Hennings Changes Methods

Civil Rights Bill To Rules Group

By WARREN DUFFEE
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Civil rights backers shifted their efforts to the Senate Rules Committee today in hope of winning approval of legislation to guarantee Negro voting rights.

Chairman Thomas C. Hennings Jr. (D-Mo.) called a meeting of the rules group to consider the voting rights proposals. But there was no certainty of action today.

The Senate was scheduled to convene early to plow ahead with its overall civil rights debate which brought three test votes during a nine-hour session Tuesday.

The official business before the Senate is an unrelated minor bill, affecting a Stella, Mo., school district. But senators have been invited to make it a civil rights vehicle by attaching amendments.

Sen. Kenneth B. Keating (R-N.Y.) pro-civil rights member of the rules committee, predicted there was enough support in the nine-member group to approve a voting rights proposal. But he would not predict action at today's meeting.

The committee had before it a plan for federal voting registrars, advocated by the Civil Rights Commission; Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers' proposal for a system of federal voting referees; and a bill drafted by Hennings to combine features of the two plans in a proposal for "federal enrollment officers."

Tuesday, southern Democrats blocked a move by Keating to get on the judiciary committee to act on long-stalled civil rights legislation.

Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-S.C.) objected to Keating's motion for approval of a seven-point administration bill. Johnston argued that the committee could not legally sit while the Senate was in session. He was upheld by Chairman James O. Eastland (D-Miss.) and the committee adjourned without acting.

Groom To Have New Hospital

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the Groom Memorial Hospital will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow.

Contracts for the construction of the hospital were signed and approved by the State Hospital Board and contractor Neill Singleton of Amarillo.

The Rev. J. Walter Davis will serve as master of ceremonies for the ground-breaking ceremonies which will include music by the Groom School Band, Scripture reading by Bob Beatty, invocation by Father Arnold Carlson, history of the project by C. L. Culver, the future expected for the hospital by Dr. John L. Witt, ground-breaking by Groom Mayor James C. Ledwig, dedicatory prayer by the Rev. C. R. Copeland and a speech by Cotton John Smith.

Officials said if weather conditions should be unfavorable, the program will be held in the Groom theatre on the adjoining lot north of the new hospital site.

Justice Weighs Chessman Plea

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter today weighed a plea by Caryl Chessman's 11th hour plea to escape execution Friday in the San Quentin gas chamber.

There was no indication when Frankfurter would rule on Chessman's appeal, his 15th to the Supreme Court since he entered the California "death row" 11½ years ago. A decision could come at any time, possibly today.

If Frankfurter ruled for Chessman, California would have an opportunity to answer the convict's petition at hearings either before the high court or in a lower federal court.

Finch Trial Like Hollywood Movie

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The most fascinating character in the spectacular trial is the Finch-Tregoff murder trial is not the youthful looking doctor or his staid lawyer.

It is the lawyer for Dr. R. Bernard Finch—Grant Cooper.

Cooper appears to have won the jury completely. Not perhaps to the extent they will acquit the surgeon as an absolutely innocent man so far as murder is concerned. And observers at the marathon trial believe he has partly persuaded at least a few back to likeable, affable, gentlemanly Grant Cooper.

Tuesday at the trial he was trying to establish the date of a boating trip. The witness said it was Father's Day. Cooper appealed to the courtroom at large: "Does anyone know when Father's Day is?" And two of the jurors quickly replied it was June 21.

Seldom has a defendant gone into a trial with the odds so stacked against him as did Finch. He had cheated on his wife. She was threatening to take much of his money. He went to her home with Carol Tregoff. They waited in the dark for Mrs. Barbara Jean Finch. Finch held the gun that killed his wife.

Those are all facts admitted by Finch. But Cooper has fitted them into a pattern that portrays the surgeon as an absolutely innocent man so far as murder is concerned. And observers at the marathon trial believe he has partly persuaded at least a few

Like Drops Hint That Cuba Trying Patience Of U.S.

Briefs Press On Goodwill Trip South

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower said today he has no fear for his personal safety during his forthcoming Latin American trip, and he does not think the Secret Service is worried either.

Eisenhower told his news conference he expects to make a nationwide radio-TV speech Sunday night concerning his trip, which begins Monday, to four South American countries.

The President said his talk at 6:15 p.m. e.s.t. will be a general discussion of his tour plans but also will touch upon matters of U.S. defense.

Asked specifically whether he planned to carry to the people his side of the current defense controversy, Eisenhower said that he would suppose he would include items such as the security and strength of the United States.

The President hinted in remarks about Cuba, that U.S. patience eventually may run out with Fidel Castro's revolutionary regime.

Commenting on new Soviet trade and aid arrangements with Cuba, the President recalled that the Castro regime recently has repudiated or disturbed a number of the traditional economic arrangements under which the United States tries to help the Cuban economy and people.

He concluded by saying that he hoped that troubles with Cuba could be worked out so that the Cuban people themselves would not suffer.

Other highlights of Eisenhower's news conference:

He said Russia appears to be offering greater hope for agreement on an H-bomb test ban by moving away from its previously rigid position on inspection and control. He deplored Russia's action in rejecting his plan to ban all nuclear weapons tests except smaller underground blasts.

He described as despicable charges or implications he had made about the American people in the debate of U.S. defense policies. He said our defenses are strong and awesome and he was tired of hearing people cite national defense as an excuse for wasting money.

He said an Air Force Reserve training manual, which referred to some churchmen as following the Communist party line, had been found.

Wait For Royal Birth Gives Britons Jitters

LONDON (UPI) — Nervous Britons waited minute by minute, second by second today for the birth of Queen Elizabeth II's third child. The Queen was reported calm, but the nation wasn't.

Doctors have said the baby could come any time this week. Tuesday they witted British stiff upper lips by announcing, "The royal baby may be born at any minute."

Baby watchers maintained a night-long vigil outside Buckingham Palace, their numbers increasing in the early morning hours, anxious for the first word and a probable sip of champagne.

Palace guardsmen marched a bit stiffer, if possible. A guards officer disclosed Queen Elizabeth had promised the traditional shilling and six pence (about 21 cents) to each of the guardsmen on duty when the baby was born.

Payola Evidence Mounting

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A House investigator said today it is evident that record companies have shelled out "hundreds of thousands of dollars" to disc jockeys and others to get songs broadcast.

Rep. John E. Moss (D-Calif.) told United Press International that would be "a conservative, a restrained estimate."

Moss is a member of a House subcommittee which already has uncovered side payments of more than $70,000 in the Cleveland and Boston areas alone.

The subcommittee was called behind closed doors today to consider a plea from one of the men responsible for the side payments that he be allowed to testify in secret.

The plea came from Harry Carter, president, treasurer and majority stockholder of Music Suppliers, Inc., a Boston record distributing company which paid $27,121 to disc jockeys and other radio station personnel in the last three years.

Carter sent the subcommittee a statement from his physician that he was suffering from emotional tension and could have a mental breakdown if questioned in public.

Moss said he would like to see an "impartial medical report" before voting to grant Carter's plea who get very nervous when they're called to testify before a congressional committee," he said.

Longshot Played By Chessman

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (UPI) — Convict-author Caryl Chessman played a longshot today by staking his life on the "conscience" of the few officials with the legal power to prevent his execution in just two days.

These same officials have indicated many times in the past 11½ years that death is a just penalty under the law for the crimes of the 33-year-old robber-rapester.

But longshots have paid off for Chessman since he was convicted in Los Angeles in 1948. He has sidestepped seven previous dates with the gas chamber — and four of those occasions came within two days of the execution date.

Chessman's present hopes lie with Justice Felix Frankfurter of the U. S. Supreme Court, the California Supreme Court and Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

Attorney Rosalie Asher made the 15th and "last chance" appeal to the Supreme Court in Washington Tuesday. The 56-page plea and 15 pounds of supporting evidence were presented to Frankfurter as "the senior justice available." There was no immediate action on the plea.

Attorney George T. Davis announced here Chessman requested that no more legal moves be made until a ruling was handed down by Frankfurter.

PARIS (UPI) — Algerian rebel "premier" Ferhat Abbas, leader of the Moslem revolt against the French, delivers a policy statement today in Tunis that could decide the destiny of Algeria.

Abbas was to read his "appeal to the Europeans of Algeria" between 9 and 10 a.m. e.s.t. President Charles de Gaulle called a cabinet session at that time to hear his words.

The French government hoped Abbas' statement would mean the beginning of the end of the five-year-old rebellion that has cost tens of thousands of lives and billions of dollars.

It was the first made in the name of the rebel "government" since de Gaulle cracked down on Algeria's French rightists whom the rebels saw as the main obstacle on the path to peace.

De Gaulle reinforced his iron-hand stand today. Eight of the leaders of the Jan. 24 insurrection in Algiers charged with an "attack on the state" were being flown here today for trial, away from their followers in Algiers.

Material Declared Subversive

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sweeping Pentagon and congressional investigations were ordered today into an Air Force Reserve training manual which linked churches with communism and termed "foolish" demands that the American people know what is going on.

Air Force Secretary Dudley C. Sharp announced the manual had been withdrawn from use on Feb. 11 but said a full inquiry will be made to find out who was responsible for the publication.

In Congress, Rep. John E. Moss (D-Calif.) chairman of the House freedom of information subcommittee, ordered his investigators to "gather every fact." He termed the manual "an outrageous display of arrogance."

Sharp, in his statement, "categorically repudiated" the viewpoint of the manual which had brought a vehement protest from the National Council of Churches.

He said the Air Force will investigate its other publications to see if similar information is being carried.

Moss told United Press International his group may hold hearings on the situation. "We want to know who wrote it. We want to know who approved it and we want to know its distribution," he said.

Defense Secretary Thomas S. Gates Jr., was reported "startled and stunned" at the contents of the manual.

Sharp said that he acted immediately on learning of the existence of the manual at 3:15 p.m. Tuesday.

He found that Air Force headquarters had directed withdrawal of the document last Thursday, the day the church council sent a letter of protest to Gates.

Used as a text for a training course for non-commissioned officers in the Air Force Reserve, the manual contained these quotes:

"Communists and Communist fellow-travelers have successfully infiltrated our churches."

"It is well known that even the pastors of certain of our churches are card-carrying Communists."

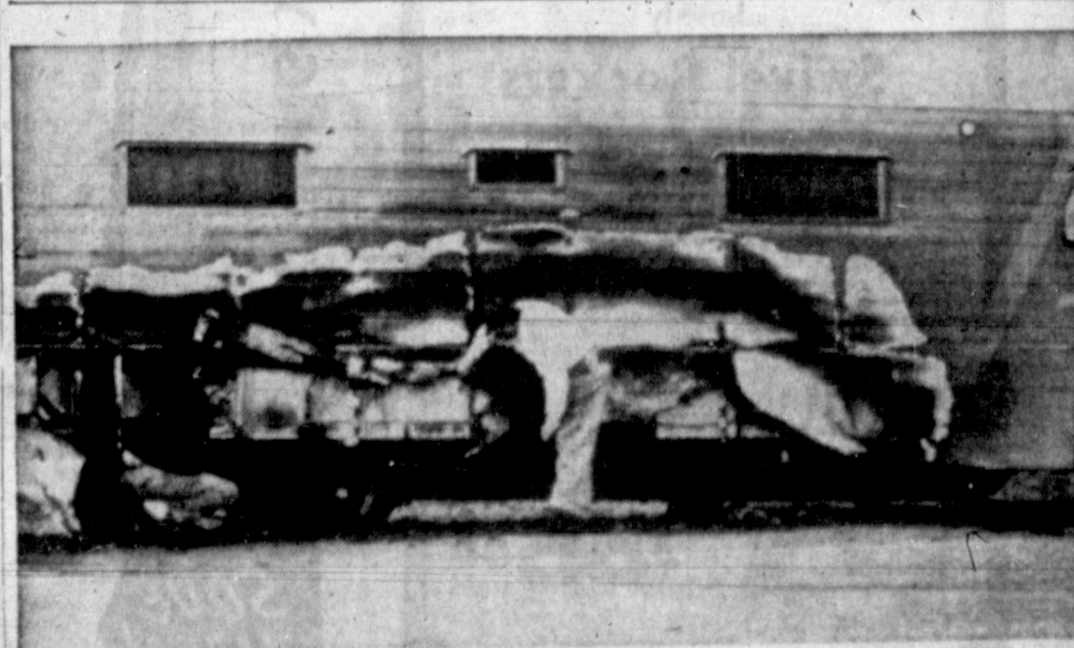

"The National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. officially sponsored the Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Of the 95 persons who served on this project, 30 have been affiliated with pro-Communist fronts, projects and publications."

"Another foolish remark often heard is that Americans have a right to know what's going on. Most people realize the foolishness of such a suggestion."

"Keep in mind that public news media present only as much information as the government wants to release."

The Post said the Council of Churches sent a protest letter to Gates and other top defense officials last Thursday signed by James Wine, general secretary.

The council branded the manual "a patent circumvention" of the 1st Amendment to the Constitution, according to the Post.

Since the summit meeting between President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev the "Camp David Spirit" has entered the language as a phrase as readily identifiable as "cold war", "Iron Curtain" and "massive retaliation."

It related to a slight, but seemingly discernible thaw in the chilly relations between the U.S. and the U.S.S.R., and lent some hope that Khrushchev meant it when he said there was no world problem that could not be negotiated, stage coach stop on the highway to Utopia.

Since then he has clarified his position somewhat, and the conclusion seems inescapable that he is a man who sees the dove of peace perched on a rocket nose and the green felt of the summit meeting spread upon a will and confident that a summit Russian launching pad.

Pampa Writers Participate In Workshop Meet

Mrs. Evelyn Nace served as coordinator for a panel discussion at the quarterly meeting of Panhandle Pen Women held yesterday in Amarillo Country Club.

"Working Values" was the theme discussed by panelists, Mrs. Laurene Chinn and Mrs. Kay Robbins both of Borger. In the absence of Miss Helene Huff, Mrs. Nace read Miss Huff's comments on "What To Expect From Workshops."

Mrs. Nace summed up the panel discussion by offering seven points for a successful workshop: working writers, congeniality of members, ability to criticize tactfully, ability to absorb criticism to advantage, making criticism valid and general when the manuscript is out of one's knowledge, and the immediate revision of criticized manuscripts.

Mrs. Macie Pickett, workshop chairman, conducted the workshop sessions during which Mrs. Lorene Locke read a play, "Purple Real Estate; Lee Patrick of Borger read a short story, "A Pinch of Civilization" and Sophia Meyers of Amarillo read "Tillie," a short story.

Winners in the poetry contest, judged by James Nell North of Oklahoma City, widely known author, poet, editor, teacher and lecturer, were Mrs. Pickett and Mrs. Lucy Ann Clawson, who tied for first place with "Night Shade" and "Ice Storm," respectively. Second place went to Mrs. Marcella Hudson for "Miss Pencil."

New officers for 1960 introduced at the conclusion of the meeting were Mrs. Locke, who will serve a second term as president; Mrs. Beasie Patterson of Hereford, programs; Miss Helene Huff of Pampa, contests; Mrs. Clawson of Amarillo, hospitality; Mrs. Edith B. Underwood of Amarillo, publicity; Mrs. Pickett, who was to have resigned because she is moving to Monroe, La. Mrs. Patrick was appointed to fill this office. Mrs. Nace will serve as treasurer.

of the jurors that the story is true.

The trial was in recess today until Thursday. Attorneys conferred with the judge on his instructions to the jury. The fireworks really are over now except for the closing arguments and what a day that will be for Grant Cooper.

He must be cast from the same mold as a Clarence Darrow. After this, he is the undoubted successor to alling and aging Jerry Giesler as the lawyer to the Hollywood stars.

Three of Giesler's associates represent Miss Tregoff. But they are so overshadowed by Cooper that the prosecution has complained that Cooper is defending Carole more than her own attorneys.

His only match in the trial is co-prosecutor Clifford Crail. Cooper was in the district attorney's office for years himself and the men are old friends — outside court. At the trial, Crail has been infuriated at Cooper's success in presenting a reasonable story.

Labor Organizers School Ordered Shut By Court

ALTAMONT, Tenn. (UPI) — A regular semester-style course, mountain school devoted to training labor organizers and racial integration leaders was ordered Tuesday to go out of business.

Circuit Judge Chester Chatin ruled that Highlander Folk School of Monteagle, Tenn., violated both segregation and beer laws and was operated for the personal gain of founder Myles Horton, 55-year-old former YMCA secretary who worked as a labor organizer during the Depression.

The school, which sponsors a series of workshops rather than regular semester-style courses, has been under attack since Horton started it in 1932. Its administration building was closed for a month last fall after a night raid by officers who found supplies of beer in a building.

Horton said the board of directors will meet next week to decide what action to take. Cecil Brantletter of Nashville, an attorney for the school, said he will appeal Judge Chatin's ruling.

Both Horton and the school have often been accused of subversive activities, but a legislative investigating committee said it could find no proof of such actions.

Horton, a native of Savannah, Tenn., who attended the University of Chicago and Union Theological Seminary in New York, worked as an AFL organizer in 1924 and for the CIO textile workers union in 1937 and 1938.

The school's 27th annual report issued recently said the emphasis at Highlander has switched from labor leadership to "openly training and pressing for overall integration."

Brantletter said the ruling would "permit revocation of their charters tomorrow of such leading Tennessee schools as Vanderbilt, George Peabody College at Nashville, Fisk University and the university of the South at Cewanee."

Celebrated Walkout Is Now TV History

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. — Jack Paar said Tuesday night he decided to go back on his television show for three reasons:

—His wife urged him to.

—NBC brass promised no repetition of censorship of the show.

—A sense of responsibility for at least 100 persons connected with the show.

"I wrestled with this thing over and over," Paar said. "I honestly didn't want to go back to the show."

Paar said his wife, Miriam, "arranged the meeting with Bob Kintner and Bob Sarnoff" (president and board chairman respectively of NBC).

"After all, I'm responsible for the welfare of at least a hundred people connected with my show. I felt if I didn't go back, I'd have a lot to answer for," Paar said.

Paar said the NBC executives brought with them apologies for the snipping of a joke from his show, an action that caused him to quit. He said he also had learned who had done the cutting.

"I can't recall his name, but it was some guy — an ex-FBI man — who works in NBC's Department of Standards and Practices. The cutting was never authorized by anyone higher up," Paar said.

Paar walked out on the show last Thursday night. He will return March 7 after he and his wife take a long trip, including stops at Hawaii and Japan.

'Lum' Says Jot 'Em Down Store Won't Be Reopened

Chester Lauck, the "Lum" of "Lum and Abner" radio fame, said last night the "Jot 'em Down Store" will never be re-opened.

In an interview just before he spoke at the annual Rotary Ladies Night Banquet, Lauck said he and his partner, Norris Goff, have been approached by the CBS television network to make a series of films on the radio comedy show, "but we're satisfied with the way things are now."

Lauck, who is an executive assistant with the Continental Oil Co., in Houston, said "I enjoy my work, I'm perfectly satisfied, and besides Abner and I shook hands that we'd never open up the store again, and we never will."

In the early 40's Lauck and Goff moved to Hollywood where they made 12 Lum and Abner films while originating their show from the coast.

Speaking of radio as it is today, Lauck said "if anyone came along and really programmed, I think radio could make a comeback, but unfortunately no one's doing it. Radio still has a lot to offer that television doesn't."

He said "My partner and I felt 25 years in show business is enough ... we had it."

FESTIVAL JUDGE — Esther Jonsson, American pianist, in eighteenth century costume, which she wears in giving Young People's concerts. Miss Jonsson, who is known as one of the world's outstanding interpreters of the great composer, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, will judge the first city-wide Sonatina-Sonata-Concerto Festival sponsored by Pampa Piano Teacher's Ass'n. The festival will be in progress tomorrow through Saturday in First Methodist Church.

Internationally Famous Mozart Authority To Judge Piano Festival

Esther Jonsson, who has been acclaimed from 4-5 part of Europe to the other as one of the greatest interpreters of Mozart of all time, has been secured by the Pampa Piano Teachers Association to be judge for the first city-wide Sonatina-Sonata-Concerto Festival to be launched Thursday morning and continue through Saturday. The auditions will be conducted in the First Methodist Church.

Before the German occupation, Miss Jonsson was chosen soloist for the great quarter-century festival commemorating the 175th anniversary of Mozart's birth at Salzburg, Austria. It was the first time that an American born artist had been so honored. In private life Miss Jonsson is Mrs. Arthur Garlinghouse.

During her concert tours that took her from Scandinavia to the Balkans and Turkey, Esther Jonsson played for the greatest living composers and many of the crowned heads of Europe. The great Padreswaki told her (when she was 17): "Your playing has given me great pleasure and you are ready to play anywhere in the world." Bernhard Paumgartner, Director of the Mozarteum, Salzburg, has stated, "I consider Miss Jonsson the only modern pianist who plays Mozart's music as Mozart played it."

DEAR ABBY....

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: How much humiliation are parents expected to stand? Our daughter became engaged to a fine young man. We spent a lot of money on her engagement party and there have been several parties in her honor. She had a quarrel with her fiancé and although the wedding invitations were already printed (not mailed, thank heavens) she called off the wedding and returned his ring.

New Year's Eve they made up again and she started the wedding plans anew. We had another batch of wedding invitations printed for a May wedding. This morning she told us that she broke up with him again. We have invested over $100.00 in this off-again-on-again romance. What do we do now?

HUMILIATED
DEAR HUMILIATED: Thank your lucky stars that you are out only $100.00. Many girls haven't the courage to call off a wedding. Instead they come home to Mamma two years later with a baby under each arm. Your daughter needs to grow up. Don't plan any more weddings for her until she proves by her behavior that her judgment is mature.

DEAR ABBY: I am a bachelor, age 49. I have suddenly taken to

Officers Of Rebekahs And Odd Fellows Sad Prediction For U.S. Males: "Bikini Will Not Catch On Here"

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI) — Designers keep subtracting from the coverage swim suits provide. But few of them dare the French bikini for the American woman.

Instead, the number one all-weather for summer 1930 is the maillot (pronounced my oh) — a one-piece suit with brief leg. It is followed closely by the two-piece suit, which has been off the beach scene since the late 1920's, and the boy-shorts leg. Few suits come with overskirts; the stress is on sleek lines.

"Today, with Brigitte Bardot so popular, cut suits are brief and scantier," said Ann Cole, designer for Cole of California.

"But the bikini will not catch on in this country. It will be worn by the women who want to sun themselves in their own backyards. But it won't be worn on public beaches."

"In this country," she continued, "women have not reached the point where they are willing to expose themselves to the extent they are in Europe."

Designers agreed that personalities and trends in other feminine apparel are the two strongest influences in beach fashions. This year, Bardot and Marilyn Monroe help to push the bare look. A few years ago, when Grace Kelly was at the peak of her movie popularity, swim wear took on an elegant look.

And, when the high empire waistline dominated in dresses, it also moved into swim suits.

Other trends for 1930:

—Lighter weight fabrics, including elasticated plain, striped and plaid failles; floral-embroidered jacquards; woven geometrics; patterns with a homespun look; and a whole bevy of knits.

—Suits with low-cut backs, which designer Cole said were Monroe-inspired, from the bared to the waist suits and gowns which she wore in her last movie, "Some Like It Hot."

—Increased use of beiges, browns and all the earth tones including a bright yellow-brown called butterscotch; tile red; cobalt blue; and black and white combinations.

Static Space Trip Due To End Today

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)—For nearly two weeks now two men have been locked up in a steel tank in an experiment to make America's spacemen more comfortable when they blast off earth in a rocket ship.

The steel tank, called a space cabin simulator, is the first to be built for more than one man.

The men locked up inside are scheduled to come out this afternoon when the two weeks are up. They are Sgts. William W. Henderson, 30, of Alice, Tex., and Robert M. Craft, 36, of Wedowee, Ala. They entered their cramped quarters at 3:15 p.m. on Feb. 4.

The test is being conducted by the School of Aviation Medicine at Brooks Air Force Base.

Dr. Billy E. Welch, chief of the department of space medicine's space ecology branch, said the experiment is to test the complex cabin itself as well as test the men's reactions to simulated space flight and to each other during a prolonged period of "togetherness."

Dr. Welch said the test with the two airmen, both space technicians attached to the School of Aviation Medicine, is a "routine pre-acceptance" test that all new equipment is put through.

The two-man space cabin is elliptically-shaped, eight feet high and 12 feet long. It will be used to give scientists information to help them design the extended trip vehicles—or space ships.

The two airmen can't see outside, but scientists watch the inside constantly using two television cameras. The cabin is equipped with comfortable chairs, a bed, sanitary facilities, food and a device for warming the food.

The airmen can watch commercial television shows on a screen on the cabin's control panel, and have music piped in if they wish.

They follow a rigid routine of carrying out simulated space flight assignments, sleeping and eating. Their food is stored in light metal containers. It squeezes out and has the consistency of tooth paste.

One Man Missing In Tug Fire

HOUSTON (UPI)—One man was still unaccounted for today in the aftermath of a raging fire in the Houston Ship Channel Tuesday.

The missing man was Walter Schmidt, a crewman of the tugboat "Debbie K." The Coast Guard was still dragging the channel for Schmidt's body hours after the fire flashed across the channel from the tug.

What caused the tug to burst into flames was also a mystery. Tommy Lee Doyle, 36, of Sheldon, Tex., captain of the Galveston-based tug, said he was coming down the channel when "all of a sudden I looked up and saw a wall of flames."

Doyle was seriously burned on his face and hands. He and Schmidt jumped into the water when the fire broke out and Doyle swam to shore. He said he saw Schmidt jump, but lost sight of him after that.

The fire sent billowing clouds of thick black smoke hundreds of feet into the air. It ignited two

Mother Likes Certain Date

FOURTH BABY EXPECTED ON FEB. 17

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (UPI)—On Feb. 17, 1957 Mrs. Arthur R. Sweeney of Blackstone, Mass., gave birth to a daughter whom she named Doris.

On Feb. 17, 1958, Mrs. Sweeney had another daughter and named her Leanne. And last year, on Feb. 17, Mrs. Sweeney had Lucille.

"But mother won't be home to help celebrate the three birthdays. She is at Providence Lying-In Hospital where doctors said she was expected to have a baby—sometime today."

Mrs. Sweeney, wife of a factory worker, confends the date has "no special significance."

"They just seem to always arrive on Feb. 17," she said.

The Almanac

By United Press International

Today is Wednesday, Feb. 17, the 48th day of the year, with 318 more days in 1960.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The morning stars are Mars, Jupiter, Saturn and Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1801, the House of Representatives chose Thomas Jefferson over Aaron Burr to become the third president of the United States.

In 1817, Baltimore became the first city to have gas street lights.

In 1876, the first railroad was canned, at Eastport, Maine.

In 1897, 2,000 women attended a Washington meeting to organize the National Congress of Mothers, forerunner of PTA.

In 1913, an exhibit of contemporary French paintings in New York City officially brought "modern art" to the American public.

Integration Survey Announced

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A survey claimed today that one-third of the southern high school students questioned favored school integration. Two-thirds of the 10,000 youths interviewed in all sections of the country backed integration.

The results were made public at the opening session of a three-day meeting of National Organizations of Women for Equality in Education. NOW represents 17 national women's groups that have banded together to promote school integration.

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt was to make the keynote speech at a lunch today.

The survey was part of a continuing research project being conducted by Purdue University under the direction of Dr. H. H. Remmers.

The study showed that an average of 30 per cent of the youths questioned in the East, Middle West and West supported school integration. In the South 33 per cent favored integration.

Dr. Martin Hamburger, assistant professor of education at New York University and research coordinator for NOW, said the survey also showed that a "disturbingly large minority" of U.S. high school students "lacked appreciation and understanding of democratic principles."

Hamburger said 42 per cent of youths interviewed favored restrictions on basic liberties guaranteed in the bill of rights.

Some 34 per cent favored denial of the right to circulate petitions, 37 per cent had no objection to "third degree" police methods and 43 per cent favored or were undecided about curbs on public speeches, Hamburger said.

A thought for today: Thomas Jefferson said: "Ignorance is preferable to error; and he is less remote from the truth who believes nothing, than he who believes what is wrong."

Wall Street In Review

NEW YORK (UPI)—Lagging new orders, although above a year ago, and a lower stock market since the beginning of this year, have resulted in a less favorable psychology, says International Statistical Bureau.

"This is no more justified than the excessive optimism which prevailed at the end of 1958," the bureau notes. "Sentiment cannot change fundamentals, although fundamentals, with their ultimate results, can change sentiment."

The bureau expects a more favorable business trend to continue during most of the year. Even during the latter part of the year, it says, general business will be maintained on a high level, slightly in excess of 1959.

"Each company has to be viewed on its own," Jacques Coe & Co. points out. There will be group rallies in this market whenever the atmosphere gets too gloomy, when stocks are oversold and sentiment becomes ultra-bearish, it adds.

Standard & Poor's outlook says that at current levels the stock of Ohio Oil is a sound commitment, and Sunshine Biscuit, yielding 5.1 per cent has appeal for its above-average income return.

Trendset still holds to the long-term forecast it made last year that the market high for 1960 will come in the second half of 1960.

Pampa Knocks Plainview Out Of Race

By RED GRIGGS
Daily News Sports Editor

The Borger Bulldogs have the District 3-A basketball championship in the bag today — and they can thank the Pampa Harvesters for putting it there.

The Harvesters knocked the Plainview Bulldogs out of the race here Friday night by gunning down the district's second-place team, 71-62.

The Plainview loss, together with Borger's 57-52 victory over Monterey, mathematically clinched the flag for Borger. The Harvesters have a 13-1 district record, and Plainview has a 10-3 mark.

Each team has only one game left to play.

The Pampa win put the Harvesters in undisputed fourth place in the district, with a 6-7 mark. Amarillo, which had been tied with Pampa, lost to Palo Duro, 67-59.

The Harvesters' close their season Thursday night at Amarillo, and could hold fourth place by beating the Sandias.

Pampa showed its early season form in cutting the big Plainview boys down to size. The Harvesters hit 25 of their 44 shots from the floor, for a fine 57 percent shooting average, and completely dominated play under the boards.

The Harvesters grabbed 35 rebounds, while the Plainview team managed to get only 13. Craig Winborn and Allen Wise each team matched the entire Plainview team in rebounding. Winborn grabbed 12, and Wise 11.

Only the fact that Plainview also hit its shots well kept the score as close as it was. The Bulldogs sank 22 of 31 field goal attempts, for a 43 percent average.

The scoring was well spread for both teams, as four men on each squad hit in double figures. Winborn was high point man for the night, with 28 points on 11 field goals and six free throws. He fouled out with more than four minutes left in the game.

Bill Ramsey of Plainview, hitting from the outside, tallied 20 points. Other Bulldogs in double figures were Dale Webb with 13, Jimmy Carter with 12 and Swanner with 10. For Pampa, Pat Carter netted 13, Joe Timms 12 and Phillip Gist 11.

Pampa got off to a good start in the first quarter Tuesday, and stayed ahead throughout most of the game. The Harvesters trailed briefly early in the first period, but hit seven field goals and six free throws to take a 20-13 lead at the end of the first quarter.

During the next couple of minutes Winborn tallied six points and Timms four, while Plainview was getting seven points. The Harvesters led 30-20 with six minutes left in the first half.

Then, however, Plainview came through with its best rally of the night, scoring 12 straight points (four on long baskets, one on a short basket and two on free shots) to go ahead, 32-30.

The Bulldogs stayed ahead until, with 1:35 left in the half, Winborn scored a basket to put Pampa ahead, 37-36. Jimmy Carter, however, dunked one to put Plainview back ahead, 38-37, seconds before halftime.

Their lead appeared safe until halftime, but Pat Carter of Pampa was fouled attempting to take the ball downcourt, and made two free shots. Pampa led at halftime, 39-38.

Plainview came back to tie the score at 44-44 early in the third quarter, but the Bulldogs weren't able to get in the lead. Pampa went ahead, 47-44, on a basket and free throw (after being fouled while shooting) by Allen Wise. The Harvesters kept the lead for the rest of the game.

After Wise's three-point effort, Pampa added the next seven points on a crisp shot by Gist, a follow-up by Winborn, a drive-in basket by Timms and a free throw by Winborn. The Harvesters went into the fourth quarter with a 63-52 margin.

The Bulldogs didn't get closer than seven points in the fourth quarter, but Plainview's hopes rose momentarily when Timms fouled out with six minutes left, and Winborn followed suit with 4:20 remaining.

There was a slight rhabarb when the official fourth foul was called on Winborn, as Plainview's coach and scorekeeper contended it was his fifth. Actually, a recheck of the official book after the game showed they were right, as the scorekeeper had charged one of Winborn's fouls to Timms, and thus put Timms out of the game with only four fouls.

Nevertheless, Winborn didn't score a point or get a rebound between his "official" fourth and fifth fouls, and the replacement for Timms and Winborn played such good basketball that neither was really missed in the final minutes, anyway.

Hershel Terrell and Larry Stroud, though they didn't score a point, helped the Harvesters keep their "stall" working in the final minutes, and prevented a repetition of Pampa's sudden-death loss at Plainview.

Area Cage Roundup

BORGER — The Borger Bulldogs clinched the District 3-A championship here Friday night by rolling over the Monterey Plainsmen, 57-52.

The win, along with Pampa's 71-62 victory over Plainview, gave Borger a two game lead with only one game remaining. Borger is 13-1, while Plainview is 10-3. This district title is the first for Borger since 1952.

Borger led all the way, and had four men in double figures—Frank Schaffer with 18, John Kent with 17, Donnie Seamster with 13 and Vernon Welch with 12.

LUBBOCK — Tascosa's Rebels tied with the Amarillo Sandias for fifth place in District 3-A here Tuesday night, by stopping the Lubbock Westerners, 51-39. Tascosa now has a 5-8 district record. Lubbock, in seventh place, has a 2-10 district mark.

CANADIAN — The Canadian Wildcats whipped McLean here Tuesday night, 50-41, in a District 2-A basketball game. Canadian's girls edged McLean, 28-23.

PANHANDLE (Spl) — White Deer's Bucks pulled even with Lefors in the win column here Tuesday night, by whipping the Panhandle Panthers, 54-40.

The Bucks and Lefors are now tied for the District 2A lead, with 9-3 records. White Deer had previously trailed the Panthers in the win column, although they were even in the loss column.

White Deer closes its regular season Friday against Canadian. Lefors will be at McLean Friday. If both teams win as expected, a one game, sudden-death playoff will be held Saturday for the district championship.

White Deer's girls clinched their district title by routing Panhandle, 34-22. Juanna Jo Moore led the scoring for the Does with 31 points, and Jolene Despain hit 11 for Panhandle.

For the White Deer boys Tommy Lester scored 20, Jackie Burns 17 and Robert McAllister 15. Panhandle led 6-0 at the end of the first quarter, but White Deer went ahead and halftime, 23-16, and led at the end of three quarters, 35-28.

White Deer's B team boys beat Panhandle B, 45-31, and the White Deer girls' B team won over Panhandle B, 40-28.

Eddie LeBaron Quits Football

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Washington Redskins scanned rival National Football League rosters today in hopes of filling the gaping hole left by the retirement of the league's smallest player.

Coach Mike Nixon said he would go with Ralph Guglielmi next season after 160-pound quarterback Eddie LeBaron announced he is quitting pro football to begin a law career in Texas, but informed NFL sources said the Redskins undoubtedly will try to swing a deal for another quarterback.

Among those the Redskins can be expected to try for are Don Heinrich and Lee Grosscup of the New York Giants, Rudy Buich of the Chicago Bears, and Bart Starr and Lamar McHan of the Green Bay Packers. The Redskins may "sweeten" the package they offer with one of their hard-running backs — Jim Peden, Don Bossler or Eddie Sutton.

LeBaron, who recently passed the California bar exam, gave the Redskins the bad news Tuesday after thinking the matter over for about three months.

"It's time I got started in the profession I've chosen," LeBaron explained.

Tax Men Call It Quits On Lewis

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Who says the Internal Revenue Service doesn't have a heart?

The service has admitted closing the books on its long drive to collect back income taxes from former heavyweight champion Joe Louis because "his earning days are over."

"We have gotten all we could possibly get from Mr. Louis, leaving him with some hope that he can live," said Internal Revenue Commissioner Dana Latham.

Hank, Rodriguez To Fight Tonight

CHICAGO (UPI) — Hard hitting Henry Hank, the world's third ranked middleweight, expects to meet a "runner" and not a puncher in light-heavyweight Skeeto Rodriguez tonight, so he's preparing for a "track meet."

Hank was a solid favorite to whip Rodriguez, ranked fourth among the 175 pounders, despite the difference in weight for their nationally televised bout.

Hank has much more experience, and a record indicating a much more solid punch, than his opponent. The Detroit battler, who has a four fight winning streak, has won 40 bouts, 28 of them by knockout, lost 16 and drawn one.

Rodriguez, a native of Puerto Rico, has had only 28 fights, winning 24 with two losses and two draws.

Member Of Mack Infield Dies Tuesday

IPSWICH, Mass. (UPI) — "Stuffy" McInnis, the stylish, little target of Connie Mack's $100,000 infield" on the Philadelphia Athletics half a century ago, died Tuesday at the age of 69.

Stuffy, whose real name was John P. McInnis, stood only 5 feet 3 inches, but overcame his height handicap to become one of the slickest fielding first basemen that baseball has ever known.

McInnis once went through an entire season in 1921 for the Boston Red Sox, and made only one error. Another time he went 163 games and handled 1625 chances without an error. Both records still stand.

"I got tired of watching those six-foot first basemen fall to make the catch," he once reminisced. "So I decided to become a first baseman myself."

Stuffy played in the major leagues for 19 years and compiled a .990 fielding average. He held a lifetime batting mark of .398. A little mah among the "giants" of his day, he played on six pennant winning teams and champion team five times.

"He had a great pair of hands," a former teammate, shortstop Jack Barry, said of McInnis Tuesday night from his Worcester home. "He overcame his shortness by his ability."

McInnis, a native of Gloucester and a long-time resident of nearby Manchester, died at a hospital here after being in poor health for several years.

King To Coach Midland High

MIDLAND, Tex. (UPI) — Harold King, a former assistant football coach at Midland High School, has been named to the head coaching job.

The Midland School Board Tuesday chose King to replace Cletus Fisher, who resigned last week to take a job as assistant coach at the University of Nebraska.

PHILLIPS — Pampa Junior High's Reapers remained in a second place tie in the Panhandle Junior High Conference, by beating Phillips Junior High here Tuesday, 32-25.

The Reapers are tied for second with Austin of Borger, and those two squads will meet Thursday afternoon in Borger to decide second place. The winner could tie for first place if Lee Junior High loses Thursday.

The Reapers led most of the way Tuesday, but Phillips stayed close until the final quarter. Pampa led 8-5 at the end of the first quarter, 14-13 at halftime, and 23-21 after three quarters. Larkin Miller led Pampa's scoring with 11 points. Randy Matson scored seven, C. E. Cantrell five, Johnny Weatherly five and Dwight Thompson four.

SQUAW VALLEY, Calif. (UPI) — The most monumental foul-up in Olympic history today shattered the peace and serenity of scenic Squaw Valley, site of the 1960 Winter Games opening Thursday.

If there was anything right, it was being kept secret and criticism was being heaped on the U.S. organizers of the games in an increasing flow of complaints. Nothing was being done about any of them either, was a further complaint.

It wasn't so serious that the actual games were in jeopardy, but it had reached the stage where most everyone was unhappy about the conditions.

"There's no excuse for the poor conditions here," said a high member of the U.S. Olympic Committee, who asked that his name not be used. "We figured the organizing committee would do a good job for they had the North American skiing championships here a year ago and we all figured that would prove a good trial run. And give them plenty of time to correct mistakes and set everything right."

"But apparently they learned nothing. Things have gotten worse instead of better."

Here were some of the chief complaints (few newspapers would have enough space to list them all):

That the three ice rinks were being badly handled, with the result that speed skaters, figure skaters and the hockey teams did not have ample workout time or conditions. Each group claimed that the other was favored.

The parking situation within reasonable walking distance of the Olympic sites had gotten to the stage that not even top officials were allowed in almost empty parking lots in the immediate area.

Nothing has been done to keep half of the ice from the main arena from melting under the feet.

The Olympic torch arrived in the valley late Tuesday, 20 students from the Truckee-Tahoe High School at nearby Truckee, carrying it in on the final lap on its long trip from Morgedal, Norway. It will be kept in the village until it is taken into the Olympic arena on Thursday when Vice President Richard Nixon will officially open the games.

Rebs Stay In Top Spot

BORGER — The Lee Junior High Rebels of Pampa won over Houston of Borger here Tuesday, 45-38, to remain in first place in the Panhandle Junior High Conference.

The Rebels have two games remaining, both at home. They play Phillips Thursday at Perryton Tuesday, and will be favored to win both games. They need only one win to clinch a tie for the title.

The Rebels led 11-9 at the end of the first quarter and 23-21 at halftime, but Houston rallied to cut the difference to 36-34 at the end of the third quarter. The Rebels pulled away in the fourth period. Wayne Kreis led Lee's scoring with 25 points. Jon Pitts tallied eight, Ronnie Chase six, Gordon Balch four and Darrell Deas two.

Lee's eighth grade lost to Houston eighth, 42-35. Gary Eikes scored seven points, Mike Bridges six, Ricoey Stewart four, Gene Storck four and Larry Gregory two.

Reapers Win Over Phillips

PHILLIPS — Pampa Junior High's Reapers remained in a second place tie in the Panhandle Junior High Conference, by beating Phillips Junior High here Tuesday, 32-25.

The Reapers are tied for second with Austin of Borger, and those two squads will meet Thursday afternoon in Borger to decide second place. The winner could tie for first place if Lee Junior High loses Thursday.

The Reapers led most of the way Tuesday, but Phillips stayed close until the final quarter. Pampa led 8-5 at the end of the first quarter, 14-13 at halftime, and 23-21 after three quarters. Larkin Miller led Pampa's scoring with 11 points. Randy Matson scored seven, C. E. Cantrell five, Johnny Weatherly five and Dwight Thompson four.

Lee's eighth graders won, 55-21 over Phillips eighth. Four boys were in double figures. Kenny Hebert with 15, Richard Rexroat with 13, Gary Davis with 12 and Charles Smith with 11. Raymond Gee had two.

Men: Best Trick Of All; Let Wives Do Fixing Up

By WARD CANNEL
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

NEW YORK (NEA) — Say, remember the good, old, do-it-yourself days dawdled on the U.S. 30 years ago? Every man his own tinsmith, tilejack, wirewright and carpenter following "a few simple" steps with tooth and nail.

Well, as time swings relentlessly, do-it-yourself has made a sharp change in the American home. According to a new survey of 5,000 families:

—Four times as many women as men are in the home workshop today.

—By a landslide majority over the men, American women are painting (inside and out), building patios, finishing the attic, fixing the appliances, refinishing the furniture, digging the new cesspool overflow and tiling the bathroom floor and walls.

—Almost without fail, the home handy woman has taken over the four biggest man-sized jobs (painting, wallpapering, house repairs and carpentry), while keeping her three old do-it-yourself chores (dressmaking, slipcovering and gift-making).

—And where are the men in all this? The statistics show that between the ages of 12 and 17, men do more do-it-yourself than women. Between 18 and 24, the men still have a slight edge. But after 24—the average age for getting married—it's all downhill (or home free).

Now, men, if you'd like to build this trend in your own home, just follow these few simple steps—implicit in the comments from this survey, conducted by a large pharmaceutical company (Bristol Myers):

1. Encourage your wife to bake a cake without using a box of cake mix.

2. "I finally got to where I couldn't stand prepackaged creativeness," a typical answer said. "From there it was an easy step to wallpapering the four bed-rooms."

3. Suggest a do-it-yourself project. "I'm about it for several months," not to lift a finger or bowing and have a good time.

4. Leave home. Meanwhile, the do-it-yourself industry continues to flourish after a decade. Paint clerks, lumber dealers and hardware store salesmen report continuous sales to homeowners.

But the biggest thermometer is the publishing business. Magazines, pamphlets and books continue to sell wildly across the U.S. with tips, project ideas, cut-away drawings, blueprints and simple steps.

One major publisher reports an immediate success with a brand-new book, "Make Your Own Monstrosities With Tooth and Nail"—covering such projects as how to drill an egg and repairing leaky eggs.

Like most of the published material, it's aimed at men. The women don't bother to read about projects, they reported in the survey.

They get their ideas and know-how by asking the wives of their husbands' friends.

Constitution Revision Asked
AUSTIN (UPI)—The League of Women Voters has called for a major revision of the Texas Constitution to broaden the scope of state government in keeping with the times.

The League made its plea in a pamphlet titled "A Brief Case of Revision of the Texas Constitution."

In the pamphlet the League pointed out that the present state constitution was adopted in 1876 and has been revised from time to time by a "patchwork" of 140 amendments.

It said a "restricted and limited state government can no longer adequately cope with the resultant complex problems."

Bandits Foiled By Holdup Proof Bank

BESSEMER, Pa. (UPI)—Three masked gunmen entered the bank and announced "this is a stickup."

The tellers looked at the guns and grinned. The bandits went about their business anyhow—unaware they were trying to rob a "holdup proof" bank.

It all happened Tuesday afternoon at the People's Bank of Lawrence County in this peaceful Western Pennsylvania town not far from the Ohio state line.

Under normal circumstances, being confronted with a shotgun and a couple of revolvers in the hands of would-be stickup men probably would have resulted in some trace of fear among bank employees.

But not on this occasion. The tellers, clerks and officials had a complete feeling of awe.

The gunmen didn't know at first, but their intended victims were protected by a five-inch thick shield of bulletproof glass.

A customer, noticing the bandits' intentions, calmly advised: "This bank is holdup proof. That's bulletproof glass and you can't get inside the teller's cage."

While the bandits stood dumbfounded, one of the bank employees leisurely picked up a telephone and called police.

The gunmen looked at each other, shrugged and decided they had better leave. They did—empty handed.

Bank officials said the bulletproof glass had been installed about 10 years ago and Tuesday was the first time anyone attempted to rob the bank since that time.

In typical bankers' fashion, the officials expressed belief that the

"Many people prefer to drive into Amarillo," Geldon said, "rather than wait in the field offices. In fact we encourage this, because it gives us an opportunity to serve the public as speedily as possible."

Geldon pointed out that waiting time could be saved still another way: "People should write first to the Amarillo office and explain why they would like to have an interview. From that point they will be thoroughly instructed on what is expected of them in the way of records and information; thereby, saving them time and possible future visits."

Electronics Industry Has Own Kind Of Supermarket

FINANCIAL REVIEW
By ELMER C. WALZER
UPI Financial Editor

NEW YORK (UPI)—Unlike the supermarkets where the housewife can see and buy several thousands and one items, the electronic test equipment market actually is 400 markets with 5,300 different devices.

You don't walk into a giant store and select the gadget you need for testing your electronic equipment—and testing is mighty important in that sensitive industry. You thumb through 400 catalogs—unless you've heard of Technical Information Corp.

That organization has compiled a unique directory of technical specifications which groups the 5,300 devices by specification and performance.

This method gives the engineer a ready means of finding the source of equipment containing the features he needs for the specific tests he is making.

And this method saves millions for the electronic industry which is growing by leaps and bounds. Technical Information Corp.'s president, Albert F. Craig, estimates that industry spends $300 million annually on electronic testing equipment.

And, he adds, 20 per cent of $80 million is wasted because of incomplete knowledge of what is available and where.

"This represents only part of the total loss," Craig says. "Valuable time is lost. It is just as wasteful to redevelop an item because you didn't know it existed. And what we spend on test equipment is only a small part of what we spend on electronic items, so consider what it costs when a rocket or missile shot falls because of an inadequate part— inadequate because the maker might not have been able to find the right type of test instrument."

Craig believes that complete and organized information is particularly important in the race for space, and notes that "the Russians have a central source of data at their all union institute for scientific and technical information. We have nothing like it."

He said, however, that the science and technology division of the Library of Congress, with the aid of a national science foundation grant, is preparing an annotated list of all abstracting and indexing services of scientific interest published in the country. This, he added, is a start in the right direction.

Testing of electronic devices is part of the production job and is considered one of the most important.

In some jobs, 100 different test instruments are needed. The big job is to find the one fitted for the particular job, and until Craig devised his directory this meant thumbing through 400 catalogs, a process that took hours of engineers' time.

The difference between the housewife and her supermarket and the engineer and his testing equipment is one of time. The items she wants have been developed over the years and advertised profusely.

The test devices are about the newest thing in production today. You've got to look for them—and the new directory is the latest step in this process.

Social Security Office Has Many Claims To Process

By DAN JOLLIE
Field Representative Amarillo Social Security Office

Q: Even though I earned over $1200.00 last year I can get checks for some months of last year. Is that right?

A: Yes, even though a beneficiary earns over $1200.00 in a year he can receive a check for every month his salary was not more than $100.00. A self-employed beneficiary can receive payments for any month in which he did not render substantial services in self employment.

Q: What is that tax rate for 1959?

A: Two and one-half percent for the employee and also, the employer, three and three-fourths percent for the self-employed person.

Q: When does the annual report for 1959 to the social security administration have to be filed?

A: By April 15, 1960.

Q: Is there any provision in the law to continue paying benefits to children while they are still in school—even though they are past 18?

A: No, not unless the child became totally disabled before reaching age 18.

Q: I have read a lot about proposed changes in the social security law. Have there been any actual changes this year and who makes them?

A: Only the Congress can make these changes and if any are made they will be publicized fully.

Q: I know a lady who gets more money than I do yet my husband started to work under social security in 1937 why is that? A: Every situation is different. But the amount of benefits paid is based on the amount of wages earned under social security.

NEW BLUE LUSTRE — Pampa Hardware Co. is distributor in this area for Blue Lustre, a favorite of all when it comes to wall-to-wall throw rug cleaning. Blue Lustre is simple to use. Just mix the liquid concentrate with water to make a billowy foam that cleans like magic.

Fine For Carpet Cleaning

The happy family, in the picture at left, discovered the wonderful advantage of Blue Lustre for cleaning carpets. No more soil worry when floor furnishings and upholstery can be kept clean and new looking all of the time with this new concentrated foam cleaner.

Although Blue Lustre Carpet and Upholstery Cleaner is a favorite for wall to wall carpet cleaning, it is used regularly for cleaning traffic paths and other soiled areas as they appear without the necessity of going over the entire carpet again.

Blue Lustre is so simple to use. It is a liquid concentrate which when mixed with water creates a billowy foam. It can be used in any type of shampoo rug applicator or applied with an inexpensive long handled brush that is available.

The cleaning action of this foam instantly brightens colors dulled by soil because its unique action separates the dirt particles from the fabric to allow easy removal by vacuuming.

Since only foam is used, there is no matting of the fibres, no rinsing needed and carpets are soon dry and ready for use again.

Blue Lustre is a gentle cleaner, safe for the finest oriental rugs and because it is odorless, there is no lingering scent after cleaning is done. It is economical to use because one half gallon of Blue Lustre concentrate is sufficient to clean three 9 x 12 rugs. It comes in convenient sizes, quarts, half gallons and gallons and is available at Pampa Hardware Co.

Washington Window

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Test probes in sensitive White House areas fail to reveal any great fear that the Democrats will make a block-buster issue of national defense in this year's presidential campaign.

Stranger things have happened, however, in the history of the care and feeding of campaign issues. If the confusion existing now in Washington, on the subject of national defense extends throughout the nation, any Democratic candidate would find the conditions right for making defense a top campaign song.

There is plainly observable a White House tendency to shrug off the political implications of the great national defense debate. This tendency probably is grounded on the only undeniable fact in the present situation.

That fact is: National defense has been the subject of angry debate without interruption in the past 40 years, excepting only during time of war. World War I scarcely had ended before the battleship admirals and the bomber generals were in mighty conflict.

The Navy finally was licked on that one although it never surrendered. The taxpayer-voters had to await the awesome cost of World War II before it was decided, finally that the battleship admirals had been wrong and the air generals had been right during the preceding years of regimentation.

The argument between 1920 and 1940 about airplanes versus battleships was just as loud, equally angry and quite as confusing to the public as is the present dispute. Then, as now, one big chunk of military brass was defending a weapons system. Then it was the battleship.

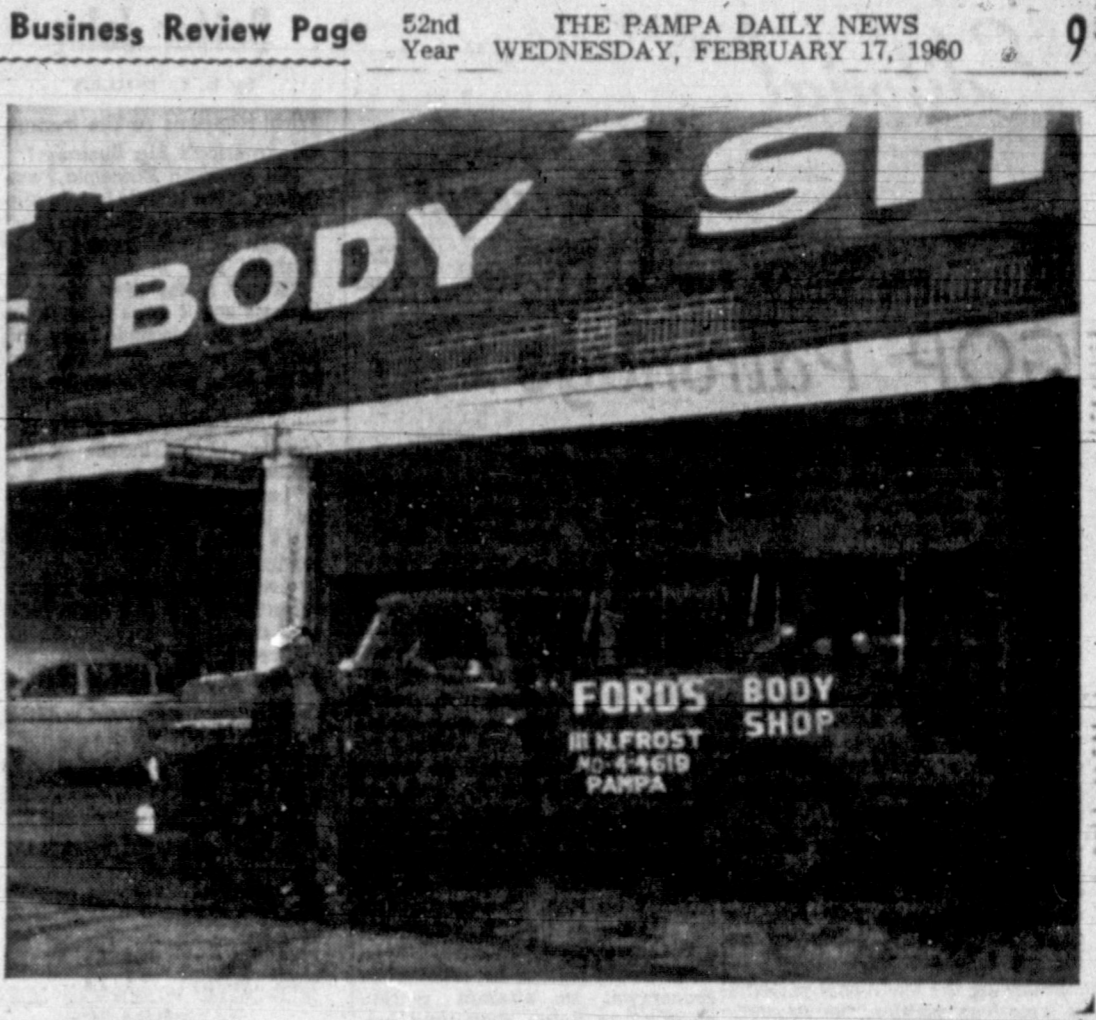

In the process of its hopeless defense of the battleship, the Navy came up with a big, new sea-going weapon — the aircraft carrier. The air generals tried to sink the aircraft carriers along with the battleships, but failed.

The air or bomber generals now have their backs to the wall in defense of their own weapons system. Their system comprises manned aircraft. More specifically, it is made up chiefly of the great bombers of the Strategic Air Command. The bomber generals now are challenged not only by land-based missiles. The admirals have floated and submerged an entirely new craft, the nuclear-powered and Polarized submarines.

The admirals, the generals and the missilemen are feuding in public over the slicing of the pie, over the share each shall have of the taxpayers' dollars. The outfit getting the basic assignment for defense of the United States will get the biggest share of the multi-billion dollar defense appropriations.

All of this is accompanied by a political side show in which the politicians attempt to prove that the country is—or is not—adequately defended. This public feud is over the slicing of the political pie.

The voter-taxpayer is in the middle of all of this with no other feasible function than to provide the pies for slicing.

NEW WRECKER — Robert McCane, shop foreman at Ford's Body Shop, 111 N. Frost, stands beside the new wrecker, recently purchased by Coyle Ford, owner. The new truck is the very latest in wrecker equipment, with a winch, red warning lights, siren and two-way radio. This, along with other equipment of the very latest model and design, make Ford's Body Shop the best equipped in the Panhandle.

Keating Will Renew Efforts To Push Civil Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Kenneth B. Keating (R-N.Y.) said he would make a renewed effort today to get the Senate Judiciary Committee to act on some form of civil rights bill.

The New Yorker, a co-sponsor of the administration bill, said he would seek a vote at the committee's first meeting of the year called by Chairman James O. Eastland (D-Miss.).

Keating conceded that approval was unlikely. If his motion failed, he said, he would seek action on a mild two-part bill approved last year by a subcommittee.

The second measure would extend the Civil Rights Commission until 1962—already done by other legislation—and require that voting records be kept for three years.

Keating said he felt that even the two-part bill would be a better measure on which to hang civil-rights action than the minor, unrelated bill brought up Monday by Sen. Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson as a civil rights vehicle.

Johnson's action, opening the Senate's long-awaited, election-year debate on civil rights, stirred up a storm of criticism from southerners and some civil rights backers who opposed the procedure he adopted.

Southern forces lined up their verbal artillery behind a delayed move to postpone Senate action on the entire civil rights question for a week.

Arguing that the Senate was debating civil rights proposals that weren't even on its calendar, the southerners sought support for a motion by Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) to put off until Feb. 23 the bill called up by Johnson.

In a parallel move, Sen. Wayne L. Morse (D-Ore.) drafted motions to relieve the Senate Judiciary and Rules committees of jurisdiction over various civil rights bills if they have not reported to the Senate by Feb. 23.

Johnson drew fire from both Morse and Russell when he brought up a local Missouri bill and invited civil rights supporters to offer amendments. The measure would let a Stellan-Mo., school district tempo rily lease part of Ft. Crowder, Mo., for school purposes.

Gas Rate Hike To Be Studied

DALLAS (UPI) — Dallas City Attorney Henry Kucera, a leader of the opposition to Lone Star Gas Co.'s increase in intracompany gas prices, said he will decide in a few days whether to fight the increase won by the utility Monday.

The Railroad Commission Monday granted a 5.4 cent per 1,000 cubic feet boost in the price of gas delivered to city gates.

Most observers saw it as a strong bargaining point should the company ask higher consumer prices. If it does, a total of 320 Texas cities would be affected.

Kucera conceded the hike in the intracompany rate was a major victory for Lone Star.

"The gas company was asking for a 10-cent increase and I regard the 5.4 cent rise a substantial victory," he said.

"I have been given figures to show that we saved the consumers $1,200,000 annually by opposing the increase."

Kucera and attorneys from 92 other cities opposed the intracompany increase in 22 days of hearings ending last November.

He planned to confer with other attorneys before deciding whether to fight the increase now that it has been granted, and said he would announce his decision probably by the end of this week.

Although the new intracompany rate—35.4 cents per 1,000 cubic feet—was made effective immediately, Lone Star must bargain separately with each of the 320 cities if it is to win hikes in consumer rates.

Veterinarians supported the police report of the moose which was seen stumbling aimlessly on the icy shore nearby.

Tracks showed the beast apparently suffered a bad fall on a slope in nearby woods. The moose displayed no fear of humans.

A veterinarian, who diagnosed the ailment, said no cure was possible. Police shot the moose.

Bar Disputes Negro's Claim

TYLER, Tex. (UPI) — A hearing was scheduled in District Judge Connally McKay's court today on a motion by a self-proclaimed Negro lawyer whose right to practice is under fire from the Texas Bar Assn.

The Negro is O. L. Hubbard, 81. He said he received a license to practice law in Galveston on March 4, 1918, but court records of his license were later destroyed and his name was on a personal copy of it.

The grievance committee of the Third District of the Texas Bar Assn. filed a petition in McKay's court seeking an injunction to prevent Hubbard from "holding himself out to the public" as an attorney.

Hubbard has filed a motion to quash the petition.

HOLLYWOOD — Negro singer Lena Horne, asserting she has no intention of apologizing for throwing ash trays, dishes and a lamp at a man she claims made insulting remarks about her race.

"My anger is directed at something that was wrong, not at something I have to apologize for."

NORTH MIAMI, Fla. — Former President Truman, issuing a prediction about this year's presidential election:

"Anyone the Democrats nominate will beat hell out of Dick Nixon."

LONDON — An American Embassy spokesman, stating that a huge, gold-tinted eagle will be mounted atop the new embassy building despite many British objections.

"This matter has been directed from Washington as part of the world wide embassy building program. Our feelings have nothing to do with it."

PROVIDENCE, R.I. — Mrs. Arthur B. Sweeney, of Blackstone, Mass., whose three daughters were born Feb. 17, 1907, Feb. 17, 1908, and Feb. 17, 1909, entering a hospital and expecting to give birth to her fourth child today.

"They just seem to always arrive on Feb. 17."

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI) — Donald Verna Stinson, 22, of Birmingham, Ala., fired his two lawyers during his jewel robbery trial Tuesday, conducted his own defense — and lost.

The jury affirmed a life sentence given him in 1954 as a habitual criminal. Stinson, who had studied law in prison, was charged with masterminding a $30,000 jewel theft.

VIENNA (UPI) — Otto Goelles, 31, told an appeals judge here Tuesday his 10-month jail sentence for stealing a shirt should be dropped since his confession was forced from him by police. The judge tacked on an extra year to his sentence for slandering the police department.

Ford's Body Shop Keeps 'Em Rolling

Ford's Body Shop, 111 N. Frost, is well equipped to handle repair, painting and rebuilding jobs at any time, day or night.

Coyle Ford, owner of the shop, says "we are constantly adding to our equipment and personnel, when needed, in an effort to keep abreast of the business and needs of the community."

One new piece of equipment purchased recently is the new wrecker. The truck, mounted with a winch, lights, siren and two-way radio, is the latest thing in wrecker equipment.

Experience, know-how, room and equipment are supplemented by 24-hour wrecker service. For night service call MOhawk 4-7542 and day 4-4619.

The shop is located at 111 N. Frost, and can account for a large volume of body work and a speedy service at any time, day or night. Ford said "the equipment is here for any job, and we have the men that know how to use it."

Perfect paint jobs, simple repairs or complete rebuildings are done on cars, trucks and other vehicles.

This shop has the men and equipment to get a wrecked car back on the road and in many cases save it from the junkyard. Paint jobs and body jobs are done with a factory touch.

Take your problems to Ford's men of experience or take them to Coyle Ford, himself. You can rely on Joe Aubry and "Red" Golden, body men, and "Razz" Johnson, painter, and Robert McCane, shop foreman, is a man whose judgement you can trust.

Van Rie To Testify

BOSTON (UPI) — Debonair ship's radio officer Willem Van Rie will testify in his own defense at his first degree murder trial in the death of a young Chicago divorcee, his shipboard sweetheart.

The announcement by defense lawyer W. Langdon Powers followed five hours of emotion-packed testimony in the fifth day of the trial Tuesday.

Three witnesses testified Van Rie, 31, of Rotterdam, chided pretty Lyn Kauffman for wearing a tight-fitting, all-sided Chinese dress which "gives me naughty ideas."

One of these witnesses was Mrs. Juanita Spector, 43, of Clayton, Mo., who also testified that she had "differences of opinion" with the 23-year-old divorcee who had worked for her husband three years as a research assistant.

Capt. Albert J. De Bruyn, skipper of Van Rie's ship the Utrecht, testified for the prosecution that Van Rie failed in his duty to obtain a weather report the night the Dutch passenger-carrying freighter left Boston, Sept. 18.

He said Van Rie was off duty from 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock that night. Lynn was missed at 9:30 p.m. and her battered, half-naked body was found on a Boston Harbor island next day.

First opera to be written for television was "Amahl and the Night Visitors" by Gian-Carlo Menotti.

First For A Moose
OERNSKOELDSVIK, Sweden — Police today reported what they claimed was the first known case of a moose suffering a brain concussion.

Veterinarians supported the police report of the moose which was seen stumbling aimlessly on the icy shore nearby.

Tracks showed the beast apparently suffered a bad fall on a slope in nearby woods. The moose displayed no fear of humans.

A veterinarian, who diagnosed the ailment, said no cure was possible. Police shot the moose.

BEAUMONT (UPI) — Police held a Negro woman today for the shotgun murder and dismemberment of her husband, Morris Roberts, 42.

According to police, the woman shot her husband sometime last week and kept his body in the house overnight. The next day, she cut up the body with a butcher knife and took the parts to a ditch outside the west city limits where she left them.

Detectives said the woman showed them the ditch where she threw them Tuesday afternoon. She had reported her husband missing on Friday, they added.

10 GOP Patronage

Republicans across the nation are busily dividing a plump patronage pie — the 1960 census with its 370,000 temporary jobs paying a total of $45 million.

Not since 1900, when William McKinley was in the White House, have Republicans enjoyed the patronage of the census in a Presidential election year.

Following the traditional patterns of American politics, the Republicans are expected to use this patronage to solidify their organization for the November elections.

The census is prescribed in the Constitution and has been conducted every 10 years since 1790 for the purpose of making an accurate count of the population in order to apportion Congressional seats among the states.

Subsidize Edsel?

If the same philosophy prevailed for industry as for agriculture, the Ford Motor Co. would not have been forced to take a huge loss in discontinuing the line of Edsel motor cars.

Faith Weakens

Frank Chodorov, the brilliant and beloved author of "Income Tax — Root of All Evil," "One is a Crowd" and "Rise and Fall of Society," has just returned from a trip to Europe in which he visited three countries.

The reason for this amazing decline of socialist thought, as Chodorov sees it, is the starkly vivid wreck of just about every socialist scheme that has been brought off the continent and in Britain.

What Happens To The Income Of America's Big Business?

The American Economic Foundations in one of their folders called "The Economic Facts of Life" explains where the income of Big Business goes in this manner:

"Money is the life's blood of business and it flows through the veins of the economic body and provides purchasing power just as our blood provides oxygen and energy."

"A good illustration is the distribution of the income of big business."

"Last year the customers of the 100 largest corporations paid $141.6 billion for their goods and services."

"Here is the breakdown expressed in billions of dollars:

Received from Customers... $141.6
Cost of Materials and Services... $ 78.9 55.1%
Cost of Human Resources (Payroll, benefits, etc.)... $ 37.7 26.6

"Now lets see where the money went."

"ITEM 1. $78 billion was paid to suppliers for the goods and services needed in making and selling the products."

"It is important to note that this $78 billion was used by the suppliers in the same way to cover these same 5 costs, because they too, had to make payroll, provide for worn out tools, pay taxes, and pay for the use of their tools."

"This same process continued through every step of the production."

"So, obviously, the $78 billion flowed to many millions of people where it again became purchasing power."

"ITEM 2. The $37.7 billion of payroll and benefits was received by the 6.5 million employees of the 100 corporations, making the average income about $5,800."

"A large percentage (38%) never got into the hands of the employees because it represented fringe benefits paid directly to pension and insurance funds where it was promptly invested."

"A second amount ($17) never got to the employee because it represented his contribution added to the above benefit funds."

"A third amount ($52) never got to the employee because it was paid out as withholding tax to the U. S. Government where it was promptly spent."

"This left $4.23 which the employee received in cash."

"When he spent it about $413 (the taxes on what he bought) went to government and was also promptly spent."

"The rest of it ($37.7) went to the people he bought from."

Looking Sideways

by WHITNEY BOLTON

NEW YORK — The newspapers of New York are giving considerable space to the news that the house purchased in Manhattan by David Garraway, a performer on television, is authentically haunted.

It is not anything new to anyone who can read that Manhattan abounds in history with attendant violence. I am not talking now of the occasional murders committed by hired guns in the rackets and gangster divisions nor even of occasional romantic homicides in which desperate swains shoot or stab recalcitrant females.

In the Murray Hill area, now being covered with tall, glass skyscrapers, there was a whole street of Revolutionary mayhem and homicide, the Ft. Tryon section abounds in Revolutionary deaths and almost the entire island contains mementoes of Indian fighting long before the pale faces came along with some whisky, beads and $4.

All these killings, in the very nature of the unnatural, had to result in an island swarming with unhappy, earth-bound ghosts and they have been showing up for years. A lady of the utmost rectitude and honesty was once owner of a house down near Madison Square Park where, on every other Friday evening, Colonial Dames and their Gentlemen, in full Colonial costume, used to have a kind of dance complete with soft violins and the scrape of foot-leather.

Still another lady, in the Murray Hill area, used to hear cuttings and some juicy cursing in her hallways at night, even though her jewel of a little town house was locked up tight and no surly intruders possibly could have entered. She asked me once to come to dinner and sit with her in the hope that I, too, would hear the ghost in the hallway.

Still another lady, in the Murray Hill area, used to hear cuttings and some juicy cursing in her hallways at night, even though her jewel of a little town house was locked up tight and no surly intruders possibly could have entered.

Hankering

by HENRY McLEMORE

One of the causes for the fall of Louis XVI's court was too much manners. Perhaps the Kremlin's collapse will be helped along by the reverse — no manners at all.

Starting with Nikita Khrushchev, and moving downward, the Soviet ruling clique must be made up of the greatest collection of bores ever assembled in one country.

They welcome invited guests to their own land with a snarl and an insult, and travel with an ever ready sneer for their hosts.

There must be no such word as politeness in the Russian dictionary, else how could Russians of high rank be so grossly impolite?

A broad, Russian emissary rant, demand, sulk, threaten to walk out on tours, belittle everything they lay their eyes on, and brag of the glories and wonders of their form of life.

This sort of behavior would be unbecoming in a four-year-old boy with red hair and a bad temper, much less in so-called statesmen.

Only last week a visiting group of Soviet leaders went into a tantrum when their sudden decision to visit a steel mill in mid-afternoon on a Saturday was temporarily denied. They threatened to return to their hotel, lock themselves in, and pout and sulk. So their request was granted.

I would have been sorely tempted, had I been in charge of entertainment to have told them to go to their hotel rooms as fast as possible, and stay in them until the cows come home.

In Jacksonville, another group of Russian charmers lingered long enough at the airport while between planes to put the blast on the U.S. way of life. When their interpreter, a local woman, made it known that she had learned the language in Russia, where she was born, they wanted to know who on earth she ever left a heavenly spot for the U.S.

At home, they are equally impolite and inconsiderate. Remember how they insulted Prime Minister Macmillan when he visited them? And they didn't fall over backwards making Nixon feel welcome when he paid them a visit.

Emily Post or Amy Vanderbilt, or both, could make a mint of money with a book on behavior in the Russian language, for it is obvious they don't have one available.

Or maybe they do — only in reverse. I'd like to see it. Maybe it has chapter headings like these: "The Rudest Way to Propose a Toast to Someone's Health."

How to Make your Host Feel Completely Uncomfortable. Bad Manners in Ten Easy Lessons. Three Sure-Fire Ways to Offend. A Short-Cut to Obnoxiousness. So You Want to Be Despised, Eh? What to Wear to a Brainwashing. Loutishness Pays. It's Fun to Be Shunned. If the Russians are sincere in
