Secretary Says He Won't Junk AF's Dyna-Soar

HOUSTON (UPI) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara indicated Thursday night he has no intention of junking the Air Force's Dyna-Soar program at this time.

He said he is trying to see whether the Dyna-Soar space glider program can be combined with the civilian space agency to the benefit of both programs.

"We will have spent about $350 million on the X20 (Dyna-Soar) by the end of this fiscal year," he said. "And we are requesting Congress to authorize an additional $120 million in the next fiscal year."

"The two programs are not entirely comparable," McNamara said in a prepared statement.

"We want to see how Gemini and the X20 can be fitted together to make the best program for both the military and civilian purposes."

"While the X20 would be in orbit less time than the proposed Gemini program, it would provide more recoverable payload because it would use a larger booster," McNamara said.

"Because they (the two programs) do have similarities and are both very costly, I believe this trip to Seattle and Houston to visit the Manned Spacecraft Center is extremely important."

He said at the Houston airport that it would take weeks for him to digest the material he received Thursday in Seattle and Houston. He flew to Houston from Seattle, where he had taken part in secret briefings on Dyna-Soar at the Boeing Aircraft plant. McNamara then returned to Washington.

Yarborough Asks FCC To Suspend Rate Increase

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., Thursday asked the Federal Communications Commission to suspend a proposed telephone rate schedule that would raise rates on 82 percent of all person-to-person calls in the country.

Yarborough spoke of a notice issued in January announcing a plan to reduce station-to-station rates between any points in the United States to 51 or less between 9 p.m. and 4:30 a.m. But Yarborough said the release also would allow increases of 5 to 10 cents in person-to-person calls up to 800 miles.

The senator said a 10-cent increase in a 50-cent call between Washington and Baltimore, for instance, was actually a 20 percent increase. "A 20 percent increase is not a small increase," he said.

Yarborough said he had no objection to the reduction in station-to-station rates.

JFK Begins Third Latin American Good Will Tour

By MERRIMAN SMITH

UPI White House Reporter — President Kennedy starts out today on his third venture in personal diplomacy in Latin America, stopping for the weekend in Palm Beach, Fla., before flying Monday to Costa Rica for a three-day conference with Central American presidents.

The Chief Executive planned to leave the White House by helicopter at noon for Andrews Air Force Base where he will board his jet transport for a 12:15 p.m. EST takeoff for Palm Beach.

The presidential party will depart from Palm Beach at 7:45 a.m. EST Monday for San Jose where Kennedy, Secretary of State Dean Rusk and key Democrats and Republicans from the House and Senate Foreign Affairs committees will emphasize U.S. support for Central American economic integration.

Before leaving the White House today, the President arranged a meeting with Chairman Thomas E. Morgan, D-Pa., of the House Foreign Affairs Committee. Morgan will be a member of the U.S. delegation in Costa Rica.

Kennedy will fly back to the United States late Wednesday night and report on his Central American mission at a televised news conference the following afternoon, March 21.

Thousands Flock To Shamrock For Annual St. Pat Celebration

SHAMROCK, Tex. (UPI) — The town of Shamrock decorated itself green today and the population more than tripled—all in celebration of St. Patrick's Day weekend. Thousands of shamrocks were flown from Ireland for the occasion and the weekly "Shamrock Texan" was even printed on green paper.

"We don't have any more O'Flanagan's than we have O'Joneses," said Frankie Stanley, women's editor of the "Texan." "But everybody goes Irish for the celebration."

The Texas Panhandle town boasts of 3,100 persons on a normal weekend, but on St. Patrick's Day weekend, about 40,000 "Irishmen" show up for the celebration. The official festivities start tonight with a dinner, but the big day is Saturday. There will be a "old settlers" reunion and an hour-long parade featuring bands and floats depicting Irish scenes.

Rails Added To French Strikers

PARIS (UPI) — French trains stood silent in empty railway stations today as some 300,000 railway workers struck for 24 hours in sympathy with the work stoppage in France's nationalized coal mines.

The virtually complete rail strike stranding thousands of travelers and forcing commuters to take to their cars, added to the wave of strikes in government-owned industries which has shaken France and brought the worst labor crisis since Charles de Gaulle became president in 1958.

Bank Robbers Arraigned; High Bond Set

DALLAS (UPI) — Two of three gunmen seized after a $10,000 bank robbery at Konawa, Okla., were arraigned today and held in high bail on federal bank robbery charges.

The third man was being arraigned in Oklahoma.

Vernon Isaacs and Lester Carroll Smith, both 27 and both from Irving, Tex., stood calmly as U.S. Commissioner W. Madden III set bond of $25,000 apiece and scheduled a hearing for next Friday.

Isaacs said he was a truck driver, married and the father of four children. Smith, a carpenter's helper, said he has one child.

They were seized in Irving Thursday. Charles Brennan, 28, was arrested by FBI agents at Ada, Okla. The three were arrested hours after a $10,000 holdup at the Oklahoma State Bank of Konawa. They had threatened to blow up the town.

The FBI seized the stolen money from Isaacs and Smith. Isaacs and Smith were to be arraigned before U.S. Commissioner W. Madden III in Dallas. Brennan was to be arraigned before a U.S. commissioner in McAlester, Okla.

Curtis O. Lynum, special agent in charge of the FBI in Dallas, said his men got "excellent cooperation" from Irving police. "They voluntarily surrendered," Lynum said. "There was no trouble and agents recovered the proceeds of the robbery."

Burglars Thwarted

Alertness of a passing motorist plus a burglar alarm prevented a burglary last night at Mitchell's supermarket, 638 S. Cuyler.

William N. Bowen, 906 Wilcox, driving by the market at 9:30 p.m. heard the burglar alarm ringing.

He immediately notified police. When officers arrived, the would-be burglars had fled. The double doors in the rear of the store had been tampered with and police found a hacksaw on the ground nearby.

Presence Of Personnel Declared 'Not Normal'

By STEWART HENSLEY
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Russia appeared today to be keeping its promise to remove "several thousand" military personnel from Cuba by mid-March, but the great bulk of the Soviet forces remained.

U.S. officials said almost 2,000 Soviet personnel had been pulled out during the past month, and a ship now loading appeared capable of carrying nearly 1,500 additional. They acknowledged this would barely meet the accepted idea of "several thousand."

American officials indicated some uncertainty as to whether the Russians leaving included any of the 5,000 men in four combat battalions. The United States estimated a month ago that there were 17,000 Soviet military personnel in Cuba.

The United States, while welcoming the departures to date, still stood by President Kennedy's declaration that the presence of any Soviet military personnel in the western hemisphere could not be tolerated as a "normal condition."

However, it was considered unlikely the State Department would press the issue immediately. Officials first wanted to get a more accurate idea of just what had come out.

U.S. officials acknowledged that a key point would be whether the men being removed included the combat troops who have represented Russia's on-the-spot ability to help Cuban Premier Fidel Castro in event of a rebellion.

Assistant Secretary of State Edwin M. Martin said in testimony released Thursday that the United States was ready to send military help to any Latin American nation threatened by a Communist takeover if aid were requested.

Censored Copy Released

Martin's statement was made before a House Foreign Affairs subcommittee during its investigation of Cuba-directed subversion in the hemisphere. A censored copy of the testimony was released by Chairman Armistead Seldeen, D-Ala.

He said this would have been "not only from the standpoint of Soviet prestige and position, but also of the Soviet position vis-a-vis the Chinese Communists, which keeps them under certain kinds of pressure to be at least as vigorous in the defense of Communist regimes as they were."

As for the possibility of another "Bay of Pigs" type of invasion, Martin said he thought this would be "impossible, as long as the situation remains as it is."

BANS CUBAN SHIPMENTS

ATHENS, Greece (UPI) — A royal decree published Thursday night banned all Greek ships from transporting any kind of cargo to Cuba. The decree expected ships already en route to Fidel Castro's Caribbean island.

Bidault Wants To Pursue DeGaulle Fight In Bavaria

MUNICH, Germany (UPI) — Fugitive former French Premier Georges Bidault today made a formal bid to stay in West Germany and carry on his political activities against French President Charles de Gaulle.

Bidault said in a letter to Bavarian state authorities that he did not want to leave Bavaria. But he added that if Bavarian authorities prevented him from carrying on his fight against De Gaulle he would "regret it extraordinarily."

The letter was read to a news conference by Bavarian Interior Minister Heinrich Junker. The letter said "I want to know the exact conditions" for remaining in Bavaria.

According to Junker, Bidault did not indicate whether he was seeking permanent political asylum or only a three-month "good conduct" residence permit.

Bavarian officials have said both would require Bidault to stop all political activity.

Bidault, 63, is head of the underground National Resistance Council (CNR), which is dedicated to overthrowing De Gaulle and seizing control of France.

Bidault's letter, given to Bavarian authorities Thursday night, was his first formal communication in writing on his future status since he was discovered in a nearby Alpine resort last Sunday.

Bavarian authorities had asked Bidault to choose permanent asylum, temporary residence or departure from the country. The former premier has been questioned extensively all week.

Ten Injured In School Bus Mishap

WACO, Tex. (UPI) — An automobile smashed into the side of a school bus at an intersection on Texas Highway 31 today, injuring 10 persons.

Four elementary school children were treated and released at Hillcrest Hospital in Waco. The driver of the automobile, Miss Betty Kirbo, 19, of Axtell, J. A. Willingham, 60, the driver of the Axtell school district bus, and four school children were hospitalized.

Only Miss Kirbo, a journalism student at Baylor University, was seriously injured.

Police said the collision happened at the intersection of a country road and the highway 7 miles northeast of Waco. The automobile smashed into the bus as the bus crossed the highway. The force of the impact sent the bus with its 20 children skidding into a ditch where it overturned.

Dear Abby....

Prone To Pick Wrong Confidants

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Who in the world can a person trust anymore? Our preacher sat right in our living room and told all the details of some domestic trouble another couple was having. He knew full well these people were friends of ours. Then I found out that my doctor discussed my case with my aunt without any inquiry on her part — she says. Yesterday a friend of mine told her daughter something I had told her in confidence just to get it off my chest. Heaven help me if I ever need a lawyer. I hear they are the biggest gossips of all. I repeat — who can a person trust?

DISGUSTED
DEAR DISGUSTED: MOST clergymen can keep a secret. And so can most doctors. But professional people under obligation to keep confidences, occasionally talk too much. If your confidences are always revealed, perhaps you are prone to pick the wrong confidants.

DEAR ABBY: Can you please tell me why women are so touchy about telling their right age?

DEAR BEATS ME: Beats ME, too. When a girl is young (around 14 or 15) the nicest compliment you can pay her is to say she appears to be about 18. When she reaches about 50, if you tell her she looks 35 you are apt to get smothered with kisses.

DEAR ABBY: A boy called me at 12:30 at night and woke up my father. My father got real angry and told him if he didn't have any better sense than to call at that hour he should never call me again. The boy said he'd "think" about it. You can imagine how much angrier my father got after that. The next day my father told me about what happened and he said I was not to answer any more telephone calls from boys until next year when I'll be in the Ninth Grade. This is the first time anything like this has ever happened to me. Do you think my father is being fair?

PUNISHED
DEAR PUNISHED: Your father was understandably irritated by the boy's attitude. But I think it's unfair to punish you because of another's insolence.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "Fictitious Names": You'd better think up another name. You aren't getting away with anything.

Take It From Kathy

by Kathy Peterson

Dear Kathy: Do you think allowance should be stopped every time you do something that makes your parents angry? This has happened twice in the past month without any notice. My brother and I don't think it's fair. What do you think?—J. Q.

Twice in a month is a bit often to make parents so angry that they cut off an allowance. You can behave better than that! Recall—it's a parent's right to make rules and expect them to be kept. When you ignore important things, reprimands are in order. However, I think that removal of allowance as punishment should be a last resort.

Painful rollers to sleep on? Something to help: a new electric roller curler that sets the hair quickly and easily. The instant I'll be in the Ninth Grade. This is the first time anything like this has ever happened to me. Do you think my father is being fair?

Most authorities agree that an electric roller curler that sets the hair quickly and easily. The instant I'll be in the Ninth Grade. This is the first time anything like this has ever happened to me. Do you think my father is being fair?

Cuban Exile Says Soviets Quell Uprising

MIAMI (UPI) — A Cuban exile leader said Thursday night his underground agents reported that Soviet troops were used to quell an uprising in a province in southern Cuba.

Seven Russian soldiers, including an officer, were killed in the clash with "Cuban patriots," said Dr. Luis Conte Agero, leader of the Christian Anti-Communist Front and the National Resistance Front.

Conte called upon Defense Secretary Robert McNamara to investigate the report.

"Mr. McNamara has said that if the Soviets use troops to put down any Cuban uprisings, the United States will act," Conte said.

"The Soviets have done exactly that. I urge the secretary to check it out and then I believe the next move is up to him."

Conte said the battle occurred during the week of Feb. 17 at the town of Batabano, near the southern coast of Cuba in Havana Province.

He said a total of 226 Russian soldiers were thrown into the battle against the Cuban rebels.

One of the victims of the fighting, Conte said, was a Soviet army officer named "Federal."

The Cuban leader said a "considerable number" of Soviet troops was wounded in the clash. They are hospitalized at the old Army General Hospital in Havana, he said.

There was no information regarding Cuban casualties.

Conte said the information regarding the clash was smuggled out to him by members of his underground organization in Cuba known as "The Sentinels of Liberty."

Solicitation Head Named For Home Fund Campaign

A. J. Carrubi Jr. has been named manager of the general solicitation division of the campaign to raise $300,000 for a Nursing Home in Pampa.

The announcement was made today by Arthur M. Teed, campaign chairman.

Teed stated that while 50 members of the campaign executive committee are conducting the first phase of the drive, the larger group of volunteer workers now is being formed.

The solicitation organization will be made up of 200 members. It will be divided into three sections and 27 teams. Each team will have a captain and six members, according to Carrubi.

"We have only three and one-half weeks before the kick-off of this final phase of the campaign," he said.

The kickoff is scheduled for the first week in April.

The 50-bed nursing home will be constructed on a site just west of Highland General Hospital.

Mid Winter Band Concert Scores Hit Annual API Dance Slated Saturday

Pampa's three high school bands scored a hit in their Winter concert before a full house last night in Robert E. Lee Junior High auditorium.

The Lee Junior High, Pampa Junior High and Pampa High bands each held the stage for 25 minutes and were roundly applauded for their playing under the direction of Joe DiCosimo, Homer Krueger and Fred Stockdale.

Miss Maurine Hickman, high school senior, was featured in a flute solo, "Meditation" from Thais.

When the applause had subsided, Miss Hickman received a surprise with the announcement by Band Director Stockdale that her application had been accepted for entrance by the Eastman School of Music at Rochester, N. Y.

The final concert number, featured Robert E. Lee and Pampa High drummers and cymbalists, accompanied by the senior high band, in "Serenade to a Sand Dune" (Abel).

Following the concert, members of the Band Parents Club met in the auditorium and discussed plans for the annual band banquet and dance to be held May 16 in the High School.

Annual API Dance Slated Saturday

The Annual API Dance of the Panhandle Chapter, American Petroleum Institute, will be held tomorrow in the Starlight Room of the Coronado Inn, between 9 p.m. and 1 a.m., with "Soozie" Dunn and his dance band from Amarillo.

This informal dance traditionally marks the end of the annual API membership drive, according to Nathan Turnbo, Kewanee Oil Co., second vice chairman of the chapter and 1963 Membership Drive Chairman.

He noted that the last official sales of memberships and dance tickets will be at the door of the dance.

The preliminary reports on the 1963 membership drive indicate that the goal of 500 members will be exceeded in the tri-city area of Pampa, Borger, and Amarillo, and that the dance will celebrate the successful conclusion of this year's membership drive.

Andrew Jackson's home was called "The Hermitage."

No New Clues Found In Tax Office Robbery

Police still were facing a dead-end street today in connection with the $334.39 burglary of the City tax office Tuesday noon.

Officers had no clues to work on except the description of a man seen loitering near the office in the City Hall lobby shortly before it closed for the noon hour.

The burglar jimmied the locked north door to gain entrance and then pried open the cash drawer to empty it of the money.

Workmen were busy today putting new locks on office doors and including a bolt-lock to give added protection.

Police said they were unable to find finger prints or other clues that might aid in the investigation.

Washington Window

By LYLE C. WILSON and you will get mostly double talk, more along the lines of a campaign speech than a discussion of economics and fiscal policy.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A funny thing happened to President Kennedy's tax program on its way to Congress. The tax program lost its friends.

This may have been because most of them were foolish friends who began whooping it up for the Kennedy tax plan weeks—months, even—before they knew what it was.

With Big Labor, Big Business and all but the hardest-headed among the politicians cheering him on, small wonder that the President miscalculated the potential opposition, such as the budget-balancing Puritans and others.

Kennedy sent to Congress a tax program on the pattern of presidential campaign platform — it had something for everybody. His tax bill has been in bad trouble ever since Big Labor, Big Business, the Puritans and others found out what was in it.

Explanation Confused The President's subsequent discussion of his tax program has not helped much, either. That is a real surprise because Kennedy is an articulate man, capable of stating precisely what he means to convey. Nevertheless, considerable confusion has accompanied some of the President's tax talk, notably as to the necessity of enacting reform with tax reduction.

There is the question, also, whether the tax program is an emergency measure to prevent the nation going over the brink of recession or is merely intended to get the country moving again.

It is the nature of politicians to play politics. They are playing politics now with the tax program at the expense of the general welfare. What the tax program needs is some frank talk about objectives and how to reach them. For example, if the objective is to get the country moving again, how can that be done?

Put that question to politicians

Put the question to President spokesmen for consumers such as AFL-CIO President George Meany. He will urge a big boost in government spending and "an immediate, substantial tax cut in the low and middle-income brackets to create consumer buying-power so desperately needed to revive the national economy."

Put the question to President Allison R. Maxwell Jr., Pittsburgh Steel Co., as quoted in the National Observer, and he will tell you:

"Our tax structure — favoring consumption and discouraging investment — puts the cart before the horse. We (Should) reduce taxes on income and taxes on corporate profits — to the limits of our ability — as the essential first move toward redistributing the federal tax burden."

The politicians are stuck in the middle between these extreme points of view. They are afraid to move either way. If the voters ever tire of double talk, some politician might fire their enthusiasm with some frank if painful discussion of tax objectives and how to reach 'em.

Lefors Relays Beginning Action This Afternoon

LEFORS (Spl) — Records will be falling thick and fast this afternoon as the 10th annual Lefors Relays gets underway with a field of 29 teams entered.

The only records that appear to be safe are the 220, 440 and 880-yard run marks, as these events will not be run this year.

More Relays
Meet director Dunny Goode explained that Lefors has decided this year to concentrate more on relay events and less on individual events. "The meet has grown and we want to get as many teams in as possible and have as many boys competing as we can. We have eliminated the dash events, except for the 100, and the 220, 440 and 880 yard runs will be able to compete in the sprint, sprint medley, mile or two-mile relays. That way we can get more events in and have more boys participating."

Preliminary action starts at 2:30 this afternoon with the 440-yard relay, with the 12 best times qualifying for finals. The two-mile relay follows, also with the top 12 times to finals. The 120-yard high hurdles will send the eight best to semifinals, the 100 will have 12 to semifinals, the sprint medley relay will have the 12 top times to finals, the 160-yard low hurdles will have the eight best to semifinals, and the 880 relay, mile run and mile relay will send the 12 best times to finals also.

Field events start at the same time, with pole vault, high jump, broad jump, shot and discus, each event sending the six best to finals.

Finals Saturday
Tomorrow morning will see action begin with the high hurdle semifinals and run through a 11 field events finals and dash and low hurdle semifinals.

Finals will begin at 2 p.m. Saturday with the sprint relay and close at 4 p.m. with the mile relay.

Among last year's records that seem almost certain to fall are the 100, the high hurdles, the low hurdles, the pole vault, the mile relay and the high jump. The broad jump record is also in jeopardy and the shot put likewise.

The sprint relay record of 49.1 set by Childress is open to question, as most of the competing teams have not been clocked in the event this year. The 5:03.9 mile record of Davis of Stratford, may also stand up, as should the 159.3' discus throw by Wagner of Perryton.

Records Should Fall
The high hurdle record of 15.9 seems a cinch to fall under the flying feet of Carroll Russell of White Deer, who has a 15.1 clocking, with Robert Lewis of Canadian pushing him.

The dash record of 10.4 seems to stand little chance with Curtis Campbell of White Deer a 9.9 runner and Henry Lewis of Wheeler a 10.2 sprinter.

Russell's 20.4 clocking should top the 20.7 low hurdle record if the Buck ace repeats. White Deer seems almost certain to break their own mile relay time of 3:39.3, with the team back that ran 3:27 in regional.

McCain of Childress' pole vault of 10.9 seems to have little chance against the heights of Tommy Elliott of White Deer (11'3"), John Mark Worst of Sunray (11'2) and Wayne Coleman of Lefors (11'0"). Jimmy Flowers of Miami, who has hit the 6'1" mark in state, is expected to break his own broad jump record of 5'10".

Stout of Clarendon has the shot put record of 49.7, with the record contenders being Gerald Rasco of Pampa (48') and Mickey Kivlen of Miami (45').

Tee of Booker's 20.3 broad jump record will try to stand up under the assaults of Rodney Arrington of Lefors (20') and Roy Bean of Miami (19.6).

Tough Competition
Other tough competition for record breaking should come from Booker, Stinnett and Canadian, among others.

The Pampa B team will threaten both the mile relay and sprint medley relay marks, as both teams will be anchored by Mark Westbrook, who holds the area 880 record with 2:04.3.

Again, many of the teams competing today have not run in competition yet this year and may set some surprising times. On paper, White Deer, Pampa B, Miami, Booker and Stinnett seem the probable best bets, but whether they can repeat previous times and records or whether someone else can beat theirs will be the big question this week end.

Canadian Taking 22 Trackmen Into Relays, Doubts Chances

CANADIAN (Spl) — The familiar tune sung by every area track coach heading for the Lefors Relays today was hummed yesterday by Canadian coach Ned Jolly. Although the defending district 2-A champs are sending 22 men to the meet, the largest contingent of any of the 29 competing schools, Jolly insists that the Wildcats will be there just for the experience, with no chance of winning.

SMU Takes Lead In SWC Swimming

AUSTIN (UPI) — Southern Methodist took a narrow 8½ point lead into the second day's action of the 32nd annual Southwest Conference Swim Meet today.

SMU gathered 50½ points in four events Thursday to lead Texas with 42 points. Texas A&M had 17, Texas Tech 16½ and Baylor 4.

A conference record was set in every swimming event held. Jim Graves of Texas won the 50-yard freestyle in 3:10.0; Tiny Barnettson of SMU captured the 40-yard individual medley in 4:29.4; Bob Baker of Texas A&M took the 50-yard freestyle in 22:2 and SMU's 400-yard medley relay team won in 3:43.3.

Gordon Beavers took the one-meter diving competition, scoring 422.55 points to far outdistance the field.

however, as only four of the entries are returnees from last year's team, with 17 of the Cats sophomores.

Top Twosome
The Wildcats will rely on the major portion of their points from their outstanding duo of Robert Lewis and Wyman Prater, who garnered 29 points to give Canadian eighth place in the Greyhound Relays at Gruver last week.

Lewis won the high hurdles and low hurdles in district, was second in the high jump and was on the mile relay team. He repeated the performance at Gruver with a time of 16.0 to win in the high, 22.6 for second in the low, and 5'9" in the high jump. He is also a returnee from the mile relay team.

Prater, who was second in high hurdles in district last year, won at Gruver in 21.0. He also jumped 5'9", but got third as Lewis had less misses. Gordon Rivers, another veteran, placed third in the 880 in the district and was on the mile relay team. Bill Ortega, the fourth of last year's district champs, will be entered in the pole vault, discus, and run the 440 on the sprint medley relay.

Other Entries
Other Canadian entries include Jim Barker in the mile; David Cook on the sprint relay team, in the 100-yard dash and on the 880 relay; Mike Cullender in the 880 relay, running the 220 in the sprint medley and throwing the discus and shot. Sandy Fiel will be in the pole vault and on the medley and 880 relay teams. Bill Grist, who was entered in the 100 and sprint relay, may not be able to run because of a pulled muscle. Don Gutierrez will run the mile and Joe Gutierrez will put the shot.

Mike Henderson will be on the two-mile relay team; Gary Harrell will enter the low hurdles; Kenneth Harrell will be in the high jump and two mile relay; and Charles Keesie will put the shot.

Promising Runner
Although Jolly insists that his sophomores are nowhere near ready this year, there are some promising boys for next year and as seniors the group should really be good, he said. One of the most promising is dash man Jerry Krebbel, who was clocked in 10.9 at Gruver.

Rocky Lucas will put the shot; Freddy McPherson will run the mile; Jerry Petree will be on the sprint and mile relay teams; Tommy Steinle in the 220 lap of the medley and in the discus throw; Joe Wilkerson the two-mile relay and Keith Yarnold on the sprint and mile relay teams.

Following today's meet, the Wildcats will be at Panhandle, then at Amarillo, and will be back in Lefors for the district meet on April 9.

Cincy-Texas Tonight

By United Press International
The NCAA major college basketball playoffs resume on four fronts tonight with mighty Cincinnati launching its bid for an unprecedented third straight championship and Mississippi State meeting Loyola of Chicago in one of the most controversial pairings in sports history.

Cincinnati, which finished its regular season with a 23-1 record and drew a bye in the tournament's opening round, plays Texas at Lawrence, Kan. Colorado plays Oklahoma City University on the same program.

The meeting between Mississippi State and Loyola takes place at Lansing, Mich., but until late Thursday it was feared that the Southeastern Conference championships would be denied entry in the tournament.

However, a Mississippi State Supreme Court justice stayed an injunction brought by segregationists who objected to the Bulldogs playing against non-whites.

55TH YEAR FRIDAY, MARCH 15, 1963 5

Borger Outslugs Pampan, 12-9

BORGER (Spl) — Borger centerfielder Bill Barron made a leaping over-the-fence catch to rob Larry Gregory of a three-run homer and give the Borger Bulldogs a 12-9 revenge win over the Pampa Harvesters here yesterday.

Pampa, trailing throughout the game, rallied for four runs in the ninth and had two runners on with two out. Gregory then laced a towering fly ball to deepest center field, over 400 feet away. Barron, running full speed, reached the five-foot fence, leaped up and made a one-handed catch of Gregory's smash to rob the Pampa catcher of a home run and the Harvesters of a chance for a come-from-behind victory.

Robinson Wins

Big Joe Robinson, who was the losing hurler in the previous Borger-Pampa game, won his own ball game, both on the mound and at the plate. The fire-balling right-hander allowed only one man on base in the first three innings, striking out seven batters, walking none and poling a 400-foot bases-loaded homer in the first inning to give the Bulldogs a lead they never relinquished.

Pampa's three promising sophomore pitchers all failed to impress yesterday as Carl Harnsberger pitched three innings, faced 16 men, and gave up four hits including Big Joe's grand-slammer. He issued three walks, struck out four batters and gave up six earned runs. Jerry Garrison went one inning, faced eight men, gave up two hits, two walks and three runs, only one of them earned and struck out one batter. Jim Arthur pitched the last inning of the tilt, which was cut to six innings because of darkness, and faced nine men, allowing two hits, four walks and three earned runs, although striking out the side.

No Control

The Pampa hurlers all showed a lack of control, walking a total of nine men, and were forced to come in with the fat pitch time and again as they got behind the batters.

Ricky Stewart led off the first inning with a single and moved to second on Ken Collins' sacrifice, but that was the farthest a Pampa got in the first three

Texas-Ex New Buff Coach

CANYON, Tex. (UPI) — Jimmy Viramontes, who resigned as assistant basketball coach at the University of Texas last month, will become head coach at West Texas State College June 1, school officials said Thursday.

When he left Texas, Viramontes said he was looking for a head coaching job.

West Texas Athletic Director Frank Kimbrough said Viramontes will succeed Metz LaFollette. LaFollette resigned after posting a 6-18 record this past season.

Viramontes had been at Texas since 1956 and assisted head coach Hal Bradley in bringing two Southwest Conference championships to the school in the past four years.

frames as Robinson struck out the next two batters.

Borger opened their half of the inning with two walks and a single, loading the bases with one out. Robinson then belted a blast over the center field fence, over 400 feet away.

Big Joe struck out the side in the second inning and chalked up two more 'K's' in the third frame. Borger added to their lead in the bottom of the inning as a double and a walk was followed by Barron's two-run single.

Pampa Scores

Pampa finally broke the ice with three big runs in the fourth frame. Collins opened with a single. Jerry Glover, pinch-hitting for Harnsberger, hit a one-hop ground-rule double over the fence. Gregory hit a hard smash at third base. The third baseman knocked it down while Collins scored, but then threw wildly to first, allowing Glover to move to third while Gregory was safe. Ricky Maynard grounded to second while Glover scored, and then Arthur hit a line single to left to score Gregory.

Borger came right back with three runs in their half of the inning. A single, a walk, a two-run double by Dillingham and a single by Molders accounted for the three tallies.

A walk, an unsuccessful fielder's choice on a forceout and another ground-rule double by Glover brought home two more Pampa runs in the fifth inning.

Borger Walks

Leading 9-5, Borger then apparently sewed the game up with three more runs in the bottom of the frame on four walks sandwiched around an error and a fielder's choice.

Coming up for their last at-bat, Pampa opened with a single by Maynard, Garrison then looped a Texas Leaguer into left field, good for a hit, but Maynard had held up to see if the ball would be caught and was thrown out at third, with Maynard taking second. Arthur walked, C. E. Cantrell lied out, but Stewart beat out an infield single to load the bases.

One run scored on an error, another on Glover's third straight hit, an infield single, and Steve Marburg then poked a solid single to right field for two more runs. Barron then turned thief and won the game for Borger with his great catch.

Coach Ray Howard was pleased with the team's fielding, as they made only two miscues, with special praise for outfielders Cantrell and Larry Stroud.

Good Hitting

The Pampan's batting was better than expected as they garnered 10 hits, but three were by Glover and two by leadoff man Stewart, who also picked up a walk in four trips to the plate. The pair, along with Gregory, who hit the ball hard ever, time, but was stopped by some fine fielding, were expected to be the big sticks.

Howard's hopes of finding a number two man for the pitching staff will have to await more practice sessions as none of yesterday's hurlers showed up.

Pampa will officially open its diamond season Saturday, hosting Dumas at Optimist Park at 2 p.m. Glover will start on the mound for the locals.

Harvesters Handicapped In West Texas Relays

ODESSA (Spl) — The Pampa Harvesters will face the toughest track field of the year today, and Saturday as they compete in the West Texas Relays here. With the possible exception of last week's Border Olympics, the Odessa meet is the biggest one in the state, attracting almost all of the outstanding colleges and universities that were at the Border Olympics, plus more than a hundred high schools.

Pampa, which ordinarily would be among the top high school favorites along with Abilene, Abilene Cooper, Odessa Permian, Tascosa and Odessa, has been seriously hurt by the cutting out of several events which the Harvesters have regularly picked up points in.

No Sprints

Due to the amount of teams, high school, college and university, which will compete in the different divisions Friday and Saturday, the Relays have cut out most of the dash events ordinarily found in high school track meets and stuck mainly to the relay events, living up to their name.

The only dash event on the program is the 100, with no 220, 440 or 880-yard runs. Although the loss of an 880 event will not be too harmful to the Harvesters as they have lost ace Mark Westbrook, the absence of the 220 and 440 in which Ralph Palmer, Travis Tucker and Curtis Fletcher have been picking up points fairly regularly will seriously hurt their chances.

Another blow to Pampa is the loss of one of their relay team for the third straight week. Following the loss of Westbrook, Harvester coach Norm Phillips replaced him with sophomore Jimmy Jamieson, who appeared to have clinched the berth as the Harvesters had a good third at Graham last week. However, Jamieson is involved in another school activity this weekend and is unable to compete. Eugene Madrid, another sophomore, has been pulled out of the Relays Relays in which Pampa was sending a B squad, and is running in Jamieson's place with Fletcher, three hits.

Matson Holds Record

Matson holds the shot put record in the meet and will be out again to break his own mark in that and set a new one in the discus, as he has at every meet he has entered. Martin has consistently placed in the high jump, tying the meet record at Fort Stockton with a leap of 6'3", and placing at Pos-

AN INDEPENDENT FREEDOM NEWSPAPER We believe that all men are equally endowed by their Creator, and not by any government, with the gift of freedom, and that it is every man's duty to God to preserve his own liberty and respect the liberty of others. Freedom is self-control, no more, no less.

To discharge this responsibility, free men, to the best of their ability, must understand and apply to daily living the great moral guides expressed in the Ten Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

This newspaper is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessings. For only when man understands Freedom and is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities in harmony with the above moral principles.

Candidates Asked To Set Forth Their Platforms

In the Clearing House section of today's editorial page is a letter to the editor from Kirk Duncan. Duncan believes there are many other Pampans like him, who would appreciate a statement from each of the candidates in the upcoming April 2 city election.

Riddle of Politics

It is always a matter of deep philosophic concern how people can with such calm assurance, select an ordinary man, who has never particularly distinguished himself in managing his own affairs, and set him at the head of a state to manage theirs.

For The Birds

If you've been maintaining a feeder for the neighborhood birds this winter, now is no time to stop — not if you really love the feathered free-lancers. The National Audubon Society says that the toughest time for birds is in March or April, when late winter storms strike. Birds used to finding food in feeders are less able than others to fend for themselves during hard times.

FROM EXPERIENCE

Freedom Has Nothing to Do with Finances

By GEORGE BOARDMAN, Ph. D.

An uninvited drop-in visitor from Kansas and Minnesota expressed the opinion that those who must concern themselves with finding ways and means to provide for their day to day existence, will never be free. When he fully understood our financial situation, he insisted it would still be easier for us to boycott government if our financial condition provided us with a certain amount of ease and comfort and luxury and wound up his dissertation by saying, "Well your case is the exception that proves the rule."

This young man believes employment is a form of slavery. That no man would permit himself to become employed by another man but for economic necessity. He is obviously a victim of progressive education and the Marxist - Fabian - Keynesian bogwag.

For about 22 years I was an employed person. I had no particular urge, at that time, to accept the responsibilities of trying to run a business of my own. On a couple of occasions I felt that an employer was trying to make unreasonable demands upon my time. In each case I discussed the matter with my employer and in one instance I won. In the other case, I began looking for another job and found one. At several different times, during those 22 years, my financial position would have permitted me to buy or start a business of my own.

In 1940 the urge to own my own business hit me and my financial state was at an all-time low. An acquaintance faced a decision. He had to decide whether to start anew in a new location or go to work for someone else and we talked about it. I quit my job, used my last salary check and a loan of $100 to go into business with my acquaintance. My salary had been adequate. I also was able to earn a commission and was on an expense account basis. I had just finished paying off the expenses of a long and costly illness. Economically, my actions didn't make sense. I did not permit this to influence my decision and to this day have no regrets.

Down South

By THURMAN BENSING Nashville, Tenn.

THE PURSUIT OF TRUTH

Whatever errors past administrations have made, they did not attempt systematically to withhold the truth from the American people and Congress. This is not to say that individual politicians and Presidents did not, from time to time, attempt to cover up some action or make a bad deed appear in a better light.

The Kennedy administration represents a new departure in American life, however. It is the first administration that has had one of its highest officials proclaim the right to lie. Mind you, this "right," as understood by the Kennedy administration, does not simply cover diplomatic lying to enemies, but lying to the American people it is sworn to serve.

The right to lie statement is on the record, and President Kennedy has not dissociated himself from it. It was implicitly placed on record by many officials of the New Frontier, but it was directly placed there last August by Arthur Schlesinger, Assistant Secretary of Defense, when he first said that "news is a weapon" in situations like we found ourselves in with Cuba, and later said that it is the right of a government to lie to save itself. Such remarks eroded even more the credibility of Defense Department spokesmen, which was low enough as it was.

With this statement of operating action admitted to, how can the U.S. public and Congress believe what they are told by administration spokesmen? The answer is that they cannot. Henceforth all administration statements, whether they cover foreign policy or domestic issues, must be held suspect. This is a sickening and tragic thing, but an intelligent citizen has no choice but to question what his own government spokesmen tell him.

Now, along comes Arthur Krock, respected veteran columnist of the New York Times, with an article in the March issue of Fortune Magazine taking the administration severely to task for its "management of the news." He states that this is being done with a cynicism, boldness and subtlety unparalleled in peacetime history, and further charges that it is a direct affront to Jeffersonian principles of a free press. Since Mr. Krock is a long-time personal friend of the Kennedy family, it can only be believed that he places his duty to his profession above his personal feelings.

Thus, the dispute between the New Frontier and American conservatives ceases to be merely a political dispute, a controversy over the best ways and means of governing this country. The issue between the Kennedy government and those who oppose it is a moral issue. The truth is at stake — nothing less.

Now Mr. Kennedy has had Secretary of Defense McNamara relate certain statements concerning the situation in Cuba. The secretary's magic lantern show was quite a production. But can Mr. McNamara's remarks be believed? Many citizens are disconcerting what has been told about Cuba by Mr. Kennedy and his aides. They see in Cuba a new Yalta, with a secret pact between the administration and the Soviet leadership — a pact that is implied if not set down in an exchange of diplomatic cables.

The Cuban deal — and that is the only suitable word — seems to have been: You take the ballistic missiles out of Cuba and you can keep the Cubans under your thumb. That's the net effect of last fall's crisis over Cuba. In short, Mr. Kennedy has caused the United States to back down from its historic stand against foreign intervention in this hemisphere. He has surrendered the principles of the Monroe Doctrine. But he is not telling the American people what he admitted to Nikita Khrushchev. He isn't explaining to the U.S. public the dimensions of our surrender, our collapse of principle and honorable resistance. Instead, the administration actions are cloaked in secrecy or covered over with sideshow - type press conferences which confuse people by presenting masses of irrelevant detail — an old method of covering up folly.

Every American in this time should remember the words of the Gospel: "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." NOW YOU KNOW

CLEARING HOUSE

Editor: Pampa is fortunate in having an excellent slate of candidates for the city commission. Except for those who are now in office, however, we know nothing of their platforms. Knowing what stand the various candidates would take on specific issues would make a terrific difference in the way the public will vote in the April elections.

By copy of this letter to each candidate, I am requesting each to submit a written statement to you for publication in your paper. Besides their politics in general, I would like to learn their stand on the following issues: water and sewer, downtown parking, highways, taxes, charter revisions in general, including the following: annexation, voting at large and mayor pro tempore.

You may publish this letter if you wish. J. Kirk Duncan Editor: My third cousin, "Rockfist Ironhead," was a different kind of human being than some of my relief living relatives. I did not know that when I first met him. It cost me two black eyes and an awful sore seat to find out what his philosophy of life was. His folks had come from east Texas to visit Paw and me. As soon as Rockfist and I got over our bashfulness and in a mood to talk to each other, I asked him to go hunting with me. His reply was, "I don't have a slingshot. It was then that I made a terrible mistake; I reached in my spare pocket and pulled out an extra slingshot and said, "here you can have this one."

The American Way

HOW TO NEGOTIATE WITH COMMUNISTS By Harry Browne Editor, American Progress Magazine

Americans were shocked recently to find their disarmament negotiators virtually throwing themselves at the Communists — in an effort to arrive at any kind of a nuclear test ban. Yet this has been the pattern of the entire Cold War. We offer — they refuse — we offer more — they still refuse — we offer even more yet — and still they refuse. And so it's not difficult to see where all this will end. We will eventually agree to — and uphold — a nuclear test ban that permits the Communists to cheat.

Our foreign policy is based on the assumption that we and the Communists are equal — and that we don't come to an agreement with them quickly, a nuclear holocaust will destroy the world. But if we are really equals, why must we give them wheat at subsidized prices? Why do they need our machine tools so badly? Why are we giving them foreign aid? Why do we allow their ambassadors to steal our secrets? Why do we willingly give them all of the knowledge and fruits of our productive private enterprise system — when we know communism could never produce such abundance?

TRUTH FORUM RFE Fights Communism Just Like U Thant Does

By ED DELANEY

"Tis said in the bible, when the fig tree puts forth its leaves, we know that summer is near. Another portent of spring and summer in these United States, is when we see in some newspapers, on television screens, or hear on the radio, the trite and bewhiskered phrases of the paid pitchmen for "Radio Free Europe," announcing their annual campaign for that organization of questionable character. The drive for dimes and dollars, presumably to carry the fight against communism behind the Iron Curtain, gets under way early in the year with the press agency of a circus, as it has been doing since its inception in 1950.

Question Box

Question: "What is the moral stand on Capital punishment?"

Answer: The editors of Freedom Newspapers have not been able to agree on the morality of capital punishment. One group holds that since man has a right to defend himself, he can assign this right to the state, and that execution of a murderer is a defensive measure only.

Another group holds that murder is wrong whether committed by an individual or by the state, and that the deliberate killing by the state of an individual who has previously murdered is murder for revenge rather than a defensive measure.

A minister whom we respect, but with whom we do not always agree, says the proper function of the state is to punish for violations of the Commandments, and that capital punishment is justifiable under Biblical interpretations. Some other ministers contend any killing is not justified. We believe an individual has a right to kill in defense of himself, his family or his property.

Editor's Note: We have received a question from "Concerned" in which we are asked to tell the questioner his legal rights when he owns "an undivided half interest" in a lot. We are not attorneys and are not qualified to answer such strictly legal questions.

Rabbi Hirsch Discusses 'Religion In America'

Editors Note: Louis Cassels, UPI writer on religion, is ill. During his absence, substitutes for his weekly column "Religion in America" are being written by leading clergymen of various faiths.

Religion in America
By Rabbi Richard G. Hirsch
Director, Religious Action Center
Union of American Hebrew Congregations

"The chief output of the church today is preachers' pious platitudes and laymen's lame laments over even these platitudes."

Thus, in a recent report, college students characterized the social action efforts of religious groups.

Most social action programs lack one essential element—action. Religious groups mistakenly assume that a resolution passed at a national convention constitutes action.

The truth is that resolutions have greater impact on those who discuss and approve them than on the people to whom they are supposedly addressed.

To demand the right to preach to society without becoming involved in the society to whom we preach is to act irresponsibly.

In Genesis 17:1, God prescribes for Abraham the nature of his covenant obligation—"Walk before me and be wholehearted."

The covenant made by God with all men of religion commits us to strive to walk before God not in a compartmentalized, half-hearted but in a "wholehearted" manner.

Our contemporary society, however, is "two-hearted" rather than "wholehearted."

How else can we describe the discrepancy between the unparalleled high status of religion and the unprecedented low state of personal and public morality?

"Business is business" seems to have become the new standard in economic life just as "politics is politics" seems to have become the accepted pattern of political life.

When translated into the vernacular, these two seemingly innocuous terms mean "you can't be a success and be completely ethical at the same time."

The next step is inevitably, "religion is religion."

This is already manifest in superficial religious preachments which smear a smoothing balm of fatuous faith over men's itchy consciences instead of pricking those consciences with barbs of social concern.

The primary task for religion and its institutions, then, is to point out unequivocally the injustices still rampant in our world.

In this increasingly complex age, when it is at times necessary for government to extend its influence into areas formerly considered beyond its purview, we affirm our obligation to encourage the individual to preserve and enhance this individuality by actively participating in the social issues of his life and times.

The most formative influence in the life of an individual is neither creed nor scripture nor pulpit but the over-all social, economic and political milieu. We affirm, then, that religion can best affect the character of man by seeking to affect the character of man's environment.

The fundamental division in American religious life is not between faiths but with each faith. It is the division between true religion and religiosity, between those who are activated by and those who are apathetic to religious ideals, between those who relate religion to life and those who use religion to escape from life.

We live in an era of cataclysmic social change. The fate of our society and our world are determined by the decisions made by men. Whether we will it or not, we participate in those decisions. Either we participate consciously and responsibly, or we participate by silence and acquiescence.

Religion must function as the radar of morality, employing its insight and sensitivity to identify unethical behavior and to focus on ethical targets despite the haze and maze engulfing our society.

In the process of serving democracy, religion will preserve its own integrity.

Missionary To Speak To Methodists

Rev. Edwin Le Master, one of the four Methodist missionaries to Angola who was deported last year by the Portuguese Government, will speak at the 11 a.m. service this Sunday at First Methodist Church.

Although no proof of the charges were ever made, he and the three other missionaries were imprisoned in Lisbon for 30 days before their deportation. Denial of the charges were made by the missionaries and efforts to get the Portuguese Government to make public their charges and proof of those charges, are being made by the Methodist Board of Missions in New York.

Dr. Hubert Bratcher will be conducting the 9:45 a.m. service. The special music for both services will be a violin solo, "The Holy City," by Adams, presided by Mrs. Hugh Carson. The Sanctuary Singers will sing the anthem "Now God Be Praised" by Vulpis for the 11 a.m. service.

Sunday Evening Fellowship will begin at 6 p.m. with a light supper for the entire family in Fellowship Hall. At 6:30 p.m. children, youth, and adults will separate for one hour of Fellowship group activities according to interest and needs. The Adult Fellowship will meet in the church parlor.

'Substance' Topic At Science Church Sunday Services

The deep spiritual nature of real "substance" will be the subject at Christian Science services this Sunday in the church, 901 N. Frost.

Bible readings will include these verses from 1 Corinthians (2:9-10): "As it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God."

Other scriptural selections will bring out what Christ Jesus taught about substance, and will be accompanied by this passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (p. 313): "Jesus of Nazareth was the most scientific man that ever trod the globe. He plunged beneath the material surface of things, and found the spiritual cause."

Award-Winning Film To Be Seen

A much-talked-about evangelical motion picture, "Wine of Morning," will be shown at Tascosa High School in Amarillo Saturday at 7:30 p.m. Admission will be free.

The Rev. Arthur Dresbach, pastor of the Community Church, Skellytown and spokesman for the non-denominational group sponsoring the Amarillo showing, explained that the picture is based on the novel of the same name by Dr. Bob Jones, Jr., president of Bob Jones University, Greenville, S.C.

The feature-length, color production represented the product of American colleges and universities at the recent film festival in Cannes, France. It also won all four major awards of the National Evangelical Film Foundation for producer of the year, best film, best directing, and best acting.

"Wine of Morning" is a fanciful dramatization of the life of Barabbas, on whose cross Jesus was crucified.

Bob Jones University is a fundamentalist non-denominational institution which draws nearly 3,000 students from every state and nearly 30 foreign countries. "Wine of Morning" was produced by the Division of Cinema of the University.

Fankhauser Gives Breadth To Religion

By United Press International
A small college in Tiffin, Ohio, and a Washington, D.C. sports writer-editor are giving new breadth to the world of religion.

The newsman is Henry F. Fankhauser, bowling columnist for the Washington Daily News. Just before Christmas, he thought of asking his bowling friends to save their old team shirts for overseas relief.

Before he knew it, "the dining room was packed with boxes." He called his Lutheran pastor in suburban Takoma Park, Md., who called Lutheran World Relief.

Now more than 1,000 colorful bowling shirts advertising Washington merchants are on their way to Jordan.

The Lutheran World Federation says Arab refugees there will be happy to wear them.

Tiffin, Ohio, is the home of Heidelberg College (856 students), which is preparing to send its own peace corps of teachers to Micronesia to help guide primitive Pacific Islanders into the 20th Century.

Micronesia is a U.S. trust territory of hundreds of tiny islands and atolls that cover an area bigger than the United States. Saipan, Truk, the Marshalls, Kwajalein, Eniwetok and Bikini — household words in World War II — are parts of Micronesia.

On most of the islands, the inhabitants fish, grow a few vegetables, gather coconuts and breadfruit, move by dugout canoe and use stones for coins—the only currency that has survived rule by the Japanese. Germans and Spanish in years past.

But World War II made Micronesia a youth restlessness; many moved to the larger islands, without education, to try to get jobs with the U.S. Navy or civil administration headquarters.

The goal of the United Church of Christ Board for World Ministries is to build and expand schools there (there is only one high school in all Micronesia). Heidelberg's job is to supply the teachers.

Foreign Commentary

By JOSEPH W. GRIGG
United Press International
PARIS (UPI)—The strike wave now sweeping France has presented the most serious challenge yet to President Charles de Gaulle's authority.
It very well could mushroom into the most dangerous domestic crisis he has faced.
It started at the beginning of March with what was to have been merely a "token" two-day walkout by the 200,000 workers in the nationalized coal mining industry to press demands for wage increases.
But the government reacted roughly. In a decree signed by De Gaulle himself, it requisitioned the miners.
Requisitioning of workers in state-run French industries is equivalent to drafting them into the armed services. Failure to comply is punishable with loss of jobs and pensions, fines and prison sentences.
Government blunder
Most Frenchmen now agree the requisitioning was a major psychological blunder. It infuriated the labor unions. Instead of knocking under, all three-Catholic, Socialist and Communist unions—ordered the strike to go on indefinitely in defiance of the order.
There is strong popular support in the country for the miners, whose wages have lagged considerably behind those of workers in private industry.
The strike now has spread to workers in the nationalized gas, electricity, natural gas, iron mining and railroad industries, who also have their own wage claims to press.
All told, some 700,000 workers in state-run industry are affected in sympathy walkouts of indefinite or limited duration. There are signs the unrest may spread to private industry too.
Halfway offer
The miners, whose monthly pay averages only about $130, are demanding an immediate 11 per cent boost. The government has offered only 5.77 per cent, spread over the whole year.
The government has not yet tried to enforce the requisition order. If it does so, by arresting key workers for refusal to comply, the unions almost certainly will call a nationwide general strike.
Close associates say De Gaulle is itching for a showdown. They say he will precipitate it in about two weeks when the nation begins to feel seriously the pinch of coal, gas and electricity shortages.
They say he hopes this will put public opinion behind him when he tries to break the labor unions.

The Lighter Side
Monumental Argument

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Crises come and crises go, but monuments are always with us. Year in, year out, I suppose that monuments are the largest single cause of friction in the capital, give or take cocktail parties.

Right now we are witnessing a grim tug-of-war over the statue of Gen. John A. Rawlins, who spent a glorious term as secretary of war during the Grant administration.

One group has started a campaign to move the statue to Wyoming, where Rawlins once sojourned. This has stimulated a rival campaign to move it to Illinois, where he was born.

Anyone who has ever seen the statue might be pardoned for suspecting that the campaign to move it to Wyoming was instigated by Illinois, and vice versa. But no. The proposal to move it to Illinois originated in Indiana.

Without getting any more deeply involved in that, let us move on to the conflict between the proposed memorial to President Madison and the projected annex to the Library of Congress.

One group wants to build the annex on a plot of land that Congress recently acquired across the street from the library. Another group wants to use that space for the Madison Memorial.

Rep. William B. Widnall, R-N.J., an annex man himself, had reprinted in the Congressional Record this week a compromise solution put forth by one of my colleagues, John McKelway of the Washington Evening Star.

Under the McKelway plan, a big hole would be dug at the disputed site and in it would be placed the controversial $10-million aquarium the Congress approved last year.

Above the aquarium would be erected the library annex. McKelway recommends that the annex have glass floors, "so that bored librarians could watch the fish."

Over the annex would be placed the proposed new FBI building, which also has created a dispute, and above that would stand the old sandstone columns removed from the east front of the Capitol.

The columns, a source of still another controversy, would support a parking lot for the Supreme Court. And rising from it would be the Madison Memorial.

The entire structure would then be crowned by the controversial Franklin Roosevelt Memorial. McKelway suggested that such

Wall Street In Review

NEW YORK (UPI) — Ralph Rotnem of Harris, Upham & Co. says reactions, such as the one we have seen in recent weeks, are perfectly healthy developments even in strong bull markets.

The important thing to observe on such moves is the character of the leadership, he counsels. "So far there is nothing to indicate that there is anything unusual in the recent behavior that would suggest more than a normal correction."

Alexander Hamilton Institute says the market may "dribble down" to a selling climax (a heavy volume drop broken immediately by a sharp recovery, also on heavy volume) before substantial buying by institutional and large investors again makes the appearance we look for.

Colby & Co. of Boston says it has been its opinion right along that the 635 low of December in the industrial average will not soon be penetrated and that if this is the case, new highs could be achieved this year. An eventual advance of 100 points is possible "and we continue to believe that the odds favor the buy-on-weakness policy we have advocated since the October lows."

Spear & Staff, a leading advisory service, would continue a policy of caution in the market pending further technical developments. Meanwhile, its investment advisor, Roger E. Spear, recommends a "spring cleaning" of investment portfolios.

EXPANDING CADETS
OLD SAYBROOK, Conn. (UPI) — The Junior Naval Cadets of America Tuesday appealed for old Navy uniforms for the crew of its ship, the Fulton.

"The uniforms were needed "to help meet the needs of the expanding ship and rapidly expanding cadets," it said.

EVERY ONE WHO IS SICK

needs this book

to heal him

You can find your way back to health if you will prayerfully follow the instructions contained in Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy. In this great book you will find a full explanation of the method of Christian Science healing.

Christian Science holds unwaveringly to the truth in the first chapter of Genesis that "God saw every thing that He had made, and behold, it was very good." Thus Christian Science restores the invalid to health.

Science and Health may be read or examined, together with the Bible, at any Christian Science Reading Room. Or it may be purchased at $3.
