

"The history of liberty is a history of the limitation of governmental power, not the increase of it. When we resist, therefore, the concentration of power we are resisting the processes of death, because a concentration of power is what always precedes the destruction of human liberties." —Woodrow Wilson.

Tribute To Dead Of WW I

Traditional Ceremonies At Arlington

United Press International
The nation pauses for a minute of silence today to honor the country's war dead on Veterans Day.

Traditional Veterans Day ceremonies were held at Arlington National Cemetery outside Washington.

Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, Army chief of staff, led the observance as President Eisenhower's personal representative, placing the President's wreath at the Tomb of the Unknowns.

The 11 a.m. wreath-laying ceremony was followed by one minute of reverent silence to be observed throughout the nation. This was the exact hour the guns ceased firing the first Armistice Day, Nov. 11, 1918, marking the end of World War I.

Other memorial services were planned at the First Division Monument in downtown Washington and at the simple grave of Gen. John J. Pershing, commander of the American expeditionary force in World War I, in Arlington.

Millions of school children had a holiday as did the nation's mailmen who made no deliveries today. Most other federal, state and municipal employees were also given the day off.

Courts and most banks and public buildings were closed but grain and stock markets around the country were open.

Many daily newspapers around the country suspended publication for the day.

Wreath laying ceremonies and parades marked Veterans Day observances in the rest of the country.

Coronado Inn Plans Talked

The board of directors of the Pampa Community Hotel Corp. met this morning and laid plans for the opening of the Coronado Inn January 18 and 19.

The group heard a report from George Scott, operating committee chairman, regarding the program for the formal dedication and asked for the board's decision regarding the number of television sets to be installed. The board decided that half the rooms would have TV sets when the Inn opens with sets to be added later as demand warrants.

Roy Smith, president of the Pampa Club, reported on the progress of the club's formation and it was agreed that the club would lease its 2,000 square feet at the rate of $4,000 per year. The lease for the club will run ten years with the year option. Either side, at five year intervals, will be permitted to reopen the lease agreement for renegotiation.

Rockefeller To Campaign

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York is heading West tonight for his first major political foray to assess his chances of winning the 1960 Republican presidential nomination.

His first stops will be in the presumably hostile territory of California, home state of Vice President Richard M. Nixon and one of two pivotal states getting much attention this week from prospective presidential candidates.

The other is Wisconsin, which has a presidential primary law making it a political battleground in election years. Nixon, who now holds a commanding lead in public opinion polls over Rockefeller, and Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), current pace-setter among Democrats, both will be traveling in Wisconsin Thursday.

Hutterites Mistake Plane Crash For Atom Explosion

By PAUL M. QUINN
United Press International

LEWISTOWN, Mont. (UPI) — A group of 75 religious pacifists today revealed how their little Hutterite colony reacted when it feared a nearby federal navigational installation was under attack by atomic bombers from Russia.

The group's fear resulted from the crash of three U.S. twin-jet interceptors during a driving blizzard the previous night. The explosions lighted the sky and reflections off the swirling snow resembled the mushroom cloud from an atomic explosion. One plane crashed a quarter of a mile from their ranch.

Four crewmen were killed when they crashed with their planes while two others bailed out and were rescued by the Hutterites. Joseph Stahl, the leader of the King Colony Hutterite ranch, said he heard an explosion and saw the glare of fire in the snow.

"The sky was lit up like a Russian had bombed us and I was fearful for our people," he said. "I thought an atomic bomb attack had begun. The entire colony shook from the blast. The whole sky was afire and I said a prayer and then hurried to give the alarm we had been attacked."

In a firm, German-accented voice, Stahl said he aroused the other members of the colony and told them he feared bombers had attacked the navigational installation located on the Hutterite land to guide aircraft to the Lewistown Airport.

Stahl said the other members of the colony, dressed in their traditional black clothing, rushed out into the blizzard and were assigned specific duties.

One man was sent to extinguish lights in a hog barn and chicken coops. Another rushed to put out lights in other barn buildings. In a matter of seconds all 15 buildings in the colony were in total darkness.

The two surviving airmen, meanwhile, had parachuted from their doomed plane and were using the lights from the Hutterite ranch to guide their descent.

Capt. John Budner, 31, of Bluefield, W. Va., said that after he bailed out of his plane "I looked around for lights and saw a bunch a little way off. Then they all went out."

Budner's radar observer, Lt. James Johnson, 27, of Groesbeck, Tex., suffered the same fate and eventually landed in a muddy stubblefield.

Stahl said "We put out the lights in case it was an intruder." After the blackout Stahl telephoned authorities in Lewistown and was told that there had been no enemy attack but that three U.S. fighter planes had run out of fuel in the blizzard and crashed.

Stahl immediately banded his people together and a search was begun for survivors.

"We had flashlights and we hollered," Stahl said. "Finally we found one of them (Capt. Budner). He told us he got out of the aircraft just three seconds before it crashed. We found the other one (See EXPLOSION, Page 3)

Gov. Daniel Says He's For Johnson

AUSTIN (UPI) — Gov. Price Daniel has thrown his support behind Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson for chairman of the Texas delegation to the Democratic national convention next summer.

The move spurred the "Johnson for President" boom. Daniel has frequently voiced his support for Johnson for President.

The campaign which is being organized by friends of Senator Johnson is not limited to Texas or to a favorite son status. It will become an all-out drive for the nomination," Daniel said.

Vacate Border Of India Or No Talks

By PATRICK J. KILLEN
United Press International

NEW DELHI (UPI) — Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru will demand that the Chinese Communists vacate border areas they occupy here even will consent to talk with Premier Chou En-lai, an authoritative source said today.

The source said Nehru was not prepared to accept Chou's suggestion that a buffer zone be established along the disputed India-Tibet-China border pending the outcome of negotiations.

Red troops occupy several outposts on Indian soil near the Himalayan border, notably Longju, in the rugged Northeast Frontier Agency, and in the Ladakh Province of the state of Jammu and Kashmir.

In the buffer zone suggested by Chou, Chinese troops would pull back 12.5 miles from the position they now occupy in Ladakh, but this would be to India's continuing disadvantage since the Chinese have penetrated 40 miles into Indian territory.

Chou suggested that India pull back troops that have allegedly crossed over into China, also 12.5 miles.

The source close to Nehru said the prime minister generally would hold out for Chinese acceptance of the historic 1914 McMahon Line as the border, but that he might be willing to make "minor adjustments" to mollify the Reds.

Nehru was said to be adamant in his refusal to withdraw Indian troops from border areas. Tuesday the prime minister made his strongest statement on the dispute when he said India "cannot allow China to keep a foot on our chest."

Nehru's cabinet was busy studying Chou's latest note and the prime minister was expected to reply to it sometime next week.

GM Halts Production

DETROIT (UPI) — All production of passenger cars by General Motors came to a halt today as the Chevrolet division closed down its assembly lines at Willow Run, Mich., and St. Louis.

Closing of the two assembly lines boosted the number of auto industry workers idled by steel shortages to almost 226,000, and left only four Chevrolet assembly lines, all producing trucks, still in operation.

The only other GM division still assembling vehicles was the GMC truck and coach division which was turning out some light-weight trucks.

Over 5,000 Chrysler Corp. employees are laid off because of steel shortages and all except two of Chrysler's assembly plants are working short work weeks. Chrysler was expected to close down most of its operations before new steel is available.

proved in recently completed studies that the earth loses about 11,000 tons of air each day. This, says Hedervari, does not mean that we'll all soon be gasping for breath.

Since the earth's atmosphere is estimated to total over five trillion tons, he says, "the amount lost daily is insignificantly small."

Verdict Before Thanksgiving

FDA Testing Cranberries

By RONALD H. NESSEN
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) conducted rush tests today to find out what part of the 1959 cranberry crop is safe for housewives to serve for Thanksgiving dinner.

The tests also will show whether any other crops contain traces of a cancer-producing chemical weed-killer.

The FDA assigned 100 inspectors and about 60 chemists to determine the extent and manner the weed killer aminotriazole had been used on cranberries and other crops in Washington, Oregon, Wisconsin, Massachusetts, Michigan and New Jersey.

Arthur S. Flemming, secretary of health, education and welfare warned consumers Monday that part of the Washington and Oregon cranberry crops had been tainted with residues of the chemical, which causes thyroid cancer in rats.

The announcement jolted the cranberry industry less than three weeks before Thanksgiving. Major food chains halted sales of fresh and canned cranberries. Officials in several cities and states ordered cranberry quarantines.

Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson ordered his department to investigate to find out what it could do to help the hard-hit cranberry growers. He offered "the full resources of the department" to aid the producers.

Benson said he planned to eat cranberries with his Thanksgiving dinner.

The FDA investigation was aimed at finding out if cranberries grown in states other than Washington and Oregon were free from the chemical residue. Spokesmen for growers in the other states have demanded that the agency give their cranberries a clean bill of health.

The Wisconsin Board of Health announced Tuesday night that cranberries grown in that state were found free of aminotriazole. Six New Jersey packing firms, which produce about 40 per cent of the nation's canned berries, said the Rutgers University agriculture experiment station had ruled that their cranberries were not contaminated. They said the berries came from New Jersey, Wisconsin and Massachusetts.

FDA officials were not optimistic that their tests could be completed before THANKSGIVING. But they said the investigation was being sped up and promised a public announcement of the results as soon as possible.

The risky pumping job, a slow task because of the danger of setting off another fire, was expected to be completed before noon today, a Coast Guard official said.

A Coast Guard board of inquiry will convene at 1 p.m. Thursday to begin an investigation of the fire. The board will consist of Rear Adm. Carl E. Olsen, commander of the 8th Coast Guard District in New Orleans, Cmdr. Robert Flochart of Houston and Cmdr. Charles Kaminski, Marine investigating officer.

Kaminski said a temporary probe had turned up "some startling facts" about the blaze. He declined to reveal details of the preliminary statements taken from witnesses on the scene at the time of the explosion and fire.

Authorities meantime said the disastrous fire could have been put out within three hours Sunday morning after it broke out aboard the big tanker if ample supplies of foamite had been available.

This was the opinion of both Fire Chief C. M. Bullock and Lt. Cmdr. R. J. Evans of the Coast Guard, the men who were in charge of fighting the fire.

The only foamite immediately available at that time was 2,700 gallons on the Captain Croft, the port commission's only fireboat.

Bullock pointed out that this amount was "only a drop in the bucket."

Christmas Fund Solicitation Begins

The Business & Professional Women's Club, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Hattie Harmon, is soliciting funds this week for support of Pampa's Christmas activities fund.

This fund is to provide for street decorations, expenses of the Santa Day Parade, including candy for 5,000 children, expected at the parade, erection and maintenance of the Nativity Scene in Central Park and support of a home decoration contest.

Mrs. Harmon said, "We will start the collecting this morning and hope to be finished by Nov. 17." All cards must be returned with collections to Mrs. E. T. Gee's office in the city hall.

Some 35 women are working on the project. "Last year's project was a big success and we're hoping for the same response this year," Mrs. Harmon added.

U.S. Changes Army Chief

BERLIN (UPI) — The United States Army today was taking advantage of the Berlin breathing spell to change its Berlin commandant.

Maj. Gen. Barksdale Hamlett had been scheduled for reassignment at the height of the Berlin crisis last May. But the Army did not want to change command at that time.

Hamlett stayed on because the Army considered his knowledge and experience here too valuable to lose at a time when the city was threatened by the Soviet demand the Western Allies get out.

Now that pressure on the city has relaxed for the time being, Hamlett is getting his long overdue reassignment.

The Army announced Tuesday Hamlett will leave Berlin Dec. 15 for a top Pentagon post. He will be replaced by Maj. Gen. Ralph M. Osborne, a veteran negotiator with the Communists.

The switch was seen as a sign of the Army's belief the Communist heat is off the city temporarily and no serious incidents are expected while the Soviets are pressing for an early Big Four summit meeting.

There was no thought here the Soviets have dropped their plans to get the Western Allies out of the city.

It was believed that if a summit meeting fails the Communists would revive their campaign against the isolated Western outpost.

Plane Crash Kills Four

MADILL, Okla. (UPI) — A two-state search for a missing plane ended today when bodies of four persons were found in the wreckage of a Beechcraft Bonanza four miles north of here.

The plane apparently crashed Tuesday night. It failed to arrive at its Abilene, Tex., destination after leaving Springfield, Mo., late Tuesday afternoon.

The highway patrol identified the victims as Rogers G. Scarborough, 40; Richard E. Scarborough, 41; Patricia Anderson Scarborough, 35, and Mrs. R. G. Scarborough, all of Mesa, Ariz.

All four bodies were found in the plane, which did not burn. Texas and Oklahoma highway patrolmen launched a search for the single-engine plane today. The patrol said it had fuel for only a five-hour flight.

Earlier, searchers had found a piece of the plane's tail section in a field seven miles northwest of Madill. The hunt was widened after searchers failed to find more wreckage in that immediate vicinity.

His Figure On Jobless Total Low

By WILLIAM J. EATON
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell announced today that unemployment rose to 3,270,000 in October and he promptly ate his "hat" in public.

Mitchell, standing in front of the Labor Department, nibbled on a sliver of mocha cake made in the shape of a fedora. He promised last April to eat his hat if the number of people out of work exceeded the three million mark in October.

He blamed the higher than predicted unemployment figure on the steel strike rather than weakness in the economy.

"If there had been no steel strike," Mitchell said, "unemployment would be well below three million and employment would have risen high above the 67-million mark."

To underscore the impact of the walkout, he cut a slice of "hat" for the chief negotiators in the strike—R. Conrad Cooper of management and Steelworkers President David J. McDonald.

Mitchell reported that total employment rose to 86,800,000, a new October high.

The secretary carried out his hat-eating before newsweek cameras and about two dozen newsmen plus government workers in the chilly morning air. When he approached two tables covered with napkins that held his "hat," Mitchell told reporters, "This shows you should not make a bet."

A reporter asked how the cake tasted and he answered, "My (See MITCHELL, Page 3)

Ike Orders Investigation Of Imports

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower has ordered the Tariff Commission to investigate imports of cotton textile to determine whether special impositions should be imposed on them.

Under the import fee scheme, imported textiles would be tax enough to offset the eight cents per pound advantage that foreign textile manufacturers have over American manufacturers in the purchase price of American raw cotton.

Eisenhower neither endorsed nor opposed the proposed scheme. He merely asked the Tariff Commission to conduct an investigation and recommend whether the fee should be imposed.

It was the administration's response to an Aug. 4 appeal by the National Cotton Council to Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson for action under his cotton subsidy program authority to seek imposition of import controls on foreign cotton textiles.

COMMISSION AT FULL STRENGTH — Pampa's City Commission, plagued the past few weeks by accidents and illness, met Tuesday for the first time in a month at full strength in the home of one of its "beleaguered" members, Jack Vaughn, at left. Pictured with Vaughn is Ward O. Commissioner Hershel Wilks. Vaughn, in a wheelchair while a broken leg and several fractured ribs heal, said he will probably be on crutches at least six months. ## Rockefeller's Position Hinges On Nixon Doubters' Backing

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the last in a series of Vice President Richard M. Nixon's bid for the White House in 1960.

By WILLIAM THEIS
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Does Vice President Richard M. Nixon have what it takes to win—and to fill the presidency of the United States in 1960?

There are some Republicans who question whether he could win if nominated. This is what makes Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York view 1960 as a tempting prospect for himself.

There are few professionals in either party, however, who would challenge Nixon's training for the office or his capacity to administer it.

It is generally acknowledged that no vice president has been better trained for promotion. And Nixon's ability is highly respected, even by Democratic critics.

Most think he would be a "strong" president if elected.

President Eisenhower, himself, made much of this training possible by directing Nixon to be a "working" partner from the day he took office in 1953.

Those who most bitterly oppose Nixon charge that he lacks principle, that some of his past actions show a willingness to employ half-truth if it served his purpose. A term used by his political enemies—"Tricky Dick"—still plagues Nixon on occasion.

Nixon advocates answer such charges this way:

"Here is a whole man; not perfect, more complex than most, who does not fear controversy but holds no grudges; who has profited by some mistakes and has grown in stature; who stands four-square for progressive Republicanism; who has been misrepresented at times and who has suffered his own share of political abuse without flinching. Why not judge the whole man?"

Some rough-and-tumble Democratic politicians admit they wish they had more people with Nixon's capacity on their side. They credit him with the political savvy of Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman.

He can claim political courage. Nixon has said that a leader "without political guts" isn't worth his salt.

Like Rockefeller, he has shown he doesn't mind taking an unpopular stand if he thinks it is right. Nixon believes a political leader must lead—not follow.

Friends point out that he made his comeback fight against the 1952 mill-campaign "expense fund" charges almost alone. His televised explanation helped turn what looked like possible disaster into a landslide victory.

Nixon's naval service in the Pacific during World War II was routine. But he risked personal violence as vice president a number of times in his overseas travels.

The risk became most real when he was stoned and spat upon by mobs during his 1956 South American trip. Earlier, he had brushed with danger in Burma, North Vietnam, Iran, Malaysia and Korea—all areas he visited during periods of war or unrest while traveling as a goodwill ambassador.

Nixon has thrived on crises. Each time, he kept his head. His most severe tests came with President Eisenhower's three major illnesses. The President's September, 1955, heart attack stunned Washington and Nixon was no exception.

But, within hours, the vice president had joined in establishing a business-as-usual atmosphere in the administration. He was painstaking in avoiding action which might indicate he was too eager to "move in."

Less than a year later, in June, 1956, the man who is just a heartbeat away from the presidency went through the same ordeal when Eisenhower underwent an operation. His third test came in 1957 when the Chief Executive suffered a mild stroke.

Politically, Nixon has been able to balance his GOP popularity between the right wing Republicans, who first spotted him in the Alger Hiss investigation when he was a "House member, and the more liberal Republicans whose causes he has championed.

With all of this, Nixon doesn't brood over critics. He often tells audiences he shares Truman's belief that "if you can't stand the heat, get out of the kitchen."

The vice president has been pretty much his own press relations man until the past year; but doesn't worry about news notices, good or bad. Unlike such colleagues as Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson, who is sensitive about his press relations, Nixon lets even unfair criticism go unchallenged. Nixon, incidentally, has considerable admiration for Johnson. The Texas politician reciprocates that feeling.

Political observers believe that many Democrats and some Republicans have underestimated Nixon's political appeal. Nixon was credited in 1956, for example, with making telling inroads for the GOP in the ranks of college, independent and Negro voters. He concentrated campaigning with many such groups.

He is at his best in face-to-face, informal contacts. And he is tireless, as this reporter has found in covering him in travels to more than 30 countries and most of the 50 states.

Immediately ahead for Nixon is the problem of holding California, intact if there is any serious Rockefeller challenge there. Nixon is confident he can do so.

If the Rockefeller forces make their move in Nixon's territory, the vice president's associates say, "we might not be able to hold back our own people in New York."

One of these New Yorkers is former GOP National Chairman Leonard Hall, who wanted the governorship nomination when it went to Rockefeller. Hall is expected to be Nixon's campaign chief when the Nixon drive gets rolling.

What will Nixon do if he loses in 1960?

The answer at the vice-presidential office is that he has given no thought to that and does not intend to.

Less than a year later, in June, 1956, the man who is just a heartbeat away from the presidency went through the same ordeal when Eisenhower underwent an operation. His third test came in 1957 when the Chief Executive suffered a mild stroke.

Politically, Nixon has been able to balance his GOP popularity between the right wing Republi-

Bob Crosby Accused Of Wife-Beating

By VERNON SCOTT
United Press International

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Bob Crosby, whose fame has been dimmed by the shadow of his brother Bing, moved in the unwanted spotlight of domestic trouble Tuesday.

Bob Crosby and his wife, June, say the bedroom battle in which he was stabbed twice and she received a broken rib has ended their marriage.

Crosby, 46, and his wife fought violently last Saturday night, Mrs. Crosby, a slender red-haired singer, said.

The couple separated after the altercation, and, according to Mrs. Crosby, there will be no attempt at reconciliation.

The 39-year-old mother of four children told United Press International:

"Bob came home in a violent mood. He had been drinking and wanted to fight with somebody. I guess it made him madder when I refused to get out of bed or react to his anger."

During the argument daughter Juni-Maria, 8, entered the room. "Bob said I needed a beating up, which he gave me. Then I picked up the letter opener and the tussle went on. I jabbed him in the shoulder. I thought it would scare him and make him run away. But it didn't."

According to police, Crosby was stabbed once in the left shoulder and once in the left forearm.

Police Chief Clinton Anderson said the band-leader was treated by the family physician after Crosby related he had been hurt in an automobile accident.

Mrs. Crosby reported she suffered a broken rib, a cut on her forehead, a quarter-inch gash on her shin.

She said her husband spent the remainder of the night at his brother Bing's home.

Crosby said the entire incident was "regrettable."

"All I did was take the letter opener away from her, and left the house," he said. "I never struck her. I never knocked her to the floor. I intended no harm; but I had to use force to take the opener away."

"I wasn't badly hurt, but I could have been."

Crosby said he thought their marriage was over.

"I can never return to live with her after this. She was hysterical. Personally I think there was too much furor over the incident."

The Crosby marriage has always been a stormy one, going back to their first separation in March, 1942, when Mrs. Crosby filed for a divorce. Arguments and separations were frequent.

Constant comparisons between Bob and Bing were a source of embarrassment and frustration to Bob.

STRIKE VOTE BILL

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A bill to require secret ballot voting by union members before all strikes will be introduced in Congress next session by Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.).

Goldwater, in making the announcement Friday, said he had not introduced the bill before because he did not think it would pass, but now believes "the temper of the steelworkers and their wives is such that it would have a good chance of passing."

Glover Opens Campaign For Congressman

Arthur Glover of Canyon, certified public accountant, opened his campaign this week for the Democratic nomination for congressman from the 18th Congressional District.

In opening his campaign, Glover discussed the matter of federal aid to education. He traced the arguments used by the advocates of federal aid. It is Glover's position, that while the advocates of federal aid had substantial statistics to argue for educational improvement, the method adopted by the Hill-Elloit Bill recently passed by Congress actually undermined the basic purpose of education in that federal regulation concerning the use to which the funds were to be placed deprived the student and the community of freedom of choice; further, that the federal administration of the funds tended to take from the community its sense of responsibility and its pride of accomplishment which is required for the moral conditioning of the individual.

Glover stated that the government should be a tool for use by the individual and that in the field of education the federal government should stand ready to assist a local community or a student to obtain credit from a private financial institution whereby the individual and the community could execute their plans for the education of the individual.

Glover said that the cost of an education which is secured by personal character and responsibility of the student is worth far more than one which is subsidized by a donor who holds the purse strings to command conformity and thus destroy initiative.

Good Attendance At Regional Meet

Leymond Hall, president of the Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce, reported on the recent Jaycee work conference in Stinnett, at the weekly meeting Tuesday in the Palm Room of City Hall.

Hall said that the conference was one of the best ever held in Region One. Every club in the region, except one, attended, and at least five members were present from every attending club.

Attending the conference for the Pampa Jaycees were Hall, Earl Barnett, Melvin Jayroe, R. F. McDonald, Gene Hoilar and Gene Barber.

Hall said that state Jaycee President Jack Miller praised those present at the work conference for having one of the best regions in the state.

Two nominations for a director were submitted at Tuesday's meeting. They were Gene Imel and Earl Barnett. They will be voted on at next week's meeting.

It was reported, at Tuesday's meeting, that the Christmas Activity Committee, headed by James Malone and Earl Barnett, has set up work teams to put up Christmas decorations. Imel, chairman of the Pancake Supper Committee, said that various sub-committees are now making plans for the annual pancake supper.

Truman Says Religion Is Not An Issue

LIBERTY, Mo. (UPI)—Former President Truman Tuesday said "I don't think religion ought to be inserted into a political campaign."

He made the remark during a question-and-answer session following an address to students of William Jewell College.

When asked what he thought about having a Roman Catholic president, Truman replied: "I'll wait until I get to the Democratic National Convention in Los Angeles before I have anything to say about that."

Truman is scheduled to meet with Sen. John Kennedy (D-Mass.), a Catholic seeking the Democratic presidential nomination, Nov. 19. The meeting will take place at the Truman library, a few blocks from Truman's home in Independence, Mo.

"Asked if he might seek the presidency in 1960, Truman quickly replied: "I'll be 76 on the eighth day of May, and I think that's old enough to know better."

Cold Front Will Lower Temperature

United Press International

A new cold air mass creeping slowly across Texas from the west drove clouds eastward ahead of it and promised a return to cooler temperatures tonight and Thursday.

Early today the only cloud cover left in the state was over East Texas, the Gulf Coast and along the Red River as far west as Childress. Most of Central and West Texas had clear skies overhead.

Northerly winds on the fringe of a storm center that spawned a blizzard in the Rocky Mountains Tuesday blew into Texas today sending temperatures downward in the Panhandle and South Plains. Thermometers dropped to 27 degrees in the Dalhart area and were in the mid-40s in the Midland-Wink area.

Along the coast readings in the 60s were common. Brownsville was the warmest city in the state Tuesday with a high of 78 degrees.

Mrs. A. D. Hills, gray lady chairman, reported on a party at the re-training center in Amarillo.

E. B. Pemberton, first aid chairman, said that 80 standard first aid cards had been earned through the progressive first aid classes held recently with 10 persons needing only one make up class to receive a card. He also told of other first aid activities during October.

Melvin Munn reported on the United Fund campaign and stated that 91 percent of the goal had been reached. Red Cross receives most of its budget through United Fund.

Mrs. Euna Lee Moores said that home service cards are being mailed to families of service men listed in the Daily News column "Matters of the Military."

She said that Red Cross serves as the link between the serviceman and his family and the service card gives telephone numbers to use in case of an emergency.

Reports from state convention held in Tyler were given by Mrs. Don George, Mrs. Euna Lee Moores, Jerry Porter, Junior Red Cross representative, and Mrs. Libby Shotwell, Red Cross executive.

Each reported this to be an outstanding convention, with changes in Red Cross being considered and promoted. Each Pampa delegate spoke on sessions attended including Junior Red Cross, home service, disaster service, public information and water safety. It was reported 500 attended the convention which will be held next year in Waco.

A letter from William Beaumont Hospital in El Paso was read requesting gifts for servicemen in the hospital. The board voted to send 30 gifts.

Sam Begett, JRC chairman, was in charge of the program on Junior Red Cross and introduced Mrs. Thelma Groom, teacher - sponsor from Horace Mann School.

She introduced two sixth grade students, Mary Shoemaker and Diane Phillips, who spoke respectively on "How Enrollment for JRC is conducted in the Elementary School" and "Gift Box Program through Elementary School."

The next meeting is scheduled for Dec. 8.

While Abilene had a maximum of 58-20 degrees cooler.

Rotary Foundation Week Upcoming

Pampa Rotarians will join with nearly half a million Rotarians in 14 countries next week for a special observance of "The Rotary Foundation Week."

It was announced today by Jack Edmondson, president of the Pampa club. The Rotary Foundation seeks to promote understanding and friendly relations between the peoples of different nations. Its major activity is granting Rotary Foundation Fellowships for International Understanding to outstanding graduate students for one year of study abroad as Rotary ambassadors of good will.

Since this program was established in 1947, as a memorial to Paul P. Harris, the founder of Rotary, 1,199 young men and women from 67 countries have received Rotary Foundation Fellowships for study in 44 countries, with grants averaging over $2,500. Total grants by The Rotary Foundation for this activity now exceed $3,000,000.

Rotary Fellowships are unique in that, with more than 10,500 Rotary clubs throughout the world, the student is in direct contact with Rotarians and their families wherever he is studying. He attends their Rotary club meetings, visits in their homes and places of business, and travels as much as possible during his school holidays. In this way, he sees how the people in his host country live and he lays the foundation for increased international understanding, which is one of Rotary's principal objectives.

Local Rotarians highlighted the observance of "The Rotary Foundation Week" at their meeting today in Palm Room, City Hall with a presentation by Travis Lively.

During his employment with Gulf, he has worked as transportation foreman, truck driver, tool dresser, driller, pumper, and roustabout.

Ethridge will be honored with other Fort Worth division employees with Gulf, receiving awards for 25 years or more service, at a dinner to be held later in the year.

Poll Says Rocky's Chances Slim

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Newsweek Magazine says a poll by its political experts shows that Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's chances of beating Vice President Richard M. Nixon for the GOP presidential nomination are "very slim indeed."

The magazine said the poll by its experts in the 50 states showed that "if Rockefeller wants the nomination at all, he must frankly say so, and start campaigning openly and hard. Rockefeller must woo the GOP pins, beguile the voters, shape sharp and definitive issues."

"If possible, he must try to convince the party that Rockefeller — and Rockefeller alone — can win the presidency in November, 1960. And even if he does do all that, and more, Nelson Rockefeller may still fall short of the nomination."

Budner said he landed in a deep valley and started to settle down by a log for the night when he saw a spotlight and heard yelling.

"Then the Hutterites came up," he said. "They had everybody out there who could walk, it seems like, all with good flashlights. I told them Johnson was still out there and warned them not to get too close to the plane because it might blow."

"They raced me back to the ranch and a short time later came back with Johnson, all covered with mud."

Stahl said his colony was one of nearly a dozen Hutterite communities that dot the central Montana plains. The members engage in farming, rarely leave the ranches and frequently are the brunt of attacks by other farmers because they are conscientious objectors.

'Unloaded' Pistol Kills

MEXICO CITY (UPI)—A 30-year-old millionaire manufacturer jokingly placed a .38-caliber "unloaded" automatic pistol to his right temple as he sat in his office and killed himself Tuesday.

Police said the shooting was "accidental," and occurred after Jose Luis Gomez Garcia, wealthy glass factory operator, had been playfully pointing the weapon at several persons in his office.

The bullet traversed Gomez Garcia's skull and then wounded his accountant, Oscar Segurá Macuzet, in the abdomen. The accountant was standing alongside the seated employer at the time.

Witnesses declared that Gomez Garcia had removed the magazine clip from the pistol.

When he pointed it at the accountant, the latter admonished him.

"Can't you see it's empty?" he declared, according to the police version, and then raised the barrel to his head.

MITCHELL

The 500,000 steel strikers were not counted as unemployed in compiling the October figures. But several hundred thousand workers in other industries laid off because of the strike were listed as jobless.

Mitchell said that unemployment has climbed by three million since he made his prediction. "I was a couple of hundred thousand off in my prediction—due entirely to the steel strike, not to any weakness in our economy," he said.

Gifts Of Glamorous Beauty Bring Sparkle Even After December 25

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Correspondent

Soon it will be time to set aside an evening for planning your Christmas shopping lists.

You may know exactly what gift will most please certain members of your family, and yet experience a hopeless lack of imagination when it comes to others.

Well, for the gals on your list, whether they be youngsters or maiden aunts, you can't go wrong with a beauty gift. Every woman, regardless of her age, is delighted to learn that she is thought of in terms of feminine charm.

And what could tell her more clearly than a gift of perfume, cosmetics or toilettries?

There are exciting holiday beauty packages this year, ranging from grab-bag goodies and tiny tokens for the tree, to really lavish gifts.

One charming novelty is a precious sequinned manikin in red, gold, lavender-pink or blue, attached to a bottle of perfume made by a leading beauty house.

Little girls will find the manikin an amusing toy, and big girls will find it a charming dressing-table decoration.

There are lovely gold-capped, crystal-cut spray bottles of perfume mist, and charming old-fashioned pastel apothecary bottles of friction cologne.

Bath powder and scented soap can also be added to your list as always-welcome items. And don't overlook the small accessories, beautifully designed to carry in your purse.

Purse-size spray perfumes come in trim black and gold cases. There are elegantly designed compacts, containing compressed powder that won't spill and ruin the lining of your handbag and even a small kit that holds all the necessary eye make-up.

For gifts to lie on your Christmas tree, you might try solid perfume in a pretty white pearly-plastic case, or the slim, gold magic eye wand that contains waterproof mascara in any one of eight different shades.

Another token gift for the tree can be the new heart-shaped lipstick that shapes the lips as it colors them.

No, you won't have to spend hours deciding what to select for the feminine side of your Christmas list! One of these beauty gifts will bring a smile of delight from any gal who receives it.

DEAR ABBY...

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I have had some serious domestic troubles so we started to see a professional marriage counselor. Things were getting better until the counselor commenced to ask my wife some questions about our sex life.

My wife promptly withdrew from the counseling, stating that no outsider was going to talk to her about such intimate matters. Now what do I do?

DEAR STUMPED: Explain to your wife that a professional counselor (like a doctor) assumes an impersonal and clinical attitude toward those who seek his help. Your wife has nothing to be ashamed of. All humans behave pretty much the same. The sooner she sheds her prudish notions about the instinctive, natural act of physical love, the happier she'll be.

DEAR ABBY: Please don't think I am dumb but I wish to know the answer to a question and nobody seems to have it. I am a chambermaid in a large hotel. When some guests check out, they leave a penny on the dresser. Sometimes they throw it on the floor. Is there some meaning to this? Other chambermaids tell me they have had the same experience.

DEAR MYRTLE: If leaving a lone penny behind has any special significance, I do not know what it is. If anyone KNOWS, I'd be interested in hearing. Meanwhile, look for an Indian head. It could be worth real dough.

DEAR ABBY: I am sorry that three years ago I didn't see a letter like the one I read last night in your column. But maybe my experience will help someone else.

so here goes:
When my husband and I were married, he carried life insurance with the company he worked for. The payments were taken out of his pay automatically. Because of this set-up it slipped both our minds to have the beneficiary changed from his mother to me.

When our baby was 8 weeks old my husband was killed. The company notified me that the insurance check would be made out to his mother. That didn't bother me because his mother was one of the sweetest and loveliest women I had ever known. I thought surely she would turn over the check to me. Well, Abby, money sometimes does strange things to people. She kept every penny of it. She also carried a double indemnity policy on her son, and she kept that money, too. I had to go to work to support my baby and myself. I am not angry with my mother-in-law. Just hurt. We still get along very well. I am only glad that the Good Lord is our Judge.

ADDED TOUCH—Although it doesn't look it, the entrance to small St. John Chrysostom Episcopal Church in Delafield, Wis., is 108 years younger than the rest of the building. The church was built in 1851 and has been in use ever since with only small remodeling jobs, until the addition of the new entrance with its vestibule. It was designed to match exactly the architecture of the church.

Today Is 41st Anniversary Of World War I Armistice

WASHINGTON WINDOW
By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI)—This is the 41st Armistice Day, a statistic not much moment to anyone other than the pot-bellied old-guards who participated way back in World War I.

That friends, was quite a war while it lasted which wasn't long far as the United States was concerned. The United States got to it in April 1917. And 41 years ago today on Nov. 11, 1918, there was marching and counter-marching in the streets. The hands played. Ticker tape and paper waste snowed from tall buildings not only in New York but from coast to coast.

Young men and young women publicly kissed each other, and there was a heavy run on the bottle hook with which Americans of that generation pickled their insides when celebrating.

Nov. 11, 1918 was a Big Day. The U.S. of A. had licked the Hun, by golly, and never was a great nation riding for a harder fall. And never was a great nation less aware that the big bad double still was to come instead of having been disposed of in a tidy fashion over there on

Tooth Paste Commercial Claims Hit

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A spokesman for the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) declares the government is "very much aware of the whole problem" posed by tooth paste commercials but has so far taken no action in the field.

The commission was asked for reaction to charges leveled by the American Dental Association that the manufacturer of tooth paste, mouth wash and even chewing gum make reckless claims for their products.

FTC press officer Sam Stove said the commission has no false advertising cases pending against manufacturers of dentifrices. He would not say whether there were any complaints in the investigative stage.

Arthur S. Flemming, secretary of health, education and welfare, told a news conference Monday that the Public Health Service also was concerned with the problem.

But he added that "any enforcement action, of course, would be the responsibility of the Federal Trade Commission."

Flemming told newsmen that the Public Health Service was "in complete accord" with the stand taken by the Dental Association against claims that dentifrices can prevent tooth decay, pyorrhea or any other disease, or can lighten the color of teeth.

Lyman E. Wagers, president of the Kentucky Dental Association, wrote Frank Stanton, president of Columbia Broadcasting System, there are only three legitimate ways to reduce tooth decay, all advertising claims to the contrary. He said they are: (1) exclusion of sugars and starches from the diet; (2) immediate brushing of teeth after eating; (3) fluoridation of water supplies.

RESCUE BEACON—This miniature blimp may save the life of some airman. Designed to be released from a downed plane, either by the pilot or by the jar of a crash, the helium-filled balloon carries a radio antenna some 50 feet above the ground. For 24 hours it sends out distress signals that can be heard great distances away. It was developed by Crosley Division of Avco Corp.

Lions Turkey Shoot

The Skellytown Lions Club will have a turkey shoot Saturday beginning at 10 a.m. at the club's trap site west of the school bus barn.

The shoot will continue through Sunday. Hours that day will be from 1 p.m.

Proceeds will be used for the club park and civic betterment program.

'Private Eye' Atomic Sub Joins Fleet

By WILLIAM D. CLARK
United Press International

GROTON, Conn. (UPI)—The twin-reactor USS Triton, the Navy's mobile "Private Eye" to guard against a sneak attack, joins the U. S. Atlantic submarine fleet Tuesday.

The 447-foot, 5,900-ton nuclear radar-picket sub, costing 110 million dollars, will host its commissioning pennant as it is turned over to the Navy at a dock-side ceremony at the yards of the Electric Boat Division of General Dynamics Corp. which built it.

Accepting the biggest submarine ever built will be Capt. George L. Lathrup, commanding officer of the U. S. naval base at nearby New London.

At the moment of its commissioning, Capt. Edward L. Beach, a veteran of undersea warfare in the Pacific during World War II, and former naval aide to President Eisenhower, will formally take command.

Triton, the only submarine of its class in the world, requires a crew of 148 officers and men. The huge boat has a cruising range of 110,000 nautical miles without refueling, and is the first atomic sub which can be refueled and take on a new crew without returning to port. It also is the first sub to have three decks within the hull.

The mammoth Triton is packed with electronic equipment necessary to its primary job of detecting enemy submarines, surface ships and aircraft.

Western Star Set To Replace Robert Preston In 'Music Man'

HOLLYWOOD
By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Here's an unusual bit of news: Hugh (Wyatt Earp) O'Brian is good but he replaces Robert Preston this winter in Broadway's sensational hit "Music Man."

"Hugh O'Brian?" you ask incredulously.

"Yep," says Hugh. "Me."

Believe it or not, there was a time when the rugged horse opera hero was sort of a maily Jayne Mansfield. He posed for beefcake publicity pictures, dated starlets and couldn't find work.

To fill his spare time, the trapped muscle-bound O'Brian acted in little theater projects looking for the big break. When the "Earp" series came along Hugh hopped in the saddle and rode off to glory.

But now, after five years of wearing a tin badge, the lustre has dimmed and Hugh pines for the stage and New York's bright lights.

He puts it this way, "I'm tired of saddles and sweat. I think a little satin, sex and sophistication would be mighty nice for a change."

But now, after five years of wearing a tin badge, the lustre has dimmed and Hugh pines for the stage and New York's bright lights.

off between the first show of next season and the last show this season," he explained. "Preston is expected to take off for six months — between Dec. 17 and July 4 — which is exactly the time I will have off myself."

Flanders fields where the poppies grow.

The dictionary defines euphoria as a sense of well-being or buoyancy. The United States was on a euphoric jag 41 years ago today. We won the war. Moreover, we won the war to make the world safe for democracy. We won the war to end all wars. We won it, and all of us were going to live happily ever after.

That was the way the script read back there in 1918. Woodrow Wilson was a great phrase maker, like a Madison Avenue pitchman. Wilson was sincere. He believed his own slogans. But he and his fellow citizens were bewitched and numbed by the felicity of those fine phrases.

The people of the United States actually believed 41 years ago today that they had successfully participated in a holy cause to end war and to bring to all the peoples of the world the boon of the American way of life was described mistakenly and for phrase-making purposes as "democracy" where the United States never was set up to be a political democracy at all.

That was of small matter in 1918, however, so the great day Nov. 11, 1918, was celebrated in noisy fashion with the worship of moonshiners posted as a watchdog.

Wyatt Named Coach of Week

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (UPI)—The way he had it figured, national champion Louisiana State would give the ball to All-American Billy Cannon and send him slashing off-tackle if it ever needed a two-point conversion badly.

LSU sent Cannon slashing, all right, but he was met almost head-on by guard Wayne Grubb and linebacker Charley Severance and stopped six inches short of victory.

That's why Bowden Wyatt of Tennessee is honored by United Press International today as college football's "Coach of the Week" in the wake of Tennessee's 14-13 triumph that snapped LSU's 19-game winning streak and tumbled the Tigers from the No. 1 spot in the national ratings.

The Short Line

When Texas and TCU meet this weekend, probably for the Southwest Conference championship and a Cotton Bowl bid, the conference's best offense will be going against its best defense.

Texas has gained 2,381 yards, to outdistance its nearest rival, SMU, by more than 300 yards. The Longhorns have averaged 297.8 yards per game.

TCU, on the other hand, has allowed only 1,449 yards, and only 767 of those have been on the ground. Texas has made all but 300 of its total yards rushing, so the Longhorns may really have their work cut out for them, if they hope to remain undefeated.

Texas has four runners—Jack Collins, Rene Ramirez, Clair Branch, and James Saxton—among the conference's top ten. TCU has the leading rusher, Jack Spikes, and the number nine runner, Marvin Lasater. TCU has two passers among the top ten, George Donald and Larry Dawson. Texas doesn't have a passer among the leaders.

White Deer will be among the eight basketball teams taking part in a series of games Saturday at Wayland College in Plainview. The games will climax the fourth annual Hatcher-Gibson Flying Queens basketball clinic.

The schedule will be White Deer vs. Sundown, 3:30 p.m.; Hawley vs. Tulia, 5 p.m.; Friona vs. Bula, 7 p.m.; Claude vs. Abernathy, 8:30 p.m.

Coaches wishing to attend the clinic should be in Plainview at 8 a.m. Saturday to register. The fee is $10.00 per school, and coaches and players will be admitted to games free. Coaches lecturing during the morning and afternoon will be Pete Wilson, Abernathy; F. G. Crofford, Claude; Curly Risinger, Bula; Bud Roberts, Tulia, and C.

Despite this latest surprise, Tennessee still stands fifth in the Southeastern Conference and probably has to score one more victory over Mississippi—this Saturday to have a look-in at the post-season bowls. Mississippi is ranked seventh nationally and Tennessee 10th.

So another win will probably have to be another upset, but what's new about that?

Orange Bowl Will Give Ultimatum To Syracuse Team

MIAMI (UPI)—The Orange Bowl selection committee will meet in special session today, possibly to deliver an ultimatum to Syracuse to accept a bid to the post-season game, before it is withdrawn.

Chairman Van C. Kussrow called the meeting after Syracuse trustees were indecisive about accepting an invitation.
"I don't think our committee will wait until Sunday night, the time indicated by Syracuse for a decision," Kussrow said.

Kussrow told Syracuse officials the Orangemen could have the visiting team bid by immediate acceptance. University officials put off a decision pending Saturday's game with underdog Colgate.
"There are plenty of directions in which we can turn for a team to meet the Big Eight's host eleven," Kussrow said. "We had figured quick acceptance by Syracuse would have paid a publicity dividend."

Plainview's Single-Wing Power Difficult To Stop

The Plainview Bulldogs have the most improved team in the district—and one of the best. That's the opinion of Frank Craig, a Pampa coach who scouted them in their last two games.
The Bulldogs, after losing four of their first five games (two to AAA opposition), then suddenly came to life to defeat Lubbock, 41-0, and Monterey, 27-27.

Craig said that from both formations, the Bulldogs depend heavily on straight power. "They pull the guards out of the line," he said, "to run interference for the ball carrier. They always have a big wave of blockers in front of the ball carrier. It's awfully hard to keep them from making some yardage."
The Bulldogs are almost entirely a rushing team, according to the Pampa coach. They pass less than 10 percent of the time. However, they are capable of passing when they have to.

Craig said that in his opinion, the Bulldogs are doing a much better job defensively, then they were at the beginning of the season. "Their offense has always been good," he added.

Plainview, contrary to popular opinion, has a starting lineup not much heavier than the Harvesters. On defense, they have one 255-pound tackle, but most of their starting players are of medium size.
Plainview's defensive team averages 175 pounds (185 on the line, thanks to 255-pound tackle Joe Ferguson, and 175 pounds in the backfield). The offensive team averages 168 (163 in the backfield and 170 on the line). Harold Fox, 165-pound right tackle, and Pat Nicoll, 170-pound right end, are regarded as the Bulldogs' best defensive players.
Plainview has good, not not exceptional speed in the backfield. The Bulldogs' two most dangerous runners, according to Craig, are their tailbacks—165-pound sophomore Eddie Clark and 160-pound he said, "and led Monterey 21-7 at halftime."

Shockers Will End Season

The Shockers end their season Thursday at 4 p.m. in Lubbock, against the Monterey B team. This will be the last football game of the season for any Pampa team except the Harvesters, as both junior highs have already completed their schedules.

The Shockers carry a 3-5 record into the game. They have lost their last two contests, 38-16 to Tascosa B and 36-0 to Amarillo B. The losing "streak" began when their starting backfield was promoted to the Harvesters, but some of those backs returned for last week's game.
However, none of the promoted group will be available for this week's game. Phillips is pessimistic about this squad's chances, since Monterey defeated Tascosa, 30-6, and Pampa lost to the Tascosa B team.

Chamberlain Leads Warriors Toward Championship in NBA

United Press International
Wilt Chamberlain is providing the Philadelphia Warriors with a stairway to their first Eastern National Basketball Association title in four years.

Chamberlain, a leaning tower of strength, gave Philadelphia its fifth victory in six starts Tuesday night when he tipped in the deciding basket with 30 seconds remaining to defeat the New York Knickerbockers, 126-125.

In other league action, Boston beat Detroit, 128-109, and the Hawks whipped Minneapolis, 134-105, in a doubleheader at St. Louis.
Chamberlain, moving at a pace that could set by Edgin Baylor of Minneapolis last season, poured in 39 points and grabbed 13 rebounds, breaking his own club record for retrieves.

The former Kansas University All-American now has the best scoring average in the NBA at York Yankee star George Sep-36.9 points a game and has forged ahead of Boston's Bill Russell in rebounds.

Russell picked off 21 errors as the Celtics stayed a game ahead of the Warriors in the Eastern Division race. Boston, paced by Russell and Bob Cousy, scored 10 straight points in the last two minutes of the first half to break the game wide open.

Cliff Hagan and Bob Pettit, scoring 56 points between them, led the Hawks to victory over the Lakers. Baylor, who set a single game scoring record with 64 points Sunday, was limited to "only" 37.

Quarterbacks' Make Grid Banquet Plans

The Pampa Quarterback Club has set in motion for the annual Harvester-Shocker football banquet, at its weekly meeting Tuesday in Pampa Junior School Cafeteria.

Committee members named by the club to make plans for the banquet, which will be held at the Pampa Junior School Cafeteria, are S. O. Lollar, Travis Lively Jr., and Charlie Robison.

The committee will select the menu for the banquet, buy the decorations and plan the program and entertainment, and Red Griggs will assist in the program.

Harvester Coach Curfman, in a brief talk before the club, said that Charlie Geise may replace Mert Cooper at the defensive corner linebacker position, and that several boys are working out at his offensive left halfback spot.

Curfman praised Geise for his spirit, in continuing to work out despite a bad case of boils.

Curfman said that the entire team played well in the Lubbock game. "They blocked well," he said, "they opened good holes, and they didn't make many mistakes. They're beginning to look like a really fine football team."

He added, however, that "We're scared to death of Plainview. They're big, fast, and tough, and they run from the single wing. We've played only one team which used the single wing, Wichita Falls, and they used it sparingly."

Curfman then paid a special tribute to Pampa defensive end Benny Stout: "The other coaches and teams in the district all think he's the best player they've ever come up against on defense. I personally think he's one of the finest football players in the state of Texas, and I hope he gets a chance to prove himself in college football."

The Pampa coach concluded his talk by saying that there are many fine sophomores and juniors on the Harvester team, and declaring that "I think we'll still have a good team next year."

Perryton in 28-0 Victory Over Rebels

PERRYTON — Jim Cook, a speedy halfback, spoiled Lee Junior High's hopes of a winning season here Tuesday afternoon, by scoring four touchdowns to lead Perryton Junior High to a 28-0 win over the Rebels.

The loss evened the season record of Lester Ramsey's Rebels at 4-4. Ramsey said that "it was a pretty good season, but it could have been better. One thing I'm thankful for is that we had no serious injuries."

Cook scored all his touchdowns on end runs — one in each quarter. He went 45 yards in the first period, 30 yards in the second, 12 in the third, and 50 in the fourth.

The Rebels drove inside the Perryton 20-yard line three times, but were halted all three times by 15-yard penalties.

Howard Reed did some good passing for the Rebels. Jon Pitts and Wayne Kries each caught two, and Jerry Glover snagged one. Ramsey described one of Kries' catches as "almost unbelievable."

Reed was one of the three quarterbacks who alternated in guiding the Lee attack. The others were Robert Pullen and Ronnie Chase. Dickie Hatley and Harry O'Neal made most of Lee's running yardage. Jon Pitts played an excellent defensive game, especially in the second half.

Before Tuesday's game, which ended the Rebels' season, members of the squad elected their captains. Chosen as captain was Gordon Balch, and elected as co-captains were Jon Pitts and Dee Wright.

Lee Eighth Ends Season With 8-0 Triumph Over Perryton

Robert E. Lee's Eighth graders ended their season Tuesday afternoon at Harvester Park, by defeating the Perryton eighth graders 28-0.

The win gave Lee the best record of any football team in Pampa and put them in second place in the Panhandle Junior High League.

Each Bill Kennedy praised the squad, both for its victory and its good attitude throughout the season. "They've really been a group to work with," he said.

Lee was unable to move through the line much Tuesday, but Larry Gregory and Jimmy Lollar made good yardage around the ends. Lollar scored two touchdowns, Gregory one. They were aided by the blocking of Don Rexroad, Claude Middleton, Phil Woodring, and Rickey Stewart.

Gregory set up the first Lee touchdown, in the first quarter, with a 35-yard run to the Perryton 15-yard line. Three plays later, Lollar scored on an end run. Stewart passed to Middleton for the extra points.

In the second quarter, a Perryton punt which was blocked, scored past Lee defenders, and raced 65 yards for a touchdown. They made the extra points, and the score was tied at halftime, 8-8.

In the third quarter, the Rebels took the lead with a sustained drive, which was climaxed by a 15-yard run by Gregory.

In the fourth quarter, Perryton threatened to tie the score again, as they drove to the Rebel 10-yard line. However, they fumbled and Lee recovered. Three plays later, Lollar burst into the clear on an off-tackle play and went 90 yards for a touchdown. Stewart passed to Middleton for the conversion.

At that point Kennedy sent in his reserves. Perryton marched to a touchdown, and the payoff came on a 20-yard double reverse. They missed the extra point try.

Kennedy said that Hank Henry, a reserve halfback, made three unassisted tackles during the brief time he played. Other defensive standouts were Larry Johnson, Rexroad, and Brian Martin.

Kennedy added that the entire team turned in a good game, and that he was proud of the entire group.

Before Tuesday's game, the Rebels elected tri-captains for the year. They are Don Rexroad, Keith Reimer, and Rickey Stewart.

Texas Picked by Six Points Over Texas Christian Frogs

NEW YORK (UPI) — The college football odds-makers, never fazed for their generosity, today were quoting Syracuse as a whopping 26-point favorite for Saturday's meeting with Colgate.

It could be an "overlay," said one sports writer. "Sure, Syracuse is the nation's No. 1 team, and is undefeated in seven games this season while Colgate has a dismal 1-6 record. But the Red Raiders have suffered only one shutout (against Yale), scoring at least two touchdowns in each of their other six games."

So if you like underdogs, Colgate and 36 points looks mighty inviting.

Second-ranked Texas is a six-point favorite over Texas Christian, third-ranked Southern California is picked to defeat Baylor.

Tasocosa 7th Schoolboy Football Poll

ALLAS (UPI) — The Texas schoolboy football ratings underwent a general shakeup this week, the most notable change seeing Corpus Christi Ray edge into the No. 1 spot with defending champion Wichita Falls.

At week's end of upsets, Amarillo High and Arlington dropped out of AAA's Top 10, replaced by three teams: Corpus Christi Miller, Fort Worth and Houston Reagan; and unranked Littlefield and Snyder of AAA's select group to be replaced by Phillips and Sweetwater.

Against the odds results also showed the stock of AAA's No. 3, 4 outfits — Levelland and Bay City — fell to a tie for seventh.

Brenham, while Bay City, 46 by La Marque and all but knocked out of the playoffs, skidded only one spot to fifth.

His battle with Ray, sixth ranked among the 175 pounders, will be in front of the television cameras, and Johnson was thankful he had the chance for a better payday than usual.

Trust Arrangements Explained

When property is placed in trust it is turned over to a trustee who will see to it that it is properly managed for the benefit of a person or persons you name as beneficiaries. It is a method of disposing of your property and may be used in conjunction with a will.

Trusts have many advantages. A trust may be used to provide income for persons unable to support themselves, to provide funds for a child's education, as a means of establishing an annuity, or to provide a gift for a charitable institution.

In these days of high taxes, a trust may be utilized to minimize the tax burden. If carefully planned, a trust may decrease income and inheritance taxes.

A trust arrangement works roughly in this manner. A person who desires to create a trust is called a grantor. The grantor chooses a trustee. The trustee may be a bank, an individual, or a trust company. The grantor through a trust instrument tells the trustee how to distribute the trust property or income. The trustee will then manage and distribute the trust proceeds or property in whatever manner the grantor desires.

A very common arrangement is to place the property in trust with directions to pay the income from the property to a wife for her life, and on her death the trust is to end and the property is to be distributed to the grantor's children.

An interesting type of trust is that which is sometimes called a spendthrift trust. This is an arrangement whereby one sets up a certain sum of money to be given out to another at a definite rate per month or per year, or under definite restrictions.

This type of trust is generally used in wills where a person desires to leave money to an individual, but feels that the individual is not capable of properly caring for the money and that if left to them in full that the party receiving the money will spend and waste the money and not receive the maximum benefit from it.

Trust property quite often consists of securities. The law regulates the type of property in which trust funds may be invested. However, the grantor may designate the type of investment the trustee may make.

The effectiveness of a trust is dependent largely on its proper creation. To avoid the pitfalls and dangers of lawsuits and ineffective trust operations, a trust instrument should be properly prepared. A poorly planned or carelessly drawn trust instrument can not only defeat the objectives of its creator, but may prove costly as well.

Your lawyer can advise you whether a trust arrangement will be advantageous in your particular situation, and is qualified by education and experience to prepare properly the legal papers necessary to set up a trust. If you have in mind some bank or trust company to act as trustee, that firm's trust officer will be glad to discuss the matter in a conference with you and your attorney.

(This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform - not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)
