QUIZ RUSK ON CUBA BUILDUP

Congress Casts Aside JFK Tax Reforms

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Congress clapped President Kennedy's proposed $13.6 billion tax cut gingerly to its bosom today. But the off-setting "reforms" he wanted as part of the package were fast being cast aside.

Democratic whip and a close friend and supporter of the President, put it more succinctly than most. "The tax reduction bill will pass in this session of Congress, but as I have said in the past, I doubt seriously if any of the so-called tax reforms will be adopted, at this time."

Part of this recovery would come from a new limitation on the deductions individual taxpayers now may take for such things as expenses, and local and state taxes.

Lawmakers generally spoke favorably of the need for a tax cut, and Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., set up early hearings—to start Feb. 6 — on the President's plan.

Most forecasts were for passage this year of the cut in some form, but with little or none of the accompanying "reform" which the President said should be wrapped into the same package.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk and CIA director John A. McCone appeared before a Senate foreign relations subcommittee today to discuss reports of a new Soviet buildup in Cuba.

CIA Director Also Target In Senate Probe

The two officials faced questioning in a closed hearing on President Kennedy's news conference statement Thursday that daily surveillance of Cuba had disclosed "no influx" of offensive Russian weapons.

Kennedy said that one Soviet ship might have brought arms to Cuba. But he said there was no evidence it carried weapons that might pose a threat to the United States.

Connally Set To Begin Spending Special Funds

AUSTIN (UPI) — Gov. John Connally said today he would take immediate steps to put to use the $50 million in emergency funds made available at his request by the 58th Legislature.

The state Senate wasted little time Thursday in putting its final stamp of approval on the money, which Connally said was needed to expand his own staff, to push the slanted well probe in the attorney general's office and to initiate a quick study of higher education needs.

Cargo Ship Arrives With 1,170 Refugees

PORT EVERGLADES, Fla. (UPI) — The SS Shirley Lykes, a cargo ship flying the flag of the Red Cross, docked here today carrying 1,170 Cuban refugees — the largest single group Fidel Castro has allowed to leave his Communist island.

250,000 units of Salk polio vaccine which the Red Cross said Cuban authorities received as part of the prisoner ransom but were returning due to lack of refrigeration facilities and also because Soviet-provided oral vaccine had already been given to most of the Cuban population.

The House State Affairs Committee will open hearings Monday night on bills to create four-year state colleges at San Angelo, Odessa and San Antonio.

Police Checking On Man's Death

Steve Daniels, 79, owner of the Russell Apartments, 223 S. Russell, was found dead in the hallway of his apartment house last night.

Pampa police investigated the death upon receiving a phone call at 10:13 p.m. from the Yellow Cab Co.

Police Checking On Man's Death

Coroner Bill Graham was still investigating the cause of death late this forenoon.

An unidentified person reported to the cab company that Daniels was dead and police were summoned by a cab employe shortly after 10 p.m.

Police Checking On Man's Death

Patrolmen C. L. Wallace and Don Aycock found nothing to indicate foul play, according to Police Chief Jim Conner. Deputy sheriff Jim Bowers also assisted with the investigation.

Daniels had a fresh skinned spot on his forehead, probably from falling, Conner reported.

Police Checking On Man's Death

One of the persons questioned by the police, Raymond A. Smith, was partially able to shed light on the death.

Earlier in the evening, Smith, who lived in one of the Russell Apartments, and the deceased were watching television in Smith's apartment. Daniel left for the apartment house.

Organizing Fight

The home building industry already was organizing a fight against the curb on deductions, on the ground it would eliminate one of the incentives to home ownership and thus work against the continued prosperity of this vital segment of the economy.

Organizing Fight

Oil and gas interests, and their friends in Congress, also were raising cries of alarm.

Dear Abby....

Actions Speak Louder Than Words

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Last night my husband and I had a big discussion about "love." He feels that it is not important for a man to say, "I love you." He makes a very good living, pays all the bills, gives me everything I want, including a car of my own and beautiful clothes, but he never says, "I love you." When I tell him I love him, he says, "I know it."

I have an empty feeling around my heart. I would trade all the things that money can buy just to hear him say, "I love you." Am I wrong?

DEAR UNLOVED: If you are serious about "trading"—I can introduce you to plenty of men who are in debt up to their ears, cheat like mad, never buy their wives anything, but THEY always tell their wives how much they "love" them. Actions speak louder than words. And they last longer.

DEAR ABBY: My son gives his wife $120 every two weeks for groceries. He also leaves her the car and takes the train to work. Now, Abby, I am not spying on her, but how come her mileage meter shows she travels on the average of 300 miles a week to buy her groceries when there are three grocery stores within half a mile of her house?

DEAR CURIOUS: If you are "curious," not spying, and think you ought to know, why don't you ask her?

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a husband who comes home from work and has the children in an uproar all the time? He says, "WHO left the paper on the floor? WHO left the lights on? WHO? WHO? WHO?" They are all upset and crying before he even gets his hat off. He even yells because they BREATHE too loud when the TV set is on! He doesn't do a nerve-racking work either. He has a white-collar job in an office. What on earth is wrong with him?

DEAR ON EDGE: Why don't you start with HIM? Perhaps he needs a physical check-up. Some white-collar office jobs are frequently the most nerve-racking. He's your man. He needs sympathy, understanding and help.

Brighten The Hallways

Hallways need not be the awkward stepchildren in home decorating plans. I base this observation not so much on personal progress in my own home as seeing how brightly some talented homemakers and interior designers are treating these connecting links. There is inspiration and guidance here for me.

The first point I note is to resist fiercely the inclination to let the hallway become an untidy collecting point for things belonging elsewhere. Remember, a hallway is a passageway leading from one point to another. If you persist in filling it with cartons of clothes for the rummage sale, the carpet sweeper and clothes basket and assorted toys, it soon becomes a nonpassageway, or stumble alley.

Our concern, secondly, is with wall and floor treatments, not old furniture which can be shoved out of sight in a hall. The old-time "hall runner" could be a pretty dismal excuse for carpeting. But you can find the 27-inch-width carpeting today in good colors, textures and patterns suitable for use on stairs and hallways.

One idea which I like because it's high on color, easy to maintain and low on cost is the use of nonskid "scatter" rugs in one or more colors. The kind of rug I'm referring to (several companies make them) and am testing in a heavily used hallway between kitchen and dining room, has a urethane base permanently heat-laminated to the rug back.

This material holds the rug tight to the floor and has survived several washings and tumble dryings without deterioration.

Colors are marvelous and the size range impressive. If you are yearning to splash a bit of bold color around, consider the Spanish dash in one setting of red, orange and gold rugs laid side by side in striped effect, repeating the colors of a magnificent Spanish manta (a woven wool rug or bedspread) hanging on the wall.

Hallways often offer the wall space necessary for hanging an old or modern tapestry, an arrangement of pictures or a collection of posters or prints. One homemaker I know lines her hall with family pictures—formal portraits, informal snapshots, sketches

Knit Fashions Are American Favorite

By GAILE DUGAS
Women's Editor
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
NEW YORK (NEA) — Knit fashions are all-American favorites. Blue denim has been another American favorite for years. So it was inevitable that someone would think of combining the two and producing a new denim made in a light-weight double knit.

once. This light, double knit denim is, first, comfortable and therefore a pleasure to wear. It is sturdy and pliable. Orlon is the fiber used so it's an easy-care fabric, one that young salts can launder easily and dry smoothly. It's been done for eras and resorted wear in sleeves, trousers, tapered pants, windjammers and jackets.

Though a top color for denim has always been a true blue-water blue, this new fabric has also been done in sand, dusty brown, lime and white. And in color combinations.

Though this new denim knit is soft, it is also firm. This means that it will retain its shape rather than yours, and that it will snap back even after many washings.

You may be planning a winter vacation in a tropical climate. Or you may be thinking ahead to next summer. Or possibly you're lucky to live in a warm climate near blue water the year around. In any case, the new knit denim is sure to fill your particular bill for resort wear.

Men who walk through areas where shoes come in contact with oils, greases, solvents or chemicals will find shoes with a new tough material helpful. The manufacturer said the new sole and heel material is unaffected by such compounds and also is water-

Governor Says He Anticipates No Increase In Spending Or Taxes

AUSTIN (UPI)—Gov. John Connally will take another month before submitting his budget recommendations to the Texas legislature.

"We don't anticipate any recommendations that would bring big increases in spending, thus making a tax increase necessary," Connally said.

He said the budget should be ready by late February. He made his remarks Thursday at his first called press conference since taking over as Texas' 38th chief executive on Jan. 15.

Connally said his budget personnel, authorized under House Bill 459 which was passed on final reading by the Senate Thursday, was making a complete study of money needs to run state government over the next biennium beginning Sept. 1.

Higher Education Stressed
The governor stressed again his concern for pressing a study of higher education needs, and expressed his pleasure of passage by the legislature of his $197,000 emergency appropriations request.

This included $50,000 to set up a special committee to begin an immediate study of needs in education beyond the high school level. Connally said Texas could look forward to a 50 per cent increase in the number of college-age students in just two more years.

"This is going to put a tremendous strain on our educational plants, faculties and finances," he said. "And we must get on with our plans to both improve existing facilities and add to what we have."

Other Topics Discussed
On other topics, Connally:

—Thought some of the emergency-for-immediate-funds-for-the-screwworm eradication program had eased. Connally said he did not anticipate asking for emergency funds for this any time soon.

He thought his actions would be gauged by actions of the livestock industry, which is in the process of raising another $1 million for the program.

—Still favored retention of the 27½ depletion allowance for the oil industry. There was some talk that President Kennedy's tax recommendations might cut the depletion allowance to 17½ per cent. —Believed the current legislature had started off more rapidly to the task facing it than any legislature in his memory.

Cubans

It was the fourth such flight in the past two weeks.

The refugees coming to Florida today increased to about 3,200 the total number permitted to leave Cuba since just before Christmas, when Castro released the 1,113 captives of the abortive 1961 invasion in exchange for $53 million in ransom goods.

The Shirley Lykes left Havana shortly after 7 p.m. Thursday, carrying in his five cargo areas 390 men, 527 women and 253 children. Among the refugees were 17 ailing persons, 13 of them on stretchers.

The captain said there was no evidence of communicable disease among the passengers.

Also among the refugees were some 200 "hardship cases," mostly aged and infirm people unable to get adequate medical attention in Cuba.

The bulk of the Cubans, however, were allowed to leave as relatives of the invasion captives. They lined up at dockside in Havana early Thursday morning, waiting to board the new $10 million ship.

Red Cross Team Aboard

A 15-man Red Cross team was aboard the vessel to help the refugees in the crossing. A plane took coats and blankets to Cuba to accommodate the refugees on the ship when it was announced by the Swiss Embassy in Havana, which handles U.S. affairs in Cuba, that arrangements had been made to transport the load of exits.

The Shirley Lykes, donated to the Red Cross by an association of steamship lines to carry a load of ransom goods to Cuba, sailed for Havana a week ago carrying some 7,000 tons of medical supplies and foodstuffs.

API President Cites Depletion Allowance Need

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The president of the American Petroleum Institute said Thursday the oil industry needs a depletion allowance more than ever before.

API chief Frank N. Ikard made the statement in defense of current allowances during a panel discussion at the U. S. Chamber of Commerce Association of Public Affairs conference.

Ikard, a former Texas congressman, listed the oil depletion allowance as one of the legislative issues before Congress which should be watched closely by business.

Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., told another panel at the conference that the current allowance was not justified in the light of higher taxes on individuals and corporations.

The depletion allowance was made part of the income tax law in 1926 in an effort to offset the cost oil companies bear in an effort to replace their reserves. Ikard said the industry will have to locate reserves which will yield 8 billion to 10 billion barrels by 1970 in order to keep pace with the nation's economy.

PASTOR, HIGHLAND CHRISTIAN CHURCH

"TRUST IN GOD"

Recently Premier Khrushchev boasted at a meeting of factory workers in East Germany, "We put our hope in neither God nor the Devil. We put our trust in our own strength, in the strength of what we can do ourselves." This is an example of unbelief in the first degree. May we mention in passing that this "unbelief" and mockery will eventually lead to the destruction of those who possess it. Isa. 31:1. Yet, how many are they who trust in their own strength and power and lean not on the strong arm of God. The man who does not trust in the God that made him is a man without an anchor, on the storm tossed sea of life. Consider the song of victory in the eighteenth chapter of the book of Psalms . . . Vs. 1, 2 "I will love thee, O Lord, my strength. The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower . . . Vs. 30 "As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the Lord is tried; he is a buckler to all those who trust in Him."

In the twenty seventh chapter of the book of Acts is recorded a most dramatic shipwreck story. While the Apostle Paul and the others on the ship were waiting out the storm thru the night, vs. 29 tells that they threw out four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day. Today we are upon somewhat of a storm tossed sea, but not without an anchor. May I suggest that we too have four anchors in which we can trust. They are: The Holy Bible: "The Bible is the begetter of life; the uprooter of sin; the revealer of God; the guide of history; the fashioner of law; the friend of science; the comfort in sorrow; the text-book of ethics; the escape from temptation; the embodiment of all lofty ideals; the guide, and hope, and inspiration of man; and the answer to the deepest heart hungerings." — William Anderson. Second there is the anchor of God's Son, The Lord Jesus Christ. Heb. 6:19-20 "Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which entereth into that within the veil; Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec." Third there is the anchor of The Holy Spirit. Gal. 5:22-25 "But the fruit is love, joy, peace, long suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit." The fourth anchor of our test is the Church of our Lord. A Communistic leader said recently "The only thing we fear in America is the Church and they don't take that very seriously." If you believe that the Church is the greatest institution on earth then roll up your sleeves and go to work. We have an anchor that keeps the soul — "The gates of Hell shall not prevail against it."

Angels Soar With Rodgers... Rigney

By BILL RIGNEY
Los Angeles Angels' Manager As told to HARRY GRAYSON
How much more exciting the upcoming season could be than the 1962 campaign, I don't know. For last year was indeed a most gratifying one for the Angels and myself.

Naturally, we were very happy about last season and the progress we made not only with the big club but with the farm system. A number of youngsters in the chain indicated that they have the ability.

I'm often asked to name the one man who had the most to do with the new Los Angeles club's surprising showing. The answer has to be Bob Rodgers. There isn't a better catcher in the big leagues and he figures to remain on top for another 15 years. He is a superb handler of pitchers and hits the ball safely when it counts.

Jim Fregosi, who will be 21 as the season opens, is a splendid shortstop who should develop into one of the American League's most exciting players. Fregosi has numerous assets not the least of which is speed.

With Billy Moran at second base, Fregosi gives the Angels a very superior double play combination. No player last year deserved All-Star recognition as much as Moran. If you take a look at Billy's lifetime record, you'll notice that he's always done better the longer he remains with a club. This will be his third year with the Angels.

What we accomplished in 1962 was done without the services of Ken Hunt and George Thomas, outfielders on whom we had counted. Kenny, who hit 25 home runs and drove in 84 runs for us in 1961, is coming back after an arm injury. George, who took time out for military service, will be with us from the start. If these two regain their form of two years ago, they'll definitely help.

We were fortunate in the injury department last trip although we which is par for the course and then some. I feel certain pitchers (or hitters) are better for certain situations.

Dean Chance is a big, strong lad and, like McBride, a potential 20-game winner. For a youngster of 21 to have such control is indeed a rarity.

I must consider Bo Belinsky as part of the regular staff. Bo certainly made quite a name for himself last year, but pushing everything else aside, he has a great deal of ability. Don Lee and Eli Grba will be back as will Tom Morgan. Dan Osinski impressed me tremendously. Jack Spring was good.

Leon Wagner and Lee Thomas stood out at the plate all last year.

JIM FREGOSI "most exciting"

Art Wall, Cupit Hold Early Lead

By HAL WOOD
UPI Sports Writer
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—There were some strange names among the leaders in the $50,000 Lucky International golf tournament as the second round of play got under way today.

Art Wall, the 30-year-old former Masters king, and Jacky Cupit, 23-year-old 1961 "rookie of the year" were leading the race with four-under-par 67s. Their names are well known.

but did you ever hear of Terry Dill? Jack Bissegger? Bob Harrison or Bill Eggers? They are right up there close, ready to take over if the leaders show any signs of faltering on the over-played Harding Park public golf course.

The greens are so bumpy the leading professionals refuse to even comment on them. And the lies are so tight that many of the top names are playing like duffers.

But Wall and Cupit, and 21 others who broke par are not complaining. They had no trouble mastering the fairways and solving the greens.

Dill was tied at 68 with Dick Mayer, the former National Open and World champion; Charley Sifford, the Negro golfing king; long-hitting Bobby Nichols, and Phil Rodgers, a 23-year-old rookie from University of Texas who shows signs of greatness.

Bissegger who had a 69, is a Canadian with promise. Harrison with 70 has played the winter tour several years from Palm Desert, Calif., and Eggers is playing out of Las Vegas, Nev.

But such men as Arnold Palmer, 73, Gary Player, 74, and National Open champion Jack Nicklaus, 76, found the going a bit too rough.

Meanwhile, defending champion Gene Littler stayed up close with a 70, and Bill Casper, winner of the Bing Crosby last week, had a 69.

Wall had an eagle and three birdies en route to his 67. The eagle came when he socked a four-wood 200 yards to within three feet of the pin on his final hole, then dropped the putt for a three on the par-five ninth.

Cupit, a solid shotmaker from Longview, Tex., had four birdies with one of them coming when he chipped from 30 feet away into the cup on the ninth hole. He also dropped one 25-foot putt—and had no complaints on the greens.

Zimmer, whose courage in overcoming the effects of two near-fatal beanings makes him highly respected in all baseball quarters, hit only 213 in 77 games for the Reds last season. To get him, the Dodgers sent minor league pitcher Scott Breeden to Cincinnati in a straight player deal in which no cash was involved.

Maloney Signs Contract
The Reds also announced the signing of pitcher Jim Maloney, 22, who had a 9-7 record for their last season. It was the seventh contract received by General Manager Bill DeWitt, who sent out Cincinnati contracts only a week ago.

The Detroit Tigers signed seven players, including pitcher Phil Regan and second-baseman Jake Wood. Regan had an 11-9 record with the Tigers last season while Wood hit .226 and led the team with 30 stolen bases.

Others signed by the Tigers were Vic Wertz, who batted .324 as a utility infielder and pinch hitter; Bubba Morton, who batted .262; Mike Roark, a promising catcher with a .213 batting average; Mike Christino, 18-year-old first baseman drafted from Baltimore, and Doug Gallagher, who had a 9-5 pitching record with Denver last season.

Crimsan Satan Strub Stakes Favorite
ARCADIA, Calif. (UPI)—Crimsan Satan, apparently back in the form he flashed as a 2-year-old, was the solid favorite today to capture the first $100,000 race of 1963, the Charles H. Strub Stakes, at Santa Anita Saturday.

The Strub Stakes attracted an unexpectedly large field of 16 horses when entries were taken Thursday, 48 hours prior to the race which replays the Santa Anita Maturity on the winter track's program.

But the horse that might have given Crimsan Satan his biggest problem, Native Diver, was not among the entries due to the failure of his owners to nominate him even under the relaxed conditions of the race.

Sunday Night Games In NL For 1st Time

CINCINNATI, Ohio (UPI)—For the first time in major league history, Sunday night games were included in the official 1963 National League schedule which was released today.

Bowing to the intense day-time heat in Houston during the summer, league officials granted the Colts permission to play seven Sunday night games at home this year in a special ruling.

Some Sunday afternoon games have been finished under the lights for one reason or another but this will mark the first time in major-league history that a team actually will start a game on Sunday night.

The Colts are scheduled to play their first Sunday night game against the San Francisco Giants on June 9.

All told, the 10 National League clubs are scheduled to play a total of 419 night games, two less than last year.

Houston has scheduled the most night games, 69, the Los Angeles Dodgers follow with 59 and then come the Cincinnati Reds with 52, Philadelphia Phillies, 50; Pittsburgh Pirates, 48; St. Louis Cardinals, 46; Milwaukee Braves, 42; New York Mets, 28, and Giants with 25.

Maintaining their unique tradition, the Chicago Cubs will play all their home games during the day-time.

The Reds officially get the NL season underway, April 8 — one day earlier than last season — when they play host to the Pirates.

All the other clubs in the league swing into action on April 9, with the Cardinals opening against the Mets in New York; the Braves against the Pirates in Pittsburgh; the Dodgers against the Cubs in Chicago; the Giants against the Colts in Houston, and the Phillies against the Reds in a night game at Philadelphia.

For the bargain-minded, the Mets have scheduled the most doubleheaders, 12. The Phillies are listed for 10 twin-bills, the Cardinals and Reds eight apiece; the Dodgers, Giants and Pirates, five each; the Colts and Cubs, three apiece, and the Braves, two.

Unlike last year, there will be only one All-Star game instead of two. It will be played at Cleveland on July 9.

The annual Hall of Fame game at Cooperstown, N.Y., is scheduled for Aug. 5, with the Braves meeting the Boston Red Sox.

The regular season ends Sunday, Sept. 29.

Clay Fulfills Prediction, KOs Powell In 3rd Round
PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Cassius Clay, the undisputed "champ of prophecy," sailed home to Louisville on a cloud today with a promise to become the "champ of heavyweights" in 10 months.

Clay, self-proclaimed "Louisville Lip," disposed of former professional football star Charlie Powell in the third round.

Immediately afterward, matchmaker Teddy Brennan of Madison Square Garden announced he will sign the third-ranked Clay to a fight with Doug Jones for March 13 in New York.

Pampa Plays Host To Palo Duro Dons

Pampa's Harvesters start the second half of the Dist. 3-AAAA cage race tonight in Harvesters Fieldhouse with a two-game lead and a perfect district record to defend.

The Harvesters, 7-0 in district and 22-1 for the season, host the Palo Duro Dons in an 8 p.m. game.

A "B" game is slated for 6:15 to precede the varsity tilt. The Dons, 1-6 in conference play, have a season mark of 9-9.

In the district opener for both teams, Pampa trounced the Dons, 70-42, in Amarillo. Monterey edged the Amarillo Sentries, 48-46, and Lubbock belted Tascosa, 84-40, in a doubleheader played last night in Lubbock's Coliseum.

Monterey is now alone in second place with a 6-2 record and Amarillo and Lubbock are in third place with 5-3 records.

Pampa's offensive thrust is the best in the district, averaging 67.5 points a game.

Guards Wayne Kreis and Keith Swanson are the pace setters for the Pampans in the scoring department. Kreis, the top scorer in district, is averaging 20.4 points a contest while Swanson is scoring at a 16.4 clip, the fourth best in district.

Two other Pampa starters, Randy Matson and Gary Sikes, are also scoring in double figures. Matson owns a 10.9 average and Sikes, 11.0.

Leading point maker for the Dons is David Ellis, a 5-8 guard, who has posted a 12.1 average in district play.

In another district game slated for tonight, Borger (1-6) travels to Plainview (4-3).

Hurricanes Nip Houston
By United Press International
Kenny Allen displays the same coolness and accuracy on the basketball court that schoolmate George Mira exhibits during the Miami (Fla.) football season.

With less than a minute to play Tuesday night, Allen stepped to the foul line and netted the deciding point in Miami's 71-70 victory over Houston.

The Hurricane backcourt man was equal to the task on three earlier occasions as he sank free throws to help turn back the hustling Houston Cougars.

Billy Welu Leads Field In Bowling

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—Billy Welu of St. Louis and Joy Abel of Chicago today headed America's finest bowlers in the pin fight for $100,000 in cash prizes in the 22nd annual All-Star bowling tournament.

Welu fired an 844 four-game series Thursday night to cap a big day which saw him win 81% of a possible 12 games. Right behind him in this 22nd annual Bowling Proprietors Association of America (BPAA) classic were three other St. Louis kegglers, Ray Bluth, defending champion, Dick Weber, and four-time past champ Don Carter.

In the 32 championship round games rolled so far in the men's division, Welu has scattered 7,137 pins for an average of 223 per game. His 290 game Thursday was high for the day.

Bluth has 7,147 pins, but the championship rounds are being scored under the Peterson point system, which gives one point for every 50 points and one point for every game won.

Tom Dice and Roger Strickland each bucketed 10 field goals for the winners. Dice wound up with 26 points and Strickland finished with 23. St. Peters center Bob Murray led all scorers with 31 points.

Bob O'Connor, playing with a bruised back, scored 25 points for Canisius College as the Golden Griffins defeated Connecticut, 74-65.

Okla. City Rips Baylor Cagers
OKLAHOMA CITY (UPI)—Oklahoma City University, bolstered by the presence of giant, 7-foot Eddie Jackson, ripped Baylor 78-55 Thursday night in an inter-sectional basketball game.

Jackson of Waco, Tex., only made 7 points but he cleared the boards for 18 rebounds. When Baylor missed, Jackson usually came down with the ball.

Bud Koper and Gary Hill paced the OCU attack with 21 points each. Bill Moore and Roy Wolfe made 13 points each for Baylor. OCU hit 42 per cent of its field goal attempts. The Bears made only 29 per cent of their field shots.

Clay, who weighed 204, said Powell was "the roughest fighter I met yet—for three rounds."

Clay said he could vanquish champion Sonny Liston in eight.

Powell, remarking on this said, "Clay will be okay, if he can stay away."

Clay's easy win over the 214-pound Powell drew heavy boos from a record local indoor crowd of 11,238 which paid a gross of $74,360 and a net of $44,782. Ten per cent of the net will go to a fund for families of 37 men killed in a mine explosion last month.

Clay said a "hard right hand" set up Powell for the kill. The punch which put him down was a left hook.

The 21-year-old Clay had little trouble with Powell, 29-year-old from San Diego, Calif. He danced around the ring through the first two rounds, landing stinging jabs and straight rights almost at will as Powell chose to stalk around the center of the canvas.

Powell said a "flurry of punches" near the end of the second round "got me woozy" and he went down under the barrage in the third. While referee Ernie Sesio tolled eight Powell, on his hands and knees, attempted to get to his feet but shook his head futilely and was counted out.

"I'm the prophet of the fight game," Clay said later in his dressing room.

The St. Louis Hawks, aided by 40 points from Bob Pettit, matched the Celtics point for point until the final minutes of play when Tommy Heinsohn put Boston in front 109-105 and rookie John Havlicek clinched the victory with two foul shots.

The Hawks-Celtics game was played at the Rhode Island Auditorium in Providence before 7,238, the largest attendance at a basketball game in the auditorium.

Other high scorers in the only two games played Thursday night in the NBA were Sam Jones with 2 for Boston and Bailey Howell topping Piston efforts with 32.

Senator Says 'Crab Cakes' Are Insult To Home State

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Like others who dine regularly at the Capitol, I have been following the Senate's crab cake controversy with mounting interest and rising glee.

The protagonist in the issue is Sen. J. Glenn Beall, a Maryland Republican and seafood connoisseur, who feels that his home state was libeled by the menu in the Senate restaurant.

Specifically, he objected to the christening of one of the dishes listed on the menu as "Maryland crab cakes."

Linking Maryland's fair name to the fried blobs that were being fobbed off under a crab cake alias was a slur on the free state and adjacent waters, Beall told, or tolled, the Senate.

Sounds Ringing Protest
He voices his protest in a ringing oration that undoubtedly will cause him to be remembered as the crustaceans' Patrick Henry. I thought it ranked in eloquence with Sen. Everett M. Dirksen's famous paean to spring flowers.

The Senate chef was offered an "authentic" recipe for Maryland crab cakes, but he pointed out that it could not be used without upping the price.

It calls for the cakes to be composed entirely of crab meat whereas in the dish as presently constituted the crab meat is mixed with cracker crumbs.

Crackers are, of course, cheaper than crabs, being more plentiful and easier to catch.

I certainly agree with Beall that the Senate crab cakes could stand an overhauling, but at the same time I have some reservations about the adoption of an "authentic" recipe.

Wish For Imitation
In the House restaurant, the menu carries an item listed as "genuine chile con carne." One spoonful will make you wish that you had been served the imitation.

Be that as it may, Beall's concern for his state's gastronomic reputation started me to speculating what might happen if other statesmen took up the culinary cudgels on behalf of their native lands.

For instance, the Wednesday menu in the House restaurant featured "Swiss steak." The government of Switzerland might wish to lodge a protest about that through its legation here.

The same bill of fare listed "French - fried potatoes" which could easily arouse the animosity

Man Drops Plan To Sail Yacht Across Atlantic

LISBON (UPI) — Tom Miller, of Denison, Tex., said yesterday he has given up his plans of trying to sail a 35-foot yacht across the Atlantic Ocean to the West Indies.

Miller decided to abandon his efforts after the departure of three of his crewmen. The three left after a 30-hour fruitless battle against a storm at sea on the yacht.

Miller and four other amateur sailors, set out Thursday during a raging storm in an effort to sail the Atlantic. They returned Friday night battered and tired, but the boat escaped serious damage.

The three crewmen, William B. Mize of Sherman, Tex., Louis Chandler of Dallas and Charles McLendon of London, had to give up their sailing efforts and return to their normal jobs, Miller said.

of Gen. De Gaulle. There likewise was a "Spanish omelette" which could incur the wrath of Gen. Franco.

Young Sen. Ted Kennedy has said he is interested in doing something for Massachusetts. A golden opportunity is presented by the Senate restaurant's "Boston cream pie."

For that matter a "boiled New England dinner" served this week in the House restaurant would provide an issue for the entire Kennedy clan.

Electric Robot Now Figuring Your Income Tax

ATLANTA (UPI) — With a soft whirring of machinery and electronic tape, a Georgia Tech junior became the first taxpayer in the nation to have his income tax refund figured by a new speed system.

The refund of Ronald Leggett, Jesup, Ga., was figured at the automatic data processing center of the Internal Revenue Service here, a pilot plant which will be the forerunner of nine such centers in the nation.

Through the system, which has been in the manufacturing and testing stage since 1959, soon will go all income tax returns. Out of the machinery will come the bitter truth—how much you owe or how much you get back.

Accuracy is Object
Aubrey Ross, head of the operation for the IRS, said that accuracy, and not speed, is the main object of the new system.

With machinery taking over from mere man with his adding machine and sharp pencil, the computer will compare current returns with old ones, spot errors and perform all sorts of other duties necessary to make the final figure come out right.

Ross said it usually takes from 28 to 35 days to process the returns through the computer.

Some features of the new system:

It will determine prior to a refund whether a taxpayer already has claimed and received a refund and whether he owes taxes.

Constant Check
It will provide a constant check on whether individuals and businesses have failed to file returns.

It will help classify returns for audit purposes.

In addition, IRS officials hasten to add, the system has some advantages for the taxpayer himself, such as:

It will provide improved enforcement so that the "honest taxpayer" will pay only his fair share of the tax burden.

It will eliminate recurring questions from IRS about items previously accepted for deductions.

It will establish taxpayer credits in accounts of those who have been given deductions but can't be located.

Veterans Warned Income Reports Are Due Jan. 31

Veterans and dependents on the Veterans Administration nonservice-connected pension rolls and parents of deceased veterans receiving dependency and indemnity compensation who do not return their income questionnaires by January 31 will not receive any more checks and may even have to pay back the money received in 1962.

Robert W. Sisson, manager of the VA Regional Office in Lubbock, Texas issued this warning although the questionnaires were mailed a month earlier than usual this year. The income information forms were sent out by the TV with the November 30 checks but the return deadline remains January 31.

Sisson pointed out that the questionnaire carries a printed warning which reads: "Important: Failure to return this card before January 31, 1963, will result in discontinuance of payment. You would also be required to pay back all pension you received last year."

Since these benefits are paid only to those veterans, widows, dependent parents or minor children whose incomes are below certain limits, the VA is required by law to receive an income report each year to support the payments.

Sisson asked that all blanks on the card be filled in wherever applicable and that it be signed before it is sent back to VA.

APPROVES BELL
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee Wednesday approved the nomination of David E. Bell, former budget director, to head the foreign aid program.

The committee also approved the nomination of former Secretary of State Christian A. Herter to be President Kennedy's representative in tariff negotiations under the new Foreign Trade Act.

William Muldoon was known as the father of American wrestling.
