House Decision On Presidency Is Cause

WASHINGTON (UPI) - House Republican leader Gerald R. Ford warned today the nation faces a possible "constitutional crisis" if no presidential candidate wins a majority of the electoral votes Nov. 5

The Michigan lawmaker said if the Republicans win control of the House on that day, "one of the first orders of business" in the 91st Congress will be a constitutional amendment to replace the electoral college system.

Ford, at a news conference shortly before the 90th Congress reconvened for its post-conven tion session, said he was "very apprehensive" that the third Alabama Gov. George Wallace. ### Minor Incidents In Police Report

One burglary and several minor incidents were reported to Pampa police last night and early today.

The burglary occurred at a house at 1013 S. Clark, but the owner told police that only her black cocker spaniel dog appeared to be missing.

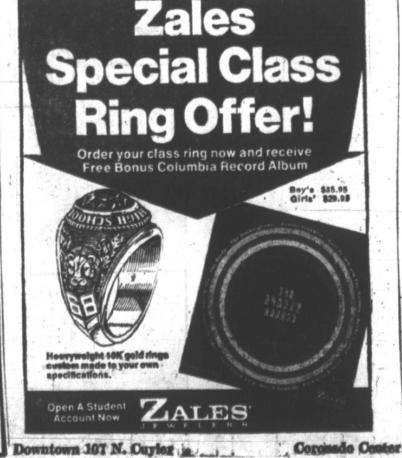

Other incidents included a missing daughter, an unfounded report of a house break-in, and a report of "suspicious boys" in a neighborhood.

The Pampa News it dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost cape-

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license, nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself. No more, no less, It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.
