New York City Seeks Aid From Government

By H. D. QUIGG
United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI)—Abe Stark, president of the New York City Council, today called for an emergency 100 million dollar a year general subsidy program to combat teenage crime and violence. Stark's appeal to the Senate committee delinquency subcommittee was made only a few hours after Bronx police broke up preparations for a gang rumble. They arrested 27 members of the Sings gang who had assembled an arsenal including a 20-gauge shotgun, two hunting knives, nine .45-caliber pistols and six sawed-off shotguns.

Stark in a statement prepared for the second day of hearings being conducted here by Sen. Thomas C. Hennings said the emergency subsidy program could prevent two million youngsters from turning to crime, at a cost of less than $50 per child per year. "Placing a single youth behind bars at a reform school or a correctional institution, where he becomes only more embittered, requires an annual expenditure of up to $4,000," Stark said. "A program of prevention could be launched immediately, without any capital investment for new buildings or facilities. "Guaranteed subsidies would enable the youth agencies of the nation to expand and render additional services during hours when the doors are closed—in the evenings, weekends, holidays, and summer months."

Under Stark's plan, the 100 million dollars yearly would go to existing boys' clubs, settlement houses, community centers, child care centers, and other youth organizations.

Stark also called for a national youth law as far-reaching as the housing act of 1949 and the labor relations act of 1935, to be headed by a national coordinator, working through regional offices.

STEEL PREXY KNIFED

HYANNIS, Mass. (UPI)—Walter F. Munford, 59, president of the U.S. Steel Corp., wounded himself with a knife, it was disclosed today by Cape Cod Hospital where he underwent emergency surgery. In a sketchy statement, the hospital did not say whether the wounds were accidentally inflicted. Munford was hospitalized Wednesday and underwent abdominal surgery. A police investigation was begun when details of the stabbing were cloaked in mystery. Munford's condition was described as "good" today after the surgery. The hospital said Munford had been under care of his personal physician for the past few weeks, suffering from fatigue and nervous exhaustion. His physician, Dr. Robert B. O'Connor, medical director for U.S. Steel, and Harvey Jordan, executive vice president of the firm, visited Mr. and Mrs. Munford Tuesday as overnight guests, the hospital said. Wednesday morning, while preparing to go with them to Boston for further treatment, "he apparently wounded himself with a knife," the hospital said. Dist. Atty. Edmund Dinis dispatched several investigators from his office to determine "whether the stab wounds were self-inflicted or otherwise." Two policemen visited the Munford summer home in nearby Chatham, questioned the steel executive's wife at length and confiscated a six-inch fish knife. Dinis said Wednesday night he lacked sufficient details to make a statement in the case but added that "because of the nature of the knife wounds Munford has suffered, we have begun a full investigation into the matter." Dinis said Munford may have received the wounds "as much as two weeks ago." But he said he did not know the exact date. O'Connor said the industrialist had been under treatment for the past two weeks but he did not explain the nature of the condition. "Surgery was indicated Wednesday," the doctor said "and he was taken to the hospital and underwent abdominal surgery." Other sources reported, however, that O'Connor had called the Chatham Fire Department Wednesday with an urgent request for an ambulance. Two firemen found Munford lying on a couch in a first-floor den with his wife and Dr. Robert E. Harned of Chatham attending him.

Khrushchev Rubbernecks It In Pittsburgh Today

A First: Nikita Gets Key to City

By JACK V. FOX
United Press International
PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Nikita Khrushchev, pleased at receiving the keys to a city for the first time in his American tour, visits a steel mill today—one of the few not closed by the nationwide steel strike. The Russian premier, who arrived here late Wednesday night after spending 30 hours in Iowa's corn country, will tour Mesta Machine Company in nearby West Homestead before speaking at a University of Pittsburgh lunch and returning to Washington at mid-afternoon. Mesta Machine was founded by the late husband of Parie Mesta, noted Washington hostess. A brief tour of the Golden Triangle—the city's downtown section—may be made before the lunch appearance. Khrushchev arrived here at 11:05 p.m. Wednesday and was greeted by Mayor Thomas J. Gallagher, who presented him the key to the city. "I want to assure you," Khrushchev told a crowd of 500 persons at a U.S. Air Force base adjacent to Greater Pittsburgh Airport, "that I will not misuse the key. I will use it to open no other doors." The presentation, first of its kind since Khrushchev arrived in this country, came as a surprise to the delegation accompanying him. "It was a very nice gesture," Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations, told Gallagher.

U.S. Tour Ending; Talks Set Friday

By THOMAS J. FOLEY
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Nikita Khrushchev, his tour of America drawing to a close, returns here today for climactic cold war talks with President Eisenhower. The Soviet premier and his party were to arrive at Andrews Air Force Base at 4:25 p.m. e.d.t. after a one-hour flight from Pittsburgh. His schedule called for him to reach the President's nearby Camp David, Md., mountain retreat early Friday for two days of brass-lacks talks. Khrushchev flies back to Moscow late Sunday. The Russian leader will attend a reception tonight at the Russian Embassy to be followed by dinner in his honor given by Eric Ridder, publisher of the Journal of Commerce, at the Sheraton Carlton Hotel. Twenty-two top American businessmen and industrialists will dine with and question Khrushchev. A few hours before leaving Washington by car for Camp David Friday afternoon, Khrushchev will visit the National Institutes of Health and other unspecified (See TOUR, Page 4)

MUNN TELLS STORY OF UF RESPONSIBILITY

Melvin Munn, publicity director for the Pampa-Lefors United Fund, yesterday told Rotarians of their responsibility to help assure the success of the forthcoming drive. Pointing out that everyone in the community is benefited, directly or indirectly, by the seven agencies which comprise the United Fund, Munn explained that rising to reach the budgeted goal of $63,900 is imperative. The speaker explained the nature of much of the giving which took place in the twenties and thirties. It was, he pointed out, usually on a hand-out basis with little organization or planning behind the gift. As a result, charity was a hit-and-miss affair, lacking professional direction. All this is now changed, Munn explained, and the United Fund is the answer to the most efficient and humane handling of charitable endeavors. Jim Scott, Pampa high school student body president, gave a brief talk on the program now being undertaken at a school through the Key Club to establish a set of worthwhile objectives in the building of character and a sense of responsibility. The club's only visitor for the day was L. C. Curtis.

ROGERS SPEAKS HERE TUESDAY

Reservations are now being made for the Palm Room luncheon Tuesday at which Congressman Walter Rogers will address Pampa businessmen. The luncheon is sponsored by the senior and Junior Chambers of Commerce. Since only 150 people can be accommodated in the City Hall Palm Room, persons are advised to make their reservations by 5 p.m. Friday. Rogers is expected to bring local people up to date on happenings in Washington, D.C., and supply the latest information on Khrushchev's visit to this country. Luncheon tickets are priced at $1.25.

New Phone Books Ready

Joe McDonald, manager of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, announced the new telephone directories for Pampa, Skellytown and Lefors will be mailed September 20. This year's directory has a green cover and contains 84 "white" or alphabetical pages with more than 12,700 listings. This represents an increase over last September's directory which contained 12,180 listings. The new classified section or "Yellow Pages" contain 164 pages compared to 160 in last year's book. According to McDonald, 18,000 directories have been printed for distribution to telephone customers in Pampa, Skellytown and Lefors. He also mentioned, extra copies were printed as replacements for those used in public telephone booths and other places where much use occurs. Names of persons who had telephone numbers as of September 1, 1959, will be included in the new directory. Old books should be discarded as soon as the new issue arrives, McDonald advised, but he cautioned phone users against throwing the old one away before out-of-date and out-of-town numbers are copied.

UF BAKE SALE SET SATURDAY

The City Improvement Club is the first Club to announce a special project for the benefit of the United Fund—the Campaign for Pampa and Lefors. The Club will hold a Bake Sale at the home of Mrs. D. Griffin, 509 S. Gray Street, Saturday, September 26. Cakes and pastries will be baked by Club members, and offered to the public. The entire proceeds of the sale will go to the United Fund.

The City Improvement Club is accepting orders in advance of the sale. Orders may be placed with Mrs. Samuel Motley, MO 9-8128, or MO 4-8557. Orders may be picked up at Mrs. Griffin's home, or special arrangements may be made for delivery.

Pampa Home Is Burglarized

One Pampa home was burglarized Wednesday, but attempts to break into another failed, police reported today. William Booth, 310 E. Craven, reported Wednesday evening that someone entered his home through an unlocked front door and took $200 in silver dollars from a powder box. A neighbor spotted two youngsters, seven and eight, in the neighborhood prior to the break-in and police are making measurements of fresh mud tracks found in the Booth home. The attempted burglary was at the Inez Carter home, 1718 Charles. (See HOME, Page 4)

Heavy storm clouds dribbled five-tenths of an inch of moisture on Pampa this morning in a heavy anti-cyclone to the 4.65-inch fall of Tuesday. Heavy amounts were registered on the rain gauge on the roof of Daily News building.

Lions Begin Passion Play Ticket Sale

The Black Hills Passion Play, to be presented at the Pampa Junior High School Auditorium October 9-11, abounds in significant scenes and brilliant episodes. Some critics have called it the greatest dramatic event ever staged. Starring Josef Meier as the Christ and supported by a huge cast of 100, the Passion Play reenacts in 22 scenes the story of the last seven days in the life of Jesus of Nazareth. Included in the presentation are such famous scenes as those depicting the first Palm Sunday, the Last Supper, the trial before Pilate, the lavish court of Herod, the crucifixion and the ascension.

Tons of scenery and unusual lighting effects give spectators the feeling of actually being present at the time the significant events were taking place. Costuming is authentic and striking. Meier's wife, Clare Hume, portrays Mary. For 2 1/2 hours, one scene blends into another with smooth significance. Impressive is Jesus' entry on a donkey as the people in colorful and authentic costumes make the streets of Jerusalem come to life. The many significant scenes are highlighted by those in which Jesus takes and leave of His mother, the somberly beautiful Last Supper and betrayal and trial episodes. Passion Play climax is achieved in death on the cross, the resurrection and the ascension. The Passion Play is being sponsored here by the Noon Lion's Club. (See TICKET, Page 4)

People May Act Hypnotized Under Normal Conditions

NEW YORK (UPI)—On the authority of a professor of psychology, you and everyone else now and then behave just as though you were hypnotized, although you are not.

You have hallucinations. The way you act is more appropriate to your earliest years than your present age (and so you display "age regression.") Your mind is a blank as regards the past and you're even insensitive to pain.

Dr. William T. Heron, who is professor of psychology at the University of Minnesota, was arguing that the behaviour of hypnotized people is in no way abnormal but is, in fact, part and parcel of common behavior.

"All of us under certain conditions will go into a mood of uncertainty and exhibit a high receptivity to certain aspects of our environment, and eliminate other aspects," he said.

Debunks Amateurs

Heron was endeavoring to debunk the phonies and the half-baked among professional and amateur hypnotists who are kidding the public that the hypnotized state is not only abnormal but superhuman. He is recognized in the scientific world as an authority.

From the psychological viewpoint, the hypnotic state or "trance" is an "attitude of mood," he said in lecturing members of the American Academy of General Practice on its medical uses. "It is an uncritical and un-analytic mood. It is an attitude of high receptivity to the words of the hypnotist and consequently to his ideas.

"As the patient goes into the hypnotic trance he progressively becomes more and more (1) concerned only with the words of the physician and with those aspects of his self and his surroundings to which the physician specifically directs his (the patient's) attention; (2) ready and willing to carry out the instructions of the physician, and (3) receptive to the belief that what the physician says is literally true, or receptive to think as the physician wants him to think."

Self Hypnosis

But whether hypnotized or not, a human being who accepts an idea uncritically will act upon that idea if the idea calls for action, Heron continued. However, the behaviour has to be within the capabilities of the person. People are incapable of behaving in ways of which they strongly disapprove. Hypnotism doesn't change that.

"We get action when we give ourselves a suggestion which is to be countered by other suggestions and circumstances," he said. "In other words, we produce voluntary behavior by auto-suggestion.

"I submit that hypnosis is nothing more or less than this same process, with the exception that the verbal stimulation is supplied ordinarily by the hypnotist rather than by the subject himself."

Israel Stales UN Action Against Egypt

By BRUCE W. MUNN

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI)—Israel planned a full-throttle attack in the U. N. General Assembly today on the refusal of the United Arab republic to permit Israeli shipping to use the Suez Canal.

Informal sources said permit Foreign Minister Golda Meir would pull no punches in the attack on the policy of the government of President Gamal Abdel Nasser.

The Cuban regime of Premier Fidel Castro was scheduled to be heard for the first time in the U. N. assembly's debate which Minister of State Raul Roa stated to lead off this morning's proceedings. There was no prior indication of the contents of his speech.

U. N. sources said Mrs. Meir is expected to tell the assembly that it is difficult to understand the belligerent attitudes of the Arab world toward Israel in these days of friendly overtures between the Soviets and the West.

The former Milwaukee teacher also is expected to contrast the anti-Israel propaganda emanating from Cairo with the talks about to start between Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and President Eisenhower on possible easing of the cold war.

The sources said Mrs. Meir will trace the history of the U. A. R.'s refusal to grant Suez passage to Israeli ships and cargoes, and will tell the assembly that the Nasser government's defiance of international law was a matter with which the United Nations must deal.

U.S. Church Leaders Unhappy With Support Given Refugees

RELIGION IN AMERICA By LOUIS CASSELLS, United Press International

U. S. church leaders are unhappy about this country's failure to give effective support to the world refugee year. Although the refugee year began nearly three months ago, they say, America's contribution so far consists mainly of pious talk.

Churchmen had hoped that the United States would set an example for the rest of the world by making a generous financial contribution and by providing thousands of immigration visas for refugees. This hope was based on the fact that the U. S. government took the lead in organizing the refugee year. It co-sponsored (with Great Britain) a United Nations resolution calling on all countries to make special efforts between July 19, 1959 and June 30, 1960, to relieve the plight of millions of homeless people who are still huddled in refugee camps in Europe, the Middle East and Asia.

Barrels Stolen

Three olive drab-colored trash barrels were taken overnight from Recreation Park near City Lake, Denny Roan reported this morning. Police Lt. Roan, who in recent months has been developing the park area, said the barrels were marked and can be easily identified. He warned that charges will be filed if the barrels are found.

Sayre Jr., dean of Washington Episcopal Cathedral and chairman of the U. S. National Committee for Refugees, said this concern about the situation is favored only by "the hope that Congress will hustle a refugee bill through early in the next session."

Khrushchev's reception at the airport today was to be considerably less spectacular than his dramatic arrival there from Moscow nine days ago at the start of his 15-day U.S. tour.

Undersecretary of State Robert Murphy will be the highest ranking U.S. official to greet Khrushchev. District of Columbia police were geared to give the premier a pleasant return even though his arrival coincided with homebound, rush-hour traffic of nearly a million government workers.

The key part of the planning was a switch in routes from the air base. It will take him along the traditional presidential inaugural parade route, down historic Pennsylvania Avenue—the "avenue of presidents."

On Khrushchev's arrival here Sept. 15, he and President Eisenhower drove to the guest house via a somewhat unusual route down Independence Ave.

Footprints were found in mud near the window. Mrs. Carter said she was in Amarillo Tuesday night and did not discover the attempted break-in until Wednesday noon.

Compensation Suits Filed

Two large compensation suits—one for $35,730—were filed Wednesday with the district court clerk. Asking for compensation totaling $35,730 is Lawrence Mearl Hooley of Pampa who was badly burned in an oilfield accident April 3.

Holley, employed by Groninger and King, stated he was injured when, "in attempting to put out a fire, mistakenly threw a bucket of gasoline on the fire."

Hooley, a $150 a week worker, is seeking $90 a week for 397 weeks from the Texas Employers Insurance Assoc.

Also filing for compensation is T. L. Rabb of Potter county who was injured in a truck accident in Gray county June 18.

Rabb, employed by Ivan Dement Inc., is seeking $35 a week for 401 weeks. He claims injuries to his head, neck, back and legs.

Piquant Flavor In Everyday Chicken

Everyday chicken can be transformed into an unusually different dish through the addition of herb-seasoned stuffing, which lends it a spicy piquant flavor. Both body and tang are added through the use of prepared packaged stuffing in this delicious poultry pie, in lieu of the traditional crust.

CHICKEN PIE DE LUXE
 1 1/2 cups packaged prepared herb-seasoned stuffing
 1/2 cup butter
 1/2 cup milk
 1 10 1/2 oz. can of condensed cream of celery soup
 1 1/2 cups cooked, boned chicken in pieces
 3/4 cup cooked peas
 1 tablespoon minced onion
 dash of pepper
 3/4 cup prepared packaged herb-seasoned stuffing finely crumbed for topping
 Mix stuffing with butter; press mixture firmly to bottom and side of 9" pie plate.
 In a saucepan, stir milk into soup; add chicken, peas, onion, pepper; heat; turn into pie shell.
 Bake at 425-degree F. about 30 minutes or until bubbly. Then on top of pie, arrange border of 3/4 cup stuffing crumbs; sprinkle center with parsley. Makes 6 servings.

Economy-Size Jar Insures Enough Coffee On Hand

As instant coffee drinking reaches an all-time peak, two developments just announced by Instant Maryland Club will be welcomed by shoppers.

New "aroma-rich" flavor is acclaimed as a significant advance in the instant coffee that is already widely known for flavor-richness. Club's new aroma brings to discriminating coffee users the tantalizing fragrance of roaster-fresh coffee in every jar.

And Instant Maryland Club is now on grocers' shelves in a convenient new 10-ounce jar, as well as in standard 2-ounce and 4-ounce jars!

The large economy size was added after a survey showed that many households are now using so much Instant Maryland Club that the smaller jars required the housewife to shop too often. The women interviewed said that larger jars were both more economical and more convenient.

The new 10-ounce jar holds enough Instant Maryland Club to make 138 cups of coffee... so even the heaviest coffee user can count on having enough of the

Scrapple With Pure Pork Sausage Insures Successful Sunday Supper

Generally speaking, a recipe for scrapple is considered an eastern dish. This is probably so because one of the most frequently referred-to scrapple recipes is called Philadelphia Scrapple.

Excluding a few minor variations, a scrapple recipe usually features cooked pork and yellow corn meal.

Certainly a recipe such as this would make an excellent Sunday supper. It can be prepared in advance, giving the homemaker more time with her family.

In this particular recipe, bulk pork sausage is the meat called for. As an added texture note, after the scrapple has been chilled and just before browning, the slices are coated with crushed corn flakes. Would good?

A well-known home economist and meat expert, Reba Staggs, advocates you try this recipe. Not only is it a sure recipe winner, but with pork in such plentiful supply, world's richest taste in instant coffee for serving at any time.

and simply stir in corn meal and seasonings. Cook 5 minutes, stirring constantly. Pour into a greased 5 x 9-inch loaf pan and chill until firm. Unmold and cut into 1/2-inch slices. Dip into corn flakes. Combine eggs and remaining liquid and dip slices in this mixture, then in corn flakes again. Brown in lard or drippings, on both sides and serve hot with ar-up, if desired. Yield: 8 servings.

"Lucy" Sauce With Lemon And Onion Works Colorful, Flavorful Recipe

Tared in an electric skillet in the range, this meal-in-a-dish is as colorful and flavorful as you'll bring to the table on autumn days. The chopped potatoes are simmered till in a "sauce" of tomato ketchup spiked with lemon juice. Team with a vegetable medley of zucchini or peas — and eat it still warm-from-the-plate pie with cheese or ice cream. Dad will be certain to like it.

Peanut Parade To Healthful Eating

It's time to join the peanut parade. More shelled peanuts were used during the first half of this year in making candy, salted peanuts, peanut butter and other edible products, than in any similar period in the past 15 years.

Why are more people eating more peanuts? They taste good, sure. Also, peanuts are a good source of vitamin B, niacin and food energy. Peanuts and peanut products rate high in the quantity and quality of protein, which makes them a good alternate — but not a substitute — for meat, eggs and cheese.

Right now, the supply of peanuts and peanut products is excellent, and the 1959 crop is estimated at four percent more than average, according to the Agricultural Marketing Service. So plan to use them often and in a variety of ways. Here are a few suggestions:

Peanut Sundae: Simply sprinkle chopped salted peanuts over vanilla ice cream for a delicious and satisfying dessert.

Peanut Swirled Ice Cream Sundaes: Stir peanut butter into softened vanilla ice cream, replace in freezer until serving time. Serve with a topping of chocolate syrup and whipped cream with a bright cherry perched merrily on top.

Peanut Ice Cream Balls: One for the kiddies. Roll scoops of slightly softened vanilla ice cream into chopped peanuts. Insert a wide popsicle stick. Keep in the freezer.

Vegetable Sauce: Add peanut butter to a thick buttermilk smooth white sauce and serve generously over stewed celery, diced carrots, boiled potato cubes or seven-minute cabbage.

It takes more than being a pleasant guest to keep up with old friendships and establish new ones. You have to take your turn at entertaining, too.

PARADE OF POSTAL PROGRESS

Edson O. Sessions. At upper right, is an artists conception of planned new customer-operated postal substitution for rapidly growing suburban areas, with automatic devices to sell stamps and envelopes and accept parcel post for mailing. Shown lower left is one of many typical customer service improvements. This machine vends a choice of three denominations of stamps, a postal card and a sheet of writing paper, and delivers correct change. At lower right, a young lady deposits a parcel in a machine for automatic mailing of parcel post packages. Coins are deposited, and change is given by the machine.

President To Prod Premier

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower is ready to prod Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev about the fate of 11 American fliers who were shot down over Soviet Armenia a year ago.

that Soviet fighters shot down the plane. It produced a transcript of a tape recording of voices described as those of Russian pilots in the act of attacking the plane. The Soviet Union branded the recording a forgery and insisted that the U.S. plane crashed itself without being attacked. Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan told the late Secretary of State John Foster Dulles last January that the Russian government had returned the

Most Of New York City, Peaceful

By PATRICIA MCCORMACK United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — Teen terrorism strides along only a few sidewalks in New York. Most of the city is peaceful.

Most subways, school corridors and playgrounds are safe — despite the fact that terrorism has erupted on a subway, lurked in a school corridor and spit death in a playground.

While the terrorists may spill blood, most of the teen-agers in New York still stick to harmless pranks.

The lethal mischief has been traced to street gangs. There may be as many as 150 of such gangs with a total membership of more than 7,000. This is a small percentage of the metropolis' eight million population.

For every street gang, there are hundreds of Boy and Girl Scout troops. Most of their 155,488 members spend their time in constructive activity.

These troops function in the same run-down neighborhoods where gang clashes or "rumblings" — even slayings — occur.

Work for Good They are in the majority in their neighborhoods. Their members go to plays and concerts, sponsored by the youth organizations to which they belong. Some of them work, without fanfare, as volunteers in hospitals and homes for crippled children.

A majority of them, working together, side by side, are Negroes and Puerto Ricans. These are the same groups, who, according to authorities, "mix it up" in gang fights in the same areas.

Police figures show that there are about 1,600,000 in the metropolitan area between the ages of 14 to 19. Of that number, they estimate that about 7,500 are members of gangs. Some of that 7,500 — not all of them — are caught up in the violence that has spread headlines across the country.

The youth division of the police department and the city's youth board spearhead efforts to quell teen troubles. They aim to curb the epidemic before it becomes more widespread.

Ralph W. Whelan, commissioner of youth services, coordinates the anti-gang battle. He also is executive vice chairman of the New York City Youth Board.

Youth board workers, he said, gain the confidence of gangs, encourage them to avoid fighting, and keep them from doing anything other than playing.

PASSION PLAY SCENE

Middle East Has Trouble Brewing

Foreign News Commentary By PHIL NEWSOM UPI Foreign Editor

Trouble once more apparently is brewing in two states of the perennially troubled Middle East.

Whelan said workers attend hard-core gang meetings and try to put the gang leadership on a democratic footing. The workers report impending rumblings to police. They report, too, weapons carriers and narcotics peddlers.

When a rumble is in the wind, youth board workers get leaders of opposing gangs together around a peace table to talk out the difficulties. Frequently a truce is called.

During July and August, he said, 192 incidents, including rumblings, have been averted. A year ago, 126 were averted.

The races are mixed in most gangs, but one ethnic element dominates as a rule. Negro and Puerto Rican gangs have warred on Italian and Irish gangs. But sometimes, Negro gangs war on Puerto Rican gangs, and Negro gangs war on Negro gangs.

In Baghdad, the "moment of truth" may be approaching for Iraqi strongman Maj. Gen. Abdel Karim Kassem.

Reports from Beirut tell of a new "palace revolt" against youthful King Hussein of Jordan.

Both have in them the seeds of far-reaching consequences. Reports of the trouble in Iraq come primarily through the Cairo and Damascus radios of the United Arab Republic, and tell of mobs demonstrating in Baghdad and four provincial centers against the executions of 17 anti-Communist leaders.

The Cairo and Damascus broadcasts are significant because they appear to mark the end of an easy truce in the war of wills between the Kassem and President Gamal Abdel Nasser that Iraq finally is falling into the hands of the Communists.

Advocating Overthrow Radio Damascus said Baghdad demonstrators chanted "Let Kassem follow Nuri." Nuri was Nuri As-said, a mutilated body was dragged through Baghdad streets in revolution which overthrew the Iraq monarchy.

It meant that UAR propaganda outlets once more were advocating Kassem's overthrow. The controlled outlets would not report such sentiments unless they were closely along the line of official thinking.

Edwards Begins 8th Year Of 'Life'

HOLLYWOOD
By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Ralph Edwards, beginning his eighth year of "This is Your Life" is getting sneaky.

With the improvement in video tape processes, the genial emcee can appear unexpectedly at any time of the day in any locality to pre-tape his top-rated program.

During the past seven years it has become increasingly difficult to lure celebrities to the Hollywood NBC-TV studios on Wednesday nights without having them suspect they would be the subject of "This is Your Life." Now Edwards has a new lease on "life."

"We also have the added element of 'Where's It Going To Be?'" Edwards grinned.

"Our first show goes on the air Sept. 30 from New York. Of course, the guest's name can't be revealed, but I will say we'll have the most distinguished show in history. The guests include Vice President Nixon, Aly Khan, the Premier of Iran and Bernard Baruch.

Last year Edwards experimented with taping his show in advance, then publicizing who the principal subject would be. In the case of Dick Clark, popular Philadelphia disc jockey, the ratings jumped impressively.

"The idea has its advantages and drawbacks," he explained. "Many people like to know in advance so they can tune in to watch a favorite. Others feel the surprise element will be missing. We'll try it five or six times this season to see how it works out. But we have no fears of running out of principal subjects. The population keeps growing, and so does our list of potential subjects."

Thus far Edwards and his 75 employees have aired the lives of some 280 celebrities and ordinary citizens. His appeal for funds — both for individuals appearing on the show and for various char-ties—have brought in more than 10 million dollars.

"If the ratings hold up, and we aren't shooting for the No. 1 slot, we should be on the air indefinitely. Last season was the third best since we've been doing the show. And the future looks brighter than ever."

Marilyn Monroe, who arrived in town to see Khrushchev, will stick around a few days to talk about starring in "The Billionaire" for 20th Century-Fox . . . Robert Mitchum this week will tour six cities plugging his new picture, "The Wonderful Country."

Nine West Texas State College boosters were honored Wednesday at a noon luncheon in Johnson's Cafe, sponsored by the Pampa Chamber of Commerce.

Pampa was one of the many stops made by the group Wednesday, as they toured the Panhandle, publicizing West Texas' opening football game and stadium dedication Saturday.

The nine West Texas boosters are A. W. Lair, district attorney of Randall County, C. Boone McClure, director of the Panhandle - Plains Museum, and West Texas coeds Connie Head, Nita Messengale, and Carolyn McLaughlin, all of Pampa; Pat Love, Paducah; Tinkey McKenzie, Levelland, and Judy Hatley, Phillips, and Barbara Knox, Brownfield.

Lair said that West Texas' new stadium will be dedicated in a 4:15 p.m. ceremony Saturday, by U.S. Senator Lyndon Johnson, who will be introduced by Congressman Walter Rogers of Pampa.

The Buffaloes will open their home season in the new stadium at 8 p.m. Saturday against Arizona University. Lair said that the Buffs' attitude is "100 percent better than last year," and that the team now has a good deal of speed.

He urged Pampans to attend as many West Texas games as possible, pointing out that the Buffs are playing a major college home schedule. Buff home games, after the opener, include Mississippi Southern Oct. 17, Hardin - Simons Oct. 24, Drake Oct. 31, and Virginia Tech Nov. 7.

Warren Hesse, president of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce, presided at the banquet. Other local and area guests were E. O. (Red) Wedgworth, manager of the Chamber of Commerce; Huelyn Laycock, superintendent of White Deer schools; Elmer, Wilson, Red Griggs, Rick Pendaris, Travis Lively, Frank Smith, Dwain Lyon, Jack Imel, Gerald Sims, and Gordon Lyons.

By MERRIMAN SMITH
UPI White House Reporter

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (UPI)—Backstairs at the White House: The Russian security agents being stationed at nearby Camp David for the week end meeting between President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev would be well advised to take care if they feel like walking in the woods.

Patrolling the perimeter of this highly guarded camp are some snappish members of the K-9 corps, trained sentry dogs who're friendly only to the Marines who handle them.

Camp David is a Navy establishment and a small complement of sailors and Marines are stationed there the year around. For their benefit, the U.S. government has one mysterious piece of armed services equipment that may stop Khrushchev's claims that Russia has everything.

In fact, this piece of equipment may be something Khrushchev has never seen in his life—a bowling alley with electric, automatic pin-setters.

What happens this Sunday if the President invites the Russian boss to church — and Khrushchev accepts? How does a country parson preach to a publicly avowed atheist? Would Khrushchev's interpreter keep mumbling to the premier during the prayers?

These are some of the more interesting questions that have popped up in planning sessions preparatory to the Camp David meetings.

The Russian idea of equal treatment was demonstrated rather vividly the night the President went to dinner with Khrushchev at the Russian Embassy in Washington.

The night before, at the White House dinner, the office of Press Secretary James C. Hagerty put out the toasts of both the President and the premier in their entirety — every word uttered by the President in his toast, and every word of reply from Khrushchev, as relayed through his own interpreter.

Khrushchev Gives US His Close-Up

Foreign News Commentary
By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign Editor

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, in the first full week of his visit, has provided the American people with an interesting closeup both of himself and his objectives.

Results have not always been to his liking, but, alternating between an outpouring of the Khrushchev charm and hot bursts of anger, he has:

Called U.S. labor leaders "capitalistic stooges" and told them: "You defend your system, I defend mine. Our positions are irreconcilable."

Ducked questions regarding Hungary and charges of Communist aggression in Laos on grounds they involved third nations and had no part in his talks in the United States.

Similarly refused to answer questions of freedom of the press in Russia on grounds they constituted interference in Russia's internal affairs.

Evaded Billing

Presented himself as a man of peace — "It would be sheer madness to allow a new world war to come to a head. War must be averted and peace must be assured."

Thus he lived up to advance billing as a shrewd debater, a man given to sudden bursts of anger from which he subsided just as quickly, and a tough, dedicated Communist who believed and said the Communist system ultimately would "bury" capitalism, if not by war, then by sheer weight of production.

Before the United Nations, he unveiled his latest disarmament proposal, which he acknowledged in advance probably would be unacceptable to the West.

But he was using his greatest forum, the U.N. platform, which he knew would carry his words over the heads of the delegates and to all the neutral and undecided nations of the world.

His proposal that all nations disarm within four years was a Utopian proposal which ignored the practicalities — such as international distrust which is not erased by words alone.

Continuation of Theme

It was a pressure play designed to have its greatest impact in Asia, Africa and among the underdeveloped nations of Latin America. It was a continuation of the sword-into-plowshares theme Khrushchev had advanced earlier.

The fact that similar thoughts had been expressed much earlier by the West made no difference. The idea now belonged to Khrushchev.

And with all its impractical-

Business Views

United Press International

Steel industry and union negotiators resumed deadlocked talks in New York today with both sides indicating it is waiting for the other to make the first move to break the 70-day stalemate.

Treasury borrowing costs on 91-day bills declined slightly after rising for six consecutive weeks—the last four to 26-year highs. The latest issue was sold on a 3.955 per cent interest rate basis—down from 4.186 per cent last week.

General Motors has moved to alleviate its steel shortages which it said will force the shutdown of some plants by the first of next month if the steel strike continues.

It was bound to fall on some sensitive ears, even among Western sympathizers.

In Britain, there is a strong force which advocates that Britain drop its nuclear weapons program altogether. In Frankfurt, Germany, a ban-the-bomb organization prominently displays pictures of Frankfurt as it lay leveled after World War II.

Some NATO nations ban U.S. missile bases on their territories. Final results of the Khrushchev visit must await his talks with President Eisenhower. Meanwhile, for Khrushchev, things are going about as planned.

tinues, GM said it is negotiating a contract with Phoenix Steel Corp. for "conversion" steel. Under the "emergency" agreement, the steel will be supplied in the form of ingots and slabs to be converted into shapes used by the corporation.

THEY'RE NAVY BOUND

Three spring graduates of Pampa High School, who enlisted in the U.S. Navy Tuesday, arrived in San Diego, Calif. Wednesday for basic training. The Pampa threesome (left to right) are Herbert Eugene Yeary, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Boykin; John Dennis Choate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bond Choate; and John Leon Gross, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Gross. Yeary, Choate and Gross enlisted under the Navy's "buddy system" and will remain together through basic training. (Daily News Photo)

DEAR ABBY....

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: What can you do with a husband who won't eat anything but meat and potatoes?

I've been married for 13 years and that's all I've cooked. My husband refuses to try anything new. He says he doesn't like it before he's even tried it. So, naturally, I've lost all interest in cooking.

I'm ready to call it quits. How do other women solve this problem? Or am I fighting a losing battle?

MARY LOUISE: So many women don't know when they're well off. Don't complain because your husband is too EASY to please. Just get a good cook book and discover the variety of exciting things you can do with meat 'n' potatoes. When hubby comes home, he'll always know WHAT'S cooking' — but not HOW.

I just broke off with a boy. The reason? He got tired of an occasional kiss. When I refused to give him more, he called me a "prude" and said, "No guy wants a cold fish." He is the third boy I broke up with for this reason. Is there no reward for being good?

PROUD PRUDE: (And you have something to be proud of!) The reward for "being good" is a clear conscience and an enviable reputation. The cornerstone of a solid marriage is mutual respect. If you lose a boy because you refuse to give in to his selfish desires — you haven't lost much. Just keep on doin' what you're doin'!

CONFIDENTIAL TO MID-YEAR GRAD: Date others. Your architect sounds like he has plans of his own.

DEAR ABBY: I have a suggestion for the woman who was afraid to let her aging father drive the car, but he insisted on driving anyway. Report this matter to your local State Drivers License Division. They will send him a notice to appear for reexamination for his driver's permit. Before they grant him a renewal, he will have to be checked by his physician and a report sent them. They continue a yearly check-up on a driver so reported.

My husband is 18 years older than I am, and I'm no spring chicken. His vision was poor, and his vision was worse and he drove like a madman. Every time I asked him to let me drive, he'd get furious. I reported him and they wouldn't renew his license. The nice part of this whole thing is that the person involved never

Future Homemakers Stress Importance Of Breakfast

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Teens in action, "Future Homemakers of America," has nearly half a million high school girls members. The organization's goal is to improve personal, family and community living. That includes better breakfasts.

Susan Countryman, 17, of Grafon, N.D., is regional vice president. Her favorite activity is cooking. For her chapter of Future Homemakers she has planned this annual discussion by mothers and daughters on family fitness:

"The homemaker's problem — good nutrition, limited budget, like and dislikes. How to find time to serve breakfast in our homes today."

"1. Help your family plan "Share Work" breakfasts in order that each member may have time to eat a nourishing meal.

"2. Prepare a surprise. Sunday morning breakfast for the family and serve in time for leisurely preparation for church."

Susan is responsible for family meals when her mother is out of town and always plans an adequate breakfast aware of its importance to physical fitness. On Sundays, for her father, a physician, her mother, her 18-year-old brother and herself, she likes to prepare a surprise breakfast. Waiters are one of her specialties. She often adds crushed cereal flakes to old variety, and unusual flavor.

RUTH MILLETT

You never can tell—
—Who your real friends are, until good fortune smiles on you. Plenty of people will rush in with words of sympathy when things go wrong. But only real friends are pleased when things go well for you.
—What kind of a parent you've seen until you see what kind of parents your children become.
—Just how capable you are until confronted with a job that seems to be beyond you, but which you decide to tackle and give it the very best you've got.
—How much will power you've got unless some time in your life you have had to stick to a rigid diet, give up cigarettes, or get along with an "impossible" person.
—Whether you might have been happier married to someone else, unless you are completely happy with the man you married.
—Whether your kind intentions will be appreciated or resented if you dare to advise a friend on how to handle some problem in his life.
—How old a woman is, simply by the clues she lets drop. A woman who doesn't want her right age known is pretty cagey.
—Whether or not a dress is really becoming until a man tells you how pretty you look when you are wearing it. Women will admire it simply because it is smart, or is unimpeachably expensive, or just because it's new. But a man will notice how you look in it.
—Whether a man is as smart as he has a reputation for being until you meet his wife. Many a clever woman uses her brains to build up her husband — instead of herself.

During the summer Miss Butler and Miss Moore attended the Vacation Band and Twirling School at McMurry College in Abilene, where Miss Moore was chosen "Miss McMurry."

She also was named Senior Champion Twirler at the State Twirling School at Sam Houston State College in Huntsville. The four pretty girls will be in action at halftime this week at Shamrock where the defending state champion Bucks play their last non-conference game.

Summing Up TV Work By Dave King

By FRED DANZIG
United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI)—Dave King, a proper summer replacement, went off the air a few hours after fall came in Wednesday.

His final NBC-TV half-hour was a relaxed effort, though Dave's partner, a male, sustained severe damage: a split pants seam.

I think one reason I enjoyed his farewell appearance was that King's dazzling, vehement smile was toned down a bit. In his other shows, it came on too strong.

Summing up his summer's work: The British entertainer was at his best in solo pantomimic comedy. Here, he displayed warmth, humor and a certain originality that was disarming.

However, his all-out comedy sketches became too predictable after the first few weeks. There was an over-reliance on the entangling embarrassments that result from crowd scenes. He gave us crowded buses, stores, subways, offices, and he milked the situations dry.

While his guests were rarely "names," these "unknowns" usually received better exposure than the better-known guests. I mentioned his singing earlier because I felt his trouble was that he took it too seriously and sang in an intensely off-hand manner that was, frankly, unpleasant.

In short, Dave's no Andy Williams. An Alan Young, yes; no more, no less.

The nails, glue and sealing wax that held together a suspense play on CBS-TV's Steel Hour Wednesday night couldn't stop the solid acting jobs by Colleen Dewhurst, Mark Richman and Teresa Wright, (in that order of effectiveness.)

Miss Dewhurst portrayed a kookie lady who believed the Richman-Wright infant was really hers and was prepared to murder for the child. Every stock device was used to build the suspense to the "sock" finish—darkness; mysterious, detached talk; clairvoyance and padding around in shadowy corridors — but I thought a few less stazy, unreal effects and more rational behavior by the parents in the play could have made it more effective.

Jack Carter, who ordinarily rushes his comedy lines on the Ed Sullivan show, played a bachelor in this play. Again, he rushed his lines.

The Channel Swim: Dick Clark's January special for ABC-TV may offer his fans Fabian, Frankie Avalon and Paul Anka all on one stage. Joan Crawford has bowed out of the Dinah Shore date that was set for Oct. 11. Pat Boone, Zsa Zsa Gabor, Art Carney and Carl Reiner will appear on the NBC-TV variety hour.

Sammy Davis Jr. starts work Monday on "Mission," a Western for Dick Powell's Zane Grey Theater on CBS-TV. Miss America, Lynda Lee Mead, is to deliver the sponsor's messages during the Bing Crosby special on ABC-TV next Tuesday. Although it has been denied that ABC-TV's 77 Sunder Strip will attempt to cash in on Edd Byrnes' popularity with the teen-agers by giving him more work in the series, the facts NBC-TV's The Man and the Chalk speak for themselves: He's been lunge is being recorded on the raised to equal star billing with Warner Bros. label by Warren Efram Zimbalist Jr. and Roger Barker.

matter of FACT

Noah Webster, in his series of dictionaries and in his famous Spelling Book, attempted to make English spelling more consistent and more phonetic. For example, he dropped the "u" from words like "honor," "color" and "flavor" and he omitted the "k" from words like "music" and "public." Despite his efforts, he was not able to simplify the spelling of many words, so present-day English-American must still be regarded as imperfect.

Harvesters Play Bowie Friday

Pampa Has Edge in Weight Experience; Speed is Equal

By RED GRIGGS Daily News Sports Editor

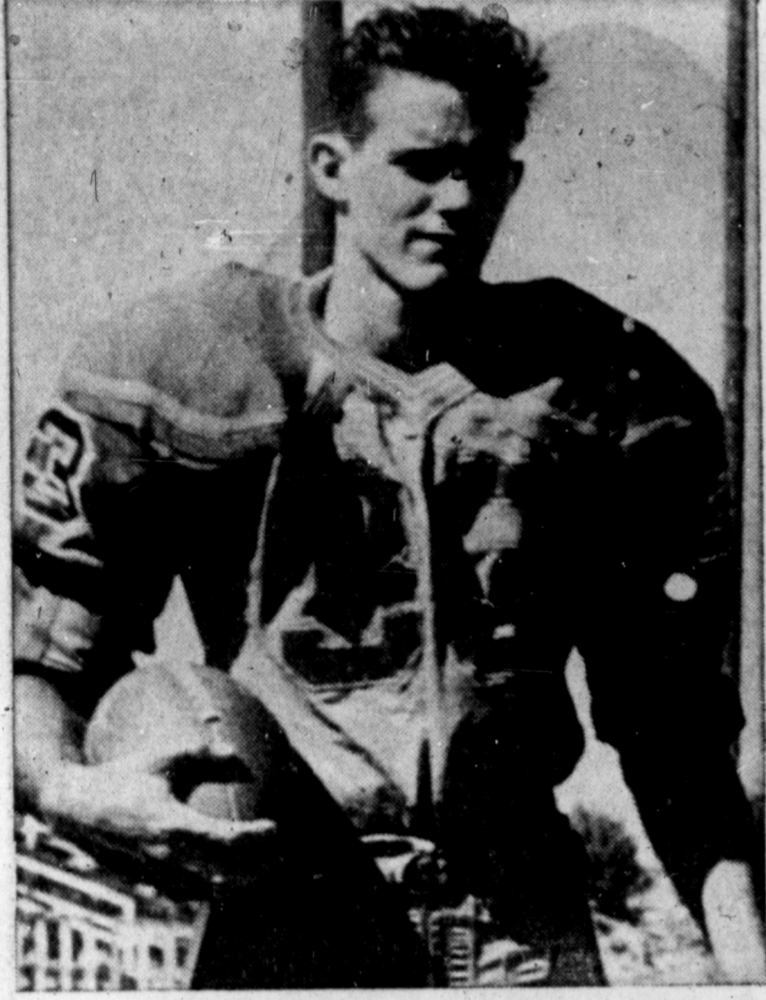

Pampa's Harvesters left this morning for El Paso, where they will meet the Bowie Bears Friday night. Bowie, the only team Pampa beat last year, appears at least on paper, to be even weaker than last year's squad. The Harvesters will outweigh Bowie by about 100 pounds per man on the line—165 to 165—and six pounds man in the backfield—152 to 146. The Harvesters also have the advantage in experience and bench strength, and match Bowie in speed.

Friday night, Pampa will have an opportunity to a winning 'streak' of two games together for the first time in more than five years. Last week the Harvesters upset Arlington Heights, 12-0, after losing their season opener to Wichita Falls, 40-0.

Bowie lost its season opener to a powerful Las Cruces N.M. team by a score of 40-6.

One Game Set Today In Pampa

Only one football game is being played in Pampa today. The Robert E. Lee Junior High Rebels were to meet Houston of Berger at 4 p.m. in Harvester Park.

The Lee eighth grade team was to play Houston's eighth grade team at 4 p.m. in Berger. Pampa Junior High's Reapers were to meet Perryton Junior High at 4 p.m. in Perryton.

No Shocker game was scheduled, but Coach Norman Phillips declared that if anyone calls him with an offer to play, he'll probably take the game. The Shockers played Price College of Amarillo last week with only four hours notice.

Both seventh grade teams are slated to go on the road Friday. Pampa Junior High's seventh graders will play at Phillips, and Lee's seventh graders will play at Berger.

Gordon Stays With Indians

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI)—Joe Gordon, the man considered best able to succeed himself as manager of the Cleveland Indians, was off pheasant hunting today with a crisp, new two-year contract for the job stuffed in his pocket.

The contract, for $40,000 annually, a $10,000 increase, was announced in a stunning reversal of form by General Manager Frank Lane at a press conference at Indians' headquarters Wednesday.

Ellis Whips Rory Calhoun

CHICAGO (UPI)—Victor Ruly Ellis and vanquished Rory Calhoun both were disappointed fighters today after a 10-round television bout in which Ellis extended his winning streak to eight bouts.

"I wasn't good," Ellis said, "Even if I won. I didn't fight the way I think I ought to fight. I had him twice and let him get away."

Rick Pezdirtz purely paydirt

Backtracking you'll hafta admit Pampa's football team the past half dozen years hasn't been any too crisp. Since the tailend of the 1953 season, it's kind of had the snap, pop and crackle of yesterday's oatmeal. Just laying sick in the bowl, looking up at you while not stirring many emotions.

Is it possible, the Harvesters haven't so much as won two straight games since Oct. 30, 1953? That's what the record book says.

The dusty ole ledger shows Pampa as a handsome 40-12 winner over Midland on Oct. 30, 1953. The top-heavy triumph came on the heels of a stunning 7-6 conquest of Abilene. The educated toe of Bobby Wilhelm (who also owns a pretty fair pair of educated dukes) provided that 7-6 victory over Abilene, the last time Coach Chuck Moser's Eagles have had their tail feathers plucked in a conference game.

But we're getting away from our plot. We're here this evening to tell you Babe Curfman's Pampa crew has a super opportunity this week to punch the living daylight out of the ole record book, winning the first two tilts in succession for PHS since away back there in 1953.

The Harvesters are even favored to do just that when they take out with buggy whip in hand after the Bowie Bears in far-off El Paso tomorrow night.

Despite the loss of their last three games, that 1953 outfit finished with a 6-4 record, ranking as the last Pampa team to post a winning season.

They say the truth hurts. This next statistical sentence will only show they ain't kidding about all that pain. Of their last 55 games, Pampa's Harvesters have won only 12.

See what we mean. Ouch, huh!

Pampa Wins Only 12 Of Last 55

Leave us browse back for a moment, if you please.

In 1953 the Harvesters broke from the post-like a whole mess of New York teenage Puerto Ricans was after 'em. They won their first four in a row, including a narrow 20-14 verdict over the Putt Powell High School Sandies.

Then came a heart-tearing 34-34 loss to San Angelo as the Bobcats struck for the deciding TD in the last 45 seconds, before the Big Green bounded back for the Abilene and Midland triumphs.

But John Darby was hospitalized, Ed Dudley was lost for the season with an injury and the last three games went the other way: 34-15 loss to Odessa; 19-0 to Lubbock and 22-4 to Borger.

Haralson's TD Stock Should Soar

Prospecting while wondering whatever happened to Terry Brennan?

Terry Haralson's two touchdowns in Pampa's 12-0 win over Arlington Heights last week hiked the senior fullback into a 4th place tie for the scoring ship among District 2AAAA players. Borger's Gordon Beaumgard with 18 points, and two Tascosa backs, James Morgan and Geary Taylor with 14 points each, are currently pacing the pack.

The way Haralson broke clean on his first TD run (the 14-yarder on Pampa's first play from scrimmage) he would have no doubt gone all the way from any spot on the field. Too bad he wasn't on his own 1-yard marker. You don't come by them 99-yard TD dashes every day now do you. As it was, Terry's 14-yard sprint was the longest scoring run turned in by a conference back last week.

Did anybody tell you Roland Adams, the 25-year-old Lubbock plumber, who sucked up top money in Pampa's 23rd annual Top O' Texas Golf Tournament earlier this month, was runner-up a couple weekends back while defending his Hereford Invitational crown. He was undercut with an eagle, carded by Amarillo's Ben Lane Jr. in the finals of the match-play event.

White Deer and Oklahoma U. grid great, Jim Weatherall, has wired the Washington Redskins as he's retiring from pro football to play full time to his Cushing, Okla., biz of providing mud filling for oil drill operations.

Our Borger buddies, Ronnie Cross and Toby Druin, should maybe show respect for their elders and quit picking on fraternity brother, Putt Powell. Ron and Toby say: "Putt must be pretty mad. Texas has already played one game and David Russell (former Sandie great) hasn't been mentioned for All-American honors yet."

According to Flem Hall, Fort Worth Star-Tely sports editor, it was Russell who was the stand-out defensive player for the Longhorns in the 20-0 TU verdict over Nebraska at Lincoln last Saturday. Flem points out Russell nailed a run-away Husker scabback, saving a sure TD.

So, lay off the Putter tellers, he'll Bar-B-Que you in print, and he's got a lot more readers than us.

National League Tied Again

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

It's all tied up again, but don't go away—someone's gotta win that National League pennant soon.

Forget about those first 151 games and keep an eye on the next three. They should settle something.

The battling Dodgers knotted up with the Braves, Los Angeles got to loser Bob Miller for one run in the first inning on Charlie Neal's double and Duke Snider's single. That Braves got one more hit off Elroy possession of the league lead by bowing to Pittsburgh, 5-4.

And the stumbling Giants practically bowed out with a 9-8 loss to the Cubs in 10 innings. It was the slumping San Francisco's fifth straight defeat and it put them two games behind both the Dodgers and Braves.

Each of the three contenders has three games remaining. The whole business again when odds are still with the Braves, Los Angeles got to loser Bob Miller for one run in the first

Limited To Five Hits

The Dodgers play their last three at Chicago, and the Giants their final three at St. Louis.

Roger (Skinny) Craig was the man who pitched Los Angeles up to the top rung with Milwaukee. He limited the Cardinals to five hits last night for his 10th victory in 15 decisions.

was all Craig really heeded but he got two more runs in the eighth on Don Demeter's pinch double with the bases full.

Bob Skinner and Ronnie Kline of the Pirates put the brakes on the Braves, who had won 13 out of 16 before Tuesday night. Skinner's single in the eighth off loser Joey Jay broke a 4-4 tie and Kline stopped Milwaukee on six hits during the eight innings he toiled to gain his 11th victory. The Cardinals, 3-0, Milwaukee lost sole because the games are with the Face in the ninth.

Neeman Gets Homer, Skinnery's game-deciding single, which followed singles by Bill Virdon and pinch hitter Rocky Nelson, came after Eddie Mathews had tied the score by hitting his 44th homer with one on in the top of the eighth.

Khrushchev May Be Playing 'Shell Game' With Americans

WASHINGTON WINDOW
LYLE C. WILSON
 United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI)—It is a matter of individual opinion which of two games Nikita S. Khrushchev is playing in the United States.

It may be the carnal shell game in which the local yokels are invited to look for the hidden pea. Or, perhaps, it is the gimmicked game of heads I win and tails you lose.

The shell game aspect of Khrushchev's performance develops from what appears to be his purpose in establishing his own standards by which he wants people everywhere to form an opinion.

Khrushchev is having pretty good luck with that. The communications systems of the free and the Communist worlds have been meshed for his use. Khrushchev has established for Communists everywhere what they must regard as a basic fact of his American journey.

It is that the U. S. government isolated him from the common people of the United States. Equally established as Communist gospel everywhere is something else for which Khrushchev desires acceptance as a basic fact.

It is that he came here as a simple man of peace with a plan for peace. Communists behind the Iron Curtain must believe that, too. They will have nothing else to believe. American or British or French Communists also must believe it although they will have been exposed to both sides of the story.

The other side of the story is summed up best in the idea that Khrushchev's aim is peace at no price. That is, that he does, in fact, desire peace but not at the cost of jural concessions which would require his side to give as well as to take. Tails I win, heads you lose!

To complete the standards by which Khrushchev desires that his American journey be judged, he has established for Communists everywhere another basic fact. It is that while isolated by government design from the peace-loving American edgemen, he has been surrounded, heckled, insulted, abused by representatives of the war-mongering American upper classes.

This set of standards is loaded against the United States and in favor of the Communists. It is unapparently likely that Khrushchev will go home with no thaw in the cold war. In Communist line explanation is ready-made by Khrushchev's a droit propaganda creating standards by which his American journey may be judged.

The line will be this: That the masters of the American people prevented Khrushchev from getting through to common man; that these war mongering masters thus were able to reject peace; that this rejection was accompanied by discourteous dishonoring him and the Soviet people.

That is what Communists, American and foreign, would be told to believe, and they would believe it. Some other soft-headed Americans may believe it, too.

PELEIA TO NEW YORK

OFFICIALS STRIKE GOLD
BIRUT — Customs officials stopped Stella Shlomo from bringing a plane and searched her. In her jacket they found gold coins, 63 pairs of gold rings, 19 gold rings, 33 gold bracelets and several dozen gold diamond trinkets.
