Body of Assassinated President Goes To Last Rest In Arlington

Slain Oswald Dies With Lips Sealed

Accused Assassin Shot By Night Club Operator

By BRUCE MILLER
United Press International

DALLAS (UPI) — Police closed the books on Lee Harvey Oswald and the world will never know what was in his mind. He was shot to death as President Kennedy's assassin by a self-appointed executioner before a nationwide television audience.

While the martyred President was being buried in Arlington National Cemetery, mourned by the world, the Communist-Castro sympathizer accused of slaying him lay on a cold marble slab in a morgue, disgraced.

He died with his lips sealed.

He took to the grave with him the reason Kennedy was killed, if, as police are convinced without doubt, he was the assassin.

The 24-year-old pro-Castro Marxist was being transferred in handcuffs from city jail to a maximum security cell at the county jail house when Jack Ruby, a one-time Chicago street brawler and owner of a Dallas striptease night club, leaped from a crowd of newsmen and policemen with a curse, jammed a snub-nosed .38 caliber pistol into Oswald's side, fired one shot.

Could Do Nothing
"You son of a bitch," he shouted. Oswald jerked back. So did the police bodyguards flanking him. But there was nothing they could do to stop Ruby.

Dallas policeman P. T. Dean said Ruby told him he shot Oswald out of concern for Mrs. Kennedy. Dean said Ruby did not want Mrs. Kennedy to "go through the ordeal of returning to Dallas" and testifying at Oswald's trial.

He said Ruby decided to "obviate" the legal process by executing Oswald himself.

Oswald was quickly rushed to Parkland Hospital's emergency ward where President Kennedy died Friday. At 1 p.m. (2 p.m. EST), 48 hours to the minute from the official time of Kennedy's death, Oswald's heart stopped beating. Open heart massage failed. He was pronounced dead at 1:07 p.m.

Henry Wade, Dallas County district attorney, filed murder charges against Ruby and said he would ask for the death penalty.

Seeks Death Penalty
"A second assassination doesn't help (justify) the first one," he said. "I will seek the death penalty for Ruby even if he pleads guilty because shooting a handcuffed man deserves the death penalty."

Oswald died without speaking a word. There was no chance for a death-bed confession. He had steadfastly maintained that he had nothing to do with the assassination of Kennedy, the wounding of Gov. John Connally, who was riding with Kennedy, and later the slaying of Dallas police officer J. D. Tippitt.

Wade said, however, that there was more than enough evidence to send Oswald to the electric chair.

Wade said he had no idea of Oswald's motives. They died with him. Some of the outrage expressed across the nation at Ruby's vengeance shooting was based on the fact Oswald never will be able to tell what he knew and never can be brought to justice.

The Dallas Morning News reported in a copyright story that agents searching the room Oswald rented under the alias "O. H. Lee" found a map that was Wade's "exhibit A."

Path of Bullets
The paper said the map was lined with the path of the assassination bullets. The News said this was the "major" evidence

Business Almost At Standstill As Texas Mourns

By United Press International
Business almost stopped in Texas today while its citizens paid their last respects to slain President Kennedy.

The grief of Texans was made more acute by the fact that a sniper's bullet killed Kennedy in Dallas.

Schools, colleges, retail stores, manufacturing plants, city, county and federal offices, banks and moving picture theaters closed.

Thousands of churches over the state held special services yesterday, but additional memorial services were held today.

In Fort Worth, for example, a 30-minute memorial service was held in Farrington Field, the city's main high school stadium. It was sponsored by the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce, in cooperation with the city's churches.

Deliver Last Sermon
Two of the clergymen who took part in the Fort Worth service said the last prayers Kennedy probably ever heard. They are Magr. Vincent Wolfe of St. Patrick's Cathedral and Dr. Granville Walker, pastor of the University Christian Church.

Magr. Wolfe gave the opening prayer and the Rev. Walker the closing prayer at the Fort Worth breakfast Kennedy and his wife attended in Fort Worth a few hours before Kennedy was killed.

Business in Dallas was almost completely shut down in response to a plea from Mayor Earle Cabell.

"We call on the people of Dallas to observe and honor the proclamation of President Johnson in mourning the death of President Kennedy. We also urge all our citizens to fly their flags at half-staff during the prescribed time."

Dr. Luther Holcomb, president of the Dallas Council of churches, suggested that the city's pastors each put a television set in their sanctuary or chapel.

Houston's manned spacecraft center shut down for the day. Government offices on all levels closed.

The big petroleum companies — Humble, Continental and Shell closed their offices. Many churches and religious organizations scheduled special services.

Members of the Houston Retail Merchants Association closed three hours.

Most San Antonio businesses closed for the day. Pharmacies closed three hours. The Rev. J. L. Manning of San Fernando cathedral held services on behalf of the Archbishop of San Antonio.

Government Offices Closed
All city and county offices in El Paso closed. Only personnel absolutely necessary to keep the base running were kept on duty at Ft. Bliss, near El Paso.

Most of Waco's businesses closed for at least two hours in response to a plea for Mayor W. B. Lenamon.

Most Austin stores closed all day and nearly all of the city's churches held a memorial service. Most stores in Lubbock also closed until 1 p.m.

Nearly all stores in the Lower Rio Grande Valley remained closed for two hours.

Some Amarillo stores remained closed all day but most of them shut their doors from 10 a.m. to noon.

Hundreds of Pampans Attend Mourning Rites in Churches

Pampa mourned the death of the late President Kennedy today with services in the First Methodist Church at Ballard and Foster Streets and a Requiem High Mass at St. Vincent de Paul Church.

More than 700 persons attended services at the First Methodist Church where Reverend Russell G. West, presided over the services, conducted by the Ministerial Alliance, and gave the call-to-worship. Prayers of adoration were led by Dr. Douglas Carver, Baptist minister.

Rev. Glyn Adsit of First Christian Church, led the responsive readings of the Old Testament. New Testament readings were given by Dr. Hubert Bratcher of First Methodist Church.

Prayer for the nation and the Benediction was given by Rev. William West of the St. Matthew's Episcopal Church. Hubert Carson was in charge of the singing and Jerry Whitten organist.

Requiem High Mass was conducted by Fr. Edward Cashman at 8:30 a.m. in St. Vincent's Fr.

Charles Welcher assisted. Pat Darling and Pat Homer served as altar boys. Over 500 persons observed the 8:30 mass today with many more attending a 6:30 mass. Masses also were held at 6 a.m. and 8 a.m. Saturday. Four masses were held on Sunday.

All schools in Pampa and the surrounding territory were closed today. Regular classes will resume Tuesday. All federal and state offices were closed. Post office activities were suspended from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m. There were no mail deliveries.

Ernest S. Marsh, president of the Santa Fe railroad, ordered all trains on the Santa Fe 13,000 mile system to cease operation for one minute at 11 a.m. CST.

All Pampa business houses closed during the funeral hour from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. with many not opening before 1 p.m. Some business places were closed all day. The court house was closed for the day and City Hall offices shut down from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

1,200 Hear Final Rites In Cathedral

By MERRIMAN SMITH
UPI White House Reporter

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The soul of John Fitzgerald Kennedy was commended unto God today at a simple Roman Catholic funeral Mass attended by world leaders.

Last rites for the assassinated President were conducted at St. Matthew's Cathedral by Richard Cardinal Cushing of Boston, the lifelong friend and pastor who performed Kennedy's marriage ceremony and baptized his children.

Kennedy's flag-draped casket was borne to the cathedral from the White House, six blocks away, by the same horse-drawn caisson that brought the remains from the Capitol where an estimated 240,000 persons passed by the bier.

Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy, who was at her husband's side when a sniper's bullet cut him down Friday, followed on foot behind the caisson. Walking behind her to the mournful cadence of muffled drums were President Johnson, former Presidents Eisenhower and Truman, foreign heads of state and other dignitaries.

Proceed to Cemetery
After the services, the cortege was to proceed to Arlington National Cemetery where the commander of PT-109 will rest forever among fellow comrades-in-arms of World War II and other heroic dead.

The "Rest in Peace" Mass for America's first Roman Catholic President was offered in the presence of 1,200 persons who had come from near and far to make a final gesture of love or respect.

"Life is not taken away... life is but changed," intoned white-haired Cardinal Cushing, as he offered the ancient Catholic prayer for the departed: "Be merciful, we beseech Three, O Lord, to the soul of Thy servant, John Fitzgerald Kennedy, whom You have just called out of this world... He put his hope and trust in You: Do not then let him undergo the pains of hell, but bring him to happiness without end."

Glittering Interior
But its interior is a glittering example of Romanesque-Byzantine architecture, with pillars of magnificent red-and-white Carrara marble and richly colored mosaics of Venetian glass. Its showpiece is a magnificent high altar of white marble, carved in India and decorated with gold.

St. Matthew's Cathedral which was Kennedy's parish church, is a drab red brick building with a 200-foot high dome. Standing since 1896, and begrimed by the soot of the downtown area it occupies, it is far from impressive in its external appearance.

Across America, millions of Kennedy's countrymen said their own prayers for the repose of his soul. President Johnson declared a national day of mourning and "earnestly recommended" that every American attend his place of worship "to pay homage to the memory of a great and good man."

Jacqueline Kennedy Faces Final Ordeal

United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy faced her final ordeal today.

The widow of the nation's 35th President bore heroically the burden of her grief, but found it difficult to surrender his earthly remains.

She has not been able to separate herself from him. Twice Sunday she went to the Capitol Rotunda where his body lay in state to kiss his flag-shrouded coffin.

Mrs. Kennedy walked ahead of kings, chiefs of state and former presidents today on the last march she made with the man who made her the First Lady of the land.

From the moment the President fell in her arms Friday, shot by an assassin, she has held back the sobs, much the way the fallen Chief did when he had to bear in public the heavy grief of the loss of their infant son last August.

After today's rites she was expected to go into seclusion where she can mourn alone and unobserved.

Cherishing history and knowing their place in it, Mrs. Kennedy took her children, John Jr. and Caroline, to the Capitol Sunday to fix in their memories the national homage paid to their father.

They rode behind the horse-drawn caisson and the riderless black horse to the sound of muffled drums. They saw the crowds, the uniforms, the flags and the sorrow.

The 34-year-old widow must have remembered the previous joyous trip to the Capitol in the inaugural parade, not quite three years ago.

Today is John-John's third birthday. Instead of a celebration for the little boy, it will be a national day of mourning for his father.

Mrs. Kennedy was to walk behind the casket of her slain husband in a funeral procession from the White House to St. Matthew's Cathedral, six blocks away. For a widowed First Lady to walk behind the caisson in a final tribute to her husband is unprecedented.

From the church she was to go to Arlington National Cemetery for the burial of the man she married 10 years ago.

This afternoon at the White House she planned to meet the heads of state and potentates, the greatest array of dignitaries ever to pay solemn homage to

Accused Assassin Is Shot Down in Dallas

 said, and shocked her.
 It was at this point that police started trailing Oswald.
 They said he left the bus, took a cab to his rented room, changed clothes, and rushed back out.
Shot Policeman
 Within minutes, Patrolman J. D. Tippitt stopped him, Wade indicated, and was shot and killed with two bullets. Witnesses saw Oswald reload his pistol and flee on foot.
 He was captured and subdued in a movie theater five blocks from the site of Tippitt's slaying.
 Oswald's Russian wife, Marina, who lived with their two children in suburban Irving, told authorities that her husband had a rifle similar to the one that killed the President. It was missing.
 Oswald usually spent the weekend in Irving with his family. On Monday mornings, he drove back into Dallas with a neighbor.
 This time, the neighbor gave him a ride Friday morning. He said Oswald had a package with him and told him it was window shades. Wade said it was the rifle.
 When Oswald was shot it was the second time in three days that a killer made a mockery of extra heavy Dallas police security precautions.

 Chief of Police Jess Curry was sharply criticized for deciding to transfer Oswald during the daytime. He noted that he could have moved the assassin secretly "in the dark of the night," but had promised reporters and photographers from throughout the nation and free world that he would make the transfer during the day.
Operates Two Clubs
 Ruby is a 52-year-old bachelor who likes to wear flashy clothes and date showgirls. He operates two clubs in Dallas. One is the Carousel where strippers prance along three runways and an "amateur" night is held each week for local girls who want to become professionals. The other is the Vegas Club on the outskirts of the business district. It features a comic, pretty girls, a Negro band and setups for customers who bring their own liquor.
 Wade said he had "no idea" how Ruby got into the underground garage where Oswald was to be loaded into an armored car for the transfer from the jail at city hall to the county jail seven blocks away. Only policemen and newsmen were supposed to be inside. Press cards were checked, and double-checked.
 Ruby in a brown suit and snap brim fedora, crouched. He got close enough to fire point-blank . . . four inches or less. National television cameras were trained on the scene—the first actual slaying on television.
 As Oswald crumpled to the ground with a drawn out sigh, at least eight policemen grabbed Ruby. They rushed him upstairs to the jail floors while a hastily summoned ambulance rushed Oswald to the hospital to die.

President Buried On Grassy Slope

ARLINGTON, Va. (UPI)—The final resting place of the nation's 35th President lies on a grassy slope not far from the fallen heroes of other years and other wars.
 There is no other grave in the immediate area chosen for John F. Kennedy at Arlington National Cemetery, but up the hillside to the south and east and west range row upon row of simple white stones.
 Beneath these stones rest men who fell at Antietam, at Santiago, at Chateau Thierry, at Iwo Jima, at Heartbreak Ridge—the names and places read like a tragic litany of America's wars.

1,200 At Rites For President

 red insets in the same manner as the famed Taj Mahal.
 Kennedy's casket rested in front of this altar and just underneath the soaring dome of the cathedral.
 In keeping with Catholic liturgical tradition, there were no flowers on the altar or around the casket. The usual white candles on the altar were replaced with candles of unbleached yellow wax, the sign of a funeral Mass. Cardinal Cushing wore black vestments instead of the brilliant scarlet robes of his office as a prince of the church.
Ave Maria Sung
 One of Kennedy's favorite hymns, the Ave Maria, was sung before the Mass by Luigi Vena, a Boston tenor who also sang at the late President's wedding.
 The cathedral choir then sang the ancient funeral hymn "Libera Me" (which begins with the words, "Deliver me, oh Lord, from everlasting death . . .") in a new setting by the Italian composer Perosi.
 The service conducted by Cardinal Cushing was what is known technically as a "low" Mass, which means that it was the simplest type of Mass, spoken rather than sung, with a single priest officiating rather than the three who would have been required had the family chosen a Solemn High Mass.
 There was no eulogy. Insofar as the service itself went, the deceased son of the church before the altar might have been an unknown laborer rather than the President of the United States.
 The emphasis of the service was strongly focused on the Christian conviction that death is not the end, but the beginning of a larger, eternal life.
Read From St. Paul
 Cardinal Cushing read the words of St. Paul in his letter to the Thessalonians warning Christians against falling into the pagan custom of grieving over the dead "as others who have no hope."
 "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, so with him God will bring those also who have fallen asleep through Jesus."
 He also read the words of Christ recorded in St. John's Gospel:
 "I am the resurrection and the life; he who believes in Me, even if he die, shall live."
 Following the Mass proper, Cardinal Cushing came down from the high altar and approached the casket to bestow a final absolution on the mortal remains of the late President.
 While the congregation stood in reverent silence, the 68-year-old archbishop of Boston pronounced the ancient prayer for the forgiveness of a merciful God:
 "Oh Lord, do not bring this thy servant to trial, for no man becomes holy in Thy sight unless Thou dost grant him forgiveness of all his sins."
 "We implore Thee, therefore, do not let the verdict of thy judgment so against him, whom the loyal prayer of Christian faith is commending to thy mercy . . ."
 The cardinal walked around the bier, sprinkling the casket with holy water, three times on the right side, three times on the left side.
Exchanges Holy Water
 Then he exchanged the holy water for incense, and again walked around the bier, waving the burning silver pot of incense at the casket three times on each side.
 "Dominus vobiscum" — "The Lord be with you," said the cardinal.
 "Et cum spiritu tuo" — "and with thy spirit" replied choir and congregation.
 "Requiescat in pace" — "May he rest in peace."
 "Amen."
 While the cardinal recited the prayer known to Catholics as the "Our Father," and to Protestants as "The Lord's Prayer," Vena sang its words, in English, in a musical setting by composer J. Alfred Schehl.
 As pallbearers removed the casket to the hearse waiting to transport it to Arlington for burial, the cathedral choir sang a recessional hymn in Gregorian chant. It is called "In Paradisum" and is a triumphant reassertion of the Christian hope of everlasting life in heaven.
 Lord Byron, English poet, accomplished the feat of swimming the Hellespont in one hour and 10 minutes.

Police Sergeant Resigns His Post

Pampa police sergeant D. W. Aycock has resigned effective Dec. 7, according to Police Chief Jim Conner.
 Chief Conner said Aycock, who is currently on vacation leave, joined the force on Sept. 1, 1961, and was promoted to sergeant April 16 of this year.
 The chief said he will interview candidates for a patrolman's post and plans to submit to the city manager a recommendation to fill the vacant sergeant's berth in the near future.

Connally Spends Restful Night

DALLAS (UPI)—Texas Gov. John Connally, wounded by the sniper that assassinated President Kennedy, spent another restful night.
 Connally's pulse, respiration and temperature were normal. He sat up for 15 minutes today while doctors examined him.
 In the U.S., outbreaks of grasshoppers are most common in the northern Great Plains, where there are more than 100 varieties.

Ship Launched To Replace Lost Sulphur Queen

MOBILE, Ala. (UPI)—The largest sulphur-carrying ship ever built in this country has been launched today with hopes she will never become as famous as her predecessor.
 The Marine Texan, a converted tanker capable of carrying 23,000 tons of molten sulphur, will replace the Marine Sulphur Queen, a ship that sailed into oblivion last Feb. 2. Marine Transport Lines of New York will operate the new ship.
 The Sulphur Queen left Beaumont, Tex., on a routine 10-day trip to Norfolk, Va., with a load of liquid sulphur. She joined the list of ships that vanished at sea.
 Many of the ship's men, including her captain, James V. Fanning, lived in Beaumont and nearby areas. After spending a few days with their families between trips, they boarded the tanker that cold February morning to sail.
 The last word from the Queen on her 64th and final trip was a routine radio message giving her position 230 miles southeast of New Orleans. She was never heard from again.

Mercury Slides To 31 In Pampa

 A mass of chilly Pacific air surged through the Texas Panhandle Monday, dropping the mercury and threatening showers in much of the state's eastern half.
 Low temperatures across the state ranged from 31 degrees in Pampa to 61 degrees at Brownsville.

Rumor Of Rudy's Death is False

DALLAS (UPI)—Rumors from as far away as Frankfurt, Germany swept the Dallas city jail today that Jack Ruby, the man who killed President Kennedy's suspected assassin, had himself died.
 Police Lt. Woodrow Wiggins in charge of the city jail, said Ruby "is alive and well."
 Only object in the White House today that belonged to President Thomas Jefferson is a bronze inkstand.

Young John Kennedy Asks 'Flag for Daddy'

By HELEN THOMAS
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI) — "I want a flag to take home to my daddy."
Those were the words of John Fitzgerald Kennedy Jr., who is 3 years old today.

The little boy was seen by millions of people clutching the tiny American flag in his fist as he walked down the 36 steps of the Capitol Sunday.

He got the flag in the Speaker's office for the tall man with laughing blue eyes who used to love him and pet him and take him on helicopter rides. The President who is no more.

John-John, as his father affectionately called him, was taken there when he got restless in the Rotunda where he had to be so still and couldn't break loose from his mother's firm hold.

Would Understand
His father, who was rarely still, would have understood.

John Jr., is expected to go to Arlington Cemetery today when the daddy he adored is laid to rest with other Americans who served their country. He has been there before and he has heard the sound of taps.

The President took his son to Arlington on Veterans Day, only two weeks ago, to honor the war dead. The youngster charmed the nation by saluting the men in uniform and attempting to fall in step with his father.

Today when there should be rejoicing for John Jr., there is sadness for him. He was to have a little birthday party Tuesday to celebrate with his playmates. He may still have that His father would have wanted it.

Apple of his Eye
His sister Caroline, who will be 6 years old on Wednesday, got most of the attention. She was the apple of her daddy's eye.

But in the last six months, a bond of mutual affection and mutual joy had sprung up between the President and his son. John Jr. used to walk him to the office in the West Wing in the morning, talking a blue streak about his toys, mostly about helicopters. He liked to crawl under the President's desk, beg chewing gum from receptionist Dave Powers and rock fast in his daddy's famous rocker.

The little boy saw his father alive for the last time Thursday when he jauntily boarded a helicopter with his parents for a ride to Andrews Air Force Base. They went on to Texas and to a tragic fate.

The fallen President gave his son a White House beginning and a love that knows no end.

Rites Held in Dallas For Slain Patrolman

By MICHAEL WHITTAKER
United Press International
DALLAS (UPI)—Three hours after the last muffled drum tap and the last volley echoed over vast Arlington Cemetery today, across the Potomac from Washington, another body was lowered into the earth here. There was far-less ceremony.

Patrolman J. D. Tippitt, 39, devoted husband and father, was buried in Laurel Land Memorial Park at 2 o'clock (3 p.m. EST) after services in the Beckley Hills Baptist Church on the south edge of Dallas.

Less than an hour after President Kennedy was shot, Tippitt, an 11-year-veteran on the force, was shot twice by a pistol. Police say there is no doubt—Lee Harvey Oswald shot President Kennedy and he shot J. D. Tippitt. He used the initials, not a first name.

Tippitt had spotted Oswald in the Oak Cliff section of Dallas and had pulled his cruiser over to the curb. He got out of the car. The gunman fired. Tippitt fell dead.

He made $490 a month. Dallas police have no insurance. They are not covered by Social Security. But his widow will receive $225 a month from the police retirement fund. And donations running into thousands of dollars have been pouring in. There are three children to

Child Hurt as Autos Collide

A two-car collision in Pampa Sunday injured a two-year-old Amarillo child.

The collision occurred at 11:20 a.m. at Brown and Gillespie, between cars driven by Hugh S. Quinn, 73, of Borger, and Jack C. Waddell, 20, of Amarillo. Jack Waddell Jr., 2, was admitted to Highland Hospital after being knocked unconscious by the collision. Mrs. Waddell, 20, who complained of pains in her back, was not admitted to the hospital. Another baby, in her arms, was uninjured.

Quinn was charged with failure to yield right of way at a stop intersection. Damage to each car was estimated at $450.

Cattle Prices Take Seventh Consecutive Dip

By United Press International
Prices for cattle took their seventh consecutive dip at Midwest markets last week, dropping a full $7 per 100 pounds below a year ago. Hogs and sheep also worked sharply lower.

A normal slow movement of carcass beef prior to Thanksgiving, continued heavy cattle slaughter and beef output last week combined to push wholesale beef prices lower. The live market reflected these bearish influences despite a moderate decrease in marketings.

Steers sold steady to 50 cents lower, heifers steady to 25 cents lower, cows steady to $1.00 lower, except strong to 25 higher at Kansas City and St. Joseph, bulls steady to 50 cents lower, vealers weak to $2.00 lower and feeders mostly steady.

Barrows and gilts traded 50 to 75 cents lower and sows 50 cents to $1.00 lower. The price trend was based on lower wholesale pork trade and seasonal heavy supplies.

Lambs were mostly 50 cents to $1.00 lower, ewes steady to 75 cents higher and feeder lambs steady to 50 cents higher. Receipts were large and wholesale prices were lower.

Choice steers at Chicago averaged $23.33, against $23.83 last week and $30.45 a year ago. The average prices of barrow and gilts was $14.60 compared to $14.89 and $16.80.

Chicago wholesalers posted steer beef steady to $1.00 lower, heifers 25 to 75 cents lower, cow beef 25 to $1.00 lower, lamb $2.00-$2.50 lower, pork loins $2.50 lower, Boston butts $2.50 to $3.00 lower, spare ribs 50 lower, ham steady to $3 higher and bellies steady. At New York, steer beef was $1.00 lower, lamb $1 to $1.50 lower and pork sides weak to 25 cents lower.

Soybeans paced a sharply lower, grain futures market this week on the Chicago Board of Trade. Soybean futures topped 36 cents on news of President Kennedy's assassination, continued delay in a wheat sale to Russia and word that a large Eastern vegetable oil firm filed for bankruptcy.

The standard in Russia wheat talks plus restless export business knocked nearby wheat down 7 cents and distant contracts down more than 18 cents. Large receipts of corn brought general selling and nudging to the feed grain. Rye dipped 8 cents on reports that large amounts of the grain were moving to Chicago from the Northwest and Canada.

Television In Review

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The nationwide viewing of the murder of President Kennedy's accused assassin, as recorded Sunday by television, involved every watching American in a reality of the dangers in a situation gone mad.

Yet, despite the sensation of the moment, it is probable that never before has the nation been in such total communication as when, also Sunday, it mourned with Mrs. Kennedy and her family as the late President was taken to the Capitol Rotunda to lie in state.

The continuous network week-end coverage was concerned on Saturday mostly with whether the avowed Marxist, Lee Oswald, 24, would confess to the sniper shooting of President Kennedy Friday. There was also solemn music, historical evaluation, recollection, and examination of the new Chief Executive, Lyndon B. Johnson.

Sunday, however, the days of madness and sorrow were suddenly intensified again when, as millions of persons watched on television, a man rushed up to Oswald in the basement of the Dallas city jail as he was being moved to the county jail, and shot him fatally. Immediately the rumors started. Was this all part of a plot in which the accused Oswald had to be silenced? Or was this new killer simply seeking revenge for the death of the President?

At the same time, the other half of the dual nightmare claimed the viewer's attention: The President was dead, and there was the procession to the rotunda, with throngs watching and waiting. Hard indeed was the person whose eyes did not moisten at viewing the ceremonies and listening to the eulogies.

As on the day of the assassination, Mrs. Kennedy's bearing, her composure, showed great courage and fineness, and could only make those Americans who watched proud; a television reporter at the Rotunda scene was near tears.

Union Official Wants Playboy Bunnies Covered

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A lady union official has told congressmen that the scantily clad waitresses in the bunny clubs should be covered — by the minimum wage law.

Myra Wolfgang, of Detroit, Mich., vice president of the AFL-CIO Hotel and Restaurant Employees Union, gave a House labor subcommittee a description of the problem that ran the gamut from A-cup to G-string.

The subcommittee opened hearings this week on legislation that would bring restaurant workers under the $1.25 an hour minimum wage if the bulk of their income is in wages. Mrs. Wolfgang urged further extension of the proposed new coverage to employes whose pay is mostly in the form of tips.

Cotton Bowl Rodeo to Offer 7 Performances This Year

DALLAS (SpI) — The second annual Cotton Bowl Rodeo will be a major attraction of the Cotton Bowl Week festivities here. There will be seven performances Dec. 26-31.

The rodeo will be presented indoors in the State Fair Coliseum. It is sponsored by the State Fair of Texas and approved by the Rodeo Cowboys Association.

Approximately 300 cowboys, including the top hands of the sport, are expected to contest for a purse totaling $10,500, to which entry fees will be added. They will compete in a saddle bronc riding, bareback riding, calf roping, Brahma bull and steer wrestling.

An additional event will be the National Finals of the girls barrel racing, with the 15 top-ranking girl barrel racers competing at each performance for a total purse of $2,500.

Special entertainment at each performance will include trick and fancy roping by Jim Eskew Jr. and rosin-back riding and knockout comedy by the famous Joe Zeppe Family.

The Cotton Bowl Rodeo will be produced by Lynn Beutler of Elk City, Okla., and Harry Knight of Fowler, Colo., two of rodeo's top stock contractors, who also will furnish the bucking stock for the rodeo.

Performances are scheduled at 8 p.m. Dec. 26-31, with a matinee at 2 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 29.

Magician to Perform At Miami High School

MIAMI (SpI) — Anthony Midey will perform modern magic in the high school auditorium at 1 p.m. Wednesday. Midey comes from a family who were magicians in show business.

He has worked in every phase of show business, specializing in entertaining children and teenagers. His program offers education as well as humor and skill and is geared to hold and keep the interest of the high school audience.

This program will take the place of the Paul Twin's trapeze act that was originally scheduled.

President Johnson Completely Recovered from Heart Attack

By DELOS SMITH
UPI Science Editor
NEW YORK (UPI) — President Lyndon B. Johnson has completely recovered from the heart attack he suffered eight years ago and will be a vigorously healthy chief executive, according to heart specialists here.

They pointed to the active life Johnson has led since his months-long recuperation in 1955, including the 1960 election campaign as President Kennedy's running mate.

"You could have no better proof of his complete recovery," said one professor of medicine who for reasons of medical ethics spoke anonymously. He and other specialists deferred to Johnson's own physician, Dr. J. Willis Hurst of Emory University, Atlanta, who was en route from New York to Washington.

They could speak of what medical science knows in general about recoveries from heart attacks. Each week, each month and each year the victim survives his personal disaster, his heart muscle is healing itself and ridding itself of scar tissue.

Some Remains
Some scar tissue always remains as a residue but it need not interfere with healthy heart function, they said. In the unanimous opinion of three specialists, a man who has had a complete recovery of years-long duration can face up to the most exacting tasks, including that of being president.

They pointed to the example of President Dwight D. Eisenhower, who suffered a heart attack during his first term, went on to win re-election and still is vigorously healthy.

To be sure, the man who has had one heart attack has demonstrated "susceptibility," one specialist said. But, after he has recovered, this "susceptibility" can be minimized to zero by proper living.

Johnson's physician, Dr. Hurst, has told colleagues that his patient "has devoted himself unstintingly to his recovery." At the time of his attack he weighed well over 300 pounds. Now his weight is around 180 pounds which is considered an "optimum" weight for a man who is six feet three inches tall with heavy bone structure.

Reject Shock Notion
The specialists rejected the layman's idea that a sudden emotional shock — such as the assassination of a beloved superior and being elevated in a flash into the nation's highest office — was "bad for the heart."

It is not "bad" for the healthy heart, they said. The healthy heart adjusts itself to all the situations of living without any damage to itself. They were convinced on the evidence available to them that Johnson has a healthy heart since his attack occurred on July 2, 1955, and he has had many shocks since then, even though none could be in any way comparable to the shock he had Friday.

Controversy Over Thanksgiving Has Lasted for Years

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Thanksgiving Day, though long a favorite American holiday, has been a subject of much controversy over the years.

Before 1863, people in different states celebrated Thanksgiving on different dates and in eight different months, according to the National Geographic Society.

Abraham Lincoln stabilized the holiday, setting aside the last Thursday of November. Because November has five Thursdays in some years, the day later was switched to the fourth Thursday.

In 1939, President Franklin D. Roosevelt moved Thanksgiving to the third Thursday, causing widespread public protest. Half the nation followed the Presidential Proclamation and feasted on the third Thursday. Traditionalists observed the fourth.

Two years later, Congress ended the confusion by deciding in favor of the fourth Thursday.

There was a hassle last year when the President began his Thanksgiving Proclamation by saying: "Over three centuries ago in Plymouth, on Massachusetts Bay, the Pilgrims established the custom of gathering together each year to express their gratitude to God."

Virginians protested, saying colonists at Berkeley Plantation, on the banks of the James River, observed a day of Thanksgiving on December 4, 1619 — three years before the Pilgrims held theirs.

The White House amiably acknowledged the Virginia claim. An aide pleaded "an unconquerable New England bias" and said the "error will not be repeated in the future."

Miami Lions Finish Numbering Streets

MIAMI (SpI) — The Lions Club has been at work on mapping, numbering and pinning street signs in Miami. This has been one of the most extensive projects any group has undertaken and it has required many man-hours of work.

The numbering of houses and the placing of street names is of great convenience to the community. A person no longer has to give directions to his home by saying, "I live in the second white house in Coffeeville, between the pale green house with the pink garage, and the rundown John Doe place."

He can now say with pride, "I reside at 902 South Street" or what ever the case may be.

American-United Arab Relations Sliding Again

By MAURICE GUINDI
 CAIRO (UPI) — American-United Arab Republic relations which have been a seesaw affair since the 1962 revolution of President Gamal Abdel-Nasser are on the downslide again.
 Egyptian officials are not talking about it publicly, but the Cairo press has reacted violently to the U. S. Senate approval earlier this month of a foreign aid bill amendment that would block American aid to "aggressor nations" and an admission by its backers that it is aimed almost solely at the U.A.R.
 "America threatens us!" said the Cairo newspaper Akhbar El-Yom in a frontpage red bannerline. Other newspapers joined it in an anti-American tirade unparalleled since the angry outbursts of 1958 when U. S. troops landed in Lebanon.
 Reaction has ranged from charges of Zionist influence in the U. S. Congress to a demand for the nationalization of Arab oil, in which American companies have huge interests, if the aid restriction is enforced.
 Plays Up Russia
 The newspaper Al-Ahram gave prominence to a report that Russia has offered to help the U.A.R. with its second five-year development plan scheduled to start in 1965. The timing of the report, the substance of which was not related to the U. S. Senate action, was obviously intended to contrast the attitudes of the United States and Russia toward this country.
 Despite the uproar in the press, U.A.R. authorities view the Senate move with caution prompted by the knowledge that the Administration is opposed to the measure and that it is not yet final.
 The United States pumped $474 million in economic and technical aid into the A.A.R. from 1962, when the assistance program began, to the end of June 1963.
 More than three-quarters of the total came in the form of surplus agricultural commodities, principally wheat and corn, under the food-for-peace program. The flow is continuing. A three-year agreement signed in October last year provided for the supply of $391.9 million worth of agricultural commodities to the U.A.R. for local currency.

$140 Million In Loans
 U. S. aid also included more than $140 million in loans from the Development Loan Fund, the Export-Import Bank and other agencies during the past 11 years.
 It is generally felt that any stoppage of American aid, particularly food shipments, would deal a strong economic blow to the U.A.R. The country's 6.5 million acres of arable land do not produce enough to feed its 26 million people who are increasing by 800,000 annually. Even with the additional 2.2 million acres to be brought under cultivation with water stored at the Aswan High Dam after its completion, food production will still be far behind national demand.
 American food supplies have had the advantage of enabling the Cairo government to save its scarce foreign exchange for other needs. If food shipments are halted, it is estimated that the U.A.R. would have to spend at least $100 million in hard currency to buy food abroad.

Hints For Sly Bachelors On True Male-Wise Dressing and Grooming

By HAROLD SHEEHAN
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
NEW YORK (NEA) — Who more than any other man, must watch his clothing? The bachelor, of course.

For the young or not so young man on the move, female-wise, good dressing is not just a matter of what you wear but how you wear it.

Some of the most cogent advice to the single man in this department comes from a couple of geniuses named Cadwallader and Nudnick, authors of "The Little Black Book," just published in paperback form by Macfadden.

Among their observations: A good tailor is the silent accomplice of the bachelor, whether he has the teardrop figure of the endomorph or the Y-shaped physique of Cary Grant. Conspire with the man of the needle. His is the art of concealment; he disguises or eliminates all your natural failings: lordosis (curvature of the spine), knock-knees, unequal legs, uneven shoulders, paunches and protrusions in general. Don't mar the bumpless silhouette he gives you by bulging the pockets with junk. Carry a thin cigarette case and a flat wallet (no problem) or, still better, that small Diners' Club book and be a millionaire for a month.

A studied imperfection, in an otherwise flawless ensemble, can sometimes induce the laying on of hands by the kind of girl who can't resist straightening a crooked picture.

A tie slightly askew, a handkerchief spilling out or a single dangling forelock may be all that's necessary for her to make the gesture of affectionate familiarity from which she cannot easily retreat. Many a wise wolf has used this cocker-spaniel approach profitably.

Alors, it is not for you to dazzle but conform. You can let yourself go a little in the sportswear department, but that's about it.

Mission Chapter Taught at Meet

Joy Russell Circle of Hobart Baptist Church W.M.U. held a recent meeting in the home of Mrs. Bob Pittman, 1012 S. Christy.

Mrs. Bill Simpson led in the business meeting, during which the November Community Mission Project was discussed. Each member will contribute to a Thanksgiving basket to be given to a needy family.

Plans for sponsoring a dinner for the Y.W.A.'s were discussed, and the circle's duty in sponsoring an auxiliary were outlined. Mrs. Woodrow Hyde taught Chapter Two of the mission book, "Mandalbaum Gate." Mrs. Sam Gunnblath was introduced as a visitor.

Other members attending were Mmes. Carl McAnally, Larry Ray, Tommy Richardson and the hostess, Mrs. Bob Pittman.

Invitation Held For Nine New Members

Aloha Iota Conclave of Kapa Kapa Iota met recently in the Hospitality Room of Citizens Bank for the initiation of new members with Judy Neslage presiding over the service. Those initiated were Mrs. Mary Ann Tucker, Mrs. Nita Williams, Mrs. Jeannine Peurifoy, Mrs. Gay Nell Smith, Mrs. Ramona Gruber, Miss Deanna Smith, Miss Sharon Washburn and Miss Letha Moore.

Following the ceremony, refreshments were served to the initiates and the following members: Mmes. Pat Boswell, Ann DiCosimo, Kay Veale, Jo Ann Shackelford, Mary Keim, Jo Parker, Mary Ann Best; Misses

Dear Abby...

State Your Policies, Then Move Upstairs

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am 42 years old, and a bachelor by choice. I am neither ugly nor handsome. I enjoy the company of women occasionally, but I don't want to get married just now. My problem is an intelligent, but extremely aggressive young woman — a Goldwater Republican, by the way, who moved in next door to me. She started the usual neighborly friendship. If she sees a light on in my place, or my car out in front, she runs over to visit. She has offered to cook for me and do my mending (I refused), and her conversation always gets around to marriage. Last week I moved my refrigerator, cooking equipment and TV down to the basement to make it appear that I'm not at home, but I can't fool her. What should I do?

IN HIDING

DEAR IN: Tell her you voted Democratic — and move back upstairs.

DEAR ABBY: I had my first baby 18 months ago and I received some very lovely gifts for her. I also bought many nice things for her on my own. I plan on having more children and want to save all her clothes for my next baby. I have put them away as good as new. My sister-in-law is now pregnant and is due in May. She has two other children, 11 and 9, and didn't plan on this one, so she has nothing saved for it. She is 35 and says this will be her last, so she doesn't intend to go all out buying stuff. She has Betty Boswell, Geraldine Rampp, Ann Collard, Sheila Chisolm, Rhetta Sue Durham, Peggy Turner and Judy Neslage.

Wedding Date Is Set By Couple

CANADIAN (SpI)—Announcement is made of the engagement of Therese Ann Browne of Greensboro, N.C. and Malouf Abraham Jr. of Dallas.

Miss Browne is the daughter of Mrs. Robert Connellan Browne and the late Mr. Browne of Mt. Airy, N.C. She was graduated from Mercy Hospital School of Nursing, Charlotte, N.C. and, until her resignation Oct. 1 was head nurse on the Medical Division at the Moses H. Cone Hospital, Greensboro. Abraham is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Malouf Abraham of Canadian. He was graduated from Trinity University, San Antonio with a B.S. degree. He is at present a senior medical student at the University of Texas at Southwestern Medical School in Dallas and will receive his M.D. degree in the spring.

The wedding is planned for Saturday, December 28th in the Holy Angels Catholic Church, Mt. Airy.

Pirates Ready... For Next Month

By JEFF COHANE
Pampa News Sports Editor

With three starters back from a team that ran up a 16-9 season record and finished second in district 2-A, basketball coach Dale Prescott should have plenty to look forward to.

Prescott is looking forward... to next month when three of the seven returning regulars might be able to play.

All-district Don McCool, six-foot guard who led the team in scoring with 299 points and a 12-point average last season, suffered a broken ankle in his last football game and is not expected to play until after Thanksgiving. Lightning Coleman, 6-1 forward, hurt a neck vertebrae during football season and his return date is a question mark. All-district Terry Bromlow, the other six-foot guard and second half of the ballhandling duo, has two broken ribs as a football souvenir and is also a question mark.

"All I can do is hope they'll be back by the Shamrock Tournament," said Prescott. "With our height and experience, I hoped to get the jump on the rest of the district, but now we'll just have to catch up."

The Pirates will have two big boys back however for tomorrow night's opener with Shamrock (tonight's game at Groom was cancelled). 6-2½ Phil Woodring and Bill McMinn. Woodring was the team's leading rebounder last year, averaging 10 off the boards during the season, and made honorable mention all-district, with McCool, Bromlow and McMinn behind him in that order as rebounders.

Six-foot junior Dave Roberts and 5-7 ballhandler Neil Cates are also returning.

Juniors up from the B team and adding plenty of height to an already-towering crew are Danny Robbins and Dickie Archer, each 6-1, and six-footers Danny Hill and Bill Nichols.

McLean won district last year with an 8-2 mark, one game ahead of Lefors, who edged Wellington in turn by one game.

"Not counting Lefors, I'd have to pick McLean and Wellington as the favorites, with Memphis, Canadian and Clarendon in that order," opined Prescott, who will also have a first going for him tomorrow night in addition to winning his opener.

Prescott, who enters his eighth season as Lefors' basketball coach, will become the first Bucaneer cage coach in history to win 100 games with the Pirates' initial victory this year.

Prospects for the Pirates however, are not encouraging. "We are real weak, and have a real young ball club," reported Prescott. "The worst thing is our lack of height, we have one 5-7 girl and the rest of our rebounders are under 5-5, which is giving away too much to the other clubs around here."

The Pirates have only one senior starter returning from a team that posted an 0-20 mark last year. "I'll have to start four youngsters, the majority freshmen, against as tough a schedule as any we've had in the eight years I've been here," dolefully reported Prescott. "We expect to show the fans a hustling type of ball game and give them their money's worth, but we just don't have the height or experience to have an outstanding season. If these kids come along though, our prospects will be good."

Returning regulars are senior guard Shires Cable, 5-7, the defensive rebounder, and junior forward Francis Clarke, 5-3. Sophomore letterman Charly Gustin, 5-2, will play forward, and be the playmaker.

Freshmen rounding out the team are Bennie White, 5-5; Judy Barnes, 5-4; Nita McCool, 5-3½; Kathy Gatlin, 5-4½; Frances Gifford, 5-2.

The St. Louis Cardinals should be grateful to their underrated defense for boosting them into a triple tie for the National Football League's Eastern Division lead, and the Chicago Bears can thank Roger LeClerc that things aren't all knotted up in the West, too.

The Cardinals upset the New York Giants, 24-17, Sunday and made it a new race in the Eastern Division. The Cleveland Browns, by defeating the Dallas Cowboys, 27-17, joined in the first-place tie with St. Louis and New York. All have 8-3 records.

The Pittsburgh Steelers nearly threw the Western Division into a deadlock, too, but LeClerc kicked an 18-yard field goal with 4:31 remaining to give the Bears a 17-17 tie.

The Green Bay Packers, who defeated the San Francisco Forty Niners, 28-10, would have tied for the lead if the Bears had lost. Chicago now has a 9-1-1 record; Green Bay is 9-2.

In Sunday's other games, played on a Sunday of mourning for President Kennedy, the Los Angeles Rams edged the Baltimore Colts, 17-16; the Minnesota Vikings squeezed past the Detroit Lions, 34-31; and the Washington Redskins defeated the Philadelphia Eagles, 13-10.

Broke 17-17 Tie

The Cardinals broke a 17-17 tie against the Giants on Charley Johnson's three-yard touchdown pass to Bobby Joe Conrad early in the final period. Garland Boyette set up the score by recovering a fumbled punt by the Giants' Ed Dove on the New York 20.

At Pittsburgh, the Bears twice went ahead on short touchdown runs, by Willie Gallimore and Ron Bull, only to have the Steelers come back to score on Dick Hoak's six-yard run and Ed Brown's 31-yard pass to rookie Roy Curry, tying the game at halftime, 14-14.

Lou Michaels put the Steelers ahead with an 11-yard field goal in the final quarter, four minutes before LeClerc tied the score permanently.

Jimmy Brown gained only 51 yards in 17 carries against Dallas, leaving him 30 yards short of his own NFL season rushing record of 1,527. But Frank Ryan threw touchdown passes of 11 and 16 yards to Gary Collins and Ross Fichtner ran back an interception 36 yards for another (See CARDINALS, Page 11)

Dumas Battles Andrews In Thanksgiving Special

San Antonio Lee (10-0, 345-42) vs. San Antonio Breckenridge (8-2, 403-122) at Alamodome Stadium, Friday night.

CLASS AA
Dumas (11-0, 283-87) vs. Andrews (8-2, 156-49) at Lubbock, Thursday afternoon.
Nederland (7-2, 176-88) at Conroe (7-3-1, 226-81) Friday night.
El Campo (8-1, 203-77) at La Marque (10-0, 405-82) Friday night.
Austin Johnson (8-1-1, 179-91) vs. Gonzales (10-0, 323-121) at Austin, Friday night.
Pharr-San Juan Alamo (8-2, 228-77) vs. South San Antonio (10-0, 208-67) at Harlandale, Saturday night.

CLASS A
Dalhart (11-0, 401-40) vs. Muleshoe (8-5, 156-119) at Canyon, Thursday afternoon.
Winnier (7-3-1, 177-84) vs. Crane (9-1-1, 243-75) at Midland Friday night.
Jackboro (8-3, 242-148) vs. Rockwall (10-1, 318-84) at Arlington Friday night.
Paul Pettit (10-0-1, 287-37) vs. Pine Tree (10-1, 258-72) at Longview 8 p. m. Saturday night.
San Saba (7-4, 138-138) vs. Taylor (7-4, 91) at Kilbuck, Friday night.
Katy (11-0, 344-118) vs. Liberty (8-2-1, 307-138) at Abilene Friday night.
Missouri City Dallas (8-2, 222-70) vs. Hondo (10-1, 184-48) Friday night.
Donna (10-1, 266-95) at Sinton (10-0-1, 243-37) Friday night.

CLASS A
Stratford (10-1, 258-130) vs. Petersburg (10-0-1, 333-43) at Dumas Friday night.
Albany (10-1, 321-74) vs. Henrieville (9-1-1, 300-73) at Abilene Friday night.
Clifton (10-1, 270-83) vs. Van Alstyne (10-0-1, 287-74) at Marshall at 7:30 p. m. Friday night.
Bastrop (10-0-1, 243-80) vs. Rosebud (11-0, 344-20) at Rockdale, Friday night.
Hull-Daisetta (11-0, 418-61) vs. George West (9-1-1, 238-53) at Wharton Friday night.
Boerne (10-0-1, 208-24) vs. Woodstock (9-1-1, 243-28) at Karnes City, Friday night.
Merkel (9-1-1, 247-68) vs. Big Lake (9-1-1, 248-64) at 7:30 p. m. Thursday in San Antonio.

Class AA titlist Jacksboro paces bi-district winners into the regional rounds.

Brackenridge, which upset its way to the crown last year, had the same challenge before it this year. Its first round opponent is San Antonio Lee, one of only two undefeated, untied teams left in the AAAA division.

Dumas, highly favored for its third straight title, collides Thanksgiving Day with twice-defeated Andrews at Lubbock.

Jacksboro, which rocketed into play-offs by downing unbeaten Mansfield, was a dark-horse to repeat for the title because of heavy graduation losses. They play Rockwall (10-1) at Arlington Friday.

A new champion in Class A was certain since Rotan lost its district to Merkel. Merkel was the giant-killer by whipping Seagraves last week, but a regular season 50-14 loss to Albany made Albany the West Texas favorite.

Dallas Wilson and South Oak Cliff, their meeting delayed by President Kennedy's death, decide the 6-AAAA title Tuesday night, then the winner invades Fort Worth Paschal.

South Oak Cliff and Lee are unbeaten in AAAA, but only ties mar the records of Amarillo Tascosa, Garland, Spring Branch and Pasadena.

South San Antonio, Gonzales,

La Marque, Corsicana and Dumas have perfect AAA records and Pharr-San Juan-Alamo has two ties and no defeats.

Perfect records in AA are held by top-rated Dalhart and sixth-place Katy. Sinton's season is scratched only by a tie.

Hull-Daisetta and Rosebud have unbeaten, untied Class A seasons and ties only were charged against Hallsville, Petersburg, Bastrop and Boerne.

Pro Basketball

By United Press International

There's still a place for the little man in pro basketball as far as the Cincinnati Royals are concerned — especially if his name is Adrian Smith.

The smallest man on the court Sunday night at 6 feet, 1 inch, Smith scored 13 of his 19 points in the fourth period for a vital role in the Royals' 122-113 victory over the St. Louis Hawks.

It was the only National Basketball Association game of the day and the win solidified the Royals' hold on second place in the Eastern Division.

Five of Smith's fourth-period points were scored during a period when the Hawks were forced to foul to try to get possession of the ball. Oscar Robertson wound up as Cincinnati's high scorer with 32 points and Jerry Lucas had 21 points and 15 rebounds. Bob Pettit tallied 28 for St. Louis.

Sporting Sidelines

by JEFF COHANE

A LARGE NUMBER of infuriated fans have insisted that someone tell off both the officials and Berger coaches for some of the incidents in the Pampa - Berger football finale. As far as the Kenny Hebert incident, I refuse to believe that it was planned by Gene Mayfield. I have far too much respect for him and so does every coach who knows him, to believe that he would win a ball game that way. I sincerely doubt if the incident was planned. I think the Berger player just lost his head. As far as the officials, if they felt they saw both players slugging each other, then they made the right call. I will say that everyone in the press box saw the twelfth man on the field for Berger on the fourth-quarter conversion try. . . Berger scribe Leo Dromgole was yelling at the top of his lungs (quite a rance) for him to get off the field. Anyway, it is over and best forgotten.

DUE TO TODAY being a day of mourning and all schools closed, all area basketball teams have cancelled tonight's games, although games scheduled for tomorrow will be played as usual. Canadian coach John Anglin tried to call the sports department Saturday to report both a basketball game and a football game, but everyone was out to the Berger tilt. In the football game, which was composed of two teams of Canadian grid exes playing for the Jaycee fund to improve the football field, the "City Slickers" beat the "Country Boys," 13-8. Both Canadian assistant coach John Ramp and Miami football coach Bill Hines came through battered, but unbowed.

In the basketball tilt, the Wildcats and Kittens dropped a double bill to Follett, 69-50 and 52-36. The boys literally fouled their way out of the game, with Follett making 26 of 43 free throws, while most of the Cat starters heard the whistle. The girls, who had started off auspiciously in their first game, suffered the loss of offensive rebounder Dora Mae Hext with a broken toe after the Keltion game, and defensive rebounder Joyce Thorn to the hospital for an operation. Dora will be out for several weeks, and Joyce may be lost for the season, so coach Anglin will have troubles.

APOLOGY DEPARTMENT: We hate to give one to this guy, but Sobbin' Jack York, the Groom towel-thumper, deserves a so-sorry. We called the Crying One up this morning to chew him out for not reporting his basketball game with Vega, only to receive an equal flow of billingsgate asking why we had told clean out our ears. He had told us Vega had cancelled the game because their football team was in bi-district! Ouch! Hope he doesn't poison us at dinner tomorrow when we venture up to Groom for a basketball report and ball game.

AROUND THE AREA. The last area football team. Wheeler, went down to a 16-12 defeat in bi-district at the hands of Matador. If they had to lose, which we all much regret, I don't think they could have lost to a more sporting and well-mannered team of boys. The Horses have nothing to be ashamed of. . . it was a great season and a great game, and we'll get another crack at 'em next year. Incidentally, Matador will meet Knox City in bi-district and has already defeated them during the regular season, so should have little trouble retaining their title.

WE DON'T EVEN want to figure the Experts up. . . with half the games postponed or cancelled due to the President's assassination, the list is rather short, but such upsets as Muleshoe over Denver City and Nebraska over Oklahoma have made a shambles of everyone's predictions. We might as well hang up and give the steak to Otis Holladay, he's so far ahead even Major Hoople couldn't catch him.

Postponements Could Delay SWC Crowning

By United Press International
The Arkansas Razorbacks, pre-season co-favorites with the University of Texas to win the Southwest Conference Crown, managed only to break even for the season Saturday with a 27-20 victory over Texas Tech.

It was the only SWC game played over the weekend, other games having been canceled in mourning for the late President Kennedy, who was assassinated on a Dallas street Friday.

Baylor and Texas Christian officials called off games scheduled with Southern Methodist and Rice, respectively, and rescheduled them for Dec. 7.

The postponements could delay final determination of the conference championship until then if Texas A&M upsets the Texas Longhorns Thanksgiving Day.

This would leave the door open for Baylor to tie for its

Iron Man Takes Win
AMARILLO (SpI) — Pampa boxers won two out of three open bouts held at an amateur boxing night at Dees Boxing Club of Amarillo Saturday night.

In the fight of the night, Johnny Ironmonger of Pampa floored Angelo Rosendo of Plainview in the first round and went on to a unanimous decision. Delton Waters of Borger, fighting for the Pampa Optimists, knocked Gilbert Gonzales of Plainview down with a left hook on his way to a heavyweight win.

Leandro Martinez of Plainview won the other open fight, a 135-pounder with Don Clements of Dees.

Competing in high school and open bouts were fighters from Pampa, Skellytown, Tri-City and Liberal.

The Pampa Optimists will host a card of peewee bouts tomorrow night with Skellytown and Lefors sending teams.

Lucrative Bowl Bids Remain To Be Plucked

By JOE GERGEN
UPI Sports Writer

One Orange and a Tangerine have already been picked but a lot of ripe fruit in the form of lucrative bowl bids remains to be divided as spoils among the nation's major college football powers this week.

Nebraska thrashed Oklahoma, 29-20, on Saturday to nail down an Orange Bowl bid and Western Kentucky accepted a berth in the Tangerine Bowl immediately after crushing Murray State, 50-0.

But most of the "bowl deciding" games as well as conference championship contests were postponed due to the death of President Kennedy, and have been rescheduled for this week.

The situation is as easy as pumpkin pie in the Big Ten where fourth-ranked Michigan State and eighth-ranked Illinois square off on Thanksgiving Day with the league title and Rose Bowl trip at stake. The winner goes, the loser stays, and in the event of a tie, the Spartans get the nod.

Up For Grabs
The other berth at Pasadena's Rose garden will be decided Saturday when Washington hosts Washington St. and Southern Cal tangles with rival UCLA. Should the Huskies whip State, they will get the nod. A Washington loss would throw the Big Six into a frenzy with even State in the running for the bowl bid.

First Half Surge
The Packers, with Bart Starr back at quarterback, scored all 28 points during the first half against the Forty Niners. Elijah Pitts, filling in for injured Tom Moore, threw a 21-yard touchdown pass to Ron Kramer and also ran 14 yards for another score.

Danny Villaneuva's 13-yard field goal in the third period produced the Rams' upset win over the Colts. Art Perkins scored two Los Angeles touchdowns of one-yard bucks and Jim Martin kicked Baltimore field goals of 39, 22 and 41 yards.

Fran Tarkenton's passes to Paul Flatley set up a two-yard touchdown plunge by Tommy Mason with less than two minutes to play and gave Minnesota its win over Detroit.

Bob Khayat's field goals of 37 and 22 yards, followed by Dick James' spectacular catch of a 31-yard touchdown pass from Norm Snead, produced all of Washington's points during the first half against the Eagles.

facular of the year, the Army-Navy game, will go on as scheduled Saturday. The second ranked Middies, with the brilliant Roger Staubach at quarterback, will probably go to the Cotton Bowl opposite Texas if they beat Army. If not, they will go nowhere.

Florida Tops Miami
In feature games last weekend, Florida shattered Miami, 27-21; Tennessee stunned Kentucky, 19-0; Louisiana State zeroed Tulane, 20-0; Vanderbilt scored its first win of the season with a 31-0 spanking of George Washington; Arkansas bested Texas Tech, 27-20; and Utah upset Utah State, 25-23.

Ohio U. blanked Marshall, 17-0, to capture the Mid-America Conference crown but the Ivy League and Atlantic Coast Conferences won't be settled until this week.

Ivy leader Princeton faces Dartmouth while runnerup Harvard observes its "traditional" with Yale on Saturday. Duke and North Carolina slug it out on Thanksgiving with the winner gaining a final tie with North Carolina State in the ACC.

Other major contests to be held Thanksgiving include Wisconsin at Minnesota, Clemson at South Carolina, Virginia at Maryland, Furman at West Virginia and Notre Dame plays Syracuse in New York.

NEVER REPLACED

44Hauling rock and gravel is really tough on a truck. I learned the hard way, with other makes, that Dodge trucks handle this kind of work best. Dodge engines last twice as long as others I've tried. Dodge clutches don't give out in the sand and mud. And I've never had to replace a transmission, rear axle or wheel bearing on any of the four Dodges I've owned. Now I have a 1962 Dodge with a 318 cubic inch V8 engine that handles nine-ton loads 10 hours a day with all the power in the world! D. J. Wainright, Getzra, Nebraska. That's Dodge truck toughness for you. And it's the kind of toughness that increases all the time. We call the reason, "running improvements." We add an improvement to our trucks as soon as it's ready, don't wait for announcement time. Result: Each new Dodge truck we build will be the latest, toughest and most economical we can offer. But Dodge trucks are still priced lower than most of the competition, right in line with the rest. Talk to your dependable Dodge truck dealer about prices. About his liberal new finance plan. Cost Restricts Health Insurance for Elderly

NEW YORK (UPI) — One of the two big hurdles for health insurance for the elderly has been surmounted, the other remains to be overcome, according to insurance experts.

More and more insurance companies and hospitalization and surgical plans now are willing to write health insurance for people over 65. In fact, anyone over 65 can get hospitalization and medical insurance now—if he can pay for it.

The cost is the second hurdle — a good plan costs $10 to $20 a month for each person insured, and considerably more than half of the people over 65 can't pay that.

So far, two of the insurance companies that pioneered health insurance for people over 65 have 85 per cent of the business. They are Continental Casualty of Chicago and Mutual of Omaha.

But other companies are getting in on the private Medicare program. Even Blue Cross, Blue Shield and some of the other hospitalization plans now are taking people over 65 on a selective basis.

Only five years ago, these groups and most insurance companies took the adamant position that people over 65 simply had too many illnesses to be insurable for health. Workers found their hospitalization and medical plans ended on their 65th birthday.

Continental Casualty claims to be making an underwriting profit of about 1 per cent on its "over 65" health insurance business. Since some insurance companies say they can't earn an underwriting profit on health insurance even for younger people, that's quite an achievement.

Mutual of Omaha has been quoted as saying it is breaking even on the 700,000 health insurance policies it has in effect on persons over 65.

Even if the companies do not make an underwriting profit on the over 65 health insurance business it can generate substantial amounts of cash which they can use to earn investment profits. In the same way, the fire insurance companies in this country have had underwriting losses for the past two years but still have managed to get by on investment income.

A number of insurance companies are going into over 65 health insurance on a co-operative non-profit basis frankly to head off a huge federal government medicare program for the aged. Their aim is to whittle down the medicare problem and leave the federal government to tackle it strictly on a needs basis.

In New York, 49 insurance companies got a bill passed through the legislature and created the New York 65 Health Insurance Association with the Equitable Life Assurance Society as pool manager. This co-op pool has written about 142,000 policies so far at rates of $10 to $19 per month per person on a non-profit basis. But the association says it has had a number of dropouts by people who couldn't keep up the payments.

Massachusetts and Connecticut have similar pools and pools are being planned in 14 other states by insurance companies. Not all are labeled non-profit, however.

A regional pool is envisioned for 13 western states by a group of insurance company executives led by President A. B. Halverson of Accidental Life.

The Big Fireman's Fund Insurance Co. of San Francisco is another pioneer in over 65 health insurance. It has been selling policies in 11 western states since 1959 although not on the huge scale of Continental Casualty and Mutual of Omaha.

Some experts believe about 55 per cent of the people over 65 have some health insurance — but most do not have enough. For example, many major medical group policies cannot be retained by workers after they retire.

Those who do not have enough health insurance simply are dependent on the charity wards in the hospitals when they become seriously ill.

Many elderly persons who have been self-supporting all their lives have a horror of being charity patients. They believe, with some justification, that patients who have health insurance and can pay their way get better accommodation and much better attention in the hospitals than "welfare patients."

Notes From Wall Street

NEW YORK (UPI) — Colby & Co. says that "this is not the end of the bull market. The highs for 1963 may already have been reached, but the absolute high has a long way to go."

In view of the recent market action, Colby advises investors not to panic. "The looked for decline, if it actually comes, is almost certainly entirely technical in nature. As pointed out in the past few weeks, fundamentals are catching up and passing along their strength. Investment managers can sit tight on the side lines and wait to pick up issues as they reach over-sold positions."

The Alexander Hamilton Institute believes that "the general business picture is expected to remain strong for some months longer. This, together with substantial institutional funds awaiting year-end investment, should provide underlying support for selected good quality stocks."

Bradbury K. Thurlow of Winslow, Cohn & Stetson says that "the decline in prices to date has shown no signs of becoming

Senator 'Blows Hot,' Never Cold' In Book

By PATRICIA McCORMACK
NEW YORK (UPI) — Sen. Maurice Neuberger, D., Ore., blows hot, never cold, in a new book about tobacco and the public welfare.

She wants a "safer cigarette." She lights out after the tobacco industry and even Uncle Sam, deploring the ostrich posture in America where smoking and health are concerned, as she sees it.

In the book, "Smoke Screen" (Prentice-Hall), Senator Neuberger said there are four general sectors of government activity in which "remedial action is presently both justified and tardy." The areas:

—Education of both the pre-smoking adolescent and the adult smoker.

—Expanded research into the technology of safer smoking.

—Reform of cigarette advertising and promotion.

—Cautionary and informative labeling of cigarette packages.

She recommended the creation within the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare of a separate and distinct division of smoking control.

The smoking control division, she said, would be charged with the authority to aid states and private associations in the development and dissemination of smoking education materials.

It would be supplied with the funds and authority to conduct a broad range of educational activities on a national scale.

"Such activities should include the use of posters in federal buildings and on federal vehicles, and the purchase of time and space for commercial advertising media for advertisements calculated to discourage smoking," she said.

The campaign to discourage smoking needn't be dull, as the senator sees it. Or too frightening. It might even take a light turn — if that approach, indeed, helps to convey the health education message.

She cited, as one example, matches designed by scientists at a cancer research center. The message on the cover reads: "Smoke the money—it's healthier."

If that message got across, former smokers of tobacco products would have to smoke $8 billion a year. That's how much is spent for tobacco products annually.

But of that amount, $3.2 billion goes for taxes — city, state and federal. It has been estimated that this year Uncle Sam will reap more than $2 billion from taxes on tobacco products. The federal tax on a package of cigarettes is eight cents.

In New York City, cigarettes cost around 35 cents a pack. The Tobacco Institute reported that there's a five cent state tax and a four cent city tax, in addition to the federal one, making 17 cents in taxes.

per package increment to its cigarette tax, with the proceeds earmarked for the Icelandic Cancer Society, which plans to launch a campaign to tell Icelanders of the hazards of smoking," she said.

Through "Smoke Screen," Senator Neuberger hopes to enlist the support of readers in the task of implementing such measures as she suggests.

The Tobacco Institute had "no comment" on Senator Neuberger's book. But it provided this information on the tobacco industry:

—Some 17 million persons derive all or part of their income from activity directly or indirectly connected with tobacco. This includes some three million farm people involved in growing tobacco.

—There is federal control over growing and marketing of tobacco. The agency is the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA).

—The USDA estimates 509 billion cigarettes will be smoked during 1963. Ten years ago, cigarette consumption was 388.8 billion.

—Ten years ago, the per capita consumption of cigarettes was 3,559. This year, the per capita consumption is estimated at 4,005.

Yarborough Had Planned to Plead For Party Unity

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., who was feuding with Gov. John Connally early last week, had planned to plead for party unity at a dinner scheduled in Austin, Tex., Friday night, it was learned today.

Yarborough had planned to attend a "Texas Welcome" dinner for President Kennedy and other national and state dignitaries scheduled in Austin six hours after the President was slain and Connally seriously wounded by an assassin.

Yarborough, it was learned, was to have been one of the first speakers to be introduced at the Austin fund-raising dinner. He had planned to plead with fellow Texas Democrats for unity within the party.

Yarborough referred to Connally as "governmentally ignorant" on Thursday while flying to Texas with Kennedy's party. Thesenior Texas Senator had not been invited to a reception for Kennedy at the governor's mansion preceding the fund-raising dinner.

Later Connally said the entire subject of his feud with Yarborough "has been exaggerated." Some liberal Democrats had expressed fear that fund from the cancelled dinner would be used against Yarborough in next spring's primaries.

Coca-Cola Has New Promotion For Christmas

As Christmas shopping shifts into full speed, Coca-Cola bottlers are gift-wrapping for consumers one of the most concentrated holiday sales promotions ever put behind any soft drink.

Power for the promotion stems from a new theme introduced in all advertising for Coca-Cola early in the fall, that "things go better with Coke."

The Christmas campaign, which is the first major consumer activity since the theme's introduction, will repeat the single idea over and over through every media of communication, from consumer advertising to truck posters to market displays.

Bob Mack, manager of Pampa Coca-Cola Bottling Company, in announcing plans for the 1963 program said:

"Traditionally, the Christmas promotion for Coke has always been one of the most successful campaigns of the year. We expect this year's program to be the biggest."

"The new theme, 'things go better with Coke'... has a new sight and sound," Mack said. "We believe it will rank with the most famous slogans for Coca-Cola, like 'Delicious and Refreshing' and 'The Pause That Refreshes'."

Four Area WTSU Students Picked For 'Who's Who'

CANYON (Spl) — Four students from Pampa and surrounding area were among 33 juniors and seniors chosen to represent West Texas State University in the 1963-64 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

The WTSU winners join student leaders from universities and colleges throughout the nation in the volume as the country's outstanding collegians of the year. Academic and campus leadership qualities are top priorities for selection.

Students were Michael Brown of Pampa, Janet Sue Milam of Borger, Linda Sue Douglas of Sunray, and Linda Robinson of Dumas.

Brown is the son of Dr. and Mrs. R. Malcolm Brown, 1919 Charles and is a senior majoring in biology and chemistry as a pre-medical student. His activities include membership in Alpha Chi, national honor society; Beta Beta Beta, international honorary biology society and Buffalo Bills, campus service organization. He has been designated as a Distinguished Military Science Student.

ORONO, Maine (UPI) — Mr. and Mrs. Orrin W. Giggy say the key to a happy marriage is to have a fight every day or so.

On their 67th wedding anniversary Thursday, Mrs. Giggy, 89, said, "I make it a point never to agree with him." The 88-year-old Giggy, when asked to disclose the basis of their happy life, said, "I think it's because we've always managed to have a good scrap every couple of days."

West St. With Christmas just around the corner, now is the time to make all those beautiful decorations to decorate your home during the holidays. These will be gifts and decorations that you will take pride in making, showing and giving.

For something different for your Christmas giving visit the Art and Craft Center, give a gift that will be both distinctive and personal. You will enjoy all the "do-it-yourself" kits found at the Art and Craft Center, located across the street from First Baptist church on West St.

Go in and let Mrs. Eulien Parsons or Mrs. Aileen Moore instruct you in the various crafts available. You will find a large selection of mosaic tile in both glass tile and porcelain tile. You can make lamps, tables, pictures, ash trays, trivets and candy dishes with mosaic tile. Old Masters furniture refinishing is available also. This is the new and easy way to refinish your furniture without removing the old finish. Old Masters is also wonderful for antiquing in white or off-white tones and gold.

All types of crushed rock and glass kits also are in stock. Have you tried making trays, soap dishes, coasters, etc. from cooking crystals? If not drop in at the Art & Craft Center and let one of the clerks show you how to bake these cooking crystals in your own oven. Fancy leaves and butterflies can be embedded for a most unusual effect.

You will find a complete line of artist supplies: Permanent pigment oil paints, brushes, canvas boards, water color supplies, all types of artists' paper for various painting mediums, Permanent pigment oil paints are noted for their true pigments and brilliant colors, not found in other brands.

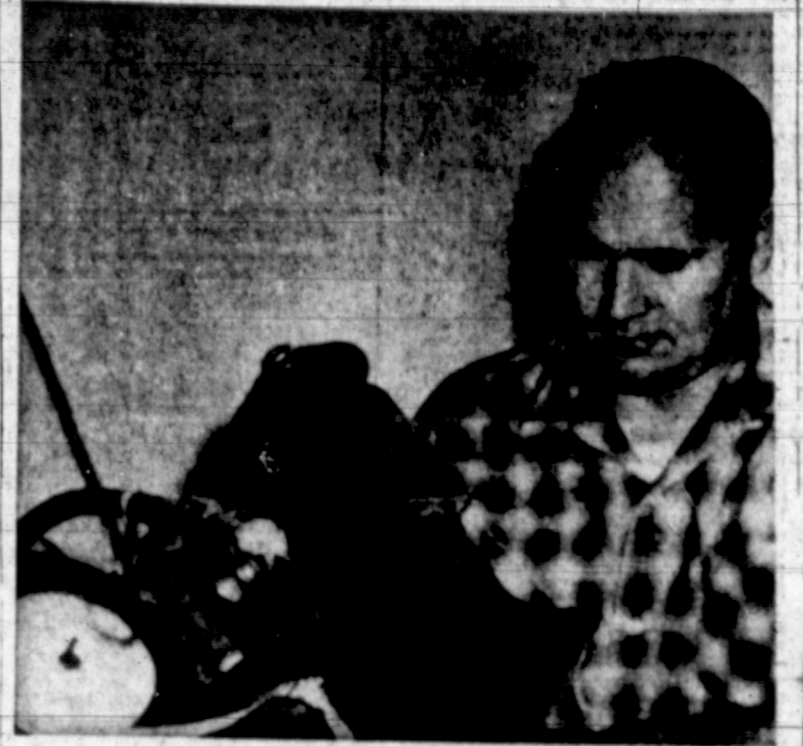

A current craze in Pampa is knitting. At the Art and Craft Center you will find a complete line of beautiful knitting yarns and needles. Free knitting classes are offered at the Art and Craft Center. For more information come in and talk to them about the classes or call Mohawk 4-5171.

If you are interested in making your own Christmas cards they have all supplies for silk screening and decorative paper to use on Christmas cards.

Candle-making equipment is also available. Candle molds are for rent and slab wax and candle coloring can be found at the Art & Craft Center.

Textile paints are coming back. These are the paints you use on material and cloth to design and paint. Large selection of colors available to use on Christmas table cloth, placemats, aprons, etc., for the holidays.

If you cannot come up with an idea, make your Christmas shopping easy and give an Art & Craft Center gift certificate—it will be sure to please.

Confederate Air Force May Get Needed Japanese Zero

MERCEDES, Tex. (UPI) — The Confederate Air Force, lacking only a Japanese Zero to fill out its collection of World War II vintage fighter planes, may get one after all.

The group of air-minded businessmen was informed by Japanese officials that no Zeros were available. The businessmen then considered building one of their own with parts gathered from all over the world, if necessary.

A United Press International dispatch about their problem, however, has brought more than 30 letters telling them of possible places they may get a Zero.

Col. Loyd Nolen of Mercedes said Wednesday he was informed by David Robinson of radio station KOMO, Seattle, Wash., that a Zero was discovered on Guam after a typhoon there in April.

The Confederate Air Force, which really is just a group of vintage plane collectors are planning to try and retrieve the Guam Zero.

DRAWING ON HISTORY — Two young artists, draw on history-in-the-making for the subjects which they sketch. There's no better place to do it than across from Number 10 Downing Street, London, England, the home of Prime Minister Douglas-Home.

The Alexander Hamilton Institute believes that "the general business picture is expected to remain strong for some months longer. This, together with substantial institutional funds awaiting year-end investment, should provide underlying support for selected good quality stocks."

Bradbury K. Thurlow of Winslow, Cohn & Stetson says that "the decline in prices to date has shown no signs of becoming
