Crash Victims' Service Double Rites For Tanners

Double funeral rites for Mr. and Mrs. Alton Clark Tanner, who were found dead in a plane crash near Foggan, Okla., yesterday, will be held at 2 p.m. Friday in the First Baptist Church.

Bob Stroble, assistant pastor, will officiate.

Tanner, 54, and his wife, Mae Wynona, 48, became the object of a three-day search when their twin engine plane was reported missing early Monday.

They left the Borger airport Sunday en route to Liberal, Kan. Airport manager M. E. Griffin found the Tanner's dog in their untracked car Monday afternoon. When he learned they had not landed, he started the search.

Individuals, Texas and Oklahoma highway patrolmen and Civil Air Patrol officials took part in the search which ended when the wreckage of the plane was discovered Wednesday morning. Rescue workers were able to land two planes near the site of the accident.

Tanner was born in Louisiana April 1, 1906, and was in the oil producing and drilling business here for some 18 years at the time of his death.

The couple had one daughter, Mrs. B. Vanderpool of Golden, Colo.

He is also survived by his father, Lynn Tanner of Joyce, La.; three brothers, Fred of New Orleans, and Walter and Derrell of Shreveport; and two sisters, Mrs. Joyce (See VICTIMS, Page 4)

Cancer Society Names Officers

Officers for the coming year were elected at general meeting of the Gray County Unit of the American Cancer Society held in the Lovett Memorial Library.

Mrs. R. E. McKernan succeeds Jack Skelly as president of the unit which announced contributions in this year's fund drive exceeded the $5,300 goal by $799.

Skelly presided at the meeting which also saw delegates chosen for state meeting at Austin in December. They are Mrs. McKernan and alternate Dr. M. M. McDaniel.

The nominating committee composed of Dr. Carl Lang, chairman; Mrs. Jack Foster, Mrs. Jessa Clay, Joe Page and Cameron Marsh submitted candidates for chapter officers and directors who were approved unanimously by the members.

For vice-presidents, Bob Hudson and Dr. M. McDaniel were the committee's choice while Mrs. Roy Ketzmeier and Paul Keim were named secretary and treasurer.

The following were named to serve two-year terms on the Board of Directors: Paul Keim, Mrs. Ketzmeier, Mrs. Joe Daniel, Mrs. Gikas, Mrs. Margaret Dial, Mrs. C. E. Vincent.

Dr. McDaniel, Dr. Harold Fabian, Bob Hudson, Mrs. R. A. Christolm, Mr. W. A. Spoonmore, John

Everest Scaled?

TOKYO (UPI) — A Pakistan radio report heard here tonight said a team of Chinese and Russian mountain climbers had scaled 29,000-foot Mt. Everest from the uncharted northern slope.

The Karachi broadcast, quoting a Nepalese government announcement, said the group made its way up from the Chinese side—a straight-up approach which has long been considered insurmountable.

The top has been reached only once—by New Zealand's Sir Edmund Hillary and by Tensing Norkay, a Sherpa guide, just before the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II in 1952.

Free World Feels Khrushchev Overplayed Hand At Paris

(EDITOR'S NOTE: UPI State Department Correspondent Stewart Hensley, who covered Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's tour of the United States last September, attended Khrushchev's news conference Wednesday and assesses his performance in the following dispatch.)

By STEWART HENSLEY
United Press International

PARIS (UPI) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev overplayed his hand in his attacks on President Eisenhower and the United States.

He tried so hard to drag the U-2 plane incident into every answer at his turbulent news conference Wednesday that he destroyed the effect of righteous anger he probably was trying to create.

At times, he appeared incoherent while shouting down boisterous and jeering correspondents.

The performance was not even close to his best in the United States. Maybe it was the tension in the wake of the summit failure, or the grim figure of Soviet Defense Minister Marshal Rodion Malinovsky sitting with a stony glare at Khrushchev's elbow.

Khrushchev gained a reputation in Hollywood during his stop there last September as a rather competent ham, but this time his pace was off.

He probably didn't make any new friends during the conference, and he almost certainly lost some.

Water Safety Registration Set

Registration for the Red Cross summer water safety program will be held Friday at the VFW American Legion Hall beginning at 1:30 p.m.

Any person who plans to participate in any of the three summer sessions must register.

There will be 13 Red Cross workers taking registration cards to eliminate any long lines.

FLEXES MUSCLES — U.S. scientists flexed the muscles of their most ambitious rocket project for the second time at Marshall Space Flight Center near Huntsville, Ala., in a successful ground test of the Saturn space vehicle's eight engines. The rockets were fired for 30 seconds and developed 1,300,000 pounds of thrust, 200,000 pounds short of expected maximum.

Herter Says U-2 Spy Flights Helped U. S.

Explains Espionage Activities To NATO

PARIS (UPI) — Secretary of State Christian A. Herter said today American U-2 spy flights had been going on for four years and had produced information of great importance of safeguarding the free world.

Herter spoke before a meeting of the 15-nation NATO Council which unanimously condemned Soviet Premier Khrushchev for torpedoing the summit conference and pledged complete solidarity in the dangerous days ahead.

Herter said the U-2 incident was only one aspect of espionage and that the Russians have been extremely active in espionage over the years and still are. He explained the flights were undertaken in the interests of all NATO members who have a great stake in the security of the free world.

Not a voice was raised against the flights in the NATO meeting. French and British leaders pledged the readiness of the Allies to back the United States in any future cold war negotiations.

The gist of Herter's remarks was revealed by official sources. There was no indication of whether Herter spelled out the specific information garnered by the flights.

Khrushchev seized upon the U-2 incident to wreck the summit conference before it began and to return the cold war to the dark and dangerous days of Josef Stalin. He has warned that war would be inevitable if such flights continued.

President Eisenhower announced earlier this week the flights were suspended on May 1 when the Russians shot down one of the American planes deep inside Russia.

The NATO Council met today with the three Western foreign ministers to try to salvage something from the summit wreckage. President Eisenhower and Khrushchev left previously. Eisenhower went to Lisbon and Khrushchev to East Berlin.

Herter said Khrushchev apparently had reached the conclusion some time before he left Moscow that he was not going to succeed in achieving results at the summit that would satisfy him, and in particular, his critics in Russia.

Before he left, Eisenhower issued a statement in which he expressed confidence that the collapse of the summit conference had welded the Western alliance even closer together in the quest for a joint peace. The NATO council backed this up.

Nikita Decision Coming

In E. Berlin For Treaty Talks

BERLIN (UPI) — Waving his right hand like a victorious boxer, Nikita Khrushchev flew into Communist East Berlin today from Paris to tell the world whether he intends to force the Berlin issue to the explosion point.

Khrushchev already had threatened to sign a separate peace treaty with Communist East Germany—a move aimed at forcing the Allies out of West Berlin, isolating the city and splitting Germany forever.

He is expected to state his intentions Friday in another of his fiery speeches before a hate-Eisenhower rally being prepared by the satellite nation. Today the Reds greeted him with denunciations of Eisenhower and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

German Communist leaders ran forward and greeted the Soviet leader with kisses on both his chubby cheeks.

Khrushchev stood at attention while a military band played the East German anthem. Then he walked forward, his arms bent at the elbows and swinging like a man marching into a fist fight, toward the honor guard of goose-stepping soldiers.

Most of the prominent leaders of East Germany except ailing President Wilhelm Pieck were on hand.

Unlike Paris Wednesday there were no boos for Khrushchev today—just smiles, flowers and kisses. The crowd was carefully chosen to avoid such an occurrence.

After trooping the line of the honor guard but before meeting the top East German leaders, Khrushchev accepted a large bouquet of flowers from a girl member (See NIKITA, Page 4)

Portugal Gives Hero Welcome To Eisenhower

By MERRIMAN SMITH
UPI White House Reporter

LISBON, Portugal (UPI)—Hundreds of thousands of cheering Portuguese gave President Eisenhower a hero's welcome here today.

With the failure of the summit conference still heavily on his mind, he admonished the free world to rally stronger than ever against Soviet Russia's torpedo tactics.

President Americo Thomaz welcomed Eisenhower as a "fearless knight-errant-of-peace" and Portuguese who filled the air with cries of "Viva Eisenhower, Viva Eisenhower" made it clear they regarded him as the hero of the summit encounter with Nikita Khrushchev.

The President, described by White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty as "completely disgusted and fed up with the tactics of Khrushchev," said he thought that while there was no pressing reason for dismay, the free nations had to tighten their belts and work harder in the face of Soviet abuse and accusations.

Eisenhower flew in by jet from Paris for overnight talks with Prime Minister Oliveira Salazar and Thomaz before continuing on Friday to Washington where he will report to the American people within a few days.

Eisenhower said that while the free world had no high hopes for the summit, the leaders of their nations had thought there might have been some chance of reducing world tension.

"You deserve to know that the representatives of the United States, the United Kingdom and France did our very best to bring about that condition," he said.

"We answered abuse with dignity and logic. We answered accusations with facts. There is no reason to be dismayed or disheartened. We have had these conditions before in dealing with the Soviets. Rather than be dismayed we must tighten our belts, keep our chins up and each of us work a little harder for the great cause of peace with justice and freedom."

Asked whether the conference failure would change Eisenhower's plans to submit his "open skies" program for cooperative aerial inspection to the United Nations, Hagerty said "not in the slightest."

May Be Russian Inside Russ Space Ship To Be Retrieved

By United Press International

The Soviet Union reports it will bring down its latest satellite "shortly" and one of America's top rocket experts says he has a "good hunch" there is a man inside.

The official Soviet news agency, Tass, said Wednesday night every-thing aboard the spacecraft, put in orbit May 15, was "working normally" and "the command will be given from earth shortly to start the . . . descent."

Maj. Gen. John B. Medaris, former commanding general of the U.S. Army Ordnance Missile Command, said in Chicago "I'm not one least bit sure that the Russians have a dummy in it."

"It would not make sense," Medaris said, for Russia to put up a satellite of sufficient weight and space to carry a man, without trying to bring the vehicle back to earth intact.

Melvin V. Landon, a physics professor at Nason College in Springvale, Maine, even reported he had heard the "scrambled voice" of a man aboard the Russian spaceship. He said the voice sounded "like Donald Duck with a sore throat."

Landon said he has faith in his radio tape recordings. He believes the government made similar recordings but is keeping them secret.

The theory has been advanced that Russia would not announce its satellite was manned unless it was able to recover the spaceman alive. Supporters of this thesis point to the adverse propaganda that resulted when the dog Laika died aboard Sputnik II in 1958.

Gromyko May Plead To UN

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI) — Diplomatic quarters expect Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko to go before the United Nations Security Council personally, possibly Monday, to demand a halt to United States spy flights.

Gromyko, in an unusual action, Wednesday night demanded by cablegram from Paris an urgent meeting of the 11-nation body to halt "the unheard-of, provocative action of the United States" in sending U-2 planes over the Soviet Union.

In Washington, administration officials said Wednesday night the United States would welcome a full discussion of the U-2 incident. They said they had been expecting the Soviet move for some time.

No date was set immediately for the council session. It was expected to produce a sequel to Monday's summit meeting which was wrecked by Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's demand that President Eisenhower apologize for the May Day U-2 flight and punish all concerned with it.

Nixon Tells Of Soviet Spy Actions

BUFFALO, N.Y. (UPI)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon said Wednesday night that one of two Russian diplomats caught spying in Massachusetts last September during Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's visit had been quietly ousted from the United States but that the other was still here under surveillance.

Nixon refused to disclose the nature of the espionage, other than to say the two Soviet diplomats had been attached to the United Nations and were caught while trying to obtain "highly classified" information from an American citizen in Springfield, Mass. He said the American, who was not identified, was not involved in the conspiracy and thus was not arrested.

The vice president, who made the disclosure during a political swing through upper New York state, said the latest Soviet espionage case was not publicized at the time because it occurred during Khrushchev's visit to this country.

First Time He Wasn't Sure -- But Oh That Second Go - Round

Life's embarrassing little moments often can come when a person takes a driving test.

Take the incident that happened here recently. A woman was asked to make a sudden stop near the end of the test. When she did a bottle of whiskey slid out from beneath the seat.

Minutes later her daughter used the same car to take her test. When she made a sudden stop, the same thing happened.

"I didn't know what to think when that happened," Highway Patrolman Otis Elmore, who is in charge of the drivers license division here, said.

"I didn't see the bottle when it first slid out, but I noticed the woman kept trying to push something back under the seat with her foot.

"When I looked down there was a whiskey bottle that was nearly three-quarters full.

"Her daughter was waiting to take the test," Elmore said, "and the same thing happened to her."

Elmore has never caught a license applicant who had been (See FIRST, Page 4)

IT'S THE LAW
in Texas

Parental Consent Needed For Child's Medical Care

It's a good idea to give written consent for necessary medical care if your child leaves home for a visit or a camping trip or if you plan to be away for any length of time.

For example, a summer camp nurse may bring a boy into a hospital with an acute case of appendicitis. But the doctor may well hesitate to go ahead and operate without the parents' consent.

Is the doctor arbitrary, and is such permission just a legal technicality? No, he is well within his rights, though he may give first aid—but only for emergency treatment—where a child's health or life may be at stake. He is likely to put off follow-up care until he can reach the child's parents. A relative or baby sitter generally cannot grant consent for a child's treatment.

Even an adult must request treatment and grant consent to medical care on his own before a doctor can give it to him. Children cannot do this.

By going to your doctor you show your willingness and consent to accept his treatment. Your consent is assumed also when you answer a house call by the doctor, or if as a result of an accident you come to a hospital for emergency treatment. If you are unconscious the doctor may well give you emergency care, yet later he should get your consent to further treatment.

Minors cannot consent to medical treatment, and except in dire emergencies their parents or guardians must give it for them.

The consent should not be broadly phrased, but should be as specific as circumstances permit.

The principal reason for having the consent in writing is to avoid later misunderstandings. It is a protection both to the patient and physician.

(This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

Today is Thursday, May 19, the 140th day of the year, with 226 more in 1960.

The moon is approaching its new phase.

The morning stars are Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1536, Anne Boleyn married to King Henry VII of England, was beheaded on Tower Green in London.

In 1898, the Spanish fleet sailed into Santiago Harbor, Cuba.

In 1928, 51 frogs entered the "Frog Jumping Jubilee" at Angels Camp, Calaveras County, California. The contest commemorated Mark Twain's story "The Celebrated Jumping Frog of Calaveras County."

In 1940, William Allen White, editor of the Emporia, Kan., Gazette, and a group of men and women dedicated to the overthrow of fascism, organized the Committee to Defend America by Aiding the Allies.

A thought for today: American writer Mark Twain said: "Soap and education are not as sudden as a massacre, but they are more deadly in the long run."

A Chaser For Whiskey Mystery

By LEE GRIMSLEY
Daily News Staff Writer

Remember those two whiskey storage drums Bill Robertson dug up at the site of the old Santa Fe Hotel last week?

Jess Hatcher does. In fact, he thinks he hauled the sand and gravel that was used to bury them.

"I've been thinking about that," Hatcher said. "That building was put up in 1928—and I hauled the sand and gravel they used in an old T-model truck."

"They probably used that same

HERTER

Herter, Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd briefed the NATO ambassadors on Khrushchev's apparent return to the ways of Stalin and the Big Four leaders' immediate reaction.

President Eisenhower, disappointed and disgusted, was the first to leave. He flew off to Portugal for a 24-hour visit before returning to Washington to report to the American people on the diplomatic debacle of the past few days.

In a parting statement at the airport, Eisenhower expressed regret that because of the summit collapse "we could make no progress toward easing the tensions that so plagued mankind."

But he added that the setback had unified the Allies—particularly France, Britain and the United States—"even closer than before in determined pursuit of peace with justice in the world."

Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev, who broke up everything but the furniture in an arm-waving, threatening harangue in which he personally insulted Eisenhower and the United States, flew to East Berlin about three hours later.

Prime Minister Harold Macmillan arranged to go directly home where he will report to the British House of Commons Friday.

Macmillan and Eisenhower met for an hour with de Gaulle Wednesday night for an assessment with their foreign ministers of the international situation resulting from Khrushchev's abrupt renewal of the cold war.

The Western Big Three had expected in advance of this week that the conference would produce little in the way of concrete measures to bring East and West closer together. At the most they had hoped for an improvement of the international atmosphere, with the possibility that there would be future summit conferences.

But they were not prepared for the ranting, raving show that Khrushchev put on almost from the moment he stepped on French soil, capped by his nearly incredible performance at a news conference packed with 1,500 to 2,000 people Wednesday.

Instead of an improved international atmosphere, things today were drastically worse and Western officials said this would force the West to make a thorough study of the Allied future course.

The reappraisal started in earnest this morning at a meeting of the NATO permanent council here in Paris.

U.S., French and British sources agreed that Khrushchev's attacks on the United States and Eisenhower over the U-2 spy plane downed on Russian soil actually had strengthened the NATO alliance.

sand and gravel to bury those drums."

And Hatcher thinks he knows where the drums were buried.

"They had a board walk out in the back of the hotel," he said. "And I think that must be where the drums were buried."

In 1927 Hatcher went to work for a county constable and helped raid the Santa Fe Hotel.

"We looked everywhere for those drums except under that walk," he said. "So that's bound to be where they were buried."

According to Hatcher the Santa Fe must have been one of the hottest night spots in the state back during the oil boom.

"There was always a crowd of people out there," Hatcher said. "There must have been 300, 400 or 500 people in that one block every night; and on Saturday nights you couldn't walk down the street out there."

"It was really a wild place during the boom days," he said.

After Hatcher joined the constable's force in 1927 he said they used to raid the Santa Fe about once every two weeks.

"We never found those storage drums," he said. "But we did find where they kept some pint bottles of whiskey."

"The door facings in one of the rooms were hollow shells from the floor to the ceiling. There were two or three holes in the facing that a hat pin would barely fit in; you had to find them and punch each one with a hat pin to unlock the thing."

"When they'd take some whiskey out they would cover up the holes with chewing gum," Hatcher recalled. "We'd have to hunt for those holes every time we raided the place, but we always found them."

His crack that neither British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan nor French President Charles de Gaulle had the will power to stand up against Eisenhower on the U-2 incident did not help Russia's cause on either side of the channel.

But he concentrated his attacks on the United States, with such vehemence that diplomats saw the resumption of a Kremlin "state America" campaign along Communist Chinese lines.

They said he let it be known, either directly or by firm implication, that:

—He has no intention of resuming negotiations with the United States for the time being, and can wait for the type of American president with whom he thinks he can do business.

—Any possible new incident would be used as an excuse to hit back against the United States and its allies with bases close to the Soviet frontiers.

Civil Defense Office Gets Many Queries

DALLAS (UPI) — Civil Defense officials say the collapse of the summit conference has triggered a wave of queries from alarmed residents about what to do in case of a sneak Russian atomic attack.

Deputy Police Chief B. B. Smith, director of Civil Defense in Dallas, said almost all of the hundreds of callers say they can't afford to build a bomb shelter, and want to know what's the next best thing.

Smith said in case of an atomic attack, the best thing to do in the absence of a bomb shelter, is to go into the smallest room of the house—usually the bathroom.

It has an additional advantage of a metal bathtub to crouch in, he said. It will support some of the wreckage if the roof falls in and provide room for breathing space.

"The people really are concerned," Smith said. "They are not scared. They want to prepare for whatever might be. They're concerned that they have an obligation nobody else can perform for them."

Gaines West, director of training and education and public affairs for the five-state Southwest Civil Defense headquarters at Denton, said business hasn't picked up appreciably there.

"I am quite sure there is a lot of concern, but it is being manifested at the state and local levels," he said.

West said a bomb shelter—which most persons fearing an attack are concerned about—can be built for $700-$800. It would shelter a family against radiation and fallout for two or three days.

If enough shelters could be sold to make it profitable for contractors to pre-fabricate forms, West thinks the cost might be brought down to around $500.

Smith recommended a stock of food in cans and glass jars, and water, kept in the clothes hamper in the bathroom, if that is the room a family intends to use in case of attack.

Defense Minister Marshal Ion Y. Malinovsky, tower above his rotund leader, was behind Khrushchev.

Party workers had circled through the Red sector of city urging residents to greet Soviet Premier with a "mild roar of 'Down with the provocations of Eisenhower and Khrushchev!'"

In the remembrance of veteran correspondents, such openly American vehemence was with precedence in the 15 years this city has been divided between Soviet and Western rule.

It was considered the suite atmosphere in which Khrushchev could spring a bag full of surprises for free West Berlin which he has designated a "center" to be eliminated unilaterally upon the failure of East-West negotiations.

Western Berliners went to their daily business as usual at the general feeling that whatever the Soviet Premier had planned for them after the summit blow in Paris, they could do nothing about it.

Newspapers handled the 36-hour visit almost casually, mixing in their front pages with follow-ups on the Cary Chessman case and news of the American presidential campaign.

Two Persons Wounded By Mystery Sniper In Quanah

QUANAH, Tex. (UPI)—Sheriff M. C. Owen said today there's a "good chance" the mystery sniper who fired into three homes and wounded two women will be identified through ballistic tests during the next 24 hours.

"The thing that worries us most is that he may kill somebody before we catch him," Owen said. "There's no pattern to the shootings. It's obviously the work of a madman."

The sniper struck first on Tuesday night at three homes, maybe four. Charlotte Ann Wiseman, 12, was shot in the groin through an open window as she prepared for bed.

About 30 minutes later, Mrs. Bob Cadle, a school teacher, got up from a table where she was working as a bullet came through her open front door. It narrowly missed her.

Two hours later, Mrs. Annie Laura Annis, 28, who lives on the far side of town from the Wiseman residence, was washing dishes when the sniper knocked on her door. As she answered it, he shot her in the shoulder.

"We didn't have any calls last night," Owen said. "But the town is sure jittery. Everybody is staying indoors after dark with window shades pulled."

"We have a good chance of identifying the man who is doing the shooting if we can get one of the bullets for a ballistics test. Both of the victims are expected to recover, but the hospital tells me it may be better to leave the bullet in Mrs. Annis than take it out."

"We dug one bullet out of a door but it was in so bad shape we couldn't use it to match with a gun. We have picked up several guns already, and if we get a bullet, it might cause us to pick up a lot more."

Sheriff Owen said the sniper is using a .22-caliber weapon, and he believes it is a pistol.

"We plan to question two or three more suspects today, and we already have a pickup order out for a man who left town Wednesday about an hour after we took a .22-caliber pistol away from him," Owen said. "We sure want to talk to him."

In between the shootings Tuesday night, a man called police and said someone looked in a bathroom window while his wife was taking a bath. Roy Espill, a night watchman, went to investigate and heard two shots. One of the bullets hit a car.

"We may have scared this guy out of town," the sheriff said. "But then again, he may just be lying low."

Wall Street In Review

NEW YORK (UPI)—Suppose you feel that the stock market is still on the high side, and you're uneasy about being heavily invested in common stocks. At the same time, you're not at all sure the bull market is over for good.

Prentice-Hall says that one way out of the dilemma is to shift 70-80 per cent of your investment into bonds and the remainder in fast-moving warrants.

If, contrary to your expectations, the market rises, the 20 per cent or more invested in warrants could show almost as much capital gain as if you had kept all your funds in common stocks.

On the other hand, P-H points out, if the market drops, the loss on your warrants can be limited, and will be offset by some gains in your bonds.

Wheat Check This Month

A final check to determine if the destroyed wheat acreage in Gray County has been sufficient to place the acreage within the wheat allotment is expected to be completed within the next two weeks, the Department of Agriculture has announced.

May 10 was the final date to destroy wheat in excess of the allotment. A charge of $6 per plot can be levied against the producer if investigators find that enough wheat hasn't been plowed up.

The county agriculture office also announced that Gray County farmers should have all sunflowers and cockleburs under control, if they operate a soil bank farm.

These are considered to be noxious weeds, and soil bank investigators will check on the control of them.

Swede Gadget Unsuitable For Feline Moms

By DICK WEST United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A small household disaster sent me down to the U.S. Patent Office to scrutinize the latest list of inventions. I wanted to see if anyone had invented a way to keep cats from having kittens in the linings of box spring beds.

I may have found what I was looking for in patent number 2,929,077 issued to Lars Magnus Ericason of Nykoping, Sweden. I am not certain, however, that this was what Ericason had in mind when he invented "a furniture spring connection device."

The official Gazette of the Patent Office describes the device at some length but doesn't make clear how it works or what it is used for.

A drawing of the gadget, however, indicates that it might make box springs unsuitable for feline maternity wards and, if so, Ericason has performed a public service.

At any rate, I can afford to wait a few weeks for a fuller explanation. The crisis that occasioned my visit to the Patent Office has passed, the tabby nursery having now been moved to a closet and the bed temporarily reclaimed for human slumber.

While I was browsing through the Gazette, I looked over some of the other new patents to see if our inventors are responding to other needs of our times.

According to the National Inventors Council, the armed forces alone are in the market for more than 300 new products, some of which would be almost as useful as a cat-proof bed.

The Army, for instance, is interested in acquiring a long-lasting trouser patch, a better gravy base for irradiated meat and something that would make GI instant bread mix, taste and smell like yeast-leavened loaves.

I saw nothing in the Gazette that might fill these requirements, but that doesn't mean our inventors aren't in there thinking. The Gazette was fairly glowing with bright ideas for providing us with a better tomorrow.

A New Jersey florist has been granted a patent for a "shaggy" chrysanthemum plant which certainly would be right at home in my garden. I have been growing shaggy flowers for years without realizing there might be some money in it.

Two California women have come up with a headband which is supposed to keep water out of bathing caps. I never thought it would be possible to keep water out of bathing caps without keeping bathing caps out of water.

A New Yorker has invented a hairbrush which applies hair tonic as it brushes and a Californian, with whom I obviously have something in common, has received an applicator for painting corners.

I wouldn't be surprised if someone eventually invents a way to teach cats birth control.

Polish Family Appetites With Apple Desserts

This is the time of year when many homemakers find themselves polishing apples for various purposes — to take their shining place in centerpieces, and in fruit and cheese dessert assortments. Apples, plentiful now in mouth-watering variety, are a welcome way to polish up spring desserts, as well.

One such dessert with a real glow of good-eating about it is Apple Pie with Coconut Crumb Topping. The tempting baked-on topping, added during the last ten minutes of baking, combines corn flake crumbs with brown sugar, butter and coconut. The apples beneath are baked in a single crust of your favorite pastry and flavored with lemon juice, sugar, cinnamon and nutmeg.

Apple Crunch is a quick dessert that requires but little effort to make and serve as part of an oven meal. Corn flake crumbs in the crumbly streusel-topping gives the dish new appearance and flavor.

Danish Apple Cake, by contrast, requires no baking at all. To prepare this attractive dessert, alternate layers of a buttery corn flake crumb mixture with spicy apple sauce in a deep bowl or mold, then refrigerate for a day. Serve with whipped cream.

APPLE PIE WITH COCONUT CRUMB TOPPING
2 cups corn flakes or
1/2 cup packaged corn flake crumbs
1-3 cup brown sugar
1/4 cup soft butter or margarine
1/2 cup flaked coconut

7 cups sliced, pared apples
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 1/2 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
1/2 cup granulated sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg

1 unbaked 8-inch pie shell
Crush corn flakes into fine crumbs. Blend brown sugar and butter; mix with corn flake crumbs. Combine with coconut. Set aside.

Sprinkle apples with lemon juice. Mix together tapioca, granulated sugar, salt and spices. Add to apples and mix well. Spread in pie shell. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) 10 minutes; reduce heat to 375 degrees F. and bake about 30 minutes or until apples are tender. Sprinkle crumb-topping over apples. Return to oven for an additional 10 minutes baking or until syrup boils with heavy bubbles that do not burst.

Yield: 1 9-inch pie
APPLE CRUNCH
4 cups sliced fresh apples
1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 cup sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup butter or margarine
2 cups corn flakes or
1/2 cup packaged corn flake crumbs

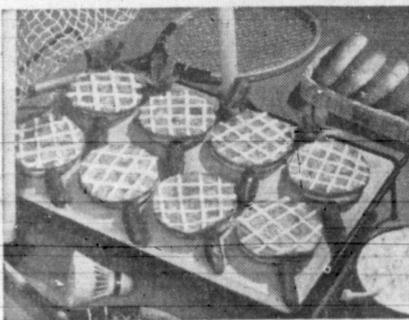

Spread apples in buttered 10 x 6 x 2-inch baking pan. Comb 1/2 cup of the sugar with the cinnamon; sprinkle over apples. Sift together flour, salt and remaining sugar. Crush corn flakes into fine crumbs. Cut in butter and corn flake crumbs until flour mixture resembles coarse corn meal. Sprinkle over apples. Bake in moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.) about 30 minutes. Serve warm with cream, if desired.

Yield: 6 servings
DANISH APPLE CAKE
8 cups corn flakes or
2 cups packaged corn flake crumbs
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup butter or margarine, melted

3 cups very thick, sweetened applesauce
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1 cup heavy cream, whipped
Crush corn flakes into fine crumbs. Combine corn flake crumbs and sugar. Melt butter in large frying pan. Add crumb mixture; heat at very low temperature until sugar is dissolved, stirring occasionally. Combine applesauce, cinnamon and nutmeg. Put alternate layers of crumb mixture and applesauce into buttered, deep 1 1/2-quart bowl, beginning and ending with corn flake crumbs. Press each layer down after adding.

Badminton Sandwiches Satisfy Big Appetites

An exciting game of badminton is backyard exercise that builds appetites. Between games the call goes out for food and the teenage hostess who wants to make a hit with the crowd will keep a party snacks handy for the spectators as well as the players. If she likes to use a bit of ingenuity in preparing the food, she'll surely want to serve Badminton Sausage Sandwiches.

Sliced table-ready meats on buns with pickle handles are tasty reminders of the game in progress. The lacings for this culinary racquet are made with the aid of a decorator cap on a squeezable tube of smoky flavored cheese spread.

Bologna, cooked salami or New England brand sausage are among the sliced cold cuts ideally suited to net compliments. Handy vue-vac packages are easily identified in the refrigerated meat case and carry a well-known brand name as assurance of quality.

Real badminton enthusiasts will look for the specially marked packages which contain directions for ordering a badminton set as a premium offer.

8 bread and butter pickle slices
1 cup mayonnaise
1/2 cup pickle relish
1 teaspoon dry mustard
1 teaspoon paprika
8 sandwich buns

Remove the pulp and seeds from the center of each bread and butter-pickle slice. Put pickle rings aside. Chop the center portion of the pickle and combine with mayonnaise, pickle relish, mustard and paprika. Split mayonnaise mixture just until well blended. Serve sauce over hot bologna biscuits.

Spinach And Carrots Rated High On Children Food Hit Parade

What would you choose if you were asked to make up a meal which almost any teenager would consider ideal? You wouldn't be far off the track if you were to pick hot dogs or hamburgers with potato chips followed by pie or ice cream for dessert. Those are the top choices of youngsters from eight to 18 years reported in the 1960 National Children's Preference Study of the American Home & Family Federation, a non-profit educational organization.

What you probably would not think to include would be some things like spinach or carrots. Yet most of the youngsters rated them second and third on their list. These findings show that young people can be credited with more nutritional sense than is usually accorded them. Who could quarrel with the food value for instance of menus such as these:

Hamburger Balls on Potato Chips
Buttered Spinach
Frozen Individual Pies
Tall Glasses of Cold Milk
OR
Franks in Hot Sauce
Carrot Sticks
Hot Buttered Rolls
Apple Pie a la Mode
Chocolate Milk
HAMBURGER BALLS ON POTATO CHIPS
(Serves 4-6)

1 lb. hamburger
1 medium onion, minced fine
1 egg beaten
2 tsp. chopped parsley
1/2 teaspoon caraway seeds
1 7 oz. bag potato chips
(Reserve large chips)
Crush potato chips very fine with a rolling pin. Mix hamburger, egg, and seasonings. No salt is needed. Form into small balls and roll in the crushed chips. Press the chips well onto the balls. Saute in 1 lb. frankfurters large frying pan in 1 tablespoon hot margarine. Roll the hamburger balls over and over in the pan, by shaking the pan frequently. Cook 5 minutes for rare, or 7 minutes for medium. Crisp the large potato chip by putting them in a 375 degrees oven for a few minutes while you are cooking the meat balls, and serve a meat ball on each.
Combine all ingredients except frankfurters and cook for ten minutes. Cut frankfurters into pieces about one inch long. Add to sauce. Simmer for 5 to 10 minutes. Serve hot with potato chips on the side.
Yield: Recipe makes 1 cup of sauce.

FRANKS IN HOT SAUCE
1 can (8 oz.) tomato sauce
1/2 cup chili sauce
1/2 cup chopped onions
1 beef bouillon cube
2 tablespoons chopped celery leaves
To Season Broiled Meats
Broiled meats should not be seasoned until after browning. Chops and steaks should be broiled on one side, seasoned, turned, broiled on second side and seasoned. If seasoned before browning, moisture is brought to the cut lean surface of the meat and prevents its browning.

Bologna Biscuits with Horseradish Sauce
(Yield: 5 servings)
10 slices bologna, cooked salami or New England brand sausage
1 tablespoons butter
1 (8 ounce) package refrigerator biscuits
Mustard
1 cube chicken bouillon
1 cup boiling water
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon paprika
1/2 cup milk
1 tablespoon horseradish
On lightly floured board, roll out each biscuit into circle about 4 inches in diameter. Spread half the biscuits with mustard and place 2 slices of bologna on top of each. Top with the remaining biscuits and pinch the edges together to seal. Place on an ungreased baking sheet and bake in a very hot oven (450 degrees F.) for about 5 minutes.

To make sauce, dissolve chicken bouillon in boiling water. Melt the butter in a saucepan. Stir in, until well blended, the flour, salt, pepper and paprika. Add the bouillon. Cook, stirring constantly, until thick and smooth. Blend in the milk. Add the horseradish and stir just until well blended. Serve sauce over hot bologna biscuits.

Triple Flavored Ice Cream Treat

Banana Split, a new, triple flavored ice cream developed by the Meadow Gold Ice Cream Division of Beatrice Foods Co., is being featured nationally during May and June.

The special flavor is an adaptation of the popular banana split fountain specialty. It is a three layered "neopolitan" combination of banana and strawberry ice cream consisting of chocolate, banana and strawberry ice cream. Banana puree and chopped pecans are dominant in the banana cream center layer.

Paris meeting
One such circumstance is the belief that Khrushchev acted as he did because he is in trouble at home.

Another was the presence at Khrushchev's side of a burly marshal of the Red Army who is one of the Soviet Union's most decorated soldiers. He is Ridion Yakovlevich Malinovsky, Soviet defense minister.

Malinovsky was a strong factor in the speculation that Khrushchev no longer is the master of his house.

Paris observers believed that Malinovsky, representing the die-hard Stalinists, may have been the force which caused Khrushchev to reverse his so-called "mir miru" (peace in the world) campaign for a revival of the cold war.

Malinovsky was close to Stalin, and although not a member of the party, his presence in Paris suggested he was there for one purpose only—to keep a firm hand on Khrushchev.

Malinovsky, World War II liberator of the Ukraine and Crimea, has lived the rough and tumble life of a soldier since he was 16. He joined the army by the simple expedient of hopping a troop train.

Malinovsky once turned to an American reporter during a stormy day and said:
"It's not bad weather. It's good for war."

That Malinovsky would accompany Khrushchev to Paris startled many observers in Moscow.

On the day before Khrushchev's departure, the all-powerful president of the central committee met in what was described as a routine session.

But it was on that day that Western diplomats learned that Malinovsky would be at Khrushchev's right hand in Paris and felt the advance chill of the cold war.

In 1953, Malinovsky was one of six marshals who stood honor guard at Stalin's bier. He succeeded Marshal Georgi K. Zhukov as defense minister in October 1957.

Presumably, Malinovsky is one of those who views with alarm Khrushchev's lopping off of troop strength in favor of a rocket defense. Giving him strong support outside the party would be a reported 100,000 Soviet officers now living on half-pay after the demobilization orders.

BEVAN, THEN AND NOW — Aneurin Bevan, 62-year-old fiery symbol of British socialism, convalesces, left, at his home in Ashridge Farm, England. A major abdominal operation in December has left him thin and drawn compared to his normal ruddy health, right, in a recent London photograph.

THE RUSSIAN VERSION—Pictured above are the "noisless" pistol and poisoned pin which the Russians claim were found on Francis Gary Powers, 30, of Jenkins, Ky., the pilot shot down by a Russian rocket near Sverdlovsk on May Day. The pin which is about three inches long was supposed to be used by Powers to commit suicide if he faced capture, the Reds say.

Emmy Award Show Still Controversial

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—To the inevitability of death and taxes can be added the inescapable awards made in show business.

Coming up next month are the 1959-60 Emmy Awards, sponsored by the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences—the most criticized statuette give-away program of them all.

Confusion of categories—such as pitting Jack Benny against Bishop Fulton Sheen for best male personality—caused howls of anguish from critics and viewers. To compensate for crowding diverse shows and individuals into too few categories the academy increased the number of awards last year.

This led to a welter of 42 categories.

The outcry was worse than before—Everybody who ever appeared on television—with the possible exception of J. Fred Muggs—wins an Emmy, was the general complaint.

But the TV Academy is nothing if it isn't sensitive to public opinion.

This year the number of awards has been cut drastically to a mere 21, which is seven less than the movies' Oscar lineup.

Who are the shadowy characters behind all this maneuvering? They're such well-known individuals as Walter Cronkite, Academy president, and producer Harry Ackerman—who are trying to keep everyone happy.

"But no matter what we do, it's wrong," said Ackerman, who is vice president and executive producer of Screen Gems.

This year, however, we think we've found a solution.

There will be 14 categories for the regular-awards to performers, directors and the like. Then there are seven general program categories covering a fairly broad scale of shows.

"These will be for the best con-

Strontium 90 Effects Made Less Dangerous With 'Filter'

NEW YORK (UPI)—Two scientists capitalized on the fact that human bone absorbs radioactive strontium to create a chemical technique which can make that dangerous element in atomic fallout much less dangerous for people.

Radioactive strontium, so in danger because it is brought down from the atmosphere by rain. That puts it into vegetation and thence into cows and then into their milk. When people drink the milk their bones absorb greedily any radioactive strontium which is in it, along with calcium and other beneficial minerals.

It occurred to Leon Singer and W. D. Armstrong of the University of Minnesota that this potential evil could be converted into potential good. Why not take advantage of this affinity of bone for strontium by using bone outside the body as a filter?

The problem, then, was to make bone filters which would extract strontium from milk without taking equal amounts of these other minerals out of it. This problem Singer and Armstrong attacked by putting their pulverized bone through chemical treatments.

The idea was to make bone less an organic substance and more a purely mineral one. They made "anorganic" bone by extracting the proteins, and "fat-free" bone by washing out the fats.

The former as a filter took out 97 per cent of the strontium while removing only a little calcium and potassium. The latter took out 75 per cent of the strontium but removed about one-third of the calcium. The scientists said this deficiency of the best filtering bone could be repaired by adding calcium to filtered milk.

With pulverized bone, they made filters. They added precisely measured amounts of radioactive strontium to milk and poured the milk through the filters, and up to 75 per cent of the strontium was filtered out of it. But, of course, it wasn't as simple as that makes it sound.

You see, the bone chemistry which causes bone to absorb strontium (whether or not it is radioactive) also causes it to absorb other minerals which are among the constituents that make milk such a wonderfully nutritious substance. The competition in these seven divisions will include shows of all lengths.

Radioactive strontium and its sister isotope from fallout, radioactive cesium, can be found in milk in most of the northern hemisphere, but in amounts much below those which scientists consider to be menacing. If there is any increase in fallout, however, these amounts would increase.

TROUBLE FOR THE HARVESTERS — These fifteen seniors together with two more will make up the Exes squad in tomorrow night's traditional battle with the Futures at Harvester Stadium. Coach Bubba Hill will field a team from this group which will give the Future squad all it can handle. On the line (l to r) are Kent Mitchell, Jim Scott, Roland Stone, Terry Rexroad, Butch Dunham, Jerrell Reed, Benny Stout, Lynn McGee, and Charles Warren. The backfield (l to r) has Dwain Urbanczyk, Ruben Strickland, Terry Joe Haralson, Bobby Stephens, Buddy Rawls, and Ronnie Smith. (Daily News Photo)

Futures Eye Upset Over Exes

By BOB DUNBAR
Daily News Sports Editor

The 1960 Harvester football squad is little more than 24 hours away from the moment of truth. Tomorrow night's clash with the Exes shapes up as the test which will go a long way toward establishing the book for the Pampa gridders in the 1960 campaign.

With the kick-off set for 8:00 p.m., good weather should draw a large crowd to sit in on the annual renewal of the traditional spring scrap between the Exes squad made up of 18 graduating seniors from the 1959 Harvesters and the coming 1960 varsity.

Coach Babe Curtman and his staff of assistants have been favored by ideal weather throughout the 20-day spring training season and have made the most of the opportunity.

The Futures will throw a well-balanced offensive unit at the Exes but lack real depth in replacements. Roy Don Stephens will get the starting nod at quarterback with Butch Crossland ready to switch off the signal calling duties.

Defensively, Crossland will join Stephens at halfback, Cooper will handle Garren's linebacker post along with Dickie Willis as the other linebacker.

Lucky Dunham will pair up with Storms as cornermen and sophomore Danny Matfus will come in to handle the defensive line pivot at middle guard. Webb and Larry Braly will go at the tackle slots with Giese and Boyles manning the defensive end chores.

Speck at 190, Braly at 180, Matfus at 170, and Giese at 171 furnish the heft for the defensive line.

Curtman has indicated he will not use Garren who has been nursing an injured knee. The knee was operated on last January for the removal of cartilages and was injured in an early practice session. While Garren appears to be back in shape Curtman does not want to take a chance on re-injuring the knee before it has a chance to strengthen.

The Futures will also be at a severe disadvantage because of the absence of Lynn Schofield who suffered a fractured leg on the third day of drills. He would normally man the vital middle guard spot in the defense which has been assigned to Matfus.

Curtman is satisfied with the progress shown by his charges during the 20-day practice period and is not nearly as concerned now with the team's depth as he was two weeks ago.

He said, "A lot of these boys have come along real well and should be able to fill in behind the starters without hurting us. Of course, we're still a little thin at a couple of positions but overall we're in pretty good shape."

He views the coming tussle with the Exes as a tough hurdle for his squad.

Babe said, "If our boys don't get their assignments right we're in for a lot of trouble. Those boys will meet us in the backfield in a hurry if the line doesn't do its job."

In addition to the starting offensive eleven, the Harvesters will probably get a lot of mileage out of reserves like fullback Dennis Mills, end Randy Matson, end Corky Godfrey, backs Randy Haralson and Robbie Robinson, and quarterback Eddie Berry.

Meanwhile, over in the Exes camp confidence is the byword. With outstanding players like All-State tackle Benny Stout, Buddy Rawls, Bobby Stephens, Jim Scott, Terry Joe Haralson, Charles Warren, Dwain Urbanczyk, and Ronnie Smith to throw at the Futures any other attitude would be unbecoming.

The Exes got their only bad news last night when they learned they may lose center Butch Dunham for the scrap. Butch has been bothered by a liver condition and has been advised by his doctor not to play. The decision is apparently up to Dunham but indications are that he will sit out the game.

This could prove disastrous to the Exes who were counting on the husky pivotman to handle some heavy duty defensively as well as the offensive chores.

Coach Bubba Hill said his boys would give the Futures more than they could say grace over but refused to commit himself on the outcome.

G-Sox Pull The Unusual, Wallop Veracruz 9-3

By United Press International

It's beginning to look like the Texas League leading Rio Grande Valley club doesn't play its best baseball unless it spots the opposition a few runs.

The Giants gave up four runs Wednesday night to the Puebla Parrots in the first two innings then raced from behind for the second straight night, a familiar pattern, to keep its two 'and a half game' bulge in the Texas circuit intact with a 5-4 victory.

San Antonio and Victoria swapped places again. The Missions clobbered Pozo Rica 12-1 to recapture second place while the Rosebuds dropped to third, three games back, shutout by Mexico City's Red Devils 8-0.

In other games, Austin edged Monterrey 5-3, Amarillo drubbed Veracruz 9-3, and Mexico City's Tigers were rained out at Tulsa.

Inocencio Rodriguez swatted a three-run homer to open Puebla's scoring, and the fourth run came in the second inning when Valley's defense fell apart on a pair of errors.

Giant hurler Dick Lemay settled down and pitched one-hit ball the rest of the way, and helped win his own game by driving in two runs with a fifth-inning triple, and scored himself on a wild pitch. He knocked in the winning run in the seventh.

Cecil Butler held Monterrey to seven hits and led Austin's attack at the plate with a solo homer in the third, and knocking one of the four-run fifth inning outburst that clinched it.

Francisco Ramirez shut out Victoria on four hits, but only a desperation leap by outfielder Alford Ponkaton kept Rosebud husky Jim Fridley's ninth inning blow from clearing the fence.

Fridley was the only Victoria player to get as far as third. He doubled and advanced on a single by Jim Rice, who got two of the Rosebud's four hits.

John Davilio won his second game of the season for Amarillo, giving up six hits, including Humberto Bacbon's ninth inning homer. The Gold Sox took an early

Rickey To Try Double Talk On Senate As Hearings Open

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Branch Rickey, silver-tongued spokesman for the fledgling Continental League, was listed as the leadoff witness today on the Senate's controversial baseball bill.

Baseball Commissioner Ford C. Frick, already an outspoken opponent, was ready to take his cut at the measure in testimony before the Senate Anti-Monopoly subcommittee.

Rickey was expected to favor the bill. A controversial feature would limit to 100 the number of baseball players which a major league team could control. Thus opening possibilities for the new league to obtain players.

One important lineup change was announced Wednesday. Subcommittee Chairman Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.), sponsor of the bill, announced that he was turning over the gavel to Sen. Philip A. Hart (D-Mich.) so that he could be in Tennessee today.

Kefauver said Wednesday that all baseball—majors, minors and the fledgling Continental League—should be happy with the pending legislation.

Kefauver said he thought the bill would "expand baseball." He said he thought "just about everybody" except the major league spokesmen was pleased with it.

Even the major leagues, Kefauver said, should be "happy" with the feature of the bill which would permit regulation of television broadcasts by one team into the home territory of another.

He said the minor league teams should like the provision which would limit the players controlled by any major league team to 100. That, he said, would let minor league teams operate without major league subsidy by selling promising talent to the majors.

Roadrunners Open Season

Pampa's new semi-pro baseball team, the Roadrunners, will open its season tonight at Optimist Park with Clarendon, Okla., furnishing the opposition. Game time is 8 p.m.

Managers Newt Secrest and Henry Stephens have nominated Gradin Lantz and Jimmy Walker to handle the pitching. Terry Joe Haralson will get the starting nod behind the plate with Mike Conway in reserve.

They Could Be Out Robbing Gas Stations, Mom

FORT WORTH (UPI)—Mrs. F. L. Malone wishes the baseball season was over. It's brought her nothing but trouble.

Both of her sons are avid baseball fans. Don, 10, was watching his brother Tommy, 12, play baseball. He got so excited when Tommy hit a long one, he fell from the bleachers and was hospitalized with a hip injury.

The next day, when Mrs. Malone brought Don home, the hospital called and said Tommy had been put in the bed Don just left. Tommy broke his ankle sliding into second base.

The infield shows Travis Taylor at first, Ruben Strickland at second base, Bobby Nutt at shortstop, and Bobby Sells at third. Wendell Ridgway is the Roadrunners utility infielder, ready to go at second, short or third.

The pasture patrol duty will be handled by Bobby Stephens, David Marlar, and Gary Hill with Glen Adams in reserve.

Along with Walker and Lantz, the Roadrunners have Kippy Williams and Gary Heiskell to throw at their opponents.

Following tonight's opening game, the team will travel to Sayre, Okla., for a Sunday contest there.

The Roadrunners are still negotiating to form an eight team league with entries from Texas, Kansas and Oklahoma considering the loop.

While business manager Homer Hollars has lined up almost a dozen games already the Roadrunners should soon have a complete schedule of 40 games in their first year on the local scene.

The 1960 Pampa High School varsity baseball team furnished the nucleus for the new group with no less than five of the starting fielders coming up from the Harvesters. Managers Secrest and Stephens decided to keep only 15 of the candidates who answered the call for practice sessions. The Roadrunners will dress the white uniforms left by the defunct Pampa Oilers.

Law Pitches Pirates Into Tie For NL Lead

By FRED DOWN
United Press International

First it's Friend and then it's Law — and who in Pitt could ask for more?

Warren Spahn and Johnny Sain will have to pardon the parody on that famous refrain of 1948 because it looks like Bob Friend and Vern Law can keep the Pittsburgh Pirates in the National League race all the way. The Pirates seemed on the verge of collapse only two weeks ago but today they've tied San Francisco for first place on the strength of seven victories in eight games.

Friend and Law have accounted for four of those seven victories and have two of the grandest records in the league. Friend is 9-1 with a 2.22 earned run average and Law is 6-1 with a 2.06 E.R.A. Friend, of course, is making a comeback from a dismal 8-19 mark last season but Law is only picking up where he left off in 1959. He finished the campaign with 12 victories in his last 18 decisions for a final 18-9 slate.

Law, 29, was at his best Wednesday night when he pitched the Pirates to a 4-2 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals that enabled them to tie the Giants who suffered a 3-1 loss to the Milwaukee Braves. The Cincinnati Reds beat the Los Angeles Dodgers, 5-4, in 12 innings in other NL action.

The Chicago White Sox held their one-half game grip on the American League lead with a 6-5 win over the Boston Red Sox, the Baltimore Orioles shamed the Kansas City Athletics, 5-4, the New York Yankees downed the Cleveland Indians, 4-2, and the Washington Senators beat the Detroit Tigers, 3-0.

Law, who helped his cause with a double in the seventh inning, shut out the Cardinals until the ninth when three singles and an infield out produced both St. Louis runs. Don Hoak and Bob Skinner had two hits each for the Pirates, who dealt ex-teamsmate Ron Kline his third defeat.

Relief pitcher Bob Rush hurled six fine innings and also scored the decisive run for the Braves by bowling over catcher Hobie Landrith on a play at the plate. The Giants filled the bases with two out in the ninth but Don McMahon retired Willie McCovey on a fly for the final out. Mike McCormick, San Francisco's five-game winner, suffered his first loss.

Ed Bailey broke up the four-hour and four-minute marathon in Cincinnati by singling home Frank Robinson in the 12th. Robinson had tied the score at 4-4 with a two-run homer in the last of the 10th after the Dodgers had forged ahead, 4-2, in their half.

Inks Patriot Pact
BOSTON (UPI)—Halfback Fred Brune, who formerly played for the Pittsburgh Steelers and San Francisco Forty Niners of the National Football League, has signed a contract with the Boston Patriots of the American Football League.

Scores A Triple
BALTIMORE, Md. (UPI)—Jockey Bennie Green scored a triple at Pimlico Wednesday. Green capped his streak with Ram in the eighth race to beat Bastion's Guide, winner of the 1958 Washington, D.C. International, by a half length.

Sammy Sneed Golf Tournament Draws 62 Professionals
WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (UPI)—Sixty-two professionals were expected to participate in the four-day 35th annual Sam Sneed Festival Golf Tournament which opened here today.

Despite the appearance of former champions E. J. (Dutch) Harrison and Ed (Porky) Oliver and several other big name golfers, host Sneed was favored to copy his third consecutive championship and sixth in the event's history.

Sneed and his White Sulphur colleague Gary Nixon shot 64 Wednesday in a practice round. That gave Sneed seven sub-par rounds in as many tries over the past few days. Par is 70.

The slammer shot an eight-under-par 62 last Saturday and a 67 in the rain the day before.

George PAUL and Ed Duck White each had a 67 Wednesday and Henry Picard a 68.

Sneed won last year with a blazing stretch drive — an almost unheard of 59 on the third round and 63 on the final 18 holes.

This 18-under-par shooting for the final 3 holes gave Sneed a 259 and total prize money of $4,500. This included $2,300 from the pro purse of $10,000 and $2,200 for the first three places in a pro-amateur that is held concurrently over the last 3 holes.

Little Leaguer
LARRY DANIELS pitched and batted last-inning runs off loser Johnny Kuhn to edge Culberson Chevrolet, Shelby-Ruff sneaked past Culberson Chevrolet, 12-11, and Cabot trounced Duncan, 9-2, in Little League baseball action Wednesday night.

Daniels not only went the distance to pick up his third win of the season for Rotary, but he knocked in the winning run in the top of the sixth. He caught hold of a 0-2 pitch and hit it over the fence. He also added a double and single in two other trips to the plate.

Daniels limited Rotary to five hits while fanning 14 and walking only three.

James Matney added a pair of doubles to the Rotary attack, and Gary Atchley connected for a single and double.

Shelby Ruff erupted for three

Today's Sport Parade
NEW YORK (UPI)—The deep, angry hurt of being abandoned has faded from the heart of the Brooklyn baseball fan, Carl Erskine said today, and been replaced by the empty void of a washed-up love affair.

The man they hailed as "Ois-kinn" back in those daffy, delirious days, should know.

It was in the vanished park called Ebbets Field that he received his first big league tryout, pitched his first major league game, hurled two no-hitters, beat the Yankees in a World Series game by setting a strikeout record and swatted his only big league home run.

Erskine didn't last too much longer than the Brooklyn franchise. He went west to Los Angeles, pitched and won the first major league game in the City of

Titans Sign Cadet
NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York Titans of the American Football League have signed Bob Mitchell, former Army end and offensive guard for the New York Giants, to a 1960 contract.

AFL Expected To Expand 12 Team Loop
NEW YORK (UPI)—The American Football League, which is scheduled to begin operations this fall as an eight-team circuit, will expand to 12 teams for the 1961 season, according to a prediction by Harry Wismer, head of the league's expansion committee.

"I'm sure we will be a 12-team league then," said Wismer, "with Toronto and Montreal joining Atlanta and Chicago in 1961."

Wisner made the prediction after A. J. Bennett, representing real estate interests in Toronto, announced Wednesday that he has formally applied for a franchise in the new professional football league.

Bennett said that he was not at liberty to name the other members of his group, but said he is ready at once to post the $25,000 entry application fee and the $100,000 pre-operating fee required by the league. He said that he does not feel the existence of Canadian professional football teams in Toronto and Montreal at the present time is a barrier to those cities also having a team in the AFL.

"In applying for this franchise, the furthest thing from my thoughts is to hurt our existing professional Canadian football league teams," said Bennett. "I feel, as do lots of others, that there is room for two pro teams in Toronto and also in Montreal."

Law Pitches Pirates Into Tie For NL Lead

By FRED DOWN
United Press International

First it's Friend and then it's Law — and who in Pitt could ask for more?

Warren Spahn and Johnny Sain will have to pardon the parody on that famous refrain of 1948 because it looks like Bob Friend and Vern Law can keep the Pittsburgh Pirates in the National League race all the way. The Pirates seemed on the verge of collapse only two weeks ago but today they've tied San Francisco for first place on the strength of seven victories in eight games.

Friend and Law have accounted for four of those seven victories and have two of the grandest records in the league. Friend is 9-1 with a 2.22 earned run average and Law is 6-1 with a 2.06 E.R.A. Friend, of course, is making a comeback from a dismal 8-19 mark last season but Law is only picking up where he left off in 1959. He finished the campaign with 12 victories in his last 18 decisions for a final 18-9 slate.

Law, 29, was at his best Wednesday night when he pitched the Pirates to a 4-2 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals that enabled them to tie the Giants who suffered a 3-1 loss to the Milwaukee Braves. The Cincinnati Reds beat the Los Angeles Dodgers, 5-4, in 12 innings in other NL action.

The Chicago White Sox held their one-half game grip on the American League lead with a 6-5 win over the Boston Red Sox, the Baltimore Orioles shamed the Kansas City Athletics, 5-4, the New York Yankees downed the Cleveland Indians, 4-2, and the Washington Senators beat the Detroit Tigers, 3-0.

Sammy Sneed Golf Tournament Draws 62 Professionals
WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (UPI)—Sixty-two professionals were expected to participate in the four-day 35th annual Sam Sneed Festival Golf Tournament which opened here today.

Despite the appearance of former champions E. J. (Dutch) Harrison and Ed (Porky) Oliver and several other big name golfers, host Sneed was favored to copy his third consecutive championship and sixth in the event's history.

Sneed and his White Sulphur colleague Gary Nixon shot 64 Wednesday in a practice round. That gave Sneed seven sub-par rounds in as many tries over the past few days. Par is 70.

The slammer shot an eight-under-par 62 last Saturday and a 67 in the rain the day before.

George PAUL and Ed Duck White each had a 67 Wednesday and Henry Picard a 68.

Sneed won last year with a blazing stretch drive — an almost unheard of 59 on the third round and 63 on the final 18 holes.

This 18-under-par shooting for the final 3 holes gave Sneed a 259 and total prize money of $4,500. This included $2,300 from the pro purse of $10,000 and $2,200 for the first three places in a pro-amateur that is held concurrently over the last 3 holes.

Today's Sport Parade
NEW YORK (UPI)—The deep, angry hurt of being abandoned has faded from the heart of the Brooklyn baseball fan, Carl Erskine said today, and been replaced by the empty void of a washed-up love affair.

The man they hailed as "Ois-kinn" back in those daffy, delirious days, should know.

It was in the vanished park called Ebbets Field that he received his first big league tryout, pitched his first major league game, hurled two no-hitters, beat the Yankees in a World Series game by setting a strikeout record and swatted his only big league home run.

Erskine didn't last too much longer than the Brooklyn franchise. He went west to Los Angeles, pitched and won the first major league game in the City of

AFL Expected To Expand 12 Team Loop
NEW YORK (UPI)—The American Football League, which is scheduled to begin operations this fall as an eight-team circuit, will expand to 12 teams for the 1961 season, according to a prediction by Harry Wismer, head of the league's expansion committee.

"I'm sure we will be a 12-team league then," said Wismer, "with Toronto and Montreal joining Atlanta and Chicago in 1961."

Wisner made the prediction after A. J. Bennett, representing real estate interests in Toronto, announced Wednesday that he has formally applied for a franchise in the new professional football league.

Bennett said that he was not at liberty to name the other members of his group, but said he is ready at once to post the $25,000 entry application fee and the $100,000 pre-operating fee required by the league. He said that he does not feel the existence of Canadian professional football teams in Toronto and Montreal at the present time is a barrier to those cities also having a team in the AFL.

"In applying for this franchise, the furthest thing from my thoughts is to hurt our existing professional Canadian football league teams," said Bennett. "I feel, as do lots of others, that there is room for two pro teams in Toronto and also in Montreal."

Wisner, who also is head of the New York Titans of the new league, disclosed that he is scheduled to meet next week with Crawford Gordon Jr. of Montreal, whom he identified as "the head of one of three Montreal groups seeking a franchise in our league starting in 1961."

The AFL currently includes teams in New York, Boston, Buffalo, Dallas, Denver, Houston, Los Angeles and Oakland. In addition, Atlanta and Chicago are scheduled to begin play in 1961.

ROCKETEER—The ranks of American rocket scientists will probably be graced one day by Eugene Erickson. The 13-year-old Chicago schoolboy displays the model he built in two months' spare time for a school science fair. It's patterned after a U.S. satellite and vehicle. Eugene calls it "Starfire."

1960 Maps Available Now From Highway Department

AUSTIN—Texas' Official Highway Travel Map, 1960-style, is now available to the general public. Free copies of the big, colorful map may be obtained by writing the Texas Highway Department, Austin 14, or at the highway district offices and travel bureaus. County tax offices have map cards on hand for requesting copies of the map.

The map reflects 1,933 miles of multilane-divided highway now completed, and includes the finished sections of the seven National System of Interstate and Defense Highways located in the state. More than 1,500 farm-to-market road miles have been added to this year's map. Approximately 20,500 miles of the state's 20,000-mile Farm-to-Market Road System are shown on the map. All of the 26,378 miles of State and U.S. highways are shown.

Three new lakes have been added to the 1960 Travel Map, bringing the total shown in the major-lakes and-reservoirs category to 64. New water attractions recorded are Buffalo Lake in Lubbock county; Champion Creek Lake in Mitchell County; and Lake Tawakoni in Hunt, Rains, and Van Zandt Counties. Countless rivers, creeks and streams are also charted on the Travel Map.

The 816 roadside parks pegged on the map are those having full picnic facilities. Their locations are marked by a green dot. State Parks are indicated by a green triangle.

"All of Texas Welcomes You" banners the pictorial side of the map—reflecting, in eleven full-color pictures, some of the outstanding recreational, scenic, and historical attractions in Texas.

A section entitled "Facts About Texas" telescopes information on Texas terrain, history, and industrial and recreational diversity. Cities and towns shown on the map total 1,826. City route maps for the state's twelve largest cities are also included—Amarillo, Austin, Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Dallas, El Paso, Fort Worth, Houston, Lubbock, San Antonio, Waco, and Wichita Falls.

More than half a million Official Highway Travel Maps of the 1959 edition have been distributed—state, out-of-state, and to dozens of foreign countries.

The map is used by all state and governmental agencies in the state for determining official highway distances, mileage, zones, and like information.

ELECTED EASILY
SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (UPI)—Mayor Paul Egan of Aurora, Ill., appealing to the state Legislature to make his police and fire departments obey him, said: "I was elected mayor because anybody could get elected—and anybody was."

Girl Friend Sees Ft. Worthian Drown

FORT WORTH (UPI)—B. J. (Bob) McCoy, 25, a Fort Worth fireman, drowned in Lake Arlington Wednesday night while his girl friend watched on shore unable to do anything about his screams for help.

Hooks Blanton, lake custodian who recovered the body in 10 feet of water about 15 minutes after McCoy went under, blamed the death on cold water.

"That cold water just drains you," he said.

Miss Carol Aston said she started to go in the water with McCoy, but returned to the beach because of the frigid temperature. A few minutes later, she said she heard McCoy scream for help about 150 feet off shore, but inside a roped off swimming area.

In an Arctic Circle V-Series cooler the moistened cooling pad never touches the louvers (A). It is held away from them by a diamond mesh expanded steel separator (B). This separator minimizes moisture on the louvers and thus assures longer life for the pad frame.
