Texas Flood Drives 4,000 From Homes

2 More Negro Houses Bombed In Mississippi

Dynamite Tossed at Residence Of Witness Before Commission

By United Press International — Two Negro homes—one belonging to a former policeman who testified Wednesday before a committee of the Civil Rights Commission—were bombed with dynamite Wednesday night. Negro leaders said the home of Ardis Garner, who gave testimony Wednesday about alleged harassment and intimidation of Negroes in the rural Mississippi community, was heavily damaged by the explosion. They said a single stick of dynamite was tossed from a passing automobile. The second explosion occurred at the home of Matthew Jackson, which is situated on highway 29 a few miles outside of McComb. There was little damage to the wooden structure. The Negro leaders said Jackson had not been active in the desegregation drive which has stirred passions here and could offer no explanation of the attack. Nobody was in Garner's home at the time of the explosion and there were no injuries from either blast. McComb police refused to comment on either incident, but the FBI confirmed they were investigating them. In another racial development, U.S. Supreme Court Justice Hugh Black acting on a Justice Department request, Wednesday suspended a federal court order barring enforcement of the public accommodations section of the civil rights law. The affected ruling was by a three-judge federal district court in Birmingham, Ala., on Sept. 17 which declared the public accommodations section did not apply to businesses not engaged in interstate commerce, and forbid its enforcement. Ollie's Barbeque Restaurant of Birmingham has contested the controversial section on grounds it was unconstitutional. Black said, in effect, that the lower court's injunction against

A summary of the report that will run about 10,000 words will be published by The Pampa Daily News Monday.

Water 2 Feet Deep In Del Rio Houses

By United Press International — Floodwaters drove an estimated 4,000 persons from their homes early today along the Rio Grande at Del Rio, Tex., and the Mexican border town of Ciudad Acuna. Heavy rains have pounded the area all month and four more inches during the night sent the Rio Grande, San Felipe Creek and Las Vacas Creek on the rampage again. In western Eagle Pass, farther down the Rio Grande, 50 Kickapoo Indians were still out of their homes. Del Rio police dispatcher Ramon Villarreal said 475 persons were driven from their homes early today in Del Rio. However, he said Ciudad Acuna was harder hit and some 3,500 persons evacuated to escape surging waters. No deaths or injuries were reported. The U.S. Weather Bureau said 4.15 inches of rain fell in 12 hours in Del Rio, which had already received more than half its yearly rainfall this month. All highways leading into and out of Del Rio were flooded. The Rio Grande in some areas was 10 feet above flood stage. Eagle Pass reported the Rio Grande at 27.90 feet. Flood stage is 17 feet. Go to School The refugees in Del Rio were housed in San Felipe High School. Health department nurses said a baby was born in the high school. Some persons attempted to get back into their homes after daylight today. Water was two feet deep in some homes. In Ciudad Acuna, the phone company was threatened by high water and all but a skeleton staff remained behind. Only emergency calls were going through. The International Bridge was closed because of high water on the approaches. However, the bridge itself was not covered. Rainfall at the bridge in a six-hour period was measured at 6.1 inches. The U.S. Weather Bureau forecast showers for all of Texas today, mostly in the southern sections. Cloudy Skies There was considerable cloudiness over all the state. Intermittent showers fell over south and west Texas and over the southern half of North Central Texas. Pre-dawn temperatures ranged from 56 at Amarillo and Childress to 79 at Corpus Christi. Rainfall amounts for the 24-hour period ended at 6 a.m. included Waco 2.15, Childress 1.25, Junction 1.66, Big Spring 1.00, Texarkana .15, Lubbock

TFX Plane Wings Back Into Politics

By United Press International — The TFX fighter plane came winging back over the Texas political horizon today. Republican presidential candidate Barry Goldwater brought it back, charging General Dynamics of Fort Worth got the contract to build the plane through political pressures. Texas Democrats were quick to reply. Dallas and Tarrant county Democratic leaders jumped on Goldwater for the statement, and Democratic Sen. Ralph Yarborough issued a statement from Washington.

William H. Clark, Dallas county chairman, said Goldwater should "take time out from his hypocritical sermons on the ethics of others to face a real case in a real world—his own backyard." Clark said Goldwater was "trying to hide his own dirty linen under the rug" when he said he was satisfied that his running mate, Rep. William Miller, is innocent of conflict of interest accusations in the Lockheed Felt Co. incident. Tarrant County campaign chairman Sterling Steves said Goldwater's attack on the contract award to General Dynamics "makes it abundantly clear to every citizen of Tarrant County and every Texan what fate our defense industry complex might face if he were elected."

Yarborough said "Goldwater has traveled to Tennessee to denounce the Tennessee Valley Authority, to retirement villages in Florida to denounce medical care for the aged, to depressed areas in West Virginia to denounce the war on poverty and now he comes to Fort Worth to denounce weapons manufactured in Fort Worth. The only thing he seems to be for," Yarborough said, "is the election of his fellow Republican, George Bush of Connecticut, who introduced, rec-

Greeks to Get Russian Arms

BULLETIN — MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union will sign an agreement "in four or five days" to supply arms to Cyprus, Greek Cypriot Acting Foreign Minister Andrea Araouzas said today. Araouzas told newsmen the Soviet help will be "free and disinterested." The Greek Cypriot official, who has been holding talks with Soviet officials for a week, declined to give the amount and type of aid Russia will give. He recommended and endorsed Barry to the stunned people of Fort Worth.

Senator Says Group to Quiz Baker on Campaign Kickback

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C., said today Senate investigators would call Bobby Baker to testify about an alleged $25,000 kickback to the Kennedy-Johnson presidential campaign in 1960. Jordan, chairman of the investigating Senate Rules Committee, said Philadelphia contractor Matthew H. McCloskey also would be called as a witness. Jordan told reporters he hoped it would be possible to begin renewed hearings in the Baker case next week. The politically hot case is being reopened to investigate new charges against the former Senate aide who amassed a paper fortune of $2 million while receiving a salary of less than $20,000 a year.

California Blaze Laid to Arson

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (UPI) — A new fire — possibly the work of an arsonist — erupted early today several miles from a raging blaze that threatened sections of Santa Barbara and Montecito, authorities reported. The latest fire broke out in the San Marcos Pass area and fire equipment had to be diverted from the main blaze to help fight the new one, fire officials said. Residents in the San Marcos Pass area were ordered to evacuate by Santa Barbara County sheriff's deputies. "We think it was set," said Dave Waite, public information officer for the U.S. Forest Service. The major blaze, now raging out of control in the Montecito-Santa Barbara area, also was believed to have been man-caused. The disastrously explosive main fire destroyed a score of homes, razed a monastery and gutted a college dormitory. Waite said about 5,000 persons have been evacuated from their homes in the fire areas. Gale warnings were lowered from Eastport, Maine to Block Island, R.I. Small craft warnings remained hoisted because of winds moving in with a cold front from the west.

New TV Station Set to Compete With Johnsons'

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — President Johnson's family "television monopoly" is about to end, backers of a new Austin television station said today. The new station, however, will operate on ultra high frequency (UHF), which most home television sets are not equipped to receive. Allen Heard, executive vice president of Southwest Republic Corp., said the new station, KTBC-TV, owned by Texas Broadcasting Corp., which in turn is owned primarily by Mrs. Johnson and the president's daughters, Lynda and Luci. The Federal Communications Commission license for the new station has already been granted and construction of a two-story studio and office building is under way. Heard said the new station will definitely be operating within a year, probably early in 1965.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (UPI) — A U.S. Army colonel was disclosed today to be acting as the go-between for a group of rebel mountain tribesmen and the central government in Saigon. Previously, the colonel and five other American servicemen were reported being held captive by the tribesmen who are in rebellion against the Saigon regime. But a spokesman for the U.S. Military Command denied the report. The military spokesman said Col. John Freund was serving as the go-between for the tribesmen at Bon Sar Pa and the national regime of Premier Nguyen Khanh. "He is the connecting link between the rebel Montagnard leaders and the representatives of the Vietnamese government," the spokesman said. This was the first American statement on the four-day-old revolt by the mountaineers of the Rhade tribe, who have been trained in anti-Communist tactics by the U.S. Army special forces. It came as a result of reports that Freund and his companions were being held captive. "This is not correct," the spokesman said. "Six members of the U.S. special forces are there voluntarily and have been in and out of the camp." The Americans at Bon Sar Pa include Col. Freund, three sergeants and two communications specialists.

GLADYS (UPI) — Hurricane Gladys swept her rainy skirt over coastal New England today but her destructive punch landed in the North Atlantic, 140 miles from land. Tides were two to three feet above normal in some sections, but no flooding was reported. Gladys, packing 80 mile an hour winds near the center, no longer was a threat to New England. The closest it came to land was when it passed 140 miles southeast of Nantucket Island early today. As it continued to push its way northeast as 23 miles an hour, its center was more than 250 miles east of Cape Cod just before dawn.

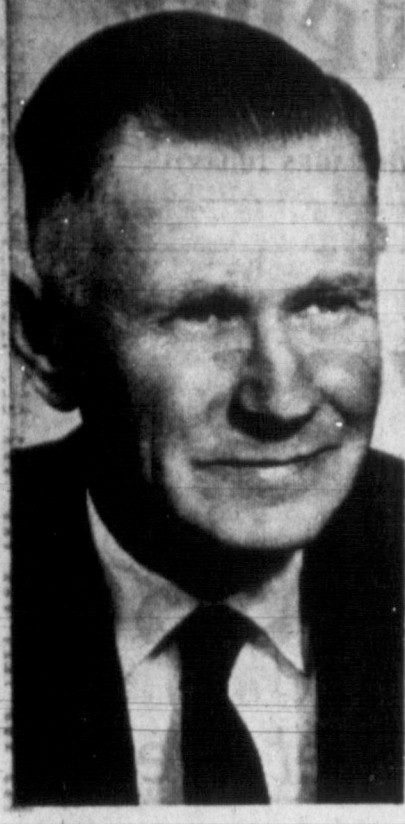

BEATLES RECORDS (UPI) — A group of Luton schoolboys back from a visit to the Soviet Union said Thursday young Russians in Leningrad kept asking them for Beatles records.

By GAYNOR MADDOX

You will be surprised and pleased how easy it is to make really good porch or casual warm weather suppers with canned beans and ground beef in barbecue sauce or pork and beans in tomato sauce. We've tried these two recipes and are convinced you will like them.

- SKILLET SUPPER ITALIAN
(4 to 6 servings)
1/4 pound fresh mushrooms, sliced
2 cups thinly sliced zucchini
1/2 cup chopped onion
2 medium cloves garlic, minced
1/2 teaspoon oregano, crushed
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 cans (1 pound each) beans and ground beef in barbecue sauce
Grated Parmesan cheese
In skillet, brown mushrooms and cook zucchini, onion, garlic, and oregano in butter until zucchini is tender. Add beans. Heat stirring now and then. Garnish with cheese.
- POLYNESIAN PORK and BEANS
(2 to 3 servings)
1 cup cubed cooked ham
1/4 cup green pepper strips
1/4 cup diagonally sliced green onion
1 teaspoon curry powder
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 can (1 pound) pork and beans with tomato sauce
1/2 cup sliced banana
In skillet, brown ham and cook green pepper, onion and curry in butter until green pepper is tender. Add beans and banana. Heat, stirring now and then.

*For the Best Ever Party...
Plan Gala Buffet-Style Supper*

Buffet-style suppers are an easy way to feed a crowd. While your guests enjoy a first and light course in the living room, you can be putting the finishing touches on both food and table.

Meals served from the buffet should be colorful—remember, the food is a major part of your table decor—and planned so that all of it can be eaten with a fork. These are the kind of meals that make party-giving fun, for a variety of dishes can be served with ease.

If it's your turn to entertain the neighborhood card group or some folks from the office, try this menu suggestion. The food is simple to prepare and most of it can be done ahead, giving you ample time to spend with your guests.

A chilled soup served in mugs makes a refreshing and not too filling beginning. While frozen French fries crisp and heat in the oven and a green vegetable cooks, arrange the other dishes on your table and then let folks come and help themselves.

To accompany the frozen fries, serve a casserole of chicken tetrazzini or perhaps a flavorsome pineapple-ham loaf that's been made the day before and heated for serving. The towering

Cloud Seven Mold is elegantly light and airy to taste, a pleasant menu-mate to the heartier foods. Unmold this on a serving platter early in the day and refrigerate; come party time, surround the mold with canned or fresh fruits and garnish with sprigs of mint or parsley. You'll want a tossed greens and vegetable salad for its color and crisp texture, and try tiny finger sandwiches served in place of the usual rolls. Now sound the dinner bell and in this last second before the buffet line forms, bring forth the piping hot French fried potatoes and vegetable so that they are at their very best. The frozen fries are easy to serve at a buffet dinner and make it possible for everyone to take as many potatoes as they want. Top this meat-off-with-a-coffee and double chocolate cake or a tray of fruits and cheeses; a menu like this is certain to bring praise for the hostess, yet keep her work and last minute kitchen chores to a minimum.

CLOUD SEVEN MOLD
3 envelopes (3 tablespoons) unflavored gelatin
1/4 cup sugar
1/2 cup cold water

2 cups evaporated milk
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 bottle (12-ounce) lemon-lime carbonated beverage, chilled

Combine gelatin, sugar and cold water. Place over boiling water and stir until gelatin is thoroughly dissolved. Chill evaporated milk until icy, beat until stiff. Add lemon juice and beat to blend. Slowly add lemon-lime carbonated beverage to gelatin mixture; fold in whipped evaporated milk. Turn into an oiled 1-1/2 quart mold; chill until firm. Unmold and serve with canned or fresh fruit.

8-10 servings.

Peachy Cocktail
WASHINGTON (UPI)—The U. S. Department of Agriculture expects an increase in the commercial pack of fruit cocktail this year.

In 1963, pears were in short supply; so were canning peaches. Because these two fruits comprise 50 per cent of the mix, output of fruit cocktail dropped sharply. This year, however, the West Coast pear crop looks good, and canning peaches also are in good supply.

Instant Breakfast Is Now Available

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—You had to figure that if science could develop instant soft drinks, anything was possible in the kitchen.

Apparently it is. Now one company says it has solved the problem of those who skip breakfast to be at work on time.

The solution? Instant breakfast.

The product, by Carnation, supplies 25 per cent of the minimum daily requirement of proteins, minerals and vitamins. All the "cook" does is pour a glass of milk and stir in the powder. It dissolves instantly.

The instant breakfast comes in three flavors—chocolate, coffee and plain.

"We feel that instant breakfast fills a long recognized need for people who don't eat an adequate breakfast," the company's vice president, H. Mark Shackelford, said. "For years, doctors and nutritionists have maintained that breakfast is our most important meal."

Vitamin A Vital In American Diet

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Q—I read that one of the major lacks in the average American diet is vitamin A. Just what is vitamin A and where do we get it?

A—Vitamin A is essential for growth, vision and healthy skin. One of the best sources of it is a yellow pigment, called carotene, found in carrots and squash. Carotene is found as well in green leafy vegetables where its yellow color is masked by a large concentration of the green pigment, chlorophyll. Milk, butter, cheese, ice cream and margarine also contain some vitamin A.

Q—Should I thaw frozen fish before cooking?

A—Not necessarily. Just allow a few extra minutes of cooking time, advise food specialists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture and Interior. However, when fish are to be either breaded, fried, or stuffed, you'll find it more convenient to thaw them first to make handling easier. Thaw frozen fish in the refrigerator in their original wrappings. Cook thawed fish immediately for best quality. Be sure you don't overcook it. Cook fish just until it flakes easily with a fork.

Low Calorie Snacks
For snacks that are high in nutrition and taste—and low in calories—munch on carrot strips, celery, cauliflower or melba toast, say Extension Service food and nutrition specialists. Those who crave something sweet may want to try fresh fruits in season—a strip of watermelon or cantaloupe, pears, peaches and strawberries.

New Look

To give potato salad a new look and convenience for picnics, dissolve a package of unflavored gelatin according to package directions and add it to the regular salad ingredients. Put the potato salad in a loaf-shaped pan, lightly oiled and lined with slices of tomatoes. When the salad is unmolded, the sliced tomatoes are on top.

Dissolve salt in a little boiling water and mix with cereal for even flavor.

ELECTION OUTLOOK

Johnson Favored for Victory in California

By De Van L. Shumway
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) — By all odds, President Johnson should win California going away.

He has nearly everything going for him in the nation's newly-crowned most populous state.

For instance, there's registration. The final figures are not in yet, but nearly eight million persons are expected to be registered to vote on Nov. 3. And nearly five million of those will be Democrats.

The polls reflect Johnson's lead. They show him ahead of Republican Sen. Barry Goldwater by amounts ranging generally around 60-40, more or less.

But a couple of factors are worrying the state's Democrats, including Gov. Edmund G. Brown, the President's campaign chief.

Had Slim Margin

One is this: The last Democrat to carry California was Harry S. Truman back in 1948. This state was his biggest win on the way to re-election. And then he barely made it. With nearly four million votes cast, he got the state's electoral votes by a pencil-thin 17,863 margin.

Since then, California has gone for Republicans — Dwight D. Eisenhower twice and Richard M. Nixon, whose home town used to be Whittier, Calif., once. Nixon edged John F. Kennedy by 35,623 votes in a tally that took a week to count. The absentee votes won it for the former vice president.

Another problem for Johnson's California lieutenants is that the President's voting strength is untried while Goldwater has already run in this state once this year.

The Arizona conservative scored his most important win — one that carried him to the mid-July GOP national convention in San Francisco in a winning mood — in California's June GOP-presidential primary election.

Had Full Backing

The Democrats fell behind an uncommitted delegation headed by Brown, who easily turned aside a challenge by Los Angeles Mayor Samuel Yorty. Actually, the delegation was 100 per cent for Johnson.

But Goldwater met New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller in a head-to-head clash for California's 86 GOP convention votes. And he won — just barely.

Although the GOP standard-bearer carried only 14 of the state's 58 counties, they were the big ones. With more than two million GOP votes cast, Goldwater's victory margin was 68,350.

Two other fights share the spotlight with the Johnson-Goldwater battle for California's 40 electoral votes — and both could affect the outcome.

Salinger Running Hard

U.S. Sen. Pierre Salinger, former press secretary to two presidents, is running hard for election to a full six-year term in the Senate. He was appointed to the five-month unexpired term of the late Clair Engle, after winning the Democratic nomination in the primary.

His Republican challenger is George Murphy, former actor, now businessman from populous Southern California. Murphy, a conservative Republican, is campaigning primarily on charges that Salinger is a car-peddler for returning to the state suddenly to run for the Senate after moving away.

The polls show Salinger with a substantial margin — but his lead is narrowing.

Another major issue is a proposed constitutional amendment to forbid state and local legislative bodies from taking away a property owner's "absolute discretion" to dispose of his real estate in any fashion, to any one.

Affects Housing Laws

The amendment, proposition 14 on the Nov. 3 ballot, would nullify substantial parts of the state's open housing laws, including one approved by the 1963 Legislature.

Governor Brown has been fighting the initiative with every means at his command. At the Democratic National Convention, he tried to enlist the aid of the national party. And he wants Johnson to take a stand.

The question is this: How much, if any, so-called white backlash vote will go to Goldwater as a result of the housing initiative.

TO BUILD AIRLINERS
TOKYO (UPI) — The Japanese government has approved plans for mass production of Japan's first domestically-made post-war airliner. The Nihon Aeroplane Manufacturing Co. will begin turning out the new plane next year. It is a turbo-prop craft seating 60 passengers and capable of 360-mile-an-hour speed.

HORSE PERMITS DROP
CHICAGO (UPI) — Horseless carriages are making further inroads into the transportation situation in Chicago.

Only 29 stickers for horse-drawn vehicles were issued by the city during the first eight months of the year — one less than during the same period last year and a far cry from the 52,000 permit issued in 1908.

THINKING OF SOLUTION
ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (UPI) — Sen. Barry Goldwater said Tuesday he has no plan for ending the war in Viet Nam but is working on one.

"I cannot say I have the problem solved," he said. "But I have some ideas we should all be thinking about." He did not say what the ideas were.

Goldwater said he has "no easy pat solution for ending the war in Viet Nam in either pocket."

Legion Expected to Endorse LBJ'S Bill

DALLAS (UPI)—The normally conservative American Legion was expected to unanimously endorse President Johnson's anti-poverty program today.

A resolution framed by the California department of the legion and already approved by the legion committee on Economics was due for consideration today by a general session of the legion's 46th annual convention.

The convention ends today with the probable election of Donald E. Johnson, 40, of West Branch, Iowa, as national commander. Johnson would succeed Daniel Foley of Minnesota.

Barry Goldwater spoke to the group Wednesday, telling the veterans the Johnson administration defense policies were leading to "national suicide."

The resolution endorsing the anti-poverty program said: "The American Legion through its community services and other economic programs has fostered legislation favoring programs providing effective counseling, training, education and job placement programs."

"The Congress has recently passed the economic opportunity act of 1964, which embodies similar goals.

"Therefore, be it resolved by the American Legion... that the membership be urged to assist in the immediate implementation of these programs in the various committees to help insure their success."

The Legion adopted scores of resolutions Wednesday, chief among them being a demand that the United States see to it that Russia pay up its overdue bills in the United Nations.

The resolution said "the Legion no longer credits the U.N. with being capable of performing its primary mission—halt of preserving the peace."

It said that if the General Assembly does not see to it that Russia is forced to pay, "the Congress of the United States and the American people must reappraise the matter of the relationship of the United States to the U.N."

DANDY LANDING
SALYBRIDGE, England (UPI)—Paratroop Private Terry Goddard, 21, took a practice jump Tuesday and landed in the middle of a playing field at Merton House Girls Prep School, temporarily interrupting a field hockey match.

NEW MANAGER—Tommy Haywood recently moved to Pampa from Kansas City to assume his new duties as manager of the local Heard and Jones Drug, 110 N. Cuyler. Haywood is married and has two children. He has been in the drug business for approximately 16 years. The new manager will replace Vernon Day, who has been transferred to Borger.

REJECTS BANDIT

FARMINGTON, Mich. (UPI)—A man walked into the Farmington Township office of the National Bank of Detroit Monday and handed the teller a note which said, "Give me $10,000 in large bills."

The teller said, "I don't have any large bills."

The would-be bandit ran out and drove away in his car.

SATURN FALLS

WASHINGTON (UPI) — An 18-ton satellite launched Friday by a Saturn rocket fell out of orbit Tuesday over the Indian Ocean.

The 80-foot satellite, with a boiler plate version of the Apollo moon rocket at one end, was put in orbit at Cape Kennedy in the seventh successful test of the Saturn. The end came 3 days, 19 hours and 37 minutes after launch. It had made 39 revolutions around the earth.

TEXAS GETS GRANT

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — The University of Texas announced it has been awarded a $700,000 contract by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration to build an 84-inch telescope for McDonald observatory near Fort Davis in West Texas — one of the 10 largest optical telescopes in the world.

The Lighter Side

Shoot-Out Suggested For Election Night

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Some- time ago, Rep. Oliver P. Bolton urged the television networks to wait until all the polls had closed before announcing the winner of this year's presidential election.

He expressed concern that projecting the victor by electronic computer might influence voters who had not yet cast their ballots.

Nothing came of this proposal, and so now the Ohio Republican has come forth with a new plan.

In a recent press release, Bolton noted that millions of Americans would be attending election night television parties, the chief entertainment of which normally is watching the returns come in.

He reasoned, quite correctly I believe, that if the winner were made known even before a party began, it would put a damper on the festivities.

Need Something Else
The tabulations alone probably would not be of sufficient interest to keep the guests entertained once the suspense has been removed.

In order to keep these affairs from becoming complete flops, to the consequent embarrassment of the hosts and hostesses, Bolton has suggested that the network provide other entertainment during the vote-counting period.

He called attention to the fact that a number of actors who have appeared in western shows are supporting Barry Goldwater. They include John Wayne, James Stewart, Robert Taylor, Clint Walker and Randolph Scott.

Other who have starred in Hollywood or television westerns are supporting President Johnson. They include Burt Lancaster, Kirk Douglas, Steven McQueen, Henry Fonda and Barry Sullivan.

Therefore, Bolton's plan is to have the networks juice up their election night coverage with a "good old-fashioned filmed gunfight between these rival gangs of cowboy partisans."

I don't doubt that a shoot-out between leading Democratic and Republican thespians might be more entertaining than the election returns.

But, I fear that Bolton's proposal would worsen the very condition he originally was trying to prevent.

If, for instance, the voters who had not been to the polls saw John Wayne outdraw Henry Fonda, or vice versa, it could influence them even more strongly than the computer predictions.

Also, it might create a situation whereby the Democrats would win the gunfight but lose the election, or vice versa.

To be on the safe side, the election night entertainment should be free of partisan overtones. I would recommend either a lecture on thrift by Bobby Baker or a Cassius Clay oration on "blessed are the humble."

GOOD RESULTS

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Le-roy Collins, director of the Federal Community Relations Service, says that compliance with the civil rights law is "far, far greater than anyone had expected."

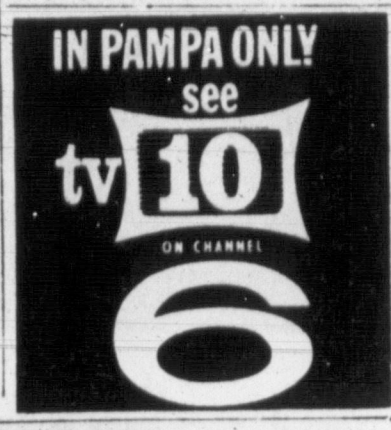

The former governor of Florida told the Women's National Press Club Tuesday that this was the conclusion reached by an administration study of the matter.

STRIKE STOPS SCOTCH

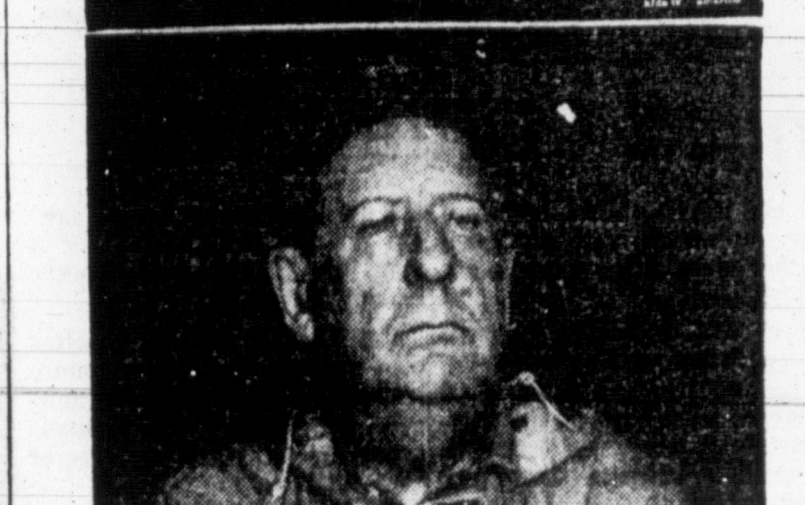

GLASGOW, Scotland (UPI)—Thousands of cases of Scotch whisky piled up on Glasgow docks because of a shortage of 1,163 longshoremen that tied up 17 vessels in the port. Officials said the backlog stemmed from a ban on weekend working arising from a dispute between employers and dockers.

TRAIN KILLS TWO

DALLAS (UPI) — An automobile crossing a downtown multiple-railroad track intersection Tuesday was struck by a switching engine and dragged for two blocks. Two women in the car were killed. The victims were Ida Patterson Smith, 50, and Lucille Flower.

Dodge comes on big for '65

What does Dodge do after two record-breaking years in a row? Go for a third. Dodge comes on big for '65, with four brand-new cars that are big, quick, fresh and backed by the strongest warranty* in the business. See them.

'65 Dodge

'65 DART: The Dodge-size compact. If you'd like to live a little, we'd like to let you in on something big—Dodge Dart for '65. Big beauty. Big comfort. Big ride. And big savings. At your Dodge dealer's now.

'65 POLARA: Beautiful way to leave the low-price field. Inches bigger and a lot better-looking than anything near the price. With a standard 383 cu. in. V8 that thrives on regular gas. Why settle for less? Ask for Polara.

'65 CORONET: A hot new Dodge at a new lower price. An all-new car that's as roomy as a standard-size Ford or Chevy, yet priced right with Fairlane, Chevelle. With refreshing new styling. Oceans of room. Coronet '65—drive it.

'65 CUSTOM 880: If elegance were spelled in numbers, this would be it. From exclusive 6-window sedan to elegant convertible, this one will wear well with your appreciation of luxury and your sense of good taste.

Dodge's new 3-year, 50,000-mile engine and drive train warranty protects you! Chrysler Corporation confidently warrants all of its following vital parts at its 1965 cars for 3 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, during which time any such parts that prove defective in material and workmanship will be replaced or repaired at a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer's place of business without charge for such parts or labor: engine block, head and internal parts, intake manifold, water pump, transmission case and internal parts (excepting manual clutch), torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints, axle and axle differential, and rear wheel bearings. REQUIRED MAINTENANCE: The following maintenance services are required under the warranty—change engine oil every 3 months or 4,000 miles, whichever comes first; replace oil filter every second oil change; clean carburetor air filter every 6 months and replace it every 2 years; and every 6 months furnish evidence of this required service to a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer and request him to verify receipt of such evidence and your car's mileage. Simple enough for such important protection.

MOST CHANGED — The 1965 Ford is the most-changed in the 15-year history of Ford Division. The traditional, round Ford taillight is replaced by a modernistic hexagonal shape in keeping with the crisp, elegant look of the new Ford. Luxury styling is combined with a luxury ride described as so smooth and so quiet the heater and air conditioner fans had to be moved into the engine compartment because their low-toned whirr was distracting. A luxurious new Ford Galaxie 500 LTD series (shown) features an interior of quality and style previously obtainable only in higher-priced cars. Five separate and distinct roof lines, including the Ford Galaxie 500 XL 2 door hardtop give greater distinctiveness to each of the 17 models than ever before. The complete line of 1965 Fords, — two and four-door hardtops, sedans, convertibles and station wagons — were introduced in Ford dealer showrooms today.

Life in China Changed Little Since Revolution

EDITOR'S NOTE: Communist China is parting the Bamboo Curtain enough to allow some non-Communist tourists from Western countries into the country for carefully supervised visits. Harold S. Williams, an Australian businessman, was one such tourist. With business activities in the Orient that extend over more than four decades, he is in a rare position of being able to compare the old China with the new. The following dispatch, which is the first of three, begins with a trip by automobile from Tientsin to Peking.

By HAROLD S. WILLIAMS
Written For UPI
Life along the road to Peking

seemed much as it had been before the revolution. The padded garments of the farmers, their coats of goatskin with fur inside, the mud houses and the burial mounds in the fields are all there as for decades before. The farmers' carts, loaded with straw and reeds, still are being drawn by Manchurian ponies and donkeys. The only difference is that the solid wooden wheels have given way to rubber tired wheels from old motor cars. There has been some amendment of the commune system. It still extends to the main crops, but not now to the lesser crops grown in the smaller fields around the villages.

Farm animals once again are privately owned, and sold much as they were in the days before the "liberation." The road to Peking is good. Except when passing other vehicles, we traveled at 50 to 60 miles an hour most of the way. Apart from buses and occasional military vehicles there was little traffic. The Chin Chow Hotel where we stayed in Peking is a post revolution building of six stories, with a large and well-furnished foyer and lounge, suitable enough, but not on a par with Western standards. It was adequately heated. The rooms are large with high ceilings and equipped with private toilets and showers. The plumbing fixtures, like most of the other equipment we saw, normally films must be developed before being taken out. did not appear destined for a long life, but maybe we were looking for faults. The food is fair, and better than we have had in some more pretentious dining rooms. However, the napkins and the silverware, like the plumbing were of poor quality. Our guide pointed out to us — quite needlessly because no one can miss seeing them — the blocks of apartment houses for the workers. They stretch along the streets in every direction. Whatever else the peoples Republic may have given, or failed to give to the workers, they have given — and are still giving — substantial housing in Peking. Photography is permitted, but

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Census Bureau reported today that sons are receiving more education than their fathers. But it said that how far the sons go is influenced largely by the schooling and occupations of their fathers.

The study also found that the educational achievement of an older brother may tend to have an especially important relationship to a younger person's chances for exceeding the educational level of his father.

Change of Name Sought for Peak

BOSTON (UPI) — The federal government was asked to change the name of "Nigger Nose" mountain in New Hampshire to Mt. Kennedy in honor of the late President. 'Big Game' Topic For Rotarians

"Big Game of the African Continent" was the topic of the program presented by Guy V. Caskey before the Pampa Rotary Club yesterday in Coronado Inn. Using color slides, Caskey described the various types of game animals found on the continent. He pointed out that in contrast to popular belief, a much larger number of big game animals are found in the plateau country than in the jungles.

U.S. POSTAGE 5c

Abstract Art to Make Debut On Five-Cent Postage Stamp

Postmaster General John A. Gronouski has announced that abstract art is to make its debut on a U. S. postage stamp, according to O. K. Gaylor. A melange of red, blue and black squiggles by Stuart Davis, a top-ranking modernist, will be reproduced as a commemorative 5-cent stamp that salutes the fine arts. It has been recent policy by the Post Office Department to use diversified art styles in efforts to provide verve and variety to new stamps, and the abstractionists are now to have their inning.

Davis is regarded as the father of "pop art". Proposal for a fine arts stamp came from the United States Committee of the International Association of Art, which asked the Society of American Graphic Artists to produce suitable designs.

An invitational contest was financed by a grant of $4,700 from Mrs. Albert List of New York City, who has frequently been a benefactress of the arts. Artists who participated in addition to Davis, were Edmond Casarella, George Giusti, Robert Gwathmey, Jacob Lawrence, Michael Ponce deLeon, George Ortman, Ben Shahn and Gregorio Prestopino.

Chemical Society To Hold Meeting

The Panhandle Plains Section of the American Chemical Society will hold its first seasonal meeting Saturday.

Members and guests will be welcomed at the Southwestern Portland Cement Co., Highway 66 West, North of Bushland, for a tour of the plant facilities beginning promptly at 4 p.m. The tour will take about two hours.

A cafeteria style dinner at Wyatt's cafeteria at 7 p.m. will be followed by the business meeting at 8.

The speaker will be Glen House, chief chemist at Southwestern. He will describe some of the physical chemistry involved in the manufacture of cement.

Prince Phillip on Visit to Mexico

MEXICO CITY (UPI)— Prince Phillip of England is making a royal visit to Mexico. He arrived Monday and will leave next Tuesday.

He paid a visit on President Lopez Mateos and planned a visit to the archeological zone at San Juan Teotihuacan.

Sheriff Can't Free Man Held 3 Years

AUSTIN (UPI)— The Dawson County sheriff cannot release a prisoner who has spent three years in jail at Lamesa because the sheriff had no authority to hold him in the first place.

That was the ruling Wednesday of Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr on a request by Vernon D. Adcock, Dawson County attorney.

Now on display: the most beautiful Chrysler ever built.

This is Chrysler '65. The big one that delivers. Luxury that reflects your good taste, for one thing. A fast answer to your demands, for another. Look at it. Clean-lined. Big. Beautiful. Eighteen feet of comfort. Two tons of security. Called Chrysler. It's easier to get into and out of. There's lots of headroom, and legroom and hiproom. Get in and drive it. The first thing you'll notice is best described as "scorch." Model 1965 is a very quick automobile.

And there's an improvement in ride you can really feel. One more point. A Chrysler isn't all that expensive. Seven Newport models are actually priced just a few dollars a month more than some of the most popular smaller cars. Visit your Chrysler dealer and see them all: economical Newport; sports-bred 300; and the luxurious New Yorker. Move up to Chrysler. Model 1965. The man who sells them will make it easy.

Dear Abby....

Skip the Moon, Provide Earthly Security First

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I accidentally found out from the social security office that the man I married 16 years ago had never been legally divorced. I was advised to have a second marriage ceremony performed. To my dismay, Mr. W. received the idea as a joke and refused. I am 62 and Mr. W. will be 80 in two weeks. I am worried about my future. My lawyer advised me that according to Massachusetts law I am not Mr. W.'s legal wife, and I cannot claim his estate or get social security. I even got our priest to talk to him, but it didn't help. Mr. W. is the most generous man in the world and would give me the moon if I asked for it, but he will not consent to another ceremony. Can you help me?

"MRS. (or am I?) W."

DEAR "MRS. (I wish I knew)": The priest can tell Mr. W. what is pleasing in the eyes of the Lord, and your lawyer can tell him the requirements of the law, but you'd better get your generous Mr. W. to skip the moon — and provide for your security right here on earth.

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem. I saw the organist of our church with a married man, and he wasn't hers. Should I tell the pastor to talk to her before she breaks up the marriage or should I mind my own business? I somehow feel that it is my Christian duty to set her right. Don't tell me it is only my imagination. I had heard rumors about these two, which at first I did not believe, it when you see two people in a secluded spot away from busy roads, what else can you believe?

CHRISTIAN DUTY

DEAR DUTY: Even though the organist appears to have led all the stops out, I'd pipe down if I were you. You don't know all you should exercise your "Christian duty," which all recommends to err in man, to forgive divine.

DEAR ABBY: My mother told me never to walk into her bedroom without knocking first. I have always respected her wishes. I am 15 and think I could have the same privilege. I asked her please to knock my bedroom door before coming in. Now she just bangs the door once and barges in and says, "Does THAT satisfy you?"

Then she reminds me that I'm living in HER house and she has a right to go into any room she pleases whenever she wishes. What do you think of a mother like mine?

NO PRIVACY

DEAR NO: Your mother is wrong and I hope she realizes and changes her ways soon.

because that's precisely the kind of maternal action that makes children want to leave home as soon as they become of age.

DEAR ABBY: No problem, just a great big thank you for printing that excerpt from your book, DEAR TEEN-AGER, designed to help the teen-ager girl with an age-old problem: How to control a boy who insists on making improper advances, saying all the while that if she loved him she would let him.

Well, Abby, I am no teen-ager. I am a young woman in my thirties, but I cut out that item and placed it in my purse for future use. The advice is good for a woman of any age who is constantly pressured by a persistent Romeo. I have never known how to handle the problem without leaving the man angry, disgusted and thinking I was square. From now on it will be easy. I will simply reach into my purse, hand the excerpt to the guy and let it speak for me. I have a feeling it will save me a struggle and many words.

MATURE PARENT

By MURIEL LAWRENCE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
DEAR MRS. LAWRENCE:

My daughter was only 5 when her father and I were divorced. He remarried, moved to a distant state and she has not seen him in 16 years. I don't understand why she wants to see him now. She is going to be married this fall and has written her father to ask him to give her away. When I reminded her that he had never been a real father to her, she turned on me to say she only had my word for this. Mrs. Lawrence, I have not remarried but devoted my life to this child.

ANSWER: She is not a little girl any more to be satisfied with your "word" about her father. It is entirely reasonable that now, on the eve of her wedding, she should reach for her own experience of him.

I am sure that she loves her young man — but she doesn't know much about marriage, does she? She hasn't had much of a chance to see one in operation in her home. So her own approaching one faces her with more than the usual risks and doubts.

This young man is about to take on the new and mysterious character of husband to her. What could be more natural than to want to reach out for the reassuring presence of the only other important husband in the world — her father?

You must try to support her reach for that reassurance even if she doesn't get it.

Under psychoanalytic treatment middle-aged women — mothers themselves — who were deprived of their fathers as children often will break down into bitter tears at the sudden realization of their deprivation. That your daughter has had the courage to feel her sadness at her fatherless childhood is something you should congratulate yourself about.

Husbands Honored By CWF at First Christian Church

Christian Women's Fellowship of First Christian Church entertained their husbands and members of Christian Men's Fellowship at a guest night meeting of the group recently.

Mrs. C. V. Burton, CWF president, opened the business meeting with a prayer. Mrs. Roland Dauer gave the report of the nominating committee listing these officers for the new year: president, Mrs. Frank Grant; first vice president, Mrs. Paul Reimer; second vice president, Mrs. W. G. Kinzer; secretary, Mrs. Cecil Deist; treasurer, Mrs. W. F. Nidiffer; study chairman, Mrs. Robert Lafon; worship, Mrs. Jim Cunningham. These officers were accepted by the organization and will be installed at the October meeting of CWF.

The devotional "This Is the Day," was given by Dorothy Barritt.

Mrs. Jim Cunningham, program leader, read the 95th Psalm, after which she introduced Elmo Hudgins, who introduced a quartet composed of Don Carter, Clarence Coffin, Willie Burns and Hudgins. The quartet presented several numbers followed by a duet of Misses Mackie and Gienna Hudgins.

Rambo Group, hostesses for the guest night, served cake and coffee to those in attendance.

To go with fashion's skinny coats for fall and winter are skinny boots — with zippers, lacings or goring used for a close fit. Styling features such as cuffs, chains or colored linings are seen, particularly in ankle boots and booties.

Ruth Millett Women Are Better Travelers Than Men

News paper Enterprise Assn. "Women are better travelers than men," says one of America's better known travel agents. He admits that women are fussier than men about little things — but when real inconveniences come along and plans have to be abandoned or changed — then women settle down much more quickly than men to accept with good grace the necessity for making the best out of a bad situation.

This bit of information may be hard for the average man to believe — since a man likes to think of himself as a Mr. Fixit, who is equal to any situation and to regard women as helpless creatures who go to pieces in real emergencies.

But women know better. Women spend their lives smoothing things over for men. Secretaries do this in offices — and wives at home.

So in order to keep men happy, women are always ready to figure a way out of what seems like a hopeless situation. When a plan goes wrong, they can quickly come up with an alternate plan. When nothing can be done about a situation, they know how to convince a man that things may not be as bad as they look and that anyway there's no use worrying about a problem that nothing can be done about.

That's the way women's minds work — at home and on practical they either look for a quick solution to a problem or say, "If nothing can be done about it — there's no use worrying." If that's the way women react in everyday living — it's only natural that they react the same way when they are traveling — and consequently make better travelers than men. But though women know all this — it isn't likely that many men will admit it. For men like to think of themselves as the practical-minded sex. And women are just practical enough to let them think whatever makes them happy.

Sporting Sidelines

By JEFF COHANE

HEIGH-HO, chillun, here we go again! The Ol' Swami, turban ragged and crystal ball patched with cement, will once more assay to predict the winners of various and sundry football games. The Board of Experts is off to a brand-new start with a clean slate. The Swami (a-hem!) picked 13 out of 15 right down in the Tragic Valley before leaving, but Otis the Hat Holladay and his horde won't allow these, so everybody starts fresh.

Incidentally, Otis reports proudly that Jocko Neslage, now at New Mexico Military Institute prepping for Annapolis, made the starting lineup for the first game. Way to go, Jocko! HOUSTON 14, TEXAS A&M 6 . . . Completely forgot to put this one on the Experts' schedule, not because I was afraid I'd lose it. Matter of fact, it's not just loyalty that leads me to pick the Aggies, it's the fact that the Aggies have NEVER beaten UH in Houston.

BORGER 16, CAPROCK 7 . . . Bulldogs bounce back from disastrous loss to Dumas. Caprock improved, but not that much. TASCOSA 21, LUBBOCK 14 . . . Westerners no match for always terrific Tascosans.

AMARILLO 21, PLAINVIEW 14 . . . Bulldogs also greatly improved, but not that much, even though Tom Sawyer is best quarterback in district.

MCLEAN 26, LEFORS 7 . . . Pirates too small this year to stop Dangerous Dickie Crockett and company.

MIAMI 15, ESTELLINE 0 . . . although short of reserves, the big Warrior defense will contain the Bearcubs.

WHEELER 14, CANADIAN 0 . . . repeat of last year's Wildcats don't have the size of the burly and speedy Mustangs. Grady Burnett gets revenge in absentia.

GROOM 20, PANHANDLE 16 . . . A tossup, figure the Tigers for the aerial edge.

SPRING BRANCH 21, CORPUS CHRISTI RAY 7 . . . The Corpus Christi teams don't have it this year.

MOBETTIE 12, WHEELER B 7 . . . Hornet Homecoming . . . with skydivers yet.

MONTEREY 21, MIDLAND 14 . . . Bulldogs failed to impress last week.

OKLAHOMA 21, USC 0 . . . Sooners get off last week's slow start and on to the national races.

RICE 14, LSU 7 . . . With fear and hesitation, I think Rice is overrated this year.

FLORIDA STATE 21, TCU 7 . . . FS impressed clobbering Miami, TCU looked weak. Otis picked TCU and three other long shots, trying to get the big jump.

TEXAS 21, TEXAS TECH 14 . . . Techsans looked good last week, but Longhorns still Longhorns.

WASHINGTON 14, BAYLOR 7 . . . See I'm Way - out Willie in this one, guess this is the Swami's upset of the week.

ARKANSAS 28, TULSA 0 . . . Come on, Razorbacks, pick on someone your own size!

OHIO STATE 21, SMU 0 . . . They'll learn not to play those Big Ten powerhouses!

ARIZONA STATE 23, WEST TEXAS 8 . . . Sun Devils fly as John Torok wings.

NOTRE DAME 21, WISCONSIN 7 . . . Badgers weak this year.

KANSAS 21, SYRACUSE 14 . . . If this is the strongest team in the East, Paul Dietzel better get back to the opium pipe.

AND NOW for the big one, the one I'm almost afraid to predict. On paper, by virtue of last year and of what they did last week, Palo Duro should beat us. However, there is very definitely a new spirit in my Harvesters this year, a spirit that was absent when we played the Dons last season. On pride and desire, it's PAMPA 14, PALO DURO 7.

Kush Wary Of Buffs

TEMPE — Arizona States football team must overcome age-old malady — bigheaditis — when it meets West Texas State in an intersectional contest Saturday night at Canyon.

The Sun Devils of Coach Frank Kush are fresh from a convincing 24-8 win over highly regarded Utah State, and the head man, as is his nature, is highly disturbed.

"Sure, we looked great against Utah State," said Kush, "but if we're looking back one iota this week we'll be gun fodder."

West Texas lost 16-14 last weekend to Ohio University, a team rated at the top of the rugged Mid-American Conference.

Kush said he was extremely pleased with three facets of the Utah State game — (1) the fact ASU won; (2) the defense, and (3) the hustle.

"It was a big win for us," said Kush, "no doubt about it. I'm hoping it will give us the impetus for a winning season. I wasn't sure how we'd do with the loss of nine regulars from a year ago."

Regarding the defense: "It looked great in practices this fall, but there was no way of knowing for sure. I'd have to say that they distinguished themselves Saturday night."

And that they did. A year ago Utah State led all major colleges in the nation in scoring and total offense, and returned 26 lettermen this fall. ASU's unheralded defensive line of Bob Lueck and Joe McDonald at ends, Sam Fanelli and Pat Apulise at tackles, Bob Johnson at middle guard and linebackers Ron Scarfo, Ed Mauck and John Folmer held the Utahs to eight points and 159 yards total offense.

Kush, true to form, failed to become overly enthused with the offense. "We planned to run wide and throw a lot against Utah State, and our battle plan worked well, but I still fear because of our lack of inside running strength. For instance, in the fourth quarter we had the ball first and goal to go from Utah State's five. Three running plays netted only three yards and we had to go for the field goal. We're not tough in side like we were a year ago."

But the Devils proved tough outside, and particularly over-head. Quarterback, John Torok tied a school record for most completions in one game (18) and came within four yards of tying the school mark for most yards gained passing in one game — 219. Torok had scoring tosses of nine yards to end Jerry Smith, 21 yards to halfback Ben Hawkins, and 57 yards to halfback Hal Lewis.

West Texas State is led by two players who rate All-American in Kush's book. Russel Mundy, 206-pound senior fullback, was a key factor in the Buff's 15-14 win over the Devils two seasons ago at Tempe. He had 60 yards in 17 carries against Ohio.

Battered Canadian Awaits Hot Horses

CANADIAN — Like one of their namesakes, trapped in a den by hunters, the bruised and battered Canadian Wildcats are warily awaiting the arrival Friday night of the mighty, unbeaten Wheeler Mustangs.

Badly beaten up by Sunray in a 22-16 defeat Friday, the crippled 'Cats suffered injuries to several of their best players and they will be question marks for this week's contest. On the list of injuries are the quarterback and both halfbacks, coach Dwain Currie explaining that all three got badly bruised ribs and stomachs from the helmets of the hard-hitting, hard-tackling Sunray Bobcats. "They hit about as hard with those helmets as anyone I've ever seen," Currie explained unhappily.

Worst hurt is halfback Tommy Hyatt, who will be a doubtful starter. Halfback Keith Yarnold, the 'Cats' all-state candidate, is also a question mark, although the game little flash is expected to start, but will only be at half speed at best. Quarterback Butcherboy Benny Eckles, the rifle-armed signal-caller, has been unable to work out all week due to his bruised stomach. Still missing from a concussion in the Sanford-Fritch game is middle linebacker Charles Ortega.

"If Hyatt can't go, Mike Cullender or Butch Nichol will replace him, said the youthful Currie. "If Benny can't go, then Bill Grist will take over. If Yarnold can't go, then we might as well not play!"

Despite the battering, Yarnold, an all-state nominee last year, still gained close to 150 yards running against Sunray, while Eckles hit end Sandy Fiel with a pair of long passes. "We played a good game," opined Currie, "we beat 'em in everything but the statistics. But . . . we fumbled four times in the first half and they just about wiped us out physically after that."

Currie shuddered at the thought of playing Wheeler in this condition, saying that he wouldn't be surprised if this year's Mustang team was even stronger than the squad which won 10 straight games last year.

KEITH YARNOLD . . . Wildcat hope

"I suspect Dunk Porter is the best runner, regardless of class in the Panhandle, and Bobby Vanpool is close to him. He's certainly the fastest next to Shane Slovacsek of Booker."

"I don't know how we can defend them, quarterback Richard Wallace hasn't needed to pass much, but he's a great passer just the same, and if we could stop their running game, he'll throw. It's going to be real tough."

Braves Heading South Again?

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — Land developer Lou Perini Jr., son of a prominent stockholder and former owner of the Milwaukee Braves, said Wednesday that major league baseball would come to the South next year.

Perini, in a talk before the Florida Citrus Commission, did not name any clubs or locations, but told an associate later he was referring to the Braves, rumored moving to Atlanta after this season.

Perini left for San Francisco and was not available for further comment on his remarks.

Lou Perini Sr., said, however, he did not believe his son made the statements attributed to him. "I don't believe my son said anything of the kind," the elder Perini told Lou Chapman of the Milwaukee Sentinel in a telephone conversation from New York.

"He never talks about baseball. He's not even a baseball fan," said the elder Perini. "It's a case of whose putting whose words in whose mouth. He not only couldn't say it, he doesn't even know what's going on."

Pampa First in Scoring, Wins in District Stats

By RANDY BROWN

Avalanche-Journal

District 3-AAAA, showing surprising overall league strength, blitzed over eight of nine non-district opponents to wind up, almost, one of its most successful out-of-loop showing in recent years.

Only Monterey, which started a week later than everyone else in 3-AAAA, still has a non-district game, this Friday night in Lubbock against the Midland Bulldogs. But win or lose, the big Panhandle - South Plains bunch will compile a most impressive won-loss record against foreign opponents.

Already, 3-AAAA has a 14-3 mark with only a 34-15 1-AAAA Dumas victory over loop co-favorite Borger to mar last weekend's amazing performance.

Meanwhile, District 2-AAAA was hobbling through another luke-warm week. The district won only three of eight contests, bringing its season total seven victories and nine losses. And four of those defeats came at the hands of 3-AAAA teams. But 2-AAAA, with only eight teams, has another full week of non-district play.

The Lubbock High Schools, Lubbock and Monterey, highlighted the weekend's action with a pair of upset wins over Odessa squads. Lubbock nipped Odessa 7-6 and Monterey stopped one of 2-AAAA's best, Permian, 19-15. Both were comeback victories.

In 2-AAAA, San Angelo's impressive 18-0 whitewash of big favored Corpus Christi Ray was the big game for the loop. The only other teams winning were Abilene, which took a 21-8 win over 3-AAAA Sweetwater, and Big Spring, a surprising 2-0 after a 13-6 decision over Ysleta Bel Aire.

Five teams are deadlocked at 3-AAAA — Plainview, 21-8 winner over Littlefield, Pampa, which downed Ysleta 21-0. Caprock, 20-7 victor over Odessa Ector, Tascosa, which nipped tough Midland Lee 7-6, and Amarillo, which bested rugged Wichita Falls 10-7. Monterey is a half game back with a single win.

Abilene is tied with Big Spring for the 2-AAAA season lead, and the pair are the only teams in 2-AAAA that haven't lost a game.

Borger's speedy David Dillingham took over the 3-AAAA scoring lead, getting seven points against Dumas. But Plainview's Lonnie Whitefield and Tom Sawyer and Caprock's Ricky Hickman are just a shade behind. All have 18 points for the year.

Jim Rich scored all of San Angelo's points and took the lead in 2-AAAA. He has 24 points. Jacky Yarborough of Abilene is right behind in the second spot with 20 points.

Four district games are on tap in 3-AAAA; Borger at Caprock, Lubbock at Tascosa, Palo Duro at Pampa and Amarillo at Plainview. Top action in 2-AAAA will pit Dallas Kimball at Angelo, Fort Worth Arlington Heights at Abilene and Snyder at Big Springs.

Dumas Top Dog

DALLAS (UPI) — Dumas' dandy Demons replaced Pharr-San Juan-Alamo as Class AAA's No. 1 team, while Garland, Phillips and Hull-Daisetta held firmly to their top roles in this week's United Press International Texas schoolboy football ratings.

Dumas hurtled from fourth to first on the strength of its 35-14 upset of heralded Borger, while Pharr-San Juan-Alamo switched places with the Demons after bowing to McAllen 20-14.

Garland rode on the crest of AAAA with a 44-6 belting of Dallas-Samuell. Phillips entrenched itself atop AA with a 48-0 lacing of Tulla and Hull Daisetta looked increasingly impressive with a 66-0 whitewash of Hamshire-Pannett.

Three new teams showed up in Classes AAAA and AAA, four in Class A and one new one in AA as the season got more into the shakedown stage.

Nederland, McAllen and Port Arthur filled the bottom three spots in AAAA as Borger, Tyler Lee and Longview dropped out. Spring Branch High, Tyler High, Amarillo Tascosa, Victoria, Galena Park and Pasadena in that order—filled in behind Garland.

Kermit, Stephenville and Palestine replaced Athens. Angleton and Snyder in AAA and also wound up in the 8-9-10 spots. McKinney, which beat Athens 21-0, replaced that club in No. 2 and was followed by Vidor, Pharr-San Juan-Almo, Brownwood, Andrews and Clear Creek. It marked a return to the Top 10 for Palestine, which had been ushered out the week before by Athens.

The only new name in AA was that of Plano, on the strength of its 51-0 defeat of Grapevine. The Wildcats replaced twice-beaten Winters. In a general reshuffle of positions, Iowa Park, Palacios, Denver City, Ballinger, Brady, Taylor, Plano, Rockwall and Sinton trailed Phillips.

Yankees Cinch Flag, Phi Is Still Faltering

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer
The massacre of Lake Erie is over and the American League pennant race has gone up in the smoke of New York Yankee firepower.

It's all over except for the popping of the champagne corks in the Yankee clubhouse because the defending champions have rocketed into a four-game lead over both the Baltimore Orioles and the Chicago White Sox.

The Yankees have 10 games to play but their magic pennant-clinching number is down to six — meaning that any combination of Yankee victories and losses by either opponent totaling six will end the race. Phrased more simply in view of the Yankees' current nine-game whirlwind streak, the Yankees will win the pennant merely by winning six of their remaining 10 games.

Sweep Doubleheader

The Yankees moved to the threshold of their fifth straight flag and first under Yogi Berra when they swept a two-night doubleheader from the Cleveland Indians 4-3 in 11 innings and 6-4 Wednesday night. Their second straight doubleheader sweep enabled the Yankees to pick up a game and a half on the Orioles, who lost to the Detroit Tigers 10-3 and a half game on the White Sox, who scored a 2-1 win over the Los Angeles Angels.

The Yankees completed their mission of whipping the Indians four in a row in Cleveland with Elston Howard's 11th-inning homer breaking up the opener and a tattoo of four singles sparking a decisive three-run fifth-inning rally in the second game.

Ex-Cleveland righthander Pedro Ramos finished both games, working a total of 2 2-3 scoreless innings, although Pete Mikkelsen received credit for his sixth win in the first game and Roland Sheldon was credited with his fifth victory in the nightcap. Bobby Richardson had four hits for the Yankees during the doubleheader and John Romano homered for the Indians in each game.

Are the Philadelphia Phillies faltering or fainting?

That's the big question in the suddenly revived National League race today with the Cincinnati Reds back within striking range of first place but with the Phillies still enjoying a 3 1/2 game lead.

The question is not whether the Reds can keep winning but whether the Phillies can start winning again.

The Reds bounced smartly back into long-shot contention Wednesday night when their 6-4 victory completed a three-game sweep of the Phillies and dealt them their fifth loss in their last six games. The Reds, meanwhile, have won four straight and seven out of nine.

Hopes Are Brightening

Supporting the Reds' hopes is the fact that they play five of their last 10 games with the last-place New York Mets and also have two face-to-face meetings with the Phillies. Against this reasonably optimistic outlook is the simple mathematical fact that five Philadelphia victories in their final nine games would mean the Reds would have to win nine out of 10 to tie for the flag and create a playoff.

But pennants are won on the playing field, not in accounting departments, and the gallant Reds certainly played the part of the "hot club" in hammering out their Wednesday night victory. Vada Pinson hit two homers—one breaking a 1-1 tie in the sixth and the other snapping a 3-3 tie and boosting the Reds into a 6-3 lead in the seventh. The Phillies staged their big counter threat in the seventh when Sammy Ellis walked three batters, but Ellis then struck out clutch-hitter Johnny Callison and Tony Taylor to end the inning. Dennis Bennett, tagged for eight hits and four runs in six innings, suffered his 13th loss while Bill McCool picked up his sixth win for the Reds.

Other NL Action

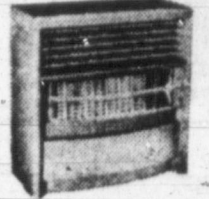

Elsewhere in the NL, the Mets stashed the St. Louis Cardinals 2-1, the San Francisco

Giants downed the Houston Colts with Juan Marichal notching his 20th win 4-1, the Chicago Cubs belted the Los Angeles Dodgers 9-6, and the Pittsburgh Pirates defeated the Milwaukee Braves 7-4.

COLORADO'S BEST BEER!

Sobbin' Jack Cries Crocodile Tears Over Tremendous Passer

GROOM — Sobbin' Jack York is crying with an effort this season. The Groom head coach, famed as the most prolific blubberer in the Top O' Texas, found it hard to sing his usual song of misery despite a defeat at the hands of Claude, 25-6 last weekend.

Trying his best to seem unhappy, the crocodile tears had little effect as in between sobs he broke out in smiles over the standout performances of what he calls "the finest quarterback and the finest pass receiver in the Panhandle."

"We got two touchdowns called back early in the game," York said. "Man, we're a threat for six points every time we line up!"

"He completed seven of nine against Vega and 13 of 19 against Claude. End Jerry Roberts catches anything he throws. Roberts, 6-5, who alternated between quarterback and end last year, looks like a pro. He caught 10 passes for 140 yards despite three defenders. They put their great Denton Fox and two outside men on him and he faked Fox out as if he were in kindergarten."

York reverted to his old self when informed that the News had picked the Tigers to beat Panhandle Friday. "What are you trying to do to us?" screamed the thin-thatched Tiger mentor. "Panhandle is tough, they're gonna be awful hard to beat. Remember, they beat Clarendon last week and Claude just edged Clarendon. What are you doing?"

Calming down, York admitted that it would be a tooth-and-nail contest, but that the Tigers were ready to take the nod. Major worry for the Groom squad is Big Bob Garmon, their great guard, who is on the doubtful list for Friday. "Garmon would have made a difference last game and he could make the difference in this," said York, "but we won't know until game time whether he'll be ready."

A Watchful Newspaper
EVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS
TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities. We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself; no more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

So Nice And Friendly

It is comforting to know that this is going to be a nice, friendly campaign with nary a low blow struck by either side. This assurance came when Democratic and Republican leaders solemnly signed a Fair Campaign Practices Code, pledging to keep it clean, so help me Barry and LBJ, and never, never to say anything you wouldn't say against your own mother. So harmonious was the pledging ceremony that the happy signers could hardly wait to hurry out to start demonstrating their friendly feelings toward each other. Taking care not to mention any names, since that might be regarded as unfriendly, LBJ urged his followers to vote for him as a protest against "reckless factions" he described as being "contemptuous toward the will of majorities, callous toward the plight of minorities, arrogant toward our allies, belligerent toward adversaries, and careless toward peace."

Barry was just as eager to carry out his end of the bargain and to do unto good old LBJ what good old LBJ was doing unto him. He reminded his audiences that the President is a very rich man, conceded that a man had to be pretty crafty to amass so much loot, and hinted that it must be hard for anyone to make a fortune the way Mr. Johnson has made his and find it possible to sleep well at night. The senator also remarked that the President is so adroit and influential he may be able to arrange for a national crisis or two on the eve of election. While this might be dangerous for the country, Senator Goldwater suggested, it would win votes for President Johnson. This is the way to keep it clean, and it beats ordinary campaign politics all hollow. If Mr. Khrushchev has been hoping the election may bring out a trace of rivalry between the two parties and their candidates, he must be bitterly disappointed to see that both sides are keeping the campaign so nice and friendly and gentle. Friendship, it's wonderful.

Shoe's on Other Foot

Submissive senate Democrats, obviously acting on White House orders, killed a bill which would have made possible television debates between Lyndon Johnson and Barry Goldwater. The legislation would have suspended the provision of the 1934 federal communications act which requires that equal time be given all "legally qualified candidates." In 1960 there were 14 of these. When Congress set aside the equal time rule in 1960, it gave John F. Kennedy the chance to appear in big time company. He was then the outsider, while Richard Nixon was the heir of an incumbent administration. In sharing a platform with Nixon, Kennedy automatically gained status as an equal, and he made the best of the opportunity. Now the Democratic incumbent, Mr. Johnson, having become the beneficiary of Mr. Nixon's acceptance of Mr. Kennedy, shows no disposition to reciprocate. His attitude implies that he has a lease on the White House and no gate-crashers are welcome. There are, of course, other reasons for Mr. Johnson's distaste for exposure in company of Sen. Goldwater. As the Republican national chairman remarked, "I can see why Johnson doesn't want to debate. I've seen him on TV."

Sen. Goldwater may have had these considerations in mind when he offered to pay for debating time himself, or to induce the national committee to do so. He jocularly suggested that Johnson, with his television monopoly in Austin, Tex., ought to be able to get a discount. One peculiarity about Johnson's shyness deserves mention. By the account of the Democrats, Goldwater is reckless in discourse, he "shoots from the hip," he has to go back and explain statements he has previously made. If the senator is so highly vulnerable, one might think that the Democrats would jump at the chance to get him in front of the cameras and cut him to ribbons. But the wary Mr. Johnson does not see it this way. He evidently believes that debating might show up the wrong victim.

Auto Is Here to Stay

If you think things are tough out there in traffic now, just hold on. Statisticians estimate that by 1970 there will be on the streets and highways of America a merry little swarm of cars, buses, trucks and whatnot totaling at least 100,000,000 — about a fourth again as many as there are today. If all these 100,000,000 vehicles were placed bumper to bumper — which is where most of them will be on any pleasant Sunday afternoon — they would form an unbroken line of traffic 337,327 miles long. This not only is equivalent to 13 times the distance around the earth, but represents a solid traffic jam of 251 cars abreast every foot of the way from New York City to Miami, Fla. If you plan to go South, you'd better get going before the crowd assembles.

But the man on the phone said the contest was still wide open and the important thing to aim for was the maximum transit information so that everybody could enjoy the city's vast network of buses, subways, ferries and interesting places. Why they were not enjoying these facilities now, he did not say. Why people were afraid to be out late at night in public transit coaches and cars he did not say either. But presumably it was because last year's map did not reflect the city properly. For some reason we cannot seem to grasp, there is a notion that a metropolis will stop teeming the minute everybody gets a new, free map of the city. The theory appears to be that people know exactly where they are going, and would go in peace and harmony if only they were sure of which bus to take. Well, we have worked in a lot of cities and looked at a lot of city maps, and we simply do not see any profit in putting out a better — than — ever map for a same-as-usual city. We have learned from sad experience that as good a way as any to get around a modern metropolis is to pick out somebody who appears to know where he is going and then follow him. You may not get to exactly the place you want through this method, but you will almost certainly get to another place just like it. This system has worked as well for us in Chicago and New Orleans as in Caracas and Tokyo. In fact, the only place we ever had the slightest trouble with it was in Hong Kong where every determined-looking Chinese we followed led us to "The World of Suzy Wong" starring William Holden. Under the circumstances the only reasonable kind of city map to have, it seems to us,

BERRY'S WORLD

"This is a good corner all right, but there's too much dust!"

Sensing The News

By THURMAN SENSING

IN BED WITH COPE Announcement that the union bosses have lined up solidly behind the Johnson Administration is the least surprising news of the month. The AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education (COPE) is the strong right political arm of the liberal political regime in Washington. It has a willing servant in the White House, and, naturally, will do whatever it can to see that the same crowd now in power will continue to call the shots after January.

But what is surprising is to find some prominent business men lending their name and prestige to the same cause that COPE is supporting. These prominent individuals in the business world must find it very strange to be in bed with COPE, for COPE ordinarily is busy with its anti-business projects. It should be recognized, however, that there are some elements in the business world who for a long time have refused to stand up for the free enterprise system and for those stalwart men in political life who will defend the capitalist philosophy. It's a fact that courage is not uniformly divided in this world, and that some men have more and some have less.

Indeed over the past 30 years, exponents of our various domestic brands of socialism have been able to find pet capitalists. Franklin Roosevelt knew where to look for them, and so do his successors. It must be recognized too that a ruthless regime in Washington knows how to threaten business. The country should not forget the Kennedy Administration's totalitarian crackdown on the steel industry, with agents being sent into company offices to get records and corporate officials crudely menaced with a prosecution. Nor should the American people forget how the Justice Department under Robert F. Kennedy sent teams in the South, armed with income tax records, to secure compliance to its political will.

Undoubtedly, some men in business have not forgotten the way defense contracts have been handled in recent years, with huge contracts assigned on the basis of non-technical factors that can only be described as political. Companies that do a lot of business with the government unquestionably are in a position to be menaced. Then there are some organizations that stand to profit from the foreign aid and giveaway programs of the Johnson administration. A company that is building a dam in Ghana, for example, may not be very enthusiastic about ending a project that benefits an African dictator. Yet another category of businessman who may be willing to lend himself to the same cause as COPE is one who moves in and out of government service. There are not a few individuals in the country whose hearts still belong to Big Government though they work for private shareholders.

But it never pays to attempt palship with the forces of socialism. Inevitably, the businessman who attempts to run with the gang that is out to bust business ends up on the face of the titer. Tragically, there are businessmen in all parts of the world who have failed to understand this truth. It should be remembered that Fidel Castro had his businessmen supporters when he seized power in Cuba. And after Castro was ensconced in Havana, there were American businessmen who thought they could do business with Fidel. They were mistaken to the tune of millions of dollars. So it is in the United States. A businessman can't lend his name and prestige to an anti-business political movement without suffering the financial consequences. These may be delayed for a time. Indeed a few businessmen may temporarily profit from being in the favor of Big Government. But when free enterprise is hurt, then every business stands to be hurt in the long run. Corporate leaders have a grave responsibility for supporting spokesmen for free enterprise. If these leaders won't support the college professor or reporter to carry the ball, with corporate authority comes responsibility for capitalist leadership. It should be exercised on behalf of those who stand up for business freedom.

How Come It Takes So Long— TO GET WORD FROM TONKIN GULF?

ROSE-MANNING

Cannel At Bay

By Ward Cannel

Where Do We Go From Here? NEW YORK — We received an announcement from the New York Transit Authority offering a $6,000 prize for the best map of the city submitted for judging by next Friday. Now, if there is one thing New York City does not need, it is a new map. And ordinarily we would simply have filed the notice in our folder marked "Cities, Big" where we keep all those items which do not make any sense, such as the quarterly report on trichinosis cases and the annual census of the rat population.

But as we just happen to have an opening at present for $6,000 and would go to the Congo and make a map of Leopoldville by this evening for it, we called the contest office to find out what the judging was based on. This is first rule of good citizenship in big cities, we have found. It is simply not fair in an overworked city hall to waste a lot of people's time by putting in for a prize that has already been promised to somebody else.

But the man on the phone said the contest was still wide open and the important thing to aim for was the maximum transit information so that everybody could enjoy the city's vast network of buses, subways, ferries and interesting places. Why they were not enjoying these facilities now, he did not say. Why people were afraid to be out late at night in public transit coaches and cars he did not say either. EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

Coffee Market Grew Up Under Freedom, Then—

By SAM CAMPBELL, Register Business Editor If you've been nicked 15 cents for a cup of restaurant coffee lately, that's a sign the International Coffee Council is back on the job. The idea of the coffee brain-trust is to manage the price that you pay for coffee by policing shipments of coffee beans. The braintrust is made up of representatives from 59 of the world's major governments. Just why the United States should be paying your money to send delegates to such a board has not yet been explained since the net effect to date has been to raise the price on the beverage you drink.

I wrote some lines awhile back in a playful mood. The same was headlined "Greatest Global Intellectuals Ponder Your Coffee Price." Back came a letter from the World Coffee Information Center, 1730 M. Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036, taking note of the levity of those remarks. The letter stated in part as follows: "That cup of coffee... represents a huge segment of world trade and commerce. Most years, coffee is second only to petroleum in world trade, dollar value—bigger than steel, wheat, cotton, sugar, for example. "World coffee trade creates some 13 million jobs and $1.4 billion foreign-exchange revenue for Latin America (1962). "And that cup of coffee stimulates jobs and income in the U.S.A. too. In 1961, approximately 662,000 jobs and $3.2 billion in wages and farm income were generated by coffee. For it is the income derived from coffee that permits many countries especially those of Latin America, to buy U.S. industrial and farm goods. The coffee-exporting countries in 1961 purchased $3.4 billion worth of products from U.S.A." The letter was signed by Samuel E. Stavisky, director.

What Mr. Stavisky is saying, in effect, is that coffee is so important that we just must hire a braintrust to manage this giant enterprise for us. But the part that he fails to point out is how the coffee industry became such a tremendous endeavor. Did it grow to its present dimension because of efforts of the International Coffee Council? No, because the council had not been formed in 1962, the is a map of someplace else. And now that our entry is in, we do not mind revealing that our choice for New York was Leopoldville. No, it does not do away with the necessity of having to go dumb through the uncaring streets, bound for a place just like some other place. But on the other hand, how splendid to consult your prize-winning city map all the while for the plainly marked shuttle to gracious Boulevard Albert, the stop for the mysterious Hotel Memling, and the free transfer to the exotic Brazzaville Ferry to New Jersey. Freedom made the coffee market, Mr. Stavisky. Then after the coffee market was made, the bureaucrats bored in. They saw a good thing and they wanted part of it — at the expense of taxpayer and at the expense of the consumer. Well, Mr. Stavisky, there is no way that the victimized taxpayer can keep the know-it-alls and manage — all from spending his money to support the subsidized coffee experts on the International Coffee Council. But the consumer, at least, does have one resort — he can turn down his cup. By the way, waitress, make mine water.

THE EXPERIMENT

My professor uncle Irskome Droner who leans to the left even on still days, is a high Priest advocate of the White House Cowboy's philosophy of "Let us lay down our arms and brace game of co-existence." Professor Droner conducted an experiment by placing a fat rabbit in an escape proof cage with a hungry greyhound. As soon as the animals were placed in the cage and the lock secured, they were wheeled into another room out of sight. The idea was to prove that natural enemies could co-exist together. Next day the cage was wheeled back in before the class and in it sat one satisfied looking greyhound and no rabbit. My smart aleck cousin Jubilate Subterfuge exuberantly exclaimed that the dog had eaten the rabbit. "Nonsense" snapped Professor Droner and then explained with modern liberal logic, "Two animals were placed in that cage, it was impossible for either of them to get out, therefore somewhere in that cage there are still two animals and I have proven co-existence to be possible." Cousin Jubilate was expelled for replying, "Yeah and unless our nation steers a different course, we are going to co-exist with communism just like that

GIVEAWAY GLITTER (Tulsa, Okla., Tribune)

It was only a question of time until it happened. And Washington, D. C. was the logical starting place. There now exists a "welfare supermarket" and 18 more are planned for the nation's capital. Detroit and Chicago will have similar facilities. Here's how the supermarket works: Three days a week 1,000 Washington families on welfare wheel shopping carts through a streamlined store, selecting goods from the shelves. Each is armed with a computer card mailed to them to prevent going over the allotment as they make the rounds. The items are verified and sacked at a check-out counter. Insider's Newsletter said the supermarket's first "customers" were "enthusiastic." They said it was more dignified, closer to home and involved less waiting than the central depot. They also liked being able to see what they were getting.

WASHINGTON: Soviet Graft Charged by Red Chinese

By RAY CROMLEY, Washington Correspondent WASHINGTON (NEA) — Red China's Mao Tse-tung has broadened his assault on Khrushchev with detailed charges of graft within the Soviet Union. One Mao spokesman, in a recent attack circulated in Communist China and Southeast Asia, makes these specific accusations: "Leading functionaries of some (Soviet) state-owned factories... abuse their positions and amass large fortunes by using the equipment and materials of the factories to set up underground workshops for private production, selling the products illicitly and dividing the spoils." "In a Leningrad plant producing military items, the leading functionaries placed their own men in all key posts... They illicitly engaged in the production of nonmilitary goods and from the sale of fountain pens alone embezzled 1.2 million rubles in three years..." "One ruble is worth about $1.10 today."

"In a silk-weaving mill in Uzbekistan, the manager ganged up with the chief engineer, the chief accountant (and) the chief of the supply and marketing section... They purchased more than 10 tons of artificial and pure silk through various illegal channels in order to manufacture goods which did pass through the accounts..." "The manager of a furniture factory in Kharkov set up an illegal knitwear workshop and carried on secret operations inside the factory. The man had several wives, several cars, several houses, 176 neckties... a hundred shirts and dozens of suits..." "Such people do not operate all by themselves. They invariably work hand-in-glove with functionaries in the state departments who protect them and act as their agents... High-ranking officials in the state organs... shield them..."

The chief of the workshops affiliated with a Moscow psychoneurological dispensary and his gang set up an underground enterprise and, by bribery, obtained 58 knitting machines and a large amount of raw material. They entered into business relations with 32 factories, handicraft co-operatives and collective farms and made 3 million rubles in a few years. They bribed functionaries of the Department for Combating Theft of Socialist Property and Speculation..." "The manager of a machinery plant in the Russian Federation... the deputy manager of a second machinery plant and other functionaries, 43 persons in all, stole... 900 looms and sold them to factories in central Asia, Kazakhstan (and) the Caucasus... (where) leading functionaries used them for illicit production..." "In the Kirghiz SSR, a gang of... 40 embezzlers and grafters... gained control of two factories, organized underground production and plundered... 30 million rubles' worth of state property. This gang included the chairman of the Planning Commission of the Republic, a vice minister of commerce, seven bureau chiefs and division chiefs of the Republic's Council of Ministers, National Economic Council and State Control Commission..." "The chairman of a collective farm in Uzbekistan held the whole village in terror. All important posts on this farm were occupied by his in-laws and other relatives and friends. He squandered over 132,000 rubles of the collective farm for his personal needs. He had a car, two motorcycles and three wives, each with a house of her own..."

Mao's spokesman says all this is because Khrushchev has "returned to capitalism."

RETREAT FROM MARXISM (N.Y. Daily News)

Speaking of Socialism, though, President Johnson has just signed into law a bill permitting ownership of nuclear fuels by private power companies. This ends a U.S. Government monopoly decreed by Congress shortly after World War II. The feeling at that time was that wicked old businessmen were not to be trusted with any part of the split atom; that only politicians and bureaucrats were worthy of such trust. Congress has junked that notion now, for which let us give thanks — and how about Congress moving swiftly to boot the Government out of a lot of other activities which in a non-Marxist country should be handled exclusively by private enterprise?
