

TREASURY FIGURES HOLD NEW CORPORATION LEVY WOULD INCREASE TAXES

DISTRIBUTION OF EARNINGS IS ADVOCATED

CLAIM 2,879,000 WILL PAY NEW OR MORE TAXES

WASHINGTON, March 9. (AP)—Figures showing that 2,879,000 individuals would pay new or additional taxes should corporations be faced with a proposed tax on their undistributed earnings, distributed all earnings among stockholders were submitted by treasury authorities today to a house ways and means subcommittee.

On the assumption of complete distribution of all corporate earnings, the treasury estimated that $19,176,000,000 of income would be taxable.

Chairman Samuel B. Hill (D., Wash.) said today's discussions were confined to President Roosevelt's suggested corporate earnings levy. The treasury was asked to submit tables covering lower rates on a portion of net undistributed corporate income that would enable corporations to build up reserves.

He said possibly the committee would base the proposed new levy on percentages of income held back from dividends rather than on actual amounts of corporate earnings not distributed among stockholders.

Speaker Byrnes said he thought the forthcoming tax bill would include levies on undistributed corporate earnings, processing taxes, a "windfall" tax to recapture returned or unpaid processing taxes—and nothing more.

If a general revision of the tax structure is to be undertaken, it can be done next January, the speaker told reporters.

The corporation tax is designed to produce $620,000,000 in government revenue to meet the cost of the new farm program and prepayment of the bonus.

Rep. Patman (D., Tex.), leader of a bloc that has been fighting for bonus payments in the treasury, said chances of putting the currency expansion move across depended "on the kind of bill that comes out."

"If the new taxes should be relatively 'painless,'" he said, the campaign may not pick up enough credits to bring success. But if the bill should dip into income taxes, Patman said, "we would have a very good chance."

Patman conceded the proposed corporation levy was about as "painless" as any tax he could propose, and said he favored it and would not care to do anything that might jeopardize its enactment.

EDEN WARNS GERMANY NOT TO ATTACK

PRISON TERM IS ASSESSED ALLEGED SPY

German Found Guilty And Given Four Years For Violating Secrets Act.

LONDON, March 9. (AP)—Dr. Hermann Gortz, German lawyer, was found guilty by a jury today of violating the official secrets act by making a sketch of an army flying field.

He was sentenced to four years in prison.

The jury deliberated only briefly, after listening to an appeal by defense counsel Reginald Croome-Johnson to keep "your heads cool" in deciding the case.

The jury declared the German attorney to be guilty of two counts after they had examined one of Gortz' diaries in which he described motorcycle expeditions to many of Great Britain's supposedly secret airfields.

Gortz previously had admitted making the sketch but declared the drawing had been made to use in a novel he was writing.

Summing up the case, the presiding judge said "There is no doubt the sketch is a sketch of a prohibited place and the type aimed at by the legislature in passing the official secrets act."

HIROTA HEADS NEW CABINET OF JAPANESE

BOTH MILITARISTS AND LIBERALS ASSIGNED TO POSTS

TOKYO, Mar. 9. (AP)—Koki Hirota, the son of a stone mason who rose to an outstanding role on the world stage, completed today formation of a cabinet to replace the ministry of Premier Keisuke Okada, broken by the Japanese military rebellion and assassinations.

Because of Rose's plans for expanding Fort Worth's part in the state-wide centennial year observances into the most ambitious program of its kind ever undertaken, a "positive" independent reassignment will be postponed from June 6 to July 1.

"Mr. Rose is going to produce Fort Worth's Texas frontier centennial on a scale that will make it the greatest attraction of its kind ever produced anywhere," Jarvis said.

Jarvis explained that Rose came here last Friday for a visit with Rufus LeMaire, casting director for Mero-Goldwyn-Mayer, and a former director of Fort Worth.

In reviewing the plans of the board of control of the Texas frontier centennial, Rose developed an interest in the program and made so many suggestions for expanding the project that the board sought his services as managing director.

Creator Of 'Jumbo' Will Be Managing Director Of Fort Worth's Centennial

FORT WORTH, March 9. (AP)—Billy Rose, creator of "Jumbo," current theatrical world sensation, running at the New York Hippodrome since last November, will be managing director of Fort Worth's $5,000,000 "Texas Frontier Centennial." Mayor Van Zandt Jarvis announced today.

Before leaving for New York by plane Saturday, Rose signed an agreement with William Monig as president of the centennial to serve as its managing director. He will bring to Fort Worth his technical staff, which produced "Jumbo."

Rose expects to present part of his expanded plan for Fort Worth's "Texas Frontier Centennial" to the board of control and John B. Davis, general manager, within a few days and to start construction at an early date.

At the age of 16 Rose was the professional shorthand champion of the world, taking 200 words a minute. He was secretary to Bernard M. Baruch, chairman of the war industries board during the world war.

Aside from his achievements as a producer, Rose has also scored as a song writer.

EUROPE AT A GLANCE

PARIS—France led nations bound by Locarno treaty in protest of German denunciation of the pact, sent a formal protest to the League of Nations, and called a conference of signatories for tomorrow.

BERLIN—Enthusiastic celebration of Adolf Hitler's reichstag address was brought to a close as the reichsfuehrer's popularity rose to new heights.

IN THE RHINELAND—German troops estimated at approximately 15,000 occupied their positions as French soldiers moved into the steel and concrete defense line along the frontier. Fear of border incidents heightened apprehension of danger in the rear zone.

BRUSSELS—Belgium joined with France in a league protest against the German move requesting quick consideration of the international problem by the league council.

GENEVA—League officials called a council meeting for Friday, inviting Belgium, not a member of the council, and Germany, not a member of the league, to sit in on the discussion.

LONDON—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden told the house of commons he believed the German action does not carry "a threat of hostilities."

ROME—With the attention of Europe turned to the Rhineland, Italy ordered cessation of at least temporarily—of hostilities in Ethiopia.

Voyaging Again

Commodore B. M. Hatfield, descendant of one of Texas' pioneer heroes and the only man to sail a boat from Fort Worth to the Great Lakes—try it some day if you think it's easy—is "navigating" for the centennial of the state liquor monopoly vote.

He stated that "the present German action implies a threat of hostilities."

The foreign secretary indicated Great Britain was willing to consider Reichsfuehrer Hitler's proposals for new peace covenants.

Eden said he deeply regretted that he was unable to do this, because no one can fail to realize the stabilizing force of clearheaded and united British influence in the affairs of Europe at this juncture.

The house of commons was packed to the doors to hear Eden expound the British position in this moment when Germany has violated the Locarno pact throwing troops into the "demilitarized" Rhineland and France has retaliated with the wartime garrisoning of her fortifications along the frontier.

Every important embassy accredited to London was present in the diplomatic gallery. Ray Atherton, counselor of embassy, represented the United States. Norman H. Davis, the United States ambassador-at-large, also listened to Eden's address.

Eden was cheered as he rose to speak.

Eden said he had pressed directly to Ambassador von Hoesech against Germany's reoccupation of the Rhineland and that he had stated the effect upon British public opinion would be deplorable.

"I told the ambassador," said Eden, "that I deeply regretted he had given me no indication about the action the German government was taking in respect to the demilitarized zone and I stated that it amounted to a unilateral repudiation of a treaty freely negotiated and freely signed."

The minister told the legislators that the course taken by the German government "complicates and aggravates the international situation."

"The abrogation of the Locarno pact and the occupation of the demilitarized zone," declared Eden, "have profoundly shaken confidence in any engagement in which the government of Germany may in the future enter."

This statement was greeted with cheers by the members.

"There can be no one in this house or this country," said the foreign secretary, "who would wish to condone or excuse such a step. It strikes a severe blow at the principle of the sanctity of treaties which underlies the whole structure of international relations."

At the same time that he declared this warning, Eden indicated that Great Britain was willing to consider Reichsfuehrer Hitler's proposals for new peace covenants.

He said Great Britain would examine them objectively to determine their merits.

He declared: "One of the important foundations of the peace of Western Europe has been cut away, and if peace is to be secured, there is a manifest duty to rebuild."

"It is in that spirit that we must approach the new proposals of the German chancellor."

"His majesty's government will examine them with a view to finding out to what extent they represent the means by which the structure of peace can again be strengthened."

Germans, French Within Shooting Distance At Metz

Incidents on Border 'Almost Certain' To Occur

By CHARLES FOLTZ, Associated Press Foreign Staff

Metz, France, March 9. (AP)—Fear of frontier incidents swept along the border today as French and German troops faced one another on the Rhineland frontier for the first time since the world war.

The Metz, Strassbourg and Nancy headquarters of the tricolor frontier regiments were cleared of troops in a quick movement to fill the subterranean fortresses along that line of the Rhine border.

Officers said the French fortifications in some places were "within machine gun distance" of the newly arrived Nazi forces on the left bank of the Rhine.

At least 100,000 French troops were in the underground forts of France's famous steel and concrete line of defense and in advance patrol posts, all awaiting orders from Paris.

Army officers, who said the German troops across the frontier numbered about 50,000 expressed "grave fears" of frontier incidents. Some said incidents were "almost certain."

Determined to end any flights of German observation planes over French territory, swift pursuit planes remained in the air with orders to force down or to identify all aircraft aloft in the frontier region.

General Jean Guilty, military governor of Metz, said he expected no further orders for immediate reinforcements, while his aide, Colonel Andre Braul, said the French front forces were able to "defend France against any invaders."

The civil population of Alsace went proudly and calmly about its work although dozens of rumors of incidents floated through the cafes and streets while a my planes circled overhead night and day.

Mayor Paul Vaurin, a veteran of the world war said: "The ghosts of 1914 are walking in the Rhineland, but the France of 1936 is prepared. Every Alsatian knew long ago that this would happen and we are not surprised."

French officers, returning from border inspections, reported that Germans "simply moved in" to positions already prepared.

At Strassbourg, the international bridge connecting with Kehl was guarded by a French light artillery regiment.

State Enjoined From Leasing Oil Land At Capitol

OKLAHOMA CITY, Mar. 9. (AP)—District Judge G. Giddings granted a restraining order today enjoining the state board of affairs from leasing its land near the state capital for oil drilling.

The order was sought by William Scovel, resident in the capitol area, who asserted the proposed locations were not in the drilling zone.

Hearing on another injunction asked by William O. Coe, state legislator, was set for 9 o'clock tomorrow morning before Judge Giddings.

The state board last Thursday accepted bids for drilling on a tract of state land east of the governor's mansion.

New Hampshire to Elect Delegates

CONCORD, N. H., March 9. (AP)—New Hampshire will elect its delegates to the national political conventions tomorrow.

Political analysts are awaiting the results with interest because New Hampshire is the adopted state of Col. Frank Knox, Chicago publisher and candidate for the republican nomination for president, and because of a recent visit of Postmaster General James A. Farley, seeking support for President Roosevelt.

Republicans will choose from 16 candidates in selecting seven delegates-at-large while two additional delegates will be elected from each of the two congressional districts, making 11 convention votes.

Eight delegates-at-large will be elected by democrats, each with a half vote, and two delegates from each district, each with a full vote.

ENGAGEMENT OF FILM COMEDIAN IS ANNOUNCED

Charles Chaplin To Marry Leading Lady

LONDON, March 9. (AP)—The Shanghai correspondent of Reuters News agency reported today that Paulette Goddard, motion picture actress, announced her engagement to Charles Chaplin upon her arrival in Shanghai.

Miss Goddard was reported to have said that the date of the marriage had not been fixed.

It was she who played the part of "The Gamine" in the newest Chaplin picture, "Modern Times."

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., March 9. (AP)—From far-off Shanghai, via London, Hollywood heard today the confirmation of news it has rumored for four years—the engagement of Charles Chaplin, film comedian, and his leading lady, Paulette Goddard.

Ever since the July day in 1932 when Chaplin kissed her good-bye as she left by plane for New York, the former "Follies beauty"—then a plating beautician and the comic pianist—have been believed to be trothed or secretly married by film circles.

Miss Goddard, playing the heart interest in his current film, "Modern Times," worked with him several years during its production.

Chaplin introduced her from the stage. They left several days later, accompanied by Miss Goddard's mother, for Honolulu.

The marriage will be Chaplin's third and the brunette actress' first.

His first wife was blond Mildred Harris, film actress. His second was dark-haired Lita Grey, who he married in 1924 when she was 16. She had been cast in one of his films.

Two sons were born, Charles Spencer Chaplin Jr., now 10, and Sidney Earl 9.

Chaplin set up a $200,000 trust fund for his boys when he and his wife were divorced in 1927. Recently his direction of the trust was upheld in court.

During the romance of Chaplin and Miss Goddard, she and her mother frequently have entertained the Chaplin sons at mountain and desert resorts.

Negro Slayer of Deputy Captured

TAHOKEA, March 9. (AP)—Officers held in secrecy today the whereabouts of Elmo Banks, 43, negro slayer of a West Texas deputy sheriff who was captured 14 miles southwest here yesterday, and rushed to an unannounced jail.

The fatal shooting of Deputy F. E. Redwine when Banks broke jail here Friday night had sent 500 men on a chase for the negro which ended when he was found in a ditch.

B. Cook, warden of state here, gave the tip which led to the slayer's capture.

Early yesterday the negro, who had wandered without food since the jailbreak, held up Cook at the station and demanded tobacco and bacon, after he filed the order Cook called officers and found the fugitive a short distance from the store.

A 45 automatic pistol of the same type with which Redwine was slain was taken from the negro.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miller and family were visitors in H. H. Okla. yesterday.

France Declares War 'Impossible'; Condemns Britain

British Sympathy for Hitler Blocked 'Justice'

By JOHN EVANS, Copyright, 1936, by The Associated Press.

PARIS, March 9. (AP)—French officials declared today that a war with Germany to east Hitler's troops from the Rhineland was impossible and that Great Britain's apparent sympathy with the reichsfuehrer's peace offers blocked the French demands for "justice."

They said France was "strong in her right," but that she still believes in collective security—that is, joint action by allied nations.

The speech made this afternoon by Anthony Eden, the British foreign secretary, in the house of commons, a cussed exclamations of bitter disappointment in the French atmosphere of profound gloom.

Officials said that France had relied upon the loyalty of her allies, the little entente of Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia and Rumania, and upon her newly-found friend, Russia.

But, they said, France, even with the major portion of her iron ring around Germany, "must hesitate to take drastic action" if Great Britain deserts us.

They added that it was obvious from Eden's declaration in the house of commons that the idea of imposing sanctions against Germany was eliminated.

His declaration in favor of examining Hitler's peace offer, which brought applause from the mem-

BRITAIN WILLING TO CONSIDER PEACE PROPOSALS

R. H. ANDERSON, Copyright, 1936, by The Associated Press.

LONDON, March 9. (AP)—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden warned Germany today that any attack upon France or Belgium in violation of the Locarno treaty would force Great Britain to go to the assistance of those two nations.

At the same time, he told the house of commons that he was thankful to say there was no reason to suppose that "the present German action implies a threat of hostilities."

The foreign secretary indicated Great Britain was willing to consider Reichsfuehrer Hitler's proposals for new peace covenants.

FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS

Something has happened to America. Something has gone out of our life as a nation which was a part of the heritage of our forefathers, and of their strength. Something which we can restore—In 1785, when Tobias Gwynne of Philadelphia needed a new pair of shoes, he went to Thomas Edwards, the bootmaker on Water Street, and had him make up a pair.

In 1809, when Mistress Polly Livingston of New York wanted a suckling pig for her Christmas dinner, she sent for John Burke, the butcher, and talked the matter over.

In 1843, when Dr. Morris FitzHugh of Vincennes, Indiana, felt the need of a buckboard to take him about the country, he visited Joel Harris, the wheelwright down by the river, and they agreed upon specifications and costs.

Today, the great-great-grandson of Tobias Gwynne wears shoes manufactured in Massachusetts or Missouri. The great-great-granddaughter of Polly Livingston serves hams cured in Chicago or Virginia. The great-grandson of Dr. FitzHugh drives an automobile made in Detroit.

These changes are both necessary and inevitable. All growth brings with it a constantly increasing measure of complexity. But what is neither necessary nor inevitable—what is, in fact, in the highest degree perturbing—is the loss of the old friendly and understanding spirit between maker and user; the failure of the personal, human touch.

Tobias Gwynne knew Thomas Edwards—not as a name stamped upon a product—but as a man. He knew his character and his methods of doing business—where he got his leather and what pains he took to select it—how hard and skillfully he strove to give good fit and good service—how he treated his family and his apprentice—how he worked and thought and lived.

The great-great-grandson of Topis Gwynne knows none of these things. Between him and the corporation which makes his shoes there is no point of contact beyond the clerk in the store and the merchandise itself.

Yet in point of excellence of materials and workmanship—of honest and integrity—of usefulness to the individual and the community—that corporation may be, and probably is, every whit as worthy as Thomas Edwards.

Large-scale industry in America has a fascinating and inspiring story to tell—and it is one of the major misfortunes of our time that that story so seldom has been told.

Leadership has its penalties, as well as its rewards. That which is successful becomes conspicuous—and by the same token it becomes the target of attack from the envious, the ambitious, and the professional fomenters of public discontent.

From such quarters as these, the story against Big Business—the incomplete and misleading and in some cases the totally false story—has been loudly and persistently retailed.

But of the story for Big Business—of the epic of large-scale industry—little or nothing has been heard. The part which it has played in developing new comforts and conveniences within the reach of every one—in raising the general wage level—in research and the advancement of science—in enabling people to escape from the restraints of city life through low-cost transportation—in lightening the drudgery of the farmer, and in taking women out of the kitchen—all these things, and many others which have contributed towards increased human happiness and a higher standard of living in America, have remained largely untold.

And they have remained untold simply because large-scale industry itself has not chosen to tell them.

Knowledge is the parent of understanding—and it is only of understanding, that confidence can be born. In the last analysis, large-scale industry must stand or fall by the good-will and confidence of the public. A few—very few—far-sighted corporations have been notably successful in winning that good-will and confidence by telling their story to the public over a period of years. Yet even the most sanguine observer would hesitate to affirm that the temper of the public is favorable to Big Business as a whole, today. Among the 130,000,000 inhabitants of this country, Big Business has millions of impersonal customers—and altogether too few friends.

This is an unhealthy condition of affairs—not only for Big Business, but for the nation at large. Sound and enduring progress can be built only upon a basis of mutual respect and regard. This country needs Big Business for its vision and imagination—its efficiency—its courage and initiative and brains. But Big Business has an even greater need of the public. It needs its loyalty and friendship to compete against irresponsible competition—to protect itself against the attacks of the self-seeking and the misguided—to avert labor troubles and misunderstandings—in short, to exist at all.

The time has come for America to turn its face against the forces of internal strife and dissension—to seek new strength in the old solidarity of thought and feeling—to recapture, and to restore to its rightful place in our way of life of a nation, the personal, human touch—And it would be worthy of the great tradition of American industry if its leaders should be the first to take a step in that direction—if they were to stretch for the hand of fellowship frankly and generously to those who should be their neighbors, and their friends.—N. W. A.

France May Not Participate in Berlin Olympics

PARIS, March 9. (AP)—The athletic world wondered today whether Germany's denunciation of the Locarno treaty eventually would affect the Olympic games after such a possibility had been broached by a French official.

The unnamed official said France "undoubtedly will refuse to send a team to Berlin and Great Britain, Italy and Belgium probably will follow suit." The official pointed out that if sanctions were imposed they would probably extend to participation in the Berlin games.

Although the French stand was expected to hinge on developments of the next few weeks, the French Olympic committee was said to be planning a conference.

In the United States, Avery Brundage, president of the American Olympic committee, said he did not believe the action of Germany would forestall the games.

DIAMONDS WILL PUT UP FIGHT FOR PENNANT

CHANCES DEPEND ON WHETHER PYTLAK WILL RECOVER

By PAUL MICKELSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW ORLEANS, March 9. (AP)—Cleveland's Indians, spirits fired to a new high under the popular Steve O'Neill, threaten a wholesale massacre of enemy hopes over the American league pennant trail this year.

Give the Indian chief a fair share of the breaks, together with Catcher Frank Pytlak and Outfielder Bruce Campbell at peak form, and he will lead the Tribe men in a great fight for the flag that hasn't floated over the Indian tepees since 1920. Take them away, and he'll have a big job on his hands in his first full year as successor to Walter Johnson.

Probably no one man in camp means as much to Cleveland's success as Pytlak, a moody little man weighing but 162 pounds. If Pytlak, out of the lineup the last half of the 1935 season when the Indians wound up third, can come back after his illness, O'Neill's biggest problem will be solved. Four backstops, Joe Becker, Bob Garbark, Charlie (The Greek) George, and Billy Sullivan, are working hard for the job should Pytlak fall, but all of them are uncertainties.

Campbell, however, is certain to make a comeback after his near fatal illness of spinal meningitis last season. Apparently in top form, he has been hitting the ball even harder than he did last season when he left the game with a .325 batting average. With Campbell roving the outfield with Earl Averill and Joe Vosmik, the Indians should have plenty of speed and power.

Addition of Johnny Allen from New York and George Blahodich from Philadelphia will give O'Neill a well rounded, brilliant pitching staff. Under his present plans, O'Neill will carry nine pitchers, probably Allen, Lloyd Brown, Mel Harder, Oral Hildebrand, Willis Hudlin, Thornton Lee, Ralph Winegarner, Blahodich and Clint Brown. All are right handed except Lee and Lloyd Brown. Al Milnar, southpaw obtained from New Orleans, and the veteran Walter Tauscher, a right handed flinger from Minneapolis, will have a big job breaking in on that staff.

O'Neill's infield seems well set with Hal Tracy at first, Bill Knickerbocker at shortstop, Odell (Bad News) Hale at third and either Louis Berger or Roy Hughes at second.

"I see they are picking us to finish fourth," said O'Neill. "That's okay with us, but I've got a hunch we're going to fool 'em this year. Give us an even shake in the breaks and we'll be up there all the way."

Texas League Has Largest Group Of Players In Years

Training Season in State Starts Today

(By The Associated Press)
Ambitious rookies and confident veterans gathered at spring training camps of Texas league clubs today as managers opened the annual season of ironing out kinks, improving batting eyes and pitching arms, and praying for diamonds in the rough.

One of the largest groups of candidates in years unlimbered for the first time for the 1936 pennant chase and the eight teams training away from home lots. The Dallas Steers cavorted in devotion to battermen, who, in some cases, reported several days in advance of teammates.

The crack of bats was heard over a wide field, with four of the eight teams training away from home lots. The Dallas Steers cavorted in devotion to battermen, who, in some cases, reported several days in advance of teammates.

PROSPECTS OF CATS DEPEND ON CINCINNATI

'BIG BROTHERS' DUE TO CHIP IN WITH PLAYERS

(Editor's Note: This is the last of a series on Texas league prospects.)
By LEROY MENZING
Sports Editor, Fort Worth Star-Telegram

PORT WORTH, March 9. (AP)—To be or not to be once puzzled Bill Shakespeare's Hamlet, and the Fort Worth baseball fans are confronted with somewhat the same problem—are the Cats to come up with a first division club or are they to finish in the lower depths, poking into the green pasture "farms" of the Texas league, have come off with another flock of prize rookies.

Recently groomed by the pitching Deans, Schoolboy Rowe, Hank Greenberg, Pinkey Higgins, Zeke Bonura, Jo-Jo White and others who made good, the famous proving ground for major leaguers has a varied assortment of "graduated" pitchers, sluggers and sparkling infielders up in the big-time again this year.

As usual, Detroit picked the plums of the circuit from its producing Beaumont farm. Three dazzling young hurriers, the league's champion home-run cluster and two other fence-busters from Beaumont went to the world champions' training camp at Lakeland, Fla.

York to 'Worry' Greenberg
Clarence (Red) Phillips, sorrel-topped youngster who won 20 games and lost 11 last season; Steve Larkin, who won six and lost three, and Joe Hare, winner of 14 and loser of 13, s Detroit's rookie pitching prizes from Beaumont.

In addition, Rudy York, slugging first-sacker who smacked 32 homers, batted .301 and drove home 117 runs on his good for 141 extra bases, went up as a possible "stand-in" to worry Hank Greenberg. Buddy Bates, 304-hitting outfielder, and Don Ross, third-baseman who batted .299 in almost 600 trips to the plate, are seeking regular berths with the Tigers.

Galveston sent up three stars for trials. Brooklyn grabbed lanky Max Butcher, whose right arm swept in 24 victories against 11 losses and accounted for seven shutouts. The New York Giants took Charlie English, the bustling little second-baseman who rang up a 304 batting average and had 42 doubles while accepting 239 chances for errors. Connie Mack's Athletics took over Galveston's Jerome Yarker, a daring shortstop whose weakness is light-hitting, evidenced by a 240 average to show for 208 times at bat.

The Chicago White Sox plucked the pitching prize of the Texas league, Russell (Red) Evans, right-hander who had 24 wins and eight losses in 1935 for Oklahoma City's Indians. Evans also hurled his club to the Dixie championship.

The St. Louis Cardinals, already loaded with Houston products, are looking over three more "Buff" rookies. Lynn King, who snagged 50 fly balls in center field for a New Texas league record, took a .292 batting average to the gas-house gang. King had 192 hits, including 168 singles. Nelson Potter, a 'teen-age moundsman who faltered late and finished with 11 wins and 17 losses, and Biss McGee, who won 15 and lost 13, also went to the Cards.

The St. Louis Browns got two stars from their San Antonio farm, Mel Mazera, a promising outfielder who socked 34 doubles and 10 triples and average .282, and Earl Caldwell, mound veteran who turned in 19 wins and 15 losses.

Ed Selway, young Tulsa Oiler pitcher who won but three of 11 games, went up to the Yankees.

ALLISON GIRLS WIN THIRD IN AAU TOURNEY

CONSOLATION HONORS WON BY HEMPHILL SEXTET

Allison's sensational Ramblerettes took consolation honors at the State AAU basketball tournament in Plainview by defeating the high-stepping Abernathy sextet by a score of 32 to 23, Saturday night.

The Panhandle entry in the tournament stepped into too fast company in the first round of play, being defeated by the Wimborsboro team which lost a thrilling game to Plainview for state honors. The Allison girls, with only one senior in the lineup, were nervous and failed to hit their stride.

So outstanding was the play of the Allison team that Lottie Belle Traylor was named one of the all-tournament guards. Ruby Gunter, Allison forward, was winner of a free-throw contest, sinking 42 out of 50 throw attempts.

Oleta Jones led Allison to a 39 to 23 victory over Dumont for the right to enter the finals in the consolation round. The Ramblerettes took an early lead and commanded it all the way.

Jones and Gunter stood out for Allison at forward positions in the final game. Taylor turned in an exceptionally strong game at guard, coached by Coach Jones. Coach Jones Peeples will lead Allison forward, was winner of a free-throw contest, sinking 42 out of 50 throw attempts.

Roosevelt Makes Plea to Labor And Rail Heads

WASHINGTON, March 9. (AP)—A plea for harmony from President Roosevelt led officials to hope today that railroad management and labor would intensify efforts to untangle a knotty problem—what to do for employees displaced in rail unification projects.

This question—one of the most vexing in the government's entire rail coordination program—arose almost with the inception of Transportation Coordinator Joseph B. Eastman's efforts to effect unifications.

Mr. Roosevelt stepped into the picture yesterday with a letter to J. J. Felley, president of the Association of American Railroads, and J. A. Phillips, vice chairman of the committee of railway labor executives.

Expressing concern over "conditions in the railroad industry," the president urged that management and the men ought to be able to agree in their common interests by coordination projects.

Otherwise, he warned, "both sides will take extreme positions" and will resort to congress for legislation on the subject.

"This, he said, would bring 'unfortunate results in many different ways.'"

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, March 9. (AP)—Various potential "war babies" gave a moderately bullish demonstration in today's stock market, but backed up near the finish as recent leaders failed to rally.

Specialties steady to firm included some of the aviation, sugar, farm implement, oil and mining issues. The close was heavy. Transfers approximated 2,500,000 shares.

international affairs, his majesty's government feel that no opportunity for consideration of the new situation exists at present.

Eden announced that he and Lord Halifax, the lord privy seal, would represent Great Britain at the forthcoming meeting of the League of Nations council, in Geneva.

It is believed that there should be no misunderstanding about our position as the signator of the Locarno pact," said Eden, "his majesty's government think it necessary to say that should there take place during the period which will be necessary for consideration of the new situation which has arisen any actual attack upon France or Belgium, which would constitute a violation of article 2 of the Locarno pact, his majesty's government, notwithstanding the German repudiation of the treaty, would regard themselves as in honor bound to come, in the manner provided in the treaty, to the assistance of the country attacked."

Every member and every other spectator leaned forward, straining to hear every syllable of the pronouncement.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, March 9. (AP)—The list weakened further during the forenoon under scattered selling, attributed mostly to hedging operations. Around noon, with the exception of January a comparatively inactive position at this time, the market ruled one point down to two points up from Saturday's close and 5 to 11 points down from initial prices, with March at 11.16, May at 10.77, July at 10.48 and October at 10.17.

January held at 10.28, its opening price, which was 9 points net higher.

The most elaborate and expensive dramatic production ever staged in the southwest will be produced at the Texas Centennial exposition opening in Dallas, June 6. It is "Cavalade of Texas," will cost $150,000, have a cast of 500 and be played on a stage 300 feet wide and 250 feet deep.

The Torcaya pigeon, now almost extinct, will be displayed at the Texas Centennial exposition opening in Dallas June 6. Ornithologists claim this red bellied bird is one of the rarest in America. Flocks of thousands were common in the southwest a hundred years ago.

T. R. Cooper was able to leave Pampa-Jarratt hospital this morning.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, March 9. (AP)—Suggestions from British sources that Germany's military movements in the Rhineland would not cause war led late today to a material fall of wheat prices.

Disappointment was expressed at absence of any urgent European demand for wheat from Canada. Domestic wheat crop advances continued optimistic.

Wheat closed weak, 1/4-1 1/2 under Saturday's finish, May 98 1/2-99, July 88 1/2-89, corn 1/4-1/2 down, May 14 1/2, oats 1/2 to 1 cent off, and provisions varying from 2 cents decline to 7 cents advance.

WHAT IS HOME WITHOUT A GARDEN?

Start Plants Early in Seed Flats

Thousands of seedling plants are grown successfully each spring in small boxes of soil placed in boxes in south or east windows.

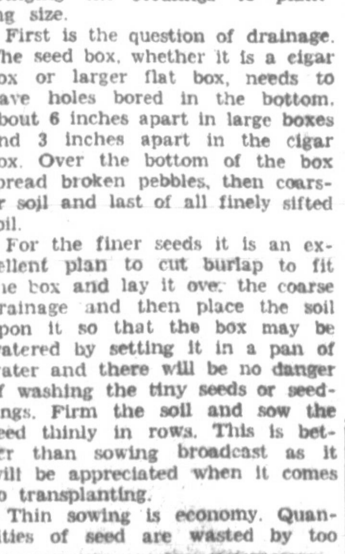

They are a reliable aid to good gardening if properly handled.

The preparation of the seed box is a simple task but one that needs care to be reasonably certain of bringing the seedlings to planting size.

First is the question of drainage. The seed box, whether it is a cigar box or larger flat box, needs to have holes bored in the bottom, about 6 inches apart in large boxes and 3 inches apart in the cigar box. Cover the bottom of the box spread broken pebbles, then coarser soil and last of all finely sifted soil.

For the finer seeds it is an excellent plan to cut burlap to fit the box and lay it over the coarse drainage and then place the soil upon it so that the box may be watered by setting it in a pan of water and there will be no danger of washing the tiny seeds or seedlings. Firm the soil and sow the seed thinly in rows. This is better than sowing broadcast as it will be appreciated when it comes to transplanting.

Thin sowing is economy. Quantities of seed are wasted by too

PRaise Is Given Dave Pope, Local Pioneer Resident

"Texas had her soldier heroes at the Alamo and Texas has her pioneers who are also heroes. We come today to pay tribute to one of the pioneers of the Panhandle," said speakers at the funeral of Dave Pope yesterday afternoon in First Baptist church. Services were spoken by the Rev. L. Burney Shell, Presbyterian minister, and the Rev. C. E. Lancaster, Baptist minister.

The large church auditorium was filled to capacity with friends and neighbors. Beautiful floral offerings banked the casket and front of the church. Favorite hymns of Mr. Pope were sung by Mrs. A. H. Doucette and a quartet composed of R. B. Fisher, Charlie Mullen, C. O. Huber, and R. L. Alston.

Near the close of the service, Jephtha Todd of Canadian, long-time friend of Mr. Pope, suffered a heart attack. He recovered sufficiently to be taken to his home and this morning it was learned that he was recovering.

Mr. Pope, 68, moved to the Panhandle 50 years ago, first settling in Roberts county, where he had resided in Pampa since 1913.

Survivors are Mrs. Pope and two daughters, Mrs. Clinton Henry and Miss Claudine Pope.

bers of the house, was regarded as England's policy.

Such an examination was specifically rejected by Premier Sarraut last night as officials commented that Eden knew of this rejection when he spoke.

BERLIN, March 9. (AP)—Heavily armed forces of French and German troops faced each other across the Rhine today as the Nazi foreign office balked at League of Nations efforts to uphold the Locarno treaty.

Thousands of French troops continued to take strategic positions on the left bank of the Rhine, strengthening their steel and concrete frontier posts with heavy artillery and barbed wire.

On the right bank the Nazi troops who marched in Saturday as Adolf Hitler denounced the mutual security treaty maintained their military encampments.

A foreign office spokesman in Berlin discussed frankly Germany's irritation at the manner in which it had been notified of the special league council session Friday to consider French and Belgian protests to reoccupation of the Rhineland.

This spokesman declared Germany must have a formal invitation to the council meeting if a Nazi delegate is expected to sit in on the discussions.

CLAYTON OPPOSES

WASHINGTON, March 9. (AP)—Opposition to the Smith bill for disposal of government cotton holdings under a weekly sales quota system was expressed today by W. L. Clayton, Houston, Texas, cotton merchant. Testifying before the senate agriculture committee's hearing on cotton futures trading, Clayton said such a plan would be "unwise and a mistake."

OIL NEWS AND NOTES

OIL PRODUCTION UP

WASHINGTON, March 9. (AP)—The Bureau of Mines reported today that January crude oil production totaled 88,820,000 barrels, a daily average of 2,865,200 barrels—slightly above December but 13 per cent slightly above December but 13 per cent.

All Texas major producing districts recorded a decline in January and the state's daily average dropped from 1,094,100 barrels in December to 1,066,400 barrels in January.

California's production was slightly higher than December, the Kettleman Hills daily average dropping to below 100,000 barrels while other valley pools increased. Oklahoma's production increased 17,400 barrels as the Oklahoma City field total rose to 143,000 barrels, the highest since last July.

Louisiana's new record of 179,700 barrels daily, the new Rodessa field produced 29,000 barrels. The New Mexico production of 61,800 barrels also was a record.

The bureau said increased crude runs were reflected in the trend of oil stocks, the withdrawal increasing from 927,000 barrels in December to 1,550,000 barrels in January. Total crude stocks as of January 31, 1936, were 213,081,000 barrels.

The bureau declared the domestic demand for motor fuel—32,555,000 barrels—although below December was "surprisingly high" in view of the generally unfavorable weather. Stocks of motor fuel increased materially, finished gasoline rising during January from 50,847,000 barrels to 55,776,000 barrels, unfinished gasoline from 6,048,000 barrels to 6,837,000 barrels and natural gasoline from 3,698,000 barrels to 3,936,000 barrels.

The bureau of labor statistics announced the price index for petroleum products for January was 54.4 compared with 52.8 in December and 48.8 in January, 1935.

The decrease in stocks of all oils in January was 356,000 barrels, compared with 3,488,000 barrels in December and an increase of 1,281,000 barrels in January, 1935.

COTTON SITUATION IMPROVED SAYS NOTED MARKET EXPERT

AUSTIN, March 9.—The cotton situation is somewhat improved, it is the verdict of Dr. A. B. Cox, director of the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research, and noted marketing authority.

"Improvement began last fall when the government shifted from its policy of lending above market price to raise prices, to that of opening the channels of trade as a means of increasing consumption to raise price," Dr. Cox explained.

"The effectiveness of the latter policy, as contrasted with the holding policy, is best illustrated by what has happened in the last two years. When the 12-cent loan went into effect in August, 1934, the price of middling 7-8 inch spot cotton in New Orleans was 13.35

Love is Menace To Nurses and Medical World

DALLAS, March 9. (AP)—What medical America needs is a good dart-proof shield between its student nurses and Dan Cupid.

So agreed members of the Texas Hospital Association in session here. It's tiring, they said, to train patiently for months and months, only to have their charges step smilingly into the first outstretched pair of arms.

A suggestion that uniforms be made so unbecoming that only a mother could love the wearers, was not officially adopted.

Bryce Twitty, superintendent of Baylor hospital, said 30 per cent of the senior students are lost each year through marriage.

Mrs. Martha Roberson, administrator of the Medical and Surgical Memorial hospital in San Antonio, agreed.

"Sometimes they marry doctors, sometimes internes, sometimes patients, sometimes somebody else," Mrs. Roberson said. "Anyway, they marry too often."

She said nurses are exceptionally marriageable because they are select young women, pretty, healthy and intelligent.

A lowered standard for nursing school entrants might help, but hospitals would rather face the marriage problem, she said.
