Small Business Tax Relief Due

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate Tuesday night climaxed a busy day of tax cutting by passing legislation that would give tax relief to small business.

The Senate also passed an excise tax revision bill which would cut amusement taxes and also reduce levies on a variety of manufactured items.

Mostly minor differences between the Senate measure and previously passed House versions will be worked out in conference.

The small business measure was added as a surprise amendment to a sweeping technical bill to overhaul tax laws and plug some tax loopholes. It would mean a 260-million-dollar tax loss to the Treasury annually. Passage was by voice vote.

Plans For Convalescent Home Made

Policies and plans concerning the Barrett Memorial Convalescent Home were discussed yesterday in Attorney Arthur Teed's office. As president, Teed presided over a director's meeting of the Top of Texas Foundation, the governing board of the proposed convalescent home.

The talk centered around an evaluation of the property, near the site of the Community Hotel, and the present financial status of the home.

The fund drive is proceeding quietly with the directors accepting contributions for the construction of the home.

Evening Kiwanis Hold Meeting

The Pampa evening Kiwanis Club held their regular weekly meeting last night with three gentlemen from Dumas in charge of the program.

Bill Powsley along with three other men gave a demonstration on fire fighting safety.

Five men from Berger presented the Kiwanis "hen" to the new Kiwanis Club.

The evening club will now have to keep the "hen" until a new club is formed in this area.

Guests were Pat McCausland and Jim Bowers.

loss "carryback" to a three-year status.

All of the various proposals represented important roadblocks in the way of the drive for adjournment. The senators spent 12 hours of debate and action before recessing at 11:04 p.m.

One of the major differences in the Senate and House versions of the excise tax measure involves exemptions for non-profit educational institutions, notably parochial schools, from excises on things they buy. The House passed the exemption but the Senate version knocked it out.

It was expected the Senate would yield to the House on this aspect of the bill.

The Senate excise tax bill would cost the government an estimated $8 million dollars in annual revenues. The cost of the House measure would be about 72 million.

Set Amusement Tax
The Senate passed the measure after refusing to cut the 27 1/2 per cent depletion allowance on income from oil and gas production. It also defeated 51-39 an amendment that would have cut in half the 20 per cent cabaret or night club tax.

As finally approved, the bill would exempt the first dollar in admission fees from the 10 per cent federal amusement tax.

At present, admissions under 90 cents are not taxed, but if the fee goes above that the entire amount is taxed. The $1 exemption would apply regardless of the total ticket price. The provision affects mainly theater and movie admissions.

The bill also would repeal the 5 per cent tax on electric floor polishers and waxes; exempt "milk bars" from the cabaret tax; eliminate the 10 per cent transportation tax on small "air taxis"; and drop the 20 per cent tax on construction and dues involved in community swimming pools and skating rinks.

Present at yesterday's meeting were Jimmie McGhee, N. S. Spooner, Adolph Foster, and Ted. The next meeting is set for Sept. 9 in Teed's office.

Bill Passed For Aid To Railroads

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower signed into law Tuesday a bill designed to help the nation's railroads. The measure will help carriers to obtain loans, abandon unprofitable lines and boost rates.

The compromise bill cleared the Senate and House July 30. During lengthy Senate hearings, officials of the nation's major rail carriers painted a gloomy picture of mounting deficits and declining income.

Seizure Of Quemoy And Matsu Would Involve US

By AL KAFF
United Press International

TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI) — The Chinese Nationalist air force announced that more than 10 Red Chinese MIG17 jet fighters intercepted two Nationalist Sabre jets off the Fukien coast today.

The Nationalist and Communist planes engaged in a dog fight for seven minutes, the communique said, but no damage was reported done to either side.

Earlier, Defense Minister Yu Ta-Wei said that Communist seizure of the Quemoy and Matsu outpost islands would involve the United States in the Red war of nerves against Nationalist China.

In an exclusive interview, Yu said that loss of the Quemoy and Matsu would move the Nationalist defense line back to the Pescadores, which the United States has promised to protect.

The U.S. educated defense minister said the Communists are already developing a pattern of pressure against the outpost islands just like the one they used to drive the Nationalists out of the Tachen Islands three years ago.

This time, Yu said, there is one difference — Nationalist China is determined to fight if necessary to hold on to its last outposts instead of pulling out as it did from the Tachens.

"We will defend our territory to the bitter end..." he said. "If you do not hold the Quemoy-Matsu line, what line do you hold? Any other line would in-

Small Fry Skate Around US Capitol

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A small fry roller-skating party found out the fastest way to go through the smooth-surfaced tunnel between the U.S. Capitol and buildings where congressmen have their offices isn't by walking.

However, a conscientious page boy Tuesday halted the roller-skaters in mid-passage.

"Do you know where you are?" the teen-age page boy shouted indignantly at the three roller-skating boys — aged 12, 11 and 8.

"Sure," the 8-year-old said. "Congress."

"Well, stop that!" the page boy demanded, getting red.

"Okay," the 12-year-old promised. "But the roller skating here is pretty keen."

"I come here all the time," the 8-year old confided as they walked away sadly.

Office Flies US Flags Because Of Neighbors

NEW YORK (UPI) — Two small American flags hang today in the ground floor windows of a building on Park Avenue at 68th Street. Behind them are the offices of a small private organization, the Bureau of Municipal Research.

The flags are there because next door is the residential and office headquarters of the Soviet delegation to the United Nations. A few weeks ago, Hungarian demonstrators threw rocks through the windows because they thought the offices also belonged to the Russians.

The House Prepares Citations

By JAMES BAAR
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House prepared to cite Boston millionaire Bernard Goldfine and two alleged Communists today for contempt of Congress.

Rep. Thomas B. Curtis (R-Mo.), planned a one-man battle against the contempt action against Goldfine, gift-giving friend of Sherman Adams. But his rear-guard action was almost certain to fail and an overwhelming House contempt vote was all but assured.

Goldfine was accused of contempt for refusing to answer 22 questions about his financial dealings posed by the House investigating subcommittee headed by Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark.). He contended the questions were not relevant to the group's inquiry into federal regulatory agencies.

The subcommittee, insisting the questions were relevant, voted 9-0 to cite the Boston textile manufacturer for contempt. The parent House Commerce Committee, also headed by Harris, backed it up by a 30-0 vote.

After approval by the House, the contempt citation would go to the Justice Department for almost certain prosecution which could take at least two years. If convicted Goldfine faces a maximum sentence of a year in jail and a $1,000 fine.

The defense minister said the Communists have moved their Russian-made MIG17 jets to a forward base only 15 minutes by air from Taipei. He emphasized the Nationalist need for late-model planes "to maintain air superiority," but said they need not necessarily be a gift to the Nationalist air force.

Social Security Bill May Be Vetoed As Inflationary

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Frank Carlson (R-Kan.) said today he thinks President Eisenhower will cap this heavily-vetoed session of Congress by rejecting an election-year Social Security bill as "too inflationary."

Carlson told United Press International he believes the Senate Finance Committee will approve and Congress will pass the Social Security bill without eliminating a public assistance section objected to by the administration.

Republicans generally felt the President's latest flurry of vetoes marked his determination to "stand firm" against inflationary trends. Carlson contended that if the 286-million-dollar public assistance part of the bill was inflationary, "then the 700-million-dollar age assistance section is inflationary, too."

there could be trouble while Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko, who is leading the Soviet delegation to the General Assembly, is living there.

Gromyko's presence, actually, seems unlikely to stir emotions at all the way a visit of Nikita Khrushchev could. In any event, New York police are ready to stop any demonstration quickly.

Police Commissioner Stephen Kennedy ordered 20 patrolmen, four sergeants and a captain to start standing guard at the Russian building at 6 a.m. Twenty more policemen were assigned nearby and a detective squad car was on hand to follow Gromyko wherever he goes.

Battalion Of Marines Begins Withdrawal From Lebanon

By LARRY COLLINS
United Press International
BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — A battalion of 1,800 U.S. Marines and several hundred Navy Seabees today began the slow process of pulling out of Lebanon. The withdrawal—the American answer to Russian charges of U.S. "aggression"—began at dawn with hot and sweating Leathernecks loading their heavy equipment aboard Navy LSTs. The Marines landed here July 15 at invitation of President Camille Chamoun who felt his government threatened by Syrian infiltration and a revolutionary movement at home.

The Marines said they would be loading equipment throughout the day and possibly Thursday before all of them actually rejoin the ships of the U.S. 6th fleet.

The withdrawal leaves approximately 9,000 airborne troops and 3,000 Marines in Lebanon. The men and officers of the 2nd Battalion of the 2nd U.S. Marine Division began moving out only a few hours before the U.N. General Assembly opened its crucial debate on the Middle East in New York.

The 2nd Battalion was the first to come ashore here in response to the urgent appeal of Chamoun for assistance in "maintaining the independence and integrity" of Lebanon.

The partial — but significant — withdrawal was announced Tuesday by Adm. James (Lord Jim) Holloway, commander of American forces in Lebanon.

He said the evacuation was carried out in agreement with Chamoun and President-elect Maj. Gen. Fuad Chehab that "there has been material improvement in the internal and external security situation" in Lebanon.

A State Department spokesman in Washington said he knew of no plans for any immediate withdrawal. (See BATTALION, Page 3)

Life-Saving Courses To Get Underway

A two week junior and senior life saving course will get underway Friday in the City pool, announces the Pampa Red Cross.

Mrs. Warren Jackson and Mrs. R. A. Fugate will be the Red Cross instructors.

"Junior life savers will not be required to take a written exam or compelled to read the textbook but will be required to learn the skills taught," Mrs. F. W. Shottwell, executive secretary, said today.

The course will be taught in two parts; senior life saving, an 18 hour course, and junior life saving, 16 hours. Senior life savers will be required to read the textbook and take tests.

Highlights Six-Point Middle East Program

By BRUCE W. MUNN
United Press International

UNITED NATIONS (UPI) — President Eisenhower today urged speedy creation of a standby United Nations military force and a do-it-yourself economic program for the Arab states in a six-point peace plan for the Middle East.

Eisenhower addressed the opening session of a United Nations General Assembly called into emergency meeting to consider the Middle East crisis. It was his first appearance before the U. N. body since he made his dramatic "atoms for peace" proposal from the same rostrum on Dec. 8, 1953.

He and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko were the only speakers listed at today's meeting of the 81 U.N. members.

The President denounced efforts of Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev "to create a war hysteria" in the Mideast crisis.

Without mentioning Khrushchev by name, Eisenhower said the Russian leader's efforts "to exploit man's horror of war" could be called "ballistic blackmail."

His 6-Point Plan
The President said it was "important" that his six-point plan be viewed as a whole. He listed it: "United Nations concern for Lebanon.

"United Nations measures to preserve peace in Jordan. "An end to the fomenting from without of civil strife. "A United Nations peace force. "A regional economic development plan to assist and accelerate improvement in the living standards of the people in these Arab nations. "Steps to avoid a new arms race spiral in the area."

As a means of preventing outside sources from stirring up strife from within, the President proposed U.N. monitoring of radio broadcasts "directed across national frontiers in the troubled Near East Area."

Need Standby Peace
The President said carrying out of his peace plan could mean "in a few short years" that the Lebanon and Jordan crises would mark "the beginning of a great new era of Arab history."

Referring to Russia's "ballistic blackmail," the President demanded: "Should it not be serious international misconduct to manufacture a general war scare in an effort to achieve local political aims?"

Such pressures will never be used successfully against the United States, he said. But he said he had asked to address the General Assembly for the second time because such pressures created "dangers which affect every one of us."

The Lebanon and Jordan crises "clearly demonstrated" the urgent need for setting up a standby U.N. military force, the President said.

Such pressures will never be used successfully against the United States, he said. But he said he had asked to address the General Assembly for the second time because such pressures created "dangers which affect every one of us."

Scout Heads Set Meeting Tomorrow

The case of "Elusive Elmer" will come before the Commissioner's Staff of the Santa Fe District, Boy Scouts of America, tomorrow. Elmer is the code name for the unknown boy who will register as the 5,800th Scout in the Adobe Walls Council.

Meeting at 7:30 p.m. in the City Commission room, the commissioners will get in shape for the fall membership Round Up, according to Dr. George S. Neil, District commissioner.

Although the Round Up will not have its official opening until September, the unit registering the 5,800th Scout, be he Cub, Boy Scout or Explorer, will receive the original color drawing of Elusive Elmer, which now hangs in Pampa Boy Scout Office.

To aid in the fall Round Up, surveys have been made in the schools, giving the names of boys who would like to enter Scouting.

Tomorrow, Joe Fischer, Roy Russell, and Cletus Mitchell, assistant District commissioners, will work with the neighborhood commissioners on the way of the Round Up.

position with greater exactness than surface ships using compass and less precise forms of navigation.

Knowledge of this Arctic shortcut would enable transfer of submarine fleets from Pacific to Atlantic far faster than now possible. With the fleet of U.S. missile-firing subs steadily expanding, this new passageway would enable American undersea forces to strike swiftly and secretly at distant targets.

Can't Be Detected

Russia, as far as is known, has no atomic submarines. There was speculation, but no official confirmation, that a third U.S. atomic sub—the Sea Wolf—is in the Arctic area. It has been gone from its home base at New London, Conn., as long as the Skate.

The United States is building a number of nuclear-powered submarines to be armed with 1,500-mile Polaris ballistic missiles which could operate in Arctic waters.

There presently is no operational device known which is capable of detecting from above a submarine lurking beneath the 10 to 14 foot thick shield of polar ice. Even the submarines must surface to establish radio contact.

Henderson Ranks High In Company

Representing the Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York, E. L. "Smiley" Henderson placed third in the South Central Department for the month of July. Frank F. Fata, District manager of Amarillo, made the announcement.

Fata further announced that Henderson has qualified himself for an educational conference which began yesterday in Sante Fe, N. M.

Henderson has been a representative of Equitable Life for over a year. Since last June he applied himself to such an extent that at the end of July, and for that one month, he ranked third in the 14 state South Central Department and 28th in the nation out of 6,900 agents.

As guests of Equitable, Henderson and his family will be in Sante Fe through Friday for the educational conference.

Henderson is also secretary-treasurer of the Top o' Texas Life Underwriters.

'Panhandle Reflections' Flower Show To Highlight History Of Early Times

Pampa Garden Club and Pampa Rose Society will stage a late summer flower show with the theme, "Panhandle Reflections" on August 23 from 2 p.m. until eight in Lovett Memorial Library. The public is cordially invited to attend the free floral display.

Divisions and specifications information may be secured from the Garden Club flower show chairman, Mrs. Martin Stubbe, or from the Rose Society flower show chairman, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Brandt.

Flower arrangements will follow the general theme of the show title, "Panhandle Reflections." Arrangements may be created around "Commanche Moon" with the Indian motif; "Conquistadors," the Spanish influence; "Pioneer Days," "El Rancho" depicting the very early days of this area's history; "Harvesting the Wheat" suggested for use of dried materials; "Get Along Little Doggie" for a miniature arrangement; "Black Gold"; "In All Kinds Of Weather"; "Industries on Parade"; "We Go To Church Sunday"; and "Pampa Beauties on Parade."

RULES

1. Entries will be received from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. Saturday, August 23. Those brought in later will be shown but cannot compete for prizes.

2. Judging time will be from 12:30 p.m. Removal time from 8 p.m. to 8:45 p.m.

3. All garden club members are required to enter at least three exhibits. In classes having a, b, c, and so on a member will be permitted to enter one in each. Otherwise only one entry to a class.

4. All entries must be correctly labeled when brought in.

5. Foliage should be left on stems above water line on specimens.

6. Specimen flowers will be shown in containers furnished by flower show committee.

7. Men's Division will follow schedule but be judged separately.

8. Junior Division will be judged separately.

9. Ribbons will be given for 1st, 2nd, and third places and honorable mentioned with special award for most blue ribbons.

10. Show will be judged on scale points in National Council Handbook. Decision of judges will be final.

11. In specimens and arrangements, unless otherwise stated, colors may be chosen at own discretion, but a more harmonious display of multiple specimens is made by using one color.

12. All exhibitors take note: Arrangements are of fresh plant material only. Any of the following conditions classify the exhibit as a composition. Use of any dried processed, or paint materials, weathers, figurines, shells, rocks, coral, etc. Figurines, lids, background materials, accessory containers, bases other than those belonging to or a part of a container.

RUTH MILLETT

Most women talk too much. They'll let down their hair to a friend or an acquaintance who seems sympathetic. Then days or weeks or months later, they wonder how some story ever got started.

The story started, all too often, with something they told the sympathetic friend or acquaintance—and grew with each telling.

For instance, Mrs. A. tells Mrs. B. that Jim has so many business worries he is as cross as a bear and about as pleasant as one to have around the house.

Months later Mrs. A. is incensed when a catty acquaintance remarks in tones dripping with fake sympathy that she was so shocked when she heard that Jim might be forced to sell his business and she certainly hopes it was just one of those rumors.

Or Mrs. A. comments to Mrs. C. that 15-year-old Betty seems to have less judgment than she had two years ago. Before long people are going around saying that Mrs. A. is having a hard time with Betty and that is probably the reason why Betty is being sent away to school.

Or Mrs. A., momentarily annoyed with Mrs. D., lets off steam by saying exactly what she thinks about her. And after the annoyance has blown over she wonders why in the world Mrs. D. has suddenly become so cool toward her. Women wouldn't get themselves into these situations if, when they are tempted to let down their hair, they would ask themselves two questions.

"Will I feel differently about this next week, and wish I'd kept the matter to myself?"

"If what I am about to confide is repeated, is it the kind of story that is likely to grow bigger and bigger in the process of being passed along?"

It's amazing how often when a woman is the victim of gossip, it is gossip she started herself—just by talking too much.

DEAR ABBY...

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Just what do air-conditioning engineers say? How low should a thermostat be set in an office? We girls shiver while the men in the office wear woolen suits—and turn the thermostat down to 62. In winter you'd have your furnace turned on at 62! We can't wear our summer clothes to work because we'd freeze in them. We've all had our turns at stiff necks, colds and earaches because of the air-conditioning. Please say something in your column. These men don't believe anything unless they see it in black and white.

I will speak for all of us. It concerns my neighbor. She lets her small children out of the house before seven o'clock in the morning and when they get out they act like they have just escaped from a cage. They scream, sing and yell as loud as they can. Many people are trying to sleep at seven in the morning. I never let my children out of the house until after eight. Please tell me if I am wrong to complain?

DISGUSTED

DEAR DISGUSTED: Your neighbor is inconsiderate. Have a talk with her and tell her if she must let her children out so early, to please instruct them to be quiet, or to stay with them and KEEP them quiet.

DEAR ABBY: My neighbors moved away and couldn't take their collie puppy with them so they gave it to me because they know I love animals. After a few weeks I could see that my own dog (whom I've had for eight years) resented the new dog, so I thought it best to give the collie to a friend of mine in the country. When I went to see this friend three months later I was shocked to see the puppy I'd given her, looking so sickly and thin. I asked if he had been sick and she said, "No he eats good. We given him potato peels and table-scraps and plenty of it." This hurt me because I am a dog lover. It has been bothering me. Should I ask for the dog back and try to find it a better home?

DOG LOVER

DEAR DOG LOVER, Certainly. Ask for the dog, and if you can't find a home in which it will be happy and well treated, your Humane Society will take good care of it.

DEAR ABBY: I can't let this opportunity pass without telling the mother who complained about her boys taking off their shoes just any place in the house. I know this mother loves her boys as I do mine, but she doesn't realize how quickly they can slip away even if it's only going out in life on their own. But my oldest son died last summer and believe you me I'd gladly help him find his shoes if I could just have him back. I looked for his shoes many times and it never got on my nerves. Tell her she doesn't have a problem, she has a blessing, and she should thank God for the boys who are still with her.

A SAD HEART

CONFIDENTIAL TO "CRAZY-OVER-HORSES": Don't make any long-range promises without thinking it over. You're just feeling your oats.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Clean Up That Winsome Smile

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

The gal who's smart about beauty is the one who gives as much thought and care to her teeth as she does to her hair and make-up. For the fact is that a sickly smile can ruin the effects of the other two.

In her teens, a gal doesn't give much thought to her teeth unless she suddenly pops a lot of cavities. Then she starts taking care. In her twenties, she is bound to have dental work and this is the point at which she is forced to face the fact that if she doesn't want to lose her teeth in her mid-years, she'd better take care of them.

Taking care of them means using dental floss as well as a toothbrush. Your dentist has probably told you this. Now is the time to heed his good advice.

For dental floss gets at all those spots that a brush can't reach. It reduces the possibilities of decay and subsequent cavities enormously. It is, in fact, so important that you should have it with you at your office to use after lunch. It should go with you, in the small size container, on any trip.

With proper brushing, the daily use of dental floss and the right diet, you may avoid ever having the expense and trouble involved in false teeth.

Colonial Inn Dinner Honors Guests

S. G. Surratt and his houseguests, Misses Grace and Harriet McCarthy, of Oklahoma City his sisters-in-law, honored a group of their friends with a dinner in the Colonial Inn on Thursday evening.

The centerpiece for the dining table was an arrangement of Helen Traubel Roses and daisies in a crystal epergne with crystal candleabra holding tall, pink tapers. Place-cards carried out the theme of the centerpiece.

Following dinner, the group returned to the Surratt home for an evening of conversation.

Honored guests were Messrs. and Mrs. Curt Beck, Horace McBea, and Jack Nickols.

MATURE PARENT

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

In the crowded classroom of the small boy and his mother were shown to a table.

She didn't seat him. Instead she said, "would you like to sit on the chair or the bench, Christopher?"

After prolonged hesitation, Christopher chose the chair, and the aisle was freed of its blocked traffic.

Other decisions were soon required of him. He chose between clam broth and chicken soup, between a toasted and untoasted turkey sandwich. He chose not to have the sandwich cut into smaller pieces.

But he could not manage the decision between banana and peach ice cream. He solved his dilemma by an irritable, "I don't want any ice cream!"

The next moment he realized the fate to which he'd doomed himself—and in despair shoved his glass of milk to the floor.

"The crisis over discipline has developed because parents are not sure that they are all-wise," anthropologist Margaret Mead said recently.

I think Christopher's mother suffered from the obligation to be all-wise. Fearing that her decisions for him might be wrong, she exhausted him with the effort to make them for her.

The parent education profession is partially responsible for our need to be all-wise mothers and fathers.

By telling us what is the "right" thing to do about everything from thumb-sucking to disobedience, it has made millions of us so uncertain of our judgment that we cannot take any convinced action toward children.

If we remove Linda's thumb from her mouth, we jerk it out irritably because we know that the experts consider removing it "wrong."

If we spank Jimmy for disobedience, we can't wait for him to forgive us, because we know we've delivered discipline that falls short of ideal wisdom. As Linda and Jimmy feel this wobbliness in us, they soon become as critical of our discipline as we are.

The parent education people have not interpreted the psychological sciences accurately to us. Psychiatry does not propose to make us perfect. It seeks to help us live at peace with the fact that we are imperfect.

Mrs. Waters Goes To Music Lodge

Mrs. W. D. Waters, 1224 Christine, and Mrs. Douglas Smith, Panhandle, spent last week at Lake Texoma Lodge, near Kington, Okla., attending a piano class conducted by Frances Clark of Princeton, N. J.

With a staff of seven artist-teachers, classes were conducted in piano literature, analysis, repertoire, development of reading skills, theory, technique, musicology and an intensive course in piano pedagogy.

An artists' recital was given one evening in the week by Melvina Trumann, a staff member; as well as ensemble recitals by other artists on the staff.

Piano teachers from fifteen states attended the course.

Wins First Game
Tom Acker finally won his first game of the season for the Redlegs behind a 13-hit attack that featured Bob Thurman's three-run double in a six-run sixth-inning uprising.

Mantle, whose homer gave him the American League lead in that department, also had a double and a single. Gil McDougald also homered for the Yankees while Bob Nieman homered both Baltimore runs in the seventh.

Early Wynn pitched a five-hitter to win his 10th game of the year and the 245th of his career. Jim Landis pitched the White Sox' attack with two hits and drove in three runs.

Langford To Play With East In Greenebelt Game Friday

Robert Langford will appear with the East Team in the Ninth Annual battle of area All Stars in Childrens on August 15th. He was one of forty-eight selected from a field of over 100 boys nominated by coaches from 69 area high schools. Boys were selected on the basis of their high school football performance record and on the basis of their coaches' recommendation as to character and attitude.

Wade To Get Test As Redskin Chief

By JACK CUDDY
United Press International
LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Rangy, brown-haired Bill Wade—quarterback and prayer leader of the Los Angeles Rams—will get his first official test as "man in charge" Saturday night when the Rams play the Washington Redskins at the Coliseum in a charity exhibition game.

Some 80,000 are expected for the contest in which Wade, a modern-trend "running" quarterback, will be No. 1 field general for the first time since Norm Van Brocklin was traded to Philadelphia.

His performance may indicate whether the Rams can hope to win the National Football League championship this year and surpass the club attendance record of 1,061,106 set last season.

Must Run and Pass
Coach Sid Gillman, in his fourth season with the Rams, believes they may go beyond 1,500,000 if they can get and hold a lead; for they generally are admitted the most colorful outfit in the circuit.

Wade's rise is an example of how the Rams try persistently to keep a step ahead of the opposition in moving men up, and in using players apparently "made" for a particular position.

The position of quarterback in the league today demands a player with terrific running speed as well as passing ability. He must be able to put on running bursts at intervals when required. That combination is an essential now under the standard "T" formation used in the circuit. The split "T" is practically obsolete in the league because no quarterback could long survive the pounding he would receive from 250-pounders if he ran with any regularity.

Leads Team in Prayer
Wade, 26—a bonus pick from Vanderbilt in 1952—is a quarterback of the latest trend, whose running potential along with his passing makes him a threat that prevents defensive ends or linebackers from plunging in too recklessly.

Wade, in armed service in 1952 and 1953, joined the Rams in '54. At that time Van Brocklin was at his peak and the waning Bob Waterfield was still capable, Bill didn't get much chance to play regularly and he never had the attention-creating responsibility of being "the man in charge."

Bill not only is the field general now but he also leads the squad in prayer when it gathers in a circle about him before the start of each game. He kneels on the turf and his standing mates pray with him.

Patterson Sloppy In Last Go

By JACK CUDDY
United Press International
OCEANSIDE, Calif. (UPI) — Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson appears "sloppy" in his sparring session at this southern California beach resort and shopping center. Floyd, 23, is either off form from boredom with long training or he's acting to help the gate for Monday's title defense against unbeaten Roy Harris at Wrigley Field in Los Angeles. He never tried acting before. "With two more boxing workouts I'm sure I'll be sharp for the fight," he told sportswriters today. "I do feel a bit slow, but I'm get-

The meeting held last night to find out who was interested in building a new ball park in Pampa was somewhat of a success. One man, who will not be mentioned, is the key to the whole thing. If he decides to kick in the whole amount the park will either be built on the Optimist Club land or out at Recreation Park. It looks like another meeting will be held before long.

The Pampa Women Bowling Association has a meeting planned for 7:30 tonight in the Cabot Coffee Room on the fifth floor of the Hughes Building. Jean Chisholm, president of the Association, said that the meeting will be held to discuss the possibility of having a Top o' Texas bowling Tournament here this winter.

J. D. Hester of White Deer came in with some pictures of some pretty good fish yesterday. Hester caught one Aug. 4th, at the Standford Lake that weighed 33 lb. He was using a trot line with carp for bait.

Games will be played Thursday, Friday, Saturday and the finals will be played Sunday afternoon at the Harvester Baseball park.

Don't forget to buy your tickets for the Patterson - Harris fight. They can be purchased at the Maxor Drug Company in Amarillo. Prices are $5.50 and $3.50.

The Top o' Texas Softball Tournament opens tomorrow night with 12 teams playing at the same time at six different ball parks. How about that?

Texas Tech has signed eight players in the Greenbelt Bowl Game and West Texas State drew five of the Greenbelt All Stars. Robert Langford will be Pampa's representative in the game and we should be pretty well represented. Don't forget to buy your tickets for the Tele-Prompter fight Monday night.

OTTAWA RELEASES TWO
OTTAWA, Ont. (UPI)—Ottawa Rough Rider Coach Frank Clair announced Tuesday the release of Ed Petrarca of Boston College and Ernie Zampese of Southern California.

Lanky Sisto Rodriguez, who has a stand-up jabbing and hooking style similar to that of Harris, made the champion appear sloppy in their two rounds. Moreover, he landed several "sneaker" rights on Floyd's face—rights like those Harris is grooming.

And in his two frames with shorter Frank McCoy the champ missed many hooks and resorted to his old-time leaping "gazelle punch," as he tried to spear McCoy with flying rights and lefts. When he finished the workout, there was a lump on the right side of Floyd's face.

True, he was using two speedy San Francisco light-heavyweights during Tuesday's four rounds at the Community Center. But he had worked with good sparmates in the East, too.

Largest Crop In US History Due

WASHINGTON (UPI)—American farmers are producing by far the largest crop in U.S. history this year. And they're doing it on the smallest acreage in 40 years.

The Agriculture Department's August crop production estimate Monday said the 1958 crop will be 113 per cent of the 1947-49 base period. This compares with previous record crops, which were 104 per cent of the base period, in 1948, 1956 and 1957.

The department said gains in yield prospects during July now seem likely to make 1958 the nation's biggest crop year "by far."

The department reported major gains in production estimates over July forecasts in corn, oats, barley, spring wheat, flaxseed and dry beans. Relatively smaller but important increases were estimated for winter wheat, hay, rice and tobacco.

Fashionwise, The Man In The Gray Flannel Suit Is Through

Woman's View
By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI)—Oh to be a man shopping for a new fall wardrobe. No big decisions to make concerning the high waistline, the low waistline or the no waistline.

For the happy male, it's mostly a matter of deciding which stripes. This fall, the man who dresses to the minute will wear more of them than a convict, although the stripes will be subtle and not cell-block bold.

"The man in the gray flannel suit is through," said a stylist for the men's and boy's wear industry council. "This will be a striped year."

Favorite combinations are black and brown. A narrow black stripe, for instance, runs through a brown suit — brown is a leading suit color for fall. Or, a brown stripe is used on a black background.

The men don't suffer through all the fluctuations in fashion we women do. But this fall there are some changes. First, a slight alteration in shape.

The council said the Ivy League straight lines have given way to a silhouette it called the "American Ambassador" — with some indentation in the suit jacket at the waist, closer spacing of jacket buttons and some shoulder padding. Plus, pleated trousers which the true Ivy Leaguer disdains but which help camouflage any waist-line bulge.

The new silhouette is generally slim, with narrow lapels and narrow trousers. And any hat with a brim wider than two inches is old hat. This fall, hats are to be worn pinched at the front—"centre-dent," the industry calls the crease. Hatband bows are on the side, not the back.

Record Wheat Crop
The department estimated the cotton crop last week at 6 per cent more than the 1957 crop. Sorghum grain has record yield per acre prospects. Soybeans are growing a record crop from near-record yield prospects on the largest acreage ever grown.

All wheat and barley crops are record size. Corn and hay crops are their second largest. Oats, potatoes and sugar crops are well above average.

The yield per acre prospects for 28 leading crops now have an index of 137 per cent of the 1947-49 base period. This is 8 per cent above the 1957 yield and 27 per cent above the per acre yield level of that big crop in 1948 which is now being surpassed in output by a much smaller acreage.

The corn production estimate at 3,500,000,000 bushels is 5 per cent above the July 1 forecast, 2 per cent above last year and 11 per cent above average. It was only slightly below the record 1948 output of 3,605,000,000 bushels.

The crop reporting board estimated the Iowa corn crop a whopping 616 million bushels and the Illinois crop at 551 million bushels.

The corn yield was estimated at 47.6 bushels an acre. Last year it was 46.8 bushels an acre.

North's raise to two no-trump was a rock-bottom minimum and with only 16 points South probably should have passed, but he looked at his three ten spots and decided that they constituted sufficient additional values to warrant a game bid.

Incidentally, I rather agree with South. The rather of playing hands at two no-trump is a bad one. With luck you make three; with bad luck you may not be able to make your two.

When the dummy came down, South wished he had stopped short of game. He could count eight sure tricks and needed a spade trick for his ninth. Meanwhile, East and West might be able to find their heart suit. South decided that his best bet would be a little misdirection, so he won the first diamond in dummy and led the three of hearts. East played four. South played the ten and West took his queen.

It was too much for West to visualize the heart situation. He decided to try spades instead. A low spade was won by East's king and South false-carded with the ten spot. Back came the six of spades and again South false-carded with the jack. West took his ace and led a third spade, whereupon South was able to gather in the rest of the tricks.

H-Bomb Raids Could Kill Estimated 160 Million In US

July petroleum demand was "surprisingly strong," the Chase Manhattan Bank reported. The rate of demand at 8,800,000 barrels daily was 1.2 per cent better than July, 1957, and 220,000 greater than June. There also was substantial price recovery during July, the bank reported.

Factory shipments of shoes in June rose 1.9 per cent above the year-earlier rate, reflecting an upturn in retail demand, according to trade figures. In July shoe production was about the same level as the 46 million pairs made in July, 1957.

secret study Monday estimating that most of us—nearly 160 million persons—would be killed in an H-bomb raid now on 150 American cities.

This startling figure was contained in a study of probable effects of a nuclear attack prepared by the Rand Corporation, a research concern that does top-secret research for the Air Force.

The House military operations subcommittee, in releasing the study, said it was made by the Rand Corporation on its own and not with government money.

The subcommittee, which long has urged a 20-billion-dollar nuclear shelter program, renewed its appeal with release of the study. It said failure of the administration and Congress to adopt the program has put the nation in "mortal danger."

Rep. Chet Hollifield (D-Calif.)

of the 1947-49 average, against the previous record of 106 per cent set in 1948 and reached again in 1956 and 1957.

The Treasury bill rate rose sharply this week to 1.524 per cent from 1.165 last week, bringing the rate to its highest point since mid-March. Bankers acceptance and commercial paper also were marked up.

subcommittee chairman, told United Press International that blind economy by the Eisenhower administration was blocking the shelter program.

"We spend 40 billion dollars a year for defense and it gives us no final defense," he said. "We gamble everything on the idea that our retaliatory power will prevent an atomic war. But what if it doesn't? The nation has virtually no civil defense at all."
The Rand Corp. study did not specify the degree of preparedness in individual cities nor name the 150 cities. But expert witnesses before the sub committee—backed by Hollifield—said there was virtually no preparedness in any American cities.

Four Dangers Are Confronting Israel

By ELIYU SIMON

United Press International
JERUSALEM, Israel (UPI)—
Prime Minister David Ben Gurion recently told local leaders that not since World War II when German Field Marshal Erwin Rommel was knocking at the gates of Egypt has the Mideast been in such potential danger.

The Mideast is bound to be the main point on the agenda of any international talks, though in the local view the present time is most inopportune and circumstances are extremely unfavorable to the West.

However, Israel need not necessarily suffer as a consequence, one source pointed out.

When Ben Gurion told the Knesset the week before last that any decisions taken at summit talks involving Israel without her presence would not be binding on her, he was serving warning on both East and West that if driven into a corner Israel in desperation is a factor to be reckoned with.

At the proposed summit conference, the Soviets were expected to harp on so-called Western aggression in the Mideast. The West would review factors behind current unrest in the region. The Russians would not reject discussion of this subject since their position is strong, one source said.

"All they want ostensibly is for the Arabs to be left alone with their new friends," he added.

The summit is now off but the Mideast position remains the same.

Although the Arab-Israel dispute is not the main pivot of the Mideast today its implications cannot be avoided. This confronts Israel with the following four dangers:

—Firstly, Khrushchev wants Indian Premier Jawaharlal Nehru in on any solution, and it is likely that both will try to satisfy the Arabs at Israel's expense concerning the return of Palestine Arab refugees and territorial changes.

—Secondly, Britain which will make no concession in Kuwait or elsewhere on the Arabian peninsula, will not only not oppose measures against Israel's interests but may even take the lead in proposing them.

—Thirdly, in order not to aggravate conditions in the Mideast,
Secretary of State John Foster
Dulles will not oppose anti-Israel decisions.

—Fourthly, even French President Charles de Gaulle, who already stands alone, wants to make some compromise with the Arabs regarding Algeria by establishing good relations with United Arab Republic President Gamal
Abdel Nasser.

This is the reasoning here among local leaders, who do not consider it likely that the powers participating in any conference will employ force to compel Israel to accept a solution against her interest. Nevertheless, the Arabs united under Nasser will certainly exploit any such decision in order to make matters difficult for Israel.

ISRAEL FEARS THE GRASPING CLAW—In the belief that in a matter of weeks or a few months, Lebanon and Jordan will fall into the grip of Gamal Abdel Nasser and his United Arab Republic, Israel has asked Russia for a meeting between Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion and President Nasser. Map shows how, with Lebanon and Jordan taken over by pro-UAR conspirators, Israel would be surrounded by a solid bloc (shown in black) of enemy Arab countries, their total manpower far outweighing Israel's small, but hard-hitting army.
