A gallery of more than 200 spectators applauded when a six-man jury returned in 32 minutes Thursday with a verdict of not guilty, in the trial of Hemphill County Attorney Jim Crow, who was arrested Aug. 30 on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

The main witness for the defense in the two-day trial was Ochiltree County Judge Clarence Morris who testified that Patrolman Charlie Pryor, the arresting officer, committed perjury in another DWI case.

The defendant in that case was arrested by Pryor and Judge Morris testified that Pryor changed his testimony between the time he filed the charges and when he testified in the trial.

The state rested its case Thursday as soon as the court convened and the defense called to the stand Fermin Williams, who testified he was visited by a Sgt. Bill Caffee of Borger, who threatened to file charges on Williams for "writing false information." This charge concerned a letter Williams wrote to Col. Homer Garrison, director of the Department of Public Safety about Patrolman Pryor.

The defense's next witness was Harris Russell, an Ochiltree county building contractor, who previously was charged with DWI by Pryor and was acquitted in the court of Judge Morris.

Morris was the third witness for the defense.

Commission Puts Oil Allowable Up

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — The Texas Railroad Commission today boosted the state's total oil allowable for December by 28,707 barrels per day to a total of 2,856,214 barrels daily.

The commission ordered the December production allowable to be based on 28 per cent of potential production, up one-half of one per cent over the November production.

Lester Clark, an independent oil operator from Breckenridge, Tex., pointed out that the December allowable pattern will give Texas producers their biggest year since 1959. He said this year's figures represent an increase of 2.77 per cent over 1962.

HELP NEEDED TO FIND CASH

$10,000 Shortage Is Reported

The Pampa - Lefors United Fund today still has $10,000 short of its $62,000 goal.

From here on out, fund officials said, it is up to fund solicitors and individuals who have not yet contributed or who, perhaps, will reconsider and give a bit more if they decide their contribution was "a little on the light side."

THE $62,000 is not necessarily a goal. A better word is "need." If this need isn't reached, then the six participating agencies will have to curtail their needed programs.

But, campaign leaders are determined the goal will be reached. They issued another appeal yesterday to fund solicitors to "work" their cards, to make the calls on potential donors.

"I feel if the fund workers will make all of their calls, we will reach the $62,000 needed," Clyde Carruth, general drive chairman said yesterday.

IN MANY business places, fund solicitors said, there are employees who have not contributed.

"We hope employers will renew this appeal to these employees and point out to them the good that is accomplished by the United Fund and the need that is there," Carruth said.

The drive chairman stated that $52,000, or 84 per cent of the needed $62,000, had been

North Koreans Agree to Talk About Attack

SEOUL, Korea (UPI)—Communist North Korean officials have agreed to meet with United Nations Command (UNC) officials Saturday to discuss an attack on U.N. soldiers in the demilitarized zone between North and South Korea, it was announced today.

North Korean troops killed a South Korean army captain and wounded an American soldier when they fired on an unarmed UNC observer team in the demilitarized zone Wednesday, the UNC reported.

The meeting is scheduled Saturday morning at the Panmunjom truce headquarters. It will be the 179th meeting of the Military Armistice Commission since the Korean cease-fire agreement was signed in 1953.

The wounded American was unofficially identified as Spec. 5 Harold Aldrich, 25, of Montrose, Calif. Official identification was being withheld. He was reported hit in the thigh by a Communist bullet but not seriously wounded. He was being treated at the American hospital in Seoul.

Lt. Col. Alphas R. Clark, of Leavenworth, Kans., leader of the eight-man observer team and its only other American, was also in the hospital recovering from the effects of standing in cold water for five hours with the rest of the team to avoid Communist fire.

South Korean troops assigned to the area where the incident occurred were reported to have received permission from the Communists to enter the demilitarized zone to recover the body of the slain South Korean officer, Capt. Hong Joo Uj.

The team was inspecting demarcation markers on the shore of the river, which forms the demarcation line, when about eight Communist troops opened fire, according to South Korean officials.

Two persons suffered minor injuries in an automobile collision at 11 o'clock last night at the intersection of N. Hobart, West and Cook Sts.

Police said a car driven south on N. Hobart by Mrs. Ray D. Fillman, 54, was in collision with a car being driven north on Hobart by David Pattison, 20, of 2300 Christine.

According to investigating officers the accident happened when Mrs. Fillman attempted to make a left turn from Hobart into West St. She was given a police citation for failure to yield right of way to the car driven by Pattison.

Both were taken to Highland General Hospital for treatment. Mrs. Fillman had a nose injury and cut on her left arm. Pattison suffered leg and head injuries.

Slaying Suspect Freed By Wichita Falls Jury
WICHITA FALLS (UPI)—Jerry Wayne Shirley, 23, was acquitted Thursday by a jury of 10 men and two women of the murder of his wife's former husband, John Fisher, also 23.

Fisher was shot trying to force his way into Shirley's home at Electra, west of Wichita Falls.

Panel in Senate Crushes Hope for Tax Cut Action

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate Finance Committee today crushed by a vote of 11 to 1 a motion to speed up hearings on President Kennedy's $11 billion tax cut program. This apparently killed once and for all any faint hopes for action on the bill this year.

The vote came unexpectedly but only the margin was surprising to any degree. The sponsor of the speed-up motion, Sen. Vance Hartke, D-Ind., said earlier he had little hope that the move would succeed.

As it turned out, Hartke was the only member who voted for it.

The tax cut bill has been passed by the House but appears to be tied up in the Senate committee until at least the Christmas vacation.

Hearings are scheduled to run until mid-December—too late for final action this year with the Senate facing a Dec. 20 Christmas holiday recess.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, a member of the tax-writing group, joined Byrd in taking Hartke to task for his "excessive zeal for expedition."

"Mechanically and physically you cannot get a tax bill this year," Dirksen told him.

Red Vehicles Forced To Wait at Border

By JOSEPH B. FLEMING

BERLIN (UPI) — American military police today held up a Russian army bus and a Russian military automobile in retaliation for the holdup of U.S. Army patrol cars in East Berlin Thursday.

Military police stopped a bus carrying 25 Russians for 19 minutes and an automobile carrying four Russians for 20 minutes, American officials said.

The Russian vehicles were halted at different times near the U.S. Army's Checkpoint Charlie on the East-West Berlin border.

Two military police sedans in each operation cut off the Russian vehicle, forced it to the curb and prevented it from continuing its drive.

Both the bus and the automobile were held up for exactly the time two American patrol cars were delayed by East German police in East Berlin Thursday.

In each case, a Russian-speaking MP officer told the Russians why they were stopped.

The bus was halted at 11:46 a.m. (5:46 a.m. EST) and allowed to proceed in 19 minutes.

The automobile was halted at 12:26 a.m. (6:26 a.m. EST) and held for 20 minutes.

East German Deputy Premier Willi Stoph, in a speech to Parliament Thursday, accused the patrol cars of "provocations."

He said the Americans and Western allied soldiers on patrol endangered lives of East Berliners, committed illegal acts, acted like rowdies, damaged government property and stole or desecrated East German flags.

"The East German government, in accordance with the justified indignation of its people, will not tolerate this any more," he said.

Crippled Tanker Sinks And Creates Hazard

United Press International BUZZARDS BAY, Mass. (UPI)—The crippled tanker Dynafuel, rammed Thursday by a Norwegian freighter, sank stern first off Cape Cod today with a chunk of the bow protruding above water. The sunken vessel was declared a hazard to shipping.

The 315-foot Dynafuel sank and capsized in 30 to 40 feet of water after the two locked ships parted. The collision had imbedded the freighter into the coastal tanker.

The Coast Guard said the Dynafuel was a danger to shipping and turned the wreck over to the supervision of the U.S. Army Engineers Corps which operates Cape Cod Canal. The crash occurred a few miles outside the canal.

Stern On Bottom
The underside of the Dynafuel's bow remained exposed after it rolled over and sank. The stern rested on the ocean bottom.

The Fernview under its own power pulled away from the Dynafuel to break the death grip while three Coast Guard cutters and a tug boat stood by.

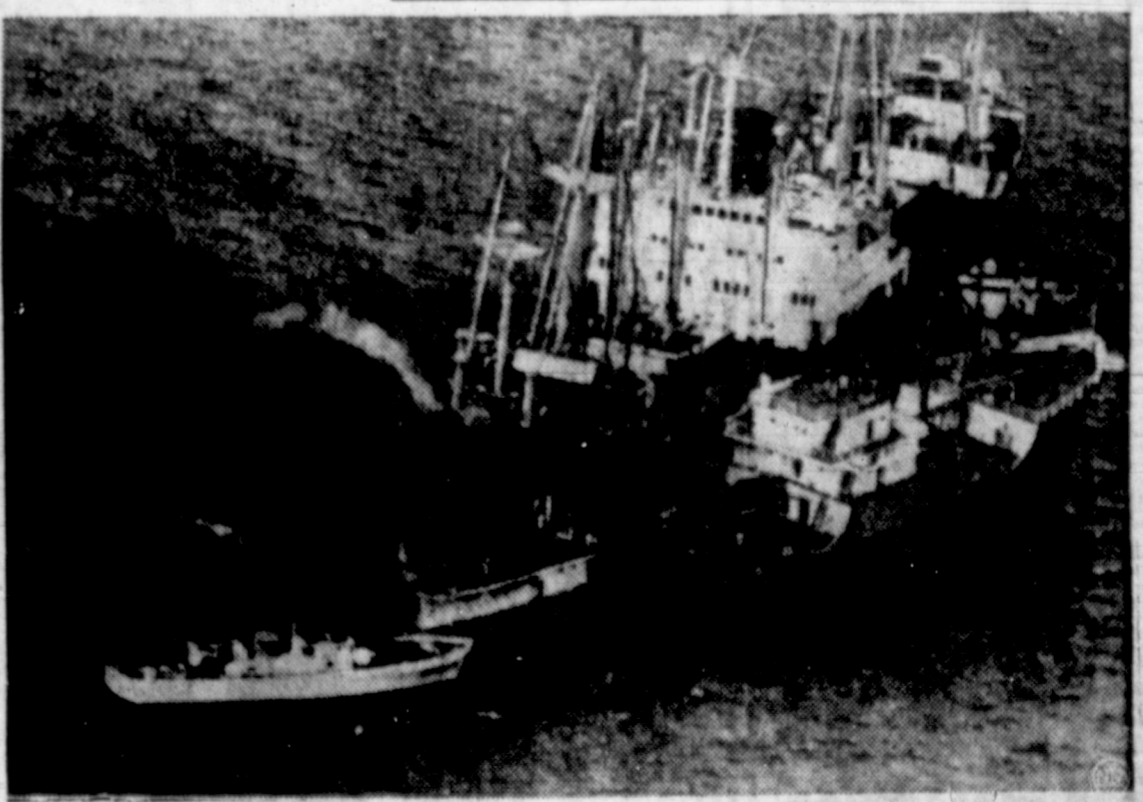

The two vessels collided in haze at daybreak Thursday in Buzzards Bay, 10 miles from the west end of the canal and about 10 miles south of New Bedford. All 62 crewmen were rescued, but five received minor injuries. Both ships were set afire.

The bow of the 510-foot freighter Fernview, out of Oslo, Norway, sliced into the Sun Oil Co. tanker Dynafuel just behind the pilot house and nearly cut off 40 feet of the tanker's stern.

Still Drifting
The stricken vessels dropped anchor Thursday night in an attempt to keep them from being tossed around. But the choppy North Atlantic still caused them to drift.

Three Coast Guard cutters put lines aboard the ships and held them steady.

A skeleton crew of Coast Guard firefighters remained

National Group Names Pampan Vice-President

NEW YORK — Quentin Williams, realtor and accredited farm broker with offices in Pampa, was elected a regional vice president of the National Institute of Farm and Land Brokers at the institute's annual meeting in New York Thursday. His region includes the States of Louisiana and Texas.

The National Institute of Farm and Land Brokers is a part of the National Association of Real Estate Boards and its annual meeting was held in conjunction with the association's 56th annual convention. The membership of the institute is comprised of over 1,900 Realtors located all over the United States and Canada.

Williams has been in the real estate business for over 10 years and has experience in selling, managing, appraising and supervising livestock ranches in northwest Texas. Prior to entering the real estate profession, he was employed for 15 years by the Soil Conservation Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture in Texas and Oklahoma. He served as president for two terms of the Pampa Real Estate Board and currently is president of the Texas chapter of the institute. He has served on the board of the Texas Real Estate Association for six years, and also as a member of the executive committee of the Texas Real Estate Association for two years.

The Lighter Side Long Trip of Waiter Really Nothing New

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Now about this business of a head waiter accompanying members of the U.S. delegation to the NATO parliamentarians meeting in Paris.

I don't understand why that should cause so much controversy. After all, there is nothing novel about it. Some waiters go off on long trips every time you give them your order. Frequently, the temperature of the food they bring back leads me to believe they have been to Iceland. In my opinion, taking the head waiter of the House dining room to the NATO meeting was like good thinking. Paris, as you know, is the fountainhead of fine cuisine. And head waiters are nothing if not parliamentarians.

something from the experience. Which is more than can be said for most congressional junkets. I frequently have lunch in the House restaurant and I can say this about it — the food may not be much to brag about but the service leaves a lot to be desired. Actually, the quality of the food is a little concern to me. Man does not live by bread alone. Not as long as Metrecal is available.

Goes For Scenery
I go to the restaurant mainly for the scenery. I sit at a table overlooking a waiter who overlooks me. But in suggesting that the service is sometimes less than impeccable, I should in all fairness add that the meals are cheap. And so is the clientele. You might think from the size of the appropriation bills they pass the members of Congress are lavish tippers. Well, I hate to disillusion anyone but candor prompts me to report that certain lawgivers are known to the waiters as "the last of the big misers."

Visitors Have Day in Court — But Good

LONDON (UPI) — Thirteen high school girls visited a "typical" day in court Wednesday and got more than they bargained for.

The girls, ages 16 to 18, listened to:

- The case of the wife who admitted stabbing a woman she found in her husband's arms.
- The case of an unwed mother accused of blinding her lover by stabbing him in the eye.
- The case of an 18-year-old porter charged with stabbing a girl who jilted him.
- Four cases of men accused of homosexual offenses.

'Music Man' Opens To Jam-Packed House

By CHARLES YAHNE
Little Harvester

The Pampa High School A Cappella Choir opened its version of Meredith Willson's "The Music Man" Thursday night before a packed house in the high school auditorium. The two-act musical comedy also is scheduled to run tonight and tomorrow with curtain time at 8 p.m.

Comprising the orchestra, directed by Hugh Sanders, are members of the Harvester Band and the Amarillo Symphony Orchestra. The excellent sets were designed by Jack Parker and constructed by Elbert Albritton with stage direction by Virginia Myers. The authentic costumes of the early 20th Century were supplied by mothers of the A Cappella Choir.

The audience is titillated from the time Mr. Sanders directs a medley of songs in "The Music Man" until the cast marches off to the tune of "Seventy-Six Trombones." The ludicrous scheme of Harold Hill, played by Keith Riemer, and the town gossips keep the audience laughing from beginning to end. Susan Lawrence plays the female lead as the old maid librarian.

Sam Bryan does a great job and fits the part of Marcellus Washburn perfectly. The rest of the cast are equally apt in their capacities including Ann Qualls, Kathy Larsen, Billy Hayes and Danny Turner.

Oklahoma's 'Soil Evangelist' To Speak at Farm-City Event

Leon J. (T-Bone) McDonald, widely known as Oklahoma's "soil evangelist" will be guest speaker at the annual Farm-City Week banquet to be held in the Pampa High School Cafeteria at 7 p.m. Monday.

According to J. D. Skaggs, program chairman, McDonald will give his famous illustrated talk featuring "Man and the Land." Oklahoma's "Billy Sunday" of soil conservation has told his dramatic story at hundreds of statewide meetings of farm, civic, industrial, sportsmen, educational, church and labor groups in 18 states of the nation. Recently he has spoken at meetings in Arkansas, Indiana, Kansas, Louisiana, California and Oklahoma.

After McDonald had spoken at a four-state rally of soil conservationists in Memphis, Tenn., Edward J. Meeman, editor of the Memphis Press-Scimitar, wrote: "McDonald's unique personality and delivery in which humor glints through the seriousness make him an educator, evangelist and entertainer all in one delightful package."

In 1956, McDonald was one of 10 men in the United States to receive a Nash Conservation Award given by American Motors Corp. for "exceptional service in the cause of conservation." He has been a recipient of plaques from the Oklahoma Bankers Association, Oklahoma Press Association and numerous farm and city organizations.

Experience as a teacher of vocational agriculture, county agent, and chamber of commerce manager enables McDonald to speak with a sympathetic understanding of the problems facing most people. He was an employee of the Soil Conservation Service for 25 years and was assistant state conservationist with headquarters at

Patrolman Named By Police Chief

Conrad G. Maddox, 24, has been appointed a city patrolman and will begin his duties with the Pampa police department tomorrow, Police Chief Jim Conner announced today.

Maddox has been a member of the air police at Amarillo, serving with the U.S. Air Force from September 1959 until his discharge in September of 1963.

Chief Conner said Maddox worked out of the office of the Amarillo police department and was on duty inside the city.

Maddox is married to the former Barbara Ann Beck of McLean. They have three children.

Annual growth in Texas national forests is estimated to be 3,000,000 board feet.

Panel OKs Project On Canadian River

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House appropriations committee, following its proclaimed economy lines, whacked $22 million off President Kennedy's recommended budget for the Bureau of Reclamation.

Recommendations that cleared the committee included $23 million for the Canadian River project.

Tickets Going Fast for Sinclair Luncheon

Tickets are going fast for next Tuesday's Pampa Chamber of Commerce monthly membership luncheon honoring Sinclair officials and employees. Three hundred people is the capacity of the Starlight Room of the Coronado Inn, where the luncheon will be held.

Seventy-five Sinclair people including fourteen executives from Tulsa, Fort Worth and Dallas are expected.

Speaker will be T. F. Palmer, Sinclair vice president of Tulsa.

Fred Neslage, chairman of the Chamber's oil and gas committee will preside at the meeting. Pampa Mayor H. R. Thompson and chamber President Aubrey Steele will welcome the guests.

Special entertainment will be provided by a Pampa High School boys quartet, who are now appearing in the local production of "The Music Man." Luncheon reservations will be accepted at the chamber office until all tickets are sold, which is expected to take place within the next few days.

Seventh Table Setting Contest To Be Held by Beta Sigma Phi Tomorrow

Ten years ago, Mrs. H. H. Hicks put to work an idea that combined profit with art and self-expression. Realizing that there is always a need for art appreciation and self-expression, as well as funds to promote community projects, she helped launch a campaign to fill all these needs. This idea, a Table Setting Contest, was used by the Beta Sigma Phi Chapters in Pampa to raise money for special projects for the first time in 1953. This year will mark the seventh Table Setting Contest to be sponsored by the group.

The event, this year, is scheduled for tomorrow and will be held in the Girls' Gymnasium at Pampa High School. The public is invited to attend the exhibition which will open at 10:30 a.m. in the morning.

Tickets will be signed by holders and deposited for the drawing which will be held Saturday evening at 8:30. Winning ticket holders will be awarded door prizes by the sorority. Coffee will be served all day.

Entrants in the formal division include the Alpha Omicron Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, The Pampa African Violet Society and the Altrusa Club of Pampa. Entering the informal division are The Evening Opti-Mrs., Twentieth Century Allegro, Jaycee-Ettes the Senior Girl Scout Troop and the Pampa Garden Club.

Individual entrants are Mrs. Martin Stubbe, Mrs. Lyle Gage, John Sweeney, Mrs. Melvin Stephens, Mrs. John Lyles and Mrs. V. N. Osborne.

Also on display will be a special exhibit of work done by members of the Exceptional Children's classes, art groups and Boy Scouts.

Several privately owned settings with accessories and appointments, many of which are from-abroad will be displayed.

Among these table setting accessories will be hand worked clothes and place mats from Brussels. Also on display will be items of hand-blown glass from Brussels, shell dishes from Germany, and table appointments from Italy. One display will feature items from the Orient, another from Bangkok, India.

The proceeds from the benefit contest ticket sales will be donated to the Exceptional Child Association in Pampa.

A prize of $25 will be awarded first place winners in the formal and informal divisions. A second prize of $15 will be given in the divisions, with the first place winner in the individual category receiving a prize of $10.

Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Opti-Mrs. Club Has Tacky Party

Opti-Mrs. Club members enjoyed a Tacky Party held recently in the Hospitality Room of Citizens Bank.

Mrs. Lloyd Summers was in charge of the business meeting and called for reports from standing committees.

Projects reported included the Coke Wagon which has been manned by Opti-Mrs. members during the Flag-Tag games and junior high school games. Tickets and money were turned in for the chances on the 22 books of Gunn Brothers Trading Stamps which will be given the lucky ticket holder during the December meeting which will be held at Lovett Memorial Library in the form of a Salad Supper.

It was decided to sponsor a rummage sale on Nov. 18 at the Optimist Boys' Club Building. The club voted, also, to give a needy family a Thanksgiving basket.

Mary Summers won the door prize by wearing the "tackiest" costume to the meeting. Each member present was judged for her costume.

Mrs. Rene Costner was welcomed as a new member and Mrs. Ray Ainsworth was a guest.

Dear Abby.... Forget Her! She's Had Enough Heartbreak!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Am I being childish? I am very much in love with a woman who was married before and has two small children. Her husband died suddenly at an early age with a heart attack. I love this woman but I cannot see my way clear to marry her because I can't put out of my mind the fact that she was once in another man's arms and has borne his children. If this woman had never been married I would get down on my hands and knees and beg her to be my wife. She claims she loves me very much and I believe her. What can I do?

CAN'T FORGET
DEAR ABBY: Don't take up any more of her time. You may, in a fit of generosity, decide to ask her anyway, the poor woman has had enough bad luck for one lifetime.

DEAR ABBY: Where can I get a good night's sleep? I have a husband who snores so loud he jars the whole house. We have a spare room, and if I slip out and go into it to get one hour's sleep before it's time for him to get up, and he happens to wake up and finds out I'm not sleeping with him, he raises the roof. Listen, Abby, I am 63 and so is he so there is no sense in this, and you can believe me. Thank you.

GOING NUTS
DEAR ABBY: What good is a roof on your house, if you wind up in mental institution? Kiss him goodnight and then go into the spare room and get some sleep.

DEAR ABBY: A lifelong friend of mine became engaged and said she was going to invite me to her wedding. I was so sure she would that I sent her an expensive wedding gift, not to mention the outfit I had made especially for the occasion. I was heartbroken when the wedding day arrived and I had not been invited. When she returned from her honeymoon, she telephoned me and asked why I didn't attend. I told her I never got an invitation. She said, "Oh, you silly little fool, I am sure I sent you one, but we are such close friends, even if you didn't get it you should have come anyway." Tell me, Abby, can friends be so close that they attend affairs like this without a formal invitation?

CUT TO THE QUICK
DEAR ABBY: Yes. But had you really felt "close" to her, you'd have called a few days before the wedding and asked what happened to your invitation.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "CURI-OUSLY CURIOUS": A man is judged by the company he keeps. A woman is usually misjudged.

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Hate to write letters? Send one dollar to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., for Abby's new booklet, "How to write letters for all occasions."

Shockers Slam To 34-14 Win

By JEFF COHANE
Pampa News Sports Editor

The Pampa Shockers warmed up a cold and windy evening Thursday with a 34-14 stomping of the Palo Duro Chicos to close out their season with a second place in district B team action.

The slippery, swifly pair of Joey Roden and Little Butch Crossland and the power running of quarterback - fullback Larry Daniels opened a 12-0 first quarter lead. The stubborn Chicos came back to cut the margin to 18-14 in the third quarter, but the Shocker trio ran for two more touchdowns in the final frame to finish up with a 7-1-1 district and 7-2-1 season record, the best Shocker mark for over a decade.

Crossland opened the ball in a hurry on the third Pampa play from scrimmage as he crossed left from the Pampa 22, sprung into the clear behind Scott Epperson and Dan Patterson, and then outran everything in sight down the sidelines with 1:07 gone in the game.

The stubborn Chicos held two more first-period threats before the Shockers scored again. Roden recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff on the Chico 30, but PD held on their 23. Again the Shockers took a punt on the PD 44 and Roden and Crossland went to a first down on the 23, but the big Chico line held at the 14.

Two plays later, Jon Windsor and Don Dinkins dove in to recover a fumble on the 12. Daniels smashed to the six, Jimmy Williams to the two, and then Daniels took it across in two tries for a 12-0 lead with 1:33 left in the period.

Big Bob Frisioe, the Chico's power-plunging fullback, and the needle-threading passing of quarterback Stanton Moore to end Randy Banks, moved the Chicos 50 yards for their first score with 7:50 left in the half. Banks taking a nine-yard scoring pass. Mike Lutz was stopped by Teddy Bird and Roden on a conversion run.

Pampa then drove straight back from their 22 on the running of Roden, Crossland and Daniels, as Larry switched to fullback with Lynn Heller calling the signals. Key plays in the drive were a successful fourth-down plunge by Daniels behind Patterson and Frank Parrish, and a pass interference call for The Bird on the Chico 15. Crossland went to the eight and Daniels bulled over in three plays, going the last yard behind Larry Eckroat with 1:03 left in the half.

Moore came right back in the air, but The Bird picked off a pass to kill the threat.

Palo Duro's next score was set up on a bad punt. Kicking straight into the driving wind, the barefooted Daniels got off only a one-yard boot to the 49. With Frisioe, Frank Wisdom and Mike Lutz carrying, PD moved deep and Frisioe smashed to the four on fourth down from the 28, and then scored from the one two plays later. Lutz ran the conversion to cut it to 18-14 with 5:45 left in the third.

Penalties and fumbles nullified good runs by Crossland and Roden. Daniels put PD in the hole as the fourth period opened with a long kick which Parrish grounded on the Chico six, but Frisioe bulled the ball out of danger. Roden came up to make a flying pass interception on the PD 43.

Jimmy Williams went left to the 30 and Roden then made like a magician. Cutting toward a hole at right guard, Joey found the hole closed and twisted in mid-stride and cut back to the left, weaving in and out of the secondary and going all the way to paydirt without a hand being laid on him. Crossland went over behind Williams for the conversion and it was 26-14 with 9:04 left.

Frisioe and passes moved PD right back into contention, but a rugged defense led by Crossland and Roden took the ball away on downs on the 14 with 3:15 left in the game.

Daniels and Roden proceeded to alternate the running to kill out the clock, and did it with a vengeance. A 14-yard smash by Daniels moved the ball to the Chico 42 with seven seconds left and Crossland then headed right as the final gun went off. Little Butch failed to stop running however, until he crossed the goal line, and Larry Cotten ran the conversion after the game had ended.

Defensive standouts for Don Myers' Shockers included Haskell McLean, Crossland, Roden, Windsor, Dinkins, The Bird, Eckroat, and Wayne Hill.

Packers, Bears Clash on Sunday

By United Press International

The champion Green Bay Packers and Chicago Bears square off Sunday in a showdown that has generated more interest than any regular-season clash during the modern era of the National Football League.

Green Bay is a four-point pick to beat the Bears at Chicago and break the first-place deadlock in the Western Division. Both teams have 8-1 records, the Packers having won eight straight games since losing the season opener to the Bears, 10-3, in Green Bay.

A sellout crowd of nearly 50,000 will jam Wrigley Field; tickets are being scalped for as high as $50 apiece; security guards have been posted to keep practice sessions secret, and the CBS television network for this game has been expanded to 116 stations.

Owner-coach George Halas, who has experienced remarkable success in converting his Bears to a ball-control and defensive team this season, fretfully commented that "anyway you look at it, the Packers have the edge."

Commented Coach Vince Lombardi of the Packers: "It's true the Bears haven't scored too much this year. But one thing they've done is control that ball. Frankly, we have to break up that control if we're going to win Sunday."

Only one other game on this week's NFL program has serious bearings on the championship race. That's the battle in the Eastern Division between the Cleveland Browns (7-2) and the St. Louis Cardinals (6-3). The Browns are 7½-point picks for the game at Cleveland.

In Sunday's other games: The New York Giants (7-2) will be out to retain at least a share of the Eastern lead at home against the San Francisco Forty Niners (2-7); the Pittsburgh Steelers (5-3-1), also in the race, play the Redskins (2-7) at Washington; the Detroit Lions (4-5) are at home against the Los Angeles Rams (2-7); the Minnesota Vikings (3-6) entertain the Baltimore Colts (4-5), and the Cowboys (2-7) take on the Philadelphia Eagles (2-6-1) at Dallas.

New York is favored by 17 over San Francisco; Pittsburgh is 7 over Washington; Detroit 10 over Los Angeles; Dallas 5 over Philadelphia and Baltimore 3 over Minnesota.

Annual Lefors-McLean Battle Goes On Tonight

The chips will be down at Lefors tonight when the Pirates close out the season against the McLean Tigers.

One of the deadliest rivalries in the Top O' Texas, season records, previous standings, physical condition all fall by the wayside when these two rivals meet.

Although both are out of the district 2-A race, the winner of the game will consider it a successful season. Last year the Buccaneers went into the game as district champions, and the Tigers turned around and took the 6-0 win. This year the Tigers are looking to do it again, while the Bucs are hungry for vengeance.

"It will be very close... anything can happen," commented Pirate coach Dunnie Goode. "This is a traditional... we'll give it everything we have," echoed McLean coach Derral Davis.

Both teams come off wins last week, Lefors over Memphis and McLean over Canadian. Goode reported that the Pirates had done well offensively and on running defense, but that their passing defense was poor. "Defensively Dwayne Steele and Marvin Todd were the standouts... Steele played his finest game and Todd made 11 unassisted tackles."

"These kids want to win real bad," said Doleful Dunnie. "We had 11 seniors playing their last football game, they have a record to be proud of and they want to go out that way. They've played 21 ball games and only twice have they played teams their own size. Yet they have won over 70 per cent of those games... that's a pretty fine record."

Seven of the 11 seniors are starters and another, all-district Wayne "Lightning" Coleman has been sidelined for the season. Playing their last game as Pirates are Don McCool, Marvin Todd, Edgar Brown, Bill McMinn, Gene Gee, Phil Woodring, Richard Bull, Dwayne Steele, Neil Cates and Ken Minter.

McLean will graduate eight seniors from tonight's team, although two of them will be among those missing due to injuries.

"We're really banged up," said Davis. "We had some boys beat up and then Canadian really hit us hard and put two more boys out of action altogether. Fullback Dickie Crockett has a sprained ankle, right end Kenny Smith has a torn back muscle and right guard Mike Johnson has been out for two weeks with a torn knee cartilage."

"Mike McCall will take Johnson's place again. Harlan Pool will play for Smith, and Bob Patton, who alternated with Crockett last week, will go all the way at fullback with Lynn Mays at right tackle."

In addition to Johnson and Smith, Patton, Gary Graham, Jim McCarty, DAVIS Seaney, Ronnie McCracken and Jackie Hess will end their high school grid careers tonight.

"We put on our best offensive effort of the season against Canadian last week, gained over 500 yards," said Davis, "and I wish we could do it again tonight. But we're really hurting physically. They're strong, they have got us outweighed and outmanned. It will be hard to contain their size and power."

"But, as Dunnie said, this is a traditional. These kids want to win real bad."

DUNNIE GOODE LEFORS' TURN? — "But, Derral, you won last year!"

44 Schoolboy Berths Can Be Determined

By United Press International

Texas high school football reaches the decisive stage this weekend when at least 44 Texas schoolboy playoff berths could be determined.

Class AAAA schools could decide eight more playoff teams; Class AAA an additional 12. So far, one team in each of those two classes is assured of post-season play.

In AAAA, Amarillo Tascosa, Fort Worth Paschal, Lufkin, Port Arthur, Pasadena, Temple, San Antonio Lee and San Antonio Brackenridge can clinch playoff spots with wins. All eight teams play Friday night.

Garland is the only 1111 team already to have a playoff berth clinched.

Big Friday Action

In AAA, the Dumas-Phillips winner, Andrews, Snyder, McKinney, Corsicana, Orange, the Huntsville-Conroe winner, El Campo, Lamarque-LaPorte winner, Gonzales, South San Antonio and Pharr-San Juan Alamo can clinch at least a district tie and a playoff spot. Palestine has already sewed up the District 7 spot. All play Friday night.

Thirty-one playoff spots in AA and A have already been decided. An additional 26 can wrap up titles this weekend. Three districts appear sure to end in ties and probably will have to be settled by a coin toss.

Tobin Rote vs. Kemp Is Weekend Feature

By United Press International

San Diego's Tobin Rote and Buffalo's Jack Kemp duel for the American Football League passing leadership Sunday as the Chargers try for a three-game eastern sweep and the Bills aim for a first-place tie in the Eastern Division.

A Buffalo triumph would lift the Bills (5-4-1) into a deadlock with the idle Houston Oilers, who dominate the Eastern race with a 6-4 record. A San Diego win would give that Western Division power an 8-2 mark and a comfortable two-game bulge over the Oakland Raiders (6-4), who take the day off.

Sid Gillman's Chargers are a 1-point choice to defeat the Bills before a crowd that could reach 35,000.

The defending champion Kansas City Chiefs, struggling to check a five-game tailspin, are 6½ point underdogs against the Patriots at Boston, and the host Denver Broncos (2-6-1) are 5-point favorites over the New York Jets (3-5-1) in other Sunday contests.

Rote, 35, and in his 14th professional season, paces the AFL's quarterbacks in efficiency — a 62.8 per cent average on 114 of 182 passes for 14 touchdowns and 1,746 yards. Rote almost played with the Bills but was traded to San Diego before the 1963 season started.

His prize target is sophomore flanker Lance Alworth, who has hauled in 46 passes for 968 yards and eight TD's. Alworth caught a record-equalling 13 passes in San Diego's 7-6 squeaker over Boston Sunday.

Baylor Frosh Defeat Rice

WACO, Tex. (UPI)—The Baylor freshman football team closed its Southwest Conference season Thursday with a 14-10 win over Rice.

Halfback Paul Becton scored for Baylor on a 72-yard pass and run shortly after the Cubs had held the Owlets on the Baylor 1-yard line. Richard Defee got the first Cub score with a first quarter, 6-yard run.

The Owlets scored on a third quarter, 22-yard field goal by tackle Richard Parker and fourth quarter touchdown by halfback L. V. Benningfield.

Baylor closed out the season with a 3-2 record and it was also the last game for Rice and left them 2-3.

SWC Round-up

By United Press International

If there was any fear that the mighty Texas Longhorns will be upset Saturday by Texas Christian, the oddsmaker didn't know it. Texas was a 12½-point favorite.

But Longhorn Coach Darrell Royal recalls vividly the 1961, 6-0 upset by TCU when Texas also was top-ranked nationally and the Horned Frogs' 14-9 victory in 1959. Maybe the oddsmakers forgot.

Texas announced that fullback Harold Phillip, hurt in last Saturday's game with Baylor, will miss the TCU contest at Baylor which molds Texas' chance for a Cotton Bowl bid. The Longhorns concentrated on kicking in Thursday workout and watched movies of the Baylor game.

Rice Confident

Rice risks its share of the Southwest Conference title Saturday in a meeting with Texas A&M, but Coach Jess Neely was optimistic. Neely let his Rice Owls take it easy Thursday after he learned that center Malcolm Walker, 243 pounder, will be back in action from a knee injury.

End John Sylvester and tailback George Parry, both out with injuries, also were expected to see action for Rice in the meeting where the Owls were a 12-point favorite over the Cadets.

Arkansas was a four-point favorite over Southern Methodist in the Cotton Bowl, Coach Frank Broyles' men have battled cool workout conditions this week at Fayetteville, but were to arrive in Dallas Friday in time to thaw out.

Unpredictable SMU

SMU, spasmodic this year, has played the role of giant-killer including a Cotton Bowl triumph over Navy. Broyles was aware of this.

Baylor, which still has a chance to share the league crown with Texas and Rice, hosts the University of Kentucky Wildcats. The Bears were 12½-point favorites. Tackle Doug Davis and guard Tom Manzonielli were doubtful Kentucky starters.

Booker, Darrouzett Top Mobeetie's Ray Corcoran Two-Way All-District 3B

CANADIAN (Sp) — District champion Darrouzett and runner-up Booker dominated the all-district 3B eight-man football team chosen here by the loop coaches Wednesday, with Mobeetie's Big Ray Corcoran making both offensive and defensive teams, repeating last year's honor.

The "one-man gang" of Mobeetie shared halfback honors with Bill Hughes of Booker, and was named as safetyman on the defensive unit. Booker took four and Darrouzett the other three offensive places, with the margin being reversed on the defensive team. Eddie Ray Hodges of Mobeetie received honorable mention at end. Little Joe Kelley failed to repeat last year's honor.

Darrouzett will go into regional play. Booker plays the Pampa Thrashers tonight at Booker. Mobeetie and Lakeview have finished their seasons.

Pro Basketball

By United Press International

Jerry West is an old story to the Los Angeles Lakers.

The former West Virginia star is enjoying his best season in the National Basketball Association and it's coming at a most opportune time with Elgin Baylor slowed a bit by painful calcium deposits.

For the second straight time Thursday night, West was in the 30's. He had 31, four under his previous night's performance, but it pushed the Lakers past the Baltimore Bullets, 123-115, in a hard-fought game.

West had plenty of help from his backcourt mate, Dick Barnett, who also had 31. Barnett scored 14 of his points in the final period.

Baltimore found itself in trouble when Walt Bellamy came up with his fifth personal foul in the second quarter. He played only half the game and scored 10 points. Terry Dischinger led both clubs with 36 points.

The St. Louis Hawks broke a four-game losing streak by downing the San Francisco Warriors, 117-105, in Thursday night's only other NBA game.

SWT-Howard Payne Top Game In State

By MICHAEL RABUN
United Press International
The Southwest Texas State Bobcats, a team experts figured would have to take a back seat in the Lone Star Conference race this year, can clinch at least a title tie this Saturday night when they host lowly Howard Payne in San Marcos.

In another top game involving teams from outside the Southwest Conference, independent Abilene Christian will try to improve on its already glittering record against cross-town rival McMurry.

Only Stephen F. Austin (6-2) can topple Southwest Texas' plans to rule the Lone Star Conference, but the Lumberjacks have to beat both Sam Houston State (4-2-1) this week and East Texas next week to have any chance at the crown.

Southwest Texas has yet to lose in eight games out this year, and is a heavy favorite to lash the Yellow Jackets, who boast only one win against six losses.

Merciless Abilene Christian will go after its seventh win against one loss. The Wildcats showed no mercy against Arlington State last week, crushing the Rebels 55-14. McMurry is 3-5 for the year.

Texas A&I, (4-3) whose football fortunes have taken a nose dive in what promised to be a golden year, tries to get back on the winning track against Sul Ross (1-5-1) at Alpine in a Saturday night contest. A&I saw its 25-game home field winning streak go down the drain last weekend against Lamar Tech. Sul Ross is fresh from a 21-21 tie against Sam Houston.

In other Lone Star Conference action, East Texas (5-2-1) visits Beaumont to take on Lamar Tech (4-3) Saturday night.

North Texas State, knocked out of the Missouri Valley Conference race last week by Cincinnati, will try to improve on its 2-6 mark Saturday in Denton against Hardin-Simmons.

Bad Record Drive
North Texas needs at least one victory in its last two games to keep from having its worst record during the 17 year tenure of head coach Odus Mitchell.

Texas Western will try to bolster its defenses Saturday for a visit from the Texas Tech Red Raiders, who polished off Kansas State 51-13 last week. The Miners lost their fifth game against two wins last week to Xavier of Ohio, 24-0.

In other games involving independent teams, Arlington State (1-7) travels to San Antonio for a nocturnal clash with winless Trinity.

For Trinity, it will be the best chance of the year to perk up a sagging offense, which has tallied only 10 points in the past four games.

Tarleton State goes to East Central Oklahoma, Texas Lutheran hosts Southeast Oklahoma, and Corpus Christi will tackle Jarvis at Corpus Christi to round out the independent slate.

Groom Tigers Close Season With Texline

BIG JERRY QUIRK
... last game

"We may be minus our big boy again," moaned York. "Big Jerry Quirk still has the 11u bug. He hasn't worked out all week and he played defense only last week. . . probably won't get to see any offense this week either. Halfback Keith Black twisted his ankle and has been out all week, he's a question mark too. Other than that we're all right."

"I don't know about Texline . . . they're an up-and-down ball club. Their record isn't impressive, but they beat Follett, 14-0 and Follett tied us. . . It's a question."

"They've got some good young kids and a real tough defense. Their offense is like ours, it hasn't jelled the way it should, but they have the potential."

"If we can keep 'em from scoring, we might be all right. We have the defense, but we just can't move the football. I'll tell you one thing though, those kids hit Wheeler as hard as Wheeler's ever been hit. . . but everything you said about Wheeler is true. It was our best effort, but that Wheeler team is great."

"They really impressed me as the finest team we've played, and that includes Lefors. I think they can go all the way."

"I wish I could be as definite about our game though. I just don't know. We have six seniors finishing their football career though, and they're going to give it a little extra. Actually, looking ahead, we'll be in good shape next year. We lose some fine boys, but we've got most of the team coming back. We'll worry about that next season though, right now I'd like to close this one out with a win."

Big Jerry Quirk, the fine full-back-end, who boots the ball for better than a 40-yard average and has a 40-yard field goal to his credit, plays his last game. All-district quarterback Dan Craig also finishes the season, as do three standout linemen—James Koetting, Tommy Talley and Bud Fields, as well as center Butch Brown, sidelined after an appendectomy last week.

Major Contests Can Decide Bowls

By United Press International

While most of college football's top ten are expected to have it relatively easy this weekend, Pitt, Oklahoma, Illinois and Alabama are doing some worrying.

The Panthers meet Army; Oklahoma plays Missouri; Illinois meets Wisconsin; and Alabama plays Georgia Tech. All four games could have a definite bearing on the bowl picture. Fifth-ranked Pitt is considered a strong bowl possibility with a 6-1 record but the 12th-ranked Cadets also have bowl aspirations and could earn a bid by winning this one and the finale against Navy in two weeks.

Sixth-ranked Oklahoma is trailing Big Eight leader Nebraska by a half-game and cannot afford a loss to Dan Devine's Tigers, who have lost only one conference battle. An Orange Bowl trip could hinge on this one.

Illinois, number eight, still has Rose Bowl hopes despite last weekend's 14-7 loss to Michigan but a loss to Wisconsin could ruin their chances.

Alabama, ranked seventh, needs a win badly to stay in the race for Southeastern Conference honors. The Tide is 5-1 in conference play behind unbeaten Mississippi.

Top-ranked Texas pits its perfect record against troublesome Texas Christian, with the Longhorns favored by 12½ points.

Second-ranked Navy also is a two touchdown favorite over Duke, and third-ranked Mississippi is a 15½ point favorite over Tennessee.

Fourth-ranked Michigan State is a 13½ point choice over Notre Dame, which was soundly beaten in its last two games by Pitt and Navy.

Tenth-ranked Auburn, also fighting for the Southeastern Conference lead, is favored by six points over Georgia.

The big football weekend actually begins tonight with games between Oregon State and Southern California and Xavier-Detroit.

The Oregon State-Southern Cal clash finds a pair of teams with 5-3 records matched in the renewal of a rivalry which has been dormant for the last three years.

West Texas Hangs Kerbel In Effigy

CANYON, Tex. (UPI) — Joe Kerbel, West Texas State University football coach, was hanged twice Thursday on the campus—in effigy, of course.

One dummy was strung from a flagpole near the library and another was dangling from the Physical Education Building.

West Texas plays its last game of the season Nov. 30. Its record is now 4-3-1.

White Deer Releases 1964 Grid Schedule

WHITE DEER (Spl) — One of the oldest rivalries in the Top O' Texas goes by the boards next year when the White Deer Bucks and the Lefors Pirates do not meet.

White Deer football coach Colie Huffman, releasing the 1964 gridiron schedule, explained that the closing of a rivalry that always played to packed houses was due strictly to the reshuffling of districts and classifications. White Deer drops from District 1-AA to 2-A next season, while Lefors moves from 2-A down to 5-B.

"We are trying to keep our schedule to AA and A teams strictly," explained Huffman. "If there is ever another rezoning and we are both in A or AA, I am sure the rivalry will be renewed." White Deer plays two AA teams, Boys Ranch and Sanford-Fritch, and eight A teams next season, including five district opponents. Only two of last season's opponents will be on the 1964 schedule, ancient rival Panhandle, and new district rival McLean.

"It's a case of going from the frying pan into the fire," said Huffman. "There are very few AA districts in the state tougher than ours, with Dalhart and Stinnett in it, but we are walking into one of the toughest A districts around too."

By ROBERT M. ANDREWS United Press International
Methodist ministers are chuckling this week over an irreverent little primer, written by one of their own, on how to improve the social status of their churches.

"You, too, can have a class church" is the tongue-in-cheek cry of its author, the Rev. Mr. Roy Delamotte, a Bible instructor at Paine College, Augusta, Ga. His hints for driving the lower classes out of the church appear in the current issue of Christian Advocate, a biweekly magazine for Methodist pastors and church leaders.

Mr. Delamotte describes the imaginary work of CROSS (Crusade to Raise Our Social Status). While most Methodists worry about increasing membership, he says, "the goal of CROSS is to increase class and status by decreasing mere vulgar bulk."

CROSS's most effective weapon in weeding out commoners is something called the "automatic call computer."

Rev. Harold Flory To Hold Revival At Bible Baptist

Rev. Harold G. Flory of Tallahassee, Fla. will be conducting a Revival Nov. 17-24 for the Bible Baptist Church of Pampa. Services began Sunday at 11 a.m. and services will be held nightly at 7:30 p.m.

Rev. Flory pastored for seven years in Ft. Worth and the church flourished under his ministry. Thousands visited the services during his ministry there and hundreds were saved and baptized in the church.

For years he has been in great demand as an Evangelist all over the state and the south. God richly blessed in the Revival Meetings he held and many people made things right with the Lord.

In March he and Bro. Blair started a new work in Tallahassee, Florida. Since then they have had to move the location of the church to accommodate the people that have been attending the services. God has a richly blessed in the work there.

Now Rev. Flory is going in to national evangelism and will be conducting one of his first meetings in that capacity for the Bible Baptist Church here.

We are expecting a real revival during this week and want to extend a hearty welcome to all to attend the services. Don't miss out on the blessings God has in store for us.

Prof's Quick Release Essential, Says JFK

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy said today that prompt release of a Yale professor held on spy charges in Russia is "essential" to continuation of U.S.-Soviet cultural exchange programs.

Kennedy told a news conference the United States is "deeply concerned" over what he called Russia's "unwarranted and unjust arrest" of Prof. Frederick C. Barghoorn, 52, head of the Soviet studies department at Yale. He had been traveling in Russia as a tourist when he was picked up.

As a result of Barghoorn's arrest and Russia's refusal even to allow American officials to see him, the United States today canceled negotiations with the Soviets on a new cultural exchange agreement.

Kennedy said Barghoorn "was not on an intelligence mission of any kind."

Sees "Serious Effect"
His arrest, the President said, could have a "most serious effect" on efforts to widen U.S.-Soviet cultural, educational and scientific exchanges. Kennedy said he had "understood" Russia had wanted to expand these exchanges.

Kennedy described Barghoorn as a distinguished scholar and noted that the professor had been active in past U.S.-Soviet exchange programs.

This gadget is fed pertinent data on each parishioner, including ancestry, income, grammar, talking, prep school, neighborhood and year and make of car.

The computer, digesting this, produces a "visitation rating," which lets the pastor know whether he should make a house call or spend the afternoon on the golf course.

Undesirables soon drift away from sheer neglect.

Tips For Pastors
The pastor's performance is important, too, according to CROSS. He should be addressed as "Doctor," and not simply "Reverend," "Pastor," or "Brother." He should wear a clerical collar at all times, "not just when marrying much-photographed divorcees."

His sermons should be sprinkled with such words as "ecumenicity" and "existential," and he should cultivate the right pronunciations.

Rather than "Saint Paul," for example it should be "Sasssst-Pohl!" — with a slightly bilious expression and a small explosion of pear-shaped air.

The class-conscious congregation wants its pastor to come out strong for racial and economic justice, but only in his sermons. "He will have better taste than to get himself in the papers — or in jail — for joining a slide-in at their favorite ski resort," says the author.

Heavy emphasis on history and medieval chants are certain to clear the pews of old-fashioned hangers-on. "In extreme cases CROSS has recommended the sung-mass with incense — especially during the hayfever season," he says.

Hide The Door
"Tricky architecture seems to discourage some of the socially underdeveloped. One pastor writes that he almost never has visitors now because they can't find the door, but another had the reverse experience, with scores of unwelcomes who thought it was a Howard Johnson's."

"Chapters of UUA (Unfriendly Ushers Anonymous) have helped some churches. Air-conditioned ones may want to try a cold shoulder club. A Trappist group, who bind themselves not to speak to anybody for a year, often goes big with Methodist men. Young people will love a NABOB chapter (National Association to Better Our Beginnings) in which they wear crests on their jackets, study heraldry and cut everyone else dead."

CROSS is having a smashing year in 1963, reports Mr. Delamotte with a six verbal wink. For one thing, "our cap's income is approaching Presbyterian standards."

Methodist Conference Will Observe Special Emphasis Day For Mission

This Sunday the Methodist churches of the Northwest Texas Conference will observe a Special Emphasis Day to present the work of the Methodist Mission Home at San Antonio, Tex.

This Home is supported by the six Methodist Conferences of Texas and ministers to the needs of the un-wed mother. It also serves as a licensed adoptive agency. In the shelter of the Home, the un-wed mother will find expert medical care, daily worship experience, professional counseling and rehabilitative training.

According to statistics available from the National Division of Vital Statistics, Public Health Service, the number of un-wed mothers has increased 91 per cent over a 15 year period. During this same period, the Ministry of the Home has increased over 117 per cent. During the last twelve month period, the Ministry of the Methodist Church to the un-wed mother at the Home in San Antonio increased more than 25 per cent over the previous year.

This increase in services to the un-wed mother has brought about a noticeable increase in the number of babies that the Home has been able to place in its program of adoption services. This year there were 163 babies placed for adoption; an increase of 31 per cent more than the year before, which is a record number to be placed in any one year.

As this problem increases and the demands upon the Home for its services increase, so must the Church increase in its concern and its support if we are to continue to match the needs of these girls and their babies with the redemptive ministry of the Church.

Dr. Hubert Bratcher, pastor of the First Methodist Church, will preach at the two morning services this Sunday. The 8:45 a.m. service is broadcast over radio station KPDN. The special music for the early service will be the Handbell Choir who will play Handel's "Largo" as the Offertory. For a Prelude the Bell Choir will ring "L'Angelus" by Gounod and they will also accompany the hymns sung by the congregation. At the second service, the Sanctuary Singers will present the anthem, "Create in Me a Clean Heart, O God" by Carl F. Muller. Mrs. Hugh Carson, organist, play the organ for all services.

The youth choir meets at 3 p.m. Sunday afternoon, followed by Sunday Fellowship at 5:45 p.m. with a light supper for the entire family in Fellowship Hall. At 6:15 p.m. children, youth, and adults will separate for one hour of Fellowship groups activities according to interest and needs. The Adult Fellowship group will meet in the church parlor.

The Sunday Night Worship service at 7:15 p.m. will be conducted by the pastor, Hubert Bratcher, who will present a brief meditation followed by an altar time.

Methodist Men will meet Wednesday, at 7 p.m. in Fellowship Hall with guest speaker Mr. Guy V. Caskey showing color slides of his trip to the Mission fields of Africa.

Monday from 7 to 9 p.m. there will be a District-wide Workshop to study the literature of the Methodist Church. This will be set up for the Children's Division and the Adult Division.

It all started back the first part of June when Olan Smith became sick when he was planting his cotton. He had an operation and has been in and out of the hospital at Shamrock every since and is confined at this time.

The day Olan was operated on friends and neighbors of this wonderful community of Kelton, planted his feed crop and the people of the Kelton community and Meridian, Okla. community have tended the crop this year and God has blessed with an abundant harvest.

Monday an operation took place to pull 21 acres of his cotton that was ready. Four pulling machines and 11 men with cotton trailers and pickups made their way to the Smith farm and stripped 21 bales of cotton from 21 acres of cotton and hauled it to the J. M. Tindal Gin at Kelton to be ginned free of charge just as it was stripped by the good neighbors.

Now to be a part of this wonderful spirit of Christ in action, and to see this procession of 10 trailers loaded with this wonderful crop, and four machines making their way to the Gin was a sight that would make any body say that they were glad that they could consider themselves a part of the Great Band of people that belong to Christ.

My friends this is Christianity in Action, and may God Bless each and every one that has had a part, not only in this fine demonstration of brotherly love for thy neighbor, but all who share with their unfortunate brother.

'Don't Sleep Too Late' Is Sunday Topic

The pastor will be in the pulpit for the services Sunday morning and night. The theme for the 11 a.m. message will be, "Don't sleep too long." He will speak Sunday night on "The Church."

Church School begins at 9:45 a.m., with classes for all ages. The Methodist Youth Fellowship meets at 6 p.m. The Adult Bible Study is at 6 p.m. Also, the Junior Choir meets each Sunday at 6 p.m.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service meets each week on Tuesday's at 7 p.m. and Thursday's at 9:30 a.m. The regular meeting of the Methodist Men is Tuesday at 7 p.m. The service will consist of worship, business, and fellowship.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship is sponsoring a Chili Supper at the Fellowship Hall in the church Saturday from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. The public is invited. No charge, just leave any offering you would like.

'So Little Time' Is Sunday Theme

"So Little Time" will be the sermon presented at the 10:50 a.m. worship service at the First Christian Church. Rev. Glyn B. Adit will be in the pulpit for both the morning and evening services. The morning service will be the climax of the Visitation Evangelism Crusade that the Church has been involved in for the past three months. At this service over 100 people will place their memberships with the Church. A service of Christian Baptism will be held at the 7 p.m. service. First Communion will be served to many at the close of this service.

The Visitation Evangelism Crusade has been directed by Dr. Bayne Driskill and Rev. Shelly Anglemeyer of Ft. Worth. The calling was done by members of the local congregation.

Rev. West To Conduct Service Sunday

"New Testament Evangelism" will be the sermon subject of the Rev. Russell G. West Sr., at 11 a.m. on Sunday at the Church of the Brethren, 600 North Frost Street. He will be assisted in this service by the Commission on Evangelism, headed by Carroll Welch.

The Sunday School will open at 9:45 a.m. with Bryce Hubbard in charge. A nursery is provided for the babies and little children.

The Young People will meet at 6:00 o'clock in the evening for their weekly program, fellowship and recreation. The worship service will open at 7 p.m. The group singing will be led by Karen Hubbard. The pastor will lead in a discussion on the question, "What is an Ecumenical Church?" The public is cordially invited.

Dr. Bratcher Will Preach at Two Morning Services

Dr. Hubert Bratcher, pastor of the First Methodist Church, will preach at the two morning services this Sunday. The 8:45 a.m. service is broadcast over radio station KPDN. The special music for the early service will be the Handbell Choir who will play Handel's "Largo" as the Offertory. For a Prelude the Bell Choir will ring "L'Angelus" by Gounod and they will also accompany the hymns sung by the congregation. At the second service, the Sanctuary Singers will present the anthem, "Create in Me a Clean Heart, O God" by Carl F. Muller. Mrs. Hugh Carson, organist, play the organ for all services.

The youth choir meets at 3 p.m. Sunday afternoon, followed by Sunday Fellowship at 5:45 p.m. with a light supper for the entire family in Fellowship Hall. At 6:15 p.m. children, youth, and adults will separate for one hour of Fellowship groups activities according to interest and needs. The Adult Fellowship group will meet in the church parlor.

The Sunday Night Worship service at 7:15 p.m. will be conducted by the pastor, Hubert Bratcher, who will present a brief meditation followed by an altar time.

Methodist Men will meet Wednesday, at 7 p.m. in Fellowship Hall with guest speaker Mr. Guy V. Caskey showing color slides of his trip to the Mission fields of Africa.

Monday from 7 to 9 p.m. there will be a District-wide Workshop to study the literature of the Methodist Church. This will be set up for the Children's Division and the Adult Division.

Wall Street In Review

NEW YORK (UPI) — International Statistical Bureau, Inc. says that "the market's ability to withstand an increase in margin requirements as well as the renewed tension over Berlin indicate that the underlying factors are still constructive."

"While we may have seen a temporary peak," it adds, "this does not foreshadow the end of the bull market. In fact, we expect new highs during the next six to nine months, even though prices may have difficulty advancing at this time and could even recede somewhat."

Harris, Upham & Co. notes that bargain hunters will be out in force in the weeks before the end of the year and the approach of one of the strongest seasonal periods — the year-end rally — should give good short term profits. "The longer term will depend largely on the outcome of the tax bill," it adds.

Dr. Douglas Carver, Pastor of the First Baptist Church, Pampa, will be in the pulpit for both services of worship Sunday. At the 11 a.m. worship he will speak from the subject, "Out of the Abundance." Joe Whitten, Minister of Music, will direct the Church Choir in singing "Hear My Prayer" by James. Miss Eloise Lane, Organist, will play "Thanks Be to Thee" by Handel for the offertory.

"Heaven's Open Windows" is the sermon topic the Pastor has chosen for the 5 p.m. worship. The Chapel Choir will occupy the Church loft and Whitten will direct them in singing "Set Down Servant" by Shaw.

First Baptist Church, Pampa is in the second week of stewardship emphases program. The Wednesday evening program will be in keeping with this emphasis. Plans have been made for Dr. Ronald Prince, Pastor of the University Baptist Church of Abilene, to speak at a church wide dinner meeting beginning at 6:00 p.m. Other program personalities will include Rev. Carroll B. Ray and Joe Whitten.

Site Is Secured For Chapel of Apostolic Faith

A building site was purchased recently for the new church building of the Pampa Chapel of the Apostolic Faith, it was announced this week. The location is a half-block of land from the corner of Dogwood and Harvester eastward.

The congregation of Apostolic

Rev. & Mrs. Floyd LaMunyon

Faith believers formerly met at the Kingsmill Community Church. At present they have rented the Seventh Day Adventist Church, corner of Ward and Buckler, and will conduct regular services there until their new Chapel is built. Through the week of November 17th to 24th revival services will be held each night, with Sunday meetings at 7 p.m. and services at 7:30 p.m. Evangelist Floyd LaMunyon of Lawverne, Oklahoma, who is temporarily serving the church as pastor, will conduct the revival services. The public is invited to attend.

Scientists Subject Is 'Mortals And Immortals'

"In the way of righteousness is life: and in the pathway thereof there is no death." This passage from Proverbs (12:28) will be read in all Christian Science churches next Sunday. The subject of the Bible Lesson is "Mortals and Immortals."

These lines from the Christian Science textbook will also be included: "It is only by acknowledging the supremacy of Spirit, which annuls the claims of matter, that mortals can lay off mortality and find the indissoluble spiritual link which establishes man forever in the divine likeness, inseparable from his creator." (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 491).

CAN YOU FIND IT IN THE BIBLE?

The Bible is the most widely read book in the world. It's ethical standards are the highest known. Through the centuries its religious precepts have appealed to the best instincts within man. Most of us have read it and respected its authority from childhood. How much do you know about what the Bible really teaches? Check your knowledge by answering the following questions:

1. Was Christ born of a virgin?
2. Did Christ ever do anything wrong?
3. Is the Old Testament law of Moses still in effect?
4. Is there an absolute, unchanging standard of right and wrong?
5. Can a man be saved by his good works alone?
6. Does man have the authority to revise and modify the original Scriptures as time passes?
7. Does the Bible teach that each person will be individually judged by an all-wise God?
8. Does the Bible teach that every man will spend eternity either in heaven or hell?
9. Will men have a second chance after death?

If you would like the scripture-answer to the above questions or to other Bible questions, we believe you will be interested in our FREE Bible Correspondence Course. Simply address a postal card to:

The Weekly Message Of Inspiration

Attend The Church Of Your Choice

A. BRUNS, PASTOR
ZION LUTHERAN CHURCH

LUKE 2, 49:

WIST YE NOT THAT I MUST BE ABOUT MY FATHER'S BUSINESS?

These words were spoken by Jesus to His mother. He had gone to Jerusalem with His mother and the rest of the family and friends to observe the festivities of the day customary in those years. After the group had traveled a day's journey toward their home in Nazareth, they suddenly missed the Christ Child and went back to look for Him. They found Him in the temple in the midst of the teachers asking them questions and answering their queries. When they tried to reprimand Him for staying behind, Jesus replied with the words: "Wist ye not that I must be about My Father's business?" He was about His Father's business in the temple learning the Word of God. — The unbeliever will not read this page because he is not interested in what God has to say to him; neither is he quite convinced that the things are true which God says. So, who read this page are to be classed among the Christians. God has had an interest in you, has chosen you to be His child and heir of salvation. He has called you into His kingdom. He has bestowed upon you the greatest honor possible. For He could have chosen someone else for the vast multitude who know Him not. He has forgiven all your sins and promised you joy and happiness in the world to come — However that is not all that is to the deal. "Christ died for all that they which live should not live unto themselves, but unto Him which died for them and rose again", said the apostle Paul. God expects of His children service. From the word of God you learn what this service is which the Lord requires. As Jesus was about the Father's business, so we who have been redeemed must likewise be about our Father's business. Won't you study His word? Will you not go to church and worship Him together with the saints? That is the Father's business.

The Pampa Daily News

A Watchful Newspaper EVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP OF TEXAS TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE. The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities. We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself, no more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

Operation Guidelines

It is well established now that just about anything they wish to do on which poor youngsters have a monopoly, for all the testimony on the links between crime and poverty. Many a middle-to-upper-class suburb has had continuing cause for complaint on the behavior of a certain proportion of its youthful residents. Vandalism, shoplifting, housebreaking and other crimes are all too common among them.

When an eastern suburb gained some news attention for a community project attacking this problem, interested queries quickly poured into the town from cities and suburbs in Georgia, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Washington, California, Florida, Kentucky, North Carolina, Ohio and West Virginia.

The eastern experiment is an effort, of course, to give some kind of guidance and direction to the young people who, plainly, are not getting enough of it. What strikes the outsider is that here again, as so often before, the burden of criticism for the youngsters' failures falls upon their parents.

No doubt parents are fed to the teeth with hearing about it, but up to now they have not been able to shuck off the blame. The big complaint, not new, is "permissiveness." Either through neglect or its opposite, overindulgence, parents in many cases manage to give youngsters the idea they can do just about anything they wish to do to amuse themselves.

When this leads to transgressions of the law, disciplinary measures seldom follow. The idea instead is to hush up the matter to avoid unsavory publicity all around. In this effort, foolish parents too often have the cooperation of the police—and even merchants and other victims of the youngsters' wrongdoing.

So long as parents, the police, the whole community look upon juvenile transgressions so benignly, they will have them in ever increasing volume.

What is tragically missing in all these places is a proper sense of outrage at clear violations of law, at reprehensible conduct which ought not in any way to be condoned or quietly tolerated.

To quote a top official in the experimenting eastern suburb, his community's effort, so meagrely successful so far, has been "to restore the respectability of moral indignation."

When such indignation is more or less universal in this society of ours at all economic levels, we will have accomplished a great stride forward in coping with the juvenile crime that afflicts us more heavily with each passing day.

But if too many people continue not to care about juvenile crime but worry more about their status and their privileges, they will get the trouble they deserve. Every society does.

The Flag—Or a Cloak?

We live in a time when considerable numbers of people like to go about waving American flags in demonstrations of the things they stand for.

What does a man stand for who waves the American flag? The generalities are easy—freedom, democracy, the dignity of the individual.

What do these notions mean in specifics? Books by the shelf-load have been written in an effort to fill out the meaning. In a short space no one can do more than suggest certain key elements.

Perhaps, the man with the flag stands for the right, exercised by himself and his fellows, to choose freely those who will govern him. That power of choice is critical.

Perhaps, he stands also for the right to speak and to write freely, without encumbrance or harassment. This demands of him tolerance of what others wish to say—even when he disagrees totally.

harassment. This demands of him tolerance of what others wish to say—even when he disagrees totally.

The laws against slander, libel, incitement to riot, advocacy of democracy's overthrow, these alone put limits on this cherished privilege.

Running like a rich thread through these rights is the concept of pre-eminent human dignity. We prize the individual. We prize his right to move about at will, to act for himself as much as is possible, to enjoy equal chance with his fellows to develop to the fullest his capacities.

To look at the reverse side, clearly there is no place—among the specifics of freedom—for efforts to deprive a man of his right of choice, his right to be heard, his right to a dignified, fruitful life, and his right to know.

Kennedy's "Donner Party"

Allen-Scott Report

More Sensational Hearings Due in Eastland Committee in Executive-Legislative Battle over Access to Files

WASHINGTON—Hi-jinks at gay parties in Germany and Poland had a lot to do with those two State Department security officials being put on "administrative leave."

Also, Attorney General Robert Kennedy had a direct hand in their abrupt suspension. The President's younger brother has long kept a close eye on the State Department—as he does on numerous other government agencies and policies and activities.

The announced reason for the suspension of John F. Reilly, Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Security, and Elmer Dewey Hill, chief of the Division of Technical Services in Reilly's office, was their admission that the phone of Otto Otepka, veteran State Department security official, had been tapped.

Last week he was dismissed on the ground of leaking classified information to the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee. He is appealing this ouster.

But the phone "bugging" is only part of this explosive story. The Senate committee, headed by Senator James Eastland, D-Miss., has even more sensational sworn testimony.

That's why "Bobby" Kennedy, when he got wind of it, "advised" the immediate crack-down on Reilly and Hill.

Illustrative of what the Senate investigators have ascertained from witnesses under oath is the following:

Reilly "stripped" Hill's security file of a memorandum, prepared by another security officer, recounting Hill's turbulent conduct at social affairs in Frankfurt, Germany, and Warsaw, Poland. Reilly put this damaging memorandum in a sealed envelope in his desk. Civil Service authorities told the Senate probes they were not informed Hill's file had been "stripped" of this unfavorable information.

MORE SHOCKING DETAILS—The Internal Security Committee has a full account of the contents of the "missing" memorandum, and Reilly and Hill are slated to be closely grilled on it.

According to this document, Hill astounded other State Department officials and their wives, at a party in Frankfurt, by breaking glasses, taking off his shoes, socks, shirt and other attire, and being violent and abusive. At a Warsaw night-club, he is credited with taking over the piano and hammering out "loud and tuneless music."

Senator Paul Douglas, D-Ill., member of the tax-writing Finance Committee and one-time economics professor, told the Senate that information supplied him by the Treasury showed that in 1959, 15 persons with incomes of more than $1 million paid no taxes. Also that five persons with incomes of more than $5 million went free.

Reilly, a close friend of "Bobby" Kennedy, will also be interrogated on other sensational charges in the Senate investigators' hands, as follows:

—His reputed presence at a meeting of security officials in Europe where one of them, from a post behind the Iron Curtain, was accompanied by a woman suspected of having Communist connections. This security officer, who resigned not long ago, brought the woman to the U.S. for the avowed purpose of marrying her. Reputedly all this was known to State Department authorities.

The Nation's Press

SOCIALIST PLANS (Christian Economics) There is every reason to believe that the Labor Party will win the next election in Britain and that Harold Wilson will be the new Socialist Prime Minister. The British publication, Intelligence Digest, gives a forecast of the kind of government that will prevail in the British Islands. Here are some of the highlights:

Wilson has gathered around him a group of professors, economists, technicians and other intellectuals. They are largely irreligious, pro-Soviet, pro-African nationalism, pro-internationalism and they favor the eventual enforcement of total state planning from birth control to business. Parents may have to get a license in order to have a child and children will be educated from the earliest years entirely under public control, without any family intervention. The state will control everything and nationalism and racial differences are to be removed. There will be interracial marriage and a rapid shift into total socialism.

If that is ahead for Britain, can we be far behind? Did our Administration deliberately bring embarrassment upon Macmillan and the Conservative Party in order to hasten the election of the Socialists in Britain? Are we anti-de Gaulle for the same reason?

Some time ago we called attention to the fact that the late head of one of our great foundations had stated that when previously working for the State Department, the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Organization, or the Marshall Plan, he and others who are now running the foundations were working under instructions issued from the White House to bring about such sociological and political changes as would make union with Russia easy and comfortable for the American people. In the foundations, he declared, we are working for the same end.

That is the way the wind is blowing, and the only thing that can stop it is the sovereign people.

SPARKS—Army Secretary Cyrus Vance told a private meeting of congressional leaders that National Guard and Reserve units will be provided with latest-model equipment. According to Vance, "One of the innovations on the horizon is the 'spew' rifle, which fires a small projectile and has a caliber even smaller than a .22. Large quantities of them may be carried easily. Other weapons being developed are the Red Eye, a portable, manned anti-aircraft weapon, and a new lightweight reconnaissance tank with missile-firing power."

Senator Paul Douglas, D-Ill., member of the tax-writing Finance Committee and one-time economics professor, told the Senate that information supplied him by the Treasury showed that in 1959, 15 persons with incomes of more than $1 million paid no taxes. Also that five persons with incomes of more than $5 million went free.

Congressman Blasts Post Office on Act

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A Texas congressman accused the Post Office Department Thursday of "ruining the morale" of its employes by sidetracking Civil Service procedures to promote three Dallas Negroes over higher qualified whites.

Rep. Joe Pool, a Democrat, made the assertion as the House Manpower Subcommittee resumed hearings into "discrimination in reverse." Pool said this type of discrimination resulted from the way the Post Office Department was carrying out the administration's equal opportunity program in filling jobs in the federal service.

The subcommittee recalled assistant Postmaster General Richard J. Murphy for further explanation of the Dallas Negro promotions and subsequent transfer of the Negroes to other supervisory jobs.

Wednesday Murphy said the original promotions were made because of a "procedural error." He explained that the man granting exceptions to established promotion procedures did not have the authority to do so.

But he defended the promotions themselves and said the department intended to give the three Negroes the next permanent supervisory jobs that opened up. They are currently serving in temporary supervisory capacities.

Murphy said the promotions were "right and proper" because, although 20 per cent of the Dallas post office employes are Negroes, no Negro has ever served in a supervisory position there. The official denied, however, that such advancements amounted to a racial quota system for promotions.

However, Pool said, "these were strictly political promotions, and they backfired."

Argentina Hesitates On Oil Deal

BUENOS AIRES (UPI)—Argentina appeared Wednesday to be having last-minute reservations about its decision to cancel U.S. and European oil contracts valued in the hundreds of millions of dollars.

Government sources had indicated a presidential decree annulling the contracts signed five years ago to develop Argentine oil resources would be issued Tuesday night. Instead, oil czar Facundo Suarez announced after a two hour conference with President Arturo U. Illia that a cabinet meeting to consider the contracts was "possible."

Suarez said he would submit to Illia on Friday "a full report" on the policy the state-owned oil monopoly "should follow in the future."

Despite the 11th-hour postponement, it still appeared likely Illia's government would cancel the contracts. There were unconfirmed reports today that new pressure on Illia to reconsider his decision came from the Argentine military.

Quotes From The News

MIAMI BEACH — New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, indicating he thinks former Vice President Richard Nixon is in the running for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination:

"He's standing off stage, but peeking around the corner."

NEW YORK — Former Vice President Richard Nixon, commending that GOP presidential hopefuls debate each other:

"It is now part of the political tradition in this country for candidates to debate the issues separating them — either face to face or at long distance."

LONDON — Sir Cyril Osborne, conservative M. P., greeting news that BBC was cancelling Britain's controversial "That Was The Week That Was," which ribbed everybody including Queen Elizabeth:

"Damn pleased. It wasn't English at all."
