POLIO POINTS

Nobody knows for certain how polio is transmitted. But here, as explained by Dr. J. Earl Smith, of the St. Louis, Mo., Polio Organization, are some of the best suspects. To be on the safe side, guard against infantile paralysis by following Dr. Smith's precautions, as he outlined them to St. Louis residents.

AVOID STAGNANT WATER—Dr. Smith tells a group of St. Louis schoolboys that swimming in stagnant water may be a means of contracting polio.

KEEP HANDS CLEAN—Mrs. Joseph McDonough sees that Billy, left, and Mitchell wash their hands. The virus may be spread from dirty hands to food.

COVER THOSE CANS—Polio virus may breed in uncovered garbage cans, where flies may pick them up and bring them indoors. Keep the cans covered.

Bitter Reprieve

By Drexel Drake

THE STORY: Playboy Marcella Sterling has stolen his wife's diamond necklace and hidden it away in a safe in a rooming house. He is now being sought by the police. The necklace was found in a rooming house in Pampa. The man who found it is now being sought by the police.

FROM the envelope he had taken from Miriam's safe, Sterling extracted the packet of $100 bills still held together by the gummed band. He wrapped it in two of the club letterheads, using bits of the gummed tape to hold the ends together. He inserted the new packet in the smaller of the two plain envelopes he had obtained at the desk, sealing the envelope and adding a piece of gummed tape to secure the flap.

James Mason Not 'The Mason Typ'

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD — (P) This may come as a shock to you, but James Mason isn't the 'James Mason type.' I mean that Mason in real life doesn't much resemble the arrogant, dame-slugging character in which the U.S. public identifies him. When I took tea with him, he seemed soft-spoken, solicitous of his wife's condition (pregnant) and generally as normal as a movie star can be.

recover the packet... handed Davis a half dollar. "Keep the change, Bob," he said as he accepted the proffered stamps.

CROSSING the foyer after he had dropped the envelope into the mail box, he passed Johnny Greer, chubby, effervescent assistant club manager, whose daytime post was behind the foyer desk. Sterling acknowledged a beaming greeting, then went directly to a telephone booth. He had Miss Wilson on the wire with remarkable little delay.

"I'm at Edgewater Country Club with some prospective bank customers," Sterling told her.

"Yes, Mr. Sterling."

"I've just remembered that a Mr. Davenport may phone me this morning. It's fairly important. Miss Wilson, if he in fact calls, please tell him that I had to be out here unexpectedly, and suggest that he call me out here."

"I understand, Mr. Sterling. It's D-A-V-E-N-P-O-R-T, is it?"

"That's right. I don't recall the initials."

"I'll take care of it, Mr. Sterling. Anything else?"

"Well, no... oh, yes! Just remembered, not that it's important, I had some file papers with me I thought I might want to refer to, but I didn't want to be bothered with them over the week-end. I've mailed them to you in a sealed packet you can hold in your desk for me. I'll get it from you Monday."

"Very well, Mr. Sterling."

Sterling hung up. He stood grinning at the phone. A Mr. Davenport, first class, no Mr. Davenport calling him at the bank. Offhand, he couldn't recall having met any Mr. Davenport. But he had given Shaw and Crabfield an excuse for passing up the first nine holes... for loitering around the clubhouse. Never could tell when someone might ask questions. He glanced at his watch. Just about time to go to the locker room, get into his golf shoes, and walk over to the 10th tee to keep his appointment with Shaw and Crabfield. He had a feeling of having done a good job of burning bridges as he stepped out of the booth.

BOB DAVIS exhibited anxiety frankly when Sterling appeared at the foyer desk.

"Afraid you wouldn't make it in time for the collection, Mr. Sterling," young Davis said.

Sterling handed him the sealed packet. "How much will it take?"

Davis turned toward the postal scale. "First class, I guess?"

"Yes, first class," Sterling said. He was using that moment to discard the scraps he held palmed in one hand into a waste-basket. He suspected the young man's unexpected surprise at the size of the packet... its bulk. He took it for granted that Davis would manage a squint at the printed address toward it mentally. Club and hotel employees, he believed, had some seventh or eighth sense for that sort of thing.

"I'll take 21 cents first class, Mr. Sterling," Davis said, frowning at the scale. "Want it insured?"

"No, it's nothing valuable," Sterling said evenly. He reached to

In Hollywood

By ERKINE JOHNSON
HOLLYWOOD — (NEA) — Re-teaming of Ginger Rogers and Fred Astaire in "The Barkleys of Broadway" (Ginger replaced Judy Garland, who is ill again) is the happiest casting of the year from the viewpoint of moviegoers. They've been yelling for it to happen, but Ginger and Fred, who liked the idea, too, couldn't get together on a script. Ginger's replacement of Judy happened so fast I doubt whether she even read the script. And I know she didn't ask what her salary would be.

Photographs of Hollywood's feminine stars in those French "diaper" bathing suits are on the taboo list. The Johnston office ruled they're too brief.

That old rumor about Nelson Eddy being blind is making the rounds in the hinterlands again. It's been haunting Eddy for more than 10 years and he still can't explain how it started.

FRIDAY FOR THOUGHT
Only distance prevents the feud between Betty and Johnny Westmuller from boiling over. Betty, in Paris, promises to have a few thousand well-chosen words to say in answer to Johnny's stories that her temperament and uncooperative attitude were the chief reasons for the failure of his swimming show in London earlier this year.

It took an economy wave at every studio in town to convince Republic that now is the hour to buck the trend. "Wake of the Red Witch," starring John Wayne and Gail Russell, is the most expensive film in Republic's history. Wayne, by the way, would like to co-star in a film with his wife. Before their marriage, she was Esperanza Baur, one of Mexico's top-ranking stars.

Jack Beutel, the forgotten man of "The Outlaw," is still under contract to Howard Hughes. His salary is up to $2,000 a week, but he hasn't appeared on the screen in five years. Forgotten, but getting rich.

At a recent interview, Marlene Dietrich was asked to name the day's glamor girls. Her reply: "There are none."

Susan Hayward's husband, Jess Barker, gets a big role in Walter Wagner's next "Rage of Terror" Rosemary LaFlanche, Miss America of 1941, has landed herself the lead in a Republic serial, "Federal Agents Vs. Underworld, Inc."

Gov. Roy J. Turner of Oklahoma will play a bit in Eagle Lion's "Tulsa." The location scenes for the film were shot on his 10,000-acre ranch near Sulphur, Okla. Joan Leslie mixed an offer to star in "The Play's the Thing" in Denver. Decided she wasn't right for the part.

LUNCH IS NEUROTIC
There's a new publication out called "Neurotica," which should sell plenty of copies in Hollywood. The first issue tells us that the desire to eat lunch is "a bourgeois obsessional neurosis."

Wonderful line by Claire Trevor in the Rex Russell picture, "The Velvet Touch." Talking about another guy upsetting her romances, Claire cracks: "The way with her is she's here and here tomorrow." It's nice to see Claire clicking again.

Paul Henreid has taken an option on "The Octopus," the Frank Norris novel about early settlers in California.

Promised and hoped for: Vic Mature telling off his selfish wife, Elizabeth Scott, in "Interference." In a final gesture of contempt, he puts his thumb on her lips and slowly, deliberately, smears her lipstick over his face. Inspired, no doubt, by the time Jimmy Cagney squashed half a grapefruit in Mae Clarke's face.

Gets High on His 82nd Birthday

Celebrating his 82nd birthday, Ivy Baldwin goes for a short stroll—300 feet across a wire stretched over a 125-foot deep mountain canyon. The octogenarian retired as an active trapeze performer in 1928, but has kept in pretty good shape. This was his 87th trip over the South Boulder Creek Canyon, near Eldorado Springs, Colo.

In the middle of the 19th century the passenger pigeon outnumbered any other kind of bird on the North American continent. The earliest known bird is believed to be a peculiar creature called an Archaeopteryx which lived 125,000,000 years ago.

Take Chances, Capra Advises All Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD — (P) — Frank Capra has this advice for Hollywood in its time of stress—"take chances."

The highly successful producer-director observed that movie big-wigs have never complained so much as they are now about poor theater business.

"The only solution to slow business is to take chances," he declared. "If you try something new, it might turn out a turnip; but it also stands a chance of making a lot of money."

Capra said the current Hollywood trend is unfortunately toward the standard pictures which are safer at the box-office. Paramount has nixed his long-planned "The Flying Horkshireman," because it is a fantasy.

Sir Ralph Richardson wants to do a Western! That's what he told me on "The Heiress" set.

However, his horse opera ambitions will have to wait until next year. He'll have to return to England after his current film because he works here on an expense account and gets his pay in England.

Howard Hughes loaned Robert Ryan to Enterprise to play a Hughes-like role in "The Best Things in Life Are Free." Wonder if the RKO chief realizes how closely the role is patterned after himself.

Things are picking up at Paramount. Next month will see both Hope and Crosby back at work. Bob starts "Easy Does It" with Rhonda Fleming, and Bing goes "Diamond in the Haystack" with Barry Fitzgerald.

Humphrey Bogart told Columbia he would be able to save $5,000 on his first independent film, "Knock on any Door." How? No practical jokes, answered Bogie, who has participated in many a costly gag. "Nobody is going to waste my dough with practical jokes on this picture," he announced.

Western Allies Find Hard Going In Danube Parley

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The Belgrade conference on control of the Danube River provides a mirror which reflects a hard-boiled bolshevist determination to grant the democracies nothing which impedes Red expansion.

The mighty Danube is one of the world's strategic waterways. It is of the highest importance economically, politically, militarily and culturally, for it is the chief means of transport in that whole area of Southeastern Europe. It rises in the Black Forest of Southwest Germany and winds eastward for 1,780 miles, thus contacting eight countries before emptying into the Black Sea.

Prior to the war the Danube had been under international control which gave rights to both Eastern and Western powers.

The warring parties are assembled in Belgrade to discuss a new "agreement" for Danubian control. Theoretically the conference is to reestablish free navigation, but practically the matter was virtually fixed in advance by the Communists. The Russians have presented a new agreement under which the Danubian countries have exclusive control of the water thoroughfare. Moreover, these states have a majority in the conference and can dictate what they wish. The line-up is America, Britain and France on the one side and on the other Russia, the Ukraine, Bulgaria, Romania, Yugoslavia, Hungary and Czechoslovakia.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky sounded the keynote right at the start. He told the representatives of the Western powers to accept decisions of the Communist-dominated parley or get out.

It is obvious that he intends to railroad through the new agreement of Danubian control unless Moscow unexpectedly orders a change of front.

Naturally one of the chief reasons why the Western Allies want to see an internationally free river is to prevent the Danubian states from being completely stalf-

He Wants Back His Self-Respect

ST. LOUIS —(P)— Roy Webb's joy of living has been killed by other peoples' kindnesses.

Webb, a war veteran out of the Quartermaster Corps, lost his home and his belongings in a fire several months ago. His troubles began when neighbors collected $772 to help him.

Here are his complaints:

"Everyone is careful to mention how much he contributed. I've added it all up and it comes to about $5,000.

"They all think I'm a millionaire because one group said it was going to try to raise $7,000 for me.

"The neighbors expected me to build a new house overnight. I've had to spend so much time at it I lost my job as a sign erector.

"Carpenters, electricians, plasterers and others volunteered to help but none ever showed up."

Webb said he is selling the half-completed house so he can return the contributions.

"I want to get back my self-respect," he said.

Clark Will Run Again for Senate

COLLEGE STATION —(P)— Dr. F. B. Clark, former head of the Economics Department at Texas A&M College has announced he would be a candidate for the United States Senate as an independent Democrat in the November general election.

Clark withdrew as a candidate for the Senate in favor of Roscoe Collier of Dallas in the first Democratic primary July 24. However, he polled 7,466 votes and finished tenth in the field of eleven candidates.

Clark was favored by a resumption of trade between Eastern and Western Europe is important to success of the Marshall Plan.

However, Vishinsky won't likely give up the "Blue Danube" on any such basis.

Oilers Move Back Into Second in WT-NM League

Parker and Driggers Set Sox Back With Stunning Defeats

Thanks to the portside hurlings of two southpaws, the Pampa Oilers are back in second spot in the West Texas-New Mexico League today. After a prolonged absence from the runner-up spot, the Pampanians returned to their earlier position status when Roy Parker and Avon Driggers tossed the locals to a doubleheader victory over the Abilene Blue Sox, 10-0 and 12-3 in Oiler Park last night.

After starting the season off promptly climbing to the top of the WT-NM heap, the Oilers slowly lost their footing and began sliding south. After momentarily stopping in second, the runner-up slot was wrestled from them by the ruthless Amarillo Gold Sox, who in turn, were ousted from the position last night.

By The Associated Press. Albuquerque cut loose for four runs in the tenth inning to sweep a three-game series with Amarillo, 8-7, and shove the Gold Sox into third place in the West Texas-New Mexico League last night.

Pampa took over second behind Albuquerque on a double triumph over Abilene, 5-0, 12-3. Lubbock blasted Lamesa, 21-6, and Berger and Clovis divided two other games. Berger won the first game, 5-1 and lost the second, 4-0.

Amarillo scored three runs in the top of the tenth on three singles, a walk and a sacrifice. Albuquerque picked up four on three hits, two walks and Pitcher Frank Shone's high fly. Shone on his 16th game of the year.

Grand slam home runs by Dick Fowler and Gene Hixsonaced Lubbock to its one-sided victory. Rookie Southpaw Roy Parker led Abilene to two hits in the first game and Avon Driggers on his 15th game on an eight-inning performance in the nightcap. Mel Kramer struck out 11 men and did not walk a man in pitching Clovis to an even split with Berger.

In the last night's curtain raiser, Rookie Roy Parker locked horns with Jim Sweet in a real pitcher's duel—for five and one-third innings. Parker displayed some of the control seen all year in allowing only two hits and permitting only three men to reach base.

The amiable lefty calmly finished the contest without allowing a hit in the last five innings. A stunning delivery so baffled an Abilene willow swinger that he was powerless and able to catch only four balls out of the field throughout the complete ten innings.

Frank Means got the first hit in the initial inning when he popped one over first base and Mike Fallapino collected the other hit in the second frame, driving one through the box into the field.

But Parker wasn't the only star performer during the first contest. Jim Sweet, Abilene right hander, also proved to be very angry with base blows allowing only one hit throughout the first five innings. He permitted only one Oiler to reach first in the initial five frames, and that on a walk in the third inning. But the sixth, the inevitable happened.

The Oilers solved his hurling, and began pounding the leather overed sphere on every occasion. Samek started the frame by latching a solid single to center allowed by the longest hit of the all game off the bat of Pitcher Parker. After unsuccessfully attempting to hunt twice, Parker laced a far traveling double that rebounded off the right field wall.

With Samek on third and Parker in second, R. C. Otey slapped another single into center field, driving Samek. Bob Bartholomew rounded out before Jack Riley and another Oiler single to left.

Driggers' biggest help in notching the victory was Centerfielder Bob Bartholomew. The youthful fly hawk pounded out four hits in four trips to the plate. His powerful hitting gave him a lead for the evening since he failed to hit safely in the initial encounter.

The locals open a three day stand with the Berger Gassers in Huber Stadium tonight beginning at 8:30. After completion of this stand, the Oilers travel to Amarillo for a three-game series with the Gold Sox before returning home on August 11 for two return games with the Gassers.

Aroused Cards Sweep Twin Bill From New Yorkers, 7-2, 3-0

By JOE REICHLER
 Associated Press Sports Writer
 An aroused St. Louis Cardinal team, concerned over the future of its manager, amiable Eddie Dyer, is out to make his position as secure as possible in the only way it knows how—winning ball games.

Persistent rumors that only a Red Bird flag would insure Dyer's return next year have been gaining momentum despite denials from all concerned. And some of these rumors have reached the ears of the players.

"I hope it's not true about Dyer being on the spot," said slugger Stan Musial, before yesterday's games with the New York Giants. "But if it is, then it's up to us to see that he returns. He's a fine manager."

Since the nightmarish series in Brooklyn where they dropped three straight and sank to fourth place, the Red Birds have made amazing strides.

Yesterday they whipped the Giants twice in an afternoon-night doubleheader, 7-2, and 3-0, to give them five victories in their last six games. The twin triumph coupled with the Braves' 4-2 defeat by the Cincinnati Reds, advanced the Cards into second place only four lengths back of Boston.

The Giants, who now have lost three straight following their seven-game winning streak, skidded from second to fourth place. Red Munger and Harry (The Cat) Brecheen each went the route yesterday to rack up their fifth and 12th victories, respectively.

Danny Litwhiler, a former Brave, gained revenge on his former mates, knocking the winning runs with a two-run homer for the Reds. His blow came in the eighth against Joser Will Vosselle. Ted Kluszewski also honored for the Reds.

Held to four hits over their eight innings by Southpaw Ken Raffensberger, the Braves smashed three successive singles in the ninth, scored a run, and had the tying runs on with none out. At this point, Fireman Harry Gumbert relieved Raffensberger and retired the side without further damage. It was the Braves' fourth straight defeat, three at the hands of the Reds.

Bruce Edwards' single with two out in the last of the ninth scored Gene Hermanski from second with the run that enabled the Dodgers to defeat the Cubs, 5-4.

The Boston Red Sox lost a golden opportunity to take over undisputed possession of first place in the hectic American League pennant race when they were beaten by the lowly Browns in a night game in St. Louis, 9-8.

Rain played havoc with the rest of the American League.

Baseball Pic Clarified as Teams Meet

By The Associated Press
 The lineup for the State American Legion Baseball Tournament at Paris next week could be clarified a little today.

South Park of Beaumont could advance to the tournament from area 3 by beating Bryan a second time at Bryan today.

An elimination tournament opens at Lubbock today, with Lubbock, El Paso, Lamesa and Wichita Falls vying for the area 1 championship.

Defending state champion Adamson of Dallas can clinch the area 2 title by beating Longview again Sunday at Longview. Austin and Laredo open the area 4 championship series today.

Since the Washington Redskins of the National Pro Football League were organized in 1932 they have drawn playing talent from 101 different colleges.

Umpires: Kennedy, Brockwell, Tieman; Time: 1:48.

GASSERS IN RED
 BORGER—(AP)—The Berger Gassers, members of the West Texas-New Mexico League, are $6,000 in the red, President M. C. Kimball said here yesterday. Kimball told a special committee of the Chamber of Commerce that attendance had slumped with a severe losing streak.

Lesnevich Plans to Play Heavyweight
 NEW YORK—(AP)—Just one more fight as a lightweight. A campaign is underway to put the team back on its feet financially.

then Gus Lesnevich goes after the million-dollar prize—the heavyweight championship of the world. That is the plan of the veteran Cliffside, N. M., fighter who lost his 175-pound crown to England's Freddie Mills last month in London. Gus, who returned to the United States yesterday, is booked for a return title bout with Mills in Ebbets Field Sept. 23. "I'm going to stop Mills next time" 33-year-old Gus predicted. "That's something I've never said before." Gus added the fight will be "definitely my last as a lightweight."

Couldn't Wait

The idol of millions, Joe DiMaggio obliges a youngster who dashed into center field during the process of a Yankee ball game in search of an autograph. Satisfied, he fled without revealing his identity and the game went on.

Texan Coaches at Mexican College

ABILENE—(AP)—Attending the Texas Coaching School here is Lloyd L. Wilford, a Texan who is head coach of Instituto Tecnológico at Monterrey, Mexico. Wilford said his team was progressing rapidly and that within three years he would be able to play teams of the Border Conference and other similar conferences in the United States. A native of Kerrville, Tex., Wilford played football at Davis Elkins College and coached at Loyola of Baltimore, Concord College of West Virginia and West Virginia University.

ABILENE—(AP)—The first of two All Star features of the Texas Coaching School—basketball—goes on tonight with squads from the Northern and Southern districts of the Interscholastic League clashing before an anticipated sell-out crowd of 2,900.

Two of the tallest teams of schoolboy cagers in the state will battle in the third annual All-Star basketball tilt. The one that wins will take the lead in the series.

The basketball game was inaugurated at Corpus Christi in 1946 with the South winning, 34-33. Last year at El Paso the North crushed the South, 55-37. The north averages 6 feet 1 inch in height and the South 6 feet 3.3 inches. But coaches Clair Bee of Long Island University, North, and Jack Gray of Texas, South, can put teams much taller than that on the floor.

The coaching school, which has 153 members, will play on Jan. 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 1948. The school is now at Lamar College of Beaumont. He was at Austin High School last year.

Tomorrow night the school reaches its close with the fourteenth annual All Star football game with Bobby Dodd of Georgia Tech directing the North and Matty Bell of Southern Methodist the South.

In men's swimming, the record is the most imposing ever compiled. The United States has won three final races in Olympic record time, and taken the springboard diving championship.

Yesterday pear-shaped, supposedly has been Bill Smith of Hawaii and Ohio State won the 400 meters in 4:41, against Jack Medica's record of 4:44 set in 1936. It was the only championship of the day.

In women's swimming the U.S. leads in unofficial points with 24 against 17 for Holland, 13 for Denmark and seven for Hungary, the major rivals of the United States, Denmark, and Holland in elimination heats all kicked over the old 400 meter relay record of 4:36 set by Holland in 1936, with the Dutch girls doing it best in 4:31.3.

The towering American basketball team continued its victorious way, defeating Egypt last night 66 to 28, for its fourth straight.

In men's track and field yesterday the United States scored a decisive sweep of the 100 meter hurdles in which Bill Porter of Northwestern gracefully leaped his way to a new Olympic record of :13.9. The old mark was :14.1, a time equalled by Clyde (Smackover) Scott in second place and Craig Dixon in third.

In the only other men's final, Finland won its first victory of the games. Maj. Routavara took the javelin throw with 228 feet 10 1/2 inches.

Dr. Stephen Seymour was second in the 220 yard race, with 2:22.1, the best Olympic showing ever made by an American. Martin Biles, University of California instructor, was sixth with 2:13 feet 9 1/2 inches.

Meanwhile the American women's track team is on its way to setting a new record. With six events completed the U.S. now has three points and a tie with Poland and Czechoslovakia for the next to last place in a field of 16. France leads with 30 points followed by Holland with 29, and Italy, Hungary, and Great Britain with 10 each.

Using four sheep loaned by J. W. O'Neil of White Deer, Dewey Jontz and his Border Collies demonstrated how trained dogs can herd and control sheep. In answer to low whistles by Jontz, Tess, Tess II, and Roy herded the sheep around barriers set up in the arena and into a small pen. These sheep had never before been herded by dogs.
The famous Hardin-Simmons Cowboy Band from Abilene provided the music during the show, and Buddy Heaton, comic cowboy from Hugoton, Kans., and his trained mule, "Leon," added the humorous relief to the show.

Senate Votes For Amended Housing Bill

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Senate Banking Committee today threw out a housing bill prepared by a Senate-Home subcommittee and voted to send an amended version of the Taft-Ellender-Wagner Bill to the Senate floor.

Chairman Tobey (R-NH) said the surprise action was taken by a 7 to 5 vote.

Senator Flanders (R-Vt) offered the motion to substitute an amended version of the T-E-W Bill for the subcommittee bill drafted principally by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis).

The T-E-W Bill contains provisions for slum clearance and public housing. The subcommittee bill did not.

It was understood before the committee meeting that McCarthy's measure had been given tentative approval by key Republicans in both houses. It was designed principally to spur production of low cost homes and large-scale rental properties. It did not provide for government-financed housing.

McCarthy told reporters he will fight on the Senate floor to substitute the subcommittee measure for the approved bill.

He predicted that if the Senate passes the modified T-E-W Bill there will be no housing bill passed at the extra session.

Metropolitan Opera Cancels 1948-49 Season

Closing Is Due to Union Demands

NEW YORK (AP)—The internationally famous Metropolitan Opera has cancelled plans for its 1948-49 season after failing to reach agreement with unions representing its employees.

Officials of the Met, one of America's most distinguished musical institutions, said union demands for wage increases could not be met.

Declaring it was faced with a "large deficit" for the coming season, the opera association said: "To increase this deficit by meeting further demands involving still higher costs of production would, we believe, be imprudent to the point of irresponsibility."

Last year's deficit was $220,000. Previous economic crises have been met by personal contributions by directors of the Metropolitan Opera Association and by public contributions.

Closing of the Met, on whose stage the world's most celebrated singers have performed, stunned opera lovers and artists alike. Some did not believe the association would stand by its decision, which would mark the first time in 80 years the Met has not presented a season of opera.

An association spokesman, however, indicated the decision was final.

"This business of long drawn-out negotiations with the unions has been going on every year," he said. "The directors think it is time to meet the issue."

The cancellation brought an immediate protest from Local 802 of the American Federation of Musicians (AFM)—one of several with which the Met has failed to reach agreement.

The union said it had dropped wage demands in an effort to reach a settlement and had insisted only on an employment insurance plan and old age benefits. Its statement added:

"The Metropolitan Opera is not a private venture, but a world-renowned institution; it is a civic institution; it is one which belongs not to a small group of people, but to the board of directors, but to all the people, those thousands of Americans who have contributed money so that the Metropolitan could continue its existence."

The union said it was "confident that this unilateral action will not stand for long, that to those to whom the Metropolitan represents an integral part of our culture will assert themselves and make possible the next season."

Rotary Hears Cowboy Band

Attired in their chaps, yellow shirts, purple neckerchiefs and cowboy hats, the 31 "world famous" Hardin-Simmons University Cowboy Band members gave their first Pampa performance at the Rotary Club luncheon yesterday.

Accompanied by their director Marion McClure and Sheriff Will W. Watson, the boys started their music program with "I'm an Old Cowboy" in their own swing arrangement. "Tropical" from the American Symphonet by Morton Gould followed.

Herb Surface, cowboy soloist then sang "Blue Shadows on the Trail," and "I'm Smoking my Last Cigarette." Lloyd Mitchell, an added attraction to the band, presented several fancy rope tricks. Accompanied by the band playing "Nothing Could be Finer," Mitchell started to twirl his lariat. He worked up to three ropes, one in his mouth and two in his hands. Next he performed one of the most difficult rope stunts, "Texas Wagon Wheel."

Other selections played by the band were "Saint Louis Blues March," its own special arrangement, "Star Dust," "I'll See You in My Dreams," "Happy Days Are Here Again," "America the Beautiful," and "God Bless America."

"Whistling Farmer," a mixture of song, barks, whistles and yells made quite a hit with the Rotarians. The H-SU band has recorded its version of the "Whistling Farmer."

Crump Regime Is Challenged In Tennessee Elections Today

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Tennessee Democrats and Republicans name their choice for United States senator and governor today in a primary election expected to provide a major test for the E. H. Crump Democratic organization at Memphis.

Crump's endorsement of a candidate in the past has meant anywhere from 40,000 to 60,000 Shelby County votes, and the candidates he had supported have almost always won.

In today's Democratic primary Crump is backing Gov. Jim McCord for a third term and Circuit Judge John A. Mitchell for U. S. senator.

Rep. Estes Kefauver is Mitchell's opponent and he confronts the Crump Shelby County organization with one of the sharpest challenges it has faced in more than a quarter of a century.

Also seeking the Democratic senatorial nomination is Sen. Tom Stewart, out for his third term. It is his first try without Crump's endorsement.

Crump threw his decisive Shelby County support to Stewart six years ago, but shouldered him aside this year in favor of Mitchell. Stewart's aggressive campaign, however, has aligned with him many organizations which heretofore have followed Crump's lead.

Kefauver's nine-month campaign has blanketed the state and a Kefauver organization in Memphis has been fighting Crump on his home ground.

Crump in turn has attacked Kefauver in full-page newspaper ads, but Kefauver says that despite the Crump opposition he expects to poll up to 30,000 votes in Shelby County to split the customarily solid vote for the first time in the memory of most Tennessee politicians.

Former Governor Gordon Browning, who broke with Crump in 1937, opposes McCord for the Democratic nomination for governor. He has campaigned vigorously with a cry against "one-man rule."

In the Republican primary, the senatorial aspirants are Carroll Reese, former GOP national chairman, and Allen J. Strawbridge, Dresden lawyer. Seeking the Republican gubernatorial nomination are Mayor Robert M. Murray of Huntington and Radio Entertainer Roy Acuff.

Two Republican congressmen, Rep. Dayton E. Phillips of the First District and Rep. John Jennings of the second, face strong primary opposition, as does Democratic Rep. Wirt Courtney of the seventh.

Texas Sheriff Buys Hat in Tulsa

TULSA (AP)—"Suh," whispered the sheriff of Midland, Tex., over long distance telephone to Sheriff George Blaine here, "I want a hat."

"You want a hat?" Blaine stutted. "You mean a Texan turban to Tulsa?"

"Yes," replied Sheriff Ed Darnell. "Don't breathe a word about it, but the kind I want is made only up there."

Sheriff Blaine obliged. He ordered for his Texas colleague a four-inch brim, brown Panama from the local factory.

In Texas, Darnell said, they call them "Summer 10-Gallons." The hat company here refers to them as "Planters."

Heavy Girl Develops Bad Drinking Habits

HUNTINGTON PARK, Calif. (AP)—It's getting to be almost a habit with this 15-year-old.

Police said the girl, overweight and trying to reduce, drank bleaching solution a month ago instead of what she thought was water.

Today she was back. This time, the report said, she consumed a half glass of ant syrup, believing it to be apple juice. A stomach pump corrected the error each time.

Friday the 13th Has Been Active Day in His Life

SPOKANE, (AP)—Robert Steiwer isn't nervous, but he's looking forward to Friday, August 13—just in case.

Steiwer is a police court clerk who served during the war with the Merchant Marine. He will observe his 13th wedding anniversary this week.

He is 13 conscious for other reasons, too:

He was paid off on one ship March 13, 1943. One month later on April 13 he signed on the Francis W. Pettygrove. On Friday, Aug. 13, his ship was torpedoed off the Spanish coast. Steiwer spent 13 days in a hospital.

Returning to the United States, he was assigned to the S.S. Jacksonville. When he learned the crew was signed orders Jan. 13, 1944, he asked for a replacement and was signed instead on the S.S. Harrington Emerson on Jan. 12. One year later, on Jan. 13, 1945, the Jacksonville was sunk by a German submarine with all hands lost except two.

Steiwer isn't worried, but he thinks he will take it easy on Friday, Aug. 13—just for luck.

The story of Lady Anne, an English dowager, strikes envy in the hearts of many women, for even at 64 she had the vitality and charm of a much younger woman. The secret of her energy was the one day a week she spent resting in bed in a darkened room.

Few career girls can follow the example of Lady Anne, but many can take a one-day vacation at least once a month. Although week ends are busy days for most career girls, it is sometimes possible to plan housecleaning, laundry and other weekly duties so that a Saturday or Sunday can be spent in complete relaxation and luxurious laziness.

It's essential that the career girl on a one-day vacation close her mind to any chores she thinks should be done. She should simply set the day aside for rest because no task is more important to her. She should sleep until she awakens rested, with none of the tension of the work-a-day week hanging on. To derive the most pleasure and benefit from this long sleep, she needs, of course, good quality, comfortable bedding which perfectly supports every part of her body and makes a beauty treatment of every minute spent in bed.

When she finally awakens, it's time for a lazy, appetizing brunch. To really pamper herself, she left breakfast preparations all ready—including some special treat—and set the table prettily the night before. Instead of the usual "gulp and run" procedure, she can leisurely read the morning paper or latest magazine as she eats and drinks her second cup of coffee.

Next on the rest-day schedule is a sun bath up on the roof or out on the lawn. She should, of course, be careful not to stay in the sun too long. After the sunning comes a long, luxurious bath. Filling the tub with warm, fragrant water, she can stretch out and soak in solid comfort. What better, when she emerges all drowsy and relaxed, than to stretch out on that comfortable bed and take a nap before it's time for the evening date?

After her lazy day routine she feels like a new person indeed. She's ready for her date—she feels as glamorous and lovely as she looks—and could, no doubt, give Lady Anne some competition.

By Drexel Drake

THE STORY: Playboy Marcus Sterling has stolen his wife's diamond necklace and handed it over as security on a $10,000 gambling debt to racketeer Harry Blaine. To cover the theft, pervertist while his wife sleeps, Sterling makes it appear a professional burglar. He then goes to Edgewater Country Club to spend the night and establish an alibi. Along with the necklace, he has also taken a sealed packet from his wife's safe. This, Marcus discovers later, is $10,000 in cash which Miriam had withdrawn from the bank to give him.

Next morning Police Lt. Talent arrives at the Sterling household. Mrs. Sterling has been murdered in bed. The wall safe in her room has been ransacked and everything points to robbery. Talent discovers Miriam's checkbook, with a stub dated the previous day made out to $10,000 cash. The maid, Stella Nelson, tells him Mrs. Sterling always kept her diamond necklace in the safe.

At the club, Sterling excuses himself from an early golf date. He gets rid of Miriam's cash by mailing it in a sealed packet to his secretary, Miss Wilson. He phones her to hold it for him.

XVIII

MARCUS STERLING, crossing from the telephone booth and bound for the locker room, smiled impersonally, conveying no more than casual clubhouse courtesy, when he found the mild blue eyes of the tall man grinning at him.

"Mr. Sterling?" Talent inquired.

"Yes," Sterling admitted, halting his smile persisting.

"I'm Christopher Talent."

"You wouldn't know me," Talent glanced back toward the desk. Johnny Geer, having taken over from young Bob Davis, was within earshot. "Could we go somewhere to talk?"

"Well . . . I'm just about due on the tenth tee and I still have to change to my golf shoes. Important?"

"Very," Talent said. The grin had vanished from his eyes.

Sterling led the way to one side of the foyer. When he indicated chairs, Talent said, "I guess we won't want to sit down. Been in touch with your home this morning, Mr. Sterling?"

"My home? No. Why?"

"Well, thought you might just have been telephoning, seeing you were in the booth."

Sterling registered just a shade of justified annoyance.

"No offense, I hope, Mr. Sterling," Talent said.

Talent laughed. "Not at all. Just puzzled by your interest. Fact is, I was talking to my office. Been waiting for a call. That's why I passed up the first nine holes. But what about my home?"

"Think you ought to get there as soon as possible. That's what I came out here for, so you could ride back with me."

Sterling flushed. "I don't get it, Mr. Talent. Wouldn't my home phone for me if they wanted me?"

"Well, let's just put it that something's happened, and you ought to be there." Talent displayed his badge, almost apologetically. "I'm Lieutenant Talent, Police Headquarters in New York."

STERLING'S reaction was an entirely natural one. His eyes widened and the smile on his face died. "What in the world's happened? Couldn't you have phoned for me to rush home?"

"I thought it would be better this way. Let's leave the answers until you get home and find out for yourself."

"Okay, but shouldn't I call my wife?"

The question seemed frankly put. "I can only suggest that you don't," Talent said.

"As you say, Lieutenant. I'll take a minute to change to my other clothes and throw these things in my bag."

Sterling led the way across the foyer. He stopped at the desk. "Johnny," he said to Geer, "I've been expecting a call from my office. If you get one, say I had to rush home."

"Right, Mr. Sterling. Sorry. Giving up your room?"

Traffic Jams Delay Many From Rodeo

"Oh, sure. Forgot to say so." Talent was waiting at the foot of the stairs when Sterling came bounding down with his bag. Sterling hadn't needed more than two minutes upstairs. He wasted only seconds picking up his hat and topcoat from the checkroom.

Beside the car in the parking lot, Sterling tossed his coat and bag on the back seat. "I shouldn't want Shaw and Crabfield to sit around waiting for me," Sterling said to Talent. "I'll leave word at the caddy house."

STERLING walked away quickly without awaiting a rejoinder. He was back almost immediately. "Lucky connection," Sterling said, coming up, puffing. "They were just holding out on the ninth and I was able to call to them."

"I was to be taking you away from this, Mr. Sterling," Talent said. "I don't blame a man for spending a morning like this out here if he can afford it."

They had traveled the short distance to Hutchison River Parkway and were bearing away from New Rochelle before either man spoke again.

"Can't you give me some idea of what's happened at my home, Lieutenant?" Sterling asked.

"I'm hoping you'll thank me for waiting until you get home," Talent said. "You came out to Edgewater yesterday, did you?"

"Last night. Late."

"Late?"

"After midnight."

The spontaneous admission surprised Talent but he said evenly, "Go out with some other folks, Mr. Sterling? Notice you didn't have your own car."

"No, I went out alone . . . in a taxicab, Lieutenant."

Sterling had a dime ready when Talent slowed down for the Fleetwood toll gate. When Talent gestured in protest, Sterling said, "Free passenger always pays toll, Lieutenant. It's your gas and oil."

Everything he says and does makes him seem in the clear, Talent was thinking. Don't see how a man out of his mind could be shamming, with that thing on the bed on his mind.

Truman Considers Detroit Speech as Campaign Opener

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman said today that Detroit is among the cities he has under consideration for opening his presidential campaign.

Mr. Truman told a news conference he has not yet mapped out his campaign plans.

A group of labor leaders have invited the President to open his campaign with a Labor Day speech in Detroit, and he said he is considering it.

Truman wouldn't comment when asked whether he thought his Republican opponent for the presidency, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, had been "negligent" in not using his influence with Congress for the passage of legislation recommended by the administration.

Buyers Resisting High Food Prices

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Increasing resistance to rising food prices was reported by the Agriculture Department.

Demand for milk and most dairy products was said to have weakened in many parts of the country during July. Likewise, there was a shift from red meats, now at record price, to such substitutes as eggs and poultry.

Department reports also showed that speculators shared consumers' lack of interest in butter at current prices.

By RAY TUCKER WASHINGTON — Neither President Truman nor his Republican opponents on Capitol Hill have dared to attack the basic causes for the cancerous inflation now afflicting the United States...

What Are These Commies Harmless?

Michael J. Quill, left-wing New York City councilman and in his usual head-on attack on "Transport Workers" Union, says the indictment of 12 top Communists serves only to make martyrs out of harmless crackpots...

During their convention, the Democratic orators said the present Displaced Persons Act was anti-Catholic and anti-Jewish.

Since then prominent Catholic clergy have repudiated the Democrats on that issue and two Catholic congressmen, Fellows, of Maine and Lesinski, of Michigan, have agreed...

The question whether the present act does discriminate against Jews can't even be argued, still less decided, because there exists no standard by which to judge.

With which we take issue. We are in no position to say they are unarmless. The crime of which they are accused is not harmless. It is heinous. They are accused of doing various things intended to result in the overthrow of the United States government by force and violence.

Nation's Lamb Crop Smallest in Years

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department reported this year's lamb crop was the smallest since it started keeping records in 1924.

The number was estimated at 20,467,000 head or nearly 2,000,000 less than last year.

Sheep raising has been declining several years. Shortage of labor and the fact that other types of farming now are more profitable were said to be major causes.

Unfavorable feed conditions resulting from dry weather also were said to have been factors in reducing this year's crop in Texas, the No. 1 lamb producing state.

Farming Areas Plan Electrical Service

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Rural Electrification Administration announced loans totaling $8,106,000 to 15 borrowers to provide electrical service in farming areas.

The loans included: Bander Electric Cooperative, Bander, Texas, $100,500 and Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative, Colorado City, Tex., $400,000.

Texas' Farm Cash Income Less in 1948 Than 1947

AUSTIN — Texas farm cash income, totaling $131,858,000, climbed 23 percent in June, the Bureau of Business Research reported.

However, June farm cash income was 22 percent below June, 1947.

Wheat brought Texas farmers $38,769,000 in June, for the greatest source of farm cash income. Increased marketings of oats, wool, sheep, calves, poultry, eggs, and milk products contributed to the over-all gain over May.

The largest farm cash income was in the Red Bed Plains District where farmers' incomes increased 95 percent from a month earlier, totaling $24,346,000. Black and Grand Prairies income totaled $19,652,000, and the Edwards Plateau region registered $18,800,000.

Farm incomes in Black and Grand Prairies and East Texas Timbers Plains more than doubled their May averages, as sales of wheat, cattle, and fruits and vegetables increased. De-

Statistician Ups Estimate On Crops

CHICAGO (AP)—A corn crop well above the previous record was predicted by C. M. Galvin, crop statistician with the grain commission firm of James E. Bennett and Company. Galvin also raised his wheat and oats crop estimates.

The crop expert predicted a corn harvest of 3,501,000,000 bushels. This would compare with the record yield of 3,249,950,000 bushels in 1946. The last Agriculture Department forecast was for 3,323,000,000 bushels.

Galvin estimated winter wheat production at 314,000,000 bushels, and all wheat at 1,289,000,000 bushels. This compared with the last Agriculture Department estimate of winter wheat at 302,000,000, spring wheat at 290,000,000, and all wheat of 1,242,000,000 bushels.

Galvin placed the oat crop at 1,491,000,000 bushels compared with the last Agriculture Department estimate of 1,426,000,000 bushels.

Among state statistics in the United States, a total of 28 different grounds for divorce are recognized.

New Wheat Varieties Top Yields in Pampa Area

By LESTER C. ALLEY

The wheat variety picture in the Texas Panhandle is ever-changing. In fact, such a situation might accurately be described by the term "fluid." A large percentage of the wheat varieties grown today were only in the experimental stage in 1940.

There are fads and fashions in wheat varieties just as there are in women's clothes. For instance, it was fashionable for a number of years to grow beardless wheats such as Chiefkan and Red Chief. However, these two varieties are definitely lacking in those qualities which would make them acceptable to the trader. They are inferior in both milling and baking qualities and, at the present time, find use only as export wheat. With the passing of our large wheat exports, lack of domestic demand will automatically correct the excessive acreage sown to Chiefkan and Red Chief.

The current fashion among wheat growers in some areas is the growing of early varieties—Triumph, Wichita, and Early Blackhull. Early Blackhull, because of inferior yields, agronomic characteristics, and baking qualities, is gradually being replaced by the other two varieties of early wheat.

A word of caution must be injected at this point—early varieties of wheat yield flour of the family type, whereas the bulk of the demand is for a baker's type flour. Too great an increase in

Hamburger for Thanksgiving?

WASHINGTON (AP)—That Thanksgiving turkey will cost you more than ever this year, the Agriculture Department forecast yesterday.

are excellent wheats from nearly every point of view. Triumph and Wichita get the nod for early wheats. Where Cheyenne, Temmarq, Turkey, and Standard Blackhull have been doing well on the farm, they may be continued without fear of discrimination from the market standpoint. Every bushel of Red Chief that is raised discredits the area in which it is grown in the eyes of outside wheat buyers. This tends to depress prices in that particular area. The change to recommended varieties neatly side-steps this hazard.

The department also said there is no prospect of lower chicken and egg prices before next year. The reason: Farmers reduced poultry flocks the past year because feed grains were scarce as well as high.

However, latest crop reports for the feeding year, beginning Oct. 1, indicate the feed supplies will be largest on record. And department officials expect this to be a major factor in encouraging farmers to produce more poultry in 1949—thus trimming your Thanksgiving Turkey outlay next year.

John Harnley, whose farm is located 14 miles northeast of Pampa, has had good results with Pawnee. Last year it yielded 39 1-2 bushels on summer fallow and this year turned in a yield of 90 bushels per acre on the same type of land. Harnley says, "I find that Pawnee will ripen 3 or 4 days ahead of Comanche, and I have never had any trouble with shattering." Shattering has been an objectionable feature of this variety in the Panhandle.

H. L. Henderson, who lives 12 miles east of Pampa on Highway 152, grew four varieties on stubble ground this past year. On one section his Comanche yielded 7 1-2 bushels per acre, Temmarq 10 bushels, Kanred 10 bushels, and Standard Blackhull 12 1-2 bushels. On another section he grew only Temmarq and Kanred. Each variety yielded 21 bushels per acre on this section. Henderson says for each grower to get his supply without too much delay.

Earl Johnson lives 12 miles southwest of Pampa. He has been growing Red Chief for a number of years. This year he planted some Pawnee. The Pawnee yielded 12 bushels per acre, while his Red Chief produced only 6 bushels per acre. Needless to say, Johnson won't grow the beardless variety next year.

Marvin Webster has been farming for five years just six miles southwest of Pampa. This past season he grew Pawnee, Triumph, and Red Chief. His Pawnee averaged 16 1-2 bushels per acre, the Triumph 15 1-2, and Red Chief 13. On the basis of two-dollar wheat, Pawnee would have shown a profit of $7 more per acre than Red Chief. It is results like these that not only make wheat improvement desirable but also profitable.

Gondoliers Have Competition

The gondoliers of Venice, Italy, are up in arms. They see a threat to their ancient business in the popularity of new-fangled water skis. These two Venetians exhibit the latest fad, as they glide down the Venice Canal, using long sticks to push their specially-designed hollow wooden skis along.

New Mexico Ideal Place For Rocket Research Land

LAB CRUCES, N. M. (AP)—Military men say the armed forces must have more land for a stepped-up program of rocket research, and New Mexico is the only place they can find it.

Ranchers call a proposed 1,500,000-acre bombing range extension a land grab which would "split the state in half." They also contend the livestock industry would be dealt a vital blow.

Those were the views Monday at a hearing conducted by the Interior Department. More witnesses testify Tuesday.

The average in question lies in south central New Mexico. It adjoins a target range already in use and extending southward to the Texas line. The reservation presently embraces around 1,750,000 acres.

Postwar activity there has centered on guided missiles tests conducted by the Ordnance Department, Navy and Air Force at the White Sands Proving Ground, and neighboring Fort Bliss, Tex., and from Halloman Base near Alamogordo.

Maj. Gen. J. L. Homer of Fort Bliss took note of current conditions in discussing plans for ranchers to have part-time use of the range. The proposal is to let them graze stock there two or three days a week, while no rockets are being fired.

"The military situation makes it impossible for the Army to give any more," he said of the time limit. Several state officials and representatives of taxpayers and oil and gas associations joined stockmen in opposition to withdrawal of more land.

President Floyd Lee of the New Mexico Wool Growers Association cried "land grabbers" sought to split the state.

He claimed the government was setting out to carve a corridor almost to the northern New Mexico line, enclosing the Sandia Secret Weapons Base outside Albuquerque and the Los Alamos Atomic Project near Santa Fe. Army spokesmen said, however,

Farm Federation Asks for Farmers Storage Space

WACO (AP)—The Texas Farm Bureau Federation asked the state's congressmen to help farmers get storage space for grain.

J. Walter Hammond of Waco, federation president, urged in a telegram to Rep. Poage (D-Tex.) that a conference of the Texas delegation in Washington be called. Poage is a member of the House Agriculture Committee.

The storage space is necessary to enable farmers to be eligible for the support price provided under government loans. Hammond said he asserted that either by collusion on the part of elevators and the grain trade, or dereliction on the part of the administration, farmers are unable to secure storage space required to be eligible for the support price.

Hammond's telegram said: "Call a conference of the Texas delegation immediately and take whatever steps are necessary to carry out the mandates of Congress to prevent a crash in the grain market which will result in heavy losses to the farmers."

The federation president asserted storage space is available and that the congressmen should find out why farmers are unable to use it. He said that because farmers are unable to store their grain under government loan, they are being forced to accept a price in some instances as much as 50 cents per hundred less than 90 percent of parity for grain sorghums.

that no further expansion of the rocket range is projected.

At another point Lee declared: "We are giving away our water to Texas, and now Texas is giving away New Mexico to make Fort Bliss the biggest Army base in the States."

Winter May Bring Higher Meat Prices

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Brannan said yesterday that meat prices, already at record levels, will go higher through the summer "unless some positive action is taken."

Brannan told the Senate Banking Committee that meat supplies will continue tight and added: "We can expect little relief from the price pressures now current until the closing months of 1949."

The committee is studying the anti-inflation program recommended by President Truman. Republican leaders have said Congress will not provide the President with the rationing and price control authority he asked last November and again at the extra session.

Brannan insisted an analysis of the current situation indicates that immediate measures should be taken to bring "meat prices under control and to make meat available to all our people."

"We are handicapped by the fact that the necessary authority to do this was not granted last November, or even last January," he said. Brannan said a greatly improved feed situation should result in larger supplies of chickens in mid-1949 and of eggs and turkeys in the latter part of 1949.

He said meat consumption is likely to average somewhat lower next year than in this, perhaps about 140 pounds per person compared with the estimated current rate of 145 pounds.

The secretary said the principal reduction will be in beef. Pork supplies, he said, should be somewhat larger and all meat prices are likely to "average higher next year than this year."

Brannan said that average per capita food consumption in the nation will run about the same in 1949 as in 1948. This is about 12 percent above that of the pre-war years 1935-37.

One central breeding place for cattle is in the Indian Ocean.

Range Conditions Good in Texas During Past Week

AUSTIN (AP)—Crop and range conditions were generally good over Texas the week ended Aug. 2, the United States Department of Agriculture said.

Moisture conditions were still favorable for growing crops in the High Plains and Low Rolling Plains. Weekend rains relieved many dry areas in West and Central Texas. In the East and Southeast late feed crops and pastures were in need of moisture.

Conditions were ideal for harvesting and for preparation of land for fall seeding. Much land has been made ready.

A generally adequate range and pasture feed supply was curing over most eastern, central and southern counties. Grass was green in the most High and Low Rolling Plains counties and it showed improvement in the Trans-Pecos Area where droughty conditions were eased by local showers during the past two weeks.

Cotton made good progress in most areas and feed crop prospects were excellent in the Northwest and North-Central District.
