Khrushchev Says 120 Rockets Ready To Be Launched At U. S.

Britain's Chance In 'Market' Said Slim

BRUSSELS (UPI)—Top officials at Common Market headquarters said Saturday Britain's chances of joining the six-nation European Common Market are now "extremely slim."
Informed sources said the officials were bitter over France's proposal for the British bid and there was little hope President Charles de Gaulle would reverse his granite stand.
West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer flies to Paris Sunday for talks with De Gaulle but it was doubted in most political circles he would be able to ease the De Gaulle opposition.
Walter Hallstein, president of the executive commission of the European Economic Community (EEC), better known as the Common Market, was reported to believe that negotiations with Britain could have ended successfully in mid-March.
Pressure Applied
Pressure was being applied to De Gaulle by its partner, Germany, Italy, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg, said by the United States, but without apparent success.
The United States, which is keen on having Britain enter the trading group apparently had little hope of changing De Gaulle's mind before Jan. 25 when the negotiations resume.
In London hopes of entry appeared to be dwindling and government leaders were casting around for an alternative. Britons were bitter at De Gaulle for blocking membership even though agreement to meet again Jan. 28 gave Britain a temporary lease on life.
But the five partners will keep trying to restart the negotiations which will shape Europe politically for decades to come.
The first attempt may come during Adenauer's visit to Paris. Attempts were being made to get Adenauer to use his prestige and personal friendship with De Gaulle to save the talks.
Since Adenauer himself is not a warm partisan of British entry it was doubtful, even if he tries, that he will succeed in changing De Gaulle's mind.
Searching Treaty
Meanwhile, France's partners were combing the Treaty of Rome, which set up the six, to find ways of keeping the door ajar to Britain.
Some French political weaknesses had already been pointed out by the other five. These include Algeria, which although now an independent nation, is still being treated as part of metropolitan France as far as the Common Market goes.

Legally the partners could demand France treat Algeria like any other foreign country. This, however, would probably hurt Algeria more than France.
Another Achilles heel might be the 15 former French colonies in Africa. They are slated to get the lion's share of $800 million in financial and technical assistance from the Common Market in the next five years.

Communists Fan Demonstration Into Bloody Riot

BOGOTA (UPI)—A labor demonstration against the high cost of living was fanned by Communist agitators into a riot which raged through the night, ending Saturday with one dead, 19 wounded, 180 arrested and 43 automobiles burned.
The dead man was identified as Ernesto Michelsen Uribe, a cousin of Alfonso Lopez Michelsen, head of the liberal revolutionary movement.
Police, accompanied by riot dogs, continued patrol downtown streets Saturday.
Most of the burned cars belonged to government officials or congressmen, and were parked outside the national capitol.
Labor leaders who had organized the demonstration had given orders against violence, but the crowd of 30,000 was soon whipped into a mob by fire-brand speeches from Communists and other radicals, including some congressmen.
Union leaders helped restore order by urging all trade union members to move out the south end of the central Bolivar Plaza, and all Communists out the north end. Most of the demonstrators went south, but truncheon-swinging mounted police fell on both groups.
The two largest labor unions of Colombia, the Workers' Union and the Workers' Confederation, had called the demonstration to demand salary readjustments and price controls on consumer goods in the wake of the recent devaluation of the peso.
A pro-Communist congressman, Luis Villar, jumped to the speaker's stand and threw down the labor banners, which were destroyed by pro-Communist elements in the crowd. Other radical leftists seized the microphones.
The labor leaders tried to light back but appeared to be outnumbered and poorly organized.
The mounted police, riding their horses at full gallop through the crowds and swinging the truncheons at heads like polo players, made no effort to discriminate between pro and anti-Communist elements.

Ordinance On Paving Work To Be Read

Second reading of an ordinance setting Feb. 19 as the date for a public hearing on the proposed S. Barnes St. paving project will top the agenda of the City Commission when it meets Tuesday night in City Hall.
There also is the likelihood that some phases of the Forrest & Cotton Engineering report on Pampa's water and sewer problems will be discussed.
City officials have scheduled a meeting with representatives of the engineering firm for 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at which time they will discuss with city engineers the possibilities of the city furnishing water for water flooding operations in the oil fields adjacent to Pampa.
At 7:30 p.m. Wednesday a public hearing will be held in the Commission Room at City Hall. The complete report of the consulting engineers on Pampa's water and sewer needs in the years ahead will be discussed. Explanations will be emphasized with illustrated slides.
Essentially up for discussion at the Wednesday night meeting will be the engineers' proposed solution for Pampa's problems brought on by financial obligations under the Canadian River Municipal Water Authority.

Sleet, Snow, Cold Strike Into An Ice-Crusted Texas

INSTALLATION NIGHT — Bob Price, right, newly-installed president of the Top O' Texas Kiwanis Club, places the past president's pin on the lapel of Bill Fry, outgoing proxy of the club, as Lt. ### 'Psycho-Politicians' Cited By Kiwanians' Speaker

Master psycho-politicians with the Communist touch are being washed the American people and hilling them into a state of non-resistance.
That was the warning issued by Dan Ammerman, Amarillo radio and television commentator as he addressed a banquet audience at installation ceremonies of the Top O' Texas Kiwanis Club in the Starlight Room of Coronado Inn Friday night.
Ammerman said the psycho-politicians have many methods they are using on Americans, but the principal line is to convince them that to resist the threat of war, to protect one's country, and to preserve rights of the individual, is just plain stupid.
They are trying to convince you that it would be easier to give up," he said.
Ammerman asked his listeners to stop and think just how many individual rights they had given up in the last five years.
"We are being taught not to resist, not to preserve our patriotism, but that it would be easier to just give up," Ammerman said.
And then he added:
"A man who gives up a little liberty for a little security, doesn't deserve any liberty at all."
Lt. Gov. Arthur Aftergut of Pampa, representing Division Six of the Texas-Oklahoma District of Kiwanis International, installed the following 1963 officers of the Top O' Texas Kiwanis Club:
Robert Price, president; William Fry, immediate past president; W. A. Patton, first vice president; Paul Musgrave, second vice president; C. R. Howard, secretary; and H. J. Johnson, treasurer.
Also installed were the following (See SPIAKER, Page 3)

American Defense Officials Think Red China To Test 2 A-Bombs In '63

TOKYO (UPI)—American defense officials believe Communist China has built two atomic bombs and will test them sometime before the end of the year, the major Tokyo newspaper, Mainichi reported Saturday.
The Mainichi Shimbun said U.S. officials made the disclosure to the Japanese government at a meeting of the joint U. S.-Japan Security Consultative Committee in Tokyo.
The Japan self defense agency denied the Mainichi report after it was published but the newspaper's editors said their information was correct and refused to withdraw the story.
Mainichi said American military men did not appear greatly alarmed over the Chinese acquisition of elementary atomic explosives.
American officials were not immediately available for comment.
Another Tokyo newspaper, the Tokyo Shimbun, last week predicted Chinese atomic tests during 1963 and quoted sources in (See AMERICAN, Page 3)

Temperature Falls To Far Below Zero

Sleet and snow, whipped by 40-mile-an-hour winds, struck deep into Texas Saturday. It was the worst winter storm of the season and the second within a week.
Temperatures tumbled far below zero in the Texas Panhandle before dawn Saturday, and stayed there. A crust of ice coated most of North Texas.
The semi-tropical Rio Grande Valley was warned to grid for its second major freeze within a week. Temperatures dropped to the mid 20s there last Sunday.
At least two deaths in the state were blamed on the weather. One man froze to death.
Although the snowfall was light, the Department of Public Safety said strong gusty winds were whipping the snow through the air in near-blizzard conditions.
Snow Covered Ice
The snow covered a dangerous ice crust which had formed earlier in North Texas, making driving extremely hazardous.

After a Saturday on which the mercury climbed only to 7 above, Pampa was in for a low early this morning of 5 to 10 below zero.
The forecasters late last night saw only a little relief from the cold, predicting that today's maximum might reach near 20 this afternoon.
Saturday morning's low was 3 below at 6 a.m. It climbed over the zero mark at 10 a.m., but the bright sunshine had little effect on the thermometer.
The unofficial reading stood at zero last midnight. Clear skies were forecast again for today.

'Cuba Is Not Convenient Rocket Base'

By JOSEPH B. FLEMING
United Press International
BERLIN (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev said Saturday as many as 120 Russian missiles are ready to be launched at the United States in case of war.
"The American imperialists know that we withdrew 40 rockets from Cuba," he told East German steel workers at Eisenhuettenstadt. "But we have set up 80, probably even 120 rockets in other places."
"Cuba is not the most convenient place to base rockets," the Communist leader said in his most anti-Western speech since he arrived for the East German Communist Party Congress last Monday. "We have better places than Cuba."
Earlier, Khrushchev said the United States had been poised to invade Cuba with 300,000 men but was deterred by the "powerful club" of Soviet military might.
Khrushchev urged his audience at the Eisenhuettenstadt steel mills to work harder for Communism. It was another in his series of speeches and personal appearances to raise sagging East German morale. But the campaign suffered a setback Saturday when two more Communist border guards escaped to the West.
"The United States wanted to use 300,000 men against Cuba," Khrushchev said. "They barred their teeth like wolves, but still did not bite. Has American imperialism lost its appetite? No, but we are a powerful club."
Khrushchev, whose speech was reported by ADN, the East German news agency, skipped the fifth session of the East German Communist Party Congress Saturday and traveled 60 miles east of Berlin to Eisenhuettenstadt, which until recently was named Stalinstadt.
He was accompanied by East German party chief Walter Ulbricht.
Usual Themes
Khrushchev's speech stressed his usual themes that Soviet armed strength checked alleged Western aggressive plans, and it repeated his usual urgings to Communist workers to outproduce the West and win a peaceful victory over capitalism.
"It is our fortune that we have our own economic potential and have created the armed forces which will bring the imperialists to reason," he said.
"Imperialism has a wolf's appetite. But its stomach is too small to swallow us," he added.
While the Communist leaders were visiting the steel city, the second of the day's two escapes across the Berlin city border took place. One border guard slipped through unnoticed, but the other risked a hail of machinegun bullets from his former comrades.

Call Issued For Lions Minstrel Chorus Members

First call was issued Saturday for Pampans to enlist their talents in the chorus of the 1963 Lions Club Minstrel show.
Both men and women chorus members are urged to attend the first meeting to be held in the Music Room of Pampa Junior High School at 8 p.m. next Tuesday, according to Bill McComas, in charge of putting the chorus together.
McComas also stated that specialty acts will be welcomed to the meeting to arrange for auditions.
This year's minstrel show, sponsored by the Noon Lions Club, will be staged in the Pampa Junior High Auditorium on Friday and Saturday nights, Feb. 22 and 23.
Dudley Steele is general chairman for the annual production and the show will again be directed by Max Pressnell.

For This Year, Texas Is Boasting Three Budget Recommendations

By VERNON SMYLIE
Texas News Syndicate

AUSTIN — If the reports you have been reading lately about Texas' budget situation sound like they are loaded with double talk, rest assured.

They aren't. It might more rightly be called triple talk.

For this year the Texas Legislature is confronted not with one, or with two, but with three proposed budgets for operating the state government during the two-year period starting next September 1.

You might figure there would be one state department or division to calculate the State's financial needs.

Actually, there are two. One is the Executive Budget

Office, attached to the Governor's Office, which formulates a budget proposal in keeping with the views of the executive branch of state government.

The other is the Legislative Budget Board which, as the name suggests, is an instrumentality of the Legislature.

Both submit budget recommendations.

The reason there are three budgets this year is because both outgoing Governor Price Daniel and incoming Governor John Connally formulated executive budgets.

If it seems that Texas might now be over-budgeted, it probably is due to the fact that, for many years, the state government was under-budgeted. In fact, budget-making was long a helter-skelter, piecemeal process. Finally, in 1949, the Legislature established the Legislative Budget Board. Two years later, it enacted legislation requiring the governor to submit his separate budget estimate.

The Legislative Budget Board is composed of the lieutenant governor, the speaker of the House, four Senate members appointed by the lieutenant governor and four House members appointed by the speaker.

A budget director is appointed by the Board. It's his job to whip a budget into shape. The finished product then is placed before the regular legislative session along with companion appropriation bills or the consideration of the entire Legislature.

The two budget agencies — the Legislative Budget Board and the Executive Budget Office — work closely on some phases of their budgetary drafting. For example, they ordinarily devise co-ordinated instructions for the various divisions of the state government and, where it is appropriate, hold joint hearings.

In making their recommendations, though, they go their own ways.

Usually, the Legislative Budget Board's recommendations are held tighter than those of the Governor's Office. That probably is directly traceable to the fact that the Legislature must find the revenue to pay the bill and, therefore, is more economy-minded. The economy-mindedness of the Legislature shows up especially in the Legislative Budget Board's proposals in years of severe financial stress.

For these reasons, new programs are more apt to appear in the Executive Budget Office offering than in the budget proposal coming from the Legislative Budget Board.

budget offices — and as many as three official budget proposals — might seem like a useless duplication of facilities, effort, and service.

But the arrangement is productive of a blend of economy and far-sightedness that can be extremely helpful in devising a comprehensive state program.

Too, it offers a handy double-check on the level of all proposed state expenditures.

Jack Lemmon Finds Popularity Can Be A Double-Edged Sword

By JOSEPH FINNIGAN
UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Jack Lemmon, one of Hollywood's most sought after actors, finds that box office appeal and popularity can be a double-edged sword if not handled properly.

In the past two years, Lemmon has appeared in only two pictures, other commitments having been delayed. Now all his contracts are coming home to roost and he'll be busy for the next two years.

"Things have piled up on me because of postponements," said Lemmon, who now is appearing opposite Shirley Maclaine in "Irma La Douce."

"I went to England twice and sat around for two months waiting for a picture to start. It hasn't begun yet. I hate that delay."

Such delay, which forces an actor to jump from one picture to another in quick succession when producers decide to film at about the same time, is harmful to a performer's career, Lemmon said.

"I like to work but I don't want to do three or four pictures back to back," he said. "You get into competition with yourself."

Credits Directors
Lemmon, who will be 38 next month, has been in Hollywood nine years working in pictures which established him as one of the industry's finest dramatic and comedy stars. Like all actors of substance, he credits much of his success to advice from good directors.

"I think the biggest breaks I've had have been with director Billy Wilder," Lemmon said while sipping a pre-lunch martini. "I worked with him in 'The Apartment' and 'Some Like It Hot.'"

They were my most popular films, along with 'Mr. Roberts.' No matter how talented an actor may be, he doesn't get choice parts unless his name has box office magnetism.

Those who are in successful pictures are sought by producers who can obtain financial backing on the strength of a cast which includes actors such as Lemmon.

"I get offered a lot of scripts," Lemmon said. "And I would not get offered them if people had thought I was a good actor but didn't bring in any money at the boxoffice."

Speculation over the emergence of Red China as a nuclear power comes at a time when Japan's role as supporter of the non-Communist world is undergoing a thorough restudy, both in Tokyo and in Washington.

During the last year there have been repeated hints from highly placed Japanese officials that Japan's defense policies would have to be revised if China built atomic weapons.

Mainichi said the security committee also discussed in detail reports on Red China's nuclear arms capabilities.

It said the committee discussed a report from the Japanese defense agency that Red China has built four nuclear reactors, one of them near Peking and another in Chungking in Western China.

It said U. S. officials stressed that the two atomic bombs were experimental and that it would be at least 10 years before Peking could develop nuclear bombs as a practical weapon.

Good Year Predicted For Agriculture In Panhandle

CANADIAN (Sp) — Another good year is in prospect for farmers and ranchers in the northeast area of the Texas Panhandle, following an active year in 1962 by the Canadian Production Credit Association.

In a report of its 1962 activities, Erbin L. Crowell of Canadian, general manager of the Canadian PCA, said that 1963 should be another good year.

"Wheat pastures are good, and prospects are bright for a good wheat crop," Crowell stated. The outlook for the availability of credit to qualified operators in the agricultural financing institution's six county area is also good for 1963, Crowell said.

The home-owned and operated Canadian Production Credit Association reported one of its heaviest years in history for credit demands in 1962. The association had a loan volume of $7,038,543, an increase of nearly $500,000 over the 1961 volume of $6,560,757.

Assets in 1962 totaled $3,833,996 and net worth was $728,852. The association is owned and operated in its entirety by 506 farmer and rancher stockholders - borrowers in Gray, Hemphill, Lipscomb, Ochiltree, Roberts and Wheeler counties.

Since its organization in January, 1934, the Canadian Production Credit Association has provided more than $79,018,287 in agricultural credit. Loan funds are received through the sale of bonds on the nation's commercial money market by the Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston, discount and supervisory agency for all 37 PCA groups in Texas.

"We have but one reason for our existence," Crowell explained, "and that is to provide a dependable source of agricultural credit in our area at the lowest possible cost."

"The 1963 work program of the Publicity and General Information Committee of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce was outlined at a meeting Friday afternoon in the Court House Cafe.

Members were urged to publicize Pampa at every opportunity through local, state, and national news media.

Manager E. O. Wedgeworth reviewed the Chamber's various pamphlets, brochures, maps and publicity material and asked that members consider changes and improvements for new editions to be printed this year.

An effort also will be made by the committee to have Pampa included on the Amarillo TV stations' weather reports and forecasts.

Committee members are Art Smallen, Irl Smith, Aubrey Jones, Jim McCune, H. H. Huntley, Coy Palmer, Tex DeWesse, Gene Holter, Jim Christy, John Callarman, John Gentry, Jack Gould, Jack Imel and Paul Keim. Chairman is Bill Power.

This year the message will be in the form of a 35mm slide show with taped narration; produced in Pampa by the Credit Bureau in co-operation with local merchants. This will give a new approach to obtaining "The Good Things of Life—on Credit."

NATIONAL JAYCEE WEEK
JANUARY 20-26

Jaycee Week Is Observed

Jaycee Week, the annual anniversary observance of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, will be observed January 20-26 in Pampa. The week celebrates the founding of the Junior Chamber of Commerce movement in 1915 in St. Louis, the brainchild of Henry Giessenbier Jr., who called together members of a St. Louis dancing club to form the Young Men's Progressive Civic Association. The name was later changed to the Junior Citizens, starting the abbreviation "J.C."

In 1918 the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce invited the Junior Citizens to become affiliated as the Junior Chamber of Commerce. The affiliation was so popular that the St. Louis plan soon spread to many cities in the nation. The Jaycees, however, are no longer an arm of the Chamber of Commerce. Though the similarity in name remains, only the aim of civic betterment is similar. The movement spread so fast that within a year the Junior Chamber of Commerce had 24 cities. The organization has more than a million members and 350,000 member chapters. Junior Chamber is the world's third largest club, next to the U. S. Junior Chamber in Tulsa, Okla. Texas Jaycee clubs with a total membership of 100,000 are invited to join in the community service projects.

History Of Pampa Jaycees

Sometime between October, 1929, and the summer of 1930, a group of young business men in Pampa undertook the organizing of a Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Over the past thirty-one or two years of existence, the Pampa Jaycee organization has served the Top of Texas with community development-type projects.

Energetic young leaders have been the by-products of these projects and have provided the community with able civic leadership that has made Pampa what it is today.

The Pampa club was the first Jaycee organization in the Panhandle and was responsible for the organizing of the Amarillo club and other area clubs.

At present, the Jaycees club stands 80 strong with a long list of committees and projects in 1962, are:

The Pampa Jaycees

The Jaycee-ettes, an organization of wives of members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, was chartered here in March, 1952.

The club boasts 26 members. Its purpose is to assist the Jaycees in community development.

Bosses Night Banquet

The "Bosses' Night" banquet, sponsored by the Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce, will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, January 24, in the Starlight Room of Coronado Inn.

The annual event will be highlighted by the naming of the outstanding young man in Pampa for the "distinguished service award" for outstanding community service. The award is given annually as a means of recognition for an individual who has distinguished himself in the community. An award will be presented to the "spoke" award recipient who has a requirement of membership.

that within a year the U.S. Junior Chamber of Commerce was formed with 24 cities represented.

The organization has reached such proportions that today there are more than 3,700 chapters in the national Jaycees with a quarter million members. The Jaycee movement has also reached to 90 nations and territories with over 350,000 members in more than 4,000 chapters.

Junior Chamber International, the world's third largest international club, maintains headquarters in Miami Beach, Fla.

The U. S. Jaycee headquarters is in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Texas Jaycees now boast 241 clubs with a total of 11,528 young men participating in the Junior Chamber movement.

All young men 21-35 years of age and of sound moral character are invited to join the Jaycees and gain in leadership training through community service.

THAT GOVERNMENT SHOULD BE OF LAWS RATHER THAN OF MEN

THAT EARTH'S GREAT TREASURE LIES IN HUMAN PERSONALITY;

AND THAT SERVICE TO HUMANITY IS THE BEST WORK OF LIFE.

JUNIOR TENNIS — Sponsored by the Jaycees for boys and girls aged 12-17. More than thirty Pampa and area boys and girls participated with winners going to Wichita Falls for the state meet. Included is an instructional clinic shown above.

CAREER CLINIC — Co-sponsored with Chamber of Commerce and Altrusa Club each year for high school students. Pictured is a Jaycee, J. C. Hopkins, conducting a forum relating to his profession, florist.

Nerve-Wracked Executives Are Taking Up Music Now

By PATRICIA MC CORMACK

United Press International New York (UPI) — If the rat race draws hubby's nerves taut as a violin string, maybe he should hop on the bandwagon once or twice a month.

Music-making executives nationwide are tooting flutes, tooting trumpets and fiddling fiddles after hours. The musical activity is an escape hatch for creativity they can't use on the job.

In one gray-flannel-suited commuter town near Manhattan, such a group calls itself "No friends of Music."

Nevermind how it sounds, you see. The important thing: Make music.

Even doctors are doing it. In Los Angeles, there's a doctors' symphony. St. Louis, Boston, Brooklyn and New York City also have musical medics.

In some areas, the musicians are banded together in free-form community orchestras. The Cleveland Heights Suburban Symphony and the Central Utah Symphony are just two of the all-community groups in which businessmen team up musically with all types of citizens.

The National Recreation Association, in a report on the executives who are mixing Beethoven and blues after hours, also cited:

—The Floaters. This group of New York advertising and publishing executives banded together originally for sailing. But they soon found they had more in common when blowing hot notes.

—The Minneapolis "Sewer Rats." This group of businessmen, tradesmen and mechanics is noted for its roaring ragtime at night. They met first in one another's homes. But when sessions lasted throughout the night, their wives banished them to a downtown office.

—The Fellows Club, in Pittsburgh, is dedicated to relaxation after a hard week's work. The "fellows" mix jokes, singing and tiger rag. While other members whistle, stomp, clap and eat—usually all at the same time—the musical members blow away their cares with the blues.

The association said the music making satisfied the urge to be creative and is especially helpful for those having little chance for self expression in work.

The musical activity might signal an advance of civilization.

As Jascha Heifetz once said: "When people come together to play music as they do to play bridge, civilization will have taken its longest stride forward since the beginning of time."

Proper Range Use Important To Gray County's Economy

By VAN MILLS

Range Conservationist, Pampa

There are approximately 390,000 acres of rangeland in the Gray County Soil Conservation District. Income from this rangeland plays an important role in the economy of Gray County. Much of this rangeland can be improved through proper range use and other range conservation practices.

Proper range use is a conservation term applied to native rangeland when it is being properly grazed. Properly grazed rangeland will have about 50 per cent of the current year's growth left at the end of the grazing season. The end of the grazing season is usually the last of March. It takes about one half of the leaf growth to maintain a good root system and to maintain a good ground cover to get the rainfall into the ground.

Old timers say that the grass draws use to have grasses that came up to the saddle stirrups. Many of these draws are now raw gullies with little or no grass. One old timer said he used to ride across the plains following a big rain and the whole country would like a lake. The grass would hold the water on the land until most of it soaked into the ground. Today most of the water runs off into the natural lakes and draws.

Rangeland that has been properly used will produce more pounds of beef per acre, will lease for more money, and will sell for more money.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Payne visited in Amarillo Sunday with V. T. Glenn.

Mrs. Jack Riley has been elected president of the Pioneer Study Club, to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. E. L. Sitter who resigned because of the serious illness of her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Waltz and family had as guests in their home recently Mr. Waltz's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Waltz, of Trafalgar, Ind.

Steven Waltz was honored with a party on his ninth birthday, recently, by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Waltz. Attending were his cousins, Sunny, Donald and Cynthia Waltz of Trafalgar, Ind.

Mets Have Players Other Clubs Would Grab Quickly—Stengel

WELCOME TO THE CLUB—Gil Hodges crowns Ted Schreiber with his new Mets' cap in front of a drawing of the club's new home, municipal stadium at Flushing Meadows.

By CASEY STENDEL
New York Mets' Manager
As told to HARRY GRAYSON

If the Mets aren't a better team in 1963, I'll be surprised. After all, that shouldn't be so difficult inasmuch as we lost 120 games while winning only 40 in 1962.

I must say, though, that I've been surprised before. In fact, there were numerous times last season when I was shocked.

When you start from scratch, as the new New York club of the National League did last year, it takes a lot of experimenting before you can figure out the players who are going to help you.

The best proof that the Mets will be improved is the fact that there are several players that any club would grab right now. I mean pitchers like Roger Craig, Al Jackson and Jay Hook. Or an outfielder like Jim Hickman, who never played a game in the majors until he came to the Mets. A lot of clubs would like to have Frank Thomas, not to mention Charlie Neal, still quite an all-round player in the infield.

It is my opinion that we picked up some useful athletes in trades and promising youngsters in the minor league draft.

Dedicating the magnificent new Flushing Meadows stadium in Queens in midseason can't miss giving my men a lift.

This trip we at least have a definite line on what we possess. I'm looking for Galen Cisco to round out a Big Four in the pitching department. We obtained Cisco, who is right-handed and 21, from the Boston Red Sox last season and his fast ball and control was impressive beating the Chicago Cubs toward the end of the campaign.

The other members of the Big Four are, of course, Craig, Jackson and Hook with Craig Anderson and Ken McKenzie in relief.

Wynn Hawkins, a forkball right-hander, was purchased from Cleveland at my request. I recall him winning four straight breaking in with the Indians in 1960. A good recommendation is that the Yankees sought his contract. Ray Davaul was sorely handicapped last year by a nerve injury in the palm of his hand which has cleared up. Larry Foss was helpful as a fireman.

The records of Larry Bearnarth and Tom Belcher, college bonus right-handers with Syracuse, were nothing to write home about, but the Chiefs were worse in the International League than we were in the National. Left-handed Bob Schmidt and right-handed Dave Tatum, whiz kids drafted from D leagues, could be New York pitching stars of the future.

Norm Sherry, obtained from the Dodgers, figures to do the bulk of the catching. We also have Choo Coleman, Sammy Taylor and Chris Cannizzaro.

Ted Schreiber was our number one draft choice out of a list of 400, which gives you a fine idea of what we think of this baby-faced, 24-year-old second baseman who batted .277 for Seattle.

Still it will be quite all right with me if Larry Burright shows the early foot for us that he did at second base for the Dodgers a year ago, because I'm going to start him at shortstop, which is where this accomplished play maker was deployed when he broke into organized baseball. This will switch Neal to third base.

Hot Rod Kanehl, Elio Chacon and Pumpsie Green, the latter obtained from the Red Sox, are versatile infielders.

Tim Harkness is a fancy Dan at first base who never had much chance with the Dodgers. Gil Hodges will go as far as the knee which was operated on will take him.

We also have Marvellous Marv Throneberry, but he could become an outfielder if Richie Ashburn and Gene Woodling insist upon retiring. Their departure would leave us with three right-handed hitting outfielders, Thomas, Hickman and Joe Christopher. Two new ones, Ron Hunt, a Texas League All-Star, and Dick Smith, who hit 19 home runs and stole 30 bases for Omaha, also bat right-handed.

There is one consolation for a ballplayer on a club set up like the Mets are now.

There are no super stars, so a player with a lot of hustle can take just a little talent a long way.

SWC Honors Bennie Lenox

DALLAS (UPI) — Bennie Lenox, the Texas AM sharpshooter, who has paced the Aggies to the best season record among Southwest Conference basketball teams, has been named conference "athlete of the month" and will be honored at a luncheon here Jan. 29.

Lenox' selection was made by the Dallas chapter of the Southwest Conference Lettermen's Association and he became the first Aggie to receive the award.

Halas Backs Rozelle's Probe

NEW YORK (UPI)—Commissioner Pete Rozelle's defense of his handling of the national Football League gambling investigation received support Saturday from Owner-Coach George Halas of the Chicago Bears, the man who first made the investigation public.

"I think Rozelle is doing an excellent job in his handling of this investigation," Halas said in a telephone conversation from Chicago.

It was the 67-year-old Halas who first disclosed that Rozelle was looking into reported "undesirable associations" of certain members of the Bears—an investigation that since has spread to include members of the Detroit Lions and "two or three other teams" and Friday to gambling charges against Baltimore owner Carroll Rosenbloom.

Halas declined to predict what the net result of the probe will be.

"Nothing has been proven yet," he said. "I'd rather wait until Rozelle completes his investigation before saying anything further."

Rozelle acknowledged that the lack of information being released by his office on the investigation "has led some people to ask if we are covering up."

Rozelle insisted he has "no intention of covering up anything."

"We fully realize the importance of taking action after the full development of facts," he said. "Should the facts justify action at the conclusion of our investigation, action will be taken and announced."

However, the commissioner insisted that he could not carry on his investigation "in the full glare of publicity" because "publicity and investigations just do not go together."

Jim Beatty Would Have Professional Administration Of Amateur Athletics

By MURRAY OLDERMAN
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
LOS ANGELES (NEA) — Maybe you, the public, thought you had a stake in the tit-for-tat taffy pull between the Amateur Athletic Union and the National Collegiate Athletic Association's splinter party, the United States Track and Field Federation.

Forget it.

Even if it does threaten to disrupt American plans for the 1964 Olympic Games in Tokyo.

"The public," hmpphed Vic Kelley, a spokesman for the NCAA, "they don't know and they don't care. The public doesn't support the Olympic program. The colleges do."

Kelley, who's on a leave of absence from his normal duties selling the University of California at Los Angeles' athletics, pointed out that the colleges solicit Olympic contributions in connection with their normal season ticket applications for sports like football and baseball. He even got $500 from sports writers in the area, which is really hard sell.

"Why," he asked, "can't the AAU people do the same when they run their meets? They do nothing."

The NCAA, of course, is aligned on the side of the Federation or IFF.

The embroilment started because a lot of athletes — Jim Beatty among them — didn't like the way our American team was handled for the Olympic Games in Rome. And the AAU was and is a big factor on the Olympic level.

"The AAU," charged Kelley, "was totally incompetent in maintaining a progressive program through two decades. They let the club program for graduate athletes deteriorate. We were depending on schools to train Olympic athletes. So the schools figured they should have a bigger voice in the amateur program."

Beatty, winner of the Sullivan Award, the highest honor the AAU can grant, agreed that some change was mandatory. But not to the point of a clear cleft.

"The initial gripe was to motivate improvement," said America's greatest miler, "but I personally don't think that collegiate track coaches merit equal voice. What we need is more clubs on the graduate level. By 1968, 90 per cent of our Olympic team will come from club members."

What's his suggestion?

"They have to professionalize the administration of amateur athletics," answered the chipper insurance adjuster.

O horrors! O Avery Brundage! Man mentioned money.

"The AAU," explained Beatty, has few paid officials. We have to get away from independent meet promoters making all the money. Let professional staffs run the meets and there'd be plenty of profit to pay salaries and insure a good program."

Beatty profers the possibility of a six-man board as the governing agency for amateur athletics — three from the AAU, two from the colleges, one from high schools.

Beatty is loathe to get into the squabble because both sides have shed any bashfulness about playing dirty pool.

Like the University of Southern California track is the best one in this track-happy area for practice. USC gladly let the unattached distance men use its facilities. But there was a time last fall, when the battle reached a crescendo, that the NCAA asked schools to limit their facilities to club runners.

Outdoors In Texas

By WILLIAM CLAYTON
United Press International

Outdoorsmen will hear more in the coming weeks about Gov. John Connally's proposal to combine the Game and Fish Commission with the State Parks Board, but already a bill has been filed that would do the merger.

Sportsmen have long heard of the proposal — it comes up frequently in legislative circles from year to year. But this year the most forceful effort yet is being made to put the measure through.

The House bill filed for introduction is sponsored by Rep. James Cotten, Weatherford. Cotten is a leading economy member of the lower chamber, and feels the merger will help the state run two big bureaus with little more than the money needed for one of them.

Only 3 Member Board
Cotten's bill would create the "Game, Fish, and Parks Department," to be administered by a "Game, Fish and Parks Commission" of three members. This would reduce the combined membership of the two current boards from 15 members to three. The Game and Fish Commission now has nine members and the parks board six members.

The Cotten measure would have the governor name the three board members, to terms ending in 1965, 1967 and 1969, respectively. When their terms expire, the replacements would serve six years. The bill would let the governor designate a chairman. The board appointments would have to be approved by the state Senate.

Current members of the Game and Fish Commission would go off when the law became effective. The commission, under Cotten's proposal, would appoint an executive director who would have hiring and firing power of division heads and parks managers and the like.

But all of that is structural detail. Now for the emotion.

Fear Fnd Diversion
Sportsmen fear funds that go from their pocketbook to special game and fish funds for licenses and permits will now be used to repair some park's pavilion or put up playground equipment or build a park road. They think game and fish funds are threatened with being watered down for other purposes.

Cotten foresees some battle along these lines. He provides in his bill, "no funds accruing to the state of Texas from license fees paid by hunters and from sports and recreation fishing license fees shall be diverted for any other purposes than those benefiting such hunters, sport and recreation fishermen."

But he says the rest of the so-called special game and fish fund, from sand, shell and gravel permits and income, can be used for parks.

Cotten apparently makes the distinction so that federal aid will continue. Federal help for the fund is dependent on all revenue from licenses to go to game and fish uses.

Same General Function
Cotten said the two commissions deal with separate aspects of the same function, that is, preservation of the outdoors and its resources; and he thinks the new administrative setup of the Game and Fish Department would easily absorb the parks system.

For example, Cotten maintains, game wardens could fit right into the enforcement demands of the parks system.

So far, heads of agencies and associations connected with sportsmen are somewhat wary of the deal. They and the sportsmen who have talked to them on the issue want assurances that necessary wildlife conservation funds will not go to parks uses.

That sort of sentiment seems to preface at least some amendments, and possibly some determined opposition, to the Cotten bill or others like it. Success of other parts of Connally's program and whatever legislative pressure the governor builds may also have much to do with the success of the controversial marriage of two major state bureaus.

SKILL TO SPARE by Dick Weber

21-The 6-7-10

The 6-7-10 split can be made if the situation demands it, but it takes a lot of skill and some luck.

There's no guarantee that even brushing the 6 will cause it to slice across and carry the 7. Unless a match hangs in the balance, I advise concentrating on the 6-10 and nipping up two pins safely.

Failure of the ball to finish, caused by too little lift given the ball at the foul line, combined with a high — too much headpin — hit, will result in this difficult leave.

THERE'S no guarantee,

Big, Big Budget

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy's new budget is the biggest in U. S. history.

How big is that?

So big that if all the nearly $100 billion he seeks were stacked up in $1-bills, the pile would reach 6,300 miles into space — which is where Kennedy wants to spend much of it.

No one actually tried stacking bills that high. No one ever had that much.

But one U. S. Treasury Department official said calculations showed that that's how high a pile of "uncompressed" dollar bills would reach.

The budget also is big stacked up with those of other governments.

It probably could be said it is the biggest budget ever anywhere.

But world budgets, like apples and oranges, are hard to compare.

Edict From Peter Zenger Award Winner:

Small Town Press Must Fight Control

TUCSON, Ariz. — The press may pound out words of truth and freedom, but by their own conformity they have created a nation of ignorant people. This ignorance jeopardizes the very truth and freedom they write about.

In words reminiscent of the John Peter Zenger, whose award he accepted, John Colburn, managing editor of the Richmond (Va.) Times-Dispatch, tried to arouse the "complacent" press to action. He directed his plea, not to the elite group of Washington by-liners, but to small-town editors.

Accepting the Zenger Award in Tucson, he said, "... the fight to eliminate news controls and manipulation is not going to be won in a committee hearing. It must be launched at the grassroots in the tradition of John Peter Zenger, and it can be fought only by hard-hitting reporting in the public interest.

Editors of papers in the smaller cities often comment privately that they don't want to upset things because in a small community they must live and work with the public officials and political connivers. These editors make no protest concerning closed meetings or executive sessions where decisions of public interest are made in secret in order not to upset the status quo. Said Colburn: "Remember that John Peter Zenger did not represent a big organization when he bucked the colonial governor. Nor did he stop editing when they pitched him into jail. He kept right on until he was brought to trial nine months later and acquitted in a case that established the principle of press freedom consistent with public rights."

Then Colburn went further. Citing Rep. John Moss and his congressional freedom of information committee, he gave specific examples of government manipulation which, he said, gave the old cliché "You can't believe what you see in the newspapers," real substance.

He referred to the "one voice" concept of the Kennedy administration during the Cuban crisis and former newsman Arthur Sylvester, who "qualified the right to lie."

"Congressional support for the one voice concept came during the Cuban crisis in a little-noticed report from a special preparedness subcommittee of the Senate Committee on Armed Services. The report said in part: "If foreign policy is to have force and weight with our friends and our enemies our responsible officials must speak in unison."

"... Adherence to established national and foreign policy can be assured only by a system of prior policy review, since even well-intentioned officials can inadvertently or unknowingly make a public statement which might result in substantial harm."

Colburn noted that only one congressman voted against the measure.

He continued that his own investigations of federal news-management control during the Cuban crisis showed that the government had been increasing its manipulation of news since 1950.

Today, much of the press is "being lulled into a sense of security and affluence by a rocking-chair philosopher who is an expert at using modern communications to promote personal diplomacy and political policies.

"Already the Moss subcommittee staff has learned that the handling of government information has been directed from the White House and that the President himself has made the basic decisions. These covered not only hour-to-hour monitoring of news management details, as was done in the Cuban crisis, but news-making events ranging from the Pacific nuclear bomb tests to back-stage greetings of Russia's Bolshoi Ballet."

Colburn discussed the bomb tests and the failure of editors to protest when the White House refused to permit coverage last fall. "This failure to protest may well have encouraged the administration in its news-manipulation efforts for the Cuban crisis."

He again referred to Moss subcommittee findings under both Kennedy and Eisenhower which revealed that the public had been deprived of full information on our missile and satellite programs.

But his specific examples merely built to the problem that concerned him most. "What concerns me — and should concern everyone — is that if Washington officials can cover up Russian failures they can cover up our own. If the American people are deluded by government control of news — or by outright deception — this becomes a dangerous threat to our free society."

Colburn concluded. "Are we to be deprived, by insidiously managed controls and regulations, by our own poor performance, of this heritage of press freedom established by the Zenger case before there is a popular protest? By far the simplest and easiest way to report and edit a newspaper is for someone else to tell us what to print and when to print it. That is the pattern of so-called press freedom in totalitarian countries."

"That was the pattern on the fourth of August, 1735..."

Colburn, who began his press career as a cub reporter with the Columbus (Ohio) Dispatch, is chairman of the ASNE freedom of information committee. He has worked consistently against censorship and news suppression. He also has helped lead the fight against proposals for statutory provisions to curb press coverage of criminal and civil cases before and during trial.

Carlsbad Caverns Having Face-Lift

CARLSBAD, N.M. (UPI)—The world's largest and reputedly most beautiful cave, Carlsbad Caverns, is in the process of having its face lifted.

The famous bat flight as the bats leave the cave in swooping black clouds of motion, will continue much as it always has at sunset each day.

However, because of the Mission 66 rebuilding program, the bats are flying over a changing scene. Mission 66 is a 10-year federal park system effort to improve facilities at places of interest throughout the nation.

At Carlsbad Caverns this week, 12 new homes for an anticipated increase in work force were completed, and last week a $91,700 utility building program was completed.

A $485,000 paving project was completed in June, 1962, for the more than half a million tourists who visit the Caverns annually over the road.

Future expansion plans call for a million dollar water storage tank, a seating area for visitors watching the bat flight, and re-lighting of parts of the Caverns.

Most Americans go to and from work each day by car. Citing Census Bureau figures, Oil Facts, a publication of the American Petroleum Institute, says 41 million men and women, representing 64 per cent of the nation's work force, use their automobiles in commuting to and from their jobs. About 5.3 million workers use buses or streetcars in their commuting while 2.5 million take railroads, subway, trains or elevated transportation. Some 6.4 million travel afoot, while another 4.6 million skip commuting altogether by working at home. Unspecified "other means" of transportation are used by 1.8 million commuters.

Some 12.5 million American homes are centrally heated by oil, more than by any other fuel, according to Oil Facts, a publication of the American Petroleum Institute.

Coffee Break....

THIS IS THE week we learned that "all work and no play makes the house shine" but makes us dull, indeed, especially when there's a sparkling (?) column to be written. Over coffee cups this week the talk has been mostly about the Big Freeze and all the annoying little inconveniences that happened when cars refused to start in the early morning hours because chilled carburetors refused to spark the engines; or when the hard-working pilot-lights on furnaces chose the peak of the cold to go out. And looking around at our lawn and those of our neighbors, it seems that again wax-leaf shrubs have had their little roots nipped and leaves browned by our summer one minute and arctic air the next. Most of the stories began "it was so cold that..." An amusing one we heard from a gal, who asked to be nameless, was "It was so cold at our house, when hubby dashed in from the office, he backed up to the television set instead of sitting down in front of it."

IMPRESSIONS FROM the sophomores' four one-act plays: sub-freezing temperatures didn't deter parents, little brothers and sisters, and classmates from turning out and filling the auditorium of the high school. It was a proud and very pretty Thespian 1010 sponsor, Helen Schafer, dressed in a red sheath, who watched her Thespian directors present their one-act efforts. We were much impressed with the lighting, stage business of "crossings", gestures, voice projection, poise, humor and drama. All of the plays showed excellent work and diligent effort. Loved the squeal of delight and surprise emitting from the three directors, Sally Paden, Suzie Fillman and Sheridan Walker when it was announced their play "Fantasy On An Empty Stage" was the one chosen to be presented at the Drama Festival in March at Eastern New Mexico University in Portales. Shall never forget Sam Bryan as the hilarious "Nero" in "Nero Fiddles", which gained for him the Best Actor award; nor Vickie Cox as "Information"; a cute little blonde number in "Sorry Wrong Number"; nor Kim Wilson another cute little "number"; nor Marian Nesage's dramatics in "The Lottery"; happy when Pat Ludeman was named Best Actress for her role as the hysterical woman in "Sorry Wrong Number".... another honor to add to her achievements as those of District Spelling Champion in 1961 and valedictorian of her Pampa Junior High class in 1962. Her twin-sister, Pam, also did an excellent acting bit as Nero's mother. Glancing around the audience at proud parent-type faces, we saw Dr. and Mrs. Ed S. Williams... the Clinton Evans... the Tex DeWeeses... the E. E. Shelhamers... the Albert P. Doucettes... the Martin Ludemans... The Bill Stegers, who dropped in after the Lion's Club dinner meeting... Ruby Capps and Mrs. W. A. Morgan who made up a twosome... Sandy Jones, Molly Gunter, LuRae Nation and Joy Shultz were among the sophomores applauding their classmates' theatrical efforts. At the Cast Party, held after the plays, Cokes and sandwiches were served while actors, actresses and directors talked things over. Special guests at the Cast Party were our own American Field Service students, Luisa Prieto of Spain and Turan Soylenoz of Turkey, who were among 25 other AFS students in the Panhandle area, who attended the plays and party after being guests of the Lion's Club earlier in the evening.

IT WAS TIME this week for the Panhandle Pen Women's quarterly meeting in the Amarillo Country Club. So early on sunny Tuesday morning Marcella Hudson, Barbara Hayes, Bernice Gregory, Evelyn Nace, Frances Prall, Doris E. Wilson and Barbara Turnbo, a guest, jumped in their jalopies and drove over for an all day meeting of writers' talk and a luncheon in the club. Barbara Turnbo, who is a prospective Pen Woman, walked off with third prize in the poetry contest for her poem "A Christmas Blessing." Mildred Spear of Amarillo was first; Carolyn Timmons, also of Amarillo, was judged second with honorable mention going to Jeanette Fish of Lefors, formerly of Pampa. Poetry was judged and criticized by Mrs. Velma Reynolds Harper of Oklahoma City. Laurene Chinn of Borger, author of two published novels and with another one tentatively named "Marcus" under her pen, conducted a program discussion on "Creating Fiction Characters." There was Round Table Talk of Wanda Campbell's new book, "Ten Texas Cousins", which will be published in March. Wanda, who is a former Pampa News women's editor and her husband Johnny, are former Pampans now living in Austin. Installation of officers also comprised the days' business with Marcella Hudson retiring as contest chairman and Evelyn Nace as treasurer. But Barbara Hayes installed as new contest chairman and Doris E. Wilson as recording secretary will keep the Pampa writers represented on the executive board. Completing the roster of officers are Lena Rittenhouse, Borger, president; Vivian Robinson, Amarillo, vice president; Edith Underwood, Amarillo, hospitality; Fran Lewis, Borger, workshop; Polly Merchant, Amarillo, publicity; Elmore Davenport, Borger, treasurer; and Ruby Thompson Cook, Amarillo, historian.

KNOW WHAT'S BEEN keeping Thelma Bray, Irene Smith, Ann Kenney, Ila Pool and Lorene Locke busy these days; well, one thing anyway. Altruism members all, they have been organizing plans for a "Teens Self-Improvement Clinic" to be sponsored by the Altruism Club. Enrollment will begin Thursday of this week at 4:30 p.m. in the educational building of the First Methodist Church. All teens, feminine gender, are invited to enroll for the clinic which will be concerned with inner and outer beauty tips from professionals in posture, hair complexion and social graces. The clinic will be in session for two months and will be held after school hours in two different locations, which will be announced at the enrollment session Thursday. There's to be a similar clinic for boy-type teens named "For Men Only", but plans are not definite at this time.

PAMPA COMMUNITY CONCERT ASS'N. is getting ready to roll out the red carpet, dust off the welcome mat, and polish the key-to-the-city for the appearance of Robert Merrill, the Metropolitan Opera Star, in the Pampa Junior High Auditorium on January 28. In addition to being a fine artist, Mr. Merrill has impressed us as a warm and personable artist during his candid appearances on the "Tonight Show". It should be an evening for Community Concert patrons to circle on their social calendars and a fine antidote for the post-holiday dol-drams.

WHAT'S NEW IN THIS WORLD? Well, Douglas Stewart Elmore is. He arrived at 5:20 p.m. Monday in Highland General Hospital. His mommy's name is Jean and his daddy, Roscoe is an attorney for Cabot. Imagine by now he is comfortably settled in his nursery at 2200 Chestnut. Know there must be great rejoicing in Orleans, Mass., where his maternal grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. F. Stewart Brooks live and in Fort Worth, where his paternal grandmother, Mrs. F. D. Wood resides.

DANCERS, MUSICIANS AND SINGERS are still needed for Pampa Little Theatre's March play, "Manana Is Another Day" according to Jack Miller, director, "especially needed is a guitarist". Already cast in roles and beginning with memory work are Jerry Douthitt, Dorothy Walker, Mahunta Hills, Nancy Imel, Cleo Worley, Jim Douthitt, Sue Pope, Jim Dailey, Odevern McConnell, Homer West, and Martha McComas. Rehearsals are being held Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights at 7 p.m. in Holy Souls School auditorium, 612 West

Merten HD Club With Mrs. Nash

The Merten Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday, Jan. 15, at 1:30 p.m. Mrs. A. M. Nash was hostess and Mrs. Bob Brandon, president, presided. The members answered the roll-call with their favorite seasoning. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The program, "The Art of Seasoning," short but spicy was given by Mrs. T. G. Groves. She said that salt was probably the most used seasoning of all and referred to a Bible scripture—Job 6:6 "Can that which is tasteless be eaten without salt?" Mrs. Groves also told that salt is mentioned many more times in the Scriptures and is one of the oldest seasonings known, being used as a purifier and an antiseptic, too. She informed the group that we seldom cook anything without some kind of seasoning, whether it be vinegars, oils, herbs, spices, or the newer dehydrated vegetables.

The members were asked to give their idea of the best seasoning or a meat dish or dressing for a salad.

The meeting stood adjourned and the guests were served refreshments of coffee, homemade cookies, and homemade candies.

Attending were: one new member, Mrs. E. P. Templin, who just moved to Pampa from Manhattan, Kan.; Mmes: Jack Howard; T. G. Groves, A. M. Nash, Vardean Smith, Bob Brandon, Don Matson, W. L. Groves, Robert Sailor, and J. Lloyd Laramore.

Miss Wilson Becomes Bride Of John Alden Kotara III

Miss Carol Jean Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Mary D. Wilson, 2118 Mary Ellen, and Loyd W. Wilson, 2228 N. Sumner, became the bride of John Alden Kotara III, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Kotara Jr., of White Deer on Jan. 12. The double ring ceremony was performed in the Sacred Heart Church at White Deer.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN ALDEN KOTARA III

Rev. Edward J. Cashman, C.M., pastor of St. Vincent's de Paul Church of Pampa, officiated at the first nuptial mass held in the new Sacred Heart Church. "The Proper of the Nuptial Mass," by Rev. Carlo Rossini, was sung by the choir under the direction of Johnnie Rapstine, accompanied by Mrs. Laddie Kotara at the organ. Miss Rosemary Lawlor, accompanied by Mrs. John Gill, sang the Bach-Gounod, "Ave Maria," "Panis Angelicus" from the Messe Solennelle by Cesar Franck, and the traditional hymn, "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother," while the couple knelt at the altar, after the bride had placed a bouquet on the altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a white floor-length gown of French silk fashioned with a bell skirt and fitted bodice with a rounded neckline. The fingertip veil of imported illusion trimmed in lace featured a Juliet cap crown studded with iridescent sequins and pearls to match the trim of the bodice and skirt of her gown. Her bouquet was centered with a white orchid in a cascade arrangement of white stephanotis.

Mrs. L. B. Voyles, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Pat Gil

Hobgood Group Meets In Mrs. Smith's Home

The Ben Hobgood Christian Women's Fellowship group of the First Christian Church met in the home of Mrs. Vardeman Smith, 2216 Chestnut, Wednesday, Jan. 9.

The opening prayer was given by Mrs. Doty Warner and Mrs. Smith, group leader, conducted the business meeting. Reports were given by Mrs. T. R. Wilson, Mrs. Roy Williams, and Mrs. Smith reported the group will meet at the church for a "four season salad supper, Jan. 17 at 7 p.m. The program will be a "Bible Book Review."

Mrs. R. E. Dover presented the program, "Disciples on the Rim of Asia." She reported Hong Kong today had the world's most concentrated refugee problem. Both the national council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., and the world council of churches have branches which organize relief activities. Both are hard to work in Hong Kong.

The world council through its division of inter-church aid and service to refugees, sends contributions and supplies from member churches around the world, to places around the world, where, due to war or natural disasters, physical need is great.

In one morning, 10,295 people were given 44,000 pounds of rice and 2,040 pounds of pork, this is one of five such distributions and the church world service distributes this six days a week. This is only distributed to the people who earn less than five dollars a month per member of the family. In 1960, 12,652,236 pounds of food were distributed. Clothing gifts for Hong Kong are also distributed and a million vitamin tablets are given each year. Soap is distributed through schools, orphanages, churches, and children's clubs. In densely populated areas, Church World Service has set up nine milk-bars, where powdered milk, given by the United States Department of Agriculture, is mixed with pure water and distributed. Each day 52,000 children and nursing mothers receive milk and highly nourishing biscuits.

Mrs. W. F. Taylor gave the devotional and Mrs. Charles Lanehart adjourned the meeting by leading the group in the Christian Women's Benediction.

Members attending were Meses. Verda Adair, C. A. Pollock, H. H. Hutchens, W. L. Waggoner, Charles Lanehart, James King, F. R. Wilson, W. F. Taylor, Roy Williams, R. E. Daver, Vardeman Smith, Frank Grantham, Doty Warner, H. L. Meers and Tom Eckerd.

A new glass for residential and industrial construction is several times stronger under impact than ordinary glass of the same thickness. The manufacturer reports this provides an extra measure of safety under all normal conditions. Should it break under an especially heavy impact, the glass crumbles into small granular sized particles rather than large sharp pieces.

Dear Abby.... That's No Problem, Lady!!!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: We have a health-food nut in our family. He lives on fresh vegetables, fruits, nuts and wheat germ. He won't eat MEAT of any kind. In fact, there are so many things he won't eat I couldn't begin to name them.

My problem is that I am having him to our home for dinner. There will be about 15 others, and they all eat everything. Should I call attention to his peculiar eating habits by serving him his special diet? Or should I serve him the same dinner as the rest? He's normal in every other respect and I don't want to offend him.

WORRIED HOSTESS DEAR ABBY: Most health-food "nuts" are far from nutty, and their diet requirements are less trouble than the others. Just pass the vegetables, fruits and nuts to him.

DEAR ABBY: I think my mother has too much time on her hands. I have been married for eight years and, thank goodness, we live 400 miles from my mother. You see, she never cared for my husband. About twice a week I get these long letters from her. She goes on and on about how I could have done better. She tries to plant seeds of doubt in my mind about my husband's faithfulness. (She says, "I heard from someone who knows, but I promised I wouldn't tell who said it") and, Abby, I get so upset every time I get a letter from her. I cry all day. How can I put a stop to these terrible, disturbing letters?

TEARS IN MY EYES DEAR ABBY: Write your mother and tell her that you are happily married and do not care to read about the gossip she has heard; and that if she writes one more trouble-provoking letter, you will return all her subsequent letters UNOPENED. And then do it.

DEAR ABBY: It says in the Bible that they took a rib out of Adam to make a woman. I think that rib must have been cracked judging from some of the women I've known.

DEAR MAN: Not all women are "cracked." Someone has been ribbing you.

DEAR ABBY: After being married 12 years and having 3 children, I met a man who changed my life. It started out quite innocently, but in less than a year there was no turning back. He is also married, with children, is a respected citizen and a deacon in his church. Even if I divorced my husband, he wouldn't follow suit. He has always leveled with me. . . . another reason why I can't help loving him. I went into this with my eyes wide open, and it

Harnly-Davidson Ceremony Performed In Miami Church

In a double ring ceremony solemnized by Rev. Carl Hudson Saturday evening, Jan. 19, in First Methodist Church of Miami, Miss Sarah Lou Harnly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Harnly, Miami, became the bride of Wayne S. Davidson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne H. Davidson, Emporia, Ka. Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Fedelia Yoder, organist, and Mrs. Carl Hudson sang "Because." "Oh Perfect Love," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The altar was decorated with a tree candelabra. On either side was a spiral candelabra and jade palms.

Mrs. Lawrence Pickens of Amrillo, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor, and Catharine Pickens was flower girl.

Mrs. Pickens wore a pink glow floor length dress of taffeta, styled with a scoop neckline, basque bodice and puff sleeves and with a pouf back accented by a deep pink velvet bow and streamers. The hat was a lace bandeau edged with pearls and to which circular veil of illusion was attached. The flower girl wore a white dress with heavily embroidered organza basque waists with puff sleeves and bouffant ruffled organza floor-length skirts.

A cascade arrangement of pink roses and carnations was carried by the matron of honor.

Dean Parker, brother of the groom, of Wichita, Ka., was best man. Ushers were Ed Mercer, Bill Woodruff, Lyle Haley of Emporia, Ka., Henry Harnly of Miami, and Lawrence Pickens of Amarillo.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length gown of white taffeta, styled with a shallow neckline, crushed elbow sleeves; basque bodice with V waistline; and a windward skirt, increasing its fullness to the back to form an aisle wide chapel train. Appliques of lace adorned the bodice and were scattered throughout the skirt. Her tier-layered veil of imported silk illusion was held by a tiny jeweled open crown. She carried an orchid surrounded by Stephanotis.

The mother of the bride wore a pink silk costume suit. The mother of the groom wore a beige silk crepe dress. Both wore corsages

Following a reception in the church, the couple left for New Orleans where the groom is employed as a research engineer for Boeing Aircraft. For traveling the bride chose a grey wool suit trimmed with a mink collar and a mink hat. Her corsage was a white orchid.

The groom is a graduate of Emporia State Teachers College. The bride is a graduate of McPherson College and has been teaching in Wichita, Ka.

The rehearsal dinner was held at the Black Gold Restaurant in Pampa, Friday evening, Jan. 18.

Other pre-nuptial courtesies included a shower in the home of Mrs. Dona Cornutt, Pampa. Other hostesses were Mmes. Coyle Ford, T. J. Hill, and Paul Bowers.

POLLY'S POINTERS

Soak Off Used Stamps !!!

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY—Here is a tip for stamp collectors. To remove the stamp from paper, soak in cold water for 10 minutes. Then slide off the paper. To dry, place stamp between two paper towels and go over with a warm iron.

PATRICIA ANNE

Our thanks to another of our young readers (11 years old) who shares her own pet trick—and a good one—with us.

POLLY

DEAR POLLY—As I go through magazines before throwing them away, I cut out all articles for children. Some are patterns for puppets, easy-to-make gifts, decorations, etc. I keep these in a box along with scraps of felt, paper and other materials. Whenever the neighborhood children come to visit or when I baby-sit, they enjoy seeing what I have to make that day.

STEPHANIE

Another good way to keep little minds busy and little hands out of mischief.

POLLY

DEAR POLLY—I find that plastic baby bottles in which milk has been used get to smell sour, so I put in one-half teaspoon of baking soda, fill with water and let stand overnight. Next morning they smell sweet and fresh. I also use soda to clean combs and brushes.

Double Surprise Birthday Party

LEFORS (Spl) — Mrs. Charles Roberts and Walter Hughes were guests of honor at a "Surprise" Birthday Party, honoring each Thursday night, Jan. 10, in the Hughes garage.

Mrs. W. G. Hughes and Mrs. W. W. Bratcher were hostesses of the evening.

Led to believe that the occasion was for the other one, both honorees were taken on complete surprise by the group, each singing "Happy Birthday," to the other one, both surprised to find a table of gifts for each one.

After the honoree opened their presents, a buffet supper was enjoyed.

Games of Rook furnished entertainment throughout the evening, with Mrs. Roberts and F. M. Cox winning high of the evening.

Attending were Messrs. and Mmes. Daniel Rose, Orvil Henry, Alex Watkins, Ralph Carruth, F. M. Cox, Lonnie Ables, Alton Flinchum, W. W. Bratcher, W. G. Hughes, and Charles Roberts.

Soak or sponge a milk stain with cold water before trying to remove it from a washable fabric. Then, using your fingers, rub a liquid detergent into the fabric. Wash the garment in the usual way.

Just add a couple of teaspoons to a pan of water after five or 10 minutes soaking, dirt floats out of combs and brushes and leaves little or no scrubbing for me.

MRS. D. G.

DEAR POLLY—When packing to move, I label each carton in big black letters with the name of the room where it is to be unpacked. For example, a box with dishes, pots and pans would be marked "KITCHEN" on the outside. When the box arrives at the new house, one quick look will tell the movers where to put it.

MRS. P. M.

DEAR POLLY—When making circular felt skirts for growing girls, cut them two or three inches longer than the present skirt length. Finish the skirt and cut off a circle of two or three inches from the bottom and put this away until the skirt needs lengthening. How happy you will be to have those extra inches. Just sew the circle of felt on to the bottom of the skirt and cover the seam with a fancy braid, stitching or rick-rack and the skirt will be good for another year or two.

MOTHER OF THREE GIRLS
GIRLS—I think this idea should be good not only for felt skirts but also corduroy, velvet, wool or any other firm skirt fabric. All of us who sew know that circular skirts cannot have deep hems to let out, so this suggestion keeps them from being a one-season proposition when the girls are still growing.

Fascinating Facial Is Desert-Island Choice

Facial mask stands right after lipstick as the single most important cosmetic to live with.

By LIZ OGDEN

If you're like the rest of us—been disappointed once too often in beauty products that make extravagant claims—a facial mask recently on the market should restore your confidence as well as your complexion.

SLIP AND SLICKETY as a good lipstick, the mask is the consistency of liquid honey, looks something like liquid pearls, and goes on cool or deliciously warm. Pop one of the little gilt tubes under a hot water tap and your incubated salon facial is ready, ma'am.

CALLED SCULPTONE, the facial comes from a cosmetic house that makes a happy habit of promising only what a product will provide. Scandia, the makers, turn polite somersaults over this one. You're getting the idea fast if you realize that the sculpt in Sculptone promises a fair amount of re-contouring along with less fallow tone.

IT SMOOTHS ON like a smile. Over the forehead (that tired lined place so often ignored by women who spend hours working over less noticeable faults), then around the eyes, over the cheeks, jawbone, and neck. I found that five minutes make your skin glow. Don't stop there, however, unless you're in a rush.

A really satisfying salon facial can be duplicated with fifteen minutes of the mask left on while you tub. Your nerves ease out along with the lines. You may be tired, but you won't look it when the mask's off.

LUXURY VERSION of the facial is a down-to-business peeling. A wonderful tightening happens that puts the squeeze on blackheads et al. European women—who peel their faces on the theory that the top flaky layer of skin is about as beautifying as a hangnail—tell me Sculptone's peeling brings the same beautiful-baby results with half the work.

FINAL PROOF of how adherent Sculptone is came to me with the aid of my hand magnifying glass. I looked through the spec at the pearly filament that peeled off my face and saw a little forest of pore debris sprouting as shamelessly as you please.

Scandia's Sculptone is $5 for 10 individual tubes, $9 for twenty.

Miss Carver Becomes Bride Of Marshall Sherwood

PANHANDLE (Spl) — Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Sherwood are at home in Panhandle after their recent wedding at the Central Church of Christ, Amarillo.

Mrs. Sherwood is the former Miss Stella Mae Carver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Carver, 1506 Ong, Amarillo, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Weston L. Sherwood, Panhandle.

Leroy Carver, minister of the South Delaware Church of Christ of Irving and brother of the bride, read the double ring vows.

An a capella choir composed of Charles Carver, Jay Carver, Danny Warden, Gwyneth Curtis, John Wagoner, Bobbie Wright, Paul White and Robert Barrett presented nuptial selections.

Mrs. Ray C. Chester, Washington, D.C., was her sister's matron of honor. Other honor attendants were Mesdames Leroy Carver, Irving, Gregory Sherwood, Dalhart, Bill Hoffman and Miss Charmaine Dodson, Amarillo.

Gregory Sherwood, Dalhart, was his brother's best man. Groomsman and ushers were Dale Joe Roselius and Bill McLeod, Panhandle; Jerry Fowler, Dumas and Jackie Foster of Austin.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white bridal satin and Chantilly lace designed with a fitted bodice and petal point sleeves. Seed pearls accented the sweetheart neckline. Tiers of Chantilly lace and tulle cascaded down the back of the bouffant skirt and terminated in a

Ruth Millett "Ladies' Choice," That's That!!!

"Men buy or make the decisions on virtually all buying in Europe" reports a business management consultant, recently returned from Germany. "In Europe it's the man of the family who even chooses the furniture and dishes."

That's quite a contrast to the buying picture in America, where women buy 95 per cent of ordinary goods and often have the decisive voice in the big buys, such as the family car.

The picture may some day change in Europe, but it isn't likely to change in the United States, for one simple reason:

American women have set themselves up as the arbiters of taste for the family, and they aren't about to let a mere man make such important decisions as choosing a silver or china pattern, or even selecting a chair for the living room.

Oh, a husband might get to go along when there is furniture to be bought. But his suggestions are usually ignored as the wife and the

Culture Club Names Newly Elected Officers

Election was held to choose the 1963-64 officers for the Twentieth Century Culture Club at a meeting on Jan. 15. Mrs. Les Hart of the nominating committee presented these candidates, who were duly elected: Mrs. Rufe Jordan, president; Mrs. Ronald Merrill, vice-president; Mrs. Michael Wilson, secretary; Mrs. L. J. Zachry, treasurer; Mrs. R. E. Dobbin, parliamentarian; Mrs. E. L. Henderson, reporter.

A report by Mrs. Jeff Bearden from the project committee told how the abundant contributions of the members had been dispersed to several sources during the Christmas season. President, Mrs. R. E. Dobbin, adjourned the business meeting in favor of Mrs. Ross Buzzard, program chairman.

She introduced the program of Biographies of Famous Americans presented by Mrs. J. R. Donaldson, a Pennsylvania-born physician. Dr. Benjamin Rush, born in 1745, received the speaker's first recognition. "He established the first free clinic in the United States, improved the treatment of mental cases, believed in the curing power of blood-letting and discovered a new treatment for yellow fever." She continued with the values of Dr. Rush, who was also a public servant in government. "He was surgeon-general in the Revolutionary War, a member of the Continental Congress, a signer of the Declaration of Independence, and treasurer of the U. S. Mint from 1797 until his death in 1813."

Mrs. Donaldson discussed the life of James Otis, an American Revolutionary statesman, who lived from 1725 to 1783 in Massachusetts. "He attained eminence in the law courts because of his conviction that the Fourth Amendment to the Constitution must be enforced. The right most valued by civilized man, the right to be let alone, is a venerable one in America." She said, "Given the almost inevitable conflict between the legitimate demands of civil authority and equally legitimate demands of individual freedom, it is likely that the controversy will be always with us." "As legislator," she said, "Otis gained a high reputation for his eloquence and patriotic earnestness in seeking to define and secure personal liberties such as freedom of speech, the press and religion."

Benjamin Franklin, truly America's first citizen of the world, whose birthday we celebrate Jan. 17, was the last biography Mrs.

Holtman-Waddell Will Live In North Carolina

Miss Joyce Larue Holtman and James Franklin Waddell pledged wedding vows Jan. 6 at 2:30 in the afternoon in the Church of Christ at Mary Ellen and Harvester. Guy Caskey, minister, performed the double-ring ceremony amid a setting of baskets of white chrysanthemum, palms and seven branch candelabra holding white tapers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard Holtman, 1304 Terrace. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Waddell of Concord, North Carolina.

Miss Judy-Caskey, presented a solo selection, "Because," during the ceremony and the 20 voice choir sang, "Be With Us Lord," and other traditional wedding music.

Candles were lighted by Lynn Holtman, bride's brother, and Carl Holtman, cousin of the bride and son of Mr. and Mrs. Rayford Holtman of Childress.

BRIDE

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in a formal Chantilly lace and nylon tulle with a fitted bodice featuring a sweetheart-neckline and long tapering sleeves which came to petal points over the hands and was enjoined to a full skirt of lace and nylon tulle. Her fingertip veil of illusion, escalloped around the edges with Chantilly lace, fell from a tiara of seed pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried an arrangement of white gardenias and stephanotis, cascading from a white Bible.

ATTENDANTS

Mrs. Annette Sparks, bride's sister, attended as matron of honor wearing a street-length dress of pink taffeta designed with an impressive bow in the back. Her accessories were a matched pink veiled doll hat and shoes to match. She carried a cascade of pink and red feathered carnations with pink and red streamers.

Mrs. Paula Wilson of Pampa and Miss Jan Cawthon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Varmon Cawthon, Miss Jill Hawkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hawkins, all of Pampa, served as bridesmaids. They wore identical street-length dresses of pink taffeta. Their head-pieces and bouquets were identical to that of the matron of honor.

Miss Raynetta Holtman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rayford Holtman of Childress, served as flower girl, wearing a full length dress of pink taffeta, complemented with a small pink headband. She carried a white basket with red rose petals.

R. F. Waddell, father of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were Kenneth E. Waddell, Capt. R. Waddell and Capt. Donald R. Waddell, all brothers of the bridegroom.

Mark Sparks, nephew of the bride and son of Mr. and Mrs. Benny Sparks, Pampa, was ring-bearer.

For her daughters wedding, Mrs. Holtman chose a light blue silk suit with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua and gold dress with matching accessories. They wore corsages of pink sweetheart roses with feathered carnations.

RECEPTION

A reception was held in the annex of the church immediately following the ceremony. Carrying out the bride's chosen colors of pink and white, the refreshment table was laid with a pink satin cloth centered with a pink and white arrangement flanked with crystal tapers. Miss Loretta Johns presided at the crystal punch service. Miss LaJohna Hinds served from the three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and Mrs. Carolyn Pearcey of Childress, presided at the guest register.

For a wedding trip to North Carolina, the bride traveled in a blue suit complemented with a black fur collar and black accessories. She wore a corsage trimmed with carnations.

Mrs. Waddell is a graduate from Pampa High School and attended Abilene Christian College. The bridegroom was graduated from Concord High School and attended college for two years at McMurry. He has been in the Air Force for three years and plans to make it his career.

Panhandle Residents Observe Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary

PANHANDLE (Spl).— Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Garretson observed their sixtieth wedding anniversary very quietly, Saturday, Jan. 5, after an active two-weeks which included their first airplane ride, a trip from Albuquerque, N.M. to Amarillo.

They first went to New Mexico where they visited in the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John L. White, and on Christmas Day, were guests at a family dinner in the home of their grandson, Thede and Mrs. White, Perry and Gary. Other relatives included Mr. and Mrs. John White, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Davagnon and Billy, Albuquerque; and Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Kikenga and son, Muskegon, Mich.

A quiet New Years was spent at home with another granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Wagner, and their two children, who live with the Garretsons on their farm, one mile west of Panhandle.

Their wedding anniversary was spent in Amarillo; with another daughter, Mrs. Zella White and her family.

Mrs. Garretson, who was 77 in July was born in Donavan County, Ka., and came to Panhandle in 1892. Her father, the late R. W. and Mrs. Ware gave the four blocks of land to the school district on which the main school plant of Panhandle is located.

J. N. Garretson, who was 89 in September, was born in Brown County, Ka. and came to Panhandle in 1898.

Mr. and Mrs. Garretson were married in the Christian parsonage in Amarillo. Wedding attendants were her brother, the late Will Ware, and Miss Emma Desieux, whose father was editor of the Panhandle Herald.

Garretson was a farmer until his retirement and they now live on the family farm, where they enjoy a game of dominoes with those who drop by. They are active members of the Golden Age Fellowship.

They are the parents of three children, Mrs. John White, Albuquerque; Mrs. Zella White, Amarillo; Harry Garretson, Wichita, Kansas. They have 16 grandchildren, 19 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild.

ASK THE DESIGNER by gaile dugas

Question: This spring I plan to take a cruise either to the Mediterranean or to the Caribbean, and I wonder if you would help solve some of my wardrobe problems. What basic clothes will I need for daytime and evening, and how many pairs of shoes should I take along?—M. R.

Because her expert advice has helped with a wardrobe problem similar to yours, Simonetta, famous for her Rome and Paris designs, was asked to help. She said: "You will have to make up your mind about which cruise you will take before you purchase that travel wardrobe. It will be cooler in the Mediterranean than in the Caribbean in the spring, and naturally your clothes should be warmer for that area.

Generally, a basic wardrobe for shipboard should include easy casual clothes for daytime. You will want coordinated skirts, shirts, shorts, sweaters and interesting little jackets that can be worn with any of these. (Or pants—but only if your figure is right for this type of costume.) I like shift-dresses for slim figures, too. "Be sure to keep a basic color in mind so that you can mix and match various pieces, and let your clothes do double duty whenever possible.

"Your coat, for example, might be a raincoat that will look attractive evenings on shipboard, and could also be worn ashore on a cool afternoon.

"Take a few cocktail dresses for evening dining and dancing. You won't need full-length formals. Choose light colors, such as bone or beige, and accent them with bright shades of coral or turquoise. Avoid wintry looking colors (black, brown).

"For shipboard, I suggest rubber-soled casual shoes. The little fabric ones that I design are excellent for deck wear and for trips ashore when you shop. You won't often find paved streets waiting for you. Take medium heels in your shoe wardrobe, too, in white or neutral tints that can be worn with all your other clothes. For dress wear you might consider cut-out pumps or sandals, but wear them for dancing aboard, not for a trip ashore.

"You don't say how long you planned to stay, but usually the clothes that do for one week's trip will suffice for a longer period.

"Include plenty of accessories—fun sun glasses, and scarves for your hair. You'll need them no

LEFORS (Spl).— The Lefors Opi-Mrs. Club held its first meeting of 1963 in the home of its president, Mrs. F. M. Cox, Jan. 8th at 7:30 p.m.

Proper Tools Are Aid To Beauty

Women who spend a good deal on beauty products often lack the proper tools with which to apply them. To do a professional job of make-up and grooming, implements are as important as the beauty aids.

For tweezing brows, treating blemishes and applying make-up, you should have a magnifying mirror. To keep hair in shape, you need two good hairbrushes, a comb with wide and narrow teeth, a rattail comb, sponge rollers, clips and a hair dryer.

For complete complexion care, a complexion brush, cotton balls, tissues, clean puffs and a powder brush are essential.

To be sure that your eye make-up is carefully applied, get several mascara brushes, an eyebrow brush, eyeliner brush, last-curler and tweezers.

Nail scissors, cuticle scissors, emery boards, orange sticks, file and a nail brush insure a professional-looking manicure. And for the relaxation derived from a luxurious bath, get a back brush, sponge, nail brush, pumice and a tub tray.

Those Toenails

One of the major causes of foot discomfort is improper care of toenails. Continued pressure from ill fitting shoes or hosiery can cause thickening. You can help relieve this condition by cleaning the toenails often, removing the accumulation of hardened skin under the nail.

Lip Tip
If you're troubled during cold weather with lips that chap, split and crack, you'll be interested in a medicated lipstick that contains an antiseptic ingredient and a healing agent. It comes in three basic shades—coral, pink and red—and can be an excellent lip conditioner, whether used regularly or only a few times a week.

ROBERT MERRILL ... sets Pampa concert

Famous Baritone Opera Star Will Perform Here

Robert Merrill, baritone star of the Metropolitan Opera who will appear here on January 28th in the Junior High auditorium, first became known as a singer whose voice could represent the whole American people when he was chosen to sing "The Star-Spangled Banner" for a patriotic film shown during the war.

Two Spanish Night Club Promoters Want Yvonne DeCarlo's Services

and usually they are settled without fuss. Not so with the two Spaniards who don't like each other anyway. The battle over which club would employ the star's talents has become a point of honor. Neither man seems prepared to budge.

It's not unusual for gentlemen to fight over a lady, but this battle is interesting if only from the standpoint of geography. The irate Spaniards are almost 6,000 miles away from Miss DeCarlo.

She's in Hollywood and they are feuding in Madrid. She likes the distance between her and the impresarios just in case somebody gets violent.

Yvonne became involved in their feud last year when she was accidentally booked to appear in two Madrid nightclubs at the same time. Dual appearances are difficult for any musical star, each performer having only one voice and two legs.

Such booking accidents are not unusual in a performer's career. Miss DeCarlo, not wanting to cause a rift with Spain over a few wiggles and a song or two, hopes things will finally simmer down and she can visit Madrid without causing a scene at the airport when both men arrive to greet her.

"Maybe they think I'm Spanish," smiled Yvonne, giving that as a reason why the gentlemen might be so upset. "But I'm Sicilian."

With any luck at all the Spaniards might quit fighting over Yvonne and leave her to the Italians.

Robert Goulet In Hollywood To Do Motion Picture Part

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Robert Goulet, a fast rising Broadway musical and recording star, is in Hollywood considering pictures and is on guard against any attempt to turn him into a stereotyped image of a popular film star.

Goulet was a hungry performer, like other potential stars, a few years ago. Then he got his first big singing break in the Broadway musical "Camelot." From then on, his name was among the first mentioned whenever producers thought about casting a movie musical.

Goulet arrived in Hollywood a few days ago for an appearance on Bob Hope's NBC-TV show, settled himself in a swank Beverly Hills hotel and looked around at the life of a movie star.

"I think I'll be here awhile," he said nonchalantly, lounging by the hotel swimming pool sipping a cocktail.

First, A Musical "But you've got to be careful with a motion picture career," he added, outlining tentative plans for his first film role.

Goulet was born in the United States, moved to Canada when he was a child and started his professional career on radio in that country.

He now lives in New York where he recently purchased a new home. It's doubtful that he'll succumb to the lure of Hollywood swimming pools, tennis courts and balmy weather.

"I want to be happy," he said thoughtfully. "But I have a feeling I'm not going to be happy here. Perhaps I'm being unfair in using those words because I haven't given it a chance."

"I doubt if I'll do all musicals," he continued. "That's my forte. However my job is not to become a film star or a recording star. I just want to work and do the best I can."

'Walk Right In' Is In Nation's Top Tune Spot

CHICAGO (UPI) — The Rooftop Singers' recording of "Walk Right In" took two giant steps — from third to first — in this week's listing of the nation's top 10 tunes by United Press International.

"Hey Paula" by Paula and Paul jumped from sixth last week to the second spot, and "The Night has a Thousand Eyes" by Bobbie Vee advanced from fourth to third.

The top listings underwent a complete shuffling as Steve Lawrence's "Go Away Little Girl," first last week, slipped to fourth and the Tornados' rendition of "Telesat" faded from second to fifth.

This week's top 10 tunes: 1—Walk Right In. Rooftop Singers. Vanguard. 2—Hey Paula. Paula and Paul. Philips. 3—The Night has a Thousand Eyes. Bobbie Vee. Liberty. 4—Go Away Little Girl. Steve Lawrence. Columbia. 5—Telesat. Tornados. London. 6—My Coloring Book. Sandy Stewart. Colpix. 7—Up on the Roof. Drifters. Atlantic. 8—My Dad. Paul Petersen. Colpix. 9—Rhythm of the Rain. Cascades. Valiant. 10—Don't Make Me Over. Dionne. Valiant.

Under the Joint resolution of Congress, March 1, 1845, Texas may subdivide it into four states.

DANGER SPOT — Cannibals, mutineers and gun runners are all on hand in this scene from Walt Disney's technicolor film, "In Search of the Castaways," starring Maurice Chevalier, Hayley Mills and George Sanders. Starts Thursday at the Capri Theatre.

Postal Inspector Says All Manner Of Crooks After Old Folk's Money

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Chief postal inspector H. B. Montague has warned elderly citizens today that all manner of crooks are out to filch their money with schemes ranging from land fraud to fake youth nostrums.

Montague testified before a special Senate committee on aging which is conducting hearings on frauds and quackery affecting older persons.

He said mail fraud is on the increase and "experience has shown that certain schemes have particular appeal to elderly citizens, many of whom have been victimized by these promotions."

There were 524 convictions for mail fraud during 1962, an increase of 21.6 per cent over the previous year, Montague said. Federal investigators have adopted new techniques to catch these "white collar bandits" but they are still at work in large numbers bilking the public of millions of dollars every year, he said.

Montague listed these frauds as having particular appeal to the elderly:

- Advance fee racket: Owners of small businesses are induced to sell property to secure loans they never receive.
- Vending machine schemes: Swindlers offer part-time employment for persons wanting to supplement family income. The victim is induced to buy the machine that brings him no money in return.
- Sewing machine promotions: Housewives are talked into buying machines at excessive cost to make money at home making garments.
- Land frauds: Retired persons are sold worthless lots as far away as Brazil through beautifully illustrated brochures sent through the mail.
- Medical frauds: Elderly persons are sold nostrums advertised to restore youth.

Here's How The Proposed Cut In Taxes Would Work

By PETER EDSON Washington Correspondent Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON (NEA) — President Kennedy's belief that tax cuts now will mean "tens of billions of dollars more each year in production, profits, wages and public revenues" is based on what happened after the last big tax reduction in 1954.

That was a $7.4 billion cut. Five billion dollars of it came from expiration of Korean War taxes. It repealed excess profits and some excise taxes. It introduced a 10 per cent cut in individual income taxes right across the board. It also adjusted depreciation schedules and introduced dividend credits benefiting business $2.4 billion a year. With individual income tax receipts reported at $30 billion for fiscal 1953, the 10 per cent tax cut was $3 billion.

Total tax receipts of $64.7 billion in fiscal 1953 dropped a little to $64.4 in 1954, the year the cut was made. This was followed by a sharp drop to $60.2 billion in 1955, but that was caused by the post-Korean War recession from July 1953 to May 1954.

There was a rapid build-up after that. Gross national product of $385 billion in 1953 dropped $2 billion in the 1954 recession, but rose to $397 billion in 1955 and $419 billion in 1956 — a 15 per cent rise for the two years. Tax receipts for 1956 rose to $67.9 billion.

Corporate profits, which were $38 billion in 1953 and dropped to $34 billion during the 1954 recession, rose by nearly $11 billion to $44.9 billion in 1955.

The unemployment rate, 5.6 per cent, or 3.6 million out of a labor force of 64.5 million in 1954, dropped to a rate of 4.2 per cent, or 3.5 million out of a labor force of 87.5 million in 1956. The only two postwar years that the United States has had relatively full employment were 1955 and 1956.

Whether the 1954 tax cut can be given credit for all of this is questionable, for the good effects didn't last. There was a further recession in 1958-59 and a further setback, or at least slow growth, beginning in 1960 and continuing even now.

The Kennedy Administration bases its present case on the theory that a tax cut now is what's needed to boost the economy. A tax cut is expected to have a much greater impact now than in 1954, because of economic growth in the last 10 years.

Gross national product of $554 billion for 1962 is 65 per cent higher than in 1953. Personal income tax payments of $45.7 billion in 1962 are 50 per cent higher than in 1953.

So the equivalent of a 10 per cent tax cut now would mean that $4.5 to $5 billion more would be made available for consumer spending during the first year the cut is in full effect.

There is, of course, a delayed reaction to any shot in the arm the economy receives from a tax cut. Tax experts figure that 93 per cent of consumer income after taxes is spent, 7 per cent going into savings. But experience shows that even where there is a sharp rise in purchasing power, there's always a lag in actual spending. The length of the lag cannot be predicted.

It may take half a year or more after the tax cut is in effect before spending habits change measurably. This makes it difficult to predict when there will be business expansion to take care of the expected increase in demand.

Businesses that figure they will get a certain per cent of the increased spending power generated by a tax cut may start to build up inventories fairly soon, but expanding plant capacity to meet the demand is even trickier for businessmen to figure.

An industry now operating at 80 per cent of capacity won't expand immediately. If now operating at high rate, an industry might expand plant capacity more rapidly.

President Kennedy's plan for making the tax cuts apply gradually over a three-year period is intended to limit the impact on the federal budget. If a first-year $6 billion tax reduction out of a total $10 billion planned tax cut is approved by Congress, that will be to stimulate business.

The increased tax receipts from this new business are then expected "to pay for" the remaining $4 billion in tax cuts, without increasing budget deficits after the first year.
