State Is Sued to Force Longer Registration

Flying Saucer Existence Denied In Washington

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Flying saucer fans, the word from the top at the Pentagon is that there aren't any either ours or somebody else's.

Parents Plead For Word From Boy's Abductor

SIENSI (UPI) — The parents of kidnapped Danny Goldman waited today after dramatically appealing to his abductor to "let the word to us" on where to deliver $25,000 in ransom money.

"Please let us hear from you immediately," pleaded Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Goldman in a formal statement through their attorney.

"There has been no word from the respected middle-aged kidnaper since he burst into the Goldman home through an unlocked screen door early Monday and abducted Danny, 18, the only son of the wealthy contractor/banker.

"We shall gladly meet any terms and conditions for the release of the boy," the Goldmans said in their appeal Wednesday night. "We have $25,000 in bills waiting to be delivered to you."

The husky gunman had demanded $25,000 by 6 a.m. Tuesday after which time the ransom would be doubled. He accused Goldman of "cheating" him out of some money, but Goldman said he did not recognize the man.

Friends of the family have collected $15,000 as a reward for information leading to Danny's safe return, and two teenagers stepped forward as informers Wednesday.

One youth with a Cuban accent was interrogated by FBI agents at the Goldman home and apparently left by a rear door. The other, neatly dressed in slacks and sports shirt, was taken inside the house for a few minutes. As he departed, he would say only that his first name was Richard.

Their statements were reported by members of the House Foreign Affairs Committee after McNamara and Wheeler testified in support of President Johnson's $3.5 billion dollar foreign aid bill.

Rep. Cornelius E. Gallagher, D-N.J., was reported to have brought up the recent reports of saucer sightings when he asked McNamara if he thought potential new foreign aid clients had been trying to make contact with earth.

McNamara said he was sure this wasn't the case. Gallagher then asked McNamara if he could "categorically deny" the possibility that unidentified flying objects (UFO) reported seen in Michigan and elsewhere had extraterrestrial implications.

McNamara, who incidentally, used to make his home at Ann Arbor where some sightings have been reported, replied that he could deny this categorically. Members quoted him as saying the Defense Department would have an intense interest in any such manifestation because of its security aspects.

The defense chief said all reported UFO sightings had been investigated by the military and there was no evidence to support the theory they might be controlled vehicles from outer space or anywhere else.

LBJ Again Hints At Possible New Income Tax Raise

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson said today existing measures to curb inflation fail he will not hesitate to seek further fiscal restraint. He did not specifically mention a tax increase although this would be an obvious alternative.

Asserting that "the amber light is on," Johnson said he would do whatever is necessary to keep the economy from mushrooming too far. And he said he would do so "election year notwithstanding."

Although he denied that the economy was presently "shooting off into outer space," the President did say that "some strains" are beginning to become apparent, including the fact that "prices are moving up much too fast for comfort."

Happy New Year! April Fool

Happy New Year! Whoa there—wrong greeting for the first day of April! You're an April Fool!

That's how April 1 became known as April Fool's Day way back in 1564.

Before 1564 the first day of the year, New Year's Day, fell on April 1. Then the calendar was changed in 1564 and January 1 became the first day of the year. But many people did not like the change and continued to greet their friends on April 1 with a Happy New Year!

Their friends often replied, "This is the first of April, not New Year's Day. You're an April Fool!"

It's coming up Friday, April Fool you'll hear all over town. If you want to appear really in the know you can reply with Happy New Year!

But you'll be dubbed not a possessor of great historical knowledge, you'll be called an April Fool.

BARELY OUT OF SCHOOL

Youth Single-Handed Takes Red Gunpost

EDITORS NOTE: In Greenville, N.H., they called him "Pinkie." His name is Alvin Lapoint and he is 19, barely out of high school. His fellow Marines call him "Panhandle Pinkie" because he loads up with extra gear—spare ammo, rations and a jack knife—when he goes into battle. Some of his buddies in Viet Nam are alive today because "Panhandle Pinkie" charged a Communist cannon armed with only a bayonet and a grenade that turned out to be a dud. Here is his story as he and his friends told it.

By ROBERT IBBRAHAM United Press International DA NANG, South Viet Nam (UPI) — The young Marine dodged, twisted, turned and kept running.

Dozens of rounds spewed out of the muzzle of a Viet Cong cannon and plowed up dirt at his feet. Rounds whistled past him on both sides.

He ran on. The sergeant lifted his head from the dirt. "He's dead, he can't be alive, but he's still running," the sergeant said, almost to himself.

The Marine ran. He ran until he was 10 feet from the big gun—a 127mm antiaircraft cannon

Justice Department Demands Texas Allow Voters More Time

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — The Justice Department sued Wednesday night to force the State of Texas to allow more time for Texans to register to vote without paying a poll tax.

Texas Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr charged the suit would "bring confusion in city and school board elections and seriously affect the May 7 primary election."

Carr said it could jeopardize "the honesty of the ballot box."

A federal court ruled last month that the Texas poll tax was unconstitutional.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Gen. John Doar and two other Justice Department lawyers filed the suit. They praised Texas for its job so far in registering more than 600,000 voters in a 15-day free registration period March 3-18.

But they said "that period was inadequate."

Both Sen. Ralph W. Yarborough, D-Tex., and Stanley Woods, a Houston oilman opposing Gov. John Connally in the primary election, had asked that the registration period be extended.

Yarborough said Connally did not want too many people qualified to vote. Connally denied it.

Babysitter Finds Small Child Dead

Mrs. Johnnie Jackson, 810 S. Somerville, told police today she discovered little James L. Harris dead this morning at 7:15 a.m.

Justice of the Peace Nat Lunsford said an effort will be made to determine the cause of death.

Mrs. Jackson said the child had had a cold, but had not been ill recently. Mrs. Jackson had been caring for the child whose father, Robert Harris resides at Blue Bonnet Courts. The child's parents are separated. His mother, Willie Jean Harris now lives in Fort Worth.

Survivors include the father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harris. (See CHILD, Page 3)

ANTIQUE SHOW OPENS TOMORROW — Mrs. H. L. Simanton, Sweetwater antique dealer, left, and Mrs. James T. Brown, 1263 Charles, unpack some of the many boxes in preparation for the Twentieth Century Cotillion Club's Fourth Annual Antique Show and Sale which opens tomorrow morning for a three-day run in the Starlight Room of Coronado Inn. Proceeds from the event will go to the fund for Opportunity Plan, Inc., at West Texas State University. Mrs. Brown is co-chairman of the show and sale. (See Story, Page 3.)

Youths' Arrest Clears Up More Burglaries

The arrest of six youthful suspects of Pampa burglaries, Police Chief Jim Conner said today.

Eddie Lee Wells, 20, of 818 Murphy; Wayne Wilburn Lane, 23, and Jim Ray Wood, 17, both of 633 Reid; William Edward Lambright, 18, and Harry Lee Lambright, 17, of 917 Albert were under arrest by the police department in connection with five burglaries in the Pampa area.

Pampa police said they were also questioning a 16-year-old youth believed to have participated in some of the break-ins.

Nationwide Train Strike Paralyzes Eight Railroads

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI) — The Brotherhood of Railroad Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen (BLFE) struck eight major railroads across the nation today in an apparent new eruption of the long struggle over the elimination of firemen from railroad crews.

The union said the walkout was triggered by the railroads' refusal to put into effect an apprenticeship program for new engineers, some of the beneficiaries of which would be firemen who lost their jobs under a federal arbitration award.

A spokesman for the Santa Fe Railroad in Pampa today said the nationwide strike did not involve Santa Fe. Local Santa Fe passenger and freight service has not been affected by the strike, he said.

The walkout coincided with the expiration of a "temporary" award by a federal arbitration board in May 1964, which provided for the eventual elimination of 90 per cent of the firemen on train crews in freight and yard service. So far, the jobs of more than 18,000 firemen have been eliminated as a result of the award.

The BLFE ordered its members to strike the Pennsylvania, Boston & Maine, Grand Trunk Western, Union Pacific, Illinois Central, Missouri Pacific, Central of Georgia and Seaboard Airline. The walkout became effective at 12:01 a.m. local time in the affected areas from Maine to the West Coast.

The railroads branded the strike illegal, claiming it was in violation of an injunction issued by a federal judge in Washington last Monday. The union, however, contends it is a lawful walkout resulting from railroad refusal to negotiate on its contract demands under provisions of the Railway Labor Act.

Pampa Cable TV Owner to Attend Texas Conventio

Dale Greenhouse, one of the co-owners of Pampa's cable television system now under construction, will join more than 400 community antenna television system owners and operators from Texas and surrounding states at the 3-day convention of the Texas CATV Association which opened today at the Marriott Motor Hotel in Dallas.

Approximately 100 Texas legislators also will attend the convention which will be highlighted tomorrow by a luncheon address by Congressman Walter Rogers of Pampa and a Friday night banquet speech by Gov. John Connally.

Congressman Rogers, chairman of the House Commerce Subcommittee on Communications, is a strong advocate of "hands-off" policy for the federal government in regulation of the CATV industry. He is sponsor of a bill currently before the House Commerce Committee that would bar the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) from regulating most CATV. Congressman Rogers has been quoted as doubting that the FCC has authority to issue regulations over CATV.

Other federal and state officials on the convention's program include Congressman Omar Burleson (D-Tex.), Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, House Speaker Ben Barnes, Sen. Tom Creighton, Rep. Ben Atwell, and Robert Johnson, Executive Director of the Texas Legislative Council. These officials will participate in a panel discussion on public affairs during Friday's program.

There has been increased interest in CATV since an avalanche of telephone calls, letters and telegrams to CATV system operators and their subscribers descended on Congress recently to protest what they considered government regulation of their television viewing.

THE GLOBAL VIEW

Can De Gaulle Really Destroy NATO?

NEW YORK (NEA) — What next from President De Gaulle? The State Department is watching his latest assault on NATO more in sorrow than in anger. The policy of the Johnson Administration seems to be one of patience with the aging French president.

There is much to recommend this policy. It may please the grand Charles to irritate the United States from time to time. He loves to play the role of mystery man, sow uncertainty in international relations for pleasure and continually reverse his policies in midstream. But even De Gaulle is likely to recoil from playing the role of Samson and bringing the European defense system crashing down.

De Gaulle's political style depends upon guile and illusion. However, he is hardly the man to endanger France's and Europe's security by destroying NATO," said a former close collaborator of the French president. "He will threaten and bargain but in the end, as in former crises, he will agree to compromise without compromising himself."

Another reason for President Johnson's tenderness toward De Gaulle is the unchivalrous conviction that time, alas, is not on the side of the 75-year-old leader. He narrowly escaped defeat in the recent elections. He may yet suffer a serious political setback in the coming elections to the National Assembly. And there are few, if any, French politicians who wield enough influence and authority to carry out De Gaulle's personal policies after him. What, then, is behind his new threat to eject NATO from France? The shrewdest guess is that De Gaulle is preparing the telling the Kremlin leaders that he, De Gaulle, is not an American puppet but an independent European statesman with whom they can deal on equal terms. It is the old game of diplomatic bluff. The Russians, who are hardheaded realists, are not likely to fall for it.

To be sure, the Kremlin leaders welcome any signs of dissension among members of NATO which is the only deterrent to their expansionist plans in Europe. According to the Soviet press, they are preparing a grand reception for De Gaulle. They will do everything to cater to the vanity of the old general. Nevertheless, the Kremlin leaders and their marshals and generals, even as they give De Gaulle the red carpet treatment, are bound to ask them-diplomatic ground for his June visit to Russia. It is his way of

Accused Admits Two More Thefts

Joe Louis Gerik, 24, of 317 N. Rider, has admitted two more burglaries, Sheriff Rufe Jordan said today. This brings the total number of break-ins Gerik has admitted participating in to nine, said Jordan.

Gerik admitted entering the International Harvester Sales and Service building on Price Rd. March 15 and taking approximately $30 in change from the vending machines. He said he attacked the safe but failed to open it. Jordan said the interior of the building was extensively damaged.

Gerik told Jordan he entered the Pampa Country Club Pro Shop January 8 and took about $20 in change from the vending machines along with $600 in checks and $165 in cash from a cash box. Because the checks were stamped "for deposit only" they were thrown away, Jordan said.

Gerik has been charged with these additional thefts and was arraigned in Justice of the Peace Nat Lunsford's court. Bonds on the two burglary counts totaled $4,000.

Gerik is now in jail in lieu of $19,000 in bonds stemming from charges for the nine burglaries.

Annual Area Cancer Crusade Month to Kick Off Tomorrow

Several hundred volunteers in Gray County will launch their attack against cancer tomorrow.

April is Cancer Control Month by Presidential proclamation. Governor John Connally has also issued a similar announcement.

Much effort has been put into planning, organization and training of volunteers for what is expected to be the American Cancer Society's most successful crusade.

Assignments have been made and the volunteers are ready, according to Don R. Lane, chairman of the Gray County Unit's 1966 educational and fund raising crusade. The keynote of the educational part of the crusade will be early detection and prompt treatment. The fund raising aspect will emphasize the need for more funds for research, education and service.

Education and service could now save one out of two instead of the present one out of three cancer patients. Only future research can save half of those who now develop cancer. Yet each year the society has to turn its back on research projects approved by various committees of the society for lack of funds.

Highlighting activities during the month will be the statewide house-to-house canvas on April 19. Headed by Mrs. Bob Andis, the volunteers will leave

Final Wind Up Of Cancer Drive Slated Tonight

The board of directors of the Pampa Community Concert Association will meet at 8 p.m. today in the First National Bank Bldg. to wind up business of the 1966-67 membership campaign which ended yesterday.

Mrs. Mack Hiatt, campaign chairman; Mrs. Tex DeWeese, association treasurer, and Mrs. Tom Rose, membership secretary, will make their final reports to the board.

Mrs. M. McDaniel, association president, said that following the business session the board will confer with George Blake, Columbia Artists vice president, New York City, to select the fourth concert attraction for the coming season.

Mrs. McDaniel also announced that Mrs. Eddie Huston of Pampa and Mrs. Mary Louther of Canadian were tops in obtaining the most memberships. Mrs. Huston signed 64 members and Mrs. Louther obtained 57. Each was awarded a dinner for two at Coronado Inn on the evening of any of the four concerts, next season.

At a drawing held at the conclusion of the drive yesterday, Mrs. Arnold Wesley and Mrs. Lois Fagan, volunteer workers, each won an adult season membership.

Mrs. McDaniel again expressed the appreciation of association officers and board members to the 150 campaign workers in Pampa and area towns for winding up the membership campaign in the shortest time of the association's 23-year history.

Last Minute Tag Buyers Rush Office

Gray County Courthouse corridors were crowded today with the usual last-minute rush crowd to obtain 1966 auto license tags.

At mid-noon the county tax collector's office had a line that kept several clerks busy and others waited in the first floor lobby to take their turn in the line that led into the tax office.

Tax Collector Jack Back said motorists will have until tomorrow to display the new license plates. The tax office is open from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m.

"After Friday midnight," Back said, "those 1966 license plates will no longer be valid and persons driving with them will take their chance with the law."

As of noon today, a little over 10,000 tags had been sold.

Medicare Sign Up Winds Up Today

Office doors at the Social Security office will remain open until midnight tonight in order to give Pampa area oldsters a chance to enroll for Medicare benefits.

Tonight is the deadline for signing up for the benefits, Virgil Holloway, director of the Social Security office, said today.

Persons who were 65 before the first day of January, 1966, must sign up for Medicare today or wait until 1967, Holloway said.

The ruling does not apply to persons who were 65 after the first of the year, Holloway said. These persons will have a special period following their birthdays this year to sign up for the program.

Records kept in Medicare are private, Holloway said, and a person signing up will not be giving away his age. Some persons are reluctant to sign up fearing their employers will find out they are over 65.

Cheer Posts Draw Nineteen

Nineteen candidates for 1966-67 cheer leaders at Pampa High School will go through try-outs at tomorrow morning's general school assembly.

Only five will be elected on a popular vote of the student body. Election of a head cheer leader will come at a later date.

Pampa Teachers To Attend State Parley in Austin

Five Pampa teachers will join 700 of their colleagues from all parts of Texas in Houston this weekend as the Texas Classroom Teachers Association holds its tenth annual Convention tomorrow and Saturday.

Official representatives from Pampa Classroom Teachers Association include: Wendell Watson, science teacher, Pampa Senior High; Mrs. Faye Watson, sixth grade teacher, William B. Travis Elementary; Mrs. Hazel Poole, english teacher, Robert E. Lee Jr. High; Mrs. Frank Anderson, third grade teacher, William B. Travis Elementary; and Frank Anderson, sixth grade, Woodrow Wilson Elementary. Wendell Watson is also a TCTA State Board member.

The teachers will be staying at the Sheraton-Lincoln Hotel, headquarters for the Convention.

Delegates at the state-wide meeting will decide the fate of TCTA's first independent legislative program. In question are a professional negotiations act, which would gain for teachers a voice in school policy without resorting to union tactics, and a fair dismissal act which would end the arbitrary firing of teachers.

Teachers will also decide whether to support officially the legislative program of Texas State Teachers Association. TCTA's support, as the largest affiliate of TSTA, would throw the unified weight of 37,000 classroom teachers behind TSTA's program. Active approval would be given to TSTA's request that Texas teachers' salaries be increased to and maintained at the national average, and that the teacher retirement system be improved and expanded.

Convention business begins Friday night and lasts all day Saturday. Pampa's delegates will hear three out-of-state speakers: Dr. Gary Watts, NEA field representative; Richard Morgan, NEA's PR&R Commission; and Ted Bass, professional services executive for California Teachers Association. Their topics will be professional negotiations, professional rights and responsibilities, and political action for teachers.

High School To Ballot on New Officers Friday

A week of campaigning will come to an end Friday at a special assembly in Pampa High School when the student body president for 1967 is elected.

Tommy Capps, John Braly, Billy Hawkins, Paul Cantrell and Larry Stephens, all carried on active campaigns for the past week.

Signs and slogans ringed the walls in the high school crying for votes for the respective candidates.

The candidates will deliver their final speeches before the student body in the Friday assembly.

Cable

Thousands of letters came from Texas where cable television has grown from a sprinkling of systems during the early 1950's serving only the most remote television reception areas, to an industry of more than 100 CATV systems.

CATV now offers viewers even in good reception areas clearer signals and wider program selection. Today there are more than 1600 CATV systems in the United States serving an estimated 6 million viewers.

Calvin Frazer, co-owner of the Pampa CATV system, was in Pampa today but Greenhouse indicated business commitments in California would make it impossible for Frazer to attend the Dallas convention.

New-Fashioned Breakfast

ENCOURAGE BREAKFAST — Families can be encouraged to eat breakfast regularly when tempted with a menu consisting of golden waffles with a topping of apple pie filling, golden honey and butter, brown 'n serve sausages, grapefruit, milk and coffee.

"Golly, Mom, the school bus is here. There's no time for breakfast." . . . "But, Mother, I'm trying to lose weight!" . . . "Sorry, dear, important meeting. Coffee will do." . . . Does this sound like a typical morning at your home? Probably so, for fewer and fewer of us are taking the time for that wonderful meal called breakfast.

April 10-17 is set aside as national Honey for Breakfast Week; and in addition to urging you to use honey for breakfast, The American Honey Institute also likes to encourage you to tempt your family to eat breakfast regularly! It's not hard to do when an offering like these honey-topped apple-topped waffles is on the menu.

This recipe is designed for speed. The waffles are the frozen kind. . . each family member can toast his own to order. The fragrant topping can be mixed the night before or combined and heated at the last moment, or it's quickly made of apple pie filling, golden honey and butter. Everything comes right from a can, jar and package, ready at the quick twist of can opener or jar lid. This very special blend is simply delicious when heated and served atop the waffles. Accompany this with brown 'n serve sausages, grapefruit, milk and coffee. A breakfast like this doesn't take long to prepare or eat, but it sends the family forth packed with energy for the day.

Honey makes many other breakfast foods taste better, too; and for dieters, it boasts fewer calories than sugar. Speaking of dieting, research

Food Buying Guide

WASHINGTON (UPI) —As April begins, supplies of meats and the variety of vegetables and fruits increase. Spring harvest items are being received at more markets. So the homemaker should have a good range of foods to choose from for her weekend menus.

In the meat section, beef roasts and steaks are in good supply. Pork plentiful are ham and butt cut roasts. Lamb chops should be in good supply, and broiler-fryer and turkeys continue as good meat buys.

Eggs are holding their price in spite of continued demand. Asparagus now is on the market. Other spring vegetables include broccoli, cabbage, carrots, cauliflower, celery, lettuce, onions, potatoes, and radishes. Squash, sweet potatoes, and peanuts are plentiful.

Fruit plentiful remain the same. Apples, bananas, lemons, oranges, and grapefruit are the mainstays.

Fish sticks and portions, canned red salmon, and scallops are the seafood items which are in good supply nationally.

Kids Can Make Easter Eggs

FONDANT EASTER EGGS are traditional.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Easter isn't Easter without the ubiquitous Easter egg. Whether you buy them, dye them, blow them, or make them, blow them, or make them, let the children be a part of it. Almost as much fun as dyeing eggs is cooking up your own homemade Easter "eggs." The recipe here for fondant Easter eggs is easy enough for a teenager to make, fun for the little ones to shape. So let everyone get in on the celebration.

FONDANT EASTER EGGS

1-3 cup margarine
1/2 cup light corn syrup
1 pound confectioners' sugar, sifted
1 teaspoon vanilla
Combine margarine, corn syrup and half the sugar in a 3-quart saucepan. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until mixture comes to full boil. Quickly stir in remaining sugar and vanilla. Remove from heat immediately. Stir just until mixture holds its shape. Pour into greased pan. Cool just enough to handle. Knead until smooth. Knead in any desired flavoring and pink, green or yellow food coloring. Shape like eggs with lightly greased hands. (If candy hardens too much before kneading, work with spoon, then knead.) Decorate with thin confectioners' sugar icing, tinted if desired. Put into nests of colored coconut. (Color coconut by tossing with a few drops of food coloring.)

Mint Patties: Flavor fondant peppermint or wintergreen and tint red or green. Shape into patties.

Bon Bons: Flavor and tint as desired. Shape into balls with nut pieces in center. Roll in colored or white sugar or in chocolate or multicolor sprinkles for decorating.

4 THE PAMPA DAILY NEWS THURSDAY, MARCH 31, 1966 58TH YEAR has proved that breakfast eaters find it easier to lose weight than breakfast skippers. This is because breakfast can be a carefully watched, well-balanced meal that eliminates the desire to snack between meals or overeat at lunch. Teens especially seem to resort to the "empty calorie foods" such as cola drinks and candy that do little for their weight, complexion and zest for living. For the entire family, try making breakfast time a special meal of the day and vary the menu as much as possible with honey as a helper.

Symbolic Dinner

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
A beautifully glazed baked ham is the traditional Easter roast in many parts of the country. There are several types of ham available in the stores, but more and more homemakers express a preference for the ready-to-eat ham because it frees them from long cooking.

You may have your own favorite ham glaze. Even so, this one of crushed pineapple, dark corn syrup and grated orange rind may also appeal to you for the Easter dinner.

PINEAPPLE GLAZED HAM
(Serves 25)
1 ready-to-eat ham (about 13 pounds)
1 (1-pound 4-ounce) can crushed pineapple
1 cup dark corn syrup
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
1 1/2 teaspoons dry mustard
Whole cloves.

Trim ham, then place, fat side up, on rack in roasting pan. Heat in 325-degree (slow) oven about 1 hour and 15 minutes. Meanwhile, combine pineapple, corn syrup, orange rind and dry mustard. Remove ham from oven; score diagonally, making cuts about 1/4-inch deep, about 3/4-inch apart, across fat surface of ham. Brush ham with some of the syrup mixture. Bake in oven, basting frequently, until ham is well-coated and heated thoroughly, about 45 minutes. Remove from oven; stud with whole cloves, placing one in center of each diamond. Baste once more and heat in oven 10 minutes.

Combine apple pie filling, honey and butter; heat, stirring occasionally. Heat waffles and cook sausage or bacon. To serve, spoon apple mixture over half the waffles; top with remaining waffles and arrange sausages or bacon on top. Makes 6 servings.

'Yeah, he meant to hit the kids'

An Explosion in the Pitch-Penny Ring

By TOM TIEDE

Newspaper Enterprise Assn. VINH CU, Viet Nam — (NEA) — The enemy in this war insists on popular support. And they use every unpopular method to get it.

Charles Centeno can tell you. Centeno, a 22-year-old Pfc. from Gilroy, Calif., was serving as a roadside guard near this hamlet when the enemy struck a horrible blow.

It was hot, and Centeno was squatting in the dust watching some kids playing at the edge of the village. There were half a dozen of them... all five, six or sevenish. Dirty, unwashed, scabby children, as befits a dirty, unwashed, scabby war, but glow-eyed, nonetheless, soft-skinned and harmless children. They were playing pitch penny in a circle... I win, no you don't, yes I do... not so terribly different from Elm Street, really.

Suddenly the game was over. A man leaped from behind a village hut, stopped, then rolled a hand grenade toward the kids. It went off with a noise like an exploding tire and peppered the playground with ugly, saw-sharp pieces of fragmented steel.

There was an instant of silence... then screams of pain. Three children ran. They were the lucky ones. The others, one on the ground, opened their mouths to emit escaping blood. They had been torn wide open by the blast.

Centeno was up at the sound. The grenade thrower was on a desperate run behind the village buildings and the Pfc. raced cross-country to head him off.

The GI, gun at the ready, passed several houses, leaped over a cattle trough and came up behind a fence just in time to catch a glimpse of the man about 50 yards away. He fired once, hit the VC solidly, but not fatally. The Cong fell, picked himself up and made a blood-spilling escape.

"God," the soldier muttered, "I hope I killed him." When Centeno got back to the children, they were in a state of stunned silence. One was just slightly lacerated but two others were punctured dozens of times. Their legs, faces and arms were bleeding masses of blackened flesh.

"You get him?" somebody asked Centeno. "I hope so," he said. "Why in the hell did he do it?" "I don't know." "Was he trying to get you?" "No, too far away for that." "Then he meant to hit the kids?" "Yeah, he meant to hit the kids.' Indeed so. Signs plastered all over the town were ominous warnings of what would happen if the villagers assisted the American troops in any way. Area leaders had been told not to allow supplies to be sold or information given to the U. S. soldiers.

The villagers did not obey. And, for that, their children paid.

Medics were called for and a search was organized. Centeno, shaking his head, stood among the wounded kids. One was opening his mouth but not saying anything. Another walked around the man's legs, bleeding, in a circle.

Centeno felt sick and helpless. He reached out to comfort but there was no response. The children only whimpered... and watched their blood drip slowly into the dust of their pitch-penny ring.

You, Your Child and School

By DAVID NYDICK

UPI Education Specialist Large numbers of students along with their parents and teachers are concerned about college admissions. Many take the "college boards" which are examinations used by colleges to assist in their selection of new students.

Contrary to public opinion, the scores on these examinations are not the most important factor in determining the choice of candidates. The college board scholastic aptitude test (SAT) ranks third after high school grades which are first and recommendations of the school principal and guidance counselor which are second. The fourth most important factor is class standing.

Make no mistake. These are important examinations. They provide methods for colleges to compare applicants from many different high schools each having its own standards and course of study. The point to understand is that these tests are only one of several measuring sticks which are used.

Furthermore, all colleges do not use these particular examinations. Many use their own exams or those of other organizations. Other colleges use different means than exams. Too often individuals view these and other exams as obstacles rather than a method to assist in placement best suited to their ability and needs.

Many students spend a great deal of time and money taking "prep" courses or being tutored. The college board suggests that learning is a long range process. Knowledge is brought about by an accumulation of learning which is the result of environmental factors and instruction throughout an individual's school career. Short cuts for improving test scores on the SAT are generally unsuccessful. Seven research studies have shown that scores on this test are not substantially affected by coaching. The gains for students who were coached averaged less than ten points higher than for those who were not coached. It is hard to believe that 10 or even 20 points would affect admission decisions.

It is also important for parents and students to realize that an inflated score might lead to admission to a college in which the student may not be capable of success. The aim should be to attend a college which will provide an opportunity for the student to be successful in the field of his choice.

Most students who want to, can attend college. They should avoid unrealistic restrictions. Prestige and location are not always the most important factors. Even under the present conditions of high enrollment and competition there are vacancies which remain unfilled in particular colleges.

Foreign Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM

UPI Foreign News Analyst In Pakistan, nominal ally of the United States, the pro-Peking hawks again are flying high.

It can be taken as coincidence that at the same time the United States extends its welcome to Indian Prime Minister Indira Gandhi, Pakistan rolls out the red carpet for Red Chinese President Liu Shao-chi and his foreign minister, Chen Yi.

Not to be taken as a coincidence are the anti-U.S. overtones of the reception in Pakistan nor will it be overlooked in Washington that it comes only weeks after announcement of a new $50 million U.S. loan to Pakistan and the relaxation of the ban on shipment of military equipment.

It will lend weight to Mrs. Gandhi's request for resumed military aid to India, partly on the grounds that a flow of Red Chinese tanks and planes into Pakistan is placing her at a disadvantage in their smoldering quarrel over Kashmir.

Curtailed Assistance The United States cut off all aid to both Pakistan and India during their war of last September, but lately permitted sale of "non-lethal" military equipment.

Announcement of a $50 million loan to Pakistan and $100 million to India followed a February visit to both by Vice President Hubert Humphrey.

The twists and turns of history which brought the United States to its present position between the two countries go back to 1962 with Red China's attack across India's northern borders. India, a champion of nonalignment, turned to both the United States and the Soviet Union for military aid.

MEETING TOO HEAVY NEW BEDFORD, Mass. (UPI) —Weight Watchers Inc., a group therapy reducing club, is looking for a new meeting place.

City building inspectors Monday ruled that the floors of the old theater where the club had been meeting are not strong enough to support 75 or 80 overweight persons.

A spokesman for Columbia-Presbyterian Hospital said the 55-year-old Funston was expected to return to work in several weeks.

Walter Rogers Reports:

Growing America

Some people in the Government are contending that areas of the United States primarily rural in character are not developing as rapidly as are metropolitan areas where, it is alleged, standards are continually rising. On the face of it, there are grounds to challenge any contention that metropolitan standards are rising. Some of the same people who make the above comparison say, in the next breath, that the cities are falling apart at the seams and that the quality of urban life has never been so low. The attitudes of American citizens would seem to support this latter view. A recent national opinion poll showed that while only a third of Americans live in rural areas, nearly half of all Americans would prefer to live in small towns or on farms.

At any rate, it is recognized by everyone that the years ahead are to bring a rapid increase in U. S. population, and that by 1975 this country will have some 225 million citizens. It is obvious that crowding more millions into the already congested cities, which now face very serious problems of transportation, education, and air pollution, among others, is not a desirable solution for the future.

Broader opportunities need to be developed in every corner of America, in small towns and large, in rural areas as in urban. Business leaders and men in public life at all levels recognize this, and policies public and private are being developed to encourage more diversified growth. Several bills are before the 89th Congress aimed at promoting rural development. Among them is the proposal entitled the "Community Development District Act of 1966." Deliberations have not yet begun on this measure by the Agriculture Committees of the House and Senate but are expected to begin shortly. The measure would provide for "Community Development Districts" to be established to plan and coordinate area-wide development of facilities and services. Whether this legislation will be generally supported in Congress and the country remains to be seen, but it points up the fact that thought is being given to the future.

We in the Panhandle have a story to tell about area development — and the pattern we can show could well be studied and imitated elsewhere. Blessed with abundant resources and excellent soils and climate, the people of the Panhandle have been able to put together in a relatively short period of time a unified economic base offering a broad range of opportunities in agriculture and industry. As further strides are made in developing the Panhandle's agricultural potential as well as its mineral resources, we are going to witness a steady upward curve in population in our towns and on the land and on increasingly larger choice of vocations to attract Panhandle young people who wish, after graduation from high school or college, to make their permanent homes in their native area.

I have "talked up" the Panhandle to business and industrial leaders for years, as have many of you, I'm convinced that American business is becoming more and more aware of the advantages of diversifying operations. We have seen some of this in the Panhandle and we will see more as the men — men in private enterprise — who make these decisions recognize the re-serve of skilled, willing, enthusiastic men and women. Business and industry have a stake in halting the trend to crowd the already crowded urban centers of the country and are looking for opportunities to move out. Areas like our Panhandle will be the beneficiaries.

Meanwhile, we must continue our efforts to see that the agricultural economy is strengthened and that opportunities on the farm are not neglected. The root strength of America is still in the soil.

REPOSE RETURNS—Red Cross workers Nancy Lewis of Huntington, W. TB Patient Released After Twenty-eight Year Fight

DENVER (UPI) — Mrs. Gladys Criswell, 50, formerly of Keokuk, Iowa, was released from National Jewish Hospital in Denver today in good health — 28 years and about 80,000 pills after she began her fight for life against tuberculosis.

"Twenty-eight years is a long time to fight for your life," she said, "but I wanted to live."

Mrs. Criswell said doctors at Keokuk discovered she was infected by the disease in 1938. She and her two then small sons moved to the dry climate of the White Mountains of Arizona.

"Rest, food and the dry air were my medicine there," she said. Her condition improved. She moved to Alexandria, La., as a federal employe but the climate there did not agree.

Moves Again
It was harder and harder to drag to work each morning because my health was failing," she said. She and her sons, Bill and John, moved back to Arizona.

Phoenix doctors ordered home treatment in 1946, but her lungs did not heal. They performed surgery in 1946, and again in 1948. But the respiratory ailment again flared in 1951 and surgery again was performed in 1952.

She opened a truck brokerage business after that, then went to work for a Los Angeles trucking firm, but her health continued to fail.

"I'd been working too hard," she said. "But when you have two children to support and don't want to be a welfare case, what can you do?"

Suffers Relapses
She suffered recurrent relapses. She underwent three more operations at a California sanitarium and took the latest in drug treatments. She said her condition improved and doctors recommended she to the National Jewish Hospital in Denver, which specializes in respiratory ailments. She was admitted last April.

Mrs. Criswell was declared "TB negative" July 7, 1965. "I couldn't believe it was more than just a temporary thing, but I remained negative the whole time," she said. "The hospital gave me back my life."

Mrs. Criswell, whom doctors estimate took more than $2,000 anti-tuberculosis pills since her ailment was diagnosed, said she plays to stay in Denver at least another year.

Traffic Judge Speaks To Pampa Rotary

Pampa corporation court judge John Warner spoke on traffic safety and teenagers before the Pampa Rotary Club yesterday noon in the Coronado Inn.

Warner, who holds a special court for teenage traffic violators on the first and third Saturday of every month, said that the youth must realize that there is a responsibility as well as a privilege to having a driver's license.

He added that traffic violations by Pampa teenagers have decreased in the last year, while adult violations have increased.

The speaker was introduced by Quentin Williams.

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Dines Letter says that while the recent rally might develop into an assault on the all-time highs, the prolonged deterioration of blue chips, the contracting volume, signs of life in gold shares and the general technical position of the market seem to indicate the market is in for some rough sailing before any solidarity is achieved.

The market is looking for support between the 900 and 940 levels in the Dow Jones Industrial Average which might be the prelude to April strength but on the long-term Dines outlook remains pessimistic.

Charles Jensen of Tessel, Patnick & Ostrau, Inc., says now that the Dow Jones Industrial average has shown some resiliency, a Spring Rally could materialize, carrying the average to record levels. He says that airlines, office space and color television equipment, electronics, aerospace and color television shares may lead any advance.

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The second network television documentary in recent weeks today's hard-working policemen was presented Tuesday night by "CBS Reports."

The one-hour program was on solid footing as it took a sympathetic approach to the officer on the beat and the tremendous burden he has to carry, often at the risk of his life.

Joseph Wershba, producer of the documentary, entitled "The Policeman's Lot," summed up the approach of the hour in a pre-broadcast attitude he expressed:

"The vast majority (of police officers) are decent men and women performing a difficult and absolutely essential job that most of the rest of us wouldn't touch with a 10-foot pole."

Centering mainly on the New York and Chicago police departments, the program went over the current topics best known to the public, and made its points succinctly and well, even with some originality.

The reason for emphasizing the big city examples, the documentary properly explained, was that pretty soon eight out of 10 Americans will live in metropolitan areas, and New York's problems will be theirs too.

Nothing in the hour was more telling and pungent than an interview with one police official who capsulized the problems thusly:

"Learned, persons, even judges, are split over what to do in some of the controversial areas, yet the officer on the beat is expected to do right all the time while trying to keep in mind all the pressures and legal points."

"He'd have to be better than God Himself," said the official.

Other sequences in the hour suggested how the policeman, whose chief job is to keep the peace, must often be a Solomon-on-the-spot to solve the many other types of cases that come his way.

Another good point noted that the policeman often is unfortunately just the fellow at the scene who has to take the resentment stored up by some angry citizens against other city officials.

Among the best sections of the hour were lectures at the New York Police Academy about courtesy to the public and how to get confessions properly. Naturally the usual other topics brought up during the program included civilian review boards, the effects of recent legal decisions, and public apathy.

The Channel Swim: NBC-TV has issued an unintentionally hilarious press release, about a one-hour April 9 documentary it is doing about baseball's champion Los Angeles Dodgers. . . . Nowhere in the publicity handout is there a mention of Sandy Koufax or Don Drysdale, who are million-dollar holdouts.

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Dines Letter says that while the recent rally might develop into an assault on the all-time highs, the prolonged deterioration of blue chips, the contracting volume, signs of ill in gold shares and the general technical position of the market seem to indicate the market is in for some rough sailing before any solidarity is achieved.

The market is looking for support between the 900 and 940 levels in the Dow Jones Industrial Average which might be the prelude to April strength but on the long-term Dines outlook remains pessimistic.

Charles Jensen of Tessel, Patrick & Ostrau, Inc., says now that the Dow Jones Industrial average has shown some resiliency, a Spring Rally could materialize, carrying the average to record levels. He says that airlines, office space and color television equipment, electronics, aerospace and color television shares may lead any advance.

When in Switzerland, Eat

Newspaper Enterprise Assn. BERNE, Switzerland (UPI) — Old hands at travel sometimes advise weight-conscious Marco Polo, about to embark on their first grand tour of Europe, to start in Switzerland. "It's better for the waistline," they say.

The theory is that after the food and service in Switzerland, anything outside the little Alpine country will seem pallid. Taste buds that blossomed to reine de l'Atlantique sur lit, gempfer and biscuit glace au Grand Marnier will not respond to haggis, Lancashire hot pot and kirschenflaut.

Waistlines that have expanded under the tender ministrations of Swiss chefs will automatically snap back and the traveler will return home lean, lithe and fully approved by life insurance companies.

If this be true, even in part, it just doesn't happen by accident. The Swiss make a federal case out of training innkeepers and restaurateurs.

Ask the Swiss what the principal products of the country are and they answer, "Hotel men and laws," and they're only half-kidding.

Upon graduation she will be eligible to act as assistant to a director of some big Swiss hotel, but probably never could achieve the job as director even at one of her father's hostleries. From this, waiters advance to serving the "superior staff," which, naturally, is highly critical of any mistakes. Time also is spent studying languages and visiting factories to see how glassware, china, linen, etc., are made and to learn quality.

National Window

By LYLE WILSON United Press International The weakness of organized labor in its fretful demands that the Johnson administration make good on campaign promises is the fact that there is not much public sympathy for amendment of the Taft-Hartley Act.

Another weakness in the labor position, of course, is that politicians are accustomed to violating their campaign promises whenever it seems to be desirable to do so.

If the standards of common honesty expected of American businessmen were imposed on politicians, some of the politicians could be jailed on charges of dishonesty in the pursuit of votes. In fact, it would be a felony to put a copy of a presidential platform in the mails if the politicians were held to the standards required of stockbrokers and others who peddle securities to the public. The Johnson administration went through the motions of seeking repeal of Taft-Hartley Section 14B as demanded by the Democratic party's labor allies. But the heat was not on. It was quite evident that the President did not regard repeal as a matter of top urgency.

So it is that the labor moguls are muttering threats of this and that, such as rejection of the Democratic party. Such is not likely because big labor has no place to go.

Individual Republican congressional candidates would welcome labor support, of course. But the national party scarcely could accommodate itself to the policies big labor exacts in payment for its campaign contributions.

TEL Class Has Covered-Dish Meet

SKELLYTOWN (Sp) — Mrs. Bill Price was hostess for a covered-dish supper Friday evening for the TEL Sunday School Class of Skellytown First Baptist Church.

Mrs. M. L. Mills, class teacher, gave the invocation. Mrs. Elizabeth Tinsley gave the devotional and read the 12th chapter of Romans.

A short business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Cecil Pearce. Each guest attending presented the hostess with a gift.

The next class meeting will be April 29, in the home of Mrs. Della Gasaway.

Attending were Mmes. M. L. Mills, L. E. Jordan, Murie Rogers, Oscar Gould, Cecil Pearce, Della Gasaway, C. V. Biggers, Ola Bateman, Elizabeth Tinsley, Walt Shair, J. C. Jarvis, Tom Spence, and two visitors, Mrs. McCracken and Miss Billie Price.

Mrs. Ron Riggs Feted at Shower

SKELLYTOWN (Sp) — Mrs. Ron Riggs of Pampa, the former Miss Sharron Moss of Skellytown, was honored Monday evening with a wedding shower in the Fellowship Hall of Skellytown First Baptist Church.

Hostesses were Mmes. Winfred Simmons, Howard Moore, J. M. Grange, Clifford Coleman, Wendell Hinton, Wayne Mathews, Edna Dunivin, Harold Crawford, Dan Holloway and Marshall Giesler.

The honoree was presented a "kitchen corsage" by Mrs. Winfred Simmons.

Mrs. Ron Clemeshire, sister of the bride, registered guests. Assisting the bride in opening and recording gifts were her mother, Mrs. J. S. Moss and Miss Linda Kay Dodd.

The serving table, covered with a white lace cloth over red, was centered with a bouquet of red roses in a white milk glass bowl. A white sheet cake, decorated with two pink wedding bells with "Sharron" inscribed in one bell and "Ron" in the other, was served by Mrs. Hinton. Mrs. Simmons poured the punch.

Timely Beauty Hints

With the season's fashions featuring shorter coiffures, ears are on display. According to beauty authority, Max Factor, they should appear as smooth and feminine looking as possible.

If the skin texture of your ears, particularly the lobes, becomes roughened or chapped, massage nightly with night cream. Then, in the morning, smooth on an active moisturizer to keep them from looking dry and flaky. To create a smooth, even-toned appearance, or to veil thin-webbed veins, apply a small amount of foundation make-up to the surface of the ears. Remove any excess make-up from the ridges and whorls with a cleansing tissue, and lightly pat with creme puff make-up. When not wearing earrings, apply a touch of complexion coloring to the ear lobes to give them a beautiful shell-like glow.

Remove Old Make-up
Putting one layer of make-up over another causes clogged pores, blackheads and pimples. It also changes the color of the make-up.

Season's Surfers Suits Are Giddy

NEW YORK — Giddy surfer suits ride ashore as the best beach bets for '66, according to a recent issue of "Seventeen".

Bare-midriff suits with short pants come in solids or polka dots, and may be laced at the sides or have bright, contrasting wax pockets. The newest surfer-storm on Hawaiian shores — just-above-the-knee pants — arrive on the mainland in two versions: frilly, all-girl "jellies" with ruffy flounces and draw-string waists; and tailored "jammies," also with a draw-string, which is a steal from the pajamas boy surfers made famous.

Other swim wear newsmakers include the banded, work-clothes and granny looks.

Glass Slippers Are Back

Cinderella's glass slippers have made the scene again. A little more up-to-date, they are made of glass fiber. Unfortunately, a prince doesn't come with every pair; you'll have to work that angle on your own.

FOR FRIDAY, APRIL 1
GENERAL TENDENCIES: The early part of the day will find you seeing clearly what you want and getting others to go along with your broadest aims, but the p.m. brings deceptive, confusing and separate aspects, so do not try to continue the fast pace of the a.m. lest you have difficulties.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) — You have to have a charming attitude with others if you want to get your points across easily and accurately. Take care you do not invest unwisely. Then you get along nicely with others but financial matters need much thought just the same.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) — Associates may have fixed ideas regarding their desires where you are concerned, but if you stick to business without deviation all goes fine. Don't argue. Swing fine deals strictly on your own. Show ability.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) — If you first complete routine duties, you can then talk over with associates. Those clever ideas you have had germinating in your mind for some time. Be logical. Give a compliment here and there, wherever it is deserved.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) — Plan how to increase your income. The day ahead and be sure to adopt more economical habits right now. One who has become very successful, will give right ideas for your advancement. Contact him, or her.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 23) — Almost anything you want within your personal life is within easy reach, but don't involve close ties in the doing or getting. You are very charming at this time. Make the most of this dynamic vein.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23) — Going directly to experts in your field will bring forth the ideas you need for your betterment, but don't confide in others, or they will pirate. Careful driving is imperative. Much loss could otherwise bring real regret later.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23) — A good friend who is very much interested in you gives advice that should be followed in carrying through with present plans. Be more thoughtful of persons and not be exclusively business minded.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 23) — Before lunch is best time to handle all civic and other duties of a public nature. Increase good will instead of losing it. Your career needs much improvement. Get busy and make progress.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 24 to Dec. 23) — Find a better mode operandi, and let this also include any personal endeavors, dealings with friends, etc. Be sure to read letters thoroughly. Much good comes from them. Study your newspaper well, also.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 24 to Jan. 20) — Morning is best time to do whatever will greatly please a close associate and then take it easy in the afternoon. In fact, anything of great importance is best in a.m. Enjoy relaxation tonight.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) — Come to a better understanding with partners in a.m. and later be sure not to incorporate "on facts" or otherwise ink others or there can be a severance of connections. Know where you stand with all. Avoid confusion.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) — Dive right into any work ahead of you and get it done efficiently during the day, so that tonight you can go over it for errors. Labor harmoniously with fellow workers. Do not argue about anything in p.m.

Don't Skimp on Sleep
Sufficient sleep is important to one's complexion health. Skimping on sleep can make your skin blotchy. It also adds dark circles under the eyes and when coupled with a poor diet plays havoc with the hair.

Dear Abby....

There's No Substitute For Telling the Truth

DEAR ABBY: We don't exactly need advice but we do need your help. My daughter, (I'll call her Maureen) became engaged to a very nice young man she'd gone through college with. He gave her a diamond and we announced their engagement at a lovely dinner party. We started making the wedding plans when Maureen told us that the young man had asked for more time to think about it because he wasn't "sure."

Maureen says she has good reason to believe there is another girl in the picture, so she returned his ring. Here's where you come in. I told Maureen not to worry, that I would write to you, and good old Abigail would help us make up a convincing story to tell people. Will you?

DEAR ABBY: Last night my husband and I went to a housewarming party for some friends. The invitations read, "From 7 until 9." About 9 a couple of guests began moving the furniture so they could dance. My husband wanted to leave, but I thought it would be okay to stay and dance a while since a few others were dancing. The party lasted a lot longer than we thought it would. Were we wrong to stay and dance?

DEAR ABBY: I see so many letters in your column from people complaining because some of their friends or relatives don't have good table manners. I once read that when Albert Einstein wanted a good laugh, he'd curl up in a comfy chair with an etiquette book and go into hysterics. He thought the "rules of etiquette" were the funniest things ever written. So do I.

Why should there be only one "proper" way to eat a spear of asparagus? How ridiculous to judge a person on his table manners. My husband is the kindest, most gentle man in all this world, and if he wants to cut up all the meat on his plate at once, and butter a whole slice of bread and shovel it in, God bless him. He paid for it himself, which is more than you can say for a lot of society moochers.

SAID MY SAY

CONFIDENTIAL TO RUTH: All men do not cheat on their wives. But it's a pretty safe bet that the man who says they do, cheats on his!

Troubled? Write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

DEAR BEAUMONT: Yes. At 9 p.m. promptly, you should have thanked your host and hostess and "danced" out the door.

Airline Brings Beauty Down to Earth

EARTH-BOUND BEAUTY — An airline restaurant waitress (inset) awaits a transformation as part of an intensive beauty workshop held at Kennedy International Airport, N.Y. She is one of more than 500 waitresses, hostesses and cashiers receiving grooming advice as part of an employees' improvement program. At right, Miss Joan Cochran, consumer programs manager of Clairol, advises the waitress on selecting the right shade make-up and how to apply it. Beauty clinics such as those conducted by Miss Cochran in 14 cities are in demand by business firms.

By ALICIA HART

Newspaper Enterprise Ass'n.
NEW YORK (NEA) — Competent service and good looks are synonymous with the term "airline stewardess." This has been true since the first hostess stepped aboard a United Air Lines plane May 15, 1930.

Millions of flight miles later, the major airlines in their training schools still stress a certain "beauty" based upon wholeness, cleanliness, correct use of make-up and proper hair-do.

Now, one airline is bringing beauty down to earth, so to speak. Special courses for more than 500 waitresses, hostesses and cashiers who work in 14 major U. S. airport restaurants (American Airlines' Sky Chef) are nearing completion. The beauty workshops or grooming clinics represent a new phase of employe improvement, according to Joan Cochran, a smiling blonde who finds her job rewarding in teaching women to make the best of what they have.

Miss Cochran, when not on the telephone or on her way to an airport to fly to another city, is consumer programs manager for Clairol and conducts the clinics.

The hair products — cosmetic firm, like so many of its counterparts, has put its own training program for cosmeticians to work for other businesses. In 1964-65 Miss Cochran and her staff got urgent calls for help in "naturalizing" the young women representing 10 pavilions at the New York World's Fair. This success, Miss Cochran says, led to other requests from corporations for similar grooming classes. The goal is to guide

News From Gray County 4-H Club Council

By CYNTHIA HOGSETT

The Gray County 4-H Club elimination contests were held recently in the Recreation Building of the Gray County Bull Barn. To open the program, the Pledge to the American Flag was led by Guy Turner, and the 4-H Club Pledge was led by Lewis Davis.

Andy Cole, Gray County 4-H Club Council Chairman, gave the welcome and introduced guests. Judges were Mrs. Faye Terrell and Ray Burris, Lipscomb County agricultural agent. Also present were Miss Gail Sims, Gray County assistant home demonstration agent, and Jerry Harland, Gray County assistant agricultural agent.

The Grandview 4-H Club entered a "Just Too Tired to Move" in the junior division of Share-the-Fun. Members of the cast were Martha Weinheimer, Joyce Babcock, Margie Baggerman, Isaac Baggerman, Pamela Watts, Vickie Smith, Lyana Weinheimer, Marla Ritter and Vickie Cochran.

A junior Electric Demonstration on the building and operation of the electric motor was given by Frank Davis and Troy Ritter, from the Grandview 4-H Club. Also from this club were Lewis Davis and Barry Fields who gave a junior Safety Demonstration. They demonstrated mouth-to-mouth respiration and use of a snake bite kit.

Cynthia Hogsett from the Top O' Texas 4-H Club discussed the Landscape Identification project. Debbie Bray explained the Common Oleander and the Brazil Bougainvillea, and Suzan Hunt told about the Common Flowering Quince and the Common Bald Cypress.

Andy Cole, Council Chairman, and Cynthia Hogsett presented blue ribbons to Grandview 4-H Club for Share-the-Fun and the senior Share-the-Fun to the Top O' Texas 4-H Club. Both teams will represent Gray County in the District Contest on April 2. Deanna Benefield was given a blue ribbon for her flute solo.

The following teams also received blue ribbons and will represent the county at the district contests: Junior Electric, Frank Davis and Troy Ritter; Junior Safety, Lewis Davis and Barry Fields; Landscape Plant Identification, Cynthia Hogsett, Phyllis Atwood and Winona Chisum, seniors from the Top O' Texas 4-H Club; juniors from this club, Suzan Hunt, Debbie Bray, Frankie Mitchell and Laura Mitchell; Top O' Texas 4-H Senior Rifle Team, Matt Mills, Doug Abbott, Monte Brogden and Jim Reeves; and the junior rifle team, Cara Tidwell, Lonnie Robbins, Jim Pepper and Marva Rowan. Quarter Horse Judging, seniors Gordon Taylor, Alan Tidwell, and Lonnie Cox.

The program was closed with the 4-H Club Prayer led by Judy Cox.

women employes to look better. How? By teaching them how to use cosmetics properly and how to select hairstyles most becoming to them.

"We aim for the balanced look," Miss Cochran explains. "Our approach to each woman is like bringing a picture into balance."

On a special card the women taking part in the same course indicate their complexion, skin tone and hair color. Then Miss Cochran and her aides provide a kit with make-up co-ordinated to give each woman her own total look.

"The surprising thing we learned was that most women do not know whether they are brunettes or brownettes," she says. This makes it difficult for them to select the correct shade make-up in a store.

Women also tend to have "too heavy a hand with eye make-up and pluck their eyebrows or pencil them into the wrong shape," Miss Cochran says. The women were surprisingly consistent. "If they were bad in one phase of make-up, they were bad in them all."

Many of the waitresses used hair coloring or their hair was bleached or dyed.

Miss Cochran said this brought up another important point in advising any woman. "Always select a haircoloring that gives the most natural look for you. When you change your hair color, don't forget to change the color of your eyebrows." Black eyebrows with blonde hair, for example, should be softened.

Regionally the women appeared to differ little in their approach to lipstick and make-up colors. "Unfortunately," Miss Cochran signed, "most women past 40 tend to use the first make-up shades they selected in their teens or early 20s."

She urges more women to experiment with new lipstick shades.

To women from Denver to El Paso to Cleveland to New York she made the point that men truly dislike the heavily made-up look. "A woman who works or applies for a job should realize that most of her evaluation in a job will be by men. With cosmetics today a woman can do a lot to improve her looks beyond her natural self."

DODGER FANS CELEBRATE

Stock In L. A. Goes Up

By United States International... From Vero Beach to Brooklyn to Sunset Strip, countless Los Angeles Dodger fans celebrated Wednesday.

The world champion Dodgers are on top of the baseball world again.

As if it wasn't enough for the Dodger faithful to have Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale back in the fold again, they also savored Claude Osteen's two-hit shutout of the Cincinnati Reds that should mean he's ready to back up the K and D combo for the second straight year.

It even prompted exuberant Los Angeles Mayor Samuel W. Yorty to send the following telegram to the mayors of major league cities: "Koufax and Drysdale have signed. The October weather in Los Angeles is ideal. I advise you to get your World Series reservations in early."

Mayor Yorty may seem a bit premature but once Koufax and Drysdale signed their 1966 contracts, the Dodgers immediately gave 5-2 favorites out on the Las Vegas odds boards to repeat their 1965 miracle.

Osteen Blanks Reds

Just before Koufax and Drysdale signed their contract for a package in excess of $230,000—figured to be $120,000 for Koufax and $110,000 for Drysdale—Osteen nailed down the opening day assignment by blanking the Cincinnati Reds, 4-0.

While the Dodgers were getting back to their old ways, the New York Mets continued to act very strangely. The amazing Mets, on top of the National League Grapefruit standings with a 10-6 record, snapped the Washington Senators five-game winning streak, 5-2.

The Mets failed to get a hit off Jim Duckworth for six innings but jumped on relievers Fred Kreutzer for four runs in the seventh to sew up the victory.

The Chicago White Sox, the major's best team this spring with a 16-4 record, returned to their winning ways by snapping a two-game losing string with a 4-2 triumph over Baltimore. John Romano singled in two runs in the sixth inning to give Jack Lamabe the win.

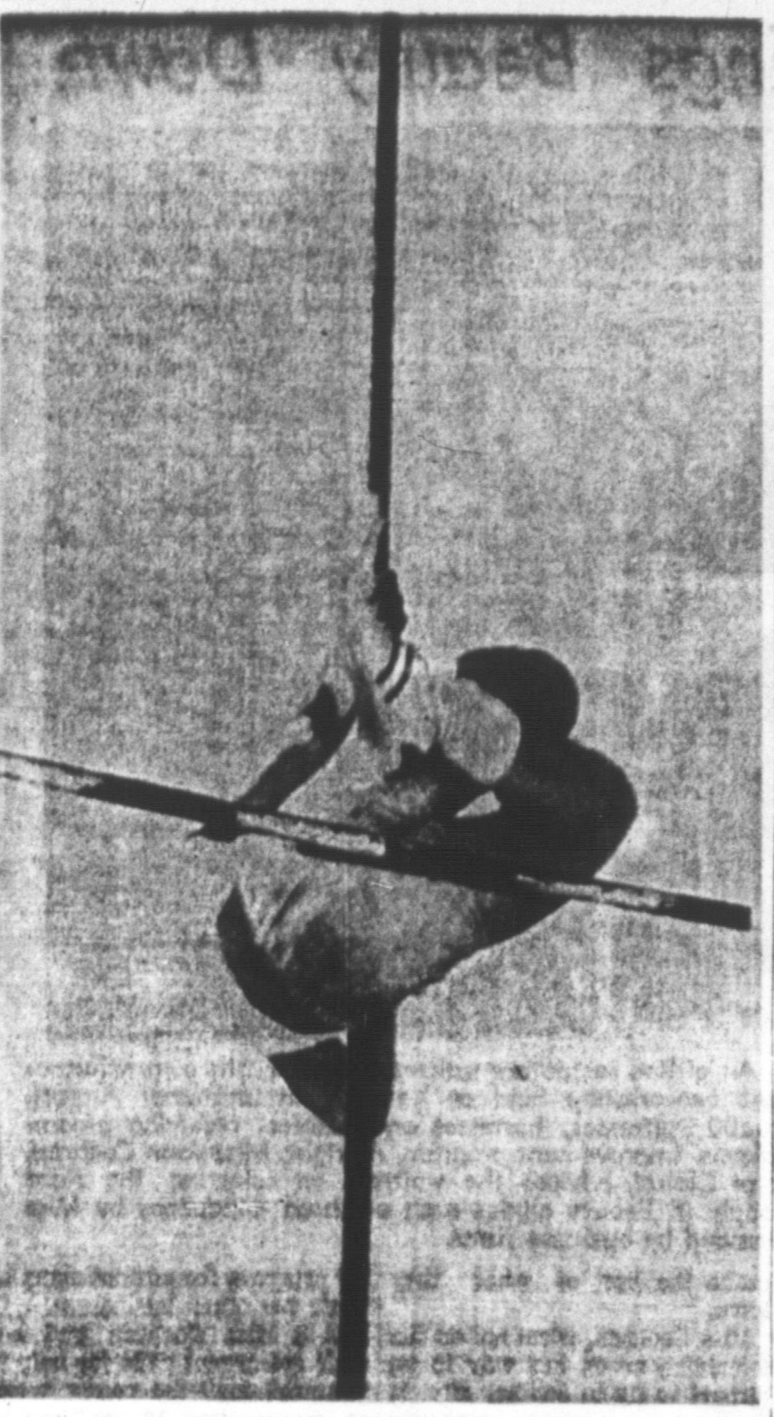

The Detroit Tigers boosted their record to 12-5 by clobbering the Atlanta Braves, 11-7 on a five-run sixth-inning highlight by Jim Northrup's bases loaded triple.

Radatz Loses Game

Dick Radatz, the one-time "monster" of the Boston Red Sox, served up a two-run homer to Curt Flood in the 10th inning that gave St. Louis a 5-3 win over the Sox.

Jim Bunning became the first Philadelphia pitcher to go nine innings as he stopped the Kansas City Athletics, 4-1 on a four-hitter. Bill White and Rich Allen each hit—their fourth homer of the spring for the Phils.

Jimmie Hall, who homered in getting back to their old ways, the fourth, raced home from

OVER THE BAR — Lee ninth grader Matt Mills goes over the bar in the pole vault Wednesday in a track and field meet held at Lee. Mills won the event with a 9-6 leap. (See Story, Other Pictures, Page 15.)

Rambling With Red
RON CROSS

Two members of the 1965-66 Harvester basketball squad have now signed their letters of intent.

David Cain, the leading scorer with a 12.2 average and Kenneth McWilliams, who finished third in scoring with an even 10 point per game average signed with the University of Texas while Cain chose McMurry college in Abilene.

Mike Wise, Pampa's second winner of the Hustling Harvester award, will probably be the next to sign.

Mike and the University of Oklahoma are talking and the Sooners could do no wrong by signing Mike.

When coach Terry Culey presented Mike the Hustling Harvester award Tuesday night at the cage banquet he said he felt that Wise truly represented the Hustling Harvester.

"He didn't gloat when we won, he didn't cry when we lost," Culey said, speaking of Wise and adding, "He never gave up, he fought for all the time and represented his team, his school and his parents well."

A letter from out-of-state couple was read to the banquet guests by Master of ceremonies Floyd Watson, who really did get off some pretty good jokes.

The letter stated that this couple happened to be in Amarillo after the Pampa-Tascosa game, won by Tascosa, and in the same restaurant as the cage team after the game.

Abe's Funny

The couple said in the letter that they talked to a number of the boys and were left with nothing but a good impression of Pampa, the boys, their parents and the basketball team itself.

Actually to our way of thinking any one of the players this season could have won the Harvester award. We never saw any of them give up or loaf.

We had the pleasure of giving some of the boys rides to road games and couldn't help but be impressed by their attitudes and the way they conducted themselves.

They didn't talk much, just studied.

Banquet speaker Abe Lemons, who should have his own TV show, a comedy, told the crowd that, "everything you've done tonight is class. You should be proud of yourselves and your athletes."

Lemons also commented on the fact that all the Harvester winners were well-groomed.

"I spoke to a banquet last night (Monday night) and I wasn't sure if I was talking to all girls or a mixed crowd," Lemons drawled.

Lemons also had a comment about the crowning of the queen, Dorothy Davis.

"I spoke to one banquet where they were going to crown a queen but all the girls in school were so ugly they decided to just forget it."

Too, Lemons had nothing but praise for his school and some of the courses offered.

Said Abe, "We have a lot of Indians at our school so we decided to start a basket weaving course. We had to give it up after a while though because all the white boys were flunking out."

Lemons told about going to a small Oklahoma town to recruit an Indian boy.

"The night I got there they were having their prom. Of course they did a lot of dancing at the prom and it rained for 142 days afterwards."

Lemons also told that Randy Matson became known as Herman Munster at the All-College tournament in Oklahoma City.

"He just has so much strength and desire he never realizes he's fouling. He just starts going and can't stop," Lemons allowed.

Clay Has Tuxedo Will Travel, U.S. Glad He Wants To

By MILTON RICHMOND TAMPA, Fla. (UPI) — Cassius Clay has tuxedo and will travel—far enough to find out that there's no place like home.

There were no wails of anguish or tears of disappointment anywhere in this country today over the fact that Clay's brain trust selected Canada as the site of his latest 15-round melodrama with hulking, heavy-limbed George Chuvavo.

The general feeling is that Canada was cordially welcome to it.

Likewise, the news that Clay's next defense may take place in London against used-up Henry Cooper also was greeted by a sudden epidemic of muffled yawns.

In moving around as he is, Clay eventually will discover he has run out of possible places to pitch his traveling medicine show. Sure, he still has such international avenues as Rome, Paris, Stockholm, Buenos Aires and Mexico City open to him but they all present a number of drawbacks.

Where The Money Is

Clay and his backers know that the big money still is in the good old U.S.A. and there's always a chance he may be the victim of a "home-town" decision any time he leaves it.

What happens then? No title, no money, no nothing.

Cassius put his foot in his mouth but good when he said the Viet Cong were no concern of his. He already has had some second thoughts about that statement and his dilemma was showing in this dressing room after the Chuvavo fight.

"Well," he said, "they wouldn't let me fight in my own country so I hadda find a place to fight."

Clay's troubles aren't only limited to countries. He's rapidly running out of opponents, too.

"After my next match, maybe I'll give George another chance, he said.

He meant Chuvavo and can't you see the frantic bidding for ancillary rights to that one, not to mention the boxing fans anywhere, even in Bombay, India, who would be trampled in the rush to the box office for ringside tickets.

Yale University was the first American school to adopt rowing — in 1843 — with a dugout canoe.

Pampa to Face Lubbock Friday

By RON CROSS News Sports Editor

The 1966 district 3-4A baseball race is shaping up as one of the best in recent years.

Only four of the 10 teams are playing under 500 ball in exhibition, which is over, and only two teams have lost two more games than they've won.

In a pre-season poll of district coaches Monterey of Lubbock was picked to win the district title with Amarillo second, Lubbock third, Tascosa fourth, Palo Duro, fifth, Pampa sixth, Plainview seventh, Borger eighth, Caprock ninth, and Coronado last.

In 10 exhibition games Plainview has emerged as the best with a 9-1 record, Tascosa is 9-2, Palo Duro 7-4, Borger 4-2, Monterey 8-5, Amarillo 6-5, Lubbock 6-7, Caprock 5-6, Pampa 3-7 and Coronado 2-10.

About the only prediction holding true is Coronado in last place.

Off course the league competition doesn't get rolling until Friday.

Pampa, an 8-1 loser to Borger Monday, plays Lubbock High Friday and then tangles with Monterey Saturday. Both games are at Lubbock.

Caprock opens on the road Saturday at Plainview; Tascosa plays at Coronado; Palo Duro and Amarillo meet and Borger plays at Lubbock Saturday and plays Monterey Friday.

Pampa coach Bobby Stephens has gotten only one outstanding pitching performance thus far, that a no-hitter by Bud Hammons against Nazareth.

Lubbock finished 18-12 last year with a 9-7 conference record, good for fourth place. The Westerners have five returning regulars and four other lettermen.

The Westerners will be hurting only in the pitching department where they have but one experienced man back, right-hander Wesley Verner.

Monterey is the 1965 district winner with a 14-2 league record and 27-9 conference record.

The Plainsmen have four regulars back and five lettermen. Pitching has been the Plainsmen problem in exhibition games.

Koufax, Drysdale Agree to Terms

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Loyalty, determination and a flare of gambler's instinct paid off in a $230,000 salary package for Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale to divide today as the highest paid pitchers in baseball history.

Breaking their 32-day holdout, the brilliant hurlers signed one-year contracts Wednesday to pitch for the Los Angeles Dodgers. It was the second "final offer" submitted by E. J. (Buzzie) Bavasi in two days, but this one added cash to the tune of $120,000 for Koufax and Drysdale $110,000. There was no official confirmation from the Dodgers of the breakdown.

Koufax thus becomes the second highest paid player in the game, trailing only Willie Mays of San Francisco, and he and Drysdale are Nos. 1-2 in the all-time pay derby for pitchers. The previous high was $85,000 for Warren Spahn.

Drysdale and Koufax promptly went to work in earnest to prepare for joining the team in Phoenix, probably on Saturday.

STANKY ALTERING SCRIPT

'Brat' Sets Goal at 100

SARASOTA, Fla. (UPI) — Every spring at this time, Al Lopez used to predict the Chicago White Sox would win the American League pennant. Lopez is no longer managing the club, however, and his successor, scrappy Eddie Stanky, is altering the script. "I like our ball club very much," Stanky says, but quickly adds, "I am not starting out by predicting a pennant. I am setting our goal at 100 to 102 victories. If that is enough for the pennant, fine. If not, we'll try to do better next year."

To those who don't know Stanky, that sounds like he might not think too highly of his team's chances. But nothing could be more wrong. "All we need," Stanky insisted, "is to come up with a pitching stopper."

Short On Power He admits the team is short on power but pointed out that in the last two years the White Sox won 193 games, more than any other club in the majors, yet failed to win the pennant. The Twins won it last year with 102 victories with the White Sox finishing second, seven games behind.

"We aren't going to overpower the other teams so we'll have to do it with pitching, defense and speed," Stanky explained.

"I'm confident we'll be all right if I can come up with a leader for our pitching staff," Stanky listed six possibilities for the pitching stopper he is looking for. Two were disappointments last season—Gary Peters (10-12) and Juan Pizarro (6-3). In 1964 they won 39 games between them, Peters getting 20 and Pizarro 19.

The others are Tommy John (14-7), John Buzhardt (13-8), Joe Horlen (13-13) and Bruce Howard (9-8).

"If any one of them can go up to be an 18-game winner we'll have the stopper we need," Stanky said.

Another starting candidate is Jack Lamabe, who was 0-5 with the Red Sox and Astros last season after winning 10 games at Toronto. Lamabe, however, is likely to be in the bullpen with the two relief workhorses of last year—Eddie Fisher (15-7) and Hoyt Wilhelm (7-7).

"The record shows we had to dip into our bullpen too often last season," Stanky said. "I'd like to have a left hander in the bullpen, too, although a south-paw relief pitcher isn't too important when you have two knuckle ballers like Fisher and Wilhelm out there."

Has Other Possibilities

John Romano will do the bulk of the catching with J. C. Martin and the veteran Smoky Burgess, the deluxe pinch-hitter, backing him up. Martin has been injured and if he shouldn't be ready to open the season Gerry McNertney will be kept to catch the knuckle balls of Fisher and Wilhelm.

The infield will be the same as in 1965 with Bill Skowron at first, Don Buford at second, Ron Hansen at short and Pete Ward at third.

The late Babe Didrikson Zaharias won 832 of the 834 contests she entered during her amateur athletic career.

Harvester Thinclads, Golfers Prep for Relay

Pampa golfers and thinclads will join 21 other schools Friday and Saturday in the 17th annual Amarillo Relays.

The Harvesters will compete in the large school division, division II while AA and B schools will make up division I.

Golf coach Weldon Trice said Thursday that George Snell, Richard Ellis, Tom Rose, Thomas Warren and Charles McKinney would represent Pampa's A team with Roach, Grady, Kelley and Osborne playing for the B team.

Track coach Jeep Webb listed his lineup for the track meet as follows:

100-yard dash — Stokes, McCampbell.

220-yard dash — Stokes, McCampbell.

440-yard dash — McCarroll, Gomez.

880-yard dash — Martindale, New.

1 mile run — Richards, Nolte.

440-relay — Stokes, Mathis, Richards, Crossland.

1 mile relay — Reed, Mathis, Richards, McCarroll.

High Jump — Bird, Rowden.

120 High Hurdles — Bird, Elledge.

180 low hurdles — Bird, Elledge.

Broad Jump — Crossland, Stokes.

Pole Vault — Troxel, Caswell.

Shot putt — Cornett, Heiskell.

Discus — Cornutt, Heiskell.

The division II golfers will be held at Amarillo Country Club while the division I golfers play at Tascosa Country Club. The golfers will tee off at 11 a.m. Friday and 8 a.m. Saturday.

The track squads will start things rolling at 12:30 p.m. Friday, 9:30 a.m. Saturday when semifinals will be run and finals are to start at 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

Busy Week On Tap for WT

Canyon—Another busy week is on tap for West Texas State athletes. The winless baseball squad opens the week's activity at Weatherford against Southwestern Oklahoma. Coach Geary Taylor's squad has lost eight in a row. The Buffaloes return home for a pair of twin bills on Friday and Saturday. Panhandle A&M is the Friday opponent; Saturday's guest is Reese Air Force Base. Both home doubleheaders start at 1:30.

WT's golfers host Panhandle A&M at the Amarillo Country Club on Thursday. The golf squad is also seeking its first win of the season, having dropped matches to Eastern New Mexico and Hardin-Simmons. Bill Rice of Sweetwater has the low total to date with a 156 for 18 holes.

In men's tennis, Hardin-Simmons comes to Canyon on Friday to try for a repeat victory over the Buffaloes. Dr. Robert Burton's WTSU squad is 1-3 for the year including a 5-1 loss to the Cowboys in Abilene.

The women's tennis team, unbeaten in a pair of dual matches, travels to the Texas Women's College Regional tournament this Friday and Saturday at Wichita Falls. Unbeaten Polly McLain of Spearman is the top-ranked member of the distaff group.

West Texas State's footballers will hold their fourth scrimmage of the spring training period in Buffalo Bowl on Saturday. It's the final one until the annual Varsity-Alumni clash set for Friday night, April 15. The Buff defense has looked as outstanding as ever this spring and the big surprise has been the running of sophomore backs Albie Owens, Gene Morris and Curley Walters. Head coach Joe Kerbel is beaming over the prospect of another fine running game to complement the passing of veteran Hank Washington in 1966.

Waistlines that have expanded under the tender ministrations of Swiss chefs will automatically snap back and the traveler will return home lean, lithe and fully approved by life insurance companies.

If this be true, even in part, it just doesn't happen by accident. The Swiss make a federal case out of training innkeepers and restaurateurs.

By LYLE WILSON
United Press International

The weakness of organized labor in its fretful demands that the Johnson administration make good on campaign promises is the fact that there is not much public sympathy for amendment of the Taft-Hartley Act.

Another weakness in the labor position, of course, is that politicians are accustomed to violating their campaign promises whenever it seems to be desirable to do so.

If the standards of common honesty expected of American businessmen were imposed on politicians, some of the politicians could be jailed on charges of dishonesty in the pursuit of votes. In fact, it would be a felony to put a copy of a presidential platform in the mails if the politicians were held to the standards required of stockbrokers and others who peddle securities to the public. The Johnson administration went through the motions of seeking repeal of Taft-Hartley Section 14B as demanded by the Democratic party's labor allies. But the heat was not on. It was quite evident that the President did not regard repeal as a matter of top urgency.

So it is that the labor moguls are muttering threats of this and that, such as rejection of the Democratic party. Such is not likely because big labor has no place to go.

Individual Republican congressional candidates would welcome labor support, of course. But the national party scarcely could accommodate itself to the policies big labor exacts in payment for its campaign contributions.

Season's Surfers Suits Are Giddy

NEW YORK — Giddy surfer suits ride ashore as the best beach bets for '66, according to a recent issue of "Seventeen".

Bare-midriff suits with short pants come in solids or polka dots, and may be laced at the sides or have bright, contrasting wax pockets. The newest surfer-storm on Hawaiian shores — just-above-the-knee pants — arrive on the mainland in two versions: frilly, all-girl "jellies" with ruffy flounces and draw-string waists; and tailored "jammies," also with a draw-string, which is a steal from the pajamas boy surfers made famous.

Other swim wear newsmakers include the banded, work-clothes and granny looks.

Glass Slippers Are Back
Cinderella's glass slippers have made the scene again. A little more up-to-date, they are made of glass fiber. Unfortunately, a prince doesn't come with every pair; you'll have to work that angle on your own.

Astrological Forecast

By CARROLL RIGHTER

FOR FRIDAY, APRIL 1
GENERAL TENDENCIES: The early part of the day will find you interested in what you want and getting others to go along with your broadest aims, but the p.m. brings deceptive, confusing and separate aspects, so do not try to continue the fast pace of the a.m. lest you have difficulties.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) — You have to have a charming attitude with others if you want to get your points across easily and accurately. Take care if you do not invest unwisely. Then you get along nicely with others but financial matters need much thought just the same.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) — Associates may have fixed ideas regarding their desires where you are concerned, but if you stick to business without deviation, all goes fine. Don't argue. Being less deals strictly on your own. Show ability.

GERMINE (May 21 to June 21) — If you first complete routine duties, you can then talk over with associates those clever ideas you have had germinating in your mind for some time. Be logical. Give a compliment here and there, wherever it is deserved.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) — Plan how to increase your income in the day ahead and be sure to adopt more economical habits right now. One who has become very successful, will give right ideas for your advancement. Contact him or her.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 23) — Almost anything you want with your personal ideas within easy reach, but don't involve close ties in the doing or getting. You are very charming at this time. Make the most of this dynamic vein.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23) — Going directly to experts in your field will bring forth the ideas you need for your betterment, but don't confuse in others, or they will grate. Careful driving is imperative. Much loss could otherwise bring real relief later.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23) — A good friend who is very much interested in you gives advice that should be followed in carrying through with present plans. Be more thoughtful of person and not be exclusively business minded.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 23) — Before laugh is best time to handle all civic and other duties of a public nature. Increase good will instead of losing it. Your career needs much improvement. Get busy and make progress.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 24 to Dec. 23) — Find a better modus operandi, and let this plan include any personal endeavors, dealings with friends, etc. Be sure to read letters thoroughly. Much good comes from them. Study your newspaper well also.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 24 to Jan. 20) — Morning is best time to do whatever will greatly please a close ally and then take it easy in the afternoon. In fact, anything of great importance is best in a.m. Enjoy relaxation tonight.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) — Come to a better understanding with partners in a.m. and later be sure not to elaborate on facts or otherwise ink others or there can be a severance of connections. Know where you stand with all. Avoid confusion.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) — Delve right into any work ahead of you and get it done efficiently during the day, so that tonight you can go over it for errors. Labor harmoniously with fellow workers. Do not argue about anything in p.m.

Don't Skimp on Sleep
Sufficient sleep is important to one's complexion health. Skimping on sleep can make your skin blotchy. It also adds dark circles under the eyes and when coupled with a poor diet plays havoc with the hair.

Mrs. Ron Riggs Feted at Shower

SKELLYTOWN (Sp) — Mrs. Ron Riggs of Pampa, the former Miss Sharron Moss of Skellytown, was honored Monday evening with a wedding shower in the Fellowship Hall of Skellytown First Baptist Church.

Hostesses were Meses Winfred Simmons, Howard Moore, J. M. Grange, Clifford Coleman, Wendell Hinton, Wayne Mathews, Edna Duniwin, Harold Crawford, Dan Holloway and Marshall Giesler.

The serving table, covered with a white lace cloth over red, was centered with a bouquet of red roses in a white milk glass bowl. A white sheet cake, decorated with two pink wedding bells with "Sharron" inscribed in one bell and "Ron" in the other, was served by Mrs. Hinton. Mrs. Simmons poured the punch.

Guests participating were Meses Addie Moss, Bob Thompson, Ron Clemenshire, Virgil Weaver, J. C. Jarvis, Jack Morton, R. L. Moore, Jessie Stevens, H. C. Boyd, Loyd Franklin, R. T. Davis, Clyde Horner, Bobby

Timely Beauty Hints

With the season's fashions featuring shorter coiffures, ears are on display. According to beauty authority, Max Factor, they should appear as smooth and feminine looking as possible.

If the skin texture of your ears, particularly the lobes, becomes roughened or chapped, massage nightly with night cream. Then, in the morning, smooth on an active moisturizer to keep them from looking dry and flaky. To create a smooth, even-toned appearance, or to veil thin-webbed veins, apply a small amount of foundation make-up to the surface of the ears. Remove any excess make-up from the ridges and whorls with a cleansing tissue, and lightly pat with creme puff make-up. When not wearing earrings, apply a touch of complexion coloring to the ear lobes to give them a beautiful shell-like glow.

Remove Old Make-up
Putting one layer of make-up over another causes clogged pores, blackheads and pimples. It also changes the color of the make-up.

Dear Abby... There's No Substitute For Telling the Truth

DEAR ABBY: We don't exactly need advice but we do need your help. My daughter, (I'll call her Maureen) became engaged to a very nice young man she'd gone through college with. He gave her a diamond and we announced their engagement at a lovely dinner party. We started making the wedding plans when Maureen told us that the young man had asked for more time to think about it because he wasn't "sure."

Maureen says she has good reason to believe there is another girl in the picture, so she returned his ring. Here's where you come in. I told Maureen not to worry, that I would write to you, and good old Abigail would help us make up a convincing story to tell people. Will you?

DEAR ABBY: I see so many letters in your column from people complaining because some of their friends or relatives don't have good table manners. I once read that when Albert Einstein wanted a good laugh, he'd curl up in a comfy chair with an etiquette book and go into hysterics. He thought the "rules of etiquette" were the funniest things ever written. So do I.

Why should there be only one "proper" way to eat a spear of asparagus? How ridiculous to judge a person on his table manners. My husband is the kindest, most gentle man in all this world, and if he wants to cut up all the meat on his plate at once, and butter a whole slice of bread and shovel it in, God bless him. He paid for it himself, which is more than you can say for a lot of society moochers.

Airline Brings Beauty Down to Earth

EARTH-BOUND BEAUTY — An airline restaurant waitress (inset) awaits a transformation as part of an intensive beauty workshop held at Kennedy International Airport, N.Y. She is one of more than 500 waitresses, hostesses and cashiers receiving grooming advice as part of an employees' improvement program. At right, Miss Joan Cochran, consumer programs manager of Clairol, advises the waitress on selecting the right shade make-up and how to apply it. Beauty clinics such as those conducted by Miss Cochran in 14 cities are in demand by business firms.

By ALICIA HART

Newspaper Enterprise Ass'n.
NEW YORK (NEA) — Competent service and good looks are synonymous with the term "airline stewardess." This has been true since the first stewardess stepped aboard a United Air Lines plane May 15, 1930.

Millions of flight miles later, the major airlines in their training schools still stress a certain "beauty" based upon wholesomeness, cleanliness, correct use of make-up and proper hair-do.

Now, one airline is bringing beauty down to earth, so to speak. Special courses for more than 500 waitresses, hostesses and cashiers who work in 14 major U. S. airport restaurants (American Airlines' Sky Chef) are nearing completion. The beauty workshops or grooming clinics represent a new phase of employee improvement, according to Joan Cochran, a smiling blonde who finds her job rewarding in teaching women to make the best of what they have.

Miss Cochran, when not on the telephone or on her way to an airport to fly to another city, is consumer programs manager for Clairol and conducts the clinics.

The hair products — cosmetic firm, like so many of its counterparts, has put its own training program for cosmeticians to work for other businesses. In 1964-65 Miss Cochran and her staff got urgent calls for help in "naturalizing" the young women representing 10 pavilions at the New York World's Fair. This success, Miss Cochran says, led to other requests from corporations for similar grooming classes. The goal is to guide women employes to look better. How? By teaching them how to use cosmetics properly and how to select hairstyles most becoming to them.

"We aim for the balanced look," Miss Cochran explains. "Our approach to each woman is like bringing a picture into balance."

On a special card the women taking part in the same course indicate their complexion, skin tone and hair color. Then Miss Cochran and her aides provide a kit with make-up co-ordinated to give each woman her own total look.

"The surprising thing we learned was that most women do not know whether they are brunettes or brownettes," she says. This makes it difficult for them to select the correct shade make-up in a store. Women also tend to have "too heavy a hand with eye make-up and pluck their eyebrows or pencil them into the wrong shape," Miss Cochran says the women were surprisingly consistent. "If they were bad in one phase of make-up, they were bad in them all."

Many of the waitresses used hair coloring or their hair was bleached or dyed.

Miss Cochran said this brought up another important point in advising any woman. "Always select a haircoloring that gives the most natural look for you. When you change your hair color, don't forget to change the color of your eyebrows." Black eyebrows with blonde hair, for example, should be softened.

Regionally the women appeared to differ little in their approach to lipstick and hair-up colors. "Unfortunately," Miss Cochran signed, "most women past 40 tend to use the first make-up shades they selected in their teens or early 20s."

She urges more women to experiment with new lipstick shades.

To women from Denver to El Paso to Cleveland to New York she made the point that men truly dislike the heavily made-up look. "A woman who works or applies for a job should realize that most of her evaluation in a job will be by men. With cosmetics today a woman can do a lot to improve her looks beyond her natural self."

OKLAHOMA BOUND — Harvester tackle Billy Quarles signed a letter of intent Wednesday with Tulsa University. Tulsa assistant Bobby Gill, (not pictured), signed Quarles to the football scholarship. Coach Eural Pamsey witnesses the signing.

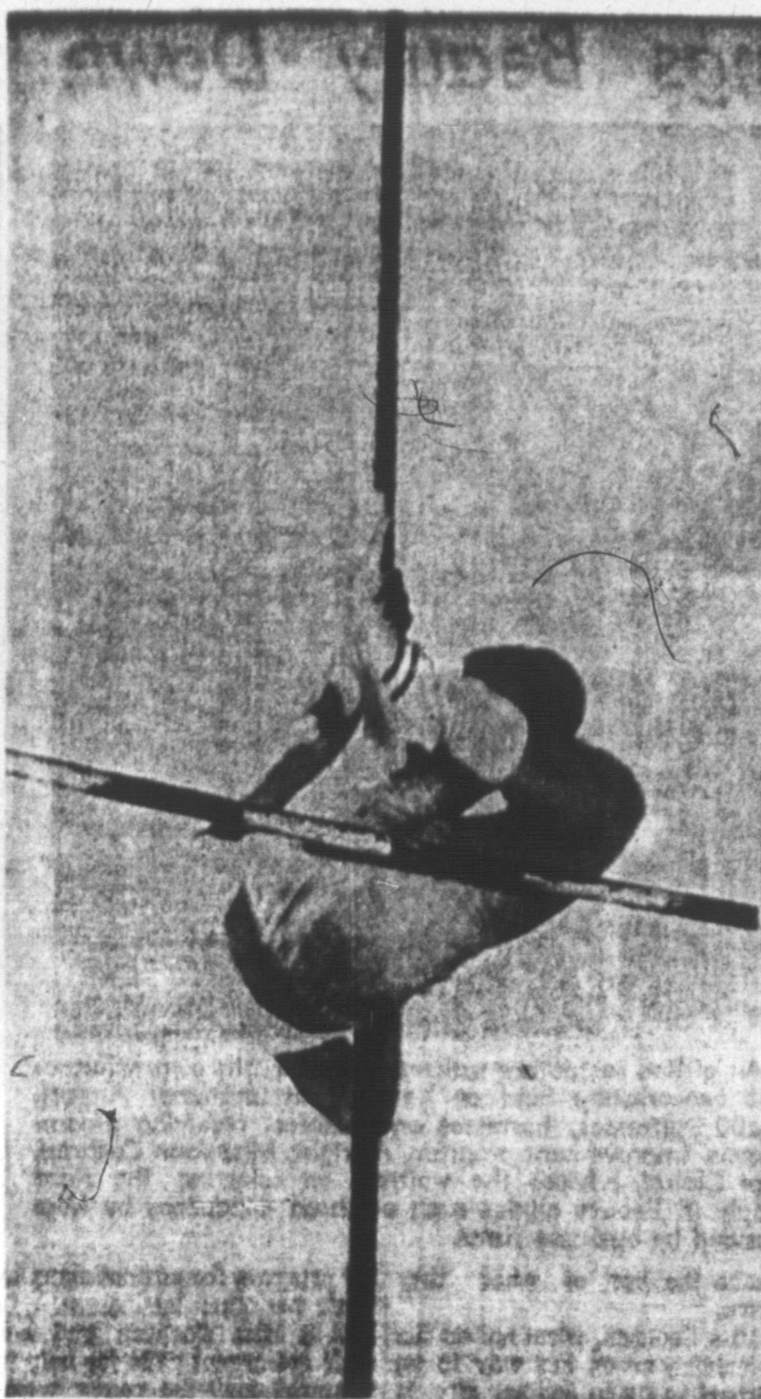

DODGER FANS CELEBRATE

Stock In L. A. Goes Up

By United States International
From Vero Beach to Brooklyn to Sunset Strip, countless Los Angeles Dodgers fans celebrated Wednesday.
The world champion Dodgers are on top of the baseball world again.
As if it wasn't enough for the Dodger faithful to have Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale back in the fold again, they also savored Claude Osteen's two-hit shutout of the Cincinnati Reds that should mean he's ready to back up the K and D combo for the second straight year.
It even prompted exuberant Los Angeles Mayor Samuel W. Yorty to send the following telegram to the mayors of major league cities: "Koufax and Drysdale have signed. The October weather in Los Angeles is ideal. I advise you to get your World Series reservations in early."
Mayor Yorty may seem a bit premature but once Koufax and Drysdale signed their 1966 contracts, the Dodgers immediately became 5-2 favorites out on the Las Vegas odds boards to repeat their 1965 miracle.
Osteen Blanks Reds
Just before Koufax and Drysdale signed their contract for a package in excess of $230,000—figured to be $120,000 for Koufax and $110,000 for Drysdale—Osteen nailed down the opening day assignment by blanking the Cincinnati Reds, 4-0.
While the Dodgers were getting back to their old ways, the New York Mets continued to act very strangely. The amazing Mets, on top of the National League Grapefruit standings with a 10-6 record, snapped the Washington Senators five-game winning streak, 5-2.

The Mets failed to get a hit off Jim Duckworth for six innings but jumped on relievers Fred Kreutzer for four runs in the seventh to sew up the victory.
The Chicago White Sox, the major's best team this spring with a 16-4 record, returned to their winning ways by snapping a two-game losing string with a 4-2 triumph over Baltimore. John Romano singled in two runs in the sixth inning to give Jack Lamabe the win.
The Detroit Tigers boosted their record to 12-5 by clobbering the Atlanta Braves, 11-7 on a five-run sixth-inning highlighted by Jim Northrup's bases loaded triple.
Radatz Loses Game
Dick Radatz, the one-time "monster" of the Boston Red Sox, served up a two-run homer to Curt Flood in the 10th inning that gave St. Louis a 5-3 win over the Sox.
Jim Bunning became the first Philadelphia pitcher to go nine innings as he stopped the Kansas City Athletics, 4-1 on a four-hitter. Bill White and Rich Allen each hit—their fourth homer of the spring for the Phils.
Jimmie Hall, who homered in the fourth, raced home from third on Bernie Allen's high bouncer in front of the plate in the top of the ninth to give the Minnesota Twins a 3-2 victory over the Houston Astros.

The San Francisco Giants, tied with St. Louis and Pittsburgh at 11-7 for second place behind the Mets in the National League, blasted the California Angels 15-3. The Giants battered starter Lew Burdette for 10 runs and 10 hits in the first two innings.
The Chicago Cubs rallied for three runs in the top of the ninth inning to hand Cleveland its sixth straight loss, 8-5. Ron Santo hit a two-run homer to cap that three-run rally.
The New York Yankees and Pittsburgh Pirates were idle.
TW's Hill Was Club's Sparkplug
By DENNE N. FREEMAN
DALLAS (UPI)—It was during a practice session and little Bobby Joe Hill was fleeing like a thief for the enemy basket.
He climaxed his drive with a behind-the-back dribble and a behind-the-back pass to roommate David Lattin for a stuff shot.
Texas Western basketball coach Don Haskins whistled the proceedings to a halt and told Hill: "Bobby, cut that stuff out. I've let you get away with more than any player I've ever coached, but I'm not going to let you pass behind your back."
It's a tribute to Hill's talent that Haskins, the defensive-minded coach who learned his basketball at Oklahoma State under Hank Iba, didn't say a word about the dribbling. He's learned to live with it.
Hill, a 5-9, 160-pound dynamo, was the driving force behind the Miners' first NCAA basketball championship and a 28-1 season.
In playoff games against Oklahoma City, Cincinnati, Kansas, Utah, and Kentucky, Hill was the sparkplug. He was never more devastating than in the Kentucky game when he swiped two balls within 10 seconds for easy layups.
The left-handed Hill was first spotted by Haskins at a junior college tournament in Hutchinson, Kan.
"I played for Burlington, Iowa," Hill said. "The coach thought I was showboating at first when he saw the behind-the-back dribble, but then he saw it's just part of the way I play."
Hill said he developed the dribble and his gymnastic drives for the basket on the playgrounds of Detroit.
"Oh, I used to watch (Bob) Cousy (former Boston Celtic star) some, but on the playgrounds somebody was always pressing you and I just learned to dribble," Hill said.
Hill suspends himself in the air when going for the bucket. Twice against Kentucky he almost fell to the floor before releasing the ball which dropped through. He also is a crack shot from outside.
His only weakness is shooting free throws.

OVER THE BAR — Lee ninth grader Matt Mills goes over the bar in the pole vault Wednesday in a track and field meet held at Lee. Mills won the event with a 9-6 leap. (See Story, Other Pictures, Page 15.)

Rambling With Red

RON CROSS

Two members of the 1965-66 Harvester basketball squad have now signed their letters of intent.
David Cain, the leading scorer with a 12.2 average and Kenneth McWilliams, who finished third in scoring with an even 10 point per game average signed with the University of Texas while Cain chose McMurry college in Abilene.
Mike Wise, Pampa's second winner of the Hustling Harvester award, will probably be the next to sign.
Mike and the University of Oklahoma are talking and the Sooners could do no wrong by signing Mike.
When coach Terry Culey presented Mike the Hustling Harvester award Tuesday night at the cage banquet he said he felt that Wise truly represented the Hustling Harvester.
"He didn't gloat when we won, he didn't cry when we lost," Culey said, speaking of Wise and adding, "He never gave up, he fought for all the time and represented his team, his school and his parents well."
A letter from out-of-state couple was read to the banquet guests by Master of ceremonies Floyd Watson, who really did get off some pretty good jokes.
The letter stated that this couple happened to be in Amarillo after the Pampa-Tasosca game, won by Tasosca, and in the same restaurant as the cage team after the game.

Abe's Funny

The couple said in the letter that they talked to a number of the boys and were left with nothing but a good impression of Pampa, the boys, their parents and the basketball team itself.
Actually to our way of thinking any one of the players this season could have won the Harvester award. We never saw any of them give up or loaf.
We had the pleasure of giving some of the boys rides to road games and couldn't help but be impressed by their attitudes and the way they conducted themselves.
They didn't talk much, just studied.
Banquet speaker Abe Lemons, who should have his own TV show, a comedy, told the crowd that, "everything you've done tonight is class. You should be proud of yourselves and your athletes."
Lemons also commented on the fact that all the Harvesters were well-groomed.
"I spoke to a banquet last night (Monday night) and I wasn't sure if I was talking to all girls or a mixed crowd," Lemons drawled.
Lemons also had a comment about the crowning of the queen, Dorothy Davis.
"I spoke to one banquet where they were going to crown a queen but all the girls in school were so ugly they decided to just forget it."
Too, Lemons had nothing but praise for his school and some of the courses offered.
Said Abe, "We have a lot of Indians at our school so we decided to start a basket weaving course. We had to give it up after a while though because all the white boys were flunking out."
Lemons told about going to a small Oklahoma town to recruit an Indian boy.
"The night I got there they were having their prom. Of course they did a lot of dancing at the prom and it rained for 142 days afterwards."
Lemons also told that Randy Matson became known as Herman Munster at the All-College tournament in Oklahoma City.
"He just has so much strength and desire he never realizes he's fouling. He just starts going and can't stop," Lemons allowed.

Clay Has Tuxedo Will Travel, U.S. Glad He Wants To

By MILTON RICHMOND
TAMPA, Fla. (UPI) — Cassius Clay has tuxedo and will travel—far enough to find out that there's no place like home.
There were no walls of anguish or tears of disappointment anywhere in this country today over the fact that Clay's brain trust selected Canada as the site of his latest 15-round melodrama with hulking, heavy-limbed George Chuvalo.
The general feeling is that Canada was cordially welcomed to it.
Likewise, the news that Clay's next defense may take place in London against used-up Henry Cooper also was greeted by a sudden epidemic of muffled yawns.
In moving around as he is, Clay eventually will discover he has run out of possible places to pitch his traveling medicine show. Sure, he still has such international avenues as Rome, Paris, Stockholm, Buenos Aires and Mexico City open to him but they all present a number of drawbacks.
Where The Money Is
Clay and his backers know that the big money still is in the good old U.S.A. and there's always a chance he may be the victim of a "home-town" decision any time he leaves it.
What happens then? No title, no money, no nothing.
Cassius put his foot in his mouth but good when he said the Viet Cong were no concern of his. He already has had some second thoughts about that statement and his dilemma was showing in this dressing room after the Chuvalo fight.
"Well," he said, "they wouldn't let me fight in my own country so I hadda find a place to fight."
Clay's troubles aren't only limited to countries. He's rapidly running out of opponents, too.
"After my next match, maybe I'll give George another chance, he said.
He meant Chuvalo and can't you see the frantic bidding for ancillary rights to that one, not to mention the boxing fans anywhere, even in Bombay, India, who would be trampled in the rush to the box office for ringside tickets.
Yale University was the first American school to adopt rowing — in 1843 — with a dugout canoe.

Pampa to Face Lubbock Friday

By RON CROSS
News Sports Editor
The 1966 district 3-4A baseball race is shaping up as one of the best in recent years.
Only four of the 10 teams are playing under .500 ball in exhibition, which is over, and only two teams have lost two more games than they've won.
In a pre-season poll of district coaches Monterey of Lubbock was picked to win the district title with Amarillo second, Lubbock third, Tasosca fourth, Palo Duro, fifth, Pampa sixth, Plainview seventh, Borger eighth, Caprock ninth, and Coronado last.
In 10 exhibition games Plainview has emerged as the best with a 9-1 record, Tasosca is 9-2, Palo Duro 7-4, Borger 4-2, Monterey 8-5, Amarillo 6-5, Lubbock 6-7, Caprock 5-6, Pampa 3-7 and Coronado 2-10.
About the only prediction holding true is Coronado in last place.
Of course the league competition doesn't get rolling until Friday.
Pampa, an 8-1 loser to Borger Monday, plays Lubbock High Friday and then tangles with Monterey Saturday. Both games are at Lubbock.
Caprock opens on the road Saturday at Plainview; Tasosca plays at Coronado; Palo Duro and Amarillo meet and Borger plays at Lubbock Saturday and plays Monterey Friday.
Pampa coach Bobby Stephens has gotten only one outstanding pitching performance thus far, that a no-hitter by Bud Hammons against Nazareth.
Lubbock finished 18-12 last year with a 9-7 conference record, good for fourth place. The Westerners have five returning regulars and four other lettermen.
The Westerners will be hurting only in the pitching department where they have but one experienced man back, right-hander Wesley Verner.
Monterey is the 1965 district winner with a 14-2 league record and 27-9 conference record.
The Plainsmen have four regulars back and five lettermen. Pitching has been the Plainsmen problem in exhibition games.

Koufax, Drysdale Agree to Terms

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Loyalty, determination and a flare of gambler's instinct paid off in a $230,000 salary package for Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale to divide today as the highest paid pitchers in baseball history.
Breaking their 32-day holdout, the brilliant hurlers signed one-year contracts Wednesday to pitch for the Los Angeles Dodgers. It was the second "final offer" submitted by E. J. (Buzzie) Bavasi in two days, but this one added cash to the tune of $120,000 for Koufax and Drysdale $110,000. There was no official confirmation from the Dodgers of the breakdown.
Koufax thus becomes the second highest paid player in the game, trailing only Willie Mays of San Francisco, and he and Drysdale are Nos. 1-2 in the all-time pay derby for pitchers. The previous high was $85,000 for Warren Spahn.
Drysdale and Koufax promptly went to work in earnest to prepare for joining the team in Phoenix, probably on Saturday.

STANKY ALTERING SCRIPT

'Brat' Sets Goal at 100

SARASOTA, Fla. (UPI) — Every spring at this time, Al Lopez used to predict the Chicago White Sox would win the American League pennant. Lopez is no longer managing the club, however, and his successor, scrappy Eddie Stanky, is altering the script. "I like our ball club very much," Stanky says, but quickly adds, "I am not starting out by predicting a pennant. I am setting our goal at 100 to 102 victories. If that is enough for the pennant, fine. If not, we'll try to do better next year."

To those who don't know Stanky, that sounds like he might not think too highly of his team's chances. But nothing could be more wrong. "All we need," Stanky insisted, "is to come up with a pitching stopper."

Short On Power He admits the team is short on power but pointed out that in the last two years the White Sox won 193 games, more than any other club in the majors, yet failed to win the pennant. The Twins won it last year with 102 victories with the White Sox finishing second, seven games behind.

"We aren't going to overpower the other teams so we'll have to do it with pitching, defense and speed," Stanky explained.

"I'm confident we'll be all right if I can come up with a leader for our pitching staff."

Stanky listed six possibilities for the pitching stopper he is looking for. Two were disappointments last season — Gary Peters (10-12) and Juan Pizarro (6-3). In 1964 they won 39 games between them, Peters getting 20 and Pizarro 19.

The others are Tommy John (14-7), John Buzhardt (13-8), Joe Horlen (13-13) and Bruce Howard (9-8).

"If any one of them can go up to be an 18-game winner we'll have the stopper we need," Stanky said.

Another starting candidate is Jack Lamabe, who was 0-5 with the Red Sox and Astros last season after winning 10 games at Toronto. Lamabe, however, is likely to be in the bullpen with the two relief workhorses of last year — Eddie Fisher (15-7) and Hoyt Wilhelm (7-7).

"The record shows we had to dip into our bullpen too often last season," Stanky said. "I'd like to have a left hander in the bullpen, too, although a southpaw relief pitcher isn't too important when you have two knuckle ballers like Fisher and Wilhelm out there."

Has Other Possibilities

John Romano will do the bulk of the catching with J. C. Martin and the veteran Smoky Burgess, the deluxe pinch-hitter, backing him up. Martin has been injured and if he shouldn't be ready to open the season Gerry McNertney will be kept to catch the knuckle balls of Fisher and Wilhelm.

The infield will be the same as in 1965 with Bill Skowron at first, Don Buford at second, Ron Hansen at short and Pete Ward at third.

The late Babe Didrikson Zaharias won 832 of the 634 contests she entered during her amateur athletic career.

Harvester Thinclads, Golfers Prep for Relay

Pampa golfers and thinclads will join 21 other schools Friday and Saturday in the 17th annual Amarillo Relays.

The Harvesters will compete in the large school division, division II while AA and B schools will make up division I.

Golf coach Weldon Trice said Thursday that George Snell, Richard Ellis, Tom Rose, Thomas Warren and Charles McKinney would represent Pampa's A team with Roach, Grady, Kelley and Osborne playing for the B team.

Track coach Jeep Webb listed his lineup for the track meet as follows:

100-yard dash — Stokes, McCampbell.
220-yard dash — Stokes, McCampbell.
440-yard dash — McCarrroll, Gomez.
880-yard dash — Martindale, New-

Busy Week On Tap for WT

Canyon — Another busy week is on tap for West Texas State athletes. The winless baseball squad opens the week's activity at Weatherford against Southwestern Oklahoma. Coach Geary Taylor's squad has lost eight in a row. The Buffaloes return home for a pair of twin bills on Friday and Saturday. Panhandle A&M is the Friday opponent; Saturday's guest is Reese Air Force Base. Both home doubleheaders start at 1:30.

WT's golfers host Panhandle A&M at the Amarillo Country Club on Thursday. The golf club is also seeking its first win of the season, having dropped matches to Eastern New Mexico and Hardin-Simmons. Bill Rice of Sweetwater has the low total to date with a 156 for 18 holes.

In men's tennis, Hardin-Simmons comes to Canyon on Friday to try for a repeat victory over the Buffaloes. Dr. Robert Burton's WTSU squad is 1-3 for the year including a 5-1 loss to the Cowboys in Abilene.

The women's tennis team, unbeaten in a pair of dual matches, travels to the Texas Women's College Regional tournament this Friday and Saturday at Wichita Falls. Unbeaten Polly McLain of Spearman is the top-ranked member of the staff group.

West Texas State's footballers will hold their fourth scrimmage of the spring training period in Buffalo Bowl on Saturday. It's the final one until the annual Varsity-Alumni clash set for Friday night, April 15. The Buff defense has looked as outstanding as ever this spring and the big surprise has been the running of sophomore backs Albie Owens, Gene Morris and Curley Watters. Head coach Joe Kerbel is beaming over the prospect of another fine running game to complement the passing of veteran Hank Washington in 1966.

The Pampa Daily News

A Watchful Newspaper

NEVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities.

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself no more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

Big Brother's Watching

So you have had reservations about all this Big Brother talk? Maybe you didn't want to believe that the federal government would ever send snoopers around to pry into local affairs. Something like that, you kept telling yourself, couldn't happen here.

Better get with it and take another look around. Big Brother is here and here to stay until the trend toward centralized government is reversed and states are permitted to handle their own affairs.

We refer to U. S. Atty. Gen. Nicholas DeB. Katzenbach's recent order to have agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation make spot checks on voter registration in 43 Texas counties.

A spokesman for the attorney general's office said lawyers in the Department of Justice felt it was their duty to keep a close watch on voter registration in Texas to be sure citizens have adequate opportunity to register.

Texas Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr, who speaks in Pampa tonight, was asked to report to the U.S. attorney general's office on such things as communications he had with tax assessors-collectors and to account for other actions taken in implementing the Texas registration law. Carr also said he was requested to give Katzenbach's office itemized reports on whether tax collectors work employees overtime and on weekends.

The whole sorry package was more than Carr could take. He hit the ceiling and sat down and got a few things off his chest in a letter to Katzenbach. The letter said, in part:

"I simply want to state to you that I know of no court order which requires me, as attorney general of Texas, to report to you for anything Texas does. Quite frankly, we feel our state is capable of handling our court affairs. Our reports will be made to the federal court hav-

A Bitter Pill for Doctors

Some 1,851 Cuban physicians, many of them former leaders in medicine in their country, now make their homes in the United States. Through the Cuban Medical Association in Exile which they have formed, they keep in touch with each other and with M. S.s still on that unhappy island.

Recently the association published a new oath which they say is now being taken by graduates of the University of Havana School of Medicine in place of the Hippocratic Oath. This is the declaration, as printed in the American Medical Association News:

"We swear, firstly, to reiterate our renunciation of the private practice of our professions and to extend to two years or more, if necessary, the Rural Medical Service as the appropriate measure for the correct placement of the medical and stomatology (science of mouth diseases) services of the people.

"Secondly: To pay back to the people with our effort, sacrifice and best work, the opportunity which was afforded to us to become professionals in this socialist Fatherland.

"Thirdly: To propel to the maximum preventive stomatology and medicine in our country and to make a reality, through our attitude, the new

Call of the Plow and Seed

We read so much about how each year it takes fewer farmers to raise more food for more people that it comes as a pleasant surprise to hear someone assert quite plainly that "no field holds more promise for young college students today than does agriculture."

According to Frank W. Luck, in charge of college recruitment for International Minerals and Chemical Corp., the bidding by business for people with Bachelor of Science degrees in agricul-ing jurisdiction over this matter and to no one else unless the court directs us to do it. You have the same right as any other citizen to see what we file with the court if the court desires you to see it."

Carr, as the saying goes, got him told on that point. Right? Right. But stay with us, there's more:

"Your assignment of the FBI," Carr continued, "to maintain surveillance over the Texas government is an insult to every public official and every citizen of Texas. No citizen of Texas, more than any citizen of any other proud state, will cover under such misuse of authority.

"If you have any complaint against Texas, state it in court—Don't threaten with the FBI. Texas will co-operate with you in every reasonable way on this or any other matter, but we will not subject this state to any humiliation resulting from an 'overlord' attitude."

It was a strong and bitter letter and signaled an open break between the Texas and U.S. attorneys general. Carr stood on constitutional and legal authority in defending the state's position. Trouble is, federal authority supersedes state authority and Katzenbach and his staff of "liberal" lawyers are probably having a good laugh over the incident.

Texas Sen. John Tower was sharply critical of the order to have the FBI check voter registration and asked Katzenbach to rescind the order, but got nowhere.

Over in the "liberal" camp in Congress, Texas Sen. Ralph Yarborough, followed the administration line. He was quoted as having said the 15-day registration period for voters who did not pay their poll taxes "is an insufficient time for so large a state."

proletarian philosophy of the medical sciences, whose aim is the welfare of man.

"Fourthly: To maintain alive in ourselves the spirit of scientific and political betterment to achieve the necessary technical excellence and training as Communists as the only way to be more useful each day to our society.

"Fifthly: Following the high principles of proletarian internationalism and imitating the example of Commander Ernesto Guevara (who has since disappeared) we are ready and willing to offer our contribution, whether it is scientific or in any other manner, to the people who struggle for their national liberation and for their political, social and economic independence.

"Sixthly: To defend with our lives this heroic Socialist and Communist Revolution. This we swear before our people and our Maximum Leader, Fidel Castro, under any circumstance, place and time. Commander-in-Chief, command. Fatherland or Death."

Only something like a central policy planning advisory committee of a people's popular democratic socialist revolutionary party could have come up with this, and it goes a long way toward explaining why 1,851 doctors have fled Cuba.

ture is becoming increasingly fierce, pushing their starting salaries correspondingly higher.

Farming encompasses far more than steering a plow today, and far from being a profession on the decline, "many companies have openings every year that go begging because not enough people are trained to fill them," says Luck.

We too often overlook the large number of jobs in agriculture-related businesses, he says. Jobs with firms making fertilizers, chemicals, farm machinery,

Straight Talk

By TOM ANDERSON

WASHINGTON, D. C. — "I was a reporter in a legislature two sessions and the same in Congress one session — and thus learned to know personally some of the smallest minds and the selfishest souls and the cowardliest hearts that God makes. . . . It could probably be shown by facts and figures that there is no distinctive native American criminal class except Congress. . . . those burglars that broke into my house recently. . . . are in jail, and if they keep on they will go to Congress. When a person starts downhill you never can tell where he's going to stop. . . ."

Mark Twain wrote the above about 60 years ago. Wonder what he'd say now? This is the first time I've visited Washington in a spell. It depresses me like an asylum with which it has much in common. Washington is doubtless the only asylum in the world where the inmates demand — and will probably get — "Home Rule".

There are, of course, some great and good (to be truly great is to be truly good) statesmen in Washington — like Senator Strom Thurmond. Twain once said: ". . . Pure, honest, incorruptible. . . such a man in politics, is like a bottle of perfume in a glue factory — it may modify the stench if it doesn't destroy it." And then there are the real stinkers like New York's Massachusetts Senator, Bobby Kennedy. The only thing I ever remember agreeing with convict-to-be Jimmy Hoffa on is his statement that "Bobby Kennedy has a police state mentality."

Bobby Kennedy, the Communists, the pro-Communists, and the anarchists scream "police brutality!" after every civil riot involving comrats, Negroes, and peaceniks. "Police brutality" is a terrible thing: last year 18,000 policemen were assaulted. (That is one out of every ten policemen in this country). Fifty-seven were murdered by criminals — or "disadvantaged" people. Demagog Robert Kennedy has said: You can't expect Negroes to obey the law when the law is their enemy."

There are 13,479 laws which I consider are my enemy — and I obey them. Whenever I can't in good conscience obey the laws of my country, I plan to leave, if I can get out. Following Kennedy's line of reasoning, why shouldn't we who oppose the Foreign Aid program, the Poverty program, the Peace Corps, our membership in the United Nations, etcetera, ad nauseam, refuse to pay taxes to support them?

The yellow reds at Berkeley burned their draft cards in front of the Draft Board, as a protest against our preventing the Dominican Republic from going the way of Cuba. I'm about ready to burn my draft card too; I've been drafted to pay for the education of these slobs, and I resent it. Even if they were decent, law-abiding, religious and patriotic youth I'd have some qualms about it. I have always questioned why those who have no children in school should be forced to pay for other people's children.

Television commentator David Pinkley told the Ohio University student body that "the decline and fall of the 50 state governments will be completed within our lifetime." That's the PLAN: one all-powerful, centralized government in Washington. The Planners say that in our complex society we no longer have the necessary money at the local level. If we don't it's because these leeches have stolen from us. Sending money to Washington so the Planners can send it back to us is a continuous transfusion in which the bureaucrats keep one-third for their own use. If we are to save and restore our constitutional Republic, we must reassume, at the local level, those rights, privileges, taxing powers, and responsibilities guaranteed by the greatest freedom document ever devised by man, the Constitution of the United States.

I'm Afraid To Try An April Fool Prank

The Doctor Says:

By DR. WAYNE BRANDSTADT
Improved Treatment Cures Deaths of Cystic Fibrosis
Cystic fibrosis is one of the so-called inborn errors of metabolism. In the past it killed more children under 15 years of age than rheumatic fever, diabetes and poliomyelitis combined. This grim picture is improving thanks to earlier diagnosis and better treatment.

Both men and women may be carriers of the gene that causes this disease without having it themselves. Since it is a recessive gene both parents must carry it and even then the probability that any child they produce will have the disease is only 1 in 4.

The victim of cystic fibrosis lacks certain enzymes or hormones necessary for normal function of sweat, mucous and digestive glands. Because the mucus in the lungs of a child with this disease is thicker than normal, the pulmonary secretions cannot drain properly and chronic lung disease is the rule. Because the pancreas fails to put out its digestive enzyme, fats are poorly digested. Malnutrition and diarrhea are the result. Puberty is often delayed. The amount of salt in the sweat is greatly increased and this has been used as the easiest means of making the diagnosis.

There is no cure for cystic fibrosis but by starting appropriate treatment in infancy many children have been enabled to mature and have a fairly normal life. The most important part of the treatment is the prevention of lung infections. This is accomplished by keeping the lungs free of thick, obstructing mucus by having the victim inhale a mist containing N-acetylcysteine. Antibiotics are also helpful.

In severe cases this substance can be used to wash out the lungs but this is a heroic measure that can usually be avoided by starting treatment before the disease has progressed so far as to make this necessary.

Pancreatic enzymes are now available to help prevent the marked loss of weight due to inability to digest fats. Because infants with cystic fibrosis have difficulty absorbing tocopherol or vitamin E they must be given this vitamin in large amounts. Recent studies have also indicated beneficial results from a combination of sex hormones, using great care to adjust the dosage to individual needs. The National Cystic Fibrosis Foundation (521 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. 10017) has helpful literature on this subject for any who are interested.

Between the Bookends

And, the professor adds, if the institution starts off its existence with adequate facilities, it is doomed from the start. "It is choked by its own perfection. It cannot take root for lack of soil. It cannot grow naturally for it is already grown. Fruitless by its very nature, it cannot even flower. When we see an example of such planning — when we are confronted for example by the building designed for the United Nations — the experts among us shake their heads sadly, draw a sheet over the corpse, and tiptoe quietly into the open air."

But the most astounding facet of "Parkinson's Law" is: Despite the fictitious experts, the non-existent research institutions, the never-really undertaken investigations that professor cites to back up his conclusions — despite all this, what he says about bureaucracy in the real world is absolutely true. His tongue may be in his cheek, but his eyes are wide open.

The Almanac

By United Press International
Today is Thursday, March 31, the 90th day of 1966 with 275 to follow.

The moon is between its first quarter and full phase. The morning star is Venus. The evening star is Jupiter. Austrian composer Franz Joseph Haydn was born on this day in 1732.

On this day in history:
In 1840, an executive order issued by President Van Buren established a 10-hour workday for government employees.
In 1850, the former vice president of the United States and senator from South Carolina, John Calhoun, died, saying: "The South, the South."
In 1918, daylight saving time went into effect throughout the nation for the first time.

BERRY'S WORLD

The American Way

By HARRY BROWNE
"Step right up folks and buy your scorecard. You can't tell the good guys from the bad guys without a scorecard."
"How can you possibly fight the evils of the world if you don't know who the evil ones are? One must be able to recite the roster of the conspirators from memory or he isn't really informed."

"Never mind the superficial issues; let's get down to cases. Who are the evil conspirators who have been plotting to control the world for centuries?"
"Well, they're all right here in the scorecard, folks. You have a complete listing of the Illuminati, the Black Hand, and the Sons of Satan. You'll learn all about the Jews, the International Bankers, the usurers who hold us all captive in debt."
"And, of course, there's a complete listing of the Communist conspiracy — the latest in a long line of anti-Christ plotters. This scorecard names names of individuals and organizations who are a part of the conspiracy. One must have this vital data or he can't fight evil effectively."

"And, for the first time, our all-new scorecard gives you the inside story on the Fabian Socialists and the members of the Council on Foreign Relations. Without this information, you might go through a whole day without recognizing one and sleep well that night."
"And that's not all. You'll learn how the Catholics are plotting to take over the world — that is, if they can overcome the Protestant plot to do the same thing. And there's a full section on the price-fixing, big business conspirators."
"Yessirree, folks, it's all right here in your handy scorecard. Step right up and buy one now before one of these age-old conspiracies succeeds and it's too late. Step right up folks. . . ."

When does the fight against conspiracies end?
Never.
Anyone who believes he is fighting for good — by fighting against bad people has taken on an endless fight. If this is what he wants — an endless fight — then he'll be happy being a crusader. But if his idea of happiness is something a little more sane and sensible, he'll find that he will never be through fighting against the "bad guys". They will always exist — just as they always have existed.

There will always be "bad" people. The remedy for that is not to investigate and expose — not to try to "wake up" the American people — not to kill off all the "bad" people. None of these goals are even possible, let alone desirable.

If you really care about your own future, if you're really concerned about threats from the "bad guys", there is only one logical approach. Recognize that none of the bad guys can possibly succeed without control of the government.
No private band of criminals could ever succeed for any length of time against free people. Every conspiracy is aimed ultimately at capturing the government and using its coercive powers to enslave.
For government is the agency of coercion — the bigger it is, the more coercive the control in the hands of the ruler. And so the biggest government is the biggest prize of the conspiracy.
You do not fight a conspiracy by asking government to be powerful enough to outlaw it or investigate it or fight it. For you are thereby making government powerful enough to be the means of your enslavement.
So throw away your scorecard, quit asking the government for favors, and direct your attention at removing the coercion that makes any conspiracy potentially dangerous.

They reported also that much of Jaime Gonzales' furniture and other belongings had been buried in the collapse, but that authorities had forbidden any efforts to salvage anything as being too dangerous.
Housing is assigned in Havana, so Jaime Gonzales went to the Housing Control Department to be allocated another home. Department officials refused. Though his house had been condemned, and though living there was prohibited, still they could not assign him another house because a part of his house hadn't collapsed yet.

After 10 days of worrying, Gonzales went back to the department to plead again. This time he was assigned a house he could not move into because it also was dangerous.
Gonzales then found a small wooden house that had been closed for months but was livable. Housing Control said no; he had to take what they assigned or go without.

Three days later, the department sent him notice he'd lost his right to the house they had allocated.
When a newspaper reporter asked questions, a high official suggested Gonzales begin over — go to his trade union again with his problem and have the union refer the matter to Housing Control a second time.

This official said Gonzales' father-in-law had made serious charges against the department and would be called to appear at a meeting which would look into his accusations.
Gonzales made another written report to the trade union. The union again referred the problem to the Housing Control Department.

The department then notified Gonzales that before a house could be allocated, his father-in-law must be summoned to a meeting so his accusations could be examined.
Several weeks went by. The remainder of the Gonzales house collapsed. No meeting had been called to air the father-in-law's charges.

At last report, the Gonzales family was still camping in the rubble of their collapsed house.

What has changed, along with growth and diversification in our economy, has been the amount of confusion and irrationality in our thinking. A certain type of mind today seems to thrive on confusion and often to create it deliberately. It is the one which popularizes the argument that a "complex society" has made common sense obsolete. All the great discoveries made by the mind of man have seemed very simple, once known. None have been the product of the confusion makers.

Hunt for Truth

By M. L. HUNT

THE CONFUSION MAKERS
If we discuss public affairs of the state of the country very often, especially with persons who are or pretend to be satisfied with conditions as they are, we have all met one particular argument. When we advance what seems to be a sensible and constructive proposal for improvement, especially in the direction of more individual liberty, we are told: "That can't be done any more. Our society has become too complex."

It certainly is obvious that a great deal more and different things are being done today than a hundred years ago. We have grown and diversified in every sense of those words. The picture of our society and economy as a whole has become more complicated and harder for some to understand. This is doubtless why so many wrong and unreasonable solutions to our problems are being offered.

But reason and common sense haven't become "more complex," because they are the same as they always were. Basic principles have not changed. Profit still encourages production. Punishment still deters crime. These and other statements about men remain true because human nature does not change.

What has changed, along with growth and diversification in our economy, has been the amount of confusion and irrationality in our thinking. A certain type of mind today seems to thrive on confusion and often to create it deliberately. It is the one which popularizes the argument that a "complex society" has made common sense obsolete. All the great discoveries made by the mind of man have seemed very simple, once known. None have been the product of the confusion makers.
