATURE PARENT

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE One morning an old school friend of Mrs. D.'s dropped in for lunch. They didn't get much chance to enjoy it. Instead of attending to his creamed chicken, 8-year-old Joe kept teasing his young brother. At dessert when he hid Toby's spoon, he had to be sent to the kitchen to finish his baked apple.

That if she doesn't want to be married to a heel she should never make her husband feel like one.

Later, apologizing for him, Mrs. D. said to her guest, "You know kids of his age are so full of beans they have to be up to something every minute."

That if she doesn't want to be married to a heel she should never make her husband feel like one.

"Oh, he'll outgrow his jealousy of Toby," her guest said. "After all, he's lived three years as the only pebble on the beach."

That if she doesn't want to be married to a heel she should never make her husband feel like one.

Immediately Mrs. D. rejected this comfort. Flushing, she said defensively, "Oh, Joe isn't jealous of Toby! He's crazy about him. He was just showing off before company."

That if she doesn't want to be married to a heel she should never make her husband feel like one.

Yet Mrs. D. knows very well indeed that Joe is jealous of Toby.

That if she doesn't want to be married to a heel she should never make her husband feel like one.

Why did she pretend he wasn't? Because, like others among us, she has inherited a conscience that requires her to be an irreproachable person. So, as her child, poor Joe must be irreproachable, too.

That if she doesn't want to be married to a heel she should never make her husband feel like one.

This conscience is a strain and a bore. It isn't even moral, forcing her as it does to deny the truth that she is subject to faults and mistakes.

That if she doesn't want to be married to a heel she should never make her husband feel like one.

It is also cruel, punishing her with panic every time Joe's faulty jealousy demonstrates that he is a human being instead of the faultless little monster her wicked conscience tells her that she is entitled to.

That if she doesn't want to be married to a heel she should never make her husband feel like one.

As he will increasingly demonstrate that he is a human being capable of bad feelings as well as good ones, she'd better start right now asking herself these questions: "Can I trust a conscience that tells me I have no problems? Why does it deny me the right to perplexities and failures when everyone else in the world experiences them? What kind of conscience is it that requires me to be superior to the rest of the human race?"

That if she doesn't want to be married to a heel she should never make her husband feel like one.

The answers are very vital to Mrs. D. If she doesn't get on to the wickedness of her conscience, it will not only whip her with panic every time she falls it but start to infect Joe, too.

That if she doesn't want to be married to a heel she should never make her husband feel like one.

Already he's so ashamed of his jealousy that he has to express it in furtive teasing instead of in open and honest protests.

Meticulous Daily Care And Will Power Being Well-Groomed At Any Age Means

By ALICIA HART NEA Beauty Editor The notion that because a woman has let herself become fat and lumpy she is necessarily mature is a mistaken one. It's true that no one of us should expect to look 25 all of our lives. But it's also true that we have every right to work at looking our best AT OUR AGE.

Every woman knows how it feels to have a sudden and coveted invitation and not a single appropriate thing in her closet to wear. Just so, it brings us up short to realize that while we've been adding pounds, getting just a bit careless about clothes and putting comfort ahead of all else, women our age have stayed trim and youthful.

HP Club Hears Schweitzer Story

(Special To The News) MIAMI — Mrs. Theo Jenkins was hostess recently for the final meeting, until fall, of the Home Progress Club, Mrs. Eunice Holland, president, conducted the business meeting during which Mrs. H. J. McCuiston, past president, installed the following officers for the coming year.

Mrs. J. O. Duviven presented a program regarding a Methodist minister, Rev. James E. Doty of Lynn, Mass. who traveled 8,000 miles to Africa to deliver $1,700 that had been contributed to Dr. Albert Schweitzer's leper colony by the people of the Lynn Methodist Church.

She stated that Dr. Schweitzer, who is 82 years old and a Nobel prize winner, has done more than heal bodies. "He has healed minds of superstition and healed the people spiritually. He has not done this for fame, but for humanity."

Refreshments were served during the social hour. Guests were Mmes. Jewel Rogers, R. J. Bean, Laura Cox, and Annie O'Loughlin. Members present were Mmes. Windom D. Allen, R. E. Webster, R. B. Mathers, C. C. Carr, R. E. Thompson, C. C. Shield, W. L. Russell and C. W. Bowers.

It's much easier to look pretty on a fine, sunny day than it is on a day when it's pouring. But you're just as much on view on a rainy day.

In this day of pretty rainy day fashions, it's easy to be prepared. You should have raincoat, hat, boots and a small umbrella in your wardrobe.

Pre-Nuptial Party Fetes Miss Smith

(Special To The News) MIAMI — Miss Betty Smith, bride-elect of Victor D. Marshall, in the home of Mrs. Van Webb, Elk City, Okla. was complimented with a pre-nuptial shower recently with Mmes. L. J. Mrs. Seuhns registered guests as they arrived. The bride's chosen colors were

More than anything, being attractive takes will power. It takes will power to say no to all of the things that are fattening, to actually get up in the morning and exercise, to work out a daily program that includes enough rest, enough play, enough work.

The rewards, however, are great in the way that you feel AND look. If you have plucked your eyebrows consistently for years, you probably have a very scanty natural growth.

One famous movie star who had had her eyebrows plucked in order to conform to the brow shape of the day decided she wanted to let her brows grow in. They refused to oblige. Being the determined sort, she went to work on the brow arch with eye-brow brush and a jar which contained a half-and-half mixture of petroleum jelly and castor oil.

That did the trick, after many patient nights of brushing. Not only did she regain her brows, she was able to change the original brow shape to a degree and make it conform more nearly to what she wanted. This, with careful plucking from underneath only, has given her a beautifully shaped, heavy natural brow.

Others attending were: Mmes. Jeane Ogletree, Henry Marshall, and C. W. Marshall of Elk City, Okla.; Mrs. Claud Edwards, Mrs. Joe Carlton Miss Edna Daughtree of Pampa; Mmes. F. S. Chemise Vies With Skirt For Favor

By GAILE DUGAS NEA Women's Editor NEW YORK—(NEA)—Dressing your daughter for parties and family gatherings this summer will be easy as reading a story to her. Small fry look well in the chemise and there are many variations of the chemise for little girls.

Or, if you prefer, she can look like Alice in Wonderland. Both slim and full-skirted fashions are smart for the younger set this season. And both come in fabrics that will keep their color and freshness through many launderings.

The two-piece outfit, whether middie and pleated skirt, dress and blazer or overbushie and skirt, is sound fashion. In the classic version, it appears as dress and neatly buttoned jacket. Sunny shades of orange, apricot and yellow are as popular as the nautical color scheme of red, white and blue.

We show here two summer fashions for a small girl, both in chromopun acetate. The classic dress with Alice look (left) is sleeveless, has matching three-button jacket with white linen cuffs. It's in blue- and white check taffeta.

Chemise (right), has over blouse that buttons down the back. It has set-in belt that ties in front in flat, tailored bow.

Search For Right Hair Fashion Ends With Visit To Professional Stylist

BY ALICIA HART NEA Beauty Editor The search for a hair style that is just right for you often presents quite a problem. You're not exactly satisfied with the way you are wearing your hair, but you can't think of anything else to do with it.

A drastic change scares you, for you can't be sure how it will turn out — and when the damage is done, it can't be undone quickly. Yet a radical change is what you think you need.

Have you ever thought that this might not be so? It's quite likely that a softer, modified version of your present hair style is all you need to bring out your best features.

Chana Eden, the young actress from Israel, found this to be true. She wore her heavy, curling hair long when Warner Brothers arranged for John Garrison to restyle it. He thinned out a great deal of her thick hair, shaping it and cutting it shorter in front. The sides and top were set with large role cutters. And she emerged with basically the same hair style she's had before, so beautifully shaped now that her unique, lovely features are shown to their best advantage.

It's possible, of course, that an expert hairdresser would decide that a completely new hairdo would suit you far better than your present one — a change from a long bob to a short style perhaps. Or from stiffness to a chick sleekness around the face. But for most of us, this probably wouldn't be true.

After all, if your present hair style was so very wrong for you, you'd no doubt have been aware of it long ago.

But whatever you do, don't decide to shape your hair yourself just to see what a slight change will do for you. Go to a professional hairdresser for many months to come.

Think about highlighting or changing the shade of your hair to make it lovelier. Since hair colorings can be shampooed out so easily these days, it's worth trying.

We all know that when it is clean, shining and beautifully shaped, a woman has no greater beauty asset than her hair. So if you feel that yours isn't quite as attractive as it could be, trot along to your hairdresser and see if some slight change and professional handling aren't all you need to do the trick.

World Is Speculating On De Gaulle Policy

Foreign News Commentary
By CHARLES M. MCCANN
UPI Foreign News Analyst

The formidable job of trying to figure out what Gen. Charles de Gaulle's foreign policy will be is under way in world capitals.

In Washington, London and Bonn — and in Moscow — heads of government, foreign ministers and their diplomatic aides are looking for any clue that will point to the views of the new French premier on the big issues of the day.

Officially, in the three allied capitals, the accession of De Gaulle to virtual dictatorial power is welcomed.

"But there are indications that allied leaders are whistling past the graveyard.

The reason is that nobody but De Gaulle knows for sure where he is headed — if he himself knows yet.

Wants Renewed Prestige

The one thing that is certain is that De Gaulle will try to restore

France's prestige as a world power. Whether his attempt will be made at the cost of Allied unity against Soviet Russia in the cold war is one big unanswered question.

An attempt to plot De Gaulle's course, and to find the best way to deal with him, is bound to be one of the chief topics for discussion and British Prime Minister Harison when President Eisenhower and Macmillan confer in Washington next week.

De Gaulle's views will be important in the negotiations for a "summit" conference with Russia, in West Germany's role in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and in all cold war problems.

The White House lost no time in welcoming De Gaulle's confirmation as premier.

Knew Premier in War

"We look forward to the continuation of the intimate and friendly relations which have always characterized our long association with France," a White House statement said.

Macmillan sent De Gaulle a warm personal message of good wishes.

"It will be a great joy for me to be able to renew our wartime friendship," Macmillan said. "It is with pleasure that I propose to work with you for our common causes."

Macmillan has one big advantage. He was British representative at De Gaulle's headquarters in Algeria for 18 months during the war. He got to know De Gaulle intimately, and apparently got along well with him.

Encouraging Aspect Outlined

It is likely that Macmillan will arrange to visit De Gaulle as soon as he gets back home after his five-day visit to the United States.

There is one encouraging indication of De Gaulle's probable attitude toward his fellow Allied leaders. That is his selection of Maurice Couve de Murville as his foreign minister. De Murville, a career diplomat, had been French ambassador to West Germany for two years before De Gaulle called him, and he had previously been ambassador to the United States.

Guidance For Plane Is Worked Out

WASHINGTON (UP)—Man may lose his sense of direction in space, but the government has announced development of an instrument system that will enable him to maintain a true course.

The system will be used to prevent this country's first manned space plane from burning up when it streaks back into earth's atmosphere next year.

The Air Force plans to use its new X-15 rocket research plane some time next year to carry a man higher and faster than any one ever has flown before. The craft is designed to hit 2,000 miles an hour and climb over 100 miles into the sky.

One of the main problems has been how to enable the pilot to retain control of the plane during the hazardous return flight from airless space into the earth's dense atmosphere.

The feat is particularly tricky because too steep a descent would turn the plane and its pilot into a flaming cinder. On the other hand, the plane might "bounce off" the atmosphere if the approach is too shallow.

The answer is an "advanced flight instrument system" developed by the Sperry Gyroscope Co. and announced jointly by the Air Force and the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics.

They said the system's "principal function" will be to help the pilot of the X-15 with inertial flight aid and sensing devices necessary to maintain a true course during the buffeting return

He was well liked in both Washington and Bonn, and he is regarded as a firm supporter of Allied unity.

French Situation Makes US Aware Of Weaknesses

Political Parties—Two Or Twenty?

For a number of years it has been argued in this country that there is a need for more political parties or a complete realignment of the two controlling political parties which we now have. Some argue that there is a definite need for a third party to counteract certain philosophies now present in both the Republican and Democratic. Others argue that we need a complete realignment of the two major parties so that the so-called conservatives will all be in one party and the so-called liberals will all be in the other. Still others argue that we need a group of political parties — each representing a particular political philosophy — in order to have a true expression of sentiment on a pure democratic

I discuss this matter at this time because I feel that much history is being written at the present time in France concerning this particular issue. The tragic political difficulties in France did not come as a surprise to students of politics. The surprise was that France had been able to avert the present crisis for so long. The 4th Republic was built on political sand. It would seem that the architects of that Republic concerned themselves too much with the philosophy that everyone be allowed to do as they pleased with a total disregard as to how such action might interfere with the rights of others and create a chaotic conflict that would result in complete impotency of France as a nation.

Instead of two or three, well-balanced political parties with the strength to fully debate issues, to provide for the bringing about of a final decision, and for the subsequent enforcement of that decision, France found herself with a large number of splinter parties made up of subscribers to every conceivable philosophy known to mankind. The governing body — The National Assembly and the Senate — became infiltrated with these different groups, some of which would be joined by lesser groups in political issues that came up. The result was that France had a government in name only. It had a parliament in which all of the issues could be thoroughly debated, but in which no final decision could be made with any degree of patency. Under the circumstances, the government was wholly impotent insofar as enforcing any controversial decisions.

France floundered for a number of years under this loosely knitted scheme of things, and the 4th Republic was able to survive only because of help from French allies including its major benefactor the United States. However, I feel that the situation which has developed over recent years in France has made a major contribution to the science of government. The advance of civilization has been by trial and error. The political situation in France has furnished us with a most valuable source of information on governmental questions.

I think that it has definitely proved the merit of our system in this country of two major political parties, with both parties being well-balanced, and counting among the membership of each, students of divergent political views. A system by which issues can be threshed out, thoroughly considered and acted upon. A system wherein Independents are free to move into either party or to cast their votes solely as independents. And probably most important, a system wherein the possibility of the military taking over is at a minimum.

Unknown Soldiers

Last week the nation paid tribute to all the brave and valiant men who gave their lives for their country in the Korean War and World War II. The last remains of two servicemen, their identity known but to God, were interred in Arlington Cemetery alongside the Unknown Soldier of World War I.

The flag-draped coffins lay in state in the Rotunda of the Capitol from Wednesday morning until Friday afternoon. Memorial Day, where thousands of Americans paid their respects. At the Capitol, the caskets rested on the same bier on which the body of Abraham Lincoln lay in state after his death in 1865. On Memorial Day

The Federal Trade Commission has indicated it may ease its attack on mergers. The agency ruled for the first time that a merger which boosts a company's already large portion of a particular market is not automatically illegal. The decision reversed an examiner's finding that Brillio Manufacturing Company's acquisition of Williams Co. was illegal because it increased Brillio's share of the industrial steel wool market to almost 50 per cent.

The American Iron Ore Assn. reported iron ore shipments down the Great Lakes are moving at the slowest pace in 20 years. It placed shipments for the first five months of 1958 at 4,123,171 tons, against 15,714,273 tons in the similar year ago period.

The current upsurge in steel demand is "probably just a flash in the pan" reflecting hedging against a likely July price increase, Iron Age said. Under union contracts companies must hike wages 20 cents an hour July 1. Iron Age said indications are that a price increase of between $5 and $6 per ton will follow.

The Census Bureau reported wheat flour production in April averaged 882,000 sacks per working day, a gain compared to the April, 1957, average of 861,000 sacks but down from the 975,000 sacks a day in March. Wheat flour mills operated at 80.6 per cent of capacity compared to 89.1 per cent in March.

You can scratch the back of your noggin until this morning's manicure is hangnails all over the parlor wall-to-wall, and still you may not recall H. V. Mackie. Who dat?

Unless you are a native, and at that, one who's hung his Fedora or Ten-gallon here since the early 1930's you can step from the isolation booth, thankew!

H. V. Mackie was a controversial young cuss here, the better part of 2 1/2 decades ago. He was one Pampa High football player who brought true tremors of tribulation from Amarillo High athletic officials and faithful alike. And you'll have to admit, it ain't just every Ex green-and-golder whose furrowed the Sandies' brows in the pigskin dept.

Bpt Mr. Mackie did.

An Amarillo Folly

Back almost in those days of the "flying wedge" and collapsible grid gear, Mackie was a feared gent, both hither and yon. Amarillo school officials with a hopeful glint in their g r e e d y hearts, knew the Mackie house-

ROCKY MACKIE
... old H. V.'s boy

Young Rocky, A Chip Off ...

Time passes. Our Mr. Mackie marries the lovely Nora Hockcomb of Pampa and White Deer, and the stork brings a fine strapping son.

More time passes. It's 1958 and that fine strapping son has grown into a fine strapping young man with enough muscle and sinew to decorate anybody's back-yard swimming pool.

Because of his dad's job as assistant engineer for Shell Oil in Centralia, Illinois, young Mackie (his pals call him Rocky) was an "undisputed" athlete and honor student at Centralia Orphan High School.

Rocky recently climaxed his schoolboy athletic career with the Centralia track squad. But it was in football, just like his old man, that the Rock reaped the attention and favor of courtship college recruiters.

Murray State College in Murray, Kentucky, showed up with the best fast-talkers, however, and the stork Mackie, young Rocky, was handed a four-year offer to mash-noses at that school.

He accepted.

And you can look for the kid who led Centralia High out of the grid wilderness to become the power of Southern Illinois, to enlighten football fortunes at Murray State come next Sept. Last fall his high school outfit, lost its opener to Collinsville, 21-20 and then romped the rest of the way without loss.

Relatives in Pampa? Rocky can claim two grandmothers, Mrs. Mary J. Mackie and Mrs. Eva May Richardson; an aunt, Mrs. M. G. Husted; and uncles, John, D. L. and E. C. Mackie.

Long live the Mackies, but let's keep any more Rockys at home. Such as he, the Harvesters can put to good use.

LA Is Almost Out Of Cellar

By FRED DOWN
United-Press International

Johnny Podres undoubtedly wishes Walter O'Malley luck with his Chavez Ravine stadium of the future but for the present he'd be happy if the Los Angeles Dodgers never left the Coliseum.

Because the stylish 25-year old left-hander is one pitcher for whom the "famous fence" holds no terrors. He owns a perfect 4-0 record in the Coliseum compared to a 1-4 mark on the road this season.

The World Series hero of 1955 made it a great day for the Dodgers on two counts Wednesday night when he hurled a three-hit, 3-0 victory over the Cincinnati Redlegs. It was the third win in four games for the Dodgers, now only a game and a half from the seventh-place Philadelphia Phillies.

Charlie Neal tripled home the Dodgers' first run off Johnny Klippstein in the second inning and then smashed his ninth homer of the year — seventh in the Coliseum — in the fourth.

Braves Win

The Milwaukee Braves took a one-game grip on first place when they beat the slumping San Francisco Giants, 10-9, on Warren Spahn's 11th-inning pinch single; Ernie Banks drove in four runs with two homers and a single as the Cubs clouted the Phillies, 11-5, and Stan Musial had three hits in the St. Louis Cardinals' 6-3 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox braked the New York Yankees, 7-2, the LOOK AGAIN—That's what Gil Hodges, right, claims the LA on the cap of Pee Wee Reese may mean for the Dodgers in another couple weeks. Duke Snider, looking on at left, is also a firm believer that National League fans should look again at the Dodgers in a couple weeks, as the club is heading up. It's a cinch they can't go down, not unless they make a 9-team loop of the senior circuit. Wednesday the Dodgers brought joy to LA with a convincing 3-0 shutout of 7th place Cincinnati, moving a half game near vacating the cellar.

IN CHAVEZ RAVINE

Home Is Where The Moola Is!

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Walter O'Malley, obviously delighted that his almost orphaned Dodgers apparently have found a permanent home, outlined his plans today for the start of work July 6 on a new 12 million dollar stadium in Chavez Ravine.

While all the votes still had not been counted in Tuesday's referendum election, the proposal giving the Dodgers land in Chavez Ravine for a new baseball park seemingly was approved.

The referendum favored the Dodgers and their stadium by more than 16,000 votes when the tabulators recessed Wednesday night. There were predictions the margin would increase to some 25,000 votes.

While there were still legal stumbling blocks — including a pending taxpayer's suit—O'Malley was ready to go ahead with plans for immediate construction of the 32,000 seat stadium so the Dodgers can play there by July of next year.

The taxpayer's, however, filed by Atty. Phil Silver on behalf of Louis Kirshbaum, a private citizen, and a temporary order still restrains the city from official transfer of the land to the Dodgers.

While city attorneys watched the progress of the suit action and prepared a legal counter-attack, there was still the prospect of delaying action on the part of contract opponents.

The Dodgers and city officials, thus, anticipated a possible extended fight, but regarded the referendum triumph as the key to locating the ball club in Chavez Ravine.

Maxwell Rates With Snead As Dallas Favorite

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI) — Billy Maxwell, the chunky Texan with the short game that's tailored to hit the course, ranked along side defending champion Sam Snead today as a prime favorite as a small but potent field teed off in the opening round of the $25,000 Dallas Open golf tournament.

Maxwell, the eighth ranking money winner on the tour, stamped himself as a real contender for Snead's crown when he toured the short 6,600 yard Oak Cliff country club course Wednesday in a six-under-par 64 to tie for top honors in the $2,500 Pro-Amateur.

Snead, hoping for another 60 such as he scored in this tournament a year ago, breezed around Wednesday in a 67 while cracking jokes with his gallery but was expected to turn serious today as he starts the four-day stretch for the $3,800 first prize money and a winning mood he hopes will carry over into next week's National Open.

Maxwell's 64 was equalled by Gene Littler, the former National Amateur champ who hasn't won a tournament in more than a year. But Maxwell's consistency on the tour—a 71.24 stroke average for 71 rounds—makes him more of a threat for Snead's title.

Snead, who is searching for his 100th tournament triumph while turning up for another big pitch at the only major title ever to elude him—the Open—will find his heralded long game a decided advantage if he can keep it in line.

Whatever Happened To ...

JIMMY ORLANDO

When Jimmy Orlando was playing hockey with the Detroit Red Wings, he built a reputation as the hardest body checker in the club's history. From the mid-1930's until 1943, Orlando's fierce play made him feared and respected throughout the National Hockey League. In 1943, he entered military service in Canada and his hockey career came to an end.

Whatever happened to Jimmy Orlando? Now 41, he lives in Montreal and currently is the owner of the Club Aldo, one of the city's better night clubs. Until last year, he remained active in athletics by refereeing wrestling bouts.

TL Race Tight As Snare Drum

By United Press International

The Texas League race tightened like a drumhead on a hot day Wednesday as the Fort Worth Cats moved into first place by 13 percentage points and only two games separated the top four clubs.

The Cats edged Victoria, 2-1, while league-leading Austin was nipped, 4-2, by San Antonio and fell to second place.

In other games, Corpus Christi bumped Dallas 3-2, and Houston topped Tulsa 9-8.

Virgil, Vince Relax Today; Fight Friday

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—Virgil Akins, perhaps the cockiest challenger in ring history, and Vince Martinez, an extremely shy performer, relaxed today on the eve of their fight and psychological fight for the vacant world welterweight crown.

Akins of St. Louis was a solid 9 1/2 favorite to win their 15-round, nationally televised fight at the Arena Friday night because his supporters believed Virgil's extreme self-confidence was justified by his boxer-puncher ability.

Cavezos Tops Am Qualifiers

SAN ANGELO, Tex. (UPI)—Shooting five-under-par 66, Neto Cavazos of Lampasas led 12 golfers who broke the par-71 here Wednesday in Texas Amateur golf tournament qualifying rounds.

Defending champion Mickey King, Rice, who didn't have to qualify, was to lead today's field of 64 in the championship fight.

Following the opening round, the 32 losers will drop from the championship fight and form the first flight.

Jim Leavell, Houston, and John Paul Cain, Texas Tech, polled 67s Wednesday.

Bob Pratt of Houston University, Henry Richards of Jacksboro and Bobby Nichols of Texas A&M, all shot 68s.

Notching 69s were Dicky Cannon of San Angelo, Don Maassen of TCU, Johnny Arrage of Baylor and Bill Roden of Odessa.

The only other former champion in the field, Spec Goldman of Dallas, who won it in 1955, came in with an even par-71.

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower, in a message to Premier Charles de Gaulle wishing him success in his mission to solve the French crisis:

"You can be assured that I have kept a living memory of the important and amicable association that we maintained in the critical days of the Second World War. You know my deep and lasting affection for France."

NEW YORK — Former Postmaster General James A. Farley, announcing he will seek the Democratic senatorial nomination in New York state this year:

"I honestly believe the experience I have had — my knowledge of world affairs — can make a contribution to the state and the nation."

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — Editor

Ralph McGill of the Atlanta Constitution, charging that a large number of newspapers don't want to pay the cost of engaging in controversy and debate:

"It has been my sad observation that too many of those who orate so piously and profoundly about freedom of the press make very little use of their freedom. . . one of the things wrong with too many newspapers is their pressure for conformity and an unwillingness to come to grips with issues, especially local ones."

PHILADELPHIA — James C. Petrillo, tearfully announcing his retirement from the presidency of the American Federation of Musicians at the organization's annual convention:

"It seems like we just can't get away without a few tears. Don't mind my few tears. . . I hope you realize I'm not leaving you. I'll be with you—but let me enjoy myself a little. But I'll be with you, you know that."

Cotton Congress Opens

HARLINGEN, Tex. (UPI)—The 19th annual Cotton Congress opened here today with top cotton experts from across the country as principal speakers.

Lamar Fleming Jr., board chairman of Anderson, Clayton and Co., Houston, one of the world's largest cotton firms, was slated as main speaker at the opening session.

Included on the list of speakers for the three-day Congress were Assistant Secretary of State Thomas C. Mann, Assistant Agriculture Secretary Marvin L. McLain, Oscar Elizondo, representative of the Mexican Minister of Agriculture, and Dr. M. K. Horne Jr., chief economist of the National Cotton Council.

Delegates also were to tour cotton plantations and gins in northern Mexico before the Congress ends Saturday.

Family Watched Its House Torn Apart

Editor's Note: Melvin Hendrikson, 55, his wife, Helga, and their three children, Karen, 12; Roland, 15, and Richard, 17, had just finished supper and were sitting in the kitchen of their Colfax, Wis. home when a tornado struck. His account of the disaster follows:

By MELVIN HENDRIKSON
As Told To UPI

COLFAX, Wis. (UPI)—I looked out the window and saw leaves blowing, and the sky becoming black.

I told my wife, "It looks like a tornado. You'd better forget the dishes and get in the basement."

We ran to the basement and huddled together. We could hear the timber of the house above us, straining and groaning.

I looked out the basement window and saw timber flying through the air. Then one hit a window and broke it, and sand streamed in. We couldn't see much from then on.

It seemed as though the storm lasted for 10 minutes, but I'd looked at my watch, and it was only three minutes.

After the house started flying apart, we just huddled together and prayed.

When the wind died down, we crawled out.

The house was demolished. The only thing left was the basement and a water tank. The rest of our home was torn apart, bit by bit, and scattered over the countryside.

Our car was parked in the driveway when we sat down to supper. I don't know where it is now.

I've never seen anything like it. We have four neighbors, and their homes were gone, too.

Mrs. Rasmussen (a neighbor) said she tried to get her husband to go down in the cellar with her and their children. She said he wouldn't budge, but sat there in the living room.

I saw rescue workers pick up his body, stripped naked by the wind. I don't know whether he was dead or alive.

We found the rescue workers and they wanted to take all of us to the hospital, but Richard would not go. He said he was going to stay and help. He was hurt — we all were — but not badly.

Thank God we all survived.

Operator Of Motor Court 'Wiped Out'

By RAY W. DOHERTY
United Press International

CHIPPEWA FALLS, Wis. (UPI)—Arnold Deuel, who operated a motor court on the northwest side of Chippewa Falls picked up the pieces today of five years of hard labor.

"It took only five minutes to wipe me out last night," said Deuel who estimated his tornado damage at $75,000. Seven trailers, five cars and a truck were smashed in the court and in pieces lay strewn there and in a nearby ravine.

"You couldn't see those farms over there yesterday," he said, pointing to a clump of pine trees that had been stripped bare.

Deuel said there were about 30 persons in the seven trailers and only five of them were hurt.

"It's amazing to me how some of them got out alive."

He pointed to a trailer which was flattened to the wheels and lay over the brink of a ravine. "Seven persons rode out the tornado in the trailer," Deuel said. He said one man in another trailer put his wife under a davenport and she was unhurt.

While Deuel talked with a reporter his wife was sweeping up some of the litter in their house of which only four walls were standing.

Damage in the Chippewa Falls area was confined to the northwest side near the Irvine Park area. For a length of two miles along U.S. 53 more than 30 homes along both sides of the highway were smashed. Trees and wires littered the area.

"Men are so self-centered! I talked about myself for a whole hour and he hardly heard a word I said!"

The Order of the Purple Heart was established in 1782.

NO SVENCALI—Bobby Troup, versatile head man of ABC-TV's "Stars of Jazz," protests he's no Svengali. This by way of denying the oft-proclaimed story that he restyled Julie London's voice and made her one of America's most popular singers. "She did more for me," he says, "than I did for her."

ROSSELLINI VS BERGMAN
ROME (UPI)—Announcement proceedings of Swedish actress Ingrid Bergman and Italian director Roberto Rossellini were in recess again today until June 30. The proceedings re-opened Wednesday but were adjourned after Rossellini's lawyers reiterated their arguments that Miss Bergman's first marriage to Swedish Doctor Peter Lindstrom was not dissolved according to Swedish law when she married Rossellini.

TALMADGE WILL
FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (UPI)—The late movie actress Norma Talmadge left about $300,000 and two homes here to her husband. The star's will, recorded Wednesday in probate court left the bulk of her estate to the husband, Carvel M. James of Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Miss Talmadge died at Las Vegas last Christmas eve.

PRISONERS RIOT
ANGOLA, La. (UPI)—Twenty-seven maximum security prisoners staged a riot at the state prison Wednesday. The convicts demonstrated because guards confiscated their "goof-ball"—benzedrine-soaked wadding for nasal inhalers. Guards crushed the riot with tear gas.

TO APPOINT SCIENTISTS
VIENNA (UPI)—Communist Czechoslovakia today expressed its willingness to appoint nuclear scientists for participation in preparatory talks for a summit conference. A communique of the Czech foreign ministry followed agreeing to President Eisenhower's proposal that East-West scientific talks begin soon on suspension of nuclear tests.

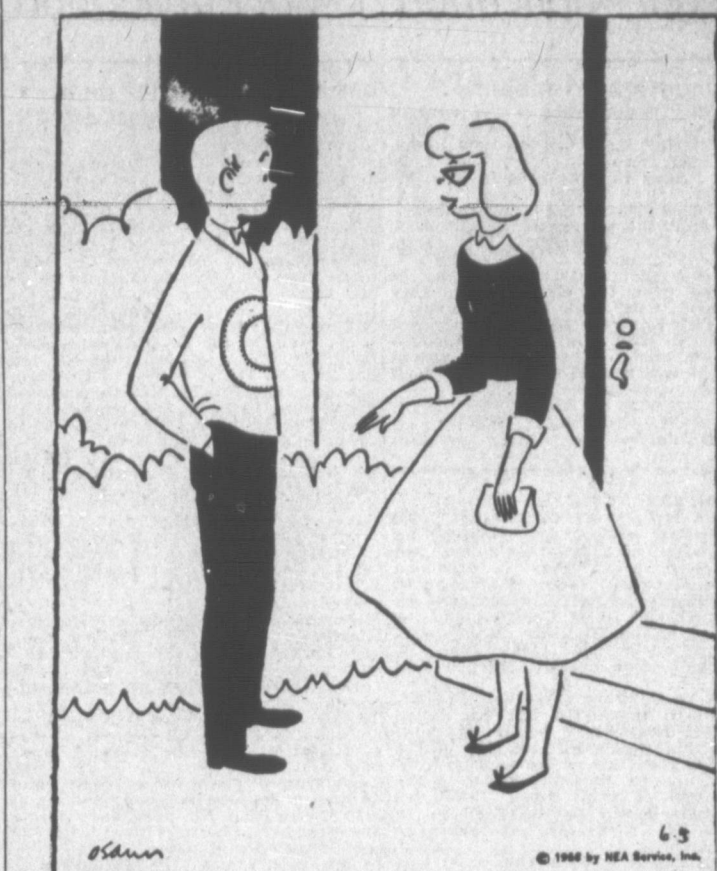

WILL VISIT COLOGNE
COLOGNE, Germany (UPI)—Former Queen Soraya of Iran will return to Cologne from the United States in mid-June, officials of the Iranian embassy here said today. Soraya's father is the Iranian ambassador to West Germany. Officials said the former wife of the Shah of Iran will stay in Cologne only long enough to decide where to settle permanently, probably in Italy, France or Switzerland.

PARIS—Harry McElhone, 67 owner of the famous Harry's New York Bar here, died of a heart attack Tuesday night. The bar has been a favorite hangout of Americans in Paris since Harry took it over in 1923. Among its patrons were Ernest Hemingway and F. Scott Fitzgerald. McElhone left Paris for London with the onset of World War II. He served as head bartender at the Cafe de Paris and at the Hotel Ritz's Rivoli Bar in the British capital until the war's end, when he returned to Paris and reopened his bar. He was a native of Dundee, Scotland and first went to work in France in 1908.

CHRISTIANSTED, Virgin Islands—Dr. Fairfax Hall, pediatrician for the Island of St. Croix in the Virgin Islands, died here Wednesday. He was 72. Before going to St. Croix in 1955, he was a pediatrician in New Rochelle, N.Y., for 40 years.

ST. AGNES, Cornwall England—Alburt E. Skinner, retired banker and industrialist, died here Tuesday at the age of 86. Skinner, who had lived in St. Agnes since 1950, was honorary chairman and former chairman of the board of trustees at the Chautauqua Institution—the summer cultural center at Chautauqua, N.Y.

NAMED FOR HIM
Lewisia, the state flower of Montana, takes its name from Meriwether Lewis of the Lewis and Clark expedition. The pink flower ranges from Montana to Arizona and is better known as bitterroot.

FIRST TO CHINA
First American ship to sail from the United States direct to China was the 80-ton sloop "Experiment," which sailed from Albany, N.Y., in 1785, destined for Canton, China, and returned in 1787.

Woman Won't Bake Own Bread

DETROIT (UPI)—"I'd rather die than have to take time to bake my own bread, was one woman's answer to a call for American housewives to man their ovens in a fight against "adulterated store-bought bread."
An anonymous delegate to the 6th annual convention of the General Federation of Womens Clubs said she just didn't have time to bake her own bread, and tongue in cheek, said "I'd rather die first."

Her answer came to a charge by Rep. Usher L. Burdick (R-N.D.) that women are too busy with parties and entertainment to watch over the health of the family. The 79-year-old congressman said the wheat used in store-bought bread was the "poorest of the wheat," and generally bemoaned the fate of modern Americans who come home to face this bread.

Mrs. Stanley O'Hair, South Bend, Ind., said she never took the time to bake her own bread because it might not be edible and she had faith in the "vitamin-enriched" bread on the market.
Other general reactions were, "Why take the extra time, when time can be spent to better advantage otherwise?" "My children are healthy" and finally a perhaps valuable cross-challenge — "Doesn't this representative of the people have better things to worry about than whether American families are eating home-baked bread?"

BOBOX SIGN LINESCOTT
BOSTON (UPI) — Outfielder Willard Linescott, a 22-year-old native of Farmington, Maine, who batted .330 in three years at Bowdoin College, has been signed by the Boston Red Sox and sent to their Allentown, Pa., farm club in the Class A Eastern League.

Sandhurst Military Academy is the West Point of Great Britain.

SEAL CHAIRMAN — Garry Moore, TV humorist, will serve as national chairman of the 1959 Easter Seal campaign. Moore has been active in the Easter Seal appeal for the past 10 years. The 1959 campaign will be conducted Feb. 27 to Easter Sunday, March 29.

He Was Mad!

CLEBURNE, Tex. (UPI) — Grady Ingram came home in such a bad humor Wednesday night that he pulled the head off his wife's pet parakeet, she told police.
And that wasn't all the 43-year-old laborer did, Mrs. Ingram complained.
He whipped her with a battery cable, bit her thumb, tore her wrist watch off and threw it on the floor, broke dishes on the table where she had supper waiting, threw the washing machine out of the house, and broke a big wall mirror.

The attack on the pet parakeet was an all-out affair, Mrs. Ingram said. After pulling the bird's head off, Ingram plucked off the feathers and then stomped the bird's cage.
Neighbors called police who arrested Ingram and charged him with drunkenness and disturbing the peace. He posted a $100 bond and was released.

Chuckles

NARA, Japan (UPI) — Miffed fire chief Masayuki Onishi decided on some direct action when citizens in his small village refused to give money for a new water tank. He set fire to the barn of the leader of the opposition, sound the alarm and then directed the fire-fighting. Police uncovered his plot.

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI)—President William A. McDonnell of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce says his business consists of just three things. "You get the money in. You put the money out. You try to get the money back again."

LOOE, England (UPI)—Fisherman Anthony Littlewood, 11, told his dad Wednesday: "I've got a bite. What do I do now?" "Pull," his father said, Anthony pulled, and landed an 84-pound blue shark seven feet long.

Blake Elected To Post In Church

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, of Pasadena, Calif., was elected stated clerk of the newly formed United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. at the close of the church's general assembly here Wednesday.
Dr. Samhail W. Shane, of Pittsburgh, was elected associate stated clerk and Dr. Henry Barakelough, assistant stated clerk. Indianapolis was selected as the site for the 1959 general assembly and Cleveland the site for the 1960 general assembly.
The 1,200 commissioners adopted resolutions endorsing statehood for Alaska, calling for an end to stockpiling of nuclear weapons, and urging world cooperation in the development of peaceful uses for nuclear energy.

CARDINALS SIGN CHICAGO (UPI)—The Chicago Cardinals of the National Football League have signed Don Carothers of Bradley, their 10th draft choice a year ago. Carothers, of Moline, Ill., an end, caught 68 passes for 1,224 yards and 17 touchdowns.

BID FOR A SMILE

An eminent specialist who devoted much of his time to charity work in clinics was surprised to have a bewhiskered old gentleman ushered into his Park Avenue consultation room the day.
Man — Remember me, Doctor? Well, I've been let a little money and guess I can afford my own doctor now.
Doctor — But what made you come to me? I wasn't the only doctor who treated you at the clinic.
Man (quietly) — I know, but you were the only one who helped me with my coat.

MILES PER HOUR
Here's a tricky little puzzle, so don't let it fool you. If you drive an automobile one mile at the rate of 40 miles per hour and another mile at the rate of 80 miles per hour, what will be your average speed for the two miles?
You will perhaps get the wrong answer unless you are extra good with figures. Anyhow, think it out clearly.
You drive the first mile in one minute, and the second mile in two minutes. Therefore, it takes three minutes to drive the two miles, which is at the rate of 40 miles per hour.
Be first in the office every morning, the last to leave at night, never be absent, always work through your lunch-hour, and one day the big boss will call you in and say, "I've been watching your work carefully, Jones. Just what the devil are you up to?"

Another Murder Charge For Man

HOUSTON (UPI)—Arthur Valjeo Luna today faced a charge of murder — exactly one week after he was freed from the state penitentiary after serving 30 months on a similar charge.
Luna, 31, was charged with shooting Leonides Ramon, 28, in a tavern argument Tuesday night. Ramon died in a hospital late Wednesday.
Luna had been free after serving 30 months on a 5-year sentence for murder from Harris county. He had been freed only a week ago.

Rhonda And Hubby To Part

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Actress Rhonda Fleming and her husband, Dr. Lew Morrill, today planned to end their strident six-year-old marriage.
The couple issued a joint statement Wednesday announcing their intention of getting a divorce.
Miss Fleming and Morrill were wed at Kanab, Utah, in 1952. She divorced him in Mexico in May, 1956, but they were reconciled. Both have a child by a previous marriage.

MAIL TO BURN—That potbellied stove is where most of us would like to put our bills. In this case, however, it is part of a unique mailbox erected by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Archer of Brunswick, Ohio. As if it weren't distinctive enough by itself, it is painted a bright aluminum. That's Mrs. Archer collecting the day's mail from the departmentalized mailbox.

Many Died Of Cancer Last Year; Could Have Been Cured

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press International

WASHINGTON, (UPI) — Tall among the so-called palace guardsmen is Thomas E. Stephens of New York, recently returned to the White House for his third tour as appointments secretary. Stephens has been described as an old political pro and utility infielder for the Republican National Committee. To Stephens is being attributed much responsibility for President Eisenhower's suddenly increased rate of public exposure. The President is getting around, talking to a lot more groups than was the case some months ago. There even is talk around the White House that Eisenhower might forego his customary long vacation in the late summer and early autumn—to remain close to Gettysburg and Washington. That means the President is thinking of dealing himself a big hand in this year's congressional campaign. Old Pro Makes Changes During the middle and late winter, the President was rejecting many, even most, invitations to appear away from the White House. He reduced notably his office and Rose Garden meetings with visiting delegations. The White House calling list was limited for the most part to top government officials and diplomats. This restricted schedule was not imposed by the medical men who keep constant tabs on the President's pulse and blood pressure.

The decisions largely were made by the White House staff. Old pro Stephens made a fast change in that. There was under way what developed into the longest consecutive string of White House news conferences in four years—six in a row. White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty, of course, gets a lot of credit for that. Then there was the stiff question of protocol when Vice President Richard M. Nixon returned from his South American swing. Should the President meet the Nixons at the airport? Undersecretary of State Christian A. Herter, speaking from the protocol book, said: "No! The President was there, however, and his appearance is viewed in hindsight as good politics both for himself and for Nixon. May Visit Farm Belt Eisenhower is seeing more groups at the White House now than in recent months. The net effect appears to be that his feel for what is going on outside the White House grounds has improved. He and his staff have seemed a bit sensitive to suggestions that the President was being kept remote from the facts of life. On the basis of his present activities, Eisenhower is behaving much more now than previously like a man who is ready to go out and battle for his party. He definitely is considering invitations for several farm belt appearances next October. They would be of the type which could be billed as non-political, perhaps to solve problems connected with free TV time in which an answer could be made. October would be an appropriate month for the best men in both parties to stand up boldly and discuss the facts of life. October, 1958, will be the 100th anniversary of the Lincoln-Douglas debates. Only four Democratic presidents have been elected since the Civil War: Cleveland, Wilson, F. D. Roosevelt and Truman.

Electric computers do the work of several men, but the girls in the office would rather have the men around.

Stephens Is A 'Tall' Man In White House

NEW YORK (UPI) — About 75,000 Americans died last year of cancer that could have been cured, the American Cancer Society said today in its annual report. The report said they were killed, in effect, by their own failure to have regular medical checkups or to recognize the danger signals. About 18,000 of them were women who died of uterine cancer, which is susceptible to early detection by simple cell test and "just about 100 per cent curable" if detected early enough, the society said. The overall rate of lives saved from cancer has increased from one in seven to one in three cases in the last 20 years, the report said. With present treatment knowledge, one in two cases should be saved, the society said, if detection is early enough. The cure rate for lung cancer, however, is still exceptionally low, the society said. The incidence of lung cancer is rising faster than for any other form of the disease and it is a "96 per cent fatal disease" the report said. "No evidence, statistical or otherwise, has been produced anywhere to date that is inconsistent with the now generally held theory that heavy cigarette smoking is, in fact, one of the principal causes of lung cancer," the report said. It said the society began last year a special program to help the nation's teen-agers decide not to smoke.

Lee J. Cobb, With Penchant For Dying, Wants To Direct

By LEE J. COBB
Written For UPI
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — When Shakespeare penned his famous lines in "Julius Caesar"—"Cowards die many times before their deaths. The valiant never taste of death but once," he obviously was not thinking of actors. I have been on the stage and screen the greater portion of my adult life, and I can chalk up a death for almost every performance. I fancy myself much like the Russian actor who, during the course of an interview, was questioned about the roles he played.

A Happy Death
"I have just finished a great tragedy," he said. "In it I died. — "Now I am playing in an even greater tragedy. In it I die. — "But next — ah — I play a comedy. In it I die — but I die happy." That's the story of my life. I recently finished dying at MGM for the second time in less than a year. My first demise was a spectacular affair in which I was elbowed over the head with a brass candlestick, thus ridding "The Brothers Karamazov" of my presence. However, on this occasion, I was treated with distinction. What was left of me lay in state for several hundred feet of film, a tribute never paid me previously. In "Party Girl," with Robert Taylor and Cyd Charisse, I am not shown such reverence. I am literally bounced out of existence from a second story window. As a mob leader of Chicago during the early 30's, I get my just come-uppance and wind up in a gutter.

Wants to Direct
Isn't it peculiar that a fellow with my penchant for dying should be so frequently questioned concerning his plans for the future. But it happens every day that I get within shouting distance of a columnist. What are they? The plans, I mean. I want to direct. And when and if the day comes when the screen credits will read... "Directed by Lee J. Cobb" — Then I can die — happy.

LEAP YEARS
Leap years were added to the calendar to make the calendar year nearly the same as the solar year, which is the length of time required for the earth to completely circle the sun.
