Red Congs Storm, Wreck Viet City

US, South Losses Heavy

SAIGON (UPI) — A battalion of Communist guerrillas attacking in human waves today stormed through the government outpost at Ba Gia 330 miles northeast of Saigon. One American was killed, two were missing and three wounded. Vietnamese losses were believed heavy.

In air action, 25 giant B52 bombers of the U.S. Strategic Air Command flew across the Pacific Ocean from Guam and rained 500 tons of bombs on a suspected Viet Cong stronghold 35 miles northeast of Saigon. The jets hit the target in two separate waves.

American military spokesmen said a battalion of guerrillas swarmed through Ba Gia, occupied the garrison briefly captured two 105-millimeter howitzers and ammunition for the weapons and then disappeared into the flat grasslands and paddy fields around the old fort.

The one American who was killed and one of the missing Americans were military advisers stationed with Vietnamese troops at Ba Gia. The guerrillas shot down an armed U.S. Army helicopter. The pilot and two crewmen escaped with minor injuries but the pilot was missing.

Vietnamese casualties were not announced, but U.S. authorities said they feared they would be "quite heavy."

The B52 attack was the second such air raid in the past two weeks on the Communist controlled area known as war zone D.

A U.S. military spokesman said the two raids today were spaced 15 to 20 minutes apart on the theory that the first wave would send Communist guerrillas rushing into underground tunnels to escape the bombs and that the second would catch them as they came out of hiding, believing the air attack to be over.

Fragmentary radio reports on the Ba Gia fighting said guerrilla troops overran the outpost in Quang Ngai Province, inflicted "heavy casualties" on its battalion-sized force of defenders and captured two 105-millimeter howitzers.

The outpost "fell in a matter of minutes," according to reports received here. Government reinforcements were believed to have reoccupied the garrison after the Viet Cong had done their damage.

The garrison at Ba Gia was badly mauled by the Communists last May 29 and officials said it was understrength when the Viet Cong attacked today.

Seven other Americans, all Marines, were wounded today by a Viet Cong mine during a Leatherneck patrol near the airstrip at Chu Lai, 360 miles northeast of Saigon. Six of the wounded men were reported in "good condition." The seventh was described as "fair."

Police, Guard Halt Drinking Youths

By United Press International

Thousands of rowdy, beer-drinking youths celebrating the Fourth of July weekend brought drunken brawls, looting and destruction to resort areas in six states.

In several trouble spots, troops were called out. More than 600 persons were arrested on charges ranging from public drunkenness to disorderly conduct and assault.

LBJ Planning Another Day At Ranch Home

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (UPI) — President Johnson planned another day of work and play at the restful LBJ Ranch before wrapping up the holiday weekend and heading back to Washington.

The Chief Executive was expected to fly back to the White House tonight or early Tuesday. Johnson's top aides have been on the scene, including Bill Moyers who arrived Sunday night.

The President and Mrs. Johnson, both looking sun-tanned and rested, have had a relaxing weekend, swimming and boating with Texas friends.

Sunday, they attended Fourth of July services in the First Christian Church in Johnson City. The church was initiating a new air conditioning unit which Johnson, a long time member, had donated.

After the service, the President got behind the wheel of a white station wagon and led a motorized piper swing around his recently restored boyhood home.

Harassed policemen filled jails and in several instances fire hoses and tear gas were used to put down the disturbances.

The chief trouble spots were Lake George, N.Y.; Russells Point and Geneva-On-The-Lake, Ohio; Rockaway Beach, Mo.; Newport, R.I.; Hyannis, Mass.; and Arnolds Park, Iowa.

At Geneva-On-The-Lake Sunday night police used billy clubs to herd thousands of youths out of the Lake Erie resort community. Many of the rowdies threw beer cans and shouted epithets at the officers.

The National Guard was alerted as about 10,000 youths milled about, throwing firecrackers and rocks at sheriff's deputies.

Thirty-two youths were arrested Sunday night and early Monday, bringing the total arrested during the weekend to 142.

Mayor Wilson W. Finley ordered the town cleared of all but residents and those persons with motel or cottage reservations.

Ohio Gov. James A. Rhodes alerted the National Guard to be ready to move in from near-Ashtabula if necessary.

Police in the tiny Adirondack mountains resort village of Lake George, N.Y., reported more than 300 arrests had been made during three nights of youthful melees.

At least 40 persons were arrested Sunday. Police said most were charged with disorderly conduct or violation of a village ordinance that prohibits carrying open containers of alcoholic beverages on village streets.

Most of the youths arrested Friday and Saturday were fined $10 and released. A few who were unable to pay were held.

New York Cabbies' Return To Jobs Ending Week's Strike

NEW YORK (UPI) — Thousands of New York City taxi drivers returned to their jobs today, ending a seven-day strike for union representation.

In Chicago, a similar strike continued. The settlement, pending a National Labor Relations Board election, was announced Sunday night by City Council President Paul R. Screvane following a meeting with representatives of drivers and taxi fleet owners.

Screvane, who is acting mayor while Robert E. Wagner is visiting Denmark, told newsmen: "I have just secured a settlement in the taxi strike. Under the agreement, some 15,000 cabbies go back to work without any immediate gains, but a temporary arbitrator, former mayor and judge Vincent R. Impellitteri, will rule on any discharge or suspensions sought by owners.

The representation dispute, marked during the walkout by frequent acts of violence and vandalism, will not be fully settled until the NLRB election July 21.

On that date, about 10,000 drivers at 38 fleet garages will vote on whether they want to be represented by the Traffic Drivers Organizing Committee, the Teamsters union, or have no representation at all.

FIREWORKS SHOW — Thousands of persons jammed Recreation Park last night for the seventh annual Fourth of July celebration. A 30-minute fireworks show followed a patriotic program which consisted of the Pledge of Allegiance, band concert and address by Rev. Harry Vanderpool. The above pictures were taken by News staffers Ray Rodgers and Van Cook.

Volunteers In Mississippi for Vote Registration

By United Press International

Summer volunteers began arriving today in Mississippi to push a voter registration drive.

Most of them were adult volunteers who will undergo a two-day orientation period before being assigned to various counties for the summer, according to the sponsoring National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP).

Charles Evers, Mississippi NAACP field secretary, said the program will be vastly different from the 1964 project which resulted in the murders of three workers at Philadelphia, Miss.

Evers said the summer workers would assist in voter registration, conduct "citizenship clinics" and work toward upgrading Negroes generally.

A summer campaign, last year operated by the Council of Federated Organizations drew considerable criticism for the "beatnik" appearance of some of the volunteers.

In addition to the NAACP campaign, the predominantly Negro Freedom Democratic Party (FDP) had recruited a number of out-of-state college students for a separate voter registration campaign.

In other developments, two students from India at Louisiana State University were beaten Sunday at a segregationist rally at Baton Rouge, La., at which the main speaker was former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker.

The two, who asked the hospital where they were treated not to release their names, were beaten by spectators at the edge of a crowd gathered on the steps of the Louisiana state capitol.

Police estimated the crowd at the rally at about 5,000.

Solons Faced With Two Top Measures Tuesday

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A long hot summer of hard work faces congressmen on their return to Capitol Hill Tuesday with two big bills at the top of the list—voting rights and health care for the elderly.

There were plenty of other stumbling blocks to the Labor Day adjournment congressional leaders were hoping for, but voting rights and medicare were the immediate hurdles.

The voting rights bill, up for debate in the House Tuesday, has already passed the Senate. It is aimed at guaranteeing southern Negroes access to polling places. It would strike down voter requirements such as literacy tests and permit the use of federal "examiners" to register Negroes in all or parts of Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia, Louisiana, South Carolina, Virginia and North Carolina.

The House measure differs from the Senate-passed bill in one important respect—it would (See SOLONS, Page 3)

Romeo of Caribbean Dead in Car Accident

PARIS (UPI) — Protirio Rubirosa, the millionaire Dominican playboy and diplomat, died today in a high speed sports car crash in the Bois de Boulogne.

Police said Rubirosa, 56, was dead on arrival at a Paris hospital. Rescuers had difficulty removing his body from the tangled wreckage of his powerful Ferrari that had veered into a tree in the wooded section.

The accident happened near the place where playboy Prince Aly Khan, a close friend of Rubirosa, was killed in 1960 in a car crash on a bridge over the River Seine.

An expert flier, skier, polo player and auto racer, his prowess with the ladies brought "Rubi" the unofficial title of "Romeo of the Caribbean."

Flor de oro Trujillo, daughter of the late Dominican dictator and Rubirosa's first wife called him "every girl's prince charming—a man in ever sense of the word."

Two of Rubirosa's wives were among the world's richest women—tobacco heiress Doris Duke and Woolworth heiress Barbara Hutton. He also was wed to French film star Danielle Darrieux and at his death was married to French movie actress Odile Rodin.

His final marriage had lasted since 1956, unusually long for the dapper and athletic ladies man. Rubi was alone in his car at the time of the crash.

Rubirosa was involved in at least two sensational divorce suits—one involving Mrs. Rich.

Episcopal Bishop Criticizes Luci Johnson's Rebaptism

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Episcopal Bishop James A. Pike criticized Luci Johnson's rebaptism as a Roman Catholic in order to further the ecumenical movement, the bishop said Sunday.

"In my heart and mind, I felt it to be my duty to speak out against what I regard as an act contrary to the ecumenism that is abroad in the world of today," Pike said after delivering a sermon strongly critical of the second baptism of the President's youngest daughter.

Maintaining that the Catholic Church recognizes Episcopal baptism as valid, Pike said Luci's rebaptism as a Roman Catholic Friday was "totally void of any sacramental effect and thus sacrilegious."

"For a member of the presidential household to request the performance of a rite which according to the teachings of both churches was totally void of any sacramental effect and thus sacrilegious... was an insult without any justification whatsoever—one which can only be mitigated, not by an explanation, for there is no viable one, but by an outright apology," Pike said.

San Francisco Archbishop Patrick O'Boyle, archbishop of Washington, also criticized the rebaptism.

Pampans Observe Safe July 4

Pampa, in sharp contrast to the state and national picture, had recorded no traffic accidents as of early Monday morning over the July 4 holiday period.

Traffic accidents were the big killer with hours still to go in the Independence Day weekend in Texas.

Highway patrolmen reported no major traffic accidents on highways around Pampa.

A United Press International count that began at 6 p.m. Friday and continues until midnight tonight showed 42 violent deaths—including 27 in traffic.

Most Texans continued today to enjoy the long Fourth of July holiday weekend.

The state's most famous residents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, spent a fairly typical Fourth. They went to Sunday church services and then went to the lake.

The biggest holiday observation was in the Lower Rio Grande Valley. McAllen and its sister city, Reynosa, Mexico collaborated for a three-day celebration. It included parades, beauty contest, barbecue and a bullfight that was marred by injuries to a matador.

Padre Island beaches were crowded. Port Mansfield held a state (See PAMPANS, Page 3)

HAZARDOUS HIGHWAYS — Three died in this traffic accident near Pavee, Texas, on the eve of the Fourth of July weekend. The National Safety Council warns that up to 570 lives may be lost on the nation's highways during the long holiday.

This Week In Business

By LEROY POPE
 NEW YORK (UPI) — The stock market is often perverse. Having gone down in the face of waves of good news last week, it turned around and recovered sharply this week right in the middle of business storm warnings.
 The rally brought the biggest trading day in Wall Street in three years on Tuesday—10.43 million shares—and continued through Wednesday and Thursday. Then the market opened firmly today.
 Commerce Secretary John T. Connor and Treasury Secretary Henry Fowler again assured the nation there is nothing wrong with the economy, and indeed, some business was excellent. But there were those storm warnings.
 Unemployment went up to 4.7 per cent in mid-June from 4.6

per cent a month earlier but still was the lowest in three years for the second quarter. Merchants generally were disappointed by the poor sales gains following the $4.7 billion cut in federal excise taxes; most frequent opinion was that the slashes came a little too late to be really seasonable.
 However, Dun & Bradstreet said rainy weather in the South and Midwest had much to do with disappointing retail sales—which still ranged from 3 to 7 per cent above a year ago.
 The nation's monetary gold balance took a $359 million wallop, $100 million drained off by foreign government withdrawals and the rest accounted for by a transfer to the international monetary fund to fulfill a commitment made last March.

Secret Service Quietly Celebrates Birthday 100

By MERRIMAN SMITH — The assassination of three presidents — Lincoln, Garfield and McKinley — in 37 years quietly noted its 100th birthday today.

The duties of this unit of the Treasury Department have often made anonymity impossible. Its agents, particularly those assigned to the White House, frequently must work in front of thousands of people.

Established in July, 1865, the agency was assigned to stop the counterfeiting of paper money, government checks and bonds.

Bar Break-In Nets Thieves Beer

Thieves made off with an estimated eight cases of beer early Sunday morning following a break-in at the Killarney Bar, west of Pampa.

Sheriff Rufe Jordan said the building was entered by breaking out a rear window glass, large enough to crawl through.

The incident was discovered about 8:30 p.m.

Mulshoe, Tex. spent the weekend honoring the mule and unveiling a statue of the animal.

Dallas got to hear oratory from U. S. Sen. John Tower, R-Tex. and congressmen Joe Pool and Earle Cabell, both of Dallas.

Fireworks blazed into the night from the Cotton Bowl as well as smaller stadiums and around the state.

The assassination of three presidents — Lincoln, Garfield and McKinley — in 37 years alarmed Congress. Shortly after the turn of the century, the Secret Service was given the added statutory responsibility of protecting the life of the president and his family. This recently was expanded to include the vice president and his family.

It was not a glamour job when the first White House detail of four agents was assigned to President Theodore Roosevelt. He was not overly fond of his escorts and on occasion made them trail on foot through Washington's Rock Creek Park while he rode horseback.

Today's counterparts have their troubles, too. They sometimes must trot for miles beside the president's car when a parade moves slowly through crowded city streets.

When President Johnson visited a lake front Chicago hotel recently, one agent was assigned to the open door of a hovering helicopter where he sat with an automatic rifle on the alert for any potential assassin in nearby buildings.

Under Chief James Rowley, a veteran of many years on the White House detail, the Secret Service is modernizing its techniques and boosting manpower as fast as Congress permits.

From a small beginning, the service has grown to a complement of about 920, most of them agents.

The first agents assigned to Teddy Roosevelt were expected to be sound of mind and limb well as smaller stadiums and around the state.

Obituaries

Mrs. Bessie Strange White
Funeral services for Mrs. Bessie Strange White, 63, of 1001 Terry Rd., will be conducted at 2 p.m. Tuesday in First Christian Church with Rev. J. W. Duke officiating. Interment will follow in Fairview Cemetery under direction of Carmichael-Whitely Funeral Directors.

Mrs. White had been a resident of Pampa eight years and was a member of First Christian Church.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. John Clark of Pampa; her mother, Mrs. R.J. Reynolds of North Hollywood, Calif.; seven brothers, B. L. Pruitt and Howard Pruitt of Bridgeport, C. D. Pruitt, Alvin Pruitt, Vernon Pruitt and C.W. Pruitt of Fort Worth and T.J. Pruitt of Edmonds, Wash., four sisters, Mrs. Virginia Caldwell and Mrs. Modie Neilson of Van Nuys, Calif., Mrs. Sam Monroe of Edmonds, Wash., and Mrs. Dee Bulfin of North Hollywood, Calif., and four grandchildren.

Home, Bar Entered Over Weekend

Two separate instances of burglary were being investigated today by Pampa police.

Mrs. Louis L. Chaplin, 410 N. Dwigins, told authorities someone stole between $32 and $36 worth of dimes and $3 in cash from her home sometime Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Chaplin didn't discover the missing money until early Sunday morning.

In the other burglary, police while on routine patrol early this morning found the rear of the Club Bar, 1210 S. Barnes, open.

A check of the premises revealed that someone had broken into the bar last night. Missing were two cases of beer and $4 in pennies.

ard J. Reynolds, wife of the tobacco fortune heir, and another with Mrs. Robert Connelly Sweeney, wife of a well-known British golfer. These widely-publicized incidents forced his temporary suspension from the diplomatic service in 1953.

"I have loved and been loved by some of the world's most beautiful women," he once told an interviewer. As for money, Rubi noted: "I am not a millionaire. The ambition of most men is to save money. Mine is to spend money."

His activities were said to have included the smuggling of thousands of dollars worth of jewelry out of Madrid during the Spanish civil war. In 1952 he sought sunken treasure beneath the waters of the Caribbean sea.

also outlaw poll taxes still used in state and local elections in Alabama, Mississippi, Texas and Virginia. The Senate bill provides only for a court test of such taxes.

Indications were that the southern bloc in the House will fall about a dozen votes short of any success in stopping the bill. But, in the hope of snarling the situation, they may throw their support behind a somewhat broader voting rights bill offered by House Republicans.

Debate on the health care bill, popularly known as "medicare," begins in the Senate Tuesday. This measure, a key-stone of President Johnson's legislative program, provides for extensive increases in Social Security benefits plus a program of health care for the elderly under the Social Security system.

The House already has approved a $6 billion welfare and health care package, but the bill facing the Senate is more expensive. The measure reported out by the Senate Finance Committee bore a $6.8 billion price tag with the extra cost stemming from several changes, including more generous allowances on the amount of money a retired person may earn before his Social Security benefits diminish.

Fire Destroys Large Motel In Shamrock Sunday Night

SHAMROCK (Sp) — The 30-unit Sun and San Motel, located on Highway 66, just inside the city limits of Shamrock, was completely destroyed by fire Sunday night.

The fire, believed to have been caused by faulty wiring, burned for nearly five hours. The fire started about 7:45 p.m. and was finally extinguished just after midnight.

Units from the Shamrock fire department, Wheeler, Wellington, McLean and Childress battled the blaze. Several firemen reportedly were overcome by smoke.

Chester Glancy, manager of the motel, told officials he noticed smoke coming from one of the units about 7:45 p.m. and cut off the electric power. He then went into the unit but was forced back because of the flames.

By 8:30 p.m. the roofs of at least 10 cabins had caved in and the flames eventually consumed other units.

Highway patrolmen directed traffic on the east bound lane of U.S. 66, which was blocked off by fire hoses. Motel residents were forced across the highway by the intense heat and smoke.

When President Johnson visited a lake front Chicago hotel recently, one agent was assigned to the open door of a hovering helicopter where he sat with an automatic rifle on the alert for any potential assassin in nearby buildings.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Elles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation 220. At all drug counters.

PASSPORTS INCREASE
WASHINGTON (UPI)—A record number of Americans applied for passports during the past 12 months, despite President Johnson's "dollar-saving" "See America First" policy.

State Department officials reported during the weekend that the number of applicants during fiscal 1965, which ended June 30, was 16.5 per cent above the previous year. The total number of 1,271,887. They pointed out, however, that passport applications have been increasing rapidly for the past dozen years.

COMMUNIST THREAT
KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (UPI) — Acting Prime Minister Tun Abdul Razak said Saturday that hard-core Communists have been active again along Malaysia's northern border with Thailand, Radio Malaysia reported. The official radio said Razak warned the people in the northern village of Baling to be more vigilant against the Communist threat as well as the threat from Indonesia.

Beach Beauty Guide for a Prettier You

For beauty at the beach, keep your tan under control, skin smooth and make-up simple. You're most likely to get a sunburn between the hours of 11 and 2, can burn even when the sun isn't out, and should sunbathe no more than 30 minutes the first day. And don't wait until your skin turns pink to cover up; reddening may take eight hours to show.

For a perfect tan, apply sun-tan cream or lotion every few hours. Protect eyes with cotton when sunning to avoid sunglasses; wear sunglasses at all other times.

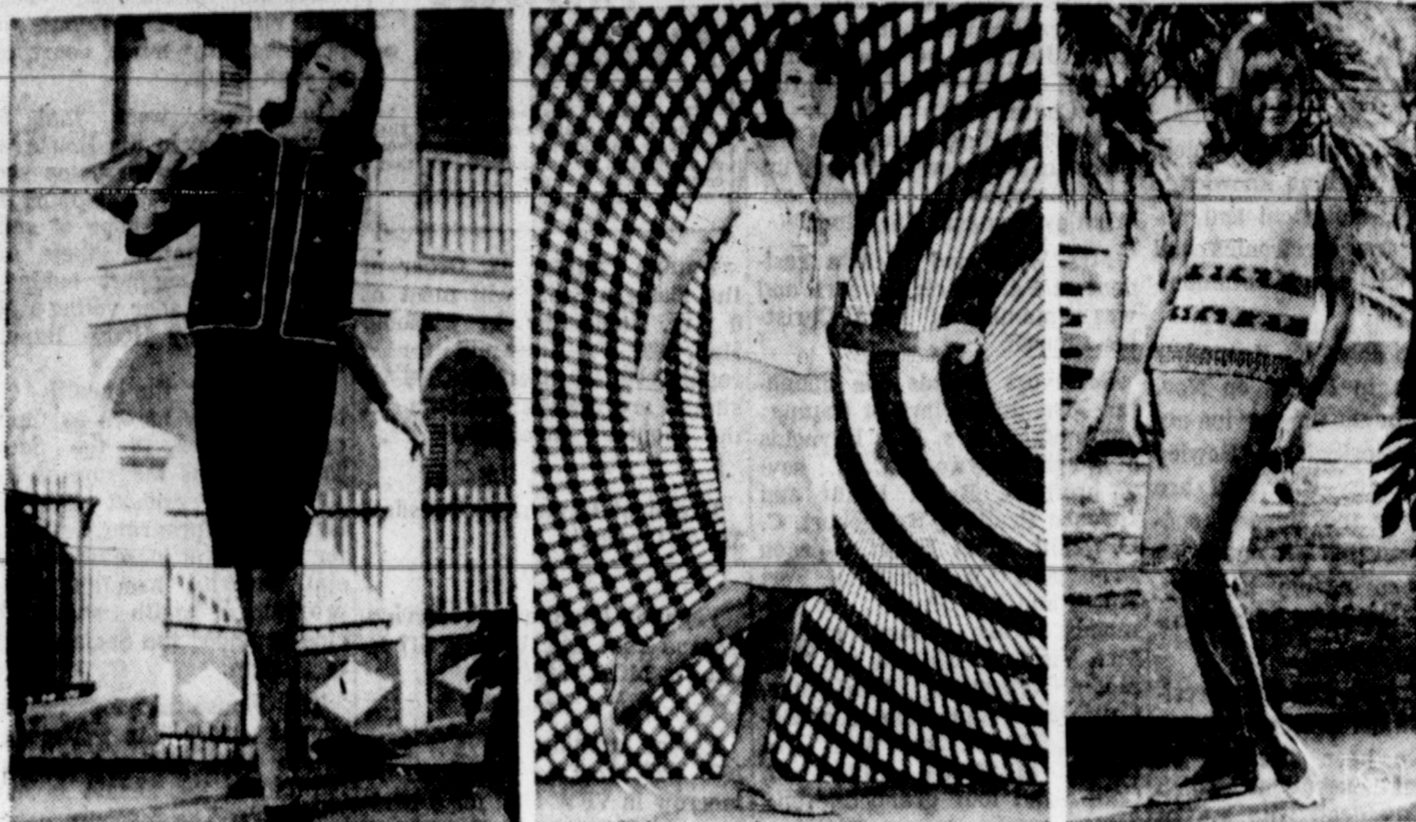

Lipstick does more than make you look pretty at the beach; it keeps lips sunproof and soft. New this year: sheer, transparent colors and lipsticks with moisturizers added. Choose sunny shades to go with your tan. Keep the rest of your make-up simple: a touch of eyelash cream or petroleum jelly on lashes, or waterproof mascara. For nonbeach sun days try a film of suntan lotion as a powder base.

Bare legs need flawless grooming. If you use a safety razor, use body lotion or make-up for girls shaving cream for smoothest results. Skin should be slippery-dry (talc or pre-shave lotion helps) if you use an electric razor. Some girls prefer a depilatory; regrowth is less stubbly.

Give legs and feet a daily rub-down with body lotion or moisturizer; bath oils (including the new sprays) help too. Smooth rough spots on heels with a pumice stone. And give feet weekly pedicures, filing nails straight across.

New Knits Span Seasons, Go Anywhere

SEASON SPANNERS — There's nothing more attractive or useful than a knit ensemble. Navy and white, three-piece suit (left) wins its way into many fashionable wardrobes for girls on the go. The round-neck sweater worn with straight skirt is topped by a cardigan jacket piped all around. The dainty, white flower trim gives an added fillip of freshness. Classic in feeling, fit and looks.

By HELEN HENNESSY
Women's Editor

Newspaper Enterprise Assn. NEW YORK (NEA) — Knits were once considered a novelty in any apparel item other than a sweater. But because of the new miracle yarns and new knitting methods they now run the gamut from coats and dresses to beachwear, lingerie and hosiery (especially the patterned stockings so popular today). The fact is that there is hardly an item in men's, women's or children's clothing that cannot be knitted.

Knits now compete with women fabrics on the basis of fashion appeal alone, for they have the special plus qualities of breathability, wrinkle-resistance, packability and plain all-around usefulness. While they can emulate the newest wovens, the most romantic laces and the finest silks, no fabric can look like act like or attract like a knit.

This season they are delightfully pretty in so many different ways. In addition to a wide variety of those perennial knit suits, for example, stores across the country carry a large line of softly tailored double knit dresses, dressier type dresses in glitter yarns and at-home costumes, including hostess pants and jumpsuits. These represent a whole new category in knits. Whether warped welt or spun, knits now come in numerous types, textures and colors. Pebbly blends of Arnel and linen, wool, waffle-weaves, boucle weaves, rib knits, crochet knits all knit the same happy story of ease, comfort and good looks for you.

In every fashion category knits have now become a part of the picture and will continue to make the scene next week, next month, and in the years to come.

Welcome Addition

To the home without one, a pass-through can be a welcome addition.

The pass-through usually links the kitchen with the dining room or living room. It can expand eating space if you have a tiny kitchen, or serve as a snack bar for parties.

However, if the pass-through is to function properly its counter must be neat and mar-resistant. Here's where a durable material such as ceramic tile comes in handy. Ceramic tile can't be burned or scratched, and an occasional wipe with a damp cloth will keep it looking sparkling new.

The successful pass-through usually is convertible. Such devices as folding panels, sliding doors and punched screens are often used to shut off the kitchen view. Closed, the pass-through can resemble a wall. Open, it can be a handy counter. Either way, it will blend nicely into your home.

Knitting and Sewing Will Be One of The Biggest Newsmakers for Back-to-School

White collars, ribs, slow curves and belted skirts send out fall fashion signals for girls who sew their own clothes.

A total look created with knitting and sewing will be one of the biggest back-to-school newsmakers. Girls can knit a ribbed sweater, stockings and hat, for example, and stitch up a short-stop skirt in a cordinated color. Or a blazer and pants straight from the sewing machine go with a knitted elbow-sleeved sweater, cap and knee-socks. A menswear-stripe gray smock dress and slim, tartan skimmer both look demure with white collar and cuffs, and a crocheted textured shift makes this-season news with a slash riding across the hipbone.

The jumper goes on a Continental kick with a deep U at front, back and sides.

School And You

By SUSAN LIGHT
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
DEAR MRS. LIGHT: I've been reading your column for some time and I'm especially interested in the letters with complaints about the homework or teacher-pile on the children. This homework headache not only upsets the children and deprives them of their rest, it even deprives them of some of their meals.

As for my family, our nerves are a wreck. We can't enjoy a decent evening meal, can't go anywhere on weekends. Sometimes we can't even have company. There's always piles of homework the children have to do.

I called my daughter's teacher and asked why they don't consider that children have some things to do besides homework. She informed me that housework and dishes were not a child's responsibility — their education comes first. Certainly all parents want their children to be well-educated, but they also expect them to have a little responsibility toward their home.

The teacher also told me that one hour of preparation for each subject is expected. So, if they have five subjects, they spend five hours each evening on homework. After they spend all day in school, this is "inhuman."

Every parent I've talked to has the same problem — but what to do about it? No one seems to know except to stock up on tranquilizers. Help!

ANSWER: Believe me, I'm trying to help by publishing letters like yours. I hope the teachers who read my column will take some of these homework complaints to heart and resolve to do better next year.

In all fairness to them, however, I must point out that teachers are being pressured, too, by administrators, supervisors and stepped-up college entrance requirements. Many of them are required to give an hour's homework in each subject.

I know of at least one case where homework was cut in half after a group of aroused parents complained to the guidance counselor. Have you tried a united appeal? You might gather your forces this summer for an early fall assault. Never underestimate the power of a group of parents working for a just cause.

But remember, Mother, this too, will pass — as your children do. If you can't beat the homework headache, perhaps you'd be better off next year just to grin and bear it. Acceptance is sometimes the most effective tranquilizer.

Please send your school problems to Susan Light in care of this paper. While she cannot answer each letter personally, letters of general interest will be answered in this column.

Madras Hay-Daze Is Coming This Autumn

The Mature Parent

An Example of Man's Inhumanity to Women
By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Newspaper Entertains Assn. An example of "man's inhumanity to woman" is how the New York Times describes the law which permits abortion only to save a mother's life. Demanding a more liberal law, the editorial cited the needs of pregnant women doomed to bear predictably deformed children, of teen-aged girls impregnated by rape and of those victims of incest in depraved families whose only present alternative is the "underworld of crude and clandestine surgery."

To me, too, this law seems to contain considerable hate of women — a vindictiveness toward that vulnerable feminine sexuality of ours which wants it punished whether or not we are responsible for the undesirability of a pregnancy.

However, I want to make the point that undesiring mothers are not so easily victimized by this law as the nice man who wrote that New York Times editorial might think. Unwanted mothers are old hands at circumventing law which forces them to bear children they don't want to bear.

Instead of getting rid of an unwanted child before it is born, they just wait — and get rid of it after it's born. Forbidden to disconnect from an unwanted baby by surgery, they detach from it by handing it over to adoption agencies, to founding homes, to institutions for disabled children. These child-caring facilities are supported by the very moralists who uphold the present abortion law and compel babies to be born against a mother's will.

That's why it's a futile law as well as a vengeful one. It can't command motherhood from those who don't want to give. If we're an underprivileged, unwanted mother, we arrange to invite charges of neglect that will force the community to look after our undesired child. If we're rich, unwanted mothers, we hire nurses, governesses and boarding schools to do the mothering for us. Forced to sustain a pregnancy against our will, we obey the law, have the baby — and then subvert its whole punishing purpose by discarding the child — and making other people take care of it.

It's the unwanted children who are the real victims of this law. For if this law represents "man's inhumanity to woman," it also represents man's indifference to children.

Were this not so, our institutions wouldn't be jam-packed full of our unwanted children. Our reformatories wouldn't be bursting with the fiercely angry children of discarding mothers.

MADCAP MADRAS — As the air turns crisp, you'll be heading for hayloads of fun in madras coordinates of contrasting piping and a spark of brass buttons. It's pulled over solid colored knee highs of pure polin. Easy care comes naturally to the Dacron and cotton shirt... and the knee highs get a "Zelan" finish that promises to resist spots and stains.

Madras coordinates are available in a choice of Fog Blue or Hunter Green. The fabrics are crisp as a fall day... a man-made blend of Dacron and cotton... and pure poplin which is treated with a "Zelan" finish that promises to resist spots and stains.

Ways To Make This Summer's Housework Easier Gained by Planning

Summer is the best time to make housework easier and faster by proper advance planning and organization, reports the Construction Research Bureau, national clearing house for building information.

Here are some tips from Bureau experts which should eliminate extra hours of labor and aid in bringing a pleasant peace to the day's tasks.

Don't do your shopping piecemeal. At a single session plan the menus for every day of the week. From these you can then draw up a list of foods needed and the probable cost, using newspaper ads to determine prices.

One shopping trip can supply most of your meal requirements for 7 days, saving frequent visits and hours of time. Simultaneously this will give you a financial control of food costs.

Utilize your freezer to store prepared-in-advance foods. It doesn't take much longer to prepare a larger batch of a particular dish such as pot roast, stew, or macaroni and cheese. You can then set up half of the pot roast, the stew or macaroni in casseroles and put them in the freezer. This will save you a few hours of pot cleaning with less time used finding the utensils. Also, the food tastes wonderful after the seasonings are permitted to permeate it.

Lighten your work with modern ideas. For instance, paper dishes used for breakfast and lunch will save hours of dishwashing. Many newly designed household tools are available to make your tasks simpler. New lightweight vacuum cleaners are easier to push around, leaving you less tired. There are new resilient tile floors which don't require waxing, such as Kentile Travertine in solid vinyl. A garbage disposal appliance will save trips to the outside garbage can or to an incinerator room.

Teenagers Given Tips on Summer Decoration Job

Redecorate your room — all by yourself. That's a suggestion for spare summer-time activity from a teen-age magazine which points out that it's easy to make bright changes with paint, fabric or iron-on-tape. Pick paint, for example. Brush a sparkling new color on a bureau and turn a corner of your bedroom into a neatly organized dressing nook. Hang wicker baskets above the bureau to hold shelvesful of scarves. Then make your closet part of the scheme by backing the door with pegboard painted the same color as the bureau; dangle jewelry, an umbrella, belts and handbags from it. It's simple to build a friendly fun-and-games area. Just stretch a wide shelf across two campstools to hold a phonograph, and file albums on a record pole striped with plastic tape. Make a burlap-covered bulletin board for memos and mementos and cut-a-rug-out-of-fantasy fur. Seat guests on a huge zebra-striped pillow or a wild bamboo director's chair. Want a bright color scheme? Think about a yellow shell and wall, black and white cushion and chair fabric, and turquoise rug.

You can sew up a dream of a sleep spot without taking a stitch. Collect throw pillows and play designer with iron-on tape or glue and felt. Decorate a window with "bead" curtains made from strings of pompons, snipped off at the right length and clamped to brass rings. For extra room, try a corner table with space for a studio bed to slide underneath part way.

Hat shapes are more flattering and not so bulky now that they don't have to compete with teased big-dome hair styles. Bowlers, swaggers, snap brims, high rounded turbans and little tailored hats all rate in the popularity parade.

Dear Abby...

'Goose That Lays The Golden Egg' Is Liked

DEAR ABBY: Maybe it's none of my business, but I am concerned, so please tell me I should do something about it or just get lost. My 53-year-old divorcee sister is very attractive, and has a good job. But ever since her divorce 15 years ago, she's had this boy friend—or, should I say, "sugar daddy." He won't marry her and it does not seem to bother her. He's very wealthy, but stingy. He pays all her bills, and hands her money besides, which is still cheaper than buying a home and everything else marriage involves. She dresses like a million dollars, and has gone practically all over the world on flying vacations with this man. He has a key to her apartment and spends more time there than my husband spends at our place.

He drives her to work in the morning, goes to the stock market, and then picks her up after work. Almost every night she fixes his dinner at her apartment and they watch television until it signs off. People make remarks like, "When are they going to make it legal?" I love my sister, but I don't like the reputation she's getting. How can I convince her to make him marry her or throw him out? She's no spring chicken, but she could still get a decent man and live right.

HER SISTER

DEAR SISTER: She may be no "spring chicken" but she apparently likes being cooped up with a goose who lays golden eggs. It's her life and her reputation, so don't waste your energy trying to change a way of life with which she's satisfied.

DEAR ABBY: My 18-year-old daughter is engaged to a guy 22. They planned on getting married in eight months from now. All of a sudden he wants to get married right now! The reason is that he is being sued by a girl he once knew. The girl wants support for a child which she claims is his. He says it's not his. I told my daughter to drop him fast as there is trouble ahead. He tells her that if they get married right now it will fix things. She loves him. Am I wrong?

ANXIOUS

DEAR ANXIOUS: Don't let your daughter rush into a marriage that supposedly will "fix things" for her fiancé, or the "thing" that might need "fixing" later will be her marriage. The young man needs the services of a lawyer far more urgently than he needs those of a preacher.

DEAR ABBY: Your advising "Girdle Trouble" to wear a girdle although her husband liked her better without one could lead to disaster. As an attorney I come into contact with many domestic relations problems. The causes (in order of their importance) are: (1) In-laws, (2) Bedroom problems, (3) Lack of communication, (4) Immaturity. Your advice encourages the second one.

I, personally, have been a happily married for 20 years and the only time I became seriously upset with my wife was about three years ago when she tried wearing a girdle. One pat or pinch on a girdle turns me to ice for days. A man likes a wife who is "comPAtable". A girdle is the most repulsive invention since the corset.

Further, no man can tell whether or not a woman is wearing a girdle by looking at her, so why do women insist on wearing them? Every man with whom I have discussed this (and there are dozens), wishes girdles could be banned by law. Yours very truly, K.T.B.

A MOBILE LAWYER
DEAR LAWYER: There are judicial laws — and laws of nature. You stick to your kind of law. No woman remains firm and round and fully packed forever. And no amount of legislation will repeal that law of nature when she starts to spread like a baseball field. All I can say is, you have never been a woman who needed a girdle.

Problems? Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hate to write letters? Send one dollar to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. for Abby's booklet, "How To Write Letters For All Occasions."

New Blood Test Detects Rubella

Good news from the National Institutes of Health is that several of its scientists have developed a quick and inexpensive blood test to detect German measles. This illness, also known as rubella, can cause a variety of serious birth defects when transmitted from a pregnant woman to her unborn child.

According to a National Foundation report, when a woman contracts rubella in the first months of pregnancy there is a better than 40 per cent chance that her baby will be born defective. The new test could help doctors determine whether or not a pregnancy should be terminated.

Sun Sensitive? Think Positive

Astrological Forecast

By CARROLL RIGHTER

FOR TUESDAY, JULY 5
GENERAL TENDENCIES: You now have an excellent chance to come to a much better understanding with others since your judgment is clearer and these about 47% more receptive to a plan that can include growth to the full of every one's pet project. Be sure to discuss any most questions till a real solution is found.
ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) — It behooves you to treat associates as generously as they are willing to be toward you. Be explicit. Reach perfect harmony, then off to dinner, place of amusement that can be mutually enjoyed.
TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) — Getting more order, beauty around you gives you more poise, happiness, as well as pleasing others. Be appreciated more. Take the simple treatments you need to improve health.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) — New outlets for which you have little time are best gotten into today with enthusiasm. Later good friends are happy to join you to fine hobbies, amusements that satisfy. Be happy again.
MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) — Although engaged in business, other outside duties, give thought to interests and family at home. Get more basic security beneath you. Ridding yourself of the obsolete helps much.
LEO (July 22 to Aug. 23) — If you do not lose your temper, but discuss matters in a calm fashion, admiring will go along with your ideas admirably. Then get letters written. Be charming with kin, relations, friends.
VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) — Almost any interest that increases abundance is fine but be practical, not frivolous. Evaluate consciousness to greater things. Your output can be far greater than it is now.
LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 23) — You have a magnetic quality that appeals to others today, so use it wisely in gaining your aims. Indulging in the social can bring fine success. Show the real, courteous, young thinking you.
SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) — If you talk at length with close ties, you know what they most would like to have, and show your devotion that way. Assist one who is in dire trouble. Be a good pal.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) — Anything you can do to improve friendships and gain social poise is fine now. An opportunity to return social favors is present. Many benefits accrue from such an act.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) — Any civic duties you have failed to perform can now be handled with efficiency and you impress big ways. Gain the fame that is rightfully yours, also. Be clever.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) — If you are more alert, you find that there are wonderful outlets open to you for your greater advancement. Out-of-town ideas also come. New friend could be a worth-while helper.
PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) — If it is difficult to make decisions, any time today or tonight, a moment of silent concentration will bring right answer. Cultivate finest persons. This brings finest progress.

DON'T BE "SENSITIVE" — Sunshine means misery to the photosensitive, those who cannot tolerate the sun's rays. A new greaseless sunscreen forms an invisible shield and lets you enjoy the outdoors without burning consequences!

Are you a negative-type person? Negative when it comes to the sun, that is skin-scorching sunburn may be an old story to you pale blondes, freckly redheads, and others who are what medical science calls "photosensitive". But here's something you may not know. If you are taking medication such as penicillin or other antibiotics, barbiturates, or even quinine, you may suddenly discover that you are temporarily photosensitive, and the summer sun at these times can be dangerous to your skin. (In fact, the government has decreed that a photosensitivity warning must be displayed on certain medicines.)

Take heart. There's a sun-screening product which stops those burning rays dead in their tracks.

It is a clear liquid, invisible on the skin, which, when applied, forms a protective umbrella against the sun and eliminates the necessity for gloopy white cream or plastic shields on the nose. Apply it to problem areas, such as shins or shoulders. And to prevent dried, cracked lips, put a little of the product on before you apply lipstick.

So put the slacks and long-sleeved shirts back in the closet. You can slip coolly into the barest clothes, and head fearlessly for the beach, boat or badminton court!

tied blouse over pleated skirt, and calico takes a yoke or smocking on top.

Vividly embroidered sweaters are part of the scenery at a picnic on a breezy day. Designs may be crewel-worked flowers or twisting vines, but always borrowed from nature.

A new mid-summer swimsuit makes a great morale booster for a kite-flying party at the beach — or any other watery occasion.

Fit Fashion and Fun

Wear black or white to an off-beat party indoors, petite prints to a dress-up dinner on the patio, embroidered sweaters to a breezy picnic and bright new swimsuits for a kite party at the beach.

Black can be a formidable secret weapon for a summer evening party. Demurely cut pique may be laced to the waist in back, and dotted swiss (a top fabric this year) can reveal ruffles at the hem. White steals the scene with a low-slung waistband of ribboned eyelet, or swings simply in ribbed cotton ottoman.

Little prints are a charming solution for outdoor parties that may include anything from dinner to dancing. Pink on pink Paisley looks gay in a middy-

Plan Carefully for Son Going to Camp

By DAVID NYDICK
UPI Education Specialist

Are your children going to attend a summer camp? If it is a sleep-away camp, there are several important things to remember. These concern both the items to send and your plans for communication.

Make sure you send a sufficient amount of clothing of various types. Camps will usually provide a suggested packing list. It is important that you follow these suggestions as closely as possible. The lists are made with the knowledge of the weather, laundry plans, and previous experience.

What general hints might be profitable to parents? First, it is by no means advisable to go out and purchase many dollars worth of clothing. Send along clothes which are part of the child's regular summer wardrobe. Camp laundries are not usually able to do careful individual work. Make sure that most items are able to be laundered.

Every piece of clothing and equipment should have the child's name clearly marked. Name tapes should be sewn whenever possible. "Iron-on" tapes sometimes fall off. Boots, shoes, and other similar items can be marked with indelible ink or pencil. This will avoid many losses.

The type of clothing will depend upon the camp program and location.

Additional long pants are advisable if the program includes a great deal of hiking and camping. A camp located in a mountain area will have some very cold weather, especially in August. Some winter sweaters and jackets may be very welcome. The camp directors or parents of children who have previously attended the particular camp can be most helpful in advising you.

Arrange for regular communication with your child. He should write every day even if its just a post card. You should reciprocate with a similar daily note. Children love to receive mail. It can be most unpleasant when everyone else has a note from home and one child does not. If your child is young it is a good idea to address some to his grandparents and other relatives and friends. Plan carefully and you will add to your child's enjoyment at camp.

In 1699, the notorious pirate, Capt. William Kidd, was seized in Boston and deported to England.

Send along a list of addresses and phone numbers for the camp counselors reference.

If reasonable, you might arrange for a weekly telephone call. When arranging the time remember that many camps operate on standard time rather than daylight saving time.

Dodger Margin Sliced to One

By United Press International
At least Walter Alston has history on his side.

The way opposing batters have been treating his star-studded pitching staff the Los Angeles Dodgers pilot will take any edge he can get.

Baseball theory claims that the team on top of the standings at the conclusion of action July 4 will go on to play in the world series.

That adage has worked 60 per cent of the time. That is, it's held up 39 times and 26 other years it's been pure bunk—like last season.

The Dodgers had their league lead trimmed to one slim game Sunday when Houston's Claude Raymond stopped them 3-1 on six hits and second place Cincinnati inched closer with a 4-1 triumph over Philadelphia.

Elsewhere in the National League, St. Louis swept its series with the Mets with a 6-2 win; San Francisco topped Chicago 7-4; and Milwaukee beat Pittsburgh 5-2.

The Fourth of July hypothesis was born during the early years of the century when every July 4 leader from 1900 to 1913 went on to win the pennant. Just as everyone was beginning to believe the theory the Boston Braves shot holes through it by climbing out of the cellar to win the N.L. title in 1914.

In 1964, Baltimore held a three game advantage over New York in the American League and San Francisco was the senior circuit pacesetter with the St. Louis Cardinals mired in fifth place, 10 games out. Both leaders faltered later in the season.

"The largest daytime crowd in Houston history — 47,642 — saw the Astros push across single tallies in the third, fourth and sixth innings to hand hard-luck Claude Osteen his 10th loss in 16 decisions.

Joe Gaines' two-out double scored Raymond in the third, Jim Gilliam's error set up the second Astro run and the final score came while the Dodgers were involved in a baseline rundown in the sixth.

Veteran lefthander Joe Nuxhall fired a five-hitter and Tommy Harper and Pete Rose supplied the offense in Cincinnati's win. A pair of walks delivered by Phillie Phanatic Belmsky in the third preceded the Reds' first hit, a two-run double by Rose. Harper connected for his 10th homer with one on in the fifth. Nuyhall, now 3-2, went the distance and struck out nine.

Willie Mays started in left field for the first time in his 14-year career and didn't mind a bit, slamming two singles and scoring a run. The All-Star centerfielder is hampered by a pulled groin muscle. Jesus Alou socked four hits and drove in two runs to support Bob Bolin's two-hit relief job over seven innings.

Frank Bolling's two-run single and Rocco Carthy's two-run homer backed Milwaukee right-hander Hank Fischer's six-hit hurling that permitted the Braves to halt their losing streak at four. Bob Bailey and Jim Pagnaroni homered for the Pirates.

Jerry Buchek drove in two runs with a single and his first major league home run and Tim McCarver laced four singles as the Cardinals raked four Met pitchers for 14 hits. Right-hander Bob Purkey evened his season record at 6-6 although he got help from reliever Don Dennis in the ninth with two away. Galen Cisco, now 1-5, never went past the second inning.

Nick Pick In British Open Golf

SOUTHPORT, England (UPI) — Jack Nicklaus began his count down for the British Open three years ago and, the portly golfing great was a 7-2 favorite today to successfully orbit the 7,037 yard Royal Birkdale layout when the 95th edition of the championship gets under way Wednesday.

The Columbus, Ohio, native, winner of every major golf title, including this year's Masters, crown, has failed to capture the coveted British Open. But Nicklaus, who finished third in 1963 and second last year, declared "the signs are good" to end the count down on "One" in 1965.

He'll have plenty of competition, however. Arnold Palmer, ranked at 5 to 1, U.S. Open Champion Gary Player (8-1), defending titlist Tony Lema (6-1) and 126 other pros and amateurs will compete for the $4,900 top prize, small by modern day standards, and the prestige associated with winning the event.

The winner also gets a crack at the World Series of Golf's $50,000 purse. That event pits the Masters, U.S. Open and PGA champs along with the British Open titlist in a four-man $100,000 tourney.

Player has an added incentive. The diminutive South African, who said "there's no room today for the small man," will attempt to become the fourth golfer in history to win both Opens in one year. Player, winner of the British Open in 1959, would join Bobby Jones, Gene Sarazen and Ben Hogan on the exclusive list.

58TH YEAR MONDAY, JULY 5, 1965 11

Phillies Unfair, Claims Thomas

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Frank Thomas, 36-year-old infielder-outfielder slugger dismissed by the Philadelphia Phillies after a pre-game fight with teammate Richie Allen, regrets the incident but says placing him on the waiver list was unfair.

The much traveled Thomas, who came to the Phils from the Mets last August was put on the National League waiver list "irrevocably" five hours after the batting practice fracas last Saturday night.

Thomas said he told Manager Gene Mauch that if he was placed on the list because of the incident at the batting cage, then the Phils were being unfair.

Allen, All-Star third baseman, has refused to talk about it.

Approached for comment on the brawl, Allen merely answered: "What fight?"

Early arrivals at Connie Mack Stadium before the Cincinnati game, which the Reds won 10-8 after Thomas' game tying home run, saw Allen punch Thomas and Thomas swing a bat which struck Allen on the shoulder.

Shortstop Ruben Amaro, one of half a dozen players who jumped in to separate the two, was struck in the face by an Allen punch.

According to Thomas, the fight was the result of long standing needling and name calling between him and Allen.

The 205-pound Thomas said that during batting practice before the game, Allen referred to him as "Lurch" — alluding to the Frankenstein monster-type character on a television show.

Thomas said he didn't mind it because "I'm a great agitator. Then I called him Mohammed Cassius Clay, and it hit him the wrong way."

"He said 'come up here and call me that' and I said 'if you want me come down here,'" Thomas said. "About 10 or 15 minutes elapsed and then he

Gabe Paul Picks Paying Off in Cleveland Chase

By United Press International
The most valuable acquisition on and two out in the ninth.

The Cleveland Indians have made in the past decade came in April 1961 and that man has yet to drive in his first run.

It was four years ago in a hastily called press conference that Gabe Paul announced he was resigning as general manager of the Houston Colts to take a similar position at Cleveland and the Indians haven't been the same since.

Six of the tribe's eight fielders and four pitching mainstays were hand-picked by Paul. A typical dividend was paid Sunday when ex-Angel Leon Wagner belted a two-run homer in the eighth inning to give ex-Yankee Ralph Terry, his ninth win in a 4-2 victory over Baltimore and enabled Cleveland to hold its share of first place with Minnesota.

In other American League games, the Twins beat Kansas City 5-2; Boston downed New York 5-3; Chicago blanked Los Angeles 1-0; and Washington stopped Detroit 6-3.

Castoffs Perk Up
Castoffs like infielders Fred Whitfield, Pedro Gonzalez, and Dick Howser, and outfielders Chuck Hinton, Rocky Colavito and Wagner, all of whom were acquired by the Cleveland executive since the end of the 1962 season, have been knocking in the runs for newcomers Lee Stange, Jack Kralick, Don McMahon and Terry.

Wagner's game-winning blast came after Colavito tied the contest with a two-run single to center off loser Milt Pappas in the sixth. The victory was Cleveland's 19th in their last 23 games.

Home runs by Tony Oliva and Harmon Killebrew and a superb relief job by Johnny Klippstein helped Minnesota keep pace with Cleveland. Oliva's 12th homer with two mates aboard wiped out a 2-0 Kansas City lead and the killer put it on ice.

Russia, however, which has an intensive program under way to become a leading tennis power, captured both junior events with impressive performances, while the best the U.S. could do was a victory in the veterans event and a share of the women's doubles title.

The significance of the youthful Russians' triumphs compared to the American inability to score heavily did not go unnoticed. Particularly impressive was Vladimir Korotkov, who beat highly regarded French junior George Coven 6-2, 3-6, 6-3, for the men's title and Olga Morozova, who beat Rachel Giscafre of Argentina 6-3, 6-3, for the junior girls crown.

Bill Talbert of New York and Gardner Mulloy of Miami won the veterans doubles title by downing Al Martini and George McCall of Los Angeles 6-3, 6-1.

with his 14th homer with one on and two out in the ninth.

Berry's Homer Decisive
Ken Berry, a .207 hitter at game time, scored the only run with his fourth homer of the year in the fifth inning as Chicago snapped its losing streak at five to stay three games off the pace. Tommy John went 8 1-3 frames to gain his sixth victory against three losses allowing the Angels only six hits.

Eddie Fisher secured the final two outs. George Brunet, now 5-6, fanned seven men but took his sixth loss in 11 decisions.

Tony Conigliaro's two-run circuit clout off Yankee starter Jim Bouton in the fourth put Boston ahead to stay after New York tallied three times in the first inning. The Red Sox got two back in their half of the first and added another for insurance in the seventh.

Bill Monbouquette went 7 1-3 innings and was credited with his seventh triumph against three losses. Dick Radatz set down the last five men in order.

Washington reached Detroit starter and loser Dave Wickenscham for four runs in the first

Sam Retains Senior Title
FORMBY, England (UPI) — Sam Snead warmed up for the British Open beginning Wednesday by downing England's Charlie Ward in a sudden death playoff on the 37th hole Sunday to retain his World Seniors golf championship.

Snead was three up with only five holes to play in the 36-hole competition but lost four of them including the 18th.

On the playoff hole, Snead sent his second shot towards a bunker but the ball was stopped by a packed gallery and he lofted a beautiful chip shot to the green and sank his putt for a par four.

four innings before the Tigers scored and Buster Narum coasted to his fourth victory of the campaign. Don Lock had a perfect day with his sixth homer and two singles and two RBI's. Willie Horton hit his 18th homer of the season with the bases empty in the fifth for Detroit.

Sonics Shot By Austin, 6-1
By United Press International
The Eastern Division leaders in the Texas Baseball League took a shellacking Sunday being buried under a Fourth of July barrage by the Western Division's top two teams.

Albuquerque took a firmer hold on the league's top spot spoiling the Dallas-Fort Worth Spur's holiday stand at Spur Stadium. The Dodgers defeated the Spurs 3-1.

El Paso shut out Tulsa 2-0. Austin smothered Amarillo 6-1 with the aid of two home runs by Vincent Ferguson, The Nassau, Bahamas, outfielder rounded the bases in the 5th and 7th innings bringing in a teammate each time. Leo Posada hit a homer in the 9th for Amarillo's only tally.

Allergy Cure Cinches Casper Western Open

CHICAGO (UPI)—Billy Casper testified gleefully today that successful treatment for allergies can also treat successfully an ailing golf game.

He discovered he was allergic to 10 foods, switched to a diet featuring lots of wild game, and rediscovered his style on the fairways as well.

The evidence was a come-from-behind victory Sunday with a 14-under-par 270 to win the $11,000 first prize in the Western Open golf tournament.

Casper ripped the course apart in the front nine with a six-under-par 30, then came home for a 64 on the round to miss the course record and the best nine-hole tally on the PGA tour this year by only one stroke.

It was the best closing round by a tourney winner this year, although two other players, Homero Blancas and Gene Littler also finished with 64s. But Littler finished in a fourth place tie and Blancas deadlocked for 12th.

The win boosted Casper, 34, into eighth place in winnings this year with $40,306.15 and gave him golf earnings of $412,375.42 in the last 10 years, second only to Arnold Palmer.

Jack McGowan shot a three-under-par 68 and 1964 Western winner Chi Chi Rodriguez a 68, to share second place. Each earned $4,950.

Carol 'Hiding' After Victory
ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (UPI) — Carol Mann, six-foot-three inch woman pro from Towson, Md., stands out in a crowd but she was "hiding" today after her dramatic victory in the 1965 U.S. Women's Open Golf Championship.

Miss Mann, who said she was "going into hibernation for three days," sank a tension-packed birdie putt on the 18th hole Sunday to capture the title by two strokes at the Atlantic City Country Club.

The 24-year-old pro who knew she needed a par to win, collapsed in tears in the arms of her playing partner, Mary Mills, after the four-foot putt that gave her a 72-hole total of 290 and the $4,000 win over 1956 Open champion Kathy Cornelius of Rancho Santa Fe, Calif.

Mrs. Cornelius, wife of a golf pro, finished shortly before Miss Mann and applied the pressure with a three-under-par 69 final round and a 292 total.

Foyt Wins Firecracker

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — A.J. Foyt, leading by a lap in the Firecracker 400 stock car race, pulled into the pits Sunday 15 laps from the finish for an unscheduled stop that panicked his mechanics.

An instant later, his 1965 Ford was back on the track, and went on to win the $58,000 race for the second consecutive year.

BORGER — Amarillo's John Farquhar, last year's runner-up, squared matters with defending champion Don Lackey of Borger by winning the 15th annual Huber Golf Club Invitational Tournament Sunday.

Farquhar carded a 99 over the final 27 holes and edged Lackey by a stroke with 203 in the 54-hole event.

Lackey, a member of the Oklahoma State University golf team, shot 96 Sunday to finish in the runner-up spot with 204.

Amarillo's Tom Porter also closed out with a 98 to come in third with 206. He won the $59 gift certificate day money with a record-tying 64 on the first 18 holes.

Pampa's Max Hickey was fourth with 208.

Championship flight scores included: Jesse Stiles, Pampa 38-35-34 — 107-107 — 214; Buster Carter, Pampa 36-36-38 — 110-106 — 216; L. L. Garren, Pampa, 40-34-36 — 110-112 — 122.

Comments: Bruce Brown started the sixth inning rally with a pinch hit. With the other boys following suit aided by numerous errors by Dixie, Allen retains first place in the Eastern League.

NEVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities.

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself no more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

Rhapsody an Natural

Ah, it's vacation time. And where do you most long to go? Away from the population centers, of course. Away from the standardized, regimented city. Back to nature — wonderful unschooled, tumbled, leaping, laughing Nature.

You drive and you drive and at last you find the spot — woods, field, stream. Your first hours are uncomfortable. You have to adjust, call back the lost love of childhood. But with improvisation and imports you finally get settled. Still you are watchful, wakeful. You are not sure that Nature is the friendly person that you remember. Nevertheless you put up a good front.

Girls, Only You Know the Answer

The question is not exactly the cliff-hanging kind that makes people anxious to tune into the next day's episode of their favorite soap opera.

Who Says We're Cheap?

We humans have been so preoccupied with watching the price of everything else go up that we have failed to notice that the price of us has gone up, too.

Cannel At Bay

By Ward Cannel

Mr. Right Isn't Dead—He's Just (Yawn) Tired. NEW YORK (NEA) — It occurred to us over coffee and confidences with Rona Jaffe the other afternoon that really, we have no business reviewing her latest novel.

Miss Jaffe is the author of "Mr. Right Is Dead" — a book of unrelated stories proving that a girl cannot find love nowadays and so must settle for sex and money and other similar miseries.

It is a very popular theme of course, especially in the hands of a good writer. But whether it is true, we do not know.

We cannot believe that a girl would settle for sex and money. But on the other hand, we cannot disprove it. Not on newspaper wages. The question of Mr. Right, it seems to us, requires expert consideration, preferably by somebody who studied under him in Vienna.

So, as we said, it would be presumptuous of us to review Miss Jaffe's novel. We are really on much safer ground reviewing Miss Jaffe, after renewing old and melancholy acquaintances with her over coffee the other afternoon.

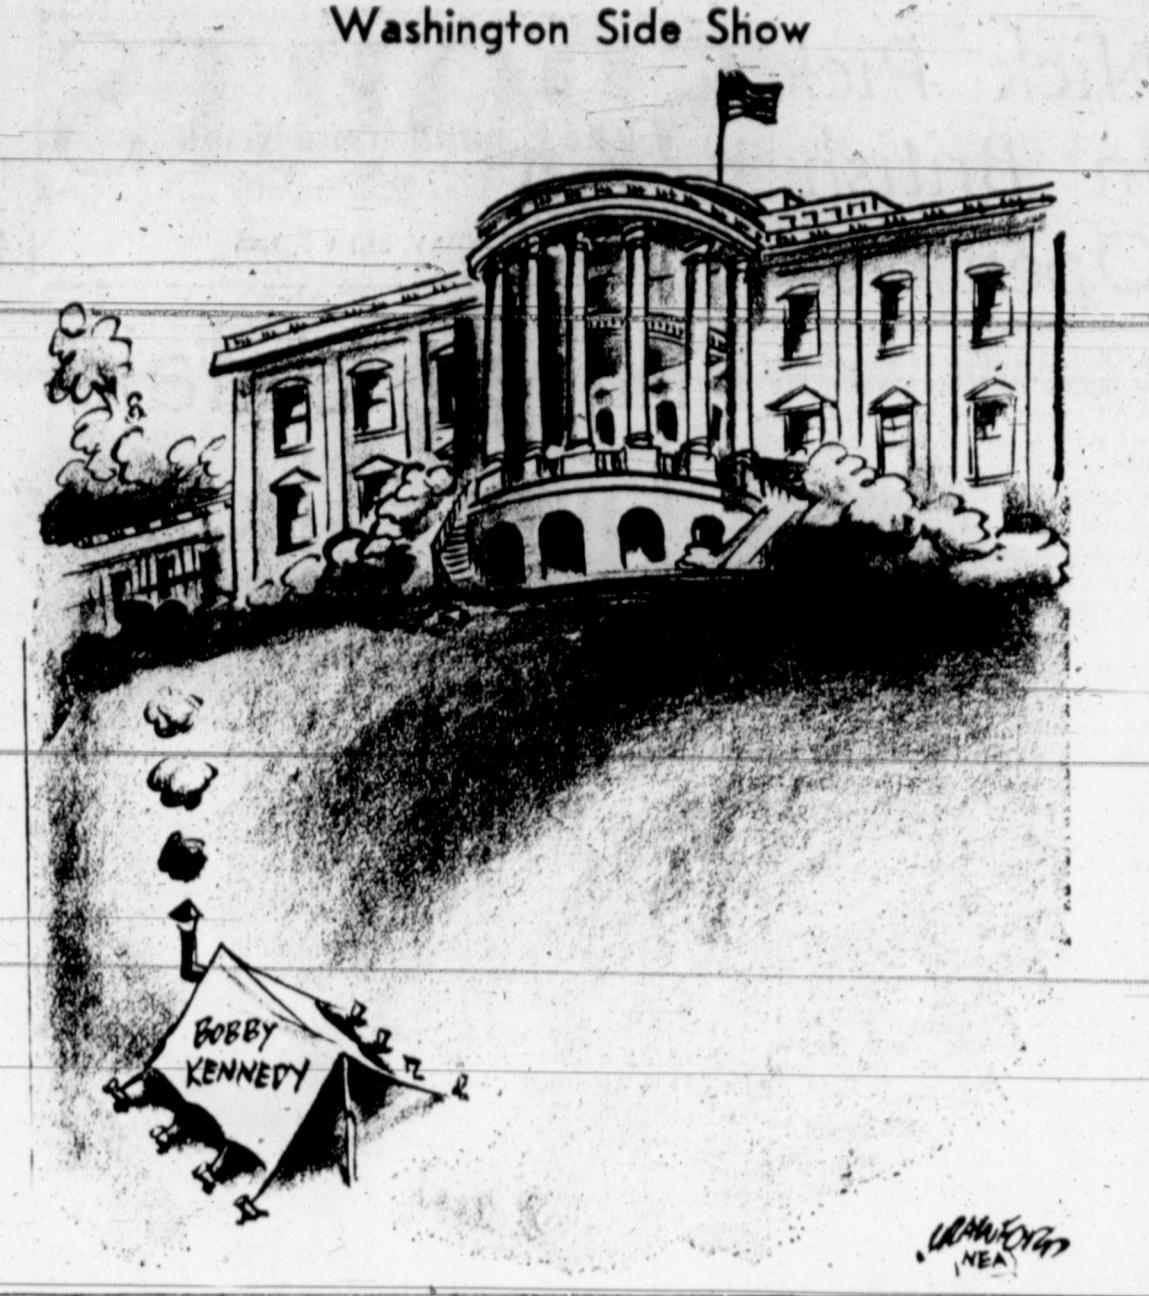

We met Rona Jaffe first seven or eight years ago. She was in her mid-twenties at the time and prematurely wealthy, having just sold her first novel to the movies for $100,000.

Her recollection of the book is rather dim. It was called "The Best of Everything" and was — if memory serves — a series of connected stories proving that a girl cannot find true love nowadays and so must settle for sex and money and other similar miseries.

What has remained vivid in our mind through all these years, however, was that encounter with Miss Jaffe. She was aloof, self-conscious, brittle, haughty, audacious and clever — in short, a girl daring you to like her.

Consequently, we were somewhat hesitant at the prospect of seeing Miss Jaffe again after all these years. But we must confess that it was a very pleasant experience. She is still as attractive as ever.

She is also still single — waiting, as she says, for the right man to come along. She has a long list of the qualifications he must have, which we copied down and will be glad to send to anybody who writes in.

Goldwater Makes Bid to Head Conservative Elements Of GOP by Endorsing Splinter Groups Deplored by Bliss

WASHINGTON — Former Senator Barry Goldwater is riding two entries in the cavalcade of splinter organizations springing up within the Republican party.

While National Chairman Ray Bliss and other party chiefs are sharply deploring this disquieting fragmentation, the 1964 presidential candidate is now on record as heartily favoring two splinter elements.

In addition to being honorary chairman of the Free Society Association, at whose recent widely-publicized launching he presided, Goldwater also has given his blessing to the late-formed American Conservative Union, headed by former Representative Donald Bruce, Ind.

The Arizona bestowed this endorsement in a letter that ACU directors plan to publish at their meeting here later this month.

Among Republican insiders Goldwater's embracing of these two separate groups is viewed as motivated by the desire to maintain the status of foremost conservative exponent in the party.

Question Box

By HOWARD KERSHNER

QUESTION: "When I went to college, I saw daily in one of the buildings these sculptured words by Josiah Royce: 'Education is learning to use the tools which the human race has found to be indispensable.' (Quoted as nearly as I can remember it.)

ANSWER: Ideas are tools. They come before there can be any material tools.

THE NATION'S PRESS — Why the Preachers Riot. Augusta (Ga.) Courier — We have been puzzled as to why members of the clergy will leave their pulpits and take to the street demonstrating, yelling, marching and engaging in riots.

GOING WEST — When I was 16 I decided to "go West and grow up with the country". Stopping often to work briefly, I reached a little station south of Salt Lake City.

With this bankroll, I started walking down the railroad track toward Anaheim and Santa Ana. The electric railway tracks had just been laid, and the streets were being paved in Santa Ana. I got a job hauling gravel for concrete. I drove two mules hitched to a wagon, shoveling gravel and sand from a dried creek bed to fill the wagon.

EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

What Causes Unrest During Time of Relative Affluence?

By SAM CAMPBELL Business Editor

During periods of tension — such as war and depression — you expect to see people work off excess energy by marching around with picket signs.

But today we are in a time of relative affluence. Work of some kind is generally available to the able-bodied and willing, although there may be lapses between jobs for specialized skills and professions. Today, things could be better but on the other hand they could be a lot worse.

Why is it then, in this middling good condition, that you see the evidence normally associated with tension? You see the Union pickets and you read about demonstrations here and there, of one sort and another.

PROSPERITY AND FREEDOM — Prosperity in all countries has developed about in proportion to the degree of freedom prevailing therein.

When a man learns that he will be deprived either by brigands or by government of a considerable portion of what he produces, his efforts always decline. He will not work so hard for others as he will work for himself.

When the peasants in Communist or Socialist lands learn that government will seize all over and a meager living which they might produce, the soon stop producing any surplus.

Kate — What house pet is it that is so generally admired, sought after, and valued yet more abused, trampled upon, kicked about, looked down upon, and whipped more than any other? Betty — A carpet.

unproductive activities of course, is simply artificial stimulation. The incendiary element is obvious in the race issue for instance; the problem is there, the problem is big, but it also is being deliberately agitated.

Still, the racial matter doesn't account for all of the parading. Why is it that you see men with good jobs at good pay throw down their tools and then hire somebody else at a fourth their scale to walk around with signs that say their employer is unfair?

What's The Motive — If you saw a man in an insane asylum banging himself on the head with a hammer and occasionally rapping neighbor as well, you would be inclined to ask the chief psychiatrist what the motivation is.

Your guess is as good as mine. But here's the only explanation that makes sense to me. Some of these fellows can't take prosperity. They have a little money in their jeans.

Every visible sign indicates that this form of Union captivity will grow far more severe.

When I was 16 I decided to "go West and grow up with the country". Stopping often to work briefly, I reached a little station south of Salt Lake City.

With this bankroll, I started walking down the railroad track toward Anaheim and Santa Ana. The electric railway tracks had just been laid, and the streets were being paved in Santa Ana.

We worked in the field from sunup to sundown and each driver cared for his team of ten, currying them and bedding them down at night, in straw, cleaning the stalls and currying them again in the morning before harnessing. The mules raised on the open range were broncos. I developed aroitness; nearly every bronco would kick at me whenever they thought I offered a fair target. H.H.

West Pointer Gets Court Martial

By LYLE WILSON
United Press International
Some smart GI in Viet Nam probably could get himself a quick-ticket home right now by demanding equal treatment for Pfc. and officer alike.
A U.S. Army court martial last week found guilty a West Pointer lieutenant who refused to obey an order to move up to a hazardous front line zone. Some GI Joe might do likewise. The lieutenant said he disapproved of U.S. policy in Southeast Asia and that the war was not worth a single American life. A great many Americans were at home would agree with the lieutenant. A great many more would disagree.

The point of this essay, however, is that the Army brass and the Johnson administration seem to have some doubts of their own. Their doubt seems to be whether there is enough home front support of southeast Asia policies to permit bare knuckled prosecution of the war there.
Incredible or not, the dispatch from Saigon related that the mutinous West Pointer merely was relieved of his commission, deprived of pay and allowances and restored to civilian life. This slap on the wrist was somewhat less than crippling.
What is now to prevent some smart GI from telling his platoon commander what he can do with his war. The smart GI could anticipate being relieved of his enlisted status in the U.S. Army and of being deprived of his pay and allowances. So, home he, would go by the next transport, maybe latch onto a job with plenty of overtime and, as the saying goes, cry all the way to the bank.

Why not? If a West Pointer Gets by with a penalty not much worse than "naughty, naughty" for plain mutiny, by what standard could a dog soldier be wholly condemned for slicing into that kind of pie?
A field Army or a political administration boldly confident of home front support would never brush under the rug mutinous conduct of any kind, least of all by a young officer who had been educated by his country to serve it at all times. The GI Jones of this and other wars do not have quite that obligation to duty.

The dispatches from Saigon were brief. There may have been forgiving circumstances in the refusal of the young lieutenant to do his duty, as ordered. But in the absence of such evidence, it must be assumed that the Army brass and perhaps the Johnson administration feared the home front would not support a severe penalty; say some time at hard labor. It would not be necessary to execute a single mutineer. If mutiny became epidemic, however, the means to suppress it would need to be severe indeed.
The incident of the mutinous lieutenant spotlights what seems to be wrong with this war. The home front is not at war. At the White House and in Congress, it is politics and polls as usual. Old timers will recall that day in FDR's press conference when the United States had begun to go all-out against Hitler. FDR opened the conference by saying he just had turned in his suit as Dr. New Deal and had been issued a uniform in which he would play the role of Dr. Win-The-War.

This rubbery statement, almost concealed FDR's steely purpose to pursue war at the expense of social reform. Many New Dealers and pampered eggheads bellowed in protest. But FDR proceeded on the war path, confident that he had home front support. LBJ and Co. have their war in Southeast Asia and their Great Society reforms at home; keeping you might say, everybody unhappy.
