Hint Of Payola In Drug Buying

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate investigators charged that the Veterans Administration paid $136,000 for some "wonder drug" tablets which could have been bought under competitive bidding for about $38,000.

The Senate anti-trust subcommittee said the VA negotiated the purchase in February 1958 from Nerck and Co., a big pharmaceutical company, at the rate of $136 for 1,000 tablet bottles.

Another Escapee Captured

7 Still Free After 'Little Alcatraz' Break

By CHARLES E. MAHON
United Press International

ROANOKE, Va. (UPI)—Virginia state police grabbed another escaped prisoner from North Carolina's "Little Alcatraz" prison early today. A hunt for seven remaining desperate prisoners was pressed by the FBI and other police.

Twenty men broke from the Ivy Staff maximum security prison early Tuesday, and the roundup was on a nationwide scale. Not yet spotted was Charles W. Yanki Stewart, 32, who masterminded the escape after complaining of brutality in the prison near Yanceyville, N.C. His co-leader, James Edward Christy, 26, had been captured.

Jittery residents of the North Carolina-Virginia area where the search was centered were calling police every time they saw a suspicious person. One caller insisted that officers arrest a man who was only fixing a flat tire.

Captured early today was Robert Council, 30, a Negro of Fayetteville, N.C. He offered no resistance. (See ESCAPEE, Page 4)

Young Flees Cuban Prison

PINAR DEL RIO, Cuba (UPI)

Two top-ranking army officers came here from Havana late Wednesday to investigate Miami-Austin Young's escape from the prison where he had been sentenced to serve 30 years.

Maj. Juan Almeida, commander of the army, arrived with Maj. Dermidio Escalona, commandant of the 6th Military District, who had been in Havana on leave. Almeida returned to the capital after inspecting the washroom from which Young and a Cuban companion, Sergio Hernandez Reyes, made their escape. Escalona remained to direct the search for the fugitives, who are believed to have fled into the nearby Organ Mountains.

According to the subcommittee, the VA, a month later, bought the same amount on a low bid basis for $38,500 a bottle. As a bidder, Merck dropped its price from $136 to $95 but still was too high, the subcommittee said. It later came down to $65.

At this time, investigators said, Merck was selling the drug prednisone, used in arthritis treatment, to druggists for $170. The price to consumers was $283.

John T. Connor, president of the company, was asked how Merck could offer the drug to the VA for $65 and still defend its $170 price to druggists as reasonable.

Connor replied that competitive conditions for government business were a good deal different from those in the retail pharmacy trade. For instance, he said, the government buys in large quantities and has its own testing facilities.

Later, the subcommittee planned to inquire into the extent that the use of "detail men"—the drug industry's version of the traveling salesman—impeded drug sales.

Counsel Rand Dixon of the Senate anti-trust subcommittee said the group planned to study at some length the activities of the so-called "detail men" employed by big pharmaceutical houses.

There has been testimony indicating that they have helped keep prices up and competition down.

The main job of the detail men is to call on doctors to distribute free samples and relate information about new drugs put on the market by the company which employs them.

This is done in hopes that the doctors will use the company's brand name in writing prescriptions for this type of drug.

Witnesses have told the subcommittee that many physicians, particularly general practitioners, rely more on detail men than on medical journals for data on new drugs.

The subcommittee has received information that the employment of detail men is one of the major business expenses of large companies and enables them to sell more drugs than smaller competitors who have cheaper prices.

If a doctor writes down a brand name, the drug is available at a lesser price under another brand name or under its generic, or chemical, name.

VIOLATIONS CHARGED

The Senate anti-trust subcommittee charged that six big drug companies violated the anti-trust laws through restrictive agreements to gain "complete control" over sale of wonder drugs. Irene Till, left, a patent expert on the staff of the subcommittee, said the effect of the agreements was to deny smaller companies access to bulk supplies of the drugs. Irving H. Jurow, general counsel, and Francis C. Brown, president of the Schering Corp., in right photo, one of the companies charged, denied there was anything wrong in entering into agreements involving royalty payments, contingent upon a future patent, covering the two drugs involved, prednisone and prednisolone.

Steelworkers Ask Back Pay Parcel

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The steelworkers union asked the steel companies today for retroactive benefits in any new contract and a pre-Christmas pay raise based on the government's cost-of-living index.

The double-barreled proposal was made by union President David J. McDonald in a letter to heads of the 11 steel companies covered by the Taft-Hartley injunction which ordered the steel strikers back to work Nov. 7. The injunction runs out Jan. 26.

The new proposal came as union and management negotiators were called into joint session today by federal mediators amid signs the government might propose a package settlement of the seven-month-old dispute.

In his proposed "interim settlement," the union leader suggested that any benefits provided by a final agreement should be retroactive to Nov. 7 when the strikers returned to work. Since then, the steelworkers have been paid under their old contract which expired June 30.

McDonald said the union had complied fully with the Supreme Court decision upholding the Taft-Hartley order. He also said steel production since the men went back to work "is attaining high records."

It is only fair and equitable that whatever settlement is ultimately concluded between the steelworkers and the companies should apply during the period of the Taft-Hartley injunction," he said. "We trust that the industry does not wish to reap the sole benefit of this period of enforced production."

McDonald's proposal for the pre-Christmas pay hike was based on a three-cent hourly increase the steelworkers are expected to get under the escalator clause in their last contract. This tie the steelworkers pay to rises and falls in the Labor Department's cost-of-living index.

McDonald noted that the contract called for the next adjustment on Jan. 1 and that the November index on which it would be based would be announced about Dec. 21.

Dallas Radio Stations Will Boycott Rocky

DALLAS (UPI) — Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York, who plans to be in Texas next week, is already having press troubles in the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

Rockefeller, a potential GOP presidential candidate, announced he would hold separate press conferences for radio-television and newspaper media on Dec. 17.

Two major radio stations, KJLF of Dallas and WCAP of Fort Worth, announced they will boycott the conferences.

"We don't feel that equal but separate press conferences are fair," Dave Muhlestein, news director at KJLF, said. "There should be one general press conference at which all news media are represented."

He explained he felt a statement by Rockefeller might be altered from one conference to the other.

Muhlestein said Rockefeller was notified of the boycott, but planned to go ahead with separate conferences despite the protest.

Robert Whitney, operations director of KBOX, another major Dallas station, said his station would not participate "in any plan or threat which might result in a news blackout."

Warning Sounded To Common Foe

Ike Says U.S. Stands Ready To Aid India

NEW DELHI — President Eisenhower renewed his call today for controlled world disarmament but warned Communist China the United States stood ready to protect its friends against an "alien philosophy backed by great military might."

Eisenhower addressed a joint session of Parliament minutes after a meeting with Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru at which he was reported to have offered U.S. military aid should a shooting war develop from Red China's attack on India's northern borders.

Eisenhower received a standing ovation when he entered the jam-packed and flower-bedecked parliamentary hall. His 22-minute speech was interrupted 14 times by applause.

Eisenhower appeared fatigued after his busy day that began when he laid a wreath on the tomb of Mahatma K. Gandhi, hero of Indian independence, but he brightened when great crowds lining the streets of New Delhi cheered and screamed their approval of his peace mission.

The galleries of Parliament were packed hours before Eisenhower arrived to warn the world that if there is not peace "there may be no generations to follow us."

Only a world campaign can win peace, he said, and he called on India to help lead it.

The Indian government "put stringent security measures in force, even greater than those invoked when Communists Nikita Khrushchev and Nikolai Bulganin visited Parliament in 1955. Armed police of the U.S. and Indian secret services were stationed on the roof of Parliament and parapets alongside."

The Communist had given their full approval to the Eisenhower visit but now were reported worried at the magnitude of his reception. They were said to be concerned that it would dwarf the reception expected when Soviet Premier Klementi Voroshilov visits here next month.

Eisenhower told Parliament the world must forget its "mistrust and misgiving" if it can be peace throughout the world. He urged the world to forget its "fixation on the past, the dead past, with all its abuses of power," and concentrate on reducing world tensions which could produce World War III.

Eisenhower told the leaders of neutralist India that United States military might was maintained solely to resist aggression.

The U.S. armed forces "serve not only ourselves but those of our friends and Allies who like us have perceived this danger" from an "alien philosophy backed by great military might," he said.

Eisenhower called U.S. strength a "necessary contribution to a stable peace for the present and the future as well."

He reminded the Indian Parliament of the losses the United States suffered in the Korean war against the Chinese Communists who have seized a number of India's border outposts and claim other Indian territory.

"We Americans have known anxiety and suffering and tragedy, even in the decade just past," Eisenhower said. "Tens of thousands of our families paid a heavy price that the United Nations and the rule of law might be sustained in the Republic of Korea."

"In millions of our homes there has been in each the vacant chair of an absent one who gave some of the years of his youth that successful aggression might not come to pass. News that has reached us in America from near and distant places has been marked by a long series of harsh alarms."

Eisenhower praised India's peaceful achievement of independence and its progress in raising living standards and said he knew that in the "great crusade" for peace and disarmament "India will ever be a leader."

Eisenhower did not specifically name the Communists as the helpless trapped inside the flame covered vehicle.

The accident took place on a country feeder road, off the Mexico City, Acapulco highway, south of here.

Saturn Almost Ready

'White Hope' In U.S. Space Effort

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (UPI) — Sometime around Jan. 20, 1960, doors on a big shed will swing open and out will roll the behemoth of American space efforts, the super booster—first stage of the Saturn vehicle.

Project Saturn—the main U.S. hope of putting up "heavy" satellites—has been caught in a crossfire of politics, rivalries, economy cuts and many-sided personalities.

It is coming along much too slowly to suit the eager Von Braun scientific team that wants more than anything to catch and pass Russia in the exploration of the heavens.

A visit to a couple of buildings here dispels the thought, however, that people are simply sitting on their hands while the high level reorganization of the U.S. space program, including Saturn's role in it, spins between Huntsville and Washington.

A team of 137 production men and 12 supervisors are into the final phase of building the great fuel tanks that will feed the take-off engines of the Saturn. The thing is so big it may have to go to Cape Canaveral by river barge.

The project is progressing under what remains of a 70 million dollar appropriation for the Saturn project. This about half of what was wanted by Maj. Gen. John B. Medaris, who retired Jan. 31 from the Army as head of the Ordnance Missile Command, and Dr. Werner von Braun.

Von Braun, the former German scientist, gets the job next year of producing big boosters like Saturn and the still-newer Nova. (See SPACE, Page 4)

Detectives Raid Dallas Dope Den

DALLAS (UPI) — Detectives with cocked shotguns raided an apartment described as a "dope den" that may have been set up to sell "shots" to high school students.

The apartment was right across the street from North Dallas High School.

One of the three persons arrested late yesterday is the brother of a man killed in a hail of police gunfire less than four months ago after a drug store burglary in Arlington.

"Lousy cops," Carl M. Bentley, 30, snarled and leaped for a hidden revolver as detectives smashed in the apartment door. He changed his mind about using it.

All three were ordered held on charges of illegal possession of narcotics by Justice of the Peace W. E. Richburg.

"We found plenty of evidence to prove that the apartment was being used as a dope shooting den," D. A. Byrd, a detective lieutenant, said.

Seven detectives armed with riot guns moved so quickly and quietly on the upstairs apartment that other tenants of the building were not aware of the raid.

Police found more than $2,000 worth of morphine, cocaine, opium and opium-derivative tablets, needles and syringes. They said it was one of the "biggest" narcotics seizures made by Dallas.

Couple, 3 Children Found Dead In Fire

WEWOKA, Okla. (UPI) — The bodies of a rural Wewoka couple and their three children were found huddled together early today in the burning rubble of their frame home.

Firemen said the bodies of the five were in a pile in what had been a front bedroom of the six-room frame home, where they apparently became trapped as flames closed in on them.

The fire-ravaged home was just south of Wewoka, in east central Oklahoma.

Firemen, aided by a light rain-fall, recovered the bodies shortly before 7 a.m.

The blaze broke out about 2:30 a.m. and was reported to firemen about 30 minutes later by a teen-aged girl, who saw flames shooting from the house as she drove past it.

The house was burned to the ground, with flames lapping at the debris when a fire company from Wewoka arrived.

Cause of the blaze had not been determined.

Farmer Plight Blamed On GOP Regime

MARSHALLTOWN, Iowa (UPI) — Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex.) charged Wednesday night the Eisenhower administration has "rewarded the success of the American farmer with ridicule, tampered and gambled" with the freedom and independence of the American people and Eisenhower's "great crusade" has become a "great retreat," he said.

"There is no greater example of political irresponsibility in our national government than this administration's handling of the farm program," Johnson said.

"In the desperation of its incompetence, the administration has attempted to conceal its own ineptness by turning the nation against the farmer."

Johnson also charged the Republican administration has conceded world leadership in intercontinental missiles and space exploration to Russia for the next three to five years.

The Republicans have "tinkered, tampered and gambled" with the freedom and independence of the American people and Eisenhower's "great crusade" has become a "great retreat," he said.

Francisco Foes Afraid Ike Visit Will Enhance Regime

By HENRY F. SCHULTE
United Press International

MADRID (UPI) — Leaders of Spain's opposition groups said today they hoped the world would interpret President Eisenhower's visit as a gesture toward the Spanish people and not as further recognition of the Franco regime.

They described their personal reaction of Eisenhower's visit to Generalissimo Francisco Franco as "very negative."

"As Spaniards we are honored," a top leader of the monarchist "Union Espanola" told me. "But we are sorry that the regime may be able to claim the visit as recognition of its rights."

One of the nation's best-known socialist leaders added, "we hope that any public gestures or speeches by the President will be directed towards the people and not the government."

"Political observers here predicted a show of spontaneous enthusiasm for Eisenhower unequalled in recent Spanish history."

BACK IN TRAINING

Sam, the space monkey who made a 55-mile trip into space Dec. 4, is shown pulling a lever in his training box as he prepared for the trip. Sam is now back in training at the University of Texas in Austin where he trained for his first space trip.

FDA Warns Of Claims By Food Makers

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Food and Drug Administration advised the public today not to believe any claims that use of saturated fats and oils as vitamins, shortening or oleomargarine would prevent heart attacks or strokes.

FDA Commissioner George P. Larrick warned that the government considers any such health claims by sellers of such "unsaturated fats and oils" as violations of the federal misbranding laws.

Lie Swapping Told During 10th Day Of Addison Trial

SAN ANTONIO (UPI) — Truman H. Dew testified he lied in a sworn affidavit because he felt it was the only way he could get back $14,600 he and his relatives loaned John Milton Addison.

Addison lied to me to take my money away from me, so I figured I had the right to lie to get it back," Dew, a Dallas bus driver, said.

Dew's testimony came late Wednesday as the state continued to build a case designed to put the chunky 31-year-old uranium promoter behind bars. The trial went into its 10th day today.

Concert Artist 'Tapped' Way To Success

"Come and trip it as you go, on the light fantastic toe." Three-hundred ten years after the poet Milton penned these lines they come true as never before in the allegro, aerial figure of Paul Draper, appearing tomorrow night in the Pampa Community Concert Association's second presentation of the current season.

Draper, who will appear with his partner, Ellen Martin, at 8 p.m. in the Pampa Junior High School Auditorium, was born in Florence, Italy, of American parents. Sent to school in America, young Paul had a checked academic career, being expelled from two private schools, running away from a third, espousing the profession of a ditch-digger, and slipping as a sailor to South America.

Four fugitives were caught in Ohio Wednesday and seven were apprehended in Virginia Wednesday night. Another, who left the camp a couple of hours after the mass break, had been caught Tuesday.

Christy and Ralph D. Byers, 27, were caught hiding behind a store on the edge of Ruckersville, a tiny community about 15 miles north of Charlottesville, Va. Both had .38 caliber pistols, but gave up without a struggle when a state trooper and a sheriff surprised them.

Three other prisoners were captured by police and FBI agents at their hide out in an abandoned house at Pilot, Va., a hamlet 35 miles southwest of Roanoke.

The three men, William Vaughan, 39, Douglas Anderson, 24, and James W. Strickland, 34, were holding a hostage, the FBI said. The hostage was identified as Johnny Sowers who wandered into their hide out and was held.

State troopers and sheriff's deputies caught two others, Harvey Mulchison, 26, and Walter Spears, 30, walking along a lonely rural road five miles south of Lynchburg. They told police they had been with a third convict, Robert Council, 30, in Lynchburg several hours before their capture.

Four others were picked up at Cambridge, Ohio, when an alert gas station attendant tipped police they were in the area. They had two .30-30 rifles in their stolen car and one also had a .38 caliber pistol. They were identified as Leslie Gautier, 36, Glen Hensley, 36, Grady F. Stone, 23, and Hillard Imman, 24.

Cuba Puts Clamp On Currency Export

HAVANA (UPI) — Cuba's revolutionary regime has clamped strict controls on exports of foreign currency, ruling among other things that investors living abroad may take no more than $200 a month out of the country.

The regulations published by the National Bank's stabilization fund provide also that persons desiring to travel abroad—including those on official business—must obtain special permission if they want to take more than $150 with them.

The new regulations put a ceiling of $150 a month on the amount that Cubans may send to students or other members of their families who live in other countries.

Makarios Will Be Cyprus President

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign Editor

A black-bearded priest of the Greek Orthodox Church becomes the newly-elected president of a newly-born state on Sunday (Dec. 13). He is Archbishop Makarios II. The new state is Cyprus, an island about the size of New Jersey containing approximately a half million people of whom four-fifths are of Greek origin. The new vice president will be Fazil Katchuk, a man of Turkish origin. The constitution of the new republic provides that the president be Greek, the vice president Turkish. Both Makarios and Katchuk are assured of election. The elections Sunday are a prelude to the actual date when Cyprus is supposed to take over its own destiny, which is Feb. 19.

Breach Between Protestants, Catholics Is Slowly Healing

By LOUIS CASSELL
United Press International

Controversy makes headlines. Conciliation doesn't. That's a good thing to bear in mind in reading reports of the current religious dispute over birth control.

It would be easy to get the impression from the sound and fury of this dispute that Catholic-Protestant relations are badly strained. Actually, in spite of occasional noisy collisions over specific issues, the two great branches of the Christian family are getting along better today than they have for centuries.

On both sides of the Reformation chasm, men of good will are earnestly trying to build bridges of understanding, forbearance and mutual respects. The results so far are not spectacular; but from the long view of history, they add up to a persistent and highly significant trend.

A thaw has set in in the cold agreements would be reached in war, among Christians," the Protestant magazine Christian Century observed recently. And the Catholic magazine America editorially agreed that "a new day has indeed dawned."

The Christian Century credited Pope John XXIII with an important contribution to "the warming of attitudes which is taking place between Protestants and Roman Catholics."

"The image of the Roman Catholic Church as projected by its new Pope is definitely a more friendly one." It said. "By many gestures (such as changing Catholic liturgy so that Protestants are referred to as "separated brethren" rather than "heretics")

From the Protestant side, European Lutherans have taken the initiative in sponsoring "ecumenical institutes" at which leading Catholic and Protestant theologians explore together basic questions of Christian faith. The idea was imported to America last month when 135 Protestant and Catholic clergymen met at Toledo, Ohio, for a frank and friendly discussion of differences.

A brilliant young Protestant theologian at the University of Chicago, Dr. Jaroslav Pelikan, did his part for the growing dialogue with a book entitled "The Riddle of Roman Catholicism." Pelikan tried to go beyond "slogans and slanders" and help Protestants understand the real nature of Catholicism. Although he took issue with many aspects of Catholic dogma and practice, his book has been warmly praised by Catholic reviewers for its objective and sympathetic tone.

Non-informed person on either side believes that such efforts will lead to organic unity in the foreseeable future.

U.S. Communist Party Convention

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Communist party U.S.A. opens its 17th national convention today at the Theresa Hotel in Harlem. The convention will last through Sunday and is expected to be attended by about 250 regular and alternate delegates from thirty-five to forty states. About 100 "guests" interested in social problems have been invited.

Reporters are barred from the sessions. However, a press room has been set up in the hotel where reports will be made public and various individuals made available for interviews.

Eugene Dennis, the Communist party's national secretary, is slated to deliver the keynote address opening the convention.

Ecumenists are trying to do is to get that discussion going in an atmosphere of genuine Christian charity.

Fr. Gustave Weigel, the leading U.S. Catholic authority on church unity, points out that all Christians are bound by Jesus' explicit command to "love one another." Simple obedience to this commandment is therefore the first, all-important step toward reunion.

"In its relatively short history, the ecumenical movement has broken down the rancors of centuries," Fr. Weigel said. "The different churches do get along better today than they did 50 years ago."

"We recognize one another; we hold converse with each other; we still feel some irritation, but we are manfully and not without success trying to overcome it."

Giving A Holiday Coffee? Here's Suggestion For Satisfying Social

If holiday parties were spaced evenly throughout the year, instead of being telescoped into a few short weeks as they are, we would all enjoy a richer and more satisfying social life. However there is little likelihood of change since this is the season when we feel the greatest desire to open our homes and our hearts to friends.

The far-sighted hostess, knowing the strain that will be put upon her ingenuity, gives advance thought to holiday party menus. Hot hors d'oeuvres are always appealing, but some party-givers shy away from them because of the time required in the kitchen when the fun's in the living room. Bacon Biscuit Balls offer one solution to the problem. These are biscuit morsels which capitalize on the sweet smoked taste of bacon bits. They can be mixed, dropped on baking sheets, and refrigerated with a damp towel covering hours before the party. Then, when the guests arrive a quick transfer to the oven is all that is needed.

Bacon has long been the friend of the party giver. Its brown-sugar cured flavor is an agreeable partner to many snack-time foods. Broiled bacon-wrapped olives or smoked oysters will give life to any party. And crumbled bacon makes "most any cheese spread better.

The neighborhood mothers will appreciate your thoughtfulness in scheduling a coffee break during school hours rather than a late-evening get-together requiring baby-sitters. And you'll appreciate the ease of serving this suggested Holiday Coffee.

3 tablespoons chopped mushrooms
 1 1/2 cups sifted flour
 2 teaspoons baking powder
 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard
 1 egg, beaten
 1/2 cup milk
 1/4 cup bacon drippings

Fry bacon until crisp. Save the drippings. Snip the bacon into small pieces and combine it with green pepper and mushrooms. Sift together the flour, baking powder and mustard. Mix the bacon and vegetables with the flour. Combine the egg, milk, and bacon drippings. Stir the liquid into the flour mixture with a fork. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto a greased cookie sheet. Bake in a hot oven (425 degrees F.) about 8 minutes.

Serve on wooden picks with a hot tomato sauce.

This recipe was developed using Swift's Premium Bacon.

Cheese Tray Makes Easy-Do Yule Party

Cheese comes to the rescue for an easy-do holiday party. A hand-somely arranged cheese tray is a favorite of everyone and a tray that offers a combination of favorite of everyone and a tray that offers a combination of favorite cheeses, hot and cold appetizers and a hearty spread provides memorable eating.

Take advantage of the festive red coatings on the handsome Baby Gouda or the plump Baby Edam cheese and let them add gala airs to your party tray. You'll feel doubly smart also when the weight-watchers hear that these cheeses are calorie-controlled... made with partly-skimmed milk... they are lower in calories than the natural cheese of cheddar variety.

For hot appetizers, provide party puffs of bite-sized biscuits topped with softened Gouda cheese and party-size slices of rye bread topped with Gouda cheese and bacon, broiled to melting goodness. Festive also is a Gouda cheese scooped out and filled with a cheese, ham and nut mixture. The waxy coating is peeled off if desired and a rosy coating of paprika dusted on the outer surface. Complete the tray with party favorites such as links of smoky or processed cheddar cheese and wedges of Port Salut. Coffee is a happy beverage choice.

GOUDA-BACON
OPEN-FACE APPETIZERS
 6 slices bacon, cut into 1/2-inch pieces
 1 cup shredded Gouda cheese (about 1/2 Gouda)
 3 tablespoons mayonnaise or salad dressing
 6 drops Tabasco sauce
 12 slices cocktail rye bread

Fry bacon until crisp. Drain on absorbent paper. Combine a nd mix cheese, mayonnaise and Tabasco; blend in bacon. Spread on bread slices. Broil just until cheese softens. Serve hot. Yield: 12 cocktail sandwiches.

SMOKY EDAM APPETIZERS
 1 cup prepared biscuit mix
 1 1/2 ounce package Smoky Edam cheese
 1 egg
 1/2 cup milk
 1/4 cup finely chopped cooked ham

Prepare biscuit mix according to package directions. Roll 1/4 inch thick on a lightly floured surface. Cut with small round 1-1/4 round

MEAT-STUFFED EGGS
 Here's a new idea in preparing stuffed eggs. Hard cook eggs. Separate yolks from whites. Mash yolks and add 1/2 pound ground ready-to-serve meat along with seasonings, prepared mustard, vinegar and mayonnaise. Mix well and fill each egg white with mixture, either using a fork or pastry tube!

Holiday Chocolate Pie Rich With Pecans

THERE'S A FINE, HEARTY QUALITY to holiday entertaining that is perfectly exemplified in this chocolate-rich pecan-studded pie. Unsweetened chocolate, deep-flavored and delicious, is the basis of its goodness. The puff of whipped cream is by way of a bonus, not necessary but very welcome, visually and gastronomically.

HOLIDAY CHOCOLATE PIE
 2 squares unsweetened chocolate
 3 tablespoons butter
 1/2 cup sugar
 1 cup maple-blended syrup
 3 eggs, slightly beaten
 1 teaspoon vanilla
 1 cup coarsely chopped pecan meats
 1 unbaked 9-inch pie shell
 Sweetened whipped cream

Melt chocolate and butter over hot water. Combine sugar and syrup in saucepan. Bring to a boil over high heat, stirring until sugar is dissolved. Boil 2 minutes. Add chocolate mixture. Pour slowly over eggs, stirring constantly. Add vanilla and nuts, stirring to mix well. Pour into unbaked pie shell. Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) 45 to 50 minutes, or until filling is puffed completely across top. Cool. Top with whipped cream and a pecan half, if desired.

To Mellow Properly Start Fruit Cake Now

Fruit Cake making time is now, right now, if you want your cake to mellow properly — so cut out this recipe today, get your ingredients tomorrow and start your cake soon!

You have tasted fruit cakes that rank with the ordinary and compared them with others that are a gourmet's delight. Difference in cooks, in skills, in ingredients makes the difference in fruit cakes.

This fruit cake recipe is different and good — for this one is fashioned with honey, honey nature's own sweet. Honey does for fruit cake what fruit cake does for Christmas — It makes it something Special. The cake doesn't crumble beneath the hostess' knife. It stays fresh for honey has the unique quality of holding moisture within the cake. Baked in a long angel food pan, it slices like a charm and is pretty, too.

FRUIT CAKE
 3 cups sifted all-purpose flour
 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
 1 1/2 teaspoons baking soda
 1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
 1/2 teaspoon ground mace
 1/2 teaspoon ground allspice
 3 cups seedless raisins
 1/2 pound (1 1/2 cups) red or green glacé cherries, sliced

3 1/2 cups currants
 1 cup chopped walnuts or pecans
 1/2 cup heavy fruit syrup (from canned fruits)
 6 tablespoons white vinegar
 1 cup shortening
 1 cup honey
 3/4 cup firmly packed brown sugar
 6 eggs, beaten

Sift together 2 1/2 cups flour, salt, baking soda, and spices. Steam raisings and currants over boiling water, spread on paper toweling, and let dry until quite cool. Combine raisins, currants, cherries, and nuts with remaining 1/2 cup of flour. Combine fruit syrup and vinegar. Cream together the shortening, honey, and brown sugar; heat until light and creamy. Beat in eggs. Add dry ingredients and liquids alternately, a little of each at a time, stirring in after each addition just enough to blend well. Stir in fruits and nuts.

Top O' Texas Weather Permits Year-Round Cooking Outdoors

Cooking and eating out-of-doors has become not only a national, but a year-round pastime. Even for those who are not winter enthusiasts, there is still time on beautiful winter days here in the Top o' Texas for using the recipes and directions for a Mixed Grill. Why not something on the grill for everyone — some may like the Kebobs — some the Hamburgers — and some the Frankfurters. Since the kebobs and the frankfurters are precooked meats, all they need is time enough to heat through and to acquire a deep, brown, crusty exterior. To help with the brown-cheese. Serve hot. Yield: about 2 dozen appetizers.

Turkey Leftovers Can Be Different

The age-old problem of what to do with the remains of a turkey easily solved by the creation of tempting and different turkey loaf. This recipe calls for use of prepared herb-seasoned stuffing containing seven choice herbs, which adds a piquant flavor yet eliminates unnecessary steps in the dish preparation.

The packaged stuffing adds any meat or fish dish as well.

TURKEY LOAF
 2 eggs, slightly beaten
 4 lbs. melted butter
 1 pkg. prepared herb seasoned stuffing
 1 1/2 cups turkey or canned chicken broth
 2 cups cooked turkey, cut up
 2 lbs. parsley
 1 lbs. minced onion
 2 lbs. minced-green pepper
 1 10 1/2 oz. can condensed cream of celery soup
 1-3 to 1/2 cup milk

Mix together all ingredients, in order listed, except celery soup and milk. Turn into a greased 9 x 5 1/2 x 3 1/2 loaf pan. Bake at 375 degrees F., 30 to 40 minutes or until firm. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

For Sauce: Blend one 10 1/2 oz. can condensed cream of celery soup with 1-3 to 1/2 cup milk, 1/2 sauceman. Simmer about two minutes. Pour over loaf.

Curant-Loaf For Christmas

Christmas dinner, suggests the December issue of The American Home magazine. It takes ten minutes to prepare and 45 to 50 minutes to bake.

The easy "here's how" is: 1 egg, 1/2 c. sugar, 3 c. biscuit mix, 1/4 c. orange juice, 1 lbs. grated orange juice; beat well. (Batter will be slightly lumpy.) Add grated orange rind and currants. Divide batter equally into three well-greased clean tin cans (one pound size) filling slightly more than half full.

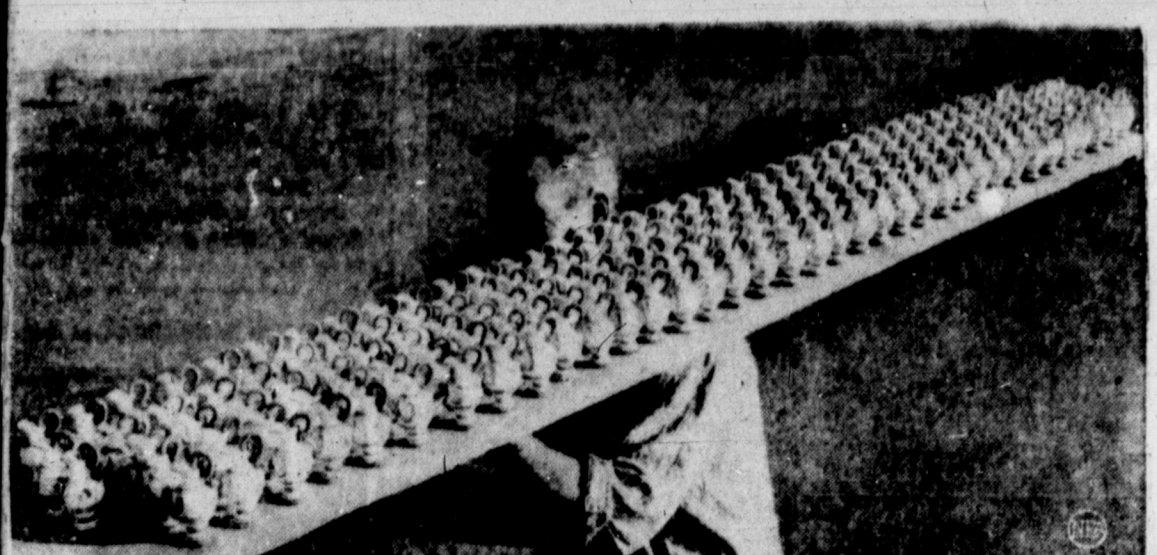

Bake, uncovered, in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 45-50 minutes, or until cake tester comes out clean. Cool 10 minutes; remove from cans; cool thoroughly before slicing.

Fastest Gun In East' Loses 'Showdown' With NY Police

By JOE FINNIGAN
UPI Hollywood Writer

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Bob Fuller, a Hollywood TV cowboy recently outgunned by New York cops, figures it's not a healthy "backing shootin' iron on those eastern prairies."

Young Fuller went east to appear on a Jerry Lewis telethon and was picked up by police in the early morning hours, accused of carrying a pistol without a license and firing the thing on city streets.

Cautiously explaining that his Colt .45 went off "accidentally," Fuller denied having gone to the trough for too much "red eye."

"I didn't even know the gun was loaded," Fuller protested.

"We were in front of a nightclub about 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning when I went to take off the holster and pistol.

"The firing pin hammer on the gun was pushed back, so I pulled the trigger, never realizing, one blank bullet was in the chamber."

That's when a cop arrived on the scene with drawn pistol and angry demeanor.

"The policeman lined my friends and I up and searched us for more weapons," the "Laramie" co-star said as he sat in his house-trailer dressing room on an outdoor western set.

"I was hauled off to the police station," he recalled sadly. "They fingerprinted and photographed me, then charged me with violating the Sullivan Act by not having a license to carry the gun."

"I got scared," he said. "That's a felony and, if convicted, you could get fined something like $1,000 and go to jail for five or seven years."

"I tried to convince the cops that the whole affair was an accident. But, nobody would listen to me, they even ran a ballistics test on the gun to see if it had ever killed anybody."

After nine hours in the klink, Fuller was released but ordered to return to the courthouse three days later for a hearing.

"When I went before the grand jury and told my story, they just smiled and dismissed the case," he said. "The cops never returned my Colt .45 though and it's worth $130."

Cuba Takes Land Owned By Texans

By TYLER (UPI) — Three Tyler

million-dollar rice farm, including Cuba's only rice experiment station, has been seized by Fidel Castro's revolutionary government.

The oilmen are Raymond Hedge, Billy Bridwell and J. C. Wynne.

Grover Waterman, manager of the 3,000 acre farm, notified the owners that the government took over the farm Tuesday.

Hedge said attorneys had advised them to "sit tight" and wait for further developments. He said he didn't know what recourse they could take.

Besides the property, located some 130 miles east of Havana, there is a $150,000 rice dryer, machinery, water wells, pumps and other equipment, Hedge said.

Hedge said he and his partners bought the farm in March, 1954, then set up the experiment station because Cuba's rice fields had been decimated by fungus and insects. They brought in experts from Beaumont, Tex., and eventually developed three new strains of rice.

"We were depending on the seed rice for the new strains to help us recover our investment," Hedge said.

"When I was down there last week, Havana was like a graveyard. I have found that the Cuban people, or at least 75 or 80 per cent of them, to be just like us. They don't want this kind of government that Castro is giving them, but they can't do anything about it right now."

Actress To Marry

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Actress Teresa Wright, 41, and playwright Robert Anderson, 42, announced today they will be married Friday.

The couple took out a marriage license Wednesday in nearby Santa Monica. Miss Wright previously was wed to Niven Busch, also a writer. Anderson also was married before.

MIXED UP MAILMEN

ATLANTA (UPI) — Mailmen had a special warning today to follow their own instructions to the public. The warning was issued after someone complained that he saw mailmen collecting mail from two separate boxes, one marked "out of town" and the other "local," dumping them into his sack and trudging off.

Padre Island A Tourist Attraction

SAN ANTONIO (UPI) — I. S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough said Wednesday night if Padre Island is made a national seashore park it will be a "multi-million dollar tourist bonanza" for Texas.

Yarborough spoke at a dinner meeting at the Democratic Women's Club of Bexar County.

He urged Texas business leaders to unite in support of the state's bid for one of four national seashore parks authorized by Congress.

Yarborough said the additional income for Texas would not be restricted to the Gulf Coast area.

"For example, most of the thousands planning a vacation jaunt to Padre Island would drive clear across Texas and visit many other points of scenic and historic interest," the senator said.

The National Park Development Board has set a minimum of 88 miles for the length of a national seashore area.

"I am hopeful that Padre Island national seashore area can be made 100 miles long as that would still leave 17 miles... not in the park for private development at the north and south ends of the island," Yarborough said.

BUT FRIENDLY—This pony, one of a herd of 300 that roams Sable Island off Nova Scotia, has become tame enough to be petted. He has been trained for patrol work to aid the two dozen technicians who man the weather station on the lonely dot of land. The origin of the ponies is obscure but legend says they are the survivors of a 15th-century French settlement.

Christmas Play Was Badly Done, But Was A 'Success'

By FRED DANZIG
United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI)—Wednesday night's NBC-TV special, designed as it was for the enjoyment of children, was probably a household success. But it was a long way from being an artistic success.

"Once Upon A Christmas Time," A. J. Russell's adaptation of a Paul Gaultier story, dealt with 13 orphans who faced a bleak Yuletide until the villagers of Green Hill, Vt., snatched them away from an unfeeling caretaker.

If the hour had been devoted entirely to a series of pretty production numbers by the "toy" dancers, the job skating act of Ronnie Robertson and Kate Smith's Christmas caroling, it might have been a complete success.

But the frail plot, told with sledge-hammer subtlety, had to intrude. The "orphans," incidentally, had among them some

"show-business" hard-working scene-stealers. Fortunately, young Patty Duke had the good manners and taste to behave like a "toy" actress should.

The cloaking plot and kids were only part of it. The stage was too often cluttered with people. (There was even a horse running around.) The "new" songs by Robert Allen and Al Stillman were uninspired. The main characters were right out of those old Jean Harlow movies: Charles Ruggles was the good-natured, nitwit-type mayor; Claude Rains was the good-hearted, "jolly" old wood-utter; and Margara Hamilton, as is customary, was the forbidding old-maid type.

But I'll let you in on a secret. I thought, beneath all this determinedly old-fashioned New England Christmas exterior, I detected the hand of the hipster. I heard talk of "cloud 9," saw some leggy chicks dancing around and caught the reference to "Santaville." Like, crazy, daddy-o.

new half-hour situation comedy, The Tom Ewell Show. Perry Como's office has denied a published report that Josephine Baker would appear on Como's NBC-TV show. That Red Skelton-Mae West sketch has been moved up to Tuesday, Feb. 2 instead of March 1 by CBS-TV. Celeste Holm will portray Art Carney's bewildered wife in "The Man In The Dog Suit," on NBC-TV Friday, Jan. 8. "Christmas, And Christianity In A Shrinking World" will kick off ABC-TV's "World Of The Mind" series on Saturday, Dec. 19. The hour-long program will originate from Yale University.

FAVORS XMAS PARTIES

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell ruled in favor of Christmas parties Wednesday. Mitchell said the anti-corruption section of the new labor reform law was not intended to bar employers or unions from staging holiday parties.

Letters to Santa

Dear Santa,
I am a little boy three years old who has been as good as a very energetic three year old can be. Trains are what I like the very most, so please, Santa, bring me some sort of train that really runs. My little sister Georgie, is only one, but I'm sure she would like a cuddly toy. She has just recently learned to walk, so she hasn't had much time to be naughty.

And please, Mr. Clause, be especially nice to all the boys and girls that didn't have much Christmas last year.

Thank you,
Roy and George Rasco,
Box 404
Kingsmill, Texas.

Dear Santa,
Please bring me a doll in a car bed and bring my brother a train. We've been pretty good, I guess.

Thank you,
Donna Carol and Michale Dale Sharpe,
1911 Coffee

Dear Santa,
I want a bike. Thank you,
Donna

Dear Santa,
I am a little boy three years old I have been pretty good this year.

Please bring me a toy elephant, guns and holsters, a football suit, and a Tarkin-in-the-Box.

Don't forget all the other boys and girls.

Love,
Danny Lewis

Dear Santa,
I am eight years old and have been a pretty good boy. For Christmas I want one gun and holster and an army truck. I would also like a tickle-toe game. I will leave you cake and milk on the table. Remember all the other boys and girls.

With love,
Charles Bradshaw
536 Oklahoma

Dear Santa,
I am seven years old. I've been a good boy. For Christmas I would like a model airplane and an army truck. I would like two guns and a holster and a car. With love,
Jerome Bradshaw
536 Oklahoma

Dear Santa,
Please bring me a baby doll and a radio. Please bring Mayann a big blue ball. Merry Christmas to you, Santa. I live at 1004 E. Gordon. Thank you, Santa.

Deborah Hardy

Dear Santa,
Please bring me some Col' 45 guns and a car and a truck and a box of games. Merry Christmas, Santa, and a Happy New Year. Please bring Mayann a baby doll. Thank you.

Steven Hardy

Dear Santa,
Please bring me a Bat Masterson gun and a dump truck and some boxing gloves. Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to you, Santa. Please bring Mayann a little rubber car. Thank you, Santa.

Andy Hardy

Dear Santa,
I am a girl 9 years old and go to Lamar School. I have been a good girl. Please bring me a Tiny Tears doll with hair, overnight case, doll bed, Annie-Oakley outfit. I live at 920 S. Banks. Don't forget all the other girls and boys and don't forget my teacher at school, Mrs. Jones. She is very nice. With love,

Lydia Anny Myers

Dear Santa Claus,
I am a girl 8 1/2 years old and Mommie and Daddy says I've been a good girl all year long. Here are the things I'd like for you to bring me: a cripple doll, a doll buggy, a nurse kid, a fairy top, a little Sunday School. I am three years old, and that is all because I don't want you to use all the toys on me. Save some for all the other children. Oh, yes, you will have to take my things to my grandmother's house in Oklahoma as that is where I'll be on Christmas Day.

Lots of love,
Jeanie Goff
27 Anne St.

Dear Santa,
I have been a good boy this year. I want a bright red fire truck with a fire plug; also, a hose and ladder. Bring my sister, Jan, a doll-house with furniture. Please bring Judy a doll buggy. They have been real good, too. Please take something to all the other children. We will leave milk

United Press International
CAMBRIDGE, Ohio — Grady F. Stone, one of four convicts recaptured in Ohio after a 19-man escape from Icy Bluff Prison, Yanceyville, N.C., blaming mistreatment for the mass breakout: "They just couldn't stand it there. When I escaped, I got my first cake and first candy bar in six months."

NEW DELHI — Indira Gandhi, daughter of Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru, after being asked by Nehru to take good care of President Eisenhower's daughter-in-law, Darbara during a tumultuous welcome: "She already is under my care."

NEW YORK — Mrs. Nicholas R. Jones, chairman of the custodial board of the Jumel mansion, Washington's headquarters-in-retreat in 1733, discussing the results of a furnace breakdown in the mansion: "When many of the visitors come in and find it is colder inside than outside, they turn right around and leave. They don't expect to get colonial drafts along with their Georgian architecture."

WHEATON, Ill. — Mrs. Lillian Moniz, 37, after a jury found her innocent by reason of insanity in the love triangle slaying of a divorcee: "I thank God and I thank my attorney."

"Operation, Moonshine," the Armstrong Circle Theatre's story on CBS-TV, unveiled another good story Wednesday night to show how a U.S. Treasury undercover man helped smash an illegal still. The suspense story by Art Wallace had an authentic ring to it. The finish was made more effective by being underplayed, a technique too rarely used on TV. Anyhow, justice triumphed without a gun being seen or a shot being fired.

It's never too late for a rave, is it? I believe George Burns with his visit to Jack Paar's Tuesday night show, gave one of TV's all-time golden performances. Paar, to his credit, wisely let Burns go and George unrehearsed hilariously, clean, apt, perfectly-timed and magnificently-told anecdotes about show people. It was an awe-inspiring half-hour.

The Channel 5 Jim: The replacement for CBS-TV's lineup next month may turn out to be a one-hour low-key get-together of celebrities and "civilians." Called, Be Our Guest, the party would have George De Witt as host.

APPROVE MISSILE PURCHASE
BONN, Germany (UPI)—The West German parliamentary defense committee approved Wednesday the purchase of an undisclosed number of guided missiles capable of carrying atomic warheads at a cost of $114,200,000, a committee spokesman reported.

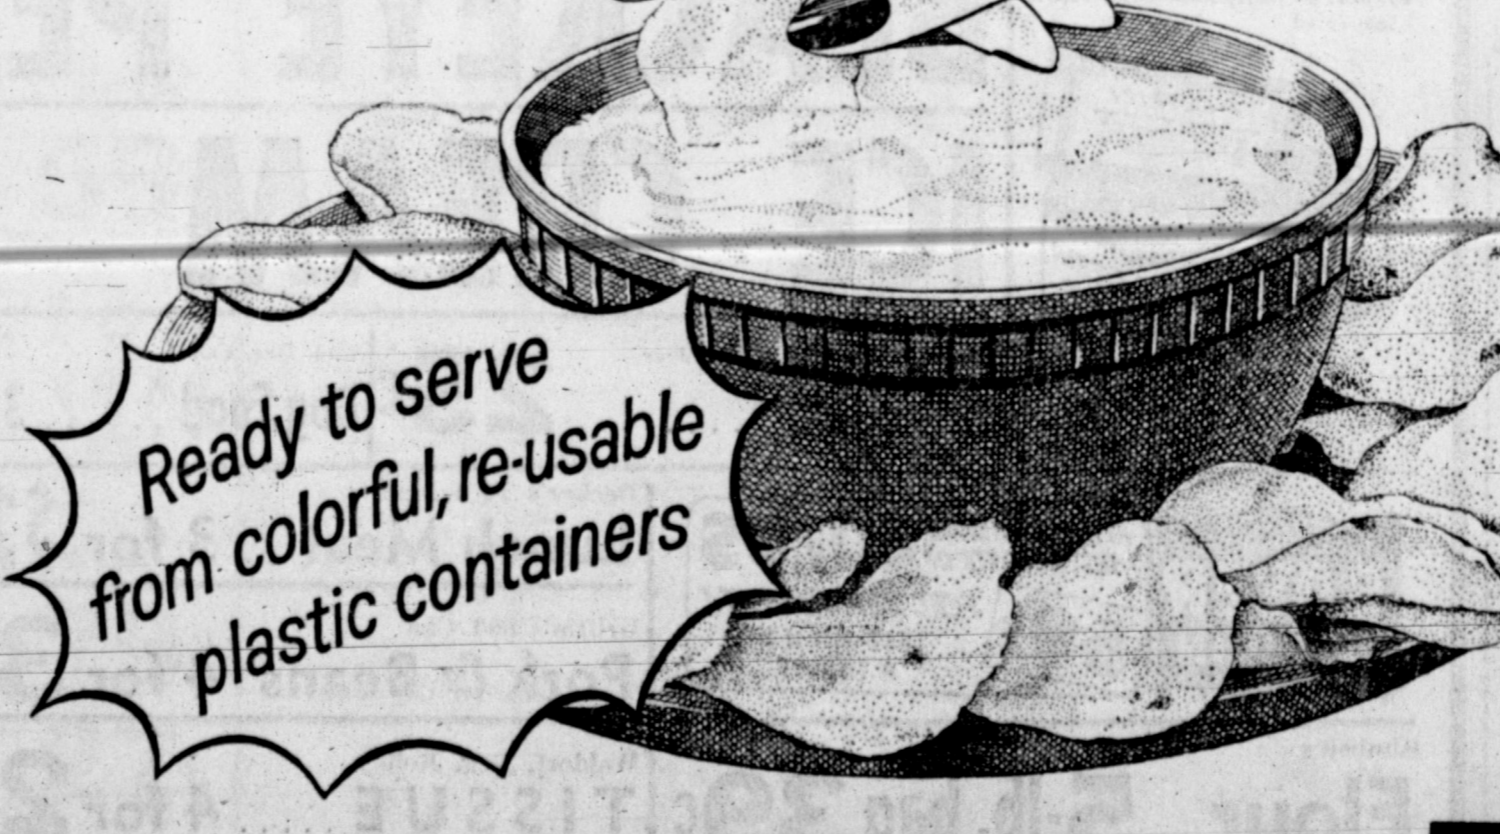

FOR COOL HEADS — Tractor operator above looks not unlike a space pilot as he tests a new air-conditioned helmet. An outgrowth of research on space suits, the "one-man air conditioner" filters out dust, insects and other foreign materials. An electric refrigeration unit connects to the glass fiber helmet with a flexible hose and circulates cool, clean air inside it. The helmet is being developed by Jamieson Laboratories of Santa Monica, Calif., for use in various kinds of outdoor work.

Corporations, Savings Banks Help U.S. Get Dividend Tax

By EDWARD COWAN
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government reported today that its drive to get people to pay income tax on dividends and interest is getting a big assist from corporations and savings institutions.

The campaign, on for several months, was announced today by Internal Revenue Service Commissioner Dana Latham. He said the effort was two-sided, with the main emphasis on educating taxpayers and a secondary purpose of providing closer scrutiny of tax returns.

The IRS estimated the government loses 500 million dollars a year in taxes on unreported dividends and interest. Other estimates have ranged as high as one billion dollars.

A key weapon in the drive is IRS Form 5219, a reminder to taxpayers that dividends and interest are as taxable as wages and salaries. The service has asked corporations, banks and savings associations to send each stockholder or depositor a copy

Stock Market Ready For Annual Late December Rise

By ELMER C. WALZER
UPI Financial Editor

NEW YORK (UPI) — The stock market usually arises in December and has its best gain in the last two weeks of the month.

Market experts believe this year will see the old pattern followed. According to that pattern, industrial shares have risen in their average in 45 of the past 62 years in December. Ralls have risen in 37 of these years.

Ordinarily the rally carries into January which also is a good month for the market. In the past 63 years, the industrial average has risen in 41 Januarys and ralls have risen in 38.

This upturn reflects two things of the notice at the end of the year.

These firms have responded "remarkably well," an IRS spokesman told United Press International. An initial printing of 10 million copies of Form 5219 has been increased to 35 million copies and the IRS may ask for five million more.

In addition, firms have requested and received permission to reprint Form 5219 themselves. Some shying away from the form because it mentions "enforcement action," are preparing a reminder of their own.

Officials acknowledged that the IRS was meeting with less success in its request that corporations and thrift institutions send stockholders and depositors a year-end tally of how much they received in dividends or interest.

Many firms have said the IRS did not make the request early enough in the year. Still others are unwilling to undertake the expense of making such individual tallies.

The IRS estimated that nearly five billion dollars of dividends and interest go unreported each year. It said a major reason is that people don't know this income is taxable. This is especially true in the case of interest which is credited to savings accounts and not withdrawn. Such income is just as taxable as a cash payment.

Spencer Tracy Still Outspoken Film Maverick

"HOLLYWOOD" By RICK DU BROW
UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Not long ago, an interviewer asked Spencer Tracy what he looked for in a script.

"Days off," grunted the lion-faced, white-haired star.

At 59, Tracy is still Hollywood's most outspoken and straight-talking maverick despite 30 years among filmland's smoothies.

He is, for instance, appalled that moviedom presents its academy awards on television.

"For the academy awards to be paraded in front of a TV camera and then to pay for it — well, isn't that something?" he demanded.

"Well, I've come out before and said the way I felt. I didn't go as bonds are today.

Economists of the Prudential Insurance Co. have taken a look into the future and they are convinced there will be no decline in the cost of living index which is a measure of inflation.

These economists give three reasons for their belief. In the first place, they point out, as business improves toward capacity levels, business concerns will compete more vigorously with each other for both labor and materials, and pay less attention to costs or efficiency.

Secondly, employees in the service industries whose productivity gains are small will receive the same wage boosts as workers in production. Rising costs not fully offset by productivity increases are inflationary, they assert.

And finally, the group finds, we still are a long way from solving the perplexing problem of how to convince business and labor to restrict their claims to less than the total gain realized from rising productivity. "Until we succeed in this," they assert, "the consumer, being unorganized and inarticulate, will continue to pay the bill."

Commerce Department Sees Construction Decline In 1960

By EDWARD COWAN
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Home building is setting a nine-year high in 1959 but a 1960 downturn is in store.

The Commerce Department's annual review and outlook for the construction industry estimates that private housing starts in 1959 will total 1,325,000 dwelling units. This would top the 1,310,000 starts posted in 1958 and be second only to the 1,352,000 units begun in 1950.

The official forecast for 1960 is 1,200,000 dwelling units, a goodly volume in comparison to most recent years but, according to some authorities, not enough to meet the country's housing needs.

The reason given by the Commerce Department for the downturn is the tight supply of mortgage funds. Construction is picking up in other lines and business investment generally is expanding. The result is a mounting demand for the supply of loan dollars, which the Federal Reserve Board is not letting grow a pace—a way of preventing excessive demand pressures on prices and inflation.

A noteworthy feature of the residential building pattern the experts sketch for 1960 is more apartments and fewer houses. This would continue a trend of multiple dwelling units gaining one-family houses.

According to housing officials, apartment house construction is less vulnerable to the squeeze of high interest rates because such projects are more speculative. Investors in them are not deterred by an extra quarter-point in interest charges. Lenders are said to prefer a big project because it lowers incidental lending costs.

Some officials say the 1960 downturn will be more of a leveling off than a genuine decline. These observers maintain that the big pickup this year—from 1,141,500 starts in 1958—was artificially stimulated by the government's 1958 anti-recession efforts. Hence 1960 will be a "paying back" of some starts "borrowed" in 1959.

This view concludes that housing starts are sliding into a more normal level at 1,200,000 a year, a pace which is likely to be sustained for several years.

There is widespread agreement that the spurt in home building this year was heavily influenced by the government's 1958 billion-dollar mortgage purchase program. Key members of Congress already have hinted that they might favor some revival of the program next year if housing starts continue to sag.

The decline began in May, after April housing starts hit an annual rate of 1,434,000 units. By October the rate was down to 1,180,000. Commerce Department experts doubt that November and December figures will be much lower. They expect a smaller monthly change in 1960 than the wide fluctuations of 1959.

Daniel Says Lawmakers Favor Teacher Pay Raise

AUSTIN (UPI)—Gov. Price Daniel said Tuesday a recent poll of the Texas legislature showed more than half of the lawmakers are in favor of raising public school teachers' pay.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—This country must find a way to halt the wage-price spiral or it will face unemployment, a lowering of its standard of living, and decline as a world power, warns the Fitch Survey.

Some machinery of compulsory arbitration seems a logical remedy for key industries if other efforts at negotiated settlements fail, Fitch points out in its 1960 economy forecast.

It adds that excessive borrowing and inventory accumulations might well be sufficiently strong to create a serious maladjustment that might have to be corrected by a business setback.

The bargain hunters have already been examining the merchandise and just as Christmas sales are expected to set new records, we are likely to see above average interest in depressed stocks which are already rebounding as tax selling pressure eases, reports W. E. Hutton & Co.

DEAR ABBY....

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am the father of three boys, ages 6, 7 and 9. Like most boys, they need a firm hand to keep them in line.

My wife seems to think it is the father's duty to punish the children. When I come home at night I find them standing in a corner waiting for the whipping promised by their mother "when Daddy comes home".

Not wishing to contradict my wife in front of the children, I spank them. This puts a damper on the entire evening.

I am tired of being the "bad guy". Your advice will be appreciated.

"CHIEF WHIPPER": Advise your wife (in private, of course) that (a) punishment loses its effectiveness when delayed; (b) a more effective method of punishing children is to deprive them of something they enjoy; (c) the responsibility of disciplining children should be shared equally by both parents.

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a woman age 46 having a big church wedding with a veil, white gown and all the trimmings?

If she looked young for her age it wouldn't be so bad. But she's gray-haired and looks like a grandmother. She is a maiden lady. He was married twice before and looks older than she does. His hair is also gray. People are

MATURE PARENT

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

The summer that I was 12 my parents gave a party for 30 men visiting young-lady cousins. Among the guests was the 23-year-old, attractive son of a neighbor. I was secretly in love with him.

As a special favor I was allowed to stay up to watch the dancing. Mostly I watched Cal. He danced very well. As he whirled one or the other of my young lady cousins out of the living room to our screened porch and back again, I felt less envy of them than pride in him.

Then it happened. As my mother was filling a punch glass for him, I saw her whisper to him. Startled, he looked over at me where I sat pig-tailed and gingham-dressed, and I knew exactly what my mother had said to him.

"Ask Muriel to dance. She must feel awfully left out of it in this young people's party."

But I wasn't having any commanded attention. When Cal approached me on the errand of mercy I didn't want. I jumped to my feet, said, "Oh no, thank you," and fled to my room with my wounded pride.

Though I knew that my mother had tried to improve my social life with the best of intentions, I was furious with her for doing it without consulting my feelings about it.

Nor do I think I was a particularly sensitive child.

My response to this effort to manipulate my social life may be interesting to a Mrs. D. who writes:

"We have just moved to a town where we have no friends. What do you think of my giving a party for our 14-year-old girl so that other youngsters will begin to invite her to theirs?"

I think you should first discuss this manipulative party with her before you give it. She may prefer to attract friends by her own merits instead of by her mother's skill in giving parties.

Perhaps the best way to improve a child's social life is to start improving our own. Why doesn't Mrs. D. make a point of joining her PTA? When she's made the friends she lacks herself, the idea of combining on a youngsters' party could be the natural result of her mutual interests with other parents. And her daughter would be spared the impression that she alone needs her social life improved.

It is our shyness in seeking new friends that is often reflected in children's shyness.

laughing behind their backs. They are having old women for bridesmaids and old men for ushers. Folks who don't even know them will go to the church just to look at these old gray-haired fossils. It will be like going to see a couple of freaks at a side show. How can I discourage this thing?

DEAR FRIEND: If the bride wants this kind of wedding, it's appropriate as it is, she's entitled to it. (P.S. How old are YOU?)

DEAR ABBY: Please tell me what to do. I went to a lawyer and he said, "Go to a doctor." I went to a doctor and he said, "Go to a lawyer."

I have been married 22 years to a man who treats me like dirt. He calls me all kinds of names and laughs at me when I cry. He won't give me any money to live on. I had to take him to court when the kids were little because he was so stingy and mean.

When I worked he made me give him all my earnings. I can't work any more because I have high blood pressure, colitis, diabetes and arthritis. Also if my husband feels like leaving for two or three days, he walks out and when I ask him where he is going he tells me it is none of my business. I know he has other women. Please help me because no matter how bad he treats me I still love him.

DEAR TEARS: I think the lawyer is right. You should see a doctor.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "SUCK-ER": Next time give him bus fare and tell him to go home and get his wallet. This gag is older than Methuselah.

What's your problem? For a personal reply, write to ABBY, care of this paper. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Polly's Quiz

By POLLY CRAMER

Dear Polly: Our kitchen is our big problem. Cabinets are white and cabinet doors are stained birch. Walls are French blue and we have white ruffled muslin curtains. Counter tops and floor give a beige effect.

Trim for floor is a red liner, with a black border and a large red S in center. There's no table space so my husband is going to convert a door into a drop-down wall table. There will be room for chairs.

What color for chairs and table top? Would like a pegboard above the table. What color, please?

Mrs. B. A. S.

Dear Mrs. B. A. S.: Finish the table top and legs in the stained birch of your cabinet doors. Chairs could be French blue and the pegboard white. French blue napkins used with red-and-white checked mats and checked pads on the chairs would give the room a lift. A few red geraniums in white pots on the window sills would be pretty.

Dear Polly: I would like to buy new drapes and a new rug for my living room. I have a beige couch and chair and a gray rug. Walls are papered gray with a small design. I think I have too much gray, don't you?—Mrs. J. A. B.

Dear Mrs. J. A. B.: Yes, what you have is a drab and dreary room. Try a new rug in turquoise to liven things up. Paint the walls a lighter turquoise and have sheer beige draw curtains with turquoise and gold threads running through them.

Dear Polly: I need help. My living room walls are newly painted apricot and the woodwork, white. I have a brown lounge chair I like solid colors. Will pale green walls in the bedroom clash with the apricot?—Mrs. V. H. H.

Dear Mrs. V. H. H.: I would

Horace Mann PTA Executive Board Talks Plans For School-Side Paving

Plans for the special PTA program to be presented Dec. 16 at 2:15 p.m. in the Horace Mann auditorium were completed Tuesday morning at the meeting of the PTA executive board with Mrs. John Holt Jr. president, presiding. The meeting opened with a reading by Mrs. John Holt titled, "A Christmas List."

Following the secretary's report by Mrs. Raymond Field, recording secretary, Mrs. Paul Turner reported that 14 members had participated in the Arts and Crafts course taught in November by Mrs. Holt.

Mrs. Ott Shewmaker, chairman of a special committee formed to investigate the possibility of paving the street north of the school, reported that no progress had been made. It was decided by the board that this committee should meet with the St. Paul Methodist Church and take the necessary steps to present the plans to the City Commission concerning possible paving.

Mrs. Archie Maness, membership chairman, reported that the door prize at the Thursday meeting will be a cake baked by Mrs. Edwin Spithard.

Mrs. Paul Turner, City Council representative explained that a joint meeting of all Pampa PTA units will be held Jan. 14 at the Pampa Junior-High School. The speaker for the meeting will be Stephen McGrady, exceptional child teacher at Travis, whose subject will be "Why Special Education?"

Mrs. Holt announced that the planned arts and crafts course in the month of January will be postponed because of a study course to be offered by the PTA City Council on Jan. 21-26 and Feb. 4.

The council course, Mrs. Holt announced, "will deal with problems of school age and adolescent children and will meet in 8 a.m. Houston School cafeteria from 8 a.m. until 11 a.m."

Mrs. Canara Carruth, exceptional child committee chairman reported that the proceeds from the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority table setting contest had netted $300 and had been presented to the Association to buy needed equipment.

A report concerning the state convention held in November in Dallas was given by Sam Begert, school principal, who stated that many of the points brought out in the convention were already being practiced by the Horace Mann unit. He expressed appreciation to the board for the privilege of attending the convention.

Attending the board meeting were Mrs. Paul Turner, Edwin Spithard, Ralph Collingsworth, Ott Shewmaker, Canara Carruth, T. J. Rogers, Raymond Field, Eugene Turner, John Holt Jr. and Mr. Begert.

Christmas Party Planned By Moose Auxiliary-Lodge

Mrs. Frank Arthur, senior regent, presided at the recent meeting of Women of the Moose in the Moose Lodge during which it was announced that there would be a Christmas party on Dec. 16. Plans were outlined for auxiliary members to bring a gift for another auxiliary member; lodge members to bring a gift for another lodge member; gifts will be exchanged by matching numbers.

Members voted to prepare a Christmas basket for a deserving family and are requested to bring the food articles not later than Dec. 16.

A letter was read thanking the Pampa chapter for the Christmas boxes sent to Mooseheart, Moose Child City near Aurora, Ill., and to Moosehaven, the Moose City of Contentment for the Aged at Orange Park, Fla.

It was reported by the library chairman that thirty-six books were given to Lovett Memorial Library and to the library at Mooseheart in November.

Meeting closed by members forming the Defending Circle. Present were Mrs. W. C. Brown, J. B. Baskmore, Ray Cales, Sam Gooden, B. W. Lord, W. F. Mullanax, Ray Hall, B. G. McCarthy, H. R. Cook and Frank Arthur.

Miss Sharp Feted On Fifth Birthday

Miss Donna Carol Sharp was guest of honor at a party given on the occasion of her fifth birthday given by her mother, Mrs. Dale Sharp, in their home, 1911 Coffee. Birthday cake and punch were served. Bubble-gum and candy were given as favors. Guests attending were Michale Dale Sharp, brother of the honoree, Roy Don and Bobby Glen Hendricks, Darlene, Dae Ann and Danny Davis, Janie Winegart, Chris Johnson, Johnny East, J. R. and Norman Hollis, Mmes. Don Hendricks, Charles Davis.

Sending gifts, but unable to attend, were Mrs. Charlie Sharp of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McCabe of Eunice, N.M.

The woman who doesn't care two pins how she looks in the morning and who hands her husband a slapdash breakfast as she yawns in his face is looking for trouble. It pays to extend the courtesy of a neat appearance and decent food to the man of the house. This housewife (left) cooks a hearty breakfast of pancakes and corn syrup. While she does it, she wears a pretty cotton robe and hides those bristling pin-curls with a hairband. Pleasant conversation (center) and a cheerful smile at the breakfast table get the day off to a good start for two people. You can't feel grouchy while you're smiling; try it. To avoid the early morning rush that results in poor breakfasts or no breakfast at all, this housewife (right) sets the table the night before. It's important to eat your breakfast at a neat and pretty table.

Panhandle Circle Of Rebekahs Plan Christmas Party At Skellytown Meet

SKELLYTOWN (Sp) — Rebekah Lodge met recently in the P.O.P. Hall with Mrs. Frank Carter, noble grand, in charge as director from Mrs. Myrtle Russell who read deleting parts of the Rebekah degree work. The director was made by the Sovereign Grand Master.

Mrs. Russell also sent a notice to the lodge that the "Officers and Book" which was adopted in 1957 has been changed in part. The changes will be sent to each lodge so that the members can correct their own book accordingly.

It was announced that Roy Retzmeier, Grand Master of the Sovereign Grand Lodge has purchased picture postcards in color of the Ophans home in Corsicana and of the Old Folks Home in Pampa to be sold to benefit the homes. Proceeds derived from the sale of cards will be used for new

Beauty At Breakfast Table Gives Family A Good Start On New Day

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

Are you one of the growing number of women who don't care a fig what they look like until after they've had their first cup of coffee in the morning?

It's an alarming fact these days, with everyone always in a hurry, that breakfast time is fast becoming the forgotten hour. No one seems to remember that good looks and a cheerful start can make or break the day.

No man expects his wife to don full make-up, her best dress, and then set the breakfast table with her good china and crystal. But he does have the right to expect neatness, cheerfulness and a pretty table so that the whole household can start the day with a smile.

If you're a nighty hair setter, you don't have to show up at breakfast with bobby pins showing. There are a variety of caps that cover the hair and can make you look demure or pretty, depending on your mood.

If you want to get really gay, you can cover your hair with one of the new wig caps, and shock the family into wakefulness by appearing as a blonde or redhead.

Be sure to remove the cream from your face as soon as you get up. The shine should be in your eyes, not on your nose and chin.

The only make-up you need at that hour is lipstick. But don't overlook it. It takes only a second to apply, and will give you that "dressed" feeling.

When serving breakfast, wear

Mrs. Guinn Feted At Layette Shower

Mrs. Gene Guinn was honored with a coffee and layette shower given Saturday morning in the home of Mrs. C. D. Anderson, Cities Service Camp.

The serving table, covered with a yellow net, was centered with a miniature clothes-line. Gifts were placed in a doll crib lined with quilted yellow satin.

Napkins and guest book were folded in the shape of baby gowns. Miniature storks were given as favors.

Coffee and rolls were served by the hostess to Meses. Ray Cales, Walter Murphy, Bob Brandon, Homer Scherer, Leo Casey, and Carl D. Anderson Jr.

Approximately 25 guests attended or sent gifts.

Towels Make Lovely Gifts

A DELIGHTFUL WAY to send holiday greetings is with lovely colored towel ensembles. No homemaker ever has too many, and you can be sure that towels are always acceptable.

According to the Cannon Homemaking Institute, you can choose separate towels and washcloths in beautiful colors and gift wrap them yourself. Or you can buy ready-packed towel gift sets in stores near you. Some sets have the towels charmingly arranged in metal baskets, wicker trays and a variety of other interesting containers. Whatever type of towel gift you choose, you're certain to be remembered happily all through the years.

Woodward, Linda Green, "Little Bimbo" was given by Tommy Knutson followed by Jimmy Hutchinson imitating Elvis Presley's "Teddy Bear," "My Happiness" and "Oh, Johnny" by Donna Huckins completed the program.

During the social hour, refreshments were served from a table laid with a white cloth centered with a horn - of plenty filled with autumn fruits and vegetables flanked with old-fashioned reflector lamps.

Attending from Skellytown were Meses, Fred Genett, Clifford Coleman, Fred Wall, W. H. McBee, Butch Elwes, Mae Allen, Miles Pearson, Fred Anderson, Al Shuring, R. E. McAllister, Frank Carpenter, C. M. Estes, Gertrude Huckins, Ross Neugin, Evelyn Boxan, Nadine Hill, Everett Crawford, Clifton Hanna and Miss Addie Fern Lick.

Peggy Connelly Has TV's Zaniest Job -- For Kovacs

By VERNON SCOTT UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Candidate for zaniest job-holder in movietown is pretty Peggy Connelly, curvaceous foil for comedian Ernie Kovacs on his new television panel show. Peggy is the cutie who climbs into ridiculous costumes, spouts off-beat lines and risks life and limb for laughs. "We've only been on the air four weeks," the brunette said, "and Ernie's dreamed up some of the darndest stunts I've ever seen. So far, I've worn a blonde fright wig underwater, an Indian quaw outfit, gone sailing through the air on a magic carpet and other weird stunts. "Even on normal nights I have to change costumes six or seven times to give clues to the panel. Normally, Peggy is a singer, but as Kovacs' girl Friday on ABC-TV's "Take A Good Look," she has had only one opportunity to exercise her pipes. "That was last week," she grimaced, "and I had to sing 'Jeannie With The Light Brown Hair' — off-key. It was followed by an off-stage gunshot. That's how bad it was."

at doing. "Not long ago his wife, Edie Adams, was a panelist, and Ernie told her, 'You're great with the pots and pans at home, but as a panelist you're nothing. You ought to get out of show business.' "There's nothing easy about getting laughs when you're a pretty girl, but Peggy, who's married to comedian Dick Martin of the Rowan and Martin comedy team, is learning fast. "The more attractive a girl is the harder it is to be funny, the scripts and sketches have to be as humorous as possible," she said. "I never know what Ernie will have me doing from week to week.

"In a way it's thrilling for me to play comedy. Before I joined the show I was forced to rely on my voice and face. "I've always been a secret nut, but I've had to keep my sense of humor hidden. Now I can be as crazy as I want. I realize, of course, that it takes year to learn timing and other elements of comedy. But I'm going to keep trying." The first real laugh Peggy ever collected occurred a few years back while on a date with Frank Sinatra. When asked who his companion was, Sinatra introduced her to one and all as Ernie Charles. "I'm still trying to live that down," Peggy sighed.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

Written Farm Leases Prevent Disputes

At this time of year, many landlords and tenants are thinking about farm rental arrangements for 1960. While some operate from year to year on the basis of verbal agreements regulated largely by local customs, written leases are better and may save disagreement and hard feelings between the parties.

Farming is a business and should be conducted in a businesslike manner for best success. Rental contracts involve a full year's work by the tenant and possibly thousands of dollars for both parties. A few dollars spent on a properly drawn lease is good business economy.

A farm lease is not a simple paper. Printed lease forms often turn out to be traps if not understood, or if not properly executed. A farmer-tenant contract is intricate and of such importance to both parties concerned that amateur draftsmanship is risky.

Fixing of cash rent or designating the length of term are relatively simple. Yet, even in these matters, ambiguity or incompleteness can cause bitter disputes and expensive lawsuits.

A loosely drawn property description may have consequences entirely unintended by either landlord or tenant. Where rent is to be based on acreage, an accurate description is doubly important.

In addition, there are legal rules to substitute for some omissions in written leases. For example, a holdover by the tenant may automatically renew the contract if the lease is silent on the subject. It is as important to know the results of omissions as to know the courts' interpretation of the language used.

There are many matters which should be covered by a properly drawn lease. For instance, if a tenant is to farm on a share basis, care should be taken to define what expenses are to be paid by the parties as well as what shares are to be taken out. A lease should cover such things as who is to make repairs, what land is to be cropped, whether the tenant can cut timber, whether crops of a building by fire or other cause frees the tenant, or whether the landlord must accept a subtenant.

One great cause of difficulty which leases is blind faith on the part of the persons involved that all differences of opinion can be worked out. Poor memories as to verbal agreements can cause disputes between persons even though they are both honest and generous.

Many of the possibilities that should be covered by a properly drawn lease will not occur to inexperienced persons. The renting of land deserves a written contract, and it is a contract too important to be entrusted to anyone other than an expert.

(This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

GRIM AND BEAR IT. DALLAS, Tex. (UPI)—A downtown tie shop has a new display to attract Christmas buyers — a hangman's noose with a sign advertising "almost everything in neckwear."

Handicapped Mothers Tell How They Get Work Done

By PATRICIA MCCORMACK United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — What short-cuts help a mother with a crippling handicap to take care of her home and family? This question was put to five attractive young homemakers fighting their way back from attacks of paralytic polio — Mrs. Kathy Crouch, of El Paso, Tex.; Mrs. Ruth Longmate, of Bremerston, Wash.; Mrs. Beth Smith Broyles, of Dallas, Tex.; Mrs. Leonore Ellenberg, of East Meadow, L.I.; and Mrs. David Bruen, of Brewster, N.Y. The five are candidates for mother of the year for the new March of Dimes.

Their answers, to help harassed housewives everywhere: — Be old-fashioned. Plan your work schedule at the beginning of the week. Schedule one heavy task for each of the first five days of the week: washing, Monday; ironing, Tuesday; doing your hair and your children's hair, Wednesday; marketing, Thursday; cooking and baking, Friday. "Sneak in a little washing" on Thursday or Friday.

— Ration your energy. Don't lift great piles of linens, plate or groceries. Break up the job. — Take five or ten minute breaks when you feel you need them. Do the day's telephoning during one of the breaks: — Sit down while working when possible. Use a stool to sit while ironing or doing the dishes. — Find a way to do exercises along with your housework to keep yourself trim. This is the best time, for you're probably wearing the right clothes for free movement.

Lefors School Has Christmas Party Monday

LEFORS (Sp) — Employees and Board Members of the Lefors School were entertained with a Christmas party Monday night in the school cafeteria.

The host committee for the evening included Alex Sween, Eddy Clemmons, Ed Lehnick, C. J. Truitt, Ralph Carveth, Chester Hill, Ronald Adams, Miss Ardelle Briggs, Miss Kay Brown, Mmes. O. W. Nowlin, Louie Natho, Joe Clarke, Kattie Wooten, and Howard Archer.

Green and gold arrangements decorated the tables which were laid in white. The serving table was centered with an arrangement of white sprayed chrysanthemums and golden Christmas balls set in flocked fir branches. Mrs. Ed Lehnick was in charge of decorations. The menu consisted of baked ham, baby lima beans, tossed salad, french bread, pie and coffee, and was served to approximately fifty persons who attended the event.

Washington's Ghost Gets Cold, Now

NEW YORK (UPI) — The city of New York is putting the freeze on George Washington's ghost.

The furnace in historic Jumel Mansion, Washington's headquarters-in-retreat in 1776 and now a city museum, broke down a month ago and the temperature in its 20 antique-filled rooms has dropped to below freezing on several occasions.

Washington's troubled spirit, which is said to pace there on wintry nights with a spyglass in its pale hands, had better bundle up in an ectoplasmic greatcoat. It's going to be cold inside for at least another week until heat is restored.

The city spends $60,000 a year to maintain the upper Manhattan tourist attraction, and city fathers have had all-haste to replace the 195-year-old mansion's corroded furnace boiler. But officials have sometimes been a small's pace because of the necessity of advertising for bids, letting contracts and other red tape.

In the meantime, Henry Harrison de Frise, the curator, and a staff of five are carrying on—playing host to an average of nearly 200 visitors a day. The city has provided no temporary heating arrangements, and the score of fireplaces used in Washington's day can't be utilized for fear of burning down one of the nation's most admired historical shrines.

Blue Lustre The Easy Way To Clean Carpets For Christmas Home for Christmas — is an all-American custom. Getting the house spic and span for holiday guests has always been of prime importance to housewives everywhere. Blue Lustre Carpet and Upholstery Cleaner, available at Pampa Hardware Co., provides the answer for a quick and easy method of cleaning rugs and upholstery without a lot of trouble and inconvenience. It is no longer necessary to send out your room furnishings to a commercial cleaner when it can be done with professional like results at home with the marvelous foam cleaner known as Blue Lustre. This amazing product is a premium quality liquid concentrate which when mixed with water creates a billowy foam. The cleaning action of this foam instantly restores forgotten colors dulled by soil and separates the dirt particles from the fabric to allow easy removal by vacuuming. It can be applied to the carpet or rug with a long handled brush or it can also be used in any type of rug shampoo applicator. Since Blue Lustre is a special formula that contains absolutely no soap, it is never necessary to rinse and no oily or gummy residue remains to cause rapid resoiling. It is an excellent cleaner for upholstered pieces and has become first choice among housewives to keep their room furnishings in spic and span condition at all times. More and more homemakers have discovered the wonderful advantage of using Blue Lustre to clean-soiled-spots-or-traffic-paths ways as they appear without the necessity of going over the entire carpet again. Blue Lustre is a gentle cleaner, safe for the finest oriental rugs and because it is odorless, there is no lingering scent after cleaning is done. Blue Lustre is non-inflammable and perfectly safe to keep around the home and comes in convenient sizes — quarts, half gallons and gallons. With Blue Lustre, rugs and upholstery can be kept clean with very little cost for one half gallon of Blue Lustre concentrate is sufficient to clean three 9 x 12 rugs. It's available at Pampa Hardware Co., 120 N. Cuyler, Ph. MO 4-2451.

Fort Sill Fights Here Tonight

Snider to Meet Sill's Best; Gary Wills Returns to Ring

Boxers from Fort Sill, Okla., will fight the Pampa Optimist Boys Club biffers at 7:30 p.m. at the Optimist Boys Club.

About 15 fights will be on tonight's card, and at least 11 of them will probably be bouts between Pampa and Fort Sill fighters. The others will be pee wee fights.

Two fighters with dynamite in their fists will meet in tonight's feature attraction, when Pampa's Charles Snider takes on Leonard Womack of Fort Sill in a welterweight bout. Womack won the Orange, Beaumont, and Galveston golden gloves tournaments before entering the service. Snider has a fine overall record, and in his first fight of the year last week, he scored a solid knockout, putting his opponent to sleep for about a minute.

Another feature fight is expected to be that between Pampa's Gary Wills and Fort Sill's Vernon Winston. Wills, who is known as one of Pampa's most clever boxers, as well as a puncher, is making his first appearance of the year. Winston is Fort Sill's best middleweight.

Another feature bout will send one of two crowd-pleasing sluggers against Fort Sill middleweight Lewis Bell. Going against Bell will be either Norman Rekrout of Pampa or Glenn Ward, now of Boger. Both are solid punchers, and both have been very popular here for their aggressive, wider-in style of fighting. Ward is a former Pampa fighter.

The number four match of the night will be between Pampa heavyweight Wesley Crites and former Alabama heavyweight champion James Jackson. Crites, who won the Pampa and Boger district titles last year as a lightweight, will be fighting his first bout of the year. His southpaw style of boxing makes him unusually tough for other fighters to handle, and he has a solid knockout punch to back up his boxing ability.

In a pair of lightweight scraps, Pampa's Jim Murray, who boxed his way to an impressive decision last week, will tangle with Fort Sill's Milton Timms; and Rabbit Ramirez will continue his comeback against Jose Titano of Fort Sill.

Lefora's promising young high school boxer, Gary Smith, will go against Sonny Jackson of Fort Sill in a 125-pound fight. Smith, so far this year, has scored the fastest knockout in the Pampa ring (14 seconds) and has also put on some of the best boxing exhibitions.

In other bouts tonight, Jim Snider of Pampa meets Pampa welterweight John Shredock of Fort Sill; veteran Pampa bantamweight Dickie James tangles with Benjamin Santiano-Colon of Fort Sill; and Johnny Ironmonger of Pampa fights his first bout of the year against Steve White, in a 112-pound encounter.

Liston Action Backs Words

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI) — Sonny Liston, the Philadelphia heavyweight who claims he can beat any man alive in the ring, had another convincing victory in his record today to back up his boast. The 27-year-old Quaker City fighter, third ranked among contenders, belted out a bloody technical knockout over Willie Beamanoff Wednesday night in a nationally televised 10 round bout before 7,710 at the Cleveland Arena.

Beamanoff, jolted repeatedly by stiff left jabs and hooks from the head, had blood streaming from cuts over both eyes when Dr. M. H. Lambright stopped the fight before the bell rang for the seventh round.

Grand Prix Drivers Are Qualifying

SEBRING, Fla. (UPI) — Race drivers, one of whom will win the world's driving championship, began practice and qualifying runs today for the first Grand Prix of the United States.

The race, to begin Saturday under international formula rules, is the last of the year counting toward the world's driving championship and it will decide the winner.

The grand prix, the first such race to be held in this country in many years, will be run over the same road-runnable course made famous by the annual Florida international 12-hour sports car endurance race.

Youthful Froggies Look Impressive

By Bryce Miller United Press International

Texas Christian's youthful Froggie five left little doubt today it's going to take more than experience to pry them loose from the Southwest Conference crown. The Horned Frogs, in their best showing and highest production of the season, used a balanced scoring attack last night to whip Tulsa's Golden Hurricane 99-77.

It was Coach Henry Iba's worst defeat of the young season, and the fourth straight. Arkansas topped Tulsa 65-51 Monday.

The only other game last night involving a conference team was at Lubbock where Oklahoma's Sooners nailed Texas Tech's Red Raiders 56-43.

Rice plays Vanderbilt in Houston tonight. Fans at Fort Worth found it hard to realize the Frogs are rebuilding this year. The young cagers aren't the big bully-boys that shoved folks around last year and captured the conference title hands-down, but it's difficult to tell from the scorecard.

TCU hit a superb 48.6 per cent from the field and had six players marking up double figures to protect a lead taken at the start of the game and held all the way. Tulsa trailed 45-30 at halftime.

TCU's shorter, faster squad kept Tulsa's tall timber—6-8 Bobby Goodall and 6-5's David Voss and Jim Weaver—off balance and generally a step behind race-horse-type play.

Bobby Bernard, entering the game as a substitute, threw in 15 points to top TCU's production. Ray Gross of Tulsa grabbed individual honors with 21.

The high-scoring Frogs thought they had 101 points and fiddled away the last 15 seconds without taking a shot, only to learn the score keeper made a two point mistake.

Southern Methodist and Texas A&M, both loaded with veterans and considered the teams to beat when the title chase gets underway, resume interconference warfare this weekend with the Aggies tangling with Midwestern at College Station Friday night and the Mustangs versus Vanderbilt at Dallas Saturday.

The rest of the league has non-conference opponents Saturday. Arkansas and Mississippi play at Little Rock, Texas tackles Tulane at Austin, Baylor battles Memphis State at Memphis, Rice runs against Louisiana State at Houston, Texas Tech entertains Iowa at Lubbock, and TCU travels to Des Moines, Iowa, for a date with Drake.

Texas Tech, another team virtually wiped out by graduation; stayed with Oklahoma for the first half, but couldn't stop a Sooner surge in the second half that averaged a loss to the Raiders last year.

Oklahoma held a slim 29-27 halftime lead, but parlayed a ball control game and a tough defense to break the battle wide open.

Tech's shooting dropped off to 36 per cent, worst of the season, while Oklahoma hit a 48 per cent average from the field.

Del Heidebrecht, Brian B. Estheridge and Dennis Price each dropped in 11 points for Oklahoma, and Del Ray Mounds was high for Tech with 14.

White Sox Ditch 'Stand Pat' Ball

By Jack Cuddy United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stand-pat baseball is a thing of the past and the club best exemplifying that point today is the revamped Chicago White Sox.

The White Sox won the American League pennant this year but apparently remembered the fate of the 1954 Giants and 1958 Yankees. Both stood pat after winning world championships in those years and watched their titles disappear the following seasons.

"Our biggest need is more power," said White Sox boss Bill Veeck following his team's loss to the Dodgers in this year's World Series. "We need more punch in the lineup and we'll get it somehow."

Veeck did exactly that during the major league meetings just concluded at Miami Beach, Fla. He re-acquired Minnie Miñoso, who averages better than 30 runs driven in a season, and obtained home-run-hitting Gene Freese in a deal that made White Sox rivals shudder.

"The White Sox used to need four singles to score one run," commented Detroit Manager Jimmy Dykes "but they don't any more. They can now throw a line up at you with such power in it that a lot of people aren't going to recognize them from last year."

Dykes is right. No one could call the White Sox "banjo hitters" any more. Sluggers like Ted Kluszewski, Sherm Lollar, Minnie Miñoso and Freese should make many opposing pitchers wince and forget all about the days when the White Sox' principal attack was a long single, a pair of stolen bases and a sacrifice fly.

"They knew they couldn't stand still after the Dodgers vaselined them in the World Series," declared Casey Stengel. "You can't stand still any more in this business. As soon as you do, somebody's sure to pass you."

If that's the case, how come the Yankees have stood pat so far, even though they nose-dived to third place this year?

In answer to that, General Manager George Weiss says, "I am quite sure we'll make a deal before the season opens."

St. Louis, Ohio State Meet Tonight in Top Cage Contest

United Press International

After a week of preliminary sparring, seventh-ranked St. Louis entertainer fourth-ranked Ohio State Thursday night in college basketball's first collision between top-rated teams this season.

The game also will feature a duel between two strong All-American candidates — Big Bob Nordmann of St. Louis and Ohio State's Jerry Lucas.

Although only a sophomore, Lucas already has lived up to his press notices as the most publicized court star since Will Chamberlain left Philadelphia for Kansas. The 6-9 center averaged 25 points a game as the Buckeyes trampled Wake Forest, Memphis State, Pittsburgh and Butler in their first four outings.

Nordmann, a ponderous 6-10 New York native, led the Huskies with 28 points. High Team Series: Franks Rockets, 29-88.

can League pennant this year but apparently remembered the fate of the 1954 Giants and 1958 Yankees. Both stood pat after winning world championships in those years and watched their titles disappear the following seasons.

"Our biggest need is more power," said White Sox boss Bill Veeck following his team's loss to the Dodgers in this year's World Series. "We need more punch in the lineup and we'll get it somehow."

Veeck did exactly that during the major league meetings just concluded at Miami Beach, Fla. He re-acquired Minnie Miñoso, who averages better than 30 runs driven in a season, and obtained home-run-hitting Gene Freese in a deal that made White Sox rivals shudder.

"The White Sox used to need four singles to score one run," commented Detroit Manager Jimmy Dykes "but they don't any more. They can now throw a line up at you with such power in it that a lot of people aren't going to recognize them from last year."

Dykes is right. No one could call the White Sox "banjo hitters" any more. Sluggers like Ted Kluszewski, Sherm Lollar, Minnie Miñoso and Freese should make many opposing pitchers wince and forget all about the days when the White Sox' principal attack was a long single, a pair of stolen bases and a sacrifice fly.

"They knew they couldn't stand still after the Dodgers vaselined them in the World Series," declared Casey Stengel. "You can't stand still any more in this business. As soon as you do, somebody's sure to pass you."

If that's the case, how come the Yankees have stood pat so far, even though they nose-dived to third place this year?

In answer to that, General Manager George Weiss says, "I am quite sure we'll make a deal before the season opens."

After a week of preliminary sparring, seventh-ranked St. Louis entertainer fourth-ranked Ohio State Thursday night in college basketball's first collision between top-rated teams this season.

The game also will feature a duel between two strong All-American candidates — Big Bob Nordmann of St. Louis and Ohio State's Jerry Lucas.

Heisman Trophy To Cannon

NEW YORK (UPI) — "Billy Cannon is not just an ordinary Cannon—but an atomic cannon in the awesome arsenal of Coach Paul Dietzel."

That was the way Vice President Richard Nixon described the two-time All-American halfback from Louisiana State Wednesday night when he presented Cannon with the Heisman Trophy as the outstanding college football player in America.

Cannon, also named United Press International's "Player of the Year," won the Heisman award by a landslide over runner-up Richie Lucas of Penn State.

The 23-year-old blond Tiger star, who reached the heights in his 1959 campaign with an 89-yard punt return that beat Mississippi, 7-3, had words of praise for all those who stood by him during his career.

In accepting the trophy at the dinner at the Downtown Athletic Club, sponsor of the annual award, Cannon gave thanks to his teammates "without whose efforts I surely would not be here" and his parents and wife for "putting up with me during the football season."

Moyer to Fight Akins Tonight

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — Youth vs. experience will be matched here tonight when Portland's young Denny Moyer meets veteran Virgil Akins in a 10-round boxing match.

Akins, the ex-welterweight champ, will have a definite advantage over Moyer in experience. But youth will be on Moyer's side.

Colts Favored to Top Rams, Clinch West Division Title

By Earl Wright United Press International

The Baltimore Colts are 10-point favorites to whip the Rams Saturday at Los Angeles and qualify to entertain the New York Giants Dec. 27 in the National Football League's championship game. The 12 clubs play their final regular season games Saturday and Sunday.

Baltimore, leading the San Francisco Forty-Niners and Chicago Bears by a game, needs a victory or a tie at Los Angeles to capture its second straight Western Division crown.

The Colts clinched their second straight Eastern title last Sunday when they walloped the Cleveland Browns, 48-7. New York (9-2) is a nine-point choice to end its regular season with a victory Sunday against the Redskins (3-8) at Washington.

The oddsmakers are so confident the Colts (8-3) will finish first in the Western title that they are ready to tab them three-point favorites to defeat the Giants in the championship game. Baltimore more won the league title last

Football Banned At Crozier Tech

DALLAS (UPI) — The Dallas Board of Education decided Wednesday night to ban football at N. R.-Crozier Technical High School.

Students at the Class AAA school were bitter about the move. The board said weakness in team and individual players during the past season created a situation which was "hazardous for the boys concerned."

"Lack of material which put the coaches at a disadvantage, the consequences of games in the last several years, with lopsided scores demoralizing the athletes and bringing dwindling attendance, and the high rate of injuries," said school board president Dr. Edwin L. Rippy, was the reason for the football ban.

Old Chinese Puzzle

It's an old Communist trick, one of the hoariest in the book, to steal something from another nation and then, with a great show of sweet reason, offer to return part of the stolen goods as a 'settlement'.

This is a case where the Chinese over recent months have made a number of deep thrusts into Indian border soil. Some of these penetrations are upward of 40 miles.

What It's About

We place education at a very high point on our personal scale of values. We believe that the willingness and the ability to learn, and to pass that knowledge and lore on to our children, is one of the truly important and distinguishing features which makes human kind distinct from the brutes and elevates him to a position of pre-eminence.

BETTER JOBS

Six Different Approaches To Money Problems Very few people understand money, credit and banking. Even some of the classical economists like Adam Smith and Ricardo were badly confused on money.

Any man will become a more intelligent voter if he better understands what money is supposed to be and do. With this in mind, I am quoting from 'First Principles in Morality and Economics' by Frederick Nymer under the heading of 'Six Different Approaches to the Problem of Money.'

1. The 'money problem' ought to be approached as a money problem only, and not as something that should be decided, or even be influenced, by any secondary of collateral interest.

2. The following disturbing, non-germane considerations have been devised: (1) Profitability. The Special Interest Involved: 'Efficiency' in the use of money, to enhance the profitability of the banks, and to lower the over-all cost of money for society.

3. Consideration of (3) International Exchange. The Special Interest Involved: Control of the inflow and outflow of gold and of goods, for national reasons.

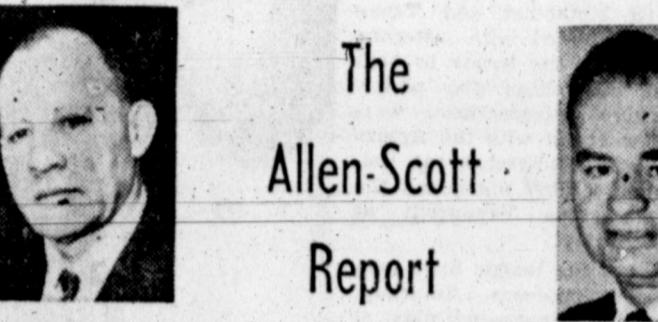

4. Consideration of (4) Full Employment. The Special Interest Involved: The apprehension of employees, and the mass of people in a country, about unemployment.

5. Consideration of (5) Price Stability. The Special Interest Involved: The wishes of politicians, bureaucrats, business men and others that prices do not decline.

6. The 'Pure money problem, which has one and only one consideration in mind, namely, honesty in the medium of exchange, or that shall not steal. This consideration is not special nor for any class, but is for all men.

7. That is of moment because Moscow is stressing Susslov would travel in the role of a high government official and not a Communist Party chief.

NO. 4 KREMLINITE, SUSSLOV MAY VISIT U.S. IN EARLY '60 WASHINGTON — Mikhail Susslov, one of the least known of the Kremlin rulers but who ranks fourth among them, wants to come to the U.S.

While no decision has been made on that, the answer will probably be yes. As proposed through Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson in Moscow, Susslov would come here in February or March.

That is of moment because Moscow is stressing Susslov would travel in the role of a high government official and not a Communist Party chief.

Throughout that stay he conducted himself quietly and decorously. He made no speeches, and carefully avoided arguments.

Both are highly desirable because he is a possible successor to Khrushchev.

Such a tour is deemed an excellent opportunity for Susslov to see for himself what the U.S. is like, and for officials here to size him up.

Both are highly desirable because he is a possible successor to Khrushchev.

Commiss Threaten Guatemala Again

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign Editor

Guatemala is a Central American republic with a distinction that makes it unique in the world.

It is the one country that once under Communist domination was able to throw it off and return to a Democratic regime.

But the Communists and their fellow travelers have not given up, and Sunday's election results demonstrate that once again they are in a position to threaten.

This was an off-year election, in that President Miguel Ydigoras Fuentes' office was not at stake. It was to elect 23 members of the 66-member single-house, with President Ydigoras admitting in advance that he feared a leftist gain.

The government was the big winner, taking 20 of the 33 seats and doubling its strength in the legislature. Extreme leftist supporters of refugee ex-President Juan J. Arévalo captured six seats.

This was another Latin American election in which the United States was a campaign issue, and which had to be viewed by the United States with frank interest.

Guatemala emerged from Communist domination on June 27, 1954, when Carlos Castillo Armas at the head of a rag-tag force succeeded in ousting President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman.

Arbenz fled to the shelter of the Iron Curtain, and the United States began the process of firming up the Castillo Armas regime with loans and various forms of aid which now run around the 100 million dollar mark.

With this aid, Guatemala was able to survive a severe drop in the price of coffee, its main export, and to maintain a respectable foreign exchange reserve.

In July, 1957 however, one of Castillo Armas' own guards assassinated him in the presidential palace. The Guatemalan government said the assassin carried papers proving he had Communist affiliations.

After a considerable political scramble, Ydigoras, an army general, took over.

Ydigoras, in contrast to the popular and strong-willed Castillo Armas, is no strongman.

Rightist groups in Congress are divided, and Ydigoras' fights with Mexico over fishing rights and claims to sovereignty over British Honduras have not succeeded in uniting behind him the public support Ydigoras had hoped for.

Even an election-eve government charge that forces were being trained in Cuba to invade Guatemala failed to stir the voters.

Meanwhile, Communists and pro-Communists have filtered back into the country and are becoming increasingly vocal politi-

Hope, Network Clash Over TV Show Ribbing 'Payola'

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Payola and the disc jockey investigation touched off a verbal battle today between comedian Bob Hope and the NBC network.

Funnyman Hope accused the network of censorship in trying to kill a sketch satirizing the current payola scandals.

NBC denied the charge. Network official Hal Kemp said, "as usual Hope had too many plugs for other products on his show, and we just asked him to cut them out. With all the payola thing going on, it didn't seem like a good idea to have him plugging other merchandise."

The network has increasingly attempted to divert any connection between its stars, presumably including Hope, and the widespread payola practices invading the broadcasting industry.

"Baloney," Hope fired back from his Palm Springs home. "Those plugs were all part of the comedy routine in the sketch."

The ski-nosed comedian told United Press International the controversial sketch—which may or may not be seen on his Friday night show — was similar to the takeoff he did on Charles Van Doren and fixed quiz shows last month.

"We had tremendous reaction to that show," Hope said.

"NBC objects to the idea of current humor. In the sketch I play a crooked-disc jockey named Herman Payola who works for radio station KLIP. Ernie Kovacs plays a senator investigating me.

"Sure we bring in the names of some products as merchandise that Herman Payola is accepting."

According to Hope, the network contacted his sponsor (Buick) in an effort to stop the sketch from going on the air. NBC denied this.

"NBC has been screaming about the sketch all week," Hope went on. "But I'm taking a stand. This is nothing but censorship and I'm plenty burned up about it."
