Red Viet Nam Hit By War's Fiercest Attack

LBJ Pledges US Won't Bargain Away NATO

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson has bluntly informed French President Charles de Gaulle that the United States will not bargain away the foundations of the North Atlantic Treaty Alliance (NATO) behind the backs of its other allies.

In a swift note to the French president, Johnson rejected a French proposal for immediate Washington-Paris discussions aimed at eventual liquidation of U.S. bases and supply lines in France.

De Gaulle, who is fearful that too close ties with the United States might drag France into a war it doesn't favor elsewhere in the world, wants to get rid of NATO headquarters within the next two years.

But Johnson said the other 13 NATO allies must have a voice in any such move. He also turned down De Gaulle's demand that any U.S. troops remaining on French soil after NATO headquarters are disbanded must be placed under French command.

The unusually swift and firm American response to this country's oldest ally was in reply to a French note in which De Gaulle demanded early renegotiation of a bilateral 1951 agreement covering the assignment of U.S. forces to France.

The French note reached Washington Monday. Four hours later Undersecretary of State George W. Ball called in Ambassador Charles Lucet to give him what was described as an "interim" answer.

Caution was the keynote as City Manager Jim White outlined property annexation plans to the Pampa City Commission today.

Casey Stengel Elected To Hall of Fame

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (UPI) — Casey Stengel was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame today in a startling, dramatic move which took even the 75-year-old ex-manager by surprise.

Stengel's election was announced by Ford Frick, former baseball commissioner who now heads baseball's Old-Timers Committee, which does the voting for Hall of Fame candidates dating back before 1916.

Casey is currently serving as a New York Mets vice president.

Down through the years, a baseball personality had to be in retirement at least five years before he could become eligible for the Hall of Fame, but the rule was waived last January.

Heavy Voting Reported In Bond Election

A heavier vote "than usual" was apparently being cast by Pampa voters in today's $2,900,000 city bond election.

Reports from all four polling places shortly before noon indicated that the balloting was running far ahead of voting at the same time in the last city bond election on the sewage plant in June of 1964.

At the noon hour Ward 1 reported 266 votes had been cast, Ward 2 had 196, Ward 3 had 43 and Ward 4 reported 48 votes.

Election officials would not indicate how the vote was leaning—for or against the five separate propositions on the ballot.

US Loses Four Planes In Devastating Raid

SAIGON (UPI) — A U.S. military spokesman today disclosed that Air Force and Navy planes carried out the most devastating attack of the war on Communist North Viet Nam. Four planes were lost, presumably shot down by anti-aircraft fire.

The raids were flown Monday against military and communications targets from one end of the country to the other. They came as American and South Vietnamese ground forces wound up one of the most successful campaigns of the war in the South.

The four planes lost, all from the Air Force, were two F105 Thunderchiefs and two F101 reconnaissance aircraft. All went down in the panhandle region along the southeast coast.

The U.S. spokesman under security regulations could not reveal the number of sorties flown in Monday's raids but said the individual strikes were the most ever over the North. The previous known high was 2 sorties in a single day.

U.S. Marines and Vietnamese troops today ended Operation Utah which trapped the 26th North Vietnamese Regiment in a valley 30 miles northeast of Saigon. A spokesman said about 1,100 Communist troops were estimated killed since last Friday, 556 confirmed by body count.

The Thunderchiefs dodged heavy ground fire to unleash bombs and rockets on the target. They triggered a mushrooming secondary explosion that sent dark red flames into the sky and a smoke cloud rising 4,000 feet. Pilots said hundreds of thousands of gallons of fuel stores were destroyed.

Other planes attacked a Surface-to-Air (SAM) missile site 22 miles west of coastal Thanh Hoa. Pilots of F100 Super Sabres, F5 Freedom Fighters and F4C Phantoms struck roads leading into the region.

No SAM missiles were sighted during the attacks. The North Vietnamese fired the Soviet-built rockets at American planes Saturday and Sunday.

One of the Thunderchiefs dodged heavy ground fire to unleash bombs and rockets on the target. They triggered a mushrooming secondary explosion that sent dark red flames into the sky and a smoke cloud rising 4,000 feet.

Pampa Youth Shows Grand Champ Calf

By BOB CORTNER, Daily News Reporter

Contestants, judges and spectators of the Top O' Texas Stock Show now in progress in Recreation Park "put on the feed bag" tonight with two banquets scheduled.

Following completion of the FFA Livestock Judging Contest and Judging of Hereford Breeding Cattle at the Show Barn today, the Livestock Judging Banquet is scheduled for 5 p.m. at the Pampa Senior High School.

A second banquet, the Hereford Breeder's Banquet in the Starlight Room, Coronado Inn, is slated at 7:30 p.m.

The FFA Livestock Judging Contest began at 9:30 a.m. today at the Show Barn with the Judging of Hereford Breeding Cattle at 1 p.m.

In Monday's judging of fat calves, T. Rogers Jr.'s 1,115-pound heavyweight Hereford was named Grand Champion. Rogers is a Pampa youth.

Reserve Grand Champion honors were awarded Mike Long of McLean for his 843-pound medium weight Hereford.

300 Teachers To Attend Amarillo Education Meet

Approximately 300 Pampa public school teachers will go to Amarillo Friday for the annual convention of the Northwest Conference for Education, District 9, of the Texas State Teachers Association.

Floyd Sackett, assistant principal of Robert E. Lee Junior High School and president of the Gray-Roberts County Unit of District 9, said today another 180 teachers would attend from Roberts County. Approximately 3,000 area teachers are expected to converge on Municipal Auditorium in Amarillo for the one-day session.

The convention will climax Texas Education Week in the Panhandle and the convention theme will be "Education For Peace and World Understanding."

Principal speaker at the convention will be Joseph E. Burger of Pasadena, Calif., director of sales and public relations for the H. V. Nootbaar Co. Topic of his address will be "How to Get Better."

Various sectional meetings are scheduled throughout the day with area teachers taking leading roles in the educational discussions.

The Gray-Roberts Unit, Sackett said, will send 15 delegates to (See TEACHERS, Page 3)

DUBOIS CLUB—THE BOYS CLUB Boys Club of US Harassed Because of Name Similarity

NEW YORK (UPI) — The brick through your window... Boys Club of America reported said Edward J. Stapleton, public information director of being confused with the W. E. B. Dubois Clubs of America.

The confusion arose because of radio and television news accounts involving the Dubois Clubs. Last week the Justice Department acted in Washington to require the Dubois Clubs to register as a Communist front group and on Sunday an explosion damaged the national headquarters in San Francisco of the youth group.

"People have been calling us and saying, 'don't expect me to give you another dime' or 'maybe I ought to throw a

Billie Sol Estes Making Good Adjustment to Prison Life

DALLAS (UPI) — Billie Sol Estes, who ran a multi-million dollar phantom fertilizer tank racket in West Texas, is making a "moderately good adjustment" to prison life in Leavenworth Penitentiary, according to reliable reports.

Estes, 41, has been in the penitentiary in Kansas just over a year. He causes no trouble and works daily at manual labor in a warehouse.

He still suffers to some extent from the shock of being a federal convict and having to face up to the realities of a 15-year prison sentence, but his outlook is improving.

Estes once held together a flimsy $50 million empire from a headquarters in Pecos, Tex., by getting hundreds of farmers to sign mortgages for anhydrous fertilizer tanks that were never made.

The farmers got a bonus for "buying." Estes promised to send them enough money every month to pay off their notes. He discounted the mortgages to finance companies and used the money to buy tanks to store surplus government grain.

The finance companies eventually got wind of what was going on and blew the whistle. Estes, a church deacon and a pillar of morality, was arrested in March, 1962, and driven into bankruptcy.

WEATHER PAMPA AND VICINITY—Continued fair through Wednesday.

EXPERTS ASSESS THE RED GIANT China Will Not Enter Viet Unless Pushed

EDITORS' NOTE: Over the next weeks Communist China — its power, influence and potential — will be the subject of intensive congressional scrutiny. UPI correspondents Stewart Hensley and Charles W. Corddry in Washington and Kim Willenson in Tokyo contributed to the following assessment of Red China today.

take a look today at a giant whose shadow looms over Asia and indeed the world. No one really knows for sure how strong Communist China is, or what it wants to do with its strength. What is known is only that it roars angrily and represents an enormous number of people — more than 700 million.

Except for the border foray against India in the summer of 1962, Chinese troops have not fought outside their country since the Korean war ended 12 years ago.

JUDGING — Preparing for today's FFA Judging Contest are Clinton Williams, left, Walter Labay, center, area superintendent of vocational agriculture, of Plainview, and John Dwyer, vocational agriculture teacher of Quail. The contest was held in conjunction with the Top O' Texas Livestock Show. The contest attracted about 200 FFA youths from a six-county area.

Foreign Commentary

UPI Foreign News Analyst
In Addis Ababa, where delegates to the Organization of African Unity were displaying just the opposite, there were some who mourned the political passing of Kwame Nkrumah, life-time president, "redeemer," "savior," "conqueror" and "his messianic majesty" of Ghana.

The delegate from Zambia praised Nkrumah's "unparalleled and unforgettable" contributions to African independence.

His overthrow, said the Zambian, "brought joy to the imperialists."

In Conakry, Guinea, President Sekou Toure offered his close friend the solace of a 21-gun salute and an honorary presidency of Guinea.

No Ghanaian mourners But if outside Ghana's borders, in Moscow, in Peking and among extremist leaders of African independence there was regret, there appeared to be none within.

The larger-than-life status of Nkrumah outside the parliament building in the Ghanaian capital of Accra lay smashed to bits. The neon sign emblazoning his name over Accra's Nkrumah square flickered out.

From Ghana's principal cities, unoccupied by either police or troops, from tribal chiefs, student groups and labor unions came unsolicited messages of support for the military leaders who had engineered Nkrumah's downfall. The United States, waiting barely a decent interval, recognized the new regime, as did Britain.

Thus was written the political obituary of Kwame Nkrumah, the man who had it all and lost it.

An Inspiration An African leader with an eye to the future perhaps described Nkrumah best in two sentences . . .

"A great inspiration to all nationalists still struggling for independence in this continent. But Dr. Nkrumah is too ambitious and too reckless and he mistakenly believes that he is the only top leader in black Africa."

Marxist Nkrumah sought a unified Africa with himself at its head. Against his neighbors he fostered subversion and gave refuge to political exiles. He scorned the United States and other nations of the West although gladly taking their aid.

He carried the favor of Moscow and Peking and from the Russians received the Lenin Peace Prize.

He called the World Bank an instrument of neo-colonialism but sought its help to save him from bankruptcy.

Criticizes U. S. The Peace Corps, he said, was an instrument of the CIA. And, while in his latest book "Neo-colonialism, The Last Stage of Imperialism," he castigated the United States, he sought at the same time $127 million in surplus foods.

And if it was Nkrumah's overwhelming conceit and ambition that led to his downfall, it is this also that tempers joy in Accra.

Ghana, which started as a nation rich in resources and with $550 million in foreign reserves nine years ago, is $1 billion in debt today because of this.

The great new Volta Dam pours out thousands of kilowatts of power to factories without raw materials. A $10 million structure of glass and concrete stands as a monument to African unity and was used but once.

And, as Russian and Chinese technicians depart, the new government of Ghana is turning toward the West because it must.

U.S. senators considering improvement of presidential Electoral College machinery should beware of reform devices which would weaken or destroy the two-party system.

Sen. Spessard Holland, D-Fla., should take another look at his own reform proposal presented last week to a Senate subcommittee.

Holland proposed that the electoral votes of each state be divided among candidates in proportion to the popular votes received by the candidates.

In terms of political science, that is a system defined as proportional representation — PR for short. The United States should avoid proportional representation as it would avoid pestilence. PR invites and almost compels the proliferation of splinter political groups.

It cannot be argued that the United States has now a precise two-party system. There are likely to be half a dozen or more candidates on any presidential ballot. But these splinter groups are substantially impotent without PR.

Splinter parties with candidates in one or more states in 1960 included: Socialist-Labor, Prohibition, National States Rights, Social Workers, Conservative, Constitution, Independent Afro-American, Independent American, Industrial Government and Tax Cut. Ridiculous? Perhaps.

But under a PR system a splinter candidate would have some chance to pick up electoral votes here and there. Out of that easily could develop a situation in which a third party or a coalition of splinter parties would have balance-of-power importance if no presidential candidate won a majority in the Electoral College.

Knights Lodge To Sponsor Poster Contest

Glen H. Day, Chancellor Commander of Pampa Lodge No. 480, Knights of Pythias, said today the Lodge will again sponsor a highway safety poster contest through high school.

The contest is a part of the Knights of Pythias highway courtesy and Safety Program and prizes will be awarded for the best posters submitted.

This is the sixth Annual Knights of Pythias poster contest and it will close April 30th. Chairman of the local contest committee is J. C. Hopkins of 2124 Coffee. Knight Hopkins has headed this contest the last three years. The poster of Miss Gail Donaldson, an art student of Mrs. Floyd Skett, art teacher in the Pampa High School, won first place in Texas and seventh in the National Contest last year. Any Student wishing to enter a poster, in this contest please contact your art teacher or Knight J. C. Hopkins.

Some US Officials Fear War With Reds

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Some American officials expect the struggle in Viet Nam to mushroom into a war with Communist China, according to Sen. J. William Fulbright.

The senator, chairman of the foreign relations committee, said also that some government experts believe the leaders of Red China expect to be at war with the United States in a year's time.

Fulbright's statements were made in a speech in which he aired his concern over the possibility of a war against China's millions. "It is essential that we do all that can be done to prevent that calamity," he said.

The speech was written for delivery before the Senate today, but the Arkansas Democrat released his text a day in advance. His committee is scheduled to begin hearings on Communist China Tuesday.

"It is the view of certain China experts in our government that the Chinese leaders themselves expect to be at war with the United States within a year, and it is clear that some of our own officials also expect a war with China," Fulbright said.

He said this was despite the fact that "some of our military experts are confident China will not enter the war in Viet Nam."

"The danger of war between China and America is real because an 'open-ended' war in Viet Nam can bring the two great powers into conflict with each other, by accident or design, at almost any time," Fulbright said.

He said also that such a war was a real threat "because China is ruled by ideological dogmatists who will soon have nuclear weapons at their disposal and who are intensely hostile to the United States."

Fulbright said as the "first step toward altering the fatal expectancy of war" the United States should make "a concerted effort to understand the Chinese people and their leaders." Toward that end, he said his committee's hearings would be aimed at learning more about China.

College Professor Defends Morals Of Students

NEW YORK (UPI)—The rise in sexual promiscuity among today's youth doesn't necessarily indicate a collapse in their morals, a Columbia University psychoanalyst maintained Monday.

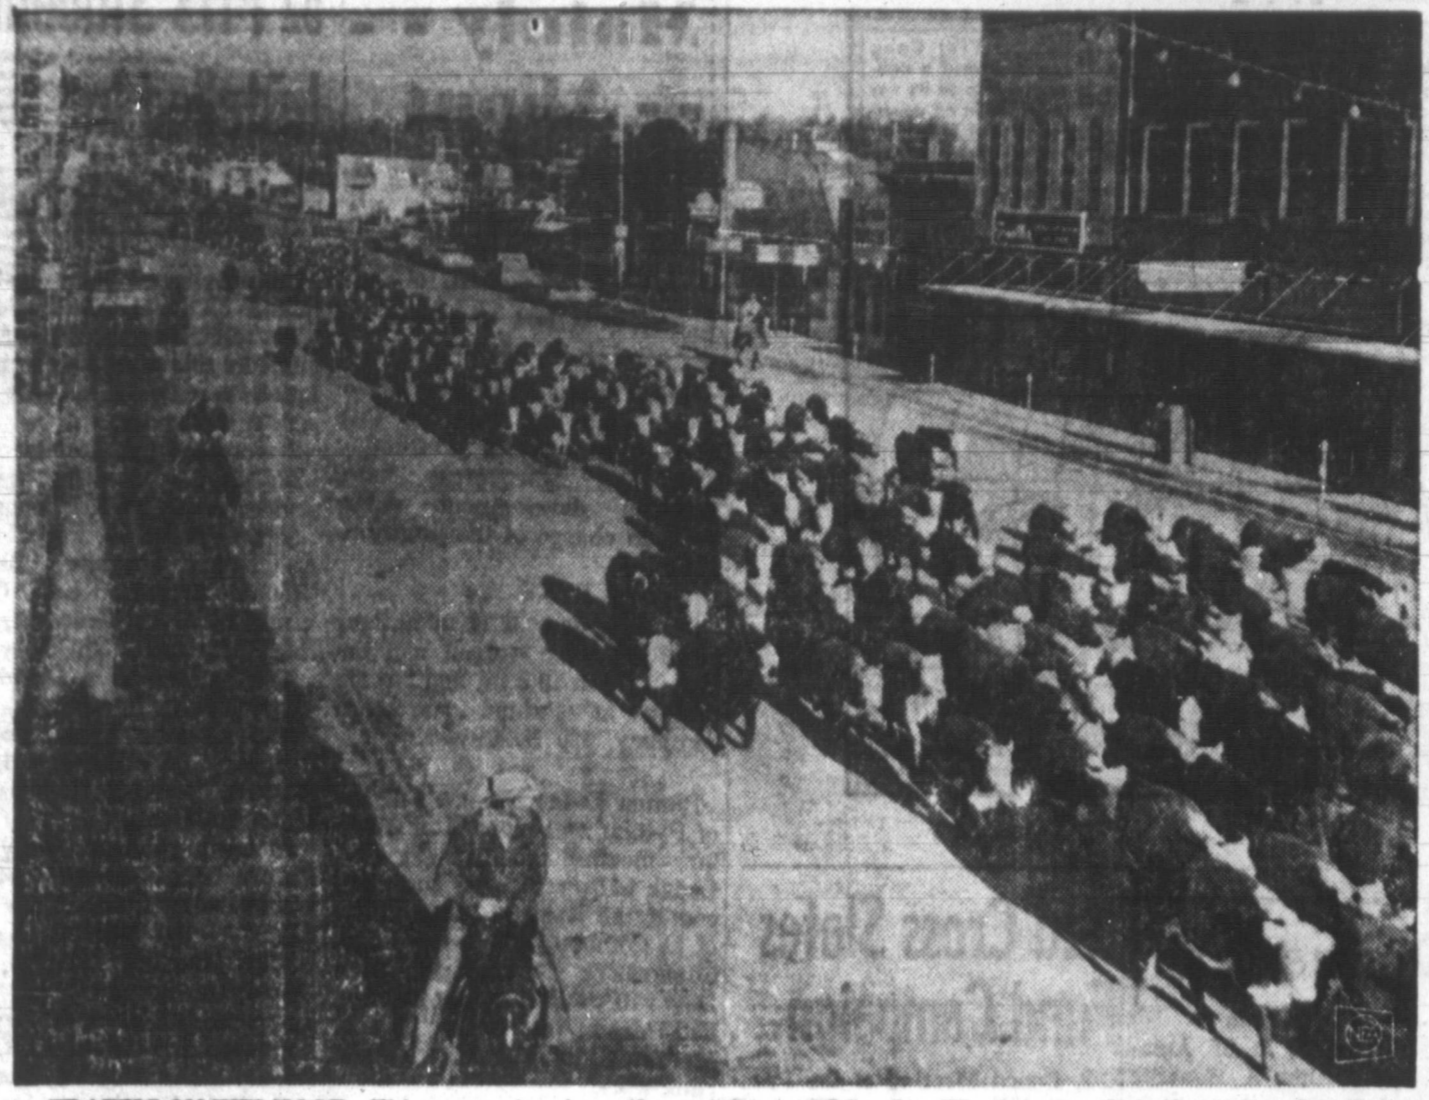

Dr. Morton S. Eisenberg made his remarks before the annual conference on sexual behavior and social ethics of the Child Study Association of America.

In place of strict, authoritarian moral restrictions, Dr. Eisenberg said, young people, particularly college students, are developing a morality based on independent thinking and the actions and beliefs of others around them.

Thus, he continued, youngsters in America now are using more independent judgement in regulating their sexual relations. Frequently they approve of pre-marital sexual relations in cases where the relationship is serious and destined for ultimate marriage.

The Statue of Liberty was dedicated Oct. 28, 1886.

Man in Fair Condition After Heart Operation

DALLAS (UPI)—Roy G. Moreau, 37, of Artesia, N. M., was in fair condition today — one week after doctors saved his life with delicate heart surgery.

FALLS TO RUIN

EUREKA, Calif. (UPI)—When police found Donald H. Curry, 40, sprawled beside a fallen power pole with a broken hip and wrist and head injuries, they promptly arrested him.

The charge: Cutting down electric power lines and selling the copper wire. Police said Curry apparently climbed a rotten pole to get at the wire and it broke under his weight.

Doctors say he is now "doing fine" and has been removed from the intensive care unit of Baylor Medical Center. They would not speculate when Moreau will be well enough to leave the hospital.

The Lighter Side

By DICK WEST
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI)—One of the major new industries now operating at peak capacity is the spy fiction factory, which turns out material for books, movies and television.

It produces three basic models: The spy story, the spy story parody, and the parody of the spy story parody. Some have interchangeable parts.

At the end of the assembly line, which stops on Rain Lily Road in Levittown, Pa., squats the turnpike figure of Sol Weinstein, creator of secret agent OY-OY-7.

Two original paperbacks, "Loxinger" and "Matsoball," have established Weinstein as the literary giant in drug stores, corner delicatessens and other cultural centers.

A Great Tribute
Even at the almost prohibitive price of $1 each, his books have sold around 2,000,000 copies. This is a great tribute to his writing style, which appeals primarily to intellectuals.

It is well known that intellectuals rarely pay more than 98 cents for a book. Weinstein hopes that his works eventually will be reprinted in hard cover editions, thus making them available to a mass audience.

I had a talk with the author this week when he came down from Levittown to soak up atmosphere for his third book, "On The Secret Service of His Majesty, The Queen."

Weinstein explained that he had just about exhausted all of the atmosphere in Levittown.

He and I drove past the Russian Embassy, the CIA headquarters, the FBI headquarters, the Indian Claims Commission, the Railroad Retirement Board and other atmospheric places.

As he made notes, I asked him how he, a former newspaperman, happened to start writing spy thrillers.

"There isn't much else to do in Levittown," he said, leaving me to puzzle over the hidden comment.

I said, "The hero of your books, Israel Bond, is handsome, debonair, cold-blooded and utterly fearless except when he is in danger. Since first novels are usually autobiographical, do you mind if I ask if you created him in your own image?"

Weinstein's dewlaps stiffened at the question and a twisted, ironic little smile flitted across his chubby face.

"Let's just say that when the chips are down you can count on me to chicken out," came his steely-voiced reply.

Britain to Triple Viet Nam Troops
SAIGON (UPI)—Australia has agreed to triple the number of its combat troops in Viet Nam, the government said tonight. It would bring Aussie strength here to a 4,500-man force.

The Vietnamese ministry of foreign affairs said Australia was complying with a request for additional troops made in a recent letter to Prime Minister Harold Holt from his Vietnamese counterpart, Nguyen Cao Ky.

At present, Australia maintains a force of about 1,500 men in Viet Nam. The main element, the 1st battalion of the Royal Australian Regiment, is due to be relieved in May.

Under the new agreement, the battalion will be replaced by an Australian task force of 4,500 personnel.

This Week In Business

By LEROY POPE
United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI) — The United States is one of the few countries in the world without a minister of transportation and President Johnson proposed this week that Congress create one without delay.

He suggested that the Federal Aviation Agency, the Maritime Administration and the Bureau of Public Roads be put under the new cabinet secretary's jurisdiction, along with some of the functions of the interstate commerce commission, presumably.

Johnson handed another segment of the transport industry something to think carefully about by proposing a national automobile safety law with teeth. He suggested the auto companies be given two years to come up with improved voluntary standards for safer cars, to be given the force of law.

On the subject of transport, an ICC examiner recommended that Chicago & Great Western Railway be merged into the Chicago & North Western to create a unified system serving 11 western states.

These proposals came during a week of generally good business news dampened by more warnings of inflationary dangers and by some declines in sales and output in the auto industry.

Leukemia Benefit Is Set March 17

Elizabeth Peabody will be featured in a benefit performance of a musical interpretative revue in the Starlight Room of the Coronado Inn at 8 p.m. Thursday, March 17.

All proceeds from ticket sales will go to the Wadley Leukemia Research Center in Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. Peabody who has done stage, radio, and television and has appeared previously in Pampa and New York will present "Funny Girl," the off-stage life of Fanny Brice.

"Funny Girl" was first presented at the Winter Garden Theater in New York City two years ago, starring Barbra Streisand and Sydney Chaplin. Mrs. Peabody will be accompanied on the organ by Mrs. George Soderstrom, organist at First Methodist Church in Dallas and a member of the American Guild of Organists.

Tickets for the performance can be secured from Mrs. J. E. Leverich, MO 4-6549.

Ants have been living in miniature cities for more than 80 million years.

Giraffes sleep only a few hours each night, usually with heads held erect.

EASE INFO FLOW

Washington (UPI) — The National Academy of Sciences and the National Academy of Engineering have established a new committee to help deal with the "information explosion" which threatens to slow progress in science and technology.

The two academies announced Monday that, at the request of the National Science Foundation, they have set up a "clearing house" to improve the flow of information among public and private organizations and federal agencies, at home and overseas.

The committee will be checked by the FBI to report immediately any delay caused by FBI surveillance.

Will Do Duty

"Regardless of this insult (the FBI check) to the integrity of our state, we must, and will, do our duty."

"If Mr. Katzenbach's FBI agents interfere in the performance of your lawful duties or if their actions in any way intimidate you so that you are deterred or delayed in any way in rendering full and adequate facilities and services to your registrants, please notify me immediately."

Yarborough told the Senate "vast and beneficial changes have been obtained already by the sending of FBI agents to Texas and Atty. Gen. Katzenbach is to be commended for his action in aiding the (federal) court in sending them there."

"Connally, Carr et al are fighting the basic right of people to vote," Yarborough concluded.

Connally and Yarborough have been political enemies for years.

Governor, Carr Blasted in Talk By Yarborough

AUSTIN (UPI) — The battle of words over FBI checks into free voter registration raged in Austin and Washington Monday.

Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex. took to the Senate floor to blast Gov. John Connally and state Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr for acting "in a shocking and creditable manner."

Yarborough said the decision of U.S. Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach to use FBI agents to check on the 15-day registration period set up after the poll tax was outlawed in Texas had already produced "vastly beneficial effect."

The senator's remarks drew retorts from both Connally and Carr.

Not Surprised

"I am not at all surprised at Senator Yarborough's comments today," Connally said. "Whether there is a dispute between the people of Texas and a federal official, you can always depend upon Senator Yarborough siding with federal bureaucracy—even if its actions have overtones of a police state."

Carr, who last week called Katzenbach's actions "insulting" echoed the governor.

"If Senator Yarborough approves of FBI surveillance of his state, that's his business. I'll defend Texas from this kind of abuse until hell freezes over."

Carr asked the tax assessors of the 43 counties to be checked by the FBI to report immediately any delay caused by FBI surveillance.

Television in Review

By RICK DU BROW
United Press International

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—It seems incredible, but as of now, CBS-TV's "The Twentieth Century," one of the better television programs, won't return next season because the network can't find a place for it.

The network has no trouble finding a place for "The Beverly Hillbillies," "The Wild Wild West" or "Hogan's Heroes," a comedy set in a Nazi prison camp—but "The Twentieth Century" has the misfortune to interfere with football.

The news about "The Twentieth Century," a weekly Sunday evening half-hour public affairs series, was more or less buried during the recent squabble at CBS when Fred Friendly, president of the news division, quit because the network preferred one day to show "Lucy" reruns rather than live coverage of Senate hearings on Viet Nam.

Football—pro football—is, of course, pure gold at the cashbox for television. And "The Twentieth Century" is, in a sense, a victim of the network's decision a while back to broadcast Sunday doubleheaders of National Football League games. The public affairs series got on the air pretty late in the season during the current semester, and things weren't about to change in the future. With all the football twin bills, "The Twentieth Century" wouldn't get on the air until January. The season starts in September. The sponsor of the series understandably didn't like the arrangement, and this was certainly a factor in its decision to pull out.

As usual, one can hazard a guess from past experience and standard procedure throughout television that the network may well announce that the bright gentlemen who turned out "The Twentieth Century" for nine years will be engaged in future projects, and this may well be so. But in television, as elsewhere, a task in hand is worth two in prospect. And there is little reason to believe that video, whose public affairs programming on a regular basis has been slowly drying up, will suddenly start blossoming again dramatically.

The other networks needn't snicker at CBS-TV's recent trouble either. For at least that organization continues to maintain video's only regularly-scheduled one-hour prime-time news slot: "CBS Reports," which, intermingled with "Town Meeting of the World" specials and other documentaries, makes it the most respectable prime-time hour on the networks. ABC-TV has the weekly half-hour, "ABC Scope," which it unfortunately doesn't have the muscle to force more of the network's affiliates to use. And NBC-TV, which prides itself on news, doesn't have a prime-time public affairs series.

The Channel Swim: CBS-TV's two-hour adaptation of "Death of a Salesman," now set for May 8 and starring Lee J. Cobb and Mildred Dumnock, will be fully sponsored by Xerox Corp., and there will be half the usual number of commercials.

Police Report On Lions Turns Out to Be True

MONTEREY PARK, Calif. (UPI)—The caller wasn't lying when he telephoned police saying, "I don't want you to think I've been drinking or anything like that, but I just saw myself a lion looking out from the back seat of a car."

Police went to the scene and apologized to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Connors, explaining that "police have to check out all sorts of nutty reports."

Mrs. Connors replied that the "nutty report" was correct. In fact, there were four lions sitting in a car belonging to friends, John Elrod, 26, and his wife, Lesley, 21.

The Elrods of Nutwood Street in Anaheim, Calif., were en route Sunday to the desert with their pets—Tawny, Taussy, Henri and Sampson—when their car developed trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Elrod decided to stop at the home of the Connors, where the unidentified motorist saw the lions and telephoned police.

Laredo to Get Largest Poverty Grant

AUSTIN (UPI)—Laredo will get the largest grant for war on poverty funds of any city in the Southwest.

William H. Crook, office of Economic Opportunity regional director told Rep. Eligio (Kika) de la Garza, D-Tex. Monday the city will receive $2,050,000 during the current fiscal year.

Crook said the decision to conduct an all-out coordinated war on poverty in Laredo resulted from a series of visits to the city.

He said the visits showed that Laredo's economic development was so low that job creation must take priority over job training.

He said there are only 15,000 taxpayers out of the population of 65,000 and that half pay almost nothing.

Crook said the city's health problems are staggering with

TWO CONFIRMATIONS
WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Senate has confirmed the promotion of Maj. Gen Lewis W. Walt, commander of U.S. Marines in Viet Nam, to the rank of lieutenant general.

Also confirmed Monday was the nomination of Charles F. Baird as an assistant secretary of the Navy to succeed Victor M. Longstreet.

ADD TO TIME
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Legislation to extend the rights of servicemen to their old jobs is up for Senate consideration after passage in the House Monday.

Under present law a serviceman can get his old job back if he has served no longer than four years. The present bill would add another year if the serviceman voluntarily extends his tour of duty.

KUCHEL SATISFACTORY
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Senate Republican Whip Thomas H. Kuchel of California is reported "progressing normally" at Walter Reed Army Hospital.

The 55-year-old senator underwent an operation for the removal of his gall bladder. He is expected to be hospitalized for about two weeks.

If the first part of your vehicle identification number is here, you might be a winner.

Here's how it works. Look at the first symbols (the prefix) on your vehicle identification slip. Then look at the symbols listed above. If you find yours on the list, you've taken the first step toward being a winner. Now go see your Buick dealer. He has a list of 72 winners posted in his showroom. If you see your entire vehicle identification number on the poster—the symbols plus the rest of the number—$2332 cash is yours. (If your prefix isn't listed in this ad, don't give up. Your numbers may have been posted during the past few weeks. And every week there are 72 new winners posted on the showroom wall. So watch for next week's list of new symbols in this newspaper.) No slogan to invent, no puzzles to solve. In fact, you don't even have to own a Buick to have a winning number. While you're in the showroom, get a good look at the Buick Special. The $2332.00* happens to be its price. *Manufacturer's suggested retail price. Excludes Federal Excise Tax and suggested dealer delivery and handling charge.

Contest Rules: Residents of Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska may, if they prefer, send in a postcard to R. L. Polk and Co., P.O. Box 1347, Detroit, Michigan 48231 and receive the weekly list of winning numbers by mail for comparison with their own vehicle identification number. An official entry form will be included. Sweepstakes limited to persons over 21 living in the continental U.S. Not valid in Florida or states where prohibited by law.

OLEN'S TUNE-UP BRAKE AND ELECTRIC 310 N. Ward specialize in expert care for your car. Be sure you can stop... before you start, is often heard, but not often heeded. Drive down to Olen's today and have him give your brakes a thorough check... you will be right instead of dead if you do.

Olen's Garage Wants To Test Brakes In Your Auto

Who's being taken for a ride on bum brakes? Are you? With the high speeds that are demanded today it will pay you to be doubly sure of your brakes.

Drive down to Olen's Tune-Up, Brake and Electric and have him go over all your brakes before you drive any farther. If you can STOP, it might save you from a bad wreck. So, make sure your car Can Stop, drive round to Olen's today. Do your tires show excessive wear, does your front end shimmy, wobble or weave? If these things are happening to you, then your car needs to have Olen check it out on his Alemite cross-sight wheel aligner. Why take chances with your safety... Ten can check out your cars front end and put it back in first class order as per exact specifications.

It's tune-up time. Have your motor's condition checked now while you wait with new TV Engine analyzer. See for yourself the condition of your plugs, coil, distributor, timing etc. All tests made with engine running. You can save gas, renew original engine performance and cut down on repair bills if you Stop Trouble before it starts. With this modern electronic test equipment Olen can tell you in minutes if any service is required. Drive in today. We use the Dyn-Vision Engine Analyzer for greater mileage, better life and the place is Olen's Tune-Up, Brake and Electric 310 N. Ward.

STUDYING REQUEST
WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States is studying a request for new U.S. aid—understood to be principally surplus food—from the military regime which has taken over in Ghana. A State Department spokesman said during the weekend that Gen. Joseph Ankrah, the new Ghanaian ruler, has indicated his nation will seek foreign aid from a number of sources. "A preliminary approach has been made to us and we are studying the request," the spokesman said.

New Postage Stamp To Commemorate HTA

Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien has made public the design of the Humane Treatment of Animals commemorative postage stamp, according to Postmaster Lynn Boyd. The 5-cent stamp will be issued April 9 with first day ceremonies in New York City, where 100 years ago The American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals was founded by Henry Bergh. Assistant Postmaster General Tyler Abell will represent the Post Office Department at the first day ceremonies. A mongrel dog appears on the stamp, urging humane treatment in the name of millions of dogs and other domestic and wild animals in the United States. Babe—whose mother was a Labrador retriever and whose father is unidentified—was born in Baltimore, Maryland, about four years ago. She belongs to Artist Norman Todhunter, who designed the stamp. It is a horizontal, bi-panel stamp, printed in terra cotta and black on white paper. In the red-brown panel to the left, occupying about two-thirds of the total area, is Babe, in black and white, sprawled full length. The shallow panel to the right is white, with inscription "U.S. Postage 5 cents" in sans serif capitals in terra cotta. Across the bottom of the stamp in black, in the same type style, is "Humane Treatment of Animals." The terra cotta elements of the stamp will be lithographed; the black elements, by intaglio on the Giori press. Modelers are Robert J. Jones and Howard C. Mildner. Engravers are Charles A. Brooks (vignette) and Howard F. Sharpless (lettering) of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing. Collectors desiring first day cancellations may send addressed envelopes, together with remittance to cover the cost of the stamps to be affixed, to the Postmaster, New York, New York 10001. A close-fitting enclosure of postal card thickness should be placed in each envelope and the flap either turned in or sealed. The envelope to the Postmaster should be endorsed "First Day Covers 5 cents Humane Treatment of Animals Stamp." Orders for covers must not include requests for uncanceled stamps. Cover requests must be postmarked no later than April 9, 1966. Benvenuto Cellini, Italian goldsmith, sculptor, engraver, artist and writer, was born Nov. 1, 1500.

Dear Abby.... That Machine Really Saved Your Life

DEAR ABBY: Can I sue a machine for alienation of affections? I am 29, and was practically engaged to a terrific woman, when she suddenly got the crazy idea that we should go to a "testing clinic" to take "compatibility tests."

According to the machine we were not "right" for each other. They offered us names of other men and women who would be better suited to us scientifically. I am not interested in meeting other women. I liked this one. What do you think of choosing a marriage partner by machine?

ELECTRONICALLY JILTED
DEAR JILTED: Don't sue the machine—shake hands with it. It saved you from marrying a woman who has more faith in nuts and bolts than in people. Computers will never replace "that old feeling." And anyone who prefers mechanical mate-selection must have a screw loose somewhere.

DEAR ABBY: What do you do when a woman actually hangs on to you while she brags, brags, brags about how cute and sweet and smart her grandchildren are? Every time she sees me, she keeps me standing on the street anywhere from 30 minutes to an hour just raving about her grandchildren.

I am not jealous because I have more grandchildren than she has but I can't get a word in about mine. I would just like to tell her one of these days that all grandparents think a lot of their grandchildren, and hers are "special" only to her. Or is there a better way to shut her up?

HATES BRAGGERS
DEAR HATES: You will never convince her that yours (or anybody else's grandchildren) are as cute, sweet, or smart as hers, so don't try. Besides, she doesn't want to hear about yours anymore than you want to hear about hers. Only lockjaw or laryngitis will "shut her up," so if you see her first, run!

DEAR ABBY: I realized soon after I married that it was a mistake, so we were divorced. Here's the problem: I helped pay for my wedding band. It happens to be a very beautiful and expensive one. I hate to leave it in the box where no one will see it, so I wear it on my right hand.

I don't feel sentimental about it, and it doesn't mean anything to me. It's just a piece of jewelry. My mother says I shouldn't wear it because the minute I meet a man he will know I was married before. I am not particularly proud that my marriage failed, but I am not going to try to hide it either. Do you see anything wrong in wearing my wedding band on my right hand?

NOT SENTIMENTAL
DEAR NOT: Most widows wear their wedding bands on their right hands. And most divorcees keep theirs out of sight. You are either consciously or unconsciously advertising the fact that you were once married. A wedding band, unlike other jewelry, is symbolic. I think your mother has a point.

CONFIDENTIAL TO LEN:
Now is your opportunity to be superior. I quote Noah Webster: "By taking revenge a man is even with his enemy, but by passing it over, he is superior."

Problems? Write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hate to write letters? Send one dollar to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., for Abby's booklet, "How to Write Letters for All Occasions."

St. Paul WSCS To Begin Bible Study

A three-week Bible study, "Acts Then and Now" will be started by St. Paul WSCS at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow in Fellowship Hall.

A noon luncheon will follow the study session.

Plans for the study were completed by a steering committee composed of Mmes. Luther Kirk, Bill Newlin, Malcolm McClelland and E. N. Franklin.

Committee chairmen include Mmes. W. F. Gaines, hospital; Bill Tucker, workshop and Jim Hall, secretary.

Persons interested in attending to study sessions will be welcome guests of the WSCS.

Astrological Forecast

By CARROLL RIGHTER

FOR WEDNESDAY, MARCH 9
GENERAL TENDENCIES: The day and evening being excellent, and opportunities to expand your interest far beyond their present boundaries and also give you a chance to have some very happy moments with those you like the most. Get together and work out a joint plan of getting together and work out a joint plan of future.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Corresponding or contacting associates can result in exchanging good ideas, working along the same channels so that big results are possible. Get out to group meetings in P.M. Gartner data you need.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) Concentrate on how you can add to any possessions you may have and work more efficiently in your regular job. Fine ideas course through your consciousness. Do something about them quickly.

Gemini (May 21 to June 21) Your judgment is fine now and you are able further your hobbies and recreational activities to a great extent. Rise up from that pit of dejection and smile. Learn to really love your fellow man.

MOON (CHILDREN) June 21 to July 21 Long talks with kin result in having greater harmony and joy within the important realm of home life now. Get the data you need to have updated in your business, etc. Show ingenuously.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Pats are very glad to help you in any plans you may have, so be sure to contact them early. Find out how to make greater progress in social life, also. Forget any prejudices and troubles you may have. Be just.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Get financial affairs better planned so that you have sufficient backing for your projects or can be of service to others as well. Show that you have good practical sense. High-ups become interested.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 23) Much good luck comes to you by getting into new outlets that help you to expand and become a more important person in your community. Be sure to study brochures well. Be properly prepared — then full speed ahead.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 23) Having a quiet conference with bigwigs in your field of endeavor brings the right answer to any problems you may have. You know exactly how to get ahead in vital affairs. Show good common sense and gratitude.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 24 to Dec. 23) Parties in business and good close friends are in the mood to give you assistance you need for whatever plans you have in mind. Combine efforts wisely show finesse in social matters.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 24 to Jan. 20) Impressing higher-ups with some of your special capabilities is relatively easy to do. Then take time to please in vital work. Getting health improved is vital important in your spare time.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You can cut quite a figure for yourself today because you are thinking very clearly and can make big headway in both business and personal affairs. Be interested in social life. Others view you favorably.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Keeping busy is the keynote today, since you like anything of a precision nature and are happy only when working. Get all done quickly. Later you have time for recreation that truly appeals to you.

Senior Center Corner

By MRS. O. A. WAGNER

Good for a smile: John: Have any of your boyhood hopes been realized? Fred: Yes. When my mother used to comb my hair, I would wish I didn't have any. Mrs. Lida Ramsey has been dismissed from a local hospital and M. L. Sutton is planning to enter Pampa Convalescent Home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Kidwell visited last Sunday afternoon at Pampa Convalescent Home and also visited Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Norris at home.

Mrs. V. L. Hobbs, Altrusa who attends Senior Citizens Center regularly, and Mr. Hobbs have returned from a six-week visit in Tucson, Ariz.

Mrs. Bertha Bales of Clovis, N.M., is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. B. Smith and other relatives, and was welcomed as a guest at Thursday's meeting.

S-Sgt. D. Smith spent the weekend visiting his mother, Mrs. E. B. Smith, and a sister, Mrs. Corinne Bell, Sgt. Smith has recently completed IBM Course at Amarillo U. S. Air Force Base and is returning to Langley U.S. Air Force Base, Va.

Mrs. Lyman Wade of Snider spent Sunday in the home of Mrs. Erma Erwin. Mrs. Erwin is the mother of Mrs. Wade.

The regular birthday meeting was observed Thursday with Altrusa Club of Pampa serving as hostess group and honoring those present having March birthdays. Honorees included Earl Lewis, Miss Lucy Herlacher and Mrs. E. B. Smith.

Altrusans serving refreshments of birthday cake, ice cream and coffee were Mmes. Marie Fitzgerald, chairwoman, Mabel Hukill, Louise Sewell, Lena Pearl Hobbs, Lillian Snow, Libby Shottwell, Charlene Yeager and Jay Flanagan. The centerpiece, an arrangement of red and white flowers, was presented by Mrs. Ann Kay and Mrs. Emily Coston provided the birthday cake which was decorated in the St. Patrick's

Hobart Baptist Circle Meetings

Winona Treadwell and Eunice Leech Circles of Hobart Baptist WMS met jointly at the church recently for Bible study.

The prayer calendar was read by Mrs. Warren Thomas with Mrs. Jimmy Clark presenting the prayer.

The study, "Divisions and Decline Among the People of God," taken from I Kings and II Chronicles, was led by Mrs. A. G. Purvis. Closing prayer was given by Mrs. Bryan Buck.

Members attending included Mmes. A. G. Purvis, Warren Thomas, Bryan Buck, Don Deviers, Cloyd Hon, Carl McAnally, Roger Hedrick, Jimmy Clark, Bobby Marlar, Doyle Keeton, Gerold Chase, Carl Barnes and J. N. Tackett.

POLLY'S POINTERS

Baby's Diary Made By Marking Calendar
By POLLY CRAMER

—MRS. M. J. F.
DEAR POLLY — My husband was bothered with athlete's foot and was advised to wear only white cotton socks. Since he must dress in suits which require black socks we found some thin white cotton socks which are very comfortable under his black ones.

—H. K.
DEAR POLLY — The other day when I was doing a lot of baking I became frustrated looking for the different spices I needed. I would find one and then have to go back to the pantry to look for another. Finally I put all the spices in a shoe box. Now I can take the shoe box to the spot where I am mixing and everything is at my fingertips.

—LORETTA
DEAR POLLY — Hanging curtain at my basement windows was a real problem as the walls are cement block. Finally I applied those picture hangers with adhesive backs at either side. I use small, round curtain rods which rest easily on the hangers. No holes, no mess, no fuss.

—A. J. M.
DEAR POLLY — When I hem a dress and want to avoid using pins I run the largest, loosest stitch on my sewing machine. I hem neatly by hand and then pull out the machine stitching very quickly. I can work anywhere in the house without worrying about pins falling and being picked up by my small children.

—KATHRYN
DEAR POLLY — To make an expensive headboard for a king-sized bed, cover three fourths-inch-thick plywood with 2-inch-thick foam rubber. Bevel the edges of the foam rubber and glue it into place on the plywood. Cover with any upholstery fabric or vinyl (we used gold brocade) and tack across the back of the headboard with a staple gun. Add posts at the bottom to raise the headboard to the proper height.

School Counselor To Be Speaker For Austin P-TA

Mrs. K. P. Walters will speak on "Together We Help a Child by Developing a Community Climate for Education" to Stephen F. Austin P-TA when the unit meets at 2 p.m. Thursday in the school auditorium.

The speaker, a counselor at Robert E. Lee Junior High School, will be introduced by Mrs. Jack O. Miller.

Girl Scout Junior Troop 219, led by Mrs. J. R. Newman and Mrs. H. M. Hutchinson, will present the colors. Roy Taylor will give the "Spiritual Thought" for the day.

A film will be presented for school-age children and a nursery will be provided for smaller children in the nurse's room. The Sixth Grade Girl Scout Troop, led by Mrs. Paul Howard, will attend the nursery.

The unit's executive board will meet at 1:15 p.m. preceding the general session.

'Parks' Program Heard by Group

Mrs. Lee Moore, guest speaker, presented a program on "State and National Parks" recently to members of Mr. and Mrs. Garden Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Ethridge were hosts to the group in their home at 1109 S. Dwight.

Aubrey Ruff, president, presided over the business session and L. B. Studebaker gave the "Garden Tip."

Enjoying the meeting and social hour were Messrs. and Mrs. Ira Carlton, Dick Higginbotham, John Hall, Jerry Mitchell, Waldon Moore, L. B. Studebaker, Walter Spoonmore, Aubrey Ruff, Eli Ethridge and Mmes. Elmer Tinnin and John Kelley.
