PEP MAY RETIRE

HARTFORD, Conn. (UPI)—Wille Pep, the former world featherweight champion who was knocked out by Hogan (Kid) Bassey, the reigning king, last Saturday, may hang up his gloves. His friends are urging him to call it a career.

The conference board said its index for August remained at 107.4 per cent of the 1953 base period. The index was 2.2 per cent above a year ago.

The August index mirrored a decline of 0.6 per cent in food prices which offset increases of 0.5 per cent in both transportation and sundries and 0.1 per cent in housing. Apparel was unchanged from July.

Compared with a year ago, all major components of the index were higher, with food costs up 3.6 per cent to lead the way.

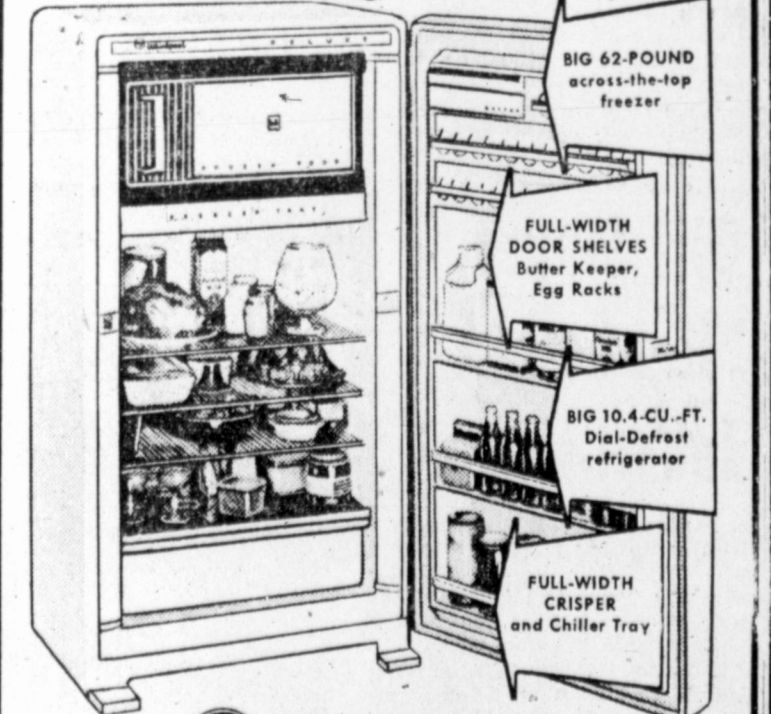

Last Friday, the Bureau of Labor Statistics said its cost-of-living

Slow In Warming Up, Harvey Rated As Rewarding Show

Television in Review
By WILLIAM EWALD
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—Reviewed "Harvey" after catching a pre-view of it, but I suppose I should do some sort of postscript to Monday night's CBS-TV spectacular.

It still struck me as a rather rewarding 90-minute excursion, perhaps a trifle slow in warming up. One aspect of the piece, however, that escaped me on Sunday was brought sharply into focus by Monday night's performance: As skillful as the performances of Art Carney, Marion Lorne and Loring Smith were, their styles didn't always mesh well.

I don't think it was anyone's fault. It was just that Miss Lorne and Smith—leaning hard on stage technique—played their roles much larger than life.

They turned out broad, exaggerated portraits, almost caricatures of people. But very funny caricatures.

Carney and some of the lesser players—notably Elizabeth Montgomery—underplayed a little. Their acting was very televisionish.

As a result, Miss Lorne and Smith tended to swallow up those in the cast like Carney who understated.

Awkward Style
This contrast of styles seemed to give "Harvey" an occasional awkwardness, a herky-jerkiness of mood. Aside from that, thumbs up again.

NBC-TV unpackaged "Peter Gunn" Monday night, a Mike Hammer type of superman shoot-em-up.

Its here—who seems to be made up of equal parts of gristle and waltzschmerz—operates outside the law to cool off people he considers a threat to the community. A kind of storm trooper, only on our side.

I find the series' premise rather ugly, but in its favor it should also be said that it's reaching for something a little different from most TV fare.

The relationship of its boy-girl—Craig Stevens and Lola Albright—is occasionally crackly. Its villain Monday night was an Ivy League type who played squash rackets for recreation.

Father's Back
"Father Knows Best" returned Monday night on CBS-TV. I know that many viewers look upon the series as healthy and warm, but I find it a little like a Norman Rockwell painting: It shows us life not as it really is, but as we—mesmerized by Hollywood and Madison Avenue—sometimes kid ourselves into believing that it is.

The Channel Swim: CBS-TV hopes to land Polly Bergen for a one-shot musical version of "The Enchanted Cottage"—you may remember the movie with Dorothy McGuire... Sydney Chaplin, son of Charlie Chaplin, is the lead contender for the role of the magazine publisher in "Wonderful Town," a CBS-TV world series assignment... Frank Leahy, former Notre Dame coach, has agreed to do the color and analyzing for Mutual radio's football games this season starting with this Saturday's Army-South Carolina game—Bill Stern is in for the play-by-play.

Ed Sullivan is the subject of the test film of Nat Hiken's proposed new CBS-TV series, "M'n of the Hour," the series would center around testimonial dinners of the Friars Club... CBS-TV's "Armstrong Circle Theater" will dramatize the story of James Her-mann, the Long Island, N.Y., resident whose house was upset by some ghostly whoop-de-do a couple of seasons back.

Gas Rates May Go Up Unless Merger Is Made

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Pacific Northwest Pipeline Corp. customers may face higher gas rates unless the company is allowed to merge with El Paso Natural Gas Co., a federal power commission hearing was told Wednesday.

Fulton W. Copp, a vice president of Pacific Northwest, testified that a denial of the merger application also would "slow industrial expansion and consumer service" in northwestern states.

El Paso has asked the commission for permission to merge with Pacific Northwest Pipeline, now its subsidiary. Executives of both companies have testified that joint operation of their facilities would "assure long-term gas supplies for the entire West Coast, as well as the lowest possible rates for customers."

The California attorney general's office is opposed to the proposal, claiming it would result in higher gas rates for the entire West. William M. Bennett, the state's assistant attorney general, also told the hearing last week that "California has no wish to be made solely dependent upon a single supplier for a commodity so vital as gas."

Resuming the stand this morning, Copp said that "without the merger Pacific Northwest consumers may face higher rates and the loss of potential sources of natural gas supplies."

Copp said further that higher rates would "retard substantially" extension of service to residential and commercial customers in the area.

US May Open New China Debate Soon

By BRUCE W. MUNN
United Press International
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI)—Diplomats have predicted the United Nations will launch a new China debate next month unless current U.S.-Communist talks in Warsaw show some quick sign of success.

The Communists already have written off the Warsaw talks as "mere empty words," making significant results unlikely.

The General Assembly disposed of the first phase of the "grand debate" on China Tuesday when it agreed to shelve for the duration of the current session proposals to oust the Chinese Nationalists or seat the Chinese Communists.

Voting against the American position from Western Europe were Denmark, Finland, Ireland, Norway and Sweden. Four other Europeans—Austria, Greece, Iceland and Portugal—four Afro-Asians and Israel abstained.

The final vote to adopt the recommendation of the Steering Committee, which had approved a U.S. proposal to shelve the representation issue, was 44-28 with 9 abstentions. Last year's vote on a similar proposal was 48-27 with 6 abstentions.

The assembly immediately swung back into its annual policy debate, which had been interrupted for two days of hot debate on the China question.

Indian Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko led a determined effort to force a full debate on the question of China's seat.

Britain, France, 10 members of the Afro-Asian bloc, all 20 Latin American nations and 8 Western European nations voted with the United States. Thirteen Afro-Asians, the nine-vote Soviet bloc, Yugoslavia and five West Europeans voted against the American proposal.

Everybody Gets Into The Act!

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI)—Mrs. James Wilmoth is just 28 years old, but she already has two grandchildren.

And Mrs. Wilmoth is expecting in December.

Farm Widow Relies Heavily On Bus

By MARGUERITE DAVIS
United Press International
CHICAGO (UPI)—A farm widow who depends on buses as her only means of transportation offered the Greyhound Bus Corp. $5,000 and a deed to her 48-acre farm if it will continue to stop at her home.

Mrs. Mary Holtman, in her 60's, told an Illinois Commerce Commission examiner she was alone in life and her greatest comforts were "my dog and the Greyhound bus."

"It comes in every morning like a shining streak of silver," she said.

Mrs. Holtman explained the bus has been stopping at her front gate for 12 years and she takes it several times a week on trips to Chicago's Loop for shopping excursions and to go to church.

The graying widow testified at a hearing on Greyhound's petition to speed its service by utilizing the Northwest Tollway for express runs between Chicago and Rockford, Ill.

The line also asked permission to abandon its present route over Illinois 51-72 past Mrs. Holtman's farm near Genoa, Ill., about 50 miles from Chicago because the route is a financial drain.

"When I heard the Greyhound was going to change the route, it was like hearing a funeral was going to be held," Mrs. Holtman said.

"I have more than I need," she pleaded. "I'm willing to give Greyhound $1,000 a year for five years—and I will sign a check in advance—and I will will my farm to the Greyhound corporation if they will keep the stop at my door."

Later, Mrs. Holtman told United Press International she would have to walk eight miles to the nearest bus stop, "and I just can't do it."

The examiner invited Mrs. Holtman to testify further Oct. 14 when the hearing is resumed. The widow said she would board a bus and be here.

Trial Put Off Until December

ANGLETON, Tex. (UPI)—Trial of Mrs. Ethel Mae Simpson of Fort Worth on charges of killing her husband while on a fishing trip in this area July 2 has been postponed until Dec. 1.

Mrs. Simpson's lawyers filed a motion for continuance and Dist. Judge T. M. Gupton re-set the trial for Dec. 1.

Mrs. Simpson first told authorities a Negro shot her husband, Jimmy Simpson, and attacked her while the couple was fishing in a river near Brazoria on the night of July 2.

Later, however, she admitted she shot Simpson and threw him gun in the river.

Modern Conveniences Help In Making A House A Home

By HELEN THOMAS
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI)—It takes more than a heap o'living to make a house a home.

A hand-and-hair blower dryer on the wall, air-conditioning, sound-proofing and a revolving television set fitted in the walls between rooms would be a big help—to hear the homemakers tell it.

The National Association of Homebuilders solicited their views in an essay contest and it got back some dreamy responses. The winners, nearly 100, will attend an expense-free three-day women's conference on housing in Washington, starting Oct. 14.

The ladies all seem to agree on one thing, the more built-ins, the better. The "family room" also has become a "must" with a fireplace, hi-fi, TV, bookshelves and card tables.

Mrs. Claire Bouton, Birmingham, Ala., essay winner, said she would like to have "low cabinets, transparent shelves, lighted counters, a dishwasher, disposal, canister bins with measuring handles, a self-defrosting refrigerator and a low luminous toilet" for her youngsters.

Mrs. Dorothy Ventrell of Rochester, Minn., wants a V-type of kitchen "for greater compactness and minimum amount of steps."

a counter-top built-in stove and an oven with a rotisserie.

She may have to fight it out at the convention with Mrs. Margaret A. Kozak of Sacramento, Calif., who says a U-shaped kitchen is ideal to cut the traffic.

Mrs. Donald C. Colver of Tonawanda, N.Y., wants her bedrooms to have one or more "built-in" units of drawers, mirror and wardrobe. She would also like a master vacuum cleaner in the basement with a hose connection in all rooms.

Mrs. Violet Cinquigranno of Metairie, La., seemed to be speaking for all the housewives when she made a pitch for a big kitchen to be used as a gathering place for the clan.

She wants lots of floor space and shelves that she can reach without climbing a ladder.

Mrs. Peggy Loeffler of Oklahoma City, Okla., wants sound-conditioned bedrooms which will be "islands of privacy." She also wants an intercommunication system to keep tabs on the kiddies.

All the homemakers seemed to want one room to which they could run when the strain of living with rock n' roll and model planes becomes too much. They called it a "sanctuary," a "retreat" and other peace-loving names.

Farmers' Deadline

AUSTIN (UPI)—Farmers were reminded Tuesday Sept. 30 is the deadline for claiming a three-cent-a-gallon refund of the federal excise tax on gasoline used on farms.

District Internal Revenue Director F. L. Phinney said claims should cover the fiscal year from July 1, 1957 through June 30, 1958.

Transport Ready

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The government Tuesday pronounced the Boeing 707 jet transport airworthy and ready to carry passengers.

It was the first American-built jet airliner to receive official approval from the Civil Aeronautics Administration.

Cartoon Characters Censored Closely

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Real actors can swear, get drunk, beat women and commit murder before the TV cameras, but cartoon characters—innocent little rabbits, birds and dogs—are the most strictly censored performers in history.

Walter Lantz, creator of Woody Woodpecker and a dozen other cartoons, has daily battles with the blue pencil boys to prevent show a cow's udders. All dialects are censored and that old standby, the navel, is taboo.

"Most of the films on our show were seen in theaters years ago. But they are strictly censored for TV."

"For instance, one of our six-minute cartoons depicted a grasshopper chewing tobacco and spitting. Network censors said it was bad for kids, so we were forced to hack out six scenes showing the spitting grasshopper."

"In other snags characters spit in one another's faces."

Lantz was chastized by the State Department for showing Mexican cartoon characters without shoes.

"I painted their feet black and called 'em shoes and we managed to get by," he grinned.

"There is no written code for

51st Year
Lantz argues that children watch "adult" shows on TV regularly.

"Our program reaches 187 stations," he said. "It's the top-rated daytime show."

"We know we have a tremendous number of kid viewers, and I'm sure we would exercise good judgment and good taste without such stringent censorship. So far, nobody's willing to give us a chance to prove it."

It's Been One Year Since Troops Entered Little Rock

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI) — It was one year ago yesterday that the 191 Airborne took over in Little Rock to enforce the Supreme Court's ruling against segregated education.

One year ago tonight, President Eisenhower told a national TV audience of his sadness in ordering the troops to move and of the firmness with which he intended to prevent unlawful interference with the court's decree.

If the President was sad, which he undoubtedly was, the prime emotion of some others peculiarly interested in the proceedings must have been stark astonishment. Such interested persons, for example, as members of the Senate subcommittee on constitutional rights.

Subcommittee hearings on the 1957 civil rights bill took place in mid-winter. The question whether the President of the United States could or would employ federal troops to enforce civil rights laws or judicial decrees created quite a hassle.

Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr. (D-N.C.) and subcommittee staff member Robert Young raised the question insistently to Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell Jr. They cited the so-called "force bills" enacted after the Civil War when the southern states became military districts under armed compulsion to approve certain laws and constitutional amendments.

The U.S. Congress specifically authorized the President to enforce with federal troops the civil rights laws projected. The point raised by Ervin and Young was that this authorization of the reconstruction period equally would support the use of federal troops then and now.

The attorney general did not want to discuss that at all and, finally, indicated he would have to walk out of the hearing if the matter were pressed. Here are some questions and answers after subcommittee discussion turned to the reconstruction bills and the use of U.S. armed forces:

Young: General (Brownell) in the Republican 1956 platform...

...the Republican Party takes a definite stand against the use of violence in the enforcement of court decrees. There has been a deal of worry, as you know, as to how far the federal government is prepared to go in the enforcement of court decrees in segregation cases. I would like from you now an expression whether this statute (permitting use of force) is intended at any time or has it been discussed, as being used for enforcement of these decrees?

Brownell: I am rather disturbed by you even raising these points, because, as I said so many times, public statements made by persons who intimate that there is any such thought in the minds of anyone here in Washington to use the militia in these cases does not represent the true state of facts and I think it can be brought into the discussion at all only to confuse the issue.

Ervin: We are entitled to make a record here that will show that if this bill is passed it will create a new type of remedy... under which the President by existing law can enforce by use of the armed forces.

Brownell: I believe there is here an implication that the President would act recklessly if not unconstitutionally, and I cannot just sit by and have the record contain

IT'S THE LAW in Texas
A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

Facts Needed to Plan Will
In planning your will, your lawyer will want to know your true wishes, and then, to help you realize them, he will want to know a few vital facts.

Are you married? Any children or grandchildren? Previously married? Widowed? Your age and those of your beneficiaries? Legal residence? Health?

Why these questions? You'll have to work out your plan in view of the laws governing death taxes, property laws, and, if you are married, separate and community property.

Age? If you wish to set up trusts in the will, your age and those of your beneficiaries may help you to decide whether, for example, to use capital of the trust fund as well as its income for the beneficiaries.

Your residence? Most important, since state laws govern many items of personal property.

Do you plan to move to another state? If so, consult its laws. Many people who come to Texas from other states should see that their wills conform to and take advantage of our laws.

Some people live half the year in Texas and half elsewhere. If you do, take steps to nail down your claim to reside in one state or another, to avoid needless litigation and possible claims to taxes in both states.

Your health? If possible, have your will drafted while you are in good health and clear minded.

Contests, though relatively rare in Texas, still do take place. In some cases, for example where non-relatives inherit, it may be a good idea to give reasons for these bequests in your will and to tell why you may have left some relative out (for instance, where a child has been taken care of by gifts or in other ways).

(This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

No News Conference
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The White House said Tuesday President Eisenhower will not hold a news conference this week. Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said the President expects, however, to meet reporters next Wednesday.

FCC Expected To Suspend Increases

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Federal Communications Commission is expected to suspend this week the increases in leased teletypewriter service proposed by the American Telephone & Telegraph and Western Union.

AT&T has proposed an average 26 per cent increase in teletypewriter rates. Western Union seeks a 23 per cent boost. Both organizations Monday appealed to the FCC to permit the hikes to become effective as scheduled Oct. 1.

The FCC is expected to take up the rate proposals at its regular meeting Wednesday. It discussed petitions opposing the increase at a meeting with its staff last Friday. In view of the mounting opposition from various users of the teletypewriter service a blocking action is expected by the commission.

Protests have been filed with the commission by press associations, transportation groups, brokerage houses and police agencies who use the service extensively.

Among them are United Press International, the American Newspaper Publishers Assn., the National Assn. of Broadcasters, the New York Stock Exchange, Commodity News Service, Inc., the American Trucking Assn., the New York Central Railroad and Pan American World Airways Inc. In a petition filed with the commission late Monday that AT&T said its teletypewriter services now provide a "wholly inadequate" 1.7 per cent rate of return. Under the circumstances, it said, "the need for immediate relief is clear."

California In Need For Gas From Outside

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A southern California utility executive said Tuesday that there is an "urgent need" for "substantial amounts" of natural gas from outside the state to meet California's rapidly growing demand.

Keith Kelsey of Los Angeles, assistant vice president of the Southern California Gas Co., told a Federal Power Commission hearing that gas from California sources is decreasing at an annual rate of 48 million cubic feet of gas-a-day. Meanwhile, he said the "firm requirements" for additional gas in the state are increasing at an annual rate of 176 million cubic feet of gas a day. Kelsey said that present rates of gas delivery to California customers, both from sources inside and outside the state, will satisfy the state's needs until 1964, but no longer.

Mexico's (Chief) Asks Aid For Flood's Victims

MEXICO CITY (UPI)—President Adolfo Ruiz Cortines has ordered all government ministries and agencies to cooperate fully in bringing aid to the thousands of victims of the recent floods in central and northern Mexico.

Torrential rains which have been lashing the northern half of the country for the past 15 days have affected an estimated 200,000 persons in the states of Guanajuato, Nayarit, Sinaloa, Durango and Coahuila, the number of dead has been unofficially estimated at about 50.

An aerial bridge has been established from Mexico City to the five states with planes of the Mexican air force carrying tons of food, clothing, medicines and tents.

Air Force Has New High Climbing Jets In Operation

DALLAS (UPI)—The Air Force and Hughes Aircraft Co. announced Tuesday existence of new supersonic air-to-air guided missiles which climb higher, fly faster and with greater range than any predecessors.

The new GAR-3 (guided air rocket) is scheduled to go into operational service as the principal firepower of advanced all-weather jet interceptors of the Air Defense Command.

Roy E. Wendahl, vice president and manager of Hughes' airborne systems group, said this is the fourth in the family of Falcon missiles produced by Hughes.

Fall Shoppers To Find Good Food Buys This Week

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Early fall food shoppers will find a variety of bargains at markets this weekend. Broilers, fryers, and turkeys continue to lead the field, with the more economical cuts of beef listed among the better buys in protein foods. Smoked hams also wear attractive price tags at some markets.

Dairy products are in plentiful supply. Many markets will feature cheese, and medium and small eggs this weekend.

He Pays For Vegetables

DETROIT (UPI)—Jacob P. Sumeracki, chairman of the Wayne County Board of Auditors, Monday opened an envelope containing a $10 check drawn on the Bank of Loogotee, Ind., and a short note:

"Some years ago I lived in Wayne and made a couple trips to Eloise (Wayne County General Hospital) Gardens at night and took vegetables. The Lord has saved me since then and I want to make restitution. Please find enclosed check to cover same."

Businessmen Call Raise Demagogic

MEXICO CITY (UPI)—Mexican businessmen labeled Tuesday as "demagogic and contrary to progress" the recent decision of the Confederation of Mexican Workers to demand a 25 per cent wage increase for all workers.

The Employers Confederation of the Mexican Republic, now holding its annual meeting here, agreed that wages should be increased to boost the purchasing power of the workers, but went on record against the 25 per cent demanded by the largest Mexican labor union.

VACATION SPOT — This large white frame house is the "summer White House" for President and Mrs. Eisenhower. It is at Newport, R.I., where they spent last year's vacation in the quarters of the naval base commandant. This house, known as Quarters One, is at Port Adams, across Newport Harbor from the naval base. The golf course is only two or three minutes by car from Port Adams.

Reds Put Puppy's Head On Big Dog

LONDON (UPI)—Radio Moscow has described a new surgical device that made possible Tuesday's grafting of the head of a puppy onto a fully grown dog. It called it the "Soviet Sputnik" of surgery.

The broadcast said the blood vessels suturing (stitching) apparatus was so named by foreign doctors, among them Columbia University neurologist Dr. David Gurewitsch and Norwegian surgeon Christian Kapellen who watched the operation Tuesday.

It described in detail Russian physiologist Vladimir Demikhov's demonstration of the operation to the foreign doctors.

"He separated the head of the puppy together with its paw and main blood vessels and these vessels were joined to the carotid artery and the jugular vein of the grown dog," said the broadcast.

"The dog with the new head feels well. Both heads react to outside stimulation and accept food."

Radio Moscow reported that Demikhov showed his foreign guests "Buyan," a dog who he said now lives with two hearts and an additional lung after a transplant operation last week. "The ultimate purpose of our experiments," Demikhov said to a Tass correspondent quoted on the broadcast, "is to transplant organs vital to man to replace those that are hopelessly affected."

Social Security Increase Of Seven Percent Is Assured

The more than 13,395 persons in the Amarillo District now receiving social security checks will get an automatic increase of about seven per cent on the checks to be mailed out early in February, according to John R. Sanderson, District manager. There is no need for any of them to write or call at their social security office to get that increase.

However, Sanderson says, "I know there are several hundred others in this District who will need to talk with a social security representative in order to get benefits started to them." For the "quickest and most efficient way to start that action, he suggests that a card or letter be written to him at 324 New Post Office Building, Amarillo, briefly outlining the situation below which applies to a particular individual or family:

(1) Certain dependents of persons not receiving disability insurance payments can now qualify for monthly benefits. These are wives at age 62, dependent husbands at age 65, and unmarried children under 18 or disabled children who have been disabled since before age 18.

(2) Persons whose disability claims (either for benefits or the freeze) were previously denied only because they did not have one and one-half years of social security credits in the three-year period just before becoming disabled.

(3) Disabled adult children whose claims were previously denied solely because they were not receiving at least one-half of their support from the retired or deceased parent.

(4) Dependent parents whose claims or inquiries were previously denied only because the deceased son or daughter was survived by a widow, widower or child who could possibly be entitled to benefits.

(5) Anyone whose social security checks were stopped because of marriage, if he or she married a person who was also receiving social security checks. Sanderson suggests interested persons first write his office about possible benefits so that a mutually convenient interview time may be arranged, either at his office or with a representative of his office on one of his future visits to this county.

For more detailed information on the above changes, readers should write for a copy of free Leaflet No. 1958-1. Those wanting just the changes in the disability just the changes in the disability provisions should ask for Leaflet No. 1958-2.

TRAFFIC JAM—There's a heavy load on just four motorcycles in West Berlin's Olympic Stadium, where 26 policemen form a rolling pyramid. They developed the balancing act for the annual city police show.

TENNIS FOR TOTS—It's a lot of work and little play for these Roman youngsters learning the fundamentals of tennis at the Foro Italic. The Italian Olympic organization regularly holds special sports classes for promising youngsters.

OVER LIGHTLY—South American football players Francisco Ramon Lojacoboo, of Argentina, and Michaelangelo Montuori, of Chile, are having fun on the beach at Tuscany, Italy. They're now members of an Italian football club.

HE'S IT—Top service shooter, Marine Sgt. Anthony Pietroforte, of Encinitas, Calif., sights in to set the all-time National Rifle and Pistol Match record at Camp Perry, Ohio. A perfect 250 score over the national match course made him the 1958 National Trophy Individual Champion.

CANINE CADDY—There's no caddy problem for Wilbur Myatt, getting on with his golf game while his pet dog takes care of the clubs at Chester, Ill. Guidance director at the high school, Myatt added a special harness and shafts made of a television antenna to a regular golf cart and taught Booze, the dog, to haul it around the course. Everything will be fine as long as a cat doesn't show up.

Harvesters Brush Up Passing Defense For Bowie Invasion

By RICK PEZDIRTZ
Daily News Sports Editor

As Hector Porras goes, so go the Bowie High Bears of El Paso. And when the 155-pound Spanish-blooded slicker goes, he usually goes by air.

Take for instance, last season. Porras chose to go overhead with the Bowie offense 169 times. Of that number, about as many plays as a team will run in three and a half games, Porras had 83 pass completions for 1,328 yards.

That gave the El Paso pitcher a fine .519 completion percentage. And he's been spinning the same kind of master-magic in the Bears' two games this season. He had nine completions in a drab, 56-16, loss to Class AAA power, Phillips, last Friday night, and another six aerials were jugged about and dribbled off the fingertips of wet-fingered receivers.

Respect of the Bear with a golden arm, has been cause enough for Pampa High's hustling young Harvesters football squad to drill overtime on solidifying their pass defense this week for Friday night's home opener.

Bowie's Bears bring 16 lettermen to town, and that's frightening enough without stopping to think back on their strong armed vet at quarterback, one Mr. Hector Porras.

Chief target for Porras' bullseye pitches is End Nolan Richardson, a strapping 185-pounder. Last year Richardson hauled down better than half of the passes completed by Porras, clutching 43 to his bosom for a neat total of 776 yards. All this, in only nine games too. The Bears had a fair 4-8-1 record last season.

That means one player alone, Richardson accounted for over half of the yards Porras notched through the sky. The big wingman averaged just under five passes a game for an unbelievable 776 yards, or an average of better than 86 yards per game.

Taking all these eye-brow arching statistics into consideration, you might do a little rain dance first thing Friday morning. Needless to say moisture from the heavens stacks up as the chief opponent to stagger the Border City's straight and slot T-formation attack.

The Bears had a drizzle and wet ball at Phillips last week and couldn't get their vaunted passing game off the ground. The result was a 40-point difference on the scoreboard.

Pampa, however, could be hurt nearly as much by a wet ball Friday night. The Harvesters had to play with a damp ball at Fort Worth last week and fumbled the pitchside all over the field.

Both the Bears and Harvesters hope to put the skids to their losing ways here Friday night in the home grid opener. Pampa has fallen to mighty Wichita Falls, 34-2, and Arlington Heights, 14-0, on the road.

The Bowie invasion of Harvester Stadium this week will be the Bears' third straight road trip, and when Coach Lou Robustelli travels he doesn't exactly mess around. Last week the Bears were in Phillips, although from the looks of the scoreboard, they're probably wishing they had filed en masse into a dark movie house. The previous week, the Bruins went to Los Cruces, New Mexico, where their honey jar was smashed, 35-14.

"At least they've scored four touchdowns," said Pampa High head coach, Babe Curfman, who once held the head post at the school of the Bears' opening game, Los Cruces, N.M. The man was evidently thinking about his young team's inability as yet to bust over the double stripe.

The two points Pampa owns for the first two games, came on a gift at Wichita Falls in the fourth period, when a bad snap from center on a punt, sailed out of the end-zone, automatically giving the Big Green a safety.

Two new faces are due to appear in the starting Harvester backfield this week.

Spirited Terry Haralson, whose hard-nose running has made him the leading Pampa ball carrier in both the Wichita Falls and Arlington Heights games, has grabbed off the regular left half starting role and Duain Urbazynek has taken over the first string job at right halfback.

Mert Cooper at fullback and Buddy Rawls at quarterback round out the starting Pampa backfield.

No changes are foreseen by Curfman and his aides, Duain Lyon and Eural Ramsey, up front.

DeWayne Glover and Paul Brown will open at ends, with Delbert Simmons and Jim Scott at tackles, Bailey Clements and Gary Matlock at guards, and Dickie Watkins at center.

Haralson also has wrapped up a first line job on defense. The rugged junior joins Rawls at a half-back spot. Other defensive starters will include, Bobby Stephens and Cooper at the outside line-backer or corner posts, Matlock and Simmons at inside linebacking positions, Watkins as the middle guard on a five man forward wall, big Bennie Stout and Scott at tackles and Harold Stoke and Glover at ends.

Kickoff time Friday night is 8 p.m.

READY RAWLS—Barking the signals for the Pampa High Harvesters in their 1958 home opener here Friday night will be Buddy Rawls, a 163-pound junior letterman who has not yet hit his own at the man-under slot. Rawls will be matching wits and passes with one of the state top schoolboy aerial artists, Hector Porras, quarterback of the invading Bowie Bears from El Paso. Porras hit 83 of 160 passes last year for 1,328 yards. (Daily News Sports Photo)

BOYD HAPPY WITH HIS BAYLOR CREW

SWC Clubs Prep For Big Saturday

The Baylor Bears went through a stiff workout Wednesday in preparation for the game with Harlan-Simmons, including a special session on pass protection, punt coverage and extra-point kicking.

The Bears went through a full scrimmage on top of that and Coach Sam Boyd said "We're real pleased with the workout." He said his charges made a special effort to make up for their poor showing Tuesday.

At Dallas, the Southern Methodist University Mustangs took another look into the future and their opening game Saturday in Columbus with Ohio State, and held a long contact workout.

The Mustangs also worked on defense and offense.

Texas Christian University continued to work on defense but spent most of their workout on offense, for the Iowa game Saturday.

Coach Abe Martin used quarterbacks Hunter Enis, Larry Dawson and Donald George on all three teams at various times.

Continuing Preparations
The Texas A&M Aggies continued preparations for the coming game with University of Houston, holding another tough scrimmage.

Ed Dudley was running in the starting tailback position while end Ralph Smith and wingback Powell Berry played first team positions.

The University of Texas Longhorns stressed pass defense as they tapered off in an afternoon workout Wednesday. The team flies today to New Orleans for the coming game against Tulane.

Coach Darrell Royal indicated two starters are on the injured list and may see only limited action. The injured players are tackle Dick Jones and center Jerry Muenkink, who both have sprained ankles.

The practice of picking pre-season all-Americans has spread slowly and surely over the land, like health studios, fire ants, and hula hoops.

The early birds fight over the worm. Everybody tries to be the first to name all-Americans, even rushing out in mid August and early September where mad dogs and Englishmen sometimes fear to tread.

The pre-season selections are not always too heavy, in logic, ranking alongside mountain-climbing and bird watching, but John Public reads them avidly and who are we to argue with customers with nickles in their pockets.

All through August and September it is tub thumping time for publicity directors who chose a favorite candidate and increase the volume of the drum beats with a neat chorus of weekly dispatches which flood the mails no longer than six seconds after the last tackle is made in Saturday's game.

Red Grange, the old Galloping Ghost turned milkman, got into the act last month in the new football magazine called Kick-Off. Red put the finger on 11 citizens he thinks will be the most outstanding this autumn.

Miami Magician Lauded

The Southwest Conference was represented only by Ken Beck, the drawing A&M Tackle, who, at times last year, outshone his all-American tackle teammate, Charlie Krueger.

Oklahoma was represented by center Bob Harrison. Notre Dame, which flexes its muscles in the Cotton Bowl next week as they relive the battle of the Catholics and the Methodists with SMU, has two citizens — fullback Nick Pietrosante and guard Al Ecuery.

The most colorful personality

Skimming The Cream

The magazine, Kick-Off, also undertakes a most ambitious project, that of naming the 100 best football bodies in the country.

According to this list, the South has a checkmark on the talent this year. Twenty-three men are from Southern Schools. Thirteen each are from the East, Big Ten and Southwest.

From the Southwest come Beck, John Tracey of A&M,

Homecoming At Lefors Is Friday

Lefors breezed past AA Shamrock in their season opener and then skunked Sunny, 30-0, last week as quarterback Tommy Johnson ran amuck, scoring all 30 points.

Sandwiched around the Lefors-Wellington non-conference game will be such other features as: a 7:30 p.m. carnation of the Pirate Football Queen, Jane Nichols, a senior who was elected by popular vote of the Lefors graders.

Co-captains Junior Traylor and Larry Blair will crown Queen Jane.

A business meeting for Lefors exes will be held following the football game in the high school auditorium at 10 p.m.

Invitations have not been formally made. Members of the ex-student association are being notified by means of the Pampa Daily News and word of mouth messages.

Children of the exes will be entertained with a cartoon movie party in the high school library during the homecoming celebration.

Out Of The Past

Whatever Happened To...
JOHN ROSS ROACH

John Ross Roach, one of the smallest goalies ever in big time hockey, starred for the Detroit Red Wings in the early 1930s. Before coming to Detroit, Roach started his brilliant National Hockey League career with the New York Rangers. But it was at Detroit he really hit the headlines and in 1932-33 he became the first Red Wing to win All-Star honors.

Whatever happened to John Ross Roach? Now 50, he is sales manager for a Detroit used car dealer.

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—Manager Casey Stengel's stronger bench and the versatility of several of his players give the New York Yankees a defensive edge over the Milwaukee Braves for the World Series.

Baseball men generally agree there is not a defensive weakness in the Yankee lineup. Although the Braves' defense is rated "good," it does not measure up to the Yankees', especially at first base and in the two outfield posts where Bill Bruton and Wes Covington are playing on gimpy knees.

The one position where Milwaukee may be rated stronger is at shortstop, where the experienced Johnny Logan must get the call over young Tony Kubek, but even there the difference is not too big.

Advantage Important
It is on the bench and in the matter of versatility of certain key players where the Yankees maintain a decided advantage. And this is especially important to Stengel for his pinch-hitting strategy and lineup manipulations.

Gil McDougald, for example, has played second, third and short within recent seasons and was rated by rival managers as the best defensive player in the American League at each position. Elston Howard plays outfield and catcher; so did Yogi Berra this season; Kubek is at home in the infield and outfield; and Bobby Richardson can play second base and third.

The remarkable thing about it is that Stengel can make these fielding switches without hurting his defense the least bit.

Has Big Edge
In evaluating the rival outfields, right fielders Hank Bauer and Hank Aaron are rated about even. Mickey Mantle has a big edge, particularly in throwing, over Bill Bruton, who is not as fast as he was before an off-season knee operation. And in left, steady Norm Siebern can cover more ground in expansive Yankee Stadium than Covington, whose ailing knees must be operated on after the season ends.

The Yankee supremacy is just as clear-cut in the infield. Conceding Logan over Kubek at short, New York must be favored at the three other starting positions—if Joe Adcock is the Milwaukee first baseman. Bill Skowron, although he won't make anyone forget Hal Chase, is far more agile than Adcock. However, Frank Torre, the Braves' reserve first baseman, is the best "glove man" of the three.

Better Bench Strength
At third, Andy Carey is steadier defensively than Ed Mathews. Red Schoendienst at second is an "old pro" who knows how to play the hitters, but he has been hobbled by injuries this season and does not have as strong a throwing arm from deep positions as does McDougald.

Behind the plate, there is not much to choose defensively among Berra, Howard and Del Crandall. The most highly-regarded receiver in the Series dugouts will be 35-year-old Del Rice, who is not likely to see much action. When it comes down to a comparison of bench strength, the Yankees' Howard, Jerry Lumpe, Richardson, Enos Slaughter and Marv Throneberry are given a big edge over Torre, Felix Mantilla, Andy Pafko, Casey Wise and Happy Haney.

KC Hooks Up With Portland

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—The Kansas City Athletics today announced a new affiliation with Portland of the Pacific Coast League.

Portland was a Chicago Cubs affiliate this season and finished fourth.

The A's recently terminated their working agreement with Buffalo of the International League.

Sonny Pitches Form Sheet

By ED SAINSBURY
United Press International

CHICAGO (UPI)—Sonny Ray threw away the form sheet Wednesday night and knocked Jesse Bowdry, a high-ranked light-heavyweight, into a state of shock and the hospital to greatly improve his own chance to move into the 175-pound title picture.

Bowdry, TKO'd in the ninth, was delirious in his dressing room for more than an hour after the TV bout ended. Dr. Irving N. Slott of the Illinois Boxing Commission ordered him taken to a hospital as a "precautionary measure."

Ray deserved to be the underdog. He had lost five and drawn five in 27 bouts, and Bowdry ranked 6th among the 175-pounders by Ring magazine and seventh by the National Boxing Association, had been beaten only twice, both times by Ray, in 25 matches and had 19 knockouts.

But the fight went the other way. Ray used body blows in the early rounds to take the speed and steam out of his opponent, and in late rounds he opened up with both hands to the head to virtually knock his foe groggy.

Commissioner Lou Radzienda of the Illinois Boxing Commission said it was likely Bowdry would be sidelined for two months instead of the usual four weeks after a knockout.

RIDES SECOND TRIPLE

MAYS LANDING, N. J. (UPI)—Bob Corle booted home three winners at the Atlantic City race course Wednesday to make it six victories in two days of riding.

Colleges Want Bill Against ML Raiding

NEW YORK (UPI)—Four leading college athletic directors today urged professional baseball to enact legislation to eliminate the wholesale signing of undergraduate collegians.

The athletic directors who spoke out against "raiding" of college campuses by organized baseball were L. R. (Dutch) Meyer, Texas Christian; Everett D. Barnes, Colgate; Don Faurot, Missouri; and Stu Holcomb, Northwestern. Their statements were released by the National Collegiate Athletic Assn.

Citing results from a recent survey by the NCAA and the American Association of College Baseball Coaches, the four directors said that all of the facts were overwhelming in favor of such restriction. The survey showed that less than five per cent of the 403 college players who signed professional contracts during the last 10 years made the grade in the major leagues.

Agreement With Majors
The athletic directors said it was unfair to expect the colleges to continue to expand college baseball by creating additional facilities and increasing budget appropriations when "ruinous raiding and constant interference" by professional baseball demoralized teams, lessened interest, irritated college personnel, and "clearly was not in the best interest of the boys involved."

Meyer, for years one of the Southwest's outstanding baseball and football coaches, said: "Unless professional baseball is willing to come to some agreement to cut down promiscuous raiding of college players, I would be in favor of dropping intercollegiate baseball at our institution, and would recommend that the Southwest Conference abandon it as an intercollegiate sport. It doesn't make sense to spend a lot of money for intercollegiate baseball in face of such raiding, particularly when the money could be used in promoting other sports."

DODGERS SET NEW RECORD

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The Dodgers' shift to Los Angeles produced a club attendance record in the first year.

The Dodgers set a new club season standard Wednesday night when a turnout of 12,771 increased their total to 1,807,784—surpassing the mark of 1,807,526 set in Brooklyn in 1947.

The Dodgers, who drew 1,028,288 in Brooklyn last season, have two more dates left.

"Missouri has lost five players to bonus contracts within the last nine months, twice that many during the past five years," Faurot said. "If a boy is good enough to command the contract to insure his future, we wouldn't stand in his way; but we do object strenuously to the theory of professional baseball that if you sign enough players, a few should make the grade. We have our own game to promote, and you can't do it with a skeleton team. Frankly, our institution is taking a long look to determine whether intercollegiate baseball is worth all the effort, time and money now expended."

Holcomb, whose Northwestern baseball team is coached by long-time major leaguer Fred Lindstrom, said:

"College baseball has continued to expand despite near disastrous raiding, but professional baseball holds the key to future expansion. Without some kind of arrangement between the colleges and pros, college baseball may again be relegated to a secondary role in our athletic planning."
