Walls, Cupboards Stay Greaseless With Hoods

By KAY SHERWOOD
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

After a steamy session at the stove or after washing the grease from kitchen walls and cupboards, few homemakers would argue that a range hood is a needless luxury. Objective surveys bear me out. Basically, there are two types of hood: the vented hood and the no-duct hood. Both are installed over the range top and should be wide enough to cover all the top elements. In the vented hood, ducts connect the hood to the outside and fan-drawn steam and odors are discharged into the outdoor air.

Mesh filters are cleaned by washing with soap and water. The charcoal filters may be replaced or refilled at low cost. No - duct hoods like vented hoods come in several sizes and prices. The size of the kitchen range is one guiding factor as to what size hood to buy and the size of the kitchen is another.

Mrs. Ollinger Has 4-H Club Meeting

GROOM (Spl) —Unit II of Town and Country 4-H Club met recently in the home of Mrs. W. H. Ollinger. Members of the Unit have completed their sewing course. Karen and Pam Ollinger gave a demonstration on "The Care of Hands." Jane Hudson gave a demonstration on "The Care of Shoes." Lyn Hunt helped Mrs. Ollinger in a demonstration on "How To Buy and Care for Lingerie." Girls completing the sewing course are Karen and Pam Ollinger, Wanda Sue Garmon, Lyn Hunt and Jane Hudson.

Unit III girls under direction of Mrs. Tom Britten have completed their sewing course. Girls having completed this course and who will model dresses at the Carson County dress review in Panhandle Friday are Sandra Kotara, Janice and Diane Britten.

No-duct hoods are simply installed under kitchen cabinets or on the wall with four screws. This hood does not send air outside. It filters the air and sends the clean air back into the room. In the no-duct hoods there are two snap-out filters. One is a life-time aluminum mesh grease trap; the other is a filter filled with activated charcoal which removes the smoke, odors and dust.

Boon to cleaner kitchens are range hoods. This no-duct hood filters cooking steam and odors through aluminum mesh and charcoal. Splash plate matches hood top.

Six Sure-Fire Ways To Be Obnoxious

The surest way to lose friends and alienate people is to hold forth at great length on any of the following subjects:

Your health. No one wants a long, involved answer to a polite "How are you?"

Your children. One short, amusing anecdote is permissible. But stop there.

Friends unknown to the group you're with. You can't expect people to care about persons they've never met.

Your social life. It's all right for you to be impressed with the places to which you are invited, but don't expect anybody else to be.

Firm opinions on any subject you don't know much about. Next time you hear someone sound off on a subject about which she knows nothing, watch the boredom on the faces of her listeners. Give your opinions on any subject if they are based on facts. Otherwise, admit you don't know enough about the subject to have a definite opinion.

Any pointless story, told just to bring in the names of important people. That's about as boring as anyone can get.

You run no risk of boring your audience if you talk about them rather than about yourself.

And if your main desire is to entertain rather than to impress, you won't be a dull companion.

Don't be a bore at home, either. Read Ruth Millett's "How to Have a Happy Husband." Send 25 cents to Ruth Millett Reader Service, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 489, Dept. A, Radio City Station, New York 19, N.Y.

Build Linen Supplies During 'White' Sales

By KAY SHERWOOD
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Is a white sale really a sale or is it simply a gimmick to extract more dollars from a homemaker's budget?

For the benefit of brides-to-be building trousseaus and for those of us who need to augment linen supplies, a canvass of mills and reputable stores indicates that the white sale is still a true-blue bargain sale. The August and January white sales are designed to help move domestic goods at periods when business is traditionally slow.

The sale is no longer "white," today's linens being as colorful as a mid-summer flower garden. Nor are the sales limited to bedroom linens. Besides sheets and pillowcases, there are bedspreads and blankets, kitchen and table linens, and bathroom towels usually included in the mark-downs.

Price cuts range from 10 to 60 per cent. Most drastic cuts are made on slow moving items and luxury or fancy color goods. A 30 per cent markdown on white sales is average, according to the canvass.

Other than price cuts made on store inventory, are the goods mills price especially for white sales. Bates, for example, reports that it usually cuts costs on six bedspreads so they can retail for $1 to $6 below par.

If you are thinking about buying new mattresses — shifting to foam rubber or king or queen-sized beds, for example, it will be less expensive to outfit the new sizes by shopping the white sales.

I used to shop the sales simply to replace threadbare sheets and pillowcases. But with the increase in bedding sizes — in our home we have foam-rubber, innerspring and cot-sized mattresses — a sale offers the only economical way to cover them. It is not very satisfactory, I find, to try to fit regular contour sheets to a cot-sized mattress.

In children's bedrooms, blankets and bedspreads take a beating. When you want the room to look extra nice, a clean, fresh spread can do wonders. Sales encourage me to invest in additional bedspreads to fit their beds.

POLLY'S POINTERS Threading Suggestion Aids Seamstresses

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY — I have just learned how to thread a darned needle easily, and it is just great. Take a piece of sewing thread, fold it and put the loop through the eye of the needle. Then put the yarn through the loop and gently pull the sewing thread and yarn back through the eye of the needle.

—MRS. D. H.

DEAR POLLY — If you have a washer and dryer but still like to hang clothes outside, this is a help: Throw your clothes in the dryer for about 10 or 15 seconds, let them tumble and then take out. This does away with shaking when ready to hang them and is especially good for baby's diapers and sheets. It saves a lot of time.

—R. D.

DEAR POLLY — Since the good, old, fishing days are here again, I would like to share this little pointer with all others who like to fish. Never leave home without a lemon in your fishing box. In a jiffy it will clean your hands of that fishy smell.—MRS. J. L. S.

DEAR POLLY — I use a small, strong chain hooked over a hanger in my clothes closet and insert metal shower curtain hooks every few links to have a place to hang purses. Then I cover the whole thing with a long plastic dress or coat cover.—MRS. C. K.

DEAR POLLY — When you want your dress shirts or blouses to look starched, but not to feel stiff, try this. Dissolve one package of unflavored gelatin as directed on the box. Pour into one gallon of hot water. Dip garments, wring and dry as usual. They'll have just enough "body" to look nice and will iron like a dream.

—MRS. B. S.

GIRLS — I used only half a package of gelatin in one-half gallon of hot water to do two cotton blouses and a circular madras skirt. I am more than delighted, as they do have a newer look and the ironing (they were slightly damp) really was a dream — if ironing can ever be so pleasurable.—POLLY

DEAR POLLY — I have a tip for knitters who find it difficult to cast-off loosely as most patterns say to do. I cast-off onto a needle at least two sizes larger than the ones used in knitting the article.

—MRS. V. E. K.

Dear Abby...

Ex-Schoolmate Assumes 'Friend' Remembers Her

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Recently I answered my door and was confronted by a woman who insisted that I knew her. When I told her I didn't she seemed offended and kept me guessing for some time. It was most embarrassing. She turned out to be an old schoolmate I hadn't seen in FORTY-ONE years! Really now, Abby, we weren't that close in the first place and hadn't had any contact in all that time. It was good to see her again, but wasn't she presumptuous to have expected me to remember her? She had the advantage over me because she had been told where I was living. How does one tactfully handle the idiotic question, "I'll bet you don't remember me, do you?"

EMBARRASSED
DEAR EMBARRASSED: With the forthright honest reply, "Perhaps I should but I'm sorry I don't. Who ARE you?"

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I have three children under five years old. Several times when I've come home from work, I've found them badly bruised. Even with broken bones, My wife said they fell out of the highchair, or down the cellar steps. Once the older one said, "Mommy hit us," and she was called "a filthy little liar." Now I'm sure my wife has been mistreating the children because I came home early yesterday and caught her in the act. She says it's my word against hers and a man can't testify against his wife. Is this true? I operate a complicated machine, Abby, and I can't keep my mind on my work for worrying about the children. Can you help me?

WORRIED FATHER
DEAR WORRIED: Ask a lawyer (or District Attorney or sheriff) how to get your children away from a possibly dangerous and ill mother. They may need something beside your word for it, but they will advise you on tactics. And don't delay.

DEAR ABBY: To the 52-year-old woman who is pregnant goes my congratulations. She should be world famous. There are only two cases on record where a woman past 46 has had a child.

DR. K.
DEAR DR.: WHAT RECORD? Many women are able to bear a child in their fifties. And have the "children" to prove it.

DEAR ABBY: I have just read the letter signed "ICEBERG" and it is almost a perfect report on my situation, except for a few details. Her husband bathes once a week. She's lucky. Mine takes his bath in July. Her man has 4 teeth. Mine has 5, and has never been to a dentist in his life. He also refuses to see an M.D. We have been married 51 years, have 9 grown children and 22 grandchildren. I keep his clothes clean and also his bed, but I will not share it. You probably wonder why I stay with him. I love him. But not a physical love. That's out!

ICEBERG NUMBER TWO
What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills 5, Calif.

For Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Old crib sheets make good covers for ironing boards.

August's traditional white sales are no longer limited to white goods. Colorful domestic goods of all types are included, such as the block quadrangle spread, above.

TIPS FOR DIPS
Your small fry's wading pool picks up a lot of grime from the kiddies. Keep it clean with a regular cleaning. A mixture of pine oil cleaner with warm water or a combination of soda and water make inexpensive solutions. Rinse thoroughly with clear water before refilling.

Television In Review

By RICK DU BROW
United Press International
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The burning show business issue in Hollywood today is not "Cleopatra" or stars' salaries or even the worrisome problem of the survival of studios. It is the matter of desegregation as applied to the television and movie industries.

Each morning, two trade publications, "Daily Variety" and "The Hollywood Reporter," are read with avidity here by those connected with show business. And even the occasional reader needs little discernment to take note of the No. 1 running story.

The other day, for instance, the lead story in Variety was pegged on Marlon Brando's address to a meeting in which he was quoted as saying: "Actors should stand together and pledge not to support production companies which uphold principles of segregation."

And Tuesday, Variety ran a lengthy story revealing that the use of a Negro in the role of a judge on CBS-TV's "Perry Mason" resulted in an "abusive mail reaction." The publication said: "...About 50 letters were received from all parts of the country, ranging from San Francisco to New York to the Deep South." At the same time, Gail Patrick Jackson, executive producer of "Perry Mason," was reported to have tried to sign a Negro girl to play an elevator operator who becomes a key witness — but "the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) stepped into the picture and nixed that on grounds the girl would be seen in a menial capacity."

Not all Negro groups are agreed on their outlook of the situation here. While the NAACP is pressing hard, the Hollywood Race Relations Bureau says this film town has been pretty fair. The two-pronged program of the direct-action advocates is, of course, aimed at getting more Negroes jobs before and behind the cameras, and also achieving what they consider the proper portrayal of their race in programs and movies.

Television's prime concern, as has been noted previously, is that the sponsors and/or advertising agencies are afraid now of both sides: The foes of desegregation who might retaliate economically against increased use of Negro performers, and Negro viewers whose leaders are also threatening a possible boycott against specific products.

Thus far in Hollywood, the militant anti-segregationists have been more vociferous than those who have opposite sympathies, or who advocate a more mild approach, or those who might argue that an artist's delineation of characters has a duty to be independent of excess pressures of any sort and from any side.

Now the Writers Guild has jumped headlong into the fray. In a statement this week, it said it "will waive minimum payments to those of our members who so request and who volunteer their skills as writers" to organizations advocating the Negro position. The NAACP has been aiming most of its attacks at technical craft unions and not performer guilds.

The Channel Swim: A five-part study of the desegregation crisis will air on ABC-TV on successive Sundays starting Aug. 11, in the 10:30-11 p.m. EDT time slot. Reports that Lena Horne would have an Aug. 16 one-hour special on NBC-TV have fizzled; no show in prospect.

Mike Nichols and Elaine May are said to be trying to sell CBS-TV on an idea for a comedy series. Once again, the same network is reported toying with the thought of expanding "Gunsmoke" to 90 minutes in the future — and maybe "Rawhide" too.

Celanese Plans New Material

NEW YORK, N.Y. (SpI)—Plans to manufacture a high-strength plastic and to market it in the United Kingdom and elsewhere in the world were announced jointly today by Celanese Corporation of America and Imperial Chemical Industries Limited of Great Britain. The product is the Celanese acetal co-polymer known as Celcon in the United States.

Under the agreement, announced here by Harold Blancke, president of Celanese, this high-performance plastic will be marketed by I.C.I., under the trademark Alkon, in the U.K., most other British Commonwealth countries and Western Europe.

The plastic will be produced by a new company that will be owned 41 per cent by Celanese and 59 per cent by I.C.I.

Plans for a new plant have not yet been formulated and pending its construction, Celanese will supply quantities of the acetal plastic from its U.S. production for mar-

Americans Rally, Nats Lose in Babe Ruth Play

CANYON (Sp) — The Pampa American League All-Stars rallied for five runs in the final inning yesterday to pull out a 12-10 win over Canyon, but the Pampa Nationals lost a 3-0 shutout, despite a one-hitter by Gary Frasher, in regional play.

The Nats will play tonight at 7:30 against the winner of this afternoon's Muleshoe-Fritch game. The Americans will have to await the outcome of other games and will play again Thursday.

Arnie May Turn To a Defeatist

DALLAS (UPI) — Favored Arnold Palmer laughed off the suggestions of his fellow pros today that if he doesn't win the PGA golf championship this week he may develop a defeatist complex which will keep him from ever capturing it.

"Maybe it's wishful thinking on their part," Palmer smiled. "At least, I haven't stayed awake nights worrying about it and I'm not likely to start. Of course, if I don't win it pretty soon I'm liable to start wondering if I ever will."

"But right now, I'm not worried. I'm worried more about my head cold and my driving."

The PGA, which starts Thursday over the 7,046-yard heated-sea Dac Country Club course, is the only major title Palmer hasn't won. He has taken the Masters three times, the British Open twice and the U. S. Open once.

Palmer is favorite despite his poor showing in the British Open last week. Palmer is regarded as the man to beat in this 45th annual tournament for the nation's golf professionals.

"You never want to sell Palmer short," said big George Bayer, who thinks his chances on a rolling course "are as good as anybody's."

"I see where a lot of the pros don't think that Palmer, Jack Nicklaus or Gary Player (the defending champion) can win this one," Bayer added, "all I can say is that any one of them can win any tournament they play in."

"I'm not saying one of the three will win here, but I wouldn't want to have to bet against it."

A lot of pros, who didn't want to be quoted for fear they might offend Palmer, said they thought that Palmer may develop a "Sam Snead complex" if he failed to win the PGA in his sixth try. Snead has won all the big ones except the U. S. Open and at 50, he isn't likely ever to win the one major tournament that isn't on his 112 tournament victory list.

Some Think Possible His fellow golfers insisted if Snead had not blown the Open on one of his first tries when he shot an eight on the final hole to lose out, he probably would have won a half dozen or more Opens.

And they feel that if Palmer doesn't finally shake his PGA jinx the same thing could happen to him in this tourney.

The starting field for Thursday was reduced to 167 with the withdrawal of Bill Casper, Cary Middlecoff, Toby Lyons, Scudday Horner and home pro Graham Ross. Casper and Middlecoff withdrew because of injuries — Casper with a bad hand which has kept him off the tour since May and Middlecoff because of a bad back.

The field will be cut to the low 75 and ties after Friday's second round for the final two rounds of play on Saturday and Sunday.

Roy Harper was the starting pitcher for the Americans, with Larry Daniels coming on in the fifth, Gary Molberg taking over in the sixth and then Harper returning in the seventh. Culp went all the way, being tagged for 11 hits, for Canyon's loss.

A walk to Roy Harper, stolen base and Daniels' single brought in the first run in the opening inning. Canyon came back with two runs in their half on hits by Haley, Lair and Winters.

Canyon made it 3-1 in the third when Culp doubled in McAfee who had walked. Pampa came right back in the fourth to take a 4-3 lead as Barry Price, Harper and James Matney singled in succession.

Canyon tied it up in their half on a single by Evans and double by Hodge. Pampa moved right back into a 6-4 lead in the fifth as Corky Dodd doubled and Price got the second of his three hits.

Stubborn Canyon picked up a single tally in the fifth on two walks and Winn's single. Pampa matched it in the sixth on a walk and Harper's double.

Canyon then apparently wrapped the game up as they scored four times in the sixth. With two, three walks loaded the bases and Winters cleared them with a double, scoring himself on Hodge's single.

Pampa came right back with five runs in the top of the seventh on two errors, a walk, a pinch-hitter by Ricky Foster and another hit by the hot-handed Price.

A walk and double by Culp narrowed the margin to 12-10, but Daniels bore down, assisted by good fielding, and retired the side for the American win.

Wildness Hurts Frasher allowed one hit while striking out six Dumas players, but errors and his own wildness, as he walked three batters and hit one, with three of the four free base-runners coming into score, handed the Nats their first defeat. Milligan took the win, scattering four hits and never allowing a baserunner past second, striking out two and walking three.

An error, walk, wild pitch and Dumas' only hit of the game, a double by Boyd, brought in two runs in the first.

Frasher broke Milligan's no-hitter personally with a two-out single in the third, and Nolan Ellis got a two-out single in the fourth, with an error following, but both times Milligan got the last out on easy grounders.

Dumas got two runs in the fourth on a hit batter and walk, and then hit tally in the fifth on errors.

Two Dumas errors put Pampa runners on first and second in the fifth, but again Milligan got the last out on a grounder as the Nats hit only four balls out of the infield.

Nolan Ellis got his second hit in the sixth, but was picked off trying to steal second. Paul Burnett doubled with one out in the seventh, Milligan struck out the next batter, allowed a walk to Frasher, but Larry Stephens fled out to left field to end the game.

LEFT-HANDED COMPLIMENTS

IN THE NATIONAL LEAGUE THE WINNING HABITS OF THE WINNINGS SOUTH-PAW OF ALL TIME SEEM TO BE SPREADING IN THE LEFTY SET!

AAU Blasts Jordan For Cooperativeness

MOSCOW (UPI) — Payton Jordan, senior coach of the U.S. track team, today found himself in the distinct minority among American officials as a direct result of remarks made by the outspoken "non-spokesman" at a press conference Tuesday in Lenin Stadium.

Jordan, head track coach at Stanford University, indicated that he would be "happy" to score the U.S.-Russia meet on a combined men's-women's basis, but other U.S. officials were not too happy with Jordan's statement, which reflects a complete reversal from the official U.S. position on these meets for the past several years.

"Our men and women came here to compete as a team and I will be happy to have the victory fought on a combined basis," said Jordan, the U.S. men's coach. The statement apparently surprised other officials accompanying the American team.

Dan Ferris, retired secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union, was quick to point out that Jordan was not an official spokesman and his statement did not signify an official change of policy, which currently states that the men's and women's meets be scored separately.

The separate scoring system is woven into the fine print of the current Soviet-American agreement covering the annual meet of the two track and field giants.

McCovey Closes In On HR Mark

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Willie McCovey is closing in on a National League home run record and there'll be no asterisk alongside his name if he makes it.

The free-swinging San Francisco Giant outfielder hit his 27th and 28th homers in the season Tuesday night when the Giants split a pair of 2-2 decisions with the Pittsburgh Pirates. The two blows gave him a total of 10 for the month—only six fewer than the NL mark set in 1949 by Ralph Kiner of the Pirates.

Kiner's mark doesn't have the prestige of Babe Ruth's 60 in 1927 so there won't be any national uproar to disturb Willie's comic-book reading. Baseball's poobahs put an asterisk alongside Roper Maris' name when he hit 61 homers in 1961 on the grounds the season was longer than when Ruth set his record in 1927. But as far as anyone knows nobody in baseball has suggested that the month of July is longer now than it used to be.

It only seems lonelier to NL pitchers, who have been coping with McCovey during his current rampage. The big guy has hammered away at a .333-clio since June 30 and has lifted his season average to .281.

Softball League

Harold Deering's bases-loaded double drove in three runs in the third inning and provided the winning margin as the Pampa Stars downed the Miami Cowboys, 3-2, in an Industrial Softball League game last night while the Cabot Clowns shut out the Panhandle Packers, 5-0.

The Stars, who have won only one of their last six games, dropping from first place to the cellar, returned to life last night as their DP combo of Art Self and Jimmy Enloe came back from National Guard camp and provided P. D. James with good fielding support. James was racked for nine hits.

McCovey's 27th homer came in the ninth inning of Tuesday night's opener and gave the Giants their victory. Willie also homered in the first inning of the nightcap and had a second hit during the game but the Pirates earned the split on the strength of a nine-hit attack that included two triples by Dick Schofield, one by Bill Virdon and doubles by Roberto Clemente and Bill Mazeroski.

McCovey has now hit safely in 21 straight games during which he hit 14 homers and drove in 24 runs.

Little Stu Miller Challenges Dick

By United Press International
What are the odds that Dick Radatz, the Boston monster who terrifies American League hitters, would be challenged by a pitcher who was once blown off the mound by a gust of wind?

You name 'em and you've got the odds against Stu Miller, a 160-pound chap whose hobby is contract bridge, being in the big leagues in the first place. Yet the ex-San Francisco Giant right-hander is doing a brilliant job of relief pitching in his own right and is the key reason the Baltimore Orioles are still within shouting distance of the American League lead.

Miller, whose equipment is described by hitters as "slow, slower and let's not get ridiculous," has been the closeout pitcher in the Orioles' last seven victories dating back to July 5. He's been the official winner in only one of those games and his season record is a mere 3-4 but that only proves that records don't always tell the real story.

Preserved Victory Miller—he was "blown" off the mound by a sudden gust of wind during the 1961 All-Star game in San Francisco—turned in a typical clutch relief job Tuesday night to preserve the Orioles' 5-2 win over the Detroit Tigers. The win moved the Orioles to within 6½ games of the first-place New York Yankees, who were rained out in Minnesota.

The Los Angeles Angels shaded the Cleveland Indians 2-1, the Washington Senators downed the Chicago White Sox, 3-1, and the Kansas City Athletics routed the Boston Red Sox, 11-0, in other AL action.

Miller was called in Tuesday night after the Tigers got runners on first and second base with one out and the Orioles leading in the eighth. He yielded a walk and run-scoring hit but then retired Rocky Colavito and Bill Bruton to end the inning and went on to shut out the Tigers in the ninth. Homers by John Powell, Jim Gentile, Brooks Robinson and Bob Johnson produced the Orioles runs as they dealt winless Frank Lary his third loss.

McBride Wins 10th Ken McBride pitched a three-hitter and struck out five to win his 10th victory for the Angels. The Angels scored both their runs (See LITTLE, Page 7)

Editor's note: - In yesterday's mail, we received the most interesting and entertaining letter we have ever seen. The city editor, managing editor and entire staff read it in relays of laughter, with even the door church editor unbending in a smile.

LET ME explain some thing about United States baseball fans. They come in two groups about evenly divided. 1. The Happy Group. 2. The Unhappy Group.

DEAR SIR,
I am sure you are aware that there are a few frustrated people in the U.S.A. who are New York Yankee haters.

THANK YOU kindly, James Waldrop 404 Doucette Pampa, Texas.

DEAR COUSIN PAT,
In reply to your question of "Who are the New York Yankees and are they different from other United States Yankees?"

WELL, PATRICK, since you now have a clear picture of who the New York Yankees are why don't you come over from the old sod, and we'll go to the series and watch the Yankees play.

IN OUR country we have ONE major league consisting of ten baseball teams located in ten different towns around the nation.

Girls Softball
Skellytown edged the Pampa All-Stars, 12-9, and made it a double win as they outslugged the FFers, 23-20, in a pair of Girls softball games yesterday.

Softball

White Deer Hosts LL Play

CANADIAN (SpI) - Canadian Little League games will be suspended this week while the Little League All-Stars prepare for the annual Little League District Tournament.

Canadian All-Stars are slated to play their first game at White Deer on Friday of next week, July 19, beginning at 6 p.m. Their opponents will be the winners of a first-round game between White Deer and Spearman.

The Canadian Stars drew a first-round bye.

Fourteen boys may be carried on the tournament team roster. Don Litchfield of the Cardinals has been selected as manager of the tournament team, and H. D. Berry of the Red Sox is coach.

Picked for the All-Star team were:
YANKES: Mel Whitefield, John C. Isaacs, Johnny McGraw, and Kevin Koch.
CARDINALS: Buddy Wood, Keith Wood, Steve Cranford, and Gary Keim.
DODGERS: Jerry Faulkner and Bobby Cockrell.
RED SOX: Randy Pennington, Ricky Berry, Bobby Gutierrez and Richard Pennell.

There will be no Little League games at all this week. The schedule will be resumed on Monday, July 22, unless the All-Star team is still involved in tournament play.
