TEX'S TOPICS

BY TEX DE WEESE

Thursday is just about as good a day as any for this partner and a little confession—perhaps, release a personal idiosyncrasy that may just as well be turned loose now as later.

It has to do with the lowly, and commonly-labeled, "hamburger" sandwich, scores of many—but, favorite midnight snack with us for years and years, over violent protests of some who lean to filet mignon, or chicken a la king and such as night-cap supper pieces.

Mail from on old "round-the-table" supper, cafe partner and audent hamburger enthusiast, with whom we spent many a happy hour dallying with the ground beefsteak, diced onion, hot sauce, lettuce and mayonnaise, can be blamed for this effusion.

Being adept at this art of preparing a hamburger sandwich, fit for a king, if there were a king in Pampa, there is no reticence on our part in divulging any culinary secrets in that direction.

Housewives will be interested. Husbands and bachelors, who cook a bit themselves, will thank us to their dying day, we know. So, to the meat of the plan:

HOW TO FRY A HAMBURG:
In the first place your true connoisseur of hamburgers, never refers to them as "hamburgers" and never attempts to fry one before 11:40 o'clock at night.

Any time a good, faithful hour arrives, lay down your paper or copy of the Texas Guide and advance with deliberateness and utmost determination to the kitchen. Choose a skillet that has that jaunty lift, the while ignoring with great dignity anyone who may be shouting that you're a bit daffy for getting such a fool notion into your head in the middle of the night.

That's one of the first things a hamburger artist must overcome. It will surprise you to learn just how many persons there are in the world today who believe there is no culture whatsoever in the soul of a hamburger addict.

Right off the bat, dispense with flour. Remember what the chef told you at that place in Minnesota where they broil 'em over charcoal and sell 'em at 65 cents a copy, although they would be cheap at any price: It's all in the slow cooking.

After poking the hamburgers around in the skillet (frying pan to you) for at least 20 minutes over a very slow flame, break one of the choice pellets open and notice that the meat still has that red-salls-in-the-sunset hue.

At this point you may cast care completely to the winds, give your sneering friends a northwest glare, turn the fire way up and carefully guard yourself against sputtering.

So far, so good. Now, just when the skillet seems about to explode in a base smoke and sparks turn out the fire, rescue the blackened cadavers, place between large hunks of bread, sneer again at your critics, lean against the kitchen sink and devour with ketchup and onion, while old man Dyspepsia sits at the west of the refrigerator and laughs.

As you go through this world you will find that in the many, many daily columns of guff that appear in the newspapers of the nation, you will find one that will give you the benefits of personal success, such as you have just read here.

There isn't one columnist in a hundred who knows beans about frying a hamburger. Next time you meet one—pin him down, ask him about it—then, watch him wriggle.

Which brings us around, George Ade-like, to the moral for today: A column in print is worth two in the mind. Or, as a columnist we try some pretty good hamburgers.

On top of all that, the just about concludes today's lesson on "how to write a column." Students will be aware by now that this is almost the end of the day's job of filling up the copy that has been able to get this far on no subject at all, other than a hamburger.

One item concerning the recent Democratic convention of which you may not have heard, was delivered to each delegate at his home and the others were mailed to his home town.

You would have to work on a newspaper to realize what a tremendous job this is.

DROUTH AREA HIT BY FOREST FIRES

Son Is Born To Mother Of Quints

CALLANDER, Ont., July 9 (AP)—A son was born today to Mrs. Olive Dionne, mother of the quintuplets.

Dr. J. E. I. Joyal officiated. He was assisted by Mike Charette, a nurse of Callander.

Both Mrs. Dionne and the boy were described by Dr. Joyal as in "exceptionally good condition."

The child was born today.

As in the case of the quintuplets, now housed in their ultra-modern private hospital, the newborn baby was born in the farmhouse.

The birth of quintuplets to obscure Oliva and Elzire Dionne May 28, 1934, in an old farm house near Callander, Ont., catapulted them into world attention.

Said the father: "I'm the kind of a fellow they should put in jail."

Almost ignored was Dr. Allan Roy Dafoe, an unknown country doctor, who had as his task what few men in medical history have faced.

The chances they would be born at all were 4,500,000 to one. The chances they would live were not calculable.

Drop by drop he fed them a mixture of corn syrup and milk and water. Ounce by ounce they gained weight and added strength.

2 KILLED, 2 WOUNDED IN GUN FIGHT ALLRED STAYS EXECUTION OF GLENN WARREN

'LITTLE TIME TO COLLECT SELF' ASKED

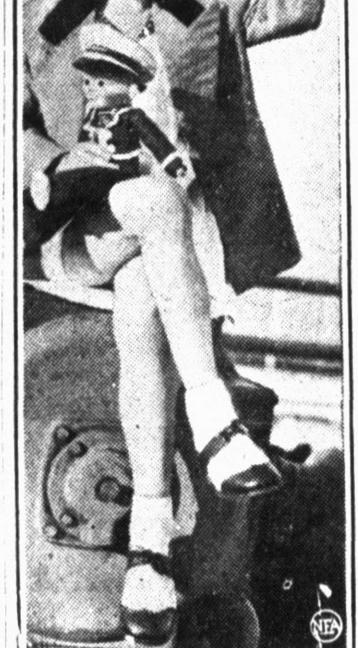

MAN GIVEN CHANCE TO 'PULL HIMSELF TOGETHER'

LONGVIEW, July 9 (AP)—Governor James V. Allred today granted a three-week stay of execution to Glenn Warren, one of four men sentenced to die early tomorrow at Huntsville penitentiary.

Warren had asked for "a little time to collect myself." He first of the slaying of his father Saturday night allegedly by the son of the man he was convicted of murdering.

The elder Warren was shot to death near his Zavalla home after an argument with M. H. Cansler. Glenn Warren was convicted with Shirley Temple, Jane Withers and other cinema prodigies for American fame. Deidre is seen cumulating grownup stars on arrival at New York from her native England.

Shirley's Rival

Already a star in her own right, 7-year-old Deidre Gale Broughton is nearing Hollywood to vie with Shirley Temple, Jane Withers and other cinema prodigies for American fame. Deidre is seen cumulating grownup stars on arrival at New York from her native England.

POLICEMAN IS SLAIN; ANOTHER IS NEAR DEATH

KARPIS-BARKER BANDIT DIES FIGHTING FOR LIFE

BY A. J. STRAUSS
Enid News-Eagle Staff Writer
(Written Exclusively for the Associated Press)

ENID, Okla., July 9 (AP)—An amazing story of how two demented St. Peter, Minn., asylum fugitives, hiding behind a front of respectability, staged a series of robberies and other crimes in Oklahoma and Kansas was told to me today by Donald Reeder, one of the pair.

The 27-year-old fugitive Minnesota bank robber talked coolly of his plans to lay by a small fortune and escape into Mexico as his companion, murderous Lawrence De Vol, lay in a morgue here.

Before De Vol died in a hail of police bullets last night, his blazing pistol had taken the life of Patrolman Cal Palmer and dangerously wounded Ralph Knarr, another Enid policeman.

In a jail cell here, Reeder told me how he and De Vol, Barker-Karpis gang triggerman, had lived off the profits of forays into Kansas and nearby Oklahoma points, amassing a bank of $100,000 to complete their fortune.

These plans went awry when De Vol was killed as he ran from a beer parlor where he had shot down the two Enid officers.

Reeder told me the two had held up banks at Little River and Turin, Kas., within the last two weeks, and couldn't remember the name.

Then Reeder showed me his back, exhibiting evidence of having been punctured recently by buckshot. He said that was a memento from a Perry night watchman, who surprised him, De Vol, and a third St.

THOUSANDS OF ACRES BURNED IN MOUNTAINS

CATTLE, WILD GAME PERISH IN FLAMES IN WYOMING

NEWCASTLE, Wyo., July 9 (AP)—Forest fires, drouth and insects harassed northeastern Wyoming today as the worst heat wave in years sent temperatures shooting close to the 100 mark.

Cattle and wild game were believed burned to death and thousands of acres of timber were destroyed by fire which raged uncontrolled in the Bear Lodge mountains near Sundance.

Two other fires in the Black hills of Wyoming were brought under control by a thousand workers but other fires were reported near Sheridan and in Montana.

Approximately 1,000 CCC and WPA workers, aided by volunteers fought the Bear Lodge fire, which was fanned out of control by a stiff breeze last night.

It burned 15,000 acres of timber along Beaver Creek and reached the Warren Peak country last night.

Two men reported missing last night were found safe today.

Terror-stricken wild animals cowered in the dense smoke and perished. A herd of cattle, sighted in a canyon into which the fire swept was apparently lost.

NEWCASTLE, Wyo., July 9 (AP)—Two thousand men fought three disastrous fires in "Gunpowder Dry" district of northeast Wyoming today.

Two of the blazes were under control but the third raged unchecked within one-half mile of the mountain town of Sundance. Working in the heart of the Bear Lodge mountains.

The fire started near the town, which has a population of 400 and only a lucky shift in wind kept the flames from town instead of toward it.

The town, however, was threatened with a serious water shortage. Supplying water to more than 50 neighboring ranches and approximately 1,000 men fighting the forest fire at its edge, Sundance found itself to-

Tenant Strike In E. Arkansas Ends

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 9 (AP)—The "general strike" among tenant farmers, sharecroppers and day laborers in east Arkansas was ended today by declaration of the Southern Tenant Farmers Union.

H. L. Mitchell, secretary of the union, said the strike had been successful in forcing "higher wages for thousands of day laborers," and in demonstrating "that negro and white workers in the cotton fields have become aware of their common interests and are willing to get together and fight for them."

Farmers and officers in Cross, Crittenden and St. Francis counties, in which the strike was called, insisted the strike has never been effective, that labor has been plentiful at 75 cents a day and that the calling off of the strike was "just another publicity gag."

The strike reached a climax a few weeks ago when Miss Willie Sue Bladen, Memphis social worker and the Rev. Claude Williams of Little Rock charged they were flouted by a band of men near Earle, Ark.

They went there seeking proof of the reported death from a "beating" of Frank Weems, 40, negro sharecropper.

Sheriff Howard Curlin has declared Weems is still alive and that he will produce him soon.

'MIRACLE MAN,' ACTOR MEIGHAN OF FILMS DIES

Spurned Medicine to Carve Career As Actor

NEW YORK, July 9 (AP)—Thomas Meighan, who started out to be a doctor but who became one of America's best known stage and screen personalities, is dead.

The "miracle man" of the silent screen succumbed last night at his Great Neck, Long Island, home after an illness of more than a year. He was 57 years old.

Meighan was born in Pittsburgh of well-to-do parents. He first demurred at suggestions of a college education, finally consented to study medicine at St. Mary's college at Baltimore and then spurned such a career to carve his own success as an actor.

His star, although it declined with the advent of "The Talkies" never eclipsed. He made a few pictures in 1927, and in the last seven years retired twice only to come back each time.

"Peck's Bad Boy," in which he was filmed in 1934 with Jackie Cooper, was Meighan's farewell to the work he loved.

Meighan deserted the stage in 1916 for the fledgling movie industry, and shortly afterward made what probably was his greatest success, "The Miracle Man," the picture in which his name thereafter was linked. He reached his peak of popularity in 1925 and 1926, and was one of filmdom's highest paid stars with a contract reputedly calling for $10,000 per week.

Among his pictures were: "The Prince and the Pauper," "The City of Silent Men," "Home-ward Bound," "Male and Female," and "Tin Gods." His stage success in his earlier years included "The Return of Peter Grimm," "Broadway Jones," and "On Trial."

Liquor Will Be Issue in Sooner Runoff Primary

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 9 (AP)—Two "New Deal" aspirants for the U. S. Senate seal lost by the veteran P. Gore last plans today for vigorous campaign before the Democratic runoff primary July 28.

With returns on Tuesday's election in from all but 58 scattered precincts among the 3,411 in Oklahoma, Governor E. W. Marland apparently had clinched a place in the runoff against the high man, Rep. Josh Lee, formerly a professor of public speaking at the University of Oklahoma.

Almost to the end, however, Marland's advantage over Gomer Smith, national vice president of the Townsend pension organization, was a slender one. Once yesterday it shrank to some 700 votes. Early today the governor's lead was only 4,179 votes.

Unofficial tabulations of the balloting in 3,353 precincts gave Lee 154,298, Marland 120,002, Smith 115,823, and Gore the blind, veteran incumbent, 1,611.

Smith refused to concede the election, saying he would wait for the official returns before making any statement.

Governor Marland has called for a vote at the second primary on an initiative measure for repeal of state prohibition and control of the sale of liquor. Lee was campaigning as the only avowed dry in a field of eight candidates, and the liquor question is expected to be an important factor in the senatorial runoff race.

Forty Absentee Votes Are Cast

County voters who will be out of the county on first primary day July 25 are taking advantage of the absentee privilege, County Clerk Charles Tust stated today.

Forty absentee ballots already have been cast at the clerk's office, and 65 ballots have been mailed to electors already out of the county.

Wednesday, July 22, will be the last day on which absentee ballots may be cast.

Judge to Clear Criminal Docket

Non-jury criminal cases on the docket in district court, some of which are six years old, will be cleaned up on Monday, July 27, Judge W. R. Ewing announced today.

Twenty-one of these cases have been hanging fire in the court since as far back as 1930 the judge stated, and each of them will be called for disposition on that date, which has been especially set aside at the beginning of the ninth week of the court term.

Judge Ewing sounded his warning to both sides in these cases today when he made the following statement:

"There are a number of non-jury cases on the docket which have been called from time to time with no appearance for either side.

"When these cases are called on July 27, all cases in which there is no appearance will be dismissed for want of prosecution."

SENATOR BORAH TO 'LONE WOLF' IT IN CAMPAIGN

Idaho Lion Files His Candidacy Thru Friend

BOISE, Idaho, July 9 (AP)—Senator William E. Borah entered at 71 today what may prove the fight of a lifetime.

In the face of potent opposition—both within his own Republican ranks and from the Democratic party if he wins the nomination—the shaggy-haired statesman quietly filed nominating petitions through a friend.

He kept his campaign plans to himself. He even withheld formal personal announcement of his candidacy.

"The filing speaks for itself," was the only comment of the "Lion of Idaho" who mingles with Presidents and lowly farmers with equal dexterity.

Few denied that Borah faces a bitter battle. Within his own party are three opponents—Townsend-backed Byron DeFenbach, State Senator Ralph Whitten of Grimes Pass and State Representative Tracy Cole, novelist and school teacher, of Shoshone.

This four-way battle of votes will be fought in the primary August 11. If the veteran campaigner survives the primary, as his friends claim he will, he must match vote-getting wits with a powerful Democratic lion.

Wheat Cutting Is Resumed Here

Although still somewhat tough and of poor test, wheat cutting was resumed in the Pampa area today. A few farmers began cutting yesterday afternoon but encountered difficulties.

Elevators today were paying 99 cents a bushel. Grain delivered tested as low as 54 with 56 top.

Unless more rain falls, the crop in this section of the Panhandle should be harvested by the middle of next week.

People You Know

By ARCHER FULLINGIM

Over on the high school campus where the tennis courts used to be, they are now building an auditorium, and the site is a labyrinth of trenches, high mounds of gravel, dirt, sand, sacks of cement, shovels, wheelbarrows, concrete mixers.

There, nightly, battles have been fought by veterans of possible future wars. Blood has not been spilled, but skin has been knocked off by flying clods and rocks. The combatants are two gangs of boys, and thus far neither side has won a definite victory.

Over-the-top warfare is not popular because the boys like to crouch in the trenches peeping warily at the enemy lines and watch a top-knot of hair duck back into the trench.

Trench warfare became general only once—when one side allowed a nigger-shooter expert to pick off the enemy from a secret position behind a wheel barrow. The war came to a sudden end for the night when a series of clods pelled the architect's house on the campus.

Chicago Solon Assassinated

Underworld Revenge Seen in Killing Of Bolton

CHICAGO, July 9 (AP)—State Representative John M. Bolton, 29, was assassinated early today in typical gangland style—a shotgun blast ripped through his head after he failed to distance pursuers in a mile-a-minute chase through West Side streets.

Officials, admittedly at a loss for a definite motive, pondered a theory his efforts to legalize handbook betting here had brought swift underworld retaliation, and began a new investigation into Chicago gambling.

Representative from the second Chicago district since 1930 and nominated in the April primary election, Bolton died at the wheel of his car, wrecked when it careened into a trolley post, as his killers fled after firing the fatal charge at close quarters.

The killers, whose number was undetermined, worked in the style made familiar in the gang days of prohibition, as they made the relentless, careening pursuit that resulted in the one outburst of gunfire—and death.

Bolton, 34 years old, was a leader of the Chicago bloc in the state legislature and author of a bill at the last session which would have enabled the city to license handbook betting.

The bill was approved by both houses but was stopped short of enactment by Governor Horner's veto.

Many operators of so-called wildcat handbooks were reported to have feared the law in the belief that limitation of the number of licenses issued would have resulted in a "freeze out" of their business.

The killing was witnessed by Harry Blanford, 42, who was riding in his car when Bolton's automobile roared past, followed by one in which, Blanford said, "several men" leaned out, firing guns.

"I stopped my car, fearing we would be struck by some of the bullets," the witness related. "Just then the car being shot at crashed into a trolley pole."

THE WEATHER

West Texas: Partly cloudy tonight and Friday; local thunderstorms in extreme west portion tonight.

TEN CRIMINAL CASES WILL BE CALLED MONDAY

Nine Charged With Driving While Intoxicated

Ten criminal and six civil cases are scheduled to be called for trial in district court here next Monday morning, it was announced today by Frank Hill, district clerk.

Next week, Mr. Hill stated, will be a civil jury week, subject to the criminal docket.

Judge W. R. Ewing stated that the non-jury docket will be called for disposition Monday, July 27, beginning the ninth week of the term.

Of the ten criminal cases slated to be called Monday, nine are for drunken driving. Defendants in these cases in the order in which they will be called are, Jack K. Randolph and P. L. East, A. H. Keaton and Wade Handy, T. P. Kelly, D. M. Smith, H. A. Holland, G. A. Jarrell, Ben Dumas, Ernest Langley and O. F. Martin.

The other criminal case is that of the State of Texas vs. Frank L. Baker, charged with forgery.

Following is a list of civil cases that will be called following the criminal docket:

E. Bass Clay vs. Rudco Gas & Oil Co., a try title action; Atrolene Gasoline Corp. vs. W. H. Blevins, suit on verified account; N. E. Rupert, a minor by his father and next friend, J. L. Rupert, vs. Consolidated Underwriters, compensation case; E. R. Scott, a minor by his father and next friend, G. R. Scott, vs. Texas Indemnity Co., compensation suit; J. Y. Adams vs. Texas Indemnity Co., compensation suit, and E. C. Brand, banking commissioner, vs. J. J. Taylor, et al, bank stock assessment case.

Building of Dam Progressing at Fairground Park

Construction of the dam at Fairground park, east of the city, is progressing rapidly with 25 men at work. The crew is expected to be increased to 50 or 60 men within the next two weeks, according to City Manager C. L. Stine.

The fence around the race track has been braced and a few men are now at work building the outside rail around the race track. Lumber for the stables is scheduled to arrive here July 15. Decision as to whether Pampa will be able to have a meet this fall will be reached soon. If the report is favorable, finishing work on the track will be started immediately, Stine said.

The dam under construction will be 1,000 feet long. It will be 50 feet wide at the top, over which a road will be built. Bottom width will range from 55 feet at the sides to 80 feet at the center. Grade is being set on both sides of the draw. A spillway will be left at the center in case of rain before finishing touches are completed.

It is estimated that a lake 2,000 feet long and 600 feet wide at the widest places will be available at completion. Deepest place will be about 15 feet.

Work is being done by WPA labor.

Legion to Meet At Hut Tonight

The regular meeting of Vulture 953 40 and 8 will be held at the Legion hut tonight at 8 o'clock.

All members are urged to be there as it is necessary to make final arrangements for the dance which the 40 and 8 is sponsoring on July 15 at the Pla-Mor. Other matters of importance will also be discussed.

CHICAGO, July 9 (AP)—Alfred H. Kirchhofer, managing editor of the Buffalo, N. Y., Evening Press, will be publicity director for this year's Republican campaign, it was announced today.

ALLRED FLAYS OIL TAX PLAN OF CANDIDATE

'VOTE BAIT,' CLAIMS GOVERNOR IN ADDRESS

LONGVIEW, July 9 (AP)—Proposals for a several hundred per cent increase in the oil tax, now being offered by one candidate for governor, were called "vote bait" and "tampering with the welfare of Texas" by Governor James V. Allred in a speech today at Danville, near Longview.

"One candidate for governor proposes an oil tax hike of 666 per cent, which he says will raise an additional $70,000,000 annually, a fantastic figure from any single tax source," Governor Allred said.

"While I have long favored and often advocated an increase in the tax on natural resources, such an increase as that would unquestionably sound the death knell of the oil industry."

"But there is nothing to be alarmed about. Any thinking citizen of this state—and I include that candidate in that class—knows that such a tax program would never be approved by the Texas legislature."

"Therefore I charge that he is not offering it seriously as a solution of our revenue problems but rather as 'vote bait' with which he hopes to catch enough votes to land him in the governor's chair."

Governor Allred stopped off at Danville en route to Palestine, where he speaks tonight in his campaign for a second term. His itinerary includes brief visits during the afternoon to Kilgore, Henderson, and Jacksonville.

He repeated his advocacy of a "reasonable increase in the oil tax, but limited in such a way as not to place Texas at a disadvantage with other states and countries in the world oil market."

"A great deal has been said of late about the fact that 85 per cent of the crude oil of Texas is consumed outside the state," the governor said. "This is not literally true. It is true that about 85 per cent of Texas crude oil, or products manufactured therefrom, is consumed outside the state, this idea is nothing new. I pointed it out in one of my messages to the legislature."

Murphy Resigns Philippine Post To Enter Race

WASHINGTON, July 9 (AP)—Frank Murphy of Detroit submitted to President Roosevelt today his resignation as high commissioner to the Philippine Islands.

Murphy announced his action to newsmen as he left the White House. He said the resignation was to be effective at the pleasure of the president, but indicated that it was submitted to clear the way for him to make the race as democratic candidate for governor of Michigan.

Murphy said he would have a definite announcement of his political plans when he reached Detroit tomorrow but withheld formal announcement until that time.

He was asked if he was resigning as Philippine commissioner in order to be available for the Michigan governorship. Murphy replied that he "would probably be available for that tomorrow."

Murphy's resignation marked one of the first major changes in the regularly established high government posts in the Roosevelt administration.

Candidates Argue State Oil Status

CORPUS CHRISTI, July 9 (AP)—William H. McDonald, candidate for state land commissioner, said in a political speech here today that the increase in oil production was actually what increased the state school fund.

"My opponent tells the people that when the Sabine river bed contract was changed, the state school fund began receiving approximately 32 per cent more money," McDonald said. "But he does not tell you that the oil companies began taking nearly 250 per cent more oil."

"The companies had to drill only five new wells (under the contract) but they drilled 100 more in their haste to obtain this priceless and irreplaceable heritage of the school children."

"The man who would call that a bargain for anybody except the oil companies no doubt would think that Esau made a good trade when he exchanged his birthright for a mess of pottage."

PAMPA TOPICS OF OUR CITY

Courts Near Completion

Topping of the two tennis courts at Central park with a new kind of material has been completed and play will be allowed on them next week. Painting of the fence and cleaning-up work is now in progress. The courts will be watched closely and if the new topping is approved, work will start on the two at Woodrow Wilson school.

Visited In Borger

Commander and Mrs. D. A. Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. I. Bradley and Mrs. O. K. Gaylor represented Pampa's Veterans of Foreign Wars and Auxiliary at a meeting of the Borger VFW post last night. They explained to the Borgerites and their wives the method of organizing an auxiliary. Action on the proposal to have an auxiliary in Borger will be taken at the next regular meeting.

Directors Meet

Directors of the Junior chamber of commerce discussed at length plans to raise money to cover the deficit from the Centennial celebration at last night's meeting in the city hall. A committee headed by Allen Hodges, with the directors as assistants, will consider plans advanced. It was voted to send a letter of thanks to Governor James V. Allred for his interest in attending the celebration. The special baseball committee, Jack Dunn chairman, was instructed to continue its efforts to work out plans for a three-way tournament.

Injured Foot

Homer Dean, employe of the Radford Grocery, received emergency treatment for a foot injury at Pampa-Jarratt hospital last night. A package he was lifting fell on the member. He was able to be taken to his home following treatment.

Undergoes Operation

Mrs. J. E. Gerber of Spearman underwent a major operation at Pampa-Jarratt hospital this morning. Her condition was favorable this afternoon. Mrs. Gerber, daughter of Judge and Mrs. E. P. Young, was given a blood transfusion Tuesday. The donor was her brother, Fred E. Young of Austin, state adjutant of the American Legion.

Amarillo Visitors

Fire Chief Ben White and Fireman Tom Eckard visited the Amarillo fire department yesterday afternoon. They studied Amarillo's equipment and discussed safety measures with the fire marshal of that city.

MADE COLONEL

AUSTIN, July 9 (AP)—Matthew S. Sloan, board chairman and president of the Missouri-Kansas-Texas railroad, today was one of the few out-of-state residents to be made a colonel on the staff of a Texas governor. At the capital, it was said Gov. James V. Allred made the appointment in recognition of Mr. Sloan's active work for growth and development of Texas. The railroad executive votes in Brooklyn, N. Y.

SQUARE DANCING IS 'SOMETHING NEW' AT COUNTRY CLUB

MEMBERS FIND INFORMAL FUN LAST EVENING

DINNER AND DANCING FOLLOW GOLF MATCHES

Square dancing was added to the entertainment program at the Country club yesterday, after the bi-weekly Scotch foursomes and a fried chicken dinner. A large group of members found even more amusement in the old-fashioned dances than in the modern steps which were also enjoyed during the evening.

Dinner was served in the clubhouse and the dancing followed. Golf games for mixed foursomes had preceded the dinner. Similar informal evenings are planned for alternate Wednesday evenings during the summer. Country club members are asked to notify Mrs. Del Love at the clubhouse if they wish to participate.

Those present yesterday were Messrs. and Mrs. Frank Carter,

Charles Thut, H. H. Hicks, Mark Heath, W. V. Jarratt, Lynn Boyd, Bert Curry, Frank Perry, Mel Davis, Clinton Henry, T. F. Smalling, Dan Williams, C. T. Hunkapillar.

Messrs and Mrs. R. J. Hagan, A. H. Doucette, Fred Callum, Howard Buckingham, John Sturgeon, Tom Rose, Ivy Duncan, E. Earl O'Keefe, W. A. Bratton; Mrs. Mary Ellen Webb, Miss Harriet Hunkapillar, Max Mahaffey, Billy Bratton, Warren Finley.

Results of the golf matches were as follows:

Mrs. Heath and Mr. Hagan lost to Mrs. Thut and Warren Finley, 3-1.

Miss Hunkapillar and Dr. Hicks won from Mrs. Hagan and Mr. Thut, 2 and 1.

Mrs. Boyd and Mr. Jarratt lost to Mrs. Hunkapillar and Mr. Heath, 2 and 1.

Mrs. Carter and Mr. Hunkapillar won from Mrs. Jarratt and Mr. Perry, 1 up.

Mrs. Hicks and Mr. Boyd lost to Mrs. Love and Mr. Carter, 1 up.

Mrs. Buckingham and Mr. Sturgeon played Mrs. Sturgeon and Mr. Buckingham, the match resulting in a tie.

New For Children's Parties

Children are always eager to have a birthday party and the grown-ups have just as much fun as the youngsters in making the preparations. On the day of the party, after the little guests have enjoyed the fun and the games are ended, it is a thrill for the children to find a gaily decorated table holding their party luncheon.

As a novel suggestion for such a decoration, the illustration shows a centerpiece of attractive flowers mixed with cellophane wrapped lollipops and stick candy. All children love both flowers and candy so the two together are a happy combination.

arrangement among the flowers. Your florist will help you select the flowers and materials or will arrange them for you if you wish. The little pottery animals that are popular now, filled with tiny growing plants, are favors that are quite different and the children will love to take them home and watch the plants grow.

Another attractive party table decoration is a menagerie of these pottery animals, which include scoties, monkeys, fawns, pigs, and even elephants. The animal containers are filled with flowers and placed about the center of the table like a circus day parade, there being one little bouquet for each person.

Veterans' Sons Are Invited to Legion Meeting

CLUB HOSTESS INCLUDES TWO BRIDGE GUESTS

Mrs. Slocum's Party For Hi-Lo Club Is at Home

Mrs. G. R. Slocum entertained Hi-Lo bridge club at her home yesterday afternoon, with Mrs. Bill Dull and Mrs. E. P. Hollingshead as added guests. Two tables were arranged for the games, decorated in pink and white.

Mrs. Hollingshead made high score for guests and Mrs. Homer Lively high for members, while Mrs. Dull received consolation. Other players were Meses Jim Sturgeon, Doug Wilson, H. L. Wallace, Weldon Wilson, and Claude McGowan.

Rose molds, angel food cake, and iced punch were served, continuing the pink and white color note.

Girl's Class in S. S. Entertained

Entertained at the home of their teacher, Mrs. John I. Bradley, yesterday afternoon, girls of the 10-year-old class of First Methodist Sunday school enjoyed an hour of games. Iced melon was served at the close of the afternoon.

Those present were Betty Culbertson, Esther June Mullins, Martha Frances Pierson, Francene Stockton, Sammy June Lanham, Jerry Nell Stinson, Nita Rose McCarty, and Donda Dodson, all members of the class.

Is potato salad a plain or fancy dish in your home?

Everybody knows the plain variety, but maybe you DON'T know what a really special dish potato salad in one of its de luxe versions can be. So good, in fact, that, once you serve it, it's certain to be requested again and again.

When it comes to making the salad, the materials may be as inexpensive or elaborate as you wish. Remember that careful seasoning is really the secret of the finest salads.

Don't Forget Onion. No matter what other vegetables are used, a suggestion of onion is imperative. However, since many persons find it difficult to digest raw onion, it's a good idea to use the juice instead of sliced or minced onion. A good trick is to add the onion juice to the dressing; the flavor will be more evenly distributed, and also exceedingly delicate. To extract onion juice, cut the onion in half and score the cut surface with a sharp knife. Press with the dull edge of the knife to force out juice.

The cooking of potatoes for salad is quite important, too. They must be perfectly done—neither overcooked nor under-cooked. If cooked in their jackets they not only retain all their food value, but stay in better shape. Let them cool thoroughly before preparing for the salad.

Sometimes potatoes are used as a filler for other materials, just as bread is used as a carrier for butter. In any event, it is the blandness of flavor that makes the potato valuable for salads.

In the following salad the potato acts as a filler. It makes an excel-

Tomorrow's Menu.

BREAKFAST: Ganteloupe, cereal, cream, broiled pan fish, rye toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON: Savory potato salad, cold boiled ham, ice-box rolls, strawberry preserves, milk, tea.

DINNER: Broiled lamb chops, rice patties, with currant jelly; green peas, tomato and lettuce salad, gooseberry tart, milk, coffee.

lent combination of protein and vegetables for a hot day.

Savory Potato Salad. Three cups diced potatoes, 2 or 3 drops onion juice, 1 cucumber, 4 small new beets, 4 hard-cooked eggs, 2 tablespoons minced parsley, 1 cup cooked salad dressing.

Dice beets while they are hot and cover with 2 tablespoons lemon juice, ½ teaspoon sugar, ¼ teaspoon salt and a few grains pepper. Let stand until ready to mix the salad. Add onion juice to salad dressing. Chop whites of eggs and put yolks through ricer. Combine potatoes, beets, drained from lemon juice, eggs and salad dressing. Mix lightly with a fork and chill for one hour in refrigerator. When ready to serve, pare and dice cucumber and add to mixture. Serve on crisp lettuce with minced parsley sprinkled over the top.

The dressing for potato salad is important, too. It should be decidedly tart and quite rich, because there is only the yolks of the eggs to supply fat calories. If oil mayonnaise is used, it's a good idea to marinate the potatoes in French dressing for an hour before combining with the other materials.

RECOGNITION

Although uniting in a decision to drop sanctions against Italy, many of the nations represented at Geneva declared they would not recognize the annexation of Ethiopia and voiced continued faith in the League of Nations.

The conquest of Ethiopia is an accomplished fact, despite Haile Selassie's commendable refusal to give up hope. Mussolini has announced that "Ethiopia is Italian" and it is not likely any nation is going to dispute him. Yet recognition is to be withheld.

If the sorry record of the League's activities in the Italo-Ethiopian debacle were not so evident, a gleam of hope might be seen in the resolution of many powers not to approve the annexation, although admitting it. There's a hint of idealism in that determination, giving rise to the hope that as long as the spirit of idealism exists it might yet be translated into action in terms of a will for peace.

In fact, Great Britain, France and Russia led the parade in declaring their faith that the League yet can be revitalized to the point of rendering high service. Unhappily, the road ahead is not clear. South American countries are reported considering withdrawing from the League; Mussolini may yet decide national honor demands Italy's retirement, and Germany, another European storm center, still remains outside. Because the outlook is so foreboding any resulting action calculated to justify the optimism expressed at Geneva will be hailed by those fearing the worst.

RELIEF OUTLOOK

A mass return of the jobless to employment is all that will avert the need of an additional 500 million dollars for relief this year.

So declares Works Progress Administrator Hopkins, as he allocated to States a total of 350 million dollars for work relief to last for an estimated six weeks.

Here is his analysis of the relief situation: At the present time, 2,293,625 persons are looking to the Federal Government for employment on "little public works," otherwise known as work relief. These are workers only and do not include their dependents.

Total rolls, including dependents and also the unemployed cared for by States, are estimated at 14 to 16 million, said to represent a slight decline from a year ago.

Drouth in the West will increase the call for relief funds, 25,000 persons from the afflicted area having already been accepted as prospective WPA employees. Estimated cost is placed at a minimum of 100 million dollars not provided for in previous budgeting.

Cold weather will bring a large increase in demand for relief outlays.

WASHINGTON BYSTANDER

By Rodney Dutcher NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—One of the chief side-shows of the presidential campaign, although many of the most important movements therein won't be visible on the surface, is a grim struggle for the speakership of the next House of Representatives.

Technically, at least, this is a contest for the Democratic floor leadership. But politicians are figuring cold-bloodedly that the poor health of Speaker William Bankhead of Alabama, former floor leader who succeeded the late Speaker Joseph W. Byrns, will not permit him to occupy the floor leadership for very long.

The candidates are Congressman Sam Rayburn of Texas, backed tacitly by the administration, and Congressman John J. O'Connor, Tammany representative from New York.

Rayburn is chairman of the House interstate commerce commission and O'Connor is chairman of the much more powerful rules committee.

Rayburn is off to a good start through his appointment as chief of the Democratic speakers' bureau for the campaign. Hard-pressed Democrats in many states will soon be beseeching him for oratorical aid and he will make many more friends in the House before the campaign is over.

O'Connor, meanwhile, has been stepping out boldly toward his goal. After the New York delegation in Philadelphia had caucused and agreed to vote for abrogation of the two-thirds rule as desired by Roosevelt, O'Connor cast his vote in the convention rules committee against abrogation. He said he had never heard of the caucus action, but it is commonly assumed that he was seeking personal support from the south.

O'Connor's friends also engineered publication in an Atlanta newspaper of an editorial saying that the south mustn't be too greedy and that the House leadership should go to a northerner. They have since been circulating copies widely.

One important aspect of the speakership is that if Roosevelt should be beaten, the House probably would still be Democratic and the speaker would be his party's most highly-placed spokesman and leader.

Talk in the state of Washington among left-wing Democrats about a vote to recall Senator Lew Schwelienbach arises from another convention incident.

The Washington delegation caucused, elected Schwelienbach to the resolutions committee, and ordered him to fight in committee for a production-for-use plank and the Townsend plan and, if unsuccessful, to carry the fight to the convention floor.

The caucus was held while the senator was making a radio speech and he felt it had been called at that time on purpose.

So Schwelienbach told his political buddies to "go take a dive" and spent most of convention week at Atlantic City. He wouldn't have minded battling for a production-for-use plank, but drew the line at embarrassing the administration by a hopeless floor fight for the Townsend plan.

"The big mouth is best for kissing," says a film cameraman. Any baby knows that, who has survived an election campaign.

We are pretty good at "handies," the new fad, but find it difficult to decide what it means when a woman waves her hand from an auto window.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD By William Ferguson

ISLE ROYALE, LARGEST ISLAND IN LAKE SUPERIOR, IS ABOUT TWICE AS FAR FROM THE STATE OF MICHIGAN AS IT IS FROM THE STATE OF MINNESOTA. YET, IT IS A PART OF MICHIGAN!

The LONGEST PERIOD THAT A TOTAL ECLIPSE OF THE SUN CAN LAST IS SEVEN MINUTES.

AMONG INSECTS THERE ARE "QUATERNARY" PARASITES... NAMELY, PARASITES THAT LIVE ON THE PARASITES OF PARASITES THAT LIVE ON OTHER PARASITES.

ISLE ROYALE is only 25 miles from the easternmost point of Minnesota, and during the severe winters of the northern country, a solid ice bridge is formed between the island and the mainland. In 1912, the ice bridge remained solid unusually long, and moose colonized the island. Today, these animals are so numerous that their presence there has become a problem.

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK, July 9. — In the welter of reasons advanced for the defeat of Joe Louis, the Negro prize fighter, by Max Baer, comes an echo of backstage drama that was whispered 35 years ago when Big Jim Jeffries was training for an important fight.

They say a sparring partner put the slug on Jeffries in a training bout witnessed only by his retinue of managers and trainers. That story has been horse laughed for years, but still it lingers.

Nevertheless, your shaky correspondent was on route to the Polo Grounds yesterday to absorb some of that 156th street sunshine when he fell in with a wag who dwells in Tudor City.

"By the way," he began, "you might be interested in this. There's a pugilist in town who drives a truck between bouts. They call him Red. I ran into him last night and he told me an amusing story. He went up to Louis' camp a week before the fight because Louis was paying sparring partners $25 to stay one round with him. He figured he could last a round, and the $25 would amount to a week's salary driving a truck. So he went up there and they let him box Louis. Well, right off the reel he hit Louis in the jaw with a right hand punch that knocked him flat. As it happened, none of the sports writers was on hand, so his trainers grabbed Louis and hauled him out of sight. Red says they asked him to keep quiet. They paid him his money on the spot."

That's the way those things come up—and just on an after-noon when you want to go to a ball game. What to do? You know very well what to do. You look fondly in the direction of the stadium, and while everybody blithely goes off to have a good time, you trudge back across town to Tudor City and begin the search for Big Red.

But Red can't be found. Red is driving that truck along any of several thousand streets in New York, and so the only thing to do is sit tight until Red comes in. Several hours later—that is, about time when visions of a thick steak begin leaping before your eyes, there's a roar of exhaust and in comes a fellow who looks just like Joe man you're after. Right.

"Well?" "Well, I seen he was carrying his left too low and I park a choppy right on his jaw. He went down. I was both scared and surprised."

"Well?" "Well, they hauled Joe into the house and told me that I had just got in a lucky punch, and that Joe just let me hit him to see if he could take it. They handed me my money and asked me to say nothing about it. This Louis wasn't the first man I've knocked down and the $25 means a lot to me. I came on home and forgot about it."

Well . . . ? Well, that's Red's story and whether you or I believe what he says is beside the point. My point is this: It may have been true, which would have accounted for Joe's bestowment when he got into the ring. Then again, it may be one of the fancy illusions that bob up to tease the minds of those who love to speculate on the "ifs" after every major upset.

P. S. That game I missed was a honey. The Giants won 3 to 2.

HOW'S your HEALTH

Edited by DR. JACO GALDSTON Marriage and Health

More than 50 years ago William Farr, the English statistician wrote: "Marriage is a healthy state. A single individual is more likely to be wrecked on his voyage than the lives joined together in matrimony."

Dr. Louis I. Dublin, statistician of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, who has analyzed the mortality rates of married and single persons, also concludes that marriage apparently is conducive to long life and good health. At any rate, married men and women live longer than do single persons, and married people register lower death rates from nearly all the important causes of death than do bachelors or spinsters.

The married person's life is better regulated with regard to sleeping hours, meals and recreation. Most husbands have a strong sense of responsibility to their families, which makes them avoid conditions likely to impair their capacity as wage-earners; they therefore shun known sources of infection and hazardous adventures.

Moreover, married couples have a solicitous regard for each other's health, which often ensures timely medical attention to conditions which, in single individuals, are likely to be ignored until the damage is beyond repair.

Death rates from individual causes such as influenza, pneumonia, tuberculosis, chronic heart disease, nephritis, cerebral hemorrhage, stomach ulcer, alcoholism, homicide and suicide, are appreciable higher among single persons particularly men.

Talks to parents

By BROOKE PETERS CHURCH Constructive Dreams

When one considers how many of the world's great poets and philosophers were solitary, self-contained children, and how many of the world's writers lived their childhood through in worlds of their own imagining, one wonders why educators and psychologists stand in such fear of the effects of solitude and day-dreams.

The modern insistence on a gregarious and active childhood, with little time or opportunity for dreaming, may prepare a child for a pleasant social life and a successful business career, but it seems to be leading toward a world without imaginative genius.

It is not what one does, but how one does it, that counts, and the same treatment is not fitted for all children. The genius will take care of himself. He is ruthless. He makes his own rules and lives by them, and nothing anyone says or does, turns him aside from his chosen road.

There are, however, borderline cases, exceptional children, who are only made wretched and stultified by the effort to force them into the accepted mold. Not all children should be sent to nursery school as soon as they are out of the cradle, or poked into camps and boarding schools when they enter the upper grades. Many children spend their idle hours weaving long continued stories, and injure no one by the practice despite what psychologists and psychiatrists say. It is the sick children—sick on body or in mind—who are taken as examples. There are hundreds of normal, healthy youngsters who do not need company all the time, and who plan the future and prepare for it with dreams. There is no need to worry about them so long as they are happy and contented. They will make the equation with life and make their dreams come true. Healthy day-dreaming is not an end in itself but a means, a dynamic force which leads to action and development.

HUBER TO SEEK REVENGE FOR BEATING BY PHILLIPS AT LEFORS SUNDAY

NEW PLAYERS TO BE THROWN AGAINST FOES

HARVEY DILBECK DUE TO TAKE MOUND FOR LEFORS

LeFors will have its first baseball game of the season on Sunday afternoon when the Phillips Oilers of LeFors play host to the Huber Blackfaces of Borger, the team they defeated in a surprise upset a week ago. Game time will be 3:30 o'clock at Shaw park, with admission 40 cents for men and 25 cents for women.

Manager Eddie Pulliam will send a switched lineup against the Blackfaces, if grapevine reports are reliable. His first baseman will be that peppery, hard-hitting Filbert, who banded out two home runs, a double and a single in Borger. On second will be Simms, a youngster secured from Oklahoma university. Fountaine will be at his usual shortstop position. Freddy Newsome, outfielder, will hold down the hot corner if information leaking from the confines of Shaw park is correct. That will throw the outfield open to Jack Baccus, Ike Lister, Eddie Bain and Bleu.

Sain, former Road Runner catcher, has been working out with the team and looking good as a fly chaser. Sain's ability to hit has never been in doubt. He should add plenty of power to the .66 team. Simms played his first game with the team in Borger and collected two hits, one a double.

Harvey Dilbeck, young brother of Rex Dilbeck, is slated to get the mound job against Huber. The left-hander has been showing marked improvement the past two weeks and is now ready for duty. Manager Pulliam may surprise the dopsters by sending Roy Winkle, little portside, to the hill. Winkler is the boy who harnessed the Road Runner attack for six innings recently.

No word comes out of Borger excepting that the Blackfaces are laying for the team that humiliated them. The LeFors crew appeared unheralded in Borger and walked off with the decision.

Physicians treating Al Summers, Road Runner second baseman, doubt if he will be able to play against the Gassers. His knee, injured in Borger last Friday, is responding to treatment but is still sore and swollen. Summers was injured when Spencer crashed in to him. The injury forced Manager Hale to switch Bailey from left field to second base and to send Poindexter to the outfield. He threw all the catching assignments over experienced players.

A youngster by the name of Clinton joined the team for a trial Tuesday. He might be used in the outfield Friday night if he shows up favorably in practice. His home is in Mount Pleasant, the town that sent Lee Daney to the Road Runners.

NORTH TEXANS ARE TROUNCED IN OKLAHOMA

(All night.)

The proud pace-making Dallas Steers limped homeward today along with their lowly fellow North Texans, the Fort Worth Flyers, both victims of beatings last night at the hands of Oklahomaans.

The Steers dropped their second straight to Tulsa, 7-5, the winners quite cannily bunching eight of their ten hits in the second and third innings to score six runs. The game lasted only eight and a half innings because both squads had to rush to catch their trains.

Fort Worth took an old-fashioned battering from Oklahoma City 17-4. Moore, pitching for the Gats, walked four men in the first inning to fill the bags and then walked another for the first run. Before the frame ended, five of the enemy had tallied. Beaumont inflicted another drubbing, smearing Galveston 11-1. Pat McLaughlin's men puzzled the Buccaneers all evening and allowed but eight well-spaced hits.

Two of the best-played games were dished up by San Antonio and Houston in a doubleheader. San Antonio took the first, 4 to 1, and dropped the second 5 to 1.

Pampa To Play Oklahoma's Leading Semi-Pro Outfit

CLUB DEFEATED EASON OILERS OF ENID TWICE

Oklahoma and Texas will meet on the baseball diamond here tomorrow night when the Phillips 66 Gassers of Oklahoma City play the Pampa Danciger Road Runners. Game time will be 8:30 o'clock.

So far this season, the Road Runners have a one game edge on teams from the Sooner state. The records show the birds with five wins against four losses. Manager Sam Hale's flock opened the season by drubbing the Ponca City Angels, entry in the Western association. Then they split a pair with the Eason Oilers in Enid. The Halliburton Cementers of Duncan took a name in Pampa but could do no better than split a pair in Duncan. The Eason Oilers played recent engagements in Pampa, winning one and losing two.

Al Jennings, manager of the Oklahoma City crew, will bring a string of sandlot stars with the sprinkling of professional players to steady the youngsters. The Gassers, undefeated in eight starts in the Oklahoma City Commercial league and with two wins over the Eason Oilers of Enid, Okla., to their credit, are said to have several boys ready for professional trials next spring.

The team boasts speed, power, youth and experience. With Selden Fant behind the plate and Jennings or E. Ketchum on the mound, the Oklahomaans have a big league battery. Mack Bolding and J. Helvey in no way weaken the staff.

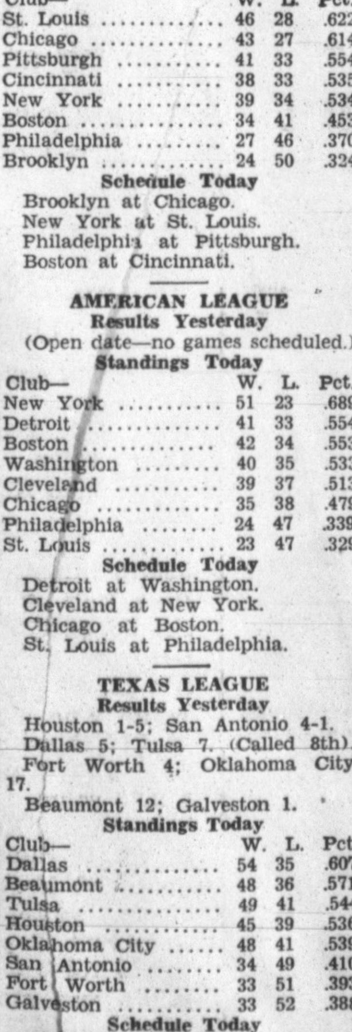

The infield has three former professionals and a sandlot star, while the outfield is controlled by three Oklahoma City youths who combine speed in the field and power at the plate to give them the starting assignments over experienced players.

Physicians treating Al Summers, Road Runner second baseman, doubt if he will be able to play against the Gassers. His knee, injured in Borger last Friday, is responding to treatment but is still sore and swollen. Summers was injured when Spencer crashed in to him. The injury forced Manager Hale to switch Bailey from left field to second base and to send Poindexter to the outfield. He threw all the catching assignments over experienced players.

A youngster by the name of Clinton joined the team for a trial Tuesday. He might be used in the outfield Friday night if he shows up favorably in practice. His home is in Mount Pleasant, the town that sent Lee Daney to the Road Runners.

PHILLIPS, COLTEXO, TEXAS COMPANY WIN LEAGUE GAMES

Despite rain, which lasted most of the day, three games were played in the Pampa Playground ball league Tuesday evening. Victories went to Phillips, Coltexo and Texas company.

The big news of the week, however, was the Texas company's 3 to 1 win over Skelly last night under the lights at the Schafer plant. The Skelly sluggers lasted only five innings before calling off the exhibition. McBride, Texas company's portside, held the slugging Skelly batters in check while Mayo was hit rather freely.

Phillips stepped to the front in the first game of the second half with a 2 to 1 victory over King Oil, winners of second place in the opening part of the schedule. LaPrade throttled the King bats effectively. Dewey was behind the plate. Pot pitched sensationally for King but his teammates failed to get him runs. Wagner was on the receiving end.

Coltexo stepped into a 5 to 3 win over Cities Service in a well played game. Weatherspoon and Maxie was the Coltexo battery with Campbell hurling for Cities Service and Sandy receiving.

Stancel and McBride had things pretty much their own way in a 14 to 7 win over Cabot, successors to the Methodists in the league. Atkins was behind the plate. Nelson went the distance for the carbon nine with Hulme receiving.

Games between Voss Cleaners and the Baptists and Skelly and the Christians were postponed because of wet grounds.

Parker Favored To Win Tourney

SPRING LAKE, N. J., July 9 (AP)—Its list of seedings intact for the fourth consecutive year, the annual bathing and tennis club invitation tournament moved into the quarter final round today with Defending Champion Frankie Parker an odds-on favorite to win the Hemphill Bowl for the fourth consecutive time.

Parker has played in the form that carried him to prominence two years ago, while Robert Riggs of Hollywood, Calif., regarded as his principal rival in the tournament, has failed to come up to expectations in his early matches.

Parker today was paired with Gardner Mulloy, of Miami, eastern intercollegiate champion, while Riggs, national clay courts titleholder, faced Samuel B. Gilpin of Philadelphia.

AMATEUR GOLF TEAM CHOSEN TO PLAY PROS

ANNUAL MATCHES WILL BE HELD JULY 26 AT HOUSTON

BY FELIX R. MCKNIGHT, Associated Press Sports Writer.
DALLAS, July 9 (AP)—The "New Deal" for Texas Amateur golf cropped up in material form for the first time today with the selection of a representative yet formidable Texas cup team to engage their professional brethren in the annual cup matches at Houston July 26.

Six cities placed players on the team as the Texas Golf association executive committee fired the inaugural shot in a new program intended to heighten interest in amateur golf.

Twelve young tournament veterans, residing at Dallas, San Antonio, Houston, Bonham, Paris, and Austin, to be captained by the veteran George B. Rotan of Houston, drew down team berths after careful consideration by the committee.

They are Jack Munger, David (Spec) Goldman, Harry Todd, O'Hara Watts, Reynolds Smith, and Don Schumacher, Dallas; Leland Hamman, Paris; W. R. Long, Jr., Austin; Billy Howell and Jack Cannon, Houston; Ed White, Bonham; and Lieut. Ken Rogers, San Antonio, army flier.

Two of the 12 named will serve as alternates in the singles and doubles matches against the Texas P. G. A. team in matches at the Brae Burn Country club of Houston. Postings will be determined after team members arrive for practice rounds.

Texas Golf association officials decided at a recent meeting to take a new hold on amateur golf. First move was to elect Frank M. Lewis, Sr., San Antonio, president of the body for a three-year term, abolishing the old one-year tenure. Executives voted to select a year-round permanent secretary, on a salaried basis, to promote interest in Texas golf.

The association is sponsoring, for the first time, the selection of the Texas cup team. The executive committee attempted, it said, in selecting the team to name a representative squad from various sections of the state.

Stars are many on the team. Smith and White are 1936 Walker cup selections; Howell was a Walker cupper and national amateur finalist in 1932; Schumacher is the reigning Texas amateur king; Munger holds the southern amateur title and Lieut. Rogers the Houston Country club invitation trophy; Goldman was a 1934 national amateur finalist and Hamman, Long, Cameron, Todd, Watts have healthy tournament records.

The professionals, headed by Willie Maguire of Houston, will select their team by a vote among themselves.

The association executive committee, also functioning under long terms, is composed of C. L. Dexter, Jr., L. E. Munger, H. L. Edwards and J. Fred Schoelkopf, Dallas; George B. Rotan, Houston; Frank M. Lewis, Sr., San Antonio; J. K. Wadley, Texarkana, and Dees McDermott and H. P. Smith, Waco.

Rotan, five times winner of the state title and member of America's first Walker cup team, declined to play on the amateur squad but accepted the duties of non-playing captain.

defeating George Cannon, 18-year-old Denver left-hander, 7 and 6, in the final match at the Lakewood Country club. By strange coincidence, King last year took the measure of Cannon's brother, Brown Cannon.

Colorado Junior Golf Champion Is Wichita Falls Lad

DENVER, July 9 (AP)—Rufus King, Wichita Falls, Texas, youngster, was Colorado junior golf champion for a second time today.

The 20-year-old star won the title for the second consecutive year by deceiving George Cannon, 18-year-old Denver left-hander, 7 and 6, in the final match at the Lakewood Country club. By strange coincidence, King last year took the measure of Cannon's brother, Brown Cannon.

Following his victory, King announced he would defend his Colorado open amateur crown here in August and would go to Omaha, Neb., to enter the Western Amateur meet there next week. He also plans to qualify in this district for the National Amateur.

LARGE CROWDS HEAR DOUGLASS SPEAK IN TOWNS OF DISTRICT

PANHANDLE, July 9. — Large crowds have heard Curtis Douglass, candidate for state senator, speak during the past 10 days. Talks were made at Childress, Memphis, Hedley, Tulsa, Dalhart and other cities last week.

Miami, Higgins and Canadian are on Douglass' schedule for this week. Wheeler, Shamrock and Wellington will be visited Saturday, Wednesday, July 14, McLean, Almarred and Mobeetie will be visited.

Douglass will invade the home city of his opponent, Senator Clint Small, in an address at 8:30 p. m., Thursday, July 16, in Amarillo. The following day he will speak in Claude.

Saturday, July 18, Douglass will visit Clarendon, Estelline, Turkey and Quitaque.

ing Belschner from his station on the pretext they wanted him to repair their automobile. The Edman was beaten, shot and robbed of $8 and his body, weighted by an automobile cylinder head, thrown into the Navidad river.

Each of the brothers tried to lay the blame for the crime on the other. They have not spoken to one another since their confinement on death row.

In granting the stay for Glenn Warren, the governor indicated he would not again interfere with the man's scheduled execution. He plainly stated the reprieve was not clemency in any form, but only a humane postponement.

Father Finnegan, Chaplain of the penitentiary, that Glenn Warren has requested a stay of execution in view of his father's tragic death last week. It seems that the son of the man whom Warren killed in turn is charged with killing Warren's father. Warren has asked for a few days in which to "pull himself together."

"I think, in view of the death of his father this request should be granted. I am, therefore, granting Glenn Warren a three week's stay of execution and hereby fix the date of his execution for Friday, July 31, 1936.

"It has been a terrible strain on me to pass on these four cases, involving human life. However, it is the law of Texas, and the governor should not interfere with verdicts of juries without sound cause."

Gray Warren, 25, was convicted of murder of E. C. Brown near Tyler by beating him over the head repeatedly with an iron bolt. The slaying occurred on New Year's eve, 1933. Two juries decided that the crime merited the extreme penalty.

After Warren's first conviction had been reversed, his second trial was held in Upshur county. It was held in the Dallas county jail for safekeeping for some time.

Mack Couple and Oscar Brown were sentenced to death in the brutal killing of Byron Belschner, Edna filling station operator, last July 12. They were tried at Refugio on a charge of venue.

An undetermined number of ranch houses in the forest near Sundance were reported to have been destroyed and several families in the path of the flames were forced to flee.

Val B. McGhee, field representative in charge of fire fighting crews, said other fires on Plum Creek in Weston county and on Stockade creek near the Custer national forest were under control, but might burn for weeks.

He estimated 8,000 acres of valuable timber and grazing land had been burned.

The condition created by the fires, he said, "was extremely serious because the grazing land was needed by livestock suffering from drought on adjacent land."

All three fires were started July 4. The one on Plum Creek started from lightning, McGhee said.

More than 750 man hours were required just to set the type and 250 were added to the mailing room staff. More than 300 extra newsboys were on duty and railroads set aside more than four times the usual amount of space for bundles of papers.

Texas Assessments Argued at Hearing

Representatives of Gray county oil concerns today were continuing arguments before the board of equalization for the Pampa independent school district, in session at the court house.

The annual session was in its third day today in an effort to arrive at district school tax valuations for the 1936 tax roll.

Board members indicated the meeting would extend into next week.

BRIDGES BLOWN UP

PARIS, July 9 (AP)—French officials said today they were informed Ethiopian warriors had blown up several bridges on the French railroad between Djibouti and Adidis Ababa. They said it was reported the line had been cut east and west of the Awash river.

RAINS REPORTED

WASHINGTON, July 9 (AP)—Reporting "some good rains" in North Dakota during the past 24 hours, the weather bureau today forecast local showers for North Dakota and northern Minnesota, northwestern Wisconsin and upper Michigan tonight or tomorrow. The bureau said showers were indicated for this afternoon or tonight in northern Indiana, northern Illinois, part of lower Michigan and south-easter Wisconsin.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, July 9. (AP)—Considerable profit taking appeared during the first half of trading, but the market absorbed this in a good manner. Prices dipped a few points, but subsequently recovered and were holding around 50 cents a bale higher near mid-session.

October sold at 12.48 and December transferred at 12.48. The July was an easy spot in the list and held at 12.89 on a few sales.

The volume of business was considerably below yesterday's active dealings but a firm undertone was apparent. Considerable buying appeared in the market from the Far East.

Speculative interests reportedly put out two long lines and there was a scattering of contracts in the market. For the most part weather conditions in the belt were normal.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, July 9. (AP)—Regaining leadership late today after being temporarily subdued by corn, the wheat market soared about 2 1/2 cents above early bottom levels.

Buices of wheat values at Winnipeg were largely responsible for renewal of strength here. Authoritative estimates were current that 10 to 12 million acres of Canadian wheat are in grave danger from prolonged drought and heat, with a good part of this acreage already far gone.

Wheat closed nervous, 1/4-1/2 above yesterday's finish, July 1.06 1/2. Sent 1.06 1/2; corn at 1 1/2 decline to 1/2 advance, Sent. 78 1/2-79, oats unchanged to 1/2 higher, and provisions varying from 2 cents setback to a rise of 10 cents.

Fischer Flays Pension System

MCKINNEY, July 9. (AP)—F. W. Fischer, candidate for governor, said in a campaign speech prepared for delivery here today it was futile to attempt to pay old age pensions "through a five cent per pint liquor tax."

"According to statements released by the state treasurer," he said, "revenue in May, an average month, aggregated only $303,000 after expense and salaries of liquor agents and pension inspectors were deducted, only $104,000 remained for the old people."

"Even under the governor's plan of paying only 30,000, or 10 percent of those I consider entitled to pensions, each pension recipient could receive only a little more than $3 monthly. The present meager handouts represent an accumulation of seven months' liquor taxes."

"It would require consumption of 3,000,000 pints of whiskey daily to pay the pension."

Col. Thompson Is Speaker at Lions Meeting

The railroad commission's oil conservation policy to prevent physical waste of Texas' oil resources and the success it has had in its campaign to increase the market demand for Texas oil were told here today by Ernest O. Thompson, chairman of the commission, in an address to the Pampa Lions club.

The oil conservation program has worked in such a manner as to bring the oil industry in the state to the most stable position in years, Thompson declared.

Texas oil producers, Thompson said, are receiving a fair price for their oil, while at the same time gasoline consumers in this state are enjoying the lowest gasoline prices in the world.

Taking the great East Texas oil field as an example, and declaring that its regulation has been the greatest problem to come before the commission since he has been a member of it, Thompson told of the commission's successful fight to overcome the chaotic conditions in the field resulting from over-production and wasteful production methods.

Col. Thompson was to speak late this afternoon at the second annual barbecue of Smith Bros. Refining Co. employees near McLean.

James Lyons, of the Pampa Daily News, was introduced today as a new member of the local Lions club.

President Arthur M. Teed, conducted his first meeting with other newly installed officers of the club and outlined some of the club's planned work for the year.

Sen. Clint Small, of Amarillo, also spoke at today's meeting and predicted increased prosperity for the Panhandle district.

FIRE DESTROYS ARMORY
OLATHE, Kas., July 9. (AP)—The National Guard armory, including four cannon, seven trucks and 5,000 rounds of ammunition, was destroyed today by a $336,000 fire that also razed the postoffice and two stores.

LATE NEWS

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 9. (AP)—Unofficial returns from all but 17 precincts in Oklahoma for the Democratic nomination of United States senator showed today that Governor E. W. Marland was leading Gomer Smith for second place by 2,842 votes. The total for 3,394 out of the 3,411 precincts gave Marland 121,332; Smith 118,490. Rep. Josh Lee led with 166,197. Gore had 91,724.

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 9. (AP)—Headquarters of Governor E. W. Marland announced here today the governor had abandoned plans to put the initiated liquor repeal-state monopoly control measure on the ballot at the July 28 run-off primary election.

NAMPA, Idaho, July 9. (AP)—Senator William E. Borah, in the first speech since he announced his candidacy for a sixth term, told 1,000 Idaho farmers today they can not expect "lasting prosperity" until "the American market for farm products is protected by an adequate tariff."

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 9. (AP)—E. W. Marland, Oklahoma's new deal governor, clinched a place in the U. S. Senatorial run-off primary today as he increased his lead of Gomer Smith, national Townsend vice-president, to 2,703 votes with but 22 precincts out.

"What a Money-Saver My Dodge Is!"

says "RUSS" OAKES, nationally known Baltimore sports writer

I was sold up to the hilt on the new 1936 Dodge long before I bought one. Now that I have one I am just bursting with enthusiasm about it.

For looks it's an eye-ful...How it handles...and what a money-saver it is! I'm getting close to 21 miles to the gallon of gas...Use no oil between drains...

...and that Dodge is just packed with expensive-car features. Think of it! It sells for just a few dollars more than the lowest-priced cars...At the rate it's going it will eventually cost no less than my old small car...No wonder Dodge sells more automobiles than any other make with the exception of the three lowest-priced cars.

FRANK LOWDEN CONFERS WITH ALF. M. LANDON

AGRICULTURAL ISSUES TO BE DISCUSSED AT TOPEKA

TOPEKA, Kas., July 9, (AP)—A veteran republican farm spokesman, Frank Lowden of Illinois, came to Kansas today to discuss farm policies in the 1936 campaign with Governor Alf M. Landon.

The day was set aside for this conference on the agricultural question. It presented to observers new evidence that the republican presidential nominee plans to emphasize the farm issue when he accepts the nomination July 23.

Lowden, a former governor of Illinois, was accompanied by Otis Glenn, former senator from that state. Also invited to sit around Landon's desk were Senator Arthur Capper of Kansas; Representative Clifford R. Hope of Kansas, ranking republican member of the house agricultural committee, and R. J. Laubengayer, Salina, Kas., publisher, who has been active in working for farm legislation.

In the legislative halls of the state capitol, business of a special session of the legislature rapidly drew near a close. Supported by Landon's republican majority, amendments to the state constitution designed to insure full Kansas participation in federal social security laws had been adopted by the senate and brought to the point of equal ballots in the house.

A band of democratic senators, with frequent references to Landon's presidential candidacy, had fought to force consideration of the prohibition and civil service questions but the republican majority in a 25 to 10 vote, clamped down a rule limiting the session's business to the social security amendments.

The first, for assistance to needy and dependents, was approved 95 to 1. A 37 to 0 vote put through the second on unemployment compensation and old age pensions. Leaders hoped to adjourn the session tonight.

Queen Will Be Selected Today At Centennial
DALLAS, July 9 (AP)—West Texas today sent 48 girls toward Dallas, where they will vie for the distinction of competing with representatives of other sections in the choice of a Texas Centennial queen.

The young women were to arrive here late tonight via motorcade. The second queen's night Friday will see them ride floats before the judges. Headliners for the event include Buddy Rogers, Tenor Allan Jones, June Knight, and Judith Lawton.

Governor Dave Scholz of Florida, leading delegations from that state, was listed as a prime notable among the visitors expected today. The day also was dedicated to Dunning teachers of Texas and the United Daughters of 1812.

Attendance yesterday climbed to 1,549,796 after a day's total of 31,437.

Georgia to Vote On September 9
ATLANTA, July 9 (AP)—The campaign for and against the New Deal is in its earnest in Georgia. Two months before the November election, Georgia Democrats will record their verdict on President Roosevelt's policies by choosing a nominee for Senator.

No political prophet expects the present hot intra-party campaign to have any appreciable effect on the November vote for Mr. Roosevelt.

For on September 9, the Democratic primary will decide whether Senator Richard B. Russell Jr. or Governor Eugene Talmadge will occupy the junior senatorship for the next six years.

The nomination is equivalent to election. Russell is a staunch champion of the President. Talmadge is an outspoken critic, but he has said he would support the nominee of the Philadelphia convention.

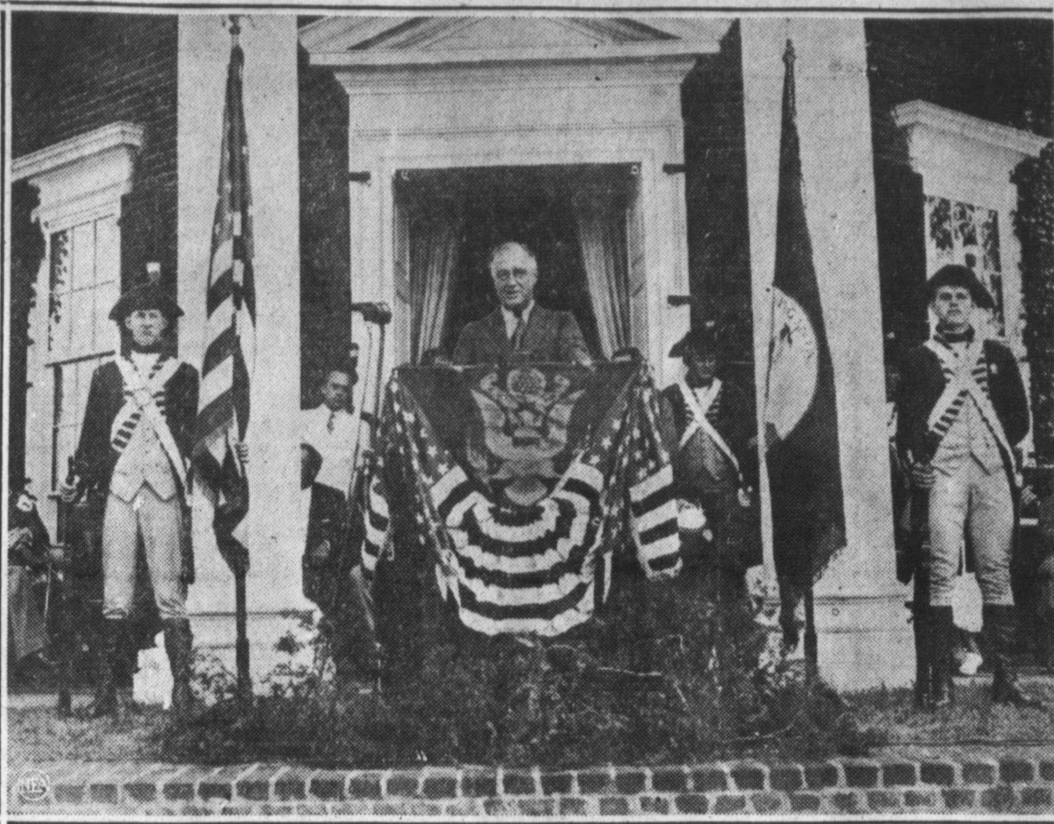

FIRE CHIEF GOES PAINTING AND CAUSES FALSE ALARM
TROY, Ohio (AP)—Fire Chief John Kessler went out with some red paint to touch up a few weather-beaten alarm boxes over the city. As he put finishing touches on box No. 27, an engine rumbled to a stop at the curb.

"Must have been too vigorous with the brush," the chief explained to his boys.

Roosevelt Invoking Freedom Ideal at Monticello

Carefully avoiding remarks that might be construed as making political capital of the occasion, President Roosevelt, in a speech delivered from the steps of Thomas Jefferson's home Monticello, near Richmond, Va., called on America to "rekindle the sacred fires" of true freedom that lighted the way of the founders of the republic.

Roosevelt is seen at the flag draped rostrum, flanked by honor guards garbed as revolutionary Minute Men. The carving, more than 200 years old, is made from mother of pearl of a quality found only in a certain shark-infested portion of the Red sea. The embossed filigree work on the frame of the carving is said to be the only specimen of such work in existence.

The carving was made 200 years ago by a young Armenian artist of a wealthy family, as a tribute to his mother. The delicate work required 27 years to complete and so great was the strain upon the artist's eyes that he became totally blind in a short time after the carving was completed. The detail of the work is so fine that even the eye-lashes of the figures are visible under a magnifying glass.

The Khan Beylan family recognized the carving as a superior work of art. They set the frame with more than a million dollar's worth of diamonds and rubies. The carving remained a priceless heirloom in the family home in a small Armenian village until 1901 when the village was sacked and left in ruins by the Turks. The carving was carried off and stripped of its jewels.

John Korenian and his sister, present owners of the carving and last members of the Khan Beylan family, scoured the art centers of Europe and Asia without finding a trace of the treasured work. In desperation they came to America and through sheer chance finally located the carving in Seattle, in the home of a wealthy, aged woman who had bought it years before in an obscure art shop in eastern Europe. She would not part with the carving, but to avoid litigation finally agreed that the Korenians should purchase the carving from her estate after her death. Thus it was recovered.

The carving was first placed on exhibition at the Century of Progress, where it was a leading attraction at that fair. As a result of the demand for its showing here, it has been secured for the Hall of Religion and will be shown during the Centennial exposition.

13 Rebel's Slain In 2 Skirmishes

MEXICO CITY, July 9 (AP)—Two sharp skirmishes between troops and rebel bands in southwest Mexico left 13 insurgents dead today.

Eight persons were killed in an encounter with soldiers at the "Vaquera" ranch near San Sebastian, Jalisco, yesterday. They were followers of the rebel leader Estanislao Vasquez, who was reported among the dead.

An engagement on Torres Hill near the San Luis Augustinos ranch in Guantnamo province which lasted for two hours resulted in death to five insurgents.

The government forces suffered no casualties. The rebels fled from the scene after the encounters, the Jalisco band leaving behind arms, ammunition and horses.

CHAPTER IX
It was late afternoon when Camilla's telephone rang again.

"She is, under padlock. Come on up. We're bursting to hear." Turning, she threw off the violet negligee and slipped her arms into a violet chiffon afternoon dress, gathered swiftly from the closet.

"Camilla, I'd have paid it—" Marcia gave a long, shuddering sigh. "Camilla, I'd have paid it—" "I know you would, And, once they had that, they would have bargained you for life. There's the door."

"Phil entered alone. "Bob will be along pretty soon. He laid out that four-fingered and got a nice sock of his own. He's having it dressed—a flusher that isn't beautiful under the eye."

"And what about this?" Camilla swung him around until a cut on his cheek was in plain sight. "The chap was wearing a diamond ring, and it scratched. Nothing much."

"You're sure Bob will be all right?" Marcia was saying. "Strange that he should be disturbed because this girl with the red hair was asking so concerningly about another man, Phil, and she felt that way about him—"

"Money. It talks. Somebody who should have kept still gave us an address and somebody there thought we were friends and went up another and pretty soon we landed at his room and we got us."

"Then what happened?" Marcia was standing in front of him, hands crossed like a child's, gray eyes wide and eager and a little frightened.

"We asked for the negatives, a nice exchange of names took place among us, and in the scrimmage—two against one, which wasn't fair to the gigolo—we found the negatives and two sets of pictures which we tore into 7000 pieces."

"When Bob came, with a bandaged eye, it was decided to go somewhere and celebrate Marcia's delivery."

"They went to Rheims in an automobile, long and swift, which Phil had rented somewhere. He drove and Camilla sat with him. From the rear seat, Marcia watched his shoulders and the profile that she glimpsed when he turned to speak to the girl at his side or to toss a remark to her and Bob. They passed the American cemetery, where dim crosses faded away into the night, and the place where the drawing room car had stood in which the Armistice was signed. They went through Compigne and Soissons, and came at last to Rheims."

Marcia became aware, during the simple dinner in the Rheims hotel, that Camilla was gazing at Bob with the adoration that girls had given him always. Camilla! Marcia caught her breath. Why? Camilla had Phil, who was everything a girl could want! Phil who built bridges and tramped the hills at night and never let people down. Golf and dancing at the country club were not important to him. They mattered to Bob. Still, if Camilla looked at Bob with such affection in her tired eyes—they were tired, Marcia admitted—Camilla might not care for a shack on a hill and a radio.

Phil looked puzzled. When he smiled at her, Marcia thought his grin half-weary and half-wisful. "Whom will you rescue tomorrow?" she asked finally to break a long silence. "You were out, both of you, in a very good cause today. What do you want for rewards?"

"Oh, we're generous members of the Round Table," Phil retorted. "We go around rescuing fair ladies and their pocketbooks for the virtuous feeling it brings. Maybe I'll help in several tournaments next week. I'm going to take a bicycle trip through the south of France."

"When did you make up your mind?" Camilla asked. "Just now. I'm getting restless. I'll be gone a week or two. Remember, young lady, I belong in the open. There are one or two ideas for that structural stunt of the boss's I'd like to get smoothed out in my mind."

"They went to the cathedral in the evening and sat very still while the candles shone far, far down the aisles, and Marcia wondered what Paris would be like without Phil. No one spoke very much on the ride home and when Phil said good night at the elevator he added goodby to the phrase.

"Goodby?" Marcia repeated. "I'll be off in the morning, before you are up. I want to get a good start. Don't let anything happen to you."

"In her room, Marcia sat by the window for a while. "Don't let anything happen to you." He might come back to Paris from his trip. He might return to America from some port along the way. He could catch a boat at Havre and escape Paris. Or he might come back and she would be gone. She must go home some time. Her parents were sweet about letting her live in Paris! Since she wasn't going to marry Bob—funny to put it in words—she had no reason for loitering."

Phil was in love with a girl whom he had followed just as Bob had followed her, she reasoned. Whether Camilla would marry him or not, did not alter the fact. She, Marcia Cunningham, had made a mess of everything and now she ought to get some sleep. But she couldn't. She put her wrap on, instead, and went down to the lobby. There was a restaurant across the street where she could get some hot milk. That would be soothing. There were a few letters in the lobby. She passed them quickly and was nearing the exit when a familiar voice caught her attention.

"Running out on us again?" She glanced up into the quizzical, smiling face of the man of whom she had been thinking when she could not go to sleep. "Just to get some milk. I couldn't sleep."

petition with the maudlin signs of the earlier evening. Phil was gay, impersonal, deferential. Marcia took the cue and laughed at trifles. At the door of the restaurant she paused. So did Phil. Camilla and Bob were sitting together at a corner table. (To Be Continued)

AROUND HOLLYWOOD

By FLORENCE THOMAS
(Editor's Note: For seven years this young woman has been private secretary and script clerk to Director W. S. Van Dyke. Sitting in today for Robbin Coons, she discusses her work.)

HOLLYWOOD—A script clerk's job apparently seems very unimportant—until something goes wrong. For instance: We were "picking up" an exterior night shot. Hundreds of extras were called and many "bit" people were on the set. Suddenly Mr. Van Dyke asks: "Did Clark Gable have the gloves on or off as he was leaving the Paradise night club when we shot it the other day?"

There's a dead silence. Clark remembers. He thinks he had them on. His valet, who usually stands by, says he was on an errand the day we shot the interior. The assistant director and the property man had been so busy that day they had not noticed it. The wardrobe man says Clark did not have the gloves. "Definitely NO!" rules the script clerk, who has to know.

Handkerchiefs A Nuisance Another item was a watch chain. Did he or did he not wear the watch chain? Handkerchiefs are always such a nuisance, too. As it is difficult to watch exactly how much of the handkerchief protruded from the pocket, and to remember whether it was worn with a particular suit, there's a worry. Clark, however, is always a "honey." Always punctual, pleasant, knows his business, likes his work, cooperates with the script clerk and—briefly—is the script clerk's delight.

No Ring For A Priest Spencer Tracy played the priest in the picture. He really acted the part of a priest, always trying to help people along, but I had to watch him to be sure he was not wearing his wrist watch or ring. He had come back from his "San Francisco" I found him quite a gentleman and a real trouper. The only trouble I had with him was over a small finger ring he usually wears. Sometimes he would forget to take it off in a scene.

CAPITOL JIGSAW

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, July 9th, (AP) — The number of marriages declined during the depression, it has been reported, but a survey shows that at the same time the number of graduate women students at the University of Texas increased.

When business apparently was at its worst the number of graduate women students reached a peak. In 1931-32, the registration was 262, and from 1933 to last year it dropped to 201.

A student commentator said it appeared "the girls" just had to have something to do.

The first Texan to lose his driver's license for false swearing has been reported to the department of public safety.

Although the law does not provide a driver will lose his license for such an offense, an official at Archer City took away the permit of a 60-year-old man because he gave the wrong name, age and address.

OUT OUR WAY

By WILLIAMS

A spokesman for Morris said the song was "dedicated to Thompson who has eschewed Morris' numerous invitations to visit any bower he happens to be holding down and debate the responsibility for the chaos in the East Texas oil fields.

Work on redecorating the governor's reception room on the second floor of the capitol is progressing slowly.

The walls have been re-painted, new lighting fixtures installed and a fine new carpet laid. A group of experts at the university have gone into a huddle over what to do about the ancient furniture. Plans are to rearrange the room exactly as it was many years ago, using a photograph taken in 1894 as a guide.

There is nothing modest or shrinking about the color of the new accident report which the drivers license statistical division of the department of public safety has sent peace officers and hospitals over the state.

In various ways, the new design to cover vital information in making reports of accidents has been changed, but probably the major change is the uniform color of flaming red.

Attaches said the brilliant hue was chosen so that officers could find the forms quickly, even in a dark cabinet.

Asleep-at-the-wheel and tire blowouts have been added to the list of causes of accidents.

SAY—WHERE WERE YOU FELLOWS, OVER AT THE NEXT RANCH? I RANG THE BELL FOUR TIMES IN THE LAST TWENTY MINUTES—YOU'RE LUCKY I DIDN'T TEAR IN AND EAT UP EVERYTHING COOKY PREPARED!

YOU MEAN YOU'RE LUCKY! WE HAIN'T NEVER SEEN THE TIME WHEN BEIN' LATE LED INTO A SHORTAGE OF FOOD ON OUR TABLE—THER'S SUMP'N THAT MAKES A FELLER QUIT WHEN HE'S HAD HIS SHARE... OR BEFORE HE'S HAD HIS FULL SHARE—GUESS WE'RE ALL JES CONSIDERATE OF THE OTHER FELLERS OR MAYBE IT'S BECAUSE—

GO ON—SAY IT—DO YOUR OWN COOKIN', SAY IT!

RIPE TOMATOES DOUBLE FOR FIRE EXTINGUISHER

MISSION, Tex. (AP)—If you need a fire extinguisher in a hurry, there's nothing quite like a few ripe tomatoes.

Local firemen responded to an alarm which reported an automobile ablaze on a highway near here. When they reached the car, they found the fire out and the motor splattered liberally with the dripping remains of a number of ripe tomatoes.

The driver explained that a farmer drove by, saw his predicament and offered the tomatoes as fire extinguishers. The men stood off and bombarded the blazing engine, putting out the fire in a few moments.

VETERAN'S $40 CHEW INTERRUPTED BY COPS

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP)—Police took a 43-year-old World War veteran who had just received his bonus money, to the station on an intoxication charge.

The desk sergeant noticed he was chewing paper. A probe produced a $40 bill and the man and two tens had become mixed with his tobacco.

DROUTH AREA DEATH TOLL REACHES 138 AS DAMAGE GROWS

FIVE MILLION ARE AFFECTED IN HUGE STRIP

LIVESTOCK PRICES GO DOWN AS CATTLE ARE SHIPPED

CHICAGO, July 9, (AP)—Death kept pace with destruction and despair in the drouth belts today as a week-long wave of intense heat blanketed the Midwest and swept east to the Atlantic coast.

Fatalities—many of them in the arid areas of the west and south—rose to 138.

No general relief was sighted. Anxiety grew as temperature records continued to topple.

The names of 52 heat and 32 drowning victims—a total of 84—were added to the 54 already on the roster of death.

J. B. Hudson, acting AAA administrator, estimated 3,000,000 to 5,000,000 persons were directly affected by the drouth.

The havoc already wrought in the nation's agricultural sections had been estimated at $300,000,000. But this was regarded by observers as an underestimate when C. A. Russell, secretary of agriculture for South Dakota, reckoned crop losses in his state alone at $140,000,000. The damage to Wyoming dry land crops was placed at $5,000,000. No new authoritative approximations were forthcoming from other states visited by greater or lesser devastation.

But reports of ruined pastures, barren fields, insect infestations and prospects of half a normal harvest on none at all came from the drouth districts.

At Washington, 171 counties were added to the 97 designated "drouth emergency counties." Government aid will be concentrated upon them. Counties in Missouri, Oklahoma, South Dakota, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia were placed on the list along with new ones in the Dakotas, Montana and Wyoming.

At Green Mountain Falls, Colo., Secretary of Agriculture Wallace advocated a long time development program for the northwest drouth states to "meet the eventual needs of the people and cost the government less money."

He also suggested a crop insurance plan and disclosed it "may be necessary to purchase as much as $30,000,000 of drouth cattle."

Livestock prices sank as distressed animals were shipped to markets by the trainload.

PLAN SPEECH-MAKING

WASHINGTON, July 9 (AP)—Under the chairmanship of Rep. Rayburn of Texas, the Democratic speakers bureau today made plans for the speech-making phase of the campaign for the New Deal. Chairman Farley of the national committee said Rayburn would call upon cabinet members, diplomats, and members of Congress to make addresses and that the program would be fully underway by Labor day.

Historic Trails Reproduced

Sections of nine historic trails of the early Southwest have been accurately reproduced around the laagoon by the Ford exhibit at the Texas Centennial Exposition in Dallas. Here a group of riders are shown on the "Chisholm Trail" section.

Rides Bull 400 Miles to Fair

Roy Franklin, who lives 400 miles from Dallas, found cheap transportation when he rode "Joe," his prize bull, to the Texas Centennial Exposition in a livestock show in the Agrarian Center.

MEANEST THIEF STEALS MEDAL OF BOY SCOUT AT CENTENNIAL

DALLAS, July 9 (AP)—It was just a little bronze medal, won by a Boy Scout who saved three lives in the Chicago stockyard fire disaster, but the thief who stole it took Michael Hickstein's most prized possession. The 16-year-old Scout wasn't worried today because he had no money, or because he sleeps in a "rump tent" on the Centennial exposition race track, but because the medal his heroism gained him two years ago was missing.

Marek Will Box John H. Lewis

CHICAGO, July 9, (AP)—A fighter whose biggest claim to recognition once was that he "beat Joe Louis" gets his big chance tomorrow night at Comiskey Park. He is Max Marek, husky Chicago battler, who meets John Henry Lewis, of Phoenix, Ariz., the world's light-heavyweight champion, in a 10-round non-title bout. Marek, who defeated Joe Louis during the "Bomber" amateur days, can hold himself into front rank of heavy-weight contenders by whipping the titleholder, but he's a long shot to turn that trick.

In Italy full fare is collected on trains for youngsters over a certain height. This relieves conductors of arguments with thrifty mothers.

LEWIS' REBELS READY TO SNUB A. F. L. LEADERS

Men Not Expected to Show Up For Hearing

WASHINGTON, July 9, (AP)—John L. Lewis' insurgents in the American Federation of Labor carried their rebellion one step further today by preparing to snub A. F. of L. leaders assembled to pass judgment on the defiant factor and its drive to organize steel employees into an industrial union.

The federation's executive council had summoned Lewis and his associates on the committee for industrial organization to appear beginning today. The Lewis group was asked to answer charges that it flouted federation policy by trying to organize the 500,000 steel workers into one big industrial union instead of into several unions divided according to crafts.

Lewis told reporters that he would not be present he said the council knew where he stood. None of the representatives of 12 unions associated with him in pushing the steel drive showed any intention of complying with the executive council's summons. Several of them informed the council they could not attend for one reason or another.

William Green, president of the A. F. of L. and spokesman for its craft union leaders, acknowledged that he did not expect any of the Lewis men to show up.

Sentiment for suspending the Lewis group of unions, said to comprise about one third of the federation's membership, was growing in the executive council, one labor leader asserted. Last week, he said, a survey showed that the council stood 9 to 6 in favor of suspension, but since then some of the six have swung over.

'Grudge' Clue Is Found in Castle Slaying Mystery

CHICAGO, July 9 (AP)—Detectives turned to a new "grudge" clue today in the slaying of Mrs. Florence Thompson Castle, 24-year-old entertainer of the North Clark street resort district, after writing off as a false lead the arrest of Edward Lynch, 31, ex-convict of the Colorado state prison. Lynch was cleared last night of any connection with the slaying, but a new train of inquiry was started by the story of Miss Helen Davis, 20, an entertainer and a friend of Mrs. Castle, that man had told her: "I'm going to slap her down. She did me a dirty trick."

Miss Davis said the man entered a tavern where she worked, a few days before the slaying and made the statement after asking for "Mickey," the victim's nickname. "Lynch was sought because he was a friend of J. W. Bolin, former husband of Mrs. Castle and a fellow inmate at the Colorado prison. The police theorized the friendship might have brought Lynch and Mrs. Castle together in Chicago.

Saves Boy's Life Twice

BEAVER FALLS, Pa. (AP)—Henry Douchet, 34-year-old railroad brakeman, saved the life of Harold Peters, 5, twice. Seeing the boy trapped on a railroad trestle, Douchet clung to the cowcatcher and pushed the boy into the river below. Then he dove from the cowcatcher and rescued the lad from the water.

DISCOUNT RATE LOWERED

PARIS, July 9 (AP)—The Bank of France lowered its discount rate today to 3 per cent from 4 per cent. The discount rate last was lowered on June 24 from 5 per cent to 4 per cent. At that time it was stated decrees against the withdrawal of capital from France had halted the outflow of gold from the bank.

FLUSH OUT 15 MILES OF KIDNEY TUBES

Medical authorities agree that your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. If you have trouble with too frequent bladder passages with scanty amount causing burning and discomfort, the 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

If kidneys don't empty 3 pints a day and so get rid of more than 3 pounds of waste, poisonous matter may develop, causing serious trouble. Don't wait. Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, which have been used successfully by millions of people for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help to flush out the 15 miles of kidney tubes. Get Doan's Pills at your druggist.

EXTRADITION OF PARKER'S SON STARTED

YOUTH COMES OUT OF HIDING, GIVES UP TO FATHER

Mt. HOLLY, N. J. July 9, (AP)—Ellis Parker, Jr., reunited with his family after three months in hiding, celebrated the second birthday of his only child, Katherine, today while New York authorities took steps to extradite him on a charge of kidnaping Paul H. Wendel.

Young Parker, a fugitive since his indictment by a Kings county (Brooklyn) grand jury, surrendered to his detective father, Ellis Parker, Sr., yesterday and was released on $500 bail.

He returned one day after Governor Harold G. Hoffman refused to extradite the senior Parker on an indictment charging conspiracy in the same crime.

The governor's action led to speculation that a similar refusal might answer attempts to remove young Parker to New York. It was recalled that Hoffman had said he would "sacrifice neither" of the Parkers to Brooklyn officials.

The 25-year old fugitive refused to say where he had been hiding since he was indicted April 23 with Harry Bleefield, Murray Bleefield, Martin Schlossman and Harry Weiss, all of Brooklyn. A subsequent indictment on June 3 named the British Defense Services Demand Budget Increases

LONDON, July 9 (AP)—Three British defense services asked parliament today to increase their budgets $98,263,500.

Supplementary estimates filed in the House of Commons asked these amounts over funds already approved for national defense:

- Air services, $58,500,000.
- Army, $30,000,000.
- Navy, $5,263,500.

In addition, an increase of $1,568,500 in the funds for munition factories was requested.

Commons began consideration of the estimates after a fresh victory for the Baldwin government last night in debate on unemployment. The conservative majority defeated 359 to 139 a motion of domestic policy which in effect was a vote of confidence. The labor resolution was designed to call attention to what was described as governmental reluctance to deal with the "grave and earnest problem of hunger and want in the midst of plenty."

Grease Gun Halts Fugitive

CANTON, O. (AP)—Dwight Spessard saw a hit-skip accident and set out in pursuit of the hit-skipper. When he caught up, the fleeing driver refused to halt. Spessard pulled a grease gun from the pocket of his car and aimed it. The driver, apparently thinking it was a sub-machine gun, halted forthwith.
