

Church Ushers Pass Out $5 Yule Gifts

DENISON, Tex. (UPI) — Imagine walking into church and having the ushers pass collection plates heaped with $5 bills and the preacher urging you to take one.

That is what happened Sunday at a Protestant service at Perrin Air Force Base. And it will happen again this weekend.

Chaplain Ransom B. Woods refuses to say where he got the money. He just smiles and says that "an anonymous Christian" has provided the funds to help unfortunate families have a better Christmas. He also refuses to say how much he has to give away.

How did the congregation take it?

"You should have seen the looks on their faces," Chaplain Woods said. "Some were skeptical of the whole thing... and others were just plain flabbergasted."

At the first service, only 88 of the 130 persons present took one of the bills.

Woods explained that the donor asked that the persons who took the money find someone less fortunate than themselves and use it to help give them a better Christmas.

Woods said the donor asked only two things — that the recipient write an anonymous letter to the chapel explaining how the money was used, and that the recipient read Matthew 25, which includes Jesus' philosophy on charity:

"Even as you have done it to the least of these my brethren, you have done unto me."

Empty Vote Boxes Eyed In Illinois

CHICAGO (UPI)—Cook County politicians peered into two empty ballot boxes today for a clue to alleged vote scandals that could leave Illinois out of the Electoral College.

At least 797 ballots cast in two far South Side precincts were missing in a "discovery" recheck of Nov. 8 county voting. They included 628 marked for Sen. John F. Kennedy and 169 for Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

In the 88th Precincts of the 9th Ward Kennedy beat Nixon 369 to 77. In the 58th Precinct of the 10th Ward, Kennedy won, 259 to 92.

The boxes were opened Monday as three-dozen teams conducted the Republican-financed recheck of Kennedy's lopsided county victory that helped the Democratic president-elect win the state's hotly-contested popular vote.

So far Nixon has gained fewer than one vote per precinct. He needs a per-precinct average of 10 votes in 906 county paper ballot precincts if the GOP hopes to use Cook County to overturn Kennedy's 8,656 statewide margin.

Chairman Sidney Holtzman of the election commission said he didn't know where the missing ballots were. Another commission spokesman said they might turn up in a box of unused ballots and other election supplies.

The "discovery" re-check has little more than publicity value, since official election board figures will stand unchanged unless a court orders a recount.

The empty ballot boxes, latest in a series of quirks in the Cook County vote, were sure to come to the attention of the GOP-dominated Illinois electoral board which was preparing to meet again at Springfield.

The board, headed by defeated GOP Gov. William G. Stratton, last week threatened to leave Illinois' vote uncertified, thus leaving the state's 27-vote bloc out of Electoral College counting.

Democrats have said a mandamus suit could force certification of Illinois' votes, and Democratic electors generally expected their votes to count.

Reds Get Tougher

MOSCOW (UPI) — International Communism today presented a tougher and more self-assured front to the rest of the world despite its proclaimed wish to co-exist with the West in peace.

The 1960 manifesto made public Monday night took a more aggressive attitude toward the West — and the United States in particular — than did the last manifesto issued in 1957.

Each paragraph of the 20,000-word document was carefully worked out at the recent Communist summit meeting of leaders from 81 national Communist parties behind the Kremlin walls.

Much of the wording was identical to the 1957 document and not one basic new idea was introduced. But there were new refinements and degrees of emphasis. These will be stressed and provide the basis for Pravda editorials and Communist party policies generally until the next international party conclave.

In the new document, "Yugoslav revisionism" was attacked directly. Yugoslavia was not mentioned by name in 1957.

The 1960 manifesto singles out "U.S. imperialism" as "the main factor in aggression and war." In 1957 the United States was lumped with other imperialists.

On capitalism in general, the Communists have now proclaimed it is going through a "crisis... an intense process of disintegration and decay."

The 1960 document warns that the Communist countries will "defend" East Germany, a phrase missing from the 1957 manifesto.

City Signs Largest Contract In History

The City of Pampa today signed its biggest contract in the history of local municipal government.

At its regular weekly session in City Hall the City Commission authorized Mayor Ed Myatt and City Secretary Edwin Vicars to affix their signatures to a $6-million dollar contract with the Canadian River Municipal Water Authority to provide the city's water supply of the future.

The contract binds the city to annual payments over the next 50 years. The first yearly payment will be $153,000 and ranges upward each year until a final payment of $264,000.

Final approval was given by the commission to an ordinance for the paving of the 1100 block of S. Christy from Bond to Crawford Sts. at a cost of $7,789.58 of which $2,276 will be assessed against property owners in the block.

Mayor Myatt explained that the S. Christy paving authorization was the result of "citizen participation" in the preliminary work needed to get street improvements.

"This kind of cooperation by citizens" means a great deal to the city in getting needed improvements started," the Mayor said.

"We just don't have the manpower to call on the property owners individually and lay the initial groundwork on all projects."

Torturing Of Lumumba Is Denied

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (UPI)—Army strongman Col. Joseph Mobutu today denounced as "odious and scandalous" reports that arrested former Premier Patrice Lumumba had been tortured.

He was commenting on a report filed with the United Nations by Rajeshwar Dayal of India, the U.N. special representative in the Congo.

Mobutu told a press conference Lumumba was in "satisfactory health," and indignantly denied his arch-foe was being subjected to "inhumane" treatment by his captors.

The press conference coincided with reports that pro-Lumumba troops have driven into Equatorial Province from their Oriental Province stronghold, posing a new threat of civil war in the crisis-torn republic. Mobutu insisted, however, that his troops had the situation well under control.

Reports of pro-Lumumba military activities said a force had penetrated 15 miles inside Equatorial Province to the town of Bumba on the Congo River. Mobutu ordered his soldiers to intercept the rebels.

The rebel force — its strength was not disclosed — was said to have pushed westward from Stanleyville, capital of Oriental Province whose "secession" from the Congo was proclaimed by Lumumba's supporters after his capture by Mobutu's troops.

Tiff Looms If Defense Plan Pushed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Stuart Symington's defense reorganization proposals could plunge President-elect John F. Kennedy into a bitter battle with Congress at the start of the new administration.

The plan, made public Monday, seemingly would carry the armed forces a long way toward the merger that has been opposed repeatedly by powerful congressional leaders and is fought savagely by the Navy.

Symington, former Air Force secretary, and his five-man committee, largely leaning toward the Air Force philosophy, were named by Kennedy before the election to study defense reorganization. They produced a more drastic scheme than expected which the Missouri Democrat claimed could cut defense spending by $8 billion a year.

The claim was pounced on at the Pentagon by authorities who said the only way that much money — more than 20 per cent of the defense budget — could be saved would be by making huge cuts in manpower and weapons buying.

It remained to be seen how much of the Symington blueprint Kennedy would adopt. He promised during the campaign to overhaul the "creaking" Pentagon machinery, which was last overhauled less than two years ago.

Nine Sites Classified In Report

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Labor Department today classified nine more major industrial centers as areas of "substantial" unemployment, placing more than one-third of the nation's big factory communities in this category.

Fifty-one of the country's 150 main manufacturing areas now have substantial joblessness, meaning 6 per cent or more of the workers are unemployed. The department forecast a further rise in unemployment next month after a job increase just before Christmas.

The department's bi-monthly report also added eight smaller industrial areas to the substantial unemployment list, making a total of 123. One smaller center was dropped.

President-elect John F. Kennedy appointed a special committee Sunday to consider ways of helping such distressed areas.

Job cutbacks in steel, aircraft, aluminum and other durable goods manufacturing primarily were responsible for the new areas of substantial unemployment, the Labor Department said.

President, Kennedy Meet For Talk On Transition

WASHINGTON (UPI) — With a big grin and a hearty handshake, President Eisenhower today welcomed his successor—John F. Kennedy—to the White House to discuss the problems of the transition of government.

Eisenhower was waiting on the front porch of the White House to welcome Kennedy when the president-elect drove up at 9:02 a.m.

The 43-year-old Kennedy's only words on arrival were "Good morning, Mr. President" as he stepped briskly up the six steps to shake hands with Eisenhower.

"Senator, I'd have come down there but these photographers wouldn't let me do it," the chief executive laughingly told the president-elect in explanation of why he had not been at the bottom of the steps to greet him.

At their first meeting since Kennedy's election Nov. 8, there was an atmosphere of amiable good humor between the two men.

Eisenhower broke off a flurry of picture taking with a terse "okay" and then gave a V-fingered wave to the photographers as he turned and escorted Kennedy into the White House.

Both men were ruddy and tanned from their recent vacations. The President wore a brown single-breasted suit and brown felt hat. Kennedy was in a dark blue pinstriped single-breasted suit, a dark tie and carried a blue-gray fedora in his hand.

Kennedy rode to the White House in a borrowed four-door white convertible accompanied only by a Secret Service driver and an agent in the front seat, plus a follow-up car of agents and one press car.

The president-elect, who has a habit of sometimes running late for engagements took no chances today and started in plenty of time. About three blocks from the White House, the Secret Service determined that Kennedy was running ahead of schedule, so they turned off Pennsylvania Avenue and drove slowly around a block.

Then it began to look like he would run a few minutes late. There was frantic waving from the Secret Service escort, and a policeman on the corner of 18th and Pennsylvania Avenue helped the three cars out of a traffic jam. Other policemen at the big intersection of 17th and Pennsylvania waved him through and right on the nose at 9 a.m. Kennedy's car approached the northwest gate.

He drove through a corridor of Marines, sailors, soldiers and airmen while the Marine Band blared "The Stars and Stripes Forever."

A crowd of several hundred stood in the chill morning outside the White House gate to await Kennedy's arrival. A cheer went up as he arrived.

Cold Wind Rolls Over Panhandle

Snow flurries and freezing rain slugged the Panhandle today making driving conditions dangerous as a new cold front swept into Texas. Rain showers drenched a wide belt across the rest of the northern half of the state.

The Weather Bureau issued a special heavy snow warning for the Panhandle Monday night calling for two to four inches, but today lifted the warning and said only light amounts were expected.

Flurries of snow, whipped by winds gusting to over 35 miles per hour, crusted the ground at Amarillo and Childress shortly before daybreak. Freezing rain was reported at Dalhart. The front extended along an east-west line just north of Tyler south of the Dallas-Fort Worth area, south of Abilene and Lubbock.

Thunderstorms moved through the Dallas-Fort Worth area and light showers fell throughout the rest of North Central Texas and stretched into South Central Texas as far as Austin and into the upper half of Northeast Texas past Texarkana into Arkansas.

Midland and Wink had fog. The skies over Texas were gloomy except for a partly cloudy in extreme West Texas and along the Rio Grande.

At 6 a.m. today the mercury had skidded to 23 at Dalhart and was expected to drop another 10 degrees tonight. Brownsville had a pre-dawn reading of 69 for the high in the state. Much colder weather was predicted for the entire state by tonight.

The Weather Bureau said the rain mostly in intermittent showers or drizzle, would continue over all sections of Texas throughout the day, tonight and Wednesday.

The mass of frigid Canadian air, moving slowly, first crossed Texas borders Monday afternoon. It struck during a pleasant, sunny day in the Panhandle, but in less than an hour temperatures plunged 14 degrees to 48 at Dalhart.

Above normal temperatures prevailed over the rest of Texas, brownsville had 82 degree weather during the day, the warmest in the state, and temperatures ranged in the 70's or high 60's over most other areas.

Weekly 'Gift' Reddens Floridians Face

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Every week the mailman brought a plain brown envelope containing $25 to a Florida road department official.

The official wasn't quite sure where the money was coming from and he certainly would never dream of doing anything improper for it.

That was the explanation emerging today from a congressional investigation into the ethics of the government and business officials who build Florida's roads.

Malcolm L. Kimble, an assistant for the state, testified Monday he had received only "spasmodic" $25 weekly payments from Cone Brothers.

The House highway subcommittee has heard three officials give this explanation of the $8,350 they received from Cone Brothers contracting company in Tampa.

Today, the investigators called seven more state officials, the job superintendent for Cone Brothers and an official from Erinson-Alten, another Tampa construction company.

School Blockade Broken By Police

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—A busload of police broke a white blockade around an integrated elementary school today and attendance at the school jumped to 23 whites and one Negro girl.

Nearly 100 police, many of them arriving in a chartered bus, set up blockades of their own and held the angry women — called "the cheerleaders"—a block away from the William Frantz school.

The women's screams and jeers were barely audible at the school when parents began bringing their children in. The children came in six cars, three of which passed the police blockade where the women were standing and were cursed loudly.

Pioneer Gas Takes Option On Hotel Plot

Pioneer Gas Co. has taken an option to purchase six acres of the southeast corner of the Coronado Inn property to be used for development of the company's facilities in Pampa.

The tract, which is being sold by the Community Hotel Corp., owners of the Coronado Inn, is located at Hobart and Gwendolyn.

Pioneer's president, C. I. Wall, said in Amarillo late yesterday the company has no immediate plans for developing the property since the lease on its present facilities at 217 N. Ballard runs for another four and a half years.

Floyd Imel, president of the Hotel Realty Co., said the option agreement was signed last Thursday. Wall said the purchase price in the option is $75,000 and added that the gas company was looking into the future when it decided to buy the property.

"This seemed to be the most logical site for the kind of company expansion we have in mind." (See PIONEER, Page 2)

Frigid, Snow-Laden Storm Set To Swipe Plains Area

By United Press International
A snow and wind-laden storm center coiled in southern New Mexico today for a chill strike northeast across the plains. The Weather Bureau posted heavy snow warnings for stockers and farmers in the Texas and Oklahoma Panhandle, promising four inches of snow by midday. The storm poured through the Rockies Monday, dropping 6.6 inches of snow in Denver and leaving four-foot drifts in Wyoming. Denver, with 11 inches of snow in three days, was hardest hit by the storm. Hospitals treated an estimated 300 storm-caused accidents and three deaths were blamed on weather. Icy runways closed Denver's Stapleton Field to some jet planes while frozen power lines disrupted telephone and electric service. Farther north, a second late-autumn blizzard whistled southward from Canada, piling up six foot drifts in 60 m.p.h. winds in the Dakotas and bringing steadily falling early morning temperatures to the northern Rockies and Great Lakes. Easterners, meanwhile, looked forward to another day of record breaking warmth. Thermometers in New York City pushed to 61.9 degrees, the warmest Dec. 5 since 1916, and a 73.1 reading at Richmond, Va., set a new record. Rain was expected in advance of sharply plunging temperatures today from the western Gulf states into the Great Lakes. Snow and snow flurries was looked for control of the northern section of the Congo. Mobutu himself claimed he had the situation in hand and had refrained from wiping out the dissidents only because he wished to prevent further bloodshed. He claimed his troops controlled the region but the United Nations has requested him not to aggravate the situation. However, he ordered the army garrison at Lisama, 70 miles west of Bumba, to disarm and arrest the pro-Lumumba force. Observers doubted the rebels would surrender without a fight. Lumumba was captured by Mobutu's troops last Thursday as he tried to reach Stanleyville. He is being held in the army barracks at Thysville, south of Leopoldville, for trial on charges that probably will amount to near treason.

Both Imel and Wall said the two parties to the option agreement expected the purchase contract to be finalized shortly after the first of the year.

Little Fella's Judo Subdues Huge Bandit

WICHITA FALLS (UPI)—Dale Mendenhall, 62, an oilfield roughneck, isn't very big, but he was more than a match for the husky would-be bandit twice his size. Police said today his timely action prevented an armed robbery and maybe even saved the life of S. C. Duckworth, who was held up in his car while he was driving to the bank with a sack full of money. The bandit, who told police, his name was "John Smith," jerked open the door of Duckworth's car when he stopped Monday for a signal light. He started beating Duckworth on the head with his pistol.

Mendenhall, 5-3 and about 135 pounds, was across the street. He ran to Duckworth's aid, and although the bandit was 6-3 and 260 pounds, he felled him with a single blow. "I just gave him a judo chop in the throat," Mendenhall said. Mendenhall barely escaped serious injury himself. During the scuffle, Duckworth's foot hit the gas pedal and the car zoomed forward. Mendenhall had his arm inside the car, and was dragged down the street. He was treated for cuts and bruises and released. Duckworth was hospitalized with head injuries from the pistol-whipping, and the covered bandit went to jail.

Police Checking Suspects' Alibi
Pampa police are continuing to check the story of two men held in Cordell, Okla., as possible suspects in the armed robbery of Min-it Mart No. 4 in Pampa last Thursday night.

Police Capt. Dennis Roan said today he was in Cordell yesterday with Herbert Shanks, manager of the store, to question the men who are held there for the $2,500 robbery of a C. R. Anthony store Saturday night. Capt. Roan said the two men had an alibi which would have made it impossible for them to be in Pampa at the time of the Min-it Mart holdup and added that this was the angle police are checking.

Witchcraft Widespread Among Rural Europeans

FRANKFURT (UPI) — While people elsewhere are satellite-spotting, thousands of persons in rural Europe are still scanning the heavens for witches on broomsticks.

In Germany alone, more than 70 cases involving witchcraft come before the courts each year. Most of them are brought against exorcists for defaming men and women as wizards and witches.

Books of black magic still are best sellers in remote areas, and several German scholars have devoted their lives to tracing modern survivals of ancient beliefs.

One of them, Hamburg folklore student Dr. Herbert Auhof, this year published a book called "Superstition and Sorcery" in which he described modern crimes traceable to beliefs in magic and witchcraft.

In 1856, he wrote, a young farmer murdered his 12-day-old child because it was born prematurely. According to ancient superstition, such children become witches.

In 1937, a man killed his sister-in-law in Switzerland because he believed she was a witch.

Several years earlier a workman died after an exorcist told him to eat seven poisonous mushrooms to cure a skin ailment.

A woman in Flemsburg, Germany, committed suicide in 1953 after a fortune teller predicted her husband's death.

Other instances cited by Auhof included that of a 19-year-old boy who killed his grandfather and hanged himself because he believed the old man had inflicted a stomach ailment on him, and a 1958 beating of an elderly widow by two young men who accused her of using sorcery.

Much of the rural belief in witchcraft stems from the so-called "sixth and seventh books of Moses," a widely-circulated hodgepodge of superstition dating back to the middle ages.

Early in the middle ages, the legend arose that Moses received more than the Ten Commandments on Mt. Sinai. "Handwritten original" of the two extra books are said to have been handed down through the centuries, closely guarded by sorcerers.

Luxury editions of the two books — printed on hand-made paper and bound in leather — have been produced and sold, even in recent years. They cost as much as $20 or $30.

The "sixth book" opens with the declaration that it contains, "the magic skills of Moses, the secret declaration that it contains, 'the magic skills of Moses, the secret make pacts with him, how to say prayers in reverse, and how to sacrifice a fawn.

The books also contain "remedies" for vast numbers of illnesses. Earthworms, manure, frogs, snakes, spiders and the eyes of salamanders are a few of the ingredients.

The books also tell how to recognize witches, thus contributing to the yearly stream of defamation cases that reach the courts. Many other cases, in which the "witch" may only suffer quiet ostracism, are never brought to court.

Home Betterment Guide Is Helpful

Dozens of ideas for home improvements appear in photos, sketches and narrative in the Masonite Home Improvement Guide, issued by Masonite Corporation, a charter member of the Home Improvement Council.

Specific ideas for up-dating various rooms and increasing the storage facilities of your home are included in the colorful booklet, which is available free by writing the Home Service Bureau, Suite 2037, 111 W. Washington St., Chicago 2, Ill.

Included are photos showing remodeled bedrooms, recreation areas, garages, workshops, and other rooms. For some, a free plan is available. A section describes various hardboards and shows how easy it is to work with them.

Previously called Kent, Londonberry, Vt., was given its new name by homesick arrivals from Londonberry, N.H.

Teachers, Parents Also Are Against Homework

By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press International

Children who hate homework might be surprised to learn how many parents and teachers secretly share their sentiments.

It is altogether possible that homework is even more unpopular with the adults who enforce it than with the youngsters who do it.

Homework is a hairshirt for conscientious parents, because they feel personally responsible for seeing that it gets done. This may require a lot of nagging, which can be as annoying to the nagger as to the naggee. It frequently puts parents in the unhappy position of depriving a child of rest and recreation which they honestly feel he needs.

Parents are also faced with an external quandary about how much they should help with homework.

Some parents, under the guise of "helping," actually take over a child's assignments and do his work for him. Others refuse to give any advice or assistance whatever. The majority muddle along, trying to find a happy medium between these two extremes, and never knowing whether they are doing too much or too little.

Students may suspect that their teachers derive a sadistic satisfaction from passing out homework. But the opposite is usually the case. Teachers have abundant reasons of their own for taking a dim view of homework.

Although practices vary widely from one school to another, a normal pattern is to require no homework in the early grades of elementary school, from an hour to an hour and a half nightly in junior high school, and from one and a half to two hours nightly in senior high school.

Many educators feel that this progressive load is necessary to help children develop the independent study habits which they will need to continue their education, either in college or in the larger school of life.

Although homework cannot be eliminated, these educators say, steps can be taken to make it less onerous.

High school teachers can be required to coordinate their assignments, so that they don't pile a crushing burden on students on any given night.

Homework assignments can be restricted to four nights a week, leaving weekends free for other activities.

Most important of all, the assignments can be made interesting and imaginative, rather than dull rote work.

Surprisingly little research has been done to determine the actual effects of homework on a child's educational progress. But there have been studies which shed much light on the conditions necessary for efficient homework. They are, in order of importance, privacy, quiet, interest in the subject, freedom from worries and competing interests, and clearly-understood assignments.

One point has been indisputably established by scientific tests: All children — repeat, all children — are distracted when a radio, phonograph or television set is competing for their attention while they are doing their homework. Even music is distracting.

Some children are able to maintain a sufficiently high degree of concentration to work in spite of such a distraction, but they do so at a cost of increased effort and tension, and decreased efficiency.

Talks Recessed
GENEVA, (UPI) — The Big Three nuclear test ban talks recessed today for two months.

The United States, the Soviet Union and Great Britain agreed to resume the two-year-old talks on Feb. 7.

Western sources said the recess would give President-elect John F. Kennedy's administration a chance to review past progress and chart future moves in the nuclear conference.

HOW'S THAT?—Sign in Willow Grove, Pa., could really discourage a young unsuspecting scholar. (If it didn't refer to cars.)

Novel Room Divider Has Louvers

Simplified design and modern building materials make it relatively simple to install a divider between living and dining rooms.

One of the various types is quite "different" from the conventional. It consists of several vertical louvers suspended between the floor and a horizontal framing member six feet high.

Six to eight inches wide, each louver has a pivot made by nailing a one-inch half round on each side. Ends of the half rounds extend above and below the louver to fit into holes of 1/4" diameter which have been bored in the supporting members. The louvers may be inserted and removed easily if the hole at the top is deep and the one at the bottom is shallow.

Primed and colorfully painted, the louvers simply are turned by hand to afford ventilation or privacy.

For home owners who prefer a room divider with storage, an interesting combination has a cabinet below and adjustable louvers above.

District Governor Of Lions To Visit
Ralph R. Thomas, retired Gray County agriculture agent and district governor 2-TI, Lions International, will be special guest of the Pampa Lions Club in its meeting Thursday noon in the First Methodist Church.

The purpose of his visit will be to advise and assist Norman Henry, president, and O. K. Gaylor, secretary of the local organization in matters concerning the club. He is one of the 361 district governors who supervise activities of the more than 17,000 Lions Clubs.

Letters To Santa Claus

Dear Santa: I've been a pretty good boy this year—most of the time. I would love to have a rocket set, basket for my new bike and a horn for my new bike and a bridge and building set.

I'll be a real good boy 'till Christmas. I love you Larry Keatts Dear Santa: I am 3 years old and I'm a pretty good boy. For Christmas I would like three things—a cattle truck, 2 gun holster set and a cowboy suit and the rest surprise.

I saw you in the parade. I love you Mark Dear Santa: I want a nurse's K for Christmas. (EDITOR'S NOTE: There was no signature attached. Rather, a chubby Santa and the words Ho Ho Ho!)

Dear Santa: For Christmas I want an adventure With Plants, Adventure With Rocks kit. Suzan wants a Tiny Tear Doll, paint set, and a monkey sticks. Linda wants a Tiny Tear Doll, cooking set and dishes. Love Linda, Suzan and Nick

Dear Santa: My name Johnny Epperson and I am 9 years old. I have two brothers, Scotty and Gary. I have one sister Betty Ann who is 17 months old. Would you bring her a baby doll, telephone, dishes and cradle for her doll. I would like to have a football game, a Rebel Gun, a rope pistol. I have tried to be good this year. I hope all the other boys and girls get what they want. Sincerely Yours Johnny

Dear Santa: I want a Bar-Bie doll and I want a long jump rope. Love Cathy Whitley Dear Santa: I want a lish and I want a little Toy Diddy Bear. Love, my dog Mingtoy Santa Claus: I am really write this letter for Mingtoy.

Dear Santa: I would like for you to bring me a chatty-Kathy doll for Christmas and some clothes for her. I would also like some pajamas shoes for me and some new pajamas. We'll leave some cookies and milk for you on Christmas Eve night. Jill Hawkins 1523 Hamilton

Dear Santa: I have been a good boy and I would like for you to send me a B-B gun, holster set, air gun and a set of golden sparkler water colors. I am 6 years old and my mother thinks I been a good boy. With love Paul Hammens Jr. Box 423 White Deer

Dear Santa: I know how to take my bath. I am 5 years old. I want to know how big you are. I live at 1506 coffee so please come to see me. Now to get to the business, I would like to have any of these things if you have them — a coke set, accordion, watch, store, filling station, far, set. My sister and brudder are good too. Se you soon. Thanks for the favors. I saw you in the parade and you were kinda scary. Kent Dunn 1506 Coffee

Dear Santa: I am only three years old and cannot write, so will tell Grannie what to tell you. I have a baby sister one year old and her name is Maria Denise. I want you to bring me a toy box with my name on it. Denise wants one too. I also want a big doll bed for Denise (she's too little to tell you what she wants) but I already have one and when she gets bigger we can play dolls. We would both like a doll. Don't forget

He Should Know

Discontent Promotes Success, Says Expert

NEW YORK (UPI) — Discontent is the keystone of success, according to Stanley Arnold.

At 45, this mass of energy offers himself as the prime proof of his own theory. He is discontented. And he is successful.

Arnold's discontent manifested itself first in his decision to break away from a flourishing family chain of supermarkets in Cleveland, Ohio, and then two years ago in his decision to quit a large advertising agency and go into business for himself.

He sells ideas. He dreams them up in his cloud factory in a new bronze and glass skyscraper on Park Avenue with wall to wall carpeting and floor to ceiling windows.

The ideas Arnold sells to businesses and industries range from packaging rubber heels for shoe-makers by the gross instead of individually to convincing E. I. DuPont to stimulate business by staging a contest.

It was with contests that Arnold made his fame and most of his fortune. He thinks up contests described on cereal boxes and in newspaper and magazine advertisements. He also has introduced the idea of giving away premiums to some staid firms that were balky at first.

Arnold's measure of success is solely a result of "curiosity and discontent," he says.

"If you are never satisfied," he said in an interview, "you will think things up that can be used in a better way. If you are curious, you will ask questions that will lead to a better way."

"I've never found a client who didn't think he was doing all right. I always ask 'Why don't you do better?'" I keep noodling behind the scenes. If a business is a billion-dollar-a-year concern, I ask why is it not a billion and a half? You have to be completely discontented with what exists."

Arnold looks upon himself as a benefactor of the business economy as an "ideation engineer."

"You might call us dream and scream, inc.," he said. "It is not enough to have an idea. You must sell it. You must sell with all your might."

The most effective idea is not always the most costly or spectacular, he said. For example, he was asked once to provide a

Kennedy Eyes Site For Tots In Virginia

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President-elect John F. Kennedy is looking for a Virginia retreat where his two children can occasionally get away from "governmental atmosphere."

But he told reporters Monday night that no decision has been made on any specific property. He has been reported to be looking for an estate in Middleburg, Va., in the Virginia horse country. His wife, Jacqueline, is an excellent horsewoman.

Kennedy said he was looking for the Virginia retreat because it's "good for young children to get out of governmental atmosphere."

The Kennedys' three-story brick Georgetown house is up for sale. But Kennedy said tonight he has not yet found a buyer.

DISCLOSE MISSILE BASE

LONDON (UPI) — Japanese intelligence officials have aerial photos showing the Soviet Union is building a missile base in Kamchatka Peninsula "whose target appears to be China," the Sunday Times said Sunday. The newspaper said the base would be equipped with 3,000-mile range missiles.

Excited Convict — Nottingham, England (UPI) — Prison officials speculated today a trusty who slipped away from his guard and fellow prisoners Sunday night "may have been over-excited" by a crime film at a public theater.

Dear Abby...

Theological Thespian Should Keep Dignity

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a minister who would direct a play and take a leading part in this play in which he portrayed a drunk who cursed and took the name of our Lord in vain?

The play was "The Caine Mutiny" and was open to the public to raise funds for the Church. The cursing this minister did in this play was fierce! If he hadn't been our clergyman I wouldn't have minded so much. How can he justify breaking the Third Commandment? I'd like your views and also those of other clergymen, please.

husband. She is married and has children. I could tell her husband and break up her home but I hate to do that to innocent children. Please put this in the paper for my husband to see. He never misses your column. I want him to know I am on to them. If they don't stop seeing each other I will be forced to tell her husband. I can't stand it any more.

"HAD ENOUGH"

DEAR WITHHOLD MY NAME: Your clergyman should have realized that first and foremost he is a minister—not an actor. If he wanted to act in a play, he should have selected one in which his role would have been in keeping with the dignity of his office. Ministers, too, are human, and sometimes err.

Who pays for what? For Abby's pamphlet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

DEAR ABBY: How do you get rid of a boyfriend you don't care for?

Worthwhile Home Demonstration Club held its annual Christmas party and gift exchange on Friday evening in the home of Mrs. N. L. Welton, east of the city.

DEAR HELEN: Introduce him to a girl you don't care for.

During the evening, Miss Lou Ella Patterson, Gray County Home Demonstration agent, installed officers for the coming year in an informal but impressive ceremony.

DEAR ABBY: Recently my mother-in-law, who has been a widow for six years, became "engaged." She is in her late forties and he is in his middle fifties. He gave her an "engagement ring," of all things. I have always been under the impression that it was poor taste for a woman who has been married before (and owns one engagement ring) to accept another. Please enlighten me and others who have this question in mind.

Taking office are Mmes. Shelby Hood, for a second term as president; Lester Reynolds, vice president; Odie Skinner, secretary; O. G. Smith, treasurer. Mrs. Hood appointed Mmes. J. L. Carlton, W. G. Kinzer and Roy Tinsley to the auditing committee. During the recreational hour, Mrs. Smith led the group in games and the singing of Christmas carols.

DEAR DISGUSTED: There is no limit to the number of engagement rings a woman may accept. It is simply the "token" that accompanies a promise to wed. If a woman accepts a proposal of marriage, she may accept the token that goes with it.

Refreshments were served in a setting of festive holiday decorations.

Attending were Mmes. L. M. Bryant, N. B. Cude, Billy Kennedy and Mary Kay; Boyd Brown, Pearl Ferguson, O. A. Wagner, D. L. Lunsford.

Guests were Mmes. E. D. LaFrance, J. C. Hopperstand, J. L. Allen, Matilda Smith and Miss Yvonne Reynolds.

Achievement Day Held By Clubs

CANADIAN (Sp) — The annual Arts and Crafts Club and Hobby Club Achievement Day was held recently in the WCTU Building.

Mrs. Bill Ramp, president of the Arts and Crafts Club welcomed guests and introduced the program.

A solo, "I Believe in Miracles," was sung by Mrs. Bill Popham, accompanied by Mrs. Dwan Currie.

A book review, "Mrs. Daffodil" by Gladys Tabor was given by Mrs. Bud Hoobler.

The serving table was centered with a fall bouquet of light - blue sprayed dandelion puffs and poppy pods, and silver sprayed foliage. The table was covered with a white drawn-work cloth over light blue. Blue tapers and blue napkins completed the color scheme.

Mrs. Janet Fry, president of the Hobby Club, and Mrs. Ramp presided at the punch bowl and coffee service.

About 175 members and their guests attended the affair.

HD Clubs Hold Annual Yule Fete

Gray County Home Demonstration Clubs held their annual Christmas Party on Friday afternoon in the County Courthouse annex.

Council officers for the new council year were installed by Miss Lou Ella Patterson, Gray County Home Demonstration agent.

Introduction of members and guests was made by each one telling her name and what she wanted for Christmas. A game session followed the introductions.

Gifts were exchanged and the clubs presented Miss Patterson with an electric-coffeemaker.

Refreshments of coffee and Santa Claus cookies were served.

Attending were Mmes. Lester Reynolds, W. G. Kinzer, J. L. Carlton, Pearl Ferguson, Shelby Hood, L. M. Bryant, Boyd Brown, Emma Tinsley, all of the Worthwhile Home Demonstration Club; Mmes. Jack Prather, Jack Howard, Vard Smith of the Merten Home Demonstration Club; Mmes. D. W. Swain, Tom Anderwald of the Bell HD Club; Mmes. Leland Diamond, W. E. Astry Jr., Vickie and Diane, C. P. Coombes, D. Z. Neustiel, A. B. Hicks, Marjyn Rowan, Sidney Jackson and daughter, Ray Frazier of the Goodwill HD Club; Miss Patterson and a guest, Lydia O'Neal.

The Hope Circle of Woman's Society of Christian Service of St. Paul Methodist Church opened its Wednesday morning meeting with prayer by Mrs. James Hall. The group met in the home of Mrs. James Scholl, 1101 Juniper.

During a short business meeting, conducted by Mrs. W. F. Gaines, circle leader, members voted to bring a love offering for the Conference Daughters instead of member-gift exchange.

Mrs. Bill Sargeant, in presenting a program on Christmas customs, discussed the meaning of the coming of Christ and Christmas. She illustrated the season of Advent by lighting four Advent candles set in a wreath; one candle for each week of Advent. She suggested scripture, meditation and prayer which might be used for each week of Advent for the family worship in homes.

Refreshments were served during the social hour by the hostess.

Attending the meeting were Mmes. W. F. Gaines, James Scholl, James Hall, Bill Taylor, Billy J. Kennedy, E. D. Wight, L. M. Davis, Bill Sargeant, and Bill Matejovsky.

The next circle meeting will be held Dec. 28 at 9:45 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Odie Skinner.

The Joy Circle of St. Paul WSCS met in the home of Mrs. Don Stephens in Skelly Camp.

Mrs. George Eyer was in charge of the program, "One World, One Mission". Mrs. Dan Cotten and Mrs. Eyer reported on the work of Methodist missionaries followed by a discussion of the work and needs of Conference Daughters, who are missionaries supported by this district conference. The program closed with a discussion of what could be done to interest youth in missionary work.

Following a short business meeting, conducted by Mrs. Joe Astry, circle leader, it was decided to bring a love offering for Conference Daughters to the Christmas Party instead of exchanging gifts.

Refreshments were served during the social hour.

Attending were Mmes. Lonnie Lollar, Joe Astry, Jack Riley, Ira Carlton, Carl King, George Eyer, H. W. Mason, James Russell, Don Cotten, Don Stephens, Miss Francis Lenning and a guest, Mrs. Eaton.

Mrs. Jack Riley will be hostess for the Dec. 28 meeting at 9:45 a.m.

Harvesters (1-1) Host Improving Phillips

Pampans Seek First 1960 Home Victory

By ARTHUR MAYHEW
Daily News Sports Editor

Pampa's Harvesters, who have already tasted victory and defeat in the young basketball season, open their home schedule at 8 p.m. today against improving Phillips (2-2) at Harvester Gym.

Coach Dean Evans' Shockers looking more and more like the class of the sophomore circuit, take their unsoiled 2-0 record into a 6:15 game with Phillips 'B' in the opener.

The Harvesters (1-1) chalked up their first victory Saturday night at Childress, dumping the Bobcats, 73-50, after Quannah had slipped up on the Pampans, 60-57, the night before in Quannah.

Phillips, meanwhile, has won its last two games—58-38 over Perryton and 54-36 over Claude—after dropping its opening pair, 52-36 to Tascosa and 49-44 to Childress.

The Blackhaws, who posted a 13-14 record last year and finished in third place in District 1-3A, have four starters returning and are one of the district favorites.

Back are Ed Pennington, 6-4 senior, and Ken Moore, 6-2 senior, at Phillips' tandem-post offense. Also, 5-10 junior Jackie Gray and 5-10 junior Ken Hunt are returnees.

The lone "outsider" to break into the lineup this year is another junior, Phillip Johnson, 5-9.

If the first two games are any indication, Pampa Coach Terry Culley will count on Pat Carter, 5-10 senior, and Larry Stroud, 6-2 senior, to handle the major part of the scoring.

Carter hit 28 points in the Childress game and 11 against Quannah before fouling out in the third quarter to pace the Pampa point makers with 39 points. Stroud, working off the low post, has scored 30 points, 13 against Quannah and 17 against Childress.

Bill Neslage, 5-11 senior guard, has 25 points to rank third in Harvester scoring and his steady floor play against Childress aided the victory.

In one change in the starting lineup, Gordon Balch probably will replace brother Lloyd at forward. Gordon, only a sophomore, displayed plenty of poise in Pampa's first two games.

Allen Wise, 6-3 senior postman, will round out Culley's starting five, but Jim Crinklaw and Mike Stewart should also see extended action.

Randy Matson, 6-4 sophomore, who should help the Harvesters on the backboards once his broken foot completely mends, probably won't see action for another two weeks but will be suited up for the Phillips contest.

Tonight's game will be the home debut of Culley, who replaced Clifton McNeely this year as head basketball coach after serving eight seasons as first assistant.

PAMPA HARVESTERS, '60 STYLE — Coach Terry Culley, kneeling, will send out his Green and Gold charges at 8 p.m. tonight in quest of their first home victory of the year. Members of the team are, from left, Charles Fant, Bill Neslage, Jim Crinklaw, Lloyd Balch, Bob Neslage, Allen Wise, Randy Matson, Larry Stroud, Harold Burgess, Gordon Balch, Mike Stewart and Pat Carter. 3-4A Teams Resume Play

District 3-4A sends out seven teams tonight in a rugged schedule that finds only Borger's Bulldogs unbeaten among the conference's teams.

Borger (3-0) polished off nemesis Midland 48-33, and then beat Seminole, 59-39, over the weekend to capture the Seminole tournament. Tonight they meet Dimmitt, winner of the Plainview tournament and proud possessor of one of the state's top athletes: Junior Coffey, in Borger.

Amarillo (2-1) pre-season 3-A pick, found the Odessa Broncos too wild to tame and lost its first game of the year, 67-50, Friday night but came back to defeat Permian, 67-61, Saturday night.

The Sandies go to Reford tonight to play a team that was beaten, 101-85, by Palo Duro last week. Palo Duro (2-1) treks to Dumas tonight after splitting a weekend series with two Odessa schools, losing to Permian, 55-53, and beating Ector, 59-52.

Plainview, (2-2), finalists in its own tournament over the weekend, travels to Seminole, Lubbock (2-2) is at Littlefield and Monterey (2-3) hosts Levelland.

Tascosa (2-2) is idle.

Chamberlain, Baylor Set Hot Point Pace

NEW YORK (UPI)—Elgin Baylor of Los Angeles and Wilt Chamberlain of Philadelphia are scoring at a pace torrid enough to break Wilt's National Basketball Association point-making record set last season.

Baylor continued his slim lead over Chamberlain this past week as his point production reached 849 for 24 games. Wilt, who tallied 2,707 points during the 1959-60 season, has netted 833 in 22 contests. NBA teams play four more games this season than last. Chamberlain retained his lead over Baylor in the rebounding, snaring 619 for a 28.1 average. Baylor has 592 and a 20.9 mark.

The Stilt also showed increasing accuracy from the field as he took over as the league's basket leader with 357 field goals in 744 attempts for a 48.0 percentage. Oscar Robertson of the Cincinnati Royals jumped to the runner-up spot with 254 for 532 and 47.7.

The big "O" kept his assist lead over second-place Guy Rodgers of Philadelphia, 213-184. Robertson's percentage was 8.5 to 8.4 for Rodgers.

Bill Sharman of the Boston Celtics resumed his old position as free throw leader with a .946 mark. Dolph Schayes of the Syracuse Nationals dropped to second at .892.

White Deer was paced by Keahey's 14 points and Campbell's 12. Other scorers for Pampa were Gary Davis, 9; Richard Rexroat 2; Charles Price, 3; Jackie Willis, 2.

Linked To Boxing Scandal

Senate Investigators Continue Search For Mysterious Blonde

WASHINGTON (UPI)—She is a mysterious blonde with a gangster husband and a phony address a half mile out in Biscayne Bay off Miami.

Senate investigators, continuing hearings today on the alleged underworld control of boxing, would love to have a talk with her. But they can't find her.

Who is this woman? She is Mrs. Frank Carbo, wife of a notorious racketeer now in a New York state prison.

A few short years ago, according to testimony, he was boxing czar of the underworld.

The investigators headed by Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., were told Monday that the International Boxing Club (IBC) paid Mrs. Carbo some $45,000 for a job in which she did nothing.

The witness was Truman K. Gibson, former head of the IBC of New York and Illinois and right-hand man to James D. Norris, founder of the groups and a former president himself.

Gibson said the money was paid to Mrs. Carbo for the "good will" of her husband "and the effect it would have on managers with whom he was friendly and managers over which he had control."

The money was a 10 per cent cut of the take from sponsors of weekly televised fights, Gibson said, and was paid at Norris' suggestion.

Records showed that Mrs. Carbo received the payments under her maiden name of Viola Masters. She was listed as an employee of the Nevell Advertising Agency owned by Norris and Arthur Wittz, another organizer and top official of the IBC.

Gibson said that Mrs. Carbo did nothing for the money except make a few phone calls from Florida on "the condition of fighters."

Questioned as to why the checks were made out to Viola Masters instead of Mrs. Carbo, Gibson smilingly conceded that "it looked a little better on our records."

The thinking at the time, he said, was that some congressional investigating committee might want to check them some day. Kefauver chuckled at that one.

Gibson said he disliked Carbo and even clashed with the racketeer in violent arguments at times but "in nine years, I paid a lot of people I didn't like. I felt it was good for the business."

The IBC, founded in 1949, was dissolved by federal court order last year because of its monopoly "strangle-hold" on boxing bouts and television broadcasts of them.

Testimony Monday also showed that Jack Kearns, a former manager of ex-heavyweight champion Jack Dempsey, was paid $115,000 by the IBC promoters.

Winless H-SU Places Passer On Top Spot

NEW YORK (UPI)—Harold Stephens of Hardin-Simmons held the unique distinction today of winning the 1960 major college passing championship while playing for a team unable to win a game during the season.

Final NCAA Service Bureau statistics today reveal that Stephens hit his targets 145 times in 256 attempts, 22 more completions than his nearest rival, Norman Snead of Wake Forest.

Snead had to content himself with gaining the serial yardage title (1,838) and he also closed out the season with a gain of 273 yards through the ozone.

Rickie May of the Air Force and Dick Norman of Stanford, ranked sixth and ninth, respectively, among the passing leaders, joined a select club of those completing 300 passes during a major college career. Only six others have managed to accomplish this standard. Furman of Texas Western was 10th among passers, completing 94 of 192 attempts.

Ohio State Maintains Major Roundball Lead

NEW YORK (UPI)—Ohio State, the pre-season choice which lived up to its billing in an easy opening victory, today set an all-time record for point scoring in the first weekly ratings of the 1960-61 college basketball season by the United Press International Board of Coaches.

Thirty-four of the 35 famous coaches who comprise the board picked the Buckeyes as the nation's top 10 team. The other coach picked them second.

With 10 points for each first-place vote and nine for second, that gave Ohio State a grand total of 349 points of a possible 350—the highest ever achieved by any team in any week since the UPI board began its ratings in 1950.

The previous record for any week was 348 points by San Francisco on Dec. 27, 1955. Only last season on Dec. 12 with an 85-64 win, the Buckeyes set another point-scoring record when they received 347 points in the pre-

Muddle Continues

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—Baseball's monumental muddle—the expansion problem—was dumped squarely into Commissioner Ford Frick's lap today and there appeared to be no other way out for him but to okay the American League's plan to enter Los Angeles in 1961.

The situation cries out for a decision and Frick will be forced to make one, in favor of either the American or National League, by Wednesday.

"I will not be hustled into a quick decision," said the harassed Frick. "I am going to take my time. I will announce my decision at the joint meeting Wednesday and I will do what I think is best for baseball."

Frick was pushed into the role of referee when the National League gave strong indication that it will reject the American League's latest proposal which would welcome the NL into New York next season, providing it would agree to two nine-club leagues with inter-league play.

season balloting, an all-time record for the pre-season ratings.

Ohio State, last season's NCAA tournament champion, opened its season on Dec. 12th an 85-64 romp over Ohio University. Jerry Lucas, the 6-8 All-America and Olympic star of the Buckeyes, scored 29 points in the easy victory.

This week's ratings were based on games played through Dec. 4. As in the pre-season ratings, Bradley was second, Indiana third, Kansas fourth, and North Carolina fifth.

The second five received a big shakeup as twice-beaten Utah dropped from sixth to 15th and Auburn and Kentucky also dropped out of the top 10. Utah State and St. Bonaventure moved up to share the No. 5 spot. Cincinnati, impressive in two wins even without the graduated Oscar Robertson, jumped from 19th to No. 8. Detroit rose from 14th to No. 9 and St. John's (N.Y.) moved from 11th to 10th.

Tech Coach To Speak At Banquet

J. T. King, newly-appointed head football coach at Texas Tech, will be the principal speaker at the annual Pampa Harvester football banquet Dec. 15, Sharon Haralson, Quarterback Club president, announced today.

The banquet will be held in the Robert E. Lee Junior High School cafeteria. Haralson said other arrangements would be worked out for the feed at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at a meeting of the club in the film room at Pampa High School.

Australian Champion Captures Three-Length Hofbrau Victory

By United Press International

Noholme II, Australia's "Horse of the Year" in 1959, won his first American race Monday by almost three lengths in the Hofbrau purse at Tropical Park.

Verna Lea Farm's 4-year-old colt, winner in eight of 11 starts last year, had finished fourth in his American debut here on Thanksgiving Day.

Noholme II, with jockey Wayne Chambers aboard, gave up 3 to 12 pounds to five rivals as he easily carried 123 pounds while defeating Safra Stable's Hill in the six-furlong sprint.

The Australian invader, a 4-3 favorite, paid $3.90 and was clocked in 1:10 3-5.

Noholme II, who usually breaks in front at the start, trailed the pace-setting Hill for a quarter of a mile and then took the lead $3.80.

The triumph was his 10th in 17 starts over the last two years.

At Pimlico, Whiz Diz was the biggest longshot winner on the day's program as he beat Trojan Jewel by two and one-half lengths. The 3-year-old gelding paid $32.60.

Jockey Tommy Lee rated Whiz Diz in fourth place for about a half-mile and then moved quickly into command, first beating back a challenge by Shore Party and then taking care of Trojan Jewel. Whiz Diz covered 1 1-16 miles in 1:46 2-5.

Federal Judge was given a similar ride by Charlie Boland in the Narragansett feature as they waited until the last half of the race to get going. Federal Judge managed to beat Dark Viking by a head in the 1 1-16 mile event. The winner, timed in 1:47 flat, paid $3.80.

Hoover In Grid 'Hall'

NEW YORK (UPI) — Former President Herbert Hoover will receive a gold medal and nine men will be inducted into the football Hall of Fame during a dinner ceremony at a New York hotel tonight.

Hoover, a highly successful team manager during his student days at Stanford University, is being honored for the outstanding contributions he has made to the game of football in his lifetime.

Those being inducted into the Hall of Fame, which will be erected on the Rutgers University campus at New Brunswick, N.J., are: U.S. Navy Captain Fred Borries, Ki Aldrich, Bulldog Turner, Sid Luckman, Johnny Lujack, Gordon Locke, Lou Little, Charles Gelbert and Neil Worthington Snow.

Gelbert, who played end and halfback at Pennsylvania from 1894-96, and Snow, Michigan end and fullback in 1898-1901, are now deceased.

RAIDER LEADER SCORES — Del Ray Mounds of Perryton goes high into the air to tip in a rebound in last night's Texas Tech-Kansas game in Lubbock, which the Jayhawks won, 97-75. Mounds Game's Top Scorer

Big, Potent Jayhawks Glide By Red Raiders

By ARTHUR MAYHEW
Daily News Sports Editor

LUBBOCK—Kansas University's Jayhawks probably were looking at Texas road maps today trying to pinpoint Perryton after one of that town's products — Del Ray Mounds — personally led a fired-up Texas Tech charge that gave the fourth-ranked Kansas a good score here Monday night before 8,000 enthusiastic partisans.

The final score was 97-75, but Mounds — the smallest man on the floor at 5-10 — walked away with game scoring honors as he pumped in six field goals and 10 of 11 free throws for 22 points.

Mounds was followed by Harold Hudgens' 17 points, Tom Patty's 15 and Roger Hennig's 12, but the quartet was no match for Kansas' well-oiled outfit that finally got uncracked in the last 10 minutes of play.

Jerry Gardner led Kansas with 12 tallies, 20 points coming on field goals of the jump shot variety; Wayne Hightower, 20, and Bill Bridges, a 6-5 senior from Hobbs, N.M., who had 16 points.

Tech jumped off to a 3-0 lead, its longest of the game, when Hudgens, a 6-9 junior, hit a hook and Mounds flipped in a free toss with 19:09 remaining in the first half.

With Gardner hitting two jump shots from beyond the circle, and Dee Ketchum and Bridges battling in rebounds, Kansas moved to 8-4 before Hudgens hit a left-handed hook to knot the score at 8-8 at 14:37.

Tech moved ahead only twice more in the game, 10-9, on a free throw by Mounds and 12-11 on a charity toss by Patty at 13:32 and then Kansas went to work, leaving the floor at halftime with a 12-point lead — their longest of the first half — 47-35.

The Red Raiders, who have in the past excelled in second half comebacks, made a strong bid at the opening of the second period when Hudgens tipped in a Mounds' try and then Mounds hit a soft jump to close the gap to 47-39 at 18:29.

With Mac Percival hitting successive jump shots, Tech moved within its closest point-spread of the last half — 53-47 — but costly floor errors and defensive lapses gave the big Jayhawks all the operating room they needed and they coasted in to their second victory of the season against no losses.

For Tech, the loss evened its record at 1-1. The Raiders topped Hamline, 92-75, last Thursday.

Two things were instrumental in Tech's defeat: Kansas' reserve strength, which was deeper than Johnny Weismuller's swimming pool and Tech's cold shooting from the field.

The Raiders wound up hitting 33 per cent of their shots, 28 of 88, while Kansas knocked the bottom of the bucket out at 44.2 per cent.

Tech also hit 19 of 29 free throws while the Jayhawks only missed six — 21 of 27.

Steers Move To Front In Early SWC Battling

By BRYCE MILLER
United Press International

The Texas Longhorns moved on top of the Southwest Conference basketball standings by drubbing Trinity University 71-59 in a benefit battle Monday night, but Arkansas has a chance to tie it up tonight during a heavy inter-sectional schedule that sees untried Baylor swing into action.

In other games, Oklahoma City University squeaked past Texas Christian 73-71. Kansas swamped Texas Tech 97-75 and Rice nipped favored Florida 88-63.

So far, the Oklahoma Chiefs have a perfect record against conference clubs. They whipped Southern Methodist 84-78 last week and could make it three in a row Wednesday night at Austin against the Steers.

In games tonight, Baylor kicks off its campaign at home against Memphis State. Arkansas travels to Stillwater against Oklahoma State. Texas A&M hosts Houston at College Station and Southern Methodist plays Florida in Dallas.

Texas has the only perfect two game record in the young season. Arkansas has won its only contest, an 84-75 victory over Missouri. TCU, Texas Tech and Texas A&M are lumped in third with 1-1 records.

SECOND GENERATION JETLINER—The first Convair 990 casts a large shadow at Lindbergh Field, San Diego, Calif. The plane which will fly at 640 mph, has four "speed capsules" on the trailing edge of its wings which minimize the sonic shock wave and its resultant drag. First flight of the second generation jetliner will be in January.

Fast Baking Battlefield Bread Ready

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The Army has come up with a preparation which could be described as almost instant, near-bread. Designed primarily for battlefield kitchens, the mixture can be prepared and baked in 45 minutes. It contains flour, shortening, a bit of sugar and a chemical yeast substitute called Delta-Lactome. But after the Army got together the bread-appearing concoction it ran into the problem of making it taste like something hot out of mother's oven. Quartermaster authorities called in the firm of Arthur Little, Inc., of Cambridge, Mass., and San Francisco, and the food technology department of the University of California at Davis. Little's researchers came up with an additive including cottonseed meal and glucose, which give the Army's mixture a homey flavor.

McLean Firemen Hold Banquet

MCLEAN (Spl) — The McLean Volunteer Fire Department held its annual steak dinner at 7 o'clock Thursday evening in the American Legion Hall. Guests for the occasion were County Judge Bill Craig of Pampa; Mayor John Haynes, councilmen Ruel Smith, Creed Lamb, and Roy Barker, Jack Shelton, editor of the McLean News and J. M. Payne, representing the Pampa Daily News. A brief business meeting followed the dinner at which time Boyd Meador was re-elected chief of the department for his 14th term and S. A. Cousins and Wilson Boyd were returned to their posts as assistants to the chief. The group was entertained by Sherm Harrison of Boys Ranch who showed the film "A Shirt Tail to Hang To". This is a film depicting a boy's life at the ranch and has been televised nationally. After viewing the picture, the group, acting upon the suggestion of fireman Jim Hathaway, unanimously agreed to make a gift of $100 to the ranch.

Foreign Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst
A safe prediction for 1961 is that in Latin America things will get worse before they get better. The reasons are both short and long-term.
Out of the just-concluded and closely guarded summit meeting of world Communist leaders in Moscow came reports that Latin American Reds had lined up with Red China in advocating the violent overthrow of governments and invitations to revolt. This is identical to the line adopted by Cuban Finance Minister Ernesto Guevara in his visit to Red China which was characterized by announcement of a side away from the capital's $50 million Chinese loan to Fidel gleaming skyscrapers and the Castro's Communist controlled swimming pools of luxurious Havana government.
The conclusion must be that Venezuela's population live in poverty and illiteracy. These people are the natural targets of the Castro agitators and the Communists.
The Betancourt government, dedicated to preservation of democracy, is trying for a more equitable distribution of Venezuela's great natural wealth and has launched a massive education program.
Yet, before the child can run he first must learn to walk. The peasant unacquainted with modern agricultural methods will not learn overnight even though he be given his own land and his children are sent to school.
In the next four years, the government plans to spend nearly $1 billion on agrarian reform. It also is pressing a large industrialization program.
But these are long range plans, while part of the problem is immediate.
Studies have shown that temperature may vary by as much as 20 degrees between a city's business center and its suburbs.

Cuba and Red China not only eye to eye but also that in 1961 Castro's most exportable product in the western hemisphere will be revolution.
Military, the United States already has taken steps to blockade this type of Cuban export, but there are other factors more difficult to counter.
Chief of these is the imbalance of Latin American economies. A good example is Venezuela where President Romulo Betancourt apparently has succeeded in quelling the unmet need attempt to overthrow his government.
On the hillsides surrounding Caracas and in the lush country-dimmed by announcement of a side away from the capital's $50 million Chinese loan to Fidel gleaming skyscrapers and the Castro's Communist controlled swimming pools of luxurious Havana government.
