

Judge, Defense Trade Words

CHICAGO (UPI)—The judge and the defense traded heated words and a defendant played tug of war with a U.S. marshal as the Vietnam moratorium came to the courtroom in the conspiracy trial of the "Chicago Eight."

Seven of the eight defendants had hinted they might skip the Wednesday session of the trial to attend moratorium rallies elsewhere.

But they appeared and two of them, Dennis Davis and Abbie Hoffman, set up a small American flag and a large Viet Cong flag on the defense table.

A U.S. marshal moved to the table and grabbed one end of the large flag. Hoffman grabbed the other and the two started tugging for control.

The marshal won the contest but the defendants eventually folded the banner and placed it back on the table.

A third defendant, David Dellinger, then began reading the names of Vietnam casualties. He had intoned nine names when Judge Julius J. Hoffman entered the courtroom and rapped his gavel for order.

"Mr. Hoffman..." Dellinger began.

"I am Judge Hoffman to you, sir," the judge interrupted.

"I believe in equality," Dellinger replied. "That's why I call you 'mister.'"

Hoffman then noted the banners on the defense table and denounced the attempt to "display a flag of an enemy nation in this courtroom...the most outrageous courtroom conduct I have ever seen."

Dellinger asked for a moment of silence in honor of the moratorium and U.S. Attorney Thomas Foran jumped to his feet angrily, shouting an objection. At one point in the exchange he termed defense attorney William Kunstler a "mouthpiece."

The judge refused to rebuke Foran for the description, fuming, "I not only will not rule on it, I will ignore it."

Foran noticed during the outburst that the jury was present. He again objected, shouting, "Take the jury out."

Testimony finally resumed with the prosecution presenting Dwane Oklepek, a newspaper reporter who said he infiltrated the ranks of protesters during the 1968 Democratic National Convention.

Oklepek testified he heard Davis answer a demonstrator's question about tactics in the event police attempted to clear the Lincoln Park area used as a campground during convention week.

"That's easy," he quoted Davis. "We just riot."

State's High Court To Hear Airline Suit

AUSTIN (UPI)—The Texas Supreme Court said Wednesday it would hear arguments Nov. 26 in a year-long suit involving two major Texas airlines and a proposed commuter service.

The suit, filed by Braniff International and Texas International would keep Air Southwest from flying between San Antonio, Dallas-Fort Worth and Houston.

The Texas Aeronautics Commission voted 5-0 to give Air Southwest a license to start the flights before HemisFair in San Antonio last year, but an Austin district court issued an injunction preventing the flights.

The court of civil appeals upheld the district court action, but the Supreme Court agreed to hear the case on the issue the district court erred in saying there was no substantial evidence to support the Air Southwest permit.

The court also agreed to hear arguments concerning a damage suit against the Dallas City Transit Company.

The suit came about after M. C. Johnson, 41, was shot to death while riding a city bus in 1965. Johnson's mother, widow and daughter won a district court decision for $12,000 damages plus funeral expenses in 1968.

However, the trial court judge ruled there was insufficient evidence to support the jury findings and entered a judgment in favor of the city. The court of civil appeals ruled the women should get a new trial and Dallas officials appealed.

In other action Wednesday, the Supreme Court ruled in favor of Dr. Harold Eldinoff of El Paso, who escaped from the Rusk Hospital for the criminally insane while an appeal was pending on a lower court ruling declaring him sane.

Lodge Back In Paris After Consulting With President

U.S. Peace Plan Not Ready For Unveiling

PARIS (UPI) — The chief peace negotiators of the United States and North Vietnam returned to the Paris talks today from consultations at home. America's Henry Cabot Lodge said he would not close the door to the possibility of new developments at the conference.

As to prospects for something happening at the latest session, Lodge said, "Well, as the French say, it's not excluded that there might be something new."

Lodge said as he entered the 38th session of the conference he found President Nixon "very much on top of the problem of Vietnam" during the discussions in Washington.

"It's clear he (Nixon) has a plan which he's following and all the details of which he cannot divulge," Lodge said. "These are the impressions I bring back from Washington." It was the first time in seven weeks that the heads of all four delegations had been on hand for the talks.

Juan Thuy of North Vietnam was back for the first time since Sept. 3 when he left Hanoi to attend the funeral of President Ho Chi Minh. He consulted with North Vietnamese leaders for five weeks in Hanoi then stopped in Moscow and Peking en route back.

The four-way talks convened as politicians speculated on the possible effect of anti-Vietnam moratorium demonstrations in the United States.

Lodge said, "The obstacle to progress here in Paris is not the President of the United States. The obstacle to progress here in Paris is the flatly intransigent attitude of Hanoi and the (National Liberation) Front to refuse meaningful negotiations and who refuse even to have any significant

Emergency Laws Up For Okay In Czechoslovakia

PRAGUE (UPI)—Czechoslovakia's parliament convened today to formally approve emergency laws decreed two months ago setting stiff penalties for protests against Communist party policy. Passage was a mere formality.

The item was the last major piece of business before the legislators, who already have purged the nation's liberal leadership, suspended elections and annulled their protest against the August, 1968, Soviet-led invasion.

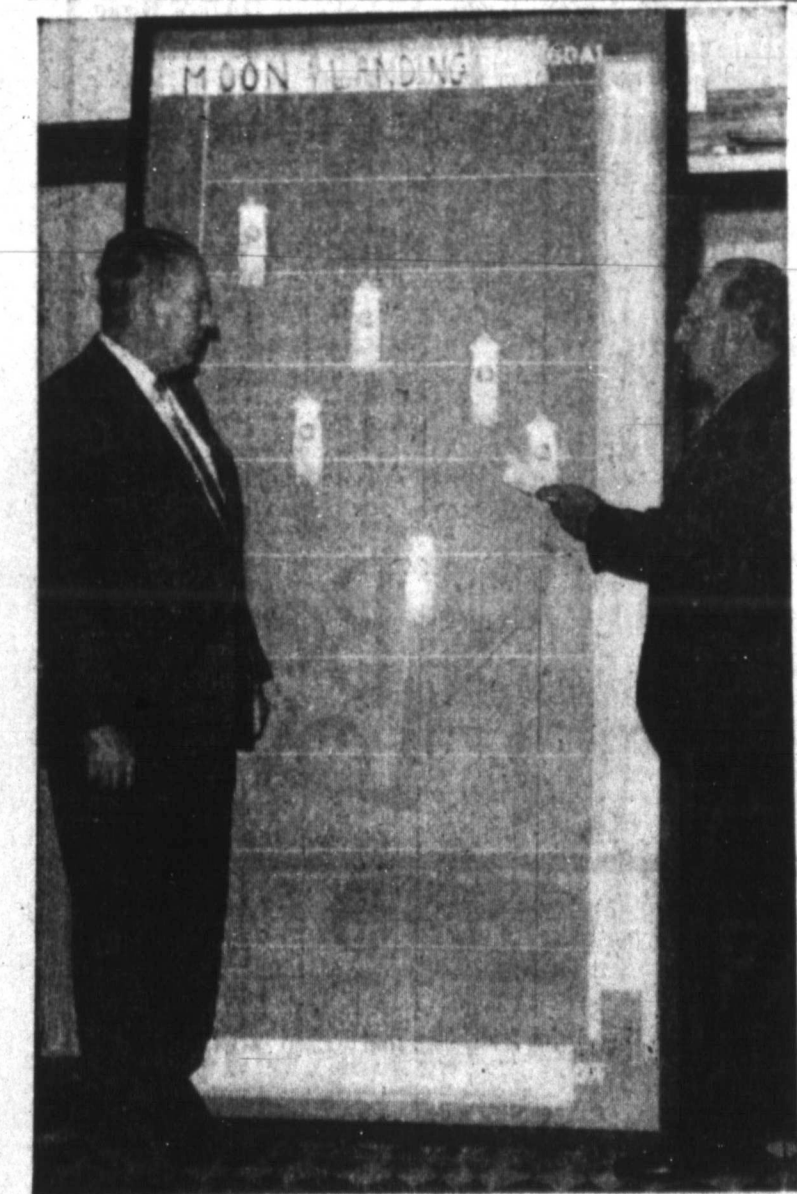

The emergency laws were announced Aug. 22, a day after the first anniversary of the invasion. The banned protest against party policy by stipulating fines, jail terms and banishment for offenders.

Wednesday the legislators accepted the resignation of Alexander Dubcek and Josef Smrkovsky, the prime movers in the country's short-lived reform movement, as leaders in parliament. Dubcek quit as chairman of the parliament and Smrkovsky as chairman of the lower house.

"Although the deputies' approval of the resignations was required to make them legal, the decision was taken by the nation's real rulers—the Communist party central committee—three weeks ago."

THE SPLENDOR of autumn is captured in all its glory these days by the chrysanthemum garden on the corner of Harvester and Duncan. Enjoying an after school stroll on the paved pathways through the miniature park are Holly McMulla, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. McMullan, 2220 Evergreen, and 18-year-old Jackie Gindorf, son of Mrs. Henry Gindorf, 2530 Aspen. The wine-colored and golden cushion mums were planted by the Pampa Garden Club and are tended by City employees. (Staff Photo)

STILL ORBITING Pampa are the various United Fund workers, who have reached 70.2 per cent of their $90,200 goal in solicitations for the city's nine participating health and welfare agencies. Pictured at "mission control" are Warren J. Beale, 2131 N. Faulkner, left, assistant UF auditor and Frank Culbertson, campaign drive chairman, who report the top two teams are Government Division with a 90 per cent collection headed by City Manager Charles Hill and Public Works Director Jiggs Cook followed closely by the Professional Division with 78 per cent "in" and headed by Donaldson and school superintendent Dr. James F. Increase In Social Security Looks Good

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Higher Social Security benefits for 25 million Americans looked like a sure bet today, but it appeared doubtful Congress would link future increases to the cost of living.

Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., whose support is essential on any tax or Social Security matter, questioned the wisdom of automatic increases.

Mills, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, which is holding hearings on higher benefits, noted Congress would be giving up some of its tax-raising powers under a cost of living proposal.

Under the Nixon administration plan, future benefit increases would be triggered automatically with a 3 per cent hike in consumer prices. Only one automatic hike a year would be approved.

But Mills, during the opening hearings Wednesday, noted there also would be automatic increases in the worker's wage base for Social Security taxes.

Without rejecting outright a cost of living plan, Mills said there had been "no precedent" for Congress voting automatic tax hikes for future years.

Nixon proposed a 10 per cent increase in Social Security benefits, effective next March, and higher taxes to pay for the raise. Under his plan the present $7,800 base of a worker's salary would jump to $9,000 in 1972, and the base would go up automatically with cost of living hikes.

Barring an unforeseen crisis, Congress appeared certain to vote higher benefits with the major question only a matter of amount and timing.

IN TEXAS, THROUGHOUT THE NATION

Thousands March In Protest Of War Policy

By United Press International

Dozens of American flags floated gently outside almost every building in downtown Harlingen. Thousands of anti-war demonstrators marched on the seat of Texas government. It was that kind of a day.

And while thousands protested the Vietnam War and thousands more protested the protesters, a stunned widow gazed at the picture of her dead son, the picture of a Marine in full battle gear.

"I can't believe it. I can't believe," Dolia Gonzales said, shaking her head.

Moments before she learned her son had been awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor for his action in Vietnam.

And blonde Ann Deatherage, whose husband is still fighting in Vietnam, pleaded with the crowd ringing the state capitol in Austin: "Don't stop this movement. Keep it up until all the husbands, all the sweet hearts, all the GIs are brought home."

It was Moratorium Day across Texas and the nation.

Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., in a telegram to a student at University of Houston, said: "I am with you in spirit. This war was legally and morally unjustified from the beginning. I have never made a statement approving it and I rejoice that the conscience of people, like a sleeping giant, is awakening and demanding disengagement in South Vietnam."

And Gov. Preston Smith said:

"While not arguing with anyone's right to hold their personal views and opinions, I think the only real purpose that can be served by the so-called moratorium is to create a false impression in the minds of the North Vietnamese leaders that the vast majority of our citizens are not willing to stand behind our leaders."

And former President Lyndon Johnson, indirectly forced out of office by those who disagreed with his Vietnam policies, spent Moratorium Day with his wife Lady Bird, reading writing and doing "normal chores."

Sixty students and faculty members at Texas Southmost College in Brownsville drank water, broke bread and prayed during a "freedom meal for peace."

Loner Charged With Killing Neighbors

PALM BAY, Fla. (UPI)—Daniel B. Thomas, a "loner and a scholar," was charged today with killing two of his neighbors and wounding two other youths in a 40-minute shooting spree that was ended by a tear gas barrage.

Two detectives were en route to Thomas house to talk to him about an August lovers lane slaying when they got word the 21-year-old college student had opened fire on his neighbors with a rifle.

Thomas finally surrendered after 30 officers from five different departments surrounded his concrete block home and lobbed tear gas canisters through the windows. Thomas was not injured.

The victims were identified as 15-year-old Michelle Smith, who lived next door to Thomas, and 21-year-old Ethner Hughes, who lived across the street.

Brevard County Sheriff Leigh Wilson identified the wounded as 18-year-old Ronald Hire and 17-year-old Felipe Medina. Hire was shot in the neck and hospitalized in fair condition. Medina was listed in serious condition.

Thomas, a senior at Florida Institute of Technology in nearby Melbourne, was charged with two counts of first degree murder and two counts of assault with intent to commit murder. He was being held in the county jail at Titusville without bond.

Wilson said no one knew what prompted the shooting spree. Thomas has refused to talk.

Wilson said Thomas had missed an afternoon appointment to talk to detectives about the Aug. 10 lovers lane slaying of George Perry Martin, Jr., 19, and Connie Ruth Ballard, 17.

"He was not a suspect in the case," Wilson said. "We just wanted to talk to him and see if he had any information that might be useful."

Soviets Applaud U.S. Anti-War Moratorium

By United Press International

The Soviets called the anti-Vietnam War moratorium in the United States the greatest peace manifestation in the nation's history. South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu said such a thing could prolong the war.

Whatever its effects, the protest against the Vietnam War reached around the world Wednesday. Antiwar groups demonstrated in London, Copenhagen, Tokyo, Ankara, Paris, Rome, Vienna, Dublin, Bogota, Buenos Aires, Mexico City, Montreal and The Hague.

Actor Paul Newman and his wife, Joanne Woodward, joined more than 200 singing, chanting students in a demonstration in front of the U.S. Embassy in London.

"If I was home I would demonstrate there," Newman said. His wife wore a medallion that said "War is Not Healthy for Children and Other Living Things."

The Soviet news agency Tass said "Millions of Americans across the country raised their voices today in a mighty chorus of protest against the continuation of the Vietnam War."

"The exact number is not known and cannot be known but clearly the demonstration exceeds any peace manifestation in the country's history. A great majority of the population is clearly fed up with the Vietnam military adventure."

Maharaja Chicken Is A Festive Main Dish

Maharaja chicken breast is an elegant change for Sunday or company dinner. It has the scent of India. The chicken breasts are coated with a curry-flavored corn meal mixture and then fried until golden and very tender.

Curry powder, as you know, is a blend of many spices. It is available in all stores. But in India it is usually made from freshly ground spices in proportion to the needs of the special dish it is to be used.

Food Questions
Q—Someone told me there's a cocoa-flavored cheese. Did you ever hear of it?
A—Cocoa-flavored cheese, cherry-flavored milk, tasty desserts made from buttermilk—these are among the new dairy products likely to be marketed in Michigan in the near future.

The products were developed by Dr. T. I. Hedrick and his associates at Michigan State University.

The cocoa-flavored cheese is just what the name implies—a cheese with a cocoa flavor. Cherry-flavored milk offers an excellent combination of two important Michigan products. Flavored buttermilk was developed to help those people who should drink buttermilk (because of stomach problems, etc.) but are not fond of the naturally flavored product.

Food Buying Guide

The following guide to the nation's food buys for the weekend was prepared by the U.S. Departments of Agriculture and Interior for UPI.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—USDA's food experts report that food shoppers this weekend will find good selections of meat and poultry and some choices in fresh vegetables and fruit in food stores and supermarkets. All areas will feature a good variety of seafood.

Broiler-fryer chickens and turkeys head the list of good meat buys. Beef continues to be abundant and shoppers should see good varieties of ground beef, roasts, steak, liver and stew meat. Smoked picnics, hams, and spareribs will be featured in some areas for weekend shoppers. The most abundant fish in all areas are Maine sardines, canned tuna, and fish sticks and portions, according to the N.S. Department of the Interior.

Fresh vegetables in best supply are onions, potatoes, cabbage, and celery. Apples, grapefruit, and grapes are the most abundant fruit.

Other foods on USDA's plentiful foods list for October are fresh pears, canned peaches, rice, and dry split peas.

The Lighter Side

By DICK WEST
 WASHINGTON (UPI) — There are presently being published in the U.S. capital about 50 newsletters that purport to give the inside slant on what is happening in Washington.
 I have long envied the authors of these newsletters because they don't have to worry about punctuation marks. They just sprinkle a few dots (...) here and there and that's about it.
 Not long ago I decided to start a newsletter of my own. After checking into the matter, I concluded the only field not already covered by a newsletter would be a newsletter for people who don't give a hoot about what is happening in Washington.
 So I herewith offer the first issue of:
 The Outsiders Newsletter
 ...Senate may vote sometime soon on Haynsworth Supreme Court nomination if it hasn't already done so...current guessing around Capitol is that nomination will be either confirmed or rejected...outcome hinges on whether majority of senators vote "yea" or "nay"..."provided nomination isn't withdrawn before it comes to vote...
 ...This year's tax reform bill appears to be in trouble...nobody is saying tax reform bill appears to be in trouble but that appraisal can be arrived at through historical perspective...tax reform bills in past have always appeared to be in trouble and this year is no different from last year...except that it's odd numbered...
 ...Economists privately admit they are puzzled over economy...but when pinned down they refuse to say why they are puzzled... Treasury sources privately acknowledge that if economists weren't puzzled they wouldn't be economists, especially in an odd-numbered year...
 ...Look for new development in Paris peace talks before first of the year if the war isn't over by then...should war continue for the rest of October negotiators may agree to change calendar to November...but end of fighting would rule out chances for progress in peace talks this year...

Inside Hollywood

By VERNON SCOTT
 UPI Hollywood Correspondent
 HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Is Hillard Elkins, producer of the mass nude play "Oh! Calcutta!" corrupting morality by opening road show engagements of the play or, as he claims, breaking down the puritan ethic?
 Whatever his motive, Elkins' prime consideration is making a buck.
 Within the next month he will open "Oh! Calcutta!" in San Francisco and Los Angeles. Other cities he plans to invade are Chicago, Detroit and Boston, Boston?
 "Well, I expect some involvement with authorities in some of these cities as we did in New York," Elkins said while preparing for the Los Angeles opening. "But the greatest thing we have going for us is that people want to see it."
 Elkins is an intelligent, heavy-lidded man with a neat beard, gray hair and a shrewd sense of public taste. He admits to having been a flaming leftist at one time and now is a devout capitalist.
 His nude play has only served to heighten his respect for free enterprise.
 "The intent of the show is to break down barriers," Elkins said. "We're slowly coming out of the Victorian Age because of the new electronic era and the proliferation of news on television. This show couldn't have been staged two years ago."

RADTKE ARRESTED

MUNICH, Germany (UPI)—Lt. Col. Wilhelm Radtke of the West German border patrol has been arrested in suspicion of ordering the World War II execution of 1,000 Russian Jews, the Munich prosecution's office said Tuesday. Radtke was a lieutenant in the German army in the war and was suspected of ordering the shootings in an area between Nikopol and Konotop in Russia in 1941.

Your Horoscope JEANE DIXON

FRIDAY, OCT. 17
YOUR BIRTHDAY FRIDAY:
The coming year brings tests of your social and emotional ties. Many close relationships tend to fade. At times you will find yourself avoiding close collaboration. Working alone is like a new hobby, particularly if you have some individual talents, as many of Friday's natives do. Balancing out, this promises to be a rather enjoyable year.

ARIES (Mar. 21-Apr. 19): — Above all, keep calm Friday against the stress of irritating conditions beyond your reach. Budget your efforts to conserve time and energy. Think matters through in the evening.

TAURUS (Apr. 20-May 20): — Give your attention to matters near at hand. Expect an increase in your spending for necessities. Steady your pace, so you will have enough left for an evening of study.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): — Discipline yourself to hold onto funds rather than to dissipate them for casual spending. Channel your enthusiasm into social doings in the evening.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): — Life is simpler if you will back up to give everybody more room to make adjustments. Round up the weekend details; you may be unable to cover them later.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): — Work loads are heavier than normal; pitch in with a mood of just-this-once. However, pace yourself to avoid fatigue. Retire early.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): — Your willingness to take chances grows. Be sure it is a well-calculated risk rather than excitement. Sentimental interests are lively with a hint of insecurity.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): — The key to Friday's results lies in how you cope with partners, competitors. Your mate takes a more detached view. Take the long view and reach for cooperation.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): — Intellectual clarity may lead you to move before others understand what you're about. Take advantage; but be sure to stay within the law. Anything mechanical tends to malfunction.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): — Your optimism and encouragement from friends leads you on a bold venture. Defer purchases of cars or heavy equipment. More favorable terms are available soon.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): — Any criticism may be too much just now. You may see any fault quite clearly, but people are sensitive. Impatience can be moderated by caution so that you get results anyway.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): — There is no reason or way to stay out of sight Friday, so do what you must, and trust that others understand. Lack of cooperation is par for the course.

PISCES (Feb. 19-Mar. 20): — Friends and associates seek to bicker, and money is the handiest subject. Do not lend yourself to dissension or spend funds to prove anything. Keep your serenity and cash.

America's Working Wives Live Double-Duty Lives For Careers

NEW YORK (UPI)—Let's hear a cheer for working wives—the 15.3 million of them who juggle home and job duties in amazing ways.

The census Bureau figures that more than one out of three wives nationwide is doing this double duty—compared with one in five in 1952.

A cheer is due since a yen to help others rather than pure greed motivates most of them. An informal survey of a cross-section of married, employed females in the New York area showed also a need for extra money—the women's husbands can't meet the double financial duties created by needy parents or alimony and child support payments.

Husband Is Disabled
Others among the women, like the middle-aged one who peddles papers by an automat near the United Nations, work because their husbands are disabled.

Almost envied by those working for funds to fill gaps were the occasional wives whose husbands can handle double or even triple financial duties.

One mother of three in this class always has had a housekeeper. She wants to be somebody rather than just earn money. "Like many in society, I am success-oriented," she said.

Most familiar in the fabric of American life were explanations from those working for the money. Some comments: —"Money—first for my needy parents and then when they died, money to help my husband meet alimony and child support payments from a previous marriage."

Pays Husband's Alimony
—"Half my salary goes to pay my husband's alimony to a woman who earns more than I do and almost as much as he does," said a disenchanting mother of a toddler. "The other half pays the housekeeper who takes care of the baby in my absence."

—"Money," says a mother of three now looking for a job to help pay for needed dental work for one child. She has no training. At best she hopes to get a job as a checkout clerk in a supermarket.

Homes that aren't always in spic and span condition bother some working wives—who cut corners in the housekeeping.

But another attitude about this was best expressed by a wife who said: —"A little dust on the table is less of a worry to me than a lot of dust on the brain."

Varietas Group Reviews '69-70 Home Decorations

Mrs. S.C. Evans presented the Varietas Study Club program recently on "The Home," as Mrs. H. Price Doster, Sr., president, presided for the meeting in Mrs. N.B. Ellis' home.

Mrs. Luther Pierson, program chairman, introduced the speaker, who discussed "New Thoughts In Home Decoration" for the American home.

She stressed decorators are "urging women to bring color into their homes this Fall. The nine new colors available make 36 colors which can be used. Purple will be the dominant color for the coming Winter season. Purple and red are both thought to provide feeling of warmth and to increase appetites."

"National exhibits this Fall will display 300,000 new housewares which could improve suggestions for home decoration." "Every home should have its bright spots, which may be the front door or windows where special color and decoration can be used," she said.

She described several new

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Our 15-year-old, Brenda, is our problem. All she thinks about are boys. Brenda is very mature for her age and has been wearing a bra since she was 14.

Last semester she failed two subjects so we sent her to summer school to make them up. Well, she had such a "groovy" summer she failed both subjects again.

This year we have laid down the law to her. Instead of letting her stay out until 11 p.m. on school nights and 1 a.m. on week-ends, we told her she has to be in the house by 10 p.m. on school nights and 12:30 on week-ends. Now she has her dates pick her up at 6:30. Isn't this too early for a girl to be going out? Brenda says since she has to be in by 11 she has to get an early start! What is your opinion?

BRENDA'S PARENTS
DEAR PARENTS: I think Brenda is getting an "early start" for an earlier finish. In my opinion, a 15-year-old should not date at all on school nights (especially if she's failing in school) and midnight is late enough for her to be out on week-ends.

DEAR ABBY: To whom does my blood belong, to my wife or to me?

I signed up to donate a pint of blood to the American Red Cross bloodmobile, and my wife found out about it and canceled my appointment. I would appreciate your opinion in this matter.

CANCELED OUT

DEAR CANCELED: Your blood belongs to you, not to your wife. And unless it's turned to "chicken soup," tell her so.

DEAR ABBY: My wife is a hopeless invalid and will be confined to an institution for the rest of her life.

I am in the middle years. My wife's oldest sister (who is still younger than I) lives about an hour's drive from me in another town. I live alone and have no children. This sister-in-law comes here once a week. She drives to town in the morning, changes the sheets, runs the vacuum and tidies up in general.

She appeals to me, as my wife did. Only she is prettier and resembles my wife in speech, mannerisms, etc. As the teen-agers would say, she "turns me on."

She is married, has children and she is very religious. I don't want to get her in trouble, and I must not get in trouble myself, but frankly, I need some loving, and I would like for this lady to be the one. What is your advice?

HURTING FOR LOVE
DEAR HURTING: Hire someone to change the sheets, run the vacuum and tidy up in general. Feeling as you do, it's only a matter of time before you get into trouble and make a fool of yourself.

DEAR ABBY: More about the mother who would not leave her teen-age son and his younger sister alone for 15 minutes for fear that the boy would take advantage of his sister. That mother may have been extreme in the 15-minute bit, but her principle is certainly sound. I am an 18-year-old boy with a younger sister, and though I love her very much, sex has never entered my mind. To me, incest is dishonorable, unfair, and disgusting.

But a point was missed. Boys are not always the aggressors as I learned from three separate girl cousins of mine. Each of these three girls at different times proposed experiences new to them, to which if I had consented would have made me the guilty offender.

Phone Company Returns Ring

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Out of one of the 30,000 bill payment envelopes which arrived the other day at Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., out came a platinum diamond ring.

"I opened the envelope and the ring just tumbled out," said Mrs. Pat Langsdorf, a clerk.

The check which accompanied the bill and ring was traced to a St. Louis customer.

The customer said she had removed her ring as she was writing checks and did not miss it until after she had mailed her payments.

To make a less-rich dessert topping, add 1 stiffly beaten egg white to 1 cup of heavy cream, whipped. Fold in 1/4 cup of sugar, either powdered or superfine for rapid dissolving. Freeze. Makes 3 cups of topping instead of the usual 2 cups from whipped cream alone.

Graininess in fudge results when the confection is beaten before it is properly cooled. To prevent sugar crystals from forming, wait until the candy temperature is 110 degrees, or when pan feels tepid to palm of hand, before beating.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—Investors do not expect a recession in 1970, but they do not look for a major recovery in the stock market until there is real progress toward peace in Vietnam, according to Paine, Webber, Jackson & Curtis. The firm says its latest quarterly survey of investor opinion shows investors "have retained their confidence in the basic strength of the economy despite a pessimistic short-term outlook." Yet, even among active investors, who believe lower interest rates and easier credit also will stimulate the market, the firm says, "the primary condition for a market turnaround is convincing evidence of progress toward peace."

"The current market appears to be stalemated in a seat of indecision and many important institutional and private traders and investors are still on the sidelines awaiting the next move of significance on the financial chessboard," says Hayden, Stone Inc. However, many stocks now appear deeply oversold and undervalued and others have "probably already reached their lows for this year," and a more aggressive, though still selective, buying policy seems justified "during any and all periods of price irregularity," the firm says.

Standard & Poor's Corp. observes that the market is currently mixed, with a number of specialties forging ahead. "The advance in the more glamorous stocks may prove to have sapped some of their potential in a general market recovery," the firm cautions. The less cyclical growth issues still may be counted on to outperform most cyclical market leaders over any lengthy period, the firm adds.

In 1966, a coal waste slide buried the Welsh mining town of Aberfan. Two days later, 135 bodies had been found.

In 1967, Egypt sank the Israeli destroyer Elath in the Mediterranean.

Washington Window

WASHINGTON (UPI)—After the recent UPI conference of newspaper editors and publishers (Edicon) in Bermuda, an editor observed that aside from a few strictly social occasions, the speeches and panel discussions had, for the most part, dealt with trouble—past, present and future.

Walter Cronkite spoke of encroachments on the fluidity and freedom of his medium, television, to report news as it actually is, wars and all. Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell strongly criticized Congress for taking no action thus far on at least 20 administration anti-crime bills. Mitchell suggested the press could help curb crime in the streets by pressuring Congress to act.

The British ambassador to Washington, John Freeman, said the United States should be cautious about assuming "automatic commitments" to come to the defense of allies all over the world. He did not, however, feel the same way about Europe, the nuclear defense of which he thought should remain an iron-clad, unswerving American position.

Other experts in journalism, as well as government looked at such matters as dissent, campus unrest and what to expect of the 1970s. And almost uniformly, the discussions, opinions and forecasts could be summed up in one word—trouble.

These were the thoughts of men and women largely responsible for information on which the public bases opinion.

Interestingly enough, although it seldom hardened to this point in public panels and speeches, these are much the same problems facing President Nixon in his every waking moment.

Furthermore, there is reason to believe that had Hubert H. Humphrey, Democratic vice president in the Johnson administration, been elected over Nixon last November, that he, too, would be facing essentially the same problems confronting Nixon today.

It would seem that Nixon's problems are pretty much the problems of us all—not only coping with constant crisis, but learning to live with it as an ever-present factor in this latter third of the 20th century—and living with it without panic.

MS Silver Tea Garners Over $100

A little over $100 was collected Saturday for the Greater Plains Muscular Dystrophy Association at a Silver Tea hosted by the Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority in the home of Mrs. Elbert Walker, 1812 Evergreen.

A door-to-door campaign is planned for Oct. 20 in Pampa to collect funds to be used in research and the care of MS patients.
