Senator Talks On Cuba At Pampa Breakfast

Yarborough To Give Major Talk Tonight

Sen. Ralph Yarborough told a breakfast audience in Pampa this morning that the April 1961 Bay of Pigs invasion of Cuba went wrong because there was no coordination of information furnished to heads of the Army, Navy and Air Force.

The senator made the statement in answer to a question from among the 40 persons who attended a breakfast for him in the Court House Cafe to launch a day-long swing through Gray, Wheeler, Hemphill and Roberts counties.

Senator Yarborough will return to Pampa late this afternoon to make an appearance at a 5 p.m. meeting in Coronado Inn of the Independent Oil and Gas Producers and Royalty Owners Association, a brief stop and talk at the Junior Livestock Show Exhibitors Barbecue at 6:30 p.m., and then an appearance for a major speech at a public banquet to be held in his honor at 7:30 p.m. in the Coronado Inn Starlight Room.

The senator's breakfast appearance here this morning was with personal friends and Democratic party members.

Discussing the Cuban situation further, Senator Yarborough said: "At present we have a steady stream of information on Cuban activities from various sources that is being channeled to the Pentagon," Yarborough said, "and with the U. S. Marines on the scene at Guantanamo, there is little going on on either side of the fence there that we don't know about."

The senator said the United States maintains a large number of military and naval personnel in the Caribbean, but added that it is this country's aim to squeeze the Russians out by negotiation rather than by force.

"An invasion during the recent blockade at the time of removal of Russian missiles from Cuba would have resulted in a blood bath," Yarborough said.

The senator stated that while Fidel Castro appears outwardly to be permanently entrenched in Cuba, the Cuban dictator maintains an airplane and crew on 24-hour alert just in case he needs to make a hasty departure.

Discussing further the Red buildup in Cuba, Senator Yarborough stated it was the aim of Khrushchev and the Communists to make Cuba a showplace in Latin America for the world to see, but added that after spending $100 million, with practically nothing to show for it, the Reds are growing impatient with Castro.

"In attempting to convert coffee and sugar plantations into agricultural areas to grow food, Castro was a failure," Yarborough said, "and the people of Cuba also are becoming impatient with him for failing to keep the many promises he had made."

Senator Yarborough congratulated Pampans for what he called "their foresight in helping to get the Canadian River Water Project under way."

"It is one of the largest projects of its kind in the world," the senator said.

At the public reception for him in Coronado Inn tonight, the senator will report on current happenings in Congress.

County Attorney Don Cain will give the address of welcome and Senator Yarborough will be introduced by Ralph Wayne of Plainview. Wayne will serve as master of ceremonies at the banquet.

Following the Pampa breakfast this morning, Senator Yarborough left in a motorcade escort for appearance in Lefors, McLean, Shamrock and a noonday stop for luncheon with the Kiwanis Club in Wheeler.

A 1:45 p.m. appearance was scheduled in Canadian and a 2:45 p.m. meeting with a group in Miami.

From there the Yarborough entourage was to return to Pampa to fill the three engagements scheduled here in late afternoon and tonight.

TO REMARRY AT 90
PORT ELIZABETH, South Africa (UPI) — Christian Hattingsh, 90, said Friday he will marry for the fifth time because "I'm lonely and besides a man is as old as he feels and I don't feel 90." He met his bride-to-be, Mrs. Lily Roodt, 54, in the old folks home where he lives.

More Sulphur Queen Debris Investigated

MIAMI (UPI) — Coast Guard officials examined a charred board today that appeared to be the nameplate from the missing tanker Marine Sulphur Queen.

A Miami boat manufacturer, John Allmand, found the 10-foot board floating in the surf Sunday about 200 yards off a Key Biscayne beach.

The letters "ARINE SULPH" were inscribed on the black board in large white letters.

Allmand said the nameplate appeared to have been torn into several pieces by an explosion. He said a metal strap on the board had been twisted and several bolts in the strap had been sheared in half.

"It must have been quite a blast to twist metal like that," he said. "The sign was partially charred and was covered with burned oil. It really smelled bad."

The 523-foot tanker, missing with its crew of 39 since Feb. 3, was carrying a cargo of molten sulphur. Coast Guard officials said if the hot sulphur had been exposed to water it could have caused a tremendous explosion.

Allmand said he and his 6-year-old son, John Jr., were taking a stroll along the beach when he spotted the board.

Other debris from the tanker has been found along southeast Florida beaches recently and the Coast Guard has investigated at least a dozen oil-slicks in the Gulf of Mexico.

Khrushchev Re-Elected On No-Contest Ballot

MOSCOW (UPI) — Moscow Radio made the expected day-after-election announcement today that at least 99 per cent of the Soviet Union's electorate turned out to choose new regional and local parliaments.

With only the Communist-nominated slate of candidates picked from and the results a foregone conclusion, it was no surprise that Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev won unanimous election from Moscow's Kalinin District.

Khrushchev was returned to his seat in the Supreme Soviet (parliament) of the Russian Federation.

What prevented a 100 per cent backing for the single slate was illness, a handful of invalidated ballots or, in rare instances, some voters who wrote in names of their own candidates.

At his polling station, Khrushchev missed by 30 minutes a face-to-face meeting with disgraced former premier and foreign minister Vladimir Molotov, who cast his vote after the premier.

Molotov, who was ousted from power by Khrushchev as part of the anti-party coup in 1957, now lives quietly in Moscow.

Molotov told newsmen he is in good health, though he makes few public appearances.

A sidelight to the elections was the voting into office of Vladimir Ilych Lenin, the Soviet leader who died in 1924. His name appears on the ballot every year as a tribute.

Elections in the other six republics will be held March 17.

Parliamentary deputies in the Soviet Union have virtually no voice in making laws or setting policy. They meet only a few days a year to rubberstamp decisions made by the Communist hierarchy.

LIMA, Peru (UPI) — Peru was calm today following a bloodless coup by the armed forces that ousted military junta President Ricardo Perez Godoy as a would-be dictator.

The coup Sunday morning was led by Perez Godoy's three junta colleagues, who renewed the junta pledge to return the nation to civilian rule after presidential elections in June.

Gen. Nicolas Lindley Lopez, 54, an outspoken anti-Communist regarded as a friend of the United States, took over as new junta president under the law of succession established by the junta when it assumed power last June.

Perez Godoy remained at his home in suburban Miraflores Sunday night, apparently under house arrest. He told newsmen he had not resigned the presidency. But he indicated no desire to try to reverse the junta's decision.

The peaceful turnover followed a night of tension at the presidential palace as Perez Godoy apparently refused to leave until it became clear he could not count on significant support from any sector of the armed forces.

He left the palace at 6 a.m., accompanied by his wife and an aide, and was driven home. As he entered the house he shouted "Long live Peru."

DeGaulle Calls Showdown With French Miners

PARIS (UPI) — President Charles de Gaulle today moved steel-helmeted riot police into northwestern mining towns in a showdown with defiant striking miners.

Union leaders rejected a government order of "work or face the consequences."

An estimated 200,000 coal miners have been striking since Friday for higher pay. They were backed by more than 500,000 workers in other nationalized industries, most of whom planned sympathy walk-outs Tuesday.

Truckloads of armed gendarmes late Sunday began rolling into the towns of Saint Avold, Merlebach, Forbach, Stiring-Wendel, and Hier.

Labor leaders said the government's threat of arrest and possible jail or fines for strikers have made things worse. They called a mass meeting of 100,000 miners for today at Lens.

The strike committee for the Lorraine area late Sunday distributed pamphlets calling on the miners within their district to stay off their jobs despite a government "requisition" order published Saturday.

The order said miners in that district faced prosecution if they did not return to their pits and perform their regular jobs when their shifts were due to start work today.

The miners walked off their jobs Friday to support demands for an average 11 per cent increase in wages now ranging from $120 to $200 per month, and a reduction in working time.

The government threatened them with dismissal if they failed to return to work within 48 hours. The 48 hours runs out first for the Lorraine region miners. The rest have Monday off.

Stratoscope II Gives New Data On Planet Mars

PALESTINE, Tex. (UPI) — The Stratoscope II space balloon probe of Mars confirmed the presence of water vapor and carbon dioxide on the planet, scientists reported today. But they could not tell whether there was enough to support any form of life.

During last Friday night's flight of the giant unmanned balloon with an instrument package and a 36-inch telescope, scientists got five "scans" of Mars.

They could not get more views of the red planet because of its position in the sky and the trajectory of the balloon as it sailed from Palestine to land at a point near Pulaski, Tenn.

Useful Data Obtained
A preliminary survey issued in advance of a news conference at the balloon launch center in Palestine said the experiment was "highly encouraging" and gave astronomers "useful data" in their search to discover the secrets of the closest planet to earth.

"Infra-red tracings were made by the balloon as it sailed on the fringe of space to altitudes of 77,000 feet. Some of the water vapor and carbon dioxide recorded on instruments would be attributed to earthly origin, the summary said.

The balloon rose to an altitude beyond 96 per cent of earth's atmosphere, and scientists must perform extensive research before they can determine how much water vapor and carbon dioxide can be attributed to Mars itself.

Marginal Life
Scientists already knew, the summary said, that "because of the atmospheric conditions, life on the planet would be marginal at best."

If there is enough water vapor, "some very primitive life forms becomes conceivable."

Previous estimates have set the entire water vapor of the planet, half the size of earth, would fill in an area only four cubic miles in size.

Stratoscope II may put a more precise limit on the amount of water vapor present. It already was known that Mars has more carbon dioxide than earth. Scientists pointed out that while carbon dioxide is a product of life, it does not prove the existence of life.

The balloon stayed aloft for 12 hours and traveled 700 miles to the northeast from Palestine to Pulaski, Tenn.

Snow, Hazardous Driving In Store For Panhandle

Drizzling rain changing to blowing snow and hazardous driving conditions are in store for the Panhandle area tonight, according to the noonday forecast from the Amarillo Weather Weather Bureau.

The forecasters said the mercury will drop into the 20s by morning, but the snow condition should end tomorrow forenoon.

However, the hazardous driving warning was a part of today's forecast. The snow was expected to start by early evening and continue through the night.

The five-day forecast, also issued today, holds promise of more rain on the way during the coming week end.

Chinese Reds Call Soviets Mice In Latest Challenge

TOKYO (UPI) — Communist China concluded "a massive defense of its 'hard line' communism with a challenge to Russia to debate their ideological dispute in public."

Describing the Russians as "cowardly as mice," the Chinese Reds said:

"If you are men enough, step forward. Let each side in the debate publish all the articles in which it is criticized by the other side, and let the people in our own countries and the whole world think and judge who is right and who is wrong."

Sharpest Attack Yet
The challenge was issued Sunday in the fourth and last installment of a 10,000-word defense of Mao Tse-tung's communism as opposed to Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's avowed policy of peaceful coexistence. It was the sharpest attack yet on the Soviet leader.

The statement accused "certain people" — meaning Khrushchev — of both "adventurism" and then "capitulationism" in the Cuban crisis last fall. It renewed the Mao thesis that all imperialists and reactionaries are "paper tigers" and that to be afraid of them is "practically nonsensical."

The statement did not attack Khrushchev directly by name, but the references were unmistakable. It was bitter at the fact the growing Sino-Soviet split has caused Russia to cut off much of its economic aid to Red China, saying these "certain people" continue to undermine Communist unity.

Expresses Cuba Bitterness
It also expressed bitterness over Khrushchev's decision to pull his missiles out of Cuba in the face of a nuclear war with the capitalist West.

During the Cuban events certain people first committed the error of adventurism, and then committed the error of capitulationism, wanting the Cuban people to accept humiliating terms which would have meant the sacrifice of the sovereignty of their country," the statement said.

The statement was taken from an article in Red Flag magazine, the Peking regime's leading theoretical journal, and broadcast by Peking Radio.

Burglars Get Nearly $7000 Haul

Two safe burglaries, one successful and the other a washout, occurred last night in Pampa.

The successful safe-cracking was at the Culberson Chevrolet Co., 212 N. Ballard, where $974.72 in cash and $8,174.18 in checks was taken.

The unsuccessful attempt was at the Central Baptist Church, 513 E. Francis, where the thieves were frustrated in efforts to haul the safe away.

Pampa Police Chief Jim Conner reported that entry to the Culberson vault apparently was gained by the burglar or burglars climbing a fence on the south side where new cars are kept, breaking a hole in a window to get into the building, and then breaking the glass in the office door.

The burglars used tools from the garage to cut into the vault, taking an oxy-acetylene torch, coupling it to a long piece of hose from a truck in the garage and then burning their way into the vault.

Chief Conner said Culberson employees reported that there was a nearly $1,000 in cash in the vault, plus the checks, and that an inventory and survey of recent bills paid would be made to determine the exact amount stolen.

At the church, entry also was gained by breaking a window, and access to the office was made the same way. The thieves had apparently intended to haul the 400-pound safe away. They wheeled it out and tried to roll it down the stairs. Two of the rollers broke off and the thieves then rolled the safe down the basement stairs and apparently tried to work the combination. There were no marks on the safe. Church officials said the safe contained about $30 in cash.

West Can't Budge USSR In Geneva

GENEVA (UPI) — The Western powers today apparently failed to budge the Soviet Union from its rigid position on the nuclear test ban issue in an informal closed door debate at the 17-nation disarmament conference.

Sources said U. S. Ambassador Charles C. Stelle pressed the Soviets to depart from their hard-line on the question of on-site inspections and to get down to serious negotiations.

Asked if anything had happened at the three-hour session, Soviet delegate Semyon K. Tsarapkin said: "Nothing."

Surveys Domain

LYLE, Minn. (UPI) — Town Marshal Clarence Berg sat on the outskirts of town during the week end and surveyed his domain with binoculars.

Then Berg got up and went to a service station three blocks away where he arrested John Kohnke, 18, for breaking into the building.

Frenchmen Marrying More...Liking It Less

By ROSETTE HARGROVE Newspaper Enterprise Assn. PARIS (NEA) — Frenchmen are marrying more but, apparently, loving it less. It seems that the French, who most people look upon as the inventors of love, are running into an increased divorce rate because so many couples are marrying too young. To cope with the situation, there is a move under way to establish marriage counselor bureaus in various sections of Paris as well as in the larger provincial cities. Sociologists believe that psychological guidance might supply the answer in helping these couples get off on the right foot along the path of matrimony. One of the main problems to be dealt with is how to keep the wandering husband in his own marriage bed. It's a difficult task, since the women themselves have so many different viewpoints on the matter. "If you learned that your husband was unfaithful, what would you do?" Here are some of the answers given when that question came up at a luncheon of career women: Simone's eyes blazed as she said indignantly, "If he had the slightest, even the briefest love affair, I would never forgive him." Clairette, however, has a more understanding nature. "If it was only a temporary affair," she said, "I would forget it; if a real affair, I would divorce." Ginette declared, "I am extremely possessive. If I know someone has used my toothbrush, I throw it out. This also applies to a husband." The last woman was all for striking back. "An eye for an eye," she said. Two other young women were discussing love and marriage, and they didn't agree that they go together like a horse and carriage. These two didn't think an erring husband was something to get excited about. "To err is human," was their outlook on life. The idea that their mothers swooned when they learned of such shenanigans struck them as very funny. A fashionable psychiatrist has this to say on the subject:

Wichita Accepts NIT, Miss State To NCAA

By GARY KALE
UPI Sports Writer

Teams in the NCAA college basketball tournament welcomed Mississippi State into the fold today while emitting a sigh of relief that upset-minded Wichita is in the rival National Invitation Tournament.

Mississippi State clinched the Southeastern Conference title Saturday night with a 75-72 victory over neighboring Mississippi and will play in the NCAA regionals at East Lansing, Mich., March 13-16, after college President D. W. Colvard lowered the barrier that previously prohibited the Bulldogs from competing against Negro athletes.

Wichita, the only team to defeat top-ranked Cincinnati this season, surprised NCAA-bound Loyola of Illinois, rated third, 73-72, as Dave Stallworth sank eight free throws in the closing minutes.

Six Openings Remain

Duke, West Virginia and Connecticut sealed NCAA berths, leaving six openings still to be filled from the Big Ten, Ivy League, Big Eight, Ohio Valley, Big Six and West Coast Athletic conferences.

Second-ranked Duke won the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament and entrance into the NCAA classic by turning back Wake Forest, 88-87, with a 24-point contribution by All American Art Heyman.

Rod Thorn despite a knee injury, scored 22 points as West Virginia downed Davidson, 79-74, for the Southern Conference playoff.

Chamberlain, whose staggering three-year pace in the NBA began showing signs of a scoring letup during the regular season, moved the Warriors to within two percentage points of the third and final playoff berth in the Western Division with a 45-point attack that helped edge Cincinnati, 123-122, Sunday.

Detroit's 127-123 loss to Syracuse left the Pistons in a tenuous position above the fourth place Warriors. Boston defeated New York, championship, while Connecticut beat out Rhode Island for the Yankee Conference title, 88-73.

Ohio State gained the advantage in the close Big Ten battle, and a chance for the NCAA crown after being frustrated by Cincinnati in the finals two years running, by trouncing Purdue, 95-75. Dick Reasbeck and All American Gary Bradds combined for 61 of the Buckeye points.

Michigan Upsets Illinois

Illinois dropped out of its first place tie with Ohio State when Michigan upset the Illini, 84-81. The two contenders each have a pair of conference games remaining.

Princeton gained a tie for the Ivy League crown by posting a 64-55 win over Columbia, but the Tigers' tournament appearance must await the outcome of Yale's Tuesday game with Harvard. The Elis beat Harvard, 56-52, Saturday and must do it again to force a playoff with Princeton next Friday.

Kansas State took a game lead in the Big Eight by edging Oklahoma, 56-54, and eliminating the Cowboys from the conference race. East Tennessee State lost its lead in the Ohio Valley Conference as it dropped a 77-68 contest to Eastern Kentucky, but can gain a tie by beating Middle Tennessee State Tuesday.

Stanford Clinches Tie

Stanford clinched at least a tie in the Big Six as Tom Dose's basket gave the Indians a 60-58 win over Southern California, and San Francisco deadlocked Santa Clara for the West Coast Athletic Conference lead with a 70-57 pasting of St. Mary's.

In action by teams prepping for the tourneys, Cincinnati defeated St. Louis, 66-52; Fordham upset New York U., 71-68; Notre Dame lost to Bradley, 62-66; Texas Western clipped the Air Force, 62-45; Pittsburgh beat Miami (Ohio), 74-74; Bowling Green smashed Duquesne, 95-59; Seattle humbled Oregon, 78-71; and Utah State was defeated by Colorado State, 67-60.

Stilt Still Setting Records In NBA

Don't close the door on Wilt Chamberlain's record-breaking attempts—the San Francisco star may be earmarking some new standards for the National Basketball Association playoffs.

Chamberlain, whose staggering three-year pace in the NBA began showing signs of a scoring letup during the regular season, moved the Warriors to within two percentage points of the third and final playoff berth in the Western Division with a 45-point attack that helped edge Cincinnati, 123-122, Sunday.

Detroit's 127-123 loss to Syracuse left the Pistons in a tenuous position above the fourth place Warriors. Boston defeated New York, 102-95, and St. Louis beat Chicago, 104-97 in other games.

Chamberlain uncorked 15 points in the final quarter against the Royals as San Francisco made up a 13 point deficit that prevailed after the third period. Jack Twyman led Cincinnati with 27 points while Oscar Robertson was held to 19.

The Pistons, who face the Warriors twice more before the regular season ends, managed to tie Syracuse at 69-all midway in the game, but couldn't cope with Lee Shaffer's marksmanship as the Nat ace netted 32 points, one more than Dave DeBusschere of Detroit.

Bob Cousy scored 13 points for Boston in his farewell to pro basketball at Madison Square Garden and every little bit helped as the Celtics defeated New York and edged further ahead of Los Angeles in their battle for the $2,000 prize that goes to the team with the best two-loss percentage. Sam Jones topped the Celts with 17 points and Al Butler scored a like amount for the Knicks.

St. Louis thwarted a 63-point scoring combination by Walt Delamy and Terry Dischinger in nudging Chicago deeper into the Western Division cellar. Bob Pettit tallied 26 for the Hawks.

BI-DISTRICT HOPEFUL — Marilyn Murphy is expected to be one of the top offensive players for the Miami Warriors tonight as they meet Follett at Canadian in a bi-district game.

Derrith Welch On Class A All-State

HOUSTON (UPI) — Joe Meyer, a six-foot junior guard from Jefferson High School, led all the vote getters on this year's Class-A all-state schoolboy basketball team.

Meyer was one of two juniors picked on the team announced today by the Texas Sports Writers Association. The other was Derrith Welch of McLean, who was the highest scorer of the group with a 27-point average.

Ronald McMillon of Jim Ned High School of Tuscola, Roy Adams of Big Lake and Alfred Mann of Charlotte rounded out the first team.

Meyer edged McMillon in the balloting by the slim margin of 52-48. No player came even close to being a unanimous selection.

Donald Kruse of James Bowie High School of Simms, Richard Pearce of Thorndale, Wayne Fults of West Sabine High School in Pinedale, Billy Ward of New London and Robert Ellis of Tarkington High School of Cleveland made the second team.

The Pampa Boat-Ski Club made their record 17-4 as they sneaked past the Pampa Independents this week end, 62-61. Pampa held a narrow 30-28 halftime lead and made it stand up for a one-point win.

James Lee led the winners' scoring with 19 points. Roy Pool had 13 and Tommy Sells and Dave Enloe 10 each. R. D. Stevens canned 22, John Neslate 14 and George Simmons 13 for the losers.

Rhine Vs. Lenox Scoring Duel Highlights Windup

By United Press International

A jockeying for non-championship positions and a bid by Rice's Kendall Rhine to overhaul Texas A&M's Bennie Lenox in the individual scoring race highlights the windup of the Southwest Conference basketball season this week.

The Texas Longhorns, headed for an NCAA playoff date with Texas Western at Lubbock next Saturday night, will be trying to close out an undefeated conference season at Waco against Baylor after having sewed up the title more than a week ago.

Going into the final game, the Texas Aggies are in second place at 9-4, followed by Rice (8-5), Arkansas (7-6), Texas Tech (6-7) and SMU (5-8).

Rice could tie the Aggies for the runner-up spot in their meeting at Houston, or a Rice loss coupled with an Arkansas victory over TCU would pull the Razorbacks into a tie for third. An Arkansas loss coupled with a Tech victory over SMU would leave Tech and Arkansas tied for fourth. An SMU victory over Tech would pull the Mustangs into a tie with the Raiders for fifth.

TCU is at Arkansas and SMU at Tech for their finale.

Lenox goes into his head-to-head duel with Rhine boasting a season average lead of 23.9 to 23.1 points per game and is leading the tall Rice star by 11 points, 334 to 323, in league play.

Rhine would have to score 44 points, equalling his season high, to catch Lenox over the full season route if the Aggie ace can score his per game norm. Or, the Rice post man would have to out-score Lenox by 12 points to overtake him in the conference race.

Texas built its conference record to 13-0 last week by whipping Rice 77-59 and Arkansas 99-86. The Aggies defeated Baylor 65-54 and Texas Tech 96-83, Tech downed TCU 99-87, Arkansas nosed out SMU 82-79 in overtime.

Cabot First In City Bowling

John Snuggs and Jim Herring took first place in the doubles with 1268. Leland McCloskey and Dwayne Kuntz were tied for second with Joe Achord and Bryant Nail, each pair with 2258. George Crumine and Wilbur Mollett were one pin behind, 1267, and Kenneth Mumford and Lonnie Harman had 1254.

Jack Barhill was the singles leader with 742, holding a big margin over second place Bryant Nail with 697. Darrell Dupy had 689, George Thut 685 and Jessie Smart 664.

The finals will be held next Saturday and Sunday.

Ex-Yank Cast Off By Mets

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (UPI) — Outspoken Gene Woodling, cut loose by the New York Mets after a dispute with the front office, may wind up with his old New York Yankee teammates after all.

The 40-year-old veteran of 18 major league seasons was placed on waivers for the purposes of making him a free agent Sunday by the Mets. Woodling, a player-coach this year, fell into disfavor with the club during the weekend while intervening in first baseman Marv Throneberry's contract hassle.

"I'm not worried about a job in baseball," Woodling said. "Three clubs have told me I can have a job with them any time I wanted to."

May Be Pinch-Hitter

Since the Mets and the Yankees were involved in a tempering dispute during the winter over Woodling's services, it is believed Gene may land a player-coach job with the world champions, who could use a left-handed pinch-hitter.

Manager Ralph Houk of the Yankees reportedly spoke to Woodling about a possible job last winter. But President George Weiss of the Mets learned of the discussions and charged the Yankees with tampering.

Frank Howard again emerged as the slugger star in a Los Angeles Dodgers' camp game, collecting a double, a single and two RBI's. Veteran southpaw Johnny Podres also brought a smile to Manager Walt Alston's face by retiring six men in order.

Dave Wickersham, the Athletics' top pitcher last year, finally signed his contract but teammate Diego Segui remained a holdout. Other stragglers who came to terms included Lennie Green of the Minnesota Twins and Jim Houston of the Yankees.

Matty Alou arrived in the San Francisco Giants' camp and said he was ready to sign his 1963 pact. Still unreported and unsigned were teammates Juan

ARE YOU MAKING THE ANTI-ACID MISTAKE?
Important News for Every
INDIGESTION, HEARTBURN, INTESTINAL GAS SUFFERER!

Now, for the first time you can apply the brakes to stomach distress before the trouble begins. Up to now, anti-acids have been used mostly to relieve stomach upset after suffering the pangs of distress. Now, thanks to a new, natural formulation called MIAZYME you may eliminate the discomforts of indigestion, heartburn and intestinal gas caused by poor digestion of food.

If you properly digest the food you eat, chances are you will not suffer stomach distress. This is because of the action of enzymes, manufactured in the digestive process. When these enzymes fall below par—as age increases, enzymatic action may become inadequate, or, as medical science knows, today's fast, hectic living pace can create distress caused by stomach tensions—you are apt to suffer indigestion, gas, bloating, heartburn, cramps and other uncomfortable forms of stomach upset.

Why risk making the anti-acid mistake? Just two MIAZYME capsules a day is all it takes to help eliminate the discomforts of indigestion, heartburn, gas and open the door to new vistas in food enjoyment.

MIAZYME contains no narcotics! No habit forming drugs! No harmful side effects, taken as directed. So safe, no prescription is needed! Get MIAZYME today at your favorite drug store and break the anti-acid routine. Try it for 6 days on a NO RISK GUARANTEE. You must be completely satisfied or your money refunded. Regular size, $1.50. AN INDEPENDENT FREEDOM NEWSPAPER

We believe that all men are equally endowed by their Creator, and not by any government, with the gift of freedom, and that it is every man's duty to God to preserve his own liberty and respect the liberty of others. Freedom is self-control, no more, no less.

To discharge this responsibility, free men, to the best of their ability, must understand and apply to daily living the great moral guides expressed in the Ten Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

This newspaper is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessings. For only when man understands Freedom and is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities in harmony with the above moral principles.

Dog Owner Must Assume Certain Responsibility

Several cities and counties in Texas are going to declare dog quarantines in an effort to wipe out rabies. It seems all dog-owners should cooperate in this effort. We would rather have seen this accomplished on a voluntary basis, but now that the cities and counties are determined to make it a matter of law, we should make it an opportunity to check a dreadful disease. Good citizenship requires dog-owners to keep their pets under control at all times. Wandering dogs present a potential danger at all times and the dog-owner must take the responsibility for his animal in the destruction of property or in the injury or death of a human.

Different dogs, of course, require different degrees of control. But there are too many cases of "good old Rover who wouldn't hurt a fly" suddenly taking a nip out of somebody. Youngsters frequently mistreat animals, intentionally or otherwise, and a docile dog might, when goaded, bite a youngster or injure him in some manner. These are considerations of dog-ownership. Dog-owners who don't take care of their dogs are giving dogs a bad name.

Not By Sweat Alone

Attitudes toward the idea of work were especially revealing. When asked to define work, about 50 per cent said it is something one has to do or doesn't like. Twenty per cent defined work as something productive, important, of social value to others. Eight per cent defined work in terms of exertion or effort. Others said it is something scheduled or timed or routinized. Factory workers most often gave the answer that work is an activity that is timed and paid for. People with high education levels tended to consider work a duty—and not much fun. According to Dr. Robert L. Kahn, the survey director, these attitudes are inherited from the family background. They are neither caused—nor corrected—by the educations different people receive. Kahn sees a reflection of our dislike of work in union practices. He feels union policies say, in effect: "Work is too hard; work is too long; working conditions are bad."

I believe it is also important to view this truly worthwhile business activities from a slightly different angle. What if the Rural Fire Protection Co. had been less successful? Would this prove my beliefs in private business to be wrong? It would not. It would only prove that a particular attempt to operate a certain type of business failed for any number of reasons or combinations of reasons. One of my earliest memories revolves around a man who went broke in three different types of business during a period of ten years. Oddly enough other people picked up the defunct operations and operated them successfully. Our family friend then had an opportunity to try another business venture in which he was eminently successful and from this he ventured into the motion picture theater business and apple growing. The point I strive to make is that freedom is no guarantee of success and that merely getting into a private business venture does not guarantee success. The philosophy of freedom emphasizes the fact that a man is to be free to succeed, he must also be free to fail. In freedom, the only guarantee is freedom. I am particularly sensitive to the pros and cons of success or failure because I have been and am involved with a way of life for which I am not qualified by age, health, strength or previous experience. Even the business of writing a column for newspapers is outside my previous experience. As I take a necessarily close look at the present circumstances and conditions of my living, I am frequently hit over the head

Snapshot of San Antonio: Will Rogers, who worked for our syndicate, once told us the City of the Alamo was tops among his favorite United States cities, the others being Boston, San Francisco and New Orleans. Recently, while attending the annual lectures at the School of Aerospace Medicine, we had another opportunity of exploring the birthplace of Texas independence. Against its modern skyline it still retains the flavor of old Spain, with its historic San Fernando Cathedral built in 1738 on the old plaza, the geographical center of the city, Franciscan missions of the 1700's, the old Latin quarter, the sacred Alamo and other colorful sights. All are within the range of skyscrapers. The narrow San Antonio River loops through the business district and adds to its charm. Paved walks, adorned with semi-tropical flowers, follow its winding course. The Air Force was born here and the research being carried out at the Aerospace Medical School will enable man to reach the Moon and the planets. San Antonio has a fine winter climate. It has many alternate names: Venice - on - the - Prairie, the City of the Sun and the City of Contrasts, to name a few.

Country Editor Speaking: "One of the best tonics of life is to enjoy the goodness of yourself, your family and your friends." The Mexican National Lottery, following the example of the famous Irish Sweepstakes, supports eight hospitals and anyone covered by Social Security in Mexico is eligible for free treatment. The lottery raffish off a quarter of a million dollars weekly. Many officials are now doubtful whether the proposed $783 million transit system for the District of Columbia area would pay for itself. It's the old story once more of freeways versus mass transit. The modern Toronto subway system had 50 million fewer passengers last year than when it opened in 1954. General taxes pay for the huge New York City subways, which are losing about $100 million a year.

Today's favorite gag: MARINE SERGEANT—"What's the matter with you?" MARINE ROOKIE (lying on the ground)—"I think I broke my leg going over that last hurdle in this obstacle course." SERGEANT—"Well, don't waste time. Do some push-ups until the medics arrive." When you make a dial phone call from one to another of New York City's million telephones, an electric "brain" selects the right one from a possible 500,000 million routes. . . March was named for Mars, the Roman god of war, but among the early Saxons it was called Lencet, meaning spring and from this comes the word Lent. Snipped from somewhere: "It's a man's world, all right. If he keeps an eye on her at a party, he is an 'attentive husband.' If she keeps close to him, she's a 'possessive wife.' In middle age he is 'in the prime of life.' At the same age, she is 'no spring chicken.' If he is an easy spender, he 'does not deny his family anything.' If she doesn't count the pennies, she is 'extravagant,' or a 'poor manager.'"

With this question "What in the world am I doing here and why?" This much I know. Whether I am successful in my attempt to earn a maximum, non-taxable income and to acquire enough self-sufficiency so as to be able to live under these circumstances is important only to me and my immediate family. If I fail in this attempt it will not mean I was wrong to try or that the principles in which I believe are invalid. It will only prove my own lack of capability and my own inability to cope with conditions and circumstances in which I placed myself deliberately and after a great deal of thought. My own success or failure will neither validate or make invalid the principles of the philosophy of freedom and I believe this thought merits your most earnest consideration. In freedom a man is free to be a success or a failure and the fact he is free to fail is just as important as the fact he is free to succeed. It shows you both sides of the freedom coin. It is the WHOLE coin. Good luck and good health to you, in freedom.

Don't Say 'Medicare,' Say 'Back to Methuselah'

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The Kennedy administration wants people to quit calling it "medical care for the aged," or "medicare." Congress defeated that last year, so please forget it.

The new name, presented in the President's whopping big special message to Congress on "aiding our senior citizens," is "hospital insurance." What they should call it is "back to Methuselah." Requested therein are 36 different programs, some being repeats from earlier messages on health, taxation and aid to education. Taken together, these programs to aid the aged would cost an estimated $9.8 billion over the next five years.

All are designed to make old age not only less painful but also more comfortable, enjoyable, welcome, well-fed, well-housed, a well-even profitable. The President points out there are now more than 10,000 living Americans over 100 years old. But if Congress buys all the plain and fancy packages in this message the number of centenarians should zoom into the millions. There will be no reason to die. Old age will be too pleasant.

With only minor modifications, the President asks for the same compulsory health insurance under Social Security that he has wanted all along. Its cost to the individual would be one-quarter of 1 per cent on the first $5,200 of income—to be raised from $4,800 beginning Jan. 1, 1965—$13 a year for both employer and employee. Its cheap insurance for the working years. The health benefits after retirement would be many times its cost.

The new gimmick is that it will give the individual freedom of choice on three health care plans: All costs for 45 days, all costs for 90 days after the first $90 of expenses, or all costs for 180 days after the first 2 1/2 days' expenses. Thereafter the patient could get 180 days in a nursing home and 240 hours calls by a visiting nurse for any one illness. This would not immediately replace present medical care benefits to the indigent under the Kerr-Mills bill now adopted in 25 states. That law would not only be kept, but would be expanded to provide benefits equal to those obtainable under Social Security.

In addition to hospitalization costs of over $5 billion paid from trust funds, the complete plan would give the aged many other benefits, the new programs costing an estimated $626 million in five years. Here are high lights: To meet the housing needs of senior citizens, the President asks for $250 million for direct, low interest loans, with another $10 million earmarked for rural areas. States would be asked to pass new legislation to protect standards of rental housing. Additional housing opportunity would be sought, although it was only a few years ago that Social Security law was amended to permit earlier retirements and so reduce unemployment.

A new senior citizens act would provide $142 million over five years to aid local communities in planning recreational facilities. Adult education and library services would be offered those who

Don't Say 'Medicare,' Say 'Back to Methuselah'

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The Kennedy administration wants people to quit calling it "medical care for the aged," or "medicare." Congress defeated that last year, so please forget it.

The new name, presented in the President's whopping big special message to Congress on "aiding our senior citizens," is "hospital insurance." What they should call it is "back to Methuselah." Requested therein are 36 different programs, some being repeats from earlier messages on health, taxation and aid to education. Taken together, these programs to aid the aged would cost an estimated $9.8 billion over the next five years.

All are designed to make old age not only less painful but also more comfortable, enjoyable, welcome, well-fed, well-housed, a well-even profitable. The President points out there are now more than 10,000 living Americans over 100 years old. But if Congress buys all the plain and fancy packages in this message the number of centenarians should zoom into the millions. There will be no reason to die. Old age will be too pleasant.

With only minor modifications, the President asks for the same compulsory health insurance under Social Security that he has wanted all along. The Almanac

By United Press International Today is Monday, March 4, the 63rd day of 1963 with 362 to follow. The moon is approaching its full phase. The morning stars are Venus and Mars. The evening star is Mars. On this day in history: In 1791, Vermont became the 14th state to join the Union. In 1801, Thomas Jefferson, the third President of the United States, was the first chief executive to be inaugurated in Washington. In 1917, Jeannette Rankin, a Republican from Montana, took her seat in the House of Representatives as the first woman member of Congress. In 1962, all 111 persons aboard were killed when a British Caledonian Airlines DC1 crashed after takeoff near Douala Cameroon. A thought for the day—American statesman John Calhoun said: "Protection and patriotism are reciprocal."

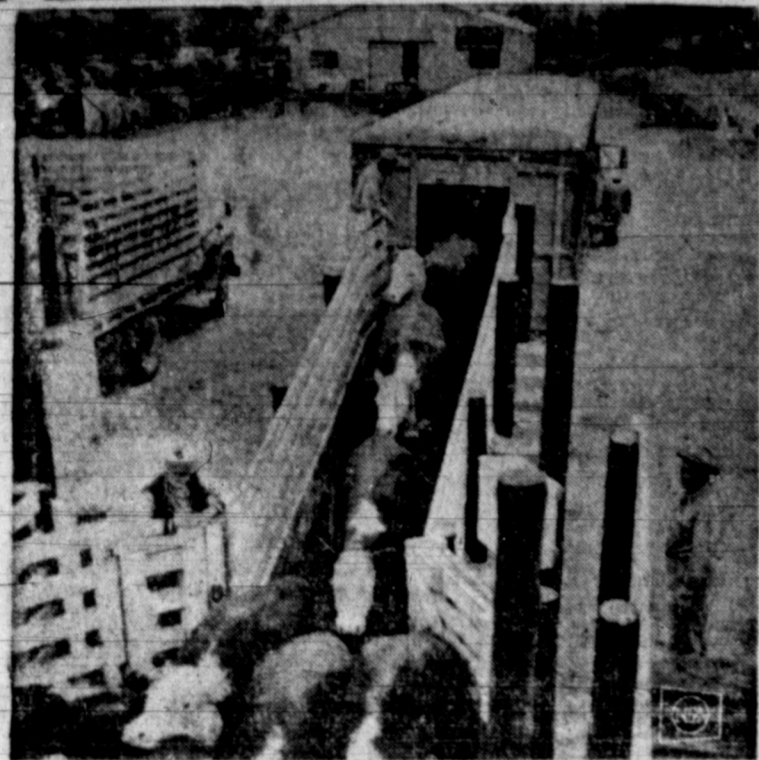

Question Box

QUESTION: "Will the United States Post Office still operate at a loss, with its new increase in postal rates?" Answer: We are not in a position to state positively that the Post Office Department will continue to operate at a loss, but from past experience we would say it will. While the postal rates on some classes were increased, the parcel post rates still are below cost. In addition the postal department still is required to subsidize other services. Non-profit corporations still enjoy a subsidy, as do some newspapers and many governmental agencies. Other government "services" also are required to be handled by postal employees without adequate reimbursement. At the same time that rates were being increased, salaries of workers were boosted, and these higher salaries will result in increased costs, if there is not a comparable reduction in number of workers. As long as the politicians are in charge of the Post Office Department, we are sure the subsidies will continue to be granted to privileged groups. Therefore there is little chance that postal deficits can be eliminated.

Foreign Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM

UPI Foreign News Analyst

How the Soviet-Red China dispute finally resolves itself is important to the whole world and not alone to Communists.

But as it runs its course it continues to baffle Western observers.

In recent weeks alone expert speculation has run the gamut from forecasts of a total break between the two to predictions that the quarrel soon would be patched up.

For each there has seemed to be tangible evidence.

After the withdrawal of Soviet missiles from Cuba, words exchanged between the two were those usually reserved for enemies.

Then, Nikita Khrushchev's friendly approach to the Chinese ambassador at a reception in Moscow led to a new round of speculation that they were approaching a solution to their troubles, if only to take advantage of the obvious split in the Atlantic alliance.

Reasons Unknown

Mixed in with Western speculation also have been questions which fall in the category of "which came first, the chicken or the egg?"

There have been such questions as whether the dispute actually was economic or ideological or whether it is less a matter of ideology than an outright fight for Communist leadership.

Henry Shapiro, a UPI correspondent in Moscow for more than 25 years, makes it simpler. He says there never has been a unity of viewpoint between the two and that the late Josef Stalin favored an alliance between the Communists and Chiang Kai-Shek in China simply because he knew he could not control the Chinese Communists if they came to power.

On Feb. 26, the Peking People's Daily lumped all the lines of speculation and dumped them into one basket. Each school of thought gained a certain amount of support. The People's Daily attacked the Khrushchev policy of co-existence and Moscow's new friendship for President Tito of Yugoslavia (political).

Attacked Moscow's failure to support China its border war with India (challenge for leadership).

Attacked the Soviets for "perfidiously" tearing up hundreds of contracts with the Peking regime (economic).

Again proposed a Communist summit conference but only on the basis that the Soviets accept the Chinese viewpoint.

In the grim Chinese determination to go it alone if necessary, the economic factor still exists. Without the Soviets there would be no oil for the war lamps of China.

BUSINESS REVIEW

Sign-Up Deadline Nears For 1963 Feed Grain Plan

WHEELER (Sp) — Wheeler County farmers are nearing the midway point in the February 1 — March 22 sign-up dates for the 1963 Feed Grain Program. Though it is very similar to the 1962 program, several changes have been made which could affect a farmer's decision on whether or not to participate.

Charles D. Jackson, county agricultural agent, today listed these significant changes:
A direct price support payment of 18 cents per bushel on corn, 14 cents on barley and 29 cents per hundredweight on grain sorghum has been added. This amount to be paid participating farmers on the normal yield of their seeded acreage. For the first time, a farmer receives this payment even if he feeds his grain.

Secondly, rates of payment on diverted acres have been reduced to 20 per cent of the value of a normal crop on the first 20 per cent diverted and to 50 per cent of the value on all or any part of the second 20 per cent diverted.

Price support loans will be available to participating farmers on total yield this year instead of only normal yield as in the past. The grazing period for diverted acres has been set in advance. Diverted acres may be grazed until May 1 and again after November 1.

After the sign-up period has ended on March 22, there can be no reduction in diversion without losing all price support benefits.

The change in compliance regulations makes it all the more important for a feed grain producer to make his decision before March 22 since he can change his intentions until that date, Jackson stated.
