In the last issue of The Big Spring Herald to be issued under present management, the partnership existing between T. E. Jordan and W. G. Hayden in the ownership of the Herald is to be dissolved and the ownership of the Herald is to be transferred to T. E. Jordan. W. G. Hayden will continue to manage the Herald until June or July. C. of C. Elects Officers

At a meeting of the recently elected directors of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night, the following were elected as officers for the year 1925. This was one of the most harmonious sessions ever held and every officer was elected unanimously by acclamation.

M. H. Morrison, president.
T. H. Johnson, first vice president.
T. S. Currie, second vice president.
Robt. T. Piner, treasurer.
Miss Nell Hatch, secretary.

Following the elections fine talks were made by I. B. Cauble, T. H. Johnson, B. Reagan and others wherein the many accomplishments of the Chamber of Commerce were noted, and high praise given W. W. Rix for the unselfish and untiring work he has given to the office. He has sacrificed his time which belonged to his business, gave freely of his funds in order to promote the good of the community and his record of accomplishments will ever be a monument to his splendid service.

Judge M. H. Morrison was given recognition for his splendid cooperation for the good of the entire city and county at all times. His ability to make a successful executive is unquestioned. He was assured the hearty cooperation of the retiring officers and every member of the executive committee.

Death Claims Baby Girl

Mary Ella Shepherd, aged eight months and eleven days, died at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Lovelace at 3:40 a. m. Saturday morning, January 24th. The little one had been ill for two weeks; death being due to pneumonia.

Funeral services were conducted at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Lovelace at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon and the remains were laid to rest in Mt. Olive cemetery.

She is survived by her father, C. M. Shepherd; the mother was called to that Home on High when the little girl was born; her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Riley Lovelace, and other relatives and to those who deeply mourn the passing with a loved one is extended the deep sympathy of our entire citizenship.

Death Claims P. A. Ratliff

P. A. Ratliff, well known ranchman of Glascock county, died at the sanitarium at Temple, Texas, Saturday morning, January 24th. Mr. Ratliff was seriously injured in April, 1924, when he fell from a windmill at his ranch, east of Garden City. An injury to his back resulted in paralysis and he had never been able to leave his bed since the accident. At the time of his death he was under treatment at Temple.

Funeral services were conducted at Sterling City at 1:30 o'clock Tuesday, and a large number of relatives and friends from Glascock county were in attendance. He is survived by a wife and two children and to those who mourn for one deeply beloved is extended the heartfelt sympathy of the many friends throughout this section.

Fire at Home of J. Felton Smith

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Felton Smith, just north of the high school building, was threatened by fire about 6:30 o'clock last Friday evening.

The fire was started when one of the children accidentally overturned an oil stove. By the time the fire department had reached the scene the flames had made good headway. Due to the extra heavy pressure with which the water can be sent with the new fire engine it required but a short time to put out this blaze.

Loss to the house is estimated at around $350 while the loss to furniture will amount to considerable more.

Big Spring Defeats Stanton

The Big Spring Steers defeated the Stanton basketball team by a very narrow margin at the baseball park in this city last Friday afternoon.

Both teams were on their toes and fighting for all they were worth every minute during the game.

It was "nip and tuck" and not until the last minute of play was this anyone's old game.

The score was 17 to 15 in favor of Big Spring.

ANNUAL MEETING

BIG SPRING C. OF C.

One Hundred and Fifty Attend Big Meeting at Cole Hotel—Directors for 1925 Elected

The annual meeting of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce held at the Hotel Cole on last Friday night was one of the biggest and best meetings in the history of the club. This meeting was advertised as a Clearance Sale of Goodwill and Good Ideas and we feel sure that the one hundred and fifty citizens and visitors present were stronger boosters for Big Spring and Howard county than ever before.

W. W. Rix presided as head salesman and he was successful in putting pep and enthusiasm into the other salesmen.

After the invocation by Rev. Geo. J. Ruth, the first number on the program was to pacify the innerman and the splendid feast prepared by Mr. Douglass, proprietor of the hotel surely hit the spot.

Next on the program was the annual report of the secretary, Miss Nell Hatch. The accomplishments of the Chamber of Commerce during the past year were many and important. Quite a few of the members were agreeably surprised to learn that so much had really been accomplished.

The nominating committee: A. M. Fisher, Robt. T. Piner and W. G. Hayden placed in nomination the following as directors for the ensuing year: J. D. Biles, O. C. Bays, W. F. Cook, T. S. Currie, I. B. Cauble, E. O. Ellington, W. M. Fletcher, J. M. Fisher, F. F. Gary, S. H. Hall, T. H. Johnson, Fred Keating, E. A. Kelley, Victor Mellinger, M. H. Morrison, Homer McNew, A. E. Pistole, R. L. Price, Shine Phillips, B. Reagan, W. W. Rix, Clyde E. Thomas, J. F. Wolcott. On motion those nominated were declared duly elected.

In introducing the first salesman the toastmaster said:

"The old saying that familiarity breeds contempt was never more true than when applied to attitude of lots of our people toward our home town and community. That is the reason why it was decided to call this meeting a sale, rather than a banquet. To try to sell our people more thoroughly on our town and county."

"The first salesman we are to hear this evening is a man who has ever shown himself to have the best interests of the community at heart. He has been away from us for several years and is evidently sold on this section of West Texas, for he has come back to locate permanently. This gentleman is Mr. B. Reagan. We think he showed good sense in coming back, and as he is now dealing in dollars, we will ask him to tell us what he knows about 'Dollars and Sense.'"

Mr. Reagan made a most convincing sales talk and actually convinced quite a few homefolks that there were more and bigger opportunities right at hand than in most any other section of the State. He likened some of our folks to the man who traveled all over the world in search of wealth only to find acres of diamonds right at the place he started from. Mr. Reagan gave figures of the wonderful increase in the number of bales of cotton produced in Howard county, of the big increase in bank deposits; increase in postal receipts; pointed out that four hundred new homes had been completed in the county within the past year, and of the thousands of new acres of land being put in cultivation.

A wonderful development is taking place right under our very eyes and some of our folks are unable to see it. He urged our folks to wake up, to recognize the wonderful possibilities of our country. Quit saying Big Spring, Howard county is alright, but. Get the habit of saying a good word for your town and county at every opportunity—for we have the best little city and county in Texas.

"No one has much sense without some education, and no one can get much education without schools. You can't have schools without taxes and you can't have taxes without kicks. We will now ask Mr. Edwards to pinch hit for Mr. Bittle, Supt. of our schools, to deliver his famous lecture on 'Kicks.'"

Mr. Edwards stated that he did not come to the banquet to kick for Mr. Bittle so would have to try to sell his "own stuff." He gave his view of the importance of football and other athletics in connection with our high school. He made a plea for cooperation in this connection and contended that in promoting athletics you promote the welfare of your children and your schools.

In introducing Dr. P. C. Coleman of Colorado the toastmaster said: "The next salesman to be presented is Dr. P. C. Coleman of Colorado. I have had the privilege of knowing Dr. Coleman for about 37 years. To one who knows him he needs no introduction. To those who have not had that pleasure, I'll say that he is a man who knows West Texas, whose heart is as big as West Texas and being a skillful physician, I'm sure he knows a great deal about a heart that will interest all whose hearts are not withered, so we will now hear him, with anything he has to offer."

Dr. Coleman made a splendid talk in which he lauded West Texas and the wonderful spirit of West Texas people. Interspersed with the talks of the evening were some catchy songs by the High School Quartette composed of Misses Louise and Lillian Shive, Wanda True, and Elizabeth Barton, and Miss Mary Wade accompanist. This live wire bunch under the command of E. E. Fahrnkamp saw to it that no speaker became so enthused over the subject assigned him that he could continue his sales talk more than ten minutes. When the pep squad began that little song "He ain't gonna talk no more" one or two salesmen had to break their sales talks off abruptly, but it was all in good part. The pep squad stunt made a hit and will be a regular feature in the future.

W. S. Cooper of Colorado made an appreciated talk in which he praised the citizenship of Big Spring and Howard county for the broad spirit of cooperation they had ever shown toward his town and county. He cited the fact that Big Spring people were first to Colorado with aid when their section was struck by a cyclone which left death and destruction in its path and this would never be forgotten. Cooperation in connection with fairs and other enterprises were also cited. Mr. Cooper won a warm place in the hearts of many when he gave our city credit for having so many good looking members of the opposite sex.

C. M. Adams of Colorado proved to be the Mark Twain of the meeting and kept the folks laughing heartily at his anecdotes. The joke at the expense of the toastmaster brought a stormy applause. Mr. Whittaker of Stamford outlined the exhibit department of the Chamber of Commerce and its importance. He also stated the West Texas Chamber of Commerce was always ready and eager to be of service to the citizens of every community.

Rev. R. L. Owen, pastor of the Presbyterian church, who was introduced as a newcomer from East Texas, admitted the charge. He said he was partly sold on Big Spring before he decided to move here but the salesmen he had listened to thoroughly convinced him he had come to the best place in Texas. He said it was inspiring to meet with a bunch of progressive citizens and he wanted to fall in line and be one of them. His closing advice—a poemette entitled "Go On" was indeed most appropriate.

I. B. Cauble was next introduced by the toastmaster as follows: "In introducing our next Salesman, I know of nothing better to say of him, than what is printed on the program. Certainly if there is a man in our community who deserves the name—The Luther Burbank of West Texas it is I. B. Cauble, and he will now sell us some beans."

Mr. Cauble made one of his ever interesting talks and if you don't think he can talk of Howard county in a convincing way you miss your guess. Mr. Cauble is completely sold on Howard county; knows its worth and its possibilities and never ceases telling the good points to others. As the premier breeding ground for baby beavers, for registered cattle, as the best cotton land in Texas, as one of the safest farming and stock farming sections in the United States it stands supreme according to this salesman. If we had several hundred men of Mr. Cauble's calibre to boost for the old home county we would be mighty fortunate.

James T. Brooks, distributor of "West Texas Sunshine," made the closing sales talk and if any were in doubt about being sold on Big Spring and Howard county his talk would have made them "kick in." He told them some good straight truths and added that the man who was forever kicking and criticising his home town should move to a place he could

STOKES SELLS

MOTOR COMPANY

One of Biggest Business Enterprises in Big Spring Purchased by J. F. Wolcott January 1

The copartnership heretofore existing between P. G. Stokes, Ed S. Hughes and J. F. Wolcott in the Stokes Motor Company was dissolved by mutual consent on January 1st, with J. F. Wolcott purchasing the interest of the others and Mr. Wolcott is now sole owner and proprietor.

In the deal Mr. Wolcott secures the fine building fronting one hundred feet on Main street and extending back one hundred and forty feet; the agency for Ford, Lincoln and Fordson, the stock of cars and tractors and the big supply of parts, accessories, etc.

The business will be conducted under the firm name of the Wolcott Motor Company.

This is one of the biggest business enterprises in Big Spring and has one of the finest and most modernly equipped plants in West Texas. Twenty-five men are on the payroll of the company and the business transacted is enormous.

During 1923 this firm sold four hundred and forty new automobiles. The sale of Fordson, used cars, etc., ran the total for the year to nine hundred and fifty jobs. The record for 1924 will be equally as good it is thought.

J. F. Wolcott who has been a resident of Big Spring for forty-two years needs no introduction to the citizens of the Big Spring country. His ability as a business man is recognized, and there is not a doubt but that he will manage this big business enterprise in a most capable manner. He is going to keep the fine corps of salesmen and mechanics who have been with the firm and conduct the business in a fair, courteous and businesslike manner as is possible. His old time friends will always find him on the job and ready to greet them with a hearty welcome.

We have not learned Mr. Stokes plans for the future, but if he is planning to leave Big Spring such a move will be regretted by the host of friends who honor and esteem him.

More Brick Buildings For City

W. D. McDonald and John W. Hodges have let the contract for the construction of a modern brick business building on East Third street. This building is to be a one-story brick, forty by one hundred feet and will be as near fireproof as possible.

This building will be utilized as a garage and storage place. It is rumored that another brick business building is to be erected adjoining the McDonald-Hodges building on the west.

Work on the new building is to be started immediately.

This may be the restarting of another building era and such is surely needed as we must have more business buildings and more new homes erected if we expect more folks to come here to make their homes.

Lomax Community Improvement

L. V. McIlvain of Pecos has been a guest at the home of L. E. Lomax recently. Mr. McIlvain was here to superintend the making of some improvements on his land in the Lomax community. He had a rent house erected and made arrangements to have 500 acres of land placed in cultivation.

Mrs. Jones, Robt. Middleton and I. J. Robb are also having improvements made on their holdings in that community and will have a large acreage put in. Mr. Lomax plans to have an additional thousand acres of new land put in cultivation on his place, making 2000 acres he will have in. The Lomax community school is making splendid progress.

Big Band Concert February 5th

Four or five brass bands will give a mass concert on the court house lawn about 11:45 a. m. Thursday, Feb. 5th. Bands will be playing all that day in Big Spring from 8:30 a. m. to 8 p. m. The Big Spring Band will start the ball rolling at 8:30 a. m. Some fine band music will be in order at the Lyric theatre during Thursday morning. Everybody invited.

The case of the State of Texas vs. B. C. Girdley has been transferred from Midland to Big Spring and will probably come on for trial during the coming term of district court.

Sterling County Oil News

The location for another new best well was staked off a few days ago on Section 9, Block 22, H. & T. C. Ry-Co., about 11 miles west of town on Lacy Creek. The location as made is at the foot of a hill about 800 varas north of C. C. Reynold's ranch house on the Garden City road. This tract, we learn, is headed by Albert Adkisson. We are told that arrangements are already being made to begin drilling at an early date.

The well in the Bob Mims pasture about 10 miles east of here, was spudded in Thursday.

Cogdell & Ford's Foster well No. 1 was shut down last week at 1500 feet, that being the depth for which the contract was made. We learn that the drill will start again soon and the well drilled to 3000 feet unless production is encountered at a less depth.

A drilling contract for a well in Mrs. Carruthers' pasture is being consummated. It is probable that the rig will be moving to this location within ten days.

Operations at Durham No. 1, of the Chicago-Texas Oil & Gas Syndicate, is going on steadily. The underreamer is working under a tall column of oil, and job of setting the 10-inch casing is about completed. The work is going day and night. Durham No. 2 is furnishing an ample supply of fuel.

The Meriwethers had to purchase a new mud pump for the Douthitt well. We learn the pump is here and will soon be put in place.

Drilling at the Hull well is progressing nicely.—Sterling City News-Record.

Reagan County Oil News

Oil developments in the Big Lake field for the week remain practically the same. Operations are being pushed as rapidly as possible to make available more storage facilities, and work on the laying of the pipe line is progressing at the rate of about three miles a day, it was learned. Additional workmen are being put on the pipe line almost daily. Construction and tank crews also have been materially increased, during the past week.

The location for Big Lake Oil Company's well No. 19 has been changed from the southeast quarter of section 25, block 9, to the center of the southeast quarter of section 12, block 2, a distance of nearly one mile to the west. Big Lake Nos. 18 and 19 will be spudded in soon, it was stated by company officials recently.

B. H. Cogdell arrived in Big Lake yesterday from Granbury, where he has been ill with influenza. A rig will arrive here shortly and a contract has been let to Cogdell & Mascho to replace the derrick which burned Dec. 20. Drilling will be resumed shortly at 425 feet in section 23, block 8.

Wade & Bryan have cemented 8 1/2 inch casing to 1,833 feet in the Hughes well in section 5, block 9. They have moved the rotary and are standardizing. Drilling was resumed recently.

All companies in the field are putting on a new spurt and are getting ready for the active resumption of operations. Considerable interest is manifested in the Club well in Crockett county and the University well northwest of Big Lake.—Big Lake News.

Test Well on H. S. Ranch

The Sloan Oil Company, owners of producing wells in the Westbrook field, have made a contract with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hyman to make a deep test for oil on the H. S. ranch. Drilling is to be started by March 1.

The H. S. ranch is one of the largest ranches in Texas, containing over 100 sections of land and is situated in Howard, Mitchell and Sterling counties.

Mr. and Mrs. Hyman expect to enter into contracts for two more deep tests for oil on this ranch in the near future.

Cotton Continues to Roll In

We don't know where it is coming from, but it is a fact that cotton continues to roll in during the continuation of fine weather at the rate of 40 bales per day, and better. More than 500 bales have been received at the Big Spring cotton yard the past week.

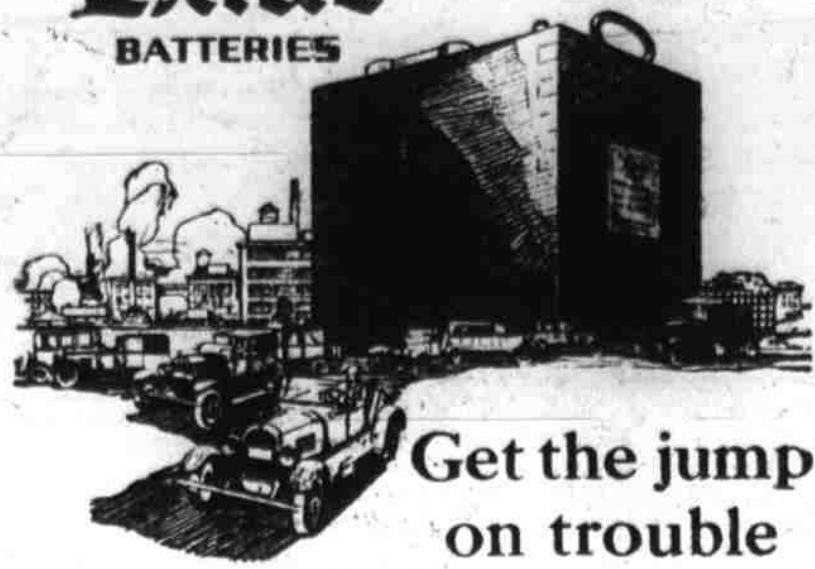

Up to Wednesday afternoon the total receipts for the local yard were 18,587 bales. Adding 5000 bales as the receipts at Coahoma, we have 23,587 bales as a total for the county.

The government spinning report gave Howard county 18,100 bales as the number produced in 1923-24.

Episcopal Church Notes

Report of delegate to meeting of Woman's Auxiliary at Amarillo, Texas, January 18, 19, 20.

The 15th Annual Convocation of the Missionary District of North Texas of the Protestant Episcopal church opened on Sunday morning, Jan. 18, 1925, with the Holy Communion at 7:30 at St. Andrews church, Amarillo. The consecration of our new Bishop, the Right Rev. Eugene Cecil Seaman took place at the 11 o'clock service. There were present ten bishops who took part. The presiding bishop being the Rt. Rev. Thomas Gailor, D. D. Bishop Howden, Bishop of New Mexico, preached the consecration sermon, his text was "Thy gentleness shall make me great." (Sam II 22-36.) His sermon opened with a defence of the historic Episcopate. He went far back into the early history of the church, showing that the Episcopate is not of human origin, but was as directly given from God as the sermon on the Mount. Christ organized it by the giving of the Apostolic power to men and to bless and to consecrate the Eucharist; it was not until 80 years after the death of St. John that we hear of the Episcopate and from that time it is unbroken; 3-4 of the Christian world have the Episcopate. He then directly addressed the bishop-elect and warned him that ever since the Day of Pentecost, the Episcopate has had to suffer persecution; but that through the care of the churches came the compensation of the office. Looking back on the foundation of the Missionary District of N. Texas he could not help thinking of its pioneers; Bishop Garrett and Bishop Temple who paved the way to what we had today and whose secret was their high Christian faith.

After the sermon came the presentation of the bishop-elect for consecration; followed by the Litany said by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Wise, D. D., of Kansas and the consecration proper followed by Holy Communion. The music and singing was good and the whole service very inspiring.

In the evening Bishop Quin of Diocese of Texas gave a talk on "The Young People's Service League;" he said the Episcopal church was the best to think of the needs of its young people, and that in our church schools there was a great leakage between the ages of 15 and 18; that it was a time when our energies must be directed to interest and keep our young people from getting away from their church. Also that a state ought not to rob another state of men for the ministry, but that our young men and women ought to have put before them the vision of preparing for the ministry and field service. The rules of the League are: 1st. Daily prayer; 2nd worship, attending the services of the church; 3rd, fellowship, kind and thoughtful of others; 4th, service, to do some kind task every day; 5th gifts, to give to God regularly each week that which has cost us something.

He said young people are instinctively religious; put them to the test, they may fail, but he did not think they would; and he said let them do things their own way, work with them but not for them. This young people's movement is sweeping the church and results are already seen; in the state of Texas we have 1200 young people and in all of the United States 40,000.

On Monday Holy Communion at 7:30 a. m. At 10 a. m. we opened in a joint session to hear the bishop's address and Bishop Howden's report.

In the afternoon of Monday the Woman's Auxiliary met in the Parish House, opened with prayer. The address of welcome was given by the president of the W. A. of Amarillo. The reply was read by Mrs. Badger. After the roll call, committees were appointed. Mrs. Seaman, the bishop's wife, gave a short talk, followed by Mrs. Steadman. One bishop's sister spoke on the N. T. O. which she said was the most spiritual offering we had and that the money was the least part of it. We ought to keep our blue boxes in sight as a constant reminder that all good gifts come from God. Work, study, prayer were the priceless gifts of a life of service. It ought to be our duty to interest every woman in the place where we live in the N. T. O. She realized it was very hard to do this, but what is hard to do is worth doing and we can do all through God with whom nothing is impossible. Then followed reports from the different districts. This part is always interesting as through them we learn what each place is doing. This year the reports from very small places with no resident rector were very inspiring, showing how small bands of faithful women try to keep church work alive. Bishop Seaman addressed us. He pointed out how much depends on the W. A. and that missions are one great department of the W. A. He thinks all that people want is information and he recommended discussion as a great aid and to be given an opportunity of giving themselves in Christian Social Service. He spoke of the importance of Religion Education through the church school. He told us the mite box had practically doubled this year; he also said our blue boxes ought to be kept in prominent places so that a person asking about them will raise discussion and that means that people will talk about what they are doing.

Bishop Howden next came in and addressed us. He said Bishop Temple's chief ambition was to see the W. M. in every parish and mission. The question arises? Why is the W. A. of such tremendous importance: 1st. It has Spiritual Vision. 2nd. The Tremendous Contribution to Devotion. 3rd. The Tremendous Importance of the Women of the church towards work.

This is what the Woman's Auxiliary represents. Speaking of C. Guilds, one of the reasons for not upholding them is because we begin at the wrong end, namely to raise money for the parish alone. This has a detrimental effect of shortening our vision and that is one of the hardest things to growth. The W. A. stands for vision which brings us inspiration to work for others outside of ourselves; work for your neighbor, make someone else happy outside of yourself. We want those splendid women who work in Guilds to know that the more we do for others the more God does for us; we want faith to work along those lines. "He that would gain his life must lose it." We may call vision, devotion and work and worship go together. You can't have one without the other. If you want to kill your worship, go to church on a Sunday and the rest of the week sit down to say, "I have done my duty or work." He repeated you cannot have one without the other for work and worship go together and the mission of the church means extension.

This closed our Monday's session. In the evening a reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Galbraith at which we all met and enjoyed a social hour. On Tuesday at 7:30 a. m. Corporate Communion of the W. A. At 10 a. m. the Auxiliary met. Session opened with prayer after which the secretary, Mrs. W. W. Rix, gave her report followed by Mrs. Gooch on the United T. Offering. She has in hand nearly $1,000 gathered since the Triennial and hopes by the first of September to have $1,500 to present at the Triennial in October. Little Helpers base work and Bishop Tuttle Memorial reports followed. At 11:30 we again met in joint session to hear the reports on Religious Education, the Bishop Temple Memorial, Foundation and R. N. W. C. At this meeting the bishop announced that he had appointed Mrs. W. W. Rix, president, in place of Mrs. Badger, resigned.

The afternoon session opened with prayer. We again had the bishop to speak to us. He urged cooperation, it meant the success of the church. The disposal of the Little Helpers Fund of $186.00, was discussed. The Bishop proposed it be used for a Font or for the Bishop Temple Memorial Foundation.

It was our late Bishop's wish that it should be used for a Font in Sweetwater church and on Mrs. Temple's suggestion that it be made a memorial to Bishop Seaman's small son who died about five years ago, this was put in the form of a motion and passed.

Our late Bishop's wife, Mrs. Temple, was made an honorary member of the W. A. of North Texas. This gave great satisfaction to every member. Our new president, Mrs. W. W. Rix, was made official delegate to the Triennial, to be held in New Orleans in October.

This ended our session. We joined Convocation in the church where a short service of dismissal was held.

FROCKS

that rise above the commonplace, expressing perfectly the new features of the mode in new fabrics, new lines and new trims.

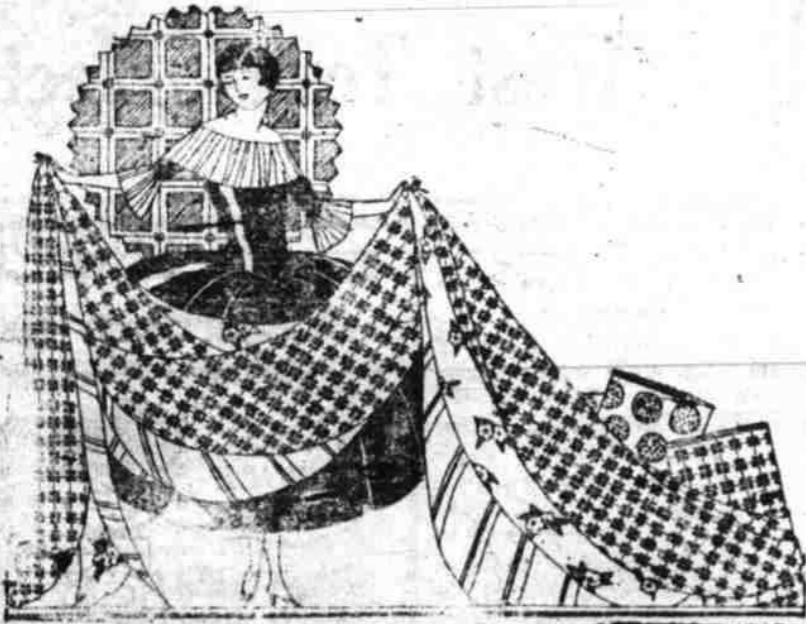

COATS

of distinction and charm, exquisitely tailored in the smartest styles of the Season are different and must be seen to be appreciated.

SPRING MODE

conspicuous by its simplicity, which makes it easy to create beautiful frocks yourself.

We are showing some beautiful silks for Spring, and judging by the colors that are sponsored by Dame Fashion this should be a season of gay colors. Printed crepes are more prominent than ever, and we have some wonderful new patterns in these.

Call Today and See These Patterns

"Senorita" is a finely woven silk that will work up nicely. It has a wonderful sheen of its own—in solid colors—black, sand and brick-dust, satin crepe, canton crepe and brocaded canton crepe. By using Butterick patterns as combined with the Deltor you will find it easy to work up these silks.

A Surprise for K. P. Members

Just as the members of the Knights of Pythias were closing their lodge at 9 o'clock on Thursday night or last week they were informed that visitors sought admission after the closing ceremonies were completed.

The visitors proved to be members of the Pythian Sisters who brought loads of good things to eat. Heaping plates of sandwiches, salads, pickles, potato chips were passed around, hot coffee also, and a real feast was in order. My, how the bunch did enjoy this feed and how sorry they felt for the brothers who were absent.

Some fine talks by the Sir Knights in which they attempted to thank the Pythian Sisters for the feed were made and responses were forthcoming from the Sisters who promised to repeat this surprise. Better remember this Sir Knights and make it a point to attend lodge every Thursday night to avoid missing a real treat.

Letter From C. B. Hudspeth

The following letter from Representative C. B. Hudspeth will be of interest to the citizenship of our county. Incidentally it goes to show that our representative is on the job and is not going to forget the Big Spring country.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 16, 1925.
Mr. W. W. Rix,
President Chamber of Commerce,
Big Spring, Texas.
My dear Mr. Rix:

I am in receipt of your letter inviting me to be present on February 5th at the district meeting of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in your splendid city of Big Spring.

Nothing would afford me greater pleasure than to attend this meeting, but I regret, Mr. Rix, it will be impossible for me to do so. Congress adjourns on the fourth of March and there are a multitude of bills pending before Congress in which my district is vitally interested, one of which is a bill providing for the sum of $150,000,000, which now has the O. K. of the president and the secretary of the treasury, providing that $25,000,000 shall be expended each year for six years, for public buildings.

Now, this is the nearest that we can come to getting a public buildings bill through. But I have great hopes that if the bill is passed of being able to get the secretary of the treasury to set aside sufficient sum for the building of a federal building in Big Spring.

Doubtless, the appropriation for federal buildings, of which you read in the paper, was this bill, as this is the only bill so far introduced that would create public buildings, but no public building is designated in the measure, and no other bill has been introduced, so far as I know, that does designate the places, although I have introduced separate bills designating public buildings in my district, among which is the postoffice building at Big Spring. However, the administration, as I understand, will permit what is known as the "Elliott Bill" carrying a sum of $150,000,000 for public buildings, to be left within the discretion of the secretary of the treasury, to be passed, and that is all that can be passed.

Thanking you again for your invitation and the fact that you always remember me on occasions of this character by extending an invitation and wishing to be remembered to my good friends in Big Spring, I am,
Very truly yours,
C. B. Hudspeth.

Billy Sunday Lauds Fergusons

Austin, Jan. 21.—Governor Ferguson and former Governor Ferguson, the first Miriam and the second Jim,
read with great interest this morning a telegram received from Billy Sunday, famous evangelist, now at Jackson, Miss. Sunday, in his characteristic, somewhat fiery language, congratulated Mrs. Miriam Ferguson on becoming Governor. The message was one of the highest compliments
James E. Ferguson has yet received.
The entire message reads as follows:

"I could not attend the inauguration at Austin, but I can shake hands and congratulate you over the Western Union. Your inaugural may not please the politicians, but it will stir the hearts of all America. It was a bull's eye!

"Ben Franklin said: 'United we stand, divided we fall.' That famous slogan has stood alone until you paraphrase it with 'a strong pull, a long pull, and a pull altogether!' Texas is not the only State that needs something more than longhorn steers and cotton. They all need praying men and praying women. You are one of the first Governors of this generation with courage to give God His rightful place.

"I don't know the facts in Jim's impeachment, and I don't care three whoops this side of Hoboken, but I'll bet every hair in my head with a wife like you he wasn't guilty. Folks thought because you wore hair pins and petticoats that you couldn't rule Texas but you'll hand some of those cheap skate politicians the hot end of the poker and the Lone Star State never will regret sending you to Austin! All this and God bless you and your administration

an American, BILLY SUNDAY."

How Much Did You Earn?

MR. FARMER, WERE YOU SATISFIED WITH YOUR NET EARNINGS FOR 1924? IF NOT, WHY NOT?

Did depreciation on your machinery take a big slice of your earnings?
Did rats and spoilage rob you of a part of your grain profits?
Did it cost too much to fatten your live stock?
Did your cows and poultry go on a strike?

Unless you can answer "No" to each of the above questions, we are confident that we can help you increase your profits in 1925!

Ask us to show you "in black and white" how you can cut in half the depreciation on your implements; how you can save all the grain you raise; how you can have fatter, healthier stock at less cost; how you can increase the production of your cows and chickens!

Asking us won't obligate you in any way whatever, but it may enable us to help you earn bigger profits this year. Come in and talk it over.

Don't Let Them Sting You

Men who live by their wits are broadcasting circulars by mail urging recipients to buy German marks and bonds. Marks, they say, are making a sensational rise in value and may be back to par soon due to the work of the Dawes Commission. House to house canvassers have appeared in some localities offering German marks in payment for farm produce and for other articles. One offers a million marks for $28, with a promise the investment will soon yield a profit of $10,000. The German mark is now quoted at $,000,000,000,002 on the New York Stock Exchange. If it should return to par there would be more money represented in German marks than there is in the world. That's how good an investment German marks are.—Cappers Weekly.

Free Water

A special session of the City Council was held Tuesday afternoon to consider the proposition of purchasing six thousand feet of six-inch piping to convey water from a new source of supply, just recently developed, to the city reservoir. A committee was appointed to secure an estimate of the cost of this improvement. In their exploration work to secure an adequate supply of water for Big Spring, some especially strong wells have been secured and it is believed that the water comes from an entirely different source than does the present supply.—Big Spring Herald.

Line Is Needed in West Texas

Injunctions will be sought in the courts of Texas to prevent the dismantling of the Midland-Northwestern Railroad if the application of the Texas & Pacific Railroad, now before Examiner W. A. Disque of the Interstate Commerce Commission, is honored, Porter A. Whaley of Stamford, manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, announced Tuesday.

Evidence in proof of their contention that the operation of the railroad is a public necessity and should be maintained by its receivers was introduced by Whaley and Ireland Hampton, secretary-manager of the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce, Monday evening in the Interstate Commerce Commission hearing in Midland.

Whaley spent the day in Fort Worth Tuesday en route from Midland to Kansas City, where he will confer with officials of the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railroad on the establishment of a through service from Wichita, Kan., to Mexico City.

The Midland-Northwestern paid all expenses until it passed into the hands of a receiver, Whaley says. During its receivership the West Texas Chamber of Commerce charges that the road has been grossly mismanaged and that with the influx of new settlers in West Texas and the consequent increase in business, operations could be resumed at once on a lucrative basis.

The policy in Texas of giving substantial subsidies in land or cash to new railroads coming into the country dates back to the days of the Republic, Whaley says. The custom had ceased to be a State act by the time of the establishment of the Midland-Northwestern, but the first interest in the road belongs to the people living in that section, who put up cash houses or gave land grants to the new enterprise. Citizens of West Texas are strongly opposed to dismantling the road.

West Texas Chamber of Commerce officials will attempt to have the road left in its present state temporarily if it is proven to be impossible to resume operations immediately. The right of the Interstate Commerce Commission to hear the case is denied also by that organization.

As the road is inoperative at the present time, it is automatically placed beyond the jurisdiction of the commission, inasmuch as it is not engaged in the carriage of interstate commerce, it is held.—Fort Worth Record.

A Product of Selfish Interests

In the old days of kings and emperors the word of the monarch was the law. Governments were oppressive. The rights of individuals were infringed upon. The rule that the people were made for the Government prevailed. At last men grew tired of oppression and took up arms and fought for liberty. Then the rule was reversed. The Government was made to serve the people.

Will history repeat itself? The pendulum is returning. Government control of everything, in a modernized form, seems to be coming back. In the old days the Government gave the order and enforced obedience. The modern way is to induce the people to sign away their rights, and through clever propaganda, make them like it. The Government takes money from our pockets, and then gives us a little of it back if we will build roads under Government supervision. We are made to believe that we are getting something for nothing, and those who see through the scheme are confronted with the knowledge that the Government will take the money in any event, so it is better to fall in line and get as much out of it as possible. We are educating our children according to Government rules, for we are doled out a few thousand dollars every year from various funds provided we teach the subjects designated and in the way Washington says we must. The fifty-fifty plan is a clever scheme to increase the power of the Central Government, and the people have fallen for it on the assumption that the Government was liberal with them. And the scheme works. It works so well that reformers, job hunters and other selfish interests believe that the people will endorse Government interference in family affairs.

The child-labor amendment, which the various legislatures will either adopt or reject this winter, is the product of selfish interests and not the result of careful study of the needs of regulation of child labor. The American Federation of Labor is for it because it will increase the labor demand and force up wages. New England is largely for it because they are frightened at industrial progress in the South and lay it to labor conditions. Professional reformers are for it because their chief pleasure is found in laws that forbid people doing what they want to do. Again, there are many substantial citizens who are misinformed, and who believe that the Government must take charge of the children and young people in order to keep them out of the hands of vicious parents and unprincipled employers. The fact that some Eastern and Southwestern mills and factories employ children who ought to be in school outwards, in their mind, the rights of millions of parents in the land who protect their children in all their inherent rights. If the truth were known, the children who work in factories would starve if they lost their jobs; and if the Government takes their work away from them, they must become wards of charity organizations, and they are not perfect in bringing up children, as many can testify.

It is true that many children are treated unjustly; that many are forced to work in factories and in fields that should be in school, but this is a matter of education and local concern rather than a subject for National legislation. Modern records show that most crime is committed by young people who have never been required to work. A law requiring every able child over fourteen years of age to do some useful thing during vacation periods would reduce crime. Of course, the people would rebel at such a suggestion, but it is just as reasonable and far more sensible than the proposed amendment which would authorize Congress to prohibit any boy or girl under eighteen years of age from doing any kind of work. The proposed amendment should be rejected by the Legislature of every State.—Farm and Ranch.

Why Your Electric Light Bills Go Up and Down

This chart shows why your electric light bills are higher in some months than others

In Winter you depend upon artificial lighting nearly three times as many hours in each 24 as in summer.

In June the average use of electric light in a residence, is 2 hours and 35 minutes a day.

In December the average use of electric light in a residence, is 6 hours and 50 minutes a day.

This is perfectly natural. As examination of the chart will show, fewer "daylight hours" means more "electric light hours."

There are other reasons, too, why your bills in fall and winter are larger than in the spring and summer—good reasons that show it is simply the result of the season's changes; your more extensive use of electric light, and not the fault of the electric light company at all.

When summer is over, Vacations are over. Everybody is home again; more rooms are occupied; more light is needed.

Long evenings—late bed-times. The outside cold keeps us indoors. The soft, cozy glow of electric light makes reading a pleasure. More people stay home on this account. The newspapers, magazines, study or a good book, music and games pass the evening all too quickly. It is bedtime before one knows it!

More entertaining is done—parties at home for the grownups and little folks. Sometimes the house fairly radiates with the good cheer of electric light.

Think this all over carefully and you will see why your winter electric light bills can reasonably triple those of summer

Who Among Us Can Measure Up As A Citizen?

The College of William and Mary at Williamsburg, Va.—whose beginnings reach farther back into the history of the country than any other educational institution, and whose pride it is to remain a college when so many colleges of lesser heritage and distinction are making haste to be rid of the collegiate status as though it were a confession of inferiority—has published what it conceives to be the fourteen points of citizenship. It is unfortunate that the wording of them occupies a half-column of closely-set type, for they are worth any man's reading.

It is a pretty large order, for example, to live up to Point No. 5:

"To have courage to perform my duties as a citizen regardless of the effect upon me financially or socially, remembering that a cowardly citizen is as useless to his country in time of peace as a cowardly soldier in time of war."

Points 7, 8 and 9 are equally searching when the individual examines himself and solemnly resolves:

"7. To obey all laws, whether I deem them wise or not, and to uphold the officers in the enforcement of the law."

"8. To make full and honest returns of all my property and income for taxation."

"9. To be ever ready to serve my country in war and peace, especially in such inconspicuous capacities as juror and election official."

There are others which are just as indispensable to the rounding out of a full, loyal and righteous citizenship. But the key to them all is found in Point No. 13:

"Not to think alone of what my Government can do for me, but more about what I can for it."

For surely the man who takes that attitude toward his country will in the end be found to have summed up in his heart all the law and to have framed his intentions aright for the fulfillment of his whole duty by the Government.—Dallas News.

MRS. JIM CRENSHAW.

Not a Single Crop Failure

D. S. Satterwhite is one of our successful farmers who does not lose his nerve because the rains do not come every few weeks. He came to West Texas because it did not rain so much as his health had been bad in his former home where the rainfall was too plentiful. He has been a resident of Howard county since 1901, and has made a crop in every one of the twenty-three years he has been farming here.

Even in 1917, the year this section only had a little more than four inches of rain, Mr. Satterwhite made five bales of cotton and feed enough to get by on.

He had eighty acres planted to cotton and it rained barely enough to bring up only a part of this cotton, the balance did not even sprout until the September rains fell.

Unlike a good many of our farmers who get impatient, and have to replant two, three and four times each year, Mr. Satterwhite and sons are able to get by most every year with one planting. They have studied West Texas and have found that you have to strike while the iron is hot. Have plenty of good teams so you can do planting and cultivating at the right time and do this before the moisture has a chance to get away.

The biggest single item of expense in connection with our Chamber of Commerce is the $2,100 paid annually for sprinkling the streets in the business district and hauling away the trash. If we had such a sum to devote solely for publicity we could introduce Big Spring and Howard county to many more prospective home-builders with an excellent chance of winning many more new citizens. The Chamber of Commerce has done wonderfully well on the funds available, and has accomplished much for both city and county. With more men of vision and additional funds with which to seek other worth while enterprises and a steady progress is assured.

Sick Headache

"I have used Black-Draught when needed for the past 25 years," says Mrs. Emma Grimes, of Forbes, Mo. "I began taking it for a bad case of constipation. I would get constipated and feel just miserable—sluggish, tired, a bad taste in my mouth, and my head would begin aching and I would have a severe sick headache. I don't know just who started me to taking it."

Thedford's

BLACK-DRAUGHT

It did the work. It just cleans the liver. As soon I felt like new. When I found Black-Draught easy to take and easy to get, I began to use it in and would not have sick headaches. Constipation causes the system to re-absorb poisons which may cause great pain and much danger to you. Take Thedford's Black-Draught. It will stimulate the liver and help to get out the poisons. Notice to Banks and Bankers

THE STATE OF TEXAS
County of Borden

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Commissioners Court of Borden County, Texas, at its February Term, A. D. 1925, to be held in the town of Gall in Borden County, Texas, on the 2nd Monday in February, A. D. 1925, will receive proposals from any banking corporation, association, or individual banker in such County that may desire to be selected as the depository of the funds for such County; and if at said time there is no bank situated in said County, then the Commissioners Court will at said time Term and place, receive proposals from any banking corporation, association or individual banker in adjoining counties that may desire to be selected as the depository of the funds of such County. Any banking corporation, association, or individual banker qualified to bid and desiring to bid, shall deliver to the County Judge of Borden County, on or before the first day of said term a sealed proposal, stating the rate of interest that said banking corporation, association, or individual banker offers to pay on the funds of such county for the term between the date of such bid and the next regular time for the selection of a depository. Said bid shall be accompanied by a certified check for not less than $7.00, same being one-half of one per cent of the County Revenue of the preceding year, to-wit, 1924, as a guaranty of good faith on the part of such bidder, and that, if his bid be accepted, he will enter into bond in terms, with the conditions, and securities as provided by law; and in event of failure to do so, the amount of such check shall go to the county as liquidated damages.

Witness my signature, this 14th day of January, 1925.

J. H. HANNABASS,
County Judge, Borden Co., Texas.

Raises His Own Meat Supply

W. H. Cardwell is one of Howard county's successful farmers who is a strong believer in safe farming. He raises lots of cotton every year but he also raises plenty of feed and other crops at the same time. Hogs, milk cows and poultry are also to be found on his farm. He believes that it pays to raise meat on the farm for home consumption rather than pay the packers fancy prices for playing butcher. Last week he finished putting away his year's meat supply when he killed two hogs which dressed 550 pounds each. He did not forget to treat the editor of The Herald to some of that extra fine sausage he makes at hog killing time.

Citation by Publication

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Howard County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 32nd Judicial District; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest District to said Judicial District, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Howard County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Big Spring, Texas, on the first Monday in February, A. D. 1925, the same being the 2nd day of February A. D. 1925, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 5th day of January, A. D. 1925, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 980, wherein Elizabeth Evans is Plaintiff, and Chester Evans is Defendant, and said petition alleging that Plaintiff and Defendant were married in Howard County, Texas, on March 7, 1923, and that Defendant abandoned Plaintiff on about 21st day of April, 1924. That one child was born to them, a boy, by the name of Virgil B. Evans, who is now twelve months of age.

That Defendant was unkind, harsh and tyrannical toward Plaintiff; that he would leave Plaintiff of nights and run around with other women, committing adultery with them, and would boast to Plaintiff that he was having good times with other women.

That he wrongfully accused Plaintiff of being untrue to him, and of committing adultery with other men, all of which was untrue and Defendant knew that such accusations were untrue; that when Plaintiff was pregnant Defendant became very angry, saying that the child was not his and treated Plaintiff with cruelty and harshness during all the time she was pregnant, and after the child was born he would curse and abuse Plaintiff, leaving her of nights, when she was unable to take care of herself and child, and would boast of the good times he was having; that Defendant has never contributed to the support of Plaintiff and her child.

Wherefore Plaintiff prays that Defendant be cited by publication to appear in answer to this petition, and for judgment dissolving said marriage relation, for the care and custody of said child, and for costs of suit.

Herein fail not but have before said Court, at its aforesaid regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Big Spring this 6th day of January A. D. 1925.

Lycium Numbers February 4-5

The last two Lycium numbers to be given under the auspices of the Home Economics Department of the High School will be presented at the Lyric theatre, Wednesday and Thursday nights, February 4th and 5th.

These are two extra fine entertainments and a full house should be in evidence on both dates.

Captain T. Dinsmore Upton, the Big Brother of 100,000 kids, will deliver a lecture on "The Four Square Builder"—a lecture that will startle local people—at the Lyric on Wednesday night, February 4th.

He possesses a radiant, dominant personality, and he is eloquent in the extreme; yet the effectiveness of his eloquence comes largely through his deep-seated earnestness. His audience love him for his enthusiasm, his fine character, his ideals, his unshaken convictions, and for his general service in the biggest of all problems—that of the boy and girl.

If you want to help the boys and girls of Big Spring be sure to hear Captain Upton as he will point the way.

On Thursday night, Feb. 5th will be presented a clever comedy "The Ghost Between." This play is presented by a company of real artists and you will thoroughly enjoy it.

Make plans now to attend both these lycium numbers for they are well worth the price of admission and then some.

Then too the Home Economics department deserves your hearty cooperation and support in bringing these fine lycium attractions to our city.

Attend both and bring your friends

NEW CALOMEL BREAKS A COLD OVERNIGHT

When the purest kind of English Calomel was combined with pepsin by a smart young chemist, the world was given an ideal mild laxative for breaking colds. One night is long enough for this new, mild and non-sickening pepsin-treated calomel, called "Pepsinated Calomel" to break the most stubborn cold. Before breakfast time it vanishes and leaves you feeling fresh and fine. "Pepsinated Calomel" does not sicken, gripe, salivate or upset you, but it does clean you out thoroughly, tone up the appetite, purify the blood, stop dull headaches, relieve stomach and bowel disorders and make you feel like a new person. Never take the old drastic calomel—insist on "Pepsinated Calomel," for it is better. Prepared by the Pepsinated Calomel Co., Atlanta, Ga. Sold by Cunningham & Philips

Water Supply Solution Near

It is firmly believed that the city's water problem is now in a fair way to be solved and the threatened water shortage is to be solved for all time to come. In the territory one and one-eighth miles southeast from the present waterworks plant an abundant supply of water has been secured at from 86 to 150 feet. This water is found in a bed of coarse gravel some seventy-five feet thick. Geologists state the supply is found in the Trinity sand formation, which insures an everlasting supply. Six wells are to be completed as soon as possible and placed on pumps. Each piping to convey this water to the city reservoir is now being purchased. As the new water bearing area is forty-two feet above the reservoir the water can be delivered by gravity flow. With this new pumping plant in operation the City should be in a position to supply an additional 250,000 gallons of water daily. Additional wells could be added as needed. At least 500,000 gallons daily can be secured on the new site with the six inch main if as many as fifteen wells are put on the pump.

Pay Your Taxes

Pay your taxes on or before January 31st, if you do not wish to dig up a penalty.

Saturday of this week is the last day of grace for the fellow who has not yet paid city, county or state tax. Your poll tax must be paid before February 1st if you wish to be privileged to vote in the elections of 1925.

Better trek to the tax collector's office today and have the agony over. You may forget again if you postpone paying taxes to the last minute of the last day.

Poll Tax Payments Lag

Only 1885 had paid their poll tax to Howard county up to Thursday noon, according to W. W. Satterwhite, county tax collector.

The time for paying this tax expires at midnight Saturday, January 31st. Folks are going to have to come in bunches if the total poll tax payments reach 2000.

Big Spring People Advise You to Act in Time.

Is unfeeling health making you uneasy and unhappy? Are you tired, weak and dispirited? Suffer daily backache and stabbing, rheumatic twinges? Then look to your kidneys! The kidneys are the blood-filters. Once they weaken, the whole system is upset. You have dizzy spells, headaches and urinary irregularities. You feel all worn-out. Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Thousands recommend Doan's. Here is Big Spring proof:

B. J. Campbell, 107 Benning St., says: "I am glad to recommend Doan's Pills, for I have used them and they have brought me fine relief. When I had a touch of kidney trouble, my kidneys were acting too freely, but Doan's brought me good results."

A. M. Fisher left Friday morning for New York and other eastern points to buy spring merchandise for the Albert M. Fisher Co. Mr. Fisher's leaving for the east later than usual was due to the conditions of the market. Right now the fashions showing are at their "peak" and Mr. Fisher took advantage of being there to buy the latest merchandise, among these the famous Irene Castle fashions. It will only be a short time until the new styles will be coming in and the women who will be in the market for new spring ready-to-wear will be pleased to see these styles.

Prospects for 1925 Bright

The Big Spring Insurance Agency reports that the Kansas City Life Insurance Company and the Orville Thorp Agency expect to enjoy the greatest year during 1925 in their history. They are making plans for a substantial increase in new business and are confident of realizing their expectations. Their optimism and confidence over the prospects of new business are based very largely upon the general business survey which has just been completed by the Guaranty Trust Company of New York on the business and financial conditions in the United States. Among some of the interesting features of this report are the following:

"At the beginning of the new year the business outlook on the whole is distinctly favorable. At no other time since the war has there been so marked a predominance of encouraging factors. The essential bases for sustained and well rounded prosperity have been materially strengthened. The outstanding features of the year 1924 were:

"1. The adoption of the Dawes plan, quickening economic recovery in Europe;

"2. The readjustment between agricultural and industrial prices;

"3. The success of conservative political issues in both European and American elections.

"Responding in part to the influence of these important factors, and partly to the reaction inevitable from a long period of reduced production and lessened activity, substantial business recovery occurred in the closing months of the year, and seems well under way for 1925. So far, this recovery has developed no over-production or excessive borrowing, and it has not attained the proportions of a boom or inflationary movement; in fact, solid and substantial progress, based upon clearly defined conditions, is its characteristic feature. The bases for the assurances of further progress may be summarized as follows:

"1. Ample credit and capital and low interest rates;

"2. Large retail and mail order sales;

"3. Ample and efficient transportation;

"4. Increasing foreign trade, especially a greater volume of exports;

"5. Greater prosperity and saner regulations for public utilities;

"6. Improved industrial conditions, particularly in the motor, rubber and textile industries, and marked recovery in the iron and steel industry, with rising markets for other metals;

"7. Increasing employment of labor;

"8. The high purchasing power of wages;

"9. A reasonable stability and balance of prices;

"10. Greatly increased savings deposits and new life insurance written as evidence of thrift;

"11. Strong stock and investment markets, with a larger volume of successful financing of both foreign and domestic offerings;

"12. A reassuring political outlook."

Dry in California

S. F. Hamer, writing from Orosi, California, gives us an idea of the hard times his section has been thru the past two years. He said that last year the frost damaged the valencia oranges so they had to be pulled and left on the ground. Last season they had only four inches of rain in the San Joaquin Valley. This covered the time from July 1, 1923 to October 1924, a period of more than fifteen months.

Five Rules for Preventing Colds

Here are five rules for preventing colds:

1. Keep your body up to normal by temperance and proper diet.
2. Play, work, and sleep in fresh air.
3. Keep feet dry.
4. Keep bowels open.
5. Keep out of the range of coughs and sneezes. Stay away from people with colds as much as possible. If your friends are coughing and sneezing around you, ask them to put up their "cold shields," namely, their pocket handkerchiefs. The pocket handkerchief is the greatest preventer of spreading colds. Use it.—F. M. Register, M. D., in The Progressive Farmer.

IF THE WORLD WENT DRY!

We talk of wets and we talk of drys. But suppose the world, which is so wet, because it's three-fourths water, all of a sudden went dry? What would happen?

Everybody and his wife would 'phone the plumber. And when the answer came back, "No water—nothing doing," the human race would become panic stricken.

The panic would be short, for death would wipe every living thing from the earth.

Water is our greatest blessing. And the plumber's work is to be that blessing pure and to deliver it where it is needed when it is needed.

Without pure water there would be no life. Without the plumber there would be no cities, no tall buildings, little health and less happiness.

Enjoy this old wet world, with pure water piped to you and impure waste piped away from you. Make the most of your bathroom, your kitchen sink, and everything the plumber offers for your comfort and convenience.

Be glad the world is wet—wet with plenty of water.

A. Knappe has demonstrated his own satisfaction as well as the satisfaction of others that a ten day feeding period for baby hogs is profitable. He has a few head of yearlings at his place southeast of Big Spring which have been on about 50 days, that weigh around 100 pounds each. He started these on 1-2 pound of cotton seed meal a day and all the cotton seed hulls would clean up. He gradually increased the cotton seed meal until he is now feeding 4 lbs. each per day and cotton seed hulls for a rough ration. He believes it would pay livestock raisers to feed their cattle ninety days before marketing them.

BASEMENT OF WARD BUILDING

Advices Advance Tactics Against Hopper

College Station, Texas.—Farmers of Texas may take an advance step against the grasshopper scourge this year and save themselves from enormous loss by a little careful observation and prompt action. In places of heavy grass or other sod or along outcroppings of rock if the grasshoppers were congregated in large numbers last September and October it may be taken for granted that they deposited a great crop of eggs. These places should be carefully examined now and if the eggs are found in great numbers and a large percentage seem in condition to hatch the spots should be marked for observance and preparations made for a fight when the little hoppers emerge in the early spring. After hatching the little hoppers do not move more than a few feet from where they hatched, and consequently it is advisable for the farmers to locate these areas now and as soon as hatching occurs poison these small areas with the bran mash poison formulated by the A. & M. College last year and kill the little insects before they get into the fields and do great damage. Each farmer must judge as to whether such a procedure will be practical under his own conditions.

The eggs are slightly smaller in diameter than the lead of a pencil and about one-fifth inch long. About 40 or 50 are packed alongside each other and the whole mass enclosed in a tough case about the size of a navy bean. These are inserted between the rocks or in the sod at a depth of not more than an inch. The little bag is of a yellowish white color.

Man and Woman

The law and custom may do their best to establish sex equality, but neither can hope to undo the work of thousands of centuries. Whatever statutes may have to say, men always will seem amusing to women and women will always seem queer to men.

When a woman is ill she wishes to be petted; when a man is ill he wishes to be left alone.

When a woman does wrong she can always persuade herself that she is not to blame; when a man does wrong he condemns himself bitterly, even though the greatest part of the fault was another's. A woman is most at ease when she has on new garments; a man in new clothes feels hideously conspicuous.

A man can kiss another woman and love his wife no less; when a woman enjoys kissing another man her husband is out of the picture.

A woman loves all the time; a man only at intervals.

A man pretends to know more than he does in an effort to impress his wife; a woman pretends to know less than she does to avoid hurt to her husband's vanity.

A man hates but little and shows the little clearly; a woman hates much and contrives to conceal it.

A woman hides her strength and a man hides his weakness.

A man forgives because he can't remember; a woman remembers because she can't forgive.

A woman is religious because she feels the need of a protector; a man is religious because he would cooperate with God.

Man is led by his appetite; woman is led by her curiosity.

Man will not change his mind, because he first must admit that he was wrong; woman changes hers for the sake of expediency even if she knows her first opinion was right.

Opens Beauty Parlor

Miss Helen Pittman arrived here this week from Big Spring and has opened a Beauty Parlor in the Talliferro Electrical Shop, sharing space with Miss Ruby Burnett, who recently opened a millinery establishment.

Miss Pittman is a pleasant young lady and well acquainted with her work, holding a diploma from a Fort Worth school. She will specialize in all work done in beauty shops.

Miss Burnett opened her millinery store the forepart of the week and is already enjoying a brisk business. She has had ten years experience in all lines of millinery work and is well qualified for milady's needs.—Big Lake News.

THE PASSING DAY

Will H. Mayes, Department of Journalism, University of Texas

Thousands of people from all over Texas were in Austin to witness the inauguration of Mrs. Ferguson as governor. It was an epochal event in Texas history, installing the first woman as governor. Many of the thousands were not especially interested either in the history or in the governor, but were in Austin because they knew all sections of Texas would be represented, and they wanted to be "among those present." Others came to meet political friends of former days and talk over old times with them. Hosts of them were here to see if any political crubs might be gathered for themselves or their friends, or to see members of the legislature about legislative matters in which they are interested.

Austin, usually staid and dignified and with an educational and literary atmosphere that can be distinctly felt, becomes busy and even kittenish when the legislature convenes and a new governor comes into office. Then it is the mecca of newspaper men of Texas who like to gather where the lights are brightest. Nearly all the newspaper writers of Texas manage to get here for at least a few days during the legislative session, and most of those who are not yet here arranging to be here when the Texas Press Association holds its biennial business session February 6th and 7th. While that business session may be the main incentive for a large gathering, most of them like to come here to see the "legislative wheels go round." A dozen or two of them are parts of the legislative and governmental machinery themselves, and they always give the other newspaper workers a hearty greeting.

The most interesting thing about a large crowd gathered from many sections is the crowd itself and the reaction of parts of the crowd to the others. Texas is so large that the people of one section are often a good show to those from other parts of the state. In large crowds characters can nearly always be found who look like they had been left over from a century ago. I saw an elderly man, inauguration day, wearing a "plug" or stove-pipe hat along Congress avenue in the daytime, the first I had seen on the streets in many years. It would have been interesting to have talked with that man and to have led him back in the conversation to days when tall silk hats were worn as the distinguishing day-time dress of eminent men. But the modern man is in too great a hurry to loiter on the streets to talk to survivors of past generations.

When the orchestra started some lively dance music at the inauguration ball a confederate veteran with long white hair and a flowing white beard, evidently recalling his youthful days, found a dancing partner and joined with much vigor in the crowded whirl of dancers. Unmindful of the applause he received and the admonitions from the watchers to "keep your step, Santa Claus," the old man danced round after round, his long white whiskers and his confederate gray uniform making a picture among the gaily dressed dancers that will be remembered long after the aged veteran has passed on. The memory of the occasion will always be as pleasing to him as to the youngest dancer there, and the crowd was happy in seeing him happy.

The Old Gray Mare Band, of Brownwood, again demonstrated at the inauguration how enthusiasm and determination can keep an organization and place in the public eye. It reached Austin on an early morning train, bringing the now famous old gray mare along. Early in the morning it was parading Congress avenue, Mae Peterson, a noted prima donna, riding the old gray mare and gracefully smiling at the crowds. Up the granite steps of the capitol she rode, waving her sombrero at the cheering crowds, the band playing the air that has made it famous throughout the country. Down the immense corridors of the majestic building the band marched its music resounding through every room of the great structure. Thousands did not get to see the woman governor, for the crowds were too large for all to hear or see her, but all heard and praised that band and commended Brownwood for maintaining such an organization. Its reputation has been made by years of hard practice and much sacrifice on the part of its members and the determination of its director, Wright Armstrong, to make it one of the famous bands of the country.

The Importance of Habit

Habit is what ruins a woman's good looks. As a girl she had the best that nature could do for her. Then she grows indifferent to how she stands, what she eats, how she eats and sleeps, in fact all things that pertain to health.

If one will form Dr. Ritchie's "Seven Hygienic Habits" she will keep her youthful looks a long time and then finally grow old beautifully. These rules are:

1. Keep the teeth clean.
2. Eat moderately and chew your food thoroughly.
3. Breathe pure air whenever it is possible to do so.
4. Go to bed regularly at a reasonable hour.
5. Take proper exercise and hold yourself erect.
6. Learn to rest and to keep yourself calm.
7. Guard yourself, so far as you can, from disease germs.—The Progressive Farmer.

Big Crowd Expected to Drive Over to Big Spring February 5th

At the last meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, it was voted to ask Hon. J. M. Caldwell to make the speech of invitation for the next district convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to be held in Midland; the speech to be made at Big Spring on February 5, when the district holds its 1925 session.

Mr. Caldwell has accepted, and it is believed that he will be backed up by a large number of Midland men and women, wearing the Midland badges and voting for the next meet to be held here.

At the annual meeting of the Midland Chamber of Commerce on next Tuesday night, the subject will be brought up so that a good idea might be obtained of the number that will attend.—Midland Reporter.

Mistakes I Have Made

The worst mistake of my life has been trying to do too much and doing none of it right. I have always tried to cultivate too large an acreage of corn, cotton, cane, peanuts, and potatoes, etc. As a result, I have worn myself out, killed my stock and made nothing either. A farmer should cultivate the amount of land he can handle with scientific care. He will profit by doing so, making as much stuff as ever on less land and with less work. My experience shows that it pays to do what you do right and scientifically. It will pay in the long run.—T. F. K., in The Progressive Farmer.

Marion Edwards is having two hundred acres of land grubbed and will put same in cultivation this year. He expects to have in the neighborhood of 370 acres in crops this season.

Mr. Guthrie conducted vocal exercise; this was followed by readings, given by Misses, and Louise Rhoton, Stella Elliott, Le Woods, and Edith Runyan, and with songs. The main feature of the evening was Miss Reagan's address on Africa.

Reagan was introduced by Miss Rhoton. All enjoyed the evening. It would have pleased Miss Reagan had she heard the J. C. E. Sunday afternoon at their discussing the knowledge they had by her speech. The program with a short drill by our I. C. E. From the Presbyterian all went to one of the Guitars, where the I. C. E. girls sang and sandwiches. Again C. A Pork Barrel on Every Farm
By C. C. French, Industrial Agent, Fort Worth Stockyards Company

According to press reports, one of the great manufacturing companies of this nation is making a saving of $11,000 per day on what was formerly wasted. The writer well remembers when cotton seed was wasted: it is now a valuable article of commerce. It is generally understood that the packing industry could never have been such a great success as it now is were it not for the way it has converted into valuable by-products, what was formerly wasted. Paraffin was at one time worthless; it is now a valuable by-product from petroleum. Only a few years ago the sugar cane, after being crushed, was practically a waste; now it is manufactured into a valuable article of commerce.

On a cotton farm that is properly fenced, the hog is a by-product, or a side line, and it is a consumer of by-products—the waste that is now taking place on nearly every cotton farm. The value of a good brood sow on the farm was never before so well shown as in the work done at the A. & M. College by G. W. Warren, Swine Husbandman at the experiment station, W. L. Stangel in charge of school of agriculture, A. & M., and A. L. Ward, secretary Texas Swine Breeders' Association. From a 260 pound hog they produced the following:

Home Curing value of a 260-pound hog—
Hams, 38 pounds at 32c	$12.16
Breakfast bacon, 26 pounds at 30c	7.80
Pork Products, 80 pounds at 40c	32.00
Pure lard, 4 gallons at $2.00	8.00
Live weight value	$59.96
	26.00
	$33.96

The feeding of a litter of 14 pigs by Edgar F. Laird at Amarillo, for 189 days, producing 4,291 pounds of pork and making a profit of $225.00 in 180 days, shows the value of a good brood sow.

When something near these two demonstrations are combined on each cotton farm in Texas, the people of this State will not have to spend seventy-five million dollars for imported pork products.

The Commissioner of Agriculture of Texas tells us that the cotton crop of 1924 will cost 24 1-2 cents per pound to produce. The writer has seen cotton sell from 3 1-2c to 4c per pound. At the present cost of production, if cotton goes back to 8c or 10c what will happen? Bankruptcy.

Honoring Miss Lucile Reagan

The Fidelis Class of the First Baptist church gave a banquet at the Cole Hotel Tuesday night honoring Miss Lucile Reagan, a Missionary from this class, who recently returned from Africa.

Three courses were served. Miss Zora Fisher sketched and painted the attractive and artistic place cards which was a hut scene in the jungles of Africa.

The clever and original idea of the little favors was conceived and arranged by Misses Lillian and Winnie Dell Rhoton, in the painting of miniature dolls representing little Mexicans and Africans wearing and carrying the native tall sombreros and colorful parasols.

Miss Lillian Rhoton, who is president of the class, in her charming and inimitable manner, acted as toast-mistress on this occasion.

Mrs. L. S. Patterson, teacher of the class, made a talk which was inspiring, being the expressions of a sweet consecrated spirit, such as hers.

Miss Lucile Reagan made a very interesting talk, posing in the native costumes of the women of Africa, and speaking and reading the language. She had with her a number of curios, the use of which she explained, among which was a small idol carved in wood.

A very fitting toast was given the teacher, Mrs. Patterson, by Miss Otero Lloyd. Also Miss Spencer Leatherwood gave a complimentary toast to our efficient president, Miss Lillian Rhoton.

Those present included the honorees, Miss Lucile Reagan, and her mother, Mrs. B. Reagan, Mrs. L. S. Patterson, Miss Lillian Rhoton, Mrs. Bart Wilkinson, Miss Winnie Dell Rhoton, Mrs. Gordon Hatch, Mrs. Swan Jones, Miss Mabel Robinson, Miss Mattie Leatherwood, Miss Lillian Ellis, Miss Clara Pool, Mrs. Fred Hopkins, Miss Spencer Leatherwood, Miss Zora Fisher, Miss Otero Lloyd, Miss Fannie Stephens. Rix and his Vendees as above stated, on to this date, as placed in the foregoing paragraph, generally; and this is to give notice that a well prepared abstract of title, as required by law, showing a complete abstract of the deeds and the places, Volumes and pages where recorded in the Deed Records of Howard County, Texas, to this land is filed with the papers of this suit, and will be offered, in due course, as evidence in the trial of this cause, this notice being here given to any and all the Defendants.

Plaintiff further alleges that he has good and perfect title to the aforesaid land and premises, because of the perfect chain of title as exhibited by the Abstract and by virtue of the statute of limitation as above alleged, as against the whole world, except as to a certain interest as may appear in the abstract of title, in favor of J. A. Davidson, and Mrs. Mary Gilluly, which claim is of recent date only and accrues and grows out of the Title and interest, possession and right of the Plaintiff, all of which the Plaintiff is ready to verify.

WHEREFORE PLAINTIFF prays the Court that the Defendants and each of them be cited to appear and answer herein, and that the Plaintiff have judgment for the title and possession of the said tract of land and premises, as prayed for and that a writ of restitution issue and for cost, and for such other and further relief as he may show himself entitled to receive.
