NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—The slim, intense-looking youth was the "hope" of the debate team and the "brains" of the science club at Brownsville (Tex.) high. He studied "too much" and was getting ready to graduate a year early.

Thomas Harvey Robinson, 16, the son of a college professor, worried about what he called "the Cuban situation." He used to tear editorials out of newspapers and write letters to editors.

"He was intensely patriotic," his mother, Mrs. William Glenn Robinson, said. "He felt the U.S. government has not been militant enough against Castroism."

U.S. Dist. Judge Herbert W. Christenberry sentenced Robinson to an indefinite term at the federal youth camp at Mount Lemmon, near Tucson, Ariz., Wednesday.

The boy pleaded guilty to charges of intimidating an airline pilot.

Federal attorneys dismissed charges of airline piracy and assaulting a stewardess with a gun.

Mrs. Robinson said the last time her son had been in trouble was "a scolding I gave him when he was five for spitting watermelon seeds" at a stranger who was walking by the house.

Under terms of the sentencing, the youth can be released as soon as the Federal Youth Corrections Division decides he is ready for parole.

The youth shot up a National Airlines DC8 jetliner en route from New Orleans to Melbourne, Fla. the night of Nov.

17, 1965 and harangued passengers about the evils of Castroism.

He said later he wanted to force the plane to Cuba to demonstrate against the Castro government.

At one point, he aimed one of his two pistols at Christopher Kraft, mission director of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA).

He even tried to fan the gun's hammer. It did not go off.

BEYOND IMAGINATION

New Scientific Energy Source Found in Space

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Scientists have found two exploding galaxies in the depths of the universe which may be sources of energy more powerful than any yet imagined.

The discovery, an historic "first" in the annals of astronomy, was reported Wednesday by Dr. Herbert Friedman, chief of the E. O. Hulbert Center for Space Research at the Naval Research Laboratory (NRL) here.

For years it has been assumed that the ultimate source of energy is thermonuclear fusion, the reaction which lights the sun and other stars and makes the hydrogen bomb possible.

This may still be true. But by some calculations the energy emitted by so-called radio galaxies—two of which are now revealed as X-ray producers too—is greater than fusion.

The calculations show that the galaxies may produce more energy than the thermonuclear "burning" of hundreds of billions of stars in the brief period, astronomically speaking, of a million years.

But mystery still shrouds where the extra energy comes from, and the scientific tools which might help determine how it is produced are, relatively speaking, still in early stages.

It is known, however, X-ray power from sources studied

US Planning Additional 100,000 Troops for Viet

Strength to Reach 305,000 by July; No Reserve Callup

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States is prepared, if necessary, to jump its troop strength in Viet Nam to 305,000 men by July 1.

That would be done by sending the equivalent of more than two additional combat divisions with supporting units, 100,000 men in all, into the war.

No reserve callup would be needed for this 42 per cent increase.

The nation simultaneously could mobilize nine divisions of active and reserve forces, totaling 350,000 men, and have them ready for deployment within 90 days if conflicts threatened elsewhere in the world.

And the nation also has the capacity to push its forces in South Viet Nam to a higher peak than reached in the Korean war and still avoid a reserve callup. The Korean peak was more than 350,000 men.

These assertions of military readiness and ability to meet treaty commitments were made Wednesday by Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara at a news conference in which he reacted with emotion to criticism of the defense program.

At one point McNamara thumped a table, and with rising voice, said: "The only responsibility I have is combat readiness. We have got it and I don't want anybody to misunderstand that."

At another point, he snapped at a West German reporter that he was "sick and tired of having implications made that we have drawn down the forces in Western Europe when we haven't . . . the first people that ought to know that are the Germans."

Questions Mobility

Not mentioning Western Europe the German had asked whether two deployment of forces to Viet Nam had diminished the strategic mobility of United States forces.

In revealing that 21 battalions of Army and Marines, the equivalent of more than two divisions, could be sent to Viet Nam by July 1, McNamara said he thought it "not likely" that so many battalions would be required "by that date."

He disclosed, however, that an increase of 20,000 men has been authorized. It will raise the total troop strength in South Viet Nam to 235,000.

Guidelines Issued For Emergency Voter Registration

County Tax Assessor Jack Back today issued guidelines for the 15-day emergency voter registration period which begins Thursday.

Anyone who has a paid-up 1966 poll tax receipt, a valid poll tax exemption certificate or a "federal not-paid poll tax" is already fully qualified to vote and does not need to register again.

The "not-paid" poll tax receipts previously were good only in federal elections, but now will be honored in all elections.

Anyone over the age of 60 who lives in a city of less than 10,000 population has not required under the poll tax system to get an exemption certificate, and under Back's interpretation of the new voting law is not required to register now.

Anyone who does not fall in either of these categories can become a voter by registering in the next 15 days if he is a U.S. citizen, will be at least 21 years old by election day, and by election day will have lived in Texas at least one year and in his present county at least six months.

Back said county Tax Assessor Collector's will provide forms for mail registration. The completed forms must be in the assessor-collector's office by midnight March 17.

In the over 60 voter category, Back said, if the voter is over 60 and lives in a city of 10,000 or more, he can register.

Back said there will be no registration fee.

Fort Rents Hall, Invites Debaters On Water Issue

Former City Commissioner L. P. Fort said today he would rent the Palm Room of City Hall and have there at 7:30 p.m. Saturday for the purpose of debating anyone concerning the $750,000 bond issue for a water filtration plant to be decided by Pampa voters next Tuesday.

Fort said he had requested use of the room on the second floor of City Hall and would pay the $15 rental fee.

He said he was taking the step at the suggestion of persons opposed to the filter plant construction.

"Anyone is welcome to appear for debating the issue," Fort said. "If no one accepts the challenge I will be there just to answer questions."

The ex-commissioner said he would only wish to debate the one issue and would want the meeting to be one of "just fellow citizens meeting to reason together calmly and without anger or bitterness."

If it comes from a hardware store we have it, Lewis Haws Adv.

Lions' County Stock Show Set Saturday

Activities get into full swing Saturday for the annual Top O' will get underway at 2 p.m. Saturday at Recreation Park.

Judging for the Gray County Junior Livestock Show sponsored by the Pampa Lions Club for county 4-H and FFA members will get underway at 2 p.m. Saturday at Recreation Park.

The Lions Club offers three trophies in each division and a Grand Champion and Reserve Champion Trans-Con Elevators will make an award for showmanship in presentation of pigs and Production Credit Association will make an award for showmanship in presentation of calves.

J. E. Gunn, Chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Agriculture Committee said today the show will feature about 75 pigs and 35 calves.

Gunn said new facilities at the Recreation Park will make viewing the entries much better for spectators.

Bryan Swain, Moore County Agent formerly of Wheeler, will judge the show. Lions Club

Frank Grantham urged Pampa area residents to "come out and see this fine show."

Judging of the swine and cattle entries begins at 9 a.m. Monday. Swine will be judged at 9 a.m. and fat calves at 1:30 p.m. Monday's Stock Show activities will be highlighted with an exhibitors Barbeque Dinner at 6:30 p.m. in the sales arena. The public is invited to attend the dinner and tickets may be secured at the Chamber of Commerce office at $1.25 per plate. Tickets will also be on sale at BOGUS BILL — Bank cashier Arthur Gibson, 712 Sloan, and Mrs. Clara Narron, 611 Magnolia, a teller, examine one of the two counterfeit $20 bills that turned up in Pampa yesterday. They are believed to be part of a three-quarter million dollar release of bogus twenties now flooding the United States.

Thirty Absentee Ballots Cast In Bond Election

Thirty absentee ballots had been cast up until noon today in Pampa's $2,900,000 city improvements bond election set for next Tuesday.

Deadline for casting absentee votes will be 5 p.m. tomorrow. Polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.

There will be four voting places:

- Ward 1—City Hall
- Ward 2—North Fire Department, 321 E. 17th.
- Ward 3—Langley & Grey Cabinet Shop, 323 S. Starkweather.
- Ward 4—South Fire Station, 1010 S. Barnes.

Any city resident may vote in the election providing he has rendered real or personal property for taxation, has lived in Texas one year and in the city six months prior to the election, and who has paid a poll tax or has a poll tax exemption.

There will be five propositions on the ballot. They are:

- No. 1—Issuance of $236,000 for improvements to Alcock St.
- No. 2—Issuance of $595,000 in bonds for improvements to Wilks, Brown and Frederic Sts. by widening U. S. Hwy. 60 and providing drainage.
- No. 3—Issuance of $395,000 in bonds for improvements to S. Cuyler and S. Barnes Sts. by widening SH 273 and providing drainage.
- No. 4—Issuance of $950,000 in bonds for widening and improving city streets and thoroughfares and providing for the paving of 200 city blocks in residential districts.
- No. 5—Issuance of $750,000 in bonds for construction of a filtration plant for water to be delivered from the Canadian River dam.

Counterfeit Money Turns Up in Pampa

By BOB CORTNER
Daily News Reporter

Two counterfeit twenty dollar bills, part of a reported $750,000 in bad money now in circulation in the United States, turned up in Pampa Tuesday.

Tuesday evening a middle-aged woman passed a bogus twenty-dollar bill at the Ideal Market No. 2, 312 E. Brown. Store manager J. D. Moler said the bill was the only one received at the store.

A second bad twenty turned up Wednesday at the First National Bank. Mrs. Clara Narron, a teller, caught the bogus bill when a customer received it from a bank teller. Bank officials believe the bill came into the bank from one of four accounts.

Gray County Sheriff Rufe Jordan said this morning the bills are part of $750,000 in bad money sought by federal agents. Jordan showed one of the bogus bills today.

"This would be hard to detect," he said. "The printing isn't bad. The engraving isn't too good. The serial number is all wrong."

The bills are made to resemble notes from a Dallas Federal Reserve Bank, Jordan said.

The sheriff said Federal officers are busy now on the counterfeiting case. "We expect the counterfeiters to be caught in a couple of weeks," Jordan said. "Just about everybody is working on this."

Federal officers got a lead on the counterfeiters when a Bushland grocery store furnished a description of a woman passing a bad twenty there Wednesday. Coupled with the description of (See COUNTERFEIT, Page 3)

Nuclear Weapon Admitted Missing

WASHINGTON (UPI)—One and a half months after the crash of a B52 jet in Spain, the United States finally has gotten around to admitting officially that one of its nuclear weapons is missing.

The admission, made Wednesday by the State Department, only confirmed what had been common knowledge since shortly after the B52 collided with a KC135 jet tanker. The crash occurred during refueling operations Jan. 17 high above Palomares on the southeast coast of Spain.

The State Department statement was significant from another point of view—there have been more than a dozen mishaps involving nuclear weapons but the United States has never before owned up to losing one.

The accident and the ensuing search for the missing device, thought to be a hydrogen bomb with an explosive force of 25 million tons of TNT have created any number of problems for the United States.

The Spanish government has forbidden the United States to make any more flights involving atomic weapons over its territory. This, in effect, has rendered its strategic bomber bases in Spain useless.

In addition, there has been an adverse public reaction, including demonstrations at the U.S. embassy in Madrid.

Four Million Feel Effect Of New GI Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Nearly four million ex-servicemen today became eligible for education, housing and medical benefits under a sweeping new cold war GI bill of rights.

The new measure, to be signed into law today by President Johnson, is modeled after the GI bills of World War II and Korea which brought training and benefits to 10.4 million GIs.

The Veterans Administration expects 500,000 men will attend school during the first year of the new measure's operation. The bill applies to men who have served at any time after Jan. 31, 1955.

Light Snow Due To Fall Briefly Tonight

Snow predicted for the Pampa area this morning failed to float in on the cool air, but snow flurries are predicted for this evening and late today. Forecasters say if snow does come today it will stop tonight and not continue into Friday.

The Pampa area was partly cloudy and much colder today with a high temperature in the low 40's. Tonight's low will be in the upper teens with a high Friday expected to be in the upper 30's.

Amarillo's weather bureau reported snow did fall there Wednesday but was too light to be accurately measured.

Friday will be fair and cold in the Pampa vicinity. Today's winds were from the northwest at 15 to 25 m.p.h.

Winds reached nearly 60 miles an hour in parts of the South Plains Wednesday. A new cold front was expected to lower temperatures in the Panhandle today and across all of the northwestern third of the state by nightfall.

The showers were expected to

State Begins Final Summation To Convict Candy and Lover

MIAMI (UPI)—The state ticked off greed, avarice, lust and money today as the motives impelling Candy Mossler and her nephew, Melvin Lane Powers, to the stab-killing of her wealthy husband.

"They are the oldest motives known to man," six-foot five-inch state attorney Richard Gerstein told the all-male jury in a final argument.

He said the defense had from the start of the seven-week-old case raised the charge of homosexuality against 69-year-old Jacques Mossler "to direct your attention from the guilt of Powers and Candace Mossler."

Gerstein said the defendants' lustful incestuous love affair was involved as well as greed. "Jacques Mossler was in the way, and you couldn't be sure that he would be completely out of the way—and you couldn't be sure all that money would go to Candace and Powers unless you completely eliminated Mr. Mossler from the face of his earth."

"That's the plan, and that's what they set out to do."

The fate of the talkative and glamorous grandmother, Candy Mossler, and her nephew, Melvin Lane Powers, was expected to be in the hands of the all-male jury by nightfall.

It was the 34th day of the complicated first degree murder trial. During the last two days, five defense and two prosecution attorneys have reviewed vast quantities of (See CANDY, Page 3)

Under the Treaty of Utrecht in 1713, by which assembled kings and princes carved up the Europe of that day, Spain made two important concessions to England.
She ceded the rock of Gibraltar to England and gave England a 30-year monopoly on the lucrative slave trade with Spanish America.
More than 250 years later the Treaty of Utrecht still is making news.
For all of those years the rock towering more than 1,300 feet above the narrow entrance to the Mediterranean from the Atlantic has stood as a symbol of British solidity and empire and as a galling reminder to the Spanish of the time when Spain lay prostrate after the wars of succession.

In April, Britain and Spain will begin talks on Spanish claims that Gibraltar now rightfully is hers because Britain has violated terms of the ancient treaty.
Spain bases her claim on the fact that in 1964, Britain granted the 25,000 Gibraltarians the right of internal self-government.

To reinforce her case, Spain has for a little more than a year been imposing an economic blockade whose end results have been harder on the Spanish than on the people of Gibraltar.
Some 8,000 Spanish workers commute each day to Gibraltar, either by twice-a-day ferry from Algeciras or by road across the land frontier at La Linea. Together they earn annually more than $4 million, making an important contribution to the hard-pressed economy on the other side of the line.
The figure could be higher except that Spain refuses to grant more work permits.
Therefore the colony is importing Moroccan workers.
The Spanish customs blockade practically has eliminated the once-rich tourist traffic between Gibraltar and Spain since the Spanish government discourages travel across the line either by Gibraltarians or tourists.
Further cutting into the economy has been the ban on exports into the colony except for fruits and vegetables.
The Spanish government recognizes the hardships that have resulted but says the blockade is necessary to force Britain into giving Spain a greater voice in Gibraltar affairs, even if Spaniards suffer.
Britain has declared the future of Gibraltar is not negotiable. In agreeing to the talks, Britain said she was doing so in line with a United Nations request that the interests of the population be safeguarded.

TO REPLACE CARRIER THE HAGUE, The Netherlands (UPI) —The Dutch government plans to replace its sole aircraft carrier with nuclear-powered submarines, Defense Minister Piet S. de Jong told Parliament.

Television in Review

By RICK DU BROW
United Press International

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) —We moved into a house recently, and the conversation around the place has gone something like this:

Painter: "So you write about television. Well, let me ask you something confidentially. Truthfully, what do you think about 'Batman'?"

"me, well I think it's silly, but my kids love it, and I got forced into watching it."

Handyman: "Honest? You get paid for watching televi- sion? I mean, no offense or anything like that, but, well, you know, but lemme ask you something, if that's the case. How about this 'Batman'? I just don't understand it. My kids are crazy about it, but I think it's terrible. I've watched it six or seven times now, and I still think it's terrible."

Television repairman: "The answer to your reception trouble yesterday was simply that the pre-amplifier plug was pulled out. Yes, that's right, all you had to do was plug it in."

Vacuum cleaner salesman: "If you really watch that stuff as much as that, then please tell me what you think of 'Batman.' I don't understand what all the fuss is about... and tell me, what good shows are on this season (heh heh)?"

Wallpaperer: "Between that 'Batman' and 'Hullabaloo' my kids really have me going in circles. Look, honestly, what do you think of 'Batman'? Am I wrong? I think it's the dumbest show I ever saw, but all I know is, wherever you go, all you hear is 'Batman, Batman, Batman.'"

Television repairman: "The answer to your reception trouble on that channel yesterday was simply that you should have turned the fine-tuner a little bit more to the right. Yes, that's right, there was nothing else."

Carpet cleaner: "(Muffling laughter). "You really have to watch that stuff 'Batman' too? In that case, maybe I'll do your work for nothing. Just answer me one question: How do you explain that 'Batman'? I asked my boy that the other day, and he looked daggers at me. He told me, 'It's high camp, dad. Can you imagine, he's 15 years old, and he's explaining stuff like that to me? He explained, and I still don't know what camp is, and I don't care either because if 'Batman' is what it is, then it can't be very much."

The Channel Swim: The broadcast date of CBS-TV's special two-hour television version of Arthur Miller's great play, "Death of a Salesman," starring Lee J. Cobb and

Some 105 Houses Completed Here During 1965

The Lubbock Insuring Office of the Federal Housing Administration has surveyed all subdivisions in the Pampa area with five or more houses completed in 1965, according to F. J. Frohoff, FHA Director.

In the eight subdivisions that met this criterion, 105 houses had been completed during 1965.

A total of 21 houses were sold before construction had started and 84 were built speculatively. Of those built speculatively, 72 were sold and 12 remained unsold on Jan. 1. The unsold houses were 14 per cent of the speculative construction volume.

No houses were built under $10,000. There were 13 in the $10,000 to $12,500 price range, 20 priced from $12,500 to $15,000; 19 from $15,000 to $17,500; 18 from $17,500 to $20,000; 13 from $20,000 to $25,000; 14 from $25,000 to $30,000; 4 from $30,000 to $35,000 and four that cost $35,000 or more.

On the 12 houses unsold, available as of the survey date, six had been completed less than one month and six between two and three months.

The FHA office also reported no unsold houses had been completed prior to 1965.

Builders reported 19 houses under construction in eight subdivisions canvassed on Jan. 1, according to Frohoff and 16 of these had not been sold at that time.

US to Attempt Venus Flyby

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Next year the United States will attempt the closest flyby yet of Venus in a new project to strip some of the mystery from the cloud-cloaked planet.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) said Wednesday it will launch a 550-pound Mariner spacecraft toward Venus early next summer. It will be aimed to pass within about 3,000 miles of Venus, about 19,000 miles closer than the Mariner 2 flyby of 1962.

Mildred Dunnock in their original Broadway roles, has been switched from April 3 to April 17 on NBC-TV's "Branded" series, a Western with Chuck Connors, is not expected at the present time to be renewed for the coming season.

Bachelors Are Not Happy Says Institute Report

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The carefree bachelor is a myth. He's really unhappy, maladjusted and neurotic—far more so than "old maids" or married men.

That's the conclusion of a recent study sponsored by the National Institute of Mental Health. The study, directed by Dr. Genevieve Knuffer, a psychiatrist at the Mental Research Institute at Berkeley, Calif., showed that the happiest people are married men.

Carr Says FBI Sending Agents to Watch Voting

AUSTIN (UPI) — Texas Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr said today the Justice Department is sending FBI agents to Texas to make sure Texas voters are given adequate opportunity to register.

Carr, who said he was "fighting mad," called the action an insult to Texas.

In a letter sent today to U.S. Atty. Gen. Nicholas DeB. Katzenbach, Carr said "your assignment of the FBI to maintain surveillance over the Texas government is an insult to every citizen of Texas."

"Quite frankly, we feel our state is capable of handling our internal affairs.

"We will not subject this state to any humiliation resulting from an 'overlord' attitude."

Carr said the decision was the culmination of "an attitude on the part of the Justice Department that has been getting progressively worse" ever since the agency won a federal court decision abolishing the poll tax as a voting requirement in Texas.

The FBI agents will make spot checks during a special 15-day free registration period which begins Thursday. The registration period was provided by a special session of the Texas Legislature after the poll tax was struck down.

Carr said Katzenbach apparently heard about his letter and called him this morning to say that the FBI agents were not coming to establish surveillance over the state, but merely to find facts for possible use in future federal contests of Texas voting laws.

IDEAL IS CLOSED SUNDAYS SO OUR EMPLOYEES MAY ATTEND THE CHURCH OF THEIR CHOICE

Dear Abby....

'Peach' of a Guy Has a Fuzzy Memory

DEAR ABBY: Last August two of our daughters were married at a double wedding. At the reception when every one was feeling good, a relative who is in the furniture business promised each of the brides a colored TV for wedding gifts. They were planning on the sets, so neither bought one. Several months passed and no sets, so I took the bull by the horns and asked this relative about the promised sets. (Apologetically and tactfully, of course.) He said it had slipped his mind and he would "get after it" right away. He also thanked me for reminding him. Seven months later, and no trace of the sets. He is well to do, loved by all of us and is really a peach of a guy. We know he has a lot on his mind, but she is the world's worst bore. She never stops talking. She talks about death, fire, rape, murder, etc. Her voice is loud and she won't let anyone get a word in.

DEAR WONDERING: "Peach" of a guy either has a very fuzzy memory or he must have been stoned at the reception when he made the offer. You've already jugged his memory once without results. I think by now your daughters should have gotten "the picture" without TV sets.

DEAR ABBY: A friend asked me if I wanted to go out with a "southern gentleman" from Memphis, so I said sure, I am in my middle forties and he's in his middle fifties, and we are both divorced.

Then he threw in a few digs about how "loud" and "aggressive" the yankee girls are. He said he was more accustomed to the soft-spoken, lady-like refined southern women. Well, I was born and raised in the Bronx and I'm proud of it. And I don't talk with "dees, dems and doses" either. Should I have said, "Drop dead, you all!" How would you have handled it?

DEAR FROM: I would have thanked him for the "lovely" evening. And made it a short one.

DEAR ABBY: My husband has an aunt in her eighties. She lives alone and we invite her over quite often. We'd invite her more often because she is very lonely, but she is the world's worst bore. She never stops talking. She talks about death, fire, rape, murder, etc. Her voice is loud and she won't let anyone get a word in.

DEAR ANONYMOUS: Naturally respect for her age, even though she is not the reason for her obnoxious conduct, be tolerant. But don't try to re-amp Auntie's personality at this stage of her life because it can't be done.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "JINNY" IN NORTHERN CAL: He may "just be what the doctor ordered," but he is also just what your lawyer told you to steer clear of until your divorce is final.

Pampan Installed President of Rebekah Circle

Mrs. Ola McAfee of 211 N. Houston was named president of the Panhandle Rebekah Circle Thursday evening in installation ceremonies held at Rainbow Rebekah Lodge 193 of Amarillo. Mrs. Nancy Dickson, out-going president, presided, and presented gifts to officers serving with her the past year. The Pampa Rebekah Lodge was presented a 30-cup coffee maker by Mrs. Dickson for having the largest number attending the circle meetings the past year.

Mrs. Edna Schuster and Mrs. Ellen Kretzmeier were installing officers. Other than Mrs. McAfee officers installed were Mrs. Adaline Cain of Sunny, vice president; Mrs. Neida Monday of Pampa, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Alma Marston of Dumas, chaplain; Mrs. Mattie Mills of Amarillo, reporter, and Mrs. Hazel Franklin of Pampa, musician.

The Panhandle Rebekah Circle will meet next in Claude on March 29.

Ten lodges were represented at the meeting by the 44 members attending.

Dan True To Be Speaker This Evening For Mann P-TA Fathers' Night Meet

Dan True ... speaks tonight

Dan True, Amarillo weather forecaster, will speak to Horace Mann P-TA at 7 p.m. this evening when the unit has its annual Fathers' Night meeting in the school auditorium.

True, as accurate and exacting as his meters and gauges, is also as gusy and restful as a prairie wind. Having the mind of a scientist and the personality of a born showman, the weatherman-speaker, describes his storms as "dudes and rascals" and a troublesome low that hovers too long is likely to find itself imbued with fiendish personality.

Salad Supper Is Enjoyed by SS Class Members

A salad supper was enjoyed by members of Bethany Sunday School Class of First Baptist Church recently in the home of Mrs. B. T. Clemens, class teacher. Sharing hostess duties was Mrs. D. R. Henry.

Invocation was given by Mrs. C. L. McKinney and Mrs. Lorene Locke presented a devotional entitled "Mystery of God's Plans." The program was concluded by Mrs. Mabel Winter reading a group of comic papers. Closing prayer was given by Mrs. Rachel Hutto.

Mrs. Sue Smiley and Mrs. Locke were welcomed as guests.

Members present included Mmes. C. L. McKinney, Mabel Winter, Rachel Hutto, Myrtle McDaniel, Doshia Anderson, Lillian Reser, Gussie Archibald, Lela Phelps, Clara Vandover, P. G. Turner, O. A. Davis, A. N. Thorne, Ethel Vanderburg, Cora Patterson, Pearl Gamage, O. T. Egerton, Jess Reeves, Lida Ramsey, Lizzie Henry and B. T. Clemens.

Astrological Forecast

By CARROLL RIGHTER

FOR FRIDAY, MARCH 4

GENERAL TENDENCIES: This is a day and evening when most everyone is feeling pretty anxious to impress others and to show off their most attractive features, so be sure you take advantage of this interesting day; not only to project your own finest charm and talents but also to encourage and praise those about you — reap the rewards!

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) — Being with bigwigs can produce fine results during day as well as bring mutual joy, get out socially or for recreation later. You have fine talents that need to be expressed properly, intelligently.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) — A fine opportunity presents itself to get your nose in more ideal condition so that you delight in and are happier yourself. Also do whatever will increase security. Show others that you are right on the beam.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) — Paying compliments to those around you will bring the best out in them and you find they are more helpful, cooperative. Contacting others, whether near or at a distance, helps them to consider you more favorably.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 23) — There is a possibility to expand now instead of reeling off all your energy and finances to one outlet, interest. Increase prosperity. Make improvements to property, even if it is only to add bric-a-brac.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23) — You are very magnetic and can have great influence on others by paying compliments, showing affection. Be sociable. Be sure your health is good. Show others only your finest qualities and do not lose your temper.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23) — Turn of greater things than merely being so concerned with trifles and details. Be generous and kind. You can be far more prosperous, commensurate with ability. Confer quietly with experts — food better course to follow.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23) — You have only to state your aims to that good and generous friend in order to receive the help you need at this time. Fine day for having a wonderful time. Either be entertained or entertain at will.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 23) — If you view everything in its broadest sense, you can be very convincing with anyone with whom you come in contact. Getting into civic affairs improves your position. Be most enthusiastic.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 24 to Dec. 23) — A good day for research into new methods and findings so that you have a better set of conditions around you. Letters you get can reveal truths you had not considered before, which can be very helpful.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 24 to Jan. 20) — Be sure to pay your bills or some other obligation instead of trying to wiggle out of it. You know just what to do for that individual who feels depressed. Have a happy time with mate in p.m.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) — Having a little conference with associates is fine since you can exchange ideas that are most workable and get ahead faster. Any questions if you are not sure of your position with others. It is the best method.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) — Ideal day to get all around you in such an immediate condition and more operative that you can operate more efficiently and happily in the days ahead. Shop for what you need. Talk things over with co-workers, too.

Shoos for little girls follow the adult fashion line this spring. The pointed toe is giving in to the rounder, wider look for pre-teens and the sling backs and straps that appeal to their mothers is also available in the shoe store to them. Look especially for the strap — sometimes a single T, sometimes double, sometimes circling the ankle.

Caramel Rolls for Breakfast

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Logs burning in the fireplace and the fragrance of rolls in the oven are still two of the most cherished experiences of men, even in this electronic age. That's why this recipe for caramel pin wheel rolls should be welcome news. Of course, if you want to, you can enjoy them with a cup of coffee before the fire.

CARAMEL PIN WHEEL ROLLS

(Makes 18 rolls)
1 package active dry yeast
1 cup warm water
¾ cup plus 2 tablespoons sugar
½ cup soft butter
1 egg
1 teaspoon salt
3 to 3¼ cups instant blending flour
10-ounce jar caramel sauce
½ cup chopped pecans
1 teaspoon cinnamon

Soften yeast in warm water in large mixer bowl. Add ¼-cup sugar, ¼-cup butter, egg, salt and ½ cup flour. Beat 3 minutes at medium speed of mixer, scraping sides of bowl. Reduce speed; gradually add remaining flour to form a stiff dough. The last additions of flour may be stirred in with a spoon. Cover; let rise in warm place until doubled, about 45 minutes.

Melt 2 tablespoons butter in 13x9-inch pan. Drizzle with caramel sauce; sprinkle with pecans. Toss dough on floured surface until no longer sticky. Knead 15 times, about 30 seconds. Roll out dough on floured surface to an 18x12-inch rectangle. Spread with 2 tablespoons butter. Sprinkle with mixture of 2 tablespoons sugar and cinnamon. Starting with 18-inch side, roll up jelly-roll fashion. Cut into 18 1-inch slices; place, cut side down in pan. Cover; let rise in warm place until doubled, about 45 minutes. Bake at 375 degrees for 15 to 20 minutes. Cool 1 minute before removing from pan.

Food Buying Guide

The following guide to the nation's food shopping buys for this weekend was prepared by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and Interior for UPI.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Lion or lamb weekend shoppers will find good supplies of early spring fruits and vegetables. Meats vary from area to area, but poultry holds out as a plentiful favorite for this weekend, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Consumer and Marketing Service reports.

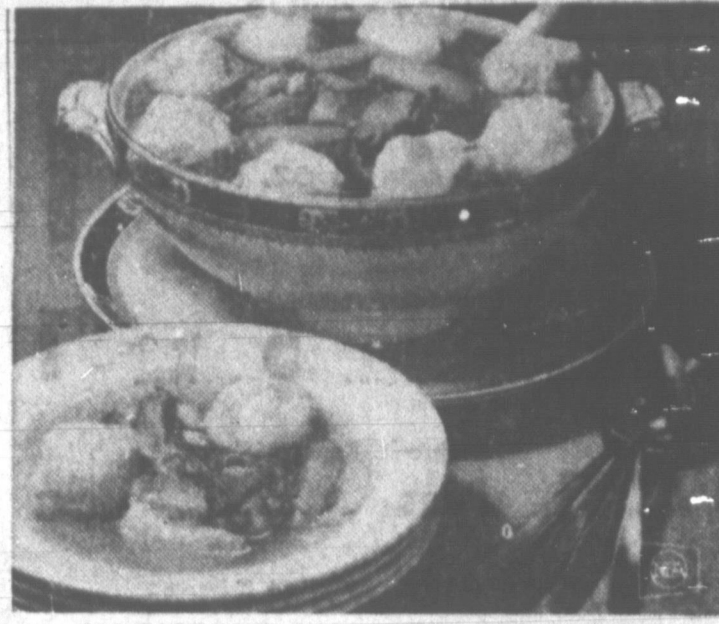

Spring lamb is starting to move into trade channels—so in about a week, check for specials in your local market on lamb.

Wholesale prices of beef are lower this week in most areas. Steaks, and roasts are featured in many promotions at the retail level. Fresh bacon is steady to lower: Hams are "good buys" in some areas. Pork roasts are another "price sleeper" to check for at the markets.

Carrots, celery, onions, potatoes, radishes, sweet potatoes and tomatoes are suggested vegetable choices. Fruits plentiful stay the same: Apples, avocados, bananas, grapefruit, lemons, and oranges. Fish plentiful for the nation are canned red salmon, fish sticks and portions, and scallops.

Lamb Stew With Dumplings Still Tastes Great and Has Old-Fashioned Appeal

OLD-FASHIONED LAMB STEW still tastes great.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Many readers have asked for a good recipe for old-fashioned lamb stew. They say they get "lonesome" for it. Here is a version with dumplings so no one need be lonesome any more.

OLD-FASHIONED LAMB STEW WITH DUMPLINGS

(Serves 8)

4 pounds of neck of lamb and breast of lamb, cut into small pieces
5 quarts of water
2 pounds of potatoes
1 egg
All-purpose flour
Salt and pepper
1½ tablespoons aromatic bitters
1 cup packaged croutons
Salted water
7 small carrots, sliced into 2-inch lengths

½ pound yellow onions (2 medium), each cut into 6 pieces.

Cover lamb with cold water. Bring to a boil, lower heat and simmer for 1½ hours or until meat is tender, skimming top occasionally to keep broth clear. While meat is cooking, cook potatoes separately. Peel and mash. Beat in egg and enough flour to make mixture easy to shape into balls. Stir in 1 teaspoon salt, ¼-teaspoon pepper, ½-tablespoon of the bitters and croutons. Shape mixture into 1 inch balls and drop into simmering salted water. If the first dumpling breaks apart add more flour to the remaining potato mixture. Cook uncovered for 10 minutes, then cover and cook another 10 minutes. To lamb stew add carrots, onions and remaining bitters. Cover and simmer another 30 minutes. Skim off fat. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Serve stew in soup plates with potato dumplings.

Lunch Pail Pasta

Lunch box spaghetti can be prepared ahead to be reheated for carrying in a wide mouth vacuum bottle. Boil 8 ounces of spaghetti as label directs. Drain well.

Brown 1 pound of ground beef in skillet. Add 1 (1½ ounce) package of meat loaf sauce mix and 2½ cups of tomato juice. Combine meat sauce in 2 quart casserole with spaghetti and ¼ cup of grated American cheese.

Bake 15 minutes in preheated 350-degree oven. Makes 4 to 6 servings. Reheat single portion in double boiler to fill pint-size vacuum bottle.

Spanish Appetizers

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Jerez de la Frontera is near the port of Cadiz on the southern coast of Spain. This lovely country town of white-washed houses and gardens was on the Christian frontier when the Moors were powerful in Spain. Today it is the center of the sherry-producing country. The weather is mild, warm and practically rain-free and the local saying is: "Women and vineyards are the joy of men."

We visited several bodegas—Pedro-Domecq, Gonzales, Harvey's, Sandeman's, and others—great semidark barnlike frame buildings where casks of sherry are stored and tested constantly as they slowly develop their special qualities.

Far north lies the Basque country where you find very little of the Moorish influence in food or architecture or tradition as you do in Jerez de la Frontera for example. Wheat, rather than rice, is a favorite ingredient in Galicia where the people are often ruddy-faced and stocky and take their food seriously. Their recipe for Empanadas Gallego proves it.

EMPANADAS GALLEGO
2 cups all-purpose flour, unsifted
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup olive oil
1 egg, separated
¼ cup ice-cold water

Sift together flour and salt, place in bowl, make hole in center of flour. Add olive oil, egg yolk and water, blend with fork, then knead with fingers until smooth and pliable. Roll out half of dough at a time on lightly floured board into square shape. Cut into pieces 4 x 4 inches. Place 2 tablespoons filling in each, fold over moistening edges to seal. Brush unbeaten egg white over top of pastry. Bake in oven preheated to 425 degrees until golden, approximately 10 minutes. Usually eaten hot, but can be eaten cold. Makes 8 to 10 pastries, to serve 4 or 5 persons. Serve with a dry sherry.

FILLING.

1 cup cooked pork, chopped fine
4 tablespoons olive oil
1 small onion, minced
2 tablespoons diced pimiento
1 or 2 hard-boiled eggs, diced
1 tablespoon minced parsley
¼ cup white wine
Cook onion and pimiento in oil until soft; add meat, cook 1 minute; add egg, parsley and wine; simmer 5 minutes over low heat.

Forget About Pearls

Q—I've eaten oysters all my life, but never once have I found a pearl. Some of my friends have. Why don't I ever have any luck?

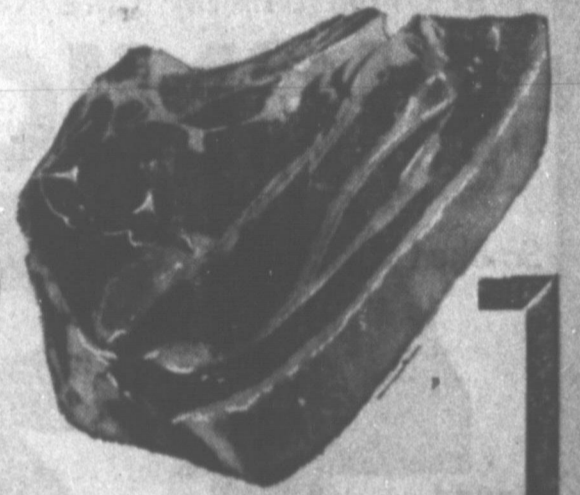

A—Your friends don't either. They may think they found a pearl in an oyster, but the unromantic facts are: Edible oysters have no true pearls. Occasionally, round calcium carbonate stones are found in their bodies; they have no lustre and are worthless. Pearl oysters are found only in the warm waters of the tropics.

Q—Do oysters have any food value?

A—Yes, quite a lot. Oysters are an excellent source of the essential minerals, iron, phosphorus and calcium. They contain substantial amounts of vitamin A, thiamine, niacin and riboflavin. They are rich in high-quality proteins (8 to 11 per cent of the oyster is protein). More good news—they are low in fat and calories.

The Lighter Side

By DICK WEST
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI) —The 1966 "Federal Woman's Award" was presented this week to six ladies who have distinguished themselves in the civil service.

I have no doubt that all of them deserved recognition, but I do wish they would change the name of the award.

If dropped upon a hard surface, the term "federal woman" gives off a rather ominous ring. It suggests a female built to government specifications.

I have been trying to picture in my mind what a "federal woman" might look like, and the images I envision are somewhat bizarre to say the least.

She would have three branches that function independently of each other. She would be top-heavy in places and a bit lopsided in the Agriculture Department.

Phyllis Diller Close
Thank goodness there isn't any such creature—yet. Probably the closest thing to it is Phyllis Diller, but even Miss Diller doesn't have anything comparable to the Pentagon.

Anyway, as was perhaps inevitable at such a gathering, the award ceremony touched on the subject of women's rights. The most cogent remarks, in my opinion, were delivered by Robert Stein, editor of McCall's magazine and a very brave man. Any man who edits a women's magazine nowadays

MEN IN UNIFORM
WASHINGTON (UPI) —The U.S. armed forces now have 2,899,724 men in uniform, according to the Defense Department. The goal for the Viet Nam military buildup is 3,093,000.

The January increase, the department reported Wednesday, was 52,834, the largest monthly gain since the buildup started last summer. The January draft was 36,280, but the difference was made up by volunteers. The increase in volunteers has made it possible for the March draft call to be cut from 32,900, to 22,400.

ADMITTED TO SOCIETY
NEW YORK (UPI) —Dr. Vincent S. Conigliaro, a white psychiatrist, was admitted Wednesday to a predominantly Negro medical society from which he had been denied membership.

The executive committee of the Manhattan Central Medical Society approved Dr. Conigliaro's application after a meeting with the New York City Commission on Human Rights. Conigliaro had filed a complaint with the commission last November, charging he was excluded from the society because he is white.

QUICK EXIT
DENVER (UPI) —The judge called Richard Lee Chavez scared. Bailiff Ed Gehm called him speedy and Denver police called him missing.

The 23-year-old Chavez bolted and escaped from the courtroom when he heard the judge sentence him to six months in jail on a charge of being a disorderly person.

Business Highlights

WASHINGTON (UPI) —New factory orders rose in January by about $430 million from the December pace, the Commerce Department reports. The unfilled order backlog also rose by a sharp $1.25 billion over the end of December backlog.

DETROIT—Auto production this month is scheduled at around 907,000 cars, down almost 60,000 from last March. Total output in February also was down slightly from a year ago when General Motors was still filling orders swollen by the strike in the fall of 1964.

LONDON — The British government disclosed it has sold $84.8 million of its $1.4 billion in American stockholdings in recent months. It was also announced that Britain will adopt a decimal currency system not later than 1971 if the Labor government is re-elected.

Carubbi To Seek Post As Write-in

A. J. Carubbi, Pampa attorney whose plea to get his name on the May 7 Democratic primary ballot was turned down in 31st District Court Tuesday, said today he will run for county judge as a write-in candidate.

Carubbi told The News yesterday he had made a decision and would release a "formal" announcement today.

However, his taped announcement was made on radio and television last night.

The candidate decided to run as a write-in candidate after the Democratic Executive Committee had ruled his name could not be placed on the ballot because of his failure to post the $76 balance of his filing fee before the deadline prescribed by state law.

He filed a mandamus action in district court seeking to have the executive committee decision overruled. But Judge Lewis M. Goodrich denied the request.

Airline To Start New Flight Plan

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Trans-Texas Airways has been granted authority to serve a new route between Houston and New Orleans by the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Beaumont-Port Arthur, Tex., and Lake Charles, Lafayette and Baton Rouge, La., will be intermediate points in the flight. The CAB said Trans-Texas will not be allowed to receive any federal subsidy for the route.

In a joint move, the CAB gave Eastern Air Lines permission to drop Beaumont - Port Arthur, Lake Charles, Lafayette - New Iberia and Baton Rouge from its Houston -New Orleans route.

CAB vice chairman Robert Murphy dissented from the opinion. He said the cities involved needed service by a major carrier such as Eastern. Murphy said TTA may find the new route a financial drain.

The board in other action renewed for an indefinite period TTA's route segment between Houston and New Orleans and Memphis, Tenn., and Jackson, Miss., but refused to give the line turnaround authority on its nonstop service between Memphis and Little Rock, Ark.

Runaway River Barges Caught

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)— A fleet of barges, running wild like stampeding steers, wreaked havoc at the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers riverfront base Wednesday before being lassoed and corralled just short of the main port area.

A fleet of 21 tugs, fire boats and other craft waged a two-hour flight on the swollen Mississippi river to intercept the runaways and push them to shore.

The barges, some of them manned by disconcerted workmen who later were rescued, slammed into the engineers base. They wrecked piling clusters, touched off a $5,000 fire and set 15 more barges and three other large craft adrift.

But there were no injuries. Joined by the new runaways, the barges hurtled down the river on a six - knot current, swept around a bend and bore down on the hastily assembling roundup fleet.

The Mississippi, fed by heavy rains and runoff from the north, was 14.7 feet above sea level. The high water level, strong current and wave action were blamed for the near-disaster. Lines mooring the barges to the bank were snapped like strings.

Helicopters and airplanes helped the tugs intercept the runaways.

The last of the barges was rounded up about a half-mile upstream from the bustling main port area, where dozens of ships and facilities lay exposed and helpless on both sides of the swift-running river.

We have been asked (by our two-year-old son, he hasn't had a good laugh in quite a while) to predict just how we think the American and National League pennant races will turn out.

Oh, Those A's

The Bosox have nothing but problems from behind the plate to right field and manager Billy Herman must wince just a bit every morning when he wakes up.

Let's Go, Yanks

Great hitting and good pitching carried the Twins last year but can everyone be expected to repeat? Zolfo Versalles, Richie Rollins, Tony Oliva, Bob Allison, Harmon-Killebrew, etc. Can they keep it up another year?

By SANDY PADWE NEW YORK (NEA) — Elston Howard raised the collar on his overcoat as he stepped into the gymnasium doorway and peered skyward at the low-hanging rain clouds.

For the last month and a half, Howard has been coming to this gymnasium on Manhattan's upper East Side with Al Downing and Jim Bouton, his New York Yankee teammates.

But underneath there is unmistakable tension and there is strain. On a cold, dark winter day it just seems more evident.

Elston Howard is 36 now. He missed part of last season with an elbow injury. With the Yankees struggling, he came back two weeks earlier than he should have and suffered through the rest of the season. He hit .233.

Maybe last season was just a bad one for the Yankees. After all, Mickey Mantle, Roger Maris and Howard were out a great deal. Whitey Ford could pitch only in warm weather.

State Cage Meet Opens In Austin

AUSTIN (UPI)—Four Class B schoolboy basketball teams which have piled up 137 victories and lost only 13 times this year open a 22-team scramble for state championships today in Gregory Gymnasium.

The four little schools—headed by a team that has chalked up 49 wins without a loss this year and 75 straight since last season—lift the lid on the three-day battle for state crowns in five classes.

Woodsboro (23-6) is favored in Class A. The South Texas team will make its eighth appearance in the big event with a match against Honey Grove (19-8).

Clear Creek, which drew the favorite's role in Class AAA, will close out first day play with an 8:50 p.m. match with Kilgore (25-4).

Two Class B schools will not see action until Friday. The Deweyville-Kopperl winner will meet Channing (37-3) at 9 a.m. to begin second day play and the Snook-Bronte winner will take on Alba-Golden (35-9) in semifinal action.

WHO'S ON THIRD?

Dodgers Trying Rookie Lefebvre

By United Press International A takeoff on the old Abbott and Costello bit might open "who's on third?" for Los Angeles Dodger fans.

The Dodgers have plans to move 1965 rookie of the year Jean Lefebvre from second base to third so that he may concentrate on hitting and where his limited range outfield will be less of a liability.

champion with 131, had a meeting of the minds with the Cincinnati Reds, a $30,000 contract being the stabilizing force.

Baltimore pilot Hank Bauer praised lefthander Steve Barber for his "hard work" and predicted a much better start for Oriole hurler this season.

Heavyweight Bout Scheduled For Montreal on March 29

MONTREAL (UPI)—The long awaited, much delayed Cassius Clay-Ernie Terrell heavyweight championship fight has apparently found a home outside the United States in Montreal.

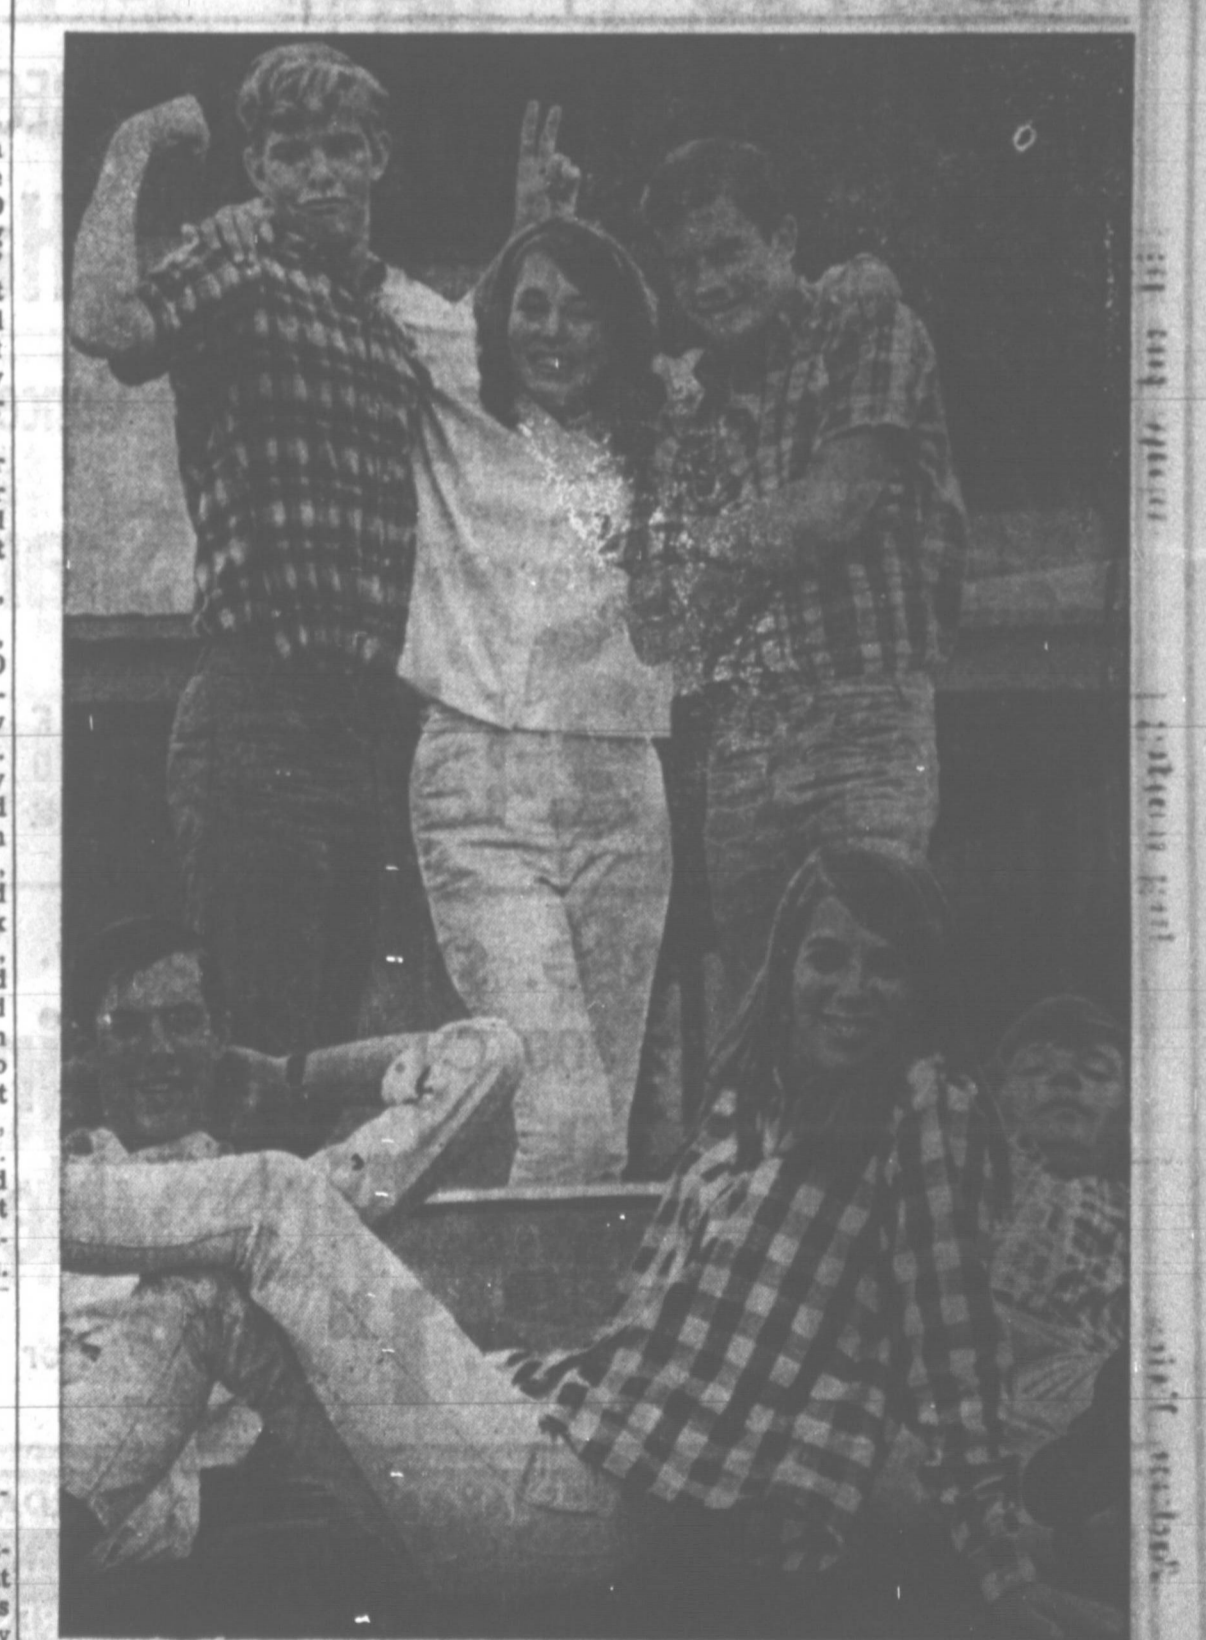

In rapid fire order Wednesday, the match was booted out of Chicago by the Illinois Athletic Commission after Clay defiantly refused to apologize for "unpatriotic remarks" made when he was notified his draft status might be reclassified I-A.

House GOP Blasts LBJ Viet Policies Again

By DANIEL RAPOPORT
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI) — House Republican leaders accused Democratic "doves" of encouraging the enemy and prolonging the Viet Nam war.
Professing their own support for the war effort, they nevertheless hung a qualified "Johnson's war" label on the fighting in Viet Nam. But they denied they were making politics out of the issue, and said they have no intention of doing so.

"We don't intend to tell Mr. Johnson how to run his war," said Rep. John J. Rhodes, R-Ariz., chairman of the House GOP Policy Committee, at a leadership news conference called to point up a "deep division" among Democrats on Viet Nam.

Questioned about this, Rhodes denied he had intended here to "coin a phrase" or deliberately to use a "Johnson's war" label. But he declined an opportunity to back away from the remark, which he made twice.

The targets of the GOP leadership were Democrats who criticized Johnson's policies during the Senate's drawn-out debate on the $4.8 billion emergency military aid bill, which was passed by both houses Tuesday.

Calling on the President to disavow his Senate critics lest further damage be done, the Republicans said:

"In an effort to please the conflicting elements in the Democratic party, the administration has had to dodge and shift. Its policy and position on Viet Nam continues to be marred by indecision, sudden change and frequent reinterpretation."

"Under the circumstances it is little wonder that the enemy has been encouraged, our friends dismayed and the national unity that can do more to bring about peace negotiations than almost any other thing has been delayed."

They said the "national unity" phrase was quoted from Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey. They also quoted Humphrey in charging that Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's peace plan for Viet Nam amounted to putting a "fox in the chicken coop."

Kennedy said consideration must be given to allotting the Viet Cong some responsibility in any post Viet Nam government. His statement has since been discussed and dissected repeatedly by almost everybody debating the issue. In their statement the Republicans said that while war represented any Republican effort to make politics out of the fighting.

He said Republicans do not intend to make the war a political issue, although the American people themselves may make it one.

In the Senate, meanwhile, Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said the debate and division over Viet Nam policy will continue but will not jeopardize the President's domestic program in Congress.

House GOP Leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan denied that Rhodes' reference to advising Johnson on how to run "his just what they authorized when they voted approval of his $4.8 billion emergency Viet Nam military aid request.

Minor differences in the two versions now must be worked out before the legislation can be sent to the President.
